Shapiro testified today at a hearing by which Miss Coplon and Gubichev are trying to escape trial on spy conspiracy charges.

Questioned by Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan, Shapiro denied that his relationship with Miss Coplon was instigated or supervised by the FBI or any other law-enforcement agency.

Went To Whearty

He likewise denied that he had acted "in an endeavor to entrap Miss Coplon to engage in any criminal enterprise."

Shapiro testified that he went to see Raymond P. Whearty, then head of the Department of Justice Criminal Division, as soon as he heard that Miss Coplon and Gubitchev were arrested in New York last March 4.

"I felt it was my duty," Shapiro said, adding that he was a friend of Miss Coplon's.

"Are you still a friend of hers?" Palmer asked.

"I don't hate her," the witness replied.

Shapiro said he didn't know at the time that Miss Coplon's telephone wires had been tapped but came to suspect later that the FBI learned of his association with Miss Coplon through wire-tapping.

Charges Tampering

Before he took the stand today, Palmer charged that "something happened" to make FBI recordings of Miss Coplon's phone conversations unintelligible.

Coplon Motion Rejected By Supreme Court

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Supreme Court today rejected a legal move by Judith Coplon to win a new espionage trial here.

She claimed the FBI tapped her telephone wires to get evidence on which she was convicted in United States District Court here last June. She said use of such evidence is improper in Federal courts and, therefore, she should have a new trial.

Miss Coplon, a former Justice Department employé, was convicted of giving secret documents to a Russian. She was sentenced to 40 months to ten years, but is free under $20,000 bail.

Separate espionage conspiracy charges were filed in New York against Miss Coplon and the Russian, Valentin A. Gubitchev. In hearings leading up to the trial of these separate charges FBI agents admitted tapping her phones.

She then appealed to the Supreme Court, citing the wiretapping admission and urging that her June conviction be set aside.

Miss Coplon's petition to the Supreme Court said an attempt was made during her trial here to establish that her wires had been

Defense Caught By Surprise Ending Of Testimony

San Francisco, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Government abruptly closed its perjury case against Harry Bridges, longshore union leader, today, catching the defense lawyers completely off balance.

"I thought we'd have another two weeks at least," spluttered vociferous Vincent Hallinan, chief of defense counsel. "Is this a fair way to be treated by the United States Government?"

The sudden announcement of F. Joseph Donohue, chief prosecutor, came as the fourteenth prosecution witness left the stand, after minor testimony regarding immigration department records.

The trial is in its ninth calendar

Alleged Spy Activities In Hawaii To Be Probed

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee will send a subcommittee to Hawaii to look into allegedly subversive activities there.

The committee decided to do this today. It adopted a resolution saying the Hawaiian Legislature had asked for an inquiry.

"Certain preliminary investigation" has been conducted by the committee staff "relating to subversive organizations and activities in the Territory of Hawaii," the resolution said.

"Further investigation of the said alleged subversive organizations and activities is warranted," it went on.

Group Will Go To Hawaii

Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) was authorized to name members of the Hawaiian subcommittee.

The subcommittee will conduct hearings "regarding the extent, character and objects of alleged un-American propaganda activities, and all other questions relating thereto, that would aid Congress in necessary remedial legislation."

General Pays Claim And Leaves Nanking

By the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—The Chinese Communist radio reported today settlement of a three-month-old pay dispute involving employees of the club of the former U.S. embassy in Nanking.

This was the dispute which Secretary of State Dean Acheson said last October was being used by the Reds as a "flimsy pretext" to prevent Brig. Gen. Robert H. Soule, U.S. military attache, from leaving.

But an FBI agent, Lynn Bedford, said flatly: "I've never attempted to mutilate or destroy or try to erase a conversation which appeared on a disk."

Palmer told Judge Ryan that the disk recording "could not be in the condition they are now if someone didn't touch them."

closures at the pretrial hearing here merited a reopening of the Washington case.

Adjourning court for the day, Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan said the actual trial might begin next week if he does not throw out the case.

Lawyer Denies FBI Urged Trysts With Judith Coplon

JAN 16 1950

New York, Jan. 16 (AP)—A Washington lawyer testified today that his hotel trysts with pretty Judith Coplon were not inspired by the FBI.

The pretrial witness, Attorney Harold P. Shapiro, said he had no part in any scheme "to entrap Miss Coplon in any criminal enterprise."

They were friends when they both worked in the Justice Department, added the witness, but the FBI had nothing to do with their relationship.

Miss Coplon admitted spending two nights in hotel rooms with Shapiro. But she said nothing immoral happened.

Trial Delayed 6 Weeks

The Brooklyn-born former Government girl is accused here of conspiring with Valentin A. Gubitchev, a Russian engineer, to transmit American secrets to Moscow.

Their trial has been delayed nearly six weeks while the defense asked dismissal of the charges on ground the FBI's case against Miss Coplon and Gubitchev is based solely on evidence obtained by wire-tapping. Such evidence may not be used in a Federal court.

The FBI admitted tapping the phones of Gubitchev and Miss Coplon, but the bureau said this was incidental and that it has plenty of other evidence against the pair.

Convicted Last Summer

The defense also charged that Shapiro and others were used by the FBI to lure Miss Coplon into a position where she could be accused of a crime.

Shapiro did not testify at a Washington trial last summer when Miss Coplon was convicted of stealing Government secrets. She is appealing a prison sentence there.

However, the United States Supreme Court today refused to let her use its machinery in an effort to force the Government into a new Washington trial. Through her attorney, she had argued that the wire-tap dis-

DEFENSE RESTS IN HISS TRIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 16—(AP) The defense in the second perjury trial of Alger Hiss rested today.

"The defense has concluded its evidence," said Attorney Claude B. Gross as his 54th and final witness stepped down.

At once, Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy came forward to begin rebuttal testimony. He put a series of witnesses on before court adjourned for the day.

With the burden of the defense testimony finally out of the way, the trial was expected to reach a rapid conclusion — perhaps later this week.

A jury of eight women and four men have been hearing evidence during 36 court days since last Nov. 17.

Hiss, former State Department official, is accused of lying when he denied ever giving government secrets to Whittaker Chambers for a prewar Soviet spy ring.

His first trial ended in a hung jury last July.

Boycott Of U.N. Units By Russ Bloc Spreads

Lake Success, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Soviet bloc staged a general walkout in three United Nations meetings today in protest against the continued presence of Chinese Nationalists.

The Russian-led group also kept up its boycott of the year-around Little Assembly where the Nationalists charge that Russia helped the Chinese Reds to power.

The Czechoslovak delegate, Vladimir Houdek, said the boycott would prevail in all United Nations bodies.

The committees first affected in the new boycotts were the only ones in session during the forenoon. They are the Economic and Social Council's committee on procedure, the subcommission on the prevention of discrimination and the protection of minorities, and the special committee on stateless persons.

Pattern Is Repeated

In each case, the pattern was the same. The Soviet delegate first proposed that the Chinese delegate be expelled. Each chairman ruled that the proposal was out of order. The Soviet representatives then announced that they would ignore the committees until the Chinese Nationalists were removed.

In one committee, Czechoslovakia walked out with Russia. In the other two, Poland joined the march from the meetings. These were the only Soviet bloc countries represented.

The Russian delegation walked out of the Security Council last Friday and announced it would not return as long as the Chinese Nationalists sat at the table.

Little Assembly Boycott

The Soviet bloc, meanwhile, continued its two-year boycott of the year-around Little Assembly, where T. F. Tsiang, Chinese Nationalist delegate, was ready to renew his demands that Russia be indicted for aiding the Chinese Communists.

This was the first 1950 meeting of the Little Assembly.

The Russians and satellites never have attended the Little Assembly since it was created in 1947 at the suggestion of George C. Marshall, then the United States Secretary of State. They contend it violates the United Nations charter by cutting in on the jurisdiction of the Security Council.

Yugoslavs Stay Out

Joao Carlos Muniz, Brazilian delegate, was elected chairman of the Little Assembly. Abdur Rahim Khan, of Pakistan was chosen vice-chairman and Joseph Nisot, of Belgium, was named rapporteur.

The Little Assembly adjourned after the election of officers and left it up to the chairman to decide when the next meeting will be held.

T. F. Tsiang, Chinese delegate, agreed to this after first suggesting that the delegates begin debate Friday on his charges of Soviet aggression against China.

Countries Involved

The Eastern European diplomats involved in this morning's walkouts are: In the committee on stateless persons—N. I. Klimov, of Russia, and Alexander Rudzinski, of Poland; in the subcommission on discrimination—V. I. Formashev, of Russia, and Ambassador Joseph Winiewicz, of Poland; in the committee on procedure—Ivan Kaminev, of Russia, and Vladimir Houdek, of Czechoslovakia. A BD

FINNISH ELECTION
BY ANN MARIE SNELLMAN

HELSINKI, FINLAND, JAN. 16-(AP)-FINLAND'S AGED PRESIDENT JUHO K. PAASIKIVI FACED A STIFF RE-ELECTION FIGHT TODAY AS RUSSIA'S LITTLE NEIGHBOR BEGAN VOTING FOR A TOP MAN.

THE FINNS TODAY AND TOMORROW BALLOT FOR 300 ELECTORS WHO MEET FEB. 15 TO CHOOSE A PRESIDENT. HE WILL SERVE FOR SIX YEARS. AS OFFICIAL CANDIDATE OF A MAJORITY CONSERVATIVE-LIBERAL COALITION, 79-YEAR-OLD PAASIKIVI IS EXPECTED TO WIN BY A NARROW MARGIN.

BUT A SPLIT IN THE RANKS OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, ONE PARTY OF HIS SUPPORTING COALITION, AND MOSCOW-BACKED COMMUNIST OPPOSITION MADE THE INCUMBENT PRESIDENT'S POSITION PRECARIOUS.

IN THE BACKGROUND IS THE SOVIET UNION'S ACCUSATION THAT FINLAND IS HARBORING 300 PERSONS WANTED BY RUSSIA AS WAR CRIMINALS AND DEMANDING EXTRADITION.

PREMIER KARL A.FAGERHOLM SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAS NOT YET DISCUSSED THE FINNISH REPLY TO THE SOVIET NOTE OF DEC. 31, AND THAT ANY SPECULATION THAT FINLAND ALREADY REPLIED ONE WAY OR ANOTHER TO THE SOVIET CLAIM IS "COMPLETELY WITHOUT FOUNDATION." HE SAID THE GOVERNMENT'S FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE MEETS TOMORROW TO DISCUSS A REPLY WHICH MIGHT BE SENT TO MOSCOW A FEW DAYS LATER.

THE CANDIDATES ARE:

1. PAASIKIVI -- A CONSERVATIVE INDEPENDENT, PRESIDENT SINCE HE WAS ELECTED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES MARCH 9, 1946, CHIEF FINNISH DELEGATE FOR PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH RUSSIA IN 1940 AND 1944, CANDIDATE OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT PARTY, THE CONSERVATIVES, LIBERAL SWEDISH PARTY AND THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY.
2. FORMER PREMIER MAUNO PEKKALA, CANDIDATE OF THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED POPULAR DEMOCRATS WHOSE CAUSE HAS BEEN ESPOUSED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S OFFICIAL ORGAN IZVESTIA AND MOSCOW'S LITERARY GAZETTE.
3. DR. URHO KEKKONEN, SPEAKER OF PARLIAMENT, CANDIDATE OF THE STRONG AGRARIAN PARTY.

PAASIKIVI'S NEW YEAR MESSAGE DECLARED "THERE MUST BE NO ENEMIES OF THE SOVIET UNION IN FINLAND, ONLY FRIENDS." BUT THE MOSCOW LITERARY GAZETTE SATURDAY CALLED HIM A REACTIONARY WHO WANTED TO BRING FINLAND INTO THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

THE FOUR-PARTY COALITION BACKING PAASIKIVI HOLDS 108 OF THE 200 SEATS IN THE FINNISH PARLIAMENT ELECTED IN JULY, 1948. THAT WOULD APPEAR TO GUARANTEE HIM 160 OF THE 300 ELECTORAL VOTES, A MAJORITY ON THE FIRST BALLOT.

A7

THE SPLIT IN THE SOCIAL DEMOCRAT RANKS WAS SIGNALLED, HOWEVER, BY A STATEMENT FROM THE PROMINENT SOCIALIST, VAINOE TANNER, THAT PAASIKI WAS NOT THE SOCIAL DEMOCRAT PARTY'S CANDIDATE.

IN MOSCOW IZVESTIA SAID FINNISH "REACTIONARY PARTIES" SECRETLY WERE READYING ANOTHER PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FROM THE TANNER FACTION IF PAASIKIVI "FOR SOME REASON IS UNSATISFACTORY TO THEM."

THE ELECTORS COULD SWING TO A DARK HORSE CHOICE SHOULD ONE OF THE THREE NOMINEES NOT WIN A MAJORITY ON THE FIRST ELECTORAL BALLOT. IN THAT EVENT THE FINNISH LAW PERMITS EACH ELECTOR TO VOTE WITHOUT REGARD TO PARTY COMMITMENT ON LATER BALLOTS.

THE ELECTION WILL BRING FINLAND'S MILITARY HERO, MARSHAL GUSTAV MANNERHEIM, BACK FROM SWITZERLAND TO VOTE. THE AGED AND AILING MARSHAL, WHO LED THE FINNS DURING TWO YEARS OF WAR WITH RUSSIA AND LATER SERVED AS PRESIDENT, RETURNS TOMORROW TO CAST HIS BALLOT.

PAASIKIVI WAS ELECTED PRESIDENT AFTER MANNERHEIM RESIGNED BECAUSE OF ILL HEALTH.

FOLLOWING THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION, THE GOVERNMENT HEADED BY SOCIAL DEMOCRAT PREMIER KARL-AUGUST FAGERHOLM IS SCHEDULED TO RESIGN IN ACCORDANCE WITH FINLAND'S CONSTITUTION. THE GOVERNMENT LAST THURSDAY WON ITS FIFTH VOTE OF CONFIDENCE SINCE IT TOOK OFFICE A YEAR AND A HALF AGO. THE LATEST VOTE CAME OVER ITS DECISION TO GRANT A 7.5 PER CENT GENERAL WAGE INCREASE.

SJ250AES

THE BALLOTING BY SOME 2,500,000 REGISTERED VOTERS IS EXPECTED TO BE HEAVIER THAN IN 1937, WHEN THE LAST REGULAR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION WAS HELD. AT THAT TIME, 66.6 PERCENT OF THE REGISTERED CITY VOTERS WENT TO THE POLLS, WHILE THE RURAL PERCENTAGE WAS 65.5.

RESULTS OF THE TWO-DAY VOTING ARE NOT EXPECTED UNTIL WEDNESDAY MORNING.

NICOSIA, CYPRUS, JAN.16-(AP)-THOUSANDS OF CYPRUS RESIDENTS VOTED YESTERDAY ON AN UNOFFICIAL PROPOSAL TO DROP THIS MEDITERRANEAN ISLAND'S ROLE AS A BRITISH COLONY AND UNITE WITH GREECE.

THE PLEBESCITE, WHOSE RESULTS WILL BE ANNOUNCED JAN.29, WAS CONDUCTED BY THE GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH. THE BRITISH, WHO HAVE RULED CYPRUS SINCE 1879, REFUSED TO RECOGNIZE THE VOTING BUT MADE NO EFFORT TO STOP THE POLLING.

ABOUT 80 PER CENT OF THE 500,000 RESIDENTS OF CYPRUS ARE GREEKS. TWO YEARS AGO THE GREEK PARLIAMENT UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED A RESOLUTION APPEALING TO THE BRITISH TO PERMIT UNION OF CYPRUS WITH GREECE.

COMMUNISTS, WHO HAVE AGITATED FOR SELF-GOVERNMENT IN THE HOPE OF SWINGING THE STRATEGIC ISLAND INTO THE SOVIET SPHERE, DROPPED THEIR OWN PLANS FOR A PLEBESCITE AND COOPERATED IN THE CHURCH POLL.

IN GREECE, SPECIAL PRAYERS WERE RECITED IN EVERY GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH YESTERDAY FOR UNION WITH CYPRUS.

BY SEYMOUR TOPPING.

HONG KONG, TUESDAY, JAN 17-(AP)-A CANADIAN BLOCKADE RUNNER DOCKED TODAY WITH THE FIRST EVIDENCE THAT CHINESE NATIONALISTS HAVE MINED THE SEA APPROACHES TO COMMUNIST SHANGHAI.

CAPT. A.J. WRIGHT OF THE STEAMSHIP LAKE CANIM SAID HE SAW THREE NATIONALIST WARSHIPS--ONE LOADED WITH MINES--ENTER THE MAIN CHANNEL OF THE YANGTZE RIVER DEC. 24 AND BEGIN LAYING MINES. HE ADDED:

"WE DID NOT WAIT LONG ENOUGH FOR THE SHIPS TO COME OUT AGAIN, BUT I HAVE ABSOLUTELY NO DOUBT THAT THE MAIN CHANNEL TO SHANGHAI IS MINED EFFECTIVELY."

THERE HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLE SPECULATION IN SHIPPING CIRCLES WHETHER THE NATIONALISTS ACTUALLY HAD MINED THE CHANNEL AS THEY REPORTED. SOME DOUBTED THEY HAD PROPER EQUIPMENT FOR PLUGGING THE RIVER FOR A LONG PERIOD OF TIME.

THE NATIONALISTS ANNOUNCED THEY HAD COMPLETED MINING OF THE YANGTZE MOUTH JUST BEFORE THE AMERICAN FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW TRIED TO GO TO SHANGHAI JAN. 9. NATIONALIST WARSHIPS SHELLED HER IN INTERNATIONAL WATERS OFF THE YANGTZE MOUTH AND DAMAGED HER. SHE WENT TO COMMUNIST TSINGTAO INSTEAD.

THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT SAID THE FLYING ARROW WAS FIRED UPON TO PREVENT ITS ENTERING THE YANGTZE AND PROBABLY BEING SUNK BY MINES.

THE LAKE CANIM IS THE FIRST CANADIAN SHIP TO RUN THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE OF THE RED CHINA COAST.

SHE MADE THREE EFFORTS BEFORE DEC. 24 TO SLIP INTO SHANGHAI. EACH TIME NATIONALIST WARSHIPS FORCED HER RETURN.

THE LAKE CANIM FINALLY DISCHARGED HER 4,500 TONS OF CARGO AT TSINGTAO, ABOUT 350 MILES NORTH OF SHANGHAI.

WRIGHT SAID HE BELIEVES THE NATIONALISTS SOON WILL MINE THE ENTRANCE TO TSINGTAO.

THE COMMUNISTS INDICATED THEY DO NOT WANT FOREIGN VESSELS TO TRADE WITH THEM, THE LAKE CANIM'S MASTER SAID.

WRIGHT SAID HE TOLD ONE RED OFFICIAL AT TSINGTAO THAT IF THE COMMUNISTS WANTED SHIPS TO BRING CARGOES TO SHANGHAI, COMMUNIST ARTILLERY BATTERIES ON THE YANGTZE SHORE COULD FIRE UPON PURSUING NATIONALIST WARSHIPS.

"THIS OFFICIAL, WHO SPOKE PERFECT ENGLISH, TOLD ME THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT DID NOT WANT FOREIGN SHIPS TO GO TO SHANGHAI AND DID NOT ESPECIALLY CARE FOR THEM TO TRADE WITH CHINA AT ALL."

TAIPEI, JAN. 16-(AP)-AN ARTILLERY DUEL BETWEEN COMMUNIST TROOPS IN SWATOW AND NATIONALIST CHINESE ON NAMOA ISLAND WAS REPORTED TODAY BY THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE MINISTRY.

SWATOW IS A PORT CITY ABOUT 100 MILES NORTHWEST OF BRITISH HONG KONG AND 125 MILES WEST OF THE SOUTHERN TIP OF FORMOSA.

THE MINISTRY DID NOT MENTION GROUND FIGHTING ON NAMOA ISLAND WHERE THE COMMUNISTS HAVE ESTABLISHED A BEACHHEAD.

THE MINISTRY SAID NATIONALISTS ON LINTING ISLAND, NEAR NAMOA, BROKE UP AN ATTEMPTED LANDING BY ABOUT 3,000 REDS. THE COMMUNISTS MADE THE ASSAULT IN FISHING BOATS.

NATIONALISTS REPORTED THEIR WARPLANES AND SHIPS ATTACKED AND SANK MANY TROOP LADEN COMMUNIST JUNKS ALONG THE LUICHOW PENINSULA WHERE THE COMMUNISTS ARE MASSING FORCES FOR AN ATTACK ON HAINAN ISLAND, OFF THE SOUTH CHINA COAST.

MEANWHILE, U.S. ROVING AMBASSADOR PHILIP JESSUP, CONFERRED FOR 90 MINUTES WITH GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK ON GRASS MOUNTAIN OUTSIDE OF TAIPEI, NATIONALIST CAPITAL.

MADAME CHIANG ENTERTAINED MRS. JESSUP AT TEA DURING THE CONFERENCE.

CHIANG IS BELIEVED TO HAVE TOLD DR. JESSUP HE COULD HOLD FORMOSA WITH LIMITED AID AND APPEALED FOR ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION FUNDS TO STABILIZE THE ISLAND'S ECONOMY.

JESSUP IS SCHEDULED TO FLY TO HONG KONG TOMORROW. HE INTENDS TO VISIT MANILA, SINGAPORE, RANGOON AND OTHER POINTS IN THE ORIENT BEFORE GOING TO A FAR EAST DIPLOMATS CONFERENCE AT BANGKOK ON FEB. 13.

OFFICIAL DISPATCHES SAID 100 PLANES PARTICIPATED IN THE ATTACK ON LUICHOW PENINSULA.

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, JAN.16-(AP)-THE INDEPENDENT MORNING HERALD TODAY ASSAILED AUSTRALIA'S POLICY IN TRYING JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS AS A POOR EXAMPLE OF "DEMOCRATIC JUSTICE."

"WITH THE POSSIBLE EXCEPTION OF RUSSIA, WHICH PERIODICALLY PULLS SOME WRETCHED JAPANESE GENERAL OUT OF THE BAG," THE HERALD DECLARED, "AUSTRALIA IS THE ONLY COUNTRY CONCERNED WHICH HAS NOT COMPLETED ITS PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ALLEGED JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS.

"THIS IS INEXCUSABLE ENOUGH," THE PAPER ADDED, "BUT THE REPORT THAT 200 MORE JAPANESE ARE TO BE ARRESTED FOR TRIAL MUST CAUSE SERIOUS DISQUIET.

"IT IS WELL OVER FOUR YEARS SINCE THE WAR ENDED. YET, NOT ONLY HAVE SOME JAPANESE BEEN KEPT IN PRISON AWAITING TRIAL FOR MOST OF THAT PERIOD, BUT IT HAS APPARENTLY TAKEN OUR WAR CRIMES INVESTIGATORS THE WHOLE OF IT TO FIND OUT THAT A COUPLE OF HUNDRED OTHERS ARE 'WANTED.'

CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA, JAN. 16-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER ROBERT MENZIES SAID TODAY THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE, WHICH JUST ENDED IN CEYLON, HAS PUT FORTH SOME VITAL SUGGESTIONS FOR THE FUTURE OF SOUTHEAST ASIA.

MOST SIGNIFICANT, MENZIES SAIDN AERE AUSTRALIA'S SUGGESTIONS FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF THE AREA.

THE PRIME MINISTER SAID THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH ALONE COULD NOT PROVIDE ALL THE ECONOMIC AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE NEEDED. THE COUNTRIES INTERESTED IN THE AREA MUST WORK CLOSELY WITH THE UNITED NATIONS, HE DECLARED, FOR THE FUTURE OF SOUTHEAST ASIA.

"THE TASK OF THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH," MENZIES SAID, "IS TO GIVE LEADERSHIP AND IMPETUS TO A CONCERTED EFFORT AIMED AT THE ECONOMIC STABILITY ESSENTIAL TO POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE.

"THE CONFERENCE CLEARLY DEMONSTRATED THE VALUE OF PERIODIC FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETINGS WHICH SHOULD BECOME A REGULAR PART OF THE MACHINERY OF BRITISH COMMONWEALTH COOPERATION."

(450) NIGHT LEAD CHINA

WASHINGTON,JAN.16-(AP)-SENATOR O'CONOR (D-MD) DEMANDED TODAY THAT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION BLOCK ADMISSION OF COMMUNIST CHINA INTO THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE MARYLAND SENATOR ALSO URGED "A FORTHRIGHT ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS NO INTENTION, NOW OR IN THE FUTURE, OF GIVING RECOGNITION TO THE (CHINESE) COMMUNIST REGIME."

DENOUNCING THE COMMUNIST SEIZURE OF THE AMERICAN CONSULATE IN PEIPING AS "OUTRAGEOUS," O'CONOR SAID IN A STATEMENT:

"TO ACCORD RECOGNITION NOW TO A REGIME WHICH OPERATES SOLELY ALONG BANDITRY LINES WOULD DEGRADE THE UNITED STATES IN THE EYES OF THE WHOLE WORLD. IT IS UNTHINKABLE."

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS IN THE CHINA SITUATION:

1. THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE POSTPONED A MEETING WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, WHO HAD ASKED AN OPPORTUNITY TO GIVE SENATORS A REVIEW OF THE CRITICAL PICTURE IN CHINA.

THE MEETING HAD BEEN SCHEDULED FOR THURSDAY. IT WILL PROBABLY BE HELD A WEEK FROM TOMORROW.

2. SEVERAL SENATORS SUGGESTED THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ARE DELIBERATELY GOADING THE UNITED STATES INTO RECALLING ALL DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES. THEY SAID THE REDS APPARENTLY DO NOT WANT U.S. DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION.

3. AT LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., SOVIET BLOC DELEGATES WALKED OUT OF ANOTHER UNITED NATIONS BODY TODAY IN PROTEST OVER THE CONTINUED PRESENCE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST DELEGATES. THE SOVIET GROUP SAID THEY WOULD SPREAD THEIR BOYCOTT TO ALL U.N. AGENCIES.

4. BRITISH OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON SAID BRITAIN IS GOING AHEAD WITH PREPARATIONS TO EXCHANGE DIPLOMATIC ENVOYS WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT REGARDLESS OF THE SEIZURE OF AMERICAN, FRENCH AND DUTCH CONSULATE PROPERTIES IN PEIPING.

AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT, PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J.MCDERMOTT EMPHASIZED THAT SECRETARY ACHESON'S NEW SERIES OF MEETINGS WITH CONGRESSIONAL GROUPS WILL BE HELD AT ACHESON'S OWN REQUEST.

A63WX

MCDERMOTT SAID THAT ON SATURDAY WHEN THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED THE RECALL OF ALL AMERICAN CONSULS FROM COMMUNIST CHINA, EVERY MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE WAS INFORMED OF THE ACTION.

HE SAID LEADERS ON BOTH COMMITTEES WERE TOLD THAT ACHESON WANTED TO DISCUSS AT THE EARLIEST OPPORTUNITY THE IMPLICATIONS.

MCDERMOTT SAID ACHESON MAY TALK WITH THE HOUSE COMMITTEE BEHIND CLOSED DOORS ON WEDNESDAY.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE GROUP IS VISITING IN TEXAS. HE IS EXPECTED TO RETURN TO THE CAPITOL IN TIME TO PRESIDE OVER NEXT WEEK'S MEETING.

IN CONNALLY'S ABSENCE, SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA), RANKING DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE MEMBER, SAID HE DECIDED TO POSTPONE ACHESON'S APPEARANCE UNTIL NEXT WEEK BECAUSE THERE WERE "TOO MANY CONFLICTING DATES OR SENATORS HAD TO BE OUT OF TOWN."

IN URGING THIS COUNTRY TO BAN THE ADMISSION OF COMMUNIST CHINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS, SENATOR O'CONOR SAID:

"GIVING COMMUNIST CHINA A SEAT WOULD ADD ANOTHER NEGATIVE VOTE TO ANY REASONABLE PROPOSALS AND SERVE ONLY TO MULTIPLY THE GREAT NUMBER OF SUBVERSIVE ALIENS NOW ATTACHED TO THE VARIOUS COMMUNIST OR COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED DELEGATIONS AT LAKE SUCCESS."

MD735PES

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID TODAY, HOWEVER, THAT BRITAIN'S OBJECTIONS NOW APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN SATISFIED. AFTER TWO MONTHS OF TALK, THE BRITISH INDICATED AT A MEETING WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS THIS MORNING THAT REVISIONS PROPOSED BY THE UNITED STATES WOULD MEET THEIR APPROVAL.

THESE CHANGES WILL ALSO BE OFFERED TO THE OTHER SEVEN NATIONS WHO SEEMED CONTENT WITH THE EARLIER DRAFT SUGGESTED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT WITH A FEW MODIFICATIONS LAST NOVEMBER. THE COUNTRIES ARE FRANCE, ITALY, BELGIUM, HOLLAND, LUXEMBOURG, NORWAY, AND DENMARK.

GOVERNMENT NEGOTIATORS REFUSED TO DISCLOSE THE CHANGES MADE FOR THE BRITISH. THEY SAID ONLY THAT THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH BRITAIN NOW HAVE PROGRESSED TO THE POINT WHERE IT IS A QUESTION OF MERE WORDING AND PHRASING.

A47WX

HOWEVER, IT WAS LEARNED THE UNITED STATES HAS TOLD BRITAIN:

1. ECONOMIC RECOVERY IN BRITAIN WILL CONTINUE TO HAVE A HIGHER PRIORITY THAN THE MUTUAL AID PROVISION OF THE ARMS PROGRAM. ON THIS QUESTION, BRITAIN HAD EXPRESSED FEAR THAT THE AID IT MIGHT BE CALLED UPON TO GIVE TO OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE MIGHT UPSET ITS OWN RECOVERY.

2. THE BRITISH CAN SHIP ARMS AND EQUIPMENT MADE IN THEIR OWN FACTORIES TO SUCH OVERSEAS AREAS AS THE MIDDLE AND FAR EAST WITHOUT VIOLATING THE MILITARY AID AGREEMENT. THE ONLY SAFEGUARD HERE IS THAT SUCH SHIPMENTS MUST NOT WEAKEN THE OVERALL DEFENSES OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA.

EQUIPMENT TO BE SENT FIRST TO EUROPE WILL COME OUT OF THE U.S. ARMY'S RESERVE STOCKS. SURPLUS AND NEW EQUIPMENT WILL BE SENT LATER, OFFICIALS SAID.

THE EXACT TYPE AND AMOUNT OF WEAPONS EACH NATION WILL RECEIVE IS TO REMAIN SECRET. FRANCE, HOWEVER, IS SCHEDULED TO GET THE BIGGEST CHUNK OF THE $1,000,000,000 (B) BECAUSE ITS TROOPS ARE ASSIGNED THE BIGGEST ROLE IN THE PLANS FOR WARDING OFF ANY RUSSIAN INVASION.

APPROXIMATELY $85,000,000 OF THE TOTAL WILL BE USED TO BUY MACHINE TOOLS AND RAW MATERIALS NEEDED BY THE EIGHT GOVERNMENTS TO SPEED UP LOCAL PRODUCTION OF ARMS. NONE OF THIS MONEY HAS BEEN ALLOCATED YET, BUT OFFICIALS SAID THEY FEEL CERTAIN EUROPEAN FACTORIES CAN BEGIN TO TURN OUT SUCH SUPPLIES BEFORE THE YEAR IS OVER.

WASHINGTON, JAN.16-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON EXPECTS CONTINUED PEACE IN PALESTINE, DESPITE THE RENEWED SHIPMENTS OF BRITISH ARMS TO THE ARAB NATIONS SURROUNDING ISRAEL.

IN A LETTER MADE PUBLIC LAST NIGHT BY REP. JAVITS (R-LIB-NY), ACHESON CONFIRMED THAT BRITAIN HAS RESUMED ARMS SHIPMENTS TO IRAQ, HASHEMITE JORDAN AND EGYPT. THE SHIPMENTS ARE CALLED FOR BY TREATY, BUT WERE HALTED DURING THE HOLY LAND FIGHTING BY A UNITED NATIONS EMBARGO.

JAVITS HAD WRITTEN TO ACHESON EXPRESSING FEAR THAT THE ARMS MIGHT BE USED FOR A FRESH ATTACK ON THE NEW JEWISH STATE.

IN HIS REPLY, THE SECRETARY SAID ALL INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT INDICATES THAT THE ARAB NATIONS HAVE NO SUCH INTENTION.

"SHOULD SUCH INFORMATION BE RECEIVED," HE ADDED, "THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WOULD BE QUICK TO USE ALL ITS INFLUENCE IN AN ATTEMPT TO PREVENT SUCH A TRAGIC EVENTUALITY, BOTH WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS AND OUTSIDE."

ACHESON SAID HE IS AWARE OF INFLAMMATORY STATEMENTS BEING MADE BOTH IN THE ARAB STATES AND IN ISRAEL. BUT HE SAID THE DEPARTMENT DOESN'T FEEL THAT "THE REMARKS OF INDIVIDUAL RADIO AND PRESS COMMENTATORS (IN THE MIDDLE EAST) SHOULD BE TAKEN AS A RELIABLE INDICATION OF ANY SERIOUS OR IMMEDIATE INTENT ON THE PART OF THE RESPECTIVE GOVERNMENTS TO RESUME HOSTILITIES."

(250) ATOMIC

WASHINGTON, JAN.16-(AP)-WASHINGTON IS BUZZING WITH REPORTS THAT THE GOVERNMENT MAY UNDERTAKE DEVELOPMENT OF A SUPER A-BOMB, PERHAPS 1,000 TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN THE KIND THIS COUNTRY NOW HAS.

WHILE NO OFFICIAL WILL TALK ABOUT IT, THE REPORT HAS GAINED SUCH WIDE CIRCULATION THAT IT HAS GIVEN RISE TO A SERIES OF COROLLARY REPORTS AND RUMORS. AMONG THEM ARE REPORTS THAT:

1. SOME SCIENTISTS NOW WORKING ON ATOMIC PROJECTS HAVE ALREADY SERVED NOTICE THEY WILL REFUSE TO HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE "SUPER BOMB" PROJECT.

2. THE REAL REASON DAVID LILIENTHAL RESIGNED AS CHAIRMAN OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION WAS BECAUSE HE WAS OPPOSED TO THE PROJECT.

IN A BROADCAST LAST NIGHT, DREW PEARSON, THE RADIO COMMENTATOR, SAID THAT WAS THE REASON LILIENTHAL RESIGNED. ASKED ABOUT PEARSON'S STATEMENTS, LILIENTHAL SAID TODAY HE HAD "NO COMMENT."

PEARSON ALSO SAID THAT LILIENTHAL HAD ASKED METHODIST BISHOP G. BROMLEY OXNAM OF NEW YORK TO LINE UP OPPOSITION TO SUCH A MOVE. LILIENTHAL DECLINED COMMENT ON THAT REPORT ALSO. IN INDIANAPOLIS, BISHOP OXNAM SAID LILIENTHAL HAD NOT CONTACTED HIM ON ANY SUCH MATTER.

IT IS KNOWN THAT SINCE LAST OCTOBER A COMMITTEE HAS BEEN STUDYING THE QUESTION OF WHETHER THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD UNDERTAKE DEVELOPMENT OF A HYDROGEN A-BOMB. SUCH A BOMB THEORETICALLY WOULD BE MORE POWERFUL THAN THE PRESENT URANIUM BOMB. BUT WHETHER IT WOULD BE 1,000 TIMES MORE POWERFUL IS ANOTHER QUESTION.

THIS COMMITTEE IS UNDERSTOOD TO BE ABOUT AT THE POINT OF RECOMMENDING THE PROJECT ON THE THEORY THAT THE RUSSIANS LIKELY ARE WORKING TOWARD THE SAME GOAL. PRESIDENT TRUMAN WOULD HAVE TO PASS FINALLY ON THE RECOMMENDATION.

AS SOON AS THEY ARE SIGNED, PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS EXPECTED TO APPROVE THE SECRET MASTER PLAN FOR DEFENSE OF WESTERN EUROPE.

THESE TWO ACTIONS WILL CLEAR THE WAY FOR STARTING SHIPMENTS OF $1,000,000,000 (B) IN AMERICAN ARMS TO BOLSTER THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA AGAINST POSSIBLE AGGRESSION.

THE FIRST SHIPMENTS SHOULD LEAVE U.S. PORTS ABOUT A MONTH AFTER THE AID AGREEMENTS ARE SIGNED. THIS WOULD MAKE IT AROUND MID-FEBRUARY, ABOUT THREE MONTHS BEHIND THE ORIGINAL SCHEDULE.

THE DEAL HAS BEEN HELD UP BY BRITAIN'S REFUSAL TO ACCEPT TERMS PROPOSED BY THIS COUNTRY.

THE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, WHO ASKED NOT TO BE NAMED DISCLOSED THAT BRITAIN NOW APPEARS SATISFIED WITH THE REVISED TERMS OFFERED BY THE UNITED STATES.

THE LAST OBJECTIONS APPARENTLY WERE CLEARED AWAY AT MEETINGS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT FRIDAY AND THIS MORNING. OFFICIALS SAID THE BRITISH AGREEMENT NOW IS MERELY A QUESTION OF PHRASING AND EXACT WORDING RATHER THAN FUNDAMENTAL DIFFERENCES.

THE BRITISH-AMERICAN AGREEMENT SHOULD BE SETTLED AND AGREED UPON BY THE END OF THE WEEK, THEY SAID. THE OTHER SEVEN NATIONS THAT ARE TO GET AMERICAN MILITARY HELP ARE FRANCE, BELGIUM, HOLLAND, LUXEMBOURG, DENMARK, NORWAY AND ITALY. THEY HAVE BEEN MARKING TIME AWAITING THE SETTLEMENT OF BRITAIN'S OBJECTIONS.

THE UNITED STATES IS THE ONLY COUNTRY KNOWN DEFINITELY TO HAVE AIRCRAFT CAPABLE OF SUPERSONIC SPEED IN LEVEL FLIGHT. THE AIR FORCE X-1 ROCKET PLANE AND THE NAVY D-558-2, EQUIPPED WITH BOTH TURBO-JET ENGINES AND ROCKETS, HAVE DONE IT REPEATEDLY. OTHER TYPES HAVE FLOWN AT OR NEAR SONIC SPEED IN TESTS.

HOWEVER, PRESENT SUPERSONIC PLANES ARE MERELY RESEARCH CRAFT AND MUCH REMAINS TO BE DONE BEFORE THEY BECOME OF PRACTICAL MILITARY VALUE.

THE SPEED OF SOUND VARIES WITH TEMPERATURE. IT USUALLY IS TAKEN TO MEAN 763 MILES AN HOUR, WHICH IS SONIC SPEED AT 60 DEGREES FAHRENHEIT. IN THE COLD STRATOSPHERE, SOUND TRAVELS AROUND 663 MPH.

"CERTAIN PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION" HAS BEEN CONDUCTED BY THE COMMITTEE STAFF "RELATING TO SUBVERSIVE ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES IN THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII," THE RESOLUTION SAID.

"FURTHER INVESTIGATION OF THE SAID ALLEGED SUBVERSIVE ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES IS WARRANTED," IT WENT ON.

(ADVANCE) (WX) BOSTON, JAN.16-(AP)-GEN.GEORGE C.MARSHALL CALLED TODAY FOR A "TRULY NATIONAL" PROGRAM OF RED CROSS BLOOD CONTRIBUTIONS, HINTING BROADLY THAT THEY WOULD BE SORELY NEEDED IN EVENT OF ATOMIC WARFARE.

SPEAKING AS PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS AT THE DEDICATION OF A NEW BLOOD CENTER, MARSHALL SAID IN A PREPARED ADDRESS THAT SUCH A PROGRAM IS NEEDED BOTH FOR PRESENT USE AND TO PROVIDE FOR "THE HAVOC OF A GREAT DISASTER OR UNFORESEEN NATIONAL EMERGENCY.

"SUCH AN EMERGENCY MIGHT POSSIBLY REQUIRE MORE BLOOD IN A SINGLE WEEK THAN ALL OUR REQUIREMENTS FOR A FULL YEAR DURING THE WAR. IT IS IMPORTANT THAT WE HAVE THE MACHINERY IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE WHICH CAN BE THROWN QUICKLY INTO HIGH GEAR WHEN TREMENDOUS QUANTITIES OF BLOOD ARE NEEDED SUDDENLY.

"I THINK YOU WILL AGREE WITH ME THAT IT WOULD NOT BE PRUDENT FOR SUCH MATTERS OF LIFE AND DEATH TO BE LEFT TO CHANCE."

MARSHALL SPOKE SCARCELY A WEEK AFTER THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT AND ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION HAD ISSUED A REPORT ON "MEDICAL ASPECTS OF ATOMIC WEAPONS" WHICH DISCLOSED THAT "IDEAL CARE" FOR A SINGLE PATIENT SUFFERING ATOMIC BURNS WOULD REQUIRE THE USE OF 40 PINTS OF WHOLE BLOOD.

THE BOSTON BLOOD BANK IS THE 30TH OPENED UNDER RED CROSS AUSPICES, AND MARSHALL SAID PRESENT PLANS CALL FOR ADDING 10 MORE IN THE COMING YEAR.

HE SAID THE NEW BANK WILL BE USED FOR RESEARCH AS WELL AS DAY-TO-DAY MEDICAL NEEDS, ADDING, "THE RESEARCH THAT IS GOING FORWARD IN THE FIELD OF BLOOD GIVES PROMISE OF GREAT ADVANCES IN THE PRESERVATION AND USE OF BLOOD AND ITS DERIVATIVES."

IN THIS CATEGORY, HE MENTIONED THAT IT IS EXPECTED THAT A PINT OF BLOOD MAY BE USED IN THE FUTURE TO SERVE AS MANY AS 30 PERSONS, INSTEAD OF JUST ONE AS AT PRESENT.

HE ALSO COMMENTED THAT "THERE IS GOOD REASON TO BELIEVE THAT IN THE NEAR FUTURE IT WILL BE POSSIBLE TO PRESERVE BLOOD FOR A MUCH LONGER PERIOD" THAN THE PRESENT THREE WEEKS. MARSHALL NOTED THAT WHEN THE WAR STARTED IT COULD BE KEPT ONLY ONE WEEK.

THE CABLEGRAM SAID THE CHINESE PEOPLE WOULD NOT FORGET THAT AMERICAN COMMUNISTS AND OTHER ELEMENTS IN THIS COUNTRY HAD TRIED "TO OPPOSE AMERICAN IMPERIALISM AND TO SAFEGUARD THE FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE CHINESE AND AMERICAN PEOPLES."

THE CABLEGRAM ADDED:

"THE VICTORY OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE CANNOT BE SEPARATED FROM THE RIGHTEOUS STRUGGLE NOW BEING CONDUCTED BY THE WORKING CLASS AND ALL PROGRESSIVE FORCES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

"WE FIRMLY BELIEVE THAT WHATEVER REACTIONARY MEASURES AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS MIGHT TAKE, SUCH MEASURES WILL INEVITABLY BE DEFEATED BY THE JOINT MIGHTY STRENGTH OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND THE PEOPLE OF THE WHOLE WORLD."

NIGHT LEAD U.N.

BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 16-(AP)-THE SOVIET BLOC WALKED OUT OF THREE UNITED NATIONS COMMITTEES TODAY AND CLAMPED A GENERAL BOYCOTT ON ALL MEETINGS OF THE U.N. ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD AS LONG AS NATIONALIST CHINA IS REPRESENTED.

PERSONS IN HIGH AUTHORITY IN THE U.N. DO NOT FEEL, HOWEVER, THAT THE RUSSIANS ARE PLANNING TO PULL OUT OF THE U.N. IN SPITE OF THEIR WALKS FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL LAST WEEK AND FROM THE THREE GROUPS TODAY. THEY PREDICT THE RUSSIANS WILL MERELY TAKE A VACATION UNTIL THE CHINESE ISSUE IS SETTLED.

THE RUSSIANS HAVE CAREFULLY PUT UP THE ARGUMENT THAT THEY ALONE ARE PROTECTING THE U.N. CHARTER; THA THE NATIONALIST CHINA

ARE PROTECTING THE U.N. CHARTER; THAT THE NATIONALIST CHINA DELEGATION REPRESENTS NOBODY AND IS ILLEGAL; AND THAT THEY WON'T SIT AT THE SAME TABLE WITH AN ILLEGAL DELEGATION.

NATIONALIST CHINA'S TOP DELEGATE HERE, T.F.TSIANG, WAS IN HIGH SPIRITS OVER THE SOVIET RAGE, THE REPORTED SUCCESSES OF THE CHINESE AIR FORCES AT HOME AND THE U.S. DECISION TO PULL AMERICAN OFFICIALS OUT OF RED CHINA.

TSIANG ATTENDED THE FIRST 1950 MEETING OF THE YEAR-AROUND LITTLE ASSEMBLY, WHERE THE RUSSIANS NEVER HAVE BEEN REPRESENTED, AND TOOK NO NOTICE OF THE HAPPENINGS DOWN THE LONG U.N. CORRIDORS IN THE OTHER COMMITTEES. HE ARGUES HIS DELEGATION IS LEGAL AND THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ARE MOSCOW PUPPETS.

THE GROUPS AFFECTED TODAY WERE: THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL COMMITTEE ON PROCEDURE, THE SUB-COMMISSION ON THE PREVENTION OF DISCRIMINATION AND THE PROTECTION OF MINORITIES; AND THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON STATELESS PERSONS. NO OTHER MEETINGS WERE HELD.

IN THE COMMITTEE ON PROCEDURES, IVAN KAMENEV, U.S.S.R., AND VLADIMIR HOUDEK, PERMANENT CZECHOSLOVAK DELEGATE TO THE U.N., STRODE OUT.

AT THE START OF THE MEETING, KAMENEV INTRODUCED A RESOLUTION TO UNSEAT THE NATIONALIST CHINA DELEGATE. CHAIRMAN JOSÉ ENCINAS, PERU, RULED HIM OUT OF ORDER BUT THE RUSSIAN CHALLENGED THE RULING. THE COMMITTEE UPHELD THE CHAIRMAN, 6 TO 2 (CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND RUSSIA). INDIA ABSTAINED. THE REPRESENTATIVE OF CHINA WAS ABSENT ON THE VOTE. BELGIUM, BRAZIL, FRANCE, PERU, BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES VOTED FOR THE CHAIRMAN'S RULING.

KAMENEV THEN SAID IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE TO TAKE PART IN THE WORK OF THE COMMITTEE AND HE WOULD HAVE TO LEAVE. HOUDEK SAID THE SAME FOR CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND WENT OUT.

A194

RUSSIA'S N.I.KLIMOV MADE THE SAME PROPOSAL IN THE COMMITTEE ON STATELESS PERSONS AND WAS SUPPORTED BY ALEXANDER RUDZINSKI OF POLAND. THE VOTE AGAINST THEM WAS 6 (CANADA, BRAZIL, CHINA, VENEZUELA, UNITED STATES AND TURKEY) TO 2 (RUSSIA AND POLAND), WITH 3 (BRITAIN, DENMARK AND ISRAEL) ABSTAINING. THE LAST THREE COUNTRIES HAVE RECOGNIZED THE RED CHINESE REGIME BUT BRITAIN HAS SAID THE ISSUE OF CHINESE REPRESENTATION HERE IS PREMATURE.

V.I.FORMASHEV, RUSSIA, AND JOSEPH WINIEWICZ, POLISH AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, WALKED OUT OF THE SUB-COMMISSION, ALTHOUGH MEMBERS OF THIS GROUP SIT AS INDIVIDUAL EXPERTS AND NOT AS REPRESENTATIVES OF THEIR GOVERNMENTS.

EVERY RUSSIAN INVOLVED WAS A LOW-RANKING MEMBER OF THE SOVIET DELEGATION. WINIEWICZ WAS THE HIGHEST RANKING DELEGATE FROM THE SOVIET BLOC COUNTRIES. HE HAS BEEN POLISH AMBASSADOR TO WASHINGTON SINCE THE 1947 GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN NEW YORK.

THE NEXT MEETINGS AT WHICH WALK-OUTS OR BOYCOTTS ARE EXPECTED--BOTH NEXT THURSDAY-- ARE THE FIRST SESSIONS OF THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL IN GENEVA ON THE JERUSALEM QUESTION AND THE FIRST 1950 MEETINGS OF THE SIX-POWER CONFEREES ON ATOMIC ENERGY HERE. THE EAST AND WEST ARE COMPLETELY DEADLOCKED ON THE ATOMIC QUESTION.

JOAO CARLOS MUNIZ, BRAZILIAN AMBASSADOR TO THE U.N., WAS ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY, GETTING 37 OUT OF 39 VOTES CAST. ABDUR RAHIM KHAN, PAKISTAN, WAS NAMED VICE-CHAIRMAN AND JOSEPH NISOT, BELGIUM, COMMITTEE REPORTER.

MUNIZ APPEALED FOR THE RUSSIANS TO END THEIR BOYCOTT AND COOPERATE WITH THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY.

THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY ADJOURNED WITHOUT SETTING A DATE FOR ITS NEXT MEETING AND WITHOUT GETTING TO TSIANG'S CHARGES THAT THE RUSSIANS HELPED PUT THE CHINESE REDS IN POWER. TSIANG SAID HE EXPECTED THE CHINESE CASE WOULD COME UP NEXT TUESDAY.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL MEETS TOMORROW AT 3 P.M. (EST) TO TAKE UP A YUGOSLAV RESOLUTION PROPOSING THAT TSIANG RELINQUISH THE REMAINDER OF HIS TERM AS CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL DURING JANUARY TO THE CUBAN DELEGATE, WHO WILL BECOME CHAIRMAN FOR A MONTH FEB. 1.

INFORMED SOURCES HERE SAY THE WHOLE ISSUE OF CHINA REVOLVED AROUND THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES RECOGNIZING THE RED GOVERNMENT. WHEN THE RECOGNITIONS TOTAL MORE THAN HALF OF THE 59 U.N. MEMBERS, THESE SOURCES SAID, A MOVE TO OUST THE NATIONALIST CHINESE MIGHT WIN.

RED CHINA HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED THUS FAR BY 16 GOVERNMENTS, MOST OF THEM MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS; FIVE ARE MEMBERS OF THE 11-NATION SECURITY COUNCIL.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST NOVEMBER REFERRED FURTHER ACTION ON TSIANG'S CHARGES TO THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY, AFTER APPROVING A U.N. HANDS-OFF POLICY TO ALLOW THE CHINESE PEOPLE TO SETTLE THEIR OWN POLITICAL DIFFERENCES. TSIANG ACCUSED THE RUSSIANS OF VIOLATING A 1945 TREATY WITH THE NATIONALISTS AND ACTIVELY HELPING THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TO POWER.

RUSSIA AND HER FAITHFUL SLAV BLOC FOLLOWERS ALWAYS HAVE BOYCOTTED THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY. THEY SAY IT IS AN ILLEGAL BODY. THE RUSSIANS BEGAN A BOYCOTT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, TOO, AFTER IT REFUSED FRIDAY TO UNSEAT THE NATIONALISTS AND PAVE THE WAY FOR THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TO GET INTO THE U.N.

NATIONALISTS ARE ALLOWED TO REMAIN. THE SECURITY COUNCIL CONTINUED ITS WORK, HOWEVER, CHALLENGING THE SOVIET STATEMENT THAT ITS WORK IS ILLEGAL AS LONG AS THE NATIONALISTS REMAIN IN THE COUNCIL AND THE RUSSIANS ARE ABSENT.

TSIANG, JANUARY COUNCIL CHAIRMAN, SCHEDULED ANOTHER COUNCIL MEETING FOR TUESDAY AFTERNOON TO ACT ON A GENERAL ASSEMBLY REQUEST FOR A WORLD SURVEY OF NON-ATOMIC WEAPONS. IT WAS GENERALLY HELD, HOWEVER, THAT THE SUBJECT WAS NOT IMPORTANT ENOUGH TO PROVIDE A DECISIVE TEST OF RUSSIA'S FINAL ATTITUDE TOWARD THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE U.S, AS A WHOLE.

ELECTION OF A LITTLE ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT AND OTHER OFFICERS, AND ADOPTION OF A WORK PROGRAM ARE FIRST ON THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY CALENDAR.

THE LITTLE ASSEMBLY ALSO IS CALLED ON TO MAP A PROGRAM FOR FIXING BOUNDARIES OF LIBIA, SOMALILAND AND ERITREA, PREWAR COLONIES OF ITALY IN AFRICA, WHICH ARE STILL IN DOUBT. LIBIA IS TO GET ITS INDEPENDENCE IN TWO YEARS, SOMALILAND IN 10, BUT ERITREA'S FUTURE HAS NOT BEEN DECIDED.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 16-(AP)-FIVE EXPERTS ON ECONOMICS WANT THE UNITED NATIONS TO ADOPT A LONG TERM PLAN TO COMBAT UNEMPLOYMENT AND BALANCE WORLD TRADE.

THE EXPERTS, IN AN INDEPENDENT REPORT REQUESTED BY THE U.N. ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL, RECOMMENDED MACHINERY BE SET UP BY INDIVIDUAL NATIONS TO GO INTO OPERATION AUTOMATICALLY WHENEVER EMPLOYME DECLINES.

THE ECONOMISTS INCLUDE TWO AMERICANS, ONE BRITISHER, AN AUSTRALIAN AND A FRENCHMAN.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL LEVEL, THEY PROPOSED THREE ACTIONS:

1. AN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE, SPONSORED BY THE U.N. ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL, TO FORGE A PLAN TO ELIMINATE THE PRESENT LACK OF BALANCE IN WORLD TRADE. THE EXPERTS SAID THE WORLD TRADING SETUP COULD NOT BE LASTINGLY IMPROVED WITHOUT TACKLING THE CHRONIC DOLLAR SHORTAGE AT ITS FOUNDATION.

2. A STABLE FLOW OF INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT, CHANNELED LARGELY THROUGH THE INTERNATIONAL BANK, FOR THE WORLD'S UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS. THIS APPEARED TO BE IN LINE WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR PROGRAM FOR AID TO BACKWARD COUNTRIES.

3. ADOPTION OF A PROGRAM, OPERATING THROUGH THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND, TO PREVENT THE INTERNATIONAL SPREAD OF DEFLATIONARY PRESSURES WHICH WOULD RESULT IN UNEMPLOYMENT.

THE REPORT PROPOSED FIVE ACTIONS GOVERNMENTS COULD TAKE AT HOME:

1. ADOPTION AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF FULL EMPLOYMENT GOALS.

2. COMPREHENSIVE FISCAL AND PRODUCTION PROGRAMS TO SECURE AND MAINTAIN FULL EMPLOYMENT.

3. A SYSTEM OF COMPENSATORY EMPLOYMENT MEASURES TO COME INTO EFFECT ANY TIME GENERAL FULL EMPLOYMENT IS NOT MAINTAINED FOR THREE MONTHS IN A ROW.

4. ACQUAINT THE PUBLIC OF PRICE STABILIZING AND INFLATION-COMBATING POLICIES.

5. ADOPTION OF LEGISLATIVE AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES TO CARRY OUT THE FULL EMPLOYMENT PLAN.

THE REPORT WAS DRAWN UP BY PROF. JOHN MAURICE CLARK, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY; PROF. ARTHUR SMITHIES, HARVARD UNIVERSITY; PROF. NICHOLAS KALDOR, KING'S COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY; E. RONALD WALKER, ECONOMIC ADVISER TO THE AUSTRALIAN DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, AND PIERRE URI, ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL ADVISER TO THE COMMISSARIAT GENERAL DU PLAN, PARIS.

'Big 3' Reported Set To Detach The Saar

Arthur Gaunaker D

London, Jan. 17 (AP)—Diplomatic sources reported today the three big Western powers agreed secretly last November to detach the rich Saar basin from Germany and give it semi-independence.

A Foreign Office spokesman confirmed that the United States, Britain and France have a secret understanding on the Saar, but he refused to discuss its exact nature.

The spokesman said that when the three Western Foreign Ministers met in Paris last November they reached an agreement on the relationship between the Saar and the Council (Parliament) of Europe.

"Not Mentioned"

France had been pressing for the Saar's membership on the Council presumably to formalize the fact of its separation from Germany.

This agreement, the spokesman added, was "not mentioned in the official communiqué" issued at the end of the talks.

The informants said this agreement was that the Saar would be given membership on the Council as France desired.

American and British indorsement of the French request, they went on, came only after France made a number of concessions, including agreeing to a slowdown of industrial dismantlement in West Germany.

America had long favored such a slowdown. The British were not so keen but eventually fell into line. France apparently held out until she persuaded her partners to approve the Saar's membership on the Council.

Original Request

France also agreed that the West German Federal Republic should be offered associate membership on the Council of Europe.

France originally requested to the Foreign Ministers Council in 1947 that she be permitted to dovetail the economy of the Saar with her own and assume responsibility for its defense and foreign relations. The Saar would control its own internal affairs under the proposal.

Russia opposed this. The United States and Britain approved the idea if it would not prejudice the final German peace settlement. However, until last November, there never was any formal agreement among the three Western powers on the question.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, of the West German Republic, announced yesterday his Government would protest any separation of the Saar from Germany.

REPORT OF DECISION ON SAAR IS DENIED

Arthur Gaunaker

LONDON, Jan. 17.—(AP) Qualified British sources said today the Big Three western powers have agreed to detach the Saar from Germany and give it semi-independence, but the report was firmly denied by both the United States and France.

British and American foreign ministers agreed in 1947 that the Saar, a basin of 738 square miles rich in coal, should have a "special entity" with ties to France.

The informants declared an unpublished understanding was reached last November, when the American, British and French foreign ministers met in Paris, to provide for:

Membership of the Saar as a separate state in the Council of Europe, an advisory organization of 12 nations.

France to get a free hand to control the Saar economy and defense.

The Saar to run its own internal affairs. A DD

Chinese Charge Violence by French in the Country

LONDON, Jan. 17 (AP)—The Chinese Communists threatened today to intervene against French "violence and persecution of Chinese" in Indo-China. The Soviet news agency Tass quoted the Shanghai newspaper Sin Wen Jih Pao as saying:

"The Chinese People's Government has clearly stated that it would defend the rightful interests of Chinese living abroad, including those of the Chinese resident in Indo-China.

"The time has gone forever when one could abuse with impunity the lives and property of Chinese living abroad and when the Chinese Government did not render them any help."

The paper asserted that both the French in Indo-China and Bao Dai, the Emperor whose regime they support, "are now treating the Chinese people as their enemies." It added:

"We must give a stern warning to French imperialism and its puppets."

Argentina Trade Break With Spain Reported

D

Manchester, England, Jan. 17 (AP). Argentina and Spain are very near a trade break, the Manchester Guardian said today.

The Liberal newspaper, in an editorial, declared Argentina is demanding "immediate payment of the large amount the Spaniards owe." This it estimated at between £50,000,000 and £150,000,000 ($144,000,000 and $424,000,000).

The River Plate country is also calling for "cash payments on all goods to be shipped in future—else they threaten to halt further supplies," the Guardian added.

"Argentine supplies long maintained the better part of the bread ration in Spain," the editorial said after recalling that Perón made friends with Franco "and extended large credits to him" when the United Nations withdrew their ambassadors from Spain.

In exchange for cereals, Spain was to deliver merchant ships and locomotives to Argentina, but "little of either was ever delivered," it declared. X 5

"Now the Spanish complain of bad quality goods and of Argentine rapacity; the Argentines declare their impatience at Spanish inefficiency and Spanish bad business." A DD

SPAIN DENIES SOVIET BID

Madrid Official in Paris Scouts Report of Trade Talks

PARIS, Jan. 17 (AP)—A Spanish Embassy official denied today reports that anti-Communist Spain was negotiating with Soviet trade representatives here to buy Russian wheat.

The official said Spanish diplomatic and trade representatives here had had no dealings with Soviet representatives and that no special trade mission had arrived here recently.

The report from usually well-informed sources in Madrid said Spain wanted to swap mercury, wolfram, olive oil and wines for Russian wheat and petroleum products. According to the informants, Spain had made the move because of the complete breakdown of her trade agreement with Argentina and the unwillingness of the United States to give Spain dollar loans on easy terms. Swedish Business Man To Be Freed By Czechs

Stockholm, Jan. 17 (AP)—Holger Hjelm, Swedish business man sentenced to three years imprisonment by the Czechoslovak Government last month, has been released and will be home soon, the foreign office said today.

The announcement said the Swedish Legation in Prague had been informed that the Czech Justice Minister had ordered Hjelm released.

Hjelm had been sentenced on charges of smuggling Czech tools out of the country and helping Czech citizens to flee.

Belgium Officially Recognizes Israel

Brussels, Jan. 17 (AP)—Belgium has accorded full recognition to Israel, a Foreign Office communiqué announced last night.

The Belgian official representation in Israel will be raised to the rank of legation, staffed by an extraordinary envoy and a minister plenipotentiary.

Israel will create a similar post in Brussels.

Free Poles And Czechs, Berlin's Mayor Pleads

JAN 17 1950

Berlin, Jan. 17 (AP)—Mayor Ernst Reuter of Berlin urged the western world today to restore liberty to Poland and Czechoslovakia, now in the grip of communism.

"Europe cannot be saved on the Rhine River," the anti-Communist Mayor told fourteen American editors traveling in Europe.

"Europe extends to the Curzon Line. We do not have to fight for the lib[erty]

JAN 17 1950

...berty of Germany alone but for the Poles and the Czechs, too. We have to fight for their liberty to save the peace of Europe."

[The Curzon Line is a World War I demarcation for the Polish-Russian border.]

Reuter asserted western European recovery, sparked by American aid, has started to exert "tremendous" political pressure on the Communist sphere east of the Elbe River.

In Berlin, he said, it can be seen how this pressure has cut sharply into what chances the Russians had of selling their system to eastern Germans.

"We are poor in West Berlin but we are a paradise compared to eastern Berlin," he said. "And eastern Berlin is a paradise compared to the Soviet zone. The Russians must keep up some pretense of competition."

Continuing Effect

The show window of Western prosperity and the Western way of life in Berlin, he said, has daily and continuing effect on the political thinking in the East.

By the end of 1950, Reuter said he believed the economic swell from the West would destroy communism's chance completely in East Germany.

"Ninety per cent of the people are against it already," he said.

"Only a hard corps of the youth under 20 is affected by the Soviet system teachings and after they reach that age you can see how it declines and fades."

In answer to a question, Reuter said it is clear now that "the Russians do not want a war."

"Not because they are pacifists," he added, "but because they are not prepared for one." A DD

BERLINERS ACCUSE SOVIET OF SLAVERY

Western Authorities Charge 400,000 German Prisoners Are Being Detained

BERLIN, Jan. 17 (AP)—West Berlin authorities accused the Russians tonight of having secretly retained a slave labor pool of 400,000 German war prisoners.

The charge was made by West Berlin welfare and health authorities in a survey published by the United States High Commissioner's Office.

The statement discounted as "Communist propaganda line" recent Communist charges that United States authorities in Germany did not notify relatives of the death of 1,500,000 German soldiers in wartime battles.

These charges, said the survey, "have been largely aimed at covering up the existence of this labor pool which, it is believed, the Soviets plan to maintain indefinitely."

It said this was in violation of "written international pledges."

The West Berlin authorities noted that Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Soviet Foreign Minister, in 1947, had given the number of German war prisoners in the Soviet Union as 892,000.

Therefore, they found it "interesting to note" that the Russians had returned more than 1,131,000 Germans from captivity since 1946—"over 200,000 more than Molotov admitted were held."

The survey said the Soviet Union apparently was about to terminate the program of returning German war prisoners, and added:

"If this is so, no other conclusion is possible than that the Russians intend to hold the 400,000 war prisoners still in their hands and to deny their existence."

RED PAPER ADMITS IT 'ERRED' ON WEST

Communist Organ in Hungary Says Rift Among Capitalist Lands Was Overestimated

Endre Marton

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 17 (AP)—Szabad Nep, newspaper of Hungary's Communist party, confessed today it had been guilty of "erroneous and harmful thinking" in overestimating the differences among the Western capitalist powers.

Szabad Nep published a long article condemning itself for an editorial of last Sunday in which it said there was "increasing antagonism among imperialist countries."

The Sunday editorial had stressed an "oil war" and a "fight for colonies and raw material sources" among the Western powers, the questions of Germany and recognition of China and alleged differences over the atom bomb. These differences, it said, would increase rapidly "if the economic crisis of capitalism develops."

But today the newspaper said that the article had overestimated the differences, and added: "The fact is that England and the other imperialist countries capitulate again and again to America and surrender to American orders. Overestimating these differences means to underrate the real danger: the danger of war against the Soviet Union and the people's democracies."

The Ministry of Interior announced that an underground group of Kulaks had been smashed and thirteen persons arrested, but added that the leader of the band, "a certain Istvan Dobo, a Yugoslav Kulak, escaped."

The Ministry said Dobo had been "sent to Hungary by [Yugoslav Premier] Tito last August to organize rich peasants against the People's Democracy."

The Ministry said the underground group had murdered Imre Tiss, local secretary of the Communist party in the village of Lengyelkapolna.

Budapest newspapers announced today that three Jewish organizations had been granted permission to meet next month to draft a constitution for the merging of the three groups into a single synagogue.

Finns Drafting Answer For Russians

JAN 17 1950

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 17 (AP)—Finland's Government drafted a reply to Russia's demand for return of alleged Soviet war criminals today as the nation's two-day presidential election drew to a close.

Counting of votes for 300 electors who will meet February 15 to name Finland's President will begin tonight, with first returns expected tomorrow.

Russia early this month accused Finland's Social Democratic Government of harboring 300 Soviet war criminals in a move regarded here as an attempt to influence the presidential elections. Moscow newspapers attacked President Juho K. Paasikivi, seeking re-election with the backing of the Social Democrats, the Conservatives and two small Liberal parties.

Paasikivi's hardest opposition was expected to come from Dr. Urho Kekkonen, the Agrarian party leader, who is speaker of Parliament.

The Communist candidate for President, Mauno Pekkala, urged closer relations with Russia.

Mao Back In Moscow After Leningrad Trip

Moscow, Jan. 17 (AP)—Chinese Communist leader Mao Tze-tung returned to Moscow today from a brief trip to Leningrad.

It was Mao's first trip since he arrived here nearly a month ago to attend Prime Minister Joseph Stalin's birthday celebration.

The Chinese leader has said he planned to take several journeys while he is in this country.

Millions Facing Starvation In Red China

Seymour Topping

Hong Kong, Jan. 17 (AP)—Millions of peasants face starvation in Red China this year.

Upwards of 40,000,000 persons, by Communist Government estimate, are in famine areas.

Some 8,000,000 right now are desperately hungry.

In East China alone 16,000,000 may starve to death.

Floods, crop pests and plagues are blamed for the great food shortage.

The Communist State Administrative Council in Peiping is mobilizing relief agencies. Its directive is available here in British Hong Kong.

Fifth Of Farms Flooded

The directive says a fifth of the cultivated land in East China alone was flooded. That wiped out crops on 8,000,000 acres.

The Manchurian barter agreement with Russia is draining off much food from North China. Food is to be exchanged for Russian manufactured goods. Manchuria was unable to meet its quota, so farming areas below the Great Wall are making up the Manchurian deficit.

An already suffering peasantry is being bled white. Peasant living standards are near or below mere subsistence levels.

The Communist budget for 1950 calls for the Government to receive 41.4 per cent of its revenue from food levies. The tax scale asks peasants to surrender an average of 20 per cent of their harvest.

18.7 P.C. Budget Deficit

Even with this stiff rate, a budget deficit of 18.7 per cent is anticipated by the Reds.

All of this explains the Communists' troubles with the peasants.

The Chinese Communist Government will support 9,000,000 civil servants and soldiers this year. The Reds say it takes 30 Chinese farmers to support one soldier and his family.

The Chinese food crisis in 1950 will be increased by the Red embargo on all food imports. The embargo recently was announced in Peiping by Jung Tse-ho, Vice Minister of Food.

The embargo is to conserve the Reds' meager foreign exchange for more important industrialization objectives.

Problem For Years

Agricultural experts say China's food deficit will not be eliminated for years to come. Basic improvements in South China farming techniques are needed urgently.

Coastal Kwantung province alone is unable to feed its 38,000,000 inhabitants. The American Economic Co-operation Administration supplied the difference to the vast area. Kwangtung produces only 60 to 70 per cent of its food requirements.

There are only two bright spots in the Chinese food crisis today: Railroads are running again that the war is about over, and farmers whose fields had been turned into battlegrounds may now put the plow to them once again.

Chinese Reds Seize Briton

HONG KONG, Jan. 17 (AP)—Chinese Communists have seized a British soldier who drove a jeep over the crown colony border from Kowloon. His name was given as John Stohn Celquhoun, a member of the Fourteenth Field Regimental Royal Artillery. Celquhoun drove across the frontier Monday without explanation. He was arrested by the Communists and detained at a village near the border.

CHINA PLANES RAID CANTON

23 Civilians Reported Killed In Nationalist Attack

JAN 17 1950

Hong Kong, Wednesday, Jan. 18 (AP)—Chinese Nationalist warplanes raided Canton yesterday in the heaviest attack on the South China metropolis since its capture by the Communists.

Waves of Mustang fighter-bombers swept over greater Canton in daylight, bombing and strafing targets in the city and along the waterfront.

Chinese reports said the raid immobilized the city all afternoon.

The planes hit Tienho airfield in Canton's suburbs, the rail depot and shipping anchored in the Pearl River off Canton. A coal train on the Kowloon-Canton railway was reported hit.

16 Killed In Bus

Chinese press dispatches reported at least 23 civilians killed and scores wounded.

These reports said sixteen were killed and twelve wounded in a bus strafed in a Canton suburb.

The Chinese river steamer Leikwan was machine-gunned as she came upriver to Canton. Six passengers and two crewmen were reported killed.

The Canton raid topped off a day of widespread Nationalist air attacks on Chinese Communist mainland bases where an invasion force is being built up for assaults on Nationalist-held islands.

Nationalist air force headquarters at Taipei, Formosa, earlier declared its planes bombed 900 junks and other craft massed at Foochow. It made no claim of how many were sunk.

REDS WALK OUT OF JAP PARLEY

TOKYO, (Wednesday), Jan. 18. —(AP) The Russians took another walk today from the four-power Allied Council for Japan. It was the third time in six weeks the Soviets had left rather than discuss their failure to complete repatriation of Japanese war prisoners.

The pattern of the Russian exit was the same as at the council meeting of Dec. 20 and Jan. 4 when the repatriation issue was on the agenda.

Lt. Gen. Kuzma Derevyanko, the Soviet delegate, said:

"For reasons stated earlier and which are known to the members of the allied council, I don't think it is possible to take part in the discussion of the subject on today's agenda."

Thereupon, he rose and led his five assistants from the crowded chamber.

American officials have said 376,000 Japanese war prisoners still unaccounted for by the Soviet may be presumed to have died in Russian hands or still are held in Soviet camps.

Nationalists Report Bombing Of Junks

Seymour Topping

JAN 17 1950

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 17 (AP)—Nationalist Air Force headquarters said today its warplanes attacked a fleet of 900 junks and other craft being assembled at Foochow, across Formosa Strait, presumably for an eventual attack on Formosa. The announcement did not estimate how many junks were sunk or damaged.

Continuous bombing also was reported against targets on Liuchow Peninsula in South China. Communist troops reportedly are assembling there for an invasion of Hainan Island another major Nationalist retreat.

The official reports said that in the Liuchow bombings a number of Red military establishments and junks were destroyed in a night raid. The tip of the peninsula is 10 miles from Hainan.

Nationalist warships were in control of the Gulf of Tonkin, guarding the northwestern approaches to Hainan.

Strengthening Reported

Dispatches also reported Hainan's defenses had been strengthened by the arrival of 40,000 troops from Yunnan province.

The reinforcements belong to the command of Yu Cheng-jan and Li Mi, two commanders seized last month by turncoat Governor Lu Han. He freed them later.

The two went to Hainan after conferring in Taipei with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

The additional troops would give the Nationalists 80,000 poorly equipped first-line troops on Hainan. There are about 60,000 secondary troops on the island which served as one of Japan's main South China bases during the war.

Crack Troops

Across Hainan Strait, the Communists have a large force of crack Manchurian troops. There are some 17,000 Red guerrillas on Hainan. They control the center of the island and 100 miles along the west coast. Most of them have been there since the war.

A Nationalist announcement said P-51 fighter planes blew up six locomotives and seven coaches north of Nanking on the railroad to Tientsin.

Mitchell bombers sank four large junks in Hangchow Bay, staging point for an anticipated amphibious assault by Red troops on the Chusan Islands, blockade base 100 miles below Shanghai.

South and west of the Chusan Islands, other planes reportedly sank 100 smaller Red craft.

CHINESE PLANES BLAST AT REDS' INVASION FORCES

JAN 17 1950

Spencer Moosa

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 17—(AP) Widespread nationalist air raids today struck at mainland bases where China's communists are reported concentrating invasion forces for knockout blows at government-held islands.

The air force said its warplanes sighted and bombed 900 junks and other craft massed at Foochow. It did not say how many were sunk or damaged.

Foochow is about 130 miles across Formosa Strait from Formosa. Presumably these junks were being assembled for an eventual attack on this main nationalist island retreat.

A surprise night raid on Luichow Peninsula also destroyed a number of military targets and junks, the air force asserted. The communists are assembling on Luichow for an attack on nearby Hainan Island, second largest of those held by the nationalists off the mainland.

Official reports said nationalist warships controlled the waters of the Gulf of Tonkin, needed by the reds for an invasion of Hainan. An additional 40,000 nationalist troops, retreating from the lost campaign in southwest China, also were said to have reached Hainan.

The air force said its medium bombers sank four large junks in Hangchow Bay south of Shanghai. The bay is a staging point for red forces preparing to invade Chushan Island, the base for the nationalist blockade of Shanghai. Chushan is 100 miles south of Shanghai.

The air force said 100 smaller communist craft were sunk in other air raids west and south of Chushan.

The defense ministry reported a red attempt to seize Namoa Island, which commands the nearby port of Swatow in the southeast coast, had been beaten off. A spokesman said a red toehold on the island had been erased and "Namoa is firmly in our hands."

There was a flareup of fighting on the mainland, where the nationalists also have toeholds. The defense ministry said a battle had broken out near Wenshan, in the southwest province of Yunnan 40 miles from the border of Indochina.

Filipinos Slay Staff Chief's Aid

By the Associated Press.

MANILA, Jan. 17.—Assassins tonight tried to kill Maj. Gen. Mariano Castaneda, chief of staff of the Philippine army.

His senior aid, Lt. Col. Valentin Salgado, was killed.

The attack occurred as the general, his aid and an orderly were riding horseback near the city.

Gen. Castaneda, who was unhurt, said several bullets were fired at the party.

Burma Elections in Doubt

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 17 (AP)—An elections supervisory commission has found that general elections, scheduled for May 4, must be delayed unless the internal situation improves, it was announced today. The commission said that order had been restored in part but that things would have to get a lot better before it would be safe to hold elections.

Atom Bid To Russ 'Now' Ruled Out

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—Senator McMahon (D., Conn.) said at the White House today the time is "not propitious" for new talks with Russia about international control of atomic weapons.

Nor is it a good time for public discussion in this country of a "super A-bomb" project, he told reporters.

McMahon, the chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, had just come from a talk with President Truman, but he said they did not discuss atomic or military matters.

Mum On Hydrogen A-Bomb

He replied "no comment" when asked about widely-published reports that the Government is considering whether to undertake development of a hydrogen A-bomb which might be 1,000 times more powerful than the original atomic bomb.

McMahon first gave the same reply when asked about an article in the New York Times today saying Administration officials are urging President Truman to make another effort at reaching an atomic agreement with Russia before deciding on the development of a hydrogen bomb.

Then McMahon remarked that public discussion of the matter is untimely.

Suggests Burying Rumors

Pressed whether he felt America should not discuss the matter at home or with Soviet Marshal Stalin, he replied: "I mean both, at this time."

A reporter told McMahon there are rumors that former Secretary of the Interio Haold L. Ickes may become chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

McMahon suggested that reporters put the rumors in the "dugout." His manner implied: Bury it and forget it. But he did not elaborate.

David E. Lilienthal, the present AEC chairman, has resigned effective February 15.

TESTIMONY ENDS IN HISS TRIAL

JAN 17 1950

NEW YORK, Jan. 17 (AP) Testimony in Alger Hiss' second perjury trial came to an end today, two months to the day after the trial began.

The case is scheduled to go to the jury Friday.

The last government witness was John Foster Dulles, former U. S. senator and a trustee of the Carnegie Endowment for International peace.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy questioned him about his relation with Hiss when the 45-year-old defendant was the $20,000 a year president of the endowment. Hiss since has resigned.

Then Murphy turned to the court and said:

"That, your honor, is the government's case."

Defense Attorney Claude B. Cross had one more witness—a lawyer who aided Hiss in the first trial that ended last July in a hung jury.

In 22 minutes Cross was through.

Vandenberg Not to Draft Foreign Policy Statement

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP).—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Republican, of Michigan, has stepped aside to let Senate colleagues write the first draft of foreign policy declarations in the proposed Republican statement of party principles.

Senator Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, who heads the Senate Republican policy drafting committee of fourteen, told a reporter Senator Vandenberg said he would not submit any proposed language for the foreign policy section of the forthcoming campaign document, but the Michigan Senator does expect to be consulted about that phase of the proposed platform before it is put into final shape.

Senator Taft said he will call his committee together Thursday. As a preliminary, members of the group will meet at an informal dinner here tomorrow night with twenty-one House policy committeemen and fifteen members of the party's National Committee.

After the Senate group has culled suggestions submitted to it by other Republican Senators, Senator Taft said he will name a committee of three to sit down with a similar House group to try to work out a final draft. Clarence Budington Kelland, Arizona national committeeman and author, will be invited to join the drafting group, Senator Taft said.

Romulo Talk Halted

Orono, Maine, Jan. 17 (AP)—The University of Maine today announced cancellation, because of illness, of a scheduled address tomorrow by Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, president of the United Nations Assembly. Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, university president, said he hoped General Romulo would be able to come here next month.

EX-GI GROUPS SEEK BONUS

V.F.W. And Amvets Petition House Unit For Action

JAN 17 1950

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—Two veterans organizations today urged Congress to grant a bonus to World War II veterans.

Commanders of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Amvets made their pleas at a House veterans affairs committee hearing on a veterans legislative program for 1950.

Commanders of the American Legion and the Disabled American Veterans also appeared, but made no recommendations on the bonus issue.

Denounce Proposals

However, all four of the groups claiming a membership of 5,000,000 joined in denouncing:

1. Proposals by the Hoover Commission to strip the Veterans Administration of some of its major functions. The commanders said in a joint statement that such a move would be "unjust and ill-advised."

2. President Truman's order freezing a $237,000,000 congressional authorization for expansions of veterans unit hospitals. They termed it a "poorly advised" step.

A bill now before the veterans committee provides for a bonus—known as adjusted service compensation—at the rate of $3 a day for military service at home and $4 a day for service performed overseas.

Cost Estimates Given

Informal estimates of the cost run all the way from $20,000,000,000 to $50,000,000,000.

Harold Russell, Amvet commander, told the commitee he recognized the bonus "is an unpopular issue" in some quarters, but:

"There are many thousand veterans, particularly in the older-age brackets, who cannot collect a dime under the GI Bill of Rights and whose right to some form of financial reward for their wartime services has been utterly neglected."

Clyde A. Lewis, V.F.W. commander, recommended a bonus from which benefits received under the GI Bill of Rights would be deducted first.

Most of the commanders' testimony was aimed at changes in the VA which were recommended by the Government Reorganization Commission, headed by former President Herbert Hoover.

The commission proposed, as an economy move, shifting to other agencies some Veterans Administration functions dealing with hospitals and medical services, hospital construction, veterans' insurance and home loans.

George N. Craig, American Legion commander, told the committee that approval of the commission's program would be a "betrayal" of the veterans and their dependents.

More Grief Predicted

And in their joint statement, the commanders said it "would disrupt the Veterans Administration, a one-stop service agency, and replace it with new bureaus which would mean more grief for the veteran and more cost to the taxpayers.

Commander David M. Brown said the Disabled American Veterans are giving top priority to pushing the proposed expansion of veterans hospitals, which Mr. Truman blocked.

Brown said there already is a disgraceful situation where seriously-ill disabled veterans are being denied hospitalization for the lack of beds in veterans unit hospitals.

The expansion program would have added 16,000 beds.

BRITISH TEAM DUE TODAY

Foundry Group to Visit 16 Cities to Study American Know-How

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP) — The Economic Cooperation Administration announced today that representatives of the British foundry industry will spend the next six weeks visiting sixteen cities studying production methods.

The agency said the survey is being made under Marshall Plan provisions designed to increase European industrial output through use of American production know-how.

The British foundry workers are scheduled to arrive in New York tomorrow and thereafter make the following visits:

Jan. 20 -- Campbell Foundry Company, Harrison, N. J.; Jan. 23, R. Hoe & Co., Inc., Dunellen, N. J.; Jan. 24, Barnett Foundry and Machine Company, Irvington, N. J.; Jan. 26, Taylor & Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.; March 1, Textile Machine Works, Reading, Pa., and March 4, return to England aboard the Queen Mary.

U.S. Aid Called Defense Line By Hoffman

Philadelphia, Jan. 17 (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman today called the Marshall plan "a first line of defense for Western civilization."

Hoffman, economic co-operation administrator and director of the Marshall plan, pictured the aid program as a combatant in the cold war with Russia.

He addressed the Poor Richard Club upon receipt of that organization's 1950 Medal of Achievement. Hoffman was described in a club citation as the "Twentieth Century Prototype of Benjamin Franklin."

Hoffman said that when Vyacheslav Molotov walked out of the ECA organizational meeting in 1947 "it was a declaration of a cold war. It was a declaration of war by world communism against recovery in the free world.

"Is Much More"

"It appears that ECA today is not what it started out to be. It is much more than that.

"ECA has become not only a first line of defense for Western civilization but an instrumentality for advancing the cause of freedom—not only America's freedoms and America's free institutions but freedom and free institutions everywhere.

"To regard ECA as any less than that is to reveal a perilous lack of knowledge about the menacing facts of our world."

Hoffman's address was based on a theoretical plea to Franklin to accept the principles of foreign aid.

"Useful Charity"

And, he concluded, Franklin "would approve what we are doing to help get Europe back on its feet. To him that would make economic sense. It would appeal to his common sense, too, because he knew that the most useful charity is that charity which raises people above the need of charity.

"Unlike a few of his fellow Americans, I don't believe that Franklin would need any persuading that this program of ours should be carried through for its full four years.

"In all his long life he never quit a job half done."

Hoffman said the Marshall plan not only is sound economically and politically but that "it is right."

"Above Selfishness"

"As Americans," Hoffman said, "we have had a way, in our history, of doing the right thing for no other reason than that it was the right thing.

"And this desire on our part has been above selfishness and above self-interest. From the very beginning Americans had a sense of mission about America. They believed that the great and good society which they were founding here was not for their own good only but for the good of all mankind."

Security Council Rejects Yugoslav Chinese Demand

JAN 17 1950

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 17 (AP)—The Security Council rejected today a Yugoslav demand for Nationalist China's chief delegate, T. F. Tsiang, to give up the Council presidency immediately.

The vote was 6 to 1 against Yugoslavia. Ales Bebler, Deputy Foreign Minister of Yugoslavia, alone voted for his proposal. The United States, France, China, Egypt, Ecuador and Cuba voted against it. Britain, Norway and India abstained although their Governments have recognized the Communists regime of China.

Tsiang thus holds the Council presidency until January 31.

Russian Seat Vacant

The Russian seat was vacant. Jakob A. Malik, Deputy Foreign Minister of Russia, maintained his boycott which began last Friday when the Council refused to approve his resolution for the ouster of Tsiang.

Although Malik was absent, a member of the Soviet delegation showed up at United Nations headquarters. He was Ivan Kamenev, who left the Economic and Social Council's committee on procedure yesterday in a general Soviet walkout over the Chinese issue. He picked up some documents in the press section, had a drink at the delegate's bar, and went on his way without comment.

Bebler's proposal actually was just another twist in the Communist struggle against Nationalist China. His resolution contended serious objections had arisen against the validity of the credentials of the present Chinese representative on the Council. It called on the Council to suspend the rule under which Tsiang occupied the Council presidency during January.

Post Rotates Monthly

The Council rules specify that the countries will rotate monthly in the Council presidency in the English alphabetical order of the membership.

With Russia absent, the Council approved a French resolution sending on to the United Nations Commission for Conventional Armaments a plan for a world count of nonatomic weapons. The vote was nine in favor and none against. Bebler said he was not taking part in the vote because of the situation on the Council and because he did not agree with the plan set up by the General Assembly. He contended the decision would not be legal because Russia was absent.

Ernest Gross, United States, said Bebler by his "irrelevant" remarks was trying to throw a smoke screen around a serious effort at disarmament.

Five Employes Reinstated

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 17 (AP)—Trygve Lie, Secretary General, announced tonight he has ordered reinstatement of five fired United Nations employés whose dismissals, he said, implied unfair discrimination.

Lie's action followed a year-long inquiry into charges by the five men that they were discharged by anti-Semitic supervisors. All the discharged employés are Jews and all were employed in one small section until their dismissal in the Spring and Summer of 1948.

The inquiry had been a closely guarded secret until a short time ago when rumors began to circulate around United Nations headquarters. The case still is shrouded in some mystery since Lie did not disclose the section involved or the names of the persons.

Probed By 3-Man Board

Lie said the case had been investigated thoroughly by a three-man board of inquiry consisting of J. P. Humphrey, director of the division of human rights; David Weintraub, director of the division of economic stability, and W. B. Sutch, a member of the New Zealand delegation.

"On the basis of the report of the special board of inquiry," Lie said, "I have found no evidence establishing an overt act of anti-Semitism, nor has it been proved that any action relating to the case was motivated by anti-Semitism.

"There were, however, administrative actions of an irregular character which had the appearance of unfair discrimination against the complainants and certainly caused the complainants to suffer unjustly."

To Study Supervisors' Cases

Informed quarters said three supervisors were involved. Lie said the board of inquiry had made no recommendations regarding action against them, but he said he would review their situation in the light of their obligations to uphold United Nations principles.

"I feel most strongly that officials of the United Nations secretariat are under a special duty at all times," Lie said, "not only to act without bias and discrimination but to act in such a way that there is even no appearance of discrimination."

Informed quarters said this meant the three accused supervisors soon would leave the United Nations.

Two of the five dismissed employés already have been re-employed and will be compensated for loss of earnings. The other three will be offered reinstatement and compensation.

A STATE DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN IN WASHINGTON DENIED THE UNITED STATES WAS A PARTY TO SUCH A SECRET UNDERSTANDING. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THE UNITED STATES HAS NO OBJECTIONS TO ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP FOR THE SAAR IN THE EUROPEAN COUNCIL, WHICH HAS BEEN ADVOCATED BY FRANCE. THIS WOULD GIVE THE SAAR REPRESENTATION IN THE ASSEMBLY, BUT NOT IN THE POLICY-MAKING COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, THE UPPER HOUSE.

A FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN WAS EQUALLY INSISTENT THAT NO SECRET AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE BIG THREE POWERS ON THE SAAR WAS REACHED IN NOVEMBER.

"THE SUBJECT WAS NOT EVEN DISCUSSED," HE SAID. "THE FRENCH POLICY IN THE SAAR HAS HAD THE FULL APPROVAL OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND RUSSIA SINCE 1947."

JAMES W.RIDDELBERGER, POLITICAL ADVISER TO THE AMERICAN HIGH COMMISSION IN GERMANY, DISCLAIMED ALL KNOWLEDGE OF THE REPORTED AGREEMENT. HE ATTENDED THE PARIS CONFERENCE.

A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN DECLARED "A SAAR UNDERSTANDING" WAS REACHED IN PARIS, THOUGH IT WAS NOT MENTIONED IN THE COMMUNIQUE ISSUED AT THE END OF THE TALKS. HE DECLINED TO DISCUSS ITS EXACT NATURE

THE SAAR, WITH A POPULATION OF 900,000, IS A PART OF THE FRENCH OCCUPATION ZONE OF GERMANY. IT IS NOT A PART OF THE WEST GERMAN FEDERAL REPUBLIC. SAARLANDERS WERE ALLOWED TWO YEARS AGO TO ELECT THEIR OWN GOVERNMENT UNDER A FRENCH-FRAMED STATUTE.

FRANCE HAS LONG PRESSED FOR THE SAAR'S ENTRY INTO THE EUROPEAN COUNCIL. DIPLOMATS EXPLAINED THAT GRANTING OF SUCH A MEMBERSHIP COULD BE INTERPRETED AS A STEP TOWARD SEPARATING THE BASIN FROM GERMANY.

WEST GERMANY WANTS TO KEEP THE SAAR. CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER EXPRESSED THIS VIEW IN A WEEKEND MEETING WITH FRANCE'S FOREIGN MINISTER, ROBERT SCHUMAN.

DR.KURT SCHUMACHER, LEADER OF THE SOCIALIST OPPOSITION TO ADENAUER'S CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT, CHARGED IN BONN TODAY THAT THE WESTERN ALLIES ARE FOLLOWING "A PRIMITIVE POLICY OF NATIONALISM" OVER THE SAAR.

ADENAUER WANTS WEST GERMANY REPRESENTED AT ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL TREATY TALKS BETWEEN SAARLAND AND FRENCH LEADERS SCHEDULED FOR FEB.7 IN PARIS. SCHUMAN REFUSED TO AUTHORIZE GERMAN REPRESENTATION.

FRANCE WANTS THE REGION'S OUTPUT OF 15,000,000 TONS OF COAL ANNUALLY TO SMELT THE IRON ORES MINED IN THE NEIGHBORING FRENCH PROVINCE OF MOSELLE.

FRANCE, ACCORDINGLY, HAS WORKED OUT A PLAN FOR LEASING THE SAAR MINES FOR 50 YEARS OR SO. ADENAUER HAS SAID WEST GERMANY WOULD PREFER INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THE SAAR'S BASIC RESOURCES.

APPARENTLY BRITAIN LIKES NEITHER IDEA.

A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID A 50-YEAR FRENCH LEASE ON THE SAAR MINES MIGHT PREJUDICE THE FINAL GERMAN PEACE TREATY. THE BRITISH APPEAR TO BELIEVE THAT A PROJECT TO INTERNATIONALISE BASIC INDUSTRIES IN WESTERN EUROPEAN REGIONS MIGHT BE EXTENDED IN THE LONG RUN TO TAKE IN SOME OF BRITAIN'S OWN.

PARIS,JAN.17-(AP)-THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY VOTED TODAY TO SET UP A 12-MAN COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE RELIEF FROM COMMAND OF TWO FRENCH ARMY GENERALS, A CASE BEARING ON FRENCH INDOCHINA'S CIVIL WAR.

THE OFFICERS ARE GEN.GEORGE M.REVERS, FORMER CHIEF OF THE GENERAL STAFF, AND GEN.CHARLES MAST, RETIRED, FORMER RESIDENT GENERAL OF TUNISIA.

FORMATION OF THE COMMITTEE WAS VOTED AFTER AN ACID DEBATE BETWEEN COMMUNIST DEPUTIES AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENT.

PREMIER GEORGES BIDAULT TOLD THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, WHICH IS THE LOWER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT, THE CIRCUMSTANCES LEADING TO THE REPLACEMENT OF GEN.REVERS AS CHIEF OF THE GENERAL STAFF.

BIDAULT SAID GEN.REVERS HAD HAD DEALINGS WITH AN EX-CONVICT WHO WAS "A DOUBLE OR EVEN A TRIPLE AGENT." THE PREMIER DENIED, HOWEVER, THAT ANY MILITARY SECRETS WERE LOST, AS HAS BEEN HINTED IN FRENCH NEWSPAPER STORIES ON THE CASE.

THE WHOLE AFFAIR REVOLVES AROUND A REPORT GEN.REVERS MADE AFTER AN INSPECTION TRIP TO INDOCHINA LAST SUMMER. THE REPORT URGED THAT A MILITARY CHIEF REPLACE THE CIVILIAN HIGH COMMISSIONER IN INDOCHINA, WHERE COMMUNIST-LED NATIONALISTS HAVE BEEN FIGHTING FRENCH TROOPS TWO YEARS.

BIDAULT SAID THE REPORT WAS GIVEN TO AN EX-CONVICT NAMED ROGER PEYRE BY GEN.REVERS AND GEN.MAST AND THAT PEYRE TURNED THE REPORT OVER TO INDOCHINESE IN PARIS AND STARTED A PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN TO HAVE MAST NAMED MILITARY CHIEF IN INDOCHINA.

BIDAULT DESCRIBED PEYRE AS A MAN WHO HAD SERVED TWO YEARS IN PRISON AS A DEALER IN STOLEN PROPERTY AND CHIEF OF A PRO-GERMAN ORGANIZATION DURING THE GERMAN OCCUPATION. AT THE TIME HE WAS COLLABORATING WITH THE GERMANS PEYRE WAS ALSO ALLEGED TO HAVE BEEN WORKING IN A FRENCH RESISTANCE UNIT.

DURING DEBATE, A SOCIALIST DEPUTY SAID GEN.REVERS HAD RECOMMENDED THAT PEYRE BE NAMED TO THE FRENCH LEGION OF HONOR AS A RESISTANCE WORKER. PEYRE HAS NOW LEFT FRANCE AND IS REPORTED TO BE IN ARGENTINA.

JAN 17 1950

CHARLES LUSSY, SOCIALIST LEADER, DENIED A COMMUNIST ALLEGATION THAT AN UNNAMED MEMBER OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY HAD RECEIVED A BRIBE IN CONNECTION WITH THE AFFAIR.

A COMMUNIST PROPOSAL FOR SETTING UP AN INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE WAS BEATEN DOWN IN FAVOR OF A GOVERNMENT-SPONSORED PROPOSAL.

UNDER THE BILL ADOPTED, THE COMMITTEE WILL BE MADE UP OF FOUR MEMBERS FROM THE NATIONAL DEFENSE COMMITTEE OF THE ASSEMBLY, FOUR MEMBERS FROM THE OVERSEAS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, AND FOUR MEMBERS FROM THE JUDICIAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

COMMUNIST JACQUES DUCLOS GAVE HIS OPINION, SAYING "DOWN WITH THE COMMITTEE OF BRIBE TAKERS."

BIDAULT SAID PEYRE GOT 2,800,000 FRANCS ($8,000) FROM INDOCHINESE TO CONDUCT THE PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN IN FAVOR OF MAST.

"THE LETTERS EXCHANGED BETWEEN HIM AND THE GENERALS ARE SURPRISING," THE PREMIER SAID.

HE ADDED THAT, "REGRETFULLY, BUT WITHOUT HESITATION," THE TWO GENERALS WERE "REMOVED FROM ANY OFFICIAL COMMAND."

A SCUFFLE ON A BUS LAST SEPT.18 BROUGHT THE CASE TO LIGHT. POLICE ARRESTED AN INDOCHINESE AND FOUND REVERS' REPORT IN THE PRISONER'S BRIEFCASE.

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, JAN 17-(AP)-ROMANIA SAID TODAY THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE WAS NOT EMPOWERED TO DELVE INTO ANGLO-AMERICAN CHARGES THAT SHE HAD VIOLATED HER PEACE TREATY GUARANTEES OF FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS.

A LETTER, HANDED TO THE COURT BY A ROMANIAN REPRESENTATIVE, DECLARED THAT THE QUESTION WAS AN INTERNAL AFFAIR AND "EXCLUSIVELY A ROMANIAN MATTER."

THE INTERNATIONAL COURT HAD BEEN ASKED BY THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST OCTOBER 22 TO HAND DOWN AN ADVISORY OPINION ON CHARGES BY THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN THAT ROMANIA AND TWO OTHER COMMUNIST-LED CENTRAL EUROPEAN COUNTRIES HAD VIOLATED THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROVISIONS OF THEIR PEACE TREATIES, SIGNED EARLY IN 1947.

ALSO CHARGED WITH SIMILAR VIOLATIONS WERE HUNGARY AND BULGARIA.

NIGHT LEAD CONCENTRATION CAMPS (450)

BY RICHARD K.O'MALLEY

BERLIN,JAN.17-(AP)-EAST ZONE COMMUNISTS SOUGHT TODAY TO CAPITALIZE ON RUSSIA'S ANNOUNCEMENT SHE IS LIQUIDATING HER GERMAN CONCENTRATION CAMPS.

INTERIOR MINISTER HERBERT WARNKE CALLED A NEWS CONFERENCE AND DECLARED THE STEP WAS "AN ACT OF GREAT HUMANITY."

THE RUSSIAN ANNOUNCEMENT SAID 15,000 OF NEARLY 30,000 PERSONS IN THE CAMPS WERE BEING TURNED LOOSE IMMEDIATELY, BUT 10,500 WOULD BE TURNED OVER TO EAST GERMAN AUTHORITIES FOR DETENTION.

MOST WESTERN OBSERVERS CONSIDERED THE 30,000 FIGURE TOO LOW. ERNST REUTER, MAYOR OF WEST BERLIN, CLAIMED SOME CREDIT FOR THE RELEASE.

"WE MADE SO MUCH NOISE ABOUT CONCENTRATION CAMPS THAT THEY GOT NERVOUS," HE SAID.

THAT DID NOT PREVENT WARNKE FROM ENDEAVORING TO THROW A BROTHERLY COMMUNIST ARM AROUND THOSE LIBERATED BEHIND RUSSIAN BARBED WIRE.

HE SAID THE EAST GERMAN GOVERNMENT WOULD DO "EVERYTHING IN ITS POWER TO EASE THE TRANSITION TO NORMAL LIFE." GOVERNMENT OFFICES HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED TO SPEED UP THE ISSUANCE OF RATION CARDS AND OTHER PAPERS AND GIVE THE FORMER INMATES PRIORITY ON JOBS AND MEDICAL SERVICE, HE SAID.

THE LAST PROVISION RAISED NEWS CONFERENCE QUESTIONS, IN VIEW OF COMMUNIST REPORTS THAT LIFE BEHIND THE CAMP FENCES WAS NOT TOO HARD OR GRIM.

WARNKE SAID ONLY 112 ARE IN SUCH PHYSICAL SHAPE THAT THEY HAVE TO BE TRANSPORTED HOME ON STRETCHERS. NEITHER HE NOR GERHART EISLER, CHIEF OF INFORMATION, WOULD GIVE THE DEATH RATE OR SICKNESS FIGURES IN THE CAMPS.

"THEY DIE IN ATLANTA, TOO," SAID EISLER, A FUGITIVE FROM THE U.S. JUSTICE DEPARTMENT AS A COMMUNIST AGENT.

ASKED IF REPORTERS WOULD BE ALLOWED TO VISIT THE CAMPS, EISLER COUNTERED, "YOU CAN'T VISIT THE AMERICAN CONCENTRATION CAMPS."

THE WEST GERMAN LEAGUE OF "FIGHTERS AGAINST INHUMANITY" DECLARED IN A STATEMENT THAT THE FIRST 200 RELEASED WERE NEARLY ALL WOMEN AND WERE IN DAZED MENTAL CONDITION AND WRETCHED PHYSICAL SHAPE.

WARNKE SAID THAT HENCEFORTH EASTERN GERMANS CHARGED WITH CRIMES AGAINST THE OCCUPYING POWER WILL BE TRIED BY THE RUSSIANS, THOSE ACCUSED OF CRIMES AGAINST GERMANS WILL BE TRIED BY THE GERMANS.

A WEST GERMAN PRESS REPORT THAT MANY CAMP INMATES WERE REMOVED TO RUSSIA BEFORE CLOSING OF THE CAMPS WAS CALLED BY EISLER "AN AMERICAN SWINDLE."

REUTER TOLD A GROUP OF VISITING AMERICAN NEWSPAPER EDITORS THAT THE WEST MUST RESTORE LIBERTY TO POLAND AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

"EUROPE CANNOT BE SAVED ON THE RHINE RIVER," HE SAID. "EUROPE EXTENDS TO THE CURZON LINE. WE DO NOT HAVE TO FIGHT FOR THE LIBERTY OF GERMANY ALONE, BUT FOR THE POLES AND THE CZECHS TOO. WE HAVE TO FIGHT FOR THEIR LIBERTY TO SAVE THE PEACE OF EUROPE."

THE CURZON LINE ACROSS EASTERN POLAND WAS PROPOSED AFTER THE FIRST WORLD WAR AS THE BOUNDARY BETWEEN RUSSIA AND POLAND.

THE SWELL OF WESTERN EUROPE'S RECOVERY, REUTER SAID, IS EXERTING TREMENDOUS POLITICAL PRESSURE ON COMMUNISM, AND BY 1951 WILL DESTROY COMPLETELY COMMUNISM'S CHANCES OF WINNING THE LOYALTY OF EAST GERMANS.

BERLIN, JAN 17-(AP)-POTENTIAL GERMAN UNREST OVER THE SAAR LOOMED LARGER TODAY AS BOTH FRANCE AND WEST GERMANY STUBBORNLY CLAIMED SPECIAL RIGHTS OVER THE COAL-RICH BORDER AREA.

FRANCE, OCCUPYING THE 738-SQUARE-MILE AREA AND HOLDING SPECIAL TRADE AND ECONOMIC PRIVILEGES THERE, IS REPORTEDLY SEEKING TO LEASE THE SAAR'S VALUABLE COAL MINES FOR 50 YEARS.

WEST GERMAN CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY HE DISAGREED WITH FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN ON "MANY POINTS" INCLUDING FRENCH COAL RIGHTS IN THE SAAR. THE SAAR AND ITS COAL MINES BELONGS TO WEST GERMANY, HE DECLARED.

THE QUESTION OF FUTURE CONTROL OF THE SAAR, RAISED DURING SCHUMAN'S SOCALLED GOODWILL VISIT TO GERMANY, HAS BROUGHT INTO THE OPEN OLD BITTERNESSES BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY. AND IT FANNED THE PROPAGANDA WAR BETWEEN EAST AND WEST GERMANY.

IT HAD REPERCUSSIONS IN LONDON WHERE SOURCES CLOSE TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT SAID THE PROPOSAL TO LEASE SAAR COAL MINES TO THE FRENCH MIGHT "PREJUDICE" THE GEMAN PEACE TREATY WHEN IT IS FINALLY WRITTEN. BOTH ADENAUER AND SCHUMAN AGREED THAT THE SAAR'S FUTURE WOULD NOT BE DETERMINED UNTIL THE PEACE TREATY IS CONCLUDED, BUT IN THE MEANTIME THE FRENCH SEEMED SET ON DEVELOPING THEIR PRESENT ECONOMIC UNION WITH THE SEMI-AUTONOMOUS SAAR GOVERNMENT WHICH RULES 800,00 SAARLANDERS.

THE EAST-WEST PROPAGANDA BATTLE FOR SUPPORT OF THE GERMAN POPULATION WAS MARKED YESTERDAY BY THE NICELY-TIMED RUSSIAN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE SOVIETS WERE GIVING UP CONTROL OF EAST ZONE CONCENTRATION CAMPS WHERE AN ESTIMATED 30,000 GERMANS ARE HELD. GEN.VASSILY CHUIKOV, CHIEF OF THE SOVIET CONTROL COMMISSION, SAID 15,000 PRISONERS WILL BE FREED IMMEDIATELY AND 14,000 OTHERS TURNED OVER TO EAST GERMAN AUTHORITIES.

BUT THE WEST GERMANS HAD AN EFFECTIVE ANSWER TO THE PROPAGANDA-WISE EAST GERMAN COMMUNISTS WHO POINTED TO THE SWINGING GATES OF SACHSENHAUSEN, BUCHENWALD AND BAUTZEN CAMPS.

THE WEST GERMAN FEDERAL REPUBLIC ANNOUNCED THE END OF ALL FOOD RATIONING EXCEPT SUGAR, EFFECTIVE MARCH 1.

THIS WAS REGARDED BY OBSERVERS AS A BITTER PILL FOR FOOD-SCARCE EAST GERMANY TO SWALLOW.

THE WESTERN ALLIES, HOWEVER, APPARENTLY LEFT SOMETHING TO BE DESIRED BY WEST GERMANY IN THE MATTER OF SECURITY AGAINST ANY POSSIBLE RUSSIAN ATTACK.

CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER OF THE WEST GERMAN REPUBLIC SAID SCHUMAN HAD GIVEN HIM CERTAIN FRENCH "ASSURANCES" FOR WEST GERMANY'S FUTURE SECURITY. HE SAID IF SIMILAR ASSURANCES CAME FROM BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES HE WOULD FEEL BETTER.

Berlin, Jan . 17-(ap)-gerhart eisler, now information chief of the communist east german government, referred to walter ulbricht today as "m inister president," but he said later it was jus t a matter of convenience.

There has been much speculation about what has happened to otto grotewohl, the minister president, reported ill in a soviet zone hospital and then, later, on a rest cure in the soviet union. Ulbricht has been his deputy. the west german press has been insisting grotewhhl is the victim of a communist purge.

Eisler dropped the dagger "deputy" from ulbricht's title in a news conference. asked later if it was intentional, he replied he did so only because the extra wor d made ulbricht's title "too long."

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN.17-(AP)-THE WEST GERMAN PRESS STRONGLY SUPPORTED CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER TODAY IN OPPOSING ANY CLOSER ATTACHMENT OF THE SAAR TO FRANCE.

SEVERAL NEWSPAPERS EXPRESSED ALARM AT THE FRENCH PLANS TO SEEK A 50-YEAR LEASE ON THE SAARLAND COAL MINES.

THEY INSISTED THE FUTURE FATE OF THE SAAR SHOULD NOT BE PREJUDICED BEFORE IT IS SETTLED BY THE PEACE TREATY. AND THEY DEMANDED THAT GERMANY SHOULD HAVE A VOICE IN THE SETTLEMENT.

THE WIESBADEN KURIER EXPRESSED DOUBT THAT SAARLAND'S MINISTER PRESIDENT, JOHANNES HOFFMANN, REPRESENTS THE REAL DESIRES OF THE SAAR'S RESIDENTS IN HIS DEALINGS WITH THE FRENCH.

THE KURIER SAID THAT HOFFMANNS GOVERNMENT WAS CHOSEN AND ITS PRO-FRENCH POLICIES FORMED IN THE "CHAOTIC TIMES" RIGHT AFTER THE WAR WHEN MANY GERMANS WERE DRIVEN BY DESPERATION TO SEEK ATTACHMENT TO OTHER COUNTRIES. NOW, THE PAPER CHARGED, HOFFMAN IS ONLY "TRYING TO JUSTIFY HIS OFFICE WHICH WAS CREATED IN HUNGER TIMES"--WHILE THE PEOPLE'S FEELINGS HAVE CHANGED.

THE WUERZBURG MAINPOST SAID FRANCE SEEMS TO HAVE THE IMPRESSION THAT GERMANY WILL YIELD EASILY "AS LONG AS SHE IS BEGGING HUMBLY FOR ADMISSION TO THE EUROPEAN FEDERATION."

"THIS ILLUSION SHOULD BE DISPELLED BY THE FIRM AND UNANIMOUS ATTITUDE OF THE GERMAN STATESMEN, ESPECIALLY OF CHANCELLOR ADENAUER," THE MAINPOST SAID.

MUNICH'S SUDDEUTSCHE ZEITUNG EXPRESSED DISAPPOINTMENT AT THE RESULTS OF THE RECENT VISIT TO BONN BY THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER, M. ROBERT SCHUMAN.

BUT, THE PAPER COMMENTED, THE SHARP WORDS WHICH ADENAUER USED ON THE SAAR QUESTION MIGHT LEAD TO A BETTER MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN GERMANY AND FRANCE ON THIS ISSUE.

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 17-(ap)-Yugoslavia, apparently in search of greater efficiency, has begun decentralizing control of some of her key industries.

JAN 17 1950

Premier-Marshal tito's government, ever since the war's end, has been building up a firm central government control over the country's industry. Now it is beginning to relax these controls, and the move has much more than local significance.

The move reflect's tito's confidence in yugoslav unity in the face of attacks from the soviet union and the cominform and the economic pressure they have brought against yugoslavia to force it into line.

In fact, tito, by relaxing such controls, would be compounding what the soviet union and the cominform regard as one of his felonies -- failure to accomplish total centralization with full speed.

JAN 17 1950

Yet this new decentralization move demonstrates no change in the communist nature of the tito government. It is purely a matter of expediency, to get out more production for export so that yugoslavia can buy more goods she needs.

(at the same time there is indication in this development of an admission by tito's government that its ambitious plans for industrialization could not work out in a land which was almost totally agrarian at one time. Under the five-year plan for industrialization, yugoslavia was planning to produce much in heavy industry to change the face of her economy. But a plan of this sort was bound to have a telling effect on the nation's vital agriculture, with peasants dragooned for factory work, and upon small industry which produces consumer goods for this country's own population. Both were bound to suffer by an all-out industrialization plan.)

The new program is reflected in the announcement of the official program that the yugoslav republic of bosnia-hercegovina newspaper borba has been reorganising a number of its old ministries and creating two new ones. there were similar steps in other parts of tito's land, in advance of local and federal elections -- probably late in march -- in which the communist-controlled people's front government will ask for a vote of confidence.

art heritative sources say the decision to decentralize was taken after long and careful studies of production which showed that the output under local controls exceeded that under federal administration.

it is probable that the loosening of the central government's grip on industry would be done reluctantly, except for the fact that yugoslavia, which must meet growing obligations under her new trade agreements with the west, must get more production.

JAN 17 1950

This task has been complicated by the need for keeping an army of 800,000, second strongest in europe, on the alert against the possibility of a soviet-sparked campaign against this country. Moreover, the five-year plan for heavy industry has had to be revamped, so that yugoslavia could make up for the lack of goods once promised by the cominform countries but undelivered since the moscow-tito war of nerves.

JAN 17 1950

this war of nerves has been going on for some 20 months now. all though it, tito and his top lieutenants have consistently held to the line that they, not their opponents, are closest to the philosophies of marx and lenin.

This attitude was reflected again today with increasing sharpness in yugoslav press comment on russia's decision to restore the death penalty for crimes of treason.

sarcastic ally the official press recalled an article by andrei vishinsky, now foreign minister of russia. In 1947, it said, vishinsky praised the abolition of the death penalty as a logical result of the development of the soviet s tate. Borba said today that, on the contrary, the death sentence for "trait ors" was aimed at those who resent unequal relations impos ed by the soviet union, as yugoslavia resents them.

HELSINKI, FINLAND, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 18-(AP)--PRESIDENT JUHO PAASIKIVI TOOK AN EARLY LEAD TOWARD RE-ELECTION TODAY IN RETURNS FROM THE TWO-DAY VOTING FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS WHICH ENDED YESTERDAY.

THE COALITION OF SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, CONSERVATIVES AND SWEDISH PEOPLES PARTY MEMBERS WHICH SUPPORTED PAASIKIVI CHALKED UP AN AGGREGATE 58.8 PER CENT MAJORITY OVER THE OPPOSITION.

BUT SOME OF THE INDIVIDUAL PARTIES SUPPORTING THE INCUMBENT PRESIDENT LOST GROUND TO AGRARIANS AND THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED PEOPLES DEMOCRATIC PARTY, BOTH OF WHICH OPPOSED HIS RE-ELECTION ON DIFFERENT GROUNDS.

JAN 17 1950

STRONGEST SINGLE OPPONENT TO PAASIKIVI'S COALITION WAS THE LIBERAL AGRARIAN PARTY, WHOSE CANDIDATE IS DR. URHO KEKKONEN. THE AGRARIANS APPARENTLY LOST GROUND BECAUSE OF A NUMBING COLD WAVE WHICH KEPT MANY OF THEIR RURAL SUPPORTERS AWAY FROM THE POLLS.

THE BIG SURPRISE WAS IN THE GAIN BY THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED PEOPLES DEMOCRATS, WHOSE CANDIDATE WAS FORMER PREMIER MAUNO PEKKALA.

THERE WAS A NEW DEVELOPMENT IN THE RELATIONS BETWEEN FINLAND AND RUSSIA.

THEY POINT OUT THE CHINESE AIR FORCE IN THE PAST HAS BEEN NOTABLE BY ITS ABSENCE IN COMBAT.

OBSERVERS ADMIT RECENT REPORTS INDICATE NATIONALIST AIRMEN NOW ARE MORE WARLIKE THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE CHINA'S CIVIL WAR STARTED.

ONE REASON FOR THIS, THESE OBSERVERS BELIEVE, IS THE REALIZATION IF THEY DON'T DO SOMETHING NOW THEY WILL ALL BE OUT OF JOBS BEFORE LONG.

ANOTHER IS THAT IF THE AIR FORCE SHOWS SPUNK AND AGGRESSIVENESS, THE NATIONALISTS STILL HOPE THE UNITED STATES WILL PITCH IN AND HELP THEM FIGHT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

THERE IS SOME SPECULATION THAT THE CHINESE REDS WILL TAKE TO THE AIR ONCE THEY START FOR FORMOSA, NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD.

THE REDS HAVE SOME BOMBERS THAT DESERTED THE NATIONALIST AIR FORCES. POSSIBLY RUSSIAN INSTRUCTORS HAVE TRAINED SOME RED CHINESE AIRMEN.

AN AMPHIBIOUS FORCE TRYING TO CROSS THE 100 MILE STRAIT TO FORMOSA FROM THE CHINESE MAINLAND COULD BE HAMMERED TO PIECES BY BOMBERS IF THE ATTACKING FORCE DID NOT HAVE AN AIR UMBRELLA.

SPEAKING AT THE ANNUAL DINNER OF MONTREAL HISTADRUT, A JEWISH WELFARE ASSOCIATION, BARKLEY THEN ADDED THAT THE DESTINY OF THE MIDDLE EAST DEPENDED ON THE ABILITY OF THE CITIZENS OF ISRAEL TO MAKE THEIR COUNTRY ECONOMICALLY SOUND.

"ANY SACRIFICE ON THE PART OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONS OF THE WORLD TO ENSURE THIS END IS WORTHWHILE," HE STATED.

"ISRAEL IS NOT STRONG FINANCIALLY," HE ADDED. "SHE CANNOT DO WHAT SHE NEEDS BY HERSELF. SHE NEEDS ALL THE HELP THAT CAN BE AFFORDED NOW SO THAT SOME DAY SHE WILL ONCE MORE BECOME THE LAND OF MILK AND HONEY AS IN BYGONE TIMES."

(400) ATOMIC-PLANES

JAN 17 1950

BY JAMES J.STREBIG
ASSOCIATED PRESS AVIATION REPORTER

WASHINGTON, JAN.17-(AP)-THE NATION'S TOP AGENCY FOR AIR RESEARCH SEES PROGRESS IN THE RACE WITH RUSSIA FOR PRACTICAL FASTER-THAN-SOUND FIGHTING PLANES NEEDED IN ATOMIC WARFARE.

PRODUCTION OF SUCH FAST HURTLING SHIPS IS DIFFICULT BUT IT CAN BE DONE "BY ANY NATION WILLING TO MAKE THE EFFORT," THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS (NACA) SAID YESTERDAY IN ITS YEARLY REPORT TO CONGRESS.

THE NACA, WITHOUT ACTUALLY NAMING RUSSIA, SAID IT CAN BE ASSUMED THAT THE SOVIET IS MAKING AN "INTENSIVE EFFORT" TO DEVELOP THE BEST MEANS OF DELIVERING ATOMIC BOMBS AS WELL AS TO DEFEND AGAINST THEM. SUPERIOR SPEED IS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AS THE "MOST IMPORTANT SINGLE ELEMENT" IN BOTH, THE AGENCY SAID.

THE UNITED STATES' PROGRESS IN THE SEARCH FOR PRACTICAL MILITARY CRAFT OF SUPERSONIC SPEED WAS BURIED IN 50 PAGES OF REPORTS ON TECHNICAL STUDIES MADE DURING THE PAST YEAR. IT SHOWED AMONG OTHER THINGS:

1. THE AIR FORCE X-1 SUPERSONIC ROCKET-POWERED RESEARCH PLANE HAS BEEN MANEUVERED AT VERY HIGH SPEEDS.
2. THE X-1 AND THE NAVY D-558-II JET AND ROCKET POWERED RESEARCH PLANE HAVE BEEN FLOWN REPEATEDLY AT SUPERSONIC SPEEDS IN A PROGRAM FOR MATCHING ACTUAL FLIGHT DATA WITH THE RESULTS OF WIND TUNNEL TESTS.
3. "A LARGE NUMBER OF SUCCESSFUL FLIGHTS" HAVE BEEN MADE WITH OTHER RESEARCH PLANES, INTENDED TO EXPLORE FLIGHT PROBLEMS CLOSE TO SONIC SPEED.
4. AUTOMATIC FLIGHT CONTROLS ARE BEING DEVELOPED FOR POSSIBLE USE ON AIRPLANES AS WELL AS ON GUIDED MISSILES.
5. SUCCESSFUL TESTS HAVE BEEN MADE WITH "HUNTER" CONTROLS FOR TARGET-SEEKING MISSILES.
6. STUDIES ARE UNDERWAY TO DETERMINE THE ANSWER TO HEATING RESULTING FROM FRICTION AT SUPERSONIC SPEEDS.
7. LABORATORY STUDIES ARE BEING MADE OF FLIGHT CONTROL AND HEATING PROBLEMS AT EXTREME ALTITUDES WHERE THE AIR IS VERY THIN.

THE NACA MADE NO REFERENCE TO SPECIFIC SPEEDS FOR RESEARCH PLANES. IT SAID THE FLIGHT CHARACTERISTICS OF THE X-1, USING ONLY THE AILERONS OR WING SECTION CONTROLS, HAD BEEN STUDIED DURING ROLLS IN GLIDES "AT HIGH MACH NUMBERS."

MACH IS A WORD USED TO RELATE THE SPEED OF SOUND TO ATMOSPHERIC CONDITIONS. SONIC SPEED VARIES WITH TEMPERATURE. AT SEA LEVEL WITH THE TEMPERATURE 59 DEGREES, SOUND TRAVELS 761 MILES AN HOUR. IN THE STRATOSPHERE WITH A TEMPERA

MACH IS A WORD USED TO RELATE THE SPEED OF SOUND TO ATMOSPHERIC CONDITIONS. SONIC SPEED VARIES WITH TEMPERATURE. AT SEA LEVEL WITH THE TEMPERATURE 59 DEGREES, SOUND TRAVELS 761 MILES AN HOUR. IN THE STRATOSPHERE WITH A TEMPERATURE OF MINUS 67 DEGREES, ITS SPEED IS 662 MPH.

THE X-1, WHICH SO FAR AS IS KNOWN IS THE WORLD'S FASTEST PLANE, HAS REACHED ABOUT ONE AND A HALF TIMES SONIC SPEED AT ALTITUDE. THAT APPROXIMATES 960 MILES AN HOUR. IT HAS MERELY TOUCHED SUCH SPEEDS, HOWEVER, SINCE PRESENTLY FLYING MODELS HAVE FUEL FOR ONLY TWO MINUTES OR SO AT FULL POWER. RESEARCH PLANES CARRY ONLY RECORDING EQUIPMENT.

(380) CHINA-WALLACE

WASHINGTON, JAN.17-(AP)-SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) SAID TODAY A SECRET REPORT ON CHINA WRITTEN BY FORMER VICE PRESIDENT HENRY A. WALLACE IN 1944 LAID THE BASIS FOR AMERICAN CHINA POLICY.

FERGUSON TOLD A REPORTER HE HAS SEEN A SYNOPSIS OF THE WALLACE REPORT WHICH NEVER HAS BEEN MADE PUBLIC.

"THE TENOR OF THIS REPORT," FERGUSON SAID, "WAS THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD SHIFT ITS SUPPORT FROM CHIANG KAI-SHEK TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS."

THE MICHIGAN SENATOR SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S WHITE PAPER ON CHINA--A REVIEW OF LONG-TIME AMERICAN POLICY IN CHINA--DID NOT CONTAIN THE WALLACE REPORT.

AT SOUTH SALEM, N.Y., WALLACE SAID HE WAS "GLAD THAT SOMEONE FINALLY IS TAKING AN INTEREST IN MY REPORT TO THE PRESIDENT OF JULY 10,1944."

HE ADDED THAT "UNFORTUNATELY THE STATE DEPARTMENT DID NOT SEE FIT TO INCLUDE IT IN ITS WHITE PAPER."

WALLACE SAID SEN.HERBERT O'CONOR (D-MD) HAD ASKED HIM FOR A COPY OF THE REPORT EARLY LAST MONTH AND THAT HE HAD "GLADLY" FURNISHED O'CONOR WITH A COPY.

"SENATOR FERGUSON CAN GET FROM SENATOR O'CONOR A COMPLETE TRANSCRIPT AND IF HE WILL READ IT, AND THE ACCOMPANYING MEMORANDUM, ENTITLED 'A POSSIBLE POLICY LINE RELATIVE TO LIBERAL ELEMENTS IN CHINA,' HE'LL FIND THAT THERE IS NO BASIS WHATEVER FOR HIS CALCULATED AND DELIBERATE SMEAR OF THE ADMINISTRATION AND ME," HE SAID.

WALLACE ADDED THAT "IF THE ADMINISTRATION AND GENERAL CHIANG HAD FOLLOWED THE LINE I LAID DOWN IN THIS REPORT AND MEMO WE WOULD BE IN A MUCH STRONGER POSITION IN THE ORIENT THAN WE ARE TODAY.

"IN FACT I MAY SAY THE WHOLE HISTORY OF THE WORLD MIGHT HAVE BEEN CHANGED THEREBY."

HE SAID CLARENCE GAUSS, THEN AMBASSADOR TO CHUNGKING, "SEEMED TO HAVE VERY MUCH THE SAME VIEWPOINT AS THAT WHICH I PRESENT IN THIS MEMORANDUM.

"I DO NOT SAY THAT OTHER ELEMENTS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT NECESSARILY HAVE THE SAME VIEWPOINT," WALLACE ADDED.

THE WHITE PAPER DISCUSSES AT LENGTH A SERIES OF NOTES WHICH WALLACE MADE ON HIS CONVERSATIONS WITH CHIANG KAI-SHEK IN 1944.

BUT FERGUSON INSISTED THE "SECRET REPORT" IS SEPARATE FROM THESE NOTES.

A DEMOCRATIC SENATOR ALSO TOLD A REPORTER HE HAS SEEN THE DOCUMENT MENTIONED BY FERGUSON.

"I AM CHECKING," HE SAID, "TO DETERMINE IF IT IS AUTHENTIC."

"THIS SYNOPSIS GOES ON TO SAY THE CHIANG KAI-SHEK GOVERNMENT WAS NO GOOD AND IT WOULD COLLAPSE IN 60 DAYS," FERGUSON SAID. "IT SAYS THE UNITED STATES SHOULD SHIFT TO THE SIDE OF THE COMMUNISTS AND GIVE NO HELP TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK BECAUSE WE COULD EXPECT MORE FAVORABLE TREATMENT FROM THE COMMUNISTS THAN THE NATIONALISTS."

FERGUSON GAVE THIS STATEMENT TO A REPORTER AFTER HE OPENED AN ATTACK ON THE SENATE FLOOR AGAINST THE ADMINISTRATION'S FAR EAST POLICY.

FERGUSON SAID IN HIS SPEECH THE UNITED STATES' CHINA POLICY MIGHT BE CALLED THE "HENRY WALLACE PLAN FOR ASIA."

HE RECALLED WALLACE'S VISIT TO CHINA AS VICE PRESIDENT AND SAID WALLACE "HOPEFULLY SAW" THE COMMUNISTS AS BECOMING THE POST-WAR POWER IN CHINA.

"THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S 'WHITE WASH PAPER' ON CHINA SAYS THERE IS NO RECORD OF A REPORT ON THAT VISIT," HE SAID. "I HAVE REASON TO BELIEVE SUCH A REPORT EXISTS AND MIGHT BE FOUND IN THE ARCHIVES OF THE ARMY'S HISTORICAL SECTION."

FERGUSON SAID THE MISSION TO CHINA HEADED BY GENERAL GEORGE C. MARSHALL "WAS THE CULMINATION OF WHAT I WOULD CALL THE WALLACE PLAN IN OPERATION."

BEFORE BECOMING SECRETARY OF STATE, GENERAL MARSHALL WENT TO CHINA IN AN EFFORT TO BRING AN END TO THE CHINESE CIVIL WAR. THIS MISSION FAILED WHEN HE COULD NOT BRING THE NATIONALISTS AND THE COMMUNISTS INTO A COALITION GOVERNMENT.

"WHEN THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS REFUSED TO MIX WATER WITH GASOLINE, AN EXPERIMENT WE NAIVELY ENDORSED," FERGUSON SAID, "THEY WERE WRITTEN OFF OUR LISTS AND LEFT TO SHIFT FOR THEMSELVES AGAINST THE TIDE OF COMMUNISM WHICH ROSE FROM THAT POINT FORWARD, WITH DIRECT AID FROM MOSCOW."

(240) FOLO LONDON SAAR

WASHINGTON, JAN.17-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES HAS NO OBJECTION TO GIVING THE SAAR AN ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP ON THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE.

DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS EXPLAINED THAT GRANTING SUCH A MEMBERSHIP COULD BE INTERPRETED AS A STEP TOWARD SEPARATING THE COAL-RICH SAAR BASIN FROM GERMANY.

"ITS AT LEAST A MOVE TOWARD POLITICAL AUTONOMY," THESE OFFICIALS SAID.

FRANCE HAS BEEN DEMANDING COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP FOR THE SAAR. AN ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP WOULD GIVE THE SAAR REPRESENTATION IN THE COUNCIL'S ASSEMBLY BUT NOT ON THE POLICY-MAKING COUNCIL OF MINISTERS.

THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE IS AN ORGANIZATION SET UP BY WESTERN EUROPEAN STATES TO PROMOTE EUROPEAN UNITY.

THE STATE DEPARTMENTS PRESS OFFICER, MICHAEL J.MCDERMOTT, SAID SECRETARY ACHESON INFORMED FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER SHUMAN OF THIS COUNTRY'S ATTITUDE AT THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETING IN PARIS LAST NOVEMBER.

MCDERMOTT ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT ACHESON DID THIS "ON THE UNDERSTANDING THAT SUCH ACTION NOT PREJUDICE THE FINAL DECISION WITH RESPECT TO THE SAAR AT THE PEACE SETTLEMENT."

MCDERMOTT DENIED REPORTS FROM LONDON THAT THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER WESTERN POWERS HAVE MADE A "SECRET AGREEMENT OR UNDERSTANDING" ON DETACHING THE SAAR FROM GERMANY AND GIVING IT SEMI-INDEPENDENCE.

"WE KNOW OF NO SECRET AGREEMENT," HE SAID. "WE ARE NOT A PARTY TO ONE."

(300) ATOMIC-UNAMERICAN

WASHINGTON, JAN.17-(AP)-THE CONGRESSIONAL PROBE INTO STORIES OF URANIUM SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA WILL BE REOPENED JANUARY 24, WITH HENRY A. WALLACE BILLED AS THE TOP WITNESS.

THE WARTIME VICE-PRESIDENT HAS BEEN INVITED BY THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE TO PUBLICLY REPLY TO A STATEMENT BY A RADIO COMMENTATOR THAT WALLACE EXERTED PRESSURE TO GET ATOMIC SUPPLIES FOR RUSSIA DURING THE WAR.

SINCE WALLACE REQUESTED THE HEARING LAST MONTH AFTER THE BROADCAST, HE WAS EXPECTED TO ACCEPT THE INVITATION WITHOUT DELAY. HE HAS CALLED THE RADIO STATEMENTS, VOICED BY FULTON LEWIS, JR., "SHEEREST FABRICATION."

COMMITTEE MEMBERS DISCLOSED THAT THEY ALSO MAY RECALL FOR QUESTIONING GEORGE RACEY JORDAN, WARTIME AIR FORCE MAJOR. JORDAN SAID ON A LEWIS BROADCAST THAT URANIUM SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA WENT THROUGH THE GREAT FALLS, MONT., AIR BASE WHILE HE WAS THERE DURING THE WAR.

THEY WILL AGAIN QUESTION LT.GEN.LESLIE R.GROVES, RETIRED, ON JANUARY 25 AT THE INSISTENCE OF REPUBLICAN MEMBERS WHO WERE ABSENT WHEN THE WARTIME DIRECTOR OF THE ATOM BOMB PROJECT WAS QUIZZED LATE LAST YEAR.

WHETHER COMMITTEE AGENTS HAVE ANY NEW LEADS IN THEIR INVESTIGATION HAS NOT BEEN DISCLOSED. THEY HAVE INDICATED THAT THEY MAY SPRING SOME DISCLOSURES CONCERNING RUSSIA'S ABILITY TO OBTAIN HIGHLY SECRET MATERIALS.

GENERAL GROVES TOLD THE COMMITTEE DURING HIS RECENT APPEARANCE THAT NEITHER WALLACE NOR THE LATE HARRY L.HOPKINS HAD PUT PRESSURE ON HIM TO EXPEDITE SHIPMENTS OF VITAL MATERIALS TO RUSSIA. JORDAN HAD SAID THAT HOPKINS, ONETIME TOP ADVISER TO FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT, TOLD HIM IN 1944 TO EXPEDITE A SHIPMENT OF URANIUM TO RUSSIA BY PLANE FROM GREAT FALLS.

REPUBLICANS ON THE COMMITTEE SAY THAT CLOSER QUESTIONING OF GROVES MAY BRING TO LIGHT DETAILS OF RUSSIA'S EFFORTS TO OBTAIN ATOMIC MATERIAL. THEY PROTESTED AFTER THE EARLIER HEARING THAT THE DEMOCRATS WERE TRYING TO "WHITE WASH" THE FORMER NEW DEAL OFFICIALS.

(390) SECOND NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN

BY MORGAN REYNOLDS

WASHINGTON, JAN.17-(AP)-SENATE DEMOCRATS UNITED TODAY BEHIND PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S HANDS-OFF-FORMOSA STAND AS A REPUBLICAN CRITIC DECLARED THAT THIS COUNTRY'S CURRENT CHINA POLICY IS BASED ON SECRET RECOMMENDATIONS OF HENRY A. WALLACE.

SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) SAID THAT A YEAR BEFORE THE END OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR WALLACE ADVOCATED HALTING U.S. ARMS AID TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALIST FORCES AND THROWING AMERICAN SUPPORT TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

FERGUSON DECLARED THAT WALLACE'S PROPOSALS WERE CONTAINED IN A REPORT THE FORMER VICE PRESIDENT DRAFTED ON HIS 1944 VISIT TO THE FAR EAST. HE SAID THIS REPORT HAS NOT BEEN MADE PUBLIC BUT THAT HE HAS SEEN A SYNOPSIS OF IT.

WALLACE TOLD A REPORTER AT SOUTH SALEM, N.Y., LATE TODAY THAT HE HAD MADE A REPORT TO THE WHITE HOUSE ON JULY 10, 1944. IT WAS ACCOMPANIED, HE SAID, BY A MEMO ENTITLED "A POSSIBLE POLICY LINE RELATIVE TO LIBERAL ELEMENTS IN CHINA."

THE DOCUMENTS, WALLACE CONTINUED, SHOW THERE IS NO BASIS FOR FERGUSON'S "CALCULATED AND DELIBERATE SMEAR OF THE ADMINISTRATION AND ME."

IF THE ADMINISTRATION AND GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK HAD FOLLOWED THE LINE SUGGESTED IN THE REPORT, WALLACE SAID, "WE WOULD BE IN A MUCH STRONGER POSITION IN THE ORIENT THAN WE ARE TODAY."

"THIS SYNOPSIS GOES ON TO SAY THAT THE CHIANG KAI-SHEK GOVERNMENT WAS NO GOOD AND IT WOULD COLLAPSE IN 60 DAYS," FERGUSON TOLD THE SENATE. "IT SAYS THE UNITED STATES SHOULD SHIFT TO THE SIDE OF THE COMMUNISTS AND GIVE NO HELP TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK BECAUSE WE COULD EXPECT MORE FAVORABLE TREATMENT FROM THE COMMUNISTS THAN THE NATIONALISTS."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT HAD NO RECORD OF ANY SECRET REPORT FROM WALLACE. IT POINTED OUT THAT THE RECENT "WHITE PAPER" ON CHINA CONTAINED A SUMMARY OF NOTES THE FORMER CABINET MEMBER TOOK ON HIS TALKS WITH CHIANG.

MICHAEL MCDERMOTT, THE DEPARTMENT'S PRESS OFFICER SAID THE NOTE SUMMARY WAS PREPARED BY JOHN CARTER VINCENT, THEN CHIEF OF THE DEPARTMENT'S DIVISION OF FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS WHO ACCOMPANIED WALLACE ON HIS TRIP.

"THAT IS ALL WE KNOW ABOUT THE MATTER," MCDERMOTT SAID.

BUT FERGUSON SAID "I HAVE REASON TO BELIEVE SUCH A REPORT EXISTS AND MIGHT BE FOUND IN THE ARCHIVES OF THE ARMY'S HISTORICAL SECTION."

THE MICHIGAN SENATOR SPOKE OUT IN THE WAKE OF ASSERTIONS BY OTHER REPUBLICANS THAT A "LEFT-WING" GROUP IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOLLOWED A COURSE IN CHINA COUNTER TO THE GENERAL POLICY CONGRESS HAD LAID DOWN. GOP SENATORS HAVE BEEN DEMANDING THAT THE UNITED STATES SEND ARMS HELP TO THE REMNANTS OF CHIANG'S FORCES NOW DEFENDING FORMOSA AGAINST THE CHINESE REDS.

BUT THE SENATE DEMOCRATS, AT A PARTY CAUCUS TODAY, CLOSED RANKS IN SUPPORT OF MR.TRUMAN'S DECISION NOT TO INTERVENE ON THE ISLAND AND TO LIMIT ANY AID TO ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE. SOME OF THEM SAID THEY FEARED AN ARMS MOVE "ULTIMATELY WILL MEAN WAR."

AA1WX

FOLLOWING THE UNITY SESSION, SENATE MAJORITY LEADER LUCAS OF ILLINOIS TOLD REPORTERS:

"THE DEMOCRATS THINK THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND THE PRESIDENT ARE DEFINITELY RIGHT IN THE ACTIONS THEY HAVE TAKEN."

A FEW HOURS LATER FERGUSON WENT ON THE SENATE FLOOR TO LOOSE HIS BLAST AGAINST THE ADMINISTRATION'S HANDLING OF THE CHINA SITUATION.

FERGUSON SAID THE COMMUNISTS' SEIZURE OF THE U.S. CONSULATE IN PEIPING LAST WEEK SHOULD BAR ANY RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE RED REGIME.

"NON-RECOGNITION OF RED CHINA WOULD BE THE FIRST STEP IN PUTTING AN END TO THE APPEASEMENT POLICIES WE HAVE ENTERED SO BLINDLY TIME AFTER TIME IN RECENT YEARS," HE DECLARED. "IT WOULD BE THE FIRST STEP IN REGAINING OUR DIGNITY AND STRENGTH BEFORE A WORLD WHICH IS ALARMED TO SEE US JUMP WHEN THE COMMUNISTS PULL THE STRING."

THE DEMOCRATIC ACCORD WAS REACHED AT THE URGING OF THREE SOUTHERN SENATORS, ROBERTSON (VA), RUSSELL (GA) ANDNPEPPER (FLA).

PEPPER TOLD NEWSMEN "THERE WERE LITTLE SHADES OF DIFFERENCES OF OPINION" ON THE FORMOSA QUESTION, BUT SAID THERE WAS "NO OPPOSITION TO THE PRESIDENT'S POSITION."

THE QUESTION OF FORMOSA BIDS FAIR TO OCCUPY THE ATTENTION OF CONGRESS FOR SOME TIME. NEXT WEEK SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON AND GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, ARE DUE TO GIVE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE A CLOSED-DOOR REPORT ON FORMOSA'S MILITARY IMPORTANCE.

THE QUESTION OF THE ISLAND'S STRATEGIC VALUE IS EXPECTED TO FIGURE ALSO IN TOMORROW'S SESSION BETWEEN SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE. ACHESON ALSO WAS DUE TO TESTIFY AGAIN BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE THURSDAY BUT THIS MEETING HAS BEEN PUT OFF UNTIL NEXT WEEK BECAUSE CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) IS OUT OF TOWN.

REPUBLIDANS MEANWHILE SIGNALLED A SPREADING ATTACK ON OTHER ASPECTS

JAN 17 1950

OF THE TRUMAN FOREIGN PROGRAM.
SENATOR MILLIKIN (R-COLO), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE GOP CONFERENCE, ANNOUNCED THAT HE WILL LAUNCH AN ALL-OUT FIGHT AGAINST THE PRESIDENT'S "POINT FOUR" PLAN TO AID UNDEVELOPED AREAS OF THE WORLD.
MILLIKIN, WHO HAS GONE ALONG WITH THE ADMINISTRATION ON THE MARSHALL PLAN, TOLD A REPORTER "YOU CAN'T MAKE AN INDUSTRIAL NATION WITH A CHECKBOOK."

A182WX
UNDER THE POINT FOUR SCHEME NOW BEFORE THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS GROUP, THIS COUNTRY WOULD FURNISH SCIENTIFIC GUIDANCE TO THE BACKWARD REGIONS, PLUS GOVERNMENT-BACKED INVESTMENTS OF PRIVATE CAPITAL IN THE OVERSEAS PROJECTS.
BUT MILLIKIN SAID THAT IF THE FOREIGN COUNTRIES WOULD TAKE STEPS THEMSELVES TO PROTECT INVESTMENTS OF OUTSIDE CAPITAL "THEY CAN GET ALL THE PRIVATE MONEY THEY NEED."
"IF THEY CANNOT PROTECT FOREIGN INVESTMENTS," HE ADDED, "THEN THERE IS NO REASON WHY AMERICAN TAXPAYERS SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO TAKE GREATER CHANCES THAN PRIVATE VENTURE CAPITAL."

NEW YORK,JAN.17-(AP)-THE NEW YORK TIMES SAYS PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS BEING URGED STRONGLY BY ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS TO MAKE ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO REACH AN ATOMIC AGREEMENT WITH RUSSIA BEFORE HE DECIDES WHETHER TO PRODUCE A HYDROGEN ATOMIC BOMB.
THE HYDROGEN ATOMIC BOMB IS ESTIMATED TO BE 1,000 AS DEADLY AS THE ORIGINAL ATOMIC BOMB.
THE TIMES, IN A SPECIAL DESPATCH FROM WASHINGTON BY JAMES RESTON, SAYS DAVID E.LILLIENTHAL, CHAIRMAN OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, IS UNDERSTOOD TO BE AMONG THOSE WHO ARE ARGUING THAT THE UNITED STATES MUST REOPEN THE INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATIONS FOR CONTROL OF ALL WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION BEFORE IT ASSUMES RESPONSIBILITY FOR PRODUCING THE NEW WEAPON.
PRESIDENT TRUMAN, WHO ASKED LILLIENTHAL TO DELAY HIS RESIGNATION AS HEAD OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION TO TAKE PART IN DISCUSSIONS ABOUT THE HYDROGEN BOMB, IS EXPECTED TO MAKE HIS DECISION WITHIN THE NEXT TWO OR THREE WEEKS BOTH ABOUT PRODUCING THE NEW WEAPON AND REOPENING NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE RUSSIANS, THE TIMES SAYS.
AT THE PRESIDENT'S DIRECTION, THE SCIENTIFIC, POLITICAL AND MORAL IMPLICATIONS OF PRODUCING A HYDROGEN-ATOMIC BOMB ARE UNDER URGENT STUDY BY THE STATE AND DEFENSE DEPARTMENTS AND THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION.
LILLIENTHAL, THE TIMES SAYS, IS KNOWN TO HAVE MADE HIS VIEWS CLEAR TO THOSE WHO ARE PREPARING THEIR RECOMMENDATIONS "AND THERE SEEMS TO BE CONSIDERABLE SUPPORT FOR RAISING WITH MR.TRUMAN THESE TWO QUESTIONS:
"1. BEFORE DECIDING TO TRY TO PRODUCE A WEAPON THEORETICALLY CAPABLE OF DESTROYING TARGETS OVER AN AREA OF 50 TO 100 SQUARE MILES, SHOULD THE UNITED STATES NOT MAKE A NEW APPROACH TO PRIME MINISTER STALIN, DIRECTLY OR THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS, IN AN EFFORT TO NEGOTIATE AN INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT FOR THE CONTROL OF ALL WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION?
"2. IF THE PRESIDENT IS UNWILLING TO HOLD UP THE EFFORT TO PRODUCE THE HYDROGEN BOMB PENDING A NEW EFFORT TO REACH AN AGREEMENT WITH THE RUSSIANS, SHOULD HE NOT AT LEAST ENTER INTO NEGOTIATIONS WITH THEM IMMEDIATELY UPON ORDERIN

WITH THEM IMMEDIATELY UPON ORDERING THE 'SUPER-BOMB' TO ENTER THE PRODUCTION STAGE?"
THE TIMES SAYS THAT ALTHOUGH THERE ARE OFFICIALS WORKING ON THE PROBLEM WHO OPPOSE THE HYDROGEN-BOMB PROJECT ON MORAL GROUNDS, AND OTHERS WHO ARGUE THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD PROCEED WITHOUT WASTE OF TIME ON NEW APPROACHES TO THE RUSSIANS, THE TREND IS RELIABLY REPORTED TO BE IN FAVOR OF A RECOMMENDATION THAT ONE MORE ATTEMPT SHOULD BE MADE TO NEGOTIATE A SETTLEMENT.

JAN 17 1950

NEW YORK, JAN.17-(AP)-TESTIMONY IN ALGER HISS' SECOND PERJURY TRIAL CAME TO AN END TODAY, TWO MONTHS TO THE DAY AFTER THE TRIAL BEGAN.
THE CASE IS SCHEDULED TO GO TO THE JURY FRIDAY.
THE LAST GOVERNMENT WITNESS WAS JOHN FOSTER DULLES, FORMER U.S. SENATOR AND A TRUSTEE OF THE CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE.
ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY THOMAS F.MURPHY QUESTIONED HIM ABOUT HIS RELATION WITH HISS WHEN THE 45-YEAR-OLD DEFENDANT WAS THE $20,000 A YEAR PRESIDENT OF THE ENDOWMENT. HISS SINCE HAS RESIGNED.
THEN MURPHY TURNED TO THE COURT AND SAID:
"THAT, YOUR HONOR, IS THE GOVERNMENT'S CASE."
DEFENSE ATTORNEY CLAUDE B.CROSS HAD ONE MORE WITNESS-A LAWYER WHO AIDED HISS IN THE FIRST TRIAL THAT ENDED LAST JULY IN A HUNG JURY.

IN 22 MINUTES CROSS WAS THROUGH.
ALL THE EVIDENCE NOW WAS BEFORE THE JURY.
INCLUDED WAS THE TESTIMONY OF 110 WITNESSES---55 FOR EACH SIDE. THERE ALSO WERE 423 EXHIBITS, INCLUDING THE STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENTS OR COPIES HISS ALLEGEDLY TURNED OVER TO THE SOVIET UNDERGROUND BEFORE THE WAR.
WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, FORMER RUSSIAN SPY RING COURIER, FIRST ACCUSED HISS OF AIDING COMMUNIST SPIES AT A HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE HEARING IN THE SUMMER OF 1948.
A SPY-HUNTING NEW YORK GRAND JURY CALLED IN HISS.
THE DEFENDANT, ONCE A TRUSTED ADVISER OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, DENIED EVER GIVING CHAMBERS GOVERNMENT SECRETS OR EVEN SEEING HIM AFTER JAN.1, 1937.
THE JURY DID NOT BELIEVE HIM. HISS WAS INDICTED ON TWO COUNTS OF PERJURY.
A SIX WEEKS TRIAL ENDED IN A HUNG JURY.
SO HISS WAS TRIED AGAIN, BEGINNING NOV.17.
CHAMBERS WAS THE GOVERNMENT'S STAR WITNESS WITH HIS TALE OF FRIENDSHIP WITH HISS THAT LED TO INTRIGUE ON BEHALF OF RUSSIA.
HISS AGAIN TOOK THE STAND TO DENY THE ACCUSATIONS. HE SAID CHAMBERS NEVER WAS MORE THAN A CASUAL PREWAR ACQUAINTANCE.
CONVICTION ON BOTH COUNTS CARRIES A MAXIMUM PENALTY FOR HISS OF 10 YEARS IN PRISON AND $4,000 IN FINES.

NEW YORK, JAN. 17-(AP)-JAPANESE LEADERS, IN ALL FIELDS, ARE WORKING TO FURTHER THE REHABILITATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION OF THEIR COUNTRY, TAKESHI WATANABE, FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER TO JAPAN'S MINISTRY OF FINANCE, DECLARED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE TODAY.
THE CONFERENCE, HELD AT THE COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY CLUB, BROUGHT TOGETHER 24 LEADERS IN VARIOUS FIELD OF ENDEAVOR FROM JAPAN. THEY ARE IN THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY. THEY ARE A PART OF A GROUP OF 140 WHO WILL BE IN AMERICA THIS YEAR IN AN EFFORT TO FURTHER THE ARMY'S PROGRAM OF "EDUCATION FOR DEMOCRACY" OF JAPAN.
A CIVILIAN AGENCY, THE INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION, IS ADMINISTERING THIS PROGRAM AND ARRANGING THE STUDY, TRAVEL AND OBSERVATION SCHEDULES FOR THE VARIOUS GROUPS.
THE TWENTY FOUR JAPANESE WHO WERE THE GUESTS OF THE INSTITUTE AT THE NEWS CONFERENCE INCLUDE TWELVE JOURNALISTS WHO ARE NOW BEING GIVEN AN INTENSIVE COURSE OF STUDY AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY IN THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESSES OF A FREE PRESS. AFTER THEIR COURSE THERE, INCLUDING TALKS FROM SOME OF THE LEADING MEMBERS OF THE JOURNALISTIC FRATERNITY IN THE UNITED STATES, THEY WILL VISIT MANY NEWSPAPER PLANTS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.
TAKESHI WATANABE, ONE OF THE LEADING ECONOMISTS OF JAPAN, MADE THE ONLY FORMAL TALK OF THE GATHERING TODAY AND EXPRESSED THE APPRECIATION OF THE GROUP FOR THE "FAIRNESS" WITH WHICH THEY HAD BEEN TREATED AS A NATION "TRYING TO TURN OVER A NEW LEAF."
AFTER THREE AND A HALF YEARS OF INFLATIOON, FOLLOWING THE WAR, WATANABE SAID JAPAN HAD ACHIEVED A BALANCED BUDGET AND ADDED, "AT LEAST WE'VE LAID DOWN THE GROUNDWORK FOR JAPANESE ECONOMIC STABILIZATION."
WATANABE ALSO SHOWED A SENSE OF HUMOR, REMARKING THAT HE HAD HEARD SOME COMMENT "ABOUT THE SAME SORT OF SITUATION IN THE UNITED STATES."
"WE ARE TRYING HARD TO GET AND TO STAY ON OUR FEET AGAIN," HE SAID. "I CAN ASSURE YOU THAT WE WILL DO OUR BEST IN OUR SOJOURN HERE TO LEARN WHAT CAN BEST BE DONE TOWARD THE REHABILITATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION OF OUR COUNTRY AND TO ESTABLISH PEACEFUL RELATIONS WITH ALL OUR NEIGHBORS."
IN AN INFORMAL TALK PRIOR TO HIS SHORT ADDRESS TO THE CONFERENCE, WATANABE HAD SAID THAT HE "SAW NO POSSIBILITY OR NECESSITY" OF CHANGING THE VALUE OF THE YEN IN THE "NEAR FUTURE."
ASKED IF JAPAN WAS FINDING DIFFICULTY MARKETING HER EXPORTS BECAUSE OF THE BRITISH DEVALUATION OF STERLING, WATANABE SAID IT HAD BEEN EXPECTED THAT THE DEVALUATION OF THE YEN WOULD FOLLOW THE CHEAPENING OF THE POUND. "JAPAN DIDN'T AND NOW I DON'T THINK IT WILL BE NECESSARY," HE SAID.
THE FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER SAID THAT RIGHT AFTER THE WAR THERE WAS A SHORTAGE OF GOODS FOR EXPORT AND IN 1946 THE INDEX OF PRODUCTION WAS 32 PER CENT OF THE PRE-WAR LEVEL. IN 1947 HE SAID THIS ROSE TO 40 PER CENT, IN 1948 IT WAS UP TO 52 PER CENT AND IN 1949 OVER 75 PER CENT OF THE PREWAR LEVEL.
"THAT INCLUDES THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY," HE EXPLAINED, "WHICH HAS BEEN SUFFERING FROM A SHORT SUPPLY OF COTTON. THIS INDUSTRY IS SHOWING ONLY 25 PER CENT OF ITS PRE-WAR LEVEL. IF WE DIDN'T INCLUDE TEXTILES, OUR PRODUCTION WOULD ALMOST BE UP TO 100 PER CENT."
HE SAID THEIR MAJOR OBECTIVE WAS TO INCREASE FOREIGN INVESTMENT AND EVERY EFFORT WAS BEING MADE TO INCREASE THE AMOUNT OF SUCH INVESTMENT IN JAPAN. THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE, HE ADDED, WAS DEVISING SPECIAL PLANS TO MAKE FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN JAPAN AS ATTRACTIVE AS POSSIBLE.

Briton Named To Post As Sarawak Governor

London, Thursday, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Colonial Office announced early today the appointment of Anthony Foster Abell, 43, as governor and commander in chief of Sarawak to succeed Duncan George Stewart, who was assassinated by natives there in December.

Abell has been in the colonial service since his graduation from Oxford in 1929. At present he is resident of Oyo province in Nigeria.

The Colonial Office also appointed Henry Graham Gregory-Smith, another long-time colonial servant, to be resident commissioner, British Solomon Islands protectorate. He now is commissioner for the interior, British Guiana.

BERLIN RAIL RUNS SLOWED

Soviet Protests Police Seizure Of Part Of Building

Berlin, Jan. 18 (AP)—Berlin's Russian-controlled railways moved at a snail's pace today after the Soviet commander angrily protested police seizure of part of the nearly empty railway administration building in the American sector.

Twelve Russians also declined an invitation to a reception tonight by Western Allied high commissioners. The Russians said they were extremely busy "with railroad troubles."

The West Berlin newspaper Der Abend declared the Russians were retaliating.

The East zone railway administration countered that seizure of the building was causing elevated trains to run 30 and 40 minutes late.

Space Badly Needed

Elevated stations were jammed with homeward-bound workers waiting for trains. Westward train movements out of Berlin were slowed down to about one an hour.

Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, Soviet commander in Berlin, protested to the Americans and said police had invaded the basement where the railway signal network is operated.

Col. William T. Babcock, deputy United States commandant, said he had authorized West Berlin police to take over 500 to 600 vacant rooms in the big building because office space is badly needed. He said he would investigate the reported invasion of the signal offices.

During Berlin's anti-Communist railway strike last summer the building was invaded by strikers. The Americans surrounded the building, and the Russians withdrew most of their personnel, leaving the building nearly vacant.

Union Mass Meeting Set

The Russians had been allowed to use the building, though it is in the American sector, under a four-power agreement which intrusted the Russians with administration of the city's railways.

The latest differences over the railways threatened to bring to a boil disputes which have been simmering since the end of the strike. Leaders of the anti-Communist Railway Union said the workers would survey the rail question at a mass meeting Friday. They denied they had discussed or fostered a retaliatory slow-down strike.

They said the poor service today was due to withdrawal of regular trains by the railway administration.

Russians Deny Reprisals

The workers have charged that the Russians failed to keep the agreement by which last summer's strike was ended. The agreement promised payment of 60 per cent of wages in west marks, now worth about six times an east mark, and no reprisals against the strikers.

The Russians say the wage agreement did not apply to workers who live in West Berlin and work in East Berlin. The workers say it does. The Russians deny making reprisals. The union men say some of their strike leaders still are in jail.

The Western commandants broke off talks with the Russians last fall on normalizing life in divided Berlin because they said the Russians were not living up to the agreement.

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP)—John J. McCloy, United States high commissioner, is returning from Germany January 23 for consultations, the State Department announced today.

McCloy will talk over German problems with Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, and other officials and make a routine report to President Truman, an announcement said. He is expected to be in the Capital about a week before returning to Germany.

PAASIKIVI WINS FINNISH VOTE

But Fagerholm's Return As Premier Is Not Expected

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 18 (AP)—President Juho Paasikivi, under fire from Moscow and Finnish Communists, has won re-election easily in voting for presidential electors, the count showed today.

But marked gains by the Communist-led Popular Democrats and the right-wing Conservative and Progressive parties apparently doomed the Social Democratic Government of Premier Karl A. Fagerholm.

The voting was held Monday and Tuesday.

With final revisions expected to change the results only slightly, the 79-year-old Paasikivi could count 172 electoral votes in his column, against 128 for the two opposing candidates.

Pekkala Runs Second

The popular vote for Conservatives, Progressives, Swedish party and Social Democrats, all expected to support Paasikivi when the 300 electors meet February 15, was 868,693, against a combined opposition of 608,314.

Mauno Pekkala, candidate of the Popular Democrats, was second with 316,999 votes, and the Agrarian, Dr. Urho Kekkonen, was last with 291,315.

Pekkala gets 65 electoral votes and Kekkonen 63.

Figures For Parties

The figures for each party were: (per cent of vote in 1948 parliamentary election in brackets).

Party	Votes.	Per Cent.
Agrarians	291,315	19.7 (27)
Social Democrats	328,761	22.3 (27)
Popular Democrats	316,999	21.5 (19)
Conservatives	194,908	13.2 (16.5)
Swedish party	135,677	9.2 (7)
Progressives	68,804	4.7 (2.5)
Conservative-Progressive cartel	140,543	9.4

The Conservative-Progressive cartel was a union of Conservatives and Progressives in some districts. The two parties thus had a combined percentage of 27.3 against 19 per cent in 1948.

Gains By Rightists

The outstanding features of these figures were: The Communist-dominated Popular Democrats registered the second largest vote of any single party in Finland, ranking next to the Social Democrats; the losses shown by the Social Democrats and Agrarians; the gains by the right-wing Conservatives and Progressives.

The election did not change the standing of the parties in the Parliament elected in 1948.

However, it is customary for the Cabinet to resign at the inauguration of a new presidential term, and few observers believed that Fagerholm would be asked to form a new government, on the basis of his party's showing, after the inauguration March 1.

His Government, in power since July, 1948, was a minority government at best, with only 54 members in the 200-seat Parliament. The Agrarians are the largest party in the Parliament, with 56.

Coalition Expected

Observers considered it likely that Paasikivi would ask the Conservatives and Progresives, together with the Social Democrats, to form a coalition government. It was deemed unlikely that the Popular Democrats would be asked to join the coalition because cooperation between Communists and Conservatives appeared to be impossbile.

The loss in the Agrarian vote had been expected because of a cold wave which kept many rural voters from the polls.

Social Democratic losses were attributed to two causes: They entered the campaign without a candidate of their own, and thus may have lost votes to the Conservatives and Progressives. Though Vaino Tanner, former premier, said Paasikivi was not the party's candidate, most Social Democrats said they were supporting him.

Union Dissatisfaction

Unemployment in some areas and labor union dissatisfaction with the Government's handling of a demand for a 10 per cent wage boost also cut into the Social Democratic vote. The Government agreed to a 7½ per cent wage increase.

This labor dissatisfaction was believed to have accounted also for Communist gains.

Paasikivi was elected to a four-year term by Parliament in 1946 to succeed Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustaf Mannerheim, who retired from the presidency because of broken health.

India Charges Pakistan With Railway Embargo

NEW DELHI, Jan. 18 (AP).—The Pakistan government has banned all railway passenger and freight traffic between India and eastern Pakistan, an Indian government official said tonight. No reason was given by Pakistan for the ban, which goes into effect at midnight tomorrow.

The Indian official said that more than a thousand freight cars destined for India are now being held in eastern Pakistan. The government of India is seeking release of the cars, he said.

India and Pakistan have been quarreling over jurisdiction over Kashmir state and because Pakistan did not follow other British commonwealth nations in devaluing currency.

CHINESE PLANES BLAST RED FLEET SET FOR INVASION

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 18.—(AP) The Chinese Nationalist air force and navy have wrecked a Red junk fleet, making invasion of Hainan "impossible," the commander of that south China island asserted today.

Gen. Hsueh Yueh, in a report to the government on Formosa, declared the two services had sunk more than 2,000 invasion craft.

The craft, mostly junks, were massed around Luichow peninsula opposite Hainan. They have been subjected to weeks of aerial pounding. Occasionally, the navy has jumped in with forays along Luichow's coast.

(The Nationalists in Hong Kong reported Jan. 7. The air force had turned back an invasion fleet of 1,000 junks, sinking half of them).

Bombing Continues

The aerial onslaught against mainland targets continued. The air force announced fighter planes had attacked Shanghai for the second straight day. Nanking also was raided. Canton was hit Tuesday.

The air force claimed the Lunghwa air port of Shanghai was damaged further and a plane on the field wrecked. A train between Shanghai and Nanking was shot up.

Medium bombers were said to have sunk about 50 craft being assembled by the communists for an invasion of Chushan, the air and navy base 100 miles south of Shanghai.

General Hsueh, who was rated by the U. S. staff in China as one of the best general's in the Chinese army, also predicted in his report that Red guerrillas on Hainan soon would be wiped out. Hsueh won fame fighting the Japanese in Hunan province of south China.

One Port Opened

As an expression of confidence, the government proclaimed Samah, a port of Hainah's south coast, open to trade. All shipping was banned from Hainan's waters during the height of the invasion scare.

The defense ministry admitted the loss of Wenshan, 40 miles from the border of Indochina in southern Yunnan province. Communist troops were striking south, apparently in an attempt to cut the railway into Indochina and prevent the escape of nationalist troops.

(Chinese press dispatches said, however, that other Nationalist troops in the area had revolted and seized Mengtze, 60 miles west of Wenshan. The dispatches called it the last government air base on the mainland, but there are some air facilities at Sichang, far west Nationalist guerrilla base.)

Urge Li Impeachment

On the political front, a member of the Nationalist Control Yuan demanded the impeachment of acting President Li Tsung-Jen. The control Yuan, which has powers of impeachment, instead messaged Li urging his speedy return from New York, where he is taking medical treatment.

The member accused Li of deserting his country in time of distress.

Some quarters believe the Control Yuan's action was intended to force a showdown, with Li either returning or resigning. When Li left Dec. 4 he designated Premier Yen Hsi-Shan to act for him.

(Reports from Formosa reaching Hong Kong said Nationalist warplanes and warships will attempt to sink any Chinese commercial ships which try to go over to the communists.

(This was the apparent answer to the China Merchants Steamship company, which switched allegiance to the communists. Thirteen of the company's ships now fly the communist flag.

(The company has 80 other ships outside of Hong Kong in far eastern waters. Its local officials assert the ships will comply and join a Red fleet for the planned invasion of Formosa.)

CANTON IS BOMBED BY NATIONALISTS

JAN 19 1950

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 18—(AP) Canton and Shanghai were attacked yesterday in stepped-up air operations against the Chinese communist mainland, the Nationalists announced today.

(Hong Kong dispatches said the Canton raid was the biggest yet. Nationalist Mustang fighter-bombers swooped over the city and environs in waves, bombing and strafing targets in the city and shipping in the Pearl river. Chinese press reports said 23 civilians were killed and scores wounded.)

Air force headquarters said the Celestial River airfield at Canton was damaged and four 200-ton motorships in the Pearl river were destroyed.

Lunghwa airport at Shanghai was left in bad shape after the planes on that operation finished their mission, the air force asserted.

It also declared Nationalist planes sank 30 craft in an attack on communist shipping gathering for an invasion of Chu Shan island, Nationalist blockade base 100 miles south of Shanghai.

Nationalist naval headquarters reported Warships shelling Han-g chow bay and Redheld islands of the Chusan group in a night action, blew up ammunition dumps, demolished many gun emplacements, and sank two big Red junks.

The Nationalists also reported these air operations:

Bombing of 900 junks and other craft at Foochow, 130 miles across Formosa strait from this Nationalist holdout bastion. No mention was made of how many were sunk.

Attacks on targets on the Luichow peninsula in South China, springboard for an expected red assault on Hainan island.

Sinking of more than 100 craft in the Chushan island area.

ACHESON SEEKS TO SAVE VESSELS FROM CHINA REDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 — (AP) Secretary of State Acheson today sought to prevent 42 American-built merchant ships from falling into the hands of Chinese communists.

The ships were sold to Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese Nationalist government in 1947-48, but the United States still holds about $19,000,000 in mortgages on them.

Two of the ships are at Norfolk, Va. U. S. Maritime commission officials said they understood two others were at Baltimore.

Others Scattered

The others are reported scattered in Asiatic ports or far eastern waters. Six were said to be among 13 Chinese ships whose crews hoisted the Red flag at Hong Kong on Monday.

The State department said it has instructed American representatives to ask local authorities in far east ports to prevent any of the ships from sailing.

Acheson notified Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo of the action, but indicated a willingness to let the ships be used for trade with Formosa.

Formosa, an island 100 miles off the communist-held China coast, is the last stronghold of the Chinese nationalist regime.

Acheson wrote Koo:

Balance Overdue

"The department is fully conscious of the transportation requirements of Formosa in order to maintain its economic liability and will consider x x x such measures as may be possible and appropriate in the light of such needs."

The Chinese have paid a portion of the original purchase price. The balance has been overdue for several months.

The Chinese embassy said in a statement tonight that special efforts have been made to meet payments and that $1,525,898.83 was paid between last August and October. The embassy said China still owes less than $500,000.

The embassy called defection of seven of the ships to the Chinese reds "deplorable."

WALLACE TEXT BEING SOUGHT

D. Whitehead

White House Denies Knowing Of Chiang Criticism

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP)—The White House disclaimed knowledge today of a 1944 document in which Henry A. Wallace criticized Chiang Kai-shek and questioned whether he could run postwar China.

Senators were searching for the original. A copy of the report, with some omissions, was made public by Senator O'Conor (D., Md.), who said Wallace sent it to him early in December.

The report said, in part:

"Chiang, at best, is a short-term investment. It is not believed that he has the intelligence or the political strength to run postwar China. The leaders of postwar China will be brought forward by evolution or revolution, and it now appears more likely the latter."

Called Secret Report

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) has described the document as a secret report which Wallace wrote after a visit to China in the Summer of 1944—a year before the close of World War II. Wallace was then Vice President.

Ferguson and other advocates of aid to Chiang Kai-shek have complained that Chiang was jettisoned by the United States at the behest of leftists.

Wallace declared in New York last night that Ferguson was using the report in an effort to smear him and the Truman Administration. He said the United States would have been in a better position in China today if his recommendations had been followed.

The document is entitled "Summary Report of Vice President Wallace's Visit in China." The Army said today it does not show in its archives.

Truman Never Saw It

And Charles G. Ross, presidential press secretary, said it was not at the White House. He said he asked President Truman about it and the President said he never saw it.

O'Conor said that in an accompanying letter Wallace expressed surprise to him that it was not included in the State Department's China white paper, a review of Sino-United States relations.

Wallace did not supply O'Conor with certain additional conclusions which his report said were included in telegrams he sent from New Delhi in June, 1944.

Points In Summary

The summary which Wallace sent the Maryland Senator puts him in this position in 1944:

1. The United States should not limit its support to Chiang.
2. The Government could support Chinese liberal elements capable of forming a coalition government.
3. Chiang could swing over to the new coalition and lead it, but if he did not then the coalition would produce its own leader.
4. Soviet influence in Outer Mongolia was strong and "any thought of resumption of effective Chinese sovereignty would be unrealistic."

The report continues:

"Chiang, a man with an Oriental military mind, sees his authority threatened by economic deterioration which he does not understand and by social unrest symbolized in communism, which he thoroughly distrusts; and neither of which he can control by military commands.

"He hoped that aid from foreign allies would pull him out of the hole into which an unenlightened administration (supported by landlords, warlords and bankers) has sunk him and China."

POLISH DELEGATE TO UN QUITS POST

F. Carpenter

Dr. Aleksander Rudzinski Cuts Ties with Homeland, Asks to Stay in U. S.

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 18—(AP) Poland's ranking delegate at the United Nations has resigned his diplomatic post here, cut all official ties with his Russian-dominated homeland, and asked asylum for his wife and himself in the United States.

The delegate is Dr. Aleksander Rudzinski, 49, who has been legal counselor of the Polish delegation and the top Pole here in the absence of the chief delegate, Juliusz Katz-Suchy.

The break became known today in a letter Rudzinski sent to Secretary of State Dean Acheson. The primary cause was reported to be Rudzinski's unwilling walk with the Russians out of a UN commission Monday.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik walked out of the Security Council last week because the council would not oust the Nationalist China delegation. Soviet bloc delegates walked out of three committees Monday for the same reason and today delegates from the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia and White Russia left the UN Economic and Employment commission when it refused to oust the Nationalist China delegation.

Reported In Seclusion

Rudzinski was reported in seclusion, but a source familiar with his views said he has been thinking of a break since the Russians began putting more pressure on Poland after the Stalin-Tito split in 1948.

Instructions for Rudzinski to walk out of the special UN Committee on Stateless Persons, reported to have come from Warsaw, reached him Monday morning about two hours before the committee met. He was said to have made up his mind then he would quit. After the walk he went to his home, wrote three letters and became a stateless person covered by the UN committee he had just left.

He wrote Acheson that "freedom has disappeared" in Poland as a result of Russian actions.

Another letter was to the Polish delegation, saying he resigned his post as legal counselor and as vice consul and chief of the Legal department of the Polish consulate-general in New York.

The third letter was to Trygve Lie, UN secretary-general. This announced his action and enclosed a copy of the letter to Acheson.

"During the last months," Rudzinski wrote Acheson, "internal life in Poland is undergoing a rapid and profound transformation.

"The imposing of Soviet Marshal Rokossovsky (sent by Moscow to be Polish minister of defense) was only one of a long and systematic change of less striking and less known facts. As a result, freedom has disappeared in Poland.

"That makes impossible my further work with the Polish delegation to the United Nations and with the consulate-general of Poland in New York. During all my work with the United Nations since March, 1946, I tried stubbornly and consistently to save at least some area of independence and initiative for the Polish delegation in relation to the Soviet delegation. That was a hard and losing fight finally becoming entirely hopeless.

"I cannot associate myself with walkouts calculated to paralyze and disrupt the United Nations."

He then officially stated his resignation and said that obviously his return to Poland to his chair (on international law and jurisprudence) at the University of Krakow is impossible.

"I would like to ask you for granting me (an independent scientist, a student of international law and jurisprudence and my wife Maria Ann (Ph. D. in biology doing research work at New York university) the right to remain in the U. S. A., a country whose devotion to the cause of freedom I learned to admire."

Rudzsinki was reported to be a non-party man. He taught law before becoming a diplomat. He has been in the U. S. since 1945.

A State department source said there has been no ruling so far on his request for permission to remain in the United States.

Czech Quits Consulate Post, Asks Asylum

New York, Jan. 18 (AP)—Arnost Fried, 53-year-old Czech consular employé, resigned today and asked the United States to let him stay here.

Fried, who said he was a $7,000-a-year chief accountant at the consulate, said he put off the step until the last moment, hoping for a change in the Communist Cezchoslovak Government.

He was due to go home Friday on the Polish liner Batory on a routine transfer.

The Czech Consulate said late today it had not yet received Fried's letter of resignation.

In a letter to Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, Fried said, "I fully disapprove of the Communist ideology to which the Czech people were subjected in February, 1948."

Fried asked United States asylum for himself, his wife and his 7-year-old daughter.

ACHESON SAYS U.S. WILL STAND FIRM ON ATOM CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 — (AP) The United States is standing firm on its plan for ultimate international control of atomic weapons regardless of whether it builds a super A-bomb many times more deadly than the existing ones.

Secretary of State Acheson made that point clear today in a cautiously worded reply to questions at his news conference.

But he left unanswered whether any decision has been reached regarding reported plans for production of a mighty hydrogen-powered bomb which might lay waste an area 40 miles in radius—as compared with the two mile circle of destruction at Hiroshima.

Sees No Change

Acheson, who helped formulate the international control plan which the Russians have steadfastly rejected, discussed the subject in guarded language. He said he does not know of any prospective atomic weapons development in this country which would cause the United States to change its policy on international control.

This policy calls for a system of rigid safeguards to be enforced by the United Nations, including inspection of all atomic energy projects, before any nation would give up its atomic weapons or secrets.

Acheson indicated that the control proposal has not been altered by President Truman's disclosure last September that the Soviet had succeeded in achieving an atomic blast of its own.

He said the Russian development has been under constant study of U. S. defense leaders, but so far he said he sees no reason to change the American stand.

To Meet Today

Talk of the super bomb meanwhile brought members of the Senate-House Atomic Energy committee into a huddle today with experts from the Atomic Energy Commission. The lawmakers, who are charged with the responsibility of keeping tabs on the atomic program reportedly are concerned over the military as well as humanitarian problems connected with development of a super bomb.

To give them the military side of the picture the committee scheduled a locked door meeting tomorrow with Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

Bradley already has set forth his stand in previous testimony at congressional hearings last fall on the B-36 dispute to the effect that while he "deplores" atomic weapons from the humanitarian standpoint, he would have no hesitancy in using them if necessary to safeguard this country in any future war.

Gen. Bradley to Give His Views On Proposal for Hydrogen Bomb

BY ELTON C. FAY
Associated Press Military Reporter

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(AP) Lawmakers concerned about the awful possibilities of an "H-bomb"—maybe a thousand times as ruinous as an A-bomb—are due to get the military's views on it tomorrow.

Some conservative estimates rate such a hydrogen bomb as "only" twice as powerful as the city-smashing atomic bomb.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, the nation's top military man, is expected to testify before the Senate-House Atomic Energy committee tomorrow behind locked doors.

Quarrel Upsets Capital

An undercover quarrel over what to do about making, or not making, a super-destructive bomb powered by hydrogen already has the capital upset.

The Atomic committee finds itself in the middle of the controversy. It has asked defense, diplomatic and atomic experts to give their advice. Some experts from the Atomic Energy commission were on its list for a private session this afternoon.

Up until now the argument has gone on in the top-secret levels of the Administration and Congress. It has now become so bitter and the factors involved so fundamental that some of the participants are inclined to bring the row out before the public. The big, and necessarily long, question is this:

Should the United States embark on the making of a new weapon which could kill many times the 78,000 who died when a relatively old and inferior atomic bomb was dropped on the Japanese city of Hiroshima, and perhaps destroy everything living or standing on hundreds of square miles of land?

Questions Posed

From this stems a whole series of profound questions, like these:

1—Does Russia's alarmingly swift progress in the atomic bomb race justify the venture of an H-bomb to beat the Soviets to the draw with such a weapon?

2—Or should Moscow again be offered a chance to agree on international atomic control before the American decision to manufacture the new bomb is made?

3—Would the bomb, because of the fantastic deadliness and scope of destruction of civilians and cities, be internationally moral? Some scientists who contributed notably to invention of the atomic bomb are reported reluctant to give a hand to making the new and terrible weapon.

4—In wartime, how much of a drain would the manufacture be on the nation's material and manpower? How much would it cost?

5—Can a hydrogen bomb be made and exploded? Yes, the weight of scientific authority appears to answer.

Gen. Bradley, mild-mannered infantryman, until now has been concerned only with the problem of killing enemy soldiers. Now, as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, he must state the military's views on an instrument whose primary use would be to kill enemy civilians and blast beyond repair the places where they make the tools of war.

Silent On Project

Bradley—and all other military and Atomic commission leaders—is deeply silent about the hydrogen bomb project. But speculation has swelled in other, less inhibited quarters. These predictions of what the bomb could do vary widely.

In the conservative camp are some scientists who compute the release of energy from a hydrogen bomb at about twice that released in the explosion of a uranium-type bomb.

Over on the other side are people who talk of a bomb 1,000 times as powerful as present atomic weapons, one whose area of destruction would reach out over a 40-mile radius instead of the two-mile circle of destruction for the Hiroshima bomb.

In addition to the greatly boosted blast from an H-bomb (blast is the force which knocks down structures and kills people by concussion and flying wreckage), the weapon presumably would have much greater lethal effect in radiation and thermal (heat) features, especially the latter.

There seems no reason to believe that the killing rays flashed out at the instant of burst would be of a different type than any other atomic explosion. Their intensity and range would be multiplied.

Of more importance, the very nature of hydrogen might make the heat from such an explosion far more awful than even the millions of degrees developed at the core of explosion of a uranium-type bomb.

Hoffman Says 'Red Terror' Plans to 'Take Over' U. S.

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass., Jan. 18 (AP)—The aim of Russia's "red terror" is to "take over this country of ours in due course," Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman said today.

Only a prosperous western Europe and a union of free people, he said, can foil "the evil plans of the men of the Kremlin."

Hoffman told students at Mount Holyoke college that if the Kremlin's plans fail, Russia "will cease to be a slave state x x x and we can all get on to the inspiring job of winning the peace."

Charging that "the present Russian dictators" are as "inhuman" and 'indifferent to the wants and needs of the average man" as were Hitler and Ghengis Khan, Hoffman declared:

Politburo Plans Action

"x x x The Politburo is planning to take over this country of ours in due course. x x x Their purpose is nothing less than this."

Hoffman said he himself did not believe that until "I was faced with the most convincing evidence, and even more importantly, until I became so intimately involved in this cold war with Russia's fifth column.

"It is only," he continued, "as you feel the impact of the Kremlin's drive at first hand that you sense the evil of this red terror. There isn't a trace of idealism in Russian communism. x x x There is left not the slightest regard for decency, truth or the integrity of individuals.

Adjustments Needed

"Immense adjustments" will be needed to meet Europe's economic problem, Hoffman said, and in the integration of that economy which his recent report recommended, he added, Russia sees "the single greatest threat to her plans for world conquest."

The ECA chief, a major administrator of Marshall Plan aid to Europe, said:

"Not only will traditional prejudices among the western European nations have to be resolved, but, in addition, new and frenzied efforts by Russia's fifth columns will have to be overcome."

Hoffman added:

"If western Europe succeeds in becoming strong and prosperous, and if we in the United States remain strong and prosperous, and above all, if the free people remain united, the evil plans of the men of the Kremlin will fail x x x."

Should that happen, he said, "the atomic age can be the golden age of which men have dreamed for centuries."

VAUGHAN REBUKED BY 5 PCT. PROBERS

Truman's Aide Criticized for Accepting Deep Freezer Gifts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (AP) Democrats and Republicans on a Senate investigating committee joined today in rebuking Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, President Truman's military aide, for accepting seven home freezers as gifts for himself and high-ranking friends.

The committee said that, except for the President and his family, any public official who gets something for nothing from persons doing business with the government does so because those making the gift hope he will reciprocate in some way.

"If he stops and thinks for a moment," said the group's unanimous report on its inquiry last year, "he will realize that probably he is not getting the gift because the donor likes the color of his eyes or is genuinely concerned with his household needs."

Vaughan told the committee last fall that there was nothing improper about his accepting the freezers as gifts from the head of the Albert Verley company, a Chicago perfume concern.

The committee received testimony that the gifts were made to the President's aide about the time the Verley company was trying to get State department clearance to send some of its officials to Europe. This was soon after the war, when passports were hard to get.

Testimony showed also that Vaughan interceded and smoothed the way for the Verley people. But Vaughan testified that whatever he did was part of his job and in the interest of expediting things. And he said the gift of freezers was simply a "courtesy to me."

The general gave one of them to Mrs. Truman and asked that others be sent to Fred Vinson, John Snyder, James K. Vardaman, Matthew J. Connelly, and the White House staff lunchroom.

Maragon Blasted

Vinson now is chief justice of

United States. Snyder is secretary of the Treasury. Vardaman, the President's former naval aide, is a member of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve system. Connelly is a secretary to the President. Snyder told a reporter at the time of the Senate inquiry that no freezer reached him.

The report approved by four Democrats and three Republicans said it is all right for the President and his family to accept gifts. It pointed out that the American people have always made such gifts "as a token of their esteem and a mark of respect" for the President's high office. The committee said that nothing in its report is intended to criticize this tradition.

JUDGE EXPECTED TO RULE FRIDAY ON COPLON TRIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 18—(AP) The defense, with a last fierce blast at FBI wiretappers, today wound up a six-weeks effort to have the Coplon-Gubitchev case thrown out of court.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan said he hoped to decide on Friday whether the spy conspiracy case should go to trial.

If he does not throw it out, he added, trial will be set for Tuesday.

Attorneys for Judith Coplon and Valentin A. Gubitchev were bitter in their denunciation of the FBI investigation before and after their arrest last March 4.

FBI Denounced

Gubitchev's attorney, Abraham L. Pomerantz, accused the FBI of "wanton systematic criminality" from Director J. Edgar Hoover on down.

Archibald Palmer, Miss Coplon's tubby, nervous attorney, spent nearly 90 minutes in denouncing the FBI and its "peeping toms and listening jills."

Judge Ryan warned him more than once that he was getting off case. At another point, the court told Palmer: "stop making an ass of yourself."

For the government, John M. Kelley, special assistant to the attorney general, made a 25 minute summation.

He suggested that the defense was trying to misuse the lengthy pretrial hearing "as a sounding board against wire-tapping."

Judge Ryan has said that, if he feels the government's case is based solely on wire-tap information, he may throw it out of court. Wiretap evidence is illegal in federal courts.

Miss Coplon, former Justice department employe, and Gubitchev, former United Nations engineer, are accused of conspiring to transmit government secrets to Russia.

Cites Eye Witnesses

Kelley told the court the government opened a spy investigation on Miss Coplon three days before it ever tapped her telephone wire.

The case against the pair, he said, is based upon "testimony from eye witnesses as to the defendants' movements." Most of the admitted wire-tapping he called 'innocuous and unimportant."

Kelley also argued that suspects are not immune to prosecution merely because "information was illegally obtained."

However, Pomerantz launched his summation by saying:

"I venture to say that never before in our history has the law-enforcement apparatus in the name of law-enforcement confessed to such wanton systematic criminality as is revealed by the sordid records of these hearings, x x x criminality of the FBI beginning with J. Edgar Hoover and running down to the lowly tapper.

"It was a crime shared in by the entire FBI apparatus in this country."

Senate Eyes Legality Of Denfeld's Removal

McCarthy Charges Truman Commissioned Naval Operations Chief For Second Term

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP) — The legality of President Truman's ouster of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld as the Navy's top officer was thrown into question in the Senate today—and confirmation of Denfeld's successor was delayed.

Senator McCarthy (R., Wis.) produced a document to show that the President commissioned Denfeld for a new two-year term as Chief of Naval Operations shortly before firing him.

The document, which McCarthy said was a photographic copy of the commission, was in flat contradiction of Francis P. Matthews, Secretary of the Navy, who had said the commission never was issued. McCarthy said he got the copy indirectly from Denfeld.

Unification Complaints

Denfeld was ousted last October after a heated dispute in which he and navy officers complained that unification of the armed forces was being administered in such a way as to hamper national defense.

Immediately after McCarthy had produced his document on the Senate floor, Senator Tydings (D., Md.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, asked the Senate to hold up action on confirmation of Admiral Forrest P. Sherman as Denfeld's successor.

He said he wanted to check the law and precedents to see if a President could remove a high officer after commissioning him for a new term. He said he was "inclined to believe" the President might assume he had such power as Commander in Chief.

Matthews In Omaha

Tydings tried to reach Matthews by telephone, but was informed that the secretary was in Omaha, his old home.

In Omaha, Matthews said "there evidently is some confusion. I am satisfied I can straighten it out to the satisfaction of everyone."

He said he was leaving tonight for Washington and would be at his office in the morning.

McCarthy told the Senate there is a question whether the office of Chief of Naval Operations is actually vacant.

And, he continued gravely, there is another question: Whether Secretary Matthews is "incompetent or just plain untruthful."

Both Matthews and Sherman appeared before the Armed Services Committee last week. After their testimony, the committee unanimously approved Sherman's promotion to chief of naval operations.

Recalling that hearing, McCarthy asked permission to read to the Senate "this document which I have in my hand."

Trust And Confidence

"It is the commission which Matthews told the Armed Services Committee did not exist," he said.

"It is Admiral Denfeld's commission as chief of naval operations. It runs from December 15, 1949 to December 15, 1951. It is dated September 14, 1949. It is signed Mr. President, by Francis P. Matthews and Harry S. Truman.

"It says that we, Harry S. Truman and Francis P. Matthews, repose—and I quote—'special trust and confidence in the patriotism, fidelity and abilities of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld,'—end of quote."

McCarthy also read to the Senate from the record of the Armed Services Committee hearing last week.

Matthews had been asked why there was a vacancy in the office of CNO since Denfeld had been appointed to a second term last August and had been confirmed by the Senate.

McCarthy quoted Matthews as replying:

"Well, at the present time the vacancy occurs by the fact that Admiral Denfeld's first term has expired and he never has beeen appointed for a second term. His name was suggested, he was confirmed, but his commission was never issued to him."

Senator Says Truman Reappointed Denfeld

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R., Wis.) told the Senate today that President Truman actually had issued a commission to Adm. Louis Denfeld for a second term as Chief of Naval Operations.

He contradicted testimony by Secretary of the Navy Francis P. Matthews that no commission had been issued, though the Senate had confirmed the appointment.

Sen. McCarthy produced a photographic copy of what he said was the presidential commission issued to Adm. Denfeld, ousted as CNO last October. He said he had not seen the original document but had been told it is in Adm. Denfeld's hands.

This raises a question, he said, as to whether the office "is now actually vacant."

Chairman Millard E. Tydings (D., Md.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee immediately asked that the Senate hold up the confirmation of Adm. Forest P. Sherman, named by President Truman as Adm. Denfeld's successor.

Truman Asks Spaak To Be OEEC Chairman

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—President Truman today urged former Belgian Prime Minister Paul Henri Spaak to accept the job of chairman of the Office of European Economic Co-operation—the European organization of ERP.

Mr. Spaak reported this after a 15-minute conference with Mr. Truman.

Asked whether he would accept the job, he said he could not say yes or no until he has received the offer formally.

The Belgian statesman had been reported earlier to be the United State's top nomination for the job. However, his name has met opposition from some of the European members of the Marshall Plan Council.

NEW YORK, JAN. 18-(AP)-FEDERAL JUDGE SYLVESTER J.RYAN TODAY RESERVED DECISION ON A MOTION TO DISMISS THE CONSPIRACY COUNT IN AN INDICTMENT AGAINST VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV, SOVIET ENGINEER.

GUBITCHEF AND MISS JUDITH COPLON, FORMER DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE ANALYST, WERE INDICTED ON CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO MAKE U.S. GOVERNMENT SECRETS AVAILABLE TO SOVIET RUSSIA.

IN ARGUING THE MOTION, ABRAHAM L.POMERANTZ, ATTORNEY FOR GUBITCHEV, CHARGED THAT THE ENGINEER "WAS ARRESTED FOR NO OTHER REASON THAN TO PRY INTO THE MILITARY AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS OF THE SOVIET UNION."

POMERANTZ MADE THE CHARGE IN SUPPORT OF AN APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION TO EXAMINE A REPORT BY FBI AGENTS WHILE GUBITCHEV WAS BEING QUESTIONED IMMEDIATELY AFTER HIS ARREST WITH MISS COPLON LAST MARCH 4.

JUDGE RYAN REFUSED TO PERMIT POMERANTZ TO EXAMINE THE REPORT.

T.J.MCANDREWS, AN FBI AGENT, WHO QUESTIONED GUBITCHEV SHORTLY AFTER THE ARREST, SAID THE RUSSIAN ANSWERED QUESTIONS FREELY CONCERNING HIS BACKGROUND AS A RUSSIAN NATIONAL.

MCANDREWS SAID GUBITCHEV DENIED HE HAD BEEN IN THE COMPANY OF A YOUNG WOMAN IMMEDIATELY BEFORE HIS ARREST, AND WHEN TOLD THAT "15 MEN SAW YOU WITH A YOUNG WOMAN," HE REFUSED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS CONCERNING HIS ACTIVITIES THAT DAY UNLESS A REPRESENTATIVE OF HIS GOVERNMENT WAS PRESENT.

JUDGE RYAN DENIED A REQUEST BY ARCHIBALD PALMER, COUNSEL FOR MISS COPLON, THAT THE GOVERNMENT PRODUCE THE CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION THE DEFENSE CLAIMS TOUCHED OFF THE INVESTIGATION. THE DEFENSE CONTENDS THE IMPORTANT WAS A WIRETAPPER, BUT FBI AGENTS HAVE SAID HE WAS NOT.

POMERANTZ YESTERDAY ASKED FOR A GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION OF POSSIBLE CRIMINAL ACTS BY FBI AGENTS IN THE CASE. JUDGE RYAN MADE NO RULING ON THE REQUEST.

LAKE SUCCESS--FIRST ADD NIGHT LEAD U.N. (A175-176 DAY) X X X UNITED STATES.

IT WAS LEARNED AT NEW YORK CITY POLICE HEADQUARTERS THAT A TWO-MAN DETAIL HAS BEEN ASSIGNED AS A BODYGUARD FOR RUDZINSKI.

THE U.N. SECRETARIAT MADE PUBLIC A LETTER DATED YESTERDAY FROM THE POLISH DELEGATION INFORMING LIE THAT RUDZINSKI NO LONGER IS A MEMBER OF THE DELEGATION. THE LETTER WAS SIGNED BY STEFAN BORATYNSKI FOR KATZ-SUCHY. IT SAID:

"THE POLISH DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS WISHES TO INFORM YOU THAT MR. ALEKSANDER RUDZINSKI IS NO MORE LEGAL COUNSELOR OF THE DELEGATION. THE POLISH DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD BE GRATEFUL IF YOU WILL HAVE ALL NECESSARY ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR HIS NAME TO BE EXCLUDED FROM THE MEMBERSHIP LIST OF THE DELEGATION PUBLISHED BY THE UNITED NATIONS."

RUDZINSKI HAS NO CHILDREN AND HE HAS NO IMMEDIATE RELATIVES IN POLAND.

FIRST LEAD WALKOUT (180)

BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.18-(AP)-A POLISH DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS HAS QUIT HIS JOB AND COUNTRY IN PROTEST AGAINST THE GENERAL SOVIET BLOC WALKOUT MONDAY OVER THE BITTER CHINA CONTROVERSY.

THE DELEGATE IS ALEKSANDER (CORRECT) RUDZINSKI. HIS LETTER SAID IN EFFECT HE WAS FORCED TO JOIN THE RUSSIAN-LED BOLT OUT OF THREE U.N. COMMITTEES.

ANNOUNCING HIS RESIGNATION IN A LETTER TO SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON, HE ASKED ASYLUM FOR HIMSELF AND HIS WIFE IN THE UNITED STATES.

SOON AFTER HIS RESIGNATION BECAME KNOWN, THE RUSSIANS LED A NEW FOUR-COUNTRY WALKOUT FROM THE U.N. ECONOMIC AND EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION. ANOTHER POLISH DELEGATE, STEPHEN BORATYNSKI, WAS AMONG THE NEW BOLTERS.

OTHERS WERE SOVIET DELEGATE PAVEL M.CHERNYSHEV, WHITE RUSSIAN DELEGATE PAVEL M.ASTAPENKO AND CZECHOSLOVAK DELEGATE JIRI NOSEK.

THE SOVIET GROUP, AS IN EARLIER WALKOUTS, SAID THEY WOULD NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE COMMISSION'S WORK UNTIL THE CHINESE NATIONALIST DELEGATION IS REMOVED. THE COMMISSION WENT AHEAD WITH ITS BUSINESS AS DID ALL THE OTHER BOYCOTTED ORGANS.

RUDZINSKI SAID IN HIS LETTER TO ACHESON:

"I CANNOT ASSOCIATE MYSELF WITH WALKOUTS CALCULATED TO PARALYZE AND DISRUPT THE UNITED NATIONS."

RUDZINSKI IS RANKING MEMBER OF THE POLISH DELEGATION TO THE U.N. IN THE ABSENCE OF JULIUSZ KATZ-SUCHY, NOW ON LEAVE IN POLAND.

RUDZINSKI WAS THE POLISH REPRESENTATIVE ON A SPECIAL U.N. COMMITTEE ON STATELESS PERSONS. HE FOLLOWED SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE N.I. KLIMOV FROM THE ROOM IN THE MONDAY WALKOUT.

ON THE SAME DAY, POLISH AMBASSADOR JOSEPH WINIEWICZ WALKED OUT OF THE U.N. SUB-COMMISSION ON DISCRIMINATION AGAINST MINORITIES ALONG WITH SOVIET DELEGAE V.I. FORMASHEV.

IN HIS LETTER TO ACHESON, RDUZINSKI ASKED THE UNITED STATES TO GRANT ASYLUM FOR HIMSELF AND HIS WIFE, MARIA ANNA. HE ASKED THE RIGHT TO REMAIN IN THE U.S.--"A COUNTRY WHOSE DEVOTION TO THE CAUSE OF FREEDOM I LEARNED TO ADMIRE," HE SAID.

RUDZINSKI ALSO SENT LETTERS ANNOUNCING HIS RESIGNATION TO U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE AND TO THE POLISH DELEGATION.

IN MONDAY'S GENERAL WALKOUT, CZECHOSLOVAK DELEGATE VLADIMIR HOUDEK LEFT A MEETING OF THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL'S COMMITTEE ON PROCEDURE ALONG WITH IVAN KAMENEV OF RUSSIA.

IN ALL, THE MONDAY WALKOUTS LEFT THREE U.N. ORGANS SHORT-HANDED. THEY FOLLOWED RUSSIAN DELEGATE JAKOB A. MALIK'S WALKOUT ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL LAST FRIDAY AFTER IT REFUSED TO THROW OUT CHINESE NATIONALIST CHIEF DELEGATE T.F. TSIANG, THE COUNCIL'S JANUARY PRESIDENT.

YUGOSLAVIA FAILED YESTERDAY TO HAVE TSIANG REMOVED FROM THE CHAIRMANSHIP FOR THIS MONTH, BUT YUGOSLAV DELEGATE ALES BEBLER STAYED IN THE COUNCIL AFTER HIS TACTICAL DEFEAT.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.18-(AP)-A NEW ATTEMPT WILL BE MADE BY THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL NEXT WEEK TO GET PEACE BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN IN THEIR BITTER DISPUTE OVER POSSESSION OF KASHMIR.

T.F.TSIANG, NATIONALIST CHINA LEADER WHO IS CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNCIL THIS MONTH, SAID HE WILL CALL THE COUNCIL BACK INTO SESSION TO HEAR REPORTS ON MEDIATION BY GEN.A.G.L.MC NAUGHTON OF CANADA SINCE THE END OF LAST YEAR.

INDIA AND PAKISTAN ENDED A SHOOTING WAR OVER THE KASHMIR AREA UNDER A U.N. CEASE FIRE ORDER JAN.1, 1949, BUT THE SECURITY COUNCIL NEVER HAS BEEN ABLE TO GET COMPLETE AGREEMENT FOR A VOTE BY THE POPULATION ON WHICH COUNTRY IT PREFERS TO JOIN.

TSIANG RETAINED HIS CHAIRMANSHIP BY A 6-1 VOTE YESTERDAY AFTER YUGOSLAVIA'S ALES BEBLER ATTEMPTED TO HAVE HIM SUPPLANTED. YUGOSLAVIA SIDED WITH RUSSIA LAST WEEK IN AN UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO HAVE TSIANG AND THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS KICKED OFF THE COUNCIL IN A MOVE TO SEAT CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME REPRESENTATIVES.

BRITAIN, NORWAY AND INDIA, ALL OF WHOM HAVE RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME OF MAO TZE-TUNG, ALL ABSTAINED IN THE VOTING. OTHER DELEGATES ARGUED THAT SINCE THE COUNCIL HAD VOTED NOT TO OUST THE NATIONALISTS, TSIANG HAD THE RIGHT TO ACT AS CHAIRMAN.

BEBLER ALSO WAS UNSUCCESSFUL IN AN ATTEMPT TO KEEP THE COUNCIL FROM VOTING TO SEND A GENERAL ASSEMBLY REQUEST FOR A NON-TOMIC ARMS CENSUS TO THE ARMAMENTS COMMISSION FOR ACTION. HE SAID THE ACTION WAS ILLEGAL WITHOUT THE PRESENCE OF RUSSIA, WHICH WALKED OUT LAST FRIDAY AND SAID IT WOULD REMAIN AWAY UNTIL THE NATIONALISTS WERE OUSTED. BEBLER DID NOT VOTE, HOWEVER, AND THE OTHER NINE COUNCIL MEMBERS WERE UNANIMOUS IN THEIR ACTION.

RUSSIA AND COMINFORM COUNTRY SYMPATHIZERS CONTINUED TO BOYCOTT OTHER U.N. MEETINGS YESTERDAY.

THE UNITED NATIONS SECRETARIAT DISCLOSED YESTERDAY THAT NEARLY A YEAR HAD BEEN SPENT IN TRACKING DOWN CHARGES THAT ANTI-SEMITISM CAUSED THE DISCHARGE OF FIVE U.N. EMPLOYES.

SECRETARY GENERAL TRYGVE LIE SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT THE ANTI-SEMITISM CHARGES HAD NOT BEEN PROVED AGAINST THREE ACCUSED SUPERVISORS. BUT HE ADDED THAT THERE WERE OTHER IRREGULARITIES, AND THAT THE FIVE DISCHARGED EMPLOYES, ALL JEWS, WOULD BE RESTORED TO THEIR JOBS.

INFORMED QUARTERS SAID THE THREE SUPERVISORS WERE SLATED FOR DISMISSAL. IDENTITIES OF ALL THE PERSONS WERE KEPT CONFIDENTIAL.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.18-(AP)-THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL WAS SUMMONED TONIGHT FOR A MEETING FRIDAY AFTERNOON TO HEAR REPORTS ON MEDIATION EFFORTS FOR KASHMIR.

GEN. A.G.L. MCNAUGHTON, CANADA, HAS BEEN HAVING PRIVATE TALKS SINCE LATE LAST YEAR WITH INDIA AND PAKISTAN LEADERS IN AN ATTEMPT TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE OVER POSSESSION OF THE NORTHERNMOST PRINCELY STATE.

HE WANTS TO REPORT ON THE TALKS, WHICH HE BEGAN LATE IN DECEMBER WHEN HE WAS CHAIRMAN OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, AND THEN GIVE UP THE TASK. THE SOVIET UNION, BEFORE IT WALKED OUT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL LAST WEEK, OPPOSED GIVING MCNAUGHTON ANY FURTHER RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE KASHMIR DISPUTE BECAUSE CANADA IS NO LONGER A MEMBER OF THE COUNCIL.

U.N. SOURCES SAID THE COUNCIL WILL HEAR AND FILE THE REPORTS BUT PLANS TO TAKE NO ACTION NOW.

BOTH INDIA AND PAKISTAN, WHICH HAVE RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME, ARE SAID TO BE RELUCTANT TO HAVE A FINAL DECISION ATTEMPTED BY THE COUNCIL IN THE ABSENCE OF RUSSIA.

RUSSIA WALKED OUT OF THE COUNCIL FRIDAY AND SAID IT WOULD STAY AWAY UNTIL DR.T.F.TSIANG, CHINESE NATIONALIST WHO IS JANUARY COUNCIL CHAIRMAN, IS THROWN OFF THE COUNCIL.

A BREATHING SPELL ON KASHMIR WOULD LET THE INDIAN CHIEF DELEGATE SIR BENEGAL RAU GO TO NEW DELHI FOR CEREMONIES INAUGURATING THE NEW INDIA CONSTITUTION, WHICH HE HELPED PREPARE, AND LAUNCHING THE REPUBLIC OF INDIA, JAN.26.

NEW YORK, JAN.18-(AP)-TWO ATTACHES OF THE CZECH CONSULATE RESIGNED TODAY IN PROTEST AGAINST COMMUNIST DOMINATION OF THEIR COUNTRY'S GOVERNMENT.

BOTH APPEALED TO SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON FOR PERMISSION TO REMAIN IN THIS COUNTRY.

THEY ARE WLADISLAV J. MATEJCEK, 40, ACTING DEPUTY CONSUL IN NEW YORK, AND ARNOST FRIED, 53-YEAR-OLD CHIEF ACCOUNTANT OF THE CONSULATE.

MATEJCEK, FOR MANY YEARS ASSOCIATED WITH THE ECONOMIC SECTION OF THE CZECH MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, SAID HE MADE HIS DECISION BECAUSE HE SAW THE "HANDWRITING ON THE WALL" FOR NON-COMMUNIST CZECH OFFICIALS.

"ALL OVER THE WORLD," HE DECLARED, "NON PARTY MEMBERS ARE BEING RECALLED AND REPLACED BY PARTY MEMBERS." THOSE RECALLED, HE ADDED, "ARE NEVER HEARD OF AGAIN--POLITICALLY.

"YOU ARE NEVER TOLD WHEN TO GO. YOU ARE SIMPLY ORDERED TO PACK UP, AND THE NEXT THING YOU KNOW YOU ARE AT AN AIRPORT, OR RAILROAD STATION OR BOAT."

NEW YORK, JAN.18-(AP)-PROF.CARL.S.SHOUP, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY TAX EXPERT, SAID TODAY HE WILL ASSIST TAKESHI WATANABE, JAPANESE FINANCE COMMISSIONER, IN THE LATTER'S SEARCH FOR DETAILED AND FACTUAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE UNITED STATES.

WATANABE, ONE OF SEVERAL BUSINESS, GOVERNMENT AND LAY EXECUTIVES WHO NOW ARE ON STUDY MISSIONS OF AMERICA, MET WITH PROF.SHOUP AT THE UNIVERSITY TODAY.

PROF.SHOUP SAID WATANABE IS IN THE UNITED STATES "TO GATHER FIRST-HAND FACTUAL INFORMATION ABOUT OUR FINANCIAL POLICIES AND INSTITUTIONS--INFORMATION WHICH CAN BE APPLIED TO BUSINESS, FINANACE AND INDUSTRY AS JAPAN GOES FORWARD WITH HER NEW DEMOCRACY.

PROF.SHOUP LAST YEAR LED A MISSION OF EXPERTS TO JAPAN WHICH, AFTER A STUDY, COMPILED A FOUR-VOLUME REPORT OF RECOMMENDATIONS TO REFORM THE JAPANESE TAX STRUCTURE. THE REPORT WAS APPROVED BY GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, AND SUGGESTED REFORMS ARE EXPECTED TO BE ENACTED INTO TAX LAW BY THE DIET SOON.

"I PARTICULARLY WANT TO RENEW MY ACQUAINTANCE WITH MR. WATANABE WHO I FOUND TO BE A CO-OPERATIVE ASSISTANT AND AN INTELLIGENT AND UNDERSTANDING MAN WHILE I WAS IN JAPAN," PROF.SHOUP SAID.

"WHILE I WAS ON MY MISSION, HE HELPED ME. NOW THAT HE IS ON HIS, I WANT TO HELP HIM."

PROF.SHOUP SAID HE BELIEVES HE CAN PROVIDE THE JAPANESE COMMISSIONER WITH NAMES OF PEOPLE TO TALK TO AND BOOKS AND OTHER PUBLICATIONS TO READ. "THESE WILL HELP ACQUAINT HIM WITH THE TRUE AMERICAN SCENE," HE SAID.

WATANABE WILL STAY IN NEW YORK FOR ABOUT A MONTH.

PHILADELPHIA,JAN 18-(AP)-THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICE COMMITTEE TODAY URGED A HANDS OFF POLICY IN CHINA'S CIVIL WAR.

THE FRIENDS' STAND WAS TAKEN IN AN OPEN LETTER TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN, COMMENDING HIM FOR HIS DECISION TO PROVIDE NO FURTHER AID TO THE NATIONALIST FORCES IN FORMOSA.

THE QUAKER ORGANIZATION SAID ITS VIEWS WERE BASED ON REPORTS OF ITS OWN WORKERS IN CHINA.

IT WROTE PRESIDENT TRUMAN "FURTHER INTERVENTION WILL RESULT IN THE HARDENING OF CHINESE RESENTMENT AGAINST AMERICA AND THE STRENGTHENING OF SINO-RUSSIAN TIES."

SUPPORTING THE PRESIDENT IN HIS VIEW THAT THE UNITED STATES IS MORALLY BOUND TO RESPECT CHINA'S TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY, THE FRIENDS WROTE:

THE UNITED STATES "MUST NOW WAIT IN CHINA, WHETHER WE LIKE THE TURN OF EVENTS OR NOT" UNTIL WE CAN TAKE "POSITIVE ACTION OF A CONSTRUCTIVE SORT" THAT WILL BE WELCOMED BY THE CHINESE.

"BY TREATING COMMUNIST CHINA AS AN ENEMY AND BY REFUSING TO RECOGNIZE HER," THE LETTER CONTINUED, "WE ARE NOT ISOLATING CHINA, WE ARE ISOLATING OURSELVES AND THROWING AWAY THE CHANCE OF INFLUENCING THE COURSE OF EVENTS IN THE ORIENT."

THESE THREE ARGUMENTS WERE ADVANCED BY THE QUAKERS IN SUPPORT OF THEIR RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. THAT THEIR CHINA WORKERS HAVE NOTED "A MARKED ENTHUSIASM FOR THE NEW REGIME AMONG THE PEOPLE";

2. THAT "THE SUCCESS OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY CANNOT BE ATTRIBUTED TO THE RUSSIANS," ACCORDING TO THE OBSERVATIONS OF QUAKER WORKERS; AND

3. THAT "THE CHINESE PEOPLE HAVE TURNED AGAINST AMERICA BECAUSE OF "THE LARGE-SCALE AMERICAN MILITARY INTERVENTION DURING 1948."

RH-JH1105PES

WASHINGTON,JAN.18-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON MADE CLEAR TODAY THAT EVEN IF THE UNITED STATES DEVELOPS A SUPER A-BOMB IT WILL STICK WITH ITS POLICY OF SEEKING TIGHT INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

ACHESON DISCUSSED THE SUBJECT IN CIRCUMSPECT LANGUAGE IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS AT A NEWS CONFERENCE.

AS HE PHRASED IT, HE SAID HE DOES NOT KNOW OF ANY PROSPECTIVE ATOMIC WEAPONS DEVELOPMENT IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH WOULD CAUSE THE UNITED STATES TO CHANGE ITS POLICY ON INTERNATIONAL CONTROL.

ACHESON KNOWS, OF COURSE--AS DOES MOST EVERYONE IN WASHINGTON--THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS HOTLY DEBATING UNDER THE SURFACE THE QUESTION OF WHETHER TO TRY TO DEVELOP A HYDROGEN ATOMIC BOMB THAT MIGHT BE 1,000 TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN THE ORIGINAL URANIUM A-BOMB.

HE ALSO SAID HE KNEW OF NO ATOMIC DEVELOPMENTS IN RUSSIA THAT WOULD MAKE THE UNITED STATES WANT TO CHANGE ITS POLICY.

THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS BEING URGED TO MAKE A NEW APPROACH TO THE RUSSIANS FOR AN INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC CONTROL AGREEMENT BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER TO GO AHEAD WITH ATTEMPTED DEVELOPMENT OF HYDROGEN BOMBS.

ACHESON'S COMMENTS DID NOT RULE OUT A NEW APPROACH TO THE RUSSIANS--BUT IT DID APPEAR TO ELIMINATE SO FAR AS HE IS CONCERNED ANY BASIC CHANGE IN UNITED STATES POLICY AT THIS TIME.

IN GENERAL, THIS POLICY HAS CALLED FOR A SYSTEM OF RIGID SAFEGUARDS, INCLUDING FULL SCALE INTERNATIONAL CONTROL AND INSPECTION OF ALL ATOMIC ENERGY PROJECTS, BEFORE ANY NATION WOULD GIVE UP ITS ATOMIC WEAPONS OR ATOMIC SECRETS.

THE RUSSIANS HAVE NEVER BEEN WILLING TO ACCEPT THE AMERICAN PLAN WHICH HAS HAD THE SUPPORT OF A MAJORITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS ATOMIC COMMISSION.

A REPORTER TOLD ACHESON THAT EVER SINCE THE RUSSIAN ATOMIC EXPLOSION WAS REPORTED LAST SEPTEMBER THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS THAT THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT WAS REVIEWING ITS POLICY. HE WAS ASKED WHAT HE COULD SAY ABOUT THAT AT THIS TIME.

HE REPLIED THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN STUDYING THE CONSEQUENCES OF THE RUSSIAN EXPLOSION FROM THE MOMENT IT BECAME KNOWN AND THAT THIS STUDY HAS INCLUDED THE QUESTION OF INTERNATIONAL CONTROL. SO FAR, HE SAID, HE HAD SEEN NO REASON TO CHANGE AMERICAN POLICY.

ASKED WHETHER THIS APPLIED TO ATOMIC DEVELOPMENTS WITHIN THE UNITED STATES, ACHESON SAID HE DID NOT QUITE UNDERSTAND THE QUESTION.

HE WAS THEN TOLD THERE HAD BEEN PUBLISHED ACCOUNTS THE UNITED STATES MIGHT DEVELOP A NEW SUPER BOMB, AND WAS ASKED WHETHER THE PROSPECTIVE DEVELOPMENT OF NEW ATOMIC WEAPONS IN THIS COUNTRY WOULD CAUSE A CHANGE IN AMERICAN POLICY.

HE SAID THAT HE KNEW OF NOTHING WHICH WOULD LEAD TO A CHANGE IN THIS POLICY.

ALSO ON THE ATOMIC SUBJECT, ACHESON SAID HE KNEW OF NO PLANS FOR RESUMING THE BRITISH-CANADIAN-AMERICAN TALKS ON A NEW ATOMIC PARTNERSHIP.

HE SAID THIS DOES NOT MEAN THAT SUCH TALKS WILL NOT BE HELD, BUT SIMPLY THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS NO PLANS FOR THE NEXT ROUND AT THIS TIME.

FR1152AES

WASHINGTON, JAN. 18-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES SUPPORTS FRANCE'S VIEW THAT THE SAAR SHOULD BE DETACHED FROM GERMANY.

HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THIS COUNTRY HAS BACKED UP THE FRENCH POSITION UNDER THREE SECRETARIES OF STATE AND WILL CONTINUE THIS SUPPORT AT A FINAL PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH GERMANY.

THE UNITED STATES BELIEVES, HE ADDED, THAT THIS RICH COAL-MINING AREA SHOULD HAVE A CERTAIN DEGREE OF AUTONOMY.

ACHESON DECLINED TO COMMENT DIRECTLY ON THE CURRENT ARGUMENT BETWEEN THE FRENCH AND WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENTS OVER THE LEASING OF THE SAAR COAL MINES.

FRANCE HAS PROPOSED LEASING THEM FOR 50 YEARS BUT CHANCELLOR KNORAD ADENAUER OF THE WEST GERMAN REPUBLIC OBJECTS.

ACHESON SAID MERELY THAT IT WOULD BE WISE IF THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT TAKES NO ACTION WHICH WOULD HURT RELATIONS WITH WESTERN GERMANY OR SET BACK PLANS FOR WESTERN EUROPEAN UNITY.

AS FAR AS THE ACTUAL LEASING OF THE MINES GO, HE SAID IT IS NOT A MATTER WHICH WOULD PREJUDICE FINAL DISPOSITION OF THE MINES IN A FUTURE PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY.

THE SECRETARY ALSO SUGGESTED THAT THE WEST GERMANS ACT CAUTIOUSLY ON THIS PROBLEM. LIKEWISE, HE SAID, THE WEST GERMANS MUST NOT ACT AS IF THEY HAVE NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE LAST WAR BECAUSE THEY CERTAINLY DO.

ACHESON NOTED THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS BACKED ALL FRENCH ACTIONS UNTIL NOW ON THE SAAR. FOR EXAMPLE, HE RECALLED, THE U.S. AND BRITAIN AGREED THAT THE SAAR SHOULD BE OCCUPIED BY FRANCE AND NOT BE PLACED UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF THE THREE WESTERN HIGH COMMISSIONERS FOR GERMANY.

FRANCE HAS EXTENDED ITS CUSTOMS UNION TO COVER THE AREA, HE ADDED, AND THE RAILROADS THERE ARE TIED INTO THE FRENCH SYSTEM.

THE SAAR IS ACTUALLY ECONOMICALLY AND FINANCIALLY PART OF FRANCE NOW, HE SAID, SINCE THE FRENCH FRANC IS NOW THE LEGAL MEANS OF EXCHANGE THERE.

IN REVIEWING THE SUPPORT FOR FRANCE'S POSITION THAT HE AND FORMER SECRETARIES BYRNES AND MARSHALL HAVE GIVEN, ACHESON EMPHASIZED THAT IN EACH CASE IT WAS WITH FULL APPROVAL OF THE PRESIDENT.

(EDITORS: FOR PAPERS DESIRING ADDITIONAL DISCUSSION OF THE H-BOMB, THE FOLLOWING ADD OF 310 WORDS IS TRANSMITTED.)

WASHINGTON 1ST ADD H-BOMB (A3-4WX) XXX URANIUM-TYPE BOMB.

HEAT IS A KILLER IN TWO WAYS: IT BURNS PEOPLE BY ITS FLASH; IT SETS COMBUSTIBLE MATERIAL AFIRE TO ADD THE FLAMES PRODUCED WHEN A BOMB BLAST BREAKS POWER LINES OR CRUSHES BUILDINGS CONTAINING STOVES OR OTHER HEATING UNITS TO START SECONDARY FIRES.

WHETHER A HYDROGEN BOMB IS TWICE OR ONE THOUSAND TIMES AS POWERFUL AS A CONVENTIONAL A-BOMB, IT MUST BE OF VALUE AS A MASS DESTRUCTION WEAPON AGAINST THE WAR GOODS CENTERS OF AN ENEMY--AND HIS WORKERS. THE THEORY OF SUCH STRATEGIC BOMBING IS THAT IT REDUCES THE AMOUNT OF WEAPONS REACHING THE FRONT LINES AND THE AIR FORCES OF AN ENEMY.

FROM A MILITARY STANDPOINT, A PRIMARY VALUE OF THE H-BOMB WOULD BE ITS INTENSE BLAST EFFECT, MAKING DUST OF EVERYTHING WITHIN RANGE. DESPITE APPARENT DESTRUCTION OF FACTORIES, BY CONVENTIONAL BOMBING DURING WORLD WAR II GERMANY AND JAPAN OFTEN SUCCEEDED IN PUTTING THEM BACK INTO OPERATION WITH A MATTER OF WEEKS OR MONTHS.

A SUPER-BOMB STILL WOULD HAVE MILITARY DISADVANTAGES.

ITS ENORMOUS ZONE OF DESTRUCTION WOULD MAKE IT AN UNLIKELY WEAPON TO BE USED AGAINST ENEMY TROOPS IN THE FIELD. THE BLAST MIGHT KILL FRIENDLY FORCES WITHIN THE ZONE. IT COULD SO WRECK AN AREA AS TO MAKE ADVANCE THROUGH IT IMPOSSIBLE, EVEN THOUGH NO ENEMY SOLDIERS REMAINED TO FIGHT.

THE SAME HUGE ZONE OF BLAST, RADIATION AND HEAT WOULD POSE PROBLEMS FOR THE AIRCRAFT DELIVERING THE BOMB. THE THREE B-29S WHICH UP TO NOW HAVE DROPPED CONVENTIONAL ATOMIC BOMBS HAVE SUCCEEDED IN GETTING OUT OF THE DAMAGE AREA BEFORE THE EXPLOSION--BUT EACH OF THEM FELT THE SHOCK AS THE OUTER EDGE OF THE BLAST TOUCHED THEM. THERE WASN'T TOO MUCH TO SPARE. IF A SUPER-BOMB IS DROPPED FROM THE AIR SOME PROVISION MUST BE MADE FOR THE CREW OF THE BOMBER. THE PLANE MUST BE MUCH FASTER OR A DELAYED EXPLOSION MUST BE ARRANGED, POSSIBLY THROUGH USE OF A PARACHUTE TO SLOW THE FALL. THE TWO BOMBS DROPPED ON JAPAN AND THE ONE DROPPED IN THE BIKINI TEST DID NOT USE CHUTES; THEY WERE FREE-FALL MISSILES.

WASHINGTON, JAN 18-(AP)-THE MOST TERRIBLE BOMB EVER THOUGHT OF HAS SHOULDERED ITS WAY UP CAPITOL HILL.

TOO BIG TO KEEP COMPLETELY SECRET, THE HYDROGEN BOMB HAS NEVER BEEN MADE; DISTURBED LEGISLATORS ARE WONDERING IF IT EVER SHOULD BE.

HOW BIG IS IT? SOME SAY "ONLY" TWICE AS BIG AS THE ATOMIC BOMB; OTHERS SAY IT WOULD HAVE ONE THOUSAND TIMES THE ALREADY-FRIGHTENING A-BOMB POWER.

THE SENATE-HOUSE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE IS ASKING DEFENSE, DIPLOMATIC AND ATOMIC EXPERTS BEHIND LOCKED DOORS WHETHER THE WEAPON IS TOO TERRIBLE TO MAKE, WHETHER MAN IS FINALLY ON THE THRESHOLD OF HIS OWN DESTRUCTION.

THE COMMITTEE TODAY HEARS HOW DEVELOPMENT OF AN ATOMIC ENERGY ENGINE IS COMING ALONG, BUT THIS TOO WILL BE REPORTED IN SECRET. LATER, SOME DETAILS MAY BE MADE PUBLIC.

ON THE SENATE FLOOR OLEOMARGARINE LOOKED LIKE A SHOO-IN VICTOR IN ITS FIGHT TO DROP GENERATION-OLD FEDERAL TAXES.

DAIRY STATE SENATORS VIRTUALLY TOSSED IN THE SPONGE YESTERDAY WHEN THEIR CHIEF SPOKESMAN LEFT TOWN, NOT EVEN BOTHERING TO STICK AROUND FOR THE VOTE TODAY ON REPEAL OF THE TAXES.

THE HOUSE HAS ALREADY AGREED TO WIPE OUT THE FEDERAL TAXES OF 10 CENTS A POUND ON COLORED MARGARINE, THE ONE-QUARTER CENT A POUND ON UNCOLORED, PLUS TAXES ON MANUFACTURERS, WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS.

SENATE COMMITTEES CONSIDERED BROADENING SOCIAL SECURITY COVERAGE AND INCREASING BENEFITS, HOUSING FOR MIDDLE-INCOME FAMILIES, AND A RESOLUTION ASKING PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO CONSIDER THE COAL SITUATION A NATIONAL EMERGENCY AND TO APPLY FOR A COURT ORDER DIRECTING MINERS TO WORK MORE THAN THREE-DAYS A WEEK.

OVER IN THE HOUSE LIFE-OR-DEATH FOR THE PRESIDENT'S FAIR DEAL PROGRAM WAS STILL IN THE MAKING. A CHANGE IN HOUSE RULES WOULD PUT A COMMITTEE DOMINATED BY HIS OPPONENTS IN CHARGE OF LEGISLATION FOR HIS PET PROJECTS.

DESPITE STRONG HOUSE SENTIMENT FOR THE CHANGE, PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS BATTLING TO KEEP THE PRESENT SYSTEM WHICH ALLOWS HIS CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS TO BYPASS THE RULES COMMITTEE AFTER 21 DAYS DELAY.

REPUBLICANS SCHEDULED A GET-TOGETHER ON HOW AND WHEN THEY WILL TEAM UP WITH SOUTHERN DEMOCRATS TO TRY TO VOTE THE CHANGE THROUGH.

(250) BRITISH ATOMIC
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, JAN. 18-(AP)-NEGOTIATIONS FOR A NEW ATOMIC PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND CANADA APPEAR TO HAVE BOGGED DOWN UNTIL AFTER THE BRITISH ELECTIONS NEXT MONTH.
DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS SAID TODAY THAT IN FACT THEY DOUBTED WHETHER THERE WOULD BE ANY NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN BRITISH AMERICAN RELATIONS IN THIS SUBJECT UNTIL THE PRESSURE OF THE FEBRUARY 23 ELECTION CAMPAIGNS IS OUT OF THE WAY.
SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THIS MORNING THAT HE KNEW OF NO PLANS FOR RESUMING THE THREE POWER ATOMIC TALKS. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THIS DID NOT MEAN THEY WOULD NOT BE RESUMED SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE.
ALTHOUGH AN OLD WARTIME AND POSTWAR AGREEMENT FOR A DIVISION OF URANIUM ORE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAS EXPIRED ITS PROVISIONS ARE STILL BEING OBSERVED. INFORMANTS SAID THE UNITED STATES IS STILL GETTING THE MAJOR SHARE OF URANIUM ORE PRODUCED IN THE BELGIAN CONGO, AS THE FORMER PACT PROVIDED.
THE OTHER PART OF THE OLD AGREEMENT PROVIDED FOR AN EXCHANGE OF ATOMIC INFORMATION AMONG THE THREE GOVERNMENTS. MONTHS AGO THE BRITISH FILED A COMPLAINT THAT THIS WAS VIRTUALLY A ONE WAY STREET DUE TO RESTRICTIONS CONGRESS IMPOSED ON THE RELEASE OF ATOMIC INFORMATION.
AN EFFORT TO SOLVE THIS PHASE OF THE PROBLEM--TO FIND SOME WAY TO INCREASE THE EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION--HAS BEEN A MAJOR OBJECTIVE OF THE THREE POWER TALKS WHICH BEGAN HERE LAST SEPTEMBER.

AND HE HIMSELF GAVE HIS APPROVAL OF THE PLAN FOR A SUPER A-BOMB.
HE PROPOSED THAT DR.GEORGE GALLUP AND OTHERS TAKE A POLL ON THE HYDROGEN BOMB.
"IF THE RESULT IS 50-50, WE SHOULD KEEP OFF IT. IF IT IS 2-1 FOR IT, WE SHOULD GO AHEAD," SAID DR.COMPTON. "I, FOR ONE, THINK WE SHOULD, THE SITUATION BEING WHAT IT IS."
WITH OTHER NATIONS PROCEEDING WITH ATOMIC PROJECTS, HE SAID "IT BECOMES VITALLY IMPORTANT TO US TO PROCEED WITH ATOMIC DEVELOPMENT TO INSURE OUR SAFETY."
HE SAID THAT ATOMIC SCIENTISTS WORKING ON THE PROJECT BEFORE HIROSHIMA TOOK INFORMAL POLLS AMONG THEMSELVES AND FOUND THEY WERE 2-1 IN FAVOR OF USING THE BOMB AGAINST JAPAN. BUT IN THE CASE OF THE HYDROGEN BOMB, "I DON'T THINK DECISION SHOULD REST WITH THE SCIENTISTS, BUT WITH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE," ADDED DR.COMPTON, WHO IS NOW CHANCELLOR OF WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY, ST.LOUIS.
THE AMERICAN PHYSICIST MADE HIS REMARKS AT A NEWS CONFERENCE ON HIS RETURN FROM NEW DELHI, WHERE HE ATTENDED THE INDIA-AMERICA RELATIONS CONFERENCE.

"CHIANG IS THOROUGHLY 'EASTERN' IN THOUGHT AND OUTLOOK. HE IS SURROUNDED BY A GROUP OF PARTY STALWARTS WHO ARE SIMILAR IN CHARACTER. X X X HIS HATRED OF CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND DISTRUST OF THE USSR CAUSE HIM TO SHY AWAY FROM LIBERALS. THE FAILURE OF FOREIGN AID HAS CAUSED HIM TO TURN AWAY FROM HIS UNCONGENIAL 'WESTERN' ADVISERS AND DRAW CLOSER TO THE GROUP OF 'EASTERN' ADVISERS FOR WHOM HE HAS A NATURAL AFFINITY AND FOR WHOM HE HAS BEEN FOR YEARS MORE A FOCAL POINT AND ACTIVATING AGENT OF POLICY THAN AN ACTUAL LEADER.
"AT THIS TIME, THERE SEEMS TO BE NO ALTERNATIVE TO SUPPORT OF CHIANG HERE IS NO CHINESE LEADER OR GROUP NOW APPARENT OF SUFFICIENT STRENGTH TO TAKE OVER THE GOVERNMENT. WE CAN, HOWEVER, WHILE SUPPORTING CHIANG, INFLUENCE HIM IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE TO ADOPT POLICIES WITH THE GUIDANCE OF PROGRESSIVE CHINESE WHICH WILL INSPIRE POPULAR SUPPORT AND INSTILL NEW VITALITY INTO CHINA'S WAR EFFORT.
"AT THE SAME TIME, OUR ATTITUDE SHOULD BE FLEXIBLE ENOUGH TO PERMIT UTILIZATION OF ANY OTHER LEADER OR GROUP THAT MIGHT COME FORWARD OFFERING GREAT PROMISE."
VX658PES

FIRST LEAD CHINA-WALLACE
WASHINGTON, JAN 18-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID TODAY HE HOPES A THIRD FORCE--NEITHER NATIONALIST NOR COMMUNIST--WILL SPRING UP AMONG THE CHINESE PEOPLE.
BUT HE ADDED AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT HE DOES NOT NOW SEE ANY SUCH DEVELOPMENT ON THE HORIZON.
ACHESON ALSO HAD THIS TO SAY ON THE CHINA SITUATION:
1. FROM THE WAY IN WHICH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ARE TREATING AMERICANS IN THEIR TERRITORY, IT IS AN OBVIOUS CONCLUSION THAT THEY DO NOT WANT AMERICAN RECOGNITION.
(ACHESON DID NOT ELABORATE ON THIS. BUT OTHER OFFICIALS SAID LATER IT IS SUSPECTED THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADERS, WITH RUSSIA'S GUIDANCE, MAY BE TRYING TO DIVIDE THE WESTERN POWERS. BRITAIN HAS OFFERED RECOGNITION, WHILE THE U.S. AND OTHERS HAVE HELD BACK.
(MEANTIME, THE OFFICIALS SAID, THE UNITED STATES IS BEING USED AS A SORT OF "WHIPPING BOY" FOR THE COMMUNISTS WHO HAVE SOUGHT TO DIRECT CHINESE ANTI-FOREIGN FEELING AGAINST THIS COUNTRY.)
2. THE COMMUNIST SEIZURE OF AMERICAN OFFICIAL PROPERTY AT PEIPING LAST SATURDAY IS EVIDENCE THAT AMERICAN OFFICIALS ARE NOT BEING PERMITTED TO PERFORM THEIR DUTIES IN CHINA AND THEREFORE THEY HAD TO BE WITHDRAWN.
3. IF SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) IS CORRECT IN SAYING THAT FORMOSA IS STILL JAPANESE TERRITORY AND SHOULD BE DEFENDED AS SUCH, THEN THE DUTY OF DEFENDING IT WOULD FALL EQUALLY ON ALL THE POWERS WHICH WERE AT WAR WITH JAPAN. RUSSIA WAS AMONG THOSE POWERS.
FERGUSON HAS CONTENDED THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD DEFEND FORMOSA AND IN FACT HAS A DUTY TO DO SO BECAUSE THE ISLAND WOULD REMAIN LEGALLY JAPANESE TERRITORY UNTIL DISPOSED OF IN A PEACE TREATY.
ACHESON AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAVE TAKEN THE POSITION THAT FORMOSA IS CHINESE TERRITORY AND ACHESON HAS SAID HE WILL NOT STAND ON QUIBBLING OVER LAWYERS' WORDS.
FERGUSON ALSO HAS COMPLAINED THAT FORMER VICE PRESIDENT HENRY A. WALLACE IS THE FATHER OF AMERICAN POLICY IN CHINA. THAT DREW FROM WALLACE THE RETORT THAT IF HIS IDEAS HAD BEEN FOLLOWED, THE U.S. WOULD BE BETTER OFF.
FERGUSON TOLD THE SENATE YESTERDAY THAT A "SECRET REPORT" WHICH HE SAID WAS WRITTEN BY THE FORMER VICE PRESIDENT IN 1944 LAID THE BASIS FOR THE PRESENT POLICY TOWARD CHINA. HE DEPLORED THE POLICY AS HELPING THE COMMUNISTS.

WALLACE'S RESPONSE WAS GIVEN TO A REPORTER AT SOUTH SALEM, N.Y.
IF THE ADMINISTRATION AND GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK HAD FOLLOWED THE LINE HE SUGGESTED, WALLACE SAID, "WE WOULD BE IN A MUCH STRONGER POSITION IN THE ORIENT TODAY."

WALLACE SAID HE HAD SENT A REPORT ACCOMPANIED BY A MEMO ENTITLED "A POSSIBLE POLICY LINE RELATIVE TO LIBERAL ELEMENTS IN CHINA," TO THE WHITE HOUSE ON JULY 10,1944.

FERGUSON SAID THAT "THE TENOR" OF THE REPORT TO WHICH HE REFERRED "WAS THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD SHIFT ITS SUPPORT FROM CHIANG KAI-SHEK TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS."

WALLACE SAID THE DOCUMENTS HE SENT TO THE WHITE HOUSE SHOW THERE IS NO BASIS FOR FERGUSON'X CALCULATED AND DELIBERATE SMEAR OF THE ADMINISTRATION AND ME."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT HAD NO RECORD OF ANY SECRET REPORTS FROM THE FORMER VICE PRESIDENT.

BUT FERGUSON INSISTED A "SECRET REPORT" EXISTS. HE SAID HE THOUGHT IT MIGHT BE FOUND IN THE ARCHIVES OF THE ARMY'S HISTORICAL SECTION.

THE ARMY TOLD NEWSMEN THERE WAS NO REPORT FROM WALLACE, OR ANY REFERENCE TO SUCH A REPORT, IN EITHER THE CLASSIFIED (SECRET) OR UNCLASSIFIED SECTIONS OF ITS ARCHIVES.

FERGUSON MENTIONED THE REPORT, OF WHICH HE SAID HE HAD SEEN A SYNOPSIS, IN OPENING AN ATTACK ON THE SENATE FLOOR AGAINST THE ADMINISTRATION'S FAR EAST POLICY.

HE TOLD A REPORTER:

"THIS SYNOPSIS GOES ON TO SAY THE CHIANG KAI-SHEK GOVERNMENT WAS NO GOOD AND IT WOULD COLLAPSE IN 60 DAYS. IT SAYS THE UNITED STATES SHOULD SHIFT TO THE SIDE OF THE COMMUNISTS AND GIVE NO HELP TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK BECAUSE WE COULD EXPECT MORE FAVORABLE TREATMENT FROM THE COMMUNISTS THAN FROM THE NATIONALISTS."

FERGUSON RECALLED WALLACE'S VISIT TO CHINA AS VICE PRESIDENT AND SAID WALLACE "HOPEFULLY SAW" THE COMMUNISTS AS BECOMING THE POST-WAR POWER IN CHINA.

THE MICHIGAN SENATOR SAID THE MISSION TO CHINA HEADED BY GENERAL GEORGE C.MARSHALL "WAS THE CULMINATION OF WHAT I WOULD CALL THE WALLACE PLAN OF OPERATION."

BEFORE BECOMING SECRETARY OF STATE, GENERAL MARSHALL WENT TO CHINA IN AN EFFORT TO BRING AN END TO THE CHINESE WAR. THIS MISSION FAILED WHEN HE COULD NOT BRING THE NATIONALISTS AND COMMUNISTS INTO A COALITION GOVERNMENT.

"WHEN THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS REFUSED TO MIX WATER WITH GASOLINE, AN EXPERIMENT WE NAIVELY ENDORSED," FERGUSON SAID, "THEY WERE WRITTEN OFF OUR LIST AND LEFT TO SHIFT FOR THEMSELVES AGAINST THE TIDE OF COMMUNISM WHICH ROSE FROM THAT POINT FORWARD, WITH DIRECT AID FROM MOSCOW."

FORMOSA

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON,JAN.18-(AP)-SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON AND GEN.OMAR BRADLEY WERE REPORTED BY SOME SENATORS TODAY AS PREPARED TO KNOCK THE PROPS FROM UNDER CONTENTIONS THAT FORMOSA IS NECESSARY TO AMERICAN DEFENSES.

JOHNSON AND BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, HAVE BEEN SUMMONED TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE JANUARY 26.

REPUBLICANS WHO FORCED THE INVITATIONS FOR THEIR APPEARANCE HAVE INDICATED THEY HOPE THE TWO OFFICIALS MIGHT PROVIDE EVIDENCE THAT MILITARY THINKING RUNS COUNTER TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S HANDS-OFF POLICY TOWARD FORMOSA.

SENATORS WHO HAVE TALKED TO JOHNSON, HOWEVER, SAID IT IS THEIR UNDERSTANDING THAT THE DEFENSE SECRETARY STANDS SQUARELY BEHIND THE PRESIDENT'S DECISION THAT THIS COUNTRY WILL GIVE NO MORE MILITARY AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT WHICH HAS FLED TO FORMOSA.

INTERESTED SENATORS SAID THEY WILL BE SURPRISED IF GENERAL BRADLEY DOESN'T TESTIFY THAT INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS OUTWEIGH ANY MILITARY GAIN THIS COUNTRY MIGHT MAKE IN AIDING THE NATIONALISTS AT THIS TIME.

REPUBLICANS ARE NOT LIKELY TO LET BRADLEY LEAVE, HOWEVER, WITHOUT ASKING HIM WHETHER HE HAS HAD THE VIEWS OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, THE SUPREME COMMANDER IN JAPAN, ABOUT FORMOSA.

SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ), A FOREIGN RELATIONS MEMBER, HAS QUOTED MACARTHUR AS SAYING IF FORMOSA IS ALLOWED TO FALL INTO HOSTILE COMMUNIST HANDS IT WILL REPRESENT A THREAT TO U.S. PACIFIC DEFENSES.

CHAFING AT REPUBLICAN ATTACKS ON THE ADMINISTRATION'S ASIATIC POLICIES, DEMOCRATS PREPARED TO STRIKE BACK.

SENATOR LUCAS OF ILLINOIS, THE DEMOCRATIC LEADER, TOLD A REPORTER HE HAS TAKEN ABOUT ALL HE CAN WITHOUT ANSWERING.

HE SAID HE INTENDS TO ASK THE REPUBLICANS WHO ARE CLAMORING FOR VIGOROUS INTERVENTION IN FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS WHETHER THEY ARE WILLING TO VOTE TO RENEW THE EXPIRING DRAFT LAW.

"THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY ARE INTERESTED IN THE ISSUE OF WHETHER THEIR BOYS ARE GOING TO BE SENT TO FIGHT OUT THERE," HE SAID. "I WANT TO KNOW IF THE REPUBLICANS, WHO ARE SO BELLIGERENT IN THE SENATE, ARE WILLING TO VOTE TO KEEP THE DRAFT ALIVE. THAT WILL BE THE TEST."

LUCAS HAS THE SUPPORT OF AN INFORMAL AGREEMENT AMONG SENATE DEMOCRATS--REACHED AT A CAUCUS YESTERDAY--THAT THEY WILL SUPPORT THE PRESIDENT'S STAND ON FORMOSA.

ON THE OTHER SIDE, SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) TOOK OCCASION TO REPLY TO ATTACKS HE SAID HAD BEEN MADE ON HIS PROPOSAL THAT THE NAVY STAND READY TO INTERRUPT ANY COMMUNIST ATTEMPT TO CROSS THE 100 MILES OF SEA THAT LIES BETWEEN THE CHINA COAST AND FORMOSA.

SOME CRITICS HAVE SAID TAFT'S STAND IS INCONSISTENT WITH HIS ATTACK ON PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S ACTION IN SENDING AMERICAN TROOPS TO ICELAND BEFORE THIS COUNTRY ENTERED WORLD WAR II.

"THIS IGNORES THE BASIC DIFFERENCE IN CONDITIONS," TAFT SAID. "I DIDN'T THINK THAT HITLER WAS A THREAT TO US OR COULD HAVE DONE ANYTHING TO US.

"I AGREE THAT RUSSIA IS A THREAT TO THIS COUNTRY AND THAT RUSSIA COULD DO SOMETHING TO US. THE ADVANCE OF AIRPOWER AND THE ADVENT OF THE ATOMIC BOMB CALL FOR DIFFERENT POLICIES THAN IN 1941."

SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) TOLD THE SENATE YESTERDAY THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN "RELEASED" THE REPUBLICANS FROM SUPPORT OF BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY WHEN HE ANNOUNCED HIS FORMOSA DECISION WITHOUT CONSULTING THE GOP IN ADVANCE.

"I THINK HE SAID AT THAT TIME 'HERE SHE GOES OUT THE WINDOW,'" FERGUSON DECLARED.

LUCAS DENIED THAT THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT'S POSITION HAD DESTROYED BIPARTISANSHIP ON FOREIGN POLICY.

IF ANYBODY WAS DESTROYING IT, HE SAID IT WAS THE REPUBLICANS "WHO DAY AFTER DAY ARE DENOUNCING" THE PRESIDENT AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT BECAUSE OF DEVELOPMENTS IN ASIA.

WASHINGTON,JAN 18-(AP)-REP.LOVRE (R-SD) SAID TODAY ECONOMIC AID TO KOREA SHOULD BE WITHHELD "UNTIL THERE IS A CLEAR STATEMENT FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT CONCERNING U.S. POLICY IN THE FAR EAST."

A REQUEST FOR $65,000,000 IS DUE FOR HOUSE CONSIDERATION THURSDAY.

THE SOUTH DAKOTAN, A MEMBER OF A SUBCOMMITTEE WHICH VISITED KOREA LAST FALL, SAID HE "IS DEEPLY SYMPATHETIC TO THE VALIANT FIGHT THE KOREANS ARE WAGING AGAINST COMMUNISM."

"BUT," LOVRE TOLD A REPORTER, "WHILE THE ADMINISTRATION CONTINUES AN OFF-AGAIN-ON-AGAIN POLICY IN THE ORIENT, PRACTICAL BUSINESS JUDGMENT POINTS UP THE FOLLY OF ISOLATING AMERICAN DOLLARS IN AN AREA COMPLETELY SURROUNDED BY SOVIET FORCES."

HE SAID THAT "AID MONEY IS SUPPOSED TO STOP THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM, YET THE STATE DEPARTMENT SITS BY AND ALLOWS RED ADVANCES TOWARD FORMOSA.

"THIS IS NO TIME FOR PIECE-MEAL LEGISLATION.

"ADMITTEDLY THIS COUNTRY HAS NO POLICY IN THE ORIENT NOR HAS ONE BEEN ADVANCED.

"UNTIL SUCH A COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM IS PUT FORTH I SEE NO POINT IN WASTING THE MONEY OF AMERICAN TAXPAYERS WITH A FUTILE AID PLAN."

LOVRE ASSERTED THAT "STRONG FORTHRIGHT LEADERSHIP AND A WELL-DEVELOPED PUBLIC RELATIONS PROGRAM" IS NEEDED IN THE FAR EAST.

WASHINGTON,JAN 18-(AP)-THE WOMAN FOR WHOM GERMANY'S "BIG BERTHA" CANNON OF WORLD WAR I WAS NAMED HAS STARTED A FIGHT TO REGAIN CONTROL OF THE FABULOUS KRUPP INDUSTRIAL EMPIRE.

FRAU BERTHA KRUPP, 62, WIDOW OF GUSTAV KRUPP VON BOHLEN UND HALBACH, WHO DIED MONDAY AT SALZBURG, AUSTRIA, CLAIMS THAT SHE IS THE SOLE OWNER OF THE MINES AND STEEL MILLS WHICH THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE SEIZED.

AN AMERICAN ATTORNEY, GEORGE T.DAVIS, OF SAN FRANCISCO, TOOK THE FIRST LEGAL STEPS HERE YESTERDAY BY SERVING FORMAL NOTICE OF THE CLAIM BY RADIO ON THE U.S. AND BRITISH HIGH COMMISSIONERS IN GERMANY.

THE KRUPP PLANTS IN THE RUHR AND ELSEWHERE IN THE WESTERN OCCUPATION ZONES ARE STILL WORTH AROUND $500,000,000 (M) AT A "ROUGH ESTIMATE" SAYS DAVIS, DESPITE THEIR WARTIME BOMB DAMAGE.

THE WIDOW KRUPP, DAVIS TOLD A REPORTER, IS A MOTHERLY WOMAN OF 62 WHOSE INTERESTS ARE HER FOUR CHILDREN AND THE EMPIRE SHE INHERITED DECADES AGO. SHE LIVES NOW ON AN ESTATE NEAR SALZBURG.

HER HUSBAND WAS CHARGED WITH WAR CRIMES AT NURNBERG BUT ESCAPED TRIAL AS MENTALLY INCOMPETENT. A SON, ALFRED, 42, WAS CONVICTED AND SENTENCED TO 12 YEARS IN PRISON, BUT SHE WAS NEVER PROSECUTED.

ALFRED'S SENTENCE INCLUDED AN ORDER CONFISCATING ALL THE KRUPP PROPERTY AND THE ATTORNEY SAID THE FIRST ATTACK WOULD BE ON THE VALIDITY OF THIS ORDER. HER CONTENTION IS THAT BOTH FATHER AND SON WERE NO MORE THAN MANAGERS.

WASHINGTON, JAN.18-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES ACTED TODAY TO GET BACK 42 MERCHANT SHIPS IT SOLD TO CHINA IN 1947-48. IT DOESN'T WANT THEM FALLING INTO COMMUNIST HANDS.

THIS COUNTRY STILL HOLDS MORTGAGES ON THE SHIPS. SO THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED IT HAS INSTRUCTED AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVES TO ASK LOCAL AUTHORITIES IN FAR EAST PORTS TO PREVENT THE SAILING OF ANY OF THE SHIPS, WHICH MAY BE THERE.

OFFICIALS SAID THE DEPARTMENT DOES NOT HAVE DETAILS OF WHERE THE SHIPS ARE.

SIX OF THE VESSELS WERE REPORTED AMONG 13 CHINESE SHIPS WHOSE CREWS HOISTED THE RED FLAG AT HONG KONG ON MONDAY.

THE MARITIME COMMISSION AND EXPORT-IMPORT BANK HOLD MORTGAGES ON THE SHIPS WHICH ARE IN ARREARS ABOUT $19,000,000 (M). THE CHINESE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT HAD PAID ON A FRACTION OF THE PURCHASE PRICE.

SECRETARY ACHESON NOTIFIED CHINESE AMBASSADOR WELLINGTON KOO OF THE ACTION IN A LETTER. HE INDICATED THAT THE UNITED STATES IS WILLING TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE NATIONALISTS TO LET THE SHIPS CONTINUE TO BE USED FOR TRADE WITH FORMOSA.

MARITIME COMMISSION OFFICIALS SAID THEY UNDERSTOOD TWO OF THE SHIPS ARE AT BALTIMORE AND TWO AT NORFOLK, BUT THAT THE OTHERS ARE IN ASIATIC PORTS OR FAR EASTERN WATERS.

TYDINGS SAID HE WANTED TO INQUIRE INTO THE PRESIDENT'S POWER TO REMOVE AN OFFICER AFTER HE IS COMMISSIONED. LATER HE SAID HE HAD BEEN INFORMED THAT DENFELD "WAS NEVER SWORN IN" FOR A SECOND TERM.

HE ADDED HE ALSO HAD BEEN ADVISED THAT THE PRESIDENT REMOVED HIM ON A "WRITTEN ORDER" TO WHICH A MEMORANDUM WAS ATTACHED.

HE SAID ALL THE INFORMATION WOULD BE PRESENTED TO THE SENATE.

THE ARMED SERVICES CHAIRMAN SAID HE HAD BEEN UNABLE TO REACH MATTHEWS BY TELEPHONE BECAUSE THE CIVILIAN NAVY HEAD WAS AT OMAHA, NEB., HIS HOME. BUT HE SAID HE HAD ASKED FOR A FULL "CHRONOLOGICAL RECORD" OF ALL STEPS LEADING UP TO APPOINTMENT OF ADMIRAL SHERMAN "AS THEY RELATE TO ADMIRAL DENFELD."

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) SUGGESTED THAT CHAIRMAN TYDINGS CALL SECRETARY MATTHEWS BACK FOR A CLOSED-DOOR COMMITTEE SESSION TOMORROW OR FRIDAY.

WASH-N - DENFELD - XXX SUCCESSOR.

SENATOR CAIN (R-WASH) SAID THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE SHOULD "WASTE NO TIME" IN CALLING DENFELD TO GET HIS SIDE OF THE MATTER.

CAIN, A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE, SAID THE QUESTION WITH TOP PRIORITY NOW IS: "HAS A MEMBER OF THE PRESIDENT'S CABINET SPOKEN THE TRUTH BEFORE A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE OR HASN'T HE?"

THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE LAST WEEK UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDED SHERMAN FOR CONFIRMATION AFTER HE AND MATTHEWS HAD MADE A PERSONAL APPEARANCE BEFORE THE GROUP. THAT WAS WHEN MATTHEWS SAID DENFEL HAD NOT BEEN COMMISSIONED AND THEREFORE THE JOB WAS OPEN WHEN DENFELD'S FIRST TERM EXPIRED IN DECEMBER.

MCCARTHY BLOCKED TYDING'S ATTEMPT TO GET THE SENATE TO CONFIRM SHERMAN IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE ARMED SERVICES GROUP HAD ACTED. SENATE CONFIRMATION HAD BEEN CONSIDERED A FOREGONE CONCLUSION UNTIL MCCARTHY TOOK THE FLOOR TODAY.

MCCARTHY TOLD THE SENATE THE DOCUMENT RAISES THE QUESTION WHETHER SECRETARY MATTHEWS "IS A MAN WHO IS INCOMPETENT OR JUST PLAIN UN-TRUTHFUL."

THE SENATOR READ FROM THE PAPER WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS "THE COMMISSION WHICH MATTHEWS TOLD THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE DID NOT EXIST."
HE SAID IT IS DATED SEPT. 14, 1949, RUNNING TO DECEMBER 15, 1951, AND IS SIGNED BY FRANCIS P. MATTHEWS AND HARRY S.TRUMAN.
"IT SAYS THAT WE, HARRY S.TRUMAN AND FRANCIS P.MATTHEWS REPOSE--AND I QUOTE--'SPECIAL TRUST AND CONFIDENCE IN THE PATRIOTISM, FIDELITY AND ABILITIES OF ADMIRAL LOUIS E.DENFELD,'--END OF QUOTE," MCCARTHY SAID.
DENFELD, WHO TOOK A 60 DAY LEAVE FOLLOWING HIS OUSTER, NOW IS AT HIS HOME IN NEW ENGLAND. THE LEAVE EXPIRES THURSDAY. HE HAS NOT YET SAID PUBLICLY WHETHER HE WILL ACCEPT A LESSER JOB, OR RETIRE FROM THE NAVY. BUT HE ALREADY HAS TURNED DOWN ONE JOB OFFERED HIM BY MATTHEWS.

TYDINGS BROKE INTO MCCARTHY'S SPEECH TO SUGGEST THAT THE SENATE WITHHOLD ACTION ON SHERMAN'S NOMINATION UNTIL A STUDY IS MADE OF THE PRESIDENT'S AUTHORITY TO REMOVE A CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS AFTER A COMMISSION IS ISSUED.
TYDINGS SAID IN REPLY TO A QUESTION FROM MCCARTHY THAT IF A COMMISSION HAD BEEN ISSUED TO DENFELD, HE WOULD "ASSUME" THAT NO VACANCY EXISTED UNTIL THE EXPIRATION OF HIS TERM. THAT EXCHANGE TOOK PLACE BEFORE MCCARTHY ASSERTED THERE ACTUALLY IS A COMMISSION.
LATER TYDINGS SAID THAT WHETHER THE PRESIDENT STILL WOULD HAVE THE RIGHT OF REMOVAL IS A QUESTION HE IS NOT PREPARED TO PASS ON WITHOUT FURTHER STUDY.
MCCARTHY ARGUED THAT WITH A COMMISSION ISSUED, THE JOB IS FILLED FOR THE TWO-YEAR STATUTORY TERM. AND HE SAID THERE IS NO PROVISION IN THE LAW FOR OUSTER "AT THE PLEASURE OF THE PRESIDENT OR THE WHIM OF THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY."
HE SAID HE DID NOT QUESTION THE FITNESS OF SHERMAN, CALLING HIM "A MAN OF OUTSTANDING ABILITY."
DURING COMMITTEE HEARINGS CHAIRMAN TYDINGS AND OTHER SENATORS STATED THAT THE PRESIDENT AS COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ARMED SERVICES HAS A RIGHT TO REMOVE ANY SUBORDINATE AT ANY TIME.
IN REPLY TO A QUESTION FROM MCCARTHY, TYDINGS SAID THAT MATTHEWS DID NOT TESTIFY UNDER OATH. MCCARTHY SAID HE FELT IT WAS "A GRAVE MISTAKE" FOR ALL CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES NOT TO REQUIRE THAT WITNESSE BE SWORN.

MARAGON, WHO ONCE HAD A WHITE HOUSE PASS, WAS INDICTED BY A FEDERAL GRAND JURY EARLY THIS MONTH. HE PLEADED INNOCENT TO THE INDICTMENT, WHICH ACCUSES HIM OF LYING TO THE SENATE COMMITTEE. SPECIFICALLY, THE GRAND JURY CHARGED MARAGON WITH TELLING THE SENATORS FALSELY THAT IN 1945 AND 1946 HE HAD ONLY ONE BANK ACCOUNT, AND THAT FROM 1945 TO THE MIDDLE OF 1949 HE NEGOTIATED NO GOVERNMENT BUSINESS AND RECEIVED NO MONEY FOR ANY WORK CONNECTED WITH THE GOVERNMENT. HIS TRIAL IS SET FOR FEB.20.
FOLLOWING VAUGHAN'S TESTIMONY BEFORE THE COMMITTEE LAST AUTUMN, PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT HE PLANNED TO KEEP THE GENERAL AS HIS MILITARY AIDE.
VAUGHAN DECLINED TO TALK TO REPORTERS, OR TO POSE FOR NEWS PHOTOGRAPHS, WHEN HE ARRIVED AT THE WHITE HOUSE TODAY.
"I'M TOO BUSY NOW," HE SAID. "I HAVE NO STATEMENT TO MAKE WHATSOEVER."
A LITTLE LATER, HOWEVER, VAUGHAN AGREED TO POSE FOR PICTURES, AND THE PHOTOGRAPHERS SAID HE REMARKED:
"I WONDER WHAT THIS IS ALL ABOUT? I THOUGHT THEY WERE THROUGH WITH IT."
WHEN ONE OF THE CAMERAMEN TOLD HIM THAT "THIS PROBABLY IS THE END OF IT," VAUGHAN REPLIED:
"THAT'S WHAT I HOPE. THAT'S WHAT I'M LOOKING FOR."
THE EVIDENCE ON WHICH THE COMMITTEE CRITICIZED THE GENERAL WAS DEVELOPED DURING AN INQUIRY TO DETERMINE WHETHER INFLUENCE WITH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAS BEEN USED IMPROPERLY BY SOME "FIVE PERCENTERS" --MEN WHO CHARGE A FEE FOR HELPING BUSINESS FIRMS GET GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS.
THREE REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE COMPLAINED LAST WEEK THAT A PRELIMINARY DRAFT OF THE REPORT LET VAUGHAN OFF TOO EASILY. CHAIRMAN HOEY (D-NC) AND OTHER DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS AGREED TO REVISE THE DOCUMENT ALONG THE LINES SUGGESTED BY THE REPUBLICANS.
THE RESULTING REPORT WAS APPROVED BY ALL MEMBERS: SENATORS HOEY, O'CONOR (D-MD), EASTLAND (D-MISS), ROBERTSON (D-VA), MCCARTHY (R-WIS), MUNDT (R-SD), AND MARGARET CHASE SMITH (R-ME).
THE COMMITTEE INTENDS TO RESUME PUBLIC HEARINGS WHEN CERTAIN KEY WITNESSES, WHO WERE ILL LAST SUMMER, ARE ABLE TO TESTIFY.

BUT IT REPORTED THAT JOHN MARAGON, FOR A TIME AN EMPLOYE OF THE PERFUME COMPANY WHOSE HEAD GAVE THE FREEZERS TO VAUGHAN, HAD ENGAGED IN "NEFARIOUS ACTIVITIES IN DEALING WITH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS". AND IT DECLARED THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT MARAGON'S FRIENDSHIP WITH GEN. VAUGHAN MADE POSSIBLE MARAGON'S ACTIVITIES IN HIS DEALINGS WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.
"IN SEVERAL INSTANCES THE EVIDENCE SHOWED THAT GENERAL VAUGHAN OR HIS OFFICE PERSONALLY INTERCEDED WITH GOVERNMENT AGENCIESON BEHALF OF MARAGON OR THOSE WHOM HE REPRESENTED," THE REPORT SAID.
IN SOME CASES, THE COMMITTEE CONTINUED, MARAGON USED VAUGHAN'S PHONE AT THE WHITE HOUSE TO TRANSACT PERSONAL BUSINESS. IT SAID THIS AND OTHER FACTORS "MADE IT POSSIBLE FOR MARAGON TO USE THE GREAT PRESTIGE OF THE WHITE HOUSE FOR HIS OWN ADVANTAGE."
THE INVESTIGATORS EXPRESSED AMAZEMENT THAT MARAGON WAS ABLE TO CONTINUE SUCH ACTIVITIES IN DEALINGS WITH THE GOVERNMENT FOR SEVERAL YEARS, ESPECIALLY IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT "IN 1945 HE WAS CAUGHT BY THE CUSTOMS OFFICIALS SMUGGLING ESSENTIAL OILS USED IN THE MANUFACTURE OF PERFUME INTO THIS COUNTRY."

FIRST LEAD FIVE PERCENTERS
BY MARVIN L.ARROWSMITH
(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, JAN. 18-(AP)-MAJ. GEN. HARRY H.VAUGHAN, PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MILITARY AIDE, WAS REPRIMANDED SHARPLY TODAY BY THE SENATE COMMITTEE WHICH CONDUCTED LAST SUMMER'S SPECTACULAR FIVE PERCENTER INQUIRY.
IN A UNANIMOUS REPORT ON THE INVESTIGATION, THE COMMITTEE TOOK VAUGHAN TO TASK FOR ACCEPTING SEVEN HOME FREEZERS AS GIFTS, AND IT CRITICIZED HIM ON OTHER COUNTRS.
VAUGHAN GAVE ONE OF THE FREEZERS TO MRS. TRUMAN. SOME OF THE UNITS WENT TO OTHER WASHINGTON NOTABLES. THE PRESIDENTIAL AIDE HAS SAID THERE WAS NOTHING WRONG ABOUT HIS TAKING THE FREEZERS, OR IN PRESENTING THEM TO HIS FRIENDS.
TODAY VAUGHAN DECLINED TO TALK TO REPORTERS WHEN HE ARRIVED AT THE WHITE HOUSE, OR TO POSE FOR PICTURES.
"I'M TOO BUSY NOW," HE SAID. "I HAVE NO STATEMENT TO MAKE WHATSOEVER."

(THE COMMITTEE SAID IT'S ALL RIGHT FOR THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY TO ACCEPT GIFTS BECAUSE THROUGHOUT THE HISTORY OF THE NATION THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE PRESENTED THEM "AS A TOKEN OF THEIR ESTEEM AND A MARK OF RESPECT FOR THE HIGH OFFICE HE HOLDS." NOTHING IN THE REPORT, THE COMMITTEE ADDED, "IS INTENDED TO BE CRITICAL OF THAT LONG-STANDING TRADITION.)

THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT BLUNTLY DENOUNCED JOHN F.MARAGON, WASHINGTON MAN-ABOUT-TOWN WHO WAS INDICTED EARLY THIS MONTH BY A FEDERAL GRAND JURY WHICH ACCUSED HIM OF LYING TO THE SENATE GROUP. MARAGON, WHO ONCE HAD A WHITE HOUSE PASS, PLEADED INNOCENT WHEN HE WAS ARRAIGNED. HIS TRIAL IS SET FOR FEB. 20.

THE COMMITTEE'S PUBLIC HEARINGS LAST AUGUST BROUGHT TESTIMONY THAT MARAGON ENLISTED VAUGHAN'S AID IN AN EFFORT TO WIELD INFLUENCE WITH OTHER GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND IN ATTEMPTS TO SECURE FAVORS FOR FRIENDS.

IN ITS REPORT THE COMMITTEE CONCLUDED:

"THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT MARAGON'S FREINDSHIP WITH GEN. HARRY H. VAUGHAN MADE HIS (MARAGON'S) ACTIVITIES IN HIS DEALINGS WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT POSSIBLE.

"IN SEVERAL INSTANCES THE EVIDENCE SHOWED THAT GENERAL VAUGHAN OR HIS OFFICE PERSONALLY INTERCEDED WITH GOVERNMENT AGENCIES ON BEHALF OF MARAGON OR THOSE WHOM HE REPRESENTED."

THE REPORT SAID, TOO, THAT IN SOME CASES MARAGON USED VAUGHAN'S WHITE HOUSE TELEPHONE TO TRANSACT PERSONAL BUSINESS, AND THAT A COMBINATION OF THESE AND OTHER FACTORS "MADE IT POSSIBLE FOR MARAGON TO USE THE GREAT PRESTIGE OF THE WHITE HOUSE FOR HIS OWN ADVANTAGE." THE COMMITTEE ADDED:

"IT SEEMS INCREDIBLE X X X THAT OVER A PERIOD OF SEVERAL YEARS A MAN LIKE MARAGON COULD CONTINUE HIS NEFARIOUS ACTIVITIES IN DEALING WITH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS. THIS IS PARTICULARLY TRUE BECAUSE SEVERAL OF HIS DUBIOUS ACTIVITIES OF RECENT YEARS HAVE RECEIVED ATTENTION IN THE PUBLIC PRESS AND BECAUSE IN 1945 HE WAS CAUGHT BY THE CUSTOMS OFFICIALS SMUGGLING ESSENTIAL OILS USED IN THE MANUFACTURE OF PERFUME INTO THIS COUNTRY."

THE REPORT WAS APPROVED BY ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE'S SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE. THEY ARE: SENATORS HOEY (D-NC), CHAIRMAN, O'CONOR (D-MD), EASTLAND (D-MISS), ROBERTSON (D-VA), MC CARTHY (R-WIS), MUNDT (R-SD), AND MARGARET CHASE SMITH (R-ME.)

LAST WEEK THE THREE REPUBLICAN MEMBERS PROTESTED TO HOEY THAT A PRELIMINARY DRAFT OF THE REPORT DEALT TOO EASILY WITH VAUGHAN. AS A RESULT THE DOCUMENT WAS REVISED AND THE GOP SENATORS THEN AGREED TO SIGN IT.

IN FILING THE REPORT WITH THE SENATE, HOEY SAID IN A PREPARED STATEMENT:

"THE COMMITTEE DID NOT GO ON ANY PUNITIVE EXPEDITION. IT SOUGHT ONLY TO FIND THE FACTS AND TO DISCLOSE THEM WITHOUT REGARD TO WHO THEY AFFECTED. X X X WHEREVER CRITICISMS ARE MADE, THEY ARE MADE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

"THE COMMITTEE HAD NO DESIRE TO SMEAR OR CLEAR ANYONE BUT RATHER TO DEVELOP THE FACTS IN THE HOPE THAT THE PUBLIC SERVICE WOULD BE IMPROVED AND IRREGULAR OR IMPROPER PRACTICES DISCONTINUED."

THE REPORT MADE IT CLEAR THAT THE INVESTIGATION HAS NOT BEEN COMPLETED AND THAT THE COMMITTEE PLANS TO RESUME PUBLIC HEARINGS WHEN CERTAIN KEY WITNESSES WHO WERE ILL LAST SUMMER ARE ABLE TO TESTIFY.

DURING THE EARLIER HEARINGS MR. TRUMAN WAS CRITICAL OF THE INVESTIGATION AND HE REFUSED TO GO ALONG WITH SOME MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE WHO DEMANDED THAT HE FIRE VAUGHAN. MOREOVER, THE PRESIDENT LET IT BE KNOWN HE HAD NO INTENTION OF DISCIPLINING HIS AIDE.

THE COMMITTEE STARTED ITS INQUIRY TO FIND OUT ABOUT THE ACTIVITIES OF MEN WHO COLLECTED FEES FOR HELPING OTHERS GET GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS. THE FEE OFTEN AMOUNTED TO FIVE PERCENT OF THE PROCEEDS, SO THE INQUIRY BECAME KNOWN AS THE FIVE PERCENTER INVESTIGATION.

THERE IS NOTHING ILLEGAL ABOUT SUCH FEES. THE MAIN INTEREST OF THE COMMITTEE WAS TO DETERMINE WHETHER IMPROPER INFLUENCE HAD FIGURED IN THE HANDLING OF GOVERNMENT BUSINESS. IN ITS REPORT THE COMMITTEE SAID IT DID FIGURE--APLENTY.

SINCE AND BECAUSE OF THE INVESTIGATION, THE REPORT ADDED, "THERE HAS BEEN A PRONOUNCED RECESSION IN THE BUSINESS OF INFLUENCE PEDDLING." AND STEPS ARE BEING TAKEN, THE SENATORS ADDED, TO WEED IT OUT TO AN EVEN GREATER EXTENT.

THE HOME FREEZER EPISODE WHICH PROMPTED COMMITTEE CRITICISM OF VAUGHAN WAS THE SENSATION OF THE INQUIRY LAST AUGUST. IT WAS BROUGHT OUT AT THE HEARINGS THAT THE SEVEN UNITS WERE PRESENTED TO VAUGHAN BY THE HEAD OF THE ALBERT VERLEY CO., THE CHICAGO PERFUME HOUSE FOR WHICH MARAGON WORKED. IT ALSO WAS DEVELOPED THAT THE GIFTS WENT TO VAUGHAN ABOUT THE TIME THE VERLEY FIRM WAS TRYING TO GET STATE DEPARTMENT CLEARANCE TO SEND SOME OF ITS OFFICIALS TO EUROPE--RIGHT AFTER THE END OF THE WAR WHEN PASSPORTS WERE HARD TO GET.

VAUGHAN, THE TESTIMONY SHOWED, INTERCEDED AND SMOOTHED THE WAY FOR THE VERLEY PEOPLE. WHEN HE TOOK THE STAND HIMSELF, HOWEVER, HE TESTIFIED THAT NONE OF HIS ACTIVITIES CITED AT THE HEARINGS WERE IN ANY WAY IMPROPER. HE SAID THAT WHATEVER HE DID WAS PART OF HIS JOB AND IN THE INTEREST OF EXPEDITING THINGS.

THE COMMITTEE IN ONE PART OF ITS REPORT SUGGESTED TO READERS THAT THEY SEE ANOTHER SECTION FOR THE GROUP'S OPINION REGARDING THE HOME FREEZER INCIDENT. IN THAT SECTION--WITHOUT NAMING VAUGHAN, BUT NOT NEEDING TO BECAUSE OF THE PREVIOUS REFERENCE--THE COMMITTEE SAID:

"IT HAS BEEN DISCOVERED BY THIS SUBCOMMITTEE X X X THAT SOME GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS DO ACCEPT GRATUITIES FROM PERSONS WITH WHOM THEY WERE DOING BUSINESS OR WITH WHOM THEY MAY DO BUSINESS. THE SUBCOMMITTEE CONDEMNS THIS PRACTICE ESEPCIALLY FOR OFFICIALS IN HIGH PUBLIC OFFICE.

"EXCEPT FOR THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY, ANY PUBLIC OFFICIAL WHO ACCEPTS A GRATUITY, EVEN WHEN HE THINKS IT IS NOT A QUID PRO QUO (ONE FAVOR FOR ANOTHER IN RETURN), MAKES A SERIOUS MISTAKE. IF HE STOPS AND THINKS FOR A MOMENT, HE WILL REALIZE THAT PROBABLY HE IS NOT GETTING THE GIFT BECAUSE THE DONOR LIKES THE COLOR OF HIS EYES OR IS GENUINELY CONCERNED WITH HIS HOUSEHOLD NEEDS.

"IF HE GETS SOMETHING FOR NOTHING FROM PERSONS DOING BUSINESS WITH THE GOVERNMENT IT IS BECAUSE THEY HOPE HE WILL RECIPROCATE IN SOME WAY."

BY MARVIN L.ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON,JAN.18-(AP)-THE SENATE AWAITED TODAY A REPORT SAID TO BE QUITE CRITICAL OF MAJ.GEN.HARRY H.VAUGHAN, PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MILITARY AIDE.

THE REPORT COVERS A SENATE COMMITTEE'S INVESTIGATION LAST SUMMER OF THE ACTIVITIES OF FIVE PERCENTERS--MEN WHO COLLECTED FEES, OFTEN FIVE PER CENT OF THE PROCEEDS, FOR HELP IN GETTING GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS FOR OTHERS.

SENATOR HOEY (D-NC), CHAIRMAN OF THE INQUIRY GROUP, SAID THE DOCUMENT WOULD BE MADE PUBLIC ABOUT AN HOUR AFTER THE SENATE MEETS TODAY (NOON, EST).

TWO DAYS AGO AN OFFICIAL WHO HAS SEEN THE REPORT SAID IT CONTAINS "A RATHER SEVERE REBUKE" FOR VAUGHAN. ANOTHER OFFICIAL SAID THEN THERE IS "PRETTY VIGOROUS CRITICISM" OF THE PRESIDENTIAL AIDE IN THE DOCUMENT.

BOTH OFFICIALS ASKED THAT THEIR NAMES NOT BE USED.

THE COMMITTEE DID NOT MAKE ITS INVESTIGATION BECAUSE THERE IS ANYTHING ILLEGAL ABOUT CHARGING FEES FOR HELP IN GETTING FEDERAL CONTRACTS. THERE ISN'T.

INSTEAD, THE GROUP WANTED TO FIND OUT WHETHER IMPROPER INFLUENCE HAD FIGURED IN THE HANDLING OF GOVERNMENT BUSINESS.

DURING THE PUBLIC HEARINGS LAST AUGUST, VAUGHAN'S NAME POPPED UP ALMOST EVERY DAY. THE COMMITTEE WAS TOLD REPEATEDLY THAT VAUGHAN SEVERAL TIMES HAD INTERVENED AT GOVERNMENT AGENCIES IN BEHALF OF FRIENDS WHO WANTED FAVORS.

ONE OF THOSE FRIENDS THE COMMITTEE HEARD ABOUT WAS JOHN MARAGON, WHO ON JAN. 3 WAS INDICTED BY A FEDERAL GRAND JURY WHICH ACCUSED HIM OF LYING TO THE SENATE INVESTIGATORS. MARAGON IS A ONE-TIME BOOTBLACK WHO CAME TO HAVE EASY ACCESS TO THE WHITE HOUSE.

HE PLEADED INNOCENT WHEN HE WAS ARRAIGNED ON THE GRAND JURY CHARGES. HE IS SCHEDULED TO COME TO TRIAL FEB. 20.

VAUGHAN TESTIFIED AT THE COMMITTEE'S PUBLIC HEARINGS. HE SAID THEN THAT THERE WAS NOTHING WRONG ABOUT ANY OF HIS ACTIONS ON BEHALF OF FRIENDS.

AND HE SAID THERE WAS NOTHING IMPROPER ABOUT HIS ACCEPTING SEVEN HOME FREEZERS AS GIFTS FROM THE HEAD OF THE CHICAGO PERFUME COMPANY WHICH HIRED JOHN MARAGON. VAUGHAN IN TURN PRESENTED THE FREEZERS TO MRS.TRUMAN AND OTHER PROMINENT WASHINGTONIANS.

ON THE BASIS OF THE TESTIMONY AT THE HEARINGS, SOME MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE DEMANDED THAT TRUMAN FIRE VAUGHAN. BUT THE PRESIDENT BACKED UP HIS AIDE AND LET FLY WITH SOME CRITICISM OF THE COMMITTEE.

LAST WEEK THE THREE REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE COMPLAINED TO HOEY THAT A PRELIMINARY DRAFT OF THE FIVE PERCENTER REPORT LET VAUGHAN OFF TOO EASILY. HOEY AND THE OTHER DEMOCRATS ON THE COMMITTEE AGREED TO REVISE THE DOCUMENT ALONG THE LINE SUGGESTED BY THE GOP SENATORS.

WASHINGTON, JAN.18-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HAS INSTRUCTED AMBASSADOR ALAN KIRK IN MOSCOW TO PROTEST AGAINST RUSSIA'S EFFORTS TO BLOCK PEACE TREATY DISCUSSIONS WITH AUSTRIA.

STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J.MCDERMOTT SAID THE FOUR-POWER DISCUSSIONS HAVE BEEN "AT A VIRTUAL STANDSTILL SINCE NOVEMBER OWING TO THE POSITION OF THE SOVIET DELEGATION."

TALKS AMONG BRITISH, FRENCH, AMERICAN AND RUSSIAN OFFICIALS BROKE DOWN AFTER THE SOVIETS SAID THEY COULD CONTINUE DISCUSSIONS UNTIL AUSTRIA PAID FOR SOVIET SUPPLIES SENT DURING THE EARLY DAYS OF OCCUPATION.

MCDERMOTT READ A STATEMENT THAT SAID:

"THIS GOVERNMENT IS TAKING A SERIOUS VIEW OF THE AUSTRIAN TREATY EMPASSE AND IS PREPARED IN CONCERT WITH THE BRITISH AND FRENCH GOVERNMENTS TO UNDERTAKE DIPLOMATIC EFFORTS IN AN ATTEMPT TO BREAK THE PRESENT DEADLOCK."

MCDERMOTT SAID THE AUSTRIAN SITUATION WAS THE TOPIC OF A MEETING IN MOSCOW YESTERDAY OF THE THREE WESTERN AMBASSADORS.

WASHINGTON, JAN.18-(AP)-THE MANPOWER STRENGTH OF THE NATION'S ARMED FORCES TOTALED 1,555,200 (M) AT THE END OF 1949, THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED TODAY.

THIS WAS 72,000 MORE THAN THE COMBINED ARMED SERVICES STRENGTH PROPOSED IN THE PRESIDENT'S BUDGET FOR THE YEAR STARTING JULY 1.

DECEMBER ENLISTMENTS OF 43,534 WERE HIGHER THAN IN OCTOBER OR NOVEMBER. BUT AS FOUR-FIFTHS WERE RE-ENLISTMENTS THE YEAR-END STRENGTH DROPPED 23,800 UNDER THE NOVEMBER 30 TOTAL.

THE STRENGTH OF THE SERVICES ON DEC. 31 WAS

ARMY -- 643,400, NAVY 415,600, AIR FORCE -- 415,000, MARINE CORPS -- 81,200.

LONDON, JAN 18-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE WILL MAKE A DIRECT APPROACH TO THE KREMLIN IN AN EFFORT TO END A FOUR-POWER STALEMATE OVER DRAFTING AN AUSTRIAN TREATY OF INDEPENDENCE, A RELIABLE INFORMANT SAID TODAY.

THE SOURCE SAID THE AMBASSADORS OF THE THREE WESTERN POWERS ARE SEEKING AN INTERVIEW WITH SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY OR HIS DEPUTY, ANDREI GROMYKO.

IT IS THE FIRST DIRECT APPROACH TO THE KREMLIN BY THE THREE WESTERN POWERS SINCE THE DAYS OF THE BERLIN BLOCKADE.

THE INFORMANT SAID IT WAS HOPED THE WESTERN AMBASSADORS WOULD SEE THE SOVIET OFFICIALS BEFORE THE MEETING FRIDAY IN LONDON OF THE FOUR DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS ATTEMPTING TO DRAFT THE TREATY.

RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS HAVE BLAMED EACH OTHER FOR FAILURE TO WRITE THE TREATY AFTER THREE YEARS AND 248 MEETINGS OF THE DEPUTIES.

RUSSIA NOW IS INSISTING THAT SHE AND AUSTRIA SETTLE FIRST ON WHAT PAYMENTS AUSTRIA SHOULD MAKE FOR HELP RECEIVED FROM RUSSIA SINCE THE WAR. THE WESTERN POWERS FEEL THAT RUSSIA IS USING THIS POINT AS A PRETEXT TO DELAY THE TREATY.

(ADVANCE)...LONDON, JAN.18-(AP)-FIELD MARSHAL LORD MONTGOMERY SAID TONIGHT THAT ONLY THROUGH A POWERFUL PARTNERSHIP OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND WESTERN EUROPE "CAN A CENTRALLY-DIRECTED COMMUNIST THREAT BE SUCCESSFULLY HELD." HE URGED THE FORGING OF SUCH A PARTNERSHIP.

THE BRITISH COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE FIVE-POWER WESTERN EUROPEAN DEFENSE UNION SAID THE MASTER PLAN FOR COOPERATION "MUST CONTAIN PLANS FOR THE MILITARY RECOVERY OF THE NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE."

"THOSE NATIONS MUST BE ASSURED THAT THE WHOLE GROUP REGARDS THE INTEGRITY OF WESTERN EUROPE AS DEFINITELY VITAL FOR THE SAFETY OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION AND THAT THE WHOLE GROUP WOULD, IF NECESSARY, FIGHT TO PRESERVE THAT AREA INTACT," MONTGOMERY TOLD THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING UNION.

THE UNION IS AN OASSOCIATION TO PROMOTE FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING PEOPLES OF THE WORLD.

MONTGOMERY'S COMMAND, WITH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, INCLUDES FORCES OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

MONTGOMERY TOLD HIS LISTENERS HE RETURNED TO BRITAIN FROM HIS RECENT VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES "WITH THE FEELING THAT OVER THERE IS A WARM HEARTED AND GENEROUS PEOPLE, WITH WHOM COOPERATION SHOULD PRESENT NO DIFFICULTY."

AMERICANS ARE "TOTALLY DIFFERENT" FROM THE BRITISH, HE SAID, AND IF THIS WERE REALIZED COOPERATION WOULD BE RELATIVELY SIMPLE. HE SAID BRITAIN WOULD BE IN "VERY POOR SHAPE, WITHOUT A DOUBT" IF SHE HAD NOT RECEIVED MARSHALL PLAN AID.

PARIS, JAN. 18-(AP)-FRANCE IS INSISTING ON A LINK WITH THE RICH SAAR VALLEY AS ONE MEANS OF PREVENTING ANOTHER WAR IN EUROPE, A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY.

"AN ECONOMIC LINK BETWEEN FRANCE AND THE SAAR WILL SERVE TO BALANCE THE ECONOMIES OF FRANCE AND GERMANY," HE TOLD A WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE. "THIS BALANCE IN TURN WILL BE A VERY IMPORTANT MEASURE OF SECURITY FOR EUROPE."

LATER, THE SPOKESMAN SAID HE FOUND IT "VERY INTERESTING BUT NOT SURPRISING" THAT U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON HAD REAFFIRMED U.S. INTENTIONS TO SUPPORT FRANCE'S VIEW THAT THE SAAR SHOULD BE DETACHED FROM GERMANY.

ACHESON TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON TODAY FRANCE'S VIEWPOINT HAD BEEN SUPPORTED BY THREE U.S. SECRETARIES OF STATE AND WOULD BE SUPPORTED IN THE FINAL PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH GERMANY.

THE SPOKESMAN ALSO SAID FRANCE HAD "PAID" FOR ITS ECONOMIC ALLIANCE WITH THE SAAR BY REDUCING ITS REPARATIONS DEMANDS ON GERMANY BY $28,000,000. THIS REDUCTION, HE SAID, WAS AGREED BY A THREE POWER MEETING IN BERLIN TWO YEARS AGO.

HE SAID THERE IS NO FORMAL FRENCH PROPOSAL FOR A 50-YEAR LEASE ON SAAR COAL MINES, AS GERMANS FEAR.

"SOME OF OUR EXPERTS," HE SAID, "MAY BE THINKING IN TERMS OF A LONG LEASE, BUT THERE HAVE BEEN NO PROPOSALS TO THAT EFFECT."

BERLIN, JAN. 18-(AP)-U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER JOHN J.MCCLOY SAID TONIGHT THAT FORMAL SECURITY GUARANTEES FOR WESTERN GERMANY ARE NOT NECESSARY "AS LONG AS WE ARE HERE."

THE COMMISSIONER SAID HE "PERSONALLY WAS OPPOSED TO ANY ARMED GUARANTEES OF WEST GERMAN TERRITORIAL BORDERS."

HE CONCEDED, HOWEVER, "OUR VERY PRESENCE IN WEST GERMANY" CONSTITUTES BY IMPLICATION A KIND OF GUARANTEE FOR THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

MCCLOY SPOKE AT A RECEPTION BY HIM AND HIS BRITISH AND FRENCH COLLEAGUES FOR TOP WESTERN ALLIED AND WEST BERLIN OFFICIALS. SOVIET OFFICIALS, WHO ALSO WERE INVITED, SAID THEY WERE TOO BUSY TO ATTEND.

BERLIN, JAN.18-(AP)-MAJOR GENERAL ALEXANDER KOTIKOV, SOVIET COMMANDER IN BERLIN, PROTESTED OFFICIALLY TO THE AMERICANS TODAY OVER THE WEST BERLIN POLICE SEIZURE OF THE FORMER REICHSBAHN (RAILWAY) HEADQUARTERS BUILDING.

COL. WILLIAM T.BABCOCK, DEPUTY U.S. COMMANDER, TOLD KOTIKOV THE POLICE HAD BEEN INSTRUCTED TO TAKE OVER ONLY THE VACANT PORTIONS OF THE BUILDING AND NOT TO INTERFERE WITH THE BASEMENT WHERE THE RAIL SYSTEM'S SIGNAL NETWORK FUNCTIONS UNDER SOVIET CONTROL.

BABCOCK PROMISED AN INVESTIGATION OF KOTIKOV'S CHARGES THAT THE WEST GERMAN POLICE "RECKLESSLY" INVADED THE NETWORK OFFICES.

THE POLICE SEIZED THE VIRTUALLY EMPTY BUILDING LAST NIGHT WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE U.S. AUTHORITIES WHO SAID THE WEST BERLIN GOVERNMENT NEEDED THE 500 TO 600 ROOMS THAT THE EAST ZONE RAILWAY WAS ALLOWING TO LIE VACANT.

THE BUILDING IS IN THE U.S. SECTOR ALTHOUGH THE GERMAN RAIL SYSTEM IS OPERATED AND CONTROLLED BY THE SOVIETS UNDER FOUR-POWER AGREEMENT.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN.18-(AP)-FIFTEEN AMERICAN NEWSPAPER EDITORS LEFT GERMANY TODAY AFTER A WEEK'S TOUR, IMPRESSED BY THE RAPID COMEBACK OF WEST GERMANY'S ECONOMY WITH THE AID OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM FUNDS.

"THE IMPROVEMENT MADE SINCE I WAS LAST HERE IN 1946 IS REMARKABLE," SAID JOHN P.HARRIS, EDITOR OF THE HUTCHINSON, KANS., NEWS-HERALD.

"THE AVERAGE AMERICAN CAN NOT IMAGINE THE BENEFITS THE ERP HAS HAD IN EUROPE," SAID SAMUEL W.MILLER, OF THE ALLENTOWN, PA., CALL AND CHRONICLE. "I CERTAINLY FEEL THAT IF THE ERP PULLED OUT OF EUROPE AT THIS POINT, IT WOULD MEAN A FAILURE OF GERMANY TO SURVIVE."

"I BELIEVE, AFTER WHAT I HAVE SEEN SO FAR, THAT THERE IS A GOOD CASE FOR CONTINUED ERP AID, AT LEAST UP TO THE SCHEDULED TIME LIMIT OF 1952," SAID M.H.WILLIAMS OF THE WORCESTER, MASS., TELEGRAM AND GAZETTE.

THE EDITORS SHOWED CONCERN ABOUT THE SITUATION IN BERLIN--DIVIDED BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN ALLIES AND SURROUNDED BY THE RUSSIAN ZONE.

"IN BERLIN I HAD THE IMPRESSION OF SITTING ON A LARGE KEG OF DYNAMITE," MILLER SAID.

"THIS WHOLE BERLIN SITUATION IS ALMOST UNBELIEVABLE," SAID HARRIS. IT SEEMS INCREDIBLE THAT THE WESTERN SECTORS ARE ABLE TO SURVIVE AT ALL, UNDER BLOCKADE SO LONG AND STILL CUT OFF AS THEY ARE. BUT SOMEHOW THEY NOT ONLY SURVIVE BUT STILL REMAIN A STRONG ISLAND OF WESTERN DEMOCRACY IN THAT RED SEA OF EASTERN GERMANY."

THE EDITORS LEFT FOR ROME. THEY WILL SPEND A WEEK IN ITALY, THEN A WEEK IN FRANCE. THEY VISITED ENGLAND BEFORE COMING TO GERMANY.

G.PRESCOTT LOW, OF THE QUINCY, MASS., PATRIOT-LEDGER, SAID WHAT IMPRESSED HIM MOST WAS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE RUSSIAN SECTOR AND THE WESTERN SECTORS OF BERLIN. DESPITE WEST BERLIN'S LONG SIEGE OF BLOCKADE, THE WEST BERLINERS LOOKED HEALTHIER AND BETTER FED, HE REMARKED.

WILLIS K.MCARDLE, OF THE SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, EXPRESSED APPRECIATION OF THE "COOPERATION AND FRANKNESS" OF AMERICAN OCCUPATION OFFICIALS IN SHOWING THE EDITORS AROUND GERMANY.

BONN, GERMANY, JAN.18-(AP)-THE STATEMENT BY SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON IN WASHINGTON TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES FAVORED DETACHMENT OF THE SAAR FROM GERMANY CAUSED DISMAY AMONG WEST GERMAN POLITICAL LEADERS HERE.

THEY ALREADY HAD BEEN DISAPPOINTED BY BRITISH REACTION TO CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER'S CHARGES THAT PROPOSED LONG-TERM FRENCH LEASES ON THE SAAR'S COAL MINES WOULD DECIDE THE STATUS OF THE TERRITORY IN ADVANCE OF THE PEACE TREATY.

THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL REACTION TO THE ACHESON STATEMENT. BUT IT WAS THE MAIN TOPIC IN PARLIAMENTARY LOBBIES.

KURT SCHUMACHER, SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC LEADER, SAID THE ALLIES' SAAR POLICY WAS A "SENSELESS MORTGAGE ON THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC."

DR. FRANZ RICHTER, CHAIRMAN OF THE EXTREME "NATIONAL RIGHT" FACTION, SAID HE TOLD FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN DURING HIS RECENT VISIT HERE THAT HE WOULD NEVER RECOGNIZE A PEACE TREATY THAT DEPRIVED GERMANY OF THE SAAR.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN.18-(AP)-COMMUNIST ATTEMPTS TO GAIN CONTROL OF WEST GERMANY'S TRADE UNIONS HAVE BEEN "EFFECTIVELY DEFEATED," THE U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE REPORTED TODAY.

"MOST TRADE UNION REPRESENTATIVES ARE CONFIDENT THAT TRADE UNION LEADERSHIP IS NOW SECURE IN DEMOCRATIC HANDS," SAID AN OFFICIAL SUMMARY OF LABOR DEVELOPMENTS IN WEST GERMANY DURING 1949.

THE SUMMARY ALSO PRAISED GERMAN WORKERS FOR THEIR "HIGH DEGREE OF RESTRAINT" IN AVOIDING STRIKES AND OTHER INDUSTRIAL UNREST DURING LAST YEAR.

"DESPITE THE CONTINUING COMPARATIVELY LOW WAGES, LABOR HAS BEEN SLOW TO DEMAND INCREASES," IN AN ATTEMPT "TO AVOID AN INFLATIONARY PRICE SPIRAL," THE REPORT COMMENTED.

THE SUMMARY CREDITED "DEMOCRATIC TRADE UNION LEADERSHIP, COUPLED WITH THE INTRODUCTION OF SOUND CURRENCY, IMPROVED WORKING CONDITIONS AND WAGE ADJUSTMENTS" WITH HAVING "EFFECTIVELY DEFEATED MOST COMMUNIST ATTEMPTS TO SECURE POSITIONS OF IMPORTANCE WITHIN TRADE UNIONS."

DESPITE THE SMALL NUMBER OF STRIKES, "SOME ADJUSTMENT IN THE DISPARITY BETWEEN WAGES AND THE COST OF LIVING" WAS ACHIEVED BY GERMAN WORKERS, THE REPORT SAID.

ONE OF LABOR'S BIG ACHIEVEMENTS DURING 1949, THE REPORT OBSERVED, WAS THE FOUNDING OF A NEW WESTERN GERMAN TRADE UNION FEDERATION BRINGING TOGETHER 16 UNIONS FROM ALL THREE WESTERN ZONES.

ATHENS, GREECE, JAN.18-(AP)-THE MARSHALL PLAN'S NUMBER ONE MAN IN GREECE HAS ORDERED THE GREEK GOVERNMENT TO PUT INTO CIRCULATION THOUSANDS OF TONS OF AMERICAN AID SUPPLIES LEFT IDLE ON THE DOCKS OF PIRAEUS SOME OF IT SINCE 1946.

PAUL R. PORTER, ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATOR HERE, IN A FIRMLY WORDED LETTER TO COORDINATION MINISTER STEPHAN STEPHANOPOULOS, THREATENED TO SUSPEND ALL PURCHASING RIGHTS OF MINISTRIES WHICH DO NOT MOVE SUPPLIES FROM THE DOCKS BY FEB.1.

IN HIS LETTER, WHICH WAS DATED DEC.23 BUT NOT RELEASED UNTIL TODAY, PORTER CALLED THE GREEK GOVERNMENT'S ATTENTION TO "THE SEVERE CRITICISM WHICH HAS BEEN DIRECTED AGAINST GREECE "BY U.S. MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WHO HAVE VISITED THIS COUNTRY AND SEEN THE SUPPLIES AT PIRAEUS.

SEN.THOMAS (D-OKLA) CHARGED IN DECEMBER THAT AMERICAN SUPPLIES WERE LEFT ROTTING ON THE PIERS OF PIRAEUS, THE PORT OF ATHENS.

PORTER'S LETTER FOLLOWED A PERSONAL TOUR OF THE UNLOADING AREAS BY ECA AND GREEK OFFICIALS. HIS LETTER SAID SOME MINISTRIES CLAIMED TRANSHIPMENT DELAYS WERE CAUSED BY CUSTOMS AND GOVERNMENTAL RED TAPE.

PORTER SAID THAT HIS MISSION HAS IN THE PAST YEARS INDICATED "TIME AND TIME AGAIN" THE NECESSITY OF SIMPLIFYING IMPORT PROCEDURES AND "MOVING THE EQUIPMENT, MATERIAL AND SUPPLIES FROM THE DOCKS TO ACTUAL USE THROUGHOUT GREECE."

HE CITED INSTANCES DURING THE PIRAEUS TOUR WHERE HE SAW TRACTORS, JEEPS AND ASPHALT AND OTHER AMERICAN RECONSTRUCTION MATERIALS LYING IDLE "ANYWHERE FROM DAYS TO SEVERAL MONTHS." HE SAID 3,000 TONS OF EQUIPMENT HAD BEEN LEFT IDLE SINCE ARRIVAL DATES IN 1946 THROUGH 1948.

PORTER ASKED STEPHANOPOULOS TO ISSUE A DIRECTIVE TO THE VARIOUS MINISTRIES MAKING IT CLEAR THEY WOULD BE UNABLE TO PURCHASE FURTHER AMERICAN SUPPLIES UNLESS THEY MOVE INCOMING SHIPMENTS WITHIN 30 DAYS OF ARRIVAL.

BY ANN MARIE SNELLMAN

HELSINKI, FINLAND, JAN.18-(AP)-PRESIDENT JUHO PAASIKIVI, TARGET OF MOSCOW IRE, HAS WON REELECTION, RETURNS FROM FINLAND'S NATIONAL POLL SHOWED TODAY, BUT THE COMMUNISTS REGISTERED A STRONG GAIN.

THE COMMUNIST-LED PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATS ROLLED UP A TOTAL OF 21.5 PER CENT OF THE POPULAR VOTE FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, AS AGAINST 19 PER CENT IN THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS OF 1948. THIS PLACED THEM SECOND ONLY TO THE RULING SOCIAL DEMOCRATS IN INDIVIDUAL PARTY STRENGTH.

THE RIGHT WING CONSERVATIVES ALSO GAINED SHARPLY, LEADING OBSERVERS TO PREDICT THAT PREMIER KARL-AUGUST FAGERHOLM'S GOVERNMENT WOULD BE FORCED TO STEP ASIDE NEXT MARCH IN FAVOR OF A COALITION.

DESPITE THE GAINS REGISTERED BY THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED PARTY, IT WAS CONSIDERED HIGHLY UNLIKELY THEY WOULD BE INVITED INTO A COALITION. COOPERATION BETWEEN THEM AND A CONSERVATIVE-SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC GROUP IS REGARDED HERE AS IMPOSSIBLE, AND ONLY A RADICAL CHANGE IN FINLAND'S FOREIGN RELATIONS COULD GIVE THE COMMUNISTS ANY SAY IN GOVERNMENT MATTERS.

THE INDICATIONS ARE THAT FINLAND, LONG UNDER MOSCOW PRESSURE BECAUSE SHE REPRESENTS A BREAK IN THE RING OF COMMUNIST GOVERNMENTS BORDERING RUSSIA ON THE WEST, WILL HAVE A COALITION OF CONSERVATIVES, SOCIAL DEMOCRATS AND LIBERALS.

THE PARLIAMENTARY STANDING OF THE RESPECTIVE PARTIES REMAINS UNCHANGED BY BY THE VOTING, WHICH WAS FOR A PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORAL ASSEMBLY, BUT THE RESULTS ARE CERTAIN TO HAVE AN EFFECT UPON COMPOSITION OF A NEW GOVERNMENT WHEN THE PRESENT CABINET RESIGNS, ACCORDING TO CUSTOM, AT THE BEGINNING OF THE NEW PRESIDENTIAL TERM MARCH 1.

POLITICAL OBSERVERS POINTED OUT THE COMMUNIST GAINS WERE IN CITY AREAS, WHERE THE STRONG AGRARIAN PARTY LOST GROUND. THEY ATTRIBUTED THIS TO UNEMPLOYMENT IN THESE AREAS AND DISSATISFACTION WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S HANDLING OF THE WAGES PROBLEM. THE TRADE UNION FEDERATION HAD DEMANDED A 10 PER CENT GENERAL INCREASE AND A GOVERNMENT PROPOSAL CALLS FOR A 7.5 PER CENT INCREASE.

SUPPORT OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS SLID FROM THE 27 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL VOTE IT GAINED IN THE 1948 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS TO ONLY 22.3 PER CENT OF THE VOTES IN THE TWO-DAY PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORAL VOTE THAT ENDED YESTERDAY.

PAASIKIVI HIMSELF HELD A LEAD OF 172 ELECTORAL VOTES TO 128 IN THE LATEST PRELIMINARY RESULTS IN THE VOTING FOR A PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORAL ASSEMBLY. THE 300 ELECTORS WILL VOTE FORMALLY FEB. 15, WITH PAASIKIVI SURE TO TAKE OVER AGAIN THE POST HE HAS HELD SINCE 1946.

PARLIAMENTARY TRADITION CALLS UPON THE GOVERNMENT TO RESIGN AUTOMATICALLY WHEN A NEW PRESIDENT TAKES OFFICE EVEN THOUGH PARLIAMENTARY SEATS WERE NOT AT STAKE THIS WEEK.

FAGERHOLM HAS BEEN IN OFFICE SINCE 1948, ALTHOUGH HIS SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY HOLDS ONLY 54 OF THE 200 SEATS IN THE PRESENT PARLIAMENT.

CONSERVATIVE GAINS FROM 19 PER CENT OF THE VOTES IN THE 1948 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS TO AN AGGREGATE OF 27.3 PER CENT IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION LED OBSERVERS TO BELIEVE THEY WOULD BE CALLED UPON TO HEAD A NEW COALITION GOVERNMENT WHICH WOULD, NEVERTHELESS, INCLUDE THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS.

SOCIAL DEMOCRAT PARTICIPATION IN THE NEW GOVERNMENT IS CONSIDERED DESIRABLE, DESPITE THE PARTY'S LOSSES, TO ENSURE CONTINUED HARMONY IN THE LABOR FRONT.

PAASIKIVI MANAGED TO MUSTER CONCERTED SUPPORT FROM SOCIAL DEMOCRATS, CONSERVATIVES AND SWEDISH PEOPLE'S PARTY MEMBERS, CHALKING UP A 58.8 PER CENT MAJORITY OVER THE OPPOSITION AGRARIANS AND COMMUNISTS.

STRONG OPPOSITION CAME FROM THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC PARTY WHICH SHOWED A GAIN OVER ITS 1948 COUNT AND SCORED THE SECOND LARGEST NUMBER OF VOTES AMONG THE INDIVIDUAL PARTIES.

THE COMMUNISTS HAD BEEN BOLSTERED BY RECENT RUSSIAN ATTACKS WHICH CHARGED PAASIKIVI WITH SUPPORTING FAGERHOLM'S GOVERNMENT IN HARBORING 300 ALLEGED SOVIET WAR CRIMINALS AND VIOLATING THE SOVIET-FINNISH PEACE PACT.

IN A NOTE DELIVERED JAN. 1 RUSSIA SPECIFICALLY DEMANDED THE RETURN OF 56 OF THESE ALLEGED WAR CRIMINALS. IT WAS STRONGLY BELIEVED THAT THE NOTE WAS INTENDED TO PUT PRESSURE ON THE ELECTIONS.

FINLAND IS EXPECTED TO ANSWER THE NOTE FORMALLY TONIGHT.

BEFORE THE ELECTIONS PAASIKIVI SAID IN A RADIO BROADCAST THAT FINLAND MUST NOT HAVE THE SOVIET AS AN ENEMY.

ALTHOUGH THE RUSSIAN PRESSURE SHOWED SOME EFFECT IN COMMUNIST SUPPORT, PAASIKIVI COULD COUNT ON A PRELIMINARY TOTAL OF 868,693 VOTES AGAINST A COMBINED OPPOSITION OF 608,314. COMMUNIST-DOMINATED PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC PARTY CHALED UP 316,999 VOTES AND THE OPPOSITION AGRARIANS, ALTHOUGH SUFFERING A CONSIDERABLE LOSS OVER THE 1948 ELECTIONS, GOT 291,315 VOTES.

THE AGRARIAN SLUMP WAS ATTRIBUTED AT LEAST PARTIALLY TO A COLD WAVE WHICH KEPT MANY OF ITS RURAL VOTERS INDOORS. THE PARTY DROPPED FROM A HOLDING OF 28 PER CENT IN 1948 TO 19.7 PER CENT IN THE CURRENT ELECTIONS.

after long negotiations with a workers' committee, management rejected a compromise proposal that a three-man committee, including a neutral expert, settle the quarrel. the management contended the question of seniority must be subordinate to the technical needs of the plants and therefore rejected a workers' demand to base discharges on seniority.

only a skeleton crew of 50 workers remained on duty for essential work at the refineries today. the workers decided to call a meeting friday to determine whether a general strike will be called.

JERUSALEM, JAN. 18-(AP)-A WELL-INFORMED SOURCE ESTIMATED TODAY THAT WEST GERMANS MAY PAY ABOUT $600,000,000 IN GOODS FOR WHAT WAS EXTORTED BY HITLER FROM JEWS WHO LIVED IN WESTERN GERMANY UNDER THE NAZIS.

THIS INFORMANT SAID IN AN INTERVIEW ABOUT A THIRD OF THIS COMPENSATION MAY BE TRANSFERRED TO ISRAEL IN THE FORM OF PRE-FABRICATED HOUSES, IRRIGATION PIPES, MACHINERY AND OTHER NON-CONSUMER GOODS.

THE JEWISH AGENCY EXECUTIVE AND THE WORLD ZIONIST ORGANIZATION, MEETING IN JERUSALEM THIS WEEK, WILL BE TOLD BY DR.GEORGE LANDAUER, ONE OF THE TOP ZIONIST OFFICIALS, THAT ABOUT 350,000 CLAIMS ARE LISTED BY VARIOUS JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS OR INDIVIDUAL JEWISH SURVIVORS.

"(WEST) GERMAN AUTHORITIES RECOGNIZED THE PRINCIPLE OF THESE CLAIMS," SAID DR.ISRAEL GOLDSTEIN, AMERICAN MEMBER OF THE JEWISH AGENCY EXECUTIVE AND CHAIRMAN OF THE JEWISH RESTITUTION ORGANIZATION OF THE AMERICAN ZONE OF GERMANY.

PART OF THE CLAIMS ARE FILED ON BEHALF OF JEWISH COMMUNAL PROPERTY, FOR WHICH THE JEWISH AGENCY AND THE AMERICAN-JEWISH JOINT DISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE ARE RECOGNIZED AS BENEFICIARIES.

A THIRD OF THE CLAIMS ARE THOSE OF GERMAN JEWS NOW IN ISRAEL, AND TWO THIRDS ARE THOSE OF JEWS NOW IN OTHER COUNTRIES, INCLUDING GERMANY ITSELF. FOR THE SMALL NUMBER OF JEWS IN GERMANY, PAYMENT IN GOODS MAY MEAN THEY CAN GET THE MEANS TO EMIGRATE AND BUILD NEW LIVES ELSEWHERE.

THE CLAIM FIGURES ARE NOT FINAL. OTHER TENS OF THOUSANDS OF CLAIMS ARE EXPECTED FROM JEWS DEMANDING INDEMNIFICATION FOR LOSS OF LIBERTY, BODILY HARM AND LOSS OF PROFESSIONS AND LIVELIHOODS AT THE HANDS OF THE GERMANS. FOR EACH TYPE SPECIAL LAWS HAVE BEEN PROMULGATED IN THE AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH OCCUPATION ZONES AND IN WEST BERLIN.

PARTIES INVOLVED, FEARING LONG AND COMPLICATED LITIGATION, SEEM INCLINED TO AGREE UPON AN OVERALL FIGURE FOR SETTLEMENT. EXPORT OF GERMAN GOODS NOW NEEDED IN ISRAEL IS SUGGESTED AS ONE METHOD OF SETTLEMENT.

SOVIET OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES IN EAST GERMANY, INCLUDING EAST BERLIN, HAVE REFUSED TO DISCUSS RESTITUTION. POLAND REGARDS ITSELF AS THE LEGAL HEIR TO FORMER JEWISH PROPERTY IN THAT AREA OF EAST GERMANY SHE NOW OCCUPIES, BUT IS REPORTED TO HAVE AGREED TO RESTITUTION FOR SOME CLAIMANTS.

NEW DELHI, JAN 18-(AP)-BRITISH COMMONWEALTH MINISTER PHILIP NOEL-BAKER SAID TODAY THE TASK OF THE COMMONWEALTH IS "TO TRY SPREAD MAHATMA LANDHI'S PRINCIPLE OF NONVIOLENCE TO INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS IN COMPANY WITH OTHER NATIONS SO AS TO INTRODUCE A REIGN OF LASTING PEACE."

ADDRESSING A NEWS CONFERENCE HERE HE ADDED THE UNITED KINGDOM IS TRYING TO FOLLOW GANDHI'S PRINCIPLE IN INTERNATIONAL POLICY.

HE SAID THIS DID NOT MEAN THAT NATIONS SHOULD GIVE UP ARMED FORCES BUT THAT INTERNATIONAL DECISIONS WOULD RESULT FROM THE JUSTICE OF THE CAUSE RATHER THAN THE POWER OF ONE PARTY.

NOEL-BAKER REFUSED TO BE DRAWN INTO QUESTIONS OF INTER-DOMINION CONFLICTS, ESPECIALLY BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN OVER KASHMIR.

HE SAID THE PURPOSE OF THE BRITISH STAY IN MALAYA WAS TO "PREPARE THE WAY FOR SELF GOVERNMENT" ADDING "OLD COLONIALISM IS DEAD AND GONE."

IN HONGKONG, HE SAID, BRITISH POLICY IS TO PREVENT A CHANGE IN THE STATUS QUO BY ARMED FORCE.

HE SAID HE FELT RETICENT TO ANSWER QUESTIONS ON THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY, BUT WHEN REPEATEDLY ASKED IF A PEACE TREATY SHOULD BE SIGNED WITHOUT RUSSIA IF NECESSARY, HE DECLARED:

"IF A TREATY WILL ENSURE LASTING PEACE IN ASIA AND ELSEWHERE IT IS WORTHWHILE. WE WANT RUSSIA TO COOPERATE IN EVERYTHING BUT THE WAR ENDED MORE THAN FOUR YEARS AGO AND A STATE OF WAR CANNOT GO ON FOREVER."

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN 18-(AP)-THE PAKISTAN GOVERNMENT HAS BANNED ALL RAILWAY PASSENGER AND FREIGHT TRAFFIC BETWEEN INDIAN AND EASTERN PAKISTAN, AN INDIAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL SAID TONIGHT.

NO REASON WAS GIVEN BY PAKISTAN FOR THE BAN WHICH GOES INTO EFFECT AT MIDNIGHT TOMORROW.

THE INDIAN OFFICIAL SAID THAT MORE THAN A THOUSAND FREIGHT CARS DESTINED FOR STATIONS IN INDIA ARE NOW BEING HELD IN EASTERN PAKISTAN. THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IS SEEKING RELEASE OF THESE CARS, HE SAID.

INDIA AND PAKISTAN HAVE BEEN QUARRELLING BITTERLY OVER THE QUESTION OF JURISDICTION OVER KASHMIR STATE AND OVER THE FACT THAT PAKISTAN DID NOT FOLLOW THE LEAD OF THE OTHER BRITISH COMMONWEALTH NATIONS IN DEVALUING CURRENCY.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN 18-(AP)-AUSTRALIAN EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER P.C.SPENDER SAID TODAY AUSTRALIA "IS IN NO HURRY TO RECOGNIZE THE NEW REGIME IN CHINA."

SPENDER SAID AUSTRALIA IS EAGER TO CONCLUDE A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE.

HE URGED A PACIFIC DEFENSE PACT OUTSIDE THE CHINESE SPHERE.

COMMUNIST CHINA HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED BY BRITAIN, INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON BUT FOUR OTHER BRITISH COMMONWEALTH NATIONS INCLUDING AUSTRALIA HAVE NOT EXTENDED RECOGNITION.

SPENDER, AT A NEWS CONFERENCE SAID HIS GOVERNMENT ESTIMATED THERE ARE BETWEEN 30,000 AND 40,000 COMMUNISTS IN AUSTRALIA. HE SAID THE GOVERNMENT WOULD "TAKE STEPS TO DESTROY THESE COMMUNIST PESTS AND REMOVE A NATIONAL DANGER BY CHASING THEM WHEREVER THEY ARE AND WHATEVER THEIR GUISE."

THE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID AUSTRALIAN-INDIA TRADE HAD GROWN IN 10 YEARS FROM £5,000,000 ($11,250,000) TO £53,000,000 ($118,250,000). HE SAID AUSTRALIA WILL BUY FROM INDIA, JUTE, COTTON, MANGANESE ORE, LINSEED AND SELL INDIA WHEAT, DAIRY PRODUCTS, WOOL, METALS AND MANUFACTURED GOODS.

Paramaribo, Surinam, Jan. 17 -(ap)- This former dutch colony on Friday will become an independent partner in the dutch union when a new constitution is adopted.

The status of surinam (formerly dutch guiana) will be similar to that of the recently formed United States of Indonesia, except that surinam will be an autonomous state only so far as its domestic affairs are concerned.

Defense and foreign relations will be administered by the netherlands government.

the new constitution is referred to as an "interim order" in anticipation of incorporating all of holland's west indies territories with surinam in one state under the dutch crown.

Talks to bring about the greater union between representatives of the netherlands antilles and netherlands home government officials are scheduled for may.

The constitution gives 30,000 indonesians living here two years to decide whether they desire to become surinam

The order institutes a nine-man cabinet responsible to a 21-member legislative council which was elected in May, 1949.

JAN 19 1950

Surinam, with a population of 207,000 lies between British Guiana and French Guiana in South America. The Netherlands Antilles, to the north, comprise Curacao and some lesser islands in the Caribbean sea with a population of 148,000.

The dutch government had previously announced that autonomy for this area would come simultaneous with or follow closely, the granting of independece to Indonesia.

BANGKOK,THAILAND, JAN. 18-(AP)-MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI-MINH'S VIET-NAM REPUBLIC IN INDOCHINA TODAY ASKED THE WORLD TO RECOGNIZE IT AS THE "ONLY LEGAL GOVERNMENT REPRESENTING THE UNANIMITY OF THE VIET-NAMESE PEOPLE."
HO CHI-MINH'S FORCES HAVE BEEN WAGING GUERRILLA WARFARE AGAINST STRONG FRENCH TROOPS IN INDOCHINA SINCE THE HANOI UPRISING OF DEC.19, 1946.
RECENTLY THE FRENCH HAVE SUPPORTED A RIVAL STATE OF VIET-NAM HEADED BY FORMER EMPEROR BAI DAI.
THE HO PLEA WAS CIRCULATED BY THE INSURGENT VIET-NAM DELEGATION IN BANGKOK. IT WAS ACCOMPANIED BY A LETTER FROM THE VIET-NAM FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTER ESTABLISHING FORMAL DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT AT PEIPING.
THE HO REQUEST FOR DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION WAS IN THE PATTERN USED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. WHEN THE REDS HAD CHASED THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS FROM MOST OF CHINA'S MAINLAND, THEY INVITED FORMAL

RECONITION BY OTHER NATIONS.
(A PEIPING RADIO BROADCAST HEARD IN TOKYO SAID THE CHINESE REDS "RECARD THE GOVERNMENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF VIET-NAM AS THE LEGAL GOVERNMENT REPRESENTING THE WILL OF THE VIET-NAM PEOPLE." IT ADDED THE REDS ARE "WILLING TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF VIET-NAM AND TO EXCHANGE AMBASSADORS SO AS TO CONSOLIDATE THE RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES AND TO STRENGTHEN THEIR FRIENDSHIP AND COOPERATION.")
THE BITTER WARFARE BETWEEN THE FRENCH AND HO'S FORCES HAS BEEN INTENSIFIED SINCE CHINESE RED ARMIES REACHED THE NORTHERN INDOCHINESE BORDER.

TAIPEI,FORMOSA, THURSDAY, JAN. 19-(AP)-NATIONALISTS CHINA TODAY PROCLAIMED A LONG STRETCH OF THE SOUTH CHINA COAST A "DANGER ZONE." PEACEFUL CRAFT WERE WARNED TO CLEAR OUT IF THEY WISH TO AVOID "HEAVY AND CONTINUOUS AIR ASSAULTS."
THE WARNING WAS CONTAINED IN 200,000 AIR-DROPPED LEAFLETS OVER THE COASTAL AREA WHICH EXTENDS FROM THE BORDER OF INDOCHINA EAST TO YANGCHIANG, 150 MILES WEST OF HONG KONG.
THE ZONE INCLUDES THE ENTIRE LUICHOW PENINSULA WHICH JUTS OUT TOWARD HAINAN ISLAND, A NATIONALIST HAVEN. HAINAN'S COMMANDER ASSERTED YESTERDAY THE NATIONALIST AIR FORCE AND NAVY HAD SUNK A COMMUNIST INVASION FLEET AND MADE AN AMPHIBIOUS ASSAULT AGAINST THE ISLAND IMPOSSIBLE.
NATIONALIST AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS ON FORMOSA DECLARED TODAY THEIR PLANES YESTERDAY BOMBED AND STRAFED A CONCENTRATION OF MORE THAN 600 RED INVASION CRAFT AND A CONVOY OF MORE THAN 500 TRUCKS NEAR PEIHAI, WEST OF THE LUICHOW PENINSULA. THIS IS IN THE NEW "DANGER ZONE."
NATIONALIST NAVAL HEADQUARTERS SAID THEIR WARSHIPS SANK MORE THAN 170 COMMUNIST CRAFT ALONG THE COAST OF FUKIEN PROVINCE IN THE PAST WEEK. FUKIEN IS ON THE SOUTHEAST COAST OPPOSITE FORMOSA.
THE REPORT OF THE HAINAN COMMANDER, GEN. HSUEH YUEH, SAID THE AIR FORCE AND NAVY HAD SUNK MORE THAN 2,000 RED CRAFT CONCENTRATING FOR AN ATTACK ON HIS ISLAND. #

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN. 18-(AP)-THE NATIONALIST CHINESE COMMANDER OF HAINAN ISLAND REPORTED TONIGHT THAT CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S AIRFORCE AND NAVY HAD MADE THE IMPENDING RED INVASION OF THE BIG ISLAND IMPOSSIBLE.
THE HAINAN GROUND COMMANDER SAID THE TWO NATIONALIST SERVICES HAD SUNK MORE THAN 2,000 INVASION CRAFT (MOSTLY JUNKS) MASSED BY THE REDS ON LIUCHOW PENINSULA OPPOSITE HAINAN.
HE CLAIMED HIS OWN FORCES WERE MOPPING UP THE REMAINDER OF SOME 17,000 COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS WHO HAVE BEEN IN CONTROL OF CENTRAL AND THE WESTERN PORTION OF THE BIG SOUTH CHINA ISLAND.
THE HAINAN COMMANDER, GEN. HSUEH YUEH, REFUGEE GOVERNOR OF KWANGTUNG PROVINCE, SAID THE MOPPING UP OF THE GUERRILLAS WOULD BE COMPLETED SHORTLY. MANY OF THE REDS HAVE BEEN ON THE ISLAND SINCE THE WAR WITH JAPAN.
HSUEH, KNOWN AS THE LITTLE TIGER, WON FAME AGAINST JAPANESE SOLDIERS IN THE HUNAN CAMPAIGN. THE AMERICAN STAFF IN CHINA RATED HIM AS ONE OF THE BEST GENERALS IN THE CHINESE ARMY.
MEANWHILE THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT PROCLAIMED THAT SAMAH, ON THE SOUTH HAINAN COAST, WAS OPEN TO TRADE. SAMAH, ALSO KNOWN AS SANYA AND YULIN, IS THE SITE OF THE BIGGEST AIR BASE ON HAINAN. IT WAS BUILT BY THE JAPANESE.

THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE MINISTRY ADMITTED THE LOSS OF WENSHAN, A TOWN IN YUNNAN PROVINCE ON THE MAINLAND SOME 40 MILES FROM THE INDOCHINA BORDER. COMMUNIST TROOPS IN RED GEN. LIN PIAO BROKE THROUGH TO TAKE WENSHAN.
THE DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID THE MAINLAND REDS WERE NOW BREAKING THROUGH TOWARDS HOKOU, A BORDER TOWN THROUGH WHICH THE KUNMING-HAIPHONG RAILROAD RUNS.
(IF THE COMMUNISTS BREAK THE RAILROAD THEY WILL HALT FURTHER FLIGHT BY NATIONALIST TROOPS FROM YUNNAN PROVINCE INTO INDOCHINA.)
THE DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID NATIONALIST TROOPS IN FAR SOUTHWESTERN SIKANG PROVINCE HAD REPULSED AN ATTACK BY RED IRREGULARS ON THE NEWLY WON HIGHWAY TOWN OF HUILI.

CHINESE COMMUNISTS
BY SEYMOUR TOPPING

HONG KONG, JAN. 18-(AP)-THERE IS NO RIFT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE OTHER WESTERN POWERS BECAUSE SOME HAVE RECOGNIZED COMMUNIST CHINA, ROVING U.S. AMBASSADOR PHILIP C. JESSUP SAID TODAY.

COMMENTING ON REPORTS OF A POSSIBLE BREAK WITH THE BRITISH OVER THEIR RECOGNITION OF THE RED PEIPING REGIME, JESSUP TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE:

"BECAUSE WE REACH DIFFERENT CONCLUSIONS, THIS DOES NOT IMPAIR OUR BASIC FRIENDSHIP AND COOPERATION."

THE TOURING ENVOY ALSO DESCRIBED AS "WHOLLY UNWARRANTED" ANY BELIEF THAT A BREAK WILL DEVELOP BETWEEN THE U.S. AND OTHER WESTERN NATIONS WHO RECOGNIZE PEIPING.

UNLIKE THE SOVIET BLOC, JESSUP SAID, THE BASIS OF COOPERATION BETWEEN FREE GOVERNMENTS OF THE WORLD IS MUTUAL INTEREST AND A COMMON WAY OF LOOKING AT FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEMS WITHOUT THE NECESSITY OF IDENTICAL VIEWS ON EVERY INTERNATIONAL QUESTION.

HE SAID THE U.S. CLEARLY HAS TAKEN THE POSITION THAT RECOGNITION OF THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT AT THIS TIME IS NOT THE WAY TO COMBAT ANTI-AMERICANISM INSIDE CHINA. THERE ARE OTHER ALTERNATIVES TO ACCOMPLISH THE SAME THING, HE ADDED WITHOUT ELABORATING.

HERE ON A SURVEY TRIP OF AMERICAN POLICY IN ASIA, JESSUP REITERATED U.S. OPPOSITION TO IMPERIALISM IN ANY FORM.

HE DEFINED IMPERIALISM AS A "POLICY LARGELY OUTMODED EXCEPT IN THE CASE OF THE SOVIET UNION WHERE CONTROL IS BEING EXPANDED OVER OTHER PEOPLE FOR THE BENEFIT OF AN EXPANDING COUNTRY."

JESSUP REAFFIRMED AMERICAN SUPPORT OF A POLICY OF EQUALITY, INDEPENDENCE AND INTEGRITY FOR CHINA. HE ADDED:

"WE FURTHER BELIEVE THAT NO SINGLE OUTSIDE NATION CAN SUPPLY ALL REQUIREMENTS OR MAKE ALL CONTRIBUTIONS THAT COUNTRY NEEDS FOR ITS FULLEST DEVELOPMENT IN THE FAMILY OF NATIONS.

"CHINA WILL CONTINUE TO REQUIRE THE TECHNOLOGICAL AND CULTURAL AID OF MANY COUNTRIES--NOT MERELY ONE TO TWO--IF HER DEVELOPMENT IS NOT TO BE RETARDED."

THIS STATEMENT WAS REGARDED AS SIGNIFICANT BECAUSE OF THE PRESENCE IN MOSCOW OF MAO TZE-TUNG, THE CHINESE COMMUNIST CHIEF. MAO'S MISSION IS BELIEVED AIMED AT OBTAINING LARGE SCALE RUSSIAN ECONOMIC AND TECHNICAL AID.

JESSUP STRESSED THAT AMERICAN POLICY IN ASIA IS NOT SOLELY AIMED AT STOPPING COMMUNISM.

"WITHIN OUR ECONOMIC CAPACITY," HE SAID, "A MAJOR FACTOR IN DETERMINING THE ASSISTANCE WE CAN RENDER THE PEOPLE OF ASIA IS THE DEGREE TO WHICH THESE PEOPLES ARE PREPARED TO SUPPORT GOVERNMENTS OF THEIR OWN CHOOSING IN OPPOSITION TO COMMUNIST TYRANNY.

"THE UNITED STATES WILL CONTINUE TO TAKE ITS STAND FOR FREEDOM BECAUSE OF OUR CONVICTION THAT THERE LIES THE TRUE INTEREST NOT ONLY OF THE PEOPLES OF ASIA BUT ALSO OF THE UNITED STANTES AND OF ALL THE UNITED NATIONS.

"THE UNITED STATES BELIEVES THE PEOPLE OF ANY COUNTRY HAVE THE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT TO DETERMINE THEIR OWN FORMS OF GOVERNMENT WITHOUT DICTATION. THE PEOPLE HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHANGE THEIR FORM OF GOVERNMENT, BUT WE BELIEVE THE CHANGE MUST BE BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE FREELY EXPRESSED WILL OF THE PEOPLE THEMSELVES--NOT BY FORCE."

SECOND NIGHT LEAD CHINESE COMMUNISTS (190)

TOKYO,THURSDAY, JAN. 19-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TODAY ACCUSED THE U. S. STATE DEPARTMENT OF A "MALICIOUS LIE" IN SAYING THE REDS HAD SEIZED THE AMERICAN CONSULATE AT PEIPING.

THE CHARGE WAS MADE IN A CHINESE COMMUNIST NEWS AGENCY EDITORIAL ENTITLED "SOPHISTRIES, SLANDERS AND THREATS OF THE U. S. STATE DEPARTMENT." IT WAS BROADCAST BY THE PEIPING RADIO AND MONITORED HERE.

THE BROADCAST SAID THE BARRACKS SEIZED FROM THE U. S. WAS AT ONE ADDRESS, THE CONSULATE AT ANOTHER. IT ADDED:

"IN THE HANDS OF THE MAGICIAN BUTTERWORTH THE FORMER U. S. BARRACKS SUDDENLY BECOMES THE PROPERTIES OF THE U. S. CONSULATE." (W. WALTON BUTTERWORTH IS ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS. HE HELD A NEWS CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON SATURDAY WHEN THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED THE RED SEIZURE.)

THE EDITORIAL SAID THE REDS HAD "REQUISTIONED THE BARRACKS" AND "WILL WORK OUT MEASURES TO SETTLE THE PROBLEMS OF THE PROPERTY RIGHT OF THE BUILDINGS ARISING OUT OF THE TAKING BACK OF THE LAND."

THIS LAND, THE EDITORIAL ASSERTED, "WAS SEIZED BY AMERICAN IMPERIALISM ON THE GROUND OF SO-CALLED 'RIGHT OF STATIONING TROOPS' AND USED TO STATION TROOPS IN CHINA."

ANOTHER PEIPING BROADCAST YESTERDAY SAID THE REDS SEIZED AMERICAN, FRENCH AND DUTCH BARRACKS IN PEIPING BECAUSE OF "MILITARY NECESSITY."

NIGHT LEAD CHINESE COMMUNISTS (200)

TOKYO, JAN. 18-(AP)-CHINA'S COMMUNISTS MAINTAINED TONIGHT THEY SEIZED U. S., FRENCH AND DUTCH BARRACKS AND OTHER BUILDINGS IN PEIPING LAST WEEK BECAUSE OF "MILITARY NECESSITY."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT RECALLED ALL ITS OFFICIALS FROM COMMUNIST CHINA AFTER THE RED SEIZURE. THE CONSULATE WAS HOUSED IN THE BARRACKS.

THE PEIPING RADIO IN A CHINESE LANGUAGE BROADCAST MONITORED HERE FIRST SAID THE AMERICAN, FRENCH AND DUTCH "CONSENTED." LATER ON, HOWEVER, THE BROADCAST SAID THEY "YIELDED" TO COMMUNIST DEMANDS.

THE CONSULS WERE ACCUSED OF "PROCRASTINATING AND REFUSING" TO HAND OVER THE PROPERTIES AT THE DEMAND OF THE COMMUNIST ARMY'S MILITARY CONTROL COMMITTEE IN PEIPING.

THE BROADCAST SAID THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE AND OTHER COUNTRIES IN 1943 "RELINQUISHED THEIR SPECIAL INTERESTS BASED ON UNFAIR TREATIES AND YET THEIR MILITARY ESTABLISHMENTS CONTINUED TO STAY IN CHINA."

(AND ENGLISH LANGUAGE VERSION OF THE BROADCAST HEARD AT SAN FRANCISCO SAID THE BARRACKS WERE "AN INFRINGEMENT ON CHINA'S SOVEREIGNTY."

(IT SAID THE CONSULS HAD "ATTEMPTED TO PROCRASTINATE" ON THE THEORY THEY HAD RIGHTS TO THE PROPERTY UNDER TREATIES WITH THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.

(THE BROADCAST SAID THE MILITARY CONTROL COMMITTEE "WAS FIRM AND STEADFAST" AND THE CONSULS THEN HANDED OVER THE PROPERTY. IT ADDED THE DUTCH BARRACKS FORMERLY BELONGED TO GERMANY.)

TOKYO, JAN. 18-(AP)-RADIO PEIPING SAID TONIGHT "MILITARY NECESSITY" PROMPTED CHINESE COMMUNIST SEIZURE OF AMERICAN, FRENCH AND DUTCH BARRACKS AND OTHER BUILDINGS" IN PEIPING LAST WEEK END.

THE RADIO ADDED THE GOVERNMENTS CONCERNED HAD "CONSENTED" TO THE SEIZURES. (THE SEIZURES PROMPTED THE UNITED STATES TO RECALL ALL STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS FROM RED CHINA.)

THE COMMUNIST STATEMENTS WERE MADE IN A CHINESE LANGUAGE BROADCAST. IT WAS MONITORED HERE BY KYODO NEWS AGENCY.

AFTER MENTIONING "CONSENT," HOWEVER, THE RED RADIO SAID THE THREE GOVERNMENTS' "FORMER CONSULS" IN THE RED CHINA CAPITAL HAD "YIELDED" TO COMMUNIST DEMANDS FOR THE BUILDINGS.

THE COMMUNISTS ALSO ACCUSED THE AMERICAN, FRENCH AND DUTCH CONSULS OF "PROCRASTINATING AND REFUSING" TO HAND OVER THEIR GOVERNMENT'S PROPERTIES IN RESPONSE TO THE "PEKING (PEIPING) REGIME'S JUSTIFIABLE DEMAND."

THE BROADCAST SAID THE CHINESE REDS PRESENTED THEIR DEMANDS FOR THE PROPERTIES ON JAN. 6 ON THE GROUND "THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN (CQ) AND FRANCE RELINQUISHED THEIR SPECIAL INTERESTS BASED ON UNFAIR TREATIES AND YET THEIR MILITARY ESTABLISHMENTS CONTINUED TO STAY IN CHINA.

"AT THIS JUNCTURE, THE PEKING REGIME DECIDED TO TAKE BACK THE PROPERTY UNREASONABLY OCCUPIED BY THESE WESTERN POWERS AND TO REQUISITION MILITARY BARRACKS OF THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE AND THE NETHERLANDS."

THE RADIO SAID THE COMMUNISTS "WILL PROVIDE DETAILS LATER TO DEAL WITH PROBLEMS INCIDENTAL TO DISPOSAL OF THESE BUILDINGS."

THE UNITED STATES CONSULATE IN PEIPING WAS HOUSED IN THE OLD ARMY BARRACKS BUILDING. MANY OF ITS RECORDS WERE SEIZED BY THE REDS.

THIS WAS THE FIRST MENTION OF THE INCIDENT BY THE RED RADIO.

TOKYO, JAN. 18-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS STALKED OUT OF ANOTHER MEETING OF THE ALLIED FOUR POWER COUNCIL FOR JAPAN TODAY RATHER THAN DISCUSS REPATRIATION OF JAPANESE PRISONERS OF WAR.

IT WAS THE THIRD TIME IN AS MANY MEETINGS THAT THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION HAD WALKED OUT. THE FIRST TIME WAS ON DEC. 20 AND THE SECOND ON JAN. 4.

THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER ALLIED POWERS INSIST THERE ARE 376,000 JAPANESE PRISONERS OF WAR STILL UNACCOUNTED FOR BY THE RUSSIANS. THE RUSSIANS SAY THEY HAVE REPATRIATED ALL JAPANESE PRISONERS EXCEPT 10,000 WAR CRIMINALS.

HOWEVER, AN ADDITIONAL 2,500 JAPANESE PRISONERS OF WAR ARE DUE BACK IN JAPAN FRIDAY FROM RUSSIA. THE RUSSIANS HAVE NOT SAID WHETHER THESE PRISONERS FALL IN THE WAR CRIMINAL CATEGORY OR WERE OVERLOOKED WHEN THEY REPATRIATED MORE THAN 1,000,000 (CQ) JAPANESE AFTER THE END OF THE WAR.

LT. GEN. KUZMA DEREVYANKO, THE SOVIET DELEGATE, LED HIS FIVE ASSISTANTS FROM THE COUNCIL CHAMBER, WITH THIS STATEMENT:

"FOR REASONS STATED EARLIER AND WHICH ARE KNOWN TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ALLIED COUNCIL, I DON'T THINK IT IS POSSIBLE TO TAKE PART IN THE DISCUSSION OF THE SUBJECT ON TODAY'S AGENDA."

THE SUBJECT OF REPATRIATION OF THE JAPANESE WAS THE ONLY ONE ON THE AGENDA.

DEREVYANKO DID NOT OBJECT TO THE PRESENCE OF LT. GEN. CHU SHIN-MING, CHINESE NATIONALIST DELEGATE ON THE FOUR POWER GROUP. AT UNITED NATIONS MEETINGS THE RUSSIANS HAVE WALKED OUT BECAUSE CHINA WAS NOT REPRESENTED BY COMMUNISTS, THE REGIME THE SOVIETS RECOGNIZE AS RULING CHINA NOW.

WASHINGTON, JAN.18-(AP)-UNITED STATES SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA DROPPED BELOW $50,000 LAST NOVEMBER FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 12 MONTHS.

BUT EXPORTS TO YUGOSLAVIA JUMPED TO $2,500,000 (M), MORE THAN THREE TIMES THE PREVIOUS MONTH'S TOTAL.

THESE DEVELOPMENTS SHOWED UP IN A CENSUS BUREAU REPORT TODAY.

THEY REFLECTED A TIE-IN OF COMMERCIAL TRADE WITH U.S. FOREIGN POLICY: TO KEEP RUSSIA FROM GETTING INDUSTRIAL GOODS HERE, AND TO SUPPORT YUGOSLAVIA'S MARSHALL TITO IN HIS QUARREL WITH THE SOVIET.

WHILE U.S. SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA IN NOVEMBER DROPPED MORE THAN 90 PER CENT, RUSSIAN SHIPMENTS TO THIS COUNTRY FELL TO $1,600,000 (M) FROM $2,600,000 (M).

EVEN SO, THIS MEANT A FURTHER GOLD PROFIT TO THE RUSSIANS SINCE THEIR SALES HERE WERE 36 TIMES GREATER IN VALUE THAN U.S. SALES TO RUSSIA.

YUGOSLAVIA'S SHIPMENTS TO THE U.S. IN NOVEMBER WERE WORTH $2,000,-000 (M), THE SAME AS IN OCTOBER AND NOT FAR BELOW THE VALUE OF YUGOSLAVIA'S RECEIPTS FROM THIS COUNTRY.

FINLAND, THE OTHER EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRY WHICH THE U.S. REGARDS AS FRIENDLY, ALSO INCREASED HER TRADE WITH THIS COUNTRY.

EXPORTS TO FINLAND ROSE TO $1,700,000 (M) IN NOVEMBER FROM $1,300,-000 (M) IN OCTOBER, WHILE FINNISH SHIPMENTS HERE CLIMBED TO $3,000,000 (M) FROM $2,000,000 (M).

THE DROP IN RUSSIAN SHIPMENTS TO THE U.S. WAS PRINCIPALLY IN FURS, A LUXURY LINE. RUSSIA SHIPPED MORE MANGANESE AND CHROME--WAR-VITAL, STEEL HARDENING MATERIALS--IN NOVEMBER THAN IN OCTOBER.

MAJOR DEVELOPMENTS IN TRADE WITH RUSSIAN SATTELITES INCLUDED A LARGE RISE IN U.S. EXPORTS TO HUNGARY AND A LARGE DROP IN EXPORTS TO POLAND.

SHIPMENTS TO HUNGARY ROSE TO $1,300,000 (M) IN NOVEMBER FROM $200,000 IN OCTOBER. SHIPMENTS TO POLAND DECLINED TO $1,000,000 (M) FROM $2,300,000 (M).

BRITISH SHIPMENTS TO THE U.S. CLIMBED ABOUT 20 PER CENT IN NOVEMBER TO A $22,700,000 (M) TOTAL. BRITISH RECEIPTS FROM THE U.S. FELL MORE THAN 20 PER CENT TO A $42,500,000 (M) TOTAL.

ITALIAN RECEIPTS FROM THIS COUNTRY SHOWED ANOTHER SIZEABLE DECLINE, TO $23,900,000 (M) IN NOVEMBER FROM $28,400,000 (M) IN OCTOBER. ITALY'S SHIPMENTS HERE SIMULTANEOUSLY DROPPED TO $6,600,000 (M) FROM $7,500,-000 (M).

End of January 18, 1950

BIGGEST GAIN IN RECEIPTS FROM THE U.S. WAS SCORED BY GERMANY. U.S. SHIPMENTS TO GERMANY ROSE TO $64,200,000 IN NOVEMBER FROM $59,100,000 THE PREVIOUS MONTH. GERMANY BOOSTED HER SHIPMENTS HERE TO $4,000,000 FROM $2,600,000.

U.S. SHIPMENTS TO FRANCE INCREASED TO $32,200,000 FROM $29,300,000. FRENCH SHIPMENTS HERE ROSE TO $6,000,000 FROM $5,000,000.

BIGGEST DROP IN SHIPMENTS TO THE U.S. WAS BY THE NETHERLANDS, WHICH SENT ONLY $4,900,000 IN GOODS HERE IN NOVEMBER AGAINST $7,800,-000 IN OCTOBER. U.S. SHIPMENTS TO THE NETHERLANDS ROSE TO $20,400,000 FROM $18,100,000.

WASHINGTON, JAN.18-(AP)-MARS[illegible]AN COUNTRIES' SHIPMENTS TO THE UNITED STATES INCREASED SEVEN [illegible] IN NOVEMBER WHILE THEIR RECEIPTS FROM THE U.S. FELL SI[illegible]NT FROM THE PREVIOUS MONTH.

THIS MOVEMENT, SHOWN IN A CE[illegible]UREAU REPORT TODAY, OCCURRED IN THE SECOND MONTH AFTER MOST MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES CUT THEIR CURRENCY EXCHANGE RATES TO BOOST THEIR SALES TO THE U.S.

MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRY SHIPMENTS HERE ROSE TO $78,400,000 (M) IN NOVEMBER FROM $73,200,000 (M) IN OCTOBER, SWINGING 15 PER CENT ABOVE THEIR AVERAGE FOR JANUARY-SEPTEMBER, 1949.

U.S. EXPORTS TO THESE COUNTRIES, INCLUDING BOTH GOVERNMENT AID AND COMMERCIAL SHIPMENTS, DROPPED TO $271,400,000 (M) IN NOVEMBER FROM $288,300,000 (M) IN OCTOBER. THE NOVEMBER FIGURE WAS 23 PER CENT BELOW THE MONTHLY AVERAGE FOR JANUARY-SEPTEMBER, 1949.

THE MONEY EXCHANGE RATE CUTS TENDED TO MAKE FOREIGN GOODS CHEAPER TO U.S. BUYERS, U.S. GOODS MORE EXPENSIVE FOR FOREIGN BUYERS.

BRITAIN, WHICH LED IN THE MID-SEPTEMBER CURRENCY DEVALUATION MOVEMENT, SET THE PACE FOR INCREASED SHIPMENTS TO THE U.S. AND DECREASED RECEIPTS FROM THIS COUNTRY.

People Want Independence, Premier of Saar Asserts

SAARBRUECKEN, The Saar, Jan. 19 — (AP) The premier of the coal-producing Saar said today his people want to continue on their independent way, detached from Germany.

Premier Johannes Hoffman made the statement in the territory's parliament, which has before it two bills to strengthen government machinery for internal security.

The Saar has long been a pawn between France and Germany. It became part of the French occupation zone after World War II. France brought it into customs union in 1947 and later extended semi-autonomy to the 738-square mile border territory.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson said yesterday in Washington the United States is continuing to support the French view that the Saar should be detached from Germany.

No Intervention

Premier Hoffman said the people of the Saar are behind him and his government in an effort "to rebuild our house destroyed through past folly."

"We will let no one intervene," he said.

The West Germany republic claims the territory as part of Hitler's Third Reich and charges France is carving off the Saar to present an accomplished fact before the peace conference.

"The government knows," Hoffman declared before the 50-man parliament, "that the overwhelming majority of the population of the Saar has not only aproved but clearly supported our policy thus far.

"The government is not prepared to let the Saar fall again a victim to a propaganda from whose results we still suffer, even today after five years of the most frightful war."

The premier here was referring to the Nazi propaganda directed at the Saarlanders in 1935 prior to a league of nations' plebescite in which 90 per cent of them declared for re-union with Germany. The area had been previously detached under the defeat of the German army in 1918 and was administered by the league as a trustee.

Damaged by Bombs

The area was heavily bombed during World War II, with considerable damage to the industrial establishments and mines.

The present conflict between France and Germany over the future disposition of the area — only about a third the size of the state of Delaware — came to a head during the recent visit of French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman to the west German republic.

Although there is little evidence to any open movement at present for re-union with Germany, the historic attachment and the fact that western Germany has made considerable economic progress in the past year are bound to have some influence.

Premier Hoffman himself introduced the two bills to bolster internal security by changing some old German regulations. The bills are due for a reading Monday and details are secret.

France contends her link with the rich Saar valley balances the economies of France and Germany and is one means of preventing another European war.

The area, which exists almost entirely from the sale of its coal, is one of the most densely populated in Europe. There are more than 1,000 persons to the square mile, with a total population of almost 1,000,000.

Left to its own resources, the Saar could feed itself for barely 50 days. France claims the Saarlanders have a better economic future when linked with the adjoining rich agricultural area of French Lorraine.

Adenauer Hints At Referendum Bid

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 19 (AP). Chancellor Konrad Adenauer indicated today his West German Government may ask for a referendum in the Saar on the future control of that border region.

The Saar's population is predominantly German. Its economy, based upon rich coal deposits, is linked with that of France.

Adenauer told John J. McCloy, United States high commissioner, at a luncheon, it was learned authoritatively, that the will of the Saarlanders must be taken into consideration in solving French-German differences over the region.

McCloy is leaving for the United States tomorrow to confer with President Truman and State Department officials.

An American spokesman said Adenauer insisted that the Saarlanders' "will" be considered, although he did not refer specifically to an election.

Jakob Kaiser, Adenauer's Minister for the Reunification of Germany, proposed January 7 that a referendum be held.

BERLIN MAY FACE NEW BLOCKADE OF RAILROAD TRAFFIC

BERLIN, Jan. 19—(AP) East German railway officials hinted today west Berlin may face another blockade of rail traffic, already slowed here by an inter-sector squabble.

They accused Americans and west Berliners of sabotage.

Col. W. T. Babcock, deputy American commandant, denied it.

The last blockade of Berlin, a Russian maneuver frustarted by the allied airlift, caused a crisis that lasted almost a year.

Officials of the Soviet-controlled eastern railways, in which the Berlin network is a key section, posted the new threat.

They and the Russians oppose the occupancy by the west Berlin government Tuesday of 500 to 600 vacant rooms in the old railways headquarters building in the American sector. Use of the structure has been limited in recent months to a communications center in the basement.

Claim Cables Cut

They accused the Americans and west Berliners of disrupting the communications center, cutting cables and tapping telephone lines.

A U. S. spokesman, asked for comment on the situation, said "I'd rather wait and see." But he added:

"If anything is done it will be directed, of course, by the Russians. x x x If they have obtained enough supplies from the west since the blockade ended last May, then it could happen again. The communists have whipped up their anti-west propaganda campaign remarkably in recent weeks."

Erwin Kramer, deputy chief of the system, told a news conference that inter-zonal railway traffic through the city may be affected. Steam trains use the elevated system, which went off schedule soon after west Berlin police entered the headquarters building Tuesday.

Serious Problem

"Today it is the cables," he said. "Tomorrow it may be the block signals. The problem is more serious than one might believe."

Both he and Gerhart Eisler, the Communist East German information chief, charged the United States was trying to widen the east-west German split in authorizing the west Berlin government to take over the vacant rooms in the communications building.

The Russians used the building after a four-power agreement in 1945 gave them control over the railways of all sectors. However, the Russians withdrew most of their personnel to east Berlin last summer as a result of a strike by anti-communist workers. They left behind only the basement communications center.

Protest Allied Move

However, they protested the occupancy of the vacant offices, demanded removal of the west Berlin police and asked that American authorities give an explanation. Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, Soviet control chief in Berlin, made the complaint to Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the U. S. commandant.

"The police on the premises are present for the protection of the people working therein, and have been instructed not to interfere with the work of the Reichsbahn (railway)," Taylor replied.

"In taking over custody of the building it was not the intent to interfere with the existing legitimate operations."

Taylor told Kotikov that the action was taken to prevent badly needed office space from going to waste.

Gas Rationing Suspended

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 19 (AP)—The West German Government decided today to suspend rationing and price control of gasoline, effective February 1. The action was taken following approval by the Allied High Commission, which had previously objected to the end of gas rationing. Sugar is the only commodity remaining on West Germany's ration list.

Germans Refused OK To Build Big Tankers

By the Associated Press.

HAMBURG, Germany, Jan. 19.—The Allied Security Board for Shipbuilding has refused to permit the German shipyard Deutsche Werft to build three large tankers for a South American shipowner.

A spokesman for the board said today the preliminary request by the German shipyard called for three tankers of 11,600 tons each.

The request was denied because the Allies have set a limit of 7200 tons on ships built by Germans, he said.

A Deutsche Werft spokesman declared the Allied restrictions are a security measure and should not curb the building of ships for other countries.

Vienna Sources Doubt Separate Pact's Value

Vienna, Jan. 19 (AP)—American and Austrian diplomatic sources appeared surprised tonight by a United States State Department hint that the Western powers might go ahead without Russia in working out an Austrian treaty of independence.

There was considerable belief here that:

1. A treaty which does not include Russia would be worse than no treaty at all.

2. The first result of such a treaty would be an immediate breakdown of four-power co-operation in Austria. That, in turn, would lead to an East-West division of the country similar to that in Germany.

United Under Single Regime

Since November, 1945, Austria has been united under a single Federal government with one set of laws, one police force and one currency.

No one feels Russia will surrender her claims on Austria just because France, Britain and the United States sign a treaty. Those Soviet claims have constituted the chief stumbling block in drafting a treaty.

Bulgaria Ousts 2 Slavs After Charges Of Plot

Sofia, Bulgaria, Jan. 19 (AP)—Bulgaria tonight accused Yugoslav officials of having participated in a plot against this country and ordered two Yugoslav diplomats to leave Sofia immediately.

A Bulgarian note to Belgrade said the recent trial of Traicho Kostov, former deputy premier, had proved that responsible members of the Yugoslav Government and officials of the Yugoslav embassy had acted in the alleged plot as inciters, inspirers and organizers. Kostov was hanged last month on a charge of treason.

The two Yugoslav diplomats ordered out were identified as Marko Vouvatchitch, first secretary of the embassy, and Svetozar Savitch, consul in Sofia.

Bulgar-Albanian Trade Pact

SOFIA, Jan. 19 (AP).—Bulgaria and Albania signed a mutual trade pact for 1950 today. The pact also provides for Bulgaria giving "technical aid" to her Balkan neighbor.

Soviet Reply Disappointing

Western Envoys Get No Assurances On Austrian Treaty Hitch

LONDON, Jan. 19 (AP).—The Foreign Office said today Russia gave an "unsatisfactory and disappointing" reply to a direct approach by the United States, Britain and France to the Kremlin on the Austrian treaty of independence. The three Western Ambassadors to Moscow conferred last night with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

"Mr. Gromyko could give none of the assurances asked by the three Ambassadors," the Foreign Office spokesman said. "We regard the reply as unsatisfactory and disappointing."

He said the Western diplomats asked that Russian obstacles to completing an Austrian treaty be removed.

British Textile Trade Fears Japan's Inroads

By the Associated Press.

MANCHESTER, England, Jan. 19.—The Manchester Chamber of Commerce expressed fear today that competition from Japan will disrupt the world textile market.

Its board of directors said in their annual report there may be a "repetition of the acute difficulties experienced during the interwar years."

This Lancashire textile center was hard hit before World War II by Japanese competition, particularly in Asiatic markets.

"The Lancashire cotton industry," the board's report said, "needs to be on the alert in watching carefully the everchanging pattern of the jigsaw of world trade."

Soviets Commission A New Battleship

35,000-Tonner in Service; Two More Building

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 19 (AP).—Private sources said today the Russians have completed construction of their newest battleship, the Sovietski Soyuz, and have commissioned it at Leningrad as a flagship of the Soviet Navy.

The Sovietski Soyuz is one of three 35,000-ton battleships said to have been near completion recently. The ships are reported equipped with catapult towers for firing radio-controlled aerial torpedoes. Up to now the Soviet Union's only known battleships were the 23,622-ton Giulio Cesare, obtained from Italy under the peace treaty, and the 23,606-ton Sevastopol and Oktyabrskaya Revolutsia.

The two battleships said to be nearing completion are reported to be the Sovietskaia Belorussia and the Strana Sovietov. Both are believed to be under construction at the northern port of Archangel. Construction was said to have been delayed because the original armament had to be changed. ADD

10-Year Plan For Italy

Rome, Jan. 19 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi proposed today a ten-year program to put Italy on her feet economically.

His program envisions spending the equivalent of about $200,000,000 a year on irrigation, hydroelectric works, highways, land reclamation and a land reform program which would better the lot of the landless peasants.

The 3,000-word program was issued in the form of a policy declaration for the new government de Gasperi now is in the process of forming. The greatest effort of that government, de Gasperi said, "must be in the field of combating unemployment."

Public And Private Financing

The statement suggested both public and private financing for such a program. The plan, de Gasperi said, would dovetail with programs already under way for general industrial advancement, reconstruction, government-aided private building and improvement of communications.

The Premier made his proposal public after a meeting with leaders of his Christian Democrats, Italy's dominant party, and of three minor parties which participated in his coalition.

Coalition Pact Believed Near

De Gasperi and his Cabinet resigned January 11 in a planned crisis to permit him to reorganize his Government, and he is serving now at the head of a caretaker cabinet until he forms a new one.

As today's meeting ended, it was reported that only minor differences remained to be ironed out before the selection of ministers begins. De Gasperi is on record as favoring continuance of a coalition, although his party controls both houses of Parliament.

The consultations of the last week have been directed at designing a program which would have the support of all four parties to the coalition. The other parties involved are the Liberals—who are Conservative—the anti-Communist Socialists and the Republicans.

Marchisio Sees Italy's Head

ROME, Jan. 19 (AP)—President Luigi Einaudi today conferred with Judge Juvenal Marchisio of New York, president of the Italo-American Aid Committee for Mutilated Children.

Belgian Reds Request No Arms Unloading

Antwerp, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Belgian Communist party today called on Belgian dock workers to refuse to unload American military equipment. The Transport Workers Union said it would oppose the Communist action.

The equipment, part of the United States arms-aid program under the North Atlantic treaty, is expected to arrive soon. Similar Communist appeals have been issued to dockworkers in France.

Omer Becu, general secretary of the Socialist-controlled International Transport Workers Federation, said his group is ready to take all measures to oppose political strikes. He said "necessary steps" have been taken to oppose the Communist action.

CZECHS CHARGE U.S. HARBORS 150 WAR CRIMINALS

PRAGUE, Jan. 19—(AP) Czechoslovakia today accused American authorities in western Germany of constantly refusing to hand over more than 150 German war criminals wanted for trial in this country.

The communist-led government declared that the American officials were turning their zone into a "veritable paradise for German war criminals.".

Call Press Conference

The charge was made at a specially convened press conference of western and Czech newspapermen conducted by Dr. Jan Cech, spokesman for the Czech foreign ministry and Bohdan Dorner, deputy minister of justice.

Dorner said American authorities in Germany officially told Czechoslovakia on Nov. 1, 1947 that they would no longer consider demands for the extradition of the wanted Germans.

Asked whether Czechoslovakia would continue to press for extradition, Dorner said:

No Explanation

"We are not asking again because it would be useless to do so."

He said the Americans never gave an explanation for their 1947 refusal to consider extradition demands.

American officials in Prague said the Czechs have made no mention of war criminals in any notes exchanged between the foreign ministry and the American Prague embassy in the last two years.

Chinese Reds Wound Briton, Seize 2 Yanks

By the Associated Press.

HONG KONG, Jan. 19.—A British copilot of a Chinese air transport plane was wounded Monday by Chinese Communists during an unsuccessful attempt to rescue two American airmen stranded on the Nationalist-evacuated airfield in Yunnan Province.

Harry Davis of North Umberland, England, received a flesh wound in his leg from an explosive bullet when his civil air transport plane landed on the airstrip at Mengtze, 140 miles south of Kunming. The plane took off again unscatched, but the two American airmen were left behind in Communist hands.

The Reds are holding Robert Buol of Stockton, Calif., and Jose Pawbert of Puerto Rico, respectively pilot and crew chief for Major-Gen. Claire Chennault's line. ADD

Shanghai Blockade Area Is Extended

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalists declared today that the blockade of Shanghai is a big success and extended their efforts at the same time to the South China Coast.

The South Coast blockade, extending from Indo-China east to Yangchiang, 150 miles southwest of Hong Kong, was not as formally stated as the Shanghai blockade, but the idea was the same.

Nationalist planes dropped 200,000 leaflets over the area, proclaiming it a danger zone and warning peaceful craft of "heavy and continuous air assaults."

The danger zone includes the Luichow peninsula which extends out toward the Nationalist-controlled Hainan Island, where yesterday the Nationalist commander announced that his planes and the Chinese Navy had smashed a Communist invasion fleet assembled on Luichow.

Fleet Again Raided

Gen. Hsueh Yueh, the Hainan commander, said 2,000 craft, mostly junks, were sunk at Luichow.

The Communists for weeks have been assembling a fleet of junks on the peninsula, presumably for an invasion of the island.

Nationalist Air Force headquarters here reported that yesterday their planes had again bombed the remaining invasion fleet of 600 craft, and also a convoy of 500 trucks near Peihai, west of the peninsula in the danger zone.

More than 170 Communist vessels have been sunk in the past week along the coast of Fukien province opposite Formosa, naval headquarters said here today.

Red Agents Seized

Gen. Chang Yi-ting, army spokesman, reported today that five Communist agents, disguised as traders, were seized on Hainan last week and declared that not a single port of the island now is in the hands of the Communist guerrillas.

Chang denied that the Nationalist tin mining center of Mengtzu had been lost to the Reds, but admitted that Communist vanguards were within 10 miles of that city.

He also claimed that pro-Communist forces under the turncoat Gen. Liu Wen-hui were fleeing from the far hinterland province of Sikang under pressure from troops of Governor Ho Kuo-kwang. ADD

Chinese Reds Name U. N. Envoy

TOKYO, Friday, Jan. 20 (AP)—The Chinese Communists in Peiping today selected a representative to the United Nations, although there is no indication that they will be recognized by that organization.

A broadcast from Peiping said the representative was Chang Wen-tien. He was identified as a member of the Chinese Communist Politburo, all-powerful body of the Communist regime.

[Records of the Politburo membership, dating back to 1946 do not show Chang Wen-tien as a member. Nor has he appeared previously in the news, at least under that name.

[There is a Chang Wen-chi, however, who formerly was secretary to Communist Foreign Minister Chou En-lai. American-born, Mr. Chang as far back as 1948 was rumored to be in the United States acting as Mr. Chou's agent. There was no confirmation of this report.]

A Chinese language broadcast heard here said Mr. Chang also had been named as the Communist representative on the United Nations Security Council. The broadcast said Peiping had sent messages to Secretary General Trygve Lie and Carlos P. Romulo, president of the United Nations General Assembly, asking when Mr. Chang could assume his posts.

SEOUL CONFIRMS KILLINGS

Massacre of Villagers on Eve of Christmas Laid to Guerrillas

SEOUL, Korea, Jan. 19 (AP)—Provincial police confirmed today the massacre on Christmas Eve of at least eighty-six villagers in a guerrilla-infested region of South Korea.

Seoul newspapers reported that most of the men, women and children had been slain by guerrillas wearing army uniforms. The victims lived in a village near Mungyong, eighty-five miles southeast of here.

The national police director, Lee Ho, said a charge by the North Korean Radio Pyongyang that police had killed the villagers was untrue, adding that the "police were not involved."

Catholic Pilgrims in Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, Jan. 19 (AP).—The first group of Roman Catholic Holy Year pilgrims returned to the Israel's section of Jerusalem last night from a two-day journey through the Arab-administered part of the Holy Land. A spokesman for the group of twenty-three said they were well satisfied with the reception they had received in both Israeli and Arab territory. They are leaving for Rome by plane via Lydda.

U.S. TO BACK MOVE TO END BOYCOTT ON FRANCO SPAIN

Acheson Says Nation Will Support Plan to Repeal Ban on Recognition

MAJOR POLICY SHIFT

Does Not Mean Approval of Fascist Regime, Secretary Asserts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 — (AP) Secretary of State Acheson announced tonight the United States is prepared to support a move in the United Nations to end the three-year-old diplomatic boycott of Franco Spain.

In addition Acheson said this government is "quite prepared to acquiece in the extension of credits to Spain covering specific and economically justifiable projects" in which there is "a reasonable prospect of repayment."

The secretary disclosed this major shift of American policy in a letter to Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

Senators Urged Action

Connally and many other senators have made repeated demands that this country resume diplomatic and trade relations with Madrid which were broken off in 1946 in keeping with a resolution adopted by the United Nations General Assembly. This was done because the Franco government was deemed a fascist dictatorship which had come to power with the aid of Hitler and Mussolini.

Since that time the United States has been represented in Madrid only by a charge d'affaires.

Secretary Acheson declared the U. S. now is ready to vote for a resolution in the UN Assembly "which will leave members free to send an ambassador or minister to Spain if they choose."

Acheson's letter stressed however that the decision to abandon the 1946 policy "would in no sense signify approval of the regime in Spain."

"It would merely indicate," he said, "our desire in the interests of orderly international intercourse, to return to normal practice in exchanging diplomatic representation."

No Basic Change

One major reason for the decision, Acheson said, was the "public bewilderment" in this country over the practice o fsending ambassadors to Soviet bloc nations while refusing to appoint an ambassador to Spain.

Declaring there has been no change in the basic attitude of this government toward Spain, he said the policy of the U. S. is based on the recognition of "certain essential facts":

"First, there is no sign of an alternative to the present government.

"Second, the internal position of the present regime is strong and (it) enjoys the support of many who, although they might prefer another form of government or chief of state fear that chaos and civil strife would follow a move to overthrow the government.

"Third, Spain is a part of western Europe which should not be permanently isolated from normal relations with that area.

While announcing that the U. S. is ready to grant credits to Spain for specific projects, Acheson said this government "definitely does not favor the extension of a general balance of payments loaned to the Spanish government to use as it sees fit."

Letter Dated Wednesday

Acheson's letter was dated yesterday and was in response to a request for a more detailed statement on U. S. policy toward Spain than that which he gave in recent appearances before Senate and House Foreign Affairs committees.

Similar letters were sent to Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), ranking minority member of the Senate committee and Chairman Kee (D-WVa) of the House committee and Rep. Eaton of New Jersey, the ranking Republican member.

While he stressed that Spain should not be permanently isolated, Acheson said that country should develop a positive program to support and strengthen democratic freedoms, politically, economically and militarily.

"It is difficult to envisage Spain as a full member of the free western community without substantial advances in such directions as increased civil liberties and religious freedom and the freedom to exercise the elementary rights of organized labor," Acheson said.

He said that to develop mutually beneficial economic relations between the U. S. and Spain there must be cooperation of both countries. But "unfortunately," he added little progress has been made.

"Spain," he said, has "indicated no interests" in negotiating a treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation. Despite prodding from the U. S. he said the Franco regime has "taken little action" to simplify its export and import controls and its foreign exchange system, and give better treatment to foreign investments.

Reaction Favorable

The United States will stick by the 1946 UN resolution as long as it remains in effect, Acheson said. But he added:

"In our view, the withdrawal of ambassadors from Spain as a means of political pressure was a mistaken departure from established principle."

The immediate reaction in Congress to the policy move was largely favorable. Among the comments:

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich)—"I think the secretary of state is following the correct course. I never have favored the policy of maintaining half an embassy at Madrid. It is not a question of recognizing Franco Spain. We have done that for 11 years. It is not a question of approving the Franco regime. We have never done that and do not now. It is a question of maintaining an ambassador for our advantage in one of the important capitals of the world where the government is in unquestioned civil control and where it is guilty of no offense to international comity and law."

Senator Smith (R-NJ): "The United Nations ban should be lifted so that each country can decide individually what its relations with Spain should be. I am in favor of full diplomatic relations being established with Madrid."

Brewster Lauds Move

Brewster (R-Me): "It is a step in the right direction. It should be followed by action normalizing our relations with Spain. It indicates that the State Department, to some extent, is beginning to recognize the weight of public opinion. I'm glad to see the end of the starvation policy toward Spain."

Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.), member of the Senate Foreign Relations committee—"I'll go along with Secretary Acheson on Spain. It's a very reasonable position. It is not correct to interpret recognition as approval of a regime. It seems an anomalous situation when we have an ambassador in Moscow and none in Madrid."

Text of the State Department's Views on Relations With Spain

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—Following is the text of Secretary of State Dean Acheson's letter to Chairman Tom Connally of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on United States policy toward Spain:

My Dear Senator Connally:

In response to your letter of Jan. 16 and following my consultation with the Foreign Relations Committee I am pleased to send you a more detailed statement on United States policy toward Spain, particularly as it affects the problem of sending an Ambassador to Spain. I am sending a similar letter to Senator Vandenberg, Judge Kee and Dr. Eaton. [Representative John Kee, Democrat, of West Virginia, is chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and Charles A. Eaton of New Jersey is the ranking Republican.]

The Spanish question has been magnified by controversy to a position among our present-day foreign policy problems which is disproportionate to its intrinsic importance. Organized propaganda and pressures have kept this controversy alive both here and abroad and have served to stimulate more emotional feeling than rational thinking.

Thus far, we have succeeded in dealing with this question on a broad bipartisan basis through our distinguished delegations to the United Nations. A clarification of some of the issues might help now to put this question in its proper framework in relation to the broader aspects of our policy.

Since the end of the war there have been a number of international actions with respect to Spain. It was agreed at the Potsdam conference in the summer of 1945 and at the San Francisco conference of the United Nations that same year that Spain could not be a member of the United Nations as long as the present Government remains in power. This position was endorsed by the first session of the General Assembly of the United Nations in London in February, 1946.

U. S. Position Reviewed

In April, 1946, the Security Council discussed fully relations with the Spanish Government, and again, in December the matter was debated by the General Assembly at even greater length. The resolution which finally passed the General Assembly recommended that the Franco Government be barred from membership in specialized agencies of the United Nations and that all members of the United Nations immediately recall from Madrid their Ambassadors and Ministers plenipotentiary accredited there.

This matter was discussed again by the General Assembly in November, 1947. In the voting on various resolutions the two-thirds rule resulted in the refusal to reaffirm the 1946 resolution. However, the resolution was not repealed.

In May, 1949, the General Assembly undertook a further discussion of the Spanish question, but no change was made in the resolution.

The United States has opposed moves in the United Nations to bring about a break in diplomatic relations with or to impose economic sanctions against Spain. This position is based on the Security Council view that the existence of the Franco regime in Spain is not a threat to peace, and on our view that such outside pressures would either unite the Spanish people against the development of democratic freedoms or would precipitate the Spanish people themselves toward civil war with unknown but inevitably costly consequences.

Entirely aside from its views concerning the present regime in Spain, the United States has long questioned the wisdom and efficacy of the actions recommended in the 1946 resolution. At the time that resolution was debated, the United States delegation, because of its reservations on the sections dealing with chiefs of mission and with Security Council action abstained in the vote in the Political Committee. It voted for the resolution in the plenary session of the General Assembly "in the interests of harmony and of obtaining the closest possible approach to unanimity in the General Assembly on the Spanish problem."

U. S. Judgment Confirmed

Experience since that time has served to confirm our doubts about these recommendations. They were intended as a gesture of disapproval and an attempt to bring about a change in the Spanish Government. In retrospect it is now clear, however, that this action has not only failed in its intended purpose but has served to strengthen the position of the present regime. This action of the United Nations and discussions of the Spanish question in subsequent sessions of the General Assembly have all been represented in Spain as foreign interference in Spanish internal affairs. The Spanish reaction has been no different from that to be expected from any proud people.

Although some members of the United Nations no longer observe the recommendation with respect to chiefs of mission and have returned Ambassadors or Ministers to Madrid, the recommendation has not been amended or repealed by the General Assembly. Since the support and strengthening of the United Nations is a fundamental principle of our foreign policy, and since we attach importance as a matter of policy to compliance with United Nations recommendations, we are continuing to adhere to the 1946 resolution so long as it remains in effect.

The question arises, therefore, whether the resolution itself should be changed. Political considerations which have created general reluctance to accept Spain as a partner in the close cooperation among the Western European nations also apply to this situation. This is a problem which requires consideration by many nations and is not a matter which can be solved by the United States alone.

This is not a problem of recognition, as it has frequently been portrayed. The 1946 resolution on Spain does not call for a break in diplomatic relations with Spain. The United States formally recognized the present Spanish Government on April 1, 1939, and we have had continuous diplomatic relations ever since. Three American Ambassadors had been accredited to that Government before the 1946 resolution was passed. When the resolution came into force the United States abided by the recommendations that Ambassadors be withdrawn by refraining from appointing another Ambassador to fill a vacancy which existed at that time.

In our view, the withdrawal of ambassadors from Spain as a means of political pressure was a mistaken departure from established principle. It is traditional practice, once a state has been formally recognized, to exchange ambassadors or ministers and is usually without political significance. At the ninth international Conference of American States in Bogotá, this principle was incorporated in Resolution 35, which states in part that "the establishment or maintenance of diplomatic relations with a government does not imply any judgment upon the domestic policy of that government."

However, the withdrawal of ambassadors from Spain disregarded this principle. By attaching moral significance to the refusal to maintain full diplomatic relations with Spain, this action has also implied moral significance to the maintenance of full diplomatic relations through the return of ambassadors.

This situation inevitably led to confusion in public opinion both here and abroad. On the one hand, the question of returning ambassadors to Spain has tended to become indentified with the larger issue of whether it is desirable to have closer relations with the present Spanish Government. On the other hand, public bewilderment has been increased over the inconsistency of accrediting ambassadors to such countries as those in Eastern Europe whose regimes we do not condone while, at the same time, refusing to appoint an ambassador to Spain.

At the General Assembly last spring a majority of the members who voted on the Latin-American resolution relating to Spain expressed a wish to review the 1946 resolution in such a way as to permit members to exercise freedom of action in determining whether to return ambassadors or ministers to Madrid.

It is the opinion of this Government that the anomalous situation with respect to Spain should be resolved. The United States is therefore prepared to vote for a resolution in the General Assembly which will leave members free to send an ambassador or minister to Spain if they choose. We would do this for the reasons I have already stated and in the hope that this aspect of the Spanish issue would no longer be available to be used by hostile propaganda to create unnecessary divisions within the United Nations and among our own people.

Our vote would in no sense signify approval of the regime in Spain. It would merely indicate our desire, in the interests of orderly international intercourse, to return to normal practice in exchanging diplomatic representation.

We have stated on a number of occasions that we would favor the amendment of the 1946 resolution of the General Assembly to permit specialized agencies to admit Spain to membership if, in the opinion of the specialized agencies, Spanish membership would contribute to the effective work of these organizations. We believe that membership in these agencies should be determined, to the extent practicable, on the technical and nonpolitical basis. It has already been discovered on a number of occasions that the work of these specialized organizations has been impaired through the inability of Spain to accept the obligations and restraints, as well as the privileges, of their activities.

These conclusions by the United States Government do not imply any change in the basic attitude of this Government toward Spain.

The policy of the United States toward Spain is based on the recognition of certain essential facts.

First, there is no sign of an alternative to the present Government.

Second, the internal position of the present regime is strong and enjoys the support of many who, although they might prefer another form of government or chief of state, fear that chaos and civil strife would follow a move to overthrow the Government.

Third, Spain is a part of Western Europe which should not be permanently isolated from normal relations with that area. There are, however, certain obstacles to the achievement of this. Spain, for reasons associated with the nature, origin and history of the present Spanish Government, is still unacceptable to many of the Western European nations as an associate in such cooperative projects as the European Recovery Program and the Council of Europe.

We believe that this is a matter in which the Western European nations must have a leading voice. These programs, which require for their success the closest possible cooperation between the participants, are directed to the strengthening and development of the democratic way of life as opposed to the threats to it posed by Communist expansion. This is a policy which we and the Western European nations have agreed upon.

Democratic Freedoms Are Goal

It is not merely a negative reaction to communism. It is, rather, a positive program to support and strengthen democratic freedoms, politically, economically and militarily. In that context the participation of the present Spanish Government, unless and until there has been some indication of evolution toward more democratic government in Spain, would weaken rather than strengthen the collective effort to safeguard and strengthen democracy.

We are therefore continuing our efforts in a frank and friendly manner to persuade the Spanish Government that its own interest in participating in the international community, and particularly in the Western European community, requires steps toward democratic government, which offers the best hope for the growth of basic human rights and fundamental freedoms in Spain. It requires cooperation on the part of all parties and, as must be evident, it is not fundamentally a matter which can be successfully brought about by American action. The decision as to what steps can and should be taken is obviously one for Spaniards alone.

At the same time, it is difficult to envisage Spain as a full member of the free Western community without substantial advances in such directions as increased civil liberties and as religious freedom and the freedom to exercise the elementary rights of organized labor. It is significant that one of the first acts of the new international confederation of free trade unions was to pass a resolution condemning the present Government of Spain, and opposing any assistance to Spain "until such time as democratic and full trade union rights have been restored and the workers are once more able to make their contribution to the country's recovery."

United States economic policy toward Spain is directed to the development of mutually beneficial economic relations. This policy is based on purely economic, as distinct from political, grounds. We believe that private business and banking arrangements and trade activities with Spain should be conducted on a free and normal basis. The department interposes no political objections and restrictions on such activities.

So far as economic assistance from this Government is concerned, Spain is free to apply to and consult with the Export-Import Bank for credits for specific projects on the same basis as any other country. While the United States Government definitely does not favor the extension of a general balance of payments loan to the Spanish Government to use as it sees fit, it is quite prepared to acquiesce in the extension of credits to Spain covering specific and economically justifiable projects.

It has been made clear to all Spaniards, both private and officials, that Spanish applications for such projects will be considered on the same basis as those from any other country and the final decision will be made, in accordance with the Bank's regular policy, not only on the basis of the need for the credit and the suitability of the particular purpose to be served, but also on whether there is a reasonable prospect of repayment.

U. S. Seeks to Promote Trade

The successful development of mutually beneficial economic relations between the United States and Spain is entirely dependent upon the equal cooperation of both parties. Unfortunately, however, little progress has been made. The United States sincerely desires to facilitate normal business and trade with Spain, but ultimate success depends on the cooperation of the Spanish Government in taking constructive steps to promote its trade and to attract foreign investment. In order to assist in the development of these activities, the negotiation of a new treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation was offered by the United States.

To date, the Spanish Government has indicated no interest in such arrangements. Efforts have also been made to encourage the Spanish Government to simplify its export and import controls and its foreign exchange system, which is based upon a multiplicity of rates, in order to establish an exchange rate which would permit Spanish goods to compete, particularly in the dollar market.

Furthermore, efforts have been made to encourage the Spanish Government to lift the restriction of twenty-five per cent on the participation of foreign investors in any Spanish enterprise and to accord better treatment to existing foreign investments, both of which are today distinct hindrances to the flow of investment to Spain.

We have, in connection with these problems, pointed out to interested Spaniards and to the Spanish Government that the present critical situation in the Spanish dollar balance of payments seems to derive from difficulties many of which, it is believed, could be substantially rectified by action of the Spanish Government.

To date, however, that Government has taken little action along these lines. In the department's opinion the next steps to be taken in furthering mutually beneficial economic relations between Spain and the United States are up to the Spanish Government.

Sincerely yours,

DEAN ACHESON.

HOUSE REFUSES FURTHER U. S. AID TO SOUTH KOREA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP) The Truman administration suffered a stinging foreign policy defeat today when the House refused to grant further economic aid to southern Korea.

By a two-vote margin the House rejected the administration's request for $60,000,000 to help bolster the little republic's economy during the next six months.

In hot debate preceding the vote, critics of the administration cried that granting the funds would be throwing money down "a rathole."

The vote reflected dissatisfaction with the Truman far eastern policy. Many Republicans have been denouncing the president's decision not to help Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek of China make a last-ditch stand on the island of Formosa against the Chinese communists.

Rebuke for Truman

Both President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson had made personal appeals for approval of the Korean fund to supplement a similar amount Congress voted at the last session. Acheson said that without aid southern Korea would collapse "in two or three months."

But Republican critics of the administration's far eastern policy mustered enough support from the Democratic side to defeat the measure on a rollcall vote of 193 to 191. The tally showed that 61 Democrats lined up with 131 GOP colleagues and one American-labor against the bill. Only 21 Republicans voted in favor of it, along with 170 of Mr. Truman's party.

This marked the first flat setback the president has encountered in his many requests for global recovery funds. It also was the first legislative action the House has taken since Congress reconvened Jan. 3.

Result A Shock

The outcome came as a shock to Democratic leaders who earlier had rallied enough support to defeat a GOP move to send the measure back to the House Foreign Affairs committee for "further study."

This proposal to shelve the bill lost out on a roll call vote of 190 to 194. It was offered by Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) who spearheaded the Republican assault on the administration's far eastern policy.

It was Vorys who asserted that the aid grant would be like pouring money down a "rathole."

"Unless and until we have a policy in Asia that makes sense," he said, "we aren't justified in pouring this money in this vulnerable area."

He contended that Korea exists "solely through the sufferance of Russia." He pointed out that communists control the northern half of the ancient kingdom and said the Soviets could take over the southern half any time they chose.

See No Red Aggression

But Rep. Sabath (D-Ill) told his colleagues that he was "authoritatively informed" that there is little reason to fear Russian aggression against Korea.

Sabath did not say what the source of his information was, but he had a 20 minute talk with the president at the White House earlier in the day.

Support for the measure also came from the GOP ranks.

Rep. Eaton (R-NJ), ranking Republican member of the Foreign Affairs committee, urged his colleagues to vote for the bill, saying:

"We can't desert the last toehold we have on the continent of Asia. It would be the same as announcing to Russia we are agreeable to have her take over."

Although the United States pulled out its military forces in August, 1948 this country has maintained an arms mission there and has been furnishing financial help through the economic cooperation administration.

Acheson Policy Hit

In testimony before the Foreign Affairs committee, Secretary Acheson had strongly urged continuance of the aid program.

The Republican lawmakers used the Korean aid measure to tee off against Acheson's general policy stand in the Orient.

Rep. Crawford (R-Mich) lit into the administration's decision not to furnish arms help to the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa. He called Acheson's statements on that issue a "most ridiculous performance" and "an insult to the intelligence of the people of the United States."

Rep. Smith (R-Wis) shouted that "under the bankrupt policy of the State department and this administration we are losing the cold war."

"It's about time," he said, "that we talked in behalf of our people."

But Rep. Douglas (D-Calif) said that Korean aid "is in the interest of the American people."

"Korea is important to the security of the United States," the congresswoman said. "We are playing for high stakes here. We want a Democratic world and we believe that it is not in the interest of the American people to turn our backs on Korea."

Administration forces made a last-minute effort to put across a limited aid bill with a definite ending date of next June 30. But even this compromise failed to carry the measure.

As matters now stand the $60,000,000 fund appropriated last year will be closed out Feb. 15.

BULGARIA ASKS U.S. RECALL envoy

Break in Relations with Russian Bloc Nations Seen Imminent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 — (AP) A formal break in diplomatic relations between the United States and Bulgaria was reported tonight as imminent following a Bulgarian demand for recall of the U. S. minister there.

The recall of Donald R. Heath, the U. S. minister to Sofia, was demanded today by Bulgaria.

No Reason Given

The State department would not explain what reasons the Bulgarian cited for wanting Heath out of their country.

Meanwhile it was learned that the two countries are likely to sever diplomatic relations, probably tomorrow.

A department spokesman said tonight the demand for Heath's recall was made in a note sent by the Bulgarian government through its charge d'affaires, Dr. Peter Voutov.

Although the department withheld details of the note pending preparation of a reply. It was understood, however, that the Bulgarians sai dthat Heath was persona non grata (unsatisfactory).

There have been previous exchanges of notes in connection with Heath, a career diplomat who is a native of Topeka, Kansas.

On Dec. 19, Bulgaria objected to the "very strong language" in an American protest over the mention of Heath's name during the treason trial of Traicho Kostov.

James E. Webb, undersecretary of state, told the Bulgarian charge d'affaires on Dec. 12 that American legation officials in Sofia had been subjected to indignities, restrictions and false charges in connection with the communist purge trial of Kostov and other defendants.

Truman Lying On Formosa, Reds Charge

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Russians and Chinese Reds are saying that the United States is planning to take over Formosa—forcibly, if necessary.

State Department officials checking on Communist broadcasts and publications reported that the Red reaction to President Truman's "hands-off-Formosa" policy is that he's just lying.

The Communist-controlled press at Peiping headlines: "Truman Lies Again" and "Truman Has to Cover Up His Plot of Invasion."

Radio Moscow chimed in: "The American ruling circles are not even considering the abandonment of their imperialist policy toward China and, more important, are trying to take Taiwan (Formosa) away from China."

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—President Truman said today the question of whether to name a new ambassador to the Vatican is under study.

The President told a news conference that the questions of continuing representation at the Vatican and appointing a successor to Myron C. Taylor are both under study at the State Department.

Taylor resigned yesterday after ten years as the President's special envoy to Pope Pius XII.

Controversy Revived

The announcement of Taylor's action brought to a fresh boil a controversy that has been hot before.

Taylor, an Episcopalian, had held the job since it was created.

During most of those ten years, there has been strong Protestant pressure to call him home. Only Tuesday a group of fifteen Protestant clergymen called on the President to abolish the post.

But such a decision probably would result in equally vigorous dissent from American Catholics.

Taylor's Work Praised

Mr. Truman accepted Taylor's resignation with "deep regret" and high praise for the job done by the 76-year-old business man.

Senators O'Conor (D., Md.) and McCarran (D., Nev.), Catholics, spoke out in favor of a successor for Taylor as special envoy to the Holy See.

"It is my belief that the interests of the United States and the world more than justify continuance of a representative there," O'Conor said.

McCarran said the fight against communism makes it more important than ever for this country to have an ambassador at the Vatican.

Vatican Aide Question Studied: Truman

Russia Not Dangerous To Korea, Sabath Says

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—Representative Sabath (D., Ill.) told the House today he was "authoritatively informed" that there is little reason to fear Russian aggression against Korea.

"There is no such danger," he said.

Sabath was arguing for an Administration bill authorizing $120,000,000 of economic aid for the postwar republic in southern Korea. He did not say what was the source of his information.

Assailed By Republicans

The measure has come under fire from Republicans. Some of them contend that while the authorization is for only one year, ending next June 30, the bill would in reality commit the United States to a larger program costing upward of $385,000,000 over the next three years.

Representative Herter (R., Mass.) said the long-range aspects of the bill raised "serious doubts and considerations."

"In the uncertain Far East as it is today, I think it would be a mistake to undertake such commitments," he told the House.

Herter's Reaction

Herter, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said there could be no assurance that economic chaos would not envelope Korea and that "Russia would not step in."

The House agreed on a voice vote to consider the bill.

Advance indications pointed to House approval.

Representative Vorys (R., Ohio) called further Korean aid "just rathole money."

"Unless and until we have a policy in Asia that makes sense, we aren't justified in pouring this money into this vulnerable area," he asserted.

Korea exists "solely through the sufferance of Russia," Vorys added, and "it is not whether, but when Russia will move in."

Eaton Against "Desertion"

On the other hand, Representative Eaton (R., N.J.), ranking Republican on the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said "We can't desert the last toehold we have on the continent of Asia."

"It would be the same as announcing to Russia we are agreeable to have her take over," he contended.

A caucus of House Republicans took no action to make Korean aid a party issue. House Democratic leaders say they expected virtually unanimous approval among their members.

WEST-AUSTRIA PACT HINTED

U.S. Says Soviet Obstacles Bar Treaty Settlement

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—The United States hinted today that the Western powers may sign a separate peace pact with Austria unless Russia quits stalling four-power negotiations.

The State Department said that because of Russian "obstacles" it doubts whether further progress can be made in treaty talks set in London next Tuesday. They have dragged on for three years.

"Under the circumstances, consideration will be given to future appropriate action that may be undertaken to re-establish Austrian freedom and independence," it said.

Michael J. McDermott, press officer, declined to say whether a separate peace settlement was among the steps being considered. But informed diplomatic officials said afterward that this was among many possibilities being examined.

Treaty 90% Complete

The State Department's announcement came after ambassadors from the United States, Britain and France in Moscow jointly appealed yesterday to the Russian Foreign Office to adopt a more cooperative attitude.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Deputy Foreign Minister, with whom they conferred, refused to give any assurance, it added. In London, the Foreign Office called his reply "unsatisfactory and disappointing."

Diplomatic officials said the treaty is 90 per cent completed with only four or five articles remaining to be drafted.

The latest deadlock arises from Russia's demand that Austria first agree to pay for relief goods furnished by Soviet forces during the early days of occupation. A Russian delegate unexpectedly threw this issue into the four-power discussions held in New York last November.

Compromise Offer

Austrian and Russian officials have been discussing the Russian claim in Vienna for three months without agreement. In an effort to compromise, the Austrian Government is reported to have submitted an offer to the Russians last December, but has received no reply.

The State Department is convinced, officials said, that Moscow is deliberately stalling the Austrian treaty because it does not want to pull out Russian occupation troops in eastern Europe.

Once the treaty goes into effect, the Russians would have to evacuate not only the estimated 50,000 troops in eastern Austria but also the army forces it maintains in Hungary and Romania as "lines of communication." There has been speculation that Russia wants to keep its troops in Hungary and Romania until it has succeeded in crushing Marshal Tito's independence in neighboring Yugoslavia.

In today's announcement, the State Department pointedly reminded Moscow that it had joined the United States, Britain and France in 1943 in formally promising that Austria would be recreated as a sovereign nation once the war against Hitler was won.

E.C.A. CUTS AID TO BRITAIN

Won't Provide Further Funds to Buy Canadian Pork Products

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration said today that it has informed Great Britain that no further Marshall Plan financing would be available for Canadian pork products.

The European Recovery Act prohibits ECA funds from being used to buy foreign supplies of any commodity of which the United States has a surplus. The ECA said bacon had been the bulk of Britain's pork purchases from Canada.

Ex-Marine Senator Calls Johnson 'Dictator'

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R., Wis.) today called Secretary Louis A. Johnson "a dictator who has just about wrecked the Defense Department."

He said Secretary of the Navy Francis P. Matthews is "an unfortunate little man who has to be a yes-man to hold his job—he has to follow a goose-stepping mood."

Facts Promised.

Sen. McCarthy called a news conference to loose these fresh darts at the officials. He has directed a drumfire of criticism at them since the ouster of Adm. Louis E. Denfeld as Chief of Naval Operations and cutbacks in the Navy and Marine Corps. The Senator was a wartime Marine officer.

Sen. McCarthy disputes the legality of Adm. Denfeld's removal. Sen. Millard E. Tydings (D., Md.), chairman of the Armed Services Committee, has promised the Senate he will get the facts and put them before it—no matter where they hit.

In a Senate speech yesterday, Sen. McCarthy criticized Mr. Matthews for testifying that Adm. Denfeld was fired by President Truman before he had been legally commissioned for his second term as top uniformed officer in the Navy.

Waves Photographs.

The Wisconsin Senator waved before the Senators a photograph which he said was a copy of Adm. Denfeld's commission—signed by "Francis P. Matthews and Harry S. Truman" and good until 1951. He expressed doubt that there is a vacancy in Adm. Denfeld's old job.

Mr. Tydings then withdrew his request for prompt Senate action on the nomination of Adm. Forrest P. Sherman to succeed Adm. Denfeld.

At his home in Westboro, Mass., Adm. Denfeld said the commission for his second term is "in my possession."

Arriving in Washington this morning, Mr. Matthews told reporters:

"I am not untruthful and I am not an incompetent."

When the reporters asked him to discuss the circumstances surrounding Adm. Denfeld's reappointment, Mr. Matthews replied:

"I am not going to make any statement until I have a chance to check the records and determine the facts. I know what they are but I want to be sure they are accurate."

Truman Firm On Retaining Gen. Vaughan

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—President Truman declared today he will keep Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan on the job as his army aide despite a Senator's demand that he be fired or taken out of uniform.

Reporters brought up the question of Vaughan's future at a news conference. A congressional committee report yesterday rebuked the military aide, whose name was linked with the Senate's "five per center" investigation.

Removal Urged

Senator McCarthy (R., Wis.) again had urged the President to remove Vaughan.

Mr. Truman, asked whether there would be any change in Vaughan's status, replied flatly that there will be none.

Senator Mundt (R., S.D.) joined McCarthy in wanting Vaughan ordered out of uniform if he stays on at the White House. But Mundt said he feels it would be futile to suggest that Vaughan be taken off the Government pay roll.

Hold Discipline Justified

Both McCarthy and Mundt are members of the Senate Investigations Committee which yesterday reprimanded Vaughan.

The Republican senators said the committee's unanimous report on that investigation would justify the disciplining of Vaughan by Mr. Truman.

Senator Hoey (D., N.C.), the committee chairman, said that while the report does criticize Vaughan, "no effort should be made to read into it what it does not itself contain."

No Personal Reflection

He added:

"It should be borne in mind that the criticisms of General Vaughan do not reflect on his character or integrity, but relate instead to customs and practices engaged in by him. The committee did not suggest that the President take any action."

The report rapped at Vaughan for accepting seven home freezers from a company which the committee said obviously was trying to curry favor. The document also criticized the General on several other counts. Vaughan declined to comment.

Hit Freezer Acceptance

The purpose of the investigation was to find out whether improper influence figured in the handling of contracts. The committee concluded it did.

The freezers Vaughan received were presented by him to Mrs. Truman and other Washington notables. Besides condemning Vaughan's acceptance of the units, the committee report said in effect that the presidential aide had used his influence to help friends in business with the Government.

She'd Have Women 'Strike On War'

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—Representative Bosone (D., Utah) told the House today that she has long believed the women of the world "should declare a strike on war."

Asserting that women everywhere feel the same way about war, she said:

"It is about time they did something about it."

As a first step, Mrs. Bosone suggested that the women of America should give a statue of peace and brotherhood to the women of Russia.

"Surely the Government of the Soviet Union would not refuse to allow the entry and acceptance of such a gift," she said, adding:

"I believe this gesture of good will and desire for peace would be very tangible evidence, not only to the women of Russia, but to women all over the world, of the sincerity and earnest desire of the American people to seek peace among the nations."

Acheson's Draft-Act Views Requested

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—Congressmen planned today to get an opinion from Secretary of State Acheson on whether there are international reasons for continuing the draft law.

The Secretary will appear Wednesday before the House Armed Services Committee. That group begins hearings tomorrow on a proposal to extend for three more years the Selective Service Act which expires June 30.

Members of the committee were reported anxious to know whether Acheson sees anything in world politics, especially in recent Far Eastern developments, to justify keeping the draft law on the books.

Urged By Truman

President Truman has requested the extension. The proposed bill, introduced by Representative Vinson (D., Ga.) committee chairman, has the approval of Defense Secretary Johnson and military leaders, especially in the Army.

Johnson and Army Secretary Gray will be the opening witnesses tomorrow. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army Chief of Staff, will appear Monday.

Later, the committee will hear Maj. Gen. Louis B. Hershey, selective service director.

Only about 30,000 men have been called up since the present law was enacted in 1948. Due to the success of voluntary enlistment, no draft calls have been issued since January, 1949.

Act Spurs Enlistments

But military leaders maintain that the fact there is a draft act has stimulated voluntary enlistment.

Further, Gray and other military spokesmen urge that the draft be continued as a token of good faith to America's North Atlantic treaty friends.

They want the act, even though unused, to be in force in event of an emergency.

Acheson Urges Spaak For Europe-Aid Post

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, today urged Paul-Henri Spaak, former Belgian Prime Minister, to become head of the Marshall plan organization in Europe if the post is offered him.

After conferring with Acheson at the State Department, Spaak said:

"I can't say I will accept a proposal which has not yet been made.

"I don't know if the proposal will be made and what the conditions will be if it is."

He was referring to the fact that the sixteen-nation organization for European Economic Co-operation must decide as a matter of joint policy to create the post and then offer it to someone. This it has not done.

Army Says Soviet Got No Secret Gun

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Army said today that Russia got no secret type anti-aircraft guns from this country during the war.

It made that comment in replying to a story in the Los Angeles Times, in which a wartime army colonel, Frank C. Lynch, said that a super-secret, self-aiming anti-aircraft weapon was shipped to Russia in 1944. An army spokesman said only two anti-aircraft weapons were sent to Russia and other allies. They were the 90-millimeter and 120-millimeter guns that were standard equipment and were not "classified" as secret, he said.

He added that no other high altitude anti-aircraft weapons were in existence during World War II.

Colonel Lynch was identified by the Army as chief of the field service depot at the Aberdeen (Md.) Proving Ground in 1944.

The Times story followed statements by Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) yesterday that the Army has developed new air defenses "which satisfied one that no enemy plane will ever come out of this network alive."

The Times quoted Colonel Lynch as saying with regard to the Lodge report:

"I am disgusted that American people should be given the impression that we alone have such effective weapons when Russia undoubtedly has the same defense—perhaps with improvements—to be used against our planes on case of war."

Self-Aiming Gun 'Sent To Russ'

Los Angeles, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Times today quoted a wartime army colonel as saying that an American super-secret, self-aiming, anti-aircraft gun has been in Russian hands since 1944.

Col. Frank C. Lynch, an army ordnance officer, is quoted as saying he was ordered to deliver it to the Russians from Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., in the summer of 1944.

The assertion followed disclosure by Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) that army experts have developed new air defenses "which satisfies one that no enemy plane will ever come out of this network alive."

Sees Secrecy Foiled

The Times quoted Colonel Lynch with regard to the Lodge report:

"I am disgusted that the American people should be given the impression that we alone have such effective weapons when Russia undoubtedly as the same defense—perhaps with improvements—to be used against our planes in case of war.

"No, I don't think America is the only nation with the impenetrable defense attributed to this gun.

"One other nation has it.

"It (the gun) was developed in the utmost secrecy and one of my duties at Aberdeen was to accompany a Russian officer stationed there to see that he did not obtain information on such projects.

"Then they ordered me to crate it for delivery to Russia."

"Saw It Loaded On Ship"

Colonel Lynch, the newspaper added, said the gun could rapidly slam high-explosive shells to "very, very high altitudes; shells that undoubtedly would be equipped with proximity fuses to explode when near enough to a plane to knock it down." His account described the gun as fully automatic, with gunners required only to feed shells into a cradle.

"Finally," the story quoted the colonel, "the gun was crated and I accompanied it to Philadelphia and saw it safely loaded aboard a freighter that carried it across the Atlantic."

Colonel Lynch, now a consulting engineer of near-by Pasadena, is quoted as saying he doesn't know where the order to ship it to Russia originated—"but I have my own ideas."

He was not available for elaboration.

DENFELD RETIRES, WON'T COMMENT ON NAVY OUSTER

BOSTON, Jan. 19 — (AP) Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, deposed Navy chief and storm center in the armed services unification controversy, announced his retirement today.

Denfeld's removal as chief of naval operations after presenting the navy viewpoint before a congressional committee brought heated protests from many quarters, but he studiously avoided adding fuel to the flames in announcing his decision. He left comment on Navy strength, Russian sea power, the H-bomb and other controversial subjects to others.

40 Years Service

More than 40 years of service entitle Denfeld to retirement and he "went through channels" in asking it. His request was submitted to the first naval district commandant for forwarding to Navy Secretary Matthews, who has denied that the admiral's testimony was responsible for his removal.

Denfeld, who wears four rows of decorations and campaign ribbons, topped by a submariner's dolphins, explained that while he regretted leaving the service now, "everyone must retire eventually."

Navy regulations would not have compelled him to "swallow the anchor" until he is 62, four years hence.

Admiral Denfeld asked that his retirement be made effective March 1. Until then at least, he said, he would continue to occupy his country residence in his native Westboro and maintain an office at first naval district headquarters. He has spent 60 days leave, which ended today, at Westboro.

No Future Plans

Denfeld had no plans for the future, he said, adding he "had many offers."

He told newspapermen he had made no statement to the Navy department beyond his formal request for retirement.

Denfeld said he had high regard for Secretary of State Dean Acheson and approved his Formosa policy. As for the unificaltion plan, he said "I have always been for it and believe it would work out."

Of his retirement, he said: "One man is unimportant. I tried to make my decision on that ground. I feel I can serve the Navy better on the retired than the active list."

Among the subjects Denfeld avoided was a document produced in Washington by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) purporting to show that the admiral had been appointed chief of naval operations for a two year term which had not expired.

Secretary Matthews also avoided discussion on this point, telling reporters: "I am not going to make any statement until I have a chance to check the records, and determine the facts. I know what they are but I want to be sure they are accurate."

At his Westboro home last night, however, the admiral told a reporter he has in his possession a commission appointing his chief of naval operations from Dec. 15, 1949 to Dec. 15, 1951. He said the commission was dated Sept. 14, 1949.

Lake Success, Jan. 19 (AP)—Russia disrupted United Nations atomic talks today by walking out of a secret six-power meeting in protest against the continuing presence of Chinese Nationalist diplomats.

The other five conferees—the United States, Britain, France, China and Canada—adjourned soon after the walkout without setting a date for their next meeting.

It was generally agreed among them that it would be useless to continue the discussions without Russia because the aim of the meetings is to iron out differences if at all possible between Russia and the other five on proposed atomic controls.

Eight Sessions Boycotted

Soviet delegation and satellites are boycotting all eight United Nations organs in session so far this year, but until today the boycotts had not stopped the work of any group. The secret atomic talks had been in progress since early last year.

In the familiar walkout pattern, the Russians said they would not return until Nationalist China is expelled. Neither Russia nor the Peiping regime has yet claimed a seat here for the Chinese Reds.

Another Soviet walkout occurred during the day in New York city when the Russians quit a meeting of the big power United Nations Military Staff Committee.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik led his delegation from the closed conference room after failing in an effort to oust the Chinese representative, H. P. Wei, who is January chairman. Malik went into the meeting at 10.55 A.M. and emerged an hour later.

The Trusteeship Council is scheduled to consider two important questions—plans for placing Italian Somaliland under Italian trusteeship and a draft statute for an international regime in Jerusalem.

New Russ Walkout Halts U.N. Atomic Parley

RUSSIAN WALKOUT STALLS UN PARLEYS

Reds Quit Atom, Military Talks in Move to Oust China Nationalists

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 19—(AP) New Soviet walkout-strikes broke up secret atomic talks in the United Nations today and cut off Russian dealings with the western powers and Nationalist China in Washington, New York and Geneva.

The Soviet boycotts on diplomatic parley fronts over the world were carried out in the continuing Russian-led propaganda campaign to get Nationalist China thrown out of international councils and make room in them for the Chinese Reds.

In quick succession, Soviet delegates strode out of the six-power atomic talks here, from the big power military staff committee in New York City, and from the 13-nation Far Eastern commission in Washington. The Russians also boycotted the winter session of the UN Trusteeship Council in Geneva.

Boycott 9 UN Groups

The Russians now have boycotted nine UN organs in less than two weeks and have slowed down or stymied the work of most of the organizations affected by the walks.

They say the price for their return is the ouster of Nationalist China, but no one here professes to know how long the Russians may be absent.

Some UN delegates say they believe the unexpected Soviet plan of stepping out of every organ backing the Nationalist Chinese has some relation to the present visit of the Red China leader, Mao Tze-Tung, in Moscow.

Disruption of the atomic talks came as President Truman at his news conference in Washington refused to talk about production of the super-atomic hydrogen bomb.

However the possibility o fthe U. S. producing such a bomb was raised for the first time here by H. R. Wei, Nationalist China's atomic delegate and distinguished scientist from Nanking, a city now held by Red China.

Wei told the Soviet delegate, Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik, that even the possibility of such a bomb being created rendered the atomic talks more vital and that was all the more reason for Russia to stick around now.

Blame Russians

Assistant Secretary of State John D. Hickerson repeated western charges that Russia alone is preventing agreement on atomic control.

Hickerson told reporters the five majority delegates would continue atomic conversations but that "I am not kidding myself" into thinking any progress could be made with the Russians absent.

CHAMBERS A LIAR, HISS' ATTORNEY CLAIMS IN PLEA

NEW YORK, Jan. 19—(AP) Alger Hiss' lawyer called Whittaker Chambers a liar and Henry Julian Wadleigh "the real thief" of state secrets today in a final appeal for Hiss' acquittal of perjury charges.

Hour after hour, as the two-months-long second trial of the former high State department official drew toward a close, Boston attorney Claude B. Cross summed up for the defense, contending:

1—That the government's case depends solely on lying testimony by Chambers, self-confessed ex-runner for a prewar Soviet spy ring; and

2—That the "pumpkin papers" produced by Chambers were not given to him by Hiss but by Wadleigh, a onetime State department aide who has admitted giving Chambers some secret data.

To Jury Today

The jury probably will begin deliberations tomorrow after Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy sums up for the prosecution and Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard gives his charge.

The "pumpkin papers" are microfilmed copies of State department documents. Chambers produced them from a hollowed-out pumpkin on his Westminister, Md., farm and told congressional investigators that Hiss supplied the documents.

But Cross declared today: "Wadleigh stole every one of those papers."

He said the government has "failed entirely to suggest a motive on Mr. Hiss' part to commit espionage, unless it be the vague suggestion that he was a communist."

And the lawyer said flatly that Chambers "committed perjury" in the "dishonest, bad hope" of framing Hiss.

Hiss Shows Strain

Hiss, 45, and his wife, Priscilla, showed plainly the strain of two long trials as they listened to the stocky, grey-haired Boston lawyer.

Hiss, a lawyer who rose to one of the State department's most responsible posts in New Deal days, is accused of lying when he denied to a Federal grand jury that he gave official secrets to Chambers.

A second count charges that he lied in denying that he saw Chambers, once a $30,000-a-year senior editor of Time Magazine, after Jan. 1, 1937.

Hiss' first trial ended last July with the jury deadlocked, after hours of wrangling eight to four for conviction. Hiss could get up to 10 years in prison plus $4,000 in fines if convicted.

Cross declared that the secret data—most of it produced spectacularly from a hollowed-out pumpkin on Chambers' Maryland farm—"could not have come from Alger Hiss."

And he told the jurors:

"This is not an ordinary criminal procedure. It is an indictment for perjury, which requires more proof than in an ordinary crime x x x

"Not only is there no corroborative evidence with respect to Mr. Chambers' story of passing documents. There is no corroborative evidence of any of his meetings, stories or accounts."

Reviews Testimony

Point-by-point, Cross reviewed testimony that totalled 1,125,000 words.

He said Chambers' story was "filled with inconsistencies and is of an incredible nature."

And he said the testimony of Mrs. Chambers, who backed up her husband's story of a long, intimate friendship with Mr. and Mrs. Hiss, was "sometimes accurate and sometimes surprisingly inaccurate."

It was accurate, he added, on such matters as the exteriors of Hiss houses which Mrs. Ch... could have viewed for herself long after the events s... were supposed to have take...

Cross said that Chambers' wife "could not remember what names they were using" at various times when they told of meetings with the Hisses.

Chambers had testified that he used various false names such as George Crosley and David Breen in connection with his underground work for the Communist party.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN. 19-(AP)-A TALL, BLOND BOY, ABOUT 17, SAT IN A CHAPLAIN'S OFFICE TODAY AND ASKED IN A TEXAS DRAWL, "WHO AM I?"

HE SAID HE HAD NOT BEEN ABLE TO REMEMBER HIS NAME OR HOMETOWN SINCE SUFFERING A HEAD INJURY IN A STREET FIGHT WITH A BRITISH SAILOR IN ANTWERP, BELGIUM, IN MAY, 1948.

SINCE THEN HE HAS WANDERED AROUND EUROPE, WONDERING WHO HE WAS. HE SAID HE FOUND SHELTER WHEREVER HE COULD, AND OFTEN WENT HUNGRY.

"I AM SURE MY FIRST NAME IS FREDDY," HE TOLD LIEUT.COL. (CHAPLAIN) JOHN O.WOODS OF PITTSBURGH, PENNA., AND A REPORTER. "BUT MY LAST NAME--I THINK IT STARTS WITH 'M-A,' BUT I CAN'T REMEMBER THE REST."

FREDDY SAID HE COULD REMEMBER SOME THINGS THAT HAPPENED BEFORE HIS INJURY, BUT COULD NOT TIE THEM TOGETHER.

HE RECALLED RUNNING AWAY FROM HOME AND GOING TO SEA AS A MESSBOY ON A FREIGHTER. BUT THE NAME OF THE SHIP AND THE PORT HE SAILED FROM ARE BLANK.

HE SAID HE THINKS HE LIVED IN TEXAS. HE CAN PICTURE THE HOUSE, BUT NOT THE TOWN, AND HE ISN'T TOO SURE ABOUT THE STATE.

"I CAN REMEMBER SEEING SAND AND CACTUS PLANTS," HE SAID. "THERE WAS A RIVER NEAR OUR HOUSE, AND ON THE OTHER SIDE WAS OLD MEXICO.

"THE HOUSE IN BACK OF OURS WAS SPANISH STYLE."

FREDDY SAID THAT SINCE SUFFERING HIS INJURY HE HAD SEEN A PICTURE OF FORT WORTH IN A MAGAZINE.

"I AM SURE I HAVE SEEN THAT PLACE BEFORE," HE SAID. BUT WHETHER HE LIVED THERE OR SIMPLY VISITED THE CITY HE DID NOT KNOW.

HE WANDERED INTO GERMANY AND WAS PICKED UP BY BRITISH MILITARY POLICE. THEY SENT HIM TO FRANKFURT, WHERE AMERICAN OFFICIALS BECAME INTERESTED IN HIS CASE.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN.16-(AP)-WESTERN GERMANY IS EMBARKED ON A NEW DRIVE TO INCREASE TRADE WITH SOUTH AMERICA, UNITED STATES OFFICIALS SAID TODAY.

THE OBJECT IS TO RECAPTURE GERMANY'S PREWAR POSITION AS A MAJOR SUPPLIER OF FINISHED AND SEMI-FINISHED GOODS TO SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID THE NEW TRADE DRIVE CENTERS ON:

(1) EXPANDING COMMERCE WITH ARGENTINA, AND

(2) CONCLUDING TRADE AGREEMENTS WITH AS MANY SOUTH AMERICAN STATES AS POSSIBLE.

JAN 20 1950

WESTERN GERMANY NOW HAS TRADE PACTS WITH CHILE, URUGUAY, COLOMBIA, ARGENTINA AND ECUADOR, THESE OFFICIALS SAID.

WEST GERMAN AND ARGENTINE REPRESENTATIVES MEET HERE TOMORROW TO DISCUSS EXPANDING THE PRESENT $7,000,000 TRADE AGREEMENT, AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID. THIS AGREEMENT EXPIRES IN APRIL.

"A GREAT QUANTITY OF GRAIN IS AVAILABLE IN ARGENTINA WHICH CAN BE PAID FOR BY GERMAN EXPORTS," OFFICIALS SAID. "GERMANS WANT AND NEED THIS GRAIN TO SAVE DOLLARS."

TOMORROW A PARAGUAYAN DELEGATION IS SCHEDULED TO MEET WITH WEST GERMAN TRADE OFFICIALS TO NEGOTIATE FOR A $5,500,000 AGREEMENT.

SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES APPEAR PARTICULARLY INTERESTED IN WEST GERMAN MACHINERY AND CHEMICALS, AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID.

UNDER PRESENT AGREEMENTS WESTERN GERMAN SENDS TO SOUTH AMERICA DRUGS, IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTS, MACHINERY, CHEMICALS, OPTICAL GOODS AND INSTRUMENTS, DIESEL MOTORS, LOCOMOTIVES AND MACHINE TOOLS.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA GERMANS GET BANANAS, GRAINS, FROZEN AND CANNED MEATS, TOBACCO, CORN, RICE, SUGAR, HIDES AND SKINS.

THE FOUR CORRESPONDENTS WERE ORDERED JAN.6 TO LEAVE CZECHOSLOVAKIA. THE REPORTERS WERE TOLD REPLACEMENTS COULD BE NOMINATED FOR THEM. THE FOUR WESTERN CORRESPONDENTS WHO REMAIN HERE NOW REPRESENT THE AP, THE UP, REUTERS AND THE FRENCH PRESS AGENCY.

KASISCHKE, 37, A NATIVE OF ST. JOSEPH, MICH., WAS CHIEF OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS BUREAU IN PRAGUE. HIS EXPULSION LEAVES NATE POLOWETZKY, A NATIVE OF HARRISON, N.J., IN CHARGE OF THE AP'S PRAGUE BUREAU.
THE FOUR CORRESPONDENTS EXPELLED WERE TOLD THEY WERE GUILTY OF ACTIONS RANGING FROM "UNOBJECTIVE AND NOT POSITIVE REPORTING" TO "HAVING ACQUAINTANCE WITH REACTIONARY CZECHOSLOVAKS." THEY DENIED THE CHARGES.
THE FOREIGN MINISTRY PRESS DEPARTMENT REFUSED A REQUEST TO CITE NEWS REPORTS THAT IT CONSIDERED UNOBJECTIVE.
THE LATEST ACTION AGAINST FOREIGN NEWSMEN BROUGHT TO 10 THE NUMBER OF WESTERN NEWSPAPER CORRESPONDENTS OUSTED FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS. THE LATEST ACTIONS FOLLOWED AN INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE WESTERN PRESS AND RADIO BY THE COMMUNISTS, A CAMPAIGN WHICH REACHED ITS PEAK DURING THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS.

SOFIA, BULGARIA, JAN.19-(AP)-BULGARIA DEMANDED TONIGHT THAT YUGOSLAV AMBASSADOR YOSSIP DJERDJA AND TWO OTHER BELGRADE DIPLOMATS LEAVE SOFIA.

AT THE SAME TIME, SOFIA SENT A NOTE TO YUGOSLAV PREMIER MARSHALL TITO'S GOVERNMENT CHARGING THAT ITS OFFICIALS HAD TAKEN PART IN A PLOT AGAINST THIS COUNTRY.

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY SAID IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR AMBASSADOR DJERDJA TO REMAIN FURTHER IN SOFIA, AND IT DEMANDED THAT THE OTHER TWO DIPLOMATS LEAVE IMMEDIATELY. THEY WERE IDENTIFIED AS MARKO VOUYATCHITCH, FIRST SECRETARY OF THE EMBASSY, AND SVETOZAR SAVITCH, CONSUL IN SOFIA.

THE BULGARIAN NOTE SAID THE RECENT TRIAL OF FORMER DEPUTY PREMIER TRAICHO KOSTOV HAD PROVED THAT RESPONSIBLE MEMBERS OF THE YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT AND OFFICIALS OF THE YUGOSLAV EMBASSY HAD ACTED IN THE ALLEGED PLOT AS INCITERS, INSPIRERS AND ORGANIZERS. KOSTOV WAS HANGED LAST MONTH ON A CHARGE OF TREASON.

THE NOTE CHARGED THAT YUGOSLAV PREMIER MARSHAL TITO AND HIS MINISTERS HAD CONSPIRED WITH KOSTOV TO SEIZE THE PIRIN REGION OF BULGARIAN MACEDONIA, TO MURDER THE LATE PREMIER GEORGI DIMITROV, ANNEX BULGARIA AND MAKE IT A PART OF YUGOSLAVIA.

THE PRESS DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED TONIGHT THAT BULGARIAN AUTHORITIES HA SEIZED YUGOSLAV SPIES WHO WERE LONGTIME MEMBERS OF TITO'S INTELLIGENCE SERVICES AND SECURITY POLICE. THEY WILL BE TRIED BEFORE A BULGARIAN COURT.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT DESCRIBED THOSE ARRESTED AS SKILLFUL AGENTS, SOME OF THEM POSING AS POLITICAL EMIGRANTS FROM YUGOSLAVIA. AMONG THOSE IDENTIFIED WAS BRANKO ZVIERATZ, WHO, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID, HAD BEEN RECEIVING PERSONAL INSTRUCTIONS WITH SERBIAN HOME MINISTER SLOBODIN PENEZICH. ZVIERATZ ALSO WAS LINKED WITH CONSUL SAVITCH IN AN ALLEGED PLOT AGAINST THE LIVES OF MEMBERS OF THE BULGARIAN GOVERNMENT.

MOSCOW, JAN.19-(AP)-WESTERN ALLIED AMBASSADORS HERE DISCUSSED THE LATEST DEADLOCK IN AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE TREATY NEGOTIATIONS WITH DEPUTY SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI GROMYKO LAST NIGHT.

IT WAS THE FIRST DIRECT WESTERN APPROACH TO THE KREMLIN SINCE THE DAYS OF THE BERLIN BLOCKADE.

(IN WASHINGTON THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID U.S. AMBASSADOR ALAN G. KIRK HAD BEEN INSTRUCTED TO PROTEST AGAINST RUSSIA'S EFFORTS TO BLOCK THE TREATY.

(THE THREE-YEAR-OLD TREATY DISCUSSIONS AMONG BRITISH, FRENCH, AMERICAN AND RUSSIAN OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN "AT A VIRTUAL STANDSTILL" SINCE NOVEMBER, THE DEPARTMENT SAID. THE RUSSIANS HAVE REFUSED TO CONTINUE DISCUSSIONS UNTIL AUSTRIA PAYS FOR SOVIET SUPPLIES SENT DURING THE EARLY DAYS OF THE OCCUPATION.)

GROMYKO WAS VISITED FOR AN HOUR BY KIRK, BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR DAVID KELLY, AND FRENCH AMBASSADOR YVES CHATAIGNEAU. SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VYSHINSKY WAS "UNABLE TO RECEIVE THE THREE AMBASSADORS BECAUSE OF ILLNESS," THE THREE ENVOYS SAID IN A BRIEF COMMUNIQUE.

AFTER THEIR INTERVIEW THE AMBASSADORS CONFERRED FOR MORE THAN AN HOUR AT THE BRITISH EMBASSY. THEY HAD MET FREQUENTLY DURING THE PAST TWO DAYS PRIOR TO THEIR VISIT TO THE FOREIGN MINISTRY.

IN THE COMMUNIQUE ISSUED AFTER THEIR CONFERENCE AT THE EMBASSY, THE AMBASSADORS SAID THEY HAD DELIVERED "A JOINT DEMARCHE" TO GROMYKO "ON THE SUBJECT OF THE AUSTRIAN TREATY NEGOTIATIONS."

"IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT ANY FURTHER COMMENTS CONCERNING THIS DEMARCHE WILL BE MADE BY THE THREE WESTERN GOVERNMENTS CONCERNED AT THEIR CAPITALS AT PARIS, LONDON AND WASHINGTON," THE COMMUNIQUE CONCLUDED.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS WAS BEING HELD BY THE COMMUNISTS AT MENGTZE AND THAT ONE OF ITS BRITISH PILOTS HAD BEEN WOUNDED IN THE LEG WHILE TRYING TO LAND TO MAKE A RESCUE.

(THE LINE REPORTED ROBERT BUOL OF STOCKTON, CALIF., HAD FLOWN TO MENGTZE SUNDAY WITH A GROUND CREW INCLUDING JOSE JAWBERT, A PUERTO RICAN, TO ARRANGE RESUMPTION OF TIN-ORE FLIGHTS.

(RADIO COMMUNICATION WITH HIM CEASED SUNDAY NIGHT, AND PILOT HARRY COCKRELL OF CHARLESTON, W. VA., WAS SENT MONDAY TO INVESTIGATE.

(COCKRELL'S PLANE WAS HIT ONCE BY A SMALL SHELL FROM THE TOWN, AND HE REPORTED HE SAW TROOPS MARCHING TOWARDS THE AIRFIELD.

(ANOTHER PLANE, PILOTED BY WILLIAM WEEK OF MILWAUKEE AND HARRY DAVIS OF NORTHUMBERLAND, ENGLAND, LANDED BUT WAS FIRED UPON AND TOOK OFF AGAIN IMMEDIATELY. DAVIS WAS WOUNDED IN THE THIGH).

THE NATIONALIST NAVY REPORTED THAT IN THE CONTINUING CAMPAIGN AGAINST RED AMPHIBIOUS PREPARATIONS, IT HAD SUNK MORE THAN 70 COMMUNIST JUNKS OFF FOOCHOW AND OTHER MAINLAND POINTS. IT DID NOT GIVE DETAILS.

THE NATIONALISTS SAID THEIR BLOCKADE OF THE RED COAST ALSO WAS PAYING DIVIDENDS BY BOOSTING SHIPPING BETWEEN HONG KONG AND FORMOSA. FOR EXAMPLE, THE EDITH MOLLER, 554-TON BRITISH FREIGHTER WHICH USED TO PLAY TO SHANGHAI, HAS JUST UNLOADED AVIATION GASOLINE AT KEELUNG, PORT FOR THE FORMOSAN CAPITAL.

TOKYO, FRIDAY, JAN. 20-(AP)-JAPAN'S COMMUNISTS TODAY BOWED TO THE COMINFORM AND RUSSIA.

THE PARTY, AFTER A TWO-DAY SESSION OF ITS CENTRAL COMMITTEE, ISSUED A STATEMENT SAYING IT WOULD TRY NOT TO REPEAT THE DEVIATIONS OF WHICH IT WAS ACCUSED.

RED LEADER SANZO NOZAKA, MAIN TARGET OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM'S ATTACK, ALSO ADMITTED HE HAD ERRED.

IT WAS A RETREAT FROM THE DEFIANT STAND THE JAPANESE COMMUNISTS TOOK WHEN THE COMINFORM JOURNAL AT BUCHAREST LOOSED ITS BLAST JAN. 7. MOSCOW STRONGLY SUPPORTED THE COMINFORM.

AT THAT TIME NOZAKA DENIED HE HAD ERRED. HIS PARTY BACKED HIM BY KICKING OUT FOUR COMMUNISTS WHO SIDED WITH THE COMINFORM.

THE COMINFORM ACCUSED NOZAKA OF SERVING "THE IMPERIALIST OCCUPIERS OF JAPAN" BY INSISTING SOCIALISM COULD BE ACHIEVED UNDER THE OCCUPATION.

THE PARTY'S STATEMENT ADDED THAT JAPANESE COMMUNISTS WILL TRY "TO LIVE UP TO THE EXPECTATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL PROLETARIAT."

THE PARTY'S NEWSPAPER RED FLAG EARLIER IN THE DAY GAVE A HINT AT THE SHIFT IN PARTY POLICY. IT SCOFFED AT "PROVOCATIVE SLANDER AND SPECULATION" THAT THE PARTY WAS DEVELOPING TITOIST TENDENCIES.

TOKYO, FRIDAY, JAN. 20-(AP)-COMMUNIST CHINA TODAY EXPRESSED A WILLINGNESS TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH SWEDEN AS SOON AS THAT COUNTRY SEVERS RELATIONS WITH THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS.

JERUSALEM, JAN. 19-(AP)-THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE OF ISRAEL'S PARLIAMENT TODAY APPROVED A CAUTIOUS DECLARATION IMPLYING THAT JERUSALEM IS THE OFFICIAL CAPITAL OF ISRAEL.

PREMIER DAVID BEN-GURION HAS CALLED JERUSALEM THE "ETERNAL CAPITAL", BUT HAS AVOIDED OUTRIGHT DECLARATION ON THE SUBJECT TO AVOID PROVOKING AN OPEN CONFLICT WITH THE UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY, WHICH HAS RECOMMENDED AN INTERNATIONAL REGIME FOR THE HOLY CITY.

ALTHOUGH MOST OF ISRAEL'S GOVERNMENTAL OFFICES HAVE BEEN MOVED TO JERUSALEM, THE FOREIGN OFFICE STILL REMAINS IN TEL AVIV.

THE CABINET YESTERDAY APPROVED THE TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION IN WHICH THE KNESSET (PARLIAMENT) URGES THE GOVERNMENT TO SPEED THE TRANSFER OF GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS TO JERUSALEM FROM THE ORIGINAL CAPITAL AT TEL AVIV.

THE RESOLUTION SAYS JERUSALEM ONCE AGAIN HAS BECOME THE CAPITAL IN VIEW OF THE FACT OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL.

THIS REPRESENTS A COMPROMISE BETWEEN THE MODERATES WHO WISHED TO AVOID ANY DECLARATION WHICH MIGHT JEOPARDIZE ISRAEL'S FOREIGN RELATIONS AND EXTREMISTS WHO PROPOSED A FIRM DECLARATION MAKING JERUSALEM THE CAPITAL.

WITH APPROVAL BY THE PARLIAMENTARY COMMITTEE TODAY, THE RESOLUTION

IS EXPECTED TO BE ADOPTED BY THE KNESSET NEXT WEEK.
THE DECLARATION AUTHORIZES THE GOVERNMENT TO EXPEDITE CONSTRUCTION OF CAPITAL BUILDINGS IN JERUSALEM AND SAID TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES WHICH PREVIOUSLY PREVENTED GOVERNMENT BODIES FROM MOVING HAVE NOW BEEN OVERCOME.

PARAMARIBO, SURINAM, JAN 19-(AP)-THIS DUTCH COLONY IN SOUTH AMERICA WILL BECOME A SEMI-AUTONOMOUS PARTNER IN THE DUTCH UNION WHEN A NEW CONSTITUTION IS ADOPTED FRIDAY.
THE STATUS OF SURINAM (FORMERLY DUTCH GUIANA) WILL BE SIMILAR TO THAT OF THE RECENTLY FORMED UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA, EXCEPT THAT SURINAM WILL BE AUTONOMOUS ONLY SO FAR AS ITS DOMESTIC AFFAIRS ARE CONCERNED.
DEFENSE AND FOREIGN RELATIONS WILL BE ADMINISTERED BY THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT.
THE NEW CONSTITUTION IS REFERRED TO AS AN "INTERIM ORDER" IN ANTICIPATION OF INCORPORATING ALL OF HOLLAND'S WEST INDIES TERRITORIES WITH SURINAM IN ONE STATE UNDER THE DUTCH CROWN.
TALKS TO BRING ABOUT THE GREATER UNION BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES AND NETHERLANDS HOME GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ARE SCHEDULED FOR MAY.
THE CONSTITUTION GIVES 30,000 INDONESIANS LIVING HERE TWO YEARS TO DECIDE WHETHER THEY DESIRE TO BECOME SURINAM CITIZENS OR ADOPT INDONESIAN NATIONALITY.
THE ORDER INSTITUTES A NINE-MAN CABINET RESPONSIBLE TO A 21-MEMBER

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL WHICH WAS ELECTED IN MAY, 1949.
SURINAM, WITH A POPULATION OF 207,000 LIES BETWEEN BRITISH GUIANA AND FRENCH GUIANA IN SOUTH AMERICA. THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES, TO THE NORTH, COMPRISE CURACAO AND SOME LESSER ISLANDS IN THE CARIBBEAN SEA WITH A POPULSTION OF 148,000.

THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT WILL CONTINUE TO ADMINISTER FOREIGN RELATIONS AND DEFENSE OF THIS DUTCH COLONY OF 207,000 PERSONS, ON THE NORTH COAST OF SOUTH AMERICA BETWEEN BRITISH GUIANA AND FRENCH GUIANA.
THE NEW CONSTITUTION IS REFERRED TO AS AN "INTERIM ORDER," WITH THE EXPECTATION ALL THE NETHERLANDS' WEST INDIES TERRITORIES WILL BE INCRPORATED LATER INTO ONE STATE UNDER THE DUTCH CROWN. THE SETUP WOULD BE SIMILAR TO THAT OF THE RECENTLY FORMED UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA, UNDER WHICH THE PEOPLE OF THE NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES GAINED INDEPENDENCE.
RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF SURINAM IS SHIFTED BY THE CONSTITUTION FROM THE DUTCH-APPOINTED GOVERNOR TO A NINE-MAN CABINET. THE GOVERNOR, DR. WILLEN BOENDER, BECOMES THE CROWN REPRESENTATIVE.
THE CABINET IS RESPONSIBLE TO A 21-MAN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL CHOSEN IN GENERAL ELECTIONS LAST MAY. THESE ELECTIONS GAVE THE NATIONAL PARTY 13 SEATS, THE UNITED HINDUSTANI PARTY SIX AND THE JAVANESE FARMERS PARTY TWO. THESE PARTIES ARE FORMED ALONG RACIAL AND RELIGIOUS LINES.
A SIMILAR CONSTITUTION WAS PROPOSED FOR THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES, A HALF DOZEN ISLANDS TO THE NORTH WITH AN AREA OF 403 SQUARE MILES AND A POPULATION OF 148,530. THIS WAS BLOCKED, HOWEVER, BY A DISSAGREEMENT AMONG POLITICAL PARTIES.

HAVANA, CUBA, JAN 19-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HAS SENT OUT A DIPLOMATICALLY WORDED APPEAL TO CARIBBEAN NATIONS TO PLEASE QUIT QUARRELING.
THE APPEAL CAME OUT OF THE CONFERENCE HERE OF 12 U.S. AMBASSADORS IN CARIBBEAN COUNTRIES. IT WAS PHRASED SO CAREFULLY THAT NO LATIN STATESMAN COULD GET MAD ABOUT IT, AND YET IT MADE ITS MEANING QUITE CLEAR.
THE VIEWPOINT WAS IN THE ONLY DOCUMENT PUBLISHED SO FAR BY THE CONFERENCE. IT WAS A CONDENSED VERSION OF A SPEECH TO THE CONFERENCE YESTERDAY BY ROBERT BUTLER, AMBASSADOR TO CUBA, WHOSE EMBASSY IS HOST TO THE THREE-DAY MEETING.
BUTLER SAID THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES HAD MACHINERY TO SETTLE DISPUTES, AND THAT THIS MACHINERY OUGHT TO BE UNDERSTOOD AND USED FULLY IN TIME TO PREVENT MISUNDERSTANDINGS AND CONFLICTS.
HAITI RECENTLY CHARGED THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC WITH A PLOT TO OVERTHROW THE HAITIAN GOVERNMENT. THE DOMINICAN GOVERNMENT REPLIED THAT HAITI, CUBA, GUATEMALA AND SOME OTHER CARIBBEAN COUNTRIES HAD FOR MANY MONTHS KEPT PLOTS GOING TO OVERTHROW THE DOMINICAN PRESIDENT RAFAEL TRUJILLO.
TRUJILLO ASKED AND GOT BLANK CHECK AUTHORITY FROM HIS CONGRESS TO DECLARE WAR ON NATIONS WHICH PLOT AGAINST HIM.
THE THING COULD BE SERIOUS BECAUSE TRUJILLO HAS THE FINEST AIR FORCE AND NAVY IN THIS AREA, AND A WELL-TRAINED, FINELY-EQUIPPED ARMY.
BUTLER SAID MISUNDERSTANDINGS "SHOULD NOT BE DIFFICULT TO SETTLE PROVIDING THE PARTIES EARNESTLY DESIRE IT AND ARE WILL TO DISCUSS THEIR DIFFERENCES FULLY AND FRANKLY AMONG THEMSELVES." THE O.A.S., HE SAID, "CAN AND SHOULD SET AN EXAMPLE TO THE REST OF THE WORLD." THE O.A.S. IS NOW INVESTIGATING THE DOMINICAN-HAITIAN CONTROVERSY.
MEANWHILE, THE CONFERENCE ITSELF IS SPENDING MUCH TIME ON THIS PROBLEM.
BUTLER'S SPEECH ALSO TOUCHED ON ECONOMIC PROBLEMS. HE EMPHASIZED THE IMPORTANCE OF PRIVATE INVESTMENT IN THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES.
HE ADDED: "IT SHOULD BE MADE CLEAR ON EVERY POSSIBLE OCCASION THAT COUNTRIES DESIRING ECONOMIC AID MUST PROVIDE ADEQUATE GUARANTEES." THIS WAS CONSIDERED AN APPEAL TO LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS WHICH WANT ECONOMIC AID FROM WASHINGTON TO CLEAR THE WAY TO MAKE INVESTMENTS SAFE.
U.S. AMBASSADORS ARE HERE FROM HAITI, HONDURAS, GUATEMALA, COSTA RICA, NICARAGUA, PANAMA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC, MEXICO, VENEZUELA, SALVADOR, COLOMBIA AND CUBA.

NIGHT LEAD AMBASSADORS

By Ben F. Meyer

Havana, Cuba, Jan. 19--(AP)--The United States suggested today that Latin American nations needing funds for economic development clear the way for private capital.

The suggestion came from Willard L. Beaulac, U.S. ambassador to Colombia, as spokesman for a conference of 12 U.S. ambassadors to Caribbean countries.

"The basis of President Truman's Point Four--aid to underdeveloped nations--has to be private capital," Beaulac said.

This was the fourth time that conference spokesmen have emphasized that obstacles in some nations to private capital should be removed if they want to encourage outside financing of their industrial, agricultural and other activities. The first suggestion came from Assistant Secretary of State Edward G. Miller, who is presiding at the conference. It also was mentioned by the ambassadors to Cuba and Venezuela.

JAN 20 1950

In some Latin American countries, restrictions on foreign capital and on getting profits out of these countries frighten prospective investors. Beaulac said political leaders in Colombia had told him they want to improve conditions for investment and increasing guarantees for private capital.

The ambassador declined to discuss the internal political affairs of Colombia but said that "nation always has demonstrated great democratic tendencies, and I am confident will continue to do so." He added that Colombia expects a rise in the price of coffee this year to add $1,000,000 to last year's $225,000,000 coffee exports. Concerning the use or private capital under the president's Point Four, he said:

"There are simply not enough government funds or enough men in government with the necessary experience to permit the United States or any other government to take the principal responsibility for the economic development of all the underdeveloped areas of the world."

A statement by the conference tonight said the ambassadors had had a "thoroughgoing discussion" of the disputes in the Caribbean, with "special reference to the cases brought by Haiti and the Dominican Republic before the Organization Of American States."

The ambassadors expressed "general satisfaction" that OAS had named a committee to investigate the situation.

JAN 20 1950

Haiti recently accused the Dominican Republic of plotting the overthrow of the Haitian government. The Dominican Republic replied that Haiti, Cuba, Guatemala and Venezuela had for many months been plotting against it.

NIGHT LEAD TRUMAN ATOMIC (800)

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN.19-(AP)-PREVAILING OPINION IN THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION TODAY WAS REPORTED FAVORABLE TO PRODUCTION OF THE HYDROGEN SUPERBOMB ON WHICH EXPERIMENTAL WORK IS ALREADY BEING PUSHED.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HIMSELF LEFT WIDE OPEN THE POSSIBILITY THAT HE MAY EVENTUALLY ORDER PRODUCTION OF THE WEAPON WHICH SOME ESTIMATES SAY WOULD BE 1,000 TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN PRESENT A-BOMBS.

TTHE CHIEF EXECUTIVE DID THIS AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE BY REFUSING TO COMMENT ON A DIRECT QUESTION WHETHER PRODUCTION OF THE HYDROGEN BOMB IS BEING CONSIDERED BY HIM. THIS CONTRASTED WITH THE SPECIFIC ANSWERS HE GAVE TO A NUMBER OF OTHER INQUIRIES ON ATOMIC MATTERS.

THE SUPER BOMB QUESTION WAS RAISED IN CONNECTION WITH SPREADING REPORTS OF TOP LEVEL DISCUSSIONS CENTERING ON WHETHER THIS COUNTRY SHOULD MAKE ANOTHER EFFORT TO OBTAIN SOVIET AGREEMENT ON ATOMIC CONTROLS OR WHETHER IT SHOULD GO AHEAD WITH ITS SUPER BOMB PLANS REGARDLESS.

WHEN ASKED POINT BLANK: "ARE YOU CONSIDERING DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS WITH RUSSIA ON THE H-BOMB?" THE PRESIDENT REPLIED WITH A FLAT NO.

HE GAVE A SIMILAR DENIAL WHEN A REPORTER INQUIRED WHETHER CHAIRMAN DAVID E.LILIENTHAL OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION HAD OFFERED TO UNDERTAKE A SPECIAL MISSION TO MOSCOW ON THE ATOMIC PROBLEM.

LILIENTHAL, WHO IS DUE TO RESIGN FEBRUARY 15, IS UNDERSTOOD TO OPPOSE PRODUCTION OF THE HYDROGEN BOMB AT LEAST UNTIL ANOTHER EFFORT HAS BEEN MADE TO WIN THE SOVIETS OVER TO THIS COUNTRY'S PROPOSAL FOR STRICT INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ALL ATOMIC WEAPONS.

BUT WHEN MR.TRUMAN WAS ASKED--"DO YOU HAVE UNDER CONSIDERATION THE PRODUCTION OF A HYDROGEN BOMB?" HE FENDED IT OFF WITH THE STATEMENT HE COULD MAKE NO COMMENT.

HIS ANSWER WAS IN LINE WITH INFORMATION AVAILABLE FROM TOP OFFICIALS IN THE ADMINISTRATION WHICH BOILS DOWN TO THIS:

1. AT SOME POINT, PROBABLY IN A MATTER OF A FEW WEEKS, THE PRESIDENT WILL BE DIRECTLY CONFRONTED WITH THE NEED OF DECIDING WHETHER THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT SHOULD GO AHEAD WITH CONSTRUCTION OF A BOMB WHICH SCIENTISTS BELIEVE COULD DEVASTATE AN AREA COVERING HUNDREDS OF SQUARE MILES.

A131WX

2. PRESENT GOVERNMENT POLICY CALLS FOR ASSEMBLY OF ALL FACTS ON THE SUBJECT--A FACTOR WHICH TOP OFFICIALS INTERPRET AS MEANING THAT EXPERIMENTAL WORK, PRELIMINARY TO PRODUCTION, IS MOVING AHEAD FULL SCALE.

3. THE POSSIBILITY OF MANUFACTURING THE H-BOMB FIGURES LARGELY IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC POLICY. THE PRIMARY QUESTION THERE IS WHETHER ANY KIND OF NEW APPROACH WHICH COULD BE MADE TO THE RUSSIANS AT THIS TIME WHICH WOULD BRIGHTEN THE PROSPECTS FOR AN EVENTUAL INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY?

4. DEFENSE DEPARTMENT CHIEFS, BARRING SOME SENSATIONAL AND UNEXPECTED CHANGE FOR THE BETTER IN THE WORLD SITUATION, ARE FOR GOING AHEAD WITH THE BOMB PRODUCTION AS A MATTER OF AMERICAN SECURITY AND OF KEEPING THIS COUNTRY AHEAD IN THE ARMAMENTS RACE.

4. SO FAR THE MAJOR OBJECTION TO SUPERBOMB PRODUCTION HAS ARIS

SECURITY AND OF KEEPING THIS COUNTRY AHEAD IN THE ARMAMENTS RACE.

5. SO FAR THE MAJOR OBJECTION TO SUPERBOMB PRODUCTION HAS ARISEN FROM AMONG THE AEC'S SCIENTISTS, ONE GROUP OF WHOM FEELS IT WOULD BE MORALLY WRONG FOR THE UNITED STATES TO MAKE SUCH A WEAPON WITHOUT FIRST EXHHAUSTING EVERY POSSIBILITY OF TRYING TO GET TOGETHER WITH THE RUSSIANS AND OTHERS ON AN INTERNATIONAL CONTROL SYSTEM.

IT THUS APPEARS THAT THE WEIGHT OF OPINION IN THE ADMINISTRATION IS ON THE SIDE OF THE BOMB PRODUCTION, UNDER PRESENT WORLD CONDITIONS.

BUT ON CAPITOL HILL SOME LAWMAKERS ARE CONCERNED OVER THE PROSPECTS OF AN ARMAMENTS RACE.

FOR EXAMPLE, REP.EATON (R-NJ), RANKING REPUBLICAN ON THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE TOLD A REPORTER:

"IF ANY CIVILIZATION IS TO BE LEFT, THEN THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA AND ALL THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD SHOULD GET TOGETHER AND PUT A STOP TO IT."

MR.TRUMAN'S DENIAL THAT HE INTENDS TO ENTER "DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS," AS THE QUESTIONER PUT IT, WITH THE RUSSIANS DOES NOT IN ANY WAY RULE OUT THE POSSIBILITY THAT (1) THIS GOVERNMENT MIGHT URGE THE KREMLIN TO REVIEW ITS OWN ATOMIC POLICIES OR (2) CONDUCT A FEELER OPERATION WITH SOVIET DIPLOMATS TO FIND OUT WHETHER THE RUSSIANS ARE SERIOUSLY INTERESTED NOW IN TRYING TO REACH A COMPROMISE INTERNATIONAL CONTROL PLAN WHICH MIGHT BE ACCEPTABLE TO THE WEST.

ACTUALLY THERE IS LITTLE OPTIMISM AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT THAT THE KREMLIN IS READY AT THIS TIME TO CONSIDER THE DRASTIC CHANGES IN RUSSIA'S IRON CURTAIN PROGRAM WHICH WOULD BE NECESSARY TO INSTITUTE A CONTROL PLAN ACCEPTABLE TO THE UNITED STATES.

A182WX

THE ESSENCE OF AMERICAN POLICY IS THAT CONTROLS MUST INCLUDE UNRESTRICTED INTERNATIONAL INSPECTION OF ATOMIC ACTIVITY IN EVERY COUNTRY AND THAT ONLY AFTER ADEQUATE SAFEGUARDS AGAINST VIOLATIONS WERE CREATED WOULD THE UNITED STATES BE WILLING TO GIVE UP ITS A-BOMB SUPPLY.

THE IMPENDING DEVELOPMENT OF A SUPER WEAPON MAY GIVE THIS COUNTRY A NEW EDGE COMPARABLE TO THE ADVANTAGE IT HAD IN THE EXCLUSIVE POSSESSION OF THE A-BOMB FROM 1945 UNTIL LATE LAST SUMMER WHEN THE RUSSIANS EXPLODED THEIR FIRST ONE.

BUT HOW LONG THIS EDGE MAY LAST AND WHETHER IT WILL HAVE ANY EFFECT ON RUSSIA'S ATTITUDE TOWARD INTERNATIONAL CONTROL ARE QUESTIONS THAT LIE MORE IN MOSCOW, AT THE PRESENT MOMENT, THAN IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON,JAN.19-(AP)-MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN ARMED FORCES, WITH THE POSSIBLE EXCEPTION OF GENERALS, ARE EXPERIENCING A SEVERE HOUSING SHORTAGE IN GERMANY, REP.GAVIN (R-PA) REPORTED TODAY.

HE RECOMMENDED THAT SOMETHING BE DONE ABOUT IT PROMPTLY.

INADEQUATE HOUSING ALSO EXISTS, HE SAID, AT WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE,MASS., AND AT LAGENS, AZORES.

GAVIN MADE HIS REPORT TO THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, BASED ON A ONE-MONTH FLYING VISIT TO EUROPE FOR THE GROUP. HE MADE A COPY OF HIS HOUSING VIEWS AVAILABLE TO A REPORTER TODAY.

"THE PROBLEM OF QUARTERS FOR OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN OF OUR SERVICES STATIONED IN EUROPE IS ONE OF UNUSUAL GRAVITY," HE SAID.

HE LISTED THESE REASONS:

MANY DWELLINGS THAT HAD BEEN TAKEN OVER FOR ARMED SERVICE USE WERE LATER TURNED BACK FOR CIVILIAN USE. THIS WAS DONE TO AVOID AN UNNECESSARY DRAIN ON THE GERMAN ECONOMY.

AS CONDITIONS IMPROVED IN OTHER RESPECTS, INCREASING NUMBERS OF ARMED FORCES PERSONNEL TRANSFERRED THEIR FAMILIES TO EUROPE, INCLUDING, IN MANY INSTANCES, THEIR PARENTS.

"IN ANY EVENT," SAID GAVIN, "THERE IS NOW A SERIOUS SHORTAGE OF FAMILY QUARTERS FOR ASSIGNMENT TO ARMY AND AIR FORCE PERSONNEL OF ALL GRADES, WITH THE POSSIBLE EXCEPTION OF SENIOR GENERAL OFFICERS.

"I DID NOT, DURING THIS TRIP, HAVE TIME OR FACILITIES TO DETERMINE WHAT SOLUTION SHOULD BE REACHED."

JAN 21 1953

GAVIN SAID "IT APPEARS THAT OUR ARMY AND AIR FORCE SHOULD BE REQUIRED IN GERMANY FOR A VERY SUBSTANTIAL PERIOD IN THE FUTURE." FOR THAT REASON, HE SAID, ADEQUATE HOUSING IS NECESSARY FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF MORALE AND PRESTIGE.

AS FOR WESTOVER AIR BASE,MASS., THE UNITED STATES TERMINAL FOR MILITARY AIR TRANSPORT SERVICE (MATS) FLIGHTS FROM ACROSS THE ATLANTIC, GAVIN HAD THIS TO SAY:

"THERE ARE PROJECTED AND UNDER WAY 750 SETS OF FAMILY QUARTERS TO BE CONSTRUCTED X X X

"WHILE THIS AMOUNT OF CONSTRUCTION WILL ASSIST IN DEVELOPING THE BASE, ADDITIONAL PERMANENT CONSTRUCTION IS URGENTLY NEEDED.

"MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION OF TEMPORARY WARTIME TYPE BUILDINGS, PARTICULARLY IN THE CLIMATIC CONDITIONS PREVAILING, IS NEITHER ECONOMICAL NOR EFFICIENT."

REGARDING LAGENS, AZORES, HE SAID:

"QUARTERS AND BUILDINGS ARE STILL OF A VERY TEMPORARY NATURE, INADEQUATE FOR PERMANENT USE, PARTICULARLY AT THIS IMPORTANT STATION.

"IF THE UNITED STATES IS TO MAINTAIN AN AIR BASE AT THIS LOCATION, APPROPRIATE STEPS SHOULD BE TAKEN IMMEDIATELY TO PROVIDE PERMANENT QUARTERS AND, SO FAR AS POSSIBLE, A DEPENDABLE WATER SUPPLY."

WASHINGTON,JAN.19-(AP)-SENATE REPUBLICANS SOUGHT SUPPORT TODAY IN THE PAPERS OF THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT FOR THEIR ARGUMENT THAT U.S. POLICY ON CHINA IS BASED ON A 1944 REPORT BY HENRY A.WALLACE.

SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) SAID THE REPORT, WRITTEN AFTER THE FORMER VICE-PRESIDENT AND CABINET OFFICER HAD VISITED THE FAR EAST, IS THE FRAMEWORK ON WHICH THE ADMINISTRATION'S "BANKRUPT POLICY" IN CHINA IS BASED.

WALLACE HAS SAID FERGUSON IS TRYING TO SMEAR HIM AND THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION THROUGH THE REPORT. IN IT, WALLACE URGED THIS COUNTRY TO WORK FOR A COALITION GOVERNMENT IN CHINA AND PREDICTED THAT CHINA'S LEADERS PROBABLY WOULD EMERGE IN A REVOLUTION. HE WAS CRITICAL OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK, THE NATIONALIST LEADER.

WALLACE IS SAID TO HAVE SENT HIS RECOMMENDATIONS ON CHINA POLICY TO MR.ROOSEVELT. THE DOCUMENT NEVER HAS APPEARED IN THE OFFICIAL REPORTS OF THAT PERIOD RELEASED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

WALLACE GAVE A SUMMARY OF HIS REPORT TO SENATOR O'CONOR (D-MD) AT THE MARYLAND SENATOR'S REQUEST. THIS WAS RELEASED TO REPORTERS YESTERDAY.

O'CONOR SAID WALLACE PROMPTLY SUPPLIED THE SUMMARY WHEN ASKED, AND WROTE THAT HE WAS SURPRISED HIS REPORT HAD NOT APPEARED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S WHITE PAPER ON CHINA.

FERGUSON IS LEADING THE HUNT FOR THE WALLACE REPORT. HE SAID HE HAS BEEN TOLD IT MAY BE IN THE ROOSEVELT HYDE PARK COLLECTION. ANOTHER REPUBLICAN SENATOR, WHO ASKED THAT HIS NAME NOT BE USED, REPORTED THE SAME INFORMATION.

"I'LL MAKE AN OFFICIAL REQUEST ON HYDE PARK TO GIVE US THE REPORT IF WE FIND IT IS THERE," FERGUSON SAID. BUT HE ADDED HE MAY RUN INTO TROUBLE TRYING TO GET IT.

"WE'VE FOUND THAT MANY STATE PAPERS HAVE GONE TO HYDE PARK AND WE'VE BEEN TOLD WE HAVE NO RIGHT TO THEM," HE SAID.

JAN 20 1953

THE SUMMARY SAID IN PART:

"CHIANG, AT BEST, IS A SHORT-TERM INVESTMENT. IT IS NOT BELIEVED THAT HE HAS THE INTELLIGENCE OR POLITICAL STRENGTH TO RUN POST-WAR CHINA. THE LEADERS OF POST-WAR CHINA WILL BE BROUGHT FORWARD BY EVOLUTION OR REVOLUTION, AND IT NOW APPEARS MORE LIKELY THE LATTER."

WALLACE ADVOCATED ONLY TEMPORARY SUPPORT FOR CHIANG, LEAVING THE U.S. FREE TO SWING TO "ANY OTHER LEADER OR GROUP THAT MIGHT COME FORWARD OFFERING GREATER PROMISE."

ACHESON TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY HE HAS HOPES THAT A THIRD FORCE--NEITHER NATIONALIST NOR COMMUNIST--WILL EMERGE IN CHINA TO TAKE OVER POWER. BUT HE ADDED THAT HE SEES NO SIGNS AT THIS TIME OF ANY SUCH MOVEMENT.

(250) WASHINGTON, JAN 19-(AP)-PRESIDENT CLIFFORD J.DURR OF THE NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD SAID TODAY A CONGRESSIONAL DEMAND FOR AN INVESTIGATION OF THE GUILD AS A POSSIBLE COMMUNIST FRONT IS AN "OLD, OLD STORY."

REP.NIXON (R-CALIF) SAID LAST NIGHT THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE SHOULD CONDUCT AN INQUIRY TO DETERMINE "THE TRUTH OR FALSITY" OF CHARGES THAT THE LAWYERS GUILD IS BEING USED TO FOSTER COMMUNISM IN THE UNITED STATES.

NIXON SAID THAT EARL BROWDER, FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE UNITED STATES, TESTIFIED BEFORE THE COMMITTEE IN 1939 THAT THE LAWYERS GUILD WAS A TRANSMISSION BELT FOR THE COMMUNIST PARTY. NIXON ALSO SAID THAT SEVERAL DEFENSE LAWYERS IN THE NEW YORK COMMUNIST CONSPIRACY TRIAL ARE GUILD MEMBERS.

DECLARING THERE HAS NEVER BEEN "ANYTHING SECRET ABOUT THE GUILD OR ITS ACTIVITIES," DURR SAID IN A STATEMENT TODAY:

"IF, HOWEVER, THE (HOUSE) COMMITTEE SHOULD WANT TO KNOW ABOUT INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE GUILD, THEN IT WILL HAVE TO TAKE UP THE MATTER WITH THEM PERSONALLY AS THE GUILD REQUIRES NO FINGERPRINTS OR BLOOD TESTS AS A CONDITION TO MEMBERSHIP.

"NOR DOES IT KEEP ANY TAB ON THE RACE, RELIGION OR POLITICS OF ITS MEMBERS, THEIR FAMILY LIFE, THEIR PERSONAL ASSOCIATIONS OR THEIR CLIENTS," DURR SAID.

"NO LOYALTY OATH IS REQUIRED EXCEPT THAT REQUIRED OF ALL LAWYERS ON THEIR ADMISSION TO THE BAR--WHICH INCLUDES AN OATH TO SUPPORT THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES. WE DO EXPECT OUR MEMBERS TO TAKE THAT OATH SERIOUSLY."

DURR'S STATEMENT WENT ON TO CRITICIZE THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION AND TO URGE AN INVESTIGATION OF THE FBI "AND THE EXTENT TO WHICH IT IS PERFORMING THE ROLE OF A POLITICAL POLICE."

WASHINGTON, JAN.19-(AP)-WITH SEVERAL U.S.-BUILT MERCHANTMEN ALREADY REPORTED IN CHINESE COMMUNIST HANDS, THE UNITED STATES HAS ACTED TO RECOVER THE REST OF 42 VESSELS SOLD TO CHINA IN 1947-48.

OFFICIALS SAID THIS COUNTRY HOLDS SOME $19,000,000 IN MORTGAGES ON THE SHIPS AND PAYMENTS HAVE FALLEN BEHIND.

THE CHINESE EMBASSY PLACED THE AMOUNT OWED AT LESS THAN $500,000.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT HAS ORDERED U.S. OFFICIALS IN THE FAR EAST TO ASK LOCAL AUTHORITIES TO HALT THE SAILING OF THE SHIPS, SO THE COMMUNISTS WON'T GET ANY MORE OF THEM.

SIX OR SEVEN OF THE AMERICAN-MADE VESSELS WERE SAID TO HAVE BEEN AMONG 13 NATIONALIST SHIPS WHICH RECENTLY WENT OVER TO THE REDS.

OF THE OTHERS, TWO ARE AT NORFOLK,VA., AND U.S. MARITIME OFFICIALS SAID THEY BELIEVED TWO MORE ARE AT BALTIMORE. THE REST ARE IN THE FAR EAST.

SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TOLD AMBASSADOR WELLINGTON KOO OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT ACTION, BUT INDICATED THAT SOME SHIPS MAY BE PERMITTED TO CONTINUE SUPPLYING FORMOSA.

THE CHINESE EMBASSY SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT SPECIAL EFFORTS HAVE BEEN MADE TO MEET THE PAYMENTS. IT SAID $1,525,898 WAS PAID BETWEEN AUGUST AND OCTOBER.

(460) KOREA-ECA

BY MARGARET KERNODLE

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

WASHINGTON, JAN.19-(AP)-REP.REDDEN (D-NC) SUGGESTED TODAY THAT TWO-THIRDS OF WHATEVER CONGRESS MAY AUTHORIZE TO AID EUROPE AND KOREA ECONOMICALLY BE SPENT BUYING SURPLUS WHEAT, CORN, TOBACCO AND COTTON FROM THE UNITED STATES.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN PROPOSED AN AMENDMENT TO THE KOREAN AID BILL BEFORE THE HOUSE TODAY, AND SAID HE IS ALSO PROPOSING A SIMILAR ONE TO THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION BILL TO COME UP LATER.

HE SAID APPROVAL OF HIS PROPOSAL WOULD SAVE THE COUNTRY $3,000,000,000 (B).

THE ORIGINAL PROPOSAL FOR $150,000,000 (M) IN AID FOR KOREA IS EXPECTED TO BE CUT TO ABOUT $120,000,000 (M) BEFORE THE HOUSE VOTES ON PASSAGE. THE PROGRAM WOULD BE HANDLED BY THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION.

THE PRESIDENT RECOMMENDED $4,000,000,000 (B) FOR ECA FOR THE 1950 FISCAL YEAR.

"I WOULD REQUIRE KOREA AND OTHER COUNTRIES TO USE TWO-THIRDS OF THEIR AID-MONEY TO PURCHASE THE FOUR MAJOR FARM SURPLUSES HELD IN STORAGE BY THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE IN ITS SUPPORT PROGRAM," REDDEN EXPLAINED TO A REPORTER.

"IN ADDITION, MY PROPOSED AMENDMENT WOULD REQUIRE THE PURCHASE OF SUCH OTHER SURPLUS FARM PRODUCTS AS THE ECA ADMINISTRATOR, WHO WOULD DIRECT THE KOREAN PROGRAM, FINDS CAN BE REASONABLY USED BY KOREA."

REDDEN SAID HIS PROPOSAL WOULD HAVE TWO EFFECTS:

"1. IT WILL REDUCE THE APPROPRIATIONS FOR FOREIGN AID EXPENDITURES

BY THE AMOUNT USED TO BUY THESE FARM COMMODITIES. THE REASON IS THAT WE HAVE ALREADY APPROPRIATED THE MONEY TO BUY THESE COMMODITIES NOW IN STORAGE OR THE MONEY TO MAKE SUFFICIENT LOANS TO MEET THE GOVERNMENT SUPPORT PRICE.

"2. IT WILL REMOVE SURPLUS FARM COMMODITIES FROM STORAGE IN THIS COUNTRY AND HELP TO MAINTAIN THE FARM PRICES AS WELL AS MAKE SPACE FOR STORAGE OF COMMODITIES THAT MAY BE PURCHASED UNDER THE MARKETING AND PRODUCTION ACT FOR SUPPORT PRICES."

REDDEN INSISTED "IF WE DON'T GET RID OF THE SURPLUS, SOME DAY WE MAY HAVE TO DUMP THEM IN THE OCEAN."

JAN 20 1950

"THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT ON OCTOBER 31, 1949 HAD INVESTED $3,148,500,000 (B) IN THE PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM FOR ALL COMMODITIES," HE SAID, "INCLUDING THE FOUR MAJOR PRODUCTS, AND FLAX SEED, PEANUTS, SOYBEANS, OATS, RICE, RYE AND OTHERS."

AND UP TO JUNE 30, 1949, THE GOVERNMENT HAD SUSTAINED A LOSS OF $254,000,000 (M) FOR THE YEAR ENDING THEN, HE ADDED.

HE LISTED THE QUANTITIES OF THE FOUR MAJOR COMMODITIES IN STORAGE OCTOBER 31 OF LAST YEAR AND FEDERAL FUNDS TIED UP IN THEM, AS FOLLOWS:

COTTON: 708,051 BALES, $108,354,145 (M).

CORN: 350,917,739 (M) BUSHELS, $484,872,939 (M).

TOBACCO: 363,568,598 (M) POUNDS, $150,261,344 (M).

WHEAT: 290,071,256 (M) BUSHELS, $576,676,006 (M).

"IF CONGRESS PASSES MY AMENDMENTS," HE SAID, "THE RESULT WILL JUST ABOUT REMOVE THE COST OF THE SURPLUS FARM COMMODITIES TO THE COUNTRY BECAUSE THE OVERALL BUDGET CAN THUS BE REDUCED BY ABOUT $3,0000,000,000 (B)."

WASHINGTON, JAN.19-(AP)-REP.WEICHEL (R-OHIO) SAID TODAY THAT "COMMUNISM HAS THRIVED AND MOVED TO THE EAST WITH THE AID OF AMERICAN TRUCKS, TRACTORS AND HEAVY MACHINERY TAKEN TO RUSSIA BY AMERICAN-OWNED MERCHANT SHIPS."

WEICHEL EXPRESSED HIS VIEWS IN A STATEMENT. HE ACCUSED THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF TARDY ACTION IN ITS EFFORTS TO GET BACK 42 MERCHANT SHIPS SOLD TO NATIONALIST CHINA.

THE OHIOAN SAID THE DANGER THAT THEY MIGHT FALL INTO CHINESE COMMUNISTS' HANDS SHOULD HAVE BEEN FORESEEN, AND THE SHIPS RECOVERED LONG AGO.

"NEARLY 100" U.S. MERCHANT SHIPS LOANED TO RUSSIA DURING THE WAR REMAIN IN RUSSIAN HANDS DESPITE FREQUENT REQUESTS FOR THEIR RETURN, HE SAID, ADDING THEY ESCAPED SEIZURE ON "HUNDREDS OF VISITS TO AMERICAN SHORES."

HE SAID THEY HAVE BEEN LOADED IN THIS COUNTRY WITH GOODS THAT WOULD BE USEFUL TO AN AGGRESSOR IN WARTIME.

"SURELY THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS DOING A LIP SERVICE," HE SAID, "IN TAKING AWAY THE SHIPS FROM CHINESE NATIONALISTS WHILE FOR YEARS IT HAS BEEN LOADING AMERICAN SHIPS X X X AND PERMITTING THE RUSSIANS TO KEEP THEM."

WASHINGTON, JAN 19-(AP)-LOSS OF SOME OF THIS COUNTRY'S WHEAT EXPORT MARKET WAS PREDICTED TODAY BY REP.HOPE (R-KAN) IF WESTERN GERMANY AND JAPAN ARE ADMITTED TO THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT.

SINCE THE WAR, HOPE SAID IN A STATEMENT, GERMANY AND JAPAN HAVE BEEN MAJOR OUTLETS FOR U.S. WHEAT, WHICH HAS BEEN BOUGHT BY THE U.S. ARMY AND PAID FOR BY THE TAXPAYERS.

THE TWO COUNTRIES HAVE CONSUMED MORE THAN 150,000,000 BUSHELS A YEAR, HOPE SAID.

JAN 20 1950

REPRESENTATIVES OF NATIONS IN THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT ARE MEETING IN LONDON TO CONSIDER ADMISSION OF WESTERN GERMANY AND JAPAN. HOPE SAID HE UNDERSTANDS THE U.S. DELEGATE HAS BEEN INSTRUCTED TO VOTE FOR ADMISSION OF THE TWO.

"IF THEY ARE ADMITTED, IT MEANS THAT THEY WILL HEREAFTER SECURE MOST, IF NOT ALL, OF THEIR WHEAT IMPORTS UNDER THE INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT," HOPE SAID.

"BUT THAT IS NOT ALL. AS SOON AS THESE COUNTRIES ARE ADMITTED, CANADA AND AUSTRALIA WILL DEMAND THAT 30,000,000 BUSHELS OF THE WHEAT SO IMPORTED INTO GERMANY AND JAPAN UNDER THE AGREEMENT BE ALLOTED TO THEM AS EXPORTERS.

JAN 20 1950

"THAT IS 30,000,000 BUSHELS OF THE WHEAT WHICH IN THE PAST HAS BEEN SUPPLIED BY U.S. PRODUCERS AND PAID FOR BY U.S. TAXPAYERS, AND WHICH WILL CONTINUE TO BE PAID FOR BY TAXPAYERS OF THE U.S."

HOPE ADDED THAT CANADIAN AND AUSTRALIAN GROWERS HAVE NOT BEEN ASKED TO REDUCE THEIR ACREAGE AND THAT THEY NEVER WOULD HAVE TO REDUCE IT "IF WE CONTINUE TO TURN OVER TO THEM EXPORT MARKETS WHICH RIGHTFULLY BELONG TO US."

HE SAID U.S. WHEAT EXPORTS ARE SHRINKING, SURPLUSES ARE ACCUMULATING AND FARMERS OF THIS COUNTRY ARE CUTTING THEIR WHEAT ACREAGE BY 10,000,000 ACRES.

WASHINGTON, JAN.19-(AP)-FRANK A.WARING, CHAIRMAN OF THE PHILIPPINE WAR DAMAGE COMMISSION, REPORTED TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY THAT THE COMMISSION WILL END ITS WORK SIX MONTHS EARLIER AND AT AN ADMINISTRATIVE COST OF $800,000 LESS THAN THE TIME AND MONEY LIMITS SET BY CONGRESS.

WARING AND JOHN O'DONNELL, A COMMISSIONER, SAID THEY SUBMITTED THE FOLLOWING FACTS IN A WHITE HOUSE CALL:

THE COMMISSION HAD LIQUIDATED 1,135,000(M) CLAIMS ON DEC.31,1949, AND PAID INTO THE PHILIPPINE ECONOMY A TOTAL OF $258,000,000.

ON THE CLAIMS LIQUIDATED, THE CLAIMANTS SOUGHT MORE THAN $850,000,000.

THESE CLAIMS WERE APPROVED BY THE COMMISSION FOR A TOTAL OF $394,000,000; THE AVERAGE RATE OF DISALLOWANCE HAS BEEN ABOUT 54 PERCENT.

AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS YEAR, THERE WERE STILL 115,000 CLAIMS WITH A CLAIM VALUE OF $364,000,000.

THE COMMISSIONERS SAID THEY EXPECTED TO COMPLETE THE COMMISSION'S WORK BY JUNE 30,1950 AND TO CLOSE THE AGENCY'S OFFICES BY THE END OF THIS YEAR.

THE LAW PROVIDES THAT THE COMMISSION BE TERMINATED BY JUNE 30,1951.

THE COMMISSION HAS PAID IIN FULL ALL CLAIMS UP TO $500 OR LESS, WHILE THOSE ABOUT $500 HAVE BEEN PAID $500 PLUS 30 PERCENT. WARING TOLD THE PRESIDENT THEY EXPECTED TO HAVE SUFFICIENT FUNDS TO PAY AN ADDITIONAL 15 PERCENT ON CLAIMS ABOVE $500, BRINGING THE ADDITIONAL PAYMENTS ON THE LARGER CLAIMS TO 45 PERCENT OF THE AMOUNT APPROVED ABOVE $500.

THE COMMISSION IS SEEKING AN ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATION FROM CONGRESS OF $1,800,000 FOR ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1951. THIS WOULD BRING THE TOTAL ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE OF THE COMMISSION TO $11,200,000.

WASHINGTON, JAN.19-(AP)-SENATOR BUTLER (R-NEB) TODAY CRITICIZED THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR BUYING GERMAN CHINAWARE FOR USE IN AMERICAN EMBASSIES ABROAD.

HE SAID HE UNDERSTOOD THE PURCHASES OF GERMAN CHINAWARE WERE MADE "WITHOUT EVEN GIVING AMERICAN PRODUCERS AN OPPORTUNITY TO BID FOR THE BUSINESS."

"THEY WERE NEGOTIATED SECRETLY WITH THE FAVORED REPRESENTATIVE OF A GERMAN MANUFACTURING FIRM," HE ADDED.

BUTLER SAID THE VALUE OF THE FIRST BATCH OF CHINAWARE WAS $280,000.

HE SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT EXPLAINED THE ORDERS WERE PLACED TO UTILIZE FOREIGN CREDITS AND THAT NO DOLLARS HAD BEEN EXPENDED.

BUTLER SAID REDUCTION OF IMPORT DUTIES AND DEVALUATION HAS AIDED FOREIGN PRODUCERS WHEREAS DOMESTIC PRODUCTION IS SLOWING DOWN.

"IN THE FACE OF THIS SITUATION, IT MIGHT BE EXPECTED THAT THE DOMESTIC CHINAWARE INDUSTRY COULD HOPE FOR SOME RELIEF FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT, HE SAID, ADDING:

"NO SUCH RELIEF HAS BEEN GRANTED HOWEVER. ON THE CONTRARY, THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS ADDED INSULT TO INJURY BY DECREEING THAT EVEN OUR OWN EMBASSIES ABROAD SHALL USE GERMAN CHINAWARE RATHER THAN AMERICAN CHINAWARE."

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.19-(AP)-RUSSIA IS EXPECTED TO WALK OUT OR IGNORE TWO MORE UNITED NATIONS MEETINGS TODAY IN THE CALCULATED SOVIET PROTEST AGAINST KEEPING NATIONALIST CHINA IN GOOD STANDING ON THE DIPLOMATIC FRONT.

ONE MEETING IS HERE AT U.N. HEADQUARTERS ON THE DEADLOCKED ATOMIC QUESTION. THE OTHER IS THE WINTER SESSION OF THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL CONVENING IN THE GENEVA OFFICES OF THE U.N. ON THE JERUSALEM PROBLEM.

A NATIONALIST CHINESE IS IN THE CHAIR OF THE BIG SIX ATOMIC ENERGY STUDY GROUP, SCHEDULED TO MEET BEHIND CLOSED DOORS AS USUAL AT 10:30 A.M. (EST).

THE REGULAR CHINESE MEMBER OF THE BIG SIX ATOMIC GROUP IS DR. H.R.WEI AND HE WAS SLATED TO BE CHAIRMAN. RUSSIA, CHINA, THE U.S., BRITAIN, FRANCE AND CANADA ARE MEMBERS OF THE GROUP.

TINGFU F.TSIANG, NATIONAL CHINA DELEGATION CHIEF AND JANUARY CHAIRMAN OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, HAS SAT BEFORE IN THE ATOMIC MEETINGS AND THERE IS A STRONG LIKELIHOOD THAT HE WOULD APPEAR FOR TODAY'S MEETING, POSSIBLY TO OCCUPY THE CHAIR.

IT WAS THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S REFUSAL TO THROW TSIANG OFF THE COUNCIL AT RUSSIA'S DEMAND THAT CAUSED THE SOVIET WALKOUT LAST FRIDAY, RESULTING SINCE IN A STRING OF SOVIET BLOC WALKOUTS IN EVERY U.N. MEETING WHERE A NATIONALIST CHINESE IS SEATED.

FOUR MORE DELEGATES LED BY SOVIET RUSSIA WALKED OUT OF THE U.N. ECONOMIC AND EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION YESTERDAY. THE OTHERS WERE CZECHOSLOVAKIA, POLAND, AND WHITE RUSSIA.

MK630AES

THERE WERE MORE RUSSIAN PROTESTS TODAY AGAINST THE NATIONALIST CHINESE. THE BRASS-AND-BRAID SOVIET DELEGATION TO THE MILITARY STAFF COMMITTEE MARCHED OUT OF THE COMMITTEE ROOM IN NEW YORK IN ANGRY PROTEST AGAINST THE CHINESE PRESIDING OFFICER FOR THIS MONTH. THE RUSSIANS BOYCOTTED THE FIRST MEETING OF THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL IN GENEVA DURING THE DAY. Lake Success AD lv absent.

AFTER WALKING OUT AND BOYCOTTING THE NINE U.N. ORGANS THAT HAVE MET THUS FAR THIS YEAR IN THE CONTINUING PROPAGANDA AND OUSTER CAMPAIGN AGAINST NATIONALIST CHINA, THE RUSSIANS MADE CLEAR THEY WOULD KEEP UP THE SAME TACTICS UNTIL THE NATIONALISTS ARE THROWN OUT OF THE U.N.

THE FIVE DELEGATES REMAINING IN THE ATOMIC MEETING WERE THE UNITED STATES, FRANCE, CHINA, BRITAIN AND CANADA. THEY ASKED SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE TO SEND THE RECORD OF THE MEETING TO ALL THE 59 UNITED NATIONS.

SUPPORT OF THE NATIONALIST CHINESE DELEGATE CAME ON A TECHNICALITY. MALIK PROPOSED AT THE OUTSET OF THE MEETING THAT WEI BE OUSTED AS CHAIRMAN OF TODAY'S ATOMIC SESSION AND AS DELEGATE BECAUSE, MALIK SAID, WEI REPRESENTED THE "KUOMINTANG CLIQUE" OF CHINA. HE REPEATED ARGUMENTS ALREADY MADE FAMILIAR IN HIS ATTACKS IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON THE NATIONALIST CHINESE.

GEN.A.G.L.MCNAUGHTON OF CANADA SAID THE SIX DELEGATES COULD NOT DECIDE ON THEIR MEMBERSHIP AND THE MOTION WAS OUT OF ORDER. WEI RULED IT OUT OF ORDER AND HIS RULING WAS UPHELD BY A VOTE OF 5 TO 1 (RUSSIA). MALIK THEN SAID HE COULD NOT TAKE PART ANY LONGER WITH THE "KUOMINTANG REPRESENTATIVE" PRESENT AND THAT THE SOVIET UNION WOULD NOT RECOGNIZE AS LEGAL ANY DECISION OR RECOMMENDATION MADE BY THE CONFEREES WITH THE CHINESE PRESENT. HE WAS IN THE MEETING ONE HOUR.

MALIK SAID NO ONE QUESTIONS THE RIGHT OF CHINA TO BE IN THE U.N.

NOW OR AT ANY TIME IN THE FUTURE BUT THAT WHAT WAS QUESTIONED WAS THE RIGHT OF THE "KUOMINTANG" TO BE PRESENT. HE SAID THE REAL GOVERNMENT OF CHINA IS THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT OF MAO TZE-TUNG.

THE CONFEREES ISSUED A COMMUNIQUE SAYING FORMALLY THAT "SO LONG AS THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT REFUSES TO PARTICIPATE IN THESE CONSULTATIONS, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THEM TO ACHIEVE THE PRIMARY PURPOSE OF THE MANDATE GIVEN TO THE SIX POWERS BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

"THEY WILL, OF COURSE, REMAIN IN CLOSE CONTACT WITH ONE ANOTHER AND WILL MEET AND CONSULT WITH EACH OTHER ON SUCH LIMITED OBJECTIVES AS ARE POSSIBLE OF ACHIEVEMENT IN THE CIRCUMSTANCES."

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON LAST NOV.23 INSTRUCTED THE SIX POWERS TO CONTINUE CONSULTATIONS TO SEE WHETHER THERE IS A BASIS FOR ATOMIC CONTROL AGREEMENT. THAT RESOLUTION WAS APPROVED 49 TO 5 (SLAV BLOC). THE MEETING TODAY WAS THE 14TH SECRET MEETING SINCE AUGUST AND THE SECOND SINCE THE ASSEMBLY ADJOURNED.

ANSWERING MALIK'S ATTACK, WEI SAID HE WAS THE LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE OF CHINA AND OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE WHO, HE SAID, HAD NO DESIRE TO PRODUCE THE ATOMIC BOMB BUT WERE VERY INTERESTED IN ESTABLISHING CONTROL OF THE ATOM AND IN PROFITING FROM THE PEACEFUL USE OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.19-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS BAN AGAINST TOP EMBASSY RELATIONS WITH SPAIN APPEARED DOOMED TONIGHT BY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S NEW POLICY DECLARATION.

IT STILL WAS UNCERTAIN JUST HOW AND WHEN THE ISSUE WOULD COME BEFORE THE 59-NATION GENERAL ASSEMBLY BUT DIPLOMATS HERE WERE GENERALLY AGREED THAT THE UNITED STATES SWITCH WOULD PROVIDE THE IMPETUS NECESSARY TO RESCIND THE 1946 RECOMMENDATION CALLING ON ALL COUNTRIES TO WITHDRAW THEIR TOP DIPLOMATS FROM MADRID.

IF THE ASSEMBLY IS CALLED INTO A SPECIAL SESSION THIS SPRING TO DEAL WITH THE CHINA PROBLEM OR THE JERUSALEM SITUATION, INFORMED QUARTERS SAID, THE SPANISH QUESTION WILL BE RAISED THEN. IF THERE IS NO SPECIAL SESSION THE QUESTION WILL COME UP AT THE REGULAR FALL MEETING IN SEPTEMBER.

BRAZILIAN DELEGATE JOAO CARLOS MUNIZ, ONE OF THE SPONSORS OF A 1949 PROPOSAL TO GIVE ALL NATIONS A FREE HAND TO RESTORE RELATIONS WITH GENERALISSIMO FRANCO, SAID A RESOLUTION ALONG THIS LINE WOULD BE LAID BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY AGAIN THIS YEAR. MUNIZ WOULD NOT SAY DEFINITELY WHICH COUNTRIES WOULD SPONSOR THE NEW PROPOSAL.

THE LATIN AMERICAN REPEAL RESOLUTION AT THE 1949 SPRING SESSION OF THE ASSEMBLY FAILED BY FOUR VOTES TO GET THE REQUIRED TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY. THE UNITED STATES ABSTAINED AT THAT TIME. SEVERAL OTHER COUNTRIES HAVE EITHER SWITCHED THEIR POLICIES SINCE THEN OR WILL FOLLOW THE LEAD OF THE UNITED STATES, DIPLOMATIC QUARTERS SAID.

THE MAIN OPPOSITION TO RESCINDING THE BAN CONTINUES TO COME FROM THE SOVIET BLOC COUNTRIES WHICH ORIGINALLY BROUGHT THE SPANISH CASE BEFORE THE U.N. EARLY IN 1946, WITH POLAND AS CHIEF SPONSOR. THE COMMUNIST GROUP ALSO HAD LED A SUCCESSFUL MOVE AT THE SAN FRANCISCO CHARTER CONFERENCE A YEAR EARLIER TO BAR FRANCO SPAIN FROM U.N. MEMBERSHIP.

U.S. DELEGATION SOURCES SAID THE UNITED STATES STILL SUPPORTS THIS ORIGINAL DECISION TO KEEP FRANCO OUT OF THE WORLD ORGANIZATION.

THE 1946 RESOLUTION LIMITING DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH MADRID WAS PUSHED THROUGH THE ASSEMBLY OVER THE BITTER OPPOSITION OF ARGENTINA AND SEVERAL OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES. PRESIDENT JUAN D.PERON IMMEDIATELY DEFIED THE U.N. DECISION AND SENT A NEW ARGENTINE AMBASSADOR TO FILL A VACANCY IN MADRID. OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES SOON FOLLOWED HIS LEAD AND DENOUNCED THE U.N. RESOLUTION.

LIKE THE UNITED STATES, THESE COUNTRIES CONTENDED THAT THE BAN HAD BEEN ADOPTED ORIGINALLY TO TRY TO FORCE THE RESIGNATION OF FRANCO AND HAD FAILED. FOR THIS REASON, THEY SAID, IT WAS USELESS TO CONTINUE IT.

NO REASON WAS GIVEN FOR INDEFINITE POSTPONEMENT OF THE NEXT SESSION.

IT WAS POINTED OUT, HOWEVER, THAT BOTH INDIA AND PAKISTAN NO LONGER RECOGNIZE THE GOVERNMENT OF THE COUNCIL'S JANUARY CHAIRMAN, T.F.TSIANG OF NATIONALIST CHINA.

ANOTHER FACTOR WEIGHING IN FAVOR OF POSTPONEMENT WAS INDIAN DELEGATE SIR BENEGAL RAU'S EXPRESSED DESIRE TO GO TO NEW DELHI FOR THE JAN. 26 LAUNCHING OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDIA AND INAUGURATION OF THE NEW INDIAN CONSTITUTION HE HELPED WRITE.

THE FRIDAY MEETING WAS CALLED YESTERDAY BY TSIANG TO RECEIVE THE REPORT OF CANADA'S GEN.A.G.L.MCNAUGHTON, DECEMBER PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL, WHO HAS BEEN CONFERRING WITH DELEGATES OF INDIA AND PAKISTAN ON CHANCES OF ULTIMATELY HAVING THE KASHMIRI PEOPLE VOTE UNDER U.N. PHILADELPHIA, JAN.19-(AP)-A HANDS OFF POLICY IN CHINA'S CIVIL WAR HAS BEEN URGED BY THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICE COMMITTEE.

THE FRIENDS WROTE YESTERDAY TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN COMMENDING HIM FOR HIS DECISION TO PROVIDE NO FURTHER AID TO THE NATIONALIST FORCES IN FORMOSA.

REPORTS OF ITS OWN WORKERS IN CHINA WAS THE BASIS FOR ITS VIEWS, THE QUAKER ORGANIZATION SAID.

"FURTHER INTERVENTION WILL RESULT IN THE HARDENING OF CHINESE RESENTMENT AGAINST AMERICA AND THE STRENGTHENING OF SINO-RUSSIAN TIES," THE FRIENDS WROTE PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

THE ORGANIZATION WROTE FURTHER:

"THE UNITED STATES MUST NOW WAIT IN CHINA, WHETHER WE LIKE THE TURN OF EVENTS OR NOT, UNTIL WE CAN TAKE POSITIVE ACTION OF A CONSTRUCTIVE SORT THAT WILL BE WELCOMED BY THE CHINESE.

"BY TREATING COMMUNIST CHINA AS AN ENEMY AND BY REFUSING TO RECOGNIZE HER," THE LETTER CONTINUED, "WE ARE NOT ISOLATING CHINA, WE ARE ISOLATING OURSELVES AND THROWING AWAY THE CHANCE OF INFLUENCING THE COURSE OF EVENTS IN THE ORIENT."

THE FRIENDS SUPPORTED THE PRESIDENT IN HIS VIEW THAT THE UNITED

THE QUAKERS SAID THEIR CHINA WORKERS HAVE NOTED A MARKED ENTHUSIASM FOR THE NEW REGIME AMONG THE PEOPLE; THAT THE SUCCESS OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY CANNOT BE ATTRIBUTED TO THE RUSSIANS AND THAT THE CHINESE PEOPLE HAVE TURNED AGAINST AMERICA BECAUSE OF THE LARGE SCALE AMERICAN MILITARY INTERVENTION DURING 1947 AND 1948.

ALL THREE APPEALED TO SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON FOR PERMISSION TO REMAIN IN THIS COUNTRY. SUCH ASYLUM HAS BEEN GRANTED IN PREVIOUS SIMILAR CASES.

BOTH MATEJCEK AND FRIED INDICATED THEIR MOVE WAS PROMPTED BY GROWING COMMUNIST PRESSURE TO OUST NON-PARTY MEMBERS FROM ALL CZECH DIPLOMATIC POSTS.

MATEJCEK, FOR MANY YEARS ASSOCIATED WITH THE ECONOMIC MINISTRY OF THE CZECH MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, SAID THAT "ALL OVER THE WORLD, NON-PARTY MEMBERS ARE BEING RECALLED AND REPLACED BY PARTY MEMBERS."

IN GIVING UP HIS POST, RUDZINSKI SAID IN EFFECT THAT HE WAS FORCED TO JOIN THE RUSSIAN-LED BOLT OUT OF THREE U.N. COMMITTEES.

THE SOVIET BLOC WALKOUT CAME WHEN OTHER COUNTRIES REJECTED A RUSSIAN DEMAND FOR IMMEDIATE EXPULSION OF NATIONALIST CHINA.

(PART OF POPE'S CHRISTMAS MESSAGE OF DECEMBER 23, 1949 - Received by mail January 19, 1950) SHEET 30 24 7810-1

Holy Year, year of God.

of God, Whose majesty and grandeur condemns sin;

of God, Whose goodness and mercy offers pardon and grace to anyone disposed to receive it;

of God, Who in this Holy Year wishes to come still closer to man and to remain nearer to him than ever before.

How many people look on sin as a mere "weakness," and even make of this weakness a virtue! "Indeed" wrote the pagan Sallust long ago (Catil.52) "we have lost the true meaning of words, for the giving away of another man's goods is called liberality, and audacity in doing evil passes for courage" (Equidem, nos vera vocabula rerum amisimus, quia bona aliena largiri liberalitas, malarum rerum audacia fortitude vocatur.) By artfully changing the meaning of words in the most important questions of public and private life, these people hide what conscience does not wis h to make clear; they approve what in their heart of hearts they condemn; they deny what they ought loyally to admit.

How many set up their idols in the place of God, or, while affirming their belief in God and their desire to serve Him, make for themselves an idea of Him which is the product of their own desires, of their own inclinations, of their own weaknesses! God in His immense grandeur, in His immaculate sanctity, God, Whose goodness comprehends so well the hearts that He himself has fashioned (cfr.Ps.32,15) and Whose kindness is ever ready to come to their aid, is not rightly understood by many. This explains why there are so many Christians merely through habit, so many who are listless and careless, and on the other hand so many souls that are tormented and without hope, as though Christianity were not itself the "good tidings".

False ideas of God, vain creations of minds all too human, which the Holy Year must dissipate and banish from the hearts of men!

JAN 20 1950

The spontaneous welcome with which the world greeted its announcement confirms the trust that We had placed in the Holy Year. It will not be a noisy festival, nor a pretext for pious distractions, nor yet a conceited display of Catholic strength in the sense understood by the world, which makes success to consist in the momentary plaudits of vast masses. The Holy Year must do its work more seriously and deeply in the minds of men, it must encourage and promote more widely the practice of virtue in public and private, it must be and appear more intimate and more sincerely Christian.

It must needs conform to the secret design of God, it must needs characterize itself as the year of the great return, year of great pardon in the measure at least that our present age even very recently has been an epoch of apostasy and guilt.

Beginning today, We direct to the whole world, then, Our plea that all men and each one in particular, from every land and every shore, may accomplish the desired great return with all the urgency demanded by these extraordinary times. Our invitation is meant to be above all that of a Father who loves, toils, suffers, prays and hopes for the good and happiness of his children. And all men on earth are Our children, at least by right and divine purpose (saltem jure et destinatione), even those who have abandoned Us, who have injured Us, who have made and still make Us suffer.

To you do We appeal, children, who are far away, lost, deluded, or embittered, and especially to you for whom treacherous words and perhaps a shortsighted view of reality have stifled in your hearts the affection you once had for Holy Church; do not spurn the offer of reconciliation which God Himself offers you through Us during a truly acceptable time. From this moment on, be assured that sweet are the ways that lead back to the house of the Father, and full of joy is the welcome that awaits you.

May this Holy Year mark the return to God of those souls who, for many and varied reasons, have had their minds and hearts blinded to the image and memory of their Creator, from Whom there has come their very life as well as that of all other beings, and in Whom their highest happiness rests.

Russia Accuses Acheson Of Lies About China

ATTEMPT TO PUT BLAME ON SOVIET FOR FAILURE OF U.S. POLICY CHARGED

Vishinsky Denies Kremlin Aggression In Four Northern Provinces

Moscow, Saturday, Jan. 21 (AP). Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Foreign Minister, today called "monstrous and awkward" lies statements by Dean Acheson, United States Secretary of State, that Russia is annexing four northern provinces of China.

He described Acheson's statements, made in a speech at the National Press Club in Washington January 12, as "efforts to hide behind a slanderous smokescreen and place on the U.S.S.R. responsibility for the failure of his own policies" in China.

[The State Department said in Washington there would be no immediate comment on the Russian statement.]

Foreign Newsmen Summoned

Vishinsky's denial that Russia is incorporating Manchuria, Inner and Outer Mongolia, and Sinkiang, coincided with the arrival in Moscow of Chou En-lai, Foreign Minister of the Russian-recognized Chinese People's Republic.

Chou's visit, combined with the fact that Mao Tze-tung, his Premier, has been in Moscow over a month, led some to believe that negotiations for a treaty of friendship are nearing an important climax.

The importance attached to Vishinsky's statement is indicated by the method of releasing it.

Foreign correspondents were summoned to the Kremlin at 1 A.M. (5 P.M., E.S.T.) to be handed copies of the five-page document by U. P. Frantsev, press officer.

The usual method of answering accusations by foreign statesmen is through the Government news agency Tass or the newspapers Pravda and Izvestia.

Angus Ward Cited

Vishinsky's denial of aggression was absolutely categorical. He said "that in all these declarations by Acheson there is not one word of truth."

The Foreign Minister described Outer Mongolia as an independent country for the last 30 years and the other three areas as integral parts of China. He added that the Chinese now have a Government—the Chinese People's Republic—which is capable of defending the interests of its own country, its own territory and its own people.

Soviet-Chinese relations, he said, were based on mutual friendship and respect for the independence and territorial integrity of both states.

The statement cited Angus Ward, former American consul general in Mukden, Manchuria, in support. It quoted him as telling the American press on January 14 "that while in Manchuria up to the most recent time he had not seen any signs which would indicate that the Soviet Union controlled Manchuria and that he had not noticed anything which would indicate that the Russians are trying to annex Manchuria."

Acheson Called "Annexment"

[Ward told a news conference in Washington January 14 that his close confinement in Mukden had limited his ability to offer first-hand support for Acheson's charge of Soviet annexation. He said that "certainly there is economic attachment. Whether there is political is something different."]

Vishinsky denounced American policy in China as foredoomed to failure, because, he said it supported the reactionary elements and failed to take into account the facts of the situation such as the collapse of the Chiang Kai-shek Government.

The whole idea of Acheson's speech, Vishinsky said, was "to put a good face on a bad game—the failure of American policy in Asia."

The Soviet diplomat also accused Acheson of being an "annexionist" himself. He said this was indicated by the sections of Acheson's remarks calling Japan, the Philippines and the Ryukyu Islands in the defensive line of the United States. None of these, he said, is American territory.

Russians' Statement

The statement issued to foreign correspondents said, in part:

"A declaration of the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the U.S.S.R. Andrei Vishinsky on the statement of Secretary of State Dean Acheson:

"On the twelfth of January Secretary of State of the United States Acheson made a statement in Washington in the National Press Club on the policy of the United States in Asia. In his speech there are unsuccessful attempts to justify the policy of the United States in relation to the countries of Asia, and in particular China.

"Stepping forth behind a mask of a friend to the peoples of Asia, Mr. Acheson, however, was forced to uncover his annexionist plans in relation to Japan and also the Philippines and Ryukyu (Islands), declaring these non-American territories in the defensive line of the United States which, as is well-known, is in the line of aggression.

Direct Slanders Charged

"In this, Acheson said much of his wish to give help to the peoples of Asia, clearly hinting that reactionary forces in these countries and also the colonial powers, not wishing to say goodby to the exploitation of the peoples of Asia, can count on all help from the side of Mr. Acheson.

"In this address, Acheson did not miss the opportunity to make a series of hostile attacks on the Soviet Union, not stopping before even direct slanders.

"Mr. Acheson especially dwelt on the position of the Soviet Union in relation to those parts of Asia which border on the Soviet Unin, devoting chief attention to northern China.

Called Monstrous And Awkward

"On this matter he declared:

" 'The interest of the Russians in northern China and in these other regions began long before communism. It does not at all represent something given rise by communism.

" 'But the Communist regime has added new methods, new approaches' and new conceptions assisting Russian imperialism.

" 'These Communist conceptions and methods arm Russian imperialism with a new and most-threatening weapon of penetration. In China there is taking place the following: The Soviet Union, armed with these new methods, is separating the northern regions of China from China and uniting them to the Soviet Union.' "

"This declaration of Acheson is to such a degree monstrous and awkward that we doubted its genuineness, supposing that it must have been that the press confused Mr. Acheson with some irresponsible correspondents.

A Good Face On A Bad Game

"However, verifications proved that Mr. Acheson actually made this lying and crudely slanderous declaration.

"Acheson says nothing less than that the Soviet Union is separating the northern regions of China and uniting them with the Soviet Union and that the Soviet Union is annexing four northern regions of China.

"According to Acheson, it would appear that this has already been done by the Soviet Union in relation to Outer Mongolia. He declared further that this almost has been done in relation to Manchuria. Finally, he declares that the Soviet Union is realizing also the separation from China of Inner Mongolia and Sinkiang.

"It is not difficult to see that in all these declarations by Acheson there is not one word of truth.

"Firm Basis Of Friendship"

"Acheson stated all these awkwardnesses in order to put on a good face on a bad game, to slander the foreign policy of the U.S.S.R., and by this token to place the blame on the U.S.S.R. of the failure of his own policy."

Vishinsky said Acheson had not considered "the facts which completely deny his slanders of the U.S.S.R." Chief among these he listed the existence of the Chinese people's (Communist) Government "able to defend the interests of its own country" and the fact that relations between China and the Soviet Union "are based on the firm basis of friendship and respect of independence and integrity of the territory of both states."

Mr. Acheson, however, was forced to uncover his annexionist plans in relation to Japan and also the Philippines and Ryukyu (Islands), declaring these non-American territories in the defensive line of the United States which, as is well-known, is in the line of aggression.

In this, Acheson said much of his wish to give hope to the peoples of Asia, clearly hinting that reactionary forces in these countries and also the colonial powers, not wishing to say good-bye to the exploitation of the peoples of Asia, can count on all help from the side of Mr. Acheson.

In this address, Acheson did not miss the opportunity to make a series of hostile attacks on the Soviet Union, not stopping before even direct slanders.

Mr. Acheson especially dwelt on the position of the Soviet Union in relation to those parts of Asia which border on the Soviet Union, devoting chief attention to Northern China.

Acheson Is Quoted

On this matter he declared:

"The interest of the Russians in Northern China and in these other regions began long before communism. It does not at all represent something given rise by communism.

"But the Communist regime has added new methods, new approaches and new conceptions assisting Russian imperialism.

"These Communist conceptions and methods arm Russian imperialism with a new and most threatening weapon of penetration. In China there is taking place the following: The Soviet Union, armed with these new methods, is separating the northern regions of China from China and uniting them to the Soviet Union."

This declaration of Acheson is to such a degree monstrous and awkward that we doubted its genuineness, supposing that it must have been that the press confused Mr. Acheson with some irresponsible correspondents.

However, verifications proved that Mr. Acheson actually made this lying and crudely slanderous declaration.

Acheson says nothing less than that the Soviet Union is separating the northern regions of China

Text of the Soviet Statement on Acheson

MOSCOW, Jan. 20 (AP)—Following is the text of a statement signed by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky and issued in reply to a statement last week by Secretary of State Dean Acheson on United States policy on China:

On the 12th of January Secretary of State of the United States Acheson made a statement in Washington in the National Press Club on the policy of the United States in Asia. In his speech there are unsuccessful attempts to justify the policy of the United States in relation to the countries of Asia, and in particular China.

Stepping forth behind a mask of a friend to the peoples of Asia, and uniting them with the Soviet Union and that the Soviet Union is annexing four northern regions of China.

According to Acheson, it would appear that this has already been done by the Soviet Union in relation to Outer Mongolia. He declared further that this almost has been done in relation to Manchuria. Finally, he declares that the Soviet Union is realizing also the separation from China of Inner Mongolia and Sinkiang.

Sees No Word of Truth

It is not difficult to see that in all these declarations by Acheson there is not one word of truth.

Acheson stated all these awkwardnesses in order to put on a good face on a bad game, to slander the foreign policy of the U.S.S.R., and by this token to place the blame on the U.S.S.R. of the failure of his own policy.

It is understandable that such a dubious operation could not get along without slanders against the U.S.S.R.

Stepping forth in the role of the protector of China and making a whole pile of awkward statements about the U.S.S.R. and its relations with China, Acheson apparently did not consider the fact that there exists the facts which completely deny his slanders of the U.S.S.R.

The chief of these facts is that China has its own People's Government, which is able to defend the interests of its own country, its own territory and its own people, and that relations between the peoples of the Republic of China and the Soviet Union are based on the firm basis of friendship and respect of independence and integrity of the territory of both states.

It is well known that the so-called Outer Mongolia has already existed for more than thirty years as an independent and free state—the Mongolian People's Republic—about which there was a special statement in the Yalta agreement of the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union.

Even in 1945 the Mongolian People's Republic received recognition from the then Government of China, and now there are established normal relations between the Mongolian People's Republic and the Chinese People's (Communist) Republic.

The declaration of Acheson on uniting the Mongolian People's Republic to the U.S.S.R. is surprising, not so much because of unceremonial falsity as by its illiteracy and lack of regard for the listeners in the National Press Club.

Everyone knows, and normal people cannot doubt, that Manchuria, Inner Mongolia and Sinkiang continue to remain in China and are organic parts thereof.

Nevertheless, Acheson stooped to spreading slanderous rumors on the annexation of these territories by the U.S.S.R. Then evidently he does this not from good life. The bankrupt policy of Acheson in China forces him to do this.

In any case, Acheson even now does not think up any arguments which are the least convincing in defense of the policy which he continues to carry out in China, not taking into account the full defeat of Chiang Kai-shek and the formation of the Chinese People's Republic.

In connection with the above mentioned declaration of Acheson, it is not without interest to recall the declarations of the former Consul of the United States in Mukden, Angus Ward, who recently returned to the United States and on Jan. 14 made a declaration to the press.

Angus Ward's Statement

Ward declared that while in Manchuria, up to the most recent time he had not seen any signs which would indicate that the Soviet Union controlled Manchuria and that he had not noticed anything which would indicate that the Russians are trying to annex Manchuria.

It is significant that even such a person who is as hostile against the U.S.S.R. as Ward was forced to bow his head before undeniable facts.

It is now known to the whole world that despite the American billions which were spent, the policy of Acheson failed.

This policy could not but end in failure, as it was its task to support the reactionary forces in China and an open struggle against the democratic forces in China.

Efforts to hide behind a slanderous smokescreen and place on the U.S.S.R. responsibility for the failure of his own policy does not foreshadow anything good for Mr. Acheson. Such attempts can lead only to new failures of the policy of the United States in China.

Chou In Moscow, Hails Soviet Link

London, Saturday, Jan. 21 (AP)—Chou En-lai, Chinese Communist Foreign Minister, brought a Red delegation to Moscow yesterday and told the Russians "no force in the world can prevent our two great states from advancing side by side," a Tass dispatch from Moscow said today.

Tass said Chou made his declaration on his arrival at Moscow's Yaroslavl railroad station, where he and other Chinese officials were met by Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister.

Chou was quoted as having said that Mao Tze-tung, chairman of his Government who is already in Moscow, had sent for him to take part in talks for strengthening good neighborly relations "between two great states, China and the Soviet Union."

Britain To Increase Bacon And Candy Ration

London, Jan. 20 (AP)—The Labor Government announced today a hike in Britain's bacon and candy ration starting January 29.

The increases—which come just 26 days before the general election—will raise the bacon allowance from four ounces a week to five and the candy ration from four ounces to four and a half.

Food Minister John Strachey said the bacon increase will continue until stocks are reduced to "a normal prudent level." The sweets increase is "until further notice."

Marshall Plan Lifts Production in France

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—France's industrial production, in some cases, has reached the highest level in its history, but most of it is being supported by the Marshall Plan, it was announced today.

Jean Monnet, Commissioner-General of the nation's five-year plan started in 1947, reported "our country has reached and in certain cases even surpassed its highest levels of production." But he added:

"Our production, the activity of our business and our labor, our consumption and our investments are being supported by exceptional and temporary foreign aid—the Marshall Plan."

He predicted that two-thirds and in some cases three-fourths of the goals set for 1952 will have been realized by the end of 1950 and said still more efforts must be made to increase productivity, especially in electric power, steel and the building of tractors.

Saar Restricts Propaganda

Saarbruecken, The Saar, Jan. 20 (AP)—The coal-producing Saar, attached to France in a customs union, today announced drastic measures against propaganda aimed at wooing her back to Germany.

The 50-member Parliament of this semi-autonomous state has approved bills providing stiff penalties for persons who attack the Saar Government or its constitution. The bills are expected to become law next week.

The penalties—up to one year prison terms and the equivalent of $570 fines—also apply to persons who spread rumors, stir up trouble with the Saar's neighbors or give false reports to foreign correspondents.

Political Party Curbs

The Saar was detached from Germany by the League of Nations after World War I, but voted in a plebescite to return in 1935.

The new security laws ban Nazi salutes, emblems and "militaristic" music. They provide that no new political parties or trade-unions can be formed without parliamentary approval.

The Saarbruecker Zeitung, mouthpiece of Premier Johannes Hoffman's Christian Democrat party, said in an editorial today that the "unqualified recognition of United States Secretary of State Dean Acheson of the Saar question should strip certain German circles of their last illusions."

Acheson declared United States' support for the French view that the Saar should be detached from Germany permanently. He also said the United States has no objection to the Saar taking its place as a semi-independent state on the Council of Europe.

Trade Treaty Delay

At Bonn today, a spokesman for the West German Republic said there has been further delay in signing a Franco-German trade agreement. He said this was not due, however, to the stirred-up feeling in both countries over the Saar question.

The agreement was to have been signed earlier this week, but the leader of the German delegation in Paris, Baron Vollrath von Maltzahn, suddenly returned to Bonn for additional talks with the German Government.

The spokesman said German farmers have protested over the amount of food it was proposed under the treaty to import from France.

Berlin Row Fails To Halt Trains

Berlin, Jan. 20 (AP)—A Communist threat of disrupted train schedules between Berlin and the West over the Reichsbahn building dispute failed to materialize today.

Schedules proceeded normally on all interzonal lines, German and Allied rail authorities reported.

The East German Government had warned in a news conference yesterday that these freight movements might be "affected" because the West German police had taken over the virtually empty Reichsbahn building in the United States sector.

Only Basement In Use

The Soviet zone rail system continued today to use only the basement floor of the building where a portion of its signal network is located.

In authorizing the West Berlin city government to move into the empty offices of the building, American officials had stipulated that the network rooms were not to be disturbed.

Elevated train service in Berlin was running at about half schedule this morning.

Bulgar Loses Politburo Post

Sofia, Bulgaria, Jan. 20 (AP)—A Communist shakeup has ousted Dobri Terpeshev, Labor Minister, from the Bulgarian Politburo and six men from the party's central committee, it was announced today.

The party newspaper, Robotnichesko Delo, said all were removed for "not coping with the work and for dulled vigilance."

The domestic developments came at a time of increased activity in foreign affairs. Bulgaria demanded last night that Yugoslav Ambassador Yossip Djerda and two other Belgrade diplomats leave Sofia. Yugoslav officials again were accused of plotting against this country.

[Bulgaria also demanded, in a note to Washington, the recall of the American Minister, Donald R. Heath. The United States threatened to sever diplomatic relations with Bulgaria unless the demand is withdrawn.]

Deny Hague Jurisdiction

Bulgaria also joined Communist Romania and Hungary in declaring the International Court of Justice at The Hague was not empowered to take up American and British charges that they have violated their peace treaty guarantees of fundamental human rights. The Hague court decided today to open public hearings in the case February 28.

Terpeshev has been president of the National Planning Commission, which directs Bulgaria's five-year plan. He was one of three men elected vice premiers last July in a Cabinet revision under which Vassil Kolarov succeeded the late Georgi Dimitrov as premier.

It was at this session that parliament voted to deprive Traicho Kostov, a former vice premier, of his parliamentary seat. Kostov was hanged December 16 after conviction of treason in a plot prosecutors said was aimed at overthrowing Bulgaria's Communist-led Fatherland Front Government and placing the country in the sphere of Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito.

On New Cabinet List

Only yesterday Terpeshev's name appeared in the list of a new Kolarov Cabinet approved by Parliament—shifted from the vice premiership to the Labor Ministry.

Robotnichesko Delo did not say what effect the loss of the position in the Politburo, the party's guiding agency, might have on his status as Labor Minister.

The removals were voted by the party's central committee at a meeting Monday and Tuesday. Vulko Chevrenkov, secretary of the committee reputed to be the nation's strong man, addressed the meeting. The Communist newspaper reported he spoke on basic lessons uncovered in the Kostov case and on the party's tasks and shortcomings.

The six who lost committee posts were Vulko Gochev, former Minister of Industry; Krastyo Dobrev, former Minister of Home Trade; Gocho Grozev, a secretary of the Fatherland Front's national council; Krastyo Stoychev, Ivan Bachvarov and Boris Kopchev.

Cabinet Member Loses Red Post (D)

Sofia, Bulgaria, Jan. 20 (AP)—Dobri Terpeshev, Minister of Labor in the new Cabinet and a former Vice Premier, has been dropped from the Communist party Politburo, Robotnichesko Delo, party newspaper, announced today.

The newspaper also announced that six members of the party's Central Committee had been ousted. In both cases, the newspaper said, the reason was that those dropped were "not coping with the work and . . . dulled vigilance."

Terpeshev's name appeared only yesterday in the list of new Cabinet ministers under Premier Vassil Kolarov. The newspaper did not say what effect the move would have on Terpeshev's Labor Ministry post.

Follows Kostov Execution

[A renewed purge of the Bulgarian Communist party has been expected in a general tightening up following the Titoist trial and execution of former Vice Premier Traicho Kostov.]

The ousters were voted during a full meeting of the central committee Monday and Tuesday.

The six central committee members dropped are Vulko Gochev, former Industry Minister; Krastyo Dobrev, former Home Trade Minister; Gocho Grozev, a secretary of the Fatherland Front's national council; Krastyo Stoychev, Ivan Bacharov and Boris Kopchev.

Reds Warn Of Tram Spies

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 20 (AP)—A Communist party newspaper warned factory hands today to keep their mouths shut while traveling to and from work by tram lest they give away secrets to "imperialist spies" lurking on crowded streetcars.

Warsaw Bans Slav Paper

Warsaw, Poland, Jan. 20 (AP)—The Government's censorship board today banned the circulation of the Yugoslav Communist newspaper Borba in Poland.

Hanoi Air Base Attacked

8 French Planes, Hangar Damaged by Indo-China Nationalists

HANOI, Indo-China, Jan. 20 (AP).—Nationalist forces attacked the French military air base here yesterday and damaged eight planes, a French communique said today.

Attacking in a heavy fog the Nationalists tried to mine the field, but were driven off by tanks and artillery fire.

The Nationalists used mortars in their attacks. They damaged a hangar and stocks of spare parts, as well as the planes.

CHINA REDS OPEN POLITICAL DRIVE FOR INDOCHINA

S. TOPPING

HONG KONG, Jan. 20—(AP) The Chinese communists have launched a political offensive to extend their influence over Indochina.

In a maneuver that apparently caught western diplomats flatfooted, the Chinese Reds Wednesday recognized the "Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam."

Protest Sent France

Today the Peiping radio reported that Chinese Red Premier Chou En-lai had sent a strong protest to France against atrocities allegedly committed by French troops against Chinese residents of Indochina.

The "Democratic Republic of Viet-Nam" is headed by Ho Chi-minh, Moscow-trained communist. He opposes the French-sponsored kingdom of the Emperor Bao Dai, which also is called Viet-Nam.

The rival Viet-Nams (the name means "Greater Annam") embrace Annam, Tonkin and Cochin-China. This includes nearly half of Indochina's territory and more than 20,000,000 of its 25,000,000 people. The French-controlled kingdoms of Laos and Cambodia make up the rest of the country.

Widespread Drive Seen

Some political observers in this British colony on the edge of Red China believe that Peiping has now opened an active drive to gain control of southeast Asia, with Indochina as the first stepping-stone.

"Will Peiping become to southeast Asia what Moscow is to Eastern Europe?" one observer speculated.

Peoping's sudden move in recognizing Ho Chi-minh's government, ignoring the French authority in Indochina, was coupled with Red seizure of former French army barracks in Peiping.

These events and the "atrocities" blast of today probably will long delay any French recognition of the Chinese communist regime.

CHINA BOMBS (W) JUNKS AGAIN

4 Trains Reported Shot Up By Fighter-Bombers

S. MOOSA

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 20 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist air force reported today continuing successful smashes at Communist invasion craft along the mainland coasts.

Air force headquarters said B-25 bombers sank 29 Communist junks near the Chusan Islands, 100 miles south of Shanghai, and set fire to mainland barracks. It added that P-51 fighter-bombers from the Chusan base shot up four trains between Nanking and Tientsin.

Impatience With Li

Defense headquarters disclosed that a commando-type raid on the big southern island of Hainan had been beaten off last week. It said about 100 Reds in junks were dected, one junk was sunk and the others fled back to the mainland. Stricter application of martial law and postal and telegraph censorship throughout Hainan were ordered.

In this Nationalist capital there was still talk about the possibility of American aid. A long-projected Cabinet shuffle was expected as soon as Acting President Li Tsung-jen decides what he will do next. He is now in a New York hospital for treatment of ulcers. Official quarters are becoming impatient at his silence.

Any Cabinet changes are bound to be on lines aimed at winning American approval. Many Nationalists think that, despite President Truman's hands-off policy, aid might still come if they could show they had some chances of holding Formosa.

Never Asked For Troops

In this connection, Mme. Chiang Kai-shek said today she believed the United States would give the help the Nationalists need to beat the Communists without provoking war with Russia.

Mme. Chiang, who returned from the United States one week ago, said that in that country, "it came to this—total aid or no aid. Total aid—which we never asked for—would mean war. The other forms of aid—the forms we want—would not involve war."

Li's Silence Leads To Uncertainty (D)

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 20 (AP)—Nationalist planes today sank 29 more Communist junks off the Chusan Islands, fired a Red barracks on the mainland and shot up four trains between Nanking and Tientsin, Chinese Air Force headquarters announced.

The Chusan islands, 100 miles south of Shanghai, are the object of a Communist amphibious attack forming in Hangchow harbor.

The long-projected reshuffle of the Nationalist Government is expected here after President Li Tsung-jen makes up his mind whether to return to China or resign. Li is now in a New York hospital.

Impatient Over Status

Official quarters here are becoming impatient over Li's refusal to commit himself. Unless Li resigns, no successor can be appointed nor can Chiang Kai-shek resume the presidency.

If a reshuffle occurs, it will be along lines aimed at winning American approval. Many Nationalists think that despite President Truman's hands-off policy, aid might still come if they prove they have some chance of holding this island.

Mme. Chiang Urges Aid

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 20 (AP).—Mme. Chiang Kai-shek said today the United States could "give the Chinese Nationalists the help they need without provoking war with Russia.

She declared China never asked that American troops be sent to Formosa or for any other form of intervention which might lead to war.

"We never asked for intervention," she said in an interview with foreign newspaper men. "We will do our fighting ourselves."

Mme. Chiang said the Nationalists need economic aid, planes, military equipment, fuel and other material to fight the Communists.

She observed that most people in the United States favored American aid to save Formosa. A correspondent interjected that "Mr. Acheson (Secretary of State Dean Acheson) doesn't seem to think they do."

Mme. Chiang replied: "Mr. Acheson gets his opinion from one group—I get mine from another."

Chinese Red Currency Exchange 25,000 to $1

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20 (AP).—The Chinese Communist government today fixed the exchange rate of its currency at 25,000 to $1. This compared with an official rate of 16,500 to $1 in December and 300 to $1 when the Reds took Shanghai last May.

Indicative of rapidly mounting inflation, the new rate was explained in a Peking broadcast as intended to encourage overseas Chinese to buy Red victory bonds.

The announcement gave a table of exchange rates indicating that the American dollar and the British pound sterling were considered by the Reds as the most desirable foreign currencies.

The British pound was quoted at 70,000 to 1, exactly in line with the official American-British rate of $2.80 to the pound.

The Canadian dollar was listed at 18,400 to 1, indicating the Reds regarded it as worth a little over 70 American cents, instead of the world price of 89.5 cents.

Jap Communists Yield To Cominform Policies

Tokyo, Jan. 20 (AP)—Japan's Communists today yielded to their Critics in the Cominform and Russia. TOM LAMBERT

Their Central Committee issued a statement admitting errors as charged by the Cominform Journal of Bucharest of January 7. That organ of international communism had blasted away at Red leader Sanzo Nozaka.

Nozaka likewise admitted error. He was not disciplined. A spokesman said he keeps his party membership and office. He is a member of both the powerful Japanese Politburo and the Central Committee.

Red leaders in other lands have disappeared after being charged with the deviations of which Nozaka was accused.

Cominform Charge

The Cominform charged Nozaka was "anti-democratic and anti-socialistic." It accused him of serving "the imperialist occupiers of Japan" by insisting Japan could go socialist under the occupation.

Pravda, the official Communist newspaper in Moscow, called Nozaka "anti-patriotic and anti-Japanese."

As first Nozaka and the Politburo had struck back. The party kicked out four members who sided with the Cominform. Fitsu Ito, Politburo spokesman, last week issued a statement saying the Cominform's conclusion was "unacceptable."

"Boldest Patriot"

Far from being "anti-Japanese," Nozaka was hailed by the Politburo as "the boldest patriot of the people."

GI Works Overtime To Aid War Orphans

Tokyo, Jan. 20 (AP)—As a private in the United States Army Earl S. Whitney, 21, doesn't make much money.

So it was understandable when he took a night pob in a service club to earn extra change.

His real reason for taking the extra job came to light today. Whitney, from Southern California, has been supporting two war orphans, a Chinese and a Japanese, for nearly three years.

For Fan Tung

Whitney's charity was revealed when he asked for a two-day pass from 1st Cavalry maneuvers. Questioned by Army authorities as to why he wanted the pass, Whitney said he wanted to visit the Chinese mission to straighten out some papers for his ward, Fan Tung, 13.

Then the whole story came out.

Since coming here nearly three years ago Whitney has fed, educated, maintained and clothed Fan Tung and Hirayama Tyokichi, 16. Both were orphaned by the war.

"Feel Badly"

His Army pay is $111.90 a month. He has not asked help from any other source for his philanthropy.

Asked why he spends from $75 to $100 a month of his meager pay on the orphans, Whitney replied:

"It makes me feel badly to see all the little kids hungry. I wouldn't want to see my brothers and sisters like that."

Whitney's home is in San Gabriel, Cal.

Whitney calls the Chinese Jimmy and the Japanese Mickey. Both boys lived until recently in a room attached to the Church of Christ in the Tokyo suburb of Zoshigaya, but Mickey, who teaches a Sunday school class in the church, now has quarters elsewhere.

CUTOFF OF U.S. AID BAFFLES KOREANS

W. R. MOORE (N)

SEOUL, Korea, Jan. 20—(AP) South Koreans, who consider themselves a safe bet against communism, are baffled at congressional rejection of further aid for this American-sponsored republic.

President Syngman Rhee, acknowledging surprise at yesterday's action in the House of Representatives, told a news conference he was confident that the United States "upon further and more careful reflection will not fail to grant Korea this aid."

(In Washington, however, House Democratic leaders said they had no plans to revive the $60,000,000 aid bill. They said if the Senate should enact a new measure, then the House would get another chance at it).

Cites Anti-Red Stand

Rhee in his prepared statement said his southern republic, confronting the Soviet-sponsored North Korean regime, was "the only country in Asia today which is determinedly, whole-heartedly and daily fighting off communism."

Rhee asserted, "some Asiatic nations waver; some recoil in fear; one great nation has gone down in defeat; but the Korean Republic continues to resist and fight with unflagging determination, courage and success."

Rhee said those who considered aid for Korea as "water down some rat-hole," should "remember Berlin."

(The Korean ambassador to Washington, John Myun Chang, appeared less optimistic than his chief. After conferring with Paul G. Hoffman, head of the Economic Cooperation Administration, Chang told reporters it would be "very difficult" to keep his country from falling into Red hands if U. S. aid ceased.

(Chang, too, expressed hope, however, that the program could continue in some way pending reconsideration by Congress).

Program Expires Feb. 15

The present ECA program expires Feb. 15.

Director Arthur C. Bunce issued a statement expressing hope that the American government would "discover possible new ways to provide the assistance Korea needs," despite defeat of the new aid program.

Bunce said large amounts of material were on hand or on order and due to arrive in the next few months under the old program. Also some allocated funds have not yet been expended, he said, though he gave no figures.

While recognizing the involvement of their program with American-China policy, Koreans generally said this only confused them all the more.

"Why should we be denied aid because some congressmen also think more help should be given nationalist China?" one asked.

U.S. THREATENS END OF BULGARIA TIE

Will End Recognition Unless Recall Bid Is Revoked

J. M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Jan. 20 (AP)—The United States will break diplomatic relations with Communist Bulgaria unless that Russian satellite abandons its demand for removal of the American Minister, Donald R. Heath.

The State Department so warned the Bulgarian Government today in a note which also called for better treatment of American diplomats and legation employés in Bulgaria.

There was little belief among officials that the American demands would be satisfied. The prospect today was that relations between Washington and Sofia would shortly be severed—although the next move is up to Bulgaria.

Sets Minimum Standards

The note, released by the State Department, sets a pattern for possible future dealings with other Communist regimes in eastern Europe. In effect, it puts them on notice they also face the threat of a rupture in relations unless they live up to "minimum standards" in their dealings with this country.

The Bulgarian note was delivered by the legation in Sofia to the Foreign Office there and was also handed to the ranking Bulgarian diplomat here, Dr. Peter Voutov, by Llewellyn Thompson, deputy director of the State Department's European office.

Contains No Time Limit

Diplomatic officials said the note could hardly be considered an ultimatium. For one thing it contained no time limit by which the Bulgarian Government should meet the American demands. Like an ultimatum, however, it laid down two unconditional demands and told the Bulgarian Government in no uncertain terms what would happen if they were not met.

The Bulgarian Legation here had delivered a note to the State Department yesterday requesting Heath's recall. A long series of charges had been made against him in connection with political trials held by the Communists and particularly the recent trial of Traicho Kostov, former Vice Premier.

Charges Wholly Unfounded

The reply to the recall request, which the United States made today, called the Bulgarian charges "wholly unfounded, as the Bulgarian Government itself is fully aware."

"The Bulgarian Government has over a period of two years increasingly subjected the legation to a series of indignities and restrictions which have now made it virtually impossible for the legation to perform its normal diplomatic and consular functions.

"In addition to crippling restrictions on the entry and movement of United States officials assigned to the legation, the Bulgarian Government has pursued a campaign of persecution against the legation's Bulgarian employés whose only crime has been their association with the legation.

Two Executed, Third Dies

"This campaign has resulted in the execution of two such employés, the death of a third after maltreatment by the police, and the arrest and torture of others. All of these employés were engaged only in such routine duties as is accepted as normal practice in diplomatic missions throughout the civilized world."

The United States reminded Bulgaria that since it renewed formal relations with that country in 1947 it had hoped "that minimum standards of international comity with regard to the maintenance of diplomatic intercourse would be observed."

"The Bulgarian Government has, however, fallen far below even those minimum standards in conducting its relations with the United States," the American note said.

ington on Jan. 19, 1950, requesting the recall from Bulgaria of the American Minister.

The charges on which the Bulgarian Government has based this demand are wholly unfounded, as the Bulgarian Government itself is fully aware. Moreover, the Under-Secretary of State, Mr. James E. Webb, on Dec. 12, 1949, stressed to Dr. Peter Voutov, the Bulgarian chargé d'affaires in Washington, that the United States took a very serious view of such reckless accusations against the American Minister, which caused this Government to question the Bulgarian Government's intention with respect to the maintenance of normal and friendly relations with the United States.

The Bulgarian Government has over a period of two years increasingly subjected the legation to a series of indignities and restrictions which have now made it virtually impossible for the legation to perform its normal diplomatic and consular functions.

In addition to crippling restrictions on the entry and movement of United States officials assigned to the legation, the Bulgarian Government has pursued a campaign of persecution against the legation's Bulgarian employes whose only crime has been their association with the legation. This campaign has resulted in the execution of two such employes, the death of a third after maltreatment by the police and the arrest and torture of others. All of these employes were engaged only in such routine duties as is accepted as normal practice in diplomatic missions throughout the civilized world.

The United States, in renewing formal relations with Bulgaria in 1947, pointed out that the establishment of diplomatic relations did not in itself imply approval or disapproval of the acts and policies of the Bulgarian Government. It has been the hope of the United States Government that minimum standards of international comity with regard to the maintenance of diplomatic intercourse would be observed. The Bulgarian Government has fallen far below even those minimum standards in conducting its relations with the United States.

Accordingly, unless the Bulgarian Government withdraws its note of Jan. 19 and demonstrates its willingness to observe established international standards of conduct, the United States Government must conclude that the Bulgarian Government does not desire to maintain normal relations. In these circumstances the United States Government will be obliged to withdraw the United States diplomatic mission from Bulgaria and ask for the recall of the Bulgarian diplomatic mission from the United States.

Text of U. S. Note to Bulgaria

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—Following is the text of the United States note to Bulgaria in the form in which it was ordered delivered to the Bulgarian Government by the United States legation in Sofia:

Truman Said to Favor Plan for Atlantic Union

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP).—President Truman was quoted by former Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts today as saying he "saw nothing but good" in a movement to bring Atlantic Pact nations into a closer political union.

Mr. Roberts, president of the Atlantic Union Committee, headed a delegation of forty that called on the President today. The group is pushing a resolution in Congress which proposes an exploratory conference to see what might be done about knitting Atlantic Pact countries more closely together politically as a move in the direction of world peace.

"The President said he understands the program thoroughly," Mr. Roberts told reporters, "and that he is in sympathy with every program that moves toward peace. He said his main concern is peace in the world. He said he saw nothing but good in the (Atlantic union) movement."

Warren Returns Home; Soon Goes To Pakistan

New York, Jan. 20 (AP)—Avra Warren, Minister to Finland who has been nominated by President Truman as Ambassador to Pakistan, arrived today for consultation with State Department officials before going to Karachi.

He was accompanied by his wife on the flight from Helsinki.

He said he would spend two weeks in Washington and planned to return to Finland on February 9 and leave there February 20 for Pakistan.

YUGOSLAVIA ASKS SECOND U.S. LOAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—Yugoslavia has appealed to the United States for a second American government loan, diplomatic officials disclosed today.

Yugoslav Embassy officials are reported discussing this secretly with the State Department and Export Import Bank officials.

The Yugoslavs contend a new American loan is urgently needed to counteract the effects of the Russian-led economic blockade, it was said.

State Department officials refused to discuss the Yugoslav bid on the grounds that the matter is "top secret." Despite this, it was learned that the second Yugoslav approach is for a loan of around $5,000,000 to buy raw materials for Yugoslav textile mills and other industries.

Milenko Filipovic, economic counselor in the Yugoslav embassy, is handling the negotiations for his government. He represented the Yugoslavs last September when the United States granted Marshal Tito's government a loan of $20,000,000.

The Yugoslavs are reported to have turned again to the American government, mainly because a hoped-for loan of $25,000,000 from the World Bank has been delayed longer than expected.

The $20,000,000 it obtained from the Export-Import has already been allocated. These funds will be used to buy American machinery and equipment needed to boost Yugoslav production of copper and other non-ferrous metals.

Diplomatic officials said while it is too early to predict what the United States will do, they feel confident the Export Import Bank will grant the loan.

As a matter of "cold war" policy, the United States is anxious to provide Yugoslavia with enough help to keep Tito in power as a symbol of resistance to Russian communism in Eastern Europe.

ALGER HISS JURY LOCKED UP AFTER 5 HOURS DEBATE

Will Resume Deliberations at 10 o'Clock This Morning

ACCUSED IS CALM

Jury Twice Returns to Clear Up Questions About Testimony

J. PARLATORE

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP) The Alger Hiss jury was locked up at 10:45 p.m. (EST) tonight after failing to reach an agreement.

They debated the perjury charges against the former State Department aide for five hours and seven minutes before being sent to bed.

Resume Deliberations Today

The eight women and four men will resume deliberations at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

The jury was taken to the Knickerbocker Hotel, 120 West 45th street.

They received the case at 3:10 p.m. after more than 1,000,000 words of testimony during 39 trial days.

Almost immediately, they gave evidence that this was to be no quick, easy verdict.

Twice, the jury returned to the courtroom to clear up questions about the testimony. But they gave no clue to their eventual decision.

Hiss is accused of turning over State Department secrets to a Soviet spy ring in 1938 and then lying about it under oath to a grand jury. He denied to the grand jury that he gave up the secrets. He is charged also with lying when he said he did not see Whittaker Chambers, his chief accuser, after Jan. 1, 1937.

The maximum penalty upon conviction is 10 years in prison and $4,000 in fines.

The jury kept a timetable not unlike the first one last July when Hiss first was tried for perjury.

That jury wound up deadlocked after nearly 29 hours of debate. Four members voted then to acquit Hiss and eight to convict him.

The first jury got the case at 3:20 p.m. (EST)—the second jury got it at 3:10 p.m. The first jury went to bed at 9:32 p.m.—the second a little over an hour later.

Hiss Apparently Calm

Hiss was on hand throughout the day, quiet, apparently calm and dressed in gray. The 45-year-old defendant and his wife, Priscilla, both were smiling when they left the federal building at 10:53 p.m.

Earlier, Hiss heard a thundering attack on his honesty by the government he once served, as it branded him a traitor in the closing summation.

Hiss has denied that accusation many times.

Less than two hours after the jury got the case, it sent out word that it wanted reread portions of the trial testimony. In addition, it asked for 55 of the copies that Hiss is accused of making from stolen government documents.

Faced with this delay, the court sent the jury to dinner at 5:51 p.m. They were back at 7:11 p.m.

Then, at 8:28, court stenographers began reading the testimony the jury had asked for.

This dealt almost entirely with the battered Woodstock typewriter that is a key bit of evidence in the case. The jury apparently wanted to fix in its mind the movements of the machine.

Hiss is accused by the government of using the typewriter to copy documents in 1938. He testified that he gave away the machine long before that and that it passed through many hands before it turned up at the trial.

The rereading of the testimony took 55 minutes and the jury went back to its deliberations at 9:23 p.m.

Locked Up For Night

About 10:30 p.m., a U.S. marshal was sent to ask if a verdict was in sight. Apparently, it was not. At least, the jury was ordered locked up for the night.

Federal judge Henry W. Goddard spent 33 minutes in mid-afternoon in his last, solemn charge to the jury before he gave it the case.

By the time Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy completed his final denunciation of Hiss at 1:05 p.m. (EST), there were about a million and a quarter words on the record for and against the defendant.

For two hours and 46 minutes, the towering, mustached prosecutor put the verbal lash to Hiss.

And at the end, he pointed to government documents in evidence—documents allegedly turned over by Hiss to Whittaker Chambers, former Soviet spy courier. Said Murphy:

"What do they prove? They prove treason. That is the traitor. Come back with the courage of your conviction and tell the world that our faith in the American jury system is justified."

Murphy said each document or copy of a document carried this message:

"Alger Hiss, you were the traitor. Alger Hiss your feathers are but borrowed and you cannot change those documents."

As he did in the first trial last Spring and Summer, Murphy compared Hiss to some of history's infamous traitors—Benedict Arnold, Brutus, Satan and Judge Martin T. Manton, once convicted in the same Foley Square federal courthouse of selling justice.

Hiss sat beside his wife and took most of the legal abuse with no show of emotion. Once or twice he joined the spectators in a laugh at Murphy's witticisms. Once he bowed his head and looked at the floor.

COURT ORDERS COPLON TRIAL

Judge Rules U.S. Has Evidence Other Than Wire Tapping

New York, Jan. 20 (AP)—Judith Coplon and her Russian ex-friend Valentin A. Gubitchev today lost their long-drawn-out fight to escape trial on spy conspiracy charges.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan ordered the trial to begin Tuesday. He ruled that the FBI's wire-tapping in the case was illegal, as the defense charged. But he held that the Government has other proof that legally can be used.

The ruling was the climax of six weeks of hearings in which the ex-Government girl and the Soviet engineer, who is suspended from his United Nations job, called scores of witnesses in an effort to get the charges against them dismissed.

Fight Only Beginning

Archibald Palmer, Miss Coplon's lawyer, declared that his fight was only beginning.

He issued a six-page document entitled: "My Credo," which reaffirmed his faith in Miss Coplon's innocence and declared: "I will, with God's help, and every effort at my command, prove it to the people of the United States."

Ryan, in his decision, denied a number of defense motions. The most important was a contention that the Government got all its evidence through illegal wire-tapping and that this evidence cannot be used in a Federal court.

Still Unlawful, He Says

Wire-tapping, the judge said, "remains unlawful and prohibited" even though it is authorized by the United States Attorney General.

But he added: "The Government has shown to my satisfaction that it does have independent proof of the facts obtained by telephone and microphone interception."

And he concluded: "No license or privilege to commit crime is conferred on wrongdoers by reason of the fact that the wires over which they talk are unlawfully tapped by agents."

Ryan said much of the Government's evidence rests on the testimony of William E. Foley, Miss Coplon's former boss in the foreign agents registration section of the Justice Department.

Jury To Decide

It is for a jury to decide, the judge said, whether Foley is telling the truth.

Foley testified during the hearings that he told the FBI of Miss Coplon's plans to meet Gubitchev in New York, where the two were arrested after a chase last March 4. The defense says the FBI learned of Miss Coplon's plans by tapping her phone wires.

Ryan ruled also that Harold P. Shapiro, the Justice Department lawyer with whom Miss Coplon admittedly spent two nights in hotels last January, may be called as a witness in the trial "if it is deemed necessary." Miss Coplon has denied any intimacies with Shapiro.

BRADLEY ATTENDS SECRET PARLEY ON HYDROGEN BOMB

MORGAN REYNOLDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—(AP) Gen. Omar Bradley met in secret session today with the Senate-House Atomic Energy committee to discuss one of the nation's biggest issues—the hydrogen bomb.

But after the hour and a half conference behind locked doors no further clues leaked out as to whether the United States actually is getting set to produce the weapon pictured as possibly 1,000 times more powerful than the present A-bomb.

Decision Up to Truman

It is an open secret, however, that this country is conducting experimental work on the super bomb pending a final decision by President Truman on whether to go ahead or to make another effort to gain Russia's agreement for international controls on all atomic weapons.

Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, was summoned before the joint congressional committee to outline the military aspects of the problem. He was accompanied by Robert LeBaron, head of the Atomic Energy Commission's military liaison committee.

Those who attended the meeting maintained a tight-lipped silence on the topics discussed. Senator McMahon (D-Conn), the joint committee chairman, gave reporters this one-sentence summary:

"General Bradley and Mr. LeBaron discussed with the committee some matters pertaining to our national defense in which, of course, atomic matters were discussed."

McMahon Silent

McMahon gave a curt "no comment" to a direct question as to whether the hydrogen bomb had been a topic. But there was no doubt this was the subject.

He did disclose, however, that the Bradley-LeBaron report will be the topic of many other meetings of the 18-man committee which is charged with keeping tabs on the nation's atomic program.

Aside from the highly technical and cost aspects of producing the hydrogen bomb, many lawmakers and scientists have raised the question of the moral problems involved.

While details of the super bomb construction are the most closely-guarded of secrets, experts have speculated a great deal about its awesome destructiveness.

As they visualize the H-bomb it would differ from the present atomic weapons, which utilize uranium-plutonium for their blasting power, in that it would be powered by exploding atoms of hydrogen which is the most explosive of all the elements.

Some experts say that an H-bomb could lay waste an area 40 miles in radius as compared to the two-mile circle of destruction of the Hiroshima bomb. Others say the destructive limits are considerably smaller.

But they all agree that the hydrogen bomb could bring total war to civilian populations on a far vaster scale that any previous weapon.

Heat Like Sun Needed For Hydrogen Blast

By Howard W. Blakeslee

New York, Jan. 20 (AP)—A hydrogen bomb is only a lot of hydrogen gas which explodes by the simple process of fusing hydrogen atoms together to form helium gas.

In this fusion a lot of energy is given off. The amount is seven times greater than the energy from an equal weight of the splitting atoms in A-bombs. So this hydrogen bomb rates about 1,000 times stronger than an A-bomb because of possibly less trouble in handling the mass.

To produce this explosion, you need temperatures and pressures of millions of degrees and pounds, such as exist in the sun. An A-bomb gives you both—but only momentarily.

Possibility Of Use

The question is can science use this momentary A-bomb flash to set off a hydrogen bomb?

The troubles are serious. It is true that hydrogen does just this in the sun and stars to make their heat, but the change is not directly hydrogen into helium. The hydrogen first changes carbon into nitrogen, the latter into oxygen and then down the scale to helium as the final product.

That process may take too long to furnish an explosion. It would also require many times more carbon in the bomb than hydrogen.

Might Not Explode

There's no evidence that if you started the hydrogen flash it could continue by itself long enough to explode. In fact, some scientists have held that only sustained million-degree temperatures would make it possible.

On the other hand, the prospects for success rest on a number of facts. One is that scarcely anything is yet known about the details of this process of nature.

This means possible shortcuts to be discovered. It is a fact that there are three kinds of hydrogen to play with, plain, double weight—known to the public as heavy water—and a triple-weight hydrogen, known as tritium, and with some mean radioactivity. These complicate and increase the possibilities.

A five-year chain of events leads up to the present hydrogen bomb. Soon after the war ended, Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago, said new horrors in physics laboratories might make the A-bomb obsolete in five years, but he did not explain.

In 1946, the hydrogen bomb was named by John J. McCloy, then assistant Secretary of War. He said his information came from scientists who had actually worked on the A-bomb. They told him that, working at the wartime pace, we were within two years of producing a hydrogen-helium type bomb 1,000 times more powerful. Dr. E. P. Winger, of Princeton, said the hydrogen reaction would yield seven times greater energy.

"On Drawing Boards"

Next year, Dr. W. O. Roberts, superintendent of the high-altitude observatory of Harvard and the University of Colorado, wrote that a superbomb of the hydrogen-helium type for detonation by an A-bomb was on the drawing boards.

The same year, Dr. Philip Morrison, of Cornell, one of the Los Alamos bomb scientists, was quoted that "the possibility exists" for a hydrogen-helium bomb.

No one has been definite, and the gossip has persisted quietly. A year ago, General MacArthur was reported to have mentioned a bomb 1,000 times more powerful.

10-Mile Radius

How much worse is a hydrogen bomb? At 1,000 times for powerful, its concussion won't lay everything flat for 1,000 miles but only for 10 miles. That's a radius, meaning the possibility of flattening most everything over 300 square miles.

Will there be radicactivity from this bomb? Probably, but not likely from so many different kinds of atoms. But you will have all the present A-bomb radioactivity anyhow.

Searing Heat Foreseen

One horrible possibility is in the published scientific records. It is that when a nuclear bomb gets powerful enough, the flash of searing heat will rise in direct proportion to increase in energy of the bomb. That, if it should come true, might mean searing heat reaching out hundreds of miles.

Under the atomic energy law, only the President of the United States has the right to tell you how much of the hydrogen-bomb reports are correct.

Everyone else on the inside has lips sealed by a possible death penalty. Those who talk freely are outside the know.

COMPROMISE PLAN OFFERED IN MOVE TO EXTEND DRAFT

FRANCIS J. KELLY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—(AP) Congressmen today countered the administration's request for a three-year extension of the peacetime draft law by suggesting a compromise that would permit inductions only upon the approval of congress.

Secretary of Defense Johnson seemed a little leery of that plan, put forward by Rep. Vinson (D-Ga) chairman of the House Armed Services Committee before which Johnson testified. The defense chief said he thinks the president ought to have the power to throw the draft machinery into gear upon proclamation of an emergency.

To Confer With Truman

However, he promised to discuss the matter with President Truman Monday and sound him out on a possible compromise.

It was apparent from the start of today's hearing that the committee as a whole is cool toward a flat extension of the law now due to expire next June 30. Rep. Kilday (D-Tex) told Johnson:

"I don't think you have any idea that this committee is going to approve a three-year extension of the present law."

Kilday said, however, that he is willing to renew the selective service program on a stand-by basis.

Getting specific on that thought, Chairman Vinson told Johnson:

"All you need is a selective service system in existence, with no one drafted without a joint resolution of congress."

Dubious, Johnson bounced back: "Or an emergency declared by the president."

Called Anti-Red Weapon

Presenting the administration's request in a formal statement, the defense secretary had told the committee the draft law was "one of the decisive factors in stopping the spread of communism in Europe."

He said the very existence of the law spurred voluntary enlistments. (No men have been inducted under it for the past 12 months). He said that its continuation would save precious time in the event of a military emergency, and that failure to extend the act might be misinterpreted abroad as a sign of American weakness of purpose.

Only about 30,000 men in all have been drafted since the law went on the books in the summer of 1948.

150,000 Aircraft Observers Sought

Washington, Jan. 20 (AP)—State officials and defense experts decided today to start recruiting immediately 150,000 civilian volunteers to be trained as an "aircraft observers corps" in 25 Northwestern and Atlantic Coast states.

Once trained, the air-raid warden volunteers will be placed on a "stand-by basis to be used when called," an announcement said.

The decision was reached at a two-day conference called by Louis A. Johnson, Secretary of Defense.

Under direction of the Air Defense Command of the United States Air Force, the volunteers "will be trained towards maintaining a 24-hour-per-day watch from observation posts to give warnings of impending enemy attack by air and will supplement radar warning system," the announcement said.

Lie Says Russians' Walkout Causes U.N.'s Gravest Crisis

F. CARPENTER

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 20 (AP). Trygve Lie said today the Russian walkout-strike against Nationalist China has plunged the United Nations into the gravest crisis in its five-year history. But he expressed confidence that the Russians would walk back in again some day and the United Nations would regain full prestige.

The Norwegian secretary general of the United Nations said emphatically that he does not now consider the Soviet Union out of the United Nations simply because its delegates have walked out of or boycotted nine United Nations organs.

The Russians and their satellites have quit United Nations meetings here, in New York and in Geneva because other delegates would not toss out the Nationalist Chinese. Atomic talks in the United Nations have been disrupted by the Soviet walks and other United Nations activities have slowed down.

Cablegram Read

Lie gave his views on the low state of the United Nations at his weekly press conference. Anticipating a volley of questions, he read a short statement which in effect stapped at both the East and West for squabbling over China. Then he said whatever the outcome, the United Nations members should put the work of the United Nations above all other considerations.

Next an aide read a cablegram from Chou En-lai, Premier-Foreign Minister of Red China, telling the United Nations that the Communists have appointed Chang Wen tien chairman of their delegation to the United Nations. Chou asked how long the United Nations would delay tossing out the "Kuomintang (Nationalist China) clique" here and permit Chang to take his seat as representative of the people of China.

Lie's Reply To Chou

Lie said today he would answer the communication from Red China. Tonight he released the text of his reply to Chou:

"I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your cable dated twentieth of January and to inform you that copies are being communicated to members of the United Nations, including members of the Security Council, for their information.

"In answer to your first question, I have the honor to call your attention to the fact that each organ of the United Nations is competent to act upon the credentials of members. Therefore, in reply to the second question, the representation and participation in the work of various organs is determined by decision of those organs."

Nationalist Chinese here said they did not know Chang. They said also they had no comment now on the development, which had been expected.

Lie said he had made no attempt to persuade the Russians to return.

"We have had difficult periods in the life of the United Nations before," Lie said. "We were down a year ago on the Berlin blockade, which was always very dangerous. We are a little more down this year. The shares of the United Nations are lower today than they have ever been before. But I am sure they will be restored. I am sure we will remove these difficulties and will restore the standards and give man faith in the United Nations again."

Lie has authority to intervene officially if he believes the Chinese row here is a serious threat to world peace. But he said he has not made any decision on whether to step in with suggestions to the 59 member governments.

He said he was sending to each Government a copy of the wire from Chou En-lai.

Representation For 450,000,000

In his statement, Lie said he had hoped for a quiet and orderly solution of the question of representation in the United Nations of the 450,000,000 people of China.

"The work of the United Nations—the prestige and influence of the United Nations — should not be made to suffer because of a political struggle over what Chinese Government to recognize," Lie said. "Equally, the Chinese people should not be deprived of representation in the United Nations."

Asked about representation, Lie said he considered China now is represented in the United Nations. Later a spokesman for Lie explained that Lie meant that China is represented in the United Nations and that each United Nations body decides about China's representation.

Special Session Possible

Finally Lie was asked: "Do you exclude the possibility the Russians will never return?"

"Yes," Lie said. But he said that no one here knows when they will come back.

Asked if there might be a special session of the 59-nation General Assembly on the Chinese issue, Lie said he did not exclude that possibility.

"But I don't see how a special session can settle the problem within the next fortnight or month," he said.

So far only fifteen United Nations members have recognized Red China. The opinion here is that the issue of China in the United Nations will be settled when a majority of the 59 members—or 30 United Nations countries—have broken with the Nationalists and recognized the Reds.

THE FOREIGN MINISTER DECLARED IT IS WELL KNOWN "THAT SO-CALLED OUTER MONGOLIA HAS ALREADY EXISTED FOR MORE THAN 30 YEARS AS AN INDEPENDENT AND FREE STATE--THE MONGOLIAN PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC." THE FACT THAT VISHINSKY'S STATEMENT FOLLOWED HIS MEETING WITH CHOU SUGGESTED TO OUTSIDERS IT MIGHT HAVE RESULTED FROM A . CONSULTATION BETWEEN HIM AND THE CHINESE.

THREE TRADE AND INDUSTRIAL OFFICIALS WERE AMONG THE NEW ARRIVALS. MAO HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW SINCE DEC. 16.

THE ARRIVAL OF THE NEW CHINESE DELEGATION SO LONG AFTER MAO SUGGESTED HIS NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE RUSSIANS HAVE REACHED A CLIMACTIC STAGE.

TASS SAID THOSE WHO ACCOMPANIED CHOU WERE:

CHI-CHUANG, RED CHINESE MINISTER OF TRADE; U SIU-TSIAN, HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE U.S.S.R. AND COUNTRIES OF THE PEOPLE'S DEMOCRACIES IN THE CHINESE FOREIGN MINISTRY; LI FU-CHUN, DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE NORTHEASTERN GOVERNMENT; LIUI TUNG, DEPUTY HEAD OF THE INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT OF THE NORTHEASTERN GOVERNMENT; AND CHIANG HUA-TUNG, DEPUTY HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF TRADE FOR THE NORTHEASTERN GOVERNMENT.

TASS REFERRED TO MAO AS "CHAIRMAN OF THE CENTRAL PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT" OF CHINA AND TO CHOU AS "PRIME MINISTER OF THE STATE ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL AND MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS."

CHOU WAS QUOTED AS HAVING SAID ON HIS ARRIVAL HE HAD COME TO MOSCOW ON MAO'S INSTRUCTIONS "TO TAKE PART IN TALKS FOR STRENGTHENING GOOD-NEIGHBORLY RELATIONS BETWEEN TWO GREAT STATES, CHINA AND THE SOVIET UNION."

BLACK-HAIRED, KEEN-AYED CHOU IS THE BOSS OF COMMUNIST CHINA'S FOREIGN RELATIONS. A ONETIME NATIONALIST GENERAL, HE WAS THE COMMUNIST REPRESENTATIVE DURING GENERAL GEORGE C. MARSHALL'S ATTEMPT TO MEDIATE BETWEEN THE COMMUNIST AND NATIONALIST FACTIONS IN CHINA IN 1945 AND 1946.

MARSHALL, DURING HIS MEETINGS WITH CHOU, DESCRIBED HIM AS "ONE OF THE KEENEST MINDS I HAVE EVER MET."

IT WAS NOT KNOWN HERE WHETHER CHOU WAS SUMMONED TO MOSCOW TO SHARE IN AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF A U.S.S.R.-CHINESE TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP AND MUTUAL ASSISTANCE OR TO HELP IN ITS NEGOTIATION.

BRITISH CHINA EXPERTS EXPECTED THE CONCLUSION OF SUCH AN AGREEMENT TO REPLACE ITS 1945 AGREEMENT SIGNED WITH CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT.

MAO TZE-TUNG, CHINESE COMMUNIST CHIEF, HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW IN CONNECTION WITH SUCH A NEW TREATY FOR OVER A MONTH.

MOSCOW, SATURDAY, JAN 21-(AP)-CHOU EN-LAI, CHINESE COMMUNIST FOREIGN MINISTER, ARRIVED IN MOSCOW YESTERDAY.

THIS LED OBSERVERS HERE TO BELIEVE THIS MORNING THAT CHINESE-SOVIET NEGOTIATIONS ARE NEARING AN IMPORTANT CLIMAX.

THE CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG IS ALREADY IN MOSCOW, HAVING BEEN HERE FOR SEVERAL WEEKS.

CHOU'S PRESENCE SEEMS TO INDICATE THAT MAO'S TALKS WITH THE RUSSIANS HAVE REACHED THE POINT WHERE BOTH SIDES FEEL CERTAIN THEY WILL HAVE AN AGREEMENT.

CHOU, AS MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS IN THE CHINESE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC, IS THE LOGICAL PERSON TO SIGN ANY AGREEMENT OF ALLIANCE.

LONDON, JAN. 20-(AP)-BRITAIN IS STILL HOLDING ALOOF FROM FRANCO SPAIN, A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN INDICATED TODAY.

HE COMMENTED AT A REGULAR NEWS CONFERENCE ON SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE UNITED STATES IS READY TO VOTE FOR A UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTION LEAVING MEMBER GOVERNMENTS FREE TO SEND BACK THEIR AMBASSADORS TO SPAIN.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN WAS NOT CONSULTED BY THE UNITED STATES BEFORE ACHESON'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN'S POSITION WAS GIVEN THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST MAY 16 BY DELEGATE HECTOR MCNEILL, WHO SAID THEN BRITAIN FELT A RETURN OF AMBASSADORS TO SPAIN MIGHT BE INTERPRETED AS APPROVAL OF THE FRANCO REGIME. BRITAIN THEN ABSTAINED IN THE VOTE ON WHETHER TO REPEAL THE 1946 U.N. RESOLUTION ASKING MEMBER NATIONS TO WITHDRAW THEIR AMBASSADORS.

GENERALLY, LABOR PARTY MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT HAVE OPPOSED FULL DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH SPAIN. FROM TIME TO TIME, SOME CONSERVATIVE M.P.'S HAVE URGED THAT BRITAIN RETURN ITS AMBASSADOR TO SPAIN.

ACHESON SAID THURSDAY NIGHT THE UNITED STATES WAS READY TO VOTE IN THE UNITED NATIONS TO GIVE EACH GOVERNMENT A FREE CHOICE IN EXTENDING FULL DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION TO SPAIN. THE UNITED NATIONS VOTED IN 1946 TO IMPOSE A DIPLOMATIC BOYCOTT ON THIS COUNTRY.

WITH FRANKFURT SAAR

SAARBRUECKEN, THE SAAR, JAN. 20-(AP)-THE FRENCH-SPONSORED SAAR GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED TODAY DRASTIC MEASURES AIMED AT PROTECTING THIS SEMI-AUTONOMOUS STATE FROM ANY PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN TO RETURN IT TO GERMANY.

PARLIAMENT HAS APPROVED BILLS, WHICH PROBABLY WILL BE EFFECTIVE AFTER A SECOND READING NEXT WEEK, INVOKING PENALTIES UP TO ONE-YEAR PRISON TERMS AND 200,000-FRANC ($570) FINES AGAINST PERSONS WHO ATTACK THE SAAR GOVERNMENT OR CONSTITUTION, SPREAD RUMORS, STIR UP TROUBLE WITH THE SAAR'S NEIGHBORS OR GIVE "FALSE REPORTS" TO FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS.

FRENCH SOURCES SAID THE FRENCH HIGH COMMISSIONER IN THE SAAR, GILBERT GRANDVAL, WOULD APPROVE THE MEASURES AS SOON AS THE 50-MEMBER SAAR PARLIAMENT TAKES FINAL ACTION, POSSIBLY MONDAY. PRELIMINARY PARLIAMENTARY APPROVAL WAS GIVEN YESTERDAY.

UNDER THESE LAWS NO NEW POLITICAL PARTIES OR TRADE UNIONS CAN BE FORMED WITHOUT PARLIAMENT'S APPROVAL. THE NEW LAWS ALSO BAN NAZI SALUTES OR EMBLEMS OR "MILITARISTIC" MUSIC.

THE SAARBRUECKEN ZEITUNG, NEWSPAPER WHICH REFLECTS THE VIEWS OF PREMIER JOHANNES HOFFMAN'S CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT PARTY, SAID TODAY THE "UNQUALIFIED RECOGNITION OF U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON ON THE SAAR QUESTION SHOULD STRIP CERTAIN GERMAN CIRCLES OF THEIR LAST ILLUSIONS." THIS REFERRED TO DEMANDS BY WEST GERMANS FOR RELINKING THE SAAR WITH GERMANY.

THE SAAR, IN THE FRENCH OCCUPATION ZONE, HAS BEEN ATTACHED TO FRENCH ECONOMY AND GIVEN A DEGREE OF AUTONOMY. THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT TUESDAY SAID THE UNITED STATES HAD "NO OBJECTION" TO GIVING THE SAAR A SEAT ON THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE. THIS, IN EFFECT, WOULD RECOGNIZE THE AUTONOMOUS POSITION OF THE SAAR.

DJUANDA, WHO ARRIVED HERE EARLIER TODAY BY PLANE FROM JAKARTA, SPENT HIS FEW HOURS IN HOLLAND RECEIVING DUTCH ECONOMIC OFFICIALS AND TOP REPRESENTATIVES OF OIL AND TIN COMPANIES, OF THE ROYAL DUTCH AIRLINES (KLM), AND OF SHIPPING COMPANIES.

DJUANDA SAID HE PLANNED TO STAY A FORTNIGHT IN THE UNITED STATES, FOR DISCUSSIONS IN WASHINGTON AND NEW YORK, AND THEN WOULD FLY HOME VIA HOLLAND.

AMONG OTHER TOPICS DJUANDA WILL DISCUSS IN THE UNITED STATES WILL BE INDONESIAN TIN AND U.S. PRICES PAID FOR IT. HE SAID HE THOUGHT THE TIN AGREEMENT CONCLUDED BETWEEN THE DUTCH AND AMERICAN GOVERNMENTS IN 1947 WOULD REMAIN IN FORCE FOR THE TIME BEING.

UNDER THAT AGREEMENT THE AMERICANS PURCHASE 30 TO 40 PERCENT OF THE TOTAL INDONESIAN TIN OUTPUT, HE SAID, FOR THE SMELTER AT TEXAS CITY, TEX., WITH THE REMAINDER REFINED IN A DUTCH SMELTER AT ARNHEM.

SO FAR THE NETHERLANDS, BUT NOT THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT, IS A MEMBER OF THE INTERNATIONAL TIN STUDY GROUP IN THE HAGUE. A SPOKESMAN FOR THE TIN GROUP SAID TONIGHT "WE HOPE THAT INDONESIA WILL BECOME A MEMBER OF THE STUDY GROUP, AND WILL SEND A SEPARATE INDONESIAN DELEGATION."

GERMAN

BY WES GALLAGHER

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN. 20-(AP)-TOP ALLIED OFFICIALS ARE DEEPLY CONCERNED BECAUSE THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT IS NEGLECTING THREATENING DOMESTIC PROBLEMS FOR A PREOCCUPATION WITH INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS.

LATEST THORN IN THE ALLIED FLESH IS THE BONN GOVERNMENT'S BITTER ATTACKS ON FRENCH REFUSAL TO GIVE GERMANY BACK THE SAAR VALLEY AND ITS RICH COAL MINES.

THE SAAR, WHICH THROUGH HISTORY HAS SWAPPED FROM FRENCH TO GERMAN HANDS AND BACK AGAIN, NOW HAS AN AUTONOMOUS DOMESTIC GOVERNMENT UNDER FRENCH CONTROL. THE FRENCH EARLY THIS WEEK SAID FINAL ACTION ON THE VALLEY'S STATUS WOULD NOT BE TAKEN BEFORE THE GERMAN PEACE TREATY IS WRITTEN.

AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH OFFICIALS DON'T WANT TO CRITICIZE OPENLY THE WEST GERMAN REGIME THEY HELPED CREATE. BUT PRIVATELY THEY SAY THAT THEY FEEL WEST GERMAN POLITICIANS ARE HURTING THEIR OWN CAUSE BY NOT BUCKLING DOWN TO THE PROBLEMS GNAWING AT THE AREA'S VITALS.

THEY POINT OUT THERE IS NO POSSIBILITY OF SETTLING THE SAAR PROBLEM NOW. THE ALLIES HAVE AGREED THAT ANY CHANGE IN THE VALLEY'S STATUS MUST AWAIT THE PEACE TREATY.

THE SAAR DISPUTE IS NOT THE FIRST INSTANCE OF WHAT THE ALLIES CONSIDER UNDUE ATTENTION TO INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS. BEFORE THIS AROSE, THE ADENAUER GOVERNMENT'S MAIN EFFORTS WERE DIRECTED TOWARD HALTING FACTORY DISMANTLING AND INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THE RUHR VALLEY'S IMPORTANT INDUSTRIAL INSTALLATIONS.

NOT ONLY THE GOVERNMENT, BUT OPPOSITION PARTIES AS WELL HAVE JOINED IN THESE ATTACKS. THEY MAKE POPULAR READING IN THE GERMAN PRESS AND DRAW ATTENTION AWAY FROM PRESSING DOMESTIC TROUBLES, OCCUPATION OFFICIALS SAY.

THEY EXPLAIN THAT THE WHOLE GOVERNMENT STRUCTURE COULD BE BROUGHT CRASHING DOWN BY FAILURE TO SOLVE THE MOUNTING UNEMPLOYMENT, THE BIG TRADE DEFICIT AND THE PROBLEM OF THE MILLIONS OF REFUGEES POURING FROM THE EAST INTO TIGHTLY-PACKED WESTERN GERMANY.

SETTLEMENT OF THE SAAR PROBLEM, SAY THESE OFFICIALS, WILL SOLVE NONE OF THESE DOMESTIC TROUBLES NOR HAVE ANY DECISIVE EFFECT ON GERMANY'S IMMEDIATE FUTURE.

A24

ANY POLITICAL PARTY TACKLING THESE DOMESTIC PROBLEMS ADMITTEDLY RISKS ITS LIFE. IF A PARTY HAMMERS AWAY AT POPULAR INTERNATIONAL CAUSES, IT CAN LOSE NOTHING IN POPULARITY.

UNDER THE OCCUPATION, WEST GERMANY DOES NOT HAVE A FOREIGN OFFICE OR DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS. BUT THIS HAS NOT STOPPED THE BONN GOVERNMENT FROM PLUNGING INTO THE INTERNATIONAL SCENE.

IN THIS CONNECTION, OFFICIALS POINT OUT THAT THE OCCUPATION STATUTE UNDER WHICH THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT DERIVES ITS POWER IS SUPPOSED TO COME UP FOR REVISION AT THE END OF THIS YEAR.

THE WESTERN ALLIES ARE LIKELY TO CONSIDER WHAT THE NEW BONN GOVERNMENT HAS ACCOMPLISHED WHEN JUDGING WHETHER TO GRANT THAT GOVERNMENT FURTHER POWERS.

"ANTAGONIZING THE FRENCH IS NOT THE BEST WAY TO GET INCREASED POWERS," ONE ALLIED OFFICIAL ALSO POINTED OUT.

BUT MANY GERMANS POINT OUT THAT, LIKE A BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM, WEST GERMANY IS UNITED WITH THE WESTERN ALLIES FOR BETTER OR FOR WORSE, FOR RICHER OR POORER, IN SICKNESS AND IN HEALTH.

AS THESE GERMANS SEE THE SITUATION, THE WEST CREATED THE GOVERNMENT AS A BULWARK AGAINST THE EAST AND TO END MOUNTING CHAOS IN WEST GERMANY. THERE IS NOTHING THAT CAN BE PUT IN ITS PLACE. BY BEING INTERNATIONALLY AGGRESSIVE, THE BONN GOVERNMENT HAS NOTHING TO LOSE

AND SOMETHING TO GAIN.
THIS MENTION OF THE EAST BRINGS A CAUTION FROM WESTERN ALLIED OFFICIALS. THE MANEUVERS OVER THE SAAR AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL QUESTIONS, THEY POINT OUT, ALL ARE PROVIDING GRIST FOR THE SOVIET PROPAGANDA MILL AND DIVERTING ATTENTION FROM RUSSIA'S ARBITRARY FIXING OF EAST GERMANY'S BORDERS TO GIVE POLAND A LARGE SLICE OF WHAT ONCE WAS GERMAN TERRITORY.

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, JAN.20-(AP)-THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE TODAY SET FEB.28 FOR HEARING ON CHARGES THAT THREE BALKAN COMMUNIST COUNTRIES VIOLATED THEIR PEACE TREATY GUARANTEES OF HUMAN RIGHTS.
THE ACCUSED NATIONS, BULGARIA, HUNGARY AND ROMANIA, HAVE NOTIFIED THE COURT THEY DO NOT ACCEPT ITS JURISDICTION. THEY ARE EXPECTED TO IGNORE ITS FINDINGS.
THE CHARGES, MADE BY THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN, GREW OUT OF PURGES OF POLITICAL OPPONENTS AND THE PROSECUTION OF PROTESTANT AND ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCHMEN ON TREASON CHARGES IN THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED COUNTRIES.
THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST OCTOBER ASKED THE INTERNATIONAL COURT TO HAND DOWN AN ADVISORY OPINION ON THE CHARGES.
THE COURTS REGISTRY ANNOUNCED THE FOLLOWING GOVERNMENTS HAVE SUBMITTED WRITTEN STATEMENTS ON THE QUESTION: THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, AUSTRALIA, THE SOVIET UNION, UKRAINE, WHITE RUSSIA, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, BULGARIA, HUNGARY, ROMANIA.
BULGARIA SENT THE COURT A LETTER, SIGNED BY FOREIGN MINISTER VLADIMIR POPTOMOV, WHICH SAID THAT BULGARIA WAS NOT A MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND "HAS NOT ACCEPTED AND DOES NOT ACCEPT THE JURSIDICTION" OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT. SIMILAR LETTERS WERE SENT THE COURT BY ROMANIA AND HUNGARY.
DR.EDVARD HAMBRO, REGISTRAR, SAID IF THE COURT DECIDES IT HAS JURISDICTION THE CASE WILL GO ON, EVEN IF CERTAIN STATES REFUSE TO APPEAR.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN. 20-(AP)-GEORGE V.ALLEN, THE NEW U.S. AMBASSADOR TO YUGOSLAVIA, ARRIVED TODAY IN THE MIDST OF TWO STORMS--ONE METEOROLOGICAL AND ONE POLITICAL.

HIS PLANE HOVERED OVER THE BELGRADE AIRPORT FOR AN HOUR IN A DRIVING SNOWSTORM BEFORE IT WAS ABLE TO LAND. WHEN HE STEPPED FROM THE EMBASSY PLANE, ALLEN TOLD NEWSMEN HE WANTED TO SEE PREMIER-MARSHAL TITO "JUST AS SOON AS I CAN."

HIS ARRIVAL COINCIDED WITH A NEW STORM IN THE RELATIONS BETWEEN TITO'S INDEPENDENCE-MINED COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT AND THE MOSCOW-DOMINATED COMINFORM COUNTRIES. THE LATEST EUROPTION WAS IN THE FORM OF A DEMAND BY BULGARIA FOR THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE YUGOSLAV AMBASSADOR IN SOFIA.

INFORMATION MINISTER VLADIMIR DEDIJER TOLD REPORTERS THE BULGARIAN NOTE WAS DESIGNED MOSTLY FOR INTERNAL CONSUMPTION "BECAUSE THE INTERNAL SITUATION IS WORSE THAN EVER, BOTH ECONOMICALLY AND POLITICALLY, AS A RESULT OF THE ARRESTS OF INNOCENT COMMUNISTS FIGHTING FOR JUST AND EQUAL RELATIONS AMONG THE COMMUNIST STATES."

THE NOTE, HE SAID, WAS A RUDE ATTEMPT BY BULGARIA TO "CLOAK ITS DIFFICULTIES, AN EFFORT TO USE ALL OF ITS FALSIFICATIONS IN INTERNAL AFFAIRS FOR INCLUSION IN AN INTERNATIONAL DOCUMENT."

(IN LINE WITH THIS, SOFIA DISPATCHES INDICATED A NEW PURGE ABOUT TO START IN BULGARIA. DOBRO TERPESEV, FORMER VICE PREMIER OF BULGARIA, HAS BEEN DROPPED FROM ITS POLITBURO AND SIX MEMBERS OF THE BULGAR COMMUNISTS' CENTRAL COMMITTEE HAVE BEEN OUSTED.)

DEDIJER LIKEWISE SAID THE ROMANIAN ACTION BREAKING ITS RAILROAD AGREEMENT WITH YUGOSLAVIA IS PROMPTED BY A BAD INTERNAL SITUATION.

ALLEN FLEW IN FROM TRIESTE WITH HIS WIFE AND YOUNG SON, TO TAKE OVER THE JOB VACATED BY CAVENDISH CANNON, BALKANS EXPERT. THE NEW ENVOY SAID HE LOOKED FORWARD WITH "GREATEST PLEASURE AND INTEREST" TO THIS ASSIGNMENT, FOR WHICH HE RELINQUISHED HIS POST AS ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE IN CHARGE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS. HE WOULD NOT SAY WHETHER HE HAD ANY SPECIAL MESSAGE FOR TITO FROM THE WHITE HOUSE OR STATE DEPARTMENT.

HE WAS WELCOMED AT THE AIRPORT BY SLOVEN SMODLAKE, CHIEF OF THE YUGOSLAV FOREIGN OFFICE'S PROTOCOL DIVISION, MEMBERS OF THE U.S. EMBASSY STAFF, INCLUDING COUNSELLOR ROBERT REAMS, AND SIR CHARLES PEAKE, THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR. FEW KOREANS WERE FAMILIAR ENOUGH WITH AMERICAN POLITICS TO FIGURE OUT AN ANSWER. add - Seoul (night) xxx one asked.

SOME KOREANS THOUGHT THEY LOST OUT BECAUSE AMERICANS ASSUMED THAT KOREA MUST FALL TO THE REDS SINCE CHINA HAD FALLEN. OPPOSING SUCH AN IDEA, THEY TOOK THE ATTITUDE THAT COMMUNISM ALREADY HAD BEEN DEFEATED IN SOUTH KOREA.

KOREAN ARMY OFFICERS AND AMERICAN ADVISERS ALIKE DECLARED THE SOUTH KOREAN ARMY THAT STOPPED THE REDS AT THE 38TH PARALLEL WAS QUITE DIFFERENT FROM THE VAST CHINESE NATIONALIST ARMIES THAT COLLAPSED UNDER COMMUNIST ATTACK.

ONE AMERICAN OFFICER, WHO HAS SEEN BOTH THE SOUTH KOREAN AND CHINESE NATIONALIST ARMIES, DECLARED, "THE KOREANS ARE 1,000 PER CENT BETTER."

ANOTHER SAID SIMPLY, "THERE'S NO COMPARISON."

RAPID EXPANSION OF THE SOUTHERN ARMY HAS PREVENTED INTENSIVE TRAINING FOR COMMANDERS OF LARGER UNITS, BUT COMPANY AND BATTALION-LEVEL TRAINING HAS BEEN COMPLETED.

KOREAN OFFICERS, PROUD OF THEIR ARMY AND OF THEIR FIERCE NATIONAL SPIRIT, THINK THEY ARE GOOD RISKS FOR FURTHER ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID.

A new constitution was promulgated without fanfare making persons, this country of 207,000/masters of their own internal affairs.

Surinam's first premier, Dr. Julius Daniranda said: "the new constitution puts an end to colonialism".

In a radio address he outlined the wider plan to incorporate surinam with the netherlands antilles --a necklace of former dutch colonial islands in the caribbean-- making a federal union. This new state, expected to come into existence next may would become an independent partner of the netherlands under the Dutch Crown. It would resemble that of the netherlands and the recently formed United States of Indonesia. Surinam's constitution which went into effect today the netherlands government still administers foreign affairs and military defense.

The dutch governor, dr. William Boender, is now a crown representative. the cabinet is responsible to a 21-man legislative council chosen in general elections last may.

The netherlands government announced in february ~~this~~ last year the plan for greater freedom for their west indian possessions. It was planned to grant sovereignty to the Caribbean state at about the same time the free united states of indonesia came into being last december.

However developments were blocked by a disagreement of political parties in the netherlands antilles. These half dozen islan to the north have an area of 403 square miles and a population of 148,530.

IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WILL BE OBLIGED TO WITHDRAW THE UNITED STATES DIPLOMATIC MISSION FROM BULGARIA AND ASK FOR THE RECALL OF THE BULGARIAN DIPLOMATIC MISSION FROM THE UNITED STATES."

THE THREAT TO BREAK OFF RELATIONS MARKS A GREAT STIFFENING IN AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD THE SATELLITE COUNTRIES IN COMPARISON WITH THE POLICY WHICH PREVAILED A YEAR AGO WHEN, FOLLOWING THE FAMOUS TRIAL OF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY, THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT DEMANDED THE RECALL OF AMERICAN MINISTER SELDEN CHAPIN. SECOND NIGHT LEAD KOREAN (270)

WASHINGTON, JAN 20-(AP)-AN OFFICIAL ERROR IN TALLYING THE VOTE ON THE KOREAN AID BILL WAS TURNED UP TONIGHT.

THE ERROR CHANGES THE VOTE MARGIN BUT NOT THE OUTCOME. THE HOUSE YESTERDAY REJECTED THE ADMINISTRATION REQUEST FOR AN ADDITIONAL $60,000,000 TO HELP THE LITTLE FAR EASTERN REPUBLIC.

ACCORDING TO THE HOUSE TELLERS AND THE OFFICIAL CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, THE ROLL CALL VOTE WAS 191 FOR THE BILL TO 193 AGAINST.

BUT A CHECK SHOWED THAT REP. LEMKE (R-ND) WAS LISTED AS VOTING AGAINST THE MEASURE AND ALSO LISTED AS PAIRED FOR IT.

AS A MATTER OF FACT, LEMKE SAID HE WAS NOT PRESENT WHEN THE FINAL VOTE WAS TALLIED, ALTHOUGH HE WAS PAIRED FOR THE BILL.

REACHED IN DEVILS LAKE, N.D., TONIGHT, LEMKE NOTED THAT THE CORRECT VOTE SHOULD BE 192 AGAINST TO 191 FOR.

LEMKE SAID THE OUTCOME WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN CHANGED IF HE HAD BEEN PRESENT AND VOTED FOR THE BILL. IN THAT CASE, HE EXPLAINED, THE MAN WITH WHOM HE WAS PAIRED WOULD HAVE BEEN ON HAND TO VOTE AGAINST IT.

(WHEN A MEMBER CAN'T BE PRESENT FOR A VOTE, HE SOMETIMES ARRANGES WITH A MEMBER ON THE OPPOSITE SIDE OF THE QUESTION TO ABSTAIN FROM VOTING. SUCH "PAIRS" DO NOT COUNT IN THE VOTE TALLY NOR AFFECT THE OUTCOME, ALTHOUGH THEY ARE LISTED IN THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD).

THE RECORD SHOWS THAT WHETHER LEMKE VOTED OR NOT, HE WAS ACTUALLY IN FAVOR OF THE BILL. IN THE DEBATE HE MADE AN IMPASSIONED PLEA FOR THE MEASURE, DESIGNED TO BOLSTER THE ECONOMY OF THE SOUTH KOREAN STATE AGAINST COMMUNIST PRESSURE.

DURING THE SESSION, LEMKE RECEIVED NEWS OF ILLNESS IN HIS FAMILY AND LEFT FOR DEVILS LAKE.

WHETHER THIS TANGLE WILL GIVE THE ADMINISTRATION FORCES ANOTHER CHANCE TO ALTER THE HOUSE DECISION COULD NOT BE IMMEDIATELY CLARIFIED. UNDER HOUSE RULES, ANY CHANGES IN THE VOTE RECORD MUST BE MADE THE FOLLOWING DAY.

BUT IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT THE HOUSE ACTION WAS WIDELY INTERPRETED AS A REBUKE TO THE ADMINISTRATION BECAUSE OF ITS FOREIGN POLICY STAND IN THE FAR EAST, IT APPEARED POSSIBLE THAT DEMOCRATIC LEADERS WOULD SEIZE UPON THE MIXUP AND ATTEMPT TO REVIVE THE MEASURE.

PARLIAMENTARIANS SAID THEY COULD REMEMBER NO EXACT PRECEDENT FOR THE SITUATION. THEY INDICATED THAT IT IS UP TO THE HOUSE ITSELF TO DETERMINE WHAT, IF ANYTHING, IS DONE ABOUT IT.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT INSISTED THAT THERE WERE NO "MILITARY CONNOTATIONS" IN SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S ANNOUNCEMENT YESTERDAY THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD SUPPORT A MOVE IN THE U.N. TO END THE DIPLOMATIC BOYCOTT OF SPAIN.

COMMENTING ON AN ASSOCIATED PRESS STORY WHICH SAID THAT THE POLICY SHIFT "APPARENTLY HAD MILITARY STRATEGY AS A MAJOR REASON," MICHAEL J. MC DERMOTT, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER, SAID:

"THIS IS AN INTERPRETATION WHICH HAS NO FOUNDATION WHATSOEVER."

HOWEVER, MILITARY STRATEGY DID FIGURE IN THE GOVERNMENT DECISION. MILITARY LEADERS AND SOME CONGRESS MEMBERS HAVE LONG CONTENDED THAT SPAIN OCCUPIES A STRATEGIC POSITION ON THE ATLANTIC PACT AREA.

ACHESON IN HIS PRONOUNCEMENT SUGGESTED STEPS TOWARD DEMOCRACY IN SPAIN, WITH THE AIM OF RESTORING THE COUNTRY TO FULL PARTICIPATION IN THE COMMUNITY OF WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS. THUS THE POLICY HE OUTLINE COULD LEAD EVENTUALLY TO SPANISH PARTICIPATION IN THE MILITARY, AS WELL AS POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC, SYSTEMS OF WESTERN EUROPE--IF THE OTHE EUROPEAN NATIONS AGREE.

WASHINGTON,JAN 20-(AP)-ONLY A TINY FRACTION OF THE HOMELESS EUROPEANS ADMITTED TO THE UNITED STATES COULD BE CLASSED AS UNDESIRABLE, A HOUSE JUDICIARY SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTED TODAY.

IT SAID FURTHERMORE THAN "NO DANGEROUS OR DISTURBING ELEMENTS HAVE BEEN INJECTED INTO OUR BODY POLITIC" THROUGH THE ENTRY TO DATE OF OVER 120,000 PEOPLE UNDER THE DISPLACED PERSONS ACT.

"THE NUMBER OF QUESTIONABLE IMMIGRANTS AMOUNTS TO ONE-TWENTIETH OF ONE PER CENT, OR ONE POSSIBLE MISCREANT OUT OF 2,000 PERSONS," THE HOUSE GROUP SAID.

IT SAID ITS FINDINGS WERE BASED ON FBI INVESTIGATIONS IN THIS COUNTRY AND ON PERSONAL OBSERVATIONS OF COMMITTEE MEMBERS WHO VISITED EUROPE LAST YEAR TO CHECK ON OPERATIONS OF THE 1948 LAW.

UNDER THAT ACT 205,000 DPS ARE TO BE SETTLED IN THIS COUNTRY BEFORE NEXT JULY 1. THE ADMINISTRATION IS SEEKING TO HAVE THE TOTAL BOOSTED TO 339,000 AND THE PERIOD OF ADMITTANCE EXTENDED UNTIL JULY, 1951.

WASHINGTON,JAN 20-(AP)-AMERICAN OFFICIALS EXPRESSED HOPE TODAY THAT WESTERN EUROPE WILL AGREE TO SWEEPING CHANGES IN THE OVERSEAS ORGANIZATION WHICH ADMINISTERS THE MARSHALL PLAN.

RENEWED OPTIMISM CONCERNING THE PROPOSAL CAME IN THE WAKE OF HIGH-LEVEL MEETINGS BETWEEN PAUL HENRI SPAAK, FORMER BELGIAN PREMIER, AND OFFICIALS OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION AND STATE DEPARTMENT.

UNDER AMERICAN-BACKED PLANS TO REVAMP THE FOREIGN SETUP OF THE MARSHALL PLAN, SPAAK WOULD BECOME CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC).

THE OEEC ALSO WOULD BE GIVEN VASTLY EXPANDED POWERS TO FORM AND DIRECT EUROPEAN RECOVERY POLICIES AND SUPERVISE THE MULTI-BILLION SPENDING OF AMERICAN AID.

SPAAK CONFERRED AT LENGTH YESTERDAY WITH ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON.

AUTHORITIES WHO ASKED NOT TO BE IDENTIFIED BY NAME SAID THE DISCUSSIONS DEALT WITH THE OPPOSITION OF SOME COUNTRIES TO THE PROPOSED OEEC CHANGES, THE OVER-ALL PICTURE OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY ALSO WAS TOUCHED ON, IT WAS REPORTED.

JAN 21 1950

THE UNITED STATES FEELS, THESE OFFICIALS SAID, THAT OEEC MUST BE DEALT A MORE POWERFUL HAND IN SETTING EUROPEAN ECONOMIC PATTERNS IF RECOVERY IS TO BE ACHIEVED BY JUNE, 1952 WHEN THE MARSHALL PLAN ENDS.

THE 16-NATION ORGANIZATION NOW SERVES LARGELY AS AN ADVISORY GROUP WITH AUTHORITY ONLY TO RECOMMEND ACTION DESIGNED TO HELP RECOVERY.

"WE ARE INCREASINGLY HOPEFUL THAT THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES WILL SEE THIS OUR WAY," ONE FOREIGN AID OFFICIAL TOLD A REPORTER.

HE SAID THE PRIME GOALS OF A STRENGTHENED OEEC WOULD BE ABOLITION OF EUROPEAN TRADE BARRIERS AND UNIFICATION OF WESTERN EUROPE'S ECONOMY. THIS WOULD FOLLOW THE COURSE CONSIDERED ALMOST A "MUST" BY HOFFMAN IF THE CONTINENT IS TO REACH FINANCIAL STABILITY.

SPAAK'S APPOINTMENT AS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE MARSHALL PLAN GROUP ALSO WOULD HAVE TO BE MADE BY THE EUROPEANS. HOWEVER, PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE ASKED THE BELGIAN TO TAKE THE POST IF AND WHEN IT IS OFFERED.

OPPONENTS OF THE PLAN TO BOLSTER OEEC REPORTEDLY OBJECT LARGELY ON GROUNDS THAT A MORE POWERFUL ORGANIZATION WOULD INFRINGE ON THE RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUAL COUNTRIES. ONE SOURCE SAID GREAT BRITAIN AND THE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES HAVE VOICED OBJECTIONS IN AN INFORMAL MANNER.

MALONE SAID THAT IF OUTSIDE AID WERE CUT OFF "THE NATIONALISTS OF EASTERN EUROPE AND THE NATIONALISTS OF CHINA AND ASIA WOULD BECOME RESTLESS AND START PUSHING THE COMMUNISTS BACK."

WITHIN 12 TO 18 MONTHS, HE PREDICTED, "MANY OF THE NATIONALISTS IN THESE AREAS WOULD HAVE REGAINED THEIR OWN TERRITORY WITH OUR FRIENDLY COOPERATION."

RUSSIAN SHIPBUILDING

WASHINGTON,JAN 30-(AP)-RECENT REPORTS FROM BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN LED AMERICAN OFFICIALS TO SUGGEST TODAY THAT RUSSIA IS PUTTING ON PRESSURE IN A DRIVE TO BOOST HER SEAPOWER.

AS THE LATEST MOVES IN THIS DIRECTION, THEY NOTED TWO ANNOUNCEMENTS MADE IN MOSCOW LAST WEEK:

(1)--V.A.MALISHEV, A DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE SOVIET COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, WAS NAMED MINISTER OF SHIPBUILDING.

(2)--IVAN ISIDOROVICH NOSENKO, MINISTER OF TRANSPORT MACHINERY, BECAME MALISHEV'S DEPUTY.

JAN 31 1950

MALISHEV IS AN ENGINEER WITH A REPUTATION FOR GETTING THINGS DONE. DURING THE WAR HE WAS CREDITED WITH APPLYING THE PUSH BEHIND HIS COUNTRY'S WAR MATERIAL PRODUCTION.

MORE RECENTLY HE HAS SERVED AS MINISTER OF TRANSPORT ENGINEERING AND HEAVY MACHINE BUILDING.

IN ANNOUNCING MALISHEV'S APPOINTMENT, MOSCOW MADE NO MENTION OF WHAT WAS EXPECTED OF HIM IN HIS NEW POST. IN THE PAST THE SHIPBUILDING MINISTRY HAS BEEN CONCERNED ONLY WITH CIVILIAN SHIPPING.

NOSENKO, WHO MADE A RECORD AS HEAD OF THE TRANSPORT MINISTRY, IS AN ADMIRAL. AND MALISHEV HAS A STRONG MILITARY BACKGROUND. HE HELD THE WARTIME RANK OF COLONEL GENERAL IN THE TANK CORPS AND HAS BEEN AWARDED THE ORDER OF LENIN AND THE HERO OF SOCIALIST LABOR.

THESE FACTS, COUPLED WITH RECENT REPORTS OF SEVERAL NEW NAVAL CONSTRUCTION JOBS, LED TO SPECULATION BOTH HERE AND ABROAD THAT SUBSTANTIAL PROGRESS MAY BE EXPECTED IN THE BUILDING OF BOTH A NAVAL AND MERCHANT FLEET.

THE AUTHORITATIVE BRITISH MANUAL, JANE'S FIGHTING SHIPS, REPORTED LAST MONTH THAT RUSSIA WAS BUILDING THREE 35,000 TON BATTLESHIPS EQUIPPED TO FIRE RADIO-CONTROLLED AERIAL TORPEDOS.

JANE'S ALSO SAID THE SOVIET UNION WAS BUILDING A FLEET OF 1,000 SUBMARINES.

B12WX (SECG)

OFFICIALS CONCERNED WITH INTERPRETING THE ANNOUNCEMENTS MADE BY MOSCOW NOTED THAT THE MACHINE INDUSTRY RECENTLY WAS PRAISED FOR ITS PRODUCTION RECORD IN THE THIRD QUARTER OF LAST YEAR WHILE NOTHING WAS SAID OF SHIPBUILDING. SOME THUS BELIEVE THE SHIFT REPRESENTED AN EFFORT TO SPUR A LAGGING AGENCY.

SOVIET RUSSIA HAS SHIPBUILDING CENTERS AT LENINGRAD, ODESSA AND VLADIVOSTOK, AMONG OTHER PORTS, BUT OFFICIALS SAID THE SOVIET REGIME IN THE PAST, HAS FAVORED THE CONSTRUCTION AND IMPROVEMENT OF RAILWAYS OVER THE DEVELOPMENT OF SHIPPING AND WATERWAYS.

(430) DENFELD

BY EDWIN B.HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON,JAN.20-(AP)-SENATORS INVOLVED IN A BITTER NEW ROW OVER THE OUSTER OF ADM.LOUIS E.DENFELD WERE INVITED TO THE PENTAGON TODAY BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON.

MEMBERS OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE SAID THEY HOPED TO BRING FROM THEIR LUNCHEON MEETING WITH JOHNSON NEW FACTS ON DENFELD'S REMOVAL LAST FALL AS CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS.

SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) WHO SET OFF THE LATEST FLAREUP WITH A SHARP ATTACK ON SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE. THE GROUP DOES INCLUDE SEVERAL REPUBLICANS WHO ARE STRONGLY SUPPORTING MCCARTHY'S ONSLAUGHT AGAINST DEFENSE DEPARTMENT POLICIES.

DENFELD BROUGHT HIS 40-YEAR NAVAL CAREER TOWARD A CLOSE YESTERDAY BY ANNOUNCING IN BOSTON THAT HE HAS APPLIED FOR RETIREMENT RATHER THAN ACCEPT A LESSER POST IN THE SERVICE. DENFELD WAS LET OUT AFTER HE AND OTHER NAVAL OFFICERS PUBLICLY CRITICIZED THE TREATMENT GIVEN THE NAVY BY DEFENSE CHIEFS.

THERE WAS SOME TALK IN THE SENATE THAT RETIREMENT MIGHT LEAVE DENFELD FREE TO OFFER HIS OWN STORY OF THE EVENTS LEADING UP TO HIS DISMISSAL AS TOP NAVY OFFICER.

IT WAS MATTHEW'S VERSION OF THAT BACKGROUND WHICH BROUGHT ON MCCARTHY'S VIGOROUS CRITICISM.

THE NAVY'S CIVILIAN HEAD, TESTIFYING IN SUPPORT OF THE SELECTION OF ADM.FORREST P.SHERMAN TO SUCCEED DENFELD, TOLD SENATORS THAT DENFELD HAD NEVER RECEIVED A COMMISSION FOR HIS SECOND TERM AS CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS.

MATTHEW'S POSITION WAS THAT DENFELD WASN'T FIRED--HE SIMPLY WASN'T REAPPOINTED LEGALLY, ALTHOUGH THE SENATE HAD CONFIRMED HIM FOR A SECOND TERM BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN CHANGED HIS MIND.

MCCARTHY CHALLENGED THAT POSITION THIS WEEK BY SHOWING THE SENATE A PHOTOGRAPHIC COPY OF A DOCUMENT WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS DENFELD'S COMMISSION--GOOD UNTIL 1951, AND PROPERLY SIGNED BY BOTH MATTHEWS AND THE PRESIDENT.

THE WISCONSIN SENATOR OFFERED THE PHOTOGRAPH AS EVIDENCE THAT EITHER MATTHEWS "DELIBERATELY LIED OR HE IS INCOMPETENT." MATTHEWS ISSUED A QUIET DENIAL YESTERDAY.

"I AM NOT UNTRUTHFUL AND I AM NOT AN INCOMPETENT," HE TOLD REPORTERS WHO MET HIM ON HIS RETURN FROM A VISIT TO OMAHA.

A51WX

MATTHEWS SAID HE PLANNED TO CHECK ALL THE RECORDS AND FACTS BEFORE DISCUSSING THE DENFELD CASE PUBLICLY AGAIN.

"I KNOW WHAT THEY ARE BUT I WANT TO BE SURE THEY ARE ACCURATE," HE SAID.

MCCARTHY COMMENTED: "I DON'T WANT TO GET INTO AN ARGUMENT WITH SECRETARY MATTHEWS BECAUSE I THINK HE'S AN UNFORTUNATE LITTLE MAN WHO HAS TO BE A 'YES MAN' TO HOLD HIS JOB."

IN A NEW OUTBURST YESTERDAY, THE SENATOR DIRECTED HIS MAIN CRITICISM AT JOHNSON, WHOM HE CALLED A "DICTATOR WHO HAS JUST ABOUT WRECKED THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT."

ALL PARTIES TO THE SENATE DISPUTE AGREE THAT SHERMAN IS CERTAIN TO BE CONFIRMED. BUT THAT PROBABLY MUST WAIT FOR THE TIME BEING.

CHAIRMAN TYDINGS (D-MD) OF THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, WHICH UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED SHERMAN'S NOMINATION AFTER MATTHEWS' TESTIMONY, HAS PROMISED TO GET ALL THE FACTS FOR THE SENATE BEFORE PRESSING FOR FURTHER ACTION ON SHERMAN'S NOMINATION.

HE WENT THROUGH THE SAME ORDEAL LAST JULY WHEN ANOTHER JURY WAS UNABLE TO AGREE ON HIS GUILT OR INNOCENCE. THAT JURY DEADLOCKED--EIGHT FOR CONVICTION AND FOUR FOR ACQUITTAL.

THE ACCUSATIONS THAT HE WAS A PREWAR COMMUNIST TOOL HAVE HUNG OVER HIS HEAD SINCE THE SUMMER OF 1948 WHEN CHAMBERS FIRST TOLD HIS SPY STORY BEFORE A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.

HE HAS BEEN UNDER INDICTMENT ON TWO PERJURY COUNTS SINCE DECEMBER, 1948, WHEN A NEW YORK GRAND JURY DECIDED HE LIED IN DENYING THAT HE EVER GAVE SECRETS TO CHAMBERS OR EVER SAW THE FORMER COMMUNIST AFTER JAN. 1, 1937. add - N.Y. (11th S) xxx the floor -

YESTERDAY, DEFENSE ATTORNEY CLAUDE B. CROSS MADE HIS LAST EFFORT TO SAVE HISS WITH A DAY-LONG ATTACK ON CHAMBERS. HE CALLED CHAMBERS A LIAR WITH A "DISHONEST, BAD HOPE" OF FRAMING HISS.

AND HE STRESSED THE OPINIONS OF TWO DEFENSE MENTAL EXPERTS WHO CALLED CHAMBERS A PSYCHOPATHIC, CHRONIC LIAR.

TODAY, IN HIS TURN, MURPHY DEMANDED TO KNOW WHAT CHAMBERS WOULD GAIN BY MAKING UP SUCH A STORY. INSTEAD, SAID THE PROSECUTOR, THE REVELATIONS OF HIS OWN PAST FORCED CHAMBERS OUT OF HIS $30,000 A YEAR POST AS SENIOR EDITOR OF TIME MAGAZINE. IT WAS A JOB HE GAINED AFTER HE DESERTED THE RANKS OF COMMUNISM.

THEN THE GOVERNMENT LAWYER TURNED HIS ATTENTION TO THE PARADE OF CHARACTER WITNESSES WHO TOOK THE STAND IN HISS' BEHALF.

"I ASK YOU," SAID MURPHY, "WHAT KIND OF A REPUTATION DOES A GOOD SPY HAVE? A FOX BARKS NOT' WHEN HE GOES TO STALK THE LAMB."

BEFORE THEIR CRIMES WERE PROVEN, HE SAID, BENEDICT ARNOLD COULD HAVE CALLED GEORGE WASHINGTON AS A CHARACTER WITNESS; BRUTUS COULD HAVE CALLED CAESAR; THE DEVIL COULD HAVE CALLED GOD ALMIGHTY BEFORE HE WAS EXPELLED FROM HEAVEN.

"CHARACTER WITNESSES BELONG TO ANOTHER ERA," SAID MURPHY AS HE LOUNGED AGAINST HIS LITTLE READING DESK IN FRONT OF THE JURY. "THIS IS THE AGE OF REASON. THIS IS THE AGE OF COMMON PEOPLE. WE WANT FACTS."

HE ASKED THE JURY TO CONSIDER THE CASE AS THEY WOULD ANY CRISIS THAT AROSE IN THEIR HOMES OR OFFICES. IF A MOTHER FORBADE HER SON TO EAT ANYTHING AND THEN CAME HOME AND FOUND JAM ON HIS FACE, MURPHY ASKED:

"DO YOU NEED A STOMACH PUMP TO FIND OUT THAT HE ATE JAM?"

JAN 21 1950

A203

AS FAR AS THE PSYCHIATRISTS' OPINIONS OF CHAMBERS, MURPHY SAID THEY HAD NO FOUNDATION IN FACT BECAUSE "NEITHER HAD EXAMINED THE WITNESS."

MURPHY SCOFFED AT WHAT HE TERMED THE DEFENSE APPEAL TO THE JURY'S EMOTIONS.

"THEY SAY 'HOW COULD A MAN LIKE ALGER HISS DO THESE THINGS? GEE, HE'S SO HANDSOME,'" SAID MURPHY.

THE PROSECUTOR POINTED OUT THAT HENRY JULIAN WADLEIGH, ONE-TIME ASSOCIATE OF HISS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT, ADMITTED AT THE TRIAL THAT HE TURNED OVER DOCUMENTS TO CHAMBERS.

"IF WADLEIGH COULD DO IT," INSISTED MURPHY, "HISS COULD DO IT."

THE HUSKY ATTORNEY WAS SCORNFUL OF WHAT HE CALLED VEILED DEFENSE ATTACKS ON THE FBI AGENTS WHO HELPED PREPARE THE CASE.

"IT'S OPEN SEASON ON THE FBI," HE SHOUTED. "IT'S THE PARTY LINE TO TAKE POT SHOTS AT THE FBI. THAT'S FOR SWEENEY, I'M TELLING YOU, THAT'S FOR SWEENEY."

WASHINGTON,JAN 20-(AP)-FIVE OFFICIALS OF NEW YORK CITY AFL LOCALS TODAY ASKED THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT TO OPPOSE A CONTEMPT OF COURT SENTENCE FOR ATTORNEY HARRY SACHER.

SACHER WAS AMONG SIX DEFENSE ATTORNEYS IN THE LENGTHLY TRIAL OF COMMUNIST LEADERS IN NEW YORK LAST YEAR WHO WERE GIVEN JAIL TERMS FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT AT THE END OF THE CASE.

PRESIDING JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA GAVE SACHER SIX MONTHS. ALONG WITH THE OTHER ATTORNEYS, HE HAS APPEALED TO THE CIRCUIT COURT, WHICH IS DUE TO HEAR ARGUMENTS ON THE MATTER FEBRUARY 6.

THE GROUP WHICH CALLED AT THE JUDTICE DEPARTMENT TODAY SAID THEY WERE MEMBERS OF "THE COMMITTEE OF AFL UNIONS TO DEFEND HARRY SACHER," AND THAT SACHER IS THE ATTORNEY FOR A NUMBER OF THE LOCALS REPRESENTED ON THE COMMITTEE.

THEY ASKED THE DEPARTMENT TO JOIN IN A REQUEST TO THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR A REVERSAL OF THE CONVICTIONS, CONTENDING THAT SUCH SENTENCES WOULD BRING ABOUT "AN INTIMIDATED BAR IN AMERICA" AND MAKE IT DIFFICULT FOR MINORITY GROUPS TO OBTAIN LEGAL REPRESENTATION IN THE COURTS.

THE AFL OFFICIALS WERE RECEIVED BY WILLIAM E.FOLEY, CHIEF OF THE DEPARTMENT SECURITY SECTION, AND IRVING S.SHAPIRO, MEMBER OF THE PROSECUTION STAFF IN THE NEW YORK TRIAL. THE TWO SAID THE UNIONS' REQUEST WOULD TRANSMITTED TO ATTORNEY GENERAL MC GRATH.

THE GROUP INCLUDED HOWARD BAY, OF THE UNITED SCENIC ARTISTS, ABE WEISBURD (CQ) AND STEVE D'INZILLO OF THE MOTION PICTURE OPERATORS, WILLIAM PEASE OF THE BUILDING SERVICE EMPLOYEES AND SAM LANGBERT OF THE BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY WORKERS.

ON THAT SCORE, BRADLEY TOLD THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE LAST OCTOBER 19:

"THE A-BOMB IS THE MOST POWERFUL DESTRUCTIVE WEAPON KNOWN TODAY. PERSONALLY, I HOPE IT CAN BE OUTLAWED AS A WEAPON BY THE ADEQUATE INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OUR GOVERNMENT HAS RECOMMENDED.

"BUT UNTIL THAT HAS BEEN ACHIEVED, I SHALL NOT DISCREDIT ITS EFFECT, NOR SHALL I SHORTSIGHTEDLY LIMIT ITS ROLE TO PURELY STRATEGIC USE. add. WX—(H-Bomb) xxx weapon

"AS A BELIEVER IN HUMANITY I DEPLORE ITS USE, AND AS A SOLDIER I RESPECT IT. AND AS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN, I BELIEVE THAT WE SHOULD BE PREPARED TO USE ITS FULL PSYCHOLOGICAL AND MILITARY EFFECT TOWARD PREVENTING WAR, AND IF WE ARE ATTACKED, TOWARD WINNING IT."

BRADLEY GAVE THAT TESTIMONY DURING THE HOUSE COMMITTEE'S INVESTIGATION OF THE B-36 WHICH THE AIR FORCE HAS SELECTED AS ITS CHIEF ATOM BOMB CARRIER--SHOULD WAR COME.

WHETHER BRADLEY'S VIEWS ON THE H-BOMB ARE THE SAME HAS NOT BEEN DIVULGED.

IN THAT CONNECTION, SENATOR ELBERT THOMAS (D-UTAH), A MEMBER OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND A HIGH ADMINISTRATION SUPPORTER TOLD A REPORTER HE THINKS IT MORALLY WRONG FOR THE WORLD TO TRY TO CONSTRUCT SUCH MASS DESTRUCTION WEAPONS BUT THAT IF ANYBODY IS GOING TO BUILD AN H-BOMB THE UNITED STATES SHOULD DO IT.

"WE ARE THE ONLY NATION," HE SAID, "WHICH COULD BUILD IT WITHOUT FRIGHTENING THE WORLD. IT WOULD BE SAFEST IN OUR HANDS, FROM THE WORLD'S STANDPOINT."

LAKE SUCCESS,JAN.20-(AP)-SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE SAID TODAY THE AMERICAN DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS HAD INSTRUCTIONS LAST SEPTEMBER TO SUPPORT REPEAL OF A U.N. BAN ON TOP-FLIGHT EMBASSY RELATIONS WITH FRANCO SPAIN.

THE SUBJECT NEVER WAS RAISED IN THE REGULAR 1949 GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND THE AMERICANS DID NOT HAVE TO STATE THEIR POSITION THEN. LIE'S DISCLOSURE CAME AT HIS WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE WHEN HE WAS ASKED TO COMMENT ON SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S LETTER YESTERDAY TO SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX.), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

ACHESON STATED THE UNITED STATES HAD CHANGED ITS MIND AND WOULD SUPPORT A PROPOSAL TO REPEAL A BAN UNDER WHICH MOST MEMBER GOVERNMENTS HAVE WITHDRAWN AMBASSADORS OR MINISTERS FROM FRANCO SPAIN. THE LETTER INDICATED IT WAS A RECENT DECISION BUT IT GAVE NO EXACT TIME.

LIE SAID THIS CAME AS NO SURPRISE TO HIM. HE SAID THE AMERICANS TOLD SEVERAL FOREIGN DELEGATIONS LAST FALL OF THEIR INSTRUCTIONS AND HE HEARD OF IT FROM VERY GOOD SOURCES. LIE SAID HE EXPECTED A LONG AND HARD FIGHT ON THE SPANISH ISSUE IN THE 1950 ASSEMBLY.

A BIG MAJORITY OF THE 59 U.N. MEMBERS, HOWEVER, IS EXPECTED HERE TO REPEAL THE BAN.

A U.N. REPEALER OF PREVIOUS DECISIONS TO CONDEMN THE PRESENCE OF AMBASSADORS OR MINISTERS IN MADRID IS LIKELY TO COME BEFORE THE NEXT ASSEMBLY SCHEDULED FOR NEXT FALL, OR EARLIER IF THERE IS A SPECIAL SPRING SESSION.

ACHESON'S POSITION WOULD NOT AFFECT A RESOLUTION OF THE FIRST U.N. ASSEMBLY IN LONDON BARRING FRANCO FROM MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS. SPAIN NEVER HAS APPLIED TO THE U.N. AND ANY APPLICATION FROM FRANCO IS CERTAIN TO RUN INTO THE SOVIET RUSSIAN VETO IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

THE RUSSIAN BLOC IN THE U.N. IS CERTAIN ALSO TO PROTEST AT LENGTH IN THE NEXT ASSEMBLY AGAINST THE MOVE TO TAKE DOWN THE BARS AGAINST SENDING ENVOYS TO FRANCO. BUT BACKERS OF SUCH A PLAN ARE CONFIDENT THEY CAN GET A LARGE MAJORITY.

SPAIN HAS BEEN A HOT ISSUE IN THE U.N. SINCE ITS FOUNDING. THE SOVIET BLOC HAS RESISTED EVERY ATTEMPT TO TAKE ANY WRAPS OFF FRANCO. LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES HAVE LED MOVES TO EASE SOME RESTRICTIONS IN THE U.N. AGAINST FRANCO.

THE LAST GO-ROUND ON FRANCO WAS IN THE SPRING SESSION OF 1949. POLAND PLACED THE FRANCO ITEM ON THE ASSEMBLY BUSINESS SHEET. A POLISH PROPOSAL CALLING FOR ALL MEMBER NATIONS TO STOP EXPORTING TO SPAIN ARMS AND AMMUNITION AS WELL AS WARLIKE AND STRATEGIC MATERIAL WAS DEFEATED IN THE ASSEMBLY'S POLITICAL COMMITTEE.

BRAZIL, BOLIVIA, COLOMBIA AND PERU TEAMED TO SUPPORT A RESOLUTION PERMITTING MEMBERS FULL FREEDOM TO SEND AMBASSADORS AND MINISTERS TO MADRID. THIS WAS APPROVED IN THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE BUT FAILED TO GET THE TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY REQUIRED IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. THE VOTE ON MAY 16, 1949, IN THE ASSEMBLY WAS 26 IN FAVOR, 15 AGAINST AND 16 ABSTENTIONS.

THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN ABSTAINED AT THAT TIME. THE UNITED STATES SHIFT IS EXPECTED TO SWING ENOUGH VOTES TO PUT IT OVER NEXT TIME.

CHINESE --17--

BY MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.20-(AP)-SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE SAID TODAY THE EAST-WEST ROW OVER CHINA HAS BROUGHT THE UNITED NATIONS TO ITS GREATEST CRISIS BUT PREDICTED THE SOVIET WALKOUT-STRIKES WOULD NOT BE PERMANENT.

LIE TOLD HIS WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE THE U.N. NOW FACES MORE SERIOUS PROBLEMS THAN THOSE PRODUCED LAST YEAR BY THE BERLIN BLOCKADE.

"THE SHARES OF THE UNITED NATIONS ARE LOWER TODAY THAN THEY HAVE EVER BEEN BEFORE," HE SAID, "BUT I AM SURE THEY WILL BE RESTORED."

HE ADDED, IN RESPONSE TO A REPORTER'S QUESTION, THAT HE WOULD BE WILLING TO BUY U.N. SHARES EVEN AT THEIR PRESENT DEPRESSED PRICE.

LIE GAVE HIS GENERAL COMMENT ON THE CHINESE PROBLEM BEFORE ANNOUNCING HE HAD RECEIVED A NEW COMMUNICATION FROM CHOU EN-LAI, PREMIER-FOREIGN MINISTER OF THE CHINESE RED REGIME AT PEIPING, NAMING CHANG WEN-TIEN AS COMMUNIST CHIEF DELEGATE TO THE U.N.

LIE SAID HE IS CIRCULATING CHOU'S MESSAGE TO ALL 59 UNITED NATIONS AND THE 11 MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

THE RUSSIANS ARE NOW BOYCOTTING ALL NINE OF THE U.N.BODIES IN SESSION SO FAR THIS YEAR. THEY HAVE ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD NOT RETURN UNTIL THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ARE KICKED OUT.

LIE EXPRESSED REGRET OVER THE CHINA FIGHT HERE.

"THE WORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS--THE PRESTIGE AND INFLUENCE OF THE UNITED NATIONS--SHOULD NOT BE MADE TO SUFFER BECAUSE OF A POLITICAL STRUGGLE OVER WHAT CHINESE GOVERNMENT TO RECOGNIZE.

"EQUALLY, THE 450 MILLION CHINESE PEOPLE SHOULD NOT BE DEPRIVED OF REPRESENTATION IN THE UNITED NATIONS."

ANSWERING A QUESTION, LIE SAID THAT IN HIS OPINION THE CHINESE PEOPLE ARE REPRESENTED NOW.

HE ADDED:

"WHATVER THE OUTCOME OF THE PRESENT DISPUTE ABOUT RECOGNITION, THE FIRST CONSIDERATION FOR ALL THE MEMBERS SHOULD BE THAT THE UNITED NATIONS BE PERMITTED AND ENCOURAGED TO CONTINUE TO FUNCTION UNIMPAIRED."

LIE SAID HE HAD MADE NO DIRECT EFFORTS TO PERSUADE THE RUSSIANS TO END THEIR BOYCOTT AND HAD NO PLANS TO APPROACH THEM.

"DO YOU CONSIDER THE RUSSIANS HAVE LEFT THE U.N.," HE WAS ASKED.

"NO."

"DO YOU COMPLETELY EXCLUDE THE POSSIBILITY THE RUSSIANS WILL NEVER RETURN?" ANOTHER REPORTER ASKED.

"YES." LIE REPLIED.

LIE SAID HE HAD NOT MADE ANY DECISION ON WHETHER HE WOULD EXERCISE AUTHORITY GRANTED HIM UNDER THE CHARTER TO LAY URGENT PROBLEMS SUCH AS THE CHINESE ISSUE BEFORE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

HE SAID IT STILL IS TOO EARLY TO SAY WHETHER A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE ASSEMBLY MAY BE CALLED TO DEAL WITH THE CHINA CRISIS.

"I DON'T EXCLUDE THAT POSSIBILITY," HE SAID, "BUT I DON'T SEE HOW A SPECIAL ASSEMBLY CAN SETTLE THE PROBLEM WITHIN THE NEXT FORTNIGHT OR MONTH."

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO THE FACT THAT ONLY ABOUT 15 OF THE ASSEMBLY'S 59 MEMBERS HAVE RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT SO FAR.

LIE DISCLOSED THAT CHOU HAD ASKED HIM TWO QUESTIONS IN HIS LATEST CABLE:

"1. WHEN WILL THE ILLEGITIMATE DELEGATES OF THE CHINESE KUOMINTANG REACTIONARY REMNANT CLIQUE (NATIONALIST DELEGATION) BE EXPELLED FROM THE UNITED NATIONS AND FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL?

"2. WHEN CAN THE LEGITIMATE DELEGATION OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA, UNDER THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF CHANG WEN-TIEN, ATTEND THE MEETINGS AND PARTICIPATE IN THE WORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE SECURITY COUNCIL?"

LIE SAID THE GIST OF HIS REPLIES WOULD BE THAT EACH ORGAN OF THE U.N. IS COMPETENT TO ACT ON THE CREDENTIALS OF DELEGATIONS AND THAT THE TIMING OF ACTION ON SUCH QUESTIONS IS DETERMINED BY EACH ORGAN.

LIE SAID HE HAD NO KNOWLEDGE AS TO THE PRESENT WHEREABOUTS OF CHANG. HE SAID THAT THE ADMISSION OF CHANG TO THIS COUNTRY UNDER PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES IS UP TO THE U.S. GOVERNMENT. UNDER THE U.N. IMMUNITIES AND AGREEMENT WITH THE U.S., LIE SAID, THE STATE DEPARTMEFT ISOOADLGATONLY DELEGATES INVITED BY THE U.

IMMUNITIES AND AGREEMENT WITH THE U.S., LIE SAID, THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS OBLIGATED TO ADMIT ONLY DELEGATES INVITED BY THE U.N. TO COME HERE.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE CHINESE NATIONALIST DELEGATION SAID CHANG IS NOT KNOWN TO MEMBERS OF THE DELEGATION. HE DECLINED COMMENT ON LIE'S STATEMENT.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 20-(AP)-THE PHILIPPINES REPUBLIC HAS PRESENTED A LONG SERIES OF PROPOSALS AFFECTING CIVIL RIGHTS IN A STEP DESIGNED TO INCREASE OBSERVANCE OF THE UNITED NATIONS UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS.

THE PROPOSALS WERE MADE PUBLIC BY U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE TODAY. THEY WERE IN ANSWER TO A QUESTIONNAIRE CIRCULATED BY THE U.N. TO GET NATIONAL COMMENTS ON DRAFTING AN INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT TO MAKE THE DECLARATION MORE EFFECTIVE. THE DECLARATION WAS APPROVED BY THE U.N. ASSEMBLY IN DECEMBER 1948.

AMONG CHANGES IN A PROPOSED DRAFT COVENANT, THE PHILIPPINES GOVERNMENT SUGGESTS THAT EXTRADITION SHALL NOT BE APPLIED TO POLITICAL CRIMES, EVERY ONE CHARGED WITH A CRIMINAL OFFENSE MUST BE PRESUMED INNOCENT UNTIL PROVED GUILTY BEYOND REASONABLE DOUBT, AND NO ONE SHOULD BE DEPRIVED OF HIS PROPERTY WITHOUT DUE PROCESS OF LAW.

MANY OF THE SUGGESTED LANGUAGE ALTERATIONS WOULD BRING THE INTERNATIONAL COVENANT CLOSE TO THE LANGUAGE OF ANGLO-SAXON LEGAL CODES.

ANOTHER PROPOSED CHANGE WOULD BAR DISCRIMINATION AGAINST ANY ONE FOR ECONOMIC OPINIONS HE HOLDS OR FOR HIS EDUCATIONAL ATTAINMENT. THIS WOULD BE ADDED TO A BAN ON DISCRIMINATION ON GROUNDS OF RACE, COLOR, SEX, LANGUAGE, RELIGION, POLITICS, NATIONAL OR SOCIAL ORIGIN, BIRTH OR OTHER STATUS.

THE PROPOSALS SAY "IF FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND OF THE PRESS IS INCLUDED IN THIS COVENANT, AS IT SHOULD BE INCLUDED," THEN THE FOLLOWING ARTICLE IS DECLARED NECESSARY: "EVERY ACT WHICH TENDS TO STIR UP HATRED OR VIOLENCE AGAINST ANY PERSON OR GROUPS OF PERSONS, BY REASON OF RACE, COLOR, SEX, LANGUAGE, RELIGION, POLITICAL, ECONOMIC OR OTHER OPINION, NATIONAL OR SOCIAL ORIGIN, PROPERTY, EDUCATIONAL ATTAINMENT, BIRTH OR OTHER STATUS, SHALL BE PROHIBITED BY THE LAW OF THE STATE."

JAN 31 1950

THE PHILIPPINES CALLS FOR THE PROVISIONS OF THE COVENANT TO BE EXTENDED NOT ONLY TO COUNTRIES THAT SIGN IT BUT TO ALL TERRITORIES WHICH THE SIGNING COUNTRIES ADMINISTER OR REGULATE. SOME COLONIAL POWERS HAVE OPPOSED THIS.

THE PROPOSED CHANGES MAKE ALLOWANCES FOR COUNTRIES THAT HAVE NOT SO FAR CODIFIED THEIR OWN LAWS TO WESTERN STANDARDS.

Hiss Found Guilty of Perjury, Faces 10 Years, $4000 Fine

JAN 22 1950

Jury Convicts Hiss On Both Counts

New York, Jan. 21 (AP)—Alger Hiss was convicted today of perjury charges.

Thus the jury found it believed Hiss's chief accuser, Whittaker Chambers, who said the former high State Department official gave him secret papers for a Soviet spy ring.

The verdict was returned at 2.50 P.M.

The jury received the case at 3.10 P.M. yesterday, spent five hours and seven minutes in deliberations before it was locked up for the night, then resumed consideration of the case at 9.20 A.M. today. The jury spent nine hours and thirteen minutes in deliberation.

"On Both Counts"

At 2.50 P.M., the jury foreman, Mrs. Ada Condell, said in answer to a question by the clerk of the court, that the defendant was "guilty on both counts."

The court clerk, Joseph Toner, read off the names of the jurors after they had filed back into the courtroom. Each acknowledged his presence by saying, "Here."

Mrs. Condell then gave the verdict. Hiss and wife, Priscilla, gave no indication of emotion immediately.

The Hisses sat behind their counsel, Claude B. Cross, of Boston, and Edward C. McLean, of New York.

Possible Penalty

Conviction on each count carries a possible maximum sentence of five years in prison and $2,000 fine. Conviction on both counts means that Hiss faces a possible 10-year term and $4,000 fine.

A moment after Hiss heard the verdict his chin went up and his lips tightened. He folded him arms akimbo.

In the first trial of the ex-State Department executive, another Federal jury argued for almost 29 hours before reporting final failure to reach a verdict.

"Reasonable Doubt"

In midmorning, at the jurors' request, Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard reread part of the charge which he delivered yesterday.

He told them again that the Government must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Hiss lied when he denied passing secrets to Chambers.

When the jury came into the courtroom this morning, it was the third time it had done so since it received the case.

Yesterday, the jurors asked for and received portions of the trial testimony with indications that they were giving great weight to the battered old Woodstock typewriter on which both sides agree the stolen documents were copied.

Jury Advised

Reasonable doubt, the judge said, does not mean "possible doubt or a fanciful doubt" but means "a doubt which is reasonable in view of the evidence or the lack of evidence."

Goddard also told the jury for a second time that the defendant does not have to prove how Chambers got the documents.

In his rereading, Goddard advised the jury that to convict Hiss it must believe Chambers's testimony beyond a reasonable doubt and also find that there is "other trustworthy evidence" that Hiss gave the secret papers to Chambers.

The judge also repeated his definition of circumstantial evidence.

Timetable Of Hiss Jury Deliberations

New York, Jan. 21 (AP)—Here is what happened from the time the judge finished charging the jury in the second Alger Hiss perjury trial:

Friday

3.10 P.M.—Case given to the jury.

5.02 P.M.—Jury asked for reading of testimony concerning old Woodstock typewriter and other matters.

5.51-7.11 P.M.—Dinner.

8.28-9.23 P.M.—Jury heard reading of previously requested testimony.

10.45 P.M.—No verdict in sight, jury taken to midtown hotel overnight.

Saturday

9.20 A.M.—Jury resumed deliberations.

10.44-10.55 A.M.—Judge reread part of his charge to jury at jurors' request.

12.55-2.08 P.M.—Lunch.

2.50 P.M.—Returns guilty verdict.

Total elapsed time, 23 hours 40 minutes.

Actual deliberations, 9 hours 13 minutes.

Wording Of Two Perjury Charges

New York, Jan. 21 (AP)—Here is the charge on which Alger Hiss was convicted today:

First Count: That he wilfully and knowingly testified falsely before a Federal grand jury when he said that neither he, nor Mrs. Hiss, in his presence, delivered any State Department documents or papers, or copies or summaries of such papers, to Whittaker Chambers or to any other unauthorized person.

Second Count: That he also wilfully and knowingly testified falsely in saying that he did not think he had seen Chambers after January 1, 1937.

2 Hiss Trials Make Legal History

NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP).—The two perjury trials of Alger Hiss made legal history.

In the first trial, two U. S. Supreme Court justices came into a criminal courtroom to testify for a defendant.

In the second trial, two mental experts came to Hiss' defense by branding his chief accuser a psychopathic liar. It was the first time such testimony had been permitted in a Federal court.

These were courtroom highlights of one of the outstanding American criminal trials of modern times.

CALLED A RED IN 1948

Hiss first was called a Communist publicly in the summer of 1948.

Pudgy 49-year-old Whittaker Chambers, a $30,000-a-year senior editor of Time Magazine, went beneath the klieg lights of the House Un-American Activities Committee in Washington.

He unfolded a startling story of a pre-war spy ring. He was their courier. And Hiss, he said, was one of his chief sources of U. S. Government secrets.

The accusations shocked a Nation. At 45, Hiss is a brilliant graduate of New Deal Washington, a student of world affairs, a veteran of many diplomatic assignments. For more than a decade he had served as a valued State Department aide of the late President Roosevelt.

Thin, natty, and with a boyishly handsome face, Hiss at once denied Chambers' story before the committee. He denied it again before a New York grand jury looking into subversive activities.

Hiss dared Chambers to repeat his accusations in public without the cloak of immunity from a libel suit. Chambers did.

HISS SUED FOR LIBEL

Hiss immediately sued for libel. A pre-trial hearing was held.

But in the fall of 1948, Chambers showed his trump card. From a hollow pumpkin on his Maryland farm, he produced a roll of microfilm. They were records of secret documents he said were turned over to him by Hiss a decade ago.

The grand jury called Hiss back again. He was indicted in December, 1948, on two counts of perjury.

It was charged that he lied in denying he ever gave Chambers secret documents and lied again when he swore he hadn't seen Chambers after Jan. 1, 1937.

Hiss resigned as $20,000-a-year president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. He had taken the post after leaving the State Department in 1947.

Chambers quit his job with Time magazine. He had achieved it after leaving Communism behind him.

Thus both men cleared the way for their duel.

MEET AGAIN AT TRIAL

They met again in Courtroom 13 on the 13th floor of the Federal Building in New York's downtown Foley Square. The first trial opened May 31 before a jury of 10 men and two women.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy spoke for the Government. He is a giant of a man with walrus mustache, quiet of manner and keen of mind.

Hiss' case was in the hands of Lloyd Paul Stryker, 64, a lawyer with a brilliant courtroom manner and a high sense of drama.

TRYING FIRST BIG CASE

Before them, rocking gently behind a too-high bench that almost hid his slight figure, was Federal Judge Samuel H. Kaufman, thin-voiced, dark-eyed and trying his first major case.

The first highlight came when Stryker lit into Chambers in a savage cross examination.

Chambers admitted many sins—immorality, lying and attempted betrayal of the country of his birth. He sat beneath a courtroom flag of the U. S. as he recounted his 14 years as a Communist.

ATONEMENT FOR ACTS

But not once would he admit that his charges against Hiss were false. He made them, he said, to atone for what he tried to do to his country while a Communist.

He told of intrigue, of Chinatown meetings in New York, of whispered betrayals beneath the shadow of the Capitol dome in Washington.

And Chambers swore that Hiss fed him State Department secrets in wholesale fashion because Hiss was a Communist.

Then Hiss took his turn before the jury.

He denied Chambers point by point. There were no secret meetings, he said, and Chambers was but a chance acquaintance. Most important of all, he swore, not a single Government secret ever passed from his hands to Chambers or anyone else.

Justices Felix Frankfurter and Stanley F. Reed of the Supreme Court, friends of Hiss since his days at Harvard or Washington, appeared as character witnesses in his behalf.

And Henry Julian Wadleigh, 44, in the State Department with Hiss from 1936 to 1946, took the stand to admit turning over Government documents to Chambers. Wadleigh said he sympathized with Communism in those days.

POUNCED ON ADMISSION

Stryker pounced on this at once. He said Wedleigh or someone else stole secrets for Chambers.

Through it all, in a front row seat, sat Dr. Carl A. L. Binger, a defense psychiatrist. He eyed Chambers narrowly, trying to assess what manner of man he was. But when he got a chance to testify about Chambers' mental state, Judge Kaufman blocked the testimony.

Finally the trial ended on July 7. Nearly 29 hours later—at 8:01 P. M. July 8—the jury was hopelessly deadlocked. Eight members believed Hiss guilty. Four insisted he was innocent. They were discharged.

Hiss managed a thin smile.

CRY AGAINST JUDGE

A hue and cry against Judge Kaufman echoed through the halls of Congress. It was charged that the judge was biased in Hiss' favor. The charge never was proved and finally died down.

In October, Hiss tried to get his second trial shifted to Vermont. Newspaper publicity, he said, made a fair hearing in New York impossible. The plea was turned down.

Meanwhile, Hiss engaged a new attorney, Claude B. Cross, a quiet, low-voiced Bostonian, replaced Stryker.

The second trial got under way Nov. 17.

A different judge was on the bench. He was 73-year-old Henry W. Goddard, a veteran of 20 years on the Federal bench.

Different jurors—eight women and four men this time—took their seats in a courtroom across the hall from the scene of the first trial.

JAN 23 1950

Hiss was back, looking more tired. So was Chambers, still heavy, seemingly unchanged. So was Murphy, his mustache bristling as always.

Chambers again told his story of prewar Communist intrigue.

He respun his amazing tale of Washington big-wigs toiling behind the scenes for the Communist cause.

SOMEONE ELSE SUGGESTED

Cross suggested on cross examination that Chambers got his Government documents in evidence from someone other than Hiss.

Chambers conceded a few might have come from other hands. But nearly all came from Hiss, he insisted.

Wadleigh was heard again. He retold how he passed nearly 500 State Department papers to Communist spy agents before the war. But he swore the documents in evidence against Hiss were not among them.

Then came a new climax. Mrs. Hede Massing, thrice married former wife of Gerhart Eisler, took the stand. Judge Kaufman had barred her testimony in the first trial.

VIED FOR RECRUIT

She testified for the Government that she and Hiss once had vied for a prospective Communist recruit. But, in that 1935 argument, she added, they both agreed "we are working for the same boss."

That boss, swore Mrs. Massing, was the Communist Party.

The second trial dragged on: It lasted a little more than nine weeks. The first trial lasted six. This time there were 1,125,000 words of testimony, compared to 570,000 words in the first trial.

In mid-January, the defense put Chambers' mind under the spotlight. This time, Judge Goddard allowed the testimony of two defense mental experts—Dr. Binger and Dr. Henry A. Murray, a Harvard psychologist.

PSYCHIATRISTS FIRM

Both men called Chambers a "psychopathic personality" so in love with his own lies that he made them blacker and blacker in the retelling.

Relentlessly, Murphy tried to beat down these twin analyses. He succeeded only slightly. The two psychiatrists stood firm in their diagnosis.

So the case finally went again to a jury—in just about the same baffling state it was when Chambers first voiced his tale of betrayal in the summer of 1948.

CONGRESSMEN HAIL RESULT OF HISS CASE

GOP Legislators Tie Ex-Government Official To Administration Aides

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP) — The perjury conviction of Alger Hiss was greeted with approval by some members of Congress today, especially those critical of the Administration.

Representative Velde (R., Ill.) said the New York verdict "cooks President Truman's 'red herring' and I hope he enjoys eating it."

Velde, a member of the un-American Activities Committee, referred to the label Mr. Truman pasted on the group's investigation of Communist activities in the Republican Eightieth Congress.

Recalls Acheson Statement

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) called the jury's decision "an important milestone in our fight against communism," adding:

"Only last January Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, issued a statement to the effect that he was a friend of Alger Hiss. What does Dean Acheson have to say of his friend Alger Hiss now?"

Senator Mundt (R., S.D.), who was acting chairman of the House committee at the time the original "pumpkin papers" testimony in the case was taken, declared that the conviction shows what can be accomplished by "an alert and energetic House Committee on Un-American Activities, supported by the investigative machinery of the FBI and the prosecution personnel of the Department of Justice."

Representative Clarence Brown (R., Ohio) praised "the tenacious and highly diligent efforts of Representative Richard Nixon of California, who almost single-handedly cracked the case wide open, after Hiss had apparently satisfied the committee of his innocence on the basis of a preliminary inquiry."

Cites Debt Of Gratitude

"This case," Brown added, "is further proof of the need for the Un-American Activities Committee, and America owes a debt of gratitude both to the committee and to Congressman Nixon."

Nixon, a Republican, said: "I consider this verdict a vindication of congressional methods of investigation when they are accompanied by adequate staff work and fair procedures."

"Should Serve As Warning"

Another committee member, Representative Harrison (D., Va.), commented:

"The verdict should serve as a warning to public servants with a predilection for dalliance with Communists or their tools.

"And it should provide new encouragement for the law-enforcement agencies charged with the responsibility of seeking out and bringing to punishment any person trafficking with the sworn enemies of democracy."

Nixon Cites "Effort" To Hide

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) said tonight the Alger Hiss case would have come to light sooner except for a "deliberate effort on the part of high officials in two administrations" to hide it.

Nixon, who is credited with starting the investigations which led to Hiss's perjury conviction, said he intends to place information before the House to prove that there was an effort "to keep the public from knowing the facts."

The lawmaker spoke on a radio interview with Bert Andrews, Washington corespondent of the New York Herald Tribune.

Asked if he knew why Hiss was not investigated by the Government some years ago, Nixon commented:

"All I can tell you at this moment is that I believe President Truman will have further reason to regret his red-herring remark."

Quotes Chambers

That was in reference to Mr. Truman's repeated statement that congressional investigations into Communist activities—especially those concerning the Government—were just a red herring to draw attention from the record of Republicans in Congress.

Nixon added:

"As Whittaker Chambers has stated, there has been too much of a tendency to make this a fight between two individuals. It is larger than that.

"I have information—which I intend to place before the House next week—which will show that this conspiracy would have come to light long since had there not been a definite, determined and deliberate effort on the part of certain high officials in two administrations to keep the public from knowing the facts."

Churchill Blasts British Socialism As Weak Defense

LONDON, Jan. 21 (AP).—Winston Churchill declared tonight that Socialism is out of tune with the times and is the "weakest defense against Communism." Socialist restrictions have paralyzed Britain and blocked her path to recovery, he said.

In a campaign speech, broadcast from his home at Westerham, the 75-year-old Conservative Party leader urged British voters in the Feb. 23 general election to spurn the Labor Party's bid for a return to power after almost five years' rule.

The issue, he said, "is whether we should take another plunge into Socialist regimentation" or regain the "freedom, initiative and opportunity" that once won for Britain "glorious ascendency."

SEES EUROPEAN TREND

"Socialism has been found in all European countries, in bond or free, to have been the weakest defense against Communism," he asserted.

Declaring that, except in Scandinavia, Socialist parties were on the decline throughout Europe outside the Iron Curtain, he said.

"In taking another lurch into Socialism at this juncture, we should be moving contrary to the general trend and tide of reviving European society.

"Still more should we be out of harmony with the states and nations of the English-speaking world, the British Dominions and the United States."

He recalled that New Zealand and Australia, two of the Dominions, "have recently shaken themselves free" after a prolonged trial of Socialist governments.

He defined Socialism as a "mistaken political philosophy and largely obsolete mode of thought," which believes in an "all-powerful state which owns everything, which plans everything, which distributes everything."

The process of establishing a Socialist state has only begun, he said, and warned, "No nation of equal size, no society of equal civilization, has ever been in time of peace in the economic peril in which we stand."

He then advanced a general program keyed to the central theme of restoring "a greater measure of freedom of choice and action to our people and of productive fertility and variety to our industry."

The official party platform is to be issued Wednesday. The Labor platform, advocating nationalism of cement, sugar refining, waterworks, meat slaughtering and wholesaling and perhaps shipbuilding and chemicals, in addition to industries already nationalized, was published last week.

OUTLINES PROPOSALS

Churchill's proposals:

1. "Establishment and maintenance of a basic standard of life and labor below which a man or woman, however old or weak, shall not be allowed to fall."

2. "To set the Nation free as quickly as possible from the controls and restrictions which now beset our daily life. Above the basic standard there will be free opportunities to rise."

3. "A stable value for money." He said Labor's spending had debased the buying value of the pound "and we still have the consequences of devaluation coming upon us to make it worse."

4. "Grow more food at home . . . make long-term arrangements inside the Empire for mutual trade."

5. "Prevention of mass unemployment . . . the most solemn duty of Government."

6. More housing. "Before the war under a Conservative Government we were building, by the normal process of supply and demand, 1000 houses a day. With all this need and the same labor force we are building only half as much now, and every house costs three times as much."

CITES AMERICAN AID

Without American aid, Churchill said, there would have been 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 unemployed in Britain for several years past. He warned that Britain faces great difficulties when American aid ends.

"Only a new surge of impulse can win us back the glorious ascendancy which we gained in the struggle for right for freedom, and for which our forebears had nerved our hearts down the long aisles of time," he exclaimed.

Shortly before Churchill spoke, King George issued the first of two proclamations necessary to clear the way for the election. He postponed the reopening of Parliament, scheduled for Jan. 24, until after Feb. 3. Later he will proclaim Parliament dissolved on Feb. 3.

Churchill's speech was one of four he has scheduled. He will broadcast again on Feb. 17 and address campaign rallies at Leeds on Feb. 4; Cardiff, Wales, on Feb. 8 and Edinburgh on Feb. 14.

Britain's Future Hinges On Vote, Churchill Says

London, Jan. 21 (AP)—Winston Churchill told British voters tonight the choice before them is "whether we should take another plunge into Socialist regimentation, or by a strong effort regain the freedom, initiative and opportunity of British life."

The Conservative leader said that Britain's future as a leading nation in world thought and progress "depends on the general election February 23."

Churchill opened the Conservative party's campaign to unseat the Labor Government in a speech prepared for radio broadcast from his country home at Westerham, Kent, 25 miles southeast of London.

To Issue Platform

Next Wednesday the Conservatives will publish their platform, held certain to promise abandonment of socialism and return to the Churchillian brand of free enterprise.

Churchill asserted:

"Socialism has been found in all European countries, in bond or free, to have been the weakest defense against communism.

"In taking another lurch into socialism at this juncture we should be moving contrary to the general trend and tide of reviving European society.

"Still more should we be out of harmony with the states and nations of the English-speaking world, the British dominions and the United States."

The speech was the opening gun of the 75-year-old warrior's battle to recapture control of the Government which he led as wartime Prime Minister—only to be cast out by the voters in 1945.

"The practical question we have to settle now is whether we shall take another deep plunge into state ownership and state control or whether we shall restore a greater measure of freedom of choice and action to our people and of productive fertility and variety to our industry," he said.

The Labor party, led by Prime Minister Attlee, already has transferred to state ownership Britain's coal mines, railroads, road transportation airways, gas, electricity and the Bank of England.

To Widen State Ownership

If returned to power, they have promised to take over the steel industry, cement, sugar refining, privately owned waterworks, wholesaling and slaughtering of meat and the nation's useful underground mineral wealth.

The Conservatives have said they will continue most of Britain's welfare programs and many of the state controls the Government now enforces. The Conservatives do not envision any quick end to the country's postwar austerity.

U.S. And Ireland Sign Economic Treaty In Dublin

Dublin, Ireland, Jan. 21 (AP)—Ireland and the United States signed today a treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation officially described as the most important pact in the life of this young republic.

Sean MacBride, External Affairs Minister, gave that description in signing for Ireland. George A. Garrett, United States Minister, who signed for the United States, said the treaty was "a milestone in the harmonious development of economic relations between our two countries."

The United States State Department commented that it "may be deemed a fitting expression of the close ties that bind the people of the United States and Ireland."

Still to be approved by the United States Senate, the treaty is intended to provide a legal framework for general economic relationships between the two countries.

Among other things, the United States recognizes Ireland's right to British and British Commonwealth goods, even though she has formally withdrawn from the Commonwealth.

State Department Comment

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP).—The State Department said today that the treaty between the United States and Ireland is "the most comprehensive of its kind that Ireland has signed with any country." It added that the treaty "may be deemed a fitting expression of the close ties which bind the people of the United States and Ireland."

The treaty, which must be approved by the Senate, is designed to provide a legal framework for general economic relationships between the two countries and their development "in harmony with modern economic conditions."

U.S. Yields Railroad Building In Berlin Row With Russians

Berlin, Jan. 21 (AP)—The United States Army's Berlin command backed down tonight before attacks from the East and returned a disputed building in the American sector to the Soviet-controlled railway system.

Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the commandant, canceled seizure of the building by the United States Property Control Office for the West Berlin city government, ordered West Berlin police to withdraw and turned the structure back to the railway system, the Reichsbahn.

"The Soviet authorities have seized upon the affair as an excuse to harass the residents of West Berlin," Taylor explained.

An hour after Taylor made his announcement, the west police departed from the building, the former Reichsbahn headquarters located just inside the American sector near the Russian border.

"Accident" Or "Blunder"

East zone Communist guards in the employ of the Reichsbahn resumed their posts in the nearly empty building.

Sources within the United States high commission said issuance of the seizure order Tuesday could be called either an "accident" or "blunder."

The West Berlin city government, with Allied approval, had previously started taking over numerous Reichsbahn properties, which had no relation to operations, because West mark taxes were unpaid. The railroad system, controlled by the Russians, has mostly East mark income.

Shortly before Christmas the question of seizing the main building because the Reichsbahn had virtually abandoned it was taken up with Taylor, but no decision was reached.

Then on Tuesday the American Property Control section issued a requisition order on the main building, using as its authority the precedent of previous seizures. Col. W. T. Babcock, Taylor's deputy, said the Russians had not been notified in advance.

Unaware Of Seizure

Neither Taylor nor John J. McCloy, United States high commissioner, knew the building had been seized and occupied by West Berlin police until afterward.

The railroad and the Russians hit back with the assertion the telecommunications setup in the basement was disrupted by this action. They slowed down the city's elevated train service to half schedule and threatened to disrupt interzonal trains.

Coincidentally, the Soviets turned back nineteen Berlin trucks from the Helmstedt checkpoint on the Russian-British zonal border. This seemed like a repetition of the tactics that preceded the full-scale blockade imposed in June, 1948.

These truck drivers returned to Berlin tonight and explained, however, that they had failed to obtain the proper clearance papers for household goods they were carrying.

Traffic Otherwise Normal

The Russians now demand that the owner either accompany household goods consigned to the West or that he see them for a pass. This measure was installed a few days ago to stop the removal of any personal possessions of an eastern German trying to flee from the Communist sphere.

The German customs men at Helmstedt said traffic otherwise flowed normally, with 260 Berlin-bound trucks allowed through and 80 more cleared on their way from Berlin to the West.

Despite the mounting Communist and Russian criticism of the railbuilding seizure, Taylor said he had not taken the incident as threatening to reach such serious proportions as a blockade.

He told a news conference he felt now that possession of part of a building was not worth giving the Russians an excuse to threaten blockade.

Moreover, Taylor added, the Soviets made veiled hints in their licensed press during the day that West Berliners working for their rail system either would be fired or their 60 per cent payment in West marks might be reduced.

Calls Attitude Unreasonable

"Unfortunately, the unreasonable and provocative attitude of the Soviets and of the Reichbahn makes it appear probable that the hardships which they intend to impose outweight the benefits arising from the American plan," he said.

He said he would now wait and see how the Russians utilize the building. They gradually vacated it during the blockade and the subsequent West Berlin rail strike until only the elevated signal switch operates there.

With 1,800,000 daily riders inconvenienced by the elevated slowdown, Taylor declared:

"The city will lose if we adhere to our position. We're bending over backward to the Soviet claim that this building has some connection, however remote, with the operation of the Reichbahn.

"The real loser is the city of Berlin."

Taylor said it was a hard decision for him because it might appear to the Berliner to be a sign of weakness before the Russians.

W. Berlin Police Told To Leave Rail Building

Berlin, Jan. 21 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, United States commander in Berlin, ordered West Berlin police today to vacate the Soviet Reichsbahn (railway) building rather than give the Russians an excuse to threaten a new blockade.

"It was the American intention to put this space to use for the benefit of Berlin," General Taylor said in a statement explaining why the United States Property Control Section authorized the city government on January 17 to move into the virtually empty railway headquarters.

"Unreasonable Attitude"

"Unfortunately the unreasonable and provocative attitude of the Soviets and of the Reichsbahn makes it appear probable that the hardships which they intend to impose outweigh the benefits arising from the American plan.

"Having regretfully reached this conclusion, I am suspending the notice of custody and withdrawing the West sector police from the interior of the building."

Asked About Blockade

Taylor was asked if his position was that the building is not worth the threat of a new blockade.

He replied:

"That's exactly it. We are bending over backwards to the Soviet claim that this building has some connection, however remote, with the operation of the Reichsbahn."

He said the Reichsbahn would be permitted to restore its guard details in the building.

Earlier the American commandant had said he did not regard the dispute with the Russians over the Reichsbahn Building in the Western zone of the city as a serious incident.

He charged that the Eastern authorities had used the occupation of the building as "an excuse to vent their spite against West Berlin."

East German Communists had implied that the interzonal train service might be affected because of the West German police action in occupying the building. There had been reports the Russians had started to curtail highway truck traffic between West Berlin and western Germany. However, all interzonal trains ran normally yesterday.

Soviet Protest

The United States property control branch took custody of the railway building January 17. The western Berlin police moved in and the Soviet-controlled railway management protested immediately.

The Soviets claimed that the Western action interfered with the small communications system in the basement. Thereupon the city's elevated train system was cut to half schedule. This was a handicap to Berliners, but did not affect rail traffic between the Western occupation zone and the city.

Trucks Turned Back

There was normal truck movement last night at the Babelsberg check point. But at Helmstedt the Russians turned back nineteen German trucks loaded with furniture and other commodities. The drivers were told their papers were not in order.

Russ Prison Death, Hunger Reported

Berlin, Jan. 21 (AP)—Weary men are trudging into the safety of West Berlin these days from the Russian-run concentration camp of Buchenwald in East Germany.

They are released German prisoners, drifting here since the Russians closed the camp last Monday.

Buchenwald, under the Nazis, was called "an extermination factory" in an official United States Army report. It was estimated that between 150,000 and 200,000 persons were slaughtered there under Hitler.

24,000 Die

Latest arrivals say that about 24,000 perished in the camp since the Russians reopened it for political prisoners. One refugee said deaths during an epidemic in the first four months of 1947 were at the rate of 60 to 80 a day.

"But there always were newcomers," he added.

And there was hunger, a companion added.

"We got small pieces of bread and watery soup for our daily meals," he said. "No meat or fat."

None of the refugees would give his name. All said they had relatives in the Soviet zone of Germany and did not want the Russians to know who was talking.

Two Americans

They are being cared for temporarily in a camp in West Berlin maintained by the city government.

One said there were two Americans in Buchenwald until March, 1947. One, a lieutenant, he knew only as "Fred." The other was a sergeant.

"The lieutenant said his father was a captain in the port of New York," the refugee related. "He said they were spies. One night they were loaded into a Russian truck and we heard they went to Russia."

A moon-faced man said the Russian guards some mornings would call out the regular work detail with the words: "Come on, come on. Today we kill three Fascists."

Quota Of Death

He said the Russians guarding timber-cutting details then would order all men to stand rigid when a tree was felled, on pain of being shot.

"Usually a tree fell on one or two men. Of course, they were killed. One more death and the quota was filled for the day."

The men said the Russians found prisoners trading hoarded trinkets to Russian guards for cigarettes or bits of food.

Object Lesson

"So one day a Russian beckoned to a prisoner. The prisoner went to the fence and the guard turned his tommy gun loose. They had a detail carry the man through the camp as an object lesson."

The Russians used to haul off odd lots of prisoners to the Soviet Union, the men said, but slacked off last December.

"They took only the youngest and strongest," a man said. "Maybe they quit because they ran out of good material."

Berlin Chinese Demand Fare To Formosa

Berlin, Jan. 21 (AP)—Fifteen Chinese invaded the Nationalist Government mission in Berlin today and demanded money to pay their passage to Formosa.

The mission rejected the demand and accused the young Chinese of attempting to discredit the agency with "Communist tactics."

Col. George Siu Meou-si, the acting chief, called in American public safety officers after he said he was advised that the Chinese group intended to erect a Red flag over the mission's building in the United States sector. The group denied it had any Communist link and that it had planned to run up a Red flag.

Position Of Observer

The public safety branch said it was taking the position of "observer" only in the dispute.

Spokesmen for the protesting Chinese denied the colonel's version. They said they were seeking only to obtain Nationalist Government funds so they can go home. Most of them have been students.

The students contended that the mission once had $100,000 to repatriate Chinese nationals from Germany and charged that the money has been misused.

All Repatriated

Colonel Siu asserted that all "legitimate" Chinese who had shown willingness to return to their homeland were repatriated two years ago.

"Most of these men here now are no longer students," he said. "They have been here as long as fifteen years. They have married German girls. Some of them have Chinese wives in China."

He said the mission had exhausted its funds to repatriate those who were willing to go. His Government has specifically instructed him, he said, to withhold any funds from those Chinese who did not take advantage of the opportunity to go home when they had a chance.

German Art Contest

FRANKFURT, Jan. 21 (AP).—An art contest aimed at bringing out German talent suppressed by the Nazis has attracted 4,000 entries, the American High Commission announced today. Blevins Davis, New York art patron, is sponsoring the contest. The first prize is a trip to the United States and $1,000.

CRISIS ARISES FOR DE GASPERI

Premier's Negotiations With Minor Parties Deadlocked

Rome, Jan. 21 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi's routine reshuffling of his Cabinet turned into a full-fledged Government crisis tonight.

The 68-year-old Christian Democrat leader disclosed the sudden turn of events as he left the Viminale Palace after an emergency meeting with President Luigi Einaudi.

De Gasperi, who has headed five post-war Cabinets, said his negotiations with minor parties to form a sixth had been deadlocked.

Without Cabinet For 9 Days

Italy has now been without a Cabinet for nine days.

Although the Christian Democrats control both houses of Parliament, de Gasperi has insisted on all anti-Communist parties being represented in the Cabinet to strengthen his position.

Today both the arch-conservative Liberals and the non-Communist Socialists (P.S.L.I.) notified de Gasperi they would not serve in the new Cabinet.

The immediate bone of contention appeared to be a new electoral law, proposed by the Christian Democrats, which the two dissident groups claim would favor the bigger group at their expense.

Fears Of Liberals

Both parties—Socialists and Liberals—announced that they would hold early meetings of their national committees. This led some observers to believe that a new basis for compromise with the Christian Democrats would be sought.

In the meantime, de Gasperi has the choice of a one-party Cabinet, as many of his Christian Democrat supporters have been demanding, or one which would also include the moderate Republicans.

The Liberals, besides fearing that a new electoral law would deprive them of much power, indicated earlier they were also unwilling to go along with de Gasperi's plan for reform of Italian land holdings.

FINNS REJECT RUSS CHARGES

4 Of 55 Listed By Soviet Held For Questioning In Helsinki

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Finnish Government tonight rejected Soviet charges that it had been harboring war criminals wanted by Russia.

Replying to Moscow's note of January 1, the Finns said they were holding for questioning four of the 55 persons specifically listed by the Soviet Government. But the Finns did not promise to deliver them to Russia.

The Finnish reply said an investigation was being made as to whether they ought to be extradited to Russia under provisions of the 194· peace treaty. The answer declared Finland is striving loyally to fulfill provisions of that treaty but also is bound to observe international laws guaranteeing the rights of individuals—presumably a reference to the right of asylum of political refugees.

Of the four persons detained, three have become Finnish citizens since the war and one is a stateless person who has lived in Finland since 1933.

The Finnish note was delivered tonight by Finnish Minister Karl Sundstroem in Moscow, a Foreign Office communiqué said, three weeks after Andrei Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, accused the Finnish Government of harboring 300 war criminals of Soviet origin. Gromyko listed 56 persons accused of the "most serious" crimes against Russia whose extradition he demanded.

He accused Finland of supplying them with false names and documents and thereby violating her 1947 peace treaty and her 1948 pact of friendship and alliance with Russia.

The Soviet demand was made just as Finland's Presidential campaign was warming up, and was regarded by observers here as an effort to put political pressure on the country in behalf of Finland's Communist Party.

In the election of Presidential electors last Monday and Tuesday, President Juho Paasikivi won easily against Communist and Agrarian candidates. He is expected to have at least 172 votes when the 300 electors meet Feb. 15.

Finland Rejects Russ Charges On Fugitives

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 21 (AP)—Finland categorically rejected today Soviet charges that Finland supplied Soviet war criminals here with faked documents.

At the same time Finland assured her powerful neighbor that she is making every effort to abide by the terms of Finnish-Soviet pacts.

Finland replied to a strong Soviet protest note delivered three weeks ago to Karl Sundstroem, Finnish Minister in Moscow. Today in Moscow, Sundstroem delivered the Finnish reply to the Russians.

"Trying To Observe Treaty"

The Finnish Government told the Russians that, while it is striving to act according to the friendship and mutual assistance pact with Russia, "nevertheless it is entitled to reject categorically the assertions that Finnish authorities had supplied war criminals with faked documents."

Russia, in a New Year's day note, accused Finland of harboring 300 Soviet war criminals in violation of the Soviet-Finnish peace treaty. Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko received Sundstroem in Moscow and demanded that the war criminals be handed over to Russia.

Gromyko specifically accused the Finnish Government of furnishing the alleged war criminals with false names and documents.

16 Cited As New Cases

Among the war criminals, there were said to be 56 guilty of the most serious crimes. The official accusations were backed up by severe reprimands in the Communist newspaper Pravda.

The Finnish Government said in its reply that, of the 56 accused of serious crimes, only 16 are new cases, since the rest of the names had been accounted for previously.

Actually, the list only contained 55 names, the Finnish communiqué said, because two on the list referred to the same person.

4 Detained For Questioning

Four of the sixteen persons have been detained for questioning, the communiqué said. Three of them are unknown in Finland, one has died, and five have left the country. It has been impossible to trace the whereabouts of the remaining three, the official statement said.

Before the Russian note was delivered, it added, "the Finnish authorities had no knowledge of the presence of these sixteen persons, and, consequently, had not been able to take any actions against them."

Weighs Extradition Of 4

Three of the four persons detained have become Finnish citizens during the postwar period. Finland revealed. One is stateless and has been living in Finland since 1933.

Investigations are proceeding to ascertain whether these four should be extradited to the Soviet Union under the statutes of the peace treaty, the note said.

SOVIETS HONOR LENIN MEMORY

Force Will Not Stop Communism, Pravda Editor Says

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, Jan. 21 (AP)—A colorful memorial meeting attended by Generalissimo Stalin was told by Russia's leading editor tonight that the days of imperialism in Asia and the East are over and it is impossible to stop the march of communism by force.

The occasion was the twenty-sixth anniversary of the death of Vladimir Lenin, father of the 1917 revolution. The speaker was P. N. Prospelov, editor of the official Communist newspaper, Pravda, and a member of the central committee of the Communist party.

Among those reported present in the Bolshoi Theater were Communist Premier Mao Tze-tung of China and Chou En-lai, his Foreign Minister.

Stalin, members of the Politburo and Central Committee, many ministers of the Government, workers and persons prominent in Soviet life received a huge ovation as they walked onto the stage and took seats in front of big portraits of Lenin.

A Special Ovation

Mao received a special ovation at mention of his name by the orator, who delivered the main address on the same occasion last year.

Though Prospelov emphasized repeatedly what he said was the teaching of Lenin that socialism and capitalism could live in peaceful co-operation, he declared capitalism is leading the world into a third great war.

Condemning as warmongers such men as British Field Marshal Lord Montgomery, he said imperialism is insane at the realization of its own internal weaknesses and inability to stop the march of "national liberation movements" of eastern peoples.

Emphasizing the significance of events in China and the East, he said the Chinese people, led by the Communist party, had proven by their victory that Lenin's prophecies on China were correct.

Stalin's Policy Praised

The speaker praised the wisdom of Stalin's policy of making communism a success in one country,

Russia, as opposed to the Trotskyite policy of immediate world revolution.

The success of socialism in Russia, he declared, "has become a model for the people's democracies of Europe and Asia."

Stalin's policy of industrialization, he said, enabled Russia to beat Hitler's Germany and free Europe, and now "the Soviet Union has been turned into a mighty Socialist state, into an important international force influencing the entire international situation and radically changing it in the interests of the working people."

Declaring the crash of capitalism is inevitable, he said Lenin and Stalin, as comrades in arms in the 1917 revolution, were to be credited with the beginning of the "real history of mankind."

The revolution, he explained, started "a new era in world history, the era of the breakdown of capitalism and the triumph of socialism."

25th Anniversary Of Republic

The emphasis on China and the East in the Lenin memorial gathering was underlined by a Tashkent speech of Lazar Kaganovich, a Politburo member, which was printed in full in Pravda and the government newspaper Izvestia today.

Tashkent is in the Uzbek Republic, in south central Asia near Iran, Afghanistan, Tibet and Kashmir State, disputed between India and Pakistan. Kaganovich there called on "all oppressed peoples to fight against imperialism."

The occasion of the speech to the Supreme Soviet of Uzbekistan was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Uzbek Republic January 16.

Referring to Uzbekistan as a "former Tsarist colony," Kaganovich said the superiority of the Leninist-Stalinist national policy toward diverse nationalities of the Soviet Union had been demonstrated.

He said that Uzbekistan in "32 years of independent life and 25 years of national Soviet statehood has attained great successes," and has shown "the path to liberation for oppressed peoples of the world, specially those of the East."

Such successes, he said, could not be dreamed of by the men and women of Turkey and Iran and of the "Marshallized countries."

New U.S. Priest Plans First Mass In Moscow

Moscow, Jan. 21 (AP)—The newly arrived American Catholic priest, the Rev. Louis Robert Brassard, today made his first visit to the Church of St. Louis of the French.

Father Brassard, who arrived yesterday, said he planned to call on United States Ambassador Alan G. Kirk today. The priest said he may officiate at his first mass in Moscow's only Roman Catholic church tomorrow.

Part of Eritrean Capital Is Placed Under Curfew

ASMARA, Eritrea, Jan. 21 (AP).—A nightly curfew was instituted today in the European district of this city, the British administration announced. The curfew, starting at 7 p. m. and ending at 5 a. m., is expected to be permanent. It creates a security area in the district, where about 50,000 Italians reside.

British authorities, who control this former Italian colony, declared earlier this month they would reinforce security measures in view of a "series of outrages" which cluminated Dec. 12 in "murderous attacks on the innocent citizens of Asmara itself."

Britain has occupied the country since it was taken from the Italians in 1941. A Pnited Nations decision on whether to restore Italian control has been postponed for a year pending an investigation by a special commission. Most U. N. members favor turning over part of the country to neighboring land-locked Ethiopia.

Indonesia To Induct First High Diplomat

Jakarta (Batavia), U.S.I., Jan. 21 (AP)—The United States of Indonesia Government announced today that President Soekarno will swear in Mohammed Rum on Sunday as Indonesia's high commissioner to Holland.

Rum, chairman of the Republican delegations which negotiated recent military and political agreements with the Dutch, will be the republic's first foreign diplomat on the ambassadorial level.

High foreign office sources said announcement of three other ambassadors was being delayed until the U.S.I. Government determines their acceptability to the governments concerned.

These sources said they are Dr. Ali Sastroamidjojo, former Republican Minister of Education, Ambassador to the United States; Hadji Rasjiji, former Republican representative in Cario, Ambassador to Egypt, and A. Maramis, former Republican Minister of Finance, Ambassador to the Philippines.

Egypt Denies Arms Plan Has Aggressive Aims

CAIRO, Jan. 21 (AP).—Egyptian Foreign Minister Mohammed Salah Eldin Bey said today Egypt's new stepped-up arms program has been wrongly interpreted abroad as aggressive. He denied any aggressive intentions on the part of Egypt.

The Foreign Minister, referring to the plan, announced Monday, to develop Egypt's armed forces, told newspaper men: "Our strategic position between peoples and civilizations of the East and West demands that we conserve and increase our strength." But, he added that any interpretation that Egypt has aggressive intentions "is entirely unfounded."

He also announced that Egypt would soon reopen its border with semi-independent Cirenaica on its west. The border with the former Italian colony, soon to get its full independence under a United Nations decision, was closed by Egypt last September when Cirenaican authorities refused to extradite three members of an outlawed Egyptian brotherhood who had escaped to Bengasi seeking asylum.

CHINESE DENY RUSSIAN GRAB

Reds Lay U.S. Accusation To 'Political Charlatans'

Hong Kong, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Chinese Communists today heatedly denied that Russia was taking over large parts of North China or that they were Russian stooges.

At the same time they themselves made new threatening gestures at southeast Asia and Tibet.

This was in line with a prediction last Sunday by Yen Hsi-shan, Nationalist Chinese premier, that the Russians were going to give the Chinese Reds a free hand in southeast Asia in return for Russian control of Manchuria, Inner and Outer Mongolia and Sinkiang.

The Communist denial was aimed not at Yen, but at Dean Acheson, United States Secretary of State, who on January 12 said the Russians were moving to take over those four large northern and northwestern areas. The Chinese statement declared the American version was compounded by "the most incompetent political charlatans."

Not "Running Dogs"

Issued in Hong Kong by the Reds' New China news agency in the name of Hu Chiao-mu, the Peiping regime's information director, the statement denied that the Chinese Communists were in any way "running dogs of the Soviet Union."

"Running dog" is the Chinese Communist equivalent of "jackal." They use the term frequently in referring to the Nationalists in relation to the United States.

The two top Chinese Red political figures, Chairman Mao Tze-tung and Premier Chou En-lai, are now in Moscow. Chou's recent arrival is believed to indicate signature of a Chinese-Russian treaty of alliance is near.

Hu's statement said the Acheson story was "inept rumor-mongering" that would only arouse the Chinese and Soviet people to anger and strengthen their friendly co-operation.

Cites Ward Testimony

He contended that Angus Ward, United States consul general freed only last month by the Communists in Manchuria, had said he saw no evidence of Soviet supervision in Manchuria. (Hu failed to mention that Ward was either actually in solitary confinement or under what amounted to house arrest for thirteen months.)

The Reds also issued a warning that any country conducting diplomatic relations with Tibet would be considered hostile.

Tibet, for centuries under nominal Chinese suzerainty but practically independent, is on the Reds' published timetable for "liberation" in 1950.

The threat to foreign countries, issued by an official Red spokesman in Peiping, was stated to be in comment on reports that the Llama who runs Tibet intended to send good-will missions to the United States, Britain, India and Napal.

Report Red Advance

[The version heard in London ordered the Tibetans to send a mission to Peiping "to negotiate a peaceful solution." It hinted at reprisals otherwise.]

Tying in with this political talk was a Peiping radio announcement that a Red army unit had reached Khotan, in southern Sinkiang province. The announcement said Khotan was "near" the border of Tibet. Actually, it is 130 miles from Tibet over impassable mountains.

The unit, of unspecified size, was credited with marching nearly 1,000 miles in one month from northwest Kansu province to Khotan across snowy desert.

Appeal From Thailand

A group of Chinese in Thailand was quoted as appealing to Peiping for help, saying they had been in jail for six months. It said thousands faced deportation and many had died of beatings and poison.

The broadcast was presented as a news story, without official comment. Thus, it was not so strong as yesterday's Chinese Communist protest to Paris, alleging officially that French troops had committed atrocities against Chinese in Indo-China.

The Nationalists on Formosa said Chinese Communist troops now covered the entire border of Indo-China and China's Yunnan province.

Reds On Border Of Indo-China

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 21 (AP)—Chinese Communist troops are stretched along the entire Indo-China-China border, the Nationalists said today.

The announcement was made by the Defense Ministry. The Nationalists admitted the southwest mainland tin-mining center of Mengtze had been taken by the Reds.

Mengtze is in Yunnan province, 140 miles south of Kunming, the provincial capital.

Thousands Flee Into Indo-China

Remnants of Nationalist mainland forces had clung to some areas of Yunnan along the Indo-China border. Thousands of Nationalist troops have escaped the Reds by fleeing into Indo-China.

The Reds have extended their control the entire length of the common border with Indo-China. Long ago they occupied the Kwangtung province section to the east.

The Ministry said turncoat Nationalist troops had been encircled by Loyalists at Yaan in the remote province of Sikang.

Attempts by pro-Communist forces to relieve the trapped force have been foiled, it said. These pro-Red troops are under command of Gen. Liu Wen-hui, former Sikang Governor who joined the Communists in December.

Formosa Quickens Defenses

Here on Formosa, preparations quickened for the defense of this island and Hainan Island against expected Red invasion attempts.

Gen. Ku Chu-tung, Nationalist chief of staff, brought plans for Hainan's defense to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. Premier Yen Hsi-shan also conferred with Chiang on the entire military-political situation.

Held Virtual Red Prisoners, China 'Coalitionists' Say

Hong Kong, Jan. 21 (AP)—Minority party leaders of the Chinese Communist "coalition government" today were reported to be virtual prisoners of the Reds in Peiping.

Associates of the minority party chiefs arriving from the Red capital made the accusation but asked that their names be withheld.

These sources said members of the Democratic League and the Kuomintang (Nationalist) Revolutionary Committee are often excluded from important policy-making meetings although they have been given high nominal posts in the Red Government.

Visit A Surprise

News of Mao Tze-tung's visit to Moscow came as a surprise to them, they said. The No. 1 Chinese Red has been in the Russian capital for more than a month.

Several of the minority party leaders have asked permission to visit other places in China or come to Hong Kong. These sources said the Communists refused, saying it was more important that they remain in Peiping.

Soviet Part In China Development Already Set, Report Says

San Francisco, Jan. 21 (AP)—Chinese Communist Chairman Mao Tze-tung already had wangled import deals with the Soviet Russians before he went to Moscow last month, an unconfirmed report said today.

These were preliminary agreements with Soviet representatives in China who promised extensive Russian economic and technical aid in return for concessions in China, notably in oil and mining, the report said. It did not name the Russians involved.

The report reached here from Hong Kong, from a source who cannot be identified but who relayed it as having leaked out of the Communist-dominated government in Peiping.

While not confirmed by any other source, the report is in line with recent Chinese Communist broadcasts and with Secretary of State Acheson's statement on January 12 that Soviet Russia is "detaching" important Chinese areas.

Sino-Soviet Company

According to the report, the agreements were as follows:

A joint Sino-Soviet concern under Russian management, but with China holding a theoretical 51 per cent of the stock, will develop oil concessions in Sinkiang and Kansu provinces. In addition to the well-known Yumen fields in Kansu, a great new oil region is to be developed at Wusu, a city in Dzungaria in northern Sinkiang on the north slope of the great Tienshan mountains that bisect the province.

According to Soviet technicians who have surveyed this field (apparently during a period of Soviet development prior to 1944), it contains both oil and coal resources equal to those of Russia's greatest concentration of mineral wealth, said to be the Techora Basin in the northern Urals.

Russia is to supply technical aid and machinery to develop the Wusu field, where 28 wells already are said to be producing, 7 more being drilled and 200 staked out for drilling. Mention is made of refineries, steel plants and other industries which suggest plans for extensive development of a large inland industrial base.

Highways To Be Built

Highways are to built along the old silk routes that run along both sides of the Tienshan range. The same routes are to be surveyed for future railway building.

[Minister of Railways Teng Tai-yuan said recently that Sun Yat-sen's long-cherished dream of building a Peiping-Sinkiang railway would some day be realized.]

In addition to oil and coal, iron and wolfram (tungsten) resources in Sinkiang and Kansu are to be developed.

The report says that Mao Tze-tung secured from the Russians a promise to provide 125 locomotives and several thousand freight cars during 1950.

Rail Improvements

In addition, the Russians agreed to supply all necessary equipment to double-track the main Manchurian railways and the line down to Peiping, and to "continue to help China rebuild and improve existing railways."

The report said the agreements were concluded after Li Fan-yi, Vice Minister of fuel Industries, made several flights to Tinhwa, the Sinkiang capital, to confer witht the Russians.

Soviet Union it always means complete subordination."

Mao has been in Moscow more than a month. There has been much speculation that the length of his stay indicates he has been finding the Soviets difficult to bargain with. Mao is believed to have gone to Moscow to seek large-scale economic aid.

Jessup declined comment on Korea, Formosa or American policy on the Far East. He said President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson are making United States policy clear.

The Ambassador is here on an Asian survey trip. He will preside at a meeting of American diplomats at Bangkok, Thailand (Siam), next month.

Jessup Suggests Russia May Dominate China

Manila, Jan. 21 (AP)—Roving United States Ambassador Philip C. Jessup today suggested Communist China's top leaders may be finding out in Moscow that their country is under Russian domination.

Jessup was asked to comment on the extended stay of Mao Tze-tung, the No. 1 Chinese Red, in the Russian capital and the arrival there yesterday of his Premier and Foreign Minister, Chou En-lai.

Much Speculation

The Ambassador said they may be "finding out what most already knew—that when any country orients its policies to that of the

Truman, Acheson on Korea

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP).—The text of a statement by President Truman and a letter by Secretary of State Dean Acheson on the House's rejection of the $60,000,000 Korean aid bill follows:

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

I am releasing herewith a letter which I have received from the Secretary of State about the action of the House of Representatives in rejecting the Korean aid bill on Thursday by a vote of 193 to 191. I entirely concur in the Secretary's views as to the seriousness of this action and the necessity for its speedy rectification. I shall take up this matter with Congressional leaders and urge upon them the need for immediate action, in order that important foreign-policy interests of this country may be properly safeguarded.

The letter of the Secretary of State follows:

Jan. 20, 1950

Dear Mr. President:

The Department of State received with concern and dismay the report that the House of Representatives had rejected the Korea aid bill of 1949 by a vote of 192 to 191. This action, if not quickly repaired, will have the most far-reaching adverse effects upon our foreign policy, not only in Korea but in many other areas of the world. It has been fundamental to our policy that in those areas where a reasonable amount of American aid can make the difference between the maintenance of national independence and its collapse under totalitarian pressure, we should extend such aid within a prudent assessment of our capabilities. The American people understand this policy and have supported our extending aid in such circumstances; the success of such aid is a matter of public record.

The Republic of Korea owes its existence in large measure to the United States, which freed the country from Japanese control. The peoples of the Republic of Korea, the other peoples of Asia, and the members of the United Nations under whose observation a government of the republic was freely elected, alike look to our conduct in Korea as a measure of the seriousness of our concern with the freedom and welfare of peoples maintaining their independence in the face of great obstacles. We have not only given the Republic of Korea independence; since then we have provided the economic, military, technical, and other assistance necessary to its continued existence.

Of the current program of economic assistance we are extending to Korea, half was provided by the Congress during the previous session. The withholding of the remainder would bring our efforts to an end in mid-course.

It is our considered judgment that if our limited assistance is continued the republic will have a good chance of survival as a free nation. Should such further aid be denied, that chance may well be lost and all our previous efforts perhaps prove to have been vain.

We are concerned not only about the consequences of this abrupt about-face in Korea, whose government and people have made valiant efforts to win their independence and establish free institutions under the most difficult circumstances, but we are also deeply concerned by the effect which would be created in other parts of the world where our encouragement is a major element in the struggle for freedom.

It is difficult for us to believe that the members of the House of Representatives who voted against this measure took sufficiently into account the serious implications of this action upon the position of the United States in the Far East. These implications were set forth in considerable detail in hearings before the committees of Congress by the Department of State, Department of Defense and the Economic Co-operation Administration.

In our judgment it would be disastrous for the foreign policy of the United States for us to consider this action by the House of Representatives as its last word on the matter.

Faithfully Yours,
DEAN ACHESON.

China - Korea Aid Proposed By Connally

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—Senator Connally (D., Texas) opened the way today for Congress to link economic aid to the Chinese Nationalists with similar help to the South Korean Government.

Connally, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said it is the consensus of that group that the Chinese Nationalists who have fled to Formosa should have $106,000,000 economic aid between now and June 30.

Under present law, this amount left from a $125,000,000 Economic Co-operation Administration fund would lapse February 15.

The same deadline applies to economic aid for Korea. The House rejected by a one-vote margin this week a bill to make $60,000,000 available to South Korea.

May Revive Proposal

Connally said the Korean aid proposal might be revived by tieing it in with a bill now before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to extend the time for China aid.

He said he did not regard the House vote rejecting the Korea measure as an indication of the House's attitude toward other foreign policies.

Rather, he said, it apparently represented "dissatisfaction with the way things have been going in China."

Acheson To Be Quizzed

Secretary of State Acheson is expected to be questioned both about Korea and Formosa when he goes before the Foreign Relations Committee Tuesday to report in recent diplomatic developments in the Far East.

Connally said Acheson asked to appear before the group after the State Department had ordered the withdrawal of American officials from Communist China when the United States Consular property at Peiping was seized.

Acheson's visit will be followed Wednesday by testimony from John J. McCloy, high commissioner, about the problems of occupied Germany.

Defense Officials Due

The following day, Thursday, the committee will hear from Secretary of Defense Johnson and Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, about the military situation in Asia.

JAN 23 1950

The House rejected the Administration request for $60,000,000 in additional economic funds for the Far Eastern republic Thursday. House tellers and the Congressional Record listed the vote as 191 for the bill to 193 against.

But a check showed that Representative Lemke (R., N.D.) was listed twice—once as voting against the measure and once as paired for it.

Paired For Bill

Lemke cleared it up last night. Contacted at Devils Lake, N.D., he said he was not present when the final vote was taken but was paired for it. Therefore, he said, the correct vote should be 192 against the bill, 191 for.

Lemke was paired with Representative Smith (R., Ohio).

When a member can't be present for a vote, he sometimes arranges with another member on the opposite side of the question to abstain from voting. Such "pairs" do not count in the vote tally, although they are listed in the Congressional Record.

What effect, if any, the counting error would have on the bill was not immediately apparent. Under House rules, any change in the vote record must be made the following day. That was yesterday.

Rebuke On Policy

The Administration had urged aid to Southern Korea to bolster its economy against Communist pressure. Its surprise defeat in the House was seen as a rebuke for President Truman's Far Eastern policy.

Korean Ambassador John Myun Chang conferred yesterday with Assistant Secretary of State W. Walton Butterworth. He said he received a "very sympathetic" hearing and that he hoped to discuss the prospects for future American aid with Secretary Acheson. He expressed "great concern" over the House vote.

Connally Hits Vishinsky For Blast at Acheson

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP).—Chairman Tom Connally (D., Tex.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee expressed amazement today at the action of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky in calling statements of Secretary of State Dean Acheson "monstrous and awkward lies."

Vishinsky thus described Acheson's statement that Russia was in the process of "detaching" territory from China and "attaching" it to the Soviet Union.

AMAZED AT LANGUAGE

"I am amazed at the distempered and angry language of Foreign Minister Vishinsky," Connally told reporters.

"Mr. Vishinsky does not talk like a Foreign Minister. He uses language unfitted for courteous and statesman-like communications. He talks like he did when he was prosecuting and convicting victims of the purge in Russia years ago."

Connally declined to comment on a reporter's suggestion that in denying Acheson's charges, Vishinsky had, in effect, made something of a pledge of territorial integrity to China.

BACKS OK ON SPAIN

Connally took another crack at the Russians in dictating a statement approving Acheson's announcement that this country would support a move in the United Nations to abandon the ban against full diplomatic relations with Spain.

"The Franco Government of Spain does not have my approval," Connally said. 'Neither does the Russian Government, nor the government of its satellites.

"But we have full diplomatic relations with them and I see no reason why we shouldn't have full diplomatic relations with Spain."

Connally said he thought a number of U.N. member states which voted to withdraw ambassadors from Spain had changed their views. He expressed hope that the U.N. would act swiftly to lift the ban.

Truman Likely To Hear Arms Briefing

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—President Truman may be invited to sit in on a forthcoming briefing of senators by defense leaders on the world military situation.

Secretary of Defense Johnson was reported to have told senators at his Pentagon offices yesterday that Mr. Truman is interested and may meet with the senators if he can find the time.

Armed Services Committee members said they were told that sometime after February 14 they will be invited to listen to the Joint Chiefs of Staff, headed by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, review the world military situation.

First Such Event

If Mr. Truman attends, it would be the first time the President has sat in on such a session in the memory of veteran senators.

During the war Mr. Truman often invited congressmen to the White House for discussion of military problems with which Congress had to deal. But such sessions usually were limited to committee chairmen and top ranking minority members.

In this case, the entire Senate Armed Services Committee of thirteen members would be invited. Senators said that while no mention was made of it, they assumed that the House Armed Services Committee either would be invited, or given a similar briefing.

May Discuss H-Bomb

Senators said they assume the proposed briefing would cover the latest military developments, both in weapons and tactics.

They said they didn't get any idea at yesterday's luncheon with Acheson whether future discussion would include any information about the proposed hydrogen bomb, a leading topic among lawmakers now.

Members of the Senate-House Atomic Committee who heard General Bradley yesterday maintained a tight silence on the meeting.

Chafe At Restrictions

But there were signs that some were chafing under the secrecy blanket which has been imposed on all public discussion of the H-bomb.

"I find myself in the absurd situation of not even being able to talk about what I've read in the newspapers," one committee member said.

Senator McMahon (D., Conn.), joint committee chairman, refused either to confirm or deny that the hydrogen bomb was discussed at the session with Bradley.

Larsen To Direct Civil Defense

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—A former atomic research official was named today to head the Government agency charged with planning for wartime civil defense.

Paul J. Larsen, who has been associated with atomic research in Los Alamos and Albuquerque, N.M., will take over as first chairman of the civilian mobilization office on March 1, Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman announced.

The office was set up as one of eight planning groups in a recent reorganization of the National Security Resources Board, which Steelman has been running as acting chairman.

Surge Of Civil Defense

Larsen's appointment was announced on the heels of a Defense Department disclosure that recruiting of 150,000 volunteer aircraft observers will start immediately to be ready for action if war should come.

The two announcements marked a sudden surge of action in the civil defense program, which has been dormant since the war.

Larsen will supervise planning for civil defense, health resources, housing and community services, strategic dispersion of industrial and governmental facilities, and censorship.

Held Atomic Research Posts

The new official formerly was associate director of the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory of the University of California. Later he served as director of the university's Sandia Laboratory at Albuquerque, N.M.

When that operation was taken over by the Western Electric Company last November, Larsen became consultant of a Western Electric subsidiary working in atomic research.

The decision to recruit thousands of aircraft observers for civil defense was announced following a conference of defense officials and state representatives called by Secretary of Defense Johnson.

To Be Trained In 25 States

The Defense Department said the "aircraft observers corps" will be trained in 25 Northwestern and Atlantic states by the Air Defense Command of the Air Force, then placed on a stand-by basis.

In case of war these air-raid wardens will keep "a 24-hour-per-day watch from observation posts to give warning of impending enemy attack by air and will supplement radar warning systems."

The conference also discussed setting up observation posts, filter centers and control centers.

Under Study For 2 Years

There is no Federal law now to provide for a civil defense setup, although the matter has been under study for more than two years.

The recent announcement that Russia had set off an atomic explosion started new demands in Congress for action along those lines. Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, France and some of the Scandinavian countries already have reactivated civil defense programs dropped after World War II.

The late Secretary of Defense James Forrestal established an office of civilian defense planning in March, 1948, headed by Russell J. Hopley, of Omaha. Mr. Truman ended this office early last year and ended this office last year and gave its responsibilities to NSRB.

Russ Suspected Of Urging Bulgaria To Defy U.S.

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—Informed officials said today they look for Bulgaria to stand fast—possibly on orders from Moscow—against a United States threat to break off diplomatic relations.

Expressing the suspicion that the Soviet Union had called the signals on the Bulgarian demand for the recall of United States Minister Donald Heath, these diplomatic authorities said the Russians may welcome a chance to force American officials out of Sofia entirely.

The United States, replying to the recall note, declared bluntly that it will withdraw its entire diplomatic mission from Bulgaria and send Bulgarian diplomats in this country home unless the Communist government at Sofia drops its insistance on expelling Heath.

Satellites Face Tough Policy

The American Government thus indicated that it has decided on a tough policy toward the Communist satellite governments of eastern Europe in respect to the treatment of American officials and citizens there.

The note to Bulgaria threatened to break relations unless the Bulgarian Government did two things: (1) Withdrew its request for Heath's recall; (2) demonstrated "its willingness to observe established international standards of conduct" in the treatment of American diplomats.

General Withdrawal Possible

The note held that restrictions and "indignities" suffered by United States officials in Sofia have made it "virtually impossible for the legation to perform its normal diplomatic and consular functions."

Restrictions on American officials in Bulgaria are matched in some degree in other eastern European countries. The policy of breaking relations, therefore, could lead to a general withdrawal of American representatives from those countries.

The United States already has notified Hungary, following the arrest of Robert Vogeler, an executive of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, that this country said it would have to review its relations with Hungary unless the Vogeler case is handled differently.

Try B-36 Pull On 'Mo', Air Force Grins

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—The plight of the battleship Missouri reportedly has prompted a grinning offer from the commander of the Air Force to haul the big battlewagon out of the mud with B-36 bombers.

Senators who lunched with the Chiefs of Staff of the Armed Forces said a good-natured revival of the air power-versus-sea power dispute was set off by Gen. J. Lawton Collins, of the Army.

Collins suggested solemnly that perhaps the Air Force had dropped phoney buoys into Chesapeake Bay to lure the Missouri onto a mudbank.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff, denied it. Just to prove that there is "complete unification" among the armed forces, he said, "I'm even willing to attach some B-36's to the Missouri and yank her out by air power."

The ribbing was directed at Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations. Senators reported that a sad grin was Sherman's only contribution to the discussion.

Church Council Neutral On Jerusalem

New York, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America says it neither supports nor opposes any plan to internationalize Jerusalem.

The council made the statement yesterday after a fact-finding mission, not sponsored by the council, reported that a United Nations proposal for internationalizing the Holy City was "dangerous and unnecessary."

Dr. Samuel Guy Inman, a member of the council's Commission on International Good Will, was among the fact finders. The council said, however, that he did not represent it on the trip and could not speak for it.

The council said leaders in its 27 Protestant and Orthodox denominations are divided in their opinions on internationalizing Jerusalem.

over all Europe under its program of "world conquest through the seizure of power by national Communist parties."

Talks To Junior Chamber

"And don't think the United States isn't on the schedule," he added. "It is."

Hoffman's speech was prepared for a United States Junior Chamber of Commerce banquet at which the group honored ten men whom it named as the nation's outstanding young men for 1949.

Hoffman said that with United States help Europe could make itself virtually Communist-proof, by lowering the trade barriers which isolate the nations from each other.

"A reluctant decision on the part of the Kremlin not to march against western Europe is, of course, only a partial solution of the problem presented by the plans of Moscow for world conquest," he said.

Mussolini Case Cited

"But if the Russian leadership meets with signal failure in western Europe, there is hope, at least, that the people of Russia will in time gain an understanding of freedom—and then, freedom itself.

"That may seem too remote for consideration, but let us not forget that it wasn't too long ago that Mussolini was riding herd over the Italians. Today, the Italians are buoyant in their new freedom.

"People in the satellite countries will not necessarily have to wait for the Russian people to act; they are peering through the Iron Curtain now, looking with longing at the people of the free nations of western Europe, who not only enjoy better living conditions but who still have their freedoms."

Methodist Opposes Vatican Agent

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 21 (AP)—Dr. Hazen G. Werner, Methodist bishop of Ohio, yesterday questioned sending of a special representative of the United States Government to the Vatican.

Bishop Werner raised his questions in a letter to President Truman.

The late President Roosevelt appointed Taylor as special envoy to the Vatican. President Truman has not indicated he will name a successor to Myron Taylor, who resigned earlier this week.

Value Is Admitted

Bishop Werner wrote:

"Let me emphasize that there is no dispute with Roman Catholicism as a religion, but only as an expression of the fundamental democratic principle that religious bodies or movements should not be politically aligned with government.

"The announcement of Mr. Myron Taylor's resignation as your special representative at the Vatican raises again questions which have caused great concern among many Americans since 1939.

"Admitting all its special value as a source of political and military intelligence, especially during World War II, does not personal diplomacy of this kind set dangerous precedent?

Cites Tradition

"How can we hope to defend and preserve our American tradition and constitutional contention that church and state ought to be separate if we continue to assign an 'unofficial ambassador' to the international headquarters of the Roman Catholic Church?

"I put these questions to you in sincere belief that you'll weigh them carefully in any consideration of this nation's future diplomatic relations with the Roman Catholic Church in Rome."

Successful Aid For Europe Urged To Curb Communists

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 21 (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman said today that a successful European Recovery Program might point the way to eventual overthrow of the Communists throughout the world—including Russia.

But if the program fails, the Economic Co-operation Administrator said, the Kremlin would take

OPTIONAL SECOND NIGHT LEAD HISS

BY JAMES PARLATORE

NEW YORK, JAN. 21-(AP)-ALGER HISS, HIS STATE DEPARTMENT REPUTATION RUINED AND HIS BRILLIANT CAREER WRECKED, FACED PRISON BARS TODAY AFTER A FEDERAL JURY CONVICTED HIM OF PERJURY.

BUT HISS, THROUGH HIS ATTORNEY, SAID HE WOULD FIGHT THE VERDICT WHICH BRANDED HIM A TRAITOR AT THE END OF A SECOND TENSE TRIAL.

"YOU CAN BE SURE THE VERDICT WILL BE APPEALED," SAID DEFENSE ATTORNEY CLAUDE B. CROSS WITHIN MINUTES AFTER HISS WAS FOUND GUILTY ON TWO PERJURY ACCOUNTS.

THE DEFENDANT, YALTA AIDE TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, WAS CONVICTED OF LYING IN HIS DENIALS THAT HE EVER USED HIS ONCE-HIGH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICE TO AID COMMUNIST SPIES.

HISS WILL BE SENTENCED JAN. 25. THE MAXIMUM SENTENCE IS 10 YEARS IN PRISON AND $4,000 IN FINES.

HISS WAS CONVICTED OF LYING TWICE--ONCE WHEN HE DENIED GIVING AWAY SECRETS AND AGAIN WHEN HE DENIED ANY CONTACT WITH WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, EX-COMMUNIST SPY RING COURIER, AFTER JAN. 1, 1937.

THE JURY'S DOUBLE-BARRELLED GUILTY FINDING UPHELD THE STORY OF CHAMBERS, WHO WAS HISS' CHIEF ACCUSER.

THROUGHOUT TWO LONG, DRAMATIC TRIALS, IT WAS CHAMBERS' WORD OF COMMUNIST INTRIGUE AGAINST HISS' COOL, STUBBORN DENIAL.

ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY THOMAS F.MURPHY, WHO PROSECUTED HISS RELENTLESSLY THROUGH BOTH TRIALS, ASKED THAT HE BE CLAPPED BEHIND BARS AT ONCE TO AWAIT SENTENCE.

HOWEVER, FEDERAL JUDGE HENRY W.GODDARD ALLOWED HISS TO CONTINUE FREE ON HIS PRESENT $5,000 BAIL.

HISS WAS TRIED LAST SPRING AND SUMMER ON THE FEDERAL PERJURY CHARGE. BUT THE FIRST JURY DISAGREED ON JULY 8 AND WAS DISMISSED. THAT JURY--TEN MEN AND TTWO WOMEN--WAS OUT NEARLY 29 HOURS.

THE SECOND JURY--EIGHT WOMEN AND FOUR MEN--REACHED ITS VERDICT AT 2:50 P.M. (EST), JUST 20 MINUTES SHORT OF 24 HOURS AFTER RECEIVING THE CASE. THEY HAD RETURNED FROM LUNCH ONLY 42 MINUTES EARLIER.

HISS GAVE NO SIGN OF EMOTION WHEN THE FOREMAN, MRS.ADA CONDELL, ANNOUNCED THE VERDICT. HIS CHIN WENT UP. HIS LIPS TIGHTENED. HE FOLDED HIS ARMS.

HIS WIFE, PRISCILLA, WAS BY HIS SIDE AS SHE HAS BEEN SINCE HE FIRST WAS ACCUSED. SHE SQUIRMED IN HER SEAT AT THE VERDICT AND LOOKED DOWN AT THE FLOOR.

LATER, OUTSIDE THE COURT, THE TWO EMBRACED FOR AN INSTANT. THEN THEY LEFT THE COURTROOM AREA, LIPS TIGHT, FACES STERN, WITH NO WORD TO ANYONE.

"I DON'T SEE HOW ANY OTHER VERDICT WAS POSSIBLE. I HOPE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL REALIZE THE DEBT THEY OWE TO THIS JURY, MR. MURPHY, AND THE TIRELESS AND SPLENDID EFFORTS OF THE FBI."

CHAMBERS HAD GONE ABOUT HIS MARYLAND FARM CHORES WITH LITTLE APPARENT INTEREST IN THE TENSE, TIRING JURY DEBATE.

DURING BOTH TRIALS THE DEFENSE BRANDED CHAMBERS A CHRONIC LIAR, A PETTY LITTLE MAN VOICING RIDICULOUS CHARGES AGAINST A BRILLIANT LAWYER AND GOVERNMENT SERVANT.

FROM THE BEGINNING, IT HAD BEEN CHAMBERS' WORD AGAINST HISS'.

CHAMBERS ACCUSED THE 45-YEAR-OLD HISS, WHO HELPED TO FOUND THE UNITED NATIONS, OF TURNING OVER GOVERNMENT SECRETS IN WHOLESALE FASHION TO THE SPY RING.

AS LONG AGO AS THE SUMMER OF 1948, CHAMBERS TOLD THE HOUSE

UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE THAT HE WAS THE SPY RING COURIER WITH WHOM HISS DEALT.
HISS INSISTED CHAMBERS WAS LYING.
HE SAID HE NEVER GAVE CHAMBERS SECRETS AND NEVER EVEN SAW THE PUDGY EX-COMMUNIST AFTER JAN. 1, 1937.
BUT CHAMBERS DUG MICROFILM COPIES OF STATE DOCUMENTS OUT OF A HOLLOW PUMPKIN ON HIS MARYLAND FARM TO BACK HIS CHARGES. THESE "PUMPKIN PAPERS" LED A SPY HUNTING NEW YORK GRAND JURY TO INDICT HISS IN DECEMBER, 1948, ON TWO COUNTS OF PERJURY.

IN THE FIRST TRIAL, STARTING MAY 31 AND ENDING JULY 8, THERE WERE 570,000 WORDS OF TESTIMONY.
IT WAS HIGHLIGHTED BY HENRY JULIAN WADLEIGH'S STORY THAT HE GAVE CHAMBERS STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETS. HE LEFT THE STATE DEPARTMENT CAUCCKOORY

IT WAS HIGHLIGHTED BY HENRY JULIAN WADLEIGH'S STORY THAT HE GAVE CHAMBERS STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETS. HE LEFT THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN 1946 AFTER A DECADE AS A DEPARTMENT ASSOCIATE OF HISS.
TWO U.S. SUPREME COURT JUSTICES CAME TO HISS' DEFENSE IN THAT TRIAL AS CHARACTER WITNESSES. THEY WERE FELIX FRANKFURTER AND STANLEY F.REED.
THE SECOND TRIAL BEGAN NOV. 17 AND LASTED 39 COURT DAYS. SOME 1,187,500 WORDS OF TESTIMONY WENT INTO THE RECORD.
IT LARGELY FOLLOWED THE PATTERN OF THE FIRST TRIAL. BUT THIS TIME THE DEFENSE PUT TWO MENTAL EXPERTS ON THE STAND. THEY CALLED CHAMBERS A PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY, WITH A MENTAL QUIRK FOR LYING.
THE TRIAL ENDED YESTERDAY AND JUDGE GODDARD GAVE THE CASE TO THE JURY AT 3:10 P.M.
TWICE THE JURY CALLED FOR A REREADING OF CERTAIN TRIAL TESTIMONY. THEN THEY WENT TO BED AT 10:45 P.M. LAST NIGHT IN KNICKERBOCKER HOTEL.
THEY RETURNED TO THE DEBATE AT 9:20 A.M. TODAY BUT TOOK TIME OUT A SHORT WHILE LATER TO HEAR JUDGE GODDARD REPEAT PART OF HIS CHARGE. THEY HAD REQUESTED THIS TO REFRESH THEIR MEMORIES.
HISS LEFT HARVARD LAW SCHOOL AND WENT TO WORK FOR THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON EARLY IN THE 1930S.
AFTER A SPELL WITH THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ADMINISTRATION, HE SERVED A SENATE COMMITTEE AND THEN WENT INTO THE STATE DEPARTMENT.
THERE, HE ROSE RAPIDLY. HIS ASSIGNMENTS WERE MANY AND VARIED. HE WAS TRUSTED, LIKED AND PROMOTED. IN THE WAR AND POSTWAR YEARS, HE TOOK AN INCREASING HAND IN THE FORGING OF A PEACE PATTERN.
IN 1947, HISS TOOK A $20,000 A YEAR POST AS PRESIDENT OF THE CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE. HE GAVE UP THE JOB AFTER HE WAS INDICTED.
CHAMBERS BEGAN HUMBLY. HE BUMMED ABOUT THE COUNTRY FOR YEARS AFTER SOME STRANGE EMOTIONAL DISTURBANCE LED HIM TO CUT SHORT HIS COLLEGE EDUCATION.
ABOUT THE TIME HISS WAS STARTING UP IN WASHINGTON, CHAMBERS WAS STARTING DOWN--INTO THE SHADOWY COMMUNIST UNDERGROUND BENEATH THE SURFACE OF THE CAPITAL.

IT WAS DURING THOSE YEARS, HE TESTIFIED, THAT HE MET HISS, FOUND IN HIM A COMMUNIST COMRADE AND MADE THE PACT FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETS.
BUT BY 1938, CHAMBERS SAID, HE SOURED ON COMMUNISM. HE BROKE WITH THE PARTY, HE TESTIFIED, AND EVENTUALLY WORKED HIS WAY UP TO BECOME SENIOR EDITOR OF TIME MAGAZINE AT $30,000 A YEAR.
HE SAID HE TRIED BEFORE THE WAR TO ALERT HIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS TO THE MENACE OF SUBVERSIVES IN WASHINGTON. BUT, HE CLAIMED, NOTHING EVER CAME OF IT.
SO HE HELD HIS PEACE UNTIL THE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE WAS WELL INTO ITS POSTWAR SPY HUNT. THEN HE TOLD THE STORY AGAIN, WITH MORE DETAIL. THIS TIME HE GOT RESULTS.
HE QUIT HIS MAGAZINE JOB AND WENT BACK TO HIS FARM AS THE IN-COURT AND OUT-OF-COURT BATTLES RAGED ABOUT HIS HEAD.
THIS SACRIFICE, HE SAID, WAS HIS WAY OF ATONING FOR 14 YEARS IN THE COMMUNIST PRTY.

FIFTH LEAD HISS
NEW YORK, JAN. 21-(AP)-A FEDERAL JURY CONVICTED ALGER HISS ON TWO COUNTS OF PERJURY TODAY--A VERDICT THAT BRANDED HISS A COMMUNIST SPY FOR THE RUSSIANS WHILE HE HELD HIGH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICE BEFORE THE WAR.
THE FEDERAL COURT JURY OF EIGHT WOMEN AND FOUR MEN DELIVERED THE VERDICT AT 2:50 P.M. (EST), NEARLY 24 HOURS AFTER IT RECEIVED THE CASE.
IT WAS HISS' SECOND TRIAL. LAST JULY ANOTHER JURY FAILED TO AGREE IN THE CASE.
HISS FACES A MAXIMUM SENTENCE OF 10 YEARS IN PRISON PLUS $4,000 IN FINES.

HISS WAS CONVICTED SPECIFICALLY OF LYING TO A FEDERAL GRAND JURY WHEN HE DENIED PASSING STATE DEPARTMENTS SECRETS TO WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, SELF-DESCRIBED COURIER FOR A SOVIET SPY RING OPERATING IN WASHINGTON IN THE LATE 1930'S.
HE ALSO WAS CONVICTED OF LYING WHEN HE DENIED SEEING CHAMBERS AFTER JAN. 1, 1937.
FEDERAL JUDGE HENRY W.GOGGARD SET JAN. 25 FOR SENTENCING AND CONTINUED HIM IN THE SAME $5,000 BAIL.
HISS AND HIS WIFE, PRISCILLA, WHO HAS REMAINED BY HIS SIDE THROUGHOUT BOTH LONG TRIALS, SHOWED NO IMMEDIATE SIGN OF EMOTION WHEN THE VERDICT WAS DELIVERED. A MOMENT LATER, HISS' LIPS TIGHTENED AND HE FOLED HIS ARMS ACROSS HIS CHEST.
MRS.ADA CONDELL, FOREMAN OF THE JURY, ANNOUNCED THE VERDICT: "GUILTY ON BOTH COUNTS."

JUDGE GODDARD THANKED THE JURORS AND TOLD THEM NOT TO DISCUSS THE CASE WITH ANYONE. HE SAID WITHOUT ELABORATION THAT IF THEY DID NOT TALK THEY WOULD SAVE THEMSELVES "POSSIBLE EMBARRASSMENT."
THIS WAS IN CONTRAST WITH THE END OF THE FIRST TRIAL, WHEN THE JURORS TOLD REPORTERS FREELY THAT THEY SPLIT EIGHT TO FOUR IN FAVOR OF CONVICTION.
THERE WAS NO CERTAIN INDICATION THAT AN APPEAL WOULD BE TAKEN BUT DEFENSE COUNSEL CLAUDE B.CROSS RESERVED THE RIGHT TO MAKE MOTIONS AT THE TIME OF SENTENCING. THESE COULD INCLUDE A REQUEST FOR CONTINUED BAIL WHILE AN APPEAL IS BEING TAKEN.
WHILE THE JUDGE WAS CAUTIONING THE JURY, HISS CLAPSED HIS WIFE'S HAND AS THOUGH TO REASSURE HER. HE SMILED AT HER AND SHE TRIED NOT TOO SUCCESSFULLY TO RETURN THE SMILE.
HISS AND HIS WIFE LATER WALKED OUT OF THE COURTROOM WITH THEIR ARMS AROUND HAROLD SHAPERO (CORRECT), ASSOCIATE OF LLOYD PAUL

STRYKER, THE LAWYER WHO DEFENDED HISS IN THE FIRST TRIAL. WHEN THE JURY ENTERED THE DEFENSE COUNSEL ROOM OPPOSITE THE JURY ROOM, MR. AND MRS.HISS WERE SEEN EMBRACING.

ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY THOMAS F.MURPHY, PROSECUTOR IN BOTH TRIALS, DECLINED IMMEDIATE COMMENT ON THE OUTCOME.

EDWARD C.MCLEAN, ONE OF HISS' LAWYERS, TOLD REPORTERS WHO ASKED ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY OF AN APPEAL:

"THERE WON'T BE ANY STATEMENT. I DON'T WANT TO SAY ANYTHING. THERE IS JUST NO STATEMENT."

THE JURY SPENT A TOTAL OF NINE HOURS AND 13 MINUTES IN ACTUAL DELIBERATION AFTER GETTING THE CASE AT 3:10 P.M. (EST) YESTERDAY.

DELIBERATIONS WERE RECESSED AT 10:45 P.M. (EST) LAST NIGHT AND RESUMED AT 9:20 A.M. TODAY. IN MID-MORNING, AT THE JURORS' REQUEST, THE JUDGE RE-READ PART OF THE CHARGE WHICH HE DELIVERED YESTERDAY.

HE TOLD THEM AGAIN THAT THE GOVERNMENT MUST PROVE BEYOND A REASONABLE DOUBT THAT HISS LIED WHEN HE DENIED PASSING STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETS TO EX-COMMUNIST WHITTAKER CHAMBERS FOR A PRE-WAR SOVIET SPY RING.

HISS HELD ONE OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S MOST RESPONSIBLE POSTS AT THE TIME THE SECRET PAPERS ALLEGEDLY WERE PASSED IN 1&38.

IF COCVICTED HE FACES A MAXIMUM OF 10 YEARS IN PRISON PLUS $4,000 IN FINES.

WHEN THE JURY CAME INTO THE COURTROOM THIS MORNING, IT WAS THE THIRD TIME IT HAD DONE SO SINCE IT RECEIVED THE CASE.

YESTERDAY, THE JURORS ASKED FOR AND RECEIVED PORTIONS OF THE TRIAL TESTIMONY WITH INDICATIONS THAT THEY WERE GIVING GREAT WEIGHT TO THE BATTERED OLD WOODSTOCK TYPEWRITER ON WHICH BOTH SIDES AGREE THE STOLEN DOCUMENTS WERE COPIED.

THE LANKY, 45-YEAR-OLD HISS CONTENDS THAT HE GAVE THE TYPEWRITER TO TWO SERVANTS BEFORE THE DOCUMENTS WERE TYPED ON IT. THE PROSECUTION SAYS THE TYPING WAS DONE BY HISS' WIFE.

WHEN THE JURY FAILED TO REACH A VERDICT BY 10:45 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT, JUDGE GODDARD ORDERED IT LOCKED UP OVERNIGHT FOR A NEW TRY TODAY.

DELIBERATIONS RESUMED AT 9:20 A.M.--40 MINUTES EARLIER THAN THE SCHEDULED TIME.

THE NEXT BREAK CAME WHEN THE JURORS ASKED THE JUDGE TO REPEAT THOSE PARTS OF HIS CHARGE WHICH CONCERNED REASONABLE DOUBT, CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE AND CORROBORATIVE EVIDENCE.

THE DEFENSE TOOK AN EXCEPTION AFTER THE JUDGE HAD FINISHED REREADING THOSE PORTIONS, CONTENDING HE HAD OMITTED CERTAIN ESSENTIAL PARTS.

THE JUDGE TOLD THE JURORS AGAIN THAT THE GOVERNMENT MUST PROVE BEYOND A REASONABLE DOUBT THAT HISS LIED WHEN HE DENIED TURNING OVER SECRET STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENTS TO EX-COMMUNIST COURIER WHITTAKER CHAMBERS.

REASONABLE DOUBT, THE JUDGE SAID, DOES NOT MEAN "POSSIBLE DOUBT OR A FANCIFUL DOUBT" BUT MEANS "A DOUBT WHICH IS REASONABLE IN VIEW OF THE EVIDENCE OR THE LACK OF EVIDENCE."

GODDARD ALSO TOLD THE JURY FOR A SECOND TIME THAT THE DEFENDANT DOES NOT HAVE TO PROVE HOW CHAMBERS GOT THE DOCUMENTS.

AS IN THE FIRST HISS TRIAL, THE JURY WAS DELIBERATING FOR A SECOND DAY WITH NO VERDICT IN SIGHT.

THE EIGHT WOMEN AND FOUR MEN RESUMED DELIBERATIONS AT 9:20 A.M. (EST)--40 MINUTES EARLIER THAN THE TIME SET BY THE JUDGE WHEN HE SENT THEM TO BED AT 10:45 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT.

THUS THE XXX ETC., THIRD PGH SECOND LEAD (A94).

NIGHT LEAD CHAMBERS-HISS (300)

WESTMINSTER,MD., JAN 21-(AP)-"I DON'T SEE HOW ANY OTHER VERDICT WAS POSSIBLE."

THAT WAS THE FIRST REACTION OF PUDGY WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, EX-COMMUNIST SPY RING COURIER AND CHIEF ACCUSER OF ALGER HISS, WHEN HE HEARD THE FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT AIDE HAD BEEN BRANDED A PERJURER BY A NEW YORK JURY.

WEARING THE BROWN SHIRT AND BLUE JEANS OF A MARYLAND FARMER, CHAMBERS ADDED:

"I HOPE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL REALIZE THE DEBT THEY OWE TO THIS JURY, MR.MURPHY AND THE TIRELESS AND SPLENDID EFFORTS OF THE FBI."

MURPHY WAS THE GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR IN THE HISS CASE.

CHAMBERS, THE EX-TIME MAGAZINE SENIOR EDITOR WHOSE ACCUSATIONS SET OFF THE TRAIN OF EVENTS WHICH LED TO THE HISS TRIALS, INTIMATED HE HAD NOT BEEN TOO INTERESTED IN LEARNING OF THE VERDICT.

"I'VE BEEN LIVING RIGHT HERE ON THIS FARM FOR NINE YEARS AND I'LL STAY RIGHT ON DOING THE SAME THINGS -- NOTHING HAS CHANGED," HE SAID.

IN FACT, THE RADIO IN THE COMFORTABLE FARM HOME WAS SILENT AS CHAMBERS AND HIS WIFE WENT ABOUT THEIR REGULAR TASKS WHILE THE JURY WAS DELIBERATING TODAY. CHAMBERS MILKED THE COWS, FED THE LIVESTOCK AND DID OTHER ROUTINE CHORES.

HIS WIFE WORKED ABOUT THE HOUSE. ELLEN, A 16-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER OF MRS.CHAMBERS, WAS MAKING COOKIES. THEIR 13-YEAR-OLD SON, JOHN, WAS CONFINED TO THE HOUSE WITH A COLD.

THE NEWS CAME OVER THE PARTY TELEPHONE LINE WHILE CHAMBERS WAS AT THE HOUSE. AFTER THAT FIRST WORD FROM A REPORTER CHAMBERS WAS KEPT BUSY ANSWERING TELEPHONED QUERIES FROM NEWSMEN AND OTHERS.

ELLEN CONTINUED HER COOKIE-MAKING. MRS.CHAMBERS WENT ABOUT HER WORK.

SOME NEIGHBORS DROPPED IN TO OFFER GOOD WISHES. CHAMBERS BREWED A POT OF COFFEE.

ONE MORE JOB WAS AHEAD BEFORE HIS DAY WAS THROUGH -- HE HAD TO MILK THE COWS AGAIN.

(220) HISS-NIXON

WASHINGTON,JAN 21-(AP)-REP.NIXON (R-CALIF) SAID TONIGHT THE ALGER HISS CASE WOULD HAVE COME TO LIGHT SOONER EXCEPT FOR A "DELIBERATE EFFORT ON THE PART OF HIGH OFFICIALS IN TWO ADMINISTRATIONS" TO HIDE IT.

NIXON, WHO IS CREDITED WITH STARTING THE INVESTIGATION WHICH LED TO HISS' PERJURY CONVICTION, SAID HE INTENDS TO PLACE INFORMATION BEFORE THE HOUSE TO PROVE THAT THERE WAS AN EFFORT "TO KEEP THE PUBLIC FROM KNOWING THE FACTS."

THE LAWMAKER SPOKE ON A RADIO INTERVIEW (ABC) WITH BERT ANDREWS, WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE.

ASKED IF HE KNEW WHY HISS WAS NOT INVESTIGATED BY THE GOVERNMENT SOME YEARS AGO, NIXON COMMENTED:

"ALL I CAN TELL YOU AT THIS MOMENT IS THAT I BELIEVE PRESIDENT TRUMAN WILL HAVE FURTHER REASON TO REGRET HIS RED HERRING REMARK."

THAT WAS IN REFERENCE TO MR.TRUMAN'S REPEATED STATEMENT THAT CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATIONS INTO COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES--ESPECIALLY THOSE CONCERNING THE GOVERNMENT--WERE JUST A RED HERRING TO DRAW ATTENTION FROM THE RECORD OF REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS.

NIXON ADDED:

"AS WHITTAKER CHAMBERS HAS STATED, THERE HAS BEEN TOO MUCH OF A TEND ENCY TO MAKE THIS A FIGHT BETWEEN TWO INDIVIDUALS. IT IS LARGER THAN THAT.

"I HAVE INFORMATION--WHICH I INTEND TO PLACE BEFORE THE HOUSE NEXT WEEK--WHICH WILL SHOW THAT THIS CONSPIRACY WOULD HAVE COME TO LIGHT LONG SINCE HAD THERE NOT BEEN A DEFINITE, DETERMINED AND DELIBERATE EFFORT ON THE PART OF CERTAIN HIGH OFFICIALS IN TWO ADMINISTRATIONS TO KEEP THE PUBLIC FROM KNOWING THE FACTS."

HISS COMMENT (330)

WASHINGTON,JAN 21-(AP)-THE PERJURY CONVICTION OF ALGER HISS WAS GREETED WITH APPROVAL IN CONGRESS TODAY, ESPECIALLY AMONG ADMINISTRATION CRITICS.

REP.VELDE (R-ILL) SAID THE NEW YORK VERDICT "COOKS PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S 'RED HERRING' AND I HOPE HE ENJOYS EATING IT."

VELDE, A MEMBER OF THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE, REFERRED TO THE LABEL MR.TRUMAN PASTED ON THE GROUP'S INVESTIGATION OF COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES IN THE REPUBLICAN 80TH CONGRESS.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) CALLED THE JURY'S DECISION "AN IMPORTANT MILESTONE IN OUR FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNISM," ADDING:

"ONLY LAST JANUARY DEAN ACHESON ISSUED A STATEMENT TO THE EFFECT THAT HE WAS A FRIEND OF ALGER HISS. WHAT DOES DEAN ACHESON HAVE TO SAY OF HIS FRIEND ALGER HISS NOW?"

SENATOR MUNDT (R-SD), WHO WAS ACTING CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE AT THE TIME THE ORIGINAL "PUMPKIN PAPERS" TESTIMONY IN THE CASE WAS TAKEN, DECLARED THAT THE CONVICTION SHOWS WHAT CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED BY "AN ALERT AND ENERGETIC HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES, SUPPORTED BY THE INVESTIGATIVE MACHINERY OF THE FBI AND THE PROSECUTION PERSONNEL OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE."

REP.CLARENCE BROWN (R-OHIO) PRAISED "THE TENACIOUS AND HIGHLY DILIGENT EFFORTS OF CONGRESSMEN RICHARD NIXON OF CALIFORNIA, WHO ALMOST SINGLE-HANDEDLY CRACKED THE CASE WIDE OPEN, AFTER HISS HAD APPARENTLY SATISFIED THE COMMITTEE OF HIS INNOCENCE ON THE BASIS OF A PRELIMINARY INQUIRY."

"THIS CASE," BROWN ADDED, "IS FURTHER PROOF OF THE NEED FOR THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE, AND AMERICA OWES A DEBT OF GRATITUDE BOTH TO THE COMMITTEE AND TO CONGRESSMAN NIXON."

NIXON, A REPUBLICAN, SAID: "I CONSIDER THIS VERDICT A VINDICATION OF CONGRESSIONAL METHODS OF INVESTIGATION WHEN THEY ARE ACCOMPANIED BY ADEQUATE STAFF WORK AND FAIR PROCEDURES.

"I ALSO CONSIDER IT ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF THE REASON WHY THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES CAN HAVE FAITH AND PRIDE IN THE AMERICAN JURY SYSTEM."

ANOTHER COMMITTEE MEMBER, REP.HARRISON (D-VA), COMMENTED:

"THE VERDICT SHOULD SERVE AS A WARNING TO PUBLIC SERVANTS WITH A PREDILECTION FOR DALLIANCE WITH COMMUNISTS OR THEIR TOOLS. AND IT SHOULD PROVIDE NEW ENCOURAGEMENT FOR THE LAW-ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES CHARGED WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY OF SEEKING OUT AND BRINGING TO PUNISHMENT ANY PERSON TRAFFICKING WITH THE SWORN ENEMIES OF DEMOCRACY."

CHAMBERS SKETCH

(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, JAN---(AP)-WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, THE ACCUSER OF ALGER HISS, WAS CALLED EVERYTHING FROM A "PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITY" TO "A GREAT MAN" IN THE SECOND HISS PERJURY TRIAL.

A PSYCHIATRIST AND A PSYCHOLOGIST CHARACTERIZED HIM AS A PSYCHOPATH.

BUT HIS WIFE, TALL DARK ESTHER CHAMBERS, HAD ONLY PRAISE OF HIM.

A SELF-STYLED COURIER FOR A PRE-WAR SOVIET SPY RING, CHAMBERS ACCUSED HISS, FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, OF PASSING HIM

CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS IN THE 1930'S.

AS A RESULT OF HIS ACCUSATION, CHAMBERS RESIGNED A $30,000-A-YEAR POST AS A SENIOR EDITOR OF TIME MAGAZINE. HE WITHDREW TO THE SECLUSION OF HIS FARM NEAR WESTMINSTER, MD., WHERE HE NOW LIVES WITH HIS WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN.

CHAMBERS, 49, IS A SHORT, STOUT, RUDDY-COMPLEXIONED MAN. OUTSIDE THE COURTROOM DURING THE TRIAL HE WAS AFFABLE WITH REPORTERS. ON THE WITNESS STAND HE FREQUENTLY ACTED BORED.

ALMOST EVERY DETAIL OF CHAMBERS' PERSONAL LIFE WAS BARED IN THE TWO-MONTH-LONG SECOND HISS TRIAL.

B18 (SCEG)

HE WAS BORN IN LYNBROOK, NEW YORK, AND NEARLY FAILED TO RECEIVE HISH HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA BECAUSE HE READ A CLASS PROPHECY WHICH HAD BEEN DISAPPROVED BY HIS TEACHERS. HE ENTERED WILLIAMS COLLEGE BUT LEFT TWO DAYS LATER. THEN HE ENTERED COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY BUT NEVER GRADUATED.

HE WAS INTERESTED IN WRITING, JOINED THE COMMUNIST PARTY AND WANDERED TO WASHINGTON, D.C., AND NEW ORLEANS BEFORE JOINING THE STAFF OF THE DAILY WORKER, OFFICIAL COMMUNIST ORGAN.

ON SEPT. 26, 1926 HIS BROTHER, RICHARD, COMMITTED SUICIDE. CONCERNING HIS DEATH, CHAMBERS HAS TESTIFIED:

"MY BROTHER'S DEATH SET THE SEAL ON MY BECOMING A COMMUNIST. I WAS A COMMUNIST BEFORE. BUT I BECAME A FANATICAL COMMUNIST AFTERWARD."

CHAMBERS SOON AFTERWARDS BECAME A COMMUNIST UNDERGROUND AGENT, LIVING IN BALTIMORE AND WASHINGTON, AND POSING AS A FREE-LANCE WRITER.

IN 1938, HE SAID, HE BECAME DISILLUSIONED WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY AND TRIED TO ESTABLISH A NEW IDENTITY FOR HIMSELF.

FOR A WHILE, HE SAID, HE SLEPT DAYS AND REMAINED ON GUARD AT NIGHT, FEARING FOR THE SAFETY OF HIMSELF AND HIS FAMILY.

COMING TO NEW YORK, HE OBTAINED A JOB ON TIME MAGAZINE IN 1939, REMAINING THERE AND RISING TO A SENIOR EDITORSHIP UNTIL HE RESIGNED LAST SPRING.

CHAMBERS HAS DECLINED TO STATE WHAT HIS FUTURE PLANS ARE.

MURPHY SKETCH

(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, JAN. 20-(AP)-THOMAS F. MURPHY, THE GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR IN THE ALGER HISS PERJURY TRIAL, IS DESCRIBED BY HIS WIFE AS "A MAN OF TENDER FEELING WHO WOULDN'T HURT A FLY."

MURPHY, A SIX-FOOT, FOUR-INCH, 220-POUND MAN WITH A BROWN MUSTACHE, PROSECUTED HISS IN BOTH THE FIRST AND SECOND TRIALS. BESIDES BEING AN ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY, HE IS CHIEF OF THE CRIMINAL DIVISION OF THE U.S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

MURPHY, 44, IS A NATIVE NEW YORKER WHO WAS EDUCATED IN PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS HERE. HE WAS GRADUATED FROM GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY, WASHINGTON, D.C., IN 1927, AND FROM FORDHAM LAW SCHOOL IN 1930.

HIS BROTHER, JOHNNY MURPHY WAS A FAMOUS RELIEF PITCHER FOR THE NEW YORK YANKEES.

BUT "ONE ATHLETE IN THE FAMILY IS ENOUGH," HIS FATHER SAID AFTER TOM MURPHY INJURED A KNEE IN FRESHMAN FOOTBALL AT GEORGETOWN. SINCE THAT TIME, SAYS HIS TALL, PRETTY WIFE, ANNE, MURPHY HAS SPENT MOST OF HIS SPARE TIME AS AN AVID READER.

MURPHY ALMOST LITERALLY RAN INTO HIS FUTURE WIFE IN 1932 WHEN HE NEARLY STRUCK HER AS SHE WAS CROSSING A BRONX STREET. BOTH STARTED TO ARGUE, BUT MURPHY LOST HIS FIRST CASE. THEY WERE MARRIED IN 1939. THE MURPHYS HAVE NO CHILDREN.

AFTER GRADUATING FROM FORDHAM, MURPHY TOOK A JOB WITH TNE NEW YORK LAW FIRM OF OLCOTT, OLCOTT AND GLASS. HE LEFT THE FIRM IN MARCH, 1942, TO ENTER THE U.S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

AS AN ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY, MURPHY HAS PROSECUTED NEARLY ALL TYPES OF CRIMINAL CASES. HIS MOST FAMOUS RECENT CASE WAS THAT OF ELEANOR PATERNOTRE, WHO WAS CHARGED WITH INCOME TAX EVASION, AND PAID $2,000,000 IN SETTLEMENT AFTER PLEADING GUILTY.

THE FIRST HISS PERJURY TRIAL ENDED LAST JULY IN A JURY DISAGREEMENT.

LONDON, JAN. 21-(AP)-THE PEIPING COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT DECLARED TODAY TIBET BELONGS TO THE NEW "PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC" OF CHINA.

IT ORDERED THE ISOLATED NATION IN THE HIMALAYAS TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES WITHOUT DELAY TO "NEGOTIATE ON A PEACEFUL SOLUTION OF THE QUESTION." IT HINTED AT REPRISALS UNLESS THE TIBET GOVERNMENT DOES SO.

THE NEW CHINA AGENCY QUOTED A SPOKESMAN FOR THE PEIPING FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTRY TO THIS EFFECT IN A BROADCAST RELAYED BY THE YUGOSLAV NEWS AGENCY TANJUG.

THE SPOKESMAN WAS COMMENTING ON "A REPORT THAT AUTHORITIES IN TIBET HAVE SENT A 'MISSION OF GOOD WILL' TO AMERICA, BRITAIN, INDIA AND NEPAL."

HE DECLARED TIBETAN AUTHORITIES HAVE NO RIGHT ARBITRARILY TO SEND ANY KIND OF MISSION, AND EVEN LESS TO ASSERT THE INDEPENDENCE OF TIBET, WHICH IS TERRITORY OF THE PEOPLES REPUBLIC OF CHINA.

"TIBETANS DEMAND THAT TIBET BECOME A MEMBER OF THE BIG DEMOCRATIC FAMILY OF CHINA WITH REGIONAL AUTONOMY UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF THE CENTRAL PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT," HE ADDED.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID PEIPING WILL NOT PERMIT AUTHORITIES IN LHASA "TO CONTINUE TO VIOLATE THE WILL OF THE TIBETAN PEOPLE BY OBEYING THE ORDERS OF IMPERIALIST AGGRESSORS."

HE SAID LHASA IS SENDING OUT "UNLAWFUL MISSIONS WHICH WOULD TAKE PART IN DISRUPTIVE AND TREASONABLE ACTIVITIES" AND ADDED:

"ANY COUNTRY WHICH RECEIVES SUCH UNLAWFUL MISSIONS WILL BE CONSIDERED AS HARBORING HOSTILE INTENTIONS TOWARD THE PEOPLES REPUBLIC OF CHINA."

THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE DECLARED REPEATEDLY IN RECENT WEEKS THEIR INTENTIONS TO "LIBERATE" TIBET.

THE SAME REPORTS ALSO ALLEGED THAT THE RUSSIANS HAVE STARTED TO CURTAIL AUTOBAHN TRUCK TRAFFIC BETWEEN WEST BERLIN AND WESTERN GERMANY.

THE SOVIET CHECK POINT AT BABELSBERG LAST NIGHT PERMITTED TRUCK TRAFFIC TO MOVE NORMALLY. BUT THE CHECKPOINT AT HELMSTEDT TURNED BACK 19 GERMAN TRUCKS LOADED WITH FURNUTURE AND OTHER COMMODITIES. THE DRIVERS WERE TOLD THEIR PAPERS WERE NOT IN ORDER.

TAYLOR SAID EAST GERMAN AUTHORITIES APPARENTLY HAVE CHANGED THEIR SYSTEM RECENTLY AND REQUIRE A NEW SPECIAL STAMP ON TRUCK CARGOES. THE REJECTED TRUCKS DID NOT POSSESS THIS STAMP, PROBABLY THROUGH IGNORANCE OF ITS EXISTENCE, HE SAID.

TAYLOR SAID THE CONTROVERSY OVER THE RAILWAY BUILDING HAD PROMPTED HIM TO POSTPONE TEMPORARILY THE TRIP HE PLANNED TO WASHINGTON TO JOIN U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER JOHN J.MCCLOY IN CONFERRING WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN ON THE GENERAL SITUATION IN GERMANY.

TAYLOR EMPHASIZED HIS TRIP WAS NOT CANCELLED, HOWEVER, AND SAID HE PROBABLY WOULD LEAVE BY PLANE IN A FEW DAYS.

THE COMMUNIST RAILWAY UNION DISTRIBUTED LEAFLETS ON BERLIN'S ELEVATED TRAINS TODAY URGING BERLINERS TO OPPOSE THE AMERICAN "WARMONGERS" AND JOIN THE EAST GERMAN "NATIONAL FRONT."

THE LEAFLETS SAID "OUT WITH CRIMINAL INTERFERENCE X X X THE S-BAHN (ELEVATED) IS PEOPLES OWNED. OUT WITH AMERICAN IMPERIALISTIC WARMONGERS."

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN.21-(AP)-THE OFFICIAL CZECH NEWS AGENCY CLAIMED TODAY THAT ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIESTS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY ARE "JOYOUSLY" SIGNING OATHS OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENT AS REQUIRED BY THE NEW CHURCH CONTROL LAWS.

CLERGYMEN OF OTHER FAITHS ARE ALSO SIGNING THE OATHS OF LOYALTY, THE AGENCY SAID. THIS IS NECESSARY IS CLERGYMEN ARE TO RECEIVE THEIR SALARIES FROM THE GOVERNMENT.

THIS STEP WAS SET DOWN BY THE CHURCH CONTROL LAW WHICH BECAME EFFECTIVE NOV.1. THE LAW GAVE THE GOVERNMENT THE FINAL SAY OVER ALL CHURCH ADMINISTRATIVE, APPOINTIVE AND FINANCIAL AFFAIRS AND MADE ALL CLERGYMEN CIVIL SERVANTS PAID BY THE GOVERNMENT.

THE LAW WAS BITTERLY OPPOSED BY THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH. AN ESTIMATED 300 PRIESTS WERE REPORTED JAILED FOR THEIR OPPOSITION BEFORE THE CONTROL BILL WAS PASSED BY PARLIAMENT. CZECHOSLOVAKIA IS PREDOMINANTLY ROMAN CATHOLIC.

AT FIRST ROMAN CATHOLIC LEADERS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA REFUSED TO PERMIT THE PRIESTS TO TAKE THE LOYALTY OATH. LATER THEY TOLD THE PRIESTS TO DO SO -- BUT WITH THE RESERVATION THAT PRIESTS COULD SWEAR NOTHING THAT MIGHT VIOLATE DIVINE OR CHURCH LAWS OR HUMAN RIGHTS.

MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR VACLAV NOSEK HAS DECLARED THAT THE PRIESTS MUST SWEAR THE FLAT OATH OF LOYALTY PRESCRIBED BY THE GOVERNMENT AND IGNORE ANY RESERVATIONS.

JAN 22 1950

THE NEWS AGENCY SAID ONE OF THE HIGHER CATHOLIC CLERGY TO SWEAR THE LOYALTY OATH WAS MGR.JAN BOUKAL, SECRETARY TO ARCHBISHOP JOSEF BERAN, CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S CATHOLIC PRIMATE. THE AGENCY SAID HE SIGNED THE OATH BEFORE PRAGUE'S COMMUNIST MAYOR, VACLAV VACEK.

ANOTHER TO SIGN THE OATH, THE AGENCY SAID, WAS JOSEF PRAZAK, CANON OF PRAGUE'S VYSEHRAD CATHEDRAL, WHO WAS QUOTED AS TELLING THE MAYOR:

"NOW WE HAVE A REPUBLIC, WE FINALLY HAVE WON OUR FREEDOM AND IT IS NECESSARY TO COOPERATE WITH THE PEOPLE. I KNOW THAT THIS IS THE DUTY OF EVERY CITIZEN."

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN. 21-(AP)-TWO MEMBERS OF THE CANADIAN LEGATION HERE HAVE BEEN OUSTED FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE LEGATION'S CHARGE D'AFFAIRES, JOHN A. IRWIN SAID TODAY.

THE TWO ARE SGT. REGINALD DANKO AND CPL.J.G.VANIER, WHO WERE ON THE STAFF OF THE LEGATION'S AIR ATTACHE. DANKO WAS A CLERK TYPIST AND VANIER A DRIVER.

THEY WERE ORDERED OUT OF THE COUNTRY THURSDAY AND LEFT THE SAME DAY, IRWIN SAID.

HE ADDED HE WAS NOT "AT LIBERTY AT THE MOMENT TO STATE THE REASON GIVEN BY THE CZECH GOVERNMENT FOR THE OUSTERS."

"AS FAR AS I KNOW THIS ACTION IS THE FIRST AGAINST CANADIANS IN THIS POSITION IN THIS PART OF THE WORLD," IRWIN ADDED.

DANKO AND VANIER WERE ENLISTED MEN OF THE ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE AND WORLD WAR TWO VETERANS. THEY HAD WORKED IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA ALMOST THREE YEARS.

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN. 21-(AP)-THE OFFICIAL NEWS AGENCY ANNOUNCED TONIGHT THAT THE FIRST YEAR OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S FIVE YEAR PLAN WAS FULFILLED BY 102.8 PERCENT IN 1949.

THIS DOES NOT INCLUDE PRODUCTION IN THE FOOD INDUSTRY, NOR FARM OUUTPUT WHICH THE NATION'S COMMUNIST LEADERS HAVE PREVIOUSLY ADMITTED FAILED TO REACH MOST ESTABLISHED GOALS LAST YEAR.

LAST YEAR'S FARM DELIVERIES UNDER CONTRACT TO THE GOVERNMENT ARE STILL TO BE COMPLETED AND FINAL FIGURES IN THIS CATEGORY WILL PROBABLY BE DISCLOSED AT A LATER DATE.

AS USUAL, THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT GO BEYOND PERCENTAGE FIGURES IN ANNOUNCING RESULTS OF THE FIRST YEAR OF THE FIVE YEAR PLAN. IT MADE NO COMPARISON TO PREVIOUS YEARS' OUTPUT.

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK, JAN.21-(AP)-MRS.EUGENE ANDERSON, NEW U.S. AMBASSADOR TO DENMARK, TONIGHT THANKED 80 DANISH BUILDING LABORERS FOR THEIR "EXCELLENT AND TASTEFUL WORK" ON HER 40-ROOM VILLA IN COPENHAGEN.

MRS.ANDERSON, WEARING A GREEN GOWN, BLACK VELVET CAPE AND BLACK SHOES, RECEIVED THE BUILDERS AND THEIR WIVES AT DINNER.

"I CAN HARDLY TELL YOU HOW HAPPY MY FAMILY AND I WERE TO COME TO THIS HOME," SHE TOLD HER GUESTS. "IN RED WING, MINN., WE WERE ACCUSTOMED TO A RATHER MODERN STYLE, AND WE WERE ANXIOUS TO SEE OUR NEW HOME. THIS VILLA IS BEYOND OUR EXPECTATIONS."

THE AMBASSADOR AND HER HUSBAND, JOHN ANDERSON, SHOOK HANDS WITH THE GUESTS AS THEY ARRIVED AND OFFERED THEM COCKTAILS. LATER, THE GUESTS WERE SEATED AT TABLES WITH DANISH FOOD: SMOKED SALMON, ROAST BEEF, HERRINGS, CHEESE, BREAD AND BUTTER. DRINKS WERE DANISH BEER AND SCHNAPPS.

AFTER MRS.ANDERSON'S WELCOME SPEECH, COFFEE AND BRANDY WERE SERVED.

AFTER THE DINNER, THE GUESTS SAW THREE AMERICAN FILMS: A COLOR FILM FROM SUNVALLEY, IDAHO; A FILM FROM NEW YORK, AND ONE FROM HAWAII.

"IT IS A PROOF OF REAL DEMOCRACY," A CARPENTER SAID. "WE NEVER THOUGHT THAT WE WOULD BE INVITED TO VISIT THE AMBASSADOR IN HER HOME. THAT IS THE SORT OF DIPLOMACY WE UNDERSTAND."

NIGHT LEAD YUGOSLAV

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN 21-(AP)-PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S GOVERNMENT CAUTIONED TONIGHT THAT THE FEUD BETWEEN YUGOSLAVIA AND THE RUSSIAN-LED COMINFORM INVOLVES "A DANGER FOR THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE YUGOSLAV PEOPLE."

THE CASE WAS LAID DOWN IN A SPEECH BY NIKOLVA BABIC, A MEMBER OF BELGRADE'S COMMUNIST PARTY MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE, IN A CEREMONY OBSERVING THE 26TH ANNIVERSARY OF LENIN'S DEATH.

THE OFFICIAL PRESS-BORBA, POLITKA AND RAD--CARRIED FRONT-PAGE PICTURES AND LONG ARTICLES ON THE LIFE OF LENIN, THE FATHER OF RUSSIAN COMMUNISM.

THIS OBVIOUSLY WAS INTENDED TO SHOW YUGOSLAVIA IS FOLLOWING THE CAUSE OF COMMUNISM RATHER THAN HEEDING THE DICTATES OF MOSCOW. TITO AND THE KREMLIN SPLIT 19 MONTHS AGO OVER THE YUGOSLAV CHIEF'S DEMAND FOR "EQUAL RIGHTS" IN THE COMMUNIST BLOC OF NATIONS.

"NOBODY SHOULD THREATEN WAR BECAUSE SOMEBODY ELSE DOES NOT WANT TO AGREE," BABIC SAID. "X X X WE CAN LOOK INTO THE FUTURE QUIETLY, BUT IT IS BETTER TO BE KILLED THAN TO LET ONESELF BE TRAMPLED UNDER FOOT."

HE BLUNTLY DECLARED THAT THE "BOLSHEVIK LEADERS TODAY HAVE BETRAYED THOSE PRINCIPLES OF LENIN AND EXCHANGED THEM FOR ORDERING NATIONS ABOUT. IT IS BETTER TO DIE THAN TO BOW YOUR HEAD AND WATCH WHILE THE PRINCIPLES OF LENIN ARE BEING TRAMPLED UPON."

BABIC SAID LENIN HAD FOUGHT FOR THE VICTORY OF TRUTH AND JUSTICE AND THAT THE YUGOSLAV COMMUNIST PARTY CONSIDERS IT FIRST NECESSARY TO CONVINCE THE MASSES OF THE CORRECTNESS OF ITS POLICY, "BUT IN SOVIET RUSSIA IT IS DIFFERENT."

"THE LEADERS OF SOVIET RUSSIA HAVE DISTORTED THAT THEORY," HE CONTINUED. X X X X "IT CANNOT BE SAID TODAY THAT THE MASSES IN SOVIET RUSSIA CAN JUDGE FOR THEMSELVES. THERE IS NO DEMOCRACY THERE--NOT EVEN WITHIN THE PARTY."

DY959PES

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN.21-(AP)-PREMIER-MARSHAL TITO'S OFFICIAL PRESS LENGTHILY EULOGIZED NIKOLAY LENIN TODAY, DEMONSTRATING YUGOSLAVIA'S LOYALTY TO COMMUNISM'S FOUNDER DESPITE THE GOVERNMENT'S BITTER FEUD WITH THE RUSSIAN-LED COMINFORM.

THE OCCASION WAS THE 26TH ANNIVERSARY OF LENIN'S DEATH, ON JAN. 21, 1924.

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPERS REVIEWED LENIN'S LIFE AND WORKS, QUOTING PARTICULARLY INTERPRETATIONS OF NATIONALISM FROM WHICH HAS STEMMED TITO'S ROW WITH THE COMINFORM.

TITO CLAIMS THAT IN INSISTING UPON "EQUAL RIGHTS" AMONG COMMUNIST COUNTRIES, INSTEAD OF FOLLOWING THE DICTATES OF MOSCOW, HE IS PRACTISING ONLY WHAT LENIN AND KARL MARX PREACHED.

BUT THE OFFICIAL PRESS DID NOT FORGET ITS BITTER DISPUTE WITH YUGOSLAVIA'S COMINFORM NEIGHBORS.

UNDER A BUDAPEST DATELINE, THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER POLITIKA CONDEMNED THE CURRENT TRIAL THERE OF EIGHT SLOVENES, MEMBERS OF THE YUGOSLAV MINORITY IN HUNGARY, ON SPY CHARGES. POLITIKA CALLED THE TRIAL A PERSECUTION AND A FRAMEUP.

THIRTY-NINE ALSO WERE DUPLICATIONS ON EARLIER SOVIET LISTS AND HAVE BEEN ACCOUNTED FOR, THE NOTE SAID. TWENTY-FOUR ALREADY HAVE BEEN SURRENDERED TO RUSSIA UNDER PROVISIONS OF THE PEACE TREATY IN ADDITION TO 36 OTHER PERSONS, MOSTLY PRISONERS OF WAR.

RUSSIAN

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, JAN.21-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY SAID TODAY U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S CHARGE THAT RUSSIA IS ANNEXING FOUR NORTH CHINA PROVINCES IS A "LYING AND SLANDEROUS DECLARATION."

VISHINSKY MADE HIS STATEMENT IN AN UNUSUAL PRESS RELEASE TO FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS, COINCIDING WITH THE ARRIVAL IN MOSCOW OF CHOU EN-LAI, FOREIGN MINISTER OF THE RUSSIAN-RECOGNIZED CHINESE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC.

CHOU'S ARRIVAL LED TO THE BELIEF THAT NEGOTIATIONS FOR A TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE NEW CHINESE REPUBLIC OF COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG WERE NEARING AN IMPORTANT CLIMAX. MAO HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW FOR A MONTH.

VISHINSKY, COMMENTING ON STATEMENTS BY ACHESON AT THE NATIONAL PRESS CLUB IN WASHINGTON JAN.12 THAT RUSSIA IS TAKING OVER MANCHURIA, INNER AND OUTER MONGOLIA AND SINKIANG, SAID THEY WERE INTENDED "TO PUT A GOOD FACE ON A BAD GAME--THE FAILURE OF AMERICAN POLICY IN ASIA."

VISHINSKY ALSO ACCUSED ACHESON OF UNCOVERING HIS OWN "ANNEXIONIST PLANS IN RELATION TO JAPAN AND ALSO THE PHILIPPINES AND RYUKYU (ISLANDS OF THE NORTH PACIFIC)."

ACHESON, HE SAID, DECLARED "THESE NON-AMERICAN TERRITORIES IN THE DEFENSIVE LINE OF THE UNITED STATES WHICH, AS IS WELL-KNOWN, IS IN THE LINE OF AGGRESSION."

"IN THIS," VISHINSKY DECLARED, "ACHESON SAID MUCH OF HIS WISH TO GIVE HELP TO THE PEOPLES OF ASIA, CLEARLY HINTING THAT REACTIONARY FORCES IN THESE COUNTRIES AND ALSO THE COLONIAL POWERS, NOT WISHING TO SAY GOODBYE TO THE EXPLOITATION OF PEOPLES IN ASIA, CAN COUNT ON ALL HELP FROM THE SIDE OF MR.ACHESON."

(THE SECRETARY OF STATE SAID THE UNITED STATES HAS "AND WILL CONTINUE TO HOLD" A "DEFENSIVE PERIMETER" RUNNING ALONG THE ALEUTIANS TO JAPAN, TO THE RYUKYUS AND DOWN TO THE PHILIPPINES.)

(THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON WOULD MAKE NO IMMEDIATE COMMENT ON THE VISHINSKY STATEMENT).

SPECIAL IMPORTANCE WAS SEEN IN THE STATEMENT SINCE IT WAS HANDED TO FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS AT THE KREMLIN. USUALLY ACCUSATIONS BY FOREIGN STATESMEN ARE ANSWERED PUBLICLY THROUGH THE GOVERNMENT NEWS AGENCY TASS OR THE NEWSPAPERS PRAVDA AND IZVESTIA.

"IN ALL THESE DECLARATIONS BY ACHESON THERE IS NOT ONE WORD OF TRUTH," VISHINSKY SAID.

JAN 22 1950

A47

THE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID OUTER MONGOLIA HAD BEEN AN INDEPENDENT COUNTRY FOR THE PAST 30 YEARS. THE OTHER THREE AREAS MENTIONED BY ACHESON, HE SAID, ARE INTEGRAL PARTS OF CHINA. HE ADDED THAT THE NEW CHINESE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC IS CAPABLE OF DEFENDING THE INTERESTS OF ITS OWN COUNTRY, ITS OWN TERRITORY AND ITS OWN PEOPLE.

(IN HIS ADDRESS TO THE NATIONAL PRESS CLUB ACHESON SAID: "THE SOVIET UNION IS DETACHING THE NORTHERN PROVINCES OF CHINA FROM CHINA AND IS ATTACHING THEM TO THE SOVIET UNION. THIS PROCESS IS COMPLETE IN OUTER MONGOLIA. IT IS NEARLY COMPLETE IN MANCHURIA, AND I AM SURE THAT IN INNER MONGOLIA AND SINKIANG THERE ARE VERY HAPPY REPORTS COMING FROM SOVIET AGENTS TO MOSCOW.")

TO SUPPORT HIS DENIAL OF ACHESON'S REMARKS, VISHINSKY QUOTED ANGUS WARD, FORMER AMERICAN CONSUL-GENERAL IN MUKDEN, MANCHURIA, AS SAYING TO THE AMERICAN PRESS JAN.14 THAT "WHILE IN MANCHURIA UP TO THE MOST RECENT TIME HE HAD NOT SEEN ANY SIGNS WHICH WOULD INDICATE THAT THE SOVIET UNION CONTROLLED MANCHURIA AND THAT HE HAD NOT NOTICED ANYTHING WHICH WOULD INDICATE THAT THE RUSSIANS ARE TRYING TO ANNEX MANCHURIA."

(WARD SAID IN A NEWS CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON JAN.14 THAT HIS CLOSE CONFINEMENT IN MUKDEN HAD LIMITED HIS ABILITY TO OFFER FIRST HAND SUPPORT FOR ACHESON'S CHARGE OF ANNEXATION. "CERTAINLY THERE IS ECONOMIC ATTACHMENT," HE SAID. "WHETHER THERE IS POLITICAL IS SOMETHING DIFFERENT.")

VISHINSKY SAID THE AMERICAN POLICY IN CHINA WAS FOREDOOMED TO FAILURE BECAUSE IT SUPPORTED THE REACTIONARY ELEMENTS AND FAILED TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE FACTS OF THE SITUATION, SUCH AS THE COLLAPSE OF THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

"IT IS NOW KNOWN TO THE WHOLE WORLD," VISHINSKY SAID, "THAT DESPITE THE AMERICAN BILLIONS WHICH WERE SPENT, THE POLICY OF ACHESON FAILED."

"EFFORTS TO HIDE BEHIND A SLANDEROUS SMOKESCREEN AND PLACE ON THE U.S.S.R. RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FAILURE OF HIS OWN POLICY DOES NOT FORESHADOW ANYTHING GOOD FOR MR.ACHESON. SUCH ATTEMPTS CAN LEAD ONLY TO NEW FAILURES OF THE POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES IN CHINA."

THE SOVIET STATESMAN SAID HE AT FIRST HAD DOUBTED THAT ACHESON HAD MADE THE CHARGES AGAINST RUSSIA, SUPPOSING THAT THE PRESS POSSIBLY HAD CONFUSED MR.ACHESON WITH IRRESPONSIBLE CORRESPONDENTS.

"HOWEVER," VISHINSKY SAID, "VERIFICATIONS PROVED THAT MR.ACHESON ACTUALLY MADE THIS LYING AND CRUDELY SLANDEROUS DECLARATION."

THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS, IN A REPORT DISTRIBUTED IN LONDON, SAID THAT FOREIGN MINISTER VISHINSKY HIMSELF LED THE DELEGATION WHICH MET COMMUNIST CHINA'S FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI.

ON HIS ARRIVAL AT MOSCOW'S YAROSLAV RAILROAD STATION, TASS SAID, CHOU DECLARED THAT MAO TZE-TUNG, LEADER OF HIS GOVERNMENT ALREADY IN MOSCOW, HAD SENT FOR HIM TO TAKE PART IN TALKS FOR STRENGTHENING GOOD NEIGHBORLY RELATIONS "BETWEEN TWO GREAT STATES, CHINA AND THE SOVIET UNION."

WITH CHOU CAME FIVE OTHER CHINESE DELEGATES, ACCORDING TO TASS--TWO OFFICIALS OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE'S (COMMUNIST) REPUBLIC AND THREE OF THE "NORTHEASTERN GOVERNMENT" OF MANCHURIA.

INCLUDED IN THE DELEGATION WERE THREE TRADE AND INDUSTRIAL OFFICIALS.

CHOU CITED PRIME MINISTER STALIN'S "CORRECT FOREIGN POLICY" OF SOVIET AID "TO ALL THE OPPRESSED PEOPLES OF THE WORLD IN THEIR STRUGGLE FOR LIBERATION."

HIS REFERENCE, AT TWO POINTS, TO "THE TWO GREAT STATES, CHINA AND THE SOVIET UNION" WAS SEEN HERE AS PLACING THE TWO GOVERNMENTS ON AN EQUAL FOOTING.

MOSCOW, JAN. 21-(AP)-LAZARUS M.KAGANOVICH, MEMBER OF THE SOVIET POLITBURO, WAS QUOTED TODAY AS SAYING THE VICTORY OF THE LENINIST-STALINIST NATIONAL POLICY IS "ONE OF THE CAUSES OF THAT INSANITY WHICH THE ANGLO-AMERICANS ARE EXPERIENCING" AT THE MENTION OF THE WORD "COMMUNISM."

HIS STATEMENT, MADE JAN. 16 BEFORE THE SUPREME SOVIET OF UZBEKISTAN, ONE OF RUSSIA'S ASIAN REPUBLICS, TOOK UP A FULL PAGE IN BOTH SOVIET NEWSPAPERS, PRAVDA AND IZVESTIA. HE SPOKE ON THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE UZBEK REPUBLIC.

HE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THE "IMPERIALISTS, WITH THE AID OF DOLLARS, ARE SEEKING TO PROVE THAT COMMUNISM IS A DESTRUCTIVE AND NOT A CONSTRUCTIVE FORCE."

"TO THOSE GENTLEMEN," KAGANOVICH SAID, "WE ANSWER, LOOK AT THE SOVIET UNION. LOOK AT UZBEKISTAN AND OTHER SOVIET REPUBLICS WHICH WERE FORMERLY THE COLONIES OF YOUR CO-BROTHERS."

HE ADDED THAT THE "CLEAREST EXAMPLE (OF THE CONSTRUCTIVE FORCE OF COMMUNISM) IS THE CREATION OF THE GREAT CHINESE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC WHIH WAS VICTORIOUS UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF THE HEROIC COMMUNIST PARTY."

HE SAID THE "FACTS SHOW THAT THE SOVIET UNION AND ITS CONSTITUENT PART, UZBEKISTAN, A FORMER CZARIST COLONY, IN 32 YEARS OF INDEPENDENT LIFE AND 25 YEARS OF NATIONAL SOVIET STATEHOOD HAVE ATTAINED GREAT SUCCESSES.

"SUCH SUCCESSES," HE ADDED, "CANNOT BE DREAMED UP BY THE WOMAN OR MAN OF, FOR INSTANCE, TURKEY OR IRAN, OR BY THE LABORERS IN MARSHALLIZED COUNTRIES."

IMPERIALISM NEEDS SLAVES, BUT IN THE U.S.S.R. AN END HAD BEEN PUT TO THIS, KAGANOVICH DECLARED. CONSEQUENTLY, HE SAID, IMPERIALIST COLONIZERS WHO LOOK UPON EASTERN PEOPLES AS THEIR INFERIORS, INCAPABLE OF BUILDING THEIR OWN STATE AND CULTURE, ARE GOING INSANE AT THE MENTION OF COMMUNISM.

KAGANOVICH DROPPED A CHIDING WORD, HOWEVER, REMINDING THE UZBEKS THAT THEY HAD FAILED TO FULFILL THEIR COTTON DELIVERIES TO THE GOVERNMENT IN 1949, EVEN THOUGH THE HARVEST WAS LARGER THAN 1948.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN.21-(AP)-HENRY MORGENTHAU SAID TODAY HE FAVORED A MIDDLE-EAST DEFENSE PACT TO BUILD A NEW BARRIER AGAINST RUSSIAN AGGRESSION AND STOP THE ARMS RACE BETWEEN ISRAEL AND THE ARAB NATIONS.

THE FORMER U.S. SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY DECLARED A PACT ALONG THE LINES OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY WOULD END THE "JOCKEYING FOR ARMS" HE SAID WAS GOING ON AMONG MIDDLE EASTERN NATIONS. UNDER IT, HE SAID, ARMS COULD BE SUPPLIED FOR DEFENSE ON A UNIFORM BASIS TO ALL COUNTRIES.

HE SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THE MIDDLE-EASTERN TREATY SHOULD ANSWER THE PRESENT SITUATION WHERE ISRAEL IS SUPICIOUS OF BRITISH ARMS SHIPMENTS TO IRAQ AND HASHEMITE JORDAN AND EGYPT IS STRIVING TO INCREASE HER FIGHTING POWERS.

MORGENTHAU RECOMMENDED THAT THE STRENGTHENING OF THE MIDDLE EAST'S DEFENSES SHOULD BE CONCURRENT WITH A BROAD ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.

HE SAID THAT TREMENDOUS ECONOMIC BENEFITS WOULD ACCRUE TO THE MIDDLE-EAST IF PROJECTS LIKE THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY WERE DEVELOPED FOR THE JORDAN, TIGRIS AND EUPHRATES RIVERS. ASIDE FROM DIRECT BENEFITS TO ISRAEL, MORGENTHAU SAID, THE NEW JEWISH STATE WOULD BE HELPED BY HAVING ECONOMICALLY STRONG ARAB NEIGHBORS.

MORGENTHAU REFUSED TO COMMENT ON THE PROPOSED INTERNATIONALIZATION OF JERUSALEM OTHER THAN TO SAY HE HOPED THE PROBLEM WOULD BE SATISFACTORILY SOLVED.

HOWEVER, THE NEWSPAPERS AL ZAMANE AND PROGRESS EGYPTIAN IDENTIFIED THE SCIENTISTS AS DR. MAHMOUD YOUSSEF EL CHAWARBY CHEMISTRY PROFESSOR ON THE AGRICULTURE FACULTY OF FUAD FIRST UNIVERSITY, AND MOURAD AHMED ABOU BAKR EL DEMERDACHE, CHEMIST AND AGRICULTURAL EXPERT.

EL CHAWARBY SAID IN AN INTERVIEW COMPLETE DETAILS OF THE INVENTION HAD BEEN TURNED OVER TO EGYPTIAN AUTHORITIES IN 1948.

HE SAID HE COULD NOT DISCLOSE WHETHER THE PRINCIPLE OF THE DISCOVERY WAS RELATED TO THE PROJECTED HYDROGEN ATOM BOMB DISCLOSED IN WASHINGTON EARLIER THIS WEEK. HE ADDED DETAILS CONCERNING THE HYDROGEN ATOM BOMB WHICH MIGHT ESTABLISH RELATIONSHIP, IF ANY, WERE LACKING.

"I CAN SAY OUR BOMB, ALTHOUGH PRODUCING HIGH A TEMPERATURE, WOULD NOT DEVELOP 10 MILLIONS DEGREES (CENTIGRADE) AS THE OTHER BOMB REPORTEDLY WOULD," THE SCIENTIST SAID.

HONG KONG, JAN. 21-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TODAY DENIED THAT RUSSIA IS ATTEMPTING TO ANNEX NORTHERN CHINA, OR THAT THEY WERE "RUNNING DOGS OF THE SOVIET UNION."

THE STATEMENT, DISTRIBUTED HERE BY THE COMMUNIST NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY, WAS AN ANSWER TO U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S CHARGE JAN. 12 THAT RUSSIA WAS TAKING OVER MANCHURIA, OUTER AND INNER MONGOLIA AND SINKIANG PROVINCE OF NORTHWEST CHINA.

IN MANY WAYS THE STATEMENT PARALLELED TODAY'S REPLY TO ACHESON MADE IN MOSCOW BY SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY.

THE AGENCY'S STATEMENT CAME FROM HU CHIAO-MU, INFORMATION DIRECTOR FOR THE COMMUNIST REGIME IN PEIPING.

HU QUOTED WHAT HE CALLED THE CONTRADICTORY STATEMENTS OF ACHESON AND ANGUS WARD, FORMER U.S. CONSUL GENERAL AT MUKDEN. HE ASSERTED THESE PROVED THAT THE U.S. VERSION OF THE CHINA SITUATION WAS COMPOUNDED BY "INCOMPETENT POLITICAL CHARLATANS" AND WAS BASED ON "SHAMELESS RUMORS."

"ONE (ACHESON) SAID 'MANCHURIA HAS BEEN INCORPORATED INTO RUSSIA'," THE STATEMENT SAID. "ANOTHER (WARD) SAID 'I DID NOT SEE IT'."

HU ASSERTED THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S ACCUSATION THAT RUSSIA IS ATTEMPTING TO DOMINATE CHINA WAS PROMPTED BY A REALIZATION THAT THE U.S. "LOST THEIR GAMBLE" IN CHINA."

"TO SAY," HE ADDED, "THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY IS A RUNNING DOG OF THE SOVIET UNION AND THAT THE SOVIET UNION HAS ANNEXED OR WILL ANNEX CHINA--ALL SUCH INEPT RUMOR MONGERING--CAN ONLY AROUSE THE ANGER OF THE CHINESE AND RUSSIAN PEOPLES, STRENGTHEN FRIENDLY COOPERATION BETWEEN CHINA AND RUSSIA AND HAVE NO OTHER EFFECT."

POLITICAL QUARTERS IN HONG KONG SAID, MEANWHILE, THE ARRIVAL OF FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI IN MOSCOW MEANT THAT CHINA AND RUSSIA NOW WERE READY TO SIGN THE TERMS OF AN ALLIANCE.

THE COMMITMENTS MADE BY MAO TZE-TUNG, HEAD OF THE COMMUNIST REGIME WHO HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW SINCE DEC.16, WILL SHOW THE EXTENT TO WHICH CHINA WILL BE WELDED INTO THE SOVIET BLOC.

MAO'S LONG STAY IN MOSCOW HAS BEEN INTERPRETED HERE AS EVIDENCE THAT HE FOUND THE RUSSIANS TO BE HARD BARGAINERS. THE OPINION IS UNANIMOUS THAT MAO WENT TO RUSSIA LOOKING FOR LARGE-SCALE ECONOMIC AID.

THE PRICE HE MAY BE FORCED TO PAY MAY BE SHOWN BY THE TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT. OBSERVERS WILL BE WATCHING FOR ONE POINT IN PARTICULAR--MANCHURIA.

RUSSIA IN ITS TREATY WITH THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS IN 1945 OBTAINED SPECIAL RIGHTS THERE. THESE WERE JOINT OCCUPATION OF THE PORT OF DAIREN AND THE NAVAL BASE AT PORT ARTHUR, AND JOINT CONTROL OVER THE MAIN RAILWAY IN THAT RICH NORTHEASTERN AREA.

THESE SPECIAL RIGHTS HAVE BEEN A SORE POINT WITH ALL CHINESE. U.S.SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAS PREDICTED AN EVENTUAL SQUABBLE BETWEEN THE CHINESE AND THE RUSSIANS OVER MANCHURIA.

CHOU'S TRIP TO MOSCOW AROUSED SPECULATION ON ANOTHER IMPORTANT SCORE. THE FOREIGN MINISTER HAS BEEN REGARDED BY MANY AS A LEADER WITHIN THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY OF A GROUP ADVOCATING A MORE MODERATE ATTITUDE TOWARD THE WEST.

CHOU REPUTEDLY HEADED A CLIQUE WITHIN THE ALL-POWERFUL POLITBURO OPPOSED TO THE STRONG PRO-RUSSIAN GROUP HEADED BY LIU SHAO-CHI. LIU IS SUPPOSED TO HAVE WON OUT WITH MAO'S BACKING.

THIS SUPPOSEDLY LED TO A DECLARATION OF COMPLETE SOLIDARITY WITH THE SOVIET UNION LAST JUNE. THERE IS SPECULATION HERE THAT CHOU MAY HAVE BEEN SUMMONED TO MOSCOW TO BRING HIM MORE IN LINE WITH LIU'S GROUP, ALTHOUGH IT IS POSSIBLE THAT SUCH AN IDENTITY OF VIEWS ALREADY EXISTS.

HONG KONG, JAN. 21-AP)-CHINA'S COMMUNISTS DECLARED TODAY THEY WOULD CONSIDER HOSTILE TO THEIR REGIME ANY NATION WHICH CONDUCTS DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH ANY INDEPENDENT GOVERNMENT IN TIBET.

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE PROMISED TO "LIBERATE" TIBET. THAT REMOTE, MOUNTAINOUS LAND WAS UNDER THE RULE OF NATIONALIST CHINA IN NAME ONLY. IT ALWAYS HAS SHOWN A GREAT DEAL OF INDEPENDENCE.

LHASA IS THE CAPITAL OF TIBET, WHICH ADJOINS RED CHINA ON THE WEST. THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS THAT LHASA MIGHT SEND GOOD WILL MISSIONS TO THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, INDIA AND PEIPING CLAIMING INDEPENDENCE FOR THEIR COUNTRY.

THESE REPORTS WERE REFERRED TO BY THE COMMUNIST SPOKESMAN. HE SAID IT WAS "REBELLIOUS ACTIVITY" FOR LHASA TO SEND "ILLEGAL MISSIONS ABROAD TO ENGAGE IN ACTIVITIES AIMED AT SPLITTING UP OR REVOLTING AGAINST THE MOTHER COUNTRY."

TIBET IS REGARDED AS A STRONGLY ANTI-COMMUNIST ISLAND IN ASIA. IT HAS BEEN REPORTED SEEKING U. S. AID AGAINST COMMUNISM.

TODAY'S PEIPING BROADCAST DECLARED CHINESE HAD BEEN "THROWN INTO THE BANGKOK PRISON AND BRUTALLY BEATEN BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THAILAND."

IT SAID A GROUP OF THE PRISONERS HAD SENT A LETTER TO THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT PLEADING FOR HELP.

THE LETTER WRITERS WERE QUOTED AS SAYING THEY HAD BEEN IN JAIL MORE THAN SIX MONTHS AND THAT "THOUSANDS OF US ARE WAITING FOR DEPORTATION FROM THAILAND." DAILY FATAL BEATINGS AND POISONINGS WERE ALLEGED.

EVIDENTLY THAILAND IS MORE DISTANT ON THE RED TIMETABLE THAN IS INDOCHINA. YESTERDAY'S BLAST AT THE FRENCH WAS AN OFFICIAL PROTEST TO PARIS BY PREMIER-FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI AGAINST ALLEGED "ATROCITIES" COMMITTED BY FRENCH TROOPS AGAINST CHINESE IN INDOCHINA.

TODAY'S BROADCAST, HEARD BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS IN SAN FRANCISCO, WAS PRESENTED SIMPLY AS A NEWS ITEM, WITHOUT COMMITTING THE PEIPING REGIME TO ANY COURSE OF ACTION AS YET.

TOKYO, SUNDAY, JAN. 22-(AP)-A GROUP OF 2,500 JAPANESE WAR PRISONERS FROM SIBERIA ARRIVED TODAY AT THE PORT OF MAIZURU, ON THE WESTERN COAST OF JAPAN.

THE RUSSIANS UNEXPECTEDLY VOLUNTEERED TO RETURN THEM EARLIER THIS MONTH AFTER INSISTING ONLY 10,000 "WAR CRIMINALS" REMAINED TO BE REPATRIATED. JAPANESE AND OCCUPATION OFFICIALS INSIST THE NUMBER HELD IS 376,000. THEY ASSUME MANY OF THESE ARE DEAD.

KYODO NEWS AGENCY SAID THE RETURNED PRISONERS HAD NO EXPLANATION OF WHY THEY HAD BEEN REPATRIATED IN THE MIDST OF A U.S.-RUSSIAN CONTROVERSY OVER WHETHER MORE JAPANESE REMAIN IN SIBERIA.

~~FIRST REPORTS FROM THE REPATRIATES INDICATED THAT THEY KNEW OF AT~~ LEAST 10,000 JAPANESE STILL IN RUSSIAN HANDS. THIS INCLUDED 2,000 AT NAHODKA, THE SIBERIAN PORT FROM WHICH THEIR REPATRIATION SHIP SAILED. NAHODKA IS 60 MILES EAST OF THE BIG SIBERIAN BASE OF VLADIVOSTOK.

THE JAPANESE BEGAN GOING ASHORE THIS MORNING FROM THE HOSPITAL SHIP TAKASAGO, WHICH ARRIVED LAST NIGHT.

THE AGENCY ADDED ONLY ABOUT 300 FROM NAHODKA SEEMED TO BE STRONGLY INDOCTRINATED BY THE COMMUNISTS. HOWEVER THE ENTIRE GROUP WILL BE WATCHED TO SEE IF ANY ARE SOVIET AGENTS.

KYODO SAID ABOUT 200 REPATRIATES HAD TO BE BROUGHT ASHORE ON STRETCHERS.

TOKYO, JAN. 21-(AP)-A 21-YEAR-OLD U. S. MILITARY POLICE-MAN WHO TOOK TWO TWO ORIENTIAL WAR ORPHANS TO RAISE HAS A PROBLEM ON HIS HANDS --- AND IT ISN'T FINANCIAL. IT'S JEALOUSY.

PFC. EARL S. WHITNEY, 21, SAN GABRIEL, CALIF., QUIETLY UNDERTOOK TO RAISE FAN TUNG, 13-YEAR-OLD CHINESE, AND HIRAYAMA RYOKICHI, 16-YEAR-OLD JAPANESE.

WHITNEY ISN'T TALKING.

HIS STORY CAME OUT YESTERDAY WHEN HE APPLIED FOR A TWO-DAY PASS. THE ARMY DIDN'T WANT TO GIVE IT TO HIM. THEN HE CONFESSED ALL. HE HAD TO STRAIGHTEN UP SOME PAPERS ON HIS WARD FAN TUNG.

COME TO FIND OUT HE HAD BEEN WORKING NIGHTS IN A SERVICE CLUB TO EARN ENOUGH MONEY TO FEED, EDUCATE AND CLOTHE JIMMY---THAT'S HIS NAME FOR FAN---AND MICKEY---THAT''S HIS NAME FOR HIRAYAMA. THIS HAD BEEN GOING ON FOR NEARLY THREE YEARS.

WHITNEY IS RETICENT, BUT OTHERS LEARNED THAT WHITNEY'S TROUBLES WEREN'T JUST FINANCIAL. JIMMY IS JEALOUS OF MICKEY AND MICKEY IS JEALOUS OF JIMMY.

THEY ARE SO JEALOUS THEY CAN'T BE LEFT ALONE TOGETHER. THERE'D BE A CHINESE-JAPANESE WAR ALL OVER AGAIN.

A FRIEND OF WHITNEY, MAJ. HAL B. STEWARD, SAYS WHITNEY WANTS TO TAKE JIMMY BACK TO THE UNITED STATES WHEN HE GOES. MICKEY DOESN'T KNOW IT YET.

WHITNEY PICKED UP JIMMY FIRST. THAT MAY BE THE REASON FOR SOME OF THE JEALOUSY.

STEWARD SAID WHITNEY HAD WRITTEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN, THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND AT LEAST ONE CONGRESSMAN SAYING HE WANTS TO TAKE JIMMY TO THE UNITED STATES. HE HAS RECEIVED PAPERS FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND HAS FILLED THEM OUT.

WHITNEY IS MOTIVATED BY NO SPECIAL RELIGIOUS URGE, STEWARD SAID. HE JUST DIDN'T LIKE TO SEE KIDS GO HUNGRY.

FOR AWHILE WHITNEY ARRANGED FOR THE BOYS TO STAY IN QUARTERS OF THE CHURCH OF CHRIST. HE DOES NOT BELONG TO THAT CHURCH, HOWEVER. MICKEY NOW LIVES ELSEWHERE BECAUSE THE BOYS DID NOT GET ALONG TOGETHER.

JIMMY AND MICKEY ARE LIKABLE TEENAGERS. BOTH SPEAK ENGLISH WELL. WHITNEY NOT ONLY PAID FOR THEIR SCHOOLING BUT HELPED THEM TO LEARN THE LANGUAGE.

THE BOYS, STEWARD SAID, ARE A LOT LIKE THEIR PATRON IN ONE RESPECT. THEY DON'T WANT PUBLICITY.

HAVANA, CUBA, JAN 21-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES HAS PLEDGED TO CONTINUE ITS EFFORTS TO BUILD UP LATIN AMERICAN NATIONS, EXPLAINED THAT IT COULD NOT DO THE JOB ALONE, AND URGED AN END TO QUARRELING IN THE CARRIBEAN.

THE NEW STATEMENT ON WASHINGTON'S POLICY TOWARD LATIN AMERICA WAS ISSUED HERE LAST NIGHT. IT FOLLOWED A THREE-DAY CONFERENCE OF 12 U.S. AMBASSADORS IN THE CARIBBEAN. EDWARD MILLER, U.S. ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR LATIN AMERICA, PRESIDED.

WITHOUT MENTIONING DICTATORSHIPS BY NAME, THE STATEMENT SAID THE PROGRESS OF DEMOCRACY IN THE AMERICAS "HAS NOT BEEN AS GREAT AS COULD HAVE BEEN DESIRED." BUT, IT ADDED, "IN THE LONG RUN THE WILL OF THE PEOPLES COULD NOT BE DENIED WHERE THERE EXISTED A REAL DESIRE FOR PROGRESS TOWARD DEMOCRACY."

THE CONFERENCE TOOK A "VERY SERIOUS VIEWS" OF THE QUARRELS AMONG SOME NATIONS "FOR THE PAST SEVERAL YEARS." IT EXPRESSED SATISFACTION THAT THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES (OAS) IS NOW INVESTIGATING THE CURRENT DISPUTE CENTERING AROUND THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC.

THE REPORT SAID "A HIGHER DEGREE OF BOTH INDUSTRIAL AND AGRICULTURAL ACTIVITY IN ALL COUNTRIES WOULD RESULT NOT ONLY IN INCREASED PROSPERITY BUT IN GREATER POLITICAL STABILITY."

THE U.S., SAID THE STATEMENT, HAS "ADEQUATE RESOURCES" TO FINANCE TECHNICAL AND FINANCIAL COOPERATION. AND THE U.S. GOVERNMENT COULD PLAY "AN EVEN MORE AFFIRMATIVE ROLE IN HEMISPHERIC DEVELOPMENT," THE REPORT SAID, IF CONGRESS ENACTED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "POINT FOUR" PROGRAM OF AID TO UNDER-DEVELOPED NATIONS.

THE REPORT ASSERTED, HOWEVER, "UNITED STATES ASSISTANCE COULD NOT OF ITSELF BRING ABOUT DEVELOPMENT OF OTHER COUNTRIES." IT ALSO CITED NATIONS WHERE SO MANY DIFFICULTIES HAVE DEVELOPED IN THE WAY OF PRIVATE INVESTMENT THAT PEOPLE ARE AFRAID TO INVEST THEIR MONEY.

THE DIPLOMATS URGED THE U.S. TO OPEN "CONSTANTLY EXPANDING" MARKETS FOR FOREIGN PRODUCTS AND WARNED THAT ANY SHARP CUT OR STOPPAGE OF MARSHALL AID PURCHASES IN LATIN AMERICA MIGHT CAUSE "SERIOUS POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL PROBLEMS THROUGHOUT THE AREA."

FIRST LEAD KOREA (650)

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON, JAN 21-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED TODAY HE IS URGING "IMMEDIATE ACTION" BY CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS TO RETRIEVE THE KOREAN AID LEGISLATION WHICH THE HOUSE REJECTED BY ONE VOTE (CQ) THURSDAY.

HE GAVE NO-LIMIT BACKING TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, WHO EXPRESSED "CONCERN AND DISMAY" OVER THE HOUSE DECISION IN A LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT.

ACHESON SAID THAT TO LET THE MEASURE REMAIN SCUTTLED WOULD HAVE A "DISASTROUS" EFFECT ON UNITED STATES FOREIGN POLICY, NOT ONLY IN KOREA BUT IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD WHERE COMMUNIST PRESSURE MENACES SELF-GOVERNING NATIONS.

DR.JOHN MYUN CHANG, THE KOREAN AMBASSADOR, EXPRESSED "DEEP GRATITUDE FOR THE FINE SENTIMENTS EXPRESSED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON."

THE AMBASSADOR SAID HE FELT "VERY MUCH ENCOURAGED" AND ADDED THE HOPE THAT THE U. S. GOVERNMENT CAN FIND SOME WAY TO CONTINUE THE AID TO KOREA WHICH IS "ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL TO THE RECOVERY OF ITS DOMESTIC ECONOMY."

TWO SEPARATE EFFORTS TO REVIVE THE LEGISLATION ALREADY WERE TAKING SHAPE AT THE CAPITOL EVEN BEFORE THE PRESIDENT THREW HIS FULL FORCE BEHIND THE MOVE.

1. THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE RECEIVED A BILL, PASSED LAST YEAR BY THE SENATE, AUTHORIZING $150,000,000 IN ECONOMIC AID FOR THE YOUNG KOREAN REPUBLIC.

2. CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE CAME UP WITH A PROPOSAL TO HOOK THE KOREAN AID FUND TO A MEASURE EXTENDING THE TIME IN WHICH ECONOMIC AID ALREADY APPROVED FOR NATIONALIST CHINA MAY BE SPENT.

THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT, MADE PUBLIC BY THE WHITE HOUSE, WAS BRIEF AND POINTED:

"I AM RELEASING HEREWITH A LETTER WHICH I HAVE RECEIVED FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE ABOUT THE ACTION OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN REJECTING THE KOREAN AID BILL ON THURSDAY BY A VOTE OF 193 TO 191.

"I ENTIRELY CONCUR IN THE SECRETARY'S VIEWS AS TO THE SERIOUSNESS OF THIS ACTION AND THE NECESSITY FOR ITS SPEEDY RECTIFICATION.

"I SHALL TAKE UP THIS MATTER WITH CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS AND URGE UPON THEM THE NEED FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION, IN ORDER THAT IMPORTANT FOREIGN-POLICY INTERESTS OF THIS COUNTRY MAY BE PROPERLY SAFEGUARDED."

(ALTHOUGH THE PRESIDENT REFERRED TO THE HOUSE VOTE AS 193 TO 191, A RECHECK SHOWED THE CORRECT TALLY 192 TO 191. THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD HAD RECORDED REP.LEMKE (R-ND) BOTH AS VOTING AGAINST THE BILL AND PAIRED IN FAVOR OF IT, WHEN IN FACT HE WAS CALLED AWAY AND WAS NOT PRESENT FOR THE FINAL VOTE.. LEMKE FAVORED THE LEGISLATION AND SAID HIS "PAIR" WITH REP.SMITH (R-OHIO) REPRESENTED HIS POSITION CORRECTLY.)

ACHESON SAID THAT NOT ONLY KOREANS, BUT THE OTHER PEOPLES OF ASIA AND MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS ARE LOOKING CLOSELY AT AMERICAN CONDUCT TOWARD KOREA, WHICH THE SECRETARY SAID OWES ITS VERY EXISTENCE IN LARGE PART TO THE UNITED STATES.

"WE HAVE NOT ONLY GIVEN THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA INDEPENDENCE," HE SAID; "SINCE THEN WE HAVE PROVIDED THE ECONOMIC, MILITARY, TECHNICAL, AND OTHER ASSISTANCE NECESSARY TO ITS CONTINUED EXISTENCE.

"OF THE CURRENT PROGRAM OF ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE WE ARE EXTENDING TO KOREA, HALF WAS PROVIDED BY THE CONGRESS DURING THE PREVIOUS SESSION. THE WITHHOLDING OF THE REMAINDER WOULD BRING OUR EFFORTS TO AN END IN MID-COURSE.

A25WX

JAN 22 1950

"IT IS OUR CONSIDERED JUDGMENT THAT IF OUR LIMITED ASSISTANCE IS CONTINUED THE REPUBLIC WILL HAVE A GOOD CHANCE OF SURVIVAL AS A FREE NATION. SHOULD SUCH FURTHER AID BE DENIED, THAT CHANCE MAY WELL BE LOST AND ALL OUR PREVIOUS EFFORTS PERHAPS PROVE TO HAVE BEEN VAIN."

ACHESON SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S CONCERN IN "THIS ABRUPT ABOUT-FACE" IS NOT LIMITED TO KOREA.

"WE ARE ALSO DEEPLY CONCERNED," HE SAID, "BY THE EFFECT WHICH WOULD BE CREATED IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD WHERE OUR ENCOURAGEMENT IS A MAJOR ELEMENT IN THE STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM."

CONGRESS VOTED $60,000,000 IN KOREAN ECONOMIC AID LAST YEAR. THE BILL THE HOUSE DEFEATED WOULD HAVE PROVIDED AN ADDITIONAL $60,000,000 TO BE SPENT IN THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF 1950. AS MATTERS STAND, U.S. AID IS DUE TO END FEB. 15.

THE SENATE LAST SESSION HAD PASSED A $150,000,000 KOREAN AID BILL WHICH IT SENT TO THE HOUSE. THE BILL LAY THERE UNTIL YESTERDAY WHEN, WITHOUT FANFARE, SPEAKER RAYBURN QUIETLY REFERRED IT TO THE

30.24- 8413

JAN 22 1950

FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

SHOULD THAT COMMITTEE APPROVE THE SENATE BILL, EITHER AS IT STANDS OR IN AMENDED FORM, THE HOUSE WOULD HAVE ANOTHER CHANCE TO VOTE ON KOREAN AID.. ALTHOUGH NO TIME HAS BEEN SET FOR EVEN COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION OF THE MEASURE, PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CALL FOR ACTION WAS EXPECTED TO SPEED UP MATTERS.

THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE NOW HAS BEFORE IT A BILL EXTENDING THE TIME FOR SPENDING A $106,000,000 BALANCE FROM A $125,000,000 ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FOR THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS. THE FUNDS ARE DUE TO LAPSE FEB. 15. IT WAS CONNALLY'S IDEA THAT THE KOREAN AID COULD BE TIED ON TO THE EXTENSION BILL.

ACHESON IS DUE TO APPEAR BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE TUESDAY, TO REPORT ON RECENT DIPLOMATIC DEVELOPMENTS IN THE FAR EAST.

RUSSIAN

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,JAN 21-(AP)-STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS DECIDED TODAY THAT SECRETARY ACHESON'S ATTACK ON RUSSIAN POLICY IN CHINA HAD FOUND A SORE SPOT IN SOVIET RELATIONS WITH THE CHINESE.

THAT WAS THE INITIAL REACTION HERE TO SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER VISHINSKY'S BLAST IN MOSCOW EARLY TODAY WHEN HE ACCUSED ACHESON OF LYING BY HAVING SAID THAT RUSSIA IS TAKING OVER FOUR AREAS OF NORTHERN CHINA.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT DECLINED TO MAKE AN OFFICIAL COMMENT ON THE VISHINSKY STATEMENT, BUT CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE DECLARED THE RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTER HAD USED LANGUAGE "UNFITTED FOR COURTEOUS AND STATESMAN LIKE COMMUNICATIONS."

"I AM AMAZED," CONNALLY SAID, "AT THE DISTEMPERED AND ANGRY LANGUAGE OF FOREIGN MINISTER VISHINSKY. MR.VISHINSKY DOES NOT TALK LIKE A FOREIGN MINISTER. X X X

"HE TALKS LIKE HE DID WHEN HE WAS PROSECUTING AND CONVICTING VICTIMS OF THE PURGE IN RUSSIA YEARS AGO."

IT WAS NOT SO MUCH THE ANGRY TONE OF VISHINSKY'S REACTION TO THE ACHESON CHARGE AS IT WAS THE EVIDENCE OF THE IMPORTANCE THAT RUSSIA ATTACHED TO THE STATEMENT THAT IMPRESSED TOP STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, THEY SAID PRIVATELY.

THE STATEMENT WAS HANDED OUT TO FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS WHO WERE SUMMONED TO THE KREMLIN IN THE POST MIDNIGHT HOURS, RATHER THAN SIMPLY BEING PRINTED IN ONE OF THE MOSCOW NEWSPAPERS OR BEING DISTRIBUTED BY THE TASS AGENCY, WHICH IS THE ROUTINE WAY OF HANDLING SUCH THINGS IN MOSCOW.

THE STATEMENT USED SUCH WORDS WITH RESPECT TO WHAT ACHESON HAD SAID AS THAT HIS DECLARATION WAS "MONSTROUS AND AWKWARD" AND "LYING AND CRUDELY SLANDEROUS."

FAR FROM DISMEMBERING NORTHERN CHINA, VISHINSKY ARGUED, THE SOVIET UNION AND CHINA HAVE COMPLETE RESPECT FOR EACH OTHER'S TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY.

ACHESON IN A SPEECH HERE LAST WEEK ON AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY DEALING WITH THE COMMUNIZATION OF CHINA AND THE RED THREAT GENERALLY IN THE FAR EAST HAD DECLARED THAT RUSSIA IS TAKING OVER THE AREAS OF OUTER MONGOLIA, INNER MONGOLIA, SINKIANG AND MANCHURIA. AFTER HE THREW HIS BOMBSHELL, HE SAT BACK AND WAITED FOR REACTION TO THE SPEECH IN WHICH HE HAD DESCRIBED RUSSIA AS THE NEW IMPERIALIST POWER OF THE FAR EAST.

STAT DEPARTMENT EXPERTS SAID TODAY THAT IN ADDITION TO DEMONSTRATING THAT THE CHARGE HAD HIT HOME, VISHINSKY'S COUNTER ATTACK ALSO HAD ANOTHER POSSIBLE SIGNIFICANCE CONNECTED WITH THE CURRENT VISITS OF CHINESE RED LEADERS TO MOSCOW.

A20WX

THE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE CHINESE AND THE RUSSIANS ARE EXPECTED TO RESULT IN A TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP, POSSIBLY SOME SORT OF ALLIANCE AND ALSO POSSIBLY AN ECONOMIC AGREEMENT. IN ADDITION THE BELIEF HERE IS THAT THE TALKS MAY PRODUCE SECRET POLITICAL AGREEMENTS ABOUT WHICH NOTHING MAY BE KNOWN FOR A LONG TIME.

THE DANGER OF THE ACHESON CHARGE IN THAT SITUATION, THE EXPERTS BELIEVE, IS THAT IT HAS PUT THE LABEL OF RUSSIAN IMPERIALISM ON WHATEVER AGREEMENTS ARE ANNOUNCED TO THE EXTENT THAT THEY MAY SHOW AN EXTENSION OF RUSSIAN POWER OR RUSSIAN ECONOMIC INTERESTS INTO CHINA.

THE LONG RANGE GOAL IN THIS STRUGGLE BETWEEN MOSCOW AND WASHINGTON, AS ACHESON MADE CLEAR IN HIS SPEECH, IS TO HOLD OR CAPTURE THE GOODWILL OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE. WHILE HE DID NOT USE THE WORD, ACHESON STRONGLY INDICATED THAT WHAT HE HOPES FOR IS THE DEVELOPMENT OF A KIND OF TITOISM IN CHINA WHICH WOULD MEAN AN EVENTUAL OPEN RIFT BETWEEN THE CHINESE RED LEADERS AND THE KREMLIN--SIMILAR TO THE SPLIT BETWEEN THE KREMLIN AND MARSHALL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA.

FAILING THAT, HE HELD OUT THE ALTERNATE HOPE THAT THE CHINESE PEOPLE THEMSELVES WOULD EVENTUALLY DEVELOP STRONG FORCES OPPOSED TO COMMUNIST RULE.

THE PRINCIPAL CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADERS IN MOSCOW NOW ARE MAO TZE-TUNG, CHAIRMAN OF THE NEW CHINESE REGIME AND FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI. MAO HAS BEEN THERE FOR A MONTH AND CHOU ARRIVED ONLY YESTERDAY. HIS ARRIVAL WAS INTERPRETED BY SOME HERE AS MEANING THAT NEGOTIATIONS HAVE FINALLY REACHED A CLIMAX AND THAT SOME ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RESULT WILL BE FORTHCOMING.

THE FACT THAT MAO HAS BEEN ON THE SCENE FOR A MONTH, HOWEVER, IS TAKEN BY AMERICAN EXPERTS ON RUSSIA TO MEAN THAT PROBLEMS OF CONSIDERABLY DIFFICULTY INVOLVING CONFLICTS OF RUSSIAN AND CHINESE INTERESTS IN THE VERY AREAS WHICH ACHESON MENTIONED HAVE ARISEN AND HAVE REQUIRED LENGTHY DISCUSSION.

THE KEY AREA IN SPECULATION ABOUT THESE POSSIBLE CONFLICTS IS MANCHUBIA. THE RUSSIANS HAVE RAILWAY, PORT AND NAVAL BASE RIGHTS IN THAT RICH SECTION OF NORTHERN CHINA WHICH ARE COMPARABLE TO THE OLD, SPECIAL RIGHTS THAT THE WESTERN POWERS ONCE HAD IN CHINA AND WHICH THE CHINESE PEOPLE HAVE ALWAYS BITTERLY OPPOSED.

SMITH-BENDER

WASHINGTON, JAN 21-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT REPORTED INDIRECT WORD FROM CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES TODAY THAT TWO AMERICAN SERVICEMEN WHO DISAPPEARED IN CHINA MORE THAN A YEAR AGO ARE WELL AND COMFORTABLE.

THE MEN ARE CHIEF ELECTRICIAN WILLIAM C.SMITH OF LONG BEACH,CALIF., AND MASTER SGT.ELMER C.BENDER, OF CINCINNATI.

THEY DISAPPEARED ON A TRAINING FLIGHT OCT. 19, 1948, AND HAVE BEEN DETAINED BY CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES IN THE FACE OF AMERICAN AND BRITISH EFFORTS TO OBTAIN THEIR RELEASE.

TODAY'S REPORT, WHICH CAME FROM THE BRITISH CONSULATE AT TSINGTAO, CHINA, WAS THE NEAREST THING TO OFFICIAL WORD THAT THE U.S. HAS YET RECEIVED.

MICHAEL MCDERMOTT, NEWS OFFICER OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, MADE THIS ANNOUNCEMENT:

"WE HAVE JUST BEEN INFORMED BY THE BRITISH THAT THEIR CONSULATE AT TSINGTAO OBTAINED THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION ON JANUARY 17 FROM THE FOREIGN RESIDENTS DEPARTMENT (OF THE LOCAL COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT):

"SMITH AND BENDER ARE WELL, RECEIVING AMPLE FOOD AND ARE COMFORTABLE. THEY ARE LIVING IN THE EASTERN SECTION OF SHANTUNG PROVINCE."

MCDERMOTT ADDED:

"WE ARE STILL ENDEAVORING THROUGH THE BRITISH TO GET THEM RELEASED."

SHANTUNG PROVINCE INCLUDES SHANTUNG PENINSULA (A PART OF THE CHINESE MAINLAND THAT JUTS INTO THE YELLOW SEA OPPOSITE FORMOSA.) THE REFERENCE TO THE EASTERN SECTION OF THE PROVINCE SUGGESTED THAT THE MEN MAY BE LIVING IN THE PENINSULA.

WASHINGTON, JAN.21-(AP)-REP.MACK (R-WASH) SAID TODAY CURRENCY DEVALUATION HAS GIVEN CANADIAN BUSINESS MEN A TEN PERCENT ADVANTAGE OVER THE UNITED STATES IN FOREIGN MARKETS AND CANADIAN LUMBER OPERATORS ARE TAKING "FULL ADVANTAGE OF IT."

MACK TOLD A REPORTER A REVIEW OF RECENT BIDS SUBMITTED TO THE BRITISH LUMBER CONTROLLER FOR 87,350,000(M) FEET OF LUMBER FOR HIS GOVERNMENT SHOWED THE EFFECT OF THE DEVALUATION. HE SAID CANADIANS GOT ORDERS FOR 82,350,000(M) FEET OF THE TOTAL, AMERICANS GETTING ORDERS FOR ONLY 5,000,000(M) FEET.

MACK SAID THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, WITH WHOSE FUNDS THE BRITISH MADE THE PURCHASES, GAVE HIM A DETAILED ANALYSIS OF THE BIDS.

THIS SHOWED, HE CONTINUED, THAT ON MOST ITEMS BIDS BY UNITED STATES FIRMS WERE LOWER THAN THOSE OF THE CANADIANS UNTIL THE AMOUNTS WERE CONVERTED INTO CANADIAN DOLLARS, TEN PERCENT CHEAPER THAN UNITED STATES DOLLARS, WHICH MADE THE CANADIAN BIDS SLIGHTLY LOWER.

"THE CANADIAN LUMBER OPERATORS ARE THEREFORE MAKING AN UNUSUALLY HANDSOME PROFIT AT THE EXPENSE OF THE AMERICAN TAXPAYER," MACK SAID. "IN SOME CASES THE BRITISH GAVE THE ORDERS TO CANADIAN SUPPLIERS EVEN THOUGH BIDS OF UNITED STATES SUPPLIERS WERE LOWER.

"THIS IS POOR GRATITUDE FOR THE BILLIONS AMERICAN TAXPAYERS HAVE SUPPLIED GREAT BRITAIN TO BOLSTER UP HER ECONOMY."

MACK SAID THAT IF THE BRITISH CONTINUE THE POLICY OF ACCEPTING BIDS OF CANADIANS, BASED ON CANADIAN DOLLARS, UNITED STATES PRODUCERS OF PULP, PAPER, FISH, APPLES AND OTHER COMMODITIES AS WELL AS LUMBER WILL LOSE THEIR EUROPEAN MARKETS TO CANADA AND OTHER BRITISH DOMINIONS.

SENATORS-FOREIGN

BY DON WHITEHEAD

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.21-(AP)-IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES TODAY THERE IS A SMALL GROUP OF MEN WHOSE INFLUENCE IS BEING FELT AROUND THE WORLD IN AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY.

THEIR INFLUENCE IS FOUND IN THE BILLIONS SPENT IN THE COLD WAR AGAINST COMMUNISM, IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT, IN ARMS FOR WESTERN EUROPE, AND IN EACH TREATY AND LAW DEALING WITH FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

BEHIND THE SCENES, SOME OF THESE MEN HELP SWAY THE ATTITUDES AND THE POLICIES WHICH DEVELOP IN THE WHITE HOUSE AND THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

THEY ARE THE 13 MEMBERS OF THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS --A GROUP WHICH HAS EMERGED IN RECENT YEARS AS ONE OF THE MOST POWERFUL IN CONGRESS. AS THE UNITED STATES HAS GROWN INTO A WORLD POWER--SO HAS GROWN THE INFLUENCE OF THIS COMMITTEE.

ITS IMPORTANCE RESTS PRIMARILY ON THE LAWS IT HANDLES DEALING WITH MATTERS TOUCHING THE LIVES OF EVERY NATION. BUT ITS INFLUENCE SPREADS BEYOND THE BOUNDS OF LEGISLATION. THIS IS THE COMMITTEE WHICH PASSES ON TREATIES, AND ON THE NOMINATIONS FOR AMBASSADORS AND OTHER FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICERS.

WHO ARE THESE MEN? WHAT ARE THEIR COMMITTEE DUTIES? HOW HAVE THEY HELPED TO SHAPE THE POLICIES OF THIS GOVERNMENT? HOW CAN THEIR INFLUENCE AFFECT YOU AND ME IN THE FUTURE?

FIRST, LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT THE WORD "POLICY". ONE DICTIONARY SAYS POLICY MEANS "A SETTLED OR DEFINITE COURSE OR METHOD ADOPTED AND FOLLOWED BY A GOVERNMENT."

AT TIMES, A POLICY CAN BE MERELY OUR GOVERNMENT'S ATTITUDE ON A SITUATION--A VIEWPOINT. BUT A VIEWPOINT OFTEN HAS NO REAL MEANING UNTIL IT IS BACKED UP BY LEGISLATION.

THAT WAS THE CASE IN THE BIRTH OF THE MARSHALL PLAN TO REBUILD EUROPE'S ECONOMY AS A BARRIER TO THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM THE WORDS OF FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE MARSHALL CALLING FOR AID TO EUROPE WOULD HAVE HAD A HOLLOW RING IN LATER YEARS UNLESS CONGRESS HAD AUTHORIZED ITS FULFILLMENT. THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HAD A SIGNIFICANT PART IN DEVELOPING THIS PROGRAM.

B112WX

THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT HOLDS THE POLICY-MAKING POWERS BUT THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE OFTEN HAS THE JOB OF HELPING TRANSLATE THESE POLICIES INTO LAW--AND SOMETIMES HAS A HAND IN SHAPING THE POLICIES BEFORE THEY TAKE FINAL FORM.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S NEW POLICY IN SPAIN IS A GOOD EXAMPLE:

SINCE 1946, THE UNITED STATES POLICY HAS BEEN TO FOLLOW A UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTION AGAINST FULL DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION FOR FRANCO. WE WITHDREW OUR AMBASSADOR AND KEPT ONLY A SKELETON STAFF AT MADRID.

BUT PRESSURES BUILT UP AGAINST THIS POLICY. MANY PEOPLE REASONED, FOR ONE THING, THAT IF WE HAVE AN AMBASSADOR IN A COMMUNIST STATE SUCH AS RUSSIA, THEN WE SHOULD HAVE AN AMBASSADOR IN SPAIN.

THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE MEMBERS DISCUSSED THIS SITUATION RECENTLY IN A CLOSED-DOOR MEETING WITH ACHESON. SOME OF THEM DROVE HOME THE POINT THAT THEY DID NOT AGREE WITH THIS POLICY AND THAT IT WAS NOT CONSISTENT.

A FEW DAYS LATER ACHESON MADE IT KNOWN THE GOVERNMENT NOW IS WILLING TO VOTE IN THE UN FOR A RESOLUTION LEAVING EACH NATION FREE TO MAKE ITS OWN CHOICE ABOUT SENDING AN AMBASSADOR TO SPAIN.

THIS DOES NOT MEAN, OF COURSE, THE COMMITTEE ALONE CAUSED THIS SHIFT. THERE WERE MAY FACTORS INVOLVED. BUT IT HAD A STRONG INFLUENCE.

THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HAD ITS BEGINNING IN 1816 WHEN IT WAS CREATED AS A STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE SENATE. THERE IS NOT WRITTEN HISTORY OF THE COMMITTEE. BUT VETERAN SENATORS GENERALL AGREE IT ALWAYS HAS BEEN IMPORTANT.

ITS DUTIES ARE TO SERVE THE SENATE BY STUDY AND ADVICE ON TREATIES AND LAWS DEALING WITH FOREIGN AFFAIRS, AND BY INVESTIGATING THE QUALIFICATIONS OF THE PRESIDENT'S FOREIGN SERVICE APPOINTMENTS.

SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA), WHO HAS SERVED ON THE COMMITTEE LONGER THAN ANY OTHER SENATOR, SAID HE ONCE DUG INTO THE COMMITTEE'S BACKGROUND.

"I BELIEVE IT WAS AFTER WORLD WAR I THAT THE COMMITTEE FIRST BEGAN TO DEVELOP ITS PRESENT IMPORTANCE," HE SAID. "THAT WAS WHEN PRESIDENT WILSON WAS TRYING TO GET THE UNITED STATES TO JOIN THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS. THAT WAS WHEN WE BEGAN TO REALIZE HOW CLOSELY CONNECTED WE WERE WITH ALL PARTS OF THE GLOBE--AND HOW REMOTE HAPPENINGS COULD AFFECT US.

"THEN, TOO, WE WERE PASSING FROM A DEBTOR NATION INTO THE STATUS OF A CREDITOR NATION. OUR INFLUENCE AS A NATION WAS GROWING.

"THEN ALONG CAME WORLD WAR II. THE COMMITTEE'S ACTIONS NATURALLY BECAME MORE SPECTACULAR THAN IN PEACETIME."

IT IS AGREED GENERALLY THE COMMITTEE REACHED A NEW PEAK OF INFLUENCE AFTER WORLD WAR II IN DEVELOPMENT OF THE PEACE PROGRAMS AND THE HUGE FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS.

DURING THIS PERIOD, THE COMMITTEE HAS BEEN HEADED BY ITS PRESENT CHAIRMAN, SENATOR TOM CONNALLY (D-TEX), AND EARLIER BY SENATOR ARTHUR VANDENBERG OF MICHIGAN, THE REPUBLICANS' TOP MAN IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

THE COMMITT

AFTER WORLD WAR II IN DEVELOPMENT OF THE PEACE PROGRAMS AND THE HUGE FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS.

DURING THIS PERIOD, THE COMMITTEE HAS BEEN HEADED BY ITS PRESENT CHAIRMAN, SENATOR TOM CONNALLY (D-TEX), AND EARLIER BY SENATOR ARTHUR VANDENBERG OF MICHIGAN, THE REPUBLICANS' TOP MAN IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

THE COMMITTEE'S MEMBERSHIP INCLUDES: DEMOCRATS--CONNALLY, GEORGE, THOMAS OF UTAH, TYDINGS OF MARYLAND, PEPPER OF FLORIDA, GREEN OF RHODE ISLAND, MCMAHON OF CONNECTICUT, AND FULBRIGHT OF ARKANSAS; REPUBLICANS--VANDENBERG, WILEY OF WISCONSIN, SMITH OF NEW JERSEY, HICKENLOOPER OF IOWA AND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS.

THE SO-CALLED BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY DREW THE COMMITTEE'S LEADERS INTO THE COUNCILS OF THE ADMINISTRATION AND INCREASED THEIR VOICE IN THE FORMATION OF POLICY.

THE BEGINNING OF THIS POLICY, SENATOR CONNALLY SAYS, WAS DURING CORDELL HULL'S TERM AS SECRETARY OF STATE. THE COMMITTEE BECAME MORE AND MORE A DIRECT LINK BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND THE SENATE.

DURING THE WAR, MEMBERS OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE BEGAN MEETING WEEKLY WITH HULL TO DISCUSS FOREIGN PROBLEMS. THEY WERE CONCERNED WITH THE WAR DEVELOPMENTS--BUT THEY ALSO LOOKED AHEAD TO SEE WHAT COULD BE DONE ABOUT THE PEACE.

SENATOR VANDENBERG ONCE TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES:

"I FERVENTLY BELIEVE IT IS OF THE HIGHEST CONCERN THAT THE SENATE AND THE EXECUTIVE SHOULD WORK IN CLOSEST POSSIBLE COOPERATION IN THE EVOLUTION OF THE FORMULAS OF PEACE SO THAT WE MAY AVOID THE STERILE DEADLOCKS OF 25 YEARS AGO."

B114WX

JAN 22 1950

HE WENT ON TO SAY THE SENATE WAS NOT ENTITLED TO SPEAK FIRST IN DETAILING BLUEPRINTS FOR THE PEACE. BUT HE SAID "WE ARE ENTITLED TO ADVISE THE EXECUTIVE IN RESPECT TO THE BOUNDARIES OF OUR PEACE PURPOSES."

THIS CLOSE COOPERATION WITH THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WAS CARRIED ON~~ IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE UNITED NATIONS. IT WENT~~ FORWARD INTO THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM, THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY, THE ARMS PROGRAM FOR EUROPE, AND OTHER MAJOR FOREIGN LEGISLATION. IN HELPING SHAPE POLICY, THE COMMITTEE'S PRESTIGE AND INFLUENCE INCREASED.

BUT RECENTLY SOME REPUBLICANS HAVE BEEN COMPLAINING LOUDLY THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HAS BY-PASSED THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND THE BIPARTISAN POLICY IN CHINA AND OTHER PARTS OF THE FAR EAST.

THOSE REPUBLICANS SAY THEY ARE WASHING THEIR HANDS OF ANY RESPONSIBILITY IN THE COLLAPSE OF NATIONALIST CHINA AND THE FORWARD SURGE OF COMMUNISM TOWARD SOUTHEAST ASIA. THEY DECLARE THE BIPARTISAN POLICY HAS BEEN TOSSED OVERBOARD.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS SHARPLY DISAGREE. THEY SAY THAT THE BI-PARTISAN APPROACH TO INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS SHOULD AND WILL CONTINUE.

THE OUTCOME OF THIS CONTROVERSY, OF COURSE, WILL HAVE A VAST BEARING ON THE FUTURE INFLUENCE OF THE COMMITTEE. IF THE ADMINISTRATION SHOULD DROP THE SENATORS FROM ITS COUNCILS--THEN THE INFLUENCE AND PRESTIGE OF THE GROUP WOULD SUFFER.

BUT SO LONG AS THE COMMITTEE HANDLES THE LEGISLATION DEALING WITH AMERICA'S VAST FOREIGN INTERESTS, THE INFLUENCE OF THESE 13 MEN STILL WILL BE FELT AROUND THE WORLD.

BY CHARLES A.CRUMICH

(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.21-(AP)-THE AMERICAN-LED MAJORITY MAY HAVE TO DECIDE SOON WHETHER IT WILL PAY THE SOVIET PRICE FOR THE RETURN OF THE RUSSIANS TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE PRICE IS GENERAL RECOGNITION OF THE RED CHINESE AND BIG POWER MEMBERSHIP FOR THEM IN PLACE OF THE NATIONALIST CHINESE WHO ARE STILL HANGING ONTO THEIR U.N. SEATS.

THE ALTERNATIVE TO ACCEPTANCE OF THE REDS MIGHT LEAD TO A CONCLUSIVE SPLIT OF THE UNITED NATIONS INTO TWO WORLDS--WITH RED CHINA TIED TIGHT TO THE SOVIET ORBIT ON THE OTHER SIDE IN A DANGEROUSLY HOSTILE EURASIA.

THE CRISIS IS POSED BY THE WALKOUT-STRIKES THE RUSSIANS AND THEIR SATELLITES HAVE STAGED WITH GRIM PRECISION AT A DOZEN U.N. AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL PARLEYS IN THE PAST WEEK. THEIR OFFENSIVE IS AIMED AT THROWING OUT NATIONALIST CHINESE DELEGATES AND SO SEAT THE DELEGATES OF MAO TZE-TUNG, THE CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADER.

THE BOYCOTT COVERS ALL CURRENT SESSIONS AND THE RUSSIANS SAY IT WILL EXTEND TO OTHERS AS THEY CONVENE. THE NEXT ONES ARE THE 18-NATION ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL MEETING HERE IN WINTER SESSION FEB.7 AND, FROM TIME TO TIME, ITS SEVERAL SUBSIDIARY ORGANS AND OTHER U.N. BODIES.

THE SECRETARIAT--THE 3,000 PEOPLE OF MANY NATIONALITIES WHO STAFF THE HEADQUARTERS AND OUTGOING MISSIONS--IS NOT AFFECTED; RUSSIANS STILL WORK SIDE BY SIDE WITH NATIONALIST CHINESE.

THE DECISION ON THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE OF THE U.N.--THE ANSWERS TO THE BASIC SHOWDOWN QUESTIONS--IS IN THE HANDS OF RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES.

IN THE NEAR FUTURE, OR THIS YEAR ANYWAY, EITHER PROBABLY CAN BREAK OR GIVE A NEW LIFT TO THE POSTWAR ORGANIZATION THAT IS HOPEFULLY DEDICATED TO--BUT NEVER HAS FOUND--THE WAY TO PEACE.

THOSE TWO COUNTRIES HAVE THE POWER TO SPLIT THE WORLD IN TWO AND RUIN THE CONCEPT OF UNIVERSAL AMITY OR AT LEAST A LIVE-AND-LET-LIVE TOLERANCE--TO CREATE A DARKENED EURASIA WHERE NO SLANTS OF WESTERN LIGHT COULD PENETRATE.

A SPECIAL 59-NATION ASSEMBLY MAY BE NECESSARY THIS SPRING TO TUG THE U.N. UP FROM WHAT OFFICIALS HERE ACKNOWLEDGE TO BE

THE U.N. UP FROM WHAT OFFICIALS HERE ACKNOWLEDGE TO BE THE LOWEST EBB EVER IN THE SEARCH FOR PEACE.

A132

UP TO THIS WEEKEND 15 COUNTRIES IN THE U.N. HAVE RECOGNIZED RED CHINA; THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS DIVIDED FIVE AND FIVE ON THE QUESTION, NOT COUNTING NATIONALIST CHINA, WHICH HOLDS THE COUNCIL PRESIDENCY FOR JANUARY; THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH IS DIVIDED FOUR AND FOUR, WITH BRITAIN, INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON RECOGNIZING THE PEIPING REDS AND AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND, CANADA AND SOUTH AFRICA STILL DEALING WITH NATIONALIST CHINA.

SPECIAL SESSIONS MAY BE CALLED ON THE INITIATIVE OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL OR ANY MEMBER NATION WITH MAJORITY APPROVAL IN A TELEGRAPHIC POLL OF ALL THE MEMBERSHIP.

IF A SESSION IS CALLED IT MIGHT HAVE THE EFFECT OF BRINGING THE ISSUE TO A SHOWDOWN, OF FORCING A MAJORITY OF MEMBERS TO MAKE UP THEIR MINDS ON WHETHER TO RECOGNIZE THE REDS OR KEEP ON WITH THE NATIONALISTS AND WITHOUT RUSSIA & CO.

TOPMOST U.N. ADMINISTRATORS DON'T BELIEVE THEY HAVE REACHED THE END OF THE ROAD. THEY INSIST RUSSIA WILL END THE GENERAL DIPLOMATIC STRIKE AND COME BACK TO THE U.N.

THEY DON'T SAY OUT LOUD THAT THE SOVIET DELEGATIONS WILL COME BACK ONLY ON THEIR OWN TERMS: GENERAL RECOGNITION OF RED CHINA AND BIG POWER MEMBERSHIP IN WORLD COUNCILS.

BUT IT IS IMPLICIT THAT THEY EXPECT A MAJORITY OF NATIONS QILL TAKE AN EXPEDIENT COURSE, ACKNOWLEDGING THAT THE CHINESE REDS DO IN FACT CONTROL THE CHINA M

BUT IT IS IMPLICIT THAT THEY EXPECT A MAJORITY OF NATIONS WILL TAKE AN EXPEDIENT COURSE, ACKNOWLEDGING THAT THE CHINESE REDS DO IN FACT CONTROL THE CHINA MAINLAND AND CLAIM ABSOLUTE RULE OVER 470,000,000 PEOPLE.

RUSSIA IS COMMITTED AND TO BACK DOWN WOULD BE TO LOSE ALL-IMPORTANT FACE IN THE ORIENT. THE PRICE FOR A SOVIET RETURN IS NOTHING LESS THAN ENTRY FOR THE CHINESE REDS INTO BIG POWER MEMBERSHIP THAT CARRIES THE VETO PRIVILEGE IN THE 11-NATION SECURITY COUNCIL.

THE UNITED STATES IS NOT COMMITTED ON RED CHINA BUT HAS BEEN PROVOKED BY THE COMMUNISTS WITH INCIDENTS SUCH AS THE YEAR-LONG IMPRISONMENT OF CONSUL-GENERAL ANGUS WARD UNTIL HE HAS BEEN RELEASED, THE SEIZURE OF U.S. CONSULATE PROPERTY IN PEIPING AND OTHER CALCULATED INDIGNITIES.

A133

IN DESPERATION ON THEIR FORMOSA ISLAND RETREAT AND IN SHOWS OF RESENTMENT OVER DENIAL OF U.S. AID, THE NATIONALISTS OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK ALSO HAVE CREATED INCIDENTS DETRIMENTAL TO AMERICANS.

THE AMERICAN HIGH-POLICY DECISION OF CHOICE FOR THE FORSEEABLE FUTURE BETWEEN THE ISLAND GOVERNMENT OF CHIANG AND MAO'S REDS PROBABLY WILL AWAIT THE CONFIDENTIAL REPORT ROVING AMBASSADOR PHILIP C.JESSUP WILL MAKE TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AFTER JESSUP'S CURRENT SWING THROUGH THE ORIENT.

JESSUP'S RECOMMENDATION TO THE PRESIDENT MAY BE PRETTY WELL FORMED UP AFTER HIS CONFERENCE NEXT MONTH IN BANGKOK WITH AMERICAN DIPLOMATS GATHERED FROM ALL OVER SOUTHEAST ASIA TO TALK ABOUT HOW THAT GREAT AREA MAY BE SAVED FROM THE COMMUNISM THAT HAS ENGULFED CHINA.

THE WESTERN POWERS COULD TAKE ADVANTAGE OF RUSSIA'S ABSENCE FROM U.N. ORGANS TO PUT OVER SOME MEASURES THAT HAVE BEEN DEFEATED BY SOVIET VETOES IN THE PAST FOUR YEARS. BEFORE SOME WALKOUTS, HOWEVER, THE RUSSIANS HAVE QUESTIONED THE LEGALITY OF ANY SUCH ACTIONS IN STATEMENTS INDICATING THEY STILL CARE ABOUT THE LETTER OF THE LAW AND COINCIDENTALLY IMPLYING THEY INTEND TO COME BACK.

THE RUSSIANS CAREFULLY CONTENDED THE ILLEGALITY WOULD STEM FROM THE CONTINUED PRESENCE OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS AND THEIR PART IN DECISIONS RATHER FROM ANY CONTENTION THAT RUSSIANS ABSENCE WOULD PARALYZE OPERATIONS.

THE WESTERN POWERS ARE RELUCTANT TO MAKE ANY DECISIONS THAT MIGHT BE CLOUDED BY LEGAL QUESTIONS THAT COULD BE RAISED. FOR INSTANCE, THEY ARE SHYING AWAY FROM TAKING UP U.N. MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS FROM NINE COUNTRIES THAT HAVE BEEN REJECTED IN THE PAST BY 22 SOVIET VETOES IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

IN ALL, THE RUSSIANS HAVE USED THE BIG POWER VETO 43 TIMES TO KILL MAJORITY DECISIONS OF THE COUNCIL. THAT WAS THEIR GREATEST INSTRUMENT OF OBSTRUCTION UNTIL THE CURRENT RASH OF WALKOUT-STRIKES AND BOYCOTTS BROKE UP ATOMIC CONTROL TALKS, SLOWED THE SECURITY COUNCIL ALMOST TO COMPLETE INACTION, HINDERED THE OPERATIONS OF THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL IN GENEVA AND LEFT VARIOUS COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES SHORT-HANDED AND DOUBTFUL OF ACCOMPLISHMENT.

A134

TAKING INTO ACCOUNT ALL FACTORS IN WHAT IS ACKNOWLEDGED TO BE THE GREATEST CRISIS IN THE FIVE YEARS OF U.N. HISTORY, SOME OBSERVERS WITH EXPERIENCE THEN AND NOW ESTIMATE THE SITUATION IS NOT AS DESPERATE AS IT WAS WHEN JAPAN WALKED OUT OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS IN 1931 OVER THE MANCHURIA QUESTION; WHEN THE LEAGUE HEARD AND IGNORED THE PLEAS OF EMPEROR HAILE SELASSIE TO STOP MUSSOLINI'S AGGRESSION IN ETHIOPIA; WHEN GERMANY AND ITALY QUIT; WHEN RUSSIA WAS EXPELLED.

SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE IS LEADER OF THE TOP-FLIGHT FACTION THAT BELIEVES RUSSIA WILL BE BACK. HE USED FINANCIAL PAGE TERMINOLOGY TO SAY U.N. STOCK IS LOWER NOW THAN EVER BEFORE BUT THAT HE WOULD STILL BUY IT.

"WE HAVE HAD DIFFICULT PERIODS IN THE LIFE OF THE U.N. BEFORE," HE SAID. "X X X I AM SURE HE WILL REMOVE THESE DIFFICULTIES AND WILL RESTORE THE STANDARDS AND GIVE MAN FAITH IN THE U.N. AGAIN."

ERICA CAME HERE ABOUT SIX MONTHS AGO AND HAS BEEN LIVING IN THE BRONX.

JUDOVITS WILL GO TO DALLAS UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF THE UNITED SERVICE FOR NEW AMERICANS.

HIS FIANCE WILL JOIN HIM THERE LATER FOR THEIR MARRIAGE.

AFTER HIS MOTHER AND SISTER WERE KILLED IN THE AUSCHWITZ CONCENTRATION CAMP, JUDOVITS AND HIS FATHER WERE MOVED FROM AUSCHWITZ TO DACHAU.

THEY WERE LIBERATED FROM DACHAU BY AMERICAN FORCES, BUT HIS FATHER DIED NINE DAYS LATER.

JUDOVITS SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHAT HE WOULD DO IN DALLAS BUT ADDED: "I DON'T CARE WHAT I DO, AS LONG AS I CAN MAKE A LIVING."

NEW YORK, JAN.21-(AP)-SUPREME COURT JUSTICE HUGO L.BLACK SAID TONIGHT AMERICANS HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR SO LONG AS WE "CLING WITH UNSHAKEABLE FINALITY TO THE RIGHT OF PEOPLE TO THINK, SPEAK AND WRITE AS THEIR CONSCIENCE MAY DICTATE."

SPEAKING AT THE 43RD ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE, HE SAID:

"ONE WHO PRIZES THE PRINCIPLES OF LIBERTY UPON WHICH THIS GOVERNMENT RESTS MAY WELL FEAR ANY THREAT OF ENCROACHMENT ON THE FUNDAMENTAL LIBERTY OF SPEECH, PRESS OR RELIGION.

"BUT THERE IS CERTAINLY NOTHING TO FEAR FROM CRITICS WHO MERELY ATTEMPT TO UNDERMINE THOSE LIBERTIES BY WORDS."

JUSTICE BLACK SAID THE FRAMERS OF THE FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION WERE NOT AFRAID OF PUBLIC DISCUSSION BECAUSE "THE LOUDER THE CRITICS OF GOOD GOVERNMENT TALK, THE MORE DEVASTATING WILL BE THE ANSWERS OF THE PEOPLE WHO BELIEVE IN THAT GOVERNMENT AND WHO LOVE IT."

NEW YORK, JAN.21-(AP)-CITY CORPORATION COUNSEL JTHN P.MCGRATH SAID TODAY THAT THE SUPERINTENDENT OF CITY SCHOOLS CAN DISMISS TEACHERS HE THINKS ARE COMMUNISTS OR WHO REFUSE TO SAY WHETHER THEY ARE COMMUNISTS.

~~MCGRATH SAID HE HAD SO ADVISED~~ DR.WILLIAM JANSEN, SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT, IN SPITE OF A RECENT COURT DECISION DECLARING THE FEINBERG LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

THE FEINBERG LAW BARS SUBVERSIVES FROM TEACHING IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS. THE STATE IS APPEALING THE DECISION OF STATE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE HARRY E.SCHIRICK WHICH VOIDED THE LAW.

JUSTICE SHIRICK, WHOSE COURT IS ONE OF ORIGINAL JURISDICTION AND NOT AN APPEALS COURT, RULED THAT THE FEINBERG LAW WAS UNCONSTITUTIONAL BECAUSE IT PRESUMED COMMUNISTS GUILTY OF ADVOCATING OVERTHROW OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT AND PROVIDED FOR PUNISHING INDIVIDUALS WITHOUT JUDICIAL TRIAL.

HE SAID IT FAILED TO MEET MINIMUM STANDARDS OF FAIRNESS REQUIRED OF AN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING.

MCGRATH SAID HE HAD ADVISED DR.JANSEN "THAT HE HAS THE RIGHT TO INQUIRE IF A TEACHER IS A COMMUNIST AND IF DR.JANSEN IS SATISFIED THAT THE TEACHER IS, HE HAS THE RIGHT TO DISMISS THE TEACHER."

THE ATTORNEY ADDED THAT "HE ALSO HAS THE RIGHT TO DISMISS A TEACHER WHO WILL NOT ANSWER."

HE SAID THE OBJECTIVE OF THE FEINBERG LAW THUS COULD BE ACHIEVED WITHOUT THE LAW.

"TEACHER LACKING IN THE PRIMARY ESSENTIAL OF AN EMPLOYEE'S UNFLINCHING DEVOTION TO THE INTERESTS OF HIS EMPLOYER SHOULD BE DISMISSED," MCGRATH SAID.

"THERE IS A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE CIVIL RIGHTS OF A CITIZEN AND THE OBLIGATION OF THE TEACHER. THERE IS ALSO A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE PROOF NECESSARY TO CONVICT A CRIMINAL AND THAT NECESSARY TO DISQUALIFY A TEACHER."

DR.JANSEN SAID LATER HE "PROBABLY WILL TAKE ACTION" ON MCGRATH'S ADVICE AND CALL IN FOR QUESTIONING THOSE TEACHERS SUSPECTED OF BEING COMMUNISTS.

IF THEY REFUSE TO SAY WHETHER THEY ARE COMMUNISTS, HE SAID, HE WILL PREFER CHARGES OF INSUBORDINATION AGAINST THEM AND MAKE THEM STAND TRIAL BEFORE THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

HE SAID PART OF HIS AUTHORITY FOR SUCH ACTION COMES FROM A DECISION LAST WEDNESDAY BY SUPREME COURT JUSTICE FERDINAND PECORA.

HE RULED THAT A BOARD OF EDUCATION ENGINEER, DISMISSED FOR REFUSING TO ANSWER THE COMMUNIST QUESTION BEFORE A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE, WAS NOT ENTITLED TO REINSTATEMENT.

NIGHT LEAD MISSOURI

NORFOLK, VA., JAN.21-(AP)-THE U.S.NAVY IS RACKING ITS BEST BRAINS TO GET THE BIGGEST WARSHIP IT EVER HAD GROUNDED BACK AFLOAT.

BUT AS OF TODAY THE MIGHTY BATTLESHIP MISSOURI LIES SADLY IMPOTENT, THOUGH IN NO DANGER, ON THE CHESAPEAKE BAY SHOAL JUST OUTSIDE OF HAMPTON ROADS HARBOR WHERE SHE STRUCK LAST TUESDAY. IT APPEARS SHE'LL BE THERE NEARLY TWO MORE WEEKS--AT LEAST.

THE NEXT ATTEMPT TO GET HER OFF WILL MAKE USE OF TENSION--TENSION BUILT UP ON 10 OR 12 HUGE CABLES STRUNG BETWEEN THE SHIP AND ANCHORS EMBEDDED 1,000-FEET ASTERN. THE MISSOURI'S OWN WINCHES WILL CREATE THE TENSION.

(A WINCH IS A POWER DRIVEN DRUM FOR COILING A ROPE OR CABLE).

ENGINEERS SAY THAT EACH CABLE CAN CARRY A FORCE OF 80 TONS BEFORE THE ANCHORS WOULD BE DISLODGED. THUS A MAXIMUM OF ABOUT 800 TONS CAN BE BUILT UP TO HELP BREAK THE SUCTION THAT HOLDS THE SHIP FAST.

FOR IT IS SUCTION, TERRIFIC SUCTION BETWEEN THE BOTTOM OF THE MISSOURI AND THE MUD OF THE SHOAL, THAT IS HOLDING THE GIANT VESSEL FIRM. ONCE THIS IS BROKEN, NAVAL SPOKESMEN SAY, SHE WILL SLIDE OFF WITH RELATIVE EASE.

THE SMISSOURI'S WINCHES WILL BE OPERATED BY POWER SUPPLIED BY TWO SUBMARINE RESCUE SHIPS, THE KITTYWAKE AND CHANTICLEER, WHICH ALREADY ARE STANDING BY AND SUPPLYING POWER TO THE DEAD BATTLESHIP. THE MISSOURI IS DEAD BECAUSE NEITHER ITS MAIN NOR AUXILIARY ENGINES ARE OPERATIVE. SUCKED IN MUD FOULED THEIR CONDENSERS.

FAVORABLE TIDES WILL COME FEBRUARY 2, ACCORDING TO CALCULATIONS. A GOOD NORTHEASTER MIGHT BRING HIGH WATER BEFORE THEN, AND IF SO THE NAVY WILL PUT ITS BEACHING GEAR--CABLES, ANCHORS AND WINCHES--TO WORK BEFORE FEBRUARY 2.

MEANWHILE WORKMEN CONTINUE TO LIGHTEN THE LOAD THE MISSOURI WAS CARRYING. BY NOON TODAY 280 TONS OF DRY STORES AND REFRIGERATED STORES HAD BEEN REMOVED. THESE HAD BEEN PUT ABOARD FOR THE MONTH-LONG TRAINING CRUISE TO GUANTANAMO, CUBA, WHICH THE MISSOURI WAS MAKING.

EARLY NEXT WEEK AMMUNITION WILL BEGIN TO MOVE OFF THE BIG BATTLEWAGON TO STORAGE ASHORE. MOST OF THE SHIP'S COMPLEMENT OF 71 OFFICERS AMD 1,400 MEN HAS ALREADY BEEN REMOVED. SO HAS FUEL OIL.

MISSOURI (350)

BY HARRY NASH

(NEW) NORFOLK, VA., JAN.21-(AP)-THE NAVY PLANS TO USE HEAVY BEACHING GEAR ON THE NEXT ATTEMPT TO TUG THE MISSOURI, THE NATION'S ONLY ACTIVE BATTLESHIP, OFF A CHESAPEAKE BAY SHOAL. IN WSHINGTON, NAVY OFFICIALS ANNOUNCED PLANS FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND A NAVAL COURT OF INQUIRY ON HOW AND WHY THE "BIG MO" RAN AGROUND.

THE NAVY WILL MAKE THE NEXT TRY AT FREEING THE SHIP ON FEB.2.

FAILING IN THREE ATTEMPTS TO HAUL THE BATTLESHIP FREE WITH A FLEET OF TUGS, SALVAGE OFFICERS DUG DEEPER INTO THEIR BAG OF TRICKS TODAY AND CAME UP WITH THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HEAVY BEACHING GEAR WILL BE USED.

THIS IS HOW IT WORKS:

TEN OR 12 FOUR-TON ANCHORS WILL BE PLACED 1,000 YARDS ASTERN OF THE NATION'S ONLY ACTIVE BATTLEWAGON. EACH ANCHOR, ITS CABLE DRAWN FIDDLE-TIGHT FROM THE IMMOBILE MISSOURI, WILL EXERT A PULLING FORCE OF 80 TONS, A NAVAL SPOKESMAN EXPLAINED.

THUS, A PULLING FORCE OF SOME 800 BONS WILL BE EXERTED ON THE 45,000-TON WARSHIP. THE SPOKESMAN SAID THAT THIS, PLUS THE DEEP TRENCH AN ARMY CREDGE HAS CARVED IN THE SHOAL ABOUT THE SHIP, PLUS REMOVAL OF HER FUEL OIL, AMMUNITION AND PROVISIONS, PLUS SUBMARINE PONTOONS UNDER HER STERN, MAY EVEN CAUSE THE MISSOURI "TO SLIDE OFF THE SHOAL BY HERSELF."

FEB.2 WAS SELECTED FOR THE NEXT ATTEMPT TO HAUL THE MISSOURI LOOSE FROM HER CHESAPEAKE BAY SHOAL AS THAT IS THE EARLIEST DATE THAT WILL BRING THE MOST FAVORABLE HIGH TIDES. AN EARLIER TRY WILL BE MADE, HOWEVER, SHOULD NORTHEAST WINDS THROW TIDES TWO FEET ABOVE NORMAL INTO THE BAY.

YESTERDAY'S ATTEMPTS TO GET THE SHIP OFF THE SHOALS WAS CALLED OFF AFTER 19 TUGS WITH AN AGGREGATE OF 40,000 HORSEPOWER, HAD STRAINED VAINLY FOR AN HOUR AND 38 MINUTES TO MOVE THE GIANT MAN OF WAR.

REGARDING THE PLIGHT OF THE MISSOURI, NAVAL SPOKESMEN SAID NO OFFICIAL STATEMENT CAN BE MADE "UNTIL THE FINDINGS OF A NAVAL COURT OF INQUIRY ARE PUBLISHED."

ADMIRAL W.H.P.BLANDY, COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ATLANTIC FLEET, ISSUED AN ORDER YESTERDAY TO REAR ADMIRAL ALLEN E.SMITH, COMMANDER OF ATLANTIC FLEET CRUISERS (CORRECT), TO ESTABLISH THE COURT. THE NAVY DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED IN WASHINGTON THE COURT'S INVESTIGATION WILL BEGIN IN THE NEAR FUTURE BUT PROCEEDINGS WILL BE DEFERRED PENDING DEVELOPMENTS IN SALVAGE OPERATIONS.

THE SHIP IS UNDER THE COMMAND OF CAPTAIN WILLIAM D.BROWN, WHO TOOK OVER DEC.10, JUST BEFORE THE BATTLESHIP COMPLETED A THOROUGH OVERHAUL IN THE PORTSMOUTH, VA., NAVY YARD.

NEW REICH PARTY FLIES KAISER FLAG

Two Right-Wing Groups Merge; Ex-German Officers At Rally

Kassel, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP)—A new party flaunting the black, white and red flag of the Kaiser's Reich has been formed in western Germany by the merger of the two right-wing groups.

Black-booted former German Army officers attended the organization meeting here last night at which about 250 functionaries of the new party sang "Deutschland Ueber Alles" (Germany Over All), the National anthem which German soldiers sang in two world wars. The West German Republic's Government has frowned on the song as too nationalistic.

The new party appeals frankly to nationalists and militarists with the use of the word "Reich" (empire) in its name. German Reich party. It was formed by a merger of the National Democratic party (DRP) and German Right party (NDP). These two parties received 500,000 votes in the general elections last year and elected five representatives in the 402-man West German Parliament.

Communists Cry "We Know You"

About ten Communists invaded last night's meeting and shouted, "We know you. You are old Nazis. We know your faces."

Several in the meeting approached the Communists with waving fists and shouted, "throw them out." The former German officers attending stood quietly by. But after five minutes of exchanging shouts, the Communists were allowed to stay. No one laid a hand on anyone.

The new party is headed by Franz Richter, former leader of the DRP, a fiery orator with a small black mustache, and by Dr. Heinrich Leuchtgens, an aged banker with a pointed white beard who was leader of the NDP. Both are members of the Bonn Parliament.

Richter's Six-Point Speech

In a half-hour speech Richter:

1. Criticized Russia for "barbarous" treatment of German prisoners of war, but invited German Communists to join an "all-German movement to liberate Germany."

2. Said "no price is too high to pay for German freedom"—which some listeners interpreted as including co-operation with Communists.

3. Asserted German soldiers should refuse to fight for the "Rhine defense line" (western Europe) or to fight for "others."

4. Declared Germany needs to get back her lost eastern territories—and the Saar—in order to live.

5. Exclaimed that Germany needed a "German-style democracy"—not democracy imported from the United States, France or England.

6. Demanded courts where Germans could take part in trying Allied "war criminals" for crimes against the German people.

The Kaiser's Flag Flies

The two parties, which have been called "neo-nationalistic" by Allied authorities, held their organization meeting in a tiny back-room theater attached to a small hotel on the outskirts of this 80-per cent destroyed city. They displayed the Kaiser's flag in the hall, instead of the black, red and gold of the Bonn republic.

They had expected to take in another party, the German Conservatives, but this third party walked out at the last minute.

Today, Thomas Dehler, western Germany's Finance Minister, told a rally of 1,000 persons at Hamburg that the belief Germany was an aggressor nation was a "myth."

He said it was a historical fact that Germany did not start the first World War and that "France is just as much to blame." Only Russia and Austria really wanted war then, he said.

He said Adolf Hitler was "a product of the Treaty of Versailles, a product of the despondency of France," but made no further reference to the second World War.

Meanwhile, at Bonn, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer admitted that the political atmosphere in western Germany is affecting relations with France over trade.

He evaded a direct answer on published reports that Germany has broken off trade talks with the French.

"We went very far in making concessions to France (in trade negotiations) in respect to the import of Agrarian products to Germany, chiefly vegetables, cheese and wine," he said.

Denies Mentioning Saar

"But interested circles in Germany strongly opposed these concessions. This opposition has now become stronger.

"By the troubling of the political atmosphere between France and Germany, the influence of opposing agricultural circles has gained in importance."

YUGOSLAVIA BANS BULGARIAN ENVOY

Belgrade Also Expels Two Of Pelovski's Embassy Aides

London, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Bulgarian Ambassador to Belgrade has been forbidden to return to his post and two of his embassy secretaries have been ordered to leave Yugoslavia.

This was reported today by Tanjug, the official Yugoslav news agency, monitored in London. Tanjug said the Yugoslav Foreign Ministry had delivered a blistering note to the Bulgarian Embassy in Belgrade last night rejecting Bulgaria's January 17 reply to Yugoslavia's protest against the expulsion of its embassy officials in Sofia.

Yugoslavia called the Bulgarian note a "revolting propaganda document."

"Requests" Secretaries To Go

"In its reply," Tanjug said, "the Yugoslav Government further forbids the return to Belgrade of Bulgaria's Ambassador Pelo Pelovski and requests the embassy's secretaries, Georgi Panchev and Zdravko Zelengradski, immediately to leave Yugoslav territory."

The earlier Bulgarian note charged Yugoslav Ambassador Yossip Djerdja and his two assistants with participating in plots against Bulgaria.

The Yugoslav note bitterly assailed the recent Sofia treason trial of Traicho Kostov, who was accused of working to overthrow the Bulgarian Government in collaboration with Yugoslavia.

"Warmongering" Sofia Trial

"The shameful Sofia 'trial' has been exposed in the eyes of world opinion as a warmongering act of the Bulgarian Government," it said.

"The Bulgarian Government, with fantastic lies and vilest slanders, borrowed from the discredited Sofia 'trial,' attempting to conceal the preparation of new hostile acts against Yugoslavia and its people, is consistently continuing a policy of deliberate and heightened straining of relations with Yugoslavia."

Chou En-Lai Pays Visit To Stalin

London, Jan. 22 (AP)—Prime Minister Stalin today received Chou En-lai, Chinese Communist Foreign Minister, the Moscow radio announced.

Chou, who recently joined the Chinese Red leader, Mao Tze-tung, here, was accompanied to the interview with Stalin by Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister.

The broadcast, heard here, called Chou Premier, a title he holds along with that of Foreign Minister. It said:

"On January 22 J. V. Stalin, chairman of the Council of Ministers of the U.S.S.R., received Chou En-lai, Premier of the State Administrative Council and Foreign Minister of the Chinese People's (Communist) Republic.

"At the reception there were present Wang Chia-hsiang, ambassador of the Chinese People's Republic, and A. Y. Vishinsky, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the U.S.S.R."

Chou arrived in Moscow two days ago. Mao has been there since December 16. Mao's long stay in the Soviet capital and Chou's visit have caused some speculation that negotiations for mutual aid treaties may have hit a snag. The fact that China and the Soviet Union are negotiating agreements has been announced officially.

De Gasperi Still Trying To Form New Cabinet

Rome, Jan. 22 (AP)—President Luigi Einaudi told Premier Alcide de Gasperi today to keep trying to form a new government.

The Premier spent Sunday consulting political leaders on the solution of the Cabinet crisis which started January 11.

There still is no indication that the completion of a new government is imminent.

Vogeler's Trial To Be Held Soon, Hungary Says

Public Sessions Promised; U. S. Business Man Faces Spy, Sabotage Charges

VIENNA, Jan. 22 (AP).—Robert A. Vogeler, American business man, who has been held in prison incommunicado in Communist-ruled Hungary for more than two months, will go on trial within the next few weeks on charges of espionage and sabotage.

This information came today from the American Minister to Hungary, Nathaniel P. Davis, who said he has been assured "the proceedings will be open to the public so that the world can see that the trial is a fair one." However, Mr. Vogeler, probably will be defended by a Hungarian attorney appointed by the Hungarian government.

Reached by telephone at Budapest, Mr. Davis said he saw the Hungarian Deputy Premier, Matyas Rakosi, on Thursday, after two months of futile efforts. He said Mr. Rakosi refused to be pinned down on the exact date of the trial but promised to inform Mr. Davis immediately a date is set.

In a discussion of Mr. Vogeler's defense, Mr. Rakosi told Mr. Davis that Mr. Vogeler can have all the Hungarian attorneys he wants. But the question of American attorneys appearing in a Hungarian court, Mr. Davis quoted Mr. Rakosi as saying, "will have to be considered—I can give you no assurances."

Mr. Rakosi rejected Mr. Davis's request to see Mr. Vogeler and indicated Mr. Vogeler will be held incommunicado up to the time the trial opens.

Davis said he understood Rakosi's remarks to indicate that American news correspondents will be granted visas to cover the trial.

The charges against Vogeler grew out of his alleged activities as European representative of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company. He was arrested November 18 after he left his Budapest hotel to return to his home in Vienna.

Russian Pressure Seen In Finn Pact

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 22 (AP)—A Communist member of the Finnish delegation trying to negotiate a trade agreement with Russia said today that trade with Moscow depends on an "immediate reshuffling of Finland's Government along democratic lines."

Toivo Karvonen, secretary-general of the Finland-Soviet Society in Helsinki and a member of the delegation that has been in Moscow since November 16 published an article in Vapaa Sana, Communist newspaper. He said:

"Finland has all the qualifications needed for large trade with the Soviets, but one prerequisite for this is an immedate reshuffling of the Finnish Government along democratic lines."

PLANES BOMB CHINESE COAST

Formosa Reports Attacks On Reds' Invasion Craft

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 22 (AP)—Extensive new raids against Communist small-craft and troop concentrations along the mainland coast were announced tonight by the Chinese Nationalist Air Force.

Targets included Amoy and Foochow and extended northward to Hangchow Bay, 100 miles south of Shanghai. The communiqué said B-24 bombers set huge fires at a Foochow drydock and other shore establishments and heavily damaged invasion craft all along the coast.

The Luichow peninsula opposite Hainan Island also was raided again, and Mustang fighters scouted over Shanghai.

Gen. Chou Chih-jou, commander of the Air Force, said he intended to shatter Red invasion forces before they could even set out for Formosa, Hainan and other Nationalists islands. In any event, he declared, he did not believe the Reds would invade Formosa until they got an air force and navy of their own.

Calls Airmen Reliable

He described the Nationalist airmen as extremely reliable, saying only 50 of them, including twenty pilots, had deserted to the Reds. Ten of these since have returned to the Nationalist fold, he added.

Chou admitted that the maintenance problem would become "very serious unless a solution is found."

In connection with this hint at a desire for American aid, a group of American officials was being taken on a tour of Formosa this week end by Nationalist authorities. The aim was to convince the Americans, headed by Robert Strong, chargé d'affaires, that things are being run well on this island redoubt.

At the same time, the Cabinet announced dismissal of two of the five Nationalist commissioners for Formosa in an attempt to avert a political crisis among Formosans.

One Called Collaborator

Ousted were Chiang Wei-chuan, civil affairs commissioner, and Peng Teh, reconstruction commissioner, both Formosans.

The so-called half-mountain group of Formosans, who worked on the mainland in past years in opposition to Japanese rule, contended that Peng was a former Japanese collaborator and that Chiang had a hand in the abortive Formosan revolt of 1947.

Two half-mountain group men were appointed to replace Peng and Chiang. As a sop to Chiang's so-called "sea group," the Cabinet named one of his men, Wu Sanlien, as mayor of Taipei.

Chinese Reds Reach Tibet

London, Jan. 22 (AP)—Units of the Chinese Communist Army have arrived at the borders of Tibet, an official Peiping Government news agency dispatch said today.

The Chinese Communist report, monitored here, said troops had entered Kotan, a county seat in Sinkiang province on the Tibetan boundary.

The units, the agency said, had reached that point after a forced march across more than 900 miles of the Gobi desert, starting from northwestern Kansu province.

Presence of the troops near Tibet appeared to substantiate recent reports that the Communists soon would seek to add Tibet to their conquests.

French Deny Red Invasion

Saigon, Indo-China, Jan. 22 (AP). French military officials tonight denied a report circulated by the Central Chinese news agency at Taipeh that 30,000 Chinese Communists had invaded Tonkin province of French Indo-China.

These officials said they believed circulation of the report was intended to stir up the Indo-Chinese population.

informed sources added, however, that there had been increased activity in the area by Indo-Chinese Nationalist guerrilla forces under Moscow-trained Ho Chi-minh. They said many outposts manned by French troops had been attacked and that the road between Langson and Caobang had been practically closed because of frequent attacks on convoys. The military post at Caobang, near Chinese frontier and about 3,000 miles northwest of Hanoi, has had to be supplied by parachute.

About 5,000 Chinese Nationalist soldiers streamed into Indo-China yesterday and were interned in the area around Lacokay, about 250 miles northwest of Hanoi.

AFGHAN FEAR OF REDS EBBS

Country Looks To Russia As Friend In Pakistan Feud

Kabul, Afghanistan, Jan. 22 (AP)—Afghanistan, once considered as safely anti-Communist as any country in the world, is beginning to look northward to Russia for friendship.

Rising tension and war fever in the quarrel with Pakistan, it appears, is causing the country to lose its traditional fear of its great northern neighbor.

But so far there have been only sporadic clashes in the Khyber Pass to Pakistan where wild Pathan tribesmen dwell.

Signs of a new attitude toward the Soviets are the Afghan Government's recent employment of Russian technicians and the visit to Kabul of an official Russian trade mission, the first in Afghan history.

This ancient land of nomadic sheepherders and Moslem villagers with its contrasts between bleak, frigid mountains, semi-arid tablelands and hot lush valleys has suddenly become a vortex as the winds of communism swirl over southern Asia.

Communistic Trumpetings

[The Moscow press disclosed Saturday that Lazar Kaganovich, Soviet Politburo member, used Tashkent, capital of the neighboring Uzek Soviet Republic, as a springboard for a speech calling upon "all oppressed peoples to fight against imperialism," especially in Asia and the East.

[Publication of the speech came on the day of memorial services in Moscow on the anniversary of the death of Lenin at which P. N. Prospelov, editor of Pravda, declared the days of imperialism in Asia are over and that it is impossible to stop the march of communism by force.

[These trumpetings coincided with radio reports from Peiping, Red China's capital, that a Chinese Red Army unit after a march of nearly 1,000 miles across the Gobi Desert from Kansu province had reached Khotan near the northwestern border of Tibet and only 100 miles across the high Pamir Mountains to Kashmir, the gateway state in the dispute between Pakistan and India.]

Agitation For Pathan State

Long known as the "secret kingdom" because of its role as an isolated buffer between Russia and India, Afghanistan is believed by observers to be reversing its old anti-Russian policy because of her feeling she is without friends or sympathizers in her dispute with Moslem Pakistan.

This dispute centers over the status of the Pathan tribes who inhabit the area of the Khyber Pass, traditional route of invasion of India from the northwest.

Afghanistan actively supports a movement among these belligerent Pathan warriers—the most famous of whom is the Fakir of Ipi—for the establishment of an independent Pathan state, Pushtoonistan or Pathanistan.

Last November Afghan radio and press reports said representatives of 5,000,000 Afridi Pathans in the Afghan-Pakistan border area had met at a mosque at Tirah Bahg, just south of Khyber Pass, and elected a parliament to act as the government of a new independent state.

Pakistan Claims Territory

Pakistan claims, however, to have inherited the Pathan territory from Britain. On January 9, Premier Liaquat Ali Khan of Pakistan said reports of an independent Pathanistan were a figment of Afghan imagination, and warned Afghans against the "dangers inherent in their rash policy."

Some months ago, Afghanistan had hopes of American support against Pakistan. When a loan of $21,000,000 from the Import-Export Bank was earmarked for only public works, however, Afghans were disappointed in their wish for military assistance.

Now, in the Afghan view, American co-operation with Britain, eliminates the United States as a close friend. Afghans hold the British responsible for their economic and diplomatic difficulties.

The Afghan press insists that Britain is supporting Pakistan, and cites the many British officers in the Pakistan army.

Abdullah's Legion Chief Rebels

ZEIN NAGATI

Cairo, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Arab Legion officer whose forces swept the Jews out of the old walled city of Jerusalem has split with King Abdullah of Jordan and now favors internationalization of Jerusalem.

He is Col. Abdullah Tel, former commander of Abdullah's Arab Legion in the Jerusalem district during the hot fighting there in 1948. In recognition of his feats King Abdullah made Tel military governor and then civil commissioner for Arab-held Jerusalem.

But Tel, who made his way secretly to Cairo from Jordan recently, describes himself now as a "political refugee."

Jerusalem Now A City Divided

In an interview Tel said that if the present situation continues in Jerusalem, "I am quite sure that all of Jerusalem will one day become a Jewish city. The Arab Legion alone cannot defend the city."

Jordan now holds the old city and Israel the new city. The United Nations Assembly has called for internationalization. Israel and Jordan both oppose it.

King Abdullah holds that the Arab-held part of Jerusalem and all of Arab Palestine are part of Jordan. He has been quoted as saying that any attempt at internationalization will be "over my dead body."

Tel led the forces that battled the Jews for seventeen days in the old city of Jerusalem in May and June of 1948. The victory gave King Abdullah the title "protector of the holy city."

How The Clash Came About

Informants gave this story of the clash between Tel and Abdullah:

Their first differences arose late in 1948. The Jordan monarch wanted Egyptian troops, then with the Arab Legion at Jerusalem, to withdraw south to Bethlehem. Tel opposed him, saying both armies should work together in Jerusalem.

Abdullah solved the issue by kicking Tel upstairs. He made him military governor of Jerusalem, but Tel had no more to say about Arab Legion or Egyptian army troop disposals.

Later when Israeli and Egyptian forces clashed in the Negreb, the Arab Legion did not go to support of the Egyptians. Tel protested. Despite the differences Abdullah kept Tel as liaison man between him and the Israelis. When martial law was lifted in Jerusalem last March Tel became civil commissioner.

Syrian Coup Widens Rift

The conflict between the two reached a climax last spring at the time of the first coup d'etat in Syria. Tel was dispatched to Damascus as Abdullah's personal representative but failed to bring about closer friendship between Syria and Jordan. Syria wound up with closer ties to Egypt.

Abdullah was reported angered over failure of Tel's mission. Some said the King suspected Tel might be plotting a coup against him. Abdullah offered and Tel rejected a post as military attaché for Jordan in Washington. Tel saw it as still another kick upstairs.

Branded "Dangerous"

Indonesian Premier Mohamed Hatta has branded Westerling as dangerous "because he tries to get the support of all the forces that are against the Government."

Hatta said: "It is reported there is some connection between the rebel group and the fanatical Moslem rebels who have proclaimed an independent state of Darul Islam in western Java."

The U.S.I. has asked Hollanders in Indonesia to support the Government in dealing with Westerling's guerrillas.

Westerling, 30, says he is the child of a Dutch father and Turkish mother and was born in Istanbul, Turkey. He is believed to have considerable support from Indonesians and Eurasians in the Dutch army.

Guerrillas Led By Dutchman Take Town From Indonesians

Jakarta, Java, Monday, Jan. 23 (AP)—A private army led by R. P. P. Westerling, former Dutch army captain, was reported today to have attacked troops of the new United States of Indonesia.

Neutral sources said Westerling's guerrilla force seized the town of Tjimahi, 11 miles west of Bandoeng, Java.

After capturing Tjimahi, Westerling's army, self-styled the "forces of the queen of justice," marched toward Bandoeng, the informants said.

Indonesians Disarmed

Indonesian units at Tjimahi were said to have been disarmed by the guerrillas.

Dutch troops in western Java are confined to their barracks, Netherlands Army headquarters in Jakarta said, the headquarters stated that Westerling's forces had not attacked Dutch troops when they started their offensive against Indonesian soldiers.

Westerling threatened January 11 to lead a rebellion against the United States of Indonesia. He claimed he was not acting as a Dutchman, but "solely for a great part of the Indonesian people, whose interests I uphold."

The U.S.I. was set up in the former Netherlands East Indies December 27, after three centuries of Dutch rule. Independence of the new nation was proclaimed by Dutch Queen Juliana at Amsterdam. The U.S.I. and the Netherlands now are linked as equal partners by the Dutch crown.

Israel Hospital Opens U.S.-Sponsored Rooms

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 22 (AP)—Two recreation rooms for disabled soldiers were opened formally today at the Tel Hashomer military hospital by Mrs. Chaim Weizmann, wife of Israel's president, and United States Ambassador James G. McDonald.

One of the rooms was named for Mrs. Martha Truman, President Truman's late mother, and the other for Eddie Jacobson, a friend of Mr. Truman and his former business partner. Funds for the projects were supplied by B'nai

5-NATION BOARD LEAVES TO PROBE CARIBBEAN FEUD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—(AP) A five-nation fact-finding committee was on its way to Haiti today to begin a broad investigation of feuding that for years has kept the Caribbean area in a state of political turmoil.

30.24- 8423

The committee was set up Jan. 6 by the Council of the Organization of American States (OAS), under terms of the Rio De Janeiro mutual defense treaty.

Two Nations File Charges

The council invoked the Rio pact after Haiti and the Dominican Republic individually requested this action on separate charges.

Haiti accused the Dominican Republic of participating in a plot which the Port-au-Prince government said it smashed on Dec. 19. Haiti said the conspiracy was aimed at overthrowing President Dumarsais Estime.

The Dominican Republic denied any participation in the plot and in turn charged it has been and continues to be a "victim of aggression" on the part of several Caribbean nations during the past few years. It requested a board investigation of the entire Caribbean situation.

The Dominican Republic specifically complained against Cuba, Haiti, Guatemala, Venezuela and Costa Rica. It said it has no quarrel with the current government of Venezuela and Costa Rica.

Has Broad Powers

The OAS Council in setting up the inquiry committee gave it broad powers to call witnesses and make on-the-spot investigations in any country.

Representatives of the United States, Colombia, Ecuador, Bolivia and Uruguay were appointed to the committee. Jose Mora of Uruguay is chairman. The U.S. is represented by Paul C. Daniels, American delegate to the OAS. APD

BOMB DECISION IS PUT FIRST

Wherry Would Determine Value Of New Hydrogen Weapon

Washington, Jan. 22 (AP)—Senator Wherry (R., Neb.) called today for a decision on producing the potent new hydrogen bomb before Congress is asked to decide upon aid to Korea or major defense and foreign policies.

"The $64 question for this nation now is do we want to develop the hydrogen bomb?" Wherry, Senate Republican leader, declared.

Best Defense, He Suggests

"Everybody knows and agrees we are the main target for Communist Russia and it is our Public Enemy No. 1," Wherry said. "Everyone wants to know where we can get the most protection for the dollars we can afford to spend."

Wherry said development of the hydrogen bomb, claimed to be far more powerful than the atom bomb, plus a strong force of long-range bombers appeared to be the best defense for the United States.

He has urged such defenses instead of military aid for Western Europe, Formosa and other outposts.

American officials are reported weighing the decision whether to make this new weapon or try again to get agreement with Russia on international control of weapons.

Some opposition is based on humanitarian grounds, while others argue that it is safest for the world to have such a weapon in American hands since others also might succeed in producing it.

Wherry To Keep Open Mind

Wherry said he would keep "an open mind" upon urgent requests of President Truman and the Secretary of State, Dean Acheson, for speedy reversal of the House rejection, by one vote, of $60,000,000 additional aid for the anti-Communist Republic of Korea. In separate interviews, Wherry and Senators Knowland (R., Cal.), and Jenner (R., Ind.), all blamed the House action upon "our bankrupt China policy." APD

UNDECIDED ON ATOM POST

Vandenberg Says He Cannot Act Yet on Role in Committee

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Republican, of Michigan, said today that any decision on his part to resign from the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee was "being held in abeyance." He declined to comment on reports that he had discussed with colleagues the possibility of giving up his place on the committee because of his health.

Mr. Vandenberg is recovering from a lung operation he underwent last fall and already has a heavy load of work as a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Both Democratic and Republican associates are known to be urging Mr. Vandenberg to retain his place in the atomic group if he feels he can do so without endangering his recovery.

If he should decide in the next few weeks to quit the committee, Senator John W. Bricker, Republican, of Ohio, a former member, would be in line for reappointment to the committee.

DENFELD-CASE 'FACTS' DUE

Matthews And Tydings Likely To Make Statements

Washington, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Senate this week gets "the facts" in the Denfeld ouster case which may quiet a blast of criticism at Pentagon officialdom, or touch off a new explosion.

Francis P. Matthews, Secretary of the Navy, Senator Tydings (D. Md.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee—or both—are slated to make an explanatory statement, perhaps tomorrow.

What Tydings says may disclose whether Matthews will face a battery of Republican questioners in the Armed Services Committee on the ouster of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld as Chief of Naval Operations last fall.

Came Earlier, He Says

Matthews apparently had everything under control after he went before the committee a few days ago to urge the confirmation of Admiral Forrest P. Sherman as Denfeld's successor. He said Denfeld was shoved out—not because he assailed Pentagon policy in testimony before Congress as had been charged—but because Matthews and Denfeld could not work together.

The decision to make a change came before Denfeld testified, Matthews said. His commission had not even been issued, the Secretary added.

The committee approved the change. Tydings took the Sherman confirmation to the Senate floor. But there Senator McCarthy (R., Wis.) delayed it. He challenged what Matthews had said about Denfeld's commission. McCarthy produced what he described as a photograph of a new two-year Denfeld commission, signed by Mr. Truman and Matthews.

McCarthy said this raised a question about the legality of the ouster.

Tydings told the Senate he would go get the facts. Matthews said he was satisfied the confusion would be straightened out to the satisfaction of everyone.

Republican senators set up an immediate demand that Matthews be recalled for testimony.

What Matthews and Tydings have to say may have a bearing on whether the Defense Department administration is in for a new round of criticism. McCarthy, Thursday assailed Louis A. Johnson, Secretary of Defense, as a "dictator" and Matthews as a "yes man" as a result of the Denfeld case.

Johnson has remained out of open participation in the Denfeld case, asserting the whole matter was one for Matthews to handle.

The incident capped a series of flareups involving the Defense Department administration which took up the task ten months ago of enforcing the peace among the armed services.

Bridges Opens Defense In Perjury Trial Today

San Francisco, Jan. 22 (AP)—The defense in the Harry Bridges perjury trial opens tomorrow.

Attorneys for the indicted West Coast longshore leader declared they would seek to disprove the testimony of all fourteen Government witnesses.

The Government rested last Monday. Federal Judge George B. Harris then recessed the two-month-old trial until tomorrow to allow the defense to organize its case.

Bridges is accused of lying in denying at a 1945 naturalization hearing that he was or ever had been a member of the Communist party. J. R. Robertson and Henry Schmidt, two union aides who supported their chief's statements, are charged with conspiracy.

Bridges estimates it will require five or six weeks to present the defense.

HISS TO APPEAL PERJURY VERDICT

Motion to Be Filed Following Imposition of Sentence Wednesday

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—(AP) Alger Hiss, Yalta aide to President Roosevelt, plans to fight a Federal court jury verdict which brands him a spy and a liar.

Hiss, through his attorney, said he would appeal yesterday's conviction on two perjury counts which makes him liable to a maximum penalty of 10 years in jail and $4,000 in fines.

Within minutes after the jury finding, Defense Attorney Claude B. Cross said: "You can be sure the verdict will be appealed."

The jury returned its verdict after having the case almost 24 hours.

To Be Sentenced Wednesday

Today Hiss was free under $5,000 bail, a continuation of the bond which he posted when first arraigned. Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard has set sentencing for Wednesday.

Cross said today at his Brookline, Mass., home that the appeal to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals will be entered immediately following imposition of sentence on the 45-year-old Hiss.

He declined to say on what basis the appeal will be taken, adding to do so would be premature.

Hiss was charged with lying to a grand jury when he denied stealing government secrets for a Soviet spy ring working with Whittaker Chambers, his chief accuser.

Through two long dramatic trials Chambers, one-time $30,000-a-year senior editor for Time Magazine, accused Hiss of using his once high State department office to feed secrets to the Communist ring. Chambers admitted serving as a courier for the ring.

Nixon Charges "Whitewash"

Meanwhile in Washington, Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.), who is credited with starting the probe that led to Hiss' conviction, charged that high officials in two administrations deliberately tried to cover up the Hiss case. He said it would have come to light earlier if it had not been for this.

Nixon said he plans to place information before the House to prove there was an attempt "to keep the public from knowing the facts."

Rep. Vincent Mannering (D-Boston) said he would file a resolve tomorrow seeking to put the Bay State legislature on record in calling upon Frankfurter and Reed to give up their judicial posts.

Both Supreme Court justices appeared as character witnesses for Hiss in his first trial which ended with a hung jury.

Mannering told a reporter: "I feel that Justices Frankfurter and Reed have compromised themselves so they can no longer command the confidence of the American people. They should resign immediately."

Urges Frankfurter, Reed Quit Posts

BOSTON, Jan. 22—(AP) A Massachusetts legislator suggested today that Supreme Court Justices Felix Frankfurter and Stanley F. Reed resign as a result of the conviction of Alger Hiss.

LONDON, JAN 22-(AP)-A BLISTERING YUGOSLAV NOTE HAS FORBIDDEN THE RETURN TO BELGRADE OF THE FORMER BULGARIAN AMBASSADOR THERE AND TWO OF HIS EMBASSY SECRETARIES.

THE OFFICIAL YUGOSLAV NEWS AGENCY TANJUG, MONITORED IN LONDON, INDICATED LAST NIGHT PREMIER-MARSHAL TITO'S GOVERNMENT HAD ORDERED THIS ACTION AGAINST HIS COMINFORM ENEMY IN RETALIATION FOR BULGARIA'S EXPULSION OF THE YUGOSLAV AMBASSADOR IN SOFIA AND TWO OF HIS DIPLOMATIC ASSISTANTS.

THE EARLIER BULGARIAN NOTE CHARGED YUGOSLAV AMBASSADOR YOSSIP DJERDJA AND HIS TWO ASSISTANTS WITH PARTICIPATING IN PLOTS AGAINST THE COUNTRY.

YUGOSLAVIA PROTESTED THE EXPULSION AND THE BULGARS REPLIED IN A NOTE WHICH TANJUG YESTERDAY CALLED A "REVOLTING PROPAGANDA DOCUMENT."

TANJUG SAID YUGOSLAVIA'S LATEST NOTE PROHIBITED THE RETURN TO THE COUNTRY OF BULGARIAN AMBASSADOR PELO PELOVSKI AND REQUESTED HIS TWO SECRETARIES TO LEAVE YUGOSLAV TERRITORY IMMEDIATELY.

SECOND LEAD RAILWAYS

BERLIN, MONDAY, JAN. 23-(AP)-SOVIET FRONTIER GUARDS ENFORCED A SLOWDOWN TODAY ON AMERICZN MILITARY TRAINS AND GERMAN TRUCK TRAFFIC TO BERLIN.

IN APPARENT RETALIATION FOR LAST WEEK'S RUSSIAN-AMERICAN SQUABBLE OVER OCCUPANCY OF A RAILWAY BUILDING IN BERLIN, SOVIET AUTHORITIES DELAYED AMERICAN TRAINS AS MUCH AS FIVE HOURS.

TRUCKS FROM BERLIN TO WEST GERMANY WERE ALLOWED TO PASS THE SOVIET ZONE CHECKPOINT AT HELMSTEDT AT THE RATE OF TWO OR THREE AN HOUR. EIGHTY TRUCKS WERE BACKED UP AT THE FRONTIER THIS MORNING.

SOVIET GUARDS TIGHTENED THEIR CONTROLS AT HELMSTEDT LAST NIGHT AFTER AMERICAN AUTHORITIES HAD ORDERED A DISPUTED REICHSBAHN (RAILWAY) BUILDING VACATED BY WEST BERLIN POLICE AND TURNED BACK TO THE SOVIET ZONE RAILWAYS SYSTEM, THE POLICE REPORTED.

THESE SOURCES SAID SEVERAL VEHICLES WERE TURNED BACK TODAY BY SOVIET GUARDS, WHO DEMANDED ADDITIONAL PAPERS. LAST NIGHT 19 BERLIN TRUCKS WERE TURNED BACK AT HELMSTEDT. THEIR DRIVERS SAID THEY HAD FAILED TO OBTAIN PROPER CLEARANCE PAPERS FOR HOUSEHOLD GOODS WHICH THEY WERE HAULING.

MEANWHILE, THE COMMUNIST PRESS MADE POLITICAL CAPITAL OF THE RETURN OF THE REICHSBAHN BUILDING AFTER A FOUR-DAY SEIZURE BY THE WESTERN SECTOR POLICE. RAILWAY OFFICIALS HAD CLAIMED THEY COULD NOT OPERATE THEIR INTERNZONAL ELEVATED SYSTEM WITHOUT THE BUILDING.

SEIZURE OF THE BUILDING IN THE U.S. SECTOR WAS AUTHORIZED BY THE AMERICANS TO UTILIZE SOME OF ITS 500 VACANT ROOMS.

TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU, SOVIET ARMY NEWSPAPER, DECLARED THAT THE WEST SECTOR POLICE HAD THOROUGHLY DAMAGED THE BUILDING DURING THE PERIOD. IT CHARGED WINDOWS HAD BEEN SMASHED AND RECORDS DESPOILED. IT SAID AN INSPECTION WOULD HAVE TO BE MADE BEFORE ELEVATED TRAFFIC WOULD BE RETURNED TO NORMAL.

CORRESPONDENTS TAKEN ON A TOUR OF THE BUILDING FRIDAY SAW NO EVIDENCE OF PHYSICAL DAMAGE TO THE BUILDING. U.S. AUTHORITIES HAD INSTRUCTED WEST BERLIN POLICE NOT TO INTERFERE WITH THE REICHSBAHN OPERATION.

ELEVATED TRAFFIC WAS RUNNING ON ITS USUAL SUNDAY REDUCED SCHEDULE TODAY.

RUNDSCHAU USED THE ORDER BY MAJ. GEN. MAXWELL D.TAYLOR, U.S. COMMANDANT, TO RETURN CUSTODY OF THE BUILDING AS A SPRINGBOARD FOR AN ATTACK AGAINST AMERICA.

TAYLOR HAD TOLD THE WEST BERLIN POLICE TO LEAVE BECAUSE "THE UNREASONABLE AND PROVOCATIVE ATTITUDE OF THE SOVIETS AND THE REICHSBAHN MAKES IT APPEAR PROBABLE THAT HARDSHIPS WHICH THEY INTEND TO IMPOSE OUTWEIGH THE BENEFITS ARISING FROM THE AMERICAN PLAN."

THE SOVIET ARMY NEWSPAPER DECLARED THAT TAYLOR'S ORDER PROVES "THAT THE STUMM (WEST BERLIN) POLICE ARE AN ARMED FORCE DIRECTLY UNDER COMMAND OF THE AMERICANS."

THE SOVIET-LICENSED BERLINER ZEITUNG QUOTED A LEADER OF THE COMMUNIST FREE GERMAN TRADE UNION AS HAILING THE RETURN OF THE BUILDING AS "A FINE SUCCESS IN OUR BATTLE."

"AT THE SAME TIME, THIS AMERICAN WITHDRAWAL IS A FINE SLAP IN THE FACE FOR REUTER (WEST BERLIN MAYOR ERNST REUTER) AND HIS ADMINISTRATION."

WEST BERLIN NEWSPAPERS DISPLAYED THE STORY WITHOUT GENERAL COMMENT.

THE THREE WESTERN COMMANDANTS TODAY STRONGLY PROTESTED TO SOVIET MAJ. GEN. ALEXANDER KOTIKOV OVER THE SEIZURE OF 11 WEST-BOUND TRUCKS BY SOVIET BORDER GUARDS ON JAN. 13.

THE TRUCKS, LOADED WITH NON-FERROUS SCRAP FROM WEST BERLIN FOR WESTERN GERMANY, WERE STOPPED ON THE HIGHWAY JUST OUTSIDE BERLIN AND THE LOADS REMOVED. THE RUSSIANS SAID THEY REQUIRED SOVIET OR EAST GERMAN GOVERNMENT APPROVAL BEFORE THEY COULD CONTINUE THEIR TRIP.

THE ALLIED COMMANDANTS TOLD THEIR SOVIET COUNTERPART THAT THEY REGARD THIS INCIDENT AS A VIOLATION OF THE PARIS BIG FOUR AGREEMENT OF LAST JUNE, "WHICH WAS DRAWN UP WITH THE EXPRESS PURPOSE OF FACILITATING THE MOVEMENT OF GOODS AND PERSONS NOT ONLY BETWEEN THE ZONES, BUT ALSO BETWEEN BERLIN AND THE ZONES."

THE REQUESTED THAT GEN. KOTIKOV ORDER THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF THE GOODS IN QUESTION, AAND GIVE ASSURANCE THAT IN THE FUTURE TRAFFIC BETWEEN WEST BERLIN AND WEST GERMANY, DULY AUTHORIZED BY THE WESTERN AUTHORITIES, "WILL NOT BE SUBJECTED TO ANY DELAY OR INTERFERENCE."

JT342PES

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN.22-(AP)-THE ALLIED HIGH COMMISSION WILL INFORM THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT THAT IT MUST HAVE THE COMMISSION'S APPROVAL TO END GASOLINE RATIONING, ALLIED OFFICIALS SAID TODAY.

THESE OFFICIALS SAID THE HIGH COMMISSION HAS PREPARED A LETTER TO CHANCELLOR (PRIME MINISTER) KONRAD ADENAUER TO THIS EFFECT.

THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED LAST THURSDAY THAT IT HAS DECIDED TO SUSPEND RATIONING AND PRICE CONTROL OF GASOLINE FEB.1.

ALLIED OFFICIALS SAID THE HIGH COMMISSION'S LETTER INFORMS ADENAUER THAT: HIGH COMMISSION REGULATIONS REQUIRE ALLIED APPROVAL FOR ENDING CONTROLS OVER CERTAIN COMMODITIES, INCLUDING GASOLINE; THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF GASOLINE CONSUMED IN WEST GERMANY CANNOT BE INCREASED OVER THE PRESENT LEVEL SINCE THIS LEVEL WAS ACCEPTED BY THE GOVERNMENT IN ITS EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM AGREEMENT.

WW529PES

OBSERVERS SAID ADENAUER APPARENTLY WAS REFERRING TO THE DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES OVER THE SAAR. ON THE BASIS OF A TELEPHONE INTERVIEW THE ASSOCIATED PRESS HAD QUOTED ADENAUER AS REFERRING SPECIFICALLY TO THE SAAR ISSUE. SUBSEQUENTLY THE CHANCELLOR SAID HE DID NOT MENTION THE SAAR IN RELATION TO THE TRADE AGREEMENT. HE INDICATED THE TRADE TALKS HAVE NOT ENDED.

IN PARIS HERVE ALPHAND, HEAD OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS AT THE FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE SAID TONIGHT:

"THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT HAS ACCEPTED THE AGREEMENT BUT HAS ASKED FOR A DELAY ON AFFIXING SIGNATURES. WE HOPE THAT THE AGREEMENT, WHICH IS IN THE GENERAL INTEREST OF EUROPEAN UNITY, WILL BE SIGNED SOON. THE GERMAN NEGOTIATORS TOOK THE POSITION THAT THE AGREEMENT SHOULD NOT BE SIGNED IN THE PRESENT ATMOSPHERE OF DISAGREEMENT ON THE QUESTION OF THE SAAR. WE, OF COURSE, DO NOT ACCEPT THIS POSITION."

FRENCH OFFICIALS WERE REPORTED OPENLY DISSATISFIED WITH SOME ACTIONS OF THE BONN GOVERNMENT, PARTICULARLY IN REGARD TO THE SAAR. THEY SAID ADENAUER HAS BEEN HINTING THAT WEST GERMANY MAY ASK FOR A PLEBISCITE TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE SAAR WANTS TO GO THROUGH WITH ECONOMIC UNION WITH FRANCE OR REATTACHMENT TO GERMANY.

THE FRENCH ARE GOING AHEAD WITH PLANS FOR TALKS WITH SAAR GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ON FEB.7 TO PUT INTO WRITING AGREEMENTS FOR ECONOMIC UNION. FRENCH OFFICIALS SAY THESE TALKS HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT AND IT WOULD BE BEST FOR THE GERMANS NOT TO MEDDLE IN THE AFFAIR. THE TALKS WILL ALSO TAKE UP OWNERSHIP AND EXPLOITATION OF THE SAAR MINES AND RAILWAYS.

PRAGUE, JAN.22-(AP)-JOB SWITCHING AND ABSENTEEISM ARE HAMPERING THE GOVERNMENT IN ITS EFFORT TO INCREASE INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION, HIGH RANKING COMMUNIST LEADERS SAID TODAY.

RIGID CONTROLS HAVE BEEN IMPOSED ON CZECHS SEEKING TO MOVE INTO PRAGUE FROM OTHER SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY, PARTICULARLY FROM THE TEXTILE MILLS IN THE BORDER AREAS OF BOHEMIA.

THE GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED NEWSPAPER LIDOVE NOVINY SAID JOB JUMPING WAS MAKING THE DISTRIBUTION OF MANPOWER DIFFICULT AND WARNED THAT WORKERS WHO MOVE WITHOUT PREVIOUS PERMISSION OF THE LABOR BOARD WILL HAVE TO RETURN HOME AT THEIR OWN EXPENSE.

IT SAID THE LABOR BOARD WOULD NOT GRANT PERMISSION TO RESIDE AND WORK IN PRAGUE BECAUSE OF A HOUSING SHORTAGE. MANY CZECHS HAVE LEFT THEIR WORK IN OUTLYING SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY TO SEEK EASIER JOBS IN THE CITY.

LIDOVE NOVINY SAID THE BEST WAY FOR THE PROSPECTIVE MIGRANTS TO SHOW GOOD RELATIONS WITH THE COUNTRY'S PRODUCTION PROGRAM WAS TO STAY IN THEIR JOBS AND "NOT TRY TO MAKE AN EASY LIFE FOR THEMSELVES AT THE EXPENSE OF OTHER PEOPLE."

WW514PES

PRAGUE, JAN 22-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT CONTROLLED PRESS DISCLOSED TODAY THAT RIGID CONTROLS HAVE BEEN IMPOSED ON THE MOVEMENT OF CZECHS INTO PRAGUE FROM OUTLYING SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY.

THE MAIN PURPOSE IS TO FREEZE WORKERS INTO JOBS THEY NOW HOLD IN FACTORIES AND OTHER INDUSTRIAL PLANTS OUTSIDE THIS CAPITAL. ANOTHER REASON GIVEN IS THE SHORTAGE OF LIVING SPACE HERE.

FROM NOW ON, THE PAPER LIDOVE NOVINY SAID, NO ONE WILL BE ALLOWED TO MOVE INTO PRAGUE AND TAKE A JOB WITHOUT PRIOR APPROVAL OF THE CITY'S LABOR BOARD.

MANY CZECHS HAVE BEEN JUMPING FROM ONE JOB TO ANOTHER--USUALLY FROM A TOUGH JOB TO AN EASIER ONE--WITH SERIOUS DISLOCATIONS OF MANPOWER RESULTING.

TOKYO, MONDAY, JAN 23-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER SHIGERU YOSHIDA SAID TODAY "JAPAN NOW STANDS ON THE THRESHHOLD OF NATIONAL RESURGENCE."

THE NEXT BIG PROBLEMS OF THIS OCCUPIED COUNTRY, HE TOLD THE DIET (PARLIAMENT), ARE:

1. CONCLUSION OF A PEACE TREATY.
2. DEVELOPMENT OF "MUTUAL TRUST" WHICH WILL LEAD TO "CONCERTED ACTION BY THE DEMOCRACIES TO ENSURE THE SECURITY OF JAPAN IN THE INTEREST OF ALL."

YOSHIDA CAREFULLY AVOIDED THE OPPORTUNITY CREATED BY RECENT AMERICAN STATEMENTS TO PLEDGE JAPAN'S SUPPORT IN ANY FUTURE WAR OR TO OFFER BASES IN JAPAN FOR AMERICAN USE.

HE TOLD THE JAPANESE TO PURSUE A PROGRAM OF "PEACE AND DEMOCRACY." HE SAW THIS AS FOSTERING "MUTUAL TRUST BETWEEN OUR COUNTRY AND ALL PEACE LOVING DEMOCRATIC PEOPLE X X X--THE BEST GUARANTEE FOR (JAPAN'S) SECURITY."

THE PRIME MINISTER SAID JAPAN'S MORALE WAS "VISIBLY HEIGHTENED" DURING THE PAST YEAR BY IMPROVED FOOD PRODUCTION AND TRADE.

THIS, HE CONTRASTED WITH CHINA WHICH REMAINS "A POLITICAL UNCERTAINTY" AND WITH SOUTHEAST ASIA WHICH IS "ALSO MENACED BY THE ACTIVITIES OF THE COMMUNIST ELEMENTS."

YOSHIDA PROMISED FURTHER TAX REFORMS AND INCREASED EFFORTS TO ABOLISH ECONOMIC CONTROLS. HE SAID HIS GOVERNMENT WILL PUSH ITS ECONOMIC STABILIZATION PROGRAM AND TRY TO INCREASE FOOD PRODUCTION.

HE BRIEFLY THANKS "SYMPATHETIC ALLIED AID" FOR THE NATION'S ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT. HE ALSO EXPRESSED GRATITUDE FOR AMERICAN AND AUSTRALIAN EFFORTS TO SPUR REPATRIATION OF JAPANESE WAR PRISONERS TAKEN BY THE RUSSIANS.

BUT THE HOUSE MAY GET A CHANCE TO REVERSE ITSELF BY ACTING ON A KOREAN AID BILL WHICH PREVITUSLY HAD PASSED THE SENATE. IT HAS JUST BEEN REFERRED TO THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

CONNALLY ATTRIBUTED THE HOUSE VOTE ON KOREA TO "DISSATISFACTION WITH THE WAY THINGS HAVE BEEN GOING IN CHINA."

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO THE SWEEP OVER MOST OF CHINA BY COMMUNIST FORCES THAT FORCED A RETREAT BY THE NATIONALISTS TO NEARBY ISLANDS INCLUDING FORMOSA.

SENATOR TYDINGS (D-MD), A MEMBER OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS GROUP AND CHAIRMAN OF THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, DENIED IN A BROADCAST (WBAL BALTIMORE) THAT INSUFFICIENT U.S. AID CAUSED THE NATIONALIST DEFEAT IN CHINA. BALTIMORE, JAN.22-(AP)-AN ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION OFFICIAL SAID TODAY THAT MORE LIVES HAVE BEEN SAVED BY ATOMIC ENERGY THAN WERE LOST IN THE ATOM BOMBINGS OF HIROSHIMA AND NAGASAKI.

DR.JOHN Z.BOWERS, DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF THE DIVISION OF BIOLOGY AND MEDICINE, DID NOT ELABORATE EXCEPT TO CITE SEVERAL INSTANCES WHERE ATOMIC ENERGY IS BEING EMPLOYED IN MEDICAL RESEARCH.

"NEUCLEAR ENERGY IS THE DR.JEKYLL AND MR.HYDE OF OUR CIVILIZATION," DR.BOWERS SAID.

"IT IS A GREAT FORCE WHICH TURNS OUT THE MOST DESTRUCTIVE WEAPON EVER KNOWN TO MANKIND AND AT THE SAME TIME DEVELOPS ENERGIES WHICH ARE USED (TO SAVE) MORE LIVES THAN WERE DESTROYED BY THE GREAT BLASTS AT HIROSHIMA AND NAGASAKI."

U.S.ARMY OCCUPATION FORCES ESTIMATED THAT 78,150 PERSONS WERE KILLED IN THE HIROSHIMA BLAST. THE U.S.STRATEGIC BOMBING SURVEY REPORTED THAT FROM 35,000 TO 40,000 PERSONS WERE KILLED OR MISSING IN THE EXPLOSION OVER NAGASKI.

HE ADDRESSED THE FIRST SESSION OF THE ENOCH PRATT LIBRARY'S ATOMIC ENERGY INSTITUTE.

ATOMIC ENERGY'S FIRST AND MOST IMPORTANT USE, DR.BOWERS EXPLAINED, IS IN RESEARCH, CHIEFLY THROUGH RADIOACTIVE ISOTOPES. THIS HELPS MEDICAL MEN UNRAVEL THE MYSTERIES OF BODY CHEMISTRY.

SECOND, HE SAID, IS ITS USE IN THERAPY--ACTUAL TREATMENT OF MALIGNANT CELL GROWTHS SUCH AS CANCER, WHERE RADIOACTIVE SUBSTANCES HAVE BEEN USED IN SUCCESSFUL TREATMENTS.

"CANCER CELLS ARE MORE EASILY DESTROYED BY RADIATION INCLUDING ATOMIC ENERGY THAN ARE NORMAL CELLS," HE SAID. KNOWING THIS, PHYSICIANS CAN APPLY ATOMIC ENERGY TO DESTROYING THE CANCEROUS GROWTH.

HE ADDED THAT THIS TREATMENT HAD BEEN ESPECIALLY SUCCESSFUL AGAINST THYROID CANCER. AND IT IS A SAFER TECHNIQUE THAN THE OLDER METHODS OF USING RADIUM.

RADIOACTIVE ISOTOPES ARE BY-PRODUCTS OF CHAIN-REACTING URANIUM PILES, DEVICES USED IN THE CREATION OF THE ATOMIC BOMB.

BELGIUM DUE IN ATOM TALKS

To Take Part In U.S.-British Parley On Uranium Supply

London, Jan. 23 (AP)—Belgium, whose rich uranium deposits in the Belgian Congo provide the vital element in atomic energy, will join British-American atomic talks beginning in Washington next Monday.

High diplomatic officials of the three governments will discuss the production and distribution of the Congo uranium, preliminary to a new agreement on sharing the precious ore, it was reliably reported.

[Washington diplomats said Belgium may also ask higher prices. A wartime agreement of 1944, under which Britain and the United States shared the Congo output, expired December 31. Under it from $200 to $300 a ton was paid for the ore. Since the first of the year, Washington officials said, all but a few tons of the output under Belgium's control have gone to the United States.]

Mine Director To Attend

Announcement of the conference by a Foreign Office spokesman here and a simultaneous communiqué in Brussels said only that the talks would be "related to maters of mutual interest in the atomic energy field."

One of the leading Belgian delegates to the conference will be H. Robiliart, managing director of the Union Miniere de Haut Katanga, which operates the Belgian Congo uranium mines. His presence seemed to confirm reports that the question of the Congo resources will be the primary subject for discussion.

Some of the best uranium ore in the world comes from the Belgian Congo, which has approximately half of the world's known uranium supplies.

Britain Part Owner

During the war Britain, part owner of the mines, agreed to turn over her share of the Congo's uranium output to the United States in the interest of the common Allied war effort. Since then there has been a British suggestion for freer and fuller exchange of atomic information.

The British have indicated that if they did not get either production knowledge or actual atom bomb supplies from the United States, they probably would want to take up their share of uranium ore from the Congo and go ahead with atom bomb production themselves. Britain has no atom bomb now, according to the best authoritative sources.

Might Curtail U.S. Output

If Britain exercised the right to share in the Congo output, atomic enery production in the United States might have to be curtailed.

Britain does have atomic piles for research purposes but experts say such piles use only a negligible quantity of uranium. The British Government will not reveal the source of any uranium it may now use. ADD

3 Powers Slate Congo Uranium Talks Monday

London, Jan. 23 (AP)—The United States, Britain and Belgium begin atomic talks in Washington next Monday. Reliable informants at Brussels said the three powers will discuss a new agreement on sharing the Belgian Congo's vital uranium ore.

A Foreign Office spokesman here said only that atom problems of mutual interest will be discussed. Uranium is a raw material in production of atomic energy.

The Brussels informants said that the makeup of the Belgian delegation assures discussion of the Congo uranium ore output and distribution. Among the delegates will be H. Robiliart, managing director of the Union Miniere du Kaut-Katanga, a Belgian copper company, which owns the mines.

Wartime Pact Expiring

It has been an open secret that a wartime pact under which the United States and Britain shared the Congo's uranium output is due to expire this year. SEE SUB

During the war, Britain agreed to turn over her half of the ore to the United States in the interests of the common Allied war effort.

The United States, Britain and Canada for some months have been negotiating on a British suggestion for freer and fuller exchange of atomic information.

The British have made it clear that if they do not get either production know-how or supplies of atomic bombs from the United States, they would probably want to take up their share of uranium ore from the Congo to go ahead with A-bomb production themselves.

Congo Yields Best Ore

This could be a detriment to American atomic plants because some of the best uranium ore in the world comes from the Congo. The Belgian colony has approximately half the world's known uranium supplies.

According to best authoritative opinion, Britain has no A-bomb now. She does, however, have atomic piles for research purposes. Experts say such piles would use only a negligible quantity of uranium. The Government will not name the source of any uranium it may now use.

The Belgian Government controls the output of the Congo mines. British investors have about a sixteen per cent interest in the company. This interest is estimated to be worth about $39,200,000. ADD

French Movie Actress Dies Of Lung Disease

Paris, Jan. 23 (AP)—Corinne Luchaire, French movie actress, died today in a hospital of a lung disease. She was 28.

After the liberation, she was arrested and condemned to ten years of national indignity because of her relations with the Germans during the occupation.

Star of the 1938 film, "Prison Without Bars," she had recently signed a film contract in Rome.

Her father, Jean Luchaire, pro-German editor, was executed for treason in February, 1946. ADD

3 U.S. Trains, Traffic Halted By Soviets

Berlin, Jan. 23 (AP)—Soviet technicalities crippled Berlin truck traffic to West Germany today and delayed three American military trains during the night.

The three United States military trains were delayed up to six hours at Helmstedt, on the Soviet-zone frontier, by Russian investigation of travel papers of three non-American passengers.

After a call to United States Army headquarters at Heidelberg, Soviet officials dropped their inquiry and the trains proceeded.

Not Removed

The nonAmerican passengers riding in the American military coaches were identified as a German and two South Americans. They were not removed by the Russians.

The squeeze on trucks carrying cargo between West Germany and Berlin, started yesterday by high Soviet officers, piled up a line of more than 100 waiting vehicles at the Helmstedt check point by noon (local time) today.

The Russians later were letting thirteen Berlin-bound trucks an hour through the Helmstedt checkpoint in an apparent relaxation of their traffic slowdown.

The effect of this speedup was scarcely noticeable, however, in the mile-and-a-half long line of halted trucks. An official said that normally 30 trucks an hour should pass through the checkpoint.

British Maj. Gen. G. K. Bourne said the Russian highway and rail slowdown was a "mere pinprick" not to be confused with blockade methods.

The British Berlin commandant said the train delays in some cases resulted from "sheer inefficiency."

"Downright Foolish"

Bourne told correspondents at a British Press Club luncheon that some trains were stopped because the Russians knew there were Germans aboard, adding that it was "downright foolish" for Allied trains to permit German passengers aboard in violation of Four-Power rules.

The harassment of Berlin highway supply lines appeared to be a Soviet reprisal for the American attempt to take over a Berlin railway building from Russian control last week.

After holding the building for four days with German police, Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, United States commander in Berlin, evacuated it Saturday.

Reliable American sources said the building's seizure had been a blunder. Elevated railway service in the Allied sectors of Berlin was reduced at Soviet order until the Americans backed down, but it was restored to normal today..

Ready For "Lift" ADD

The snarl of truck movements on the Soviet-zone frontier was caused by increased Russian demands for a variety of shipping documents.

Seemingly concerned that the Soviet command might be tempted to impose another blockade on Berlin, a United States Air Force spokesman at Weisbaden announced that six squadrons of American cargo planes "are ready to go if needed" in a new airlift.

of two Brazilian diplomats and a German employé of the United States High Commission on the train. Finally, the Russians let the trains with their passengers proceed to Frankfurt.

There, one of the passengers, Mario Calabria, Brazilian vice consul, quoted an American army officer in Berlin, whom he did not name, as saying "another blockade is coming. It will be imposed by the East German Government instead of by the Russians."

But Maj. Gen. G. K. Bourne, British commandant, said the Russians were merely indulging in a passing phase of "pin pricks."

Resentment Over Building

The holding up of the trains was "sheer inefficiency," he said, adding that it was "downright foolish" to allow Germans on Allied military trains.

An American spokesman said it was the general belief that Soviet tactics were intended to show resentment over West Berlin police seizure in the American sector of the railway administration building.

The nearly vacant building was occupied last week so its nearly 600 rooms could be used for badly needed office space. But the Russians claimed the seizure interfered with their small signal switchboard housed in the basement. After four days of occupation, Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, United States Berlin commandant, ordered the police to vacate, saying the building was not worth a second Berlin blockade.

Canal Traffic Incident

The East Berlin press gloated that the United States had suffered a blow in prestige.

The Berlin elevated slow-down which followed the seizure was over today. Railway freight, which carries most of the supplies to Berlin, also proceeded normally. And only one incident involved canal traffic which brings about 5,000 tons of supplies a month.

Two Belgian barges leaving the French sector, were stopped because the Russians said the scrap metal cargoes had not been cleared with Soviet export authorities. The barges returned to their loading points.

Russians Ease Truck Curbs On Berlin-Bound Traffic

Berlin, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Russians suddenly and without explanation half-lifted their junior blockade on western truck traffic to and from Berlin late today.

For 24 hours Soviet guards checked each cargo, truck paper and driver so meticulously that only one truck in 15 minutes was allowed to pass Helmstedt where the Autobahn enters the British zone.

Then at mid-afternoon they started to move the piled-up line of 100 trucks on each side of the border through at a rate of 13 to 15 an hour. Normally, they can handle about 30 an hour.

American, British and French commanders of Berlin met in an emergency session and discussed the latest Soviet harrying tactics, including the delaying of three United States military passenger trains for upwards of 6 hours at the checkpoint this morning.

Argument Over Credentials

An Allied official said the three commanders had decided to take a "wait and see" attitude.

The trains were held up while Russian and American officials argued and communicated with their superiors over the credentials

The three Western commandants yesterday protested strongly the Soviet seizure on January 13 of eleven west-bound trucks loaded with non-ferrous scrap at Helmstedt.

6 Squadrons "Ready To Go"

The scene at Helmstedt today was reminiscent of 1948 when the Russians began clamping on their Berlin blockade by degrees. The blockade was lifted last May when the airlift proved it could supply the former German capital.

A United States Air Force spokesman at Wiesbaden said Berlin had a 90-day stockpile now, and a full-scale airlift could be in operation again in that time. He said six squadrons of American cargo planes were "ready to go" on a new airlift.

Before the Russians began speeding up traffic in the afternoon trucks were backed up a mile and a half on either side of the barriers. The drivers built bonfires by the road to keep warm during the long wait. The only persons who seemed happy were the vendors of coffee and sandwiches.

There was a similar tieup at Luebeck to the north, but at other minor crossing points Soviet checking was of a hit-and-miss order.

COL. BABCOCK, 52, U. S. OFFICIAL IN GERMANY DIES

BERLIN, (Tuesday,) Jan. 24 (AP)—Colonel William T. Babcock, deputy United States commissioner for Berlin, died early today after being stricken with a heart attack at a Hollywood movie premiere here. He was 52.

Babcock, a veteran American official who had served in Berlin since 1945, was taken ill at the conclusion of a screening of "Francis."

He died 13 minutes after arriving at an army hospital.

Before going overseas during the war, Col. Babcock was prominent as a police officer in Connecticut.

Praised by U. S. Commander

Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, U. S. commander said that Babcock's death "comes as a shock to the whole allied and German community of Berlin."

"A veteran of the earliest days of the occupation, he brought to work in the city a clear mind, a warm heart, and a tireless devotion to duty," Taylor said.

"It was the latter's willingness to work to the breakng point and beyond that cost him his life. He died a servant of his country and of the city for which he has done so much."

Babcock was a native of New Haven, Conn. He had been a police captain in New London, Conn.

He is survived by three children of a former marriage in Connecticut and a widow and a fourth child here.

Veteran of Two Wars

Babcock served in the First World War as a private in the First Infantry Division.

In the Second World War he became a public affairs officer, attached to the allied supreme headquarters. When Berlin was occupied, he took charge of the American public safety branch and was later elevated to deputy chief of the military government.

With Mrs. Babcock he had been part of a hilarious audience which applauded the antics of an army mule named "Francis" at the Neue Scala Theater.

The program was climaxed by a stage show in which movie players Donald O'Conner, Jackie Coogan, Yvonne DeCarlo and others appeared.

Babcock's heart seizure came just after the curtain fell.

Babcock had figured prominently since 1945 in the east-west clashes over Berlin, the last time a few days before his death.

Role During Blockade

Last Wednesday he authorized the west Berlin police to take over 500 to 600 vacant rooms in the big Reichsbahn (railway) building. The Russians protested and brought about a junior-blockade which delayed road, railway and river traffic in and out of Berlin.

Babcock received the Soviet protest from Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, Soviet commander of Berlin.

He also played a prominent role during the 1948-49 Berlin blockade. In September, 1948, he was taken into custody by east sector German police when he tried to enter the Berlin city hall, at that time besieged by German police and Russian troops.

DEATH RATE DROPPING IN WESTERN BERLIN

BERLIN, (AP)—Births are outnumbering deaths in west Berlin for the first time since the war, says the U.S. High commission. The Soviet sector still is recording more deaths than births, however, the commission said in a survey for the third quarter of 1949.

The American, British and French sectors registered 12 births per 1,000 population and the death rate, which reached 100 per 1,000 in 1945, is down now to 11 per 1,000. In the Russian sector, the survey showed, there were 371 more deaths than births in July, August and September.

Saar Defers Propaganda Antidote

SAARBRUECKEN, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Saar Parliament postponed today further consideration of two measures designed to counter pro-German propaganda.

The measures had been attacked here and abroad as too severe and undemocratic. They would have imposed prison sentences and fines on any Saarlander who openly criticized the Government and the Constitution.

President Johannes Hoffman of the autonomous regime had proposed the measures. They had been approved on first reading Thursday as a preliminary step.

GERMANS KEEP RATIONING

Move to Free Gasoline Checked by Allied Body

BONN, Germany, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Allied High Commission asked the West German Government tonight to postpone plans to end gasoline rationing.

Simultaneously, the Government announced that it would re-examine its decision to deration gasoline Feb. 1.

In a letter to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, the High Commission requested him to "hold up action on this matter until the Allied High Commission has had an opportunity to review your proposed plans."

ATTACK ON RUHR RULE BY GERMAN RESENTED

BONN, Germany, Jan. 23 (AP) — Andre Francois-Poncet, French High Commissioner, protested today a criticism of the international rule of the Ruhr alleged to have been made by Dr. Thomas Dehler, German Justice Minister.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer sought, however, to rule out the Ruhr as another cause of dispute between Germany and France, already at loggerheads over the Saar and a proposed trade pact.

The protest to Dr. Adenauer was announced by the French High Commissioner's press office. It quoted Dr. Dehler as saying in a speech at Hamburg Sunday that the six-power Ruhr statute devised by France, Britain, the United States, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg was "hollowed out and out-dated, since its spiritual preconditions did no longer exist."

Press dispatches yesterday quoted Dr. Dehler as saying it was a "myth" that Germany was an aggressor nation, and that France also was to blame for World War I.

The statute for international control of the Ruhr's coal and steel was adopted to assure that the valley does not again become an arsenal for German aggression. Germany is to have a representative on the Ruhr authority.

CHINESE NAVY GUNS POUND AT CHAPU

TAIPEI, Formosa, Jan. 23—(AP) The Chinese Nationalists announced today an effective naval bombardment of Chapu, only 45 miles southwest of communist Shanghai.

They said Red ammunition dumps, defense works and other military establishments were blown up and set afire.

The attack was part of the continuing Nationalist air and sea campaign aimed at preventing Red invasion of the Chusan Islands, Formosa and other offshore Nationalist holdings.

The Nationalists announced their naval forces based on the Chusan Islands had been newly increased and that Lt. Gen. Mao Shan had been sent there to direct guerrilla warfare against the Reds on the mainland.

Mao Shan was to have summoned mainland guerrilla chieftains to Chusan to plan the campaign.

The defense command on Hainan drafted new anti-infiltration regulations requiring special permits for visiting that big island off the south coast.

Chinese Warships Blast Port Of Chapu

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 23 (AP)—Chinese Nationalist warships bombarded Chapu, 45 miles southwest of Shanghai, an official dispatch said today.

The Sunday attack set off huge fires and ammunition-dump explosions and Chinese Communist defense works were heavily damaged, the Nationalists said.

The sea attack followed extensive air raids along the Red mainland.

It was the fleet's nearest approach to Shanghai since that port fell to the Reds last spring. Chapu, on Hangchow Bay, was an important landing site for the Japanese conquest of Shanghai in 1937.

Sailed From Chusan Islands

The newly reinforced Nationalist fleet, the dispatch said, sailed from the Chusan Islands, 100 miles south of Shanghai. The Nationalists say the Communists are trying to mount an amphibious attack on the Chusan Islands from Hangchow Bay.

In the air, Nationalist planes roamed at will against the Red mainland. Targets included the ports of Amoy and Foochow and raids extended northward to Hangchow Bay.

An air-force communiqué said B-24 bombers set huge fires on Foochow's water front. Shore establishments and invasion craft were heavily damaged.

Mustang fighters ranged over Shanghai. Other plans bombed Liuchow Peninsula, springboard for an expected Red invasion of Hainan Island, far to the south.

INDO-CHINA VIEWED AS KEY ASIA POINT

U. S. Military Circles in Tokyo See Area as Gate for Red Drive to Southeast

TOKYO, Jan. 23 (AP)—Highly competent United States military authorities predicted today that French Indo-China might become the pivotal point in a projected Communist march across Southeast Asia.

These quarters, which may not be identified directly, are closely watching new pressure being put on Indo-China and adjoining areas by the Chinese Communists. Both geographically and militarily, Indo-China is the gateway from China to the riches of Southeast Asia.

Although the French have flatly denied Chinese Nationalist reports that Communist troops already have entered Indo-China, it is evident that the Communists already have launched a political offensive against that country. Their troops stand all along its northern borders.

United States officers in Tokyo generally express belief that the Chinese Communist recognition last week of the Viet Nam rebel government in Indo-China was a prelude to a direct thrust southward.

Half of France's army is engaged in bitter and protracted guerrilla warfare with the Viet Nam forces of Moscow-trained Ho Chi-minh. This French force, the Americans say, will provide the answer to whether the Chinese Communists can do anything in Southeast Asia in a military way.

In their view the French might be able to hold off a concerted Communist thrust if properly equipped. Some American officers have taken the position that the United States should supply the French with equipment.

Japan Wants Early Treaty, Premier Says

Tokyo, Jan. 23 (AP)—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida today told the Diet (Parliament) that Japan, "standing on the threshold of national resurgence," wants an early peace treaty on any basis it can get one.

Almost as he spoke, Japanese Communists called for a peace treaty in which all the Allies participate. The Communists pledged an all-out effort against any treaty in which Russia and Red China would not take part.

Yoshida echoed General MacArthur's January 1 statement by saying: "Renunciation of war does not mean abandonment of the right of self defense." He added that the country's security can best be guaranteed by a program of "peace and democracy."

Prices And Taxes Plague Red China

By Fred Hampson

Hong Kong, Jan. 23 (AP)—Fresh reports filtering out of Red China tell of more belt-tightening, higher prices and stiffer taxation.

Predictions of last summer are materializing into a winter of woe for China's common man. Even the Communist press and radio have stopped trying to keep it secret.

Reports from the Yangtze Valley, site of such great cities as Shanghai and Nanking, say large shops are getting smaller and small shops are disappearing; Communist papers carry daily notices of closures because of lack of business.

30.24= 8433

Doctors and hospitals also are hard hit. The American Missionary Hospital and University Hospital affiliated with Ginling College in Nanking are reported "selling their medical supplies on the open market in order to pay their staffs."

Millions Homeless

Eight million persons are destitute as a result of "large-scale natural disasters," according to announcement of Communist Premier Chou En-lai.

He estimated that last summer's floods in North and Central China inundated more than 14,000,000 acres and forced 40,000,000 persons from their homes. In Hopei province more than 4,000,000 acres were flooded and 10,000,000 persons left homeless.

Chou's directive to all city governments suggested putting refugees into factories and handiwork, but it is known that factories are in financial difficulties and handicraft industries are no better off.

Soldier Problem

Nan Han-chen, member of the Communist People's Bank of Nanking, recently said that North China farmers are paying at least twenty per cent of their production in taxes. He said it takes the taxes of 30 farmers merely to feed and clothe one soldier. The expense has become a perplexing problem because of the many Nationalist troops shifting over to the Reds.

Reports from both Nanking and Shanghai say the Chinese public is becoming convinced that Chairman Mao Tze-tung's main purpose on his mission to Moscow was to get quick and extensive economic aid, including large credits for railway rolling stock.

Chinese Red Leader Mao Tze-tung, who has been in Moscow since December 16, did not accompany his Foreign Minister. For such a protocol visit, his presence was not considered necessary.

Mao on his arrival announced the existing Sino-Soviet alliance, signed by Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese Nationalist Government, would be one of the matters occupying his chief attention during his visit here.

New China-Soviet Treaty Awaited

Moscow, Jan. 23 (AP)—A new treaty between Soviet Russia and the Chinese Communists appeared to be near completion today.

Local observers believed the negotiations required before signing of the pact and its announcement were drawing rapidly to a close.

The latest development was the visit last night of the Chinese Premier and Foreign Minister, Chou En-lai, to Generalissimo Stalin in the Kremlin.

First Formal Call

It was Chou's formal call on the head of the Soviet state after his arrival here Friday. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky and Communist China's Ambassador to Moscow, Wang Chia-hsiang, accompanied him.

Key Points Held By U.S.I. Rebels

Jakarta (Batavia), U.S.I., Jan. 23 (AP)—Indonesian rebel guerrillas, led by a former Dutch captain, today attacked the West Java capital, Bandoeng, and seized key points in that mountain city of 170,000 population.

About 600 guerrillas reportedly captured the Indonesian Army headquarters, the telephone exchange and other important centers.

The Federal Army of the month-old United States of Indonesia was reported holding out in the northern part of the city.

Dutch and Indonesian troops were marshaled for "co-ordinated" action against the first serious armed threat to the young U.S.I. The Federal Government rushed 250 troops of its mobile police brigade by air from Jakarta, 120 miles northwest, to Bandoeng, to keep an airfield open.

No Dutch Action Yet

Bandoeng is one of the chief concentration points of Dutch troops in Indonesia, but there was no word yet of the Netherlands forces going into action. The Dutch Army chief of staff, Maj. Gen. D. R. A. van Langen, was to fly to Bandoeng to take personal charge of Dutch operations.

However, under the Indonesian independence treaty with the Dutch, Netherlands forces can be used to help keep order only if first requested by the Indonesians.

An Indonesian Government spokesman said the Indonesians had not specifically asked the Dutch for help but that the Dutch had volunteered to act against deserters from the Dutch Army.

This would permit the Dutch to help out against the attackers without producing an awkward situation for the Indonesian Government in which it would have to make a formal plea for aid.

Late this afternoon, a Defense Ministry spokesman said Bandoeng "at the moment" was quiet.

Rebels, he said, controlled the southern part of the city, including most of the business section and the headquarters of the Federal Army's crack Siliwangi division.

Federal Army forces had withdrawn north of the railway tracks bisecting the city and were holding out in the European residential section.

Other Areas Quiet

The Defense Ministry spokesman said other areas of west Java were quiet.

U.S.I. Army headquarters here were relying on airplane communication for contact with the forces in Bandoeng. Other communication lines were cut off.

A spokesman for the United Nations Commission on Indonesia said his group was watching the situation closely but had not taken any action. Neither the Dutch nor the Indonesians asked the United Nations to intervene, he said.

The guerrillas reportedly were part of a "private army" commanded by former Dutch Capt. R. P. P. (Turk) Westerling.

His followers, in addition to Indonesian deserters from the Dutch Army, were said to include members of an Indonesian Communist faction and a fanatic Moslem group.

Westerling, discharged from the Dutch Army in 1948, threatened early this month to lead a rebellion unless the U.S.I. recognized his army as the official law-enforcement agency in West Java. He contended that U.S.I. forces, the former army of the Indonesian republic, were too weak to keep the country peaceful.

The core of his troops were tough Dutch-trained airborne fighters and Commandos, deserters from the Netherlands Army's Indonesian Corps.

They were part of the force that had spearheaded the Dutch attack on the Indonesian Republic in December, 1948, with a parachute assault against the republic's capital, Jogjakarta.

Streets Almost Deserted

Bandoeng's streets were reported almost deserted when the rebels entered today by foot and truck. Only a few machine-gun bursts and sporadic rifle fire broke the silence of their surprise entry.

They took the headquarters of the Federal Army, in the center of the city, after a 10-minute battle, according to reports reaching here.

The city remained almost deserted during the day. Offices were closed.

The Federal Army commander, Lieut. Col. Sentot Iskan-Dardinata, appealed to the people to remain calm and trust the Government forces.

An Indonesian Cabinet spokesman said his Government "won't negotiate with Westerling." The Government, he said, considered the situation "critical," but is confident the revolt will be suppressed.

GUERRILLAS ATTACK BIG INDONESIA CITY

Troops Led by Former Dutch Captain Seize Large Part of Bandung, Then Withdraw

By The Associated Press.

JAKARTA (Batavia), Indonesia, Tuesday, Jan. 24—A private guerrilla army attacking the new United States of Indonesia left Bandung suddenly yesterday afternoon after having taken over most of the town a few hours earlier.

Dutch troops regularly garrisoned in Bandung, third largest city, patrolled the streets today looking for deserters from their forces.

The guerrilla army is led by an outlaw former Dutch officer, Capt. R. P. P. (Turk) Westerling. The sudden withdrawal of the guerrillas surprised Indonesian officials as much as the original action against the city.

The guerrillas, calling themselves the "Forces of the Queen of Justice," include tough Dutch-trained Indonesian airborne units (red caps) and commandos (green caps) who deserted from the Dutch Army.

High Indonesian officials and members of the Dutch mission here issued a communiqué announcing they would "coordinate action" in meeting the revolt because of the participation in it of Dutch deserters. However, the Indonesians said they had not asked for Dutch aid.

[The Netherlands Government was reported planning to aid the Indonesians by all means short of direct action by Dutch troops to suppress the guerrilla attack.]

The guerrilla forces began their action against Indonesia early yesterday, when they captured the town of Chamahi, in the mountains of West Java, eleven miles west of Bandung. They seized an arms factory, ammunition stores and a military hospital in the town.

After some hard fighting along the road the force of about 600 invaded Bandung, capital of West Java and chief concentration point for Dutch troops, 120 miles southeast of Jakarta. They swarmed by foot and truck through the southern half of the city, occupying the main business section and the headquarters of the Indonesian Army, in a ten-minute battle.

The Westerling forces rolled into Bandung and shot up streets occupied by divisional headquarters of the Indonesian Federal Army and most of the business section before their sudden withdrawal.

Subsequently, the Indonesian Defense Minister, Sultan Hamengku Buwono, claimed that "mopping-up operations" were in progress against the rebel forces.

One report said the guerrillas left town after an informal agreement with the Dutch Army, but this was not confirmed. Bandung is a concentration point for Dutch units to be evacuated to the Netherlands. Dutch troops stood by as the insurgents moved into Bandung against the Indonesian garrison force.

High military quarters in Jakarta said similar raids could be expected in the next two weeks at Jakarta and Bogor (Buitenzorg), about fifty miles due south of Jakarta, and between the capital at Bandung.

The Indonesian Government blamed the Dutch for the success of the guerrilla attack on Bandung. Defense Minister Buwono said the United States of Indonesia and its army command several times had stressed to the Dutch the possibility of the desertion of Dutch troops encamped in the environs of Bandung to the Westerling group.

"The Dutch, however, assured the Government this would not take place," the Defense Minister added.

On this assurance, Mr. Buwono said, several Indonesian Government units were withdrawn, and Captain Westerling, "supported by deserters of the Dutch army," took advantage of the opportunity to attack.

Mr. Buwono's statement apparently referred to the fact that most of the Indonesian Siliwangi division stationed in West Java—nearly 6,000 troops—moved a month ago to Jakarta. About one batallion of approximately 700 men was left in Bandung.

KARACHI, Pakistan, Jan. 23 (AP)—Spanish Consul General Emilie Nunez said today Spain was negotiating to buy up to 500,000 tons of wheat from Pakistan. Señor Nunez said negotiations with the Pakistan Government began after Argentina refused to sell wheat to Spain.

Israel Sees Diamond Exports Of $7,000,000

Nathanya, Israel, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Israeli Treasury expects to pick up $7,000,000 this year by exporting diamonds with 80 per cent of the money coming from the United States.

Shipments of cut and polished diamonds from the Nathanya and other diamond finishing centers in Israel brought in $4,000,000 from the United States last year.

A total of 1,600 workers are now employed in Israeli diamond plants, compared with 800 a few months ago.

Indian Destroyers Arrive

BOMBAY, India, Jan. 23 (AP)—Three destroyers for the Indian Navy arrived today from Britain. They have been renamed the Rajput, the Rana and the Ranjit. The ships have displacements of 1,700 tons and will be used for training purposes.

TRUMAN CONFERS WITH TOP AIDES ON NEW WEAPONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(AP) President Truman met with his top military command today for what the White House called a briefing on progress being made on new weapons.

Secretary of the Army Gray said the hydrogen bomb was not one of the weapons discussed.

This possible new A-bomb, which would use hydrogen as the explosive force, has been the subject of an undercover controversy in administration circles for weeks. It has been variously estimated to be from eight to 1,000 times as powerful as present atomic bombs, which use uranium.

Deny H. Bomb Discussed

The presence of virtually all of the nation's military leaders at the hour-long conference prompted speculation that the hydrogen bomb was the principal subject.

Secretary Gray, asked whether it was discussed, replied with a positive "no."

One possible subject for discussion was how much reliance should be placed on the Air Force's superbomber, the B-36, as a means of delivering A-bombs and other explosives in a future war. The plane has been the subject of hot argument, with navy men contending the high command was depending too heavily on the plane.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross gave reporters this explanation of today's gathering:

Just "A Report on Weapons"

"This meeting was one for the president to receive a periodic report on weapons evaluation. This is the third of such meetings to keep the president posted. There will be others, possibly the next one within 90 days."

Ross said that Lt. Gen. John E. Hull, head of the armed services' weapons evaluation board, did most of the talking. Ross would not say what specific weapons were discussed.

Those present included the joint chiefs of staff, headed by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Secretary of Defense Johnson and the three armed force secretaries, as well as these other cabinet members: Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, Secretary of Labor Tobin, Secretary of State Acheson, Secretary of Commerce Sawyer and Postmaster General Donaldson.

There had been some advance indication that the Truman administration's request to a reluctant congress to extend the peacetime draft might be one of the topics. Ross' announcement indicated that it did not come up.

Rayburn Hopes For New Vote On Korea Aid

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP)—Speaker Rayburn (D., Texas) said today he thinks there is a good chance the House will yet vote more economic aid for South Korea despite its one-vote rejection of a $60,000,000 aid bill last week.

President Truman already has announced he will ask for "speedy rectification" of that vote. He also has won an unexpected ally in Senator Taft (R., Ohio), who said he believed some continued economic help should be provided.

Would Act On Senate Bill

Rayburn talked over the situation with the President at the White House today. He told reporters he thought the House could take another vote by bringing up a Korean aid bill passed by the Senate. It is similar to the one the House turned down.

Chairman Connally (D., Tex.) already has suggested the Senate Foreign Relations Committee might link the Korean aid proposal to a measure offered by Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) to continue help for the Chinese Nationalist Government which fled to Formosa.

Both the Korean and Chinese aid programs will expire February 15, unless Congress acts before then.

Acheson To Testify Again

Secretary of State Acheson is scheduled for testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations group tomorrow. He said that if the House action were allowed to stand it would "have the most far-reaching adverse effects upon our foreign policy." Mr. Truman concurred in Acheson's views.

Acheson wants to explain to senators the developments that caused a State Department's order withdrawing all its officials from Communist China after that Government had seized the United States Consulate at Peiping.

He seemed likely to face a wide range of policy questions.

H-Bomb Decision Urged

Senator Wherry, of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader, has urged a decision on American production of the new hydrogen bomb before Congress decides what to do about Korea, Formosa and other areas.

That question may be discussed when the Foreign Relations Committee hears Thursday from Secretary of Defense Johnson and Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

John J. McCloy, high commissioner for occupied Germany, will report to the group Wednesday. All meetings will be behind closed doors.

Senator Tydings (D., Md.) denied in a radio interview that there is any chance that the Democrats will abandon the bipartisan foreign policy. He blamed the approach of the 1950 elections for some of the Republican attacks.

Russ Got A-Ore 'Without U.S. Knowledge'

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP) — An Atomic Eenergy Commission official testified today that one of three wartime uranium shipments to Russia went thsough in 1943 after "we thought we had the Canadian supply shut off."

Lawrence C. Burman, now director of the licensing division of the commission, formerly worked for the Manhattan Project which turned out the atomic bomb.

Burman was called before the House Un-American Activities Committee as it resumed its public hearings into the previously disclosed shipments of uranium to Russia. Uranium is a key iniredient in the present type A-bomb.

Previous Shipment

Burman said it wasn't until 1948 that he learned of the 1,000-pound shipment. It was sent from Canadian mines and went through, he said, despite the fact that "we thought we had the Canadian supply shut off."

Burman said the Russians also got a previous shipment of 420 pounds of compounds and a later one of 2.2. pounds of uranium metal, both with Government approval.

He said the Government okayed the 1,000-pound shipment, only because it believed Russia couldn't lay hands on the material.

He said the first shipment of 420 pounds was approved in the Spring of 1943 so Russian suspicions wouldn't be aroused by a refusal.

Then, he said, the Manhattan District tried to block Russia from getting more.

Get First Call

He said the Manhattan District made a contract with the Canadian radium and uranium company giving the Manhattan District first call against any uranium the company had to sell.

Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) said the committee now must find out whether the second shipment violated that contract.

Burman said the third shipment —of 2.2 pounds—represented only a portion of the 25 pounds of uranium metal which the Russians asked. He said it was a "rather poor metal" and that the British also were allowed to buy some of this.

FOUR URANIUM SALES CITED

Evidence Of 1944 Shipment To Russia Promised In Probe

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP) — The House Un-American Activities Committee produced a hint and then a positive statement today that a hitherto undisclosed shipment of 45 pounds of uranium metal went to Russia in 1944.

That would be uranium shipment No. 4 on the committee's score card.

In addition, the committee said the Soviets got 1,000 grams of heavy water which also was useful for atom bomb experiments.

Britain Also Got Metal

And there was testimony that Britain, like Russia a wartime ally, also got a little uranium metal.

Frank Tavenner, committee counsel, supplied both the hint and then the statement "we will prove another shipment" of 45 pounds of uranium metal to Russia in June, 1944.

The statement was to the press. The hint came earlier when Tavenner asked a witness, Lawrence C. Burman, whether he knew of the 45-pound shipment.

"No, sir," Burman replied.

Burman now is director of the licensing division of the Atomic Energy Commission. From 1942 to 1946 he was in charge of obtaining special materials for the Manhattan Engineering District, which produced the atom bomb. The special materials included uranium.

For the most part, the committee retraced with Burman old ground previously covered in testimony by its own investigators and by Lieut. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, USA (retired), who ran the atomic project during the war.

British Aid Asked on Fliers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23 (AP)—The State Department has asked Britain to use her good offices with the Chinese Communists to try to obtain the release of two Americans who had been flying planes for the Nationalists. The fliers are Robert Boul and James B. McGovern, who were employes of the Nationalist's civil air transport line. They were seized when the Communists advanced in South China to the Indo-China frontier.

EXPECTS CHINA TO BACKFIRE

Ex-Attache Says Russians Face Anti-Foreign Feeling

Annapolis, Jan. 23 (AP)—A former United States naval attaché at Shanghai predicted today that Russians will "bear the brunt of the anti-foreign feeling" in China.

Commander Morgan Slayton said, "The Chinese is too much of an individualist ever to become a Communist—he wants his own way 'too much.'"

The 38-year-old naval officer, interviewed on return to his home here, got out of Shanghai two months ago on a blockade-running coastal steamer.

"The Chinese people are fundamentally anti-foreign—no matter who it is," Slayton said. "You're on tenterhooks all the time," he said of his two years as attaché.

Taken By Default, He Says

Slayton said the Chinese Communists took over the country by default.

"The Nationalists lost their will to fight," he declared.

"I don't know how they're going to get out," Slayton said of the skeleton consular staff now due for recall from Shanghai.

Slayton served as attaché at Shanghai from October 4, 1947, to October 15, 1949. After missing one boat when the Chinese held up his exit visa, he was smuggled aboard the British coastal steamer Wo Sang, which sailed November 8.

Ship Clears Blockade

The ship, delayed eleven days in the Yangtze River by gunfire from a Nationalist destroyer, finally cleared the blockade and made it to Hong Kong. Slayton reached San Francisco December 23 and arrived here this week end on leave before making his report to the Navy Department.

Since his return to the United States, he has gained 12 pounds, now weighing 140.

"I always lose weight when I'm under stress," he said, adding that the Chinese "aren't particularly interested in being nice to foreigners."

SPY CASE BACK IN COURT TODAY

Judith Coplon And Gubitchev Go On Trial In New York

New York, Jan. 23 (AP)—Judith Coplon, once convicted of stealing Government secrets for the Russians, goes on trial tomorrow morning with the Russian who is accused of conspiring with her to spy.

The long-delayed trial is scheduled to begin at 10 A.M. in the same Federal courthouse where Alger Hiss was convicted last Saturday on charges likewise involving the leakage of state secrets to the Soviet Union.

But there are major differences between the two cases:

1. The spy activities figuring in the Hiss proceedings occurred in the late 1930's, long before the United States-Soviet rift. Miss Coplon and Valentin A. Gubitchev are charged with plotting to spy in time of cold war—as late as last March.

2. In the Hiss trial, the sole defendant was the American government official involved. In the forthcoming trial, the Russian in the case — Gubitchev — goes before a jury as well.

JAN 24 1950

JAN 24 1950

3. The Soviet Government virtually ignored the Hiss case. It has angrily denounced the Coplon-Gubitchev affair through its official propaganda organs, and has sought vainly through its embassy to save Gubitchev from trial.

4. The actual charge against Hiss was perjury—lying under oath. Miss Coplon and Gubitchev are accused of trying to make defense secrets available to a foreign power —a much more severely punishable offense.

If convicted, the Brooklyn-born Miss Coplon faces up to 35 years in prison on top of the 40-month-to-10-year sentence imposed on her in Washington after she was convicted last summer of stealing secret papers for the Russians. In that case, she is free in $40,000 bail pending appeal.

Gubitchev faces up to fifteen years upon conviction. Like Miss Coplon, he could also be fined up to $20,000.

Hiss, to be sentenced Wednesday, can get up to ten years plus $4,000 in fines.

While Hiss held a high post in the State Department, Miss Coplon was a political analyst in the Justice Department when she and Gubitchev were arrested during a furtive meeting in New York last March 4. She is expected to offer the same defense she made in Washington—that she wasn't slipping secret data to the Russian but kept meeting him because she loved him.

Flying Arrow Leaves Tsingtao For Kobe

New York, Jan. 23 (AP)—The American freighter Flying Arrow left Communist-held Tsingtao, China, yesterday for Kobe, Japan, her owners reported today.

The Isbrandtsen company said it did not know whether the vessel discharged her full cargo.

The Flying Arrow was shelled and considerably damaged while trying to carry a $10,000,000 cargo from Hong Kong to Shanghai.

PARIS, JAN. 23-(AP)-PAUL HOFFMAN, ECA ADMINISTRATOR, IS COMING TO PARIS WEDNESDAY EVIDENTLY TO PUT ANOTHER BURR UNDER THE SADDLE OF EUROPEAN NATIONS HE FEELS ARE NOT INTEGRATING THEIR TRADE AFFAIRS FAST ENOUGH.

EUROPEAN COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) HEADQUARTERS HERE, IN REPORTING HIS FORTHCOMING VISIT, MADE NO MENTION OF HIS PLANS. BUT THE CONSULTATIVE COUNCIL OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC), WHICH GREW OUT OF ECA, MEETS THURSDAY.

ON HIS LAST APPEARANCE IN PARIS AT SUCH A MEETING HOFFMAN TOLD A SOMEWHAT STARTLED GROUP THAT THEY WERE NOT MAKING AS MUCH PROGRESS IN BREAKING DOWN TRADE BARRIERS AS THEY WERE EXPECTED TO IN RETURN FOR THE MONEY THEY WERE GETTING FROM THE UNITED STATES.

AS AN IMMEDIATE RESULT A NUMBER OF NATIONS REMOVED QUOTA LIMITATIONS FROM IMPORTS, SOME FROM AS HIGH AS 50 PER CENT OF THEIR IMPORTS. BUT IT IS WELL KNOWN THAT AMERICAN CIRCLES DO NOT CONSIDER THIS ENOUGH, NOR DO THEY CONSIDER THE 60 PER CENT PROPOSED BY FRANCE AS ENOUGH.

IT IS THE AMERICAN CONTENTION THAT TRADE BARRIERS ARE THE PRINCIPAL HAMPERING BLOCK TO EUROPEAN RECOVERY. AMERICA WANTS TO SEE MORE QUOTA RESTRICTIONS REMOVED SO COMPETITION FOR BUSINESS WILL GET TIGHTER AND PRODUCTION THUS BECOME MORE EFFICIENT.

THE NEWSMEN RECEIVED IN SPECIAL AUDIENCE REPRESENT 15 DAILY PAPERS FROM MASSACHUSETTS TO CALIFORNIA. THEY ALREADY HAD MADE STOPS IN ENGLAND AND GERMANY ON A THREE-WEEK SURVEY TOUR OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES PARTICIPATING IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

THE PONTIFF URGED HIS LISTENERS ALSO TO AID THE OBJECTIVE OF THE 1950 HOLY YEAR: RETURN OF MANKIND TO GOD, AND "BY THE SAME TOKEN BACK TO PROSPERITY, PEACE AND SECURITY."

THE PONTIFF SAID THAT THE RESPONSIBILITY OF JOURNALISTS "BEFORE GOD AND MAN IS GRAVE INDEED."

"NEVER BEFORE, WE DARE SAY, HAS IT BEEN MORE EXACTING THAN TODAY, WHEN COMMUNICATION HAS BECOME SO EASY AND FAR-REACHING, AND THE INFLUENCE OF THE ORDINARY CITIZEN IS BEING FELT MORE AND MORE IN THE GOVERNMENT OF NATIONS."

FALSIFICATION OF FACTS, THE POPE SAID, CAN LEAD EVEN TO WAR.

"WHO DOES NOT KNOW THAT A JOURNALIST CAN DELIBERATELY FALSIFY FACTS, OR BY LIFTING THEM OUT OF THEIR CONTEXT CAN DISTORT THEIR TRUE MEANING, OR CAN SUPPRESS TRUTH THAT IN JUSTICE CLAMORS TO BE HEARD? AND THE NET RESULT IS THAT THE MASSES ARE MISLED, HUMAN TRAGEDY IS INCURRED AND CIVIL STRIFE AND EVEN WARS ARE ENGENDERED SIMPLY BECAUSE AN UNWORTHY MEMBER OF YOUR PROFESSION FOR ONE REASON OR ANOTHER HAS BEEN RECREANT TO HIS GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY TO TRUTH."

THE PONTIFF SAID THAT "NO SOCIETY THAT RESTS ON FOUNDATIONS OF HYPOCRISY AND FALSEHOOD IS SECURE."

BERLIN, MONDAY, JAN. 23-(AP)-SOVIET FRONTIER GUARDS ENFORCED A SLOWDOWN TODAY ON AMERICZN MILITARY TRAINS AND GERMAN TRUCK TRAFFIC TO BERLIN.
IN APPARENT RETALIATION FOR LAST WEEK'S RUSSIAN-AMERICAN SQUABBLE OVER OCCUPANCY OF A RAILWAY BUILDING IN BERLIN, SOVIET AUTHORITIES DELAYED AMERICAN TRAINS AS MUCH AS FIVE HOURS.
TRUCKS FROM BERLIN TO WEST GERMANY WERE ALLOWED TO PASS THE SOVIET ZONE CHECKPOINT AT HELMSTEDT AT THE RATE OF TWO OR THREE AN HOUR. EIGHTY TRUCKS WERE BACKED UP AT THE FRONTIER THIS MORNING.
TWO AMERICAN MILITARY TRAINS FROM FRANKFURT AND BREMERHAVEN WERE DELAYED AT HELMSTEDT WITHOUT EXPLANATION. AFTER WAITS OF THREE AND A HALF TO FIVE HOURS, THE TRAINS WERE PERMITTED BY THE RUSSIANS TO PROCEED TO BERLIN.
A BRITISH MILITARY TRAIN FROM HAMBURG PASSED THE SOVIET CHECKPOINT WITHOUT DIFFICULTY, HOWEVER.
SINCE THE WESTERN POWERS OCCUPIED WEST BERLIN IN 1945 THEIR ROAD AND RAIL COMMUNICATIONS WITH WESTERN GERMANY HAVE BEEN AT THE MERCY OF THE SOVIET ARMY. ENDING OF THE BERLIN BLOCKADE LAST MAY LEFT THESE COMMUNICATIONS AS EXPOSED AS EVER.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID ALLIED-OCCUPIED WEST BERLIN HAS A 90-DAY STOCKPILE OF FOOD AND FUEL. WITHIN THAT PERIOD, HE ADDED, A "FULL SCALE" AIRLIFT COULD BE IN OPERATION AGAIN--LIKE THE AIRLIFT THAT SUPPLIED BERLIN FOR NEARLY A YEAR BEFORE THE LAND BLOCKADE WAS LIFTED LAST MAY BY THE RUSSIANS.

BERLIN'S FIRST BLOCKADE IN 1948 BEGAN WITH PIECEMEAL RESTRICTIONS. BUT AT ITS HEIGHT, MORE THAN 2,000,000 GERMANS IN THIS CITY WERE DEPENDENT FOR THEIR LIVES ON THE CARGOES OF U.S.-BRITISH AIR FLEETS.

THE BLOCKADE WAS LIFTED FORMALLY LAST MAY, YET SOVIET AUTHORITIES NEVER GAVE CLEAR-CUT GUARANTEES TO PRESERVE LAND-BORNE SUPPLIES FROM OFFICIAL MOLESTATION.

DOZENS OF TIMES SINCE THEN, TRUCK SCHEDULES HAVE BEEN THROWN INTO CONFUSION BY TEMPORARY SOVIET RESTRICTIONS AT CHECKPOINTS ON THE WEST GERMAN FRONTIER.

RUSSIAN HARASSMENT TODAY WAS ON A CRAZY QUILT PATTERN. AT HELMSTEDT, THEY LET EXACTLY FOUR TRUCKS AN HOUR PASS EACH WAY ON THE AUTOBAHN. AT LUEBECK, TRAFFIC WAS VIRTUALLY DEAD. BUT AT MINOR CROSSING POINTS, ALONG THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN ZONAL BORDERS, SOME TRUCKS PASSED WITHOUT INCIDENT.

WEST GERMAN POLICE ADVISED ALL WESTERN TRANSPORT FIRMS TO KEEP THEIR VEHICLES AT HOME UNTIL THE BOTTLENECK WAS REOPENED.

SKORZENY, A GIANT PARATROOPER, ENGINEERED BENITO MUSSOLINI'S BREAK FROM A PRISON IN ITALY.

HE WAS ARRESTED BY THE ALLIES AT THE END OF THE WAR AND LATER ACQUITTED OF CHARGES OF WAR CRIMES AGAINST AMERICAN TROOPS IN THE BATTLE OF THE BULGE HE FLED A DARMSTADT INTERNMENT CAMP IN JULY, 1948, WHILE AWAITING A DENAZIFICATION TRIAL. GROECHNER CONFERRED WITH "PEOPLE INTERESTED IN FREEING SKORZENY." HE THEN TURNED UP AT AN AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE OFFICE, CLAIMING TO BE AN AGENT OF THE SOVIET SECRET POLICE, AND ASKED TO TALK TO SKORZENY. THE AMERICANS AGREED.

GROECHNER AND SKORZENY TALKED ACROSS A TABLE. A MICROPHONE WAS HIDDEN IN A TABLE LAMP, BUT GROECHNER AND SKORZENY TAPPED THE TABLE TO HIDE THEIR CONVERSATION, AND GROECHNER WHISPERED HIS PLAN.

DAVIS SAID RAKOSI TOLD HIM THE AMERICAN COULD HAVE AS MANY HUNGARIAN ATTORNEYS AS HE WANTS BUT THE QUESTION OF AMERICAN ATTORNEYS APPEARING IN A HUNGARIAN COURT WOULD HAVE TO BE "CONSIDERED."

DAVIS SAID HE INTERPRETED RAKOSI'S REMARKS ABOUT THE OPEN TRIAL TO INDICATE AMERICAN NEWS CORRESPONDENTS WOULD BE GRANTED VISAS TO REPORT THE TRIAL.

VOGELER'S ARREST ON NOV.18, WHEN HE WAS ENROUTE FROM HIS BUDAPEST HOTEL TO HIS VIENNA HOME, GREW OUT OF ALLEGED ACTIVITIES AS EUROPEAN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE I. T. AND T.

EDGAR SANDERS, BRITISH ACCOUNTANT FOR THE BUDAPEST SUBSIDIARY OF I. T. AND T., AND SEVERAL HUNGARIAN EMPLOYES OF THE COMPANY WERE ARRESTED A FEW DAYS AFTER VOGELER.

DAVIS SAID HE ASSUMED SANDERS AND THE HUNGARIANS WOULD GO ON TRIAL WITH VOGELER, THOUGH HE HAD NO POSITIVE INFORMATION ON THEM.

HUNGARY TURNED DOWN STRONG PROTESTS FROM THE UNITED STATES STATE DEPARTMENT, WHICH DEMANDED VOGELER'S RELEASE.

MRS. VOGELER SAID SHE WELCOMES THE TRIAL OF HER HUSBAND.

"AS FAR AS THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT IS CONCERNED, MY HUSBAND HAS ALREADY BEEN FOUND GUILTY," SHE SAID.

"THE REST OF THE WORLD KNOWS HE IS INNOCENT. THE TRIAL IS NOT GOING TO MEAN ANYTHING ONE WAY OR THE OTHER. ALL I AM INTERESTED IN IS SEEING BOB HOME AGAIN. THE TRIAL MAY MEAN THE END OF ALL THIS WAITING AND HE MAY BE EXPELLED FROM THE COUNTRY. FOR THAT REASON I HOPE THEY HAVE THE TRIAL JUST AS SOON AS POSSIBLE."

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, JAN.23-(AP)-HUNGARIAN POLICE ANNOUNCED TONIGHT THEY HAD ARRESTED THE YUGOSLAV LEADER OF A HUNGARIAN "UNDERGROUND ORGANIZATION" OF KULAKS (RICH FARMERS) WHICH ALLEGEDLY MURDERED THE FORMER SECRETARY OF THE VILLAGE COMMUNIST PARTY.

THE MAN WAS IDENTIFIED AS ISTVAN DOBO. A COMMUNIQUE SAID HE WAS A YUGOSLAV KULAK SENT TO HUNGARY BY PREMIER MARSHAL TITO LAST AUGUST "TO ORGANIZE RICH PEASANTS AGAINST THE PEOPLES' DEMOCRACY."

THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR SAID THE ALLEGED GANG KILLED IMRE KISS, THE FORMER COMMUNIST PARTY OFFICIAL WHO BECAME A FARMER AFTER THE LAND REFORMS EARLIER THIS MONTH. THE MINISTRY SAID KISS WAS STABBED 27 TIMES.

THIRTEEN KULAKS WERE ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH THE SLAYING. HUNGARIAN POLICE SAID THEY ALL CONFESSED. DOBO ESCAPED, HOWEVER, AND WAS NOT SEIZED UNTIL SATURDAY NIGHT "IN THE FARM OF ANOTHER KULAK."

WARSAW, POLAND, JAN.23-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT OF POLAND HAS TAKEN CONTROL OF "CARITAS," CHIEF CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THIS COUNTRY, AND HAS JAILED A CATHOLIC PRIEST ON A CHARGE OF MANIPULATING ITS FUNDS, THE POLISH PRESS AGENCY SAID TODAY.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID INVESTIGATION BY A GOVERNMENT AUDIT BOARD HAD DISCLOSED "FRAUDULENT ABUSES WITH DIVERSION OF FUNDS FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES," ADDING THAT THOSE RESPONSIBLE WOULD BE BROUGHT TO TRIAL.

IT NAMED THREE DIRECTORS OF CARITAS IN THE WROCLAW (BRESLAU) DIOCESAN OFFICE AS GUILTY OF CRIMINAL ACTS. THESE THREE WERE IDENTIFIED BY THE AGENCY AS THE REV. ANTONI SAMULSKI, WHO HAS BEEN JAILED; JAN PASZENDA AND A MARIAN PIROZYNSKI, WHO IS ACCUSED OF DEALING IN PAPER STOLEN FROM THE COMMUNIEST PARTY PUBLISHING COOPERATIVE.

CARITAS OPERATES ORPHANAGES AND OTHER INSTITUTIONS AND HAD OBTAINED SOME OF ITS SUPPLIES FROM "AMERICAN RELIEF TO POLAND" AND AMERICAN CATHOLICS.

WARSAW OFFICIALS REFUSED TO ELABORATE ON THE AGENCY ANNOUNCEMENT. SOME OBSERVERS HERE VIEWED THE ACTION AS A NEW STAGE OF THE CHURCH-STATE CONTROVERSY IN POLAND.

THREE MINISTRIES--EDUCATION AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, LABOR AND SOCIAL WELFARE--HAVE NAMED TRUSTEES FOR CARITAS AND WILL CHOOSE LAY [illegible] AS WELL AS PRIESTS FOR ITS FUTURE WORK, THE AGENCY SAID.

IN WASHINGTON, THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC WELFARE CONFERENCE SAID --DASH-- CARITAS IS A DISTRIBUTING AGENCY FOR THE WAR RELIEF SERVICES OF NEW YORK, A BRANCH OF THE NCWC.

MAIZURU, JAPAN, JAN.23-(AP)-COL.SAKO TANIMURA, FORMER CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE JAPANESE ARMY IN KOREA, SAID TODAY RUSSIA IS MAKING RAPID PROGRESS IN JET AIRPLANE DEVELOPMENT.

THE COLONEL WAS ONE OF 2,500 JAPANESE PRISONERS OF WAR LANDED HERE FROM RUSSIA TODAY.

TANIMURA, WHO WAS HELD IN THE CENTRAL POLITICAL CAMP AT MOSCOW FOR ALMOST TWO YEARS, SAID HE SAW MANY CHANGES IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF RUSSIAN JET PLANES DURING THAT TIME.

IN THE MASSIVE AIR DISPLAY IN JULY OF 1948, TANIMURA SAID HE SAW ONLY 30 TO 40 JET PLANES. A YEAR LATER HE SAID MORE THAN 300 OF THEM TOOK PART IN THE DISPLAY. HE SAID MORE THAN HALF OF RUSSIA'S FIGHTER PLANE STRENGTH TODAY IS MADE UP OF JETS.

JAN 24 1950

BOTH DESIGN AND SPEED OF THE RUSSIAN JETS IMPROVED IN THE YEAR, THE JAPANESE COLONEL SAID. ON THE OTHER HAND, TANIMURA SAID, RUSSIAN BOMBERS UNDERWENT NO DISCERNIBLE MAJOR CHANGES DURING HIS TWO YEARS IN MOSCOW.

THE JAPANESE SAID HE HAD NO CHANCE TO OBSERVE THE RED ARMY AT CLOSE RANGE. BUT HE SAID IT WAS OBVIOUS THE RUSSIANS WERE WORKING TO IMPROVE THE ARMY'S EFFICIENCY AND POWER. HE SAID IT WAS APPARENT THE ARMY'S MORALE WAS AT A HIGH LEVEL.

TANIMURA RECALLED THE NOV. 7 STATEMENT OF G.M. MALENKOV, RUSSIAN POLITBURO MEMBER, THAT: "WE RUSSIANS LOVE PEACE AND ALL OUR PEOPLE UPHOLD PEACE. BUT IF THERE IS A WAR, RUSSIA WILL NOT BE DEFEATED."

THE JAPANESE COLONEL SAID EVERY RUSSIAN HE MET WAS CONVINCED MALENKOV WAS RIGHT.

TANIMURA SAID THE RUSSIANS WERE HOLDING 140 JAPANESE GENERALS AS PRISONERS IN KHABAROVSK. WITH THEM ARE 2,000 OTHER JAPANESE OFFICERS. ALL ARE BEING INVESTIGATED AS WAR CRIMINALS. ANOTHER 1,000 JAPANESE ARE SERVING OUT PRISON SENTENCES AT KHABAROVSK.

IN THE CAMP WHERE HE WAS HELD TANIMURA SAID THERE WERE GERMAN AUSTRIAN, HUNGARIAN, JAPANESE AND MANY OTHER NATIONALITIES. ALL WERE BEING INVESTIGATED BY THE RUSSIANS AND AT THE SAME TIME WERE BEING TAUGHT COMMUNIST DOCTRINE. PRIORITY IN COMMUNIST EDUCATION WAS BEING GIVEN TO THE GERMANS, HE SAID.

(HONG KONG ESTIMATES SAY THE FRENCH HAVE ABOUT 120,000 SOLDIERS IN INDOCHINA, OF WHOM 50,000 ARE IN THE NORTHERN BORDER ZONE.)

THE AMERICANS SAY THAT DESPITE THE INCONCLUSIVE NATURE OF THE GUERRILLA FIGHTING, THE FRENCH HAVE AN EXCELLENT FORCE FOR LARGER-SCALE WARFARE. THIS FORCE IS CERTAINLY THE LARGEST BETWEEN CHINA AND THE REST OF THE SOUTHEAST.

Tokyo add ax equipment

A24KX

THE FRENCH ARE HANDICAPPED, HOWEVER, BY INSUFFICIENT AND ANTIQUATED EQUIPMENT. THIS PROBLEM, SAY THE AMERICANS, EXTENDS TO ALL BRANCHES, INCLUDING AIR, ARTILLERY AND TRANSPORT. THIS COULD BE OF INCREASING IMPORTANCE IF THEY WERE OBLIGED TO OPPOSE THE NUMERICALLY LARGER ARMIES OF THE CHINESE REDS.

THE AMERICAN VIEW IS THAT THE FRENCH MIGHT BE ABLE TO HOLD OFF A CONCERTED COMMUNIST THRUST IF PROPERLY EQUIPPED, BUT OTHERWISE THE OUTCOME MIGHT BE DOUBTFUL.

SOME AMERICAN OFFICERS HAVE INDICATED BELIEF THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD SUPPLY THE FRENCH WITH EQUIPMENT. IT IS KNOWN THAT THIS HAS BEEN URGED BY SOME BRITISH OFFICIALS, FEARING THAT A COLLAPSE OF INDO-CHINA WOULD EXPOSE MALAYA AND OTHER PLACES TO THE REDS.

THE AMERICAN OFFICERS PROFESS A DIRECT MILITARY CONCERN IN THIS SITUATION. IF THE REDS SHOULD GAIN CONTROL AS FAR DOWN AS INDONESIA, THEY SAY, THE AMERICAN DEFENSE LINE OF JAPAN-OKINAWA-PHILIPPINES WOULD BE OUTFLANKED.

IT IS REMEMBERED THAT THE JAPANESE USED INDOCHINA AS AN EFFECTIVE STEPPINGSTONE TO FURTHER CONQUESTS. FROM ITS AIRFIELDS THEY MOUNTED THEIR FIRST RAIDS ON SINGAPORE, AND FROM ITS HARBORS THEY MADE SOME OF THEIR FIRST COMBAT THRUSTS IN THE PACIFIC WAR.

COMRANH BAY, ON THE SOUTHEAST COAST OF INDOCHINA, BECAME A MAJOR JAPANESE NAVAL BASE. IT REMAINS ONE OF THE KEY POSITIONS IN THE FAR EAST.

THE NATIONALIST AIR COMMANDER, GEN. CHOU CHIH-JOU, BOASTED HE WOULD SHATTER ALL INVASION ATTEMPTS UNLESS THE COMMUNISTS MOUNT AN AIR FORCE OF THEIR OWN. THE COMMUNISTS HAVE SOME PLANES. BUT NONE HAVE APPEARED IN ACTION.

ON HAINAN NATIONALISTS SET UP A SAFEGUARD AGAINST COMMUNIST INFILTRATION. REGULATIONS REQUIRING SPECIAL PERMITS TO ENTER THE BIG ISLAND WERE DRAFTED.

A PEIPING COMMUNIST RADIO BROADCAST HEARD IN LONDON SAID A RED ARMY UNIT HAD REACHED THE BORDER OF TIBET, WHICH, ALONG WITH FORMOSA AND HAINAN ISLAND, THE REDS HAVE PROCLAIMED THEY WILL CAPTURE SOON.

THE BROADCAST SAID COMMUNIST TROOPS MARCHED 900 MILES ACROSS THE GOBI DESERT AND ENTERED KHOTAN, A COUNTY SEAT IN SINKIANG PROVINCE, FAR TO THE NORTHWEST.

IN FORMOSA THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT LIMITED THE AMOUNT OF GOLD BULLION AND UNITED STATES CURRENCY TRAVELERS MAY TAKE OUT OF THIS BASTION. THE LIMIT IS TWO OUNCES OF GOLD AND $200.

AN INTENSIVE SEARCH FOR LARGER AMOUNTS WAS MADE BEFORE THE BRITISH STEAMER SHENGKING SAILED SUNDAY FROM KEELUNG FOR HONG KONG.

THE NATIONALISTS ARE TRYING TO CONVINCE AMERICANS THAT THEIR GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN CLEANED UP AND IS DESERVING OF UNITED STATES ECONOMIC AID. A GROUP OF AMERICANS, INCLUDING CHARGE D'AFFAIRES ROBERT STRONG, WAS TAKEN ON A TOUR OF FORMOSA THIS WEEKEND.

TWO OF THE FIVE NATIONALIST COMMISSIONERS FOR FORMOSA WERE OUSTED FROM THEIR POSTS. THEY WERE REPLACED BY TWO OTHER FORMOSANS IN AN APPARENT ATTEMPT TO AVERT A POLITICAL CRISIS BREWING AMONG THE FORMOSANS.

THOSE OUSTED WERE CHIANG WEI-CHUAN, CIVIL AFFAIRS COMMISSIONER, AND PENG TEH, RECONSTRUCTION COMMISSIONER. THEY WERE REPLACED BY TWO MEMBERS OF THE FORMOSAN "HALF MOUNTAIN" GROUP, AN ORGANIZATION WHICH BUCKED THE JAPANESE, WHEN THEY CONTROLLED FORMOSA AND MUCH OF THE CHINESE MAINLAND.

THE "HALF MOUNTAIN" GROUP CONTENDS THAT PENG WAS A FORMER JAPANESE COLLABORATOR AND THAT CHIANG TOOK A HAND IN THE ABORTIVE FORMOSA REVOLT IN 1947 IN WHICH MANY THOUSANDS OF FORMOSANS WERE KILLED BY CHINESE TROOPS.

THE CABINET CHOSE ONE OF CHIANG'S "SEA GROUP" MEMBERS, WU SAN-LIEN, AS MAYOR OF TAIPEI.

MANILA,TUESDAY, JAN. 24-(AP)-PHILIP C. JESSUP, ROVING U. S. AMBASSADOR, HAS RECEIVED THE PHILIPPINES' PLEDGE OF FULL COOPERATION WITH AMERICAN DEFENSE PLANS IN THE FAR EAST, RELIABLE SOURCES SAID TODAY.

THIS EXCHANTE OCCURRED IN A CONFERENCE YESTERDAY OF JESSUP AND VICE PRESIDENT FERNANDO LOPEZ, THESE SOURCES SAID. NETIERH WOULD COMMENT.

THE ACTING FOREIGN SECRETARY, FELINO NERI, SAID LOPEZ GAVE AN "UNQUALIFIED YES" TO THIS JESSUP QUERY: WOULD THE PHILIPPINES BE WILLING TO ACT AS A "SHOW WINDOW" IN THE FAR EAST TO DEMONSTRATE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "POINT FOUR?"

POINT FOUR IS DESIGNED TO AID UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES IN MAKING BETTER USE OF THEIR OWN RESOURCES AND ABILITIES TO IMPROVE THEIR ECONOMIC CONDITION.

NERI SAID JESSUP EXPLAINED THAT PLANS FOR POINT FOUR IN THE PHILIPPINES WOULD "EFFECTIVELY DEMONSTRATE" THE DEMOCRATIC WAY OF LIFE IS BETTER IN AN ATTEMPT TO KEEP ASIATIC COUNTRIES OUT OF THE COMMUNIST ORBIT.

NO CONCRETE PLANS FOR IMPLEMENTING THIS PROGRAM WERE DISCUSSED, NERI SAID.

THERE HAVE BEEN SOME MISGIVINGS IN HIGH PHILIPPINE QUARTERS ON FUTURE AMERICAN PLANS IN THE FAR EAST.

THESE HAVE ARISEN CHIEFLY AS A RESULT OF MR. TRUMAN'S HANDS OFF FORMOSA POLICY AND REFUSAL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES TO PASS AN ECONOMIC AID BILL FOR SOUTH KOREA.

NAI CHAIWADBANA INDHAPANDH, PARLIAMENTARY UNDERSECRETARY TO THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTER, SAID "THE THAI GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE HAVE ALWAYS REGARDED AND TREATED CHINESE NATIONALS HERE WITH WARM AND BROTHERLY FEELINGS."

A PEIPING RADIO BROADCAST SATURDAY CHARGED THAT CHINESE HAD BEEN "THROWN INTO THE BANGKOK PRISON AND BRUTALLY BEATEN BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THAILAND."

THE RED RADIO SAID THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN ASKED FOR HELP BY A GROUP OF PRISONERS. IT QUOTED THEM AS SAYING THEY HAD BEEN IN JAIL MORE THAN SIX MONTHS AND "THOUSANDS OF US ARE WAITING FOR DEPORTATION FROM THAILAND."

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY OFFICIAL SAID THE CHINESE REDS HAD NO GROUNDS FOR ANY CHARGES CONCERNING DEPORTATION OF CHINESE NATIONALISTS FROM THAILAND.

ALL DEPORTATIONS ARE PASSED BY A COURT OF LAW IN ACCORDANCE WITH THAILAND'S DEPORTATION ACT WHICH GOVERNS NATIONALS OF ALL COUNTRIES IMPARTIALLY, HE DECLARED.

KABUL, AFGHANISTAN, JAN. 23-(AP)-AFGHANISTAN'S BORDER QUARREL WITH PAKISTAN IS AROUSING NEW AND FRIENDLY FEELINGS FOR COMMUNIST RUSSIA IN THIS BUFFER STATE BETWEEN THE SOVIETS AND THE PAKISTANIS.

AFGHANISTAN ACTIVELY SUPPORTS A MOVEMENT AMONG THE WARLIKE PATHAN TRIBES IN THE KHYBER PASS AREA FOR AN INDEPENDENT STATE OF PATHANISTAN. PAKISTAN CLAIMS SHE INHERITED THE PATHANS AND THEIR TERRITORY -- THE TRADITIONAL INVASION ROUTE FROM THE NORTHWEST TO INDIA -- FROM UTHE BRITISH.

THE AFGHANS CONSIDER BRITAIN IS SUPPORTING PAKISTAN. THEIR HOPES OF U.S. BACKING FADED WHEN A $21,000,000 LOAN FROM THE EXPORT-IMPORT BANK WAS EARMARKED FOR PUBLIC WORKS ONLY. ANTICIPATED MILITARY ASSISTANCE WAS NOT FORTHCOMING.

ONCE CONSIDERED AS ANTI-COMMUNIST AS ANY COUNTRY IN THE WORLD, AFGHANISTAN NOW SHOWS EVIDENCE OF LESSENING HER TRADITIONAL FEAR OF HER BIG NORTHERN NEIGHBOR.

SIGNS OF THIS NEW ATTITUDE ARE THE AFGHAN GOVERNMENT'S RECENT EMPLOYMENT OF RUSSIAN TECHNICIANS AND THE VISIT TO KABUL OF AN OFFICIAL RUSSIAN TRADE MISSION, THE FIRST IN THIS COUNTRY'S HISTORY.

THE AFGHAN RADIO AND PRESS LAST NOVEMBER SAID REPRESENTATIVES OF 5,000,000 AFRIDI PATHANS IN THE AFGHAN-PAKISTAN BORDER AREA HAD MET JUST SOUTH OF THE KHYBER PASS AND ELECTED A PARLIAMENT TO ACT AS THE GOVERNMENT OF THEIR NEW INDEPENDENT STATE OF PATHANISTAN, OR PUSHTOONISTAN AS SOME CALL IT.

ON JAN. 9 PAKISTAN'S PREMIER LIAQUAT ALI KHAN SAID TALK OF AN INDEPENDENT PATHANISTAN WAS A FIGMENT OF AFGHAN IMAGINATION. HE WARNED HIS AFGHAN NEIGHBORS TO THE NORTHWEST AGAINST THE "DANGERS INHERENT IN THEIR RASH POLICY."

THE AFGHANISTAN-PAKISTAN DISPUTE SO FAR HAS BEEN LARGELY AN INCREASINGLY HEATED CONFLICT OF WORDS. THE PATHAN TRIBAL AREA HAS REMAINED QUIET, EXCEPT FOR SPORADIC CLASHES IN THE KHYBER PASS. SUCH CLASHES HAVE BEEN FREQUENT THROUGHOUT THE AREA'S HISTORY.

AFGHAN OPINION CONSIDERS AMERICAN COOPERATION WITH BRITAIN MEANS THEY CAN EXPECT NO AID FROM THE U.S. IN ANY DISPUTE WITH PAKISTAN. THEY HOLD THE BRITISH RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR ECONOMIC AND DIPLOMATIC DIFFICULTIES.

WESTERLING REPORTEDLY IS SUPPORTED BY ONE FACTION OF THE INDONESIAN COMMUNIST MOVEMENT AS WELL AS BY THE FANATICAL MOSLEM GROUP THAT HAS PROCLAIMED AN INDEPENDENT STATE IN WEST JAVA. WESTERLING HAS DEMANDED HIS ARMY BE DESIGNATED THE OFFICIAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY IN WEST JAVA.

THE U.S.I. ARMY SOURCE ESTIMATED ABOUT 600 GUERRILLAS WERE ATTACKING BANDOENG. HE SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER THE DUTCH TROOPS YET HAD GONE INTO ACTION.

BANDOENG IS ONE OF THE CHIEF CONCENTRATION POINTS OF DUTCH FORCES IN INDONESIA. IT IS THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE VETERAN NETHERLANDS "SEVEN DECEMBER" DIVISION.

REPORTS REACHING HERE INDICATED THAT THE U.S.I. ARMY, WHICH AT FIRST HAD BEEN UNABLE TO THROW STRONG FORCES AGAINST THE REBEL OFFENSIVE, NOW WAS MOVING UP TROOPS. A BIG PART OF THE U.S.I. ARMY IN WEST JAVA, ABOUT 6,000 TROOPS OF THE FORMER INDONESIAN REPUBLIC'S CRACK SILIWANGI DIVISION, MOVED ONE MONTH AGO TO JAKARTA TO OCCUPY THE CAPITAL OF THE NEW NATION.

THE U.S.I. ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID FIERCE FIGHTING HAD BEEN REPORTED ON THE ROAD BETWEEN TJIMAHI AND BANDOENG, ALONG WHICH PART OF THE RAIDERS APPROACHED THE MOUNTAIN CENTER.

HE SAID OTHER RAIDERS APPROACHED THE TOWN FROM LEMBANG, IN THE MOUNTAINS EIGHT MILES NORTH OF BANDOENG.

OTHER RELIABLE SOURCES SAID SEVERAL INDONESIAN UNITS DESERTED LAST NIGHT FROM THE DUTCH ARMY AT TJIMAHI, BUT IT WAS NOT KNOWN WHETHER THEY WERE PART OF THE GUERRILLA BAND WHICH HAD OCCUPIED THAT TOWN.

THE U.S.I. ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID THE DUTCH WOULD HELP PUT DOWN WESTERLING'S FORCE BECAUSE SOME OF HIS FOLLOWERS WERE DESERTERS FROM THE NETHERLANDS FORCES. THEIR ACTIONS STILL WERE A RESPONSIBILITY OF THE DUTCH ARMY, THE SPOKESMAN SAID.

THE CORE OF THE GUERRILLA TROOPS THAT DROVE INTO BANDOENG, IT WAS LEARNED HERE, ARE TOUGH DUTCH-TRAINED INDONESIAN AIRBORNE FIGHTERS AND COMMANDO TROOPS.

THEY WERE PART OF THE FORCE THAT SPEARHEADED THE DUTCH ATTACK ON THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA A LITTLE MORE THAN ONE YEAR AGO WITH A PARACHUTE LANDING TO CAPTURE THE REPUBLICAN CAPITAL OF JOGJAKARTA IN DECEMBER, 1948.

THE ASSAULT ON BANDOENG WAS PRECEDED BY THE CAPTURE OF TJIMAHI, 11 MILES TO THE WEST, LAST NIGHT. "FIERCE FIGHTING" FOLLOWED A U.S.I. ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID, AS ONE SECTION OF THE GUERRILLA BAND ADVANCED TOWARD BANDOENG.

AT THE CITY THEY WERE JOINED BY ANOTHER REBEL SECTION FROM LEMBANG, IN THE MOUNTAINS EIGHT MILES TO THE NORTH.

HATTA AND HIRSCHFELD IN A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED AFTER A HURRIED CONFERENCE SAID THEY HAD AGREED TO "ACT IN COORDINATION." A U.S.I. GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID THIS MEANT THE INDONESIANS "DID NOT ACTUALLY ASK THE DUTCH FOR AID, BUT THE DUTCH AGREED TO TAKE ACTION AGAINST THEIR OWN DESERTERS."

THE TOWN OF TJIMAHI WHICH THE REBELS FIRST TOOK WAS THE SITE OF AN ARMS FACTORY FORMERLY USED BY THE DUTCH. IT ALSO CONTAINED LARGE AMMUNITION STORES AS WELL AS A DUTCH ARMY HOSPITAL.

JAKARTA--SECOND ADD SECOND NIGHT LEAD INDONESIAN (A72-106) X X X

HALF OF BANDOENG.

COLONEL SIMATUPANG TOLD NEWSMEN THE GUERRILLA FORCE THAT SWEPT INTO BANDOENG INCLUDED AT LEAST 300 DUTCH ARMY DESERTERS. HE SAID THE REBELS WERE UNOPPOSED AS THEY PASSED DUTCH POSTS TO ENTER THE CITY.

HE DECLARED THAT THE SITUATION WAS NOW QUIET IN BANDOENG AND THAT FEDERAL ARMY UNITS HAD REOCCUPIED THEIR HEADQUARTERS, SEIZED EARLIER BY THE GUERRILLAS. HE REPORTED 60 INDONESIAN SOLDIERS, INCLUDING THREE HIGH RANKING OFFICERS, WERE KILLED IN THE ATTACK. NO ESTIMATE WAS MADE OF CIVILIAN DEAD.

ASKED WHETHER HE EXPECTED TROUBLE IN OTHER TOWNS IN JAVA, SIMATUPANG REPLIED THAT THE BANDOENG BATTLE WAS A "MUTINY OF DUTCH TROOPS SO I CANNOT SAY WHETHER IT WILL HAPPEN IN OTHER TOWNS. ASK THE DUTCH."

THEDUTCH COMMANDER ACCUSED BY SIMATUPANG OF NOT HEEDING THE WARNING OF COMING TROUBLE IS MAJ.GEN.E.ENGLES, COMMANDER OF THE "DECEMBER SEVEN" DIVISION WITH HEADQUARTERS IN BANDOENG.

GENERAL BUURMAN VAN VREEDEN, DUTCH COMMANDER IN CHIEF REMAINED SILENT ON THE AFFAIR.

IT WAS REPORTED, MEANWHILE, THAT WESTERLING TOOK SEVERAL TRUCKLOADS OF CIVILIANSWITH HIM WHEN HE EVACUATED BANDOENG. IT IS BELIEVED THEY WERE SEIZED AS HOSTAGES.

INDONESIAN MILITARY GOVERNOR, LT.COL.DAAN JAHJA, REVEALED THAT TEN PERSONS WERE ARRESTED IN JAKARTA LAST NIGHT FOR QUESTIONING ABOUT WESTERLING. OTHER SOURCES SAID SOME CHINESE WERE AMONG THOSE ARRESTED.

AT THE SAME TIME ANOTHER REBEL FORCE STRUCK TOWARD THE MOUNTAIN CITY FROM LEMBANG, EIGHT MILES TO THE NORTH.

WESTERLING WAS REPORTED TO HAVE THREATENED TO MARCH ON JAKARTA, ARREST THE CABINET OF PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA AND SET UP HIS OWN REGIME. SUCH TALK WAS CONSIDERED A BLUFF.

BUT A REAL THREAT TO THE NEW REPUBLIC, ONLY FIVE WEEKS OLD TOMORROW, LAY IN THE POSSIBILITY HE HAD WELDED TOGETHER OTHER DISSIDENT FORCES FROM THE FANATICAL MOSLEM DARU ISLAM MOVEMENT OF WEST JAVA AND FOLLOWERS OF THE LATE TROTSKYITE COMMUNIST, TAN MALAKKA, WHO WAS EXECUTED BY THE INDONESIANS LAST YEAR.

THERE WAS THE POSSIBILITY, ALSO, THAT HE HAD INFLUENTIAL POLITICAL SUPPORT AMONG LEADERS OF THE EAST JAVA AND WEST JAVA STATES. THESE DUTCH-SPONSORED STATES HAVE BEEN REPORTED RESTIVE UNDER PRESSURE FROM THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC, ONE OF THE 16 STATES OF THE U.S. OF I., TO DISSOLVE AND REJOIN THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC STATE.

JAN 24 1950

THE HEAD OF THE EAST JAVA STATE AND PREMIER CONFERRED WITH WESTERLING LAST WEEK.

THE 30-YEAR-OLD WESTERLING, BORN IN TURKEY OF A DUTCH FATHER AND TURKISH MOTHER, IS AVETERAN DUTCH OFFICER OF WORLD WAR II FIGHTING IN EUROPE AND ASIA. HE WAS DISCHARGED FROM THE ARMY IN 1948, HOWEVER, AFTER INDONESIANS HAD ACCUSED THE BRIGADE COMMANDED BY HIM OF MURDERING 40,000 PEOPLE IN THE CELEBES IN 1946. THE DUTCH ADMITTED A DEATH FIGURE OF 5,000 IN WESTERLING'S MOP UP OF THE ISLAND.

EARLY THIS MONTH WESTERLING SERVED AN ULTIMATUM ON THE GOVERNMENT DEMANDING RECOGNITION OF HIS PRIVATE ARMY IN WEST JAVA TO ENFORCE LAW AND ORDER. HE CONTENDED THE GOVERNMENT'S FORCES WERE TOO WEAK FOR THE PURPOSE

HE WAS AIDED BY A MILITARY STEW IN THE FORCES OF THE FLEDGLING REPUBLIC. MANY HIGH DUTCH OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS ARE OPENLY OR SECRETLY SYMPATHETIC WITH HIM. MANY INDONESIANS WHO SERVED WITH THE DUTCH ARMY ALSO WERE DISSATISFIED WHEN TOP POSITIONS IN THE REORGANIZED INDONESIAN ARMY WENT TO TRUSTED VETERANS OF THE FORMER REPUBLICAN ARMY, TNI, AND DESERTED.

SOME NEWSPAPERS REPORTED HE HAD AN ARMY OF 20,000 OR 30,000 MEN, ABOUT HALF OF THEM WELL-EQUIPPED.

ONLY A FEW DUTCH SOLDIERS WERE IN TJIMAHI WHEN HE STRUCK. THE DUTCH TOOK NO PART, BUT SEVERAL OF THEIR INDONESIAN UNITS DESERTED.

THE HEART OF THE ATTACKING FORCE WAS MADE UP OF AIRBORNE INDONESIAN TROOPERS AND COMMANDOS WHO SPEARHEADED THE DEC. 1948 ATTACK BY THE DUTCH ON THE REPUBLICAN CAPITAL OF JOGJAKARTA AT BANDOENG, ONLY ABOUT 700 MEN OF THE CRACK INDONESIAN SILIWANGI DIVISION REMAINED IN THE CITY OF 180,000, THE OTHERS HAVING BEEN FLOWN TO JAKARTA LAST MONTH TO GARRISON THE CAPITAL.

THIS SMALL REMAINING FORCE RETIRED TO THE NORTHERN PART OF THE CITY AFTER SOME MACHINEGUN BURSTS.

CAPTURE OF THE CENTRAL PART OF THE CITY CUT ALL COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE GARRISON TOWN EXCEPT FOR ONE DUTCH MILITARY WIRE.

WHEN THE NEWS REACHED HERE, THE GOVERNMENT FLEW 250 TROOPS OF A MOBILE POLICE BRIGADE IN 13 BORROWED DUTCH PLANES TO KEEP ANDIR AIRFIELD OPEN AT BANDOENG.

DEFENSE MINISTER SULTAN HAMENGKU BUWONO CALLED A CONFERENCE OF ALL HIS TOP ARMY COMMANDERS AFTER HE AND PREMIER HATTA HAD CONFERRED WITH NETHERLANDS HIGH COMMISSIONER, DR. H. HIRSCHFELD.

AFTER THIS CONFERENCE MAJ. GEN. D.R.A. VAMLANGEN, DUTCH CHIEF OF STAFF, ARRANGED TO FLY TO BANDOENG TO TAKE PERSONAL CHARGE OF THE DUTCH FORCES.

ALL DUTCH TROOPS IN WEST JAVA AND JAKARTA WERE CONFINED TO THEIR BARRACKS TONIGHT.

Jerusalem, Jan. 23--(AP)--Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion repeated tonight his declaration that King David 3,000 years ago had made "Jerusalem the capital of Israel."

Ben-Gurion said the Israeli Knesset (parliament) had approved his declaration on the Holy City only as a "statement of historic facts" and not as a new moved designed to give away the Old City of Jerusalem to Hashemite Jordan King Abdullah, whose forces now occupy it.

During today's parliamentary debate, left and rightwing opposition members claimed the premier's statement was a move toward abandoning claims to the Old City. The opposition demanded that the government declare expressly that "all of Jerusalem is the capital of Israel." Israel occupies only New Jerusalem.

30.24- 8447

The opposition also blamed the government for leaving the Foreign Ministry for the present in Tel Aviv, while most other government agencies have been transferred to the Holy City. Ben-Gurion [redacted] pointed out that diplomatic representatives accredited to Israel refuse to move to Jerusalem as long as last months decision by the United Nations Assembly to internationalize Jerusalem stands. The premier said Israel cannot afford to disrupt relations with the other states.

JAN 24 1950

In a sharp counterattack, Ben-Curionsingled out [redacted] Menachem Beigin, former leader of the underground Irgun Zvai Leumi and now head of the opposition Freedom Party, accusing him of using "demagogic means."

A government motion, approved by parliament, states that "with the establishment of the State of Israel, Jerusalem became once [redacted] again the capital, and with the removal of technical obstacles which necessitated the temporary accommodation of the Knesset and government departments elsewhere, the government is transferring its departments to Jerusalem."

Port au Prince, Haiti, Jan. 23--(AP)--A five-nation committee from the Organization of American States (OAS), investigating disputes in the Caribbean area, arrived here by plane from the United States.

The committee left Washington, OAS headquarters, yesterday and spent last night in Miami. It was named by the OAS Council Jan. 6 under the Rio de Janeiro Mutual Defense Treaty after Haiti and the Dominican Republic had requested such action under separate charges of being threatened from the outside.

Haiti accused the Dominican Republic of participating in a plot which the Port au Prince government said it had smashed Dec. 19. The alleged plot was said to have been aimed at overthrowing Haitian President Dumarsais Estime. The Dominican Republic denied the charge and countered it has been "the victim of aggression" planned by several Caribbean countries, including Haiti, Cuba, Guatemala, Venezuela and Costa. However, the present governments of Venezuela and Costa Rica were excluded from the charge.

A Haitian government welcoming committee, including cabinet members, greeted the committee at the airport.

JAN 24 1950

Jose Mora, of Uruguay, committee chairman, told newsmen his group hopes to receive the cooperation of both the Haitian government and people.

After concluding its investigation here, the committee will go to the Dominican Republic, Cuba and Guatemala. It includes representatives of the United States, Colombia, Ecuador, Bolivia and Uruguay.

(ADVANCE) TORONTO, JAN. 23-(AP)-PHILIP D.REED, PRESIDENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, TRIED TONIGHT TO "GUESS" WHAT THE UNITED STATES WILL SPEND IN THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR ON FOREIGN ECONOMIC AID AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE. HE CAME UP WITH THIS ANSWER:

SLIGHTLY UNDER $6,000,000,000 AS AGAINST $6,500,000,000 IN THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 30. THIS MIGHT INCLUDE A CUT OF $1,000,000,000 FROM THIS YEAR'S $5,000,000,000 ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE (MARSHALL AID); AND A SLIGHT INCREASE IN THE CURRENT MILITARY ASSISTANCE OF MORE THAN $1,000,000,000.

JAN 24 1950

REED, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF THE GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, NEW YORK, WAS ELECTED LAST JUNE TO HEAD THE INTERNATIONAL CHAMBER FOR TWO YEARS. HE MADE HIS CALCULATIONS IN AN ADDRESS TO THE ANNUAL DINNER OF THE TORONTO BOARD OF TRADE.

HE SAID THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WILL BE UNDER GREAT PRESSURE TO REDUCE EXPENDITURES.

"TAX REVENUES ARE NOT LIKELY TO BE INCREASED AND THE GOVERNMENT IS CURRENTLY SPENDING AT A RATE WHICH WILL PRODUCE A $5,000,000,000 DEFICIT THIS YEAR. MUCH ATTENTION WILL BE DEVOTED BY SOME TO CUTTING FOREIGN ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID AS THE MOST PAINLESS WAY OF REDUCING SPENDING."

HE PRESENTED WHAT HE TERMED AN "EXTREME ASSUMPTION"--ONE THAT FOREIGN ECONOMIC AID AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE WERE CUT OUT ENTIRELY. THEN:

"IT IS MY CONSIDERED OPINION THAT IF WE DID THIS WE WOULD IN THAT SAME YEAR FIND IT NECESSARY TO ADD A GREATER AMOUNT TO OUR DEFENSE APPROPRIATIONS THAN WE SAVED BY CUTTING OUT THE FOREIGN ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID."

(240) ATLANTIC UNION

WASHINGTON, JAN.23-(AP)-FORMER UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE WILL L. CLAYTON SAID TODAY "STALIN IS WINNING THE COLD WAR."

IF IT CONTINUES, THE YEAR OF 1955 "WILL PROBABLY FIND THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE SURROUNDED BY COMMUNISM," HE TOLD THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

"THE COMMUNISTS ARE AWAKENING THE MASSES, AND MAKE NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT, THE MASSES ARE LISTENING."

CLAYTON SPOKE IN URGING CONGRESS TO ADOPT A RESOLUTION ADVOCATING A FEDERAL UNION OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY NATIONS AND OTHER DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES.

THE FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL IS A VICE PRESIDENT OF THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE, WHICH IS SPONSORING A CONVENTION OF ATLANTIC TREATY NATIONS TO FEDERALIZE INTO AN ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL UNION WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER.

SAYING THAT THE DEMOCRACIES CANNOT CONTINUE TO BEAR THE DEFENSE BURDENS IMPOSED BY COMMUNISM'S COLD WAR TACTICS, CLAYTON DECLARED THE ONLY SOLUTION IS CREATION OF AN ECONOMIC UNION BECAUSE COMMUNISM'S WEAPONS ARE ECONOMIC ONES.

A SINGLE COMPETITIVE ECONOMY, HE SAID, "WOULD MAKE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR SOCIALISM TO CONTINUE LONG."

HE SAID SUCH A FREE FEDERATION WOULD HAVE BUT ONE FOREIGN POLICY, ONE DEFENSE POLICY, ONE CURRENCY AND NO CUSTOMS BARRIERS. IT WOULD SOLVE THE DOLLAR PROBLEM, END "UNBEARABLE" MILITARY SPENDING, AND RESTORE FREE ENTERPRISE.

REP. JAVITS (R-LIB, NY) REMARKED THAT AN ATLANTIC UNION, AS PROPOSED BY CLAYTON, WOULD SIMPLY KEEP THE UNITED NATIONS AS A "PAPER ORGANIZATION."

HE SAID HE WAS FOR KEEPING RUSSIA IN A WORLD ORGANIZATION AND NOT "CHOSING SIDES."

JAVITS SAID HE FAVORED A WORLD FEDERATION.

NIGHT LEAD GENOCIDE

WASHINGTON, JAN.23-(AP)-CHURCH GROUPS AND THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION TODAY URGED THE SENATE TO VOTE U.S. ADHERENCE TO A UNITED NATIONS AGREEMENT TO OUTLAW THE SYSTEMATIC KILLING OR PERSECUTION OF MEMBERS OF ANY RACE.

THIS COUNTRY SHOULD TAKE THE LEAD IN "RAISING THE MORAL STANDARDS OF INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY" BY RATIFYING THE SO-CALLED GENOCIDE AGREEMENT, DEPUTY UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK TOLD A SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE.

THE AGREEMENT, DRAWN BY A U.N. COMMISSION AND APPROVED UNANIMOUSLY BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, DEFINES GENOCIDE AS "A DENIAL OF THE RIGHT OF EXISTENCE OF ENTIRE HUMAN GROUPS, AS HOMICIDE IS THE DENIAL OF THE RIGHT TO LIVE OF INDIVIDUAL HUMAN BEINGS."

IT GREW OUT OF NAZI GERMANY'S PERSECUTION OF JEWS.

THE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN SIGNED BY 43 NATIONS AND RATIFIED BY SEVEN.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN SUBMITTED IT TO THE SENATE LAST JUNE WITH A REQUEST FOR EARLY ACTION. AS A TREATY IT DOES NOT REQUIRE HOUSE ACTION. THE SENATE GROUP OPENED HEARINGS TODAY.

RUSK TOLD THE SUBCOMMITTEE THAT OTHER NATIONS WILL BE TREMENDOUSLY INFLUENCED BY SENATE ACTION AND HE CONTINUED:

"WE ALL KNOW TOO WELL THAT MILLIONS OF HUMAN BEINGS ARE STILL SUBJECTED TO THE DOMINATION OF RUTHLESS TOTALITARIAN REGIMES, AND THAT THE SPECTRE OF GENOCIDE STILL HAUNTS MANKIND.

"IT SHOULD BE MADE CLEAR TO SUCH GOVERNMENTS THAT THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER CIVILIZED COUNTRIES DO NOT CONDONE SUCH CONDUCT NOW ANY MORE THAN IN THE PAST."

RUSK DID NOT MENTION RUSSIA. BUT SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) ASKED WHETHER THE AGREEMENT WOULD APPLY TO THE SOVIET "WHERE MILLIONS OF PEOPLE ARE PUT INTO CONCENTRATION CAMPS AND STARVE TO DEATH."

RUSK ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE COMPACT "DOES NOT MEET THE ENTIRE PROBLEM OF FREEDOM."

JAN 24 1950

A178WX

SOLICITOR GENERAL PHILIP B.PERLMAN SOUGHT TO DISPEL ARGUMENTS THAT U.S. ADHERENCE TO THE AGREEMENT MIGHT VIOLATE THE FEDERAL CONSTITUTION. HE SAID IT IS THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE VIEW THAT THIS COUNTRY HAS FULL AUTHORITY TO ENTER INTO THE COMPACT.

HE DESCRIBED AS UNFOUNDED CONTENTIONS THAT THE AGREEMENT WOULD INFRINGE UPON THE RIGHTS OF THE STATES TO DEAL WITH CRIMINAL OFFENSES.

"THE CONJURING UP OF OBJECTIONS ON CONSTITUTIONAL GROUNDS IS NO MORE THAN THE PARADING OF THEORIES LONG SINCE REJECTED IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF OUR CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESSES," PERLMAN SAID.

IN REPLY TO A QUESTION FROM CHAIRMAN MCMAHON (D-CONN), HE SAID THE PRINCIPAL OBJECTION TO THE CONVENTION COMES FROM THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION'S NINE-MAN COMMITTEE FOR PEACE AND LAW THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS.

HE SAID THE COMMITTEE HAS BEEN CAMPAIGNING AGAINST RATIFICATION THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

ROBERT P.PATTERSON, FORMER SECRETARY OF WAR, LASHED OUT AT THE ABA COMMITTEE FOR WHAT HE CALLED "LEGALISTIC ARGUMENTS" WHICH HAVE "NO SUBSTANCE AND CANNOT BEAR THE LIGHT OF ANALYSIS."

DR.SAMUEL MCREA CAVERT, GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA, SAID THE 27 PROTESTANT AND EASTERN ORTHODOX GROUPS ASSOCIATED WITH THE COUNCIL INSIST ON POSITIVE ACTION TO OUTLAW MASS KILLING OF RACIAL GROUPS.

"THE CHURCHES ARE NO LONGER CONTENT WITH ISSUING MORAL PROTESTS AGAINST SUCH ODIOUS CRIMES," HE SAID.

(500) NIGHT LEAD DENFELD

WASHINGTON, JAN. 23-(AP)-WITH A DISPUTE STILL RAGING OVER WHETHER A COMMISSION AS CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS WAS ISSUED TO ADMIRAL LOUIS E. DENFELD, THE SENATE TENTATIVELY AGREED TODAY TO VOTE TOMORROW ON HIS SUCCESSOR.

RIVAL PARTY LEADERS AGREED THAT A VOTE WILL PROBABLY BE TAKEN NO LATER THAN 4 P.M. (EST) TOMORROW ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NOMINATION OF ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN AS THE NAVY'S TOP UNIFORMED OFFICER.

THE AGREEMENT CAME AFTER SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS, IN A MESSAGE RELAYED TO THE SENATE, CONTENDED THAT ALTHOUGH DENFELD WAS GIVEN A COMMISSION BY A WHITE HOUSE AIDE LAST SEPT. 14 THAT ACT DID NOT CONSTITUTE AN "OFFICIAL ISSUANCE."

SOME REPUBLICAN SENATORS, LED BY SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS), HAVE ATTACKED MR. TRUMAN'S OUSTER OF DENFELD AS ILLEGAL. THEY SAID THE PRESIDENT FIRED HIM ONLY A SHORT TIME AFTER COMMISSIONING HIM FOR A NEW TWO-YEAR TERM. DENFELD WAS RELIEVED AFTER HE CRITICIZED DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE POLICIES AS POTENTIALLY RUINOUS TO THE NAVY.

MATTHEWS GAVE HIS NEW EXPLANATION OF THE DISPUTED COMMISSION IN A LETTER TO CHAIRMAN TYDINGS (D-MD) OF THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE. TYDINGS PLACED IT BEFORE THE SENATE, THUS TOUCHING OFF A NEW BRUSH WITH MCCARTHY.

MATTHEWS HAD TESTIFIED TO THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE THAT DENFELD WAS NOT FIRED, THAT HE WAS JUST PASSED OVER FOR REAPPOINTMENT.

MCCARTHY THEN PRODUCED WHAT HE DESCRIBED AS DENFELD'S COMMISSION FOR A SECOND TERM. HE SAID IT WAS SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT AND MATTHEWS AND WAS GOOD UNTIL 1951.

IN HIS LETTER TO TYDINGS, MATTHEWS SAID HIS TESTIMONY TO THE COMMITTEE WAS AND IS "CORRECT AND TRUTHFUL." HE SAID THE PRESIDENT HAD SIGNED THE NEW COMMISSION AND THAT HIS NAVAL AIDE, REAR ADMIRAL ROBERT L. DENNISON, DELIVERED IT TO DENFELD LAST SEPT. 14 WITHOUT SUPPORTING PAPERS.

MATTHEWS SAID THE NORMAL PROCEDURE CALLED FOR HIM TO SIGN THE COMMISSION FIRST, FOR THE PRESIDENT TO SIGN IT, AND THEN FOR IT TO BE RETURNED TO THE NAVY TO RECEIVE A SEAL AND BE HELD UNTIL THE APPOINTEE TAKES THE OATH OF OFFICE AND ASSUMES HIS DUTIES.

MATTHEWS SAID THESE LATTER STEPS WERE NOT TAKEN IN DENFELD'S CASE AND THAT THEREFORE THE MERE DELIVERY OF THE COMMISSION "WAS NOT AND DID NOT PURPORT TO BE AN OFFICIAL ISSUANCE OF THE COMMISSION."

A39WX

THIS EXPLANATION DID NOT SATISFY MCCARTHY, WHO SERVED IN THE MARINES DURING WORLD WAR II.

HE SAID THE SECRETARY "IS NOT TELLING THE TRUTH OR IS SO INCOMPETENT THAT HE DOESN'T KNOW WHAT GOES ON." MCCARTHY SAID HE THINKS "THE LATTER IS THE CASE."

HE ADDED THAT MATTHEWS' "ONLY QUALIFICATION FOR THE OFFICE WAS HIS SUPPORT OF THE WINNING PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE" IN THE 1948 ELECTION.

TYDINGS HAD REFUSED TO BE INTERRUPTED WHILE HE WAS READING MATTHEWS LETTER.

AS SOON AS HE FINISHED, MCCARTHY JUMPED TO HIS FEET AND UNROLLED WHAT HE SAID WAS THE COMMISSION ISSUED TO DENFELD. HE SAID IT SHOWS A NAVY SEAL HAD BEEN PLACED ON IT. HE ARGUED THAT THIS REFUTED MATTHEWS' CLAIM THE COMMISSION WAS TAKEN DIRECTLY FROM THE WHITE HOUSE TO DENFELD, INSTEAD OF BEING RETURNED TO THE SECRETARY'S OFFICE TO HAVE THE SEAL AFFIXED.

TYDINGS TERMED MCCARTHY'S ARGUMENT A "SHAM BATTLE." HE SAID REGARDLESS OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING ISSUANCE OF THE COMMISSION, THE PRESIDENT AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE ARMED FORCES COULD REMOVE HIM.

"WHAT DIFFERENCE WOULD IT MAKE," TYDINGS SHOUTED, "IF DENFELD HAD TAKEN 10 OATHS OF OFFICE, IF 75 SEALS HAD BEEN PLACED ON THE COMMISSION, OF 450 COMMISSIONS HAD BEEN ISSUED AND IF HE HAD ALREADY SERVED 15 YEARS IN THE POST."

NIGHT LEAD DRAFT

WASHINGTON, JAN. 23-(AP)-CHAIRMAN VINSON (D-GA) OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE SAID TODAY HE THINKS CONGRESS SHOULD HAVE "EXCLUSIVE POWER" TO SAY WHETHER THE DRAFT SHOULD BE PUT INTO EFFECT IF IT IS EXTENDED ON A STANDBY BASIS.

VINSON SUGGESTED SUCH AN EXTENSION LAST WEEK. UNDER IT, THE SELECTIVE SERVICE ACT WOULD BE KEPT ON THE BOOKS BUT THE ARMED FORCES WOULD HAVE NO AUTHORITY TO INDUCT MEN UNLESS CONGRESS PROCLAIMED AN EMERGENCY.

WHEN VINSON FIRST ADVANCED THE PROPOSAL, SECRETARY OD DEFENSE JOHNSON WAS BEFORE THE HOUSE COMMITTEE. WITHOUT COMMITTING HIMSELF TO THE STANDBY DRAFT PROPOSAL, JOHNSON SAID THE PRESIDENT SHOULD ALSO BE GIVEN AUTHORITY TO SET THE MACHINERY IN MOTION.

VINSON HELD OUT TODAY FOR GIVING THE POWER ONLY TO CONGRESS. HE VOICED THIS VIEW AS HIS COMMITTEE HEARD TESTIMONY FROM MILITARY CHIEFS ON A BILL WHICH WOULD EXTEND THE DRAFT FOR THREE YEARS, OR UNTIL JUNE, 1953.

VINSON ASKED SECRETARY OF THE ARMY GRAY AND GEN. J. LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, HOW THEY FELT ABOUT A ONE-YEAR EXTENSION.

BOTH REPLIED THAT IF CONGRESS VOTED A ONE-YEAR EXTENSION, THEY WOULD BE BACK NEXT YEAR TO ASK FOR ANOTHER.

ALTHOUGH ONLY THE ARMY USED THE PRESENT DRAFT, THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAVE ENDORSED ITS EXTENSION. THE JOINT CHIEFS' CHAIRMAN, GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY, WAS PRESENT AT TODAY'S COMMITTEE SESSION BUT DID NOT GIVE DIRECT TESTIMONY. HE WILL RETURN WEDNESDAY.

HISS

WASHINGTON, JAN 23-(AP)-SENATOR CAPEHART (R-IND) SAID TODAY PRESIDENT TRUMAN OUGHT TO ASK SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND SUPREME COURT JUSTICE FELIX FRANKFURTER TO RESIGN BECAUSE OF THEIR PAST CONNECTIONS WITH ALGER HISS.

HISS WAS CONVICTED IN NEW YORK LAST WEEK ON CHARGES THAT HE LIED IN DENYING ANY PART IN THE ALLEGED PASSING OF SECRET STATE DEPARTMENT PAPERS TO A PRE-WAR COMMUNIST SPY RING.

CAPEHART TOLD THE SENATE OTHERS IN THE GOVERNMENT MUST HAVE KNOWN OF HISS' PURPORTED ACTIVITIES, AND HE CALLED ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO "REVEAL THOSE MISSING LINKS OF CONSPIRACY."

CAPEHART SAID THERE WAS "UNDISPUTED EVIDENCE," THAT ACHESON, THEN AN ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE, WAS TOLD OF HISS' ACTIVITIES IN 1939.

"I CALL UPON PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO ASK SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON TO RESIGN," CAPEHART SAID.

HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT JUSTICE FRANKFURTER HAD SPONSORED HISS IN GOVERNMENT POSITIONS AND "EITHER KNEW THAT EVIDENCE EXISTED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT AGAINST HISS, OR HE COULD HAVE KNOWN."

"I FEEL THAT MR.TRUMAN SHOULD ASK JUSTICE FRANKFURTER TO RESIGN HIS POSITION IN ALL DECENCY TO THE HIGH COURT OF WHICH HE IS A MEMBER," CAPEHART SAID.

BY BILL ROSS

WASHINGTON, JAN.23-(AP)-PAUL G.HOFFMAN PLANS TO FLY TO PARIS THIS WEEK FOR IMPORTANT MEETINGS WITH TOP EUROPEAN RECOVERY OFFICIALS.

MARSHALL PLAN AUTHORITES SAID THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATOR WILL PRESS FOR A SPEED-UP FOR FAR REACHING FINANCIAL REFORMS IN COUNTRIES RECEIVING AMERICAN FOREIGN AID DOLLARS.

A MEETING OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC)--THE OVERSEAS COUNTERPART OF ECA IN ADMINISTERING THE MARSHALL PLAN--IS SCHEDULED TO CONSIDER HOFFMAN'S PROPOSALS AND OTHER RECOVERY MATTERS.

OFFICIALS HERE SAID THAT WHILE THE OEEC HAS NOT COMPLETED ITS AGENDA FOR THE FORTHCOMING SESSION, THE COMPLICATED PROBLEM OF A PROPOSED CENTRAL BANK OF EUROPE IS SURE TO BE HIGH ON THE SCHEDULE.

ESTABLISHMENT OF SUCH A CLEARING UNION HAS BEEN GIVEN TOP PRIORITY BY AMERICAN RECOVERY OFFICIALS. THEY WANT THE BANK TO SERVE AS AN INTERNATIONAL CURRENCY EXCHANGE TO HANDLE COMMERCIAL DEALINGS AMONG MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES.

BROAD OUTLINES FOR SETTING UP THE AGENCY ALREADY HAVE BEEN DRAFTED BY EUROPEAN FINANCIAL EXPERTS.

UNDER THESE PROPOSALS, MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS AND ECA WOULD CONTRIBUTE FUNDS TO A POOL ADMINISTERED BY THE CENTRAL BANK. THE BANK WOULD THEN HANDLE CURRENCY EXCHANGE AMONG WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

HOFFMAN CONSISTENTLY HAS URGED EUROPE TO UNDERTAKE SWEEPING FINANCIAL REFORMS AS A MEANS OF LOWERING ITS TRADE BARRIERS. HIS TALKS THIS WEEK WILL BE DESIGNED TO MAP SPECIFIC PROPOSALS FOR THE CENTRAL BANK BASED ON THE EXISTING BROAD PLANS.

THE ECA ADMINISTRATOR IS SAID TO HAVE ASSURED CERTAIN CONGRESSMEN THAT SOME FORM OF CLEARING UNION WILL BE IN OPERATION WITHIN 90 DAYS. HOFFMAN REPORTEDLY DID NOT STATE WHETHER THE PROPOSED ORGANIZATION WOULD ENCOMPASS ALL THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES OR MERELY A SMALL GROUP OF THEM.

CONSIDERABLE OBSTACLES MUST BE OVERCOME HERE AND ABROAD IF THE CENTRAL BANK IS TO BE IN OPERATION WITHIN THE TIME LIMIT LAID DOWN BY HOFFMAN.

THE NATIONS INVOLVED STILL HAVE NOT AGREED ON THE TOTAL FUNDS EACH WILL PAY INTO THE CLEARING UNION POOL. NOR HAVE THEY REACHED SPECIFIC AGREEMENT ON THE AMOUNT OF CREDIT THE BANK WILL GRANT EACH FOR CURRENCY EXCHANGE PURPOSES.

IT IS THESE MATTERS AMONG OTHERS THAT HOFFMAN HOPES TO THRASH OUT THIS WEEK, ECA OFFICIALS SAID. THE RECOVERY DIRECTOR REPORTEDLY WILL ASK OEEC ALSO TO STRENGTHEN ITS ROLE IN THE RECOVERY PROGRAM.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD MCCLOY

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,JAN.23-(AP)-JOHN J.MCCLOY, U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR GERMANY, SAID TONIGHT THAT GERMAN COMMUNIST AND RIGHT-WING NATIONALIST GROUPS "SEEM PREPARED TO GET TOGETHER."

MCCLOY, IN WASHINGTON FOR A WEEK OF POLICY TALKS ON GERMANY, REPORTED IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR NBC BROADCAST ON HIS FIRST SIX MONTHS AS TOP UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE IN GERMANY.

HE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THERE IS INCREASING ACTIVITY BY NATIONALIST GROUPS IN GERMANY, AND HE ADDED:

"THERE IS ALSO THE COMMUNIST FRINGE THAT PLAYS THE SOVIET GAME, AND THERE IS THE PERSISTENT TENDENCY OF BOTH OF THESE FRINGES TO WORK TOGETHER."

BUT HE SAID THE GERMAN PEOPLE AS A WHOLE REJECT THE IDEA OF DICTATORSHIP BY EITHER NAZIS OR COMMUNISTS.

"A VAST MAJORITY OF GERMANS ARE DEEPLY OPPOSED TO MILITARISM AND WAR," HE SAID. "THE GERMAN PEOPLE WANT NO MORE MILITARY ADVENTURES."

DESPITE NEW POWERS GRANTED TO THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT, HE SAID, "WE HAVE AMPLE POWERS TO DEAL WITH ANY DANGEROUS NATIONALIST REVIVAL."

MCCLOY SAID ONE OF THE BRIGHT SPOTS IN GERMANY IS THE GROWTH OF A DEMOCRATIC PRESS.

"THOUGH THERE ARE WEAKNESSES IN IT, THE PRESS WHICH WE HELPED START AFTER HITLER'S COLLAPSE HAS DEMONSTRATED AN INSTINCT TO CATCH POLITICAL ABUSES, TO EXPOSE THEM, AND TO HELP DEVELOP PUBLIC OPINION. IT HAS DEMONSTRATED A GROWING SENSE OF PUBLIC RESPONSIBILITY."

MCCLOY HAD TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE EARLIER THAT HE HAS NO WAY OF KNOWING WHAT LED THE RUSSIANS TO IMPOSE NEW BLOCKADE RESTRICTIONS ON BERLIN.

"IT'S AN ENIGMA," MCCLOY TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE. "I DON'T KNOW WHY THEY ARE GOING THROUGH THIS ARM-TWISTING MANEUVER."

BUT HE SAID THAT ON THE BASIS OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS WITH BERLIN DURING THE DAY, THE SITUATION IS "IMPROVING SOMEWHAT."

HE REFERRED TO RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED BY THE SOVIETS ON ROAD AND RAIL TRAFFIC IN AND OUT OF BERLIN OVER THE WEEKEND AS "ONE OF THOSE FLURRIES ONE HAS TO EXPECT."

MCCLOY ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY FOR A WEEK-LONG ROUND OF TALKS WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT ON GERMAN PROBLEMS. AT HIS FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE SINCE HIS ARRIVAL HE SAID:

1. WEST GERMAN PRODUCTION IS UP APPROXIMATELY TO THE 1938 LEVEL, BUT UNEMPLOYMENT IS RISING AND REFUGEES FROM THE RUSSIAN EASTERN ZONE ARE STILL COMING OVER THE BORDER AT THE RATE OF 1,000 A DAY.

2. HE HOPES IT WILL SOON BE POSSIBLE TO LIFT THE BAN ON FOREIGN INVESTMENTS IN WESTERN GERMANY. HE SAID THIS IS TIED UP WITH THE "EXTREMELY COMPLICATED" SETTLEMENT OF GERMAN PREWAR DEBT QUESTIONS. HE SAID HE DID NOT HAVE ANY SPECIFIC PROPOSALS FOR A MORATORIUM ON THE OLD DEBTS.

3. THE MERGER OF RIGHT-WING ELEMENTS INTO A "GERMAN REICH" PARTY IS NOT PARTICULARLY SIGNIFICANT, SINCE THE GROUP'S MEMBERSHIP IS SMALL AND IT HAS ONLY FIVE VOTES IN THE BONN ASSEMBLY.

"THE GERMAN PEOPLE TODAY ARE NOT DISPOSED TO FAVOR A REVIVAL OF NATIONAL SOCIALISM OR TO ENGAGE IN FURTHER MILITARY ADVENTURES," HE SAID.

KNOWLAND, CRITIC OF ADMINISTRATION POLICY ON CHINA, TOLD THE SENATE ACHESON'S ACTION IS "ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF THE IRON CURTAIN THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS LOWERING AGAINST CONGRESS."
KNOWLAND HAS DEMANDED TO KNOW WHO DRAFTED A MEMO ON DEC.23 WHICH HE SAID INDICATED "FORMOSA COULD NOT BE HELD FOR LONG AND TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO PREPARE THE PUBLIC FOR THE LOSS OF THE ISLAND AND TO STRESS THE FACT THAT IT WAS NOT NEEDED FOR THE STRATEGIC DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES."
THE CALIFORNIA SENATOR HAS CONTENDED THIS MEMO WAS A PART OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S PLAN TO CUT OFF FURTHER AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT, WHICH HAD FLED TO FORMOSA.
PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS BARRED ANY FURTHER MILITARY AID TO THE NATIONALISTS.
KNOWLAND SAID HE HAD BEEN DENIED THE NAMES OF THE AUTHORS OF THE FORMOSA REPORT BY GEORGE KENNAN, UNDERSECRETARY. ACHESON WROTE KNOWLAND HE FULLY AGREES "WITH THE POSITION TAKEN BY MR.KENNAN."

FOLO BERLIN (190)
NEW LONDON, CONN., JAN 23-(AP)-COLONEL WILLIAM T. BABCOCK, WHO DIED TODAY IN BERLIN WHERE HE WAS DEPUTY UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER, WAS CAPTA (TANTAMOUNT TO CHIEF) OF THE NEW LONDON POLICE DEPARTMENT FROM APRIL 1, 1933, UNTIL FEBRUARY 24, 1941, WHEN HE WENT ON MILITARY LEAVE.
"NEWS OF HIS DEATH COMES AS A GREAT SHOCK. WE HAD BEEN TOGETHER A LOT," SAID POLICE SERGEANT MICHAEL DORSEY, WHO JOINED THE DEPARTMENT THE SAME DAY AS BABCOCK, MARCH 1, 1920.
BABCOCK HAD MADE TWO VISITS TO NEW LONDON SINCE THE END OF HOSTILITIES IN EUROPE.
LATE IN 1946 HE SUED MARY MAGDALENE BABCOCK OF THIS CITY FOR DIVORCE, CHARGING CRUELTY OVER A PERIOD OF 10 YEARS, BUT SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE KENNETH WYNNE DENIED THE DECREE ON DECEMBER 10, 1946.
MRS. BABCOCK HAS STEADFASTLY REFUSED TO DISCUSS HER HUSBAND OR HER MARITAL STATUS SINCE IT BECAME KNOWN RECENTLY THAT COLONEL BABCOCK HAD BEEN MARRIED IN EUROPE. HER ATTORNEY, JOHN J. MCGARRY, SAID SHE NEVER HAD RECEIVED NOTICE OF DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS UNDERTAKEN ELSEWHERE THAN IN CONNECTICUT.
BESIDES HIS FORMER WIFE, BABCOCK LEAVES A SON HERE AND TWO MARRIED DAUGHTERS.

COLUMBIA, S.C., JAN.23-(AP)-FOURTEEN MEMBERS OF THE JAPANESE DIET (LEGISLATURE) AGREED TODAY THAT JAPAN WAS WELL ON ITS WAY TOWARD SOLVING ITS "BIGGEST POSTWAR PROBLEM," BECOMING A DEMOCRATIC COUNTRY.
THE JAPANESE ARE INSPECTING THE WORKING OF GOVERNMENT IN THIS COUNTRY. THEIR TOUR IS SPONSORED BY THE U.S. ARMY.
THEY CALLED ON GOV. J.STROM THURMOND AND MEMBERS OF THE COLUMBIA CITY COUNCIL TODAY. TOMORROW THEY WILL BEGIN A THREE-DAY VISIT TO THE SOUTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY. THEY ALSO WILL VISIT THE NEW YORK AND MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURES.
WHEN THEY RETURN THEY WILL REPORT TO THE DIET AND TO THE JAPANESE PEOPLE THEIR IMPRESSIONS OF AMERICAN STATE AND NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.

HEADING THE DELEGATION IS TAKESHI YAMAZAKI, 63, OF IBARAGI PREFECTURE. HE IS SERVING HIS EIGHTH TERM IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND IS A FORMER SPEAKER.
TAKIZO MATSUMOTO, 48, A HARVARD GRADUATE FROM HIROSHIMA, SERVED AS INTERPRETER AT A NEWS CONFERENCE TODAY.
HE POOLED DELEGATION MEMBERS' REPLIES TO QUESTIONS INTO THESE STATEMENTS:
THE "EARLY DEMOCRATIZATION OF OUR COUNTRY" IS JAPAN'S BIGGEST POSTWAR PROBLEM. "WE ARE WELL ON OUR WAY" TOWARD THIS GOAL. "WE MUST FIRST SOLVE OUR FOOD PROBLEMS, THEN OUR EDUCATIONAL PROBLEMS. THIS WILL TAKE FIVE TO SIX YEARS."
INSTEAD OF ANY GENERAL RESENTMENT OF AMERICAN OCCUPATION TROOPS AND POLICIES, "THE JAPANESE ARE GRATEFUL FOR THE GOOD UNITED STATES POLICY" WITHOUT WHICH "JAPAN COULD NOT HAVE STARTED ITS ECONOMIC PROGRAM OF RECOVERY."
REPATRIATION OF RUSSIAN-HELD JAPANESE SOLDIERS IS DESIRED BY THE ENTIRE NATION. "WE WOULD BE WILLING TO SHARE OUR BREAD AND LIVE IN POVERTY, IF NECESSARY, TO GET THEM (THE SOLDIERS) BACK."
THE JAPANESE "RIGHT TO SELF-RESPECT" HAS BEEN "VERIFIED" BY GEN. MACARTHUR. THERE IS LITTLE SENTIMENT FOR REBUILDING THE JAPANESE ARMY AND NAVY. "THAT SELF-RESPECT CAN BE MAINTAINED" IN TIME OF INTERNATIONAL CRISIS "BY STANDING CLOSE TO THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER COUNTRIES THAT HAVE DEMOCRACY."
JAPANESE WOMEN, ONLY RECENTLY GIVEN THE RIGHT TO VOTE, ARE STRONGLY AGAINST ANOTHER WAR "BECAUSE THEY LOST THEIR SONS IN THE LAST ONE."
"WE CAN TAKE BACK A GREAT DEAL OF YOUR AMERICAN DEMOCRACY X X X BUT THE INTERNAL SITUATION IN JAPAN AND IN THE UNITED STATES IS QUITE DIFFERENT. THE STANDARD OF LIVING IS SO MUCH HIGHER HERE, FOR EXAMPLE."
COMMUNISM IS "UNDER CONTROL" IN JAPAN. A "TEMPORARY CHAOTIC CONDITION" AFTER THE WAR "ACTED AS A FEEDING GROUND FOR COMMUNISM."
A REPORTER ASKED: "WHAT IMPRESSED YOU MOST IN THIS COUNTRY?"
"YOUR AUTOMOBILES, YOUR HOTEL ACCOMODATIONS, YOUR NEON SIGNS," WAS THE REPLY.
"AMERICA IS A REALLY DEMOCRATIC NATION," MATSUMOTO TRANSLATED FOR SEVERAL DELEGATION MEMBERS. "EVERYONE TOLD US TO OBSERVE NOT ONLY THE GOOD POINTS, BUT THE BAD ONES, TOO."
THE DELEGATION ARRIVED IN SAN FRANCISCO LAST MONDAY. ITS MEMBERS VISITED SACRAMENTO, LOS ANGELES AND NEW ORLEANS EN ROUTE HERE.
THEY WILL BE IN BOSTON JAN. 28-FEB. 5; IN ALBANY, N.Y., FEB. 5-9; IN NEW YORK CITY FEB. 10-15, AND IN WASHINGTON, D.C., FEB. 15-MARCH 1.

NIGHT LEAD BRIDGES
SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 23-(AP)-HARRY BRIDGES' LAWYERS SET OUT TODAY TO SHOW THAT THE GOVERNMENT'S PERJURY CASE AGAINST THE WATERFRONT LABOR LEADER AND TWO OF HIS AIDES WAS BASED ON "LIES, IMAGERY AND INSANITY."

IN A LONG OPENING STATEMENT, JAMES MARTIN MACINNIS UNDERTOOK TO REPRESENT THE PRESIDENT OF THE CIO LONGSHOREMEN'S UNION AND HIS TWO CO-DEFENDANTS AS INNOCENT MEN.

HE CLAIMED BRIDGES DID NOT COMMIT PERJURY IN DENYING COMMUNIST MEMBERSHIP AT A 1945 NATURALIZATION HEARING; IT WAS THE TRUTH.

THEREFORE, HE ADDED, HENRY SCHMIDT AND J. R. ROBERTSON, LONGSHORE UNION OFFICIALS, WERE NOT GUILTY OF THE CONSPIRACY CHARGES LODGED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

THE LAWYER ALSO TOLD THE FEDERAL COURT JURY:

"WE WILL SHOW YOU THERE HAS BEEN PERJURY BY THE PROSECUTION WITNESSES."

".....WE CAN CHARACTERIZE THE CASE OF THE PROSECUTION AS ONE OF MISTAKES, LIES, IMAGERY, FALSIFICATIONS AND INSANITY."

NUMEROUS GOVERNMENT WITNESSES HAVE TESTIFIED BRIDGES JOINED THE COMMUNIST PARTY; THAT HE ATTENDED PARTY MEETINGS; AND THAT HE BECAME A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNISTS' CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

ONE OF THESE WITNESSES, JOHN H. (BIG JOHN) SCHOMAKER, ADMITTED FORMER COMMUNIST, DESCRIBED BRIDGES AS A DUES PAYING, CARD CARRYING PARTY AFFAILIATE WHO TOOK COMMUNIST ORDERS ON HOW TO RUN HIS CIO UNION.

ALL THREE DEFENDANTS WILL TAKE THE STAND. BRIDGES WILL APPEAR LAST.

MACINNIS ADMITTED BRIDGES HAD ACCEPTED COMMUNIST AID IN THE 1934 SAN FRANCISCO GENERAL STRIKE.

"HARRY BRIDGES COULD NOT RENOUNCE THE AID OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN 1934," MACINNIS SAID. "HE NEED NOT DENOUNCE THE COMMUNIST PARTY TODAY.

"I WILL SHOW YOU," SAID MACINNIS, "THAT HARRY BRIDGES AND THE ILWU WERE ACTIVATED BY LOVE OF HUMANITY AND LOVE OF AMERICA."

SAN FRANCISCO,JAN.23-(AP)-A MOTHER WHOSE ONLY SON WAS CUT DOWN BY A SNIPER'S BULLET IN GERMANY HAD SOME ENCOURAGEMENT TODAY IN HER EFFORT TO ADOPT A STATELESS YOUTH TO TAKE HIS PLACE.

SHE IS MRS.MARY LEWRY, A NATIVE OF SIBERIA WHERE SHE MARRIED AN AMERICAN ARMY SERGEANT IN 1919.

THE BOY SHE SEEKS TO HELP IS NICHOLAS DRUJINENKO-NICOLATE, 19, A NATIVE OF SHANGHAI. NICHOLAS STOWED AWAY ON A FREIGHTER TO ESCAPE COMMUNIST CHINA. IN 1945 HE REFUSED SOVIET CITIZENSHIP AND NOW RED CHINA REFUSES TO ADMIT HIM. U.S. IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES HAVE TWICE REFUSED HIM ADMISSION HERE.

MRS.LEWRY SOUGHT TO ADOPT NICHOLAS. IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES SAID IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE.

MRS.LEWRY APPEALED TO SENATOR WILLIAM F.KNOWLAND (R-CALIF). HE ASSURED HER HE WOULD DO ALL HE COULD TO HELP.

SHE SAID HER SON SUGGESTED WHEN HE LEFT FOR GERMANY, WHERE HE WAS KILLED IN 1945, THAT SHE "TAKE IN ANOTHER BOY" IF ANYTHING HAPPENED TO HIM.

NEW YORK, JAN.23-(AP)-BERNARD M.BARUCH TODAY ADVOCATED A THREE-POINT PREPAREDNESS PROGRAM AS "THE SUREST DETERRENT AGAINST ANOTHER WAR."

WRITING IN THE FEBRUARY ISSUE OF THE READER'S DIGEST, BARUCH CALLED FOR LEGAL ENACTMENT OF A COMPLETE "STAND-BY MOBILIZATION PLAN," THE FORMATION OF A PERMANENT MOBILIZATION AGENCY AND A CONSTANT INVENTORY OF NATIONAL RESOURCES IN RELATIONS TO THE NEEDS OF A POSSIBLE WAR.

UNDER BARUCH'S PROPOSAL, MOBILIZATION PLANS WOULD STAND READY TO GO INTO INSTANT OPERATION UPON JOINT PROCLAMATION BY CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENT.

BARUCH, WHO HAS BEEN ADVISOR TO SEVERAL PRESIDENTS, ALSO WROTE THAT FIVE DAYS BEFORE PEARL HARBOR JAPANESE AMBASSADOR TO THE U.S. KURUSU ASKED BARUCH TO URGE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TO TRY TO AVERT WAR WITH AN APPEAL TO EMPEROR HIROHITO.

KURUSU WAS QUOTED AS SAYING: "THE WAR LORDS IN MY COUNTRY ARE SITTING WITH A PISTOL IN EACH HAND READY TO SHOOT. THE ONLY CHANCE OF AVERTING WAR IS FOR THE PRESIDENT TO APPEAL DIRECTLY TO EMPEROR HIROHITO."

BARUCH SAID KURUSU NODDED WHEN HE ASKED HIM: "YOU KNOW IF YOUR COUNTRY GOES TO WAR WE WILL CRUSH YOU?"

SAYING HE RELAYED KURUSU'S MESSAGE, BARUCH ADDED: "EVEN WHILE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WAS PREPARING HIS MESSAGE TO THE EMPEROR, JAPANESE FORCES WERE MOVING INTO POSITION FOR THEIR LIGHTNING STRIKE."

BARUCH SAID HE IS REVEALING NOW THESE LAST HOUR EFFORTS TO RESTRAIN JAPAN'S WAR MAKERS "TO HELP DRAMATIZE A PROBLEM THE UNITED STATES MUST SOLVE." IT IS THIS:

"TWENTY-TWO MILLION LIVES AND MORE THAN A THOUSAND BILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF THE WORLD'S RESOURCES WERE EXPENDED IN PROVING HOW STUPIDLY RECKLESS WERE THE GERMAN AND JAPANESE GAMBLES ON AGGRESSION.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.23-(AP)-MAJ.GEN. FREDERICK H.OSBORN, RESIGNING AS UNITED STATES DEPUTY ON THE UNITED NATIONS ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, SAID TONIGHT CONTROL OF THE ATOM WILL COME AFTER THE KREMLIN DECIDES TO COOPERATE WITH THE WORLD.

OSBORN'S RESIGNATION, HANDED IN SEVERAL DAYS AGO, WAS ANNOUNCED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN. IT IS EFFECTIVE JAN.31.

OSBORN SAID HERE HE WOULD DO SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH, STUDY POPULATIONS OF THE WORLD AND KEEP HIS HAND IN THE ATOMIC PROBLEM AS AN ADVISOR AND CONSULTANT TO THE U.S. DELEGATION.

AFTER 10 YEARS IN GOVERNMENT SERVICE, SEVEN IN THE U.S. ARMY AS DIRECTING OFFICER OF THE INFORMATION AND EDUCATION SERVICE AND THREE YEARS ON THE ATOMIC PROBLEM, OSBORN SAID HE FEELS THE WORLD IS STILL IN FOR A TIME OF TRIAL. HE SAID AMERICANS WOULD BE DELUDING THEMSELVES IF THEY FEEL AN EASY TIME IS AHEAD.

FOR THREE YEARS HE HAS TRIED ALL METHODS HE COULD THINK OF TO FIND AGREEMENT WITH THE SOVIET UNION ON WORLD ATOMIC CONTROL. BUT HE NEVER CAME CLOSE TO SUCH AN AGREEMENT.

"I DO NOT THINK THE SOVIET UNION WILL COME TO AGREEMENT ON THE CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY UNTIL THEY (THE LEADERS) REASSESS THEIR RELATIONS WITH THE WORLD AS A WHOLE AND DECIDE THAT THEY WANT TO LIVE IN A COOPERATIVE AND FRIENDLY WORLD," OSBORN SAID.

"I FEEL CERTAIN THAT UNTIL THAT TIME THEY ARE NOT WILLING TO OPEN UP RUSSIA TO THE MINIMUM EXTENT NECESSARY FOR REAL CONTROL."

ONE OF THE MAIN OBSTACLES TO AGREEMENT IS THE AMERICAN DEMAND FOR THE SOVIET UNION TO OPEN ITS LANDS TO FULL AND UNHINDERED INSPECTION OF ALL ATOMIC MATTERS. THE RUSSIANS HAVE REPLIED THEY FAVOR INSPECTION BUT THEY HAVE NOT SATISFIED THE AMERICANS AS TO HOW FAR THEY WOULD GO.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID JOHN C.ROSS, U.S. DEPUTY ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL, WOULD SERVE AS ACTING DEPUTY ON THE ATOMIC COMMISSION. ROSS AND OSBORN HAVE BEEN DEPUTIES TO WARREN R.AUSTIN, CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE.

SIX-POWER ATOMIC TALKS WERE DISRUPTED LAST THURSDAY BY A RUSSIAN WALKOUT OVER THE CHINA QUESTION. THESE TALKS HAVE BEEN HANDLED BY JOHN D.HICKERSON, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE. 1950

U.S. Expected To Give 70 B-29's To Britain

Raw Materials Also To Be Sent Under Arms-Aid Pact Due To Be Signed Soon

London, Jan. 24 (AP)—The United States will give Britain about 70 Superfortresses (B-29's) and some sorely needed raw materials under an arms-aid agreement now nearly complete.

Diplomatic officials who reported this tonight said the agreement probably will be signed in Washington this week end.

The Anglo-American pact is one of eight being worked out under the United States $1,000,000,000 military aid program for the nations of the North Atlantic Alliance.

Total value of the aid Britain expects to get was said to be around $30,000,000.

Difficulties Ironed Out

Britain recently objected to some of the conditions which the United States wanted in the accord.

The informants said these difficulties have now been ironed out.

Flow of arms to Europe will begin once the pacts have been signed and President Truman approves the strategic plans already drafted for defending the Atlantic area.

A new meeting of the Atlantic Defense Council—made up of the defense ministers of the twelve partners—is due in the spring.

to Britain, but the British are giving us a lot of help too. The Royal Air Force supports us and if we took away the support and had to provide it ourselves we calculate it would cost us $3,600,000 a year. And if you add traveling and the movement of troops it would go up to $5,000,000."

Attlee Kin Accused Of Housing Favors

London, Jan. 24 (AP)—A report to a London borough council charged tonight that Prime Minister Attlee's personal and official families had been favored in housing allocations. The charges were promptly denied.

The report, made to the Wandsworth borough council, said Attlee's sister, Miss Mary Attlee, and three Labor Members of Parliament received public housing allocations ahead of a long waiting list.

Miss Attlee, a social worker, and the three M.P.'s all said there was no truth in the statement that government pressure had been used to obtain housing for them.

Thirteen Labor members of the council who are in the minority walked out of the meeting when the report from a subcommittee was accepted by the Conservative party majority and was referred to the full committee for possible action.

General Hails Britain's Aid To Air Force

London, Jan. 24 (AP)—Britain's help to the United States Air Force is worth $5,000,000 a year, Maj. Gen. Leon W. Johnson, commanding the Air Force 3d Air Division in England, told American business men here today.

In a speech to the American Chamber of Commerce, he declared:

"We talk about the help we give measures.

Only six to eight German trucks an hour got past the Russian guards on the way to Berlin this morning, compared with the ten to twelve trucks that were getting through hourly last night.

West-bound trucks from Berlin, however, were passing this border point between the British and Soviet zones without difficulty.

Frontier Cleared

German and Allied military trains also cleared the frontier on schedule.

The Soviet frontier guards imposed their slow-down on truck traffic to Berlin last week end, apparently in retaliation for a short-lived American move to take over the vacant part of a Berlin railway building.

After the first clamp-down, in which American trains were held up for as long as five hours and trucks jammed up at the border, the Russians appeared to be easing off later yesterday.

It could not be determined whether the new squeeze was due to tightening of the "little blockade" or merely to the change of Russian guards without new orders.

Russians Tighten Traffic Controls In Germany

Helmstedt, Germany, Jan. 24 (AP). The Russians appeared today to tighten their grip on Berlin-bound truck traffic after a slight relaxation of their "little blockade"

Reds Begin Halting Cars At Helmstedt

Helmstedt, Germany, Jan. 24—(AP)—The Russians began turning back Berlin-bound passenger cars carrying bundles and marketable merchandise at this checkpoint on the Autoban tonight.

Continue Truck Check

At the same time they continued their slow-motion checking of East-bound truck traffic through the second day.

West-bound truck traffic from Berlin was going through without a hitch. So was passenger and freight train traffic.

But trucks coming from Berlin were fewer, partly because there are fewer getting through from the West. Most of those making the return trip were empties.

Also the two-mile-long queue on the west side of the barrier was not growing so rapidly. There was evidence many shippers were waiting to see what happened.

There still was no official explanation for the slow-down blockade. Some Allied officials in Berlin believed it was a reprisal for seizure last week of the Soviet-supervised Railway Administration Building in the American sector—a seizure by West Berlin police that was rescinded four days later by the U. S. Berlin commandant, Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor.

Some German customs officials said the slow-down appeared due simply to the inexperience of new squads of checkers, who were following all old orders and instructions to the letter.

Truck drivers whose documents had a single letter mis-typed, a number corrected, or a comma erased were turned back on the grounds that their papers were not in order.

Saw Guards Doing Nothing

One truck driver, sent back from the checkpoint, said he saw the Soviet zone guards sitting in their guardhouse doing nothing. When he asked why they did not work faster he said he was told "we are not allowed to."

The tempo of the checking changed with the changing of guards. For the first 24 hours about three trucks an hour were passed. Last night it speeded up to 10 or 12. It was back to six or eight this morning. Later in the day 14 trucks were checked in an hour, and of these four were turned back.

Normally, about 30 are passed in an hour.

Until tonight passenger cars were passed without difficulty. Then the guards began ordering those that had bundles that looked marketable turned back unless they had papers strictly in order.

One of the 100 or more trucks waiting to get through carried a load of horses destined for Berlin's butcher shops. Another carried pigs.

The drivers accepted the delay philosophically. Some took hotel rooms to get some sleep while assistants guarded the loads. Others warmed their hands and feet at tiny bonfires. Snack bars selling hot drinks and sandwiches did a rushing business.

West Germany Retreats On Saar Issue

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 24 (AP)—West Germany declared today she considers good relations between her and France too vital to Europe's unity to be endangered by the explosive Saar question.

In line with this, the West German Cabinet announced its decision to continue a policy of close cooperation with the Western Allies—particularly France.

The announcement, made in a press release, said:

"The establishment of good relations between France and Germany and the promotion of the European idea are, according to its (the Government's) conviction, of such decisive importance that everybody concerned must contribute to avoiding any disturbances by the Saar question of the present promising development.

No "Nationalistic Efforts"

"The Federal Government agrees that everything must be done to make it clear to the German people that their future is identical with the future of Europe and that, therefore, one must decidedly oppose any nationalistic efforts, no matter of what origin."

West Germany and France have been at loggerheads for some time over the coal-rich Saarland. The French stand for permanent detachment of the valley from Germany. The Germans oppose this and claim rights in the Saar coal mines as prewar German property. France, needing Saar coal, has linked the Saar's economy with her own and given it semi-autonomy.

Dehler Statement

The Nationalist question also was discussed, in connection with criticism of international rule of the Ruhr, alleged to have been made by Dr. Thomas Dehler, German Justice Minister.

Dehler at a Free Democratic party (Rightist) rally in Hamburg Sunday allegedly criticized the Ruhr statute and the Western Allies.

Andre Francois-Poncet, French high commissioner, lodged a protest yesterday over Dehler's alleged remarks.

Later Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in a statement to the press rebuked his Justice Minister.

Germans Hush Saar Demands

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 24 (AP)—The West German Government tonight called for an end to nationalistic agitation on the Saar question in the interest of European unity.

But an official spokesman said the Government had made no concession on the question.

Qualified Allied sources said they believed Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Cabinet had decided on a change in tactics, but not on a retreat.

Viewed As Boomerang

Political circles said they interpreted the decision as meaning that the publicly-conducted campaign for a German voice in the future of the coal-bearing valley, which is attached economically to France, had boomeranged on the Germans by antagonizing Allied opinion. These circles said German efforts would be switched to the less public medium of diplomatic channels.

The German decision was made public in a statement put out after a Cabinet meeting. It said:

"The establishment of good relations between France and Germany and the promotion of the European idea are, according to its (the Government's) conviction, of such decisive importance that everybody concerned must contribute to avoiding all disturbances by the Saar question of the present promising development.

Future Tied To Europe

"The Federal Government agrees that everything must be done to make it clear to the German people that their future is identical with the future of Europe and that, therefore, one must decidedly oppose any nationalistic efforts, no matter of what origin."

Tension over the Saar arose about ten days ago when the Germans, by political speeches, press comment and interviews, protested reported French plans to negotiate long-term leases of the coal mines in the French-occupied territory. The Germans said this threatened to sever the Saar from Germany. The region already has its own government under a French High Commissioner.

German Housing Plan Approved

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 24 (AP)—Draft of a $6,500,000 program to build 250,000 new homes in West Germany this year was approved today by the Bonn Cabinet.

New Red Uranium Field Reported

Luxembourg, Germany, Jan. 24 (AP)—The Russians were reported today to have begun digging uranium from a new field in the Soviet zone of Germany.

Five German workmen, who said they fled from the mine, described it as located in the Harz Mountains, about 25 miles from the British zone border.

Accidents Mar Opening

Previously reported uranium mines in the Soviet zone were located in the Erzgeberge region near the Czechoslovak border.

The five refugés told British and West German officials that work began last Friday near the railway station at Steinerne Renne and near the town of Wernigerode.

Two accidents have marred efforts to get the mine into production of the ore used in atomic science, the men said.

Four men were killed by a mine-shaft cave-in and two by an explosion of a hydrogen bottle, they reported.

2,500 Workers Expected

They said the mine's labor force was expected to reach 2,500, including prisoners sentenced as criminals, but not including German war prisoners.

The refugees said the new mining area was being guarded by 800 German "people's police" and that billets were being requisitioned for 500 Russian soldiers.

Hopes For More Freedom

Saarbruecken, Germany, Jan. 24 (AP)—Premier Johannes Hoffman of the Saar today expressed hope negotiations with France would give his Government freedom in legislation and administration.

At the same time, with an eye on Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of western Germany, he said the talks would be entirely a French-Saar affair.

The negotiations are expected to culminate February 7 in the signing of four conventions. These would regulate ownership and development of the Saar coal mines, operation of the Saar railroads, define the French-Saar economic union, and fix conditions under which Frenchmen may work here and Saarlanders work in France.

Further, negotiations may abolish the post of the French high commissioner, who now has veto rights over Saar legislation.

Anglo-Austrian Trade On Cash Basis

Vienna, Jan. 24 (AP)—Austria and Great Britain have agreed to put their trade on a cash-and-carry basis, the Government announced today.

Practically all previous trade between the two countries has been on a barter basis.

The new clearing agreement, signed here this week, is expected to greatly expand and regularize the flow of goods between the two countries.

A one-year trade pact is now being worked out here to supplement the clearing agreement.

Danger Of Jail Seen For Czech Priests

Prague, Jan. 24 (AP)—High Catholic sources reported today that there is a danger that the majority of faithful Roman Catholic priests in Czechoslovakia will be jailed in the next few months.

The process is already under way, they said, adding that not a single day passes but some are put to trial and jailed.

At the same time, these sources denied that priests were willingly signing loyalty oaths to the Communist-led Government, as claimed by the controlled press.

Sign Unwillingly

Many priests sign with great unwillingness and only after they had unsuccessfully tried to add the reservation that they were taking the oath only as it does not violate the laws of God and the church and the natural rights of man, the sources said in a statement to Western reporters.

Three hundred priests have been reported to have been arrested for the opposition.

At first the nation's bishops told their priests not to swear the oath of allegiance. Later they gave the priests permission to obey the laws—in order to stay out of jail—and to take the pledge of allegiance—but with reservations.

Again Condemned

Then in a memorandum to the Government early last month, the bishops again condemned the legislation as against the laws "of God and man" and warned that their enforcement might lead to religious strife.

The Czech Army newspaper Obranu Lidu said "all attempts by the Vatican to prevent Czechoslovak Roman Catholic priests from taking the oath of allegiance have failed.

"The priests of all denominations took the oath of loyalty to the republic," the newspaper said. "The clergy rejected the efforts of the Vatican and the high clergy because they could not agree with the postwar policy of the Vatican, which is now in the service of the warmongers."

Most Czech Priests Facing Prison Soon

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 24—(AP)—High Catholic sources said today the majority of "good and faithful" Czechoslovak priests may be jailed in a few months and "all depends on God's Providence, which directs everything."

Priest-a-day Rate

Already, said these informants, not a day passes but some priest is put to trial and jailed.

Mainly, they are priests who have read pastoral letters of their bishops in the church, an act declared illegal by the Communist government, or who have refused to sign without reservation the prescribed oath of loyalty to the government.

In their latest pronouncement, the bishops condemned legislation prescribing the oath and giving the government control of the church. They warned that its enforcement might lead to religious strife.

Catholic sources have reported 300 of Czechoslovakia's 7,000 priests have been arrested. About 9,000,000 of Czechoslovakia's 13,000,000 population are Catholic.

"Life is becoming still harder," the sources said in their statement today. "Every move of the church is being watched and its activities hindered. But the spirits of the priests is, on the whole, good. All are aware of the danger threatening."

These sources disputed an assertion in the government-controlled press that the nation's priests were willingly taking the oath of allegiance despite "all attempts by the Vatican" to prevent them.

Unwilling Signers

Many sign with great unwillingness, the sources said, and only after they had unsuccessfully tried to add the reservation proposed by the bishops that they were taking it only insofar as it does not violate the laws of God and the church and natural right of man."

In their statement the sources said the government's effort to destroy the Catholic Church here is growing sharper in these ways:

1. The government is preparing to abolish a great number of church rectories, claiming they are not useful.

2. The independent Czechoslovak Church is preparing a large- scale membership campaign with the help of the government, in an apparent effort to supplant the Roman Catholic Church. The Czechoslovak Church broke away from Rome after the first World War and now has about 1,000,000 members.

3. The government is pursuing its campaign to persuade prospective brides and grooms not to be married in church.

New laws say a marriage is legal only if a civil ceremony is first performed before ofifcials of the district committee, a local government body. Although church weddings may be performed afterwards, church sources said government officials discourage this.

Greece Puts A Price On Heads Of 2 Bandits

Athens, Greece, Jan. 24 (AP)—The under secretary for public order, Maj. Gen. Stylianos Manidakis, today outlawed two right-wing Peloponnesus bandits and set a reward of $3,334 on their heads.

One of the bandits, George Kamarineas, had established virtually his own government in isolated sections of Sparta. He was reported last year to have hitched two wounded women to the rear of his jeep and killed them by dragging them through several mountain villages. He accused them of aiding the leftists.

Manidakis, who is now touring the Peloponnesus, warned extremists against interference in the national elections, March 5.

Confers With Chiang

Yen conferred with Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek last night on his plans.

War dispatches reported that Nationalist planes attacked the lower Yangtze River between Shanghai and Kiangyin yesterday. Several small ships were reported sunk.

On the Island of Hainan, off the South China coast, fourteen persons were arrested at Hoihou on suspicion of being Communists.

The Nationalists' Central News Agency said 200,000 Chinese Red troops were massed along the Kwangsi province border for an invasion of French Indo-China. The agency previously said Indo-China had been invaded by the Reds. The French denied it.

Unrest Reported Among Formosan Draftees

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 24 (AP)—Formosans conscripted into the Chinese Nationalist Army are showing much unrest.

At least one hunger strike has been staged. A number have been detained by Nationalist authorities, charged with stirring unrest in training camps.

Letters complaining of bad quarters, poor clothing, poor food and poor sanitation have been received from the first Formosans to enter the Nationalist camps. The letters were sent from the recruits to the provincial Peoples Council.

The Nationalists have ordered an investigation of their complaints.

35,000 To Enter Army

Most of the complaints originated in a training camp near Tainan, on the southwest coast of Formosa. The camp was established by American-trained Gen. Sun Li-jen, defense commander of Formosa.

The Formosans are the first of 35,000 scheduled to enter Nationalist Army training by the end of May.

Coupled with political unrest among the islanders and the open dislike many have shown for the mainland Chinese, the problem could become very serious for the Nationalists.

On the political front, Premier Yen Hsi-shan, old warlord, planned further slashes in Government personnel to prune expenses. He may eliminate several ministries alto-

Outlawed Dutch Officer Hunted After Raid

Jakarta, U.S.I., Jan. 24 (AP)—Indonesian police were enlisted under the new Federal Army today in a vast man hunt for an outlawed Dutch captain whose forces made a hit-run raid on the big West Java city of Bandoeng yesterday.

Premier Mohamed Hatta said orders have gone out to arrest the Dutch rebel leader, R. P. P. (Turk) Westerling, whose raiders seized key points in Bandoeng early yesterday but later withdrew. About 600 are said to have participated in the raid.

Neutral military sources in Bandoeng estimate that the outlaws killed 360 Indonesian soldiers and civilians.

"More Than Rebel"

Hatta said: "We do not know where Westerling is, but we certainly will try to arrest him. He is more than a rebel. He is an enemy."

Less than two weeks ago, Westerling was reported to have visited Jakarta, but at the time the U.S.I.

hesitated to arrest him. Hatta then said that if Westerling followed out his promise to start trouble, he would be nabbed.

A top Indonesian military chief today blamed the Bandoeng raid on a "mutiny" of native soldiers in the Dutch Army.

A Dutch Army spokesman conceded that 300 Indonesians in the Dutch Army had deserted. But he denied a statement that the raiders were "mainly from the Dutch Army."

Friendship Damaged

It was evident the flareup involving the Dutch Army at Bandoeng seriously damaged the friendship carefully built between the two countries in independence negotiations.

An official U.S.I. communiqué today said the situation in West Java was still "troubled and confusing."

The raid on Bandoeng, with a population of about 180,000, was the first outright revolt against the month-old United States of Indonesia.

Westerling had issued an ultimatum that he would revolt unless his Army was recognized as the official law-enforcement agency in West Java.

Fanatical Moslems

Westerling is known to have many Indonesian deserters from the Dutch Army in his command and is reported also to have support of fanatical Moslem bands and some Communists.

The Dutch Army spokesman at Jakarta said that Dutch troops at Bandoeng took no part in the fighting, but patrolled the streets after Westerling's raiders withdrew. He said intervention of Maj. Gen. E. Engles, Dutch Army commander at Bandoeng, resulted in withdrawal of the raiders.

"It was the intervention of Engles with one of Westerling's group commanders, a Dutch police inspector, that resulted in withdrawal," the spokesman said.

The spokesman said that almost all soldiers who deserted from Dutch Army units in the Bandoeng area had given themselves up or had been recaptured. He said they would be flown to Jakarta for trial. It was not proved that all participated in the raid, he said.

Ten Arrested

Ten persons, including two Dutchmen, were arrested in Dakarta for questioning in connection with the raid and possible connections with Westerling. The Dutchmen were John Ritman, formerly head spokesman for the Dutch Government until the Indonesian state was proclaimed, and J. Kosak, formerly on Westerling's staff in the Dutch Army.

The Federal Defense Minister, Sultan Hamengku Buwono, said the Indonesian Army command had warned the Dutch about the possibility of desertions from their units to the rebels.

"The Dutch, however, assured the Government this would not take place," Buwono's statement said. "Based on this assurance, several T.N.I. (Indonesian Army) units left the town of Bandoeng to carry out other tasks.

"This opportunity has been used by the armed bands of Westerling—supported by deserters from the Dutch Army—to advance into the town of Bandoeng." AP

Indonesians Hunt For Dutch Raiders

Jakarta, Java, Jan. 24 (AP)—Federal troops and police joined tonight in a hunt for a Dutch guerrilla leader whose band killed scores of persons in a raid on Bandoeng Monday.

The leader is R. P. P. Westerling, 30, militant exponent of a strong West Java state who formerly was a captain of commandos in the Dutch Army.

"He is more than a rebel," declared Mohamed Hatta, Premier of the month-old United States of Indonesia. "He is an enemy."

The lightning blow at Bandoeng, a city of 180,000 about 120 miles southeast of Jakarta, was the first outright revolt against the Government which took over rule of the East Indies when the islands gained independence from the Netherlands December 28.

A neutral military source estimated Westerling's 600 troops, including some identified as Dutch army deserters, slew 360 Indonesian soldiers and civilians in Bandoeng and adjacent towns. Sixty of these were reported to have been Indonesian soldiers. The Dutch garrison at Bandoeng did not take part in the fight.

Statements by both Indonesian and Dutch army spokesmen reflected their concern. The Dutch army has been immobilized and the federal army has not yet taken over in all Java areas. AP

Prasad Elected President Of New Indian Republic

New Delhi, India, Jan. 24 (AP)—The Dominion of India took another step toward complete independence today by naming Dr. Rajendra Prasad, longtime follower of Mohandas Gandhi, as the first president of the new Republic.

Prasad, 64, was declared elected without opposition by the Constituent Assembly, of which he is president.

He will take office Thursday when India formally becomes a "sovereign democratic republic" and drops her status as a British dominion.

Still In Commonwealth

Although India is thus renouncing any allegiance to King George VI, she will continue to remain a member of the British Commonwealth under an elastic interpretation of Commonwealth association.

Prasad was nominated by Premier Jawaharlal Nehru.

Nehru said the naming of the President closed one chapter of Indian history with a dream of independence realized, but a new chapter would open Thursday when the nation must work to realize other dreams.

Named For Five Years

Vallabhai Sardar Patel, Home Minister and Vice Premier, who seconded Prasad's nomination, asked all to show loyalty and cooperation with the new President.

Prasad will hold office for five years, after which he can be re-elected, according to the new Indian Constitution.

He will be chief of state with the formal function of appointing the Prime Minister and commanding the armed forces. His powers, however, are subject to the advise of his Cabinet.

The Cabinet will be directly responsible to the lower house of Parliament, the 500-member House of the People, elected according to population. AP

INDIA NAMES GANDHI AIDE

First President Selected By Constituent Assembly

New Delhi, India, Jan. 24 (AP)—India cleared the last formality to becoming a sovereign democratic republic today when the Constituent Assembly unanimously elected Dr. Rajendra Prasad, 64-year-old son of a rich landowner, as first President.

On Thursday Prasad, nearest living embodiment of the ideas of Mohandas Gandhi, will take office when the republic is inaugurated. Two days later he will ride in state and address the republic's first Parliament in the same way the King of England opens the sessions in London.

Prasad, who carries on Gandhian practices of prayer and work with the spinning wheel, was nominated by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and was the only candidate proposed. No vote was taken and the Assembly merely cheered when he was declared elected.

May Declare Emergency

As President he is commander in chief of the armed forces and exercises the chief executive power with the advice of ministers responsible to Parliament. He may declare a national emergency. He has the power of veto, which may be overridden if Parliament passes a measure a second time. He is elected for five years and may be re-elected by an electoral college consisting of Parliament and the state legislatures. He also may be impeached.

The only other candidate ever suggested was Chakravarti Rajagopalachari, first and last Indian to hold the office of governor general. The office, corresponding to chief of state and going back to Britain's Warren Hastings in 1772, will be abolished Thursday when Rajagopalachari escorts Prasad to the presidential chair at the inauguration.

Remains In Commonwealth

India then casts off the status of a British dominion with a head appointed by the King, but remains a member of the British Commonwealth. She became a dominion in August, 1947, along with Pakistan. The two nations were created when Britain granted independence to the Indians.

Prasad has been described as the late Gandhi's first and closest disciple. Simple and self-effacing, his shyness and occasional lack of broad strategic conceptions alone prevented Gandhi from naming him his political heir instead of the bold and magnetic Nehru, many Congress party members believe.

Often Party Peacemaker

He became Gandhi's first lieutenant in experimenting with the ideas of nonviolence and often was delegated peacemaker when the party threatened to split. His organizing abilities were put to a test in the Bihar earthquake of 1934, when nearly 500,000 persons died, and again as Food Minister in the interim Government in 1937 when he averted an Indian famine after 2,000,000 died in Bengal.

During the Moslem-Hindu riots of 1947 Gandhi undertook a tour on foot of East Bengal to preach peace, and Prasad did the same in Bihar. He caused messages to be dropped from the air threatening to immolate himself through starvation, and the fighting stopped.

These tasks broke his health, but he took the presidency of the Constituent Assembly which, after two years' work, wrote India's constitution. That constitution was signed by members of the Assembly today. AP

Israel Still Pushes Jerusalem Claim

Jerusalem, Jan. 24 (AP)—Israel's Knesset (Parliament) last night passed a resolution declaring that Jerusalem automatically became the nation's capital on the day the Jewish state was formed in 1948.

The resolution was considered a compromise between extremists and moderates to back Premier David Ben-Gurion's cautious refusal to make an outright proclamation at a time when the United Nations has proposed an international regime for the Holy City.

Both Israel, which holds the modern section of Jerusalem, and Jordan, which controls the Old Walled City, have rejected internationalization.

"Historic Facts"

A majority of the Knesset voted for the resolution, which Ben-Gurion called only a "statement of historic facts." He repeated his stand that King David made Jerusalem the capital of Israel 3,000 years ago and that it remains so with Israel's rebirth.

Right-wing and Left-wing opponents of Ben-Gurion's coalition Cabinet rapped the Government for leaving the Foreign Ministry in Tel Aviv while moving most other Government offices to Jerusalem.

Ben-Gurion, obviously referring to the United Nations internationalization resolution, said Israel could not afford to risk upsetting diplomatic relations with other United Nations members.

Refused To Move

He indicated that diplomatic representatives now in Tel Aviv, where the Government made its headquarters after the 1948 proclamation of a new state, had refused to move to Jerusalem last month.

Government opponents attacked the resolution, too, because it did not claim outright the old city of Jerusalem.

Government officials have indicated this would endanger peace talks now going on with Jordan.

Indo-Chinese Chiefs, Jessup Set To Confer

Saigon, Indo-China, Jan. 24 (AP)—Philip Jessup, special United States Ambassador, arrived today for talks with French and National officials on the military and political situation in strife-torn Indo-China.

Jessup, who is making a trip through the Far East, will be entertained tonight by Leon Pignon, French high commissioner. Tomorrow, Jessup will confer formally with Pignon and Nguyen Phan Long, Premier of the Viet Nam Cabinet.

Jessup will also confer with Bao Dai, ex-Emperor of Annam and now head of the French-sponsored Viet Nam state.

The French are anxious that the United States recognize Bao Dai. There is little doubt they also would like arms to help them in the war with the guerrilla forces of Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh. AP

Famine Spreads In Red China, Writer Says

Other Far East news on Page 3.

Wayne Richardson was aboard the American freighter Flying Arrow when a Nationalist gunboat riddled her with shot off Shanghai. The following dispatch was written aboard the ship after he spent four days ashore in Communist North China at Tsingtao while the ship was unloaded.

By Wayne Richardson

Aboard Flying Arrow En Route to Kobe, Japan, Jan. 24 (AP)—A black picture of chaos and famine in Communist North China was given to me during the four days I spent ashore on Shantung Peninsula while the Flying Arrow unloaded cargo at Tsingtao, once the base of the American Asiatic fleet.

My informant was a well-informed source. His name cannot be used. He said:

"Poor crops in Shantung (one of China's richest agricultural areas) will make impossible any surplus for export. Consequently many millions of people will starve before next year's harvest, despite anything the Communist Government could do even if it was willing. Even now in various areas people are eating herbs and leaves.

"The administrative picture is absolutely a mess because of lack of trained personnel and Communist reluctance to utilize available experienced professional men.

Further Control Likely

"The average Shantungese thinks even less of the Reds than he did of the Kuomintang (Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist party) but will remain apathetic. Consequently, by resorting to Gestapo methods, there appears no reason to believe the armed Communists cannot maintain effective control."

My informant said there was no more behind the Communist money than was behind Kuomintang currency.

"That is why their exchange is going to hell," he said bitterly. [The exchange rate in Tsingtao was 21,000 Communist dollars to $1.]

U.S. Aid Held Futile

"The Kuomintang through sheer corruption and robbery of the people by their financial measures lost any remaining prestige they might have had in Shantung," he said.

"Having lost to the Reds politically their (the Kuomintang's) military defeat was a foregone conclusion. Such American military aid, which was considerable, as was rendered the Nationalist military authorities in Shantung directly or indirectly might just as well have been given the Reds directly."

He said the Communists' present policy of taxation indicates they intend to drive out all private trade.

"The volume of business is not used as a basis for taxation but rather each guild is assessed so much to be prorated among members," he said. "Many firms, foreign and Chinese, already have closed or applied for permission to close," he said.

This man said that since last year's withdrawal of United States Marines from Tsingtao the people would welcome back the Japanese to re-establish law and order and reasonable taxation.

U.S. Property Seized

"Despite the publicity given in the Communist controlled press concerning friendship with Russia and the formation in Tsingtao of a branch of the Sino-Soviet Friendship Society, the average Soviet citizen is accorded no better treatment than any other foreigner," he said.

All United States Government property in Tsingtao has been taken over by the Reds.

One old-time resident of Tsingtao, who also desires anonymity, commented:

"The rich are getting poor and the poor still poorer."

He told me of the ruse the Communists used to obliterate robbers and beggars.

Arrest All Beggars

"They arrested one robber," he said, "and convinced him that he would not be molested if he registered his trade. He registered, told his colleagues about it and they registered, too. Then the police cracked down and arrested all of them. Since then there have been no more robberies."

The same trick, he said, was played on beggars. After they all registered, they were arrested and sent to the "salt mines" to labor.

This source said the Communist Government gained control of all food in the city through informers.

Acheson Willing For Economic Formosa Aid

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—Senator Connally (D., Texas) said today that Secretary of State Acheson "is agreeable" to giving economic aid to the Chinese Nationalist defenders of Formosa.

Connally made this statement after Acheson discussed Far East problems for two hours with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Connally is chairman of the committee.

Connally indicated that about $28,000,000 might be available for aid to the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa.

President Truman has announced the United States will give no military aid to them—a policy which has brought violent opposition from some Senate Republicans.

Three Topics Discussed

Connally said Acheson also discussed with the committee:

1. Further economic aid for South Korea.

2. Efforts to get United States citizens out of China "before clamping down too harshly" on the Chinese Communists for seizing the consulate at Peiping.

3. The ownership of 63 cargo planes transferred by the Chinese Nationalists to Gen. Claire Channault's China Air Transport, Inc. The planes are now in custody of the British in Hong Kong.

Connally said the Economic Cooperation Administration now has about $106,000,000 left of funds voted for aid in the China area, but the money must be spent by February 15 or be returned to the Treasury.

Considering Use Of Funds

He said the committee is talking about using these funds in the general area of China—and including South Korea in the program. Recently the House killed a $60,000,000 Korean aid bill by a one-vote margin.

But Acheson felt the Korean aid should be handled "in a little different way," Connally said. He did not say what Acheson had proposed.

Connally added that the ECA "probably couldn't administer more than $28,000,000 for Formosa."

Connally said the Secretary touched on the situation in Burma and Indo-China—but did not discuss the proposal offered by some Republicans for a United Nations trusteeship over Formosa.

Would Consult Formosans

There were reports that Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) has raised the possibility of United Nations action to give Formosans a choice in their form of government.

He would not comment on the United Nations phase, but he said: "I can't get it out of my mind that the Formosan people ought to have something to say about their future form of government."

The Chinese Nationalists now control Formosa under terms of the Cairo agreement.

Some Favor Trusteeship

Some senators contend that Formosa is conquered Japanese territory over which the United Nations could place a trusteeship, with this country as trustee.

However, Connally said he doubts that the United Nations would be willing at this time to step into the Formosa situation.

Connally said he thinks the committee will go ahead with plans to make $106,000,000 in Economic Co-operation Administration funds available to the Chinese Nationalists until June 30. Under present law this fund would revert to the Treasury February 15.

McCloy Retains Power To Nip Nazi-Red Plot

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—High Commissioner John J. McCloy says he is ready to crack down "swiftly and firmly" if a dangerous revival of nationalism should develop in western Germany.

While expressing confidence that pro-Western democratic elements will prevail, McCloy acknowledged in a report on his first six months in Germany there is peril from the extremists—especially if they join forces with Soviet Russia.

His view is that the United States, Britain and France retained "ample powers" in setting up the Bonn regime to deal with any threat.

"Wouldn't Hesitate" To Act

"If necessary, I would not hesitate to apply these remedies swiftly and firmly," McCloy declared last night.

McCloy gave a progress report in a radio address after conferences with President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson following his arrival for a week's stay in the Capital. He brought up the matter of the authority retained by the occupation forces because he said there is some feeling the West gave up power too soon.

"If there were no danger in Germany we would not be there," he said.

Bars Nazi-Red Alliance

"Germany constitutes a danger within itself and an even more fearful danger if allied with, or subordinated to, the interests of the Soviet Union."

He said that the Communist and Rightist extremists "seem prepared to get together with the totalitarianism of the Soviets, should a good opportunity present itself."

McCloy declared that a vast majority of the Germans are deeply opposed to war and "want no more military adventures." He concluded that "we face a hard task in Germany but there exist spiritual resources from which can emerge a peaceful democratic state, prepared to take its place as a true member of the Western World.

"Gives Them Loyalty Test"

McCloy suggested that the time has come to permit the "so-called little Nazis"—schoolteachers, mail carriers and tax officials—to "demonstrate their loyalty to the new Germany." He said they cannot and should not be excluded forever from normal life in the community.

McCloy said the latest Soviet restrictions on transportation in and out of Berlin represented "one of those flurries one has to expect in Berlin."

His return to the Capital is a routine visit and not due to any particular crisis, McCloy said. "There's always a crisis in Germany," he added.

BROADER D.P. BILL APPROVED

Senate Unit O.K.'s Measure For Entry Of 320,000

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—A bill to permit 320,000 displaced persons to enter this country by June 30, 1951, was approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee tonight. The total includes the approximately 124,000 who already have entered.

The present law authorizes the entry into the United States of only 205,000 persons in the two-year period ending June 30, 1950.

The committee, by a vote of 10 to 3, approved a bill which would make other changes in the present displaced persons law which President Truman has urged.

For one thing, it would shift the date by which displaced persons must have entered European D.P. camps to be eligible for entry into this country.

The date in the present law is December, 1945. The bill which the committee approved would change that to January 1, 1949.

House Bill Amended

The committee's action was announced by Chairman McCarran (D., Nev.) who termed the measure "generally satisfactory." He said the action was taken by amending a measure already approved by the House in ten or twelve places.

The agreement was reached on the eve of the date the Senate had ordered the committee to report out a D.P. bill. The order was issued late in the last session. The House bill had been approved by the committee over the protests of McCarran, who was in Europe at the time. After a heated floor fight, the Senate sent the measure back to committee with instructions to bring out a bill by January 25.

The new bill is expected to be introduced tomorrow.

A bill sponsored by Representative Celler (D., N.Y.) and passed by the House last year would have permitted 339,000 displaced persons to enter the country by June 30, 1951.

New Date Adopted

While the Senate committee cut the total number, it adopted the eligibility date of January 1, 1949, contained in the Celler bill. Opponents of the present law have argued that the December, 1945, cutoff date discriminated against many Jews from Poland who did not reach D.P. camps until 1946 or 1947.

It was learned that most of the controversy in a closed session of more than four hours centered around these two provisions. McCarran acknowledged that some of the votes were close on individual amendments, but he did not disclose them.

About 124,000 of the 320,000 who would be permitted to enter this country already have come to the United States under the present D.P. law passed by the Eightieth Congress. It has been in effect about a year and one half.

In addition to the total of 320,000 who would be authorized, the Senate bill would permit the entry of 5,000 orphans, and 5,000 other children who have been adopted by United States overseas military and Government personnel.

Specific Provisions

Within the authorized entry, the committee made specific provision for visas to be issued to:

1. Ten thousand Greeks displaced in the Greek civil war.

2. Eighteen thousand Poles who were members of the Polish armed forces which fought on the side of the Allies during World War II, and who now actually are displaced persons.

3. Four thousand refugees in Shanghai on "grounds they already have been assimilated in the Philippines and elsewhere."

The Senate committee's bill continued and in one place strengthened two provisions of the present law which the House-approved measure would have junked. They are the requirement that 30 per cent of the D.P.'s must be agriculturists, and 40 per cent must be from occupied territories.

In the case of the agriculturists, the Senate bill would require that visas to the required 30 per cent be limited to people who have had at least two years of farm experience.

McCarran told reporters he thinks the new bill strengthens safeguards against the entry of undesirable aliens. ADD

ATOM MATERIAL SENT RUSSIANS

House Told Of Sales Of Uranium And Heavy Water

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—A congressional witness testified today that Russia bought "heavy water"—useful for atomic-bomb research—in this country as late as February, 1945.

Another witness testified that a New York broker, Boris Pregel, arranged for the shipment of 1,000 pounds of uranium salts to Russia although Pregel allegedly was "aware" of the Army's super-secret Manhattan Project for the development of the A-bomb.

Uranium is one of the key ingredients in atomic weapons.

In New York, Pregel issued a statement denouncing the testimony about himself as "not accurate" and asking a chance to be heard "as soon as possible" by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

"I wish to point out," Pregel said, "that the shipment was made with the approval of the United States and Canada."

Heads Company

Pregel is president of the Canadian Radium and Uranium Company, New York, sales agent for a Canadian uranium producing firm.

Herman Rosenberg, New York chemicals broker, told the House committee today he arranged for the Russians to make two wartime purchases of heavy water and two of uranium compounds in the United States.

But Rosenberg, vice president of Chematar, Inc., insisted he had no knowledge that the materials could be used for atom bomb experiments. He said his firm complied with all Government regulations.

Rosenberg testified that at the request of the Russian purchasing commission in this country, his company arranged with the Stuart Oxygen Company, of San Francisco, for the shipment of 1,000 grams of heavy water to the U.S.S.R. in August, 1943.

Second Shipment Made

He said it was shipped on October 30 of that year. INSERT

Again in January, 1945, he said, the Russians asked for another 100 grams of heavy water. He said it was provided by the Stuart company and was shipped to the Soviets on February 14, 1945.

Earlier, Dr. Philip L. Merritt, Atomic Energy Commission official who made wartime uranium purchases for the Manhattan Project, told about the shipment of 1,000 pounds of uranium compounds to Russia.

Merritt said Boris Pregel's New York company sold the uranium to the Soviets in violation of a contract giving the United States Government the exclusive rights to uranium supplies handled by Pregel's firm.

Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) asked Merritt:

"Is there any question in your mind that Pregel knew why the Government was tying up this material?"

"He was aware of that," Merritt replied. "He (Pregel) was aware of the Manhattan Project."

Groves May Be Called

Committee aides said Lieut. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, wartime head of the Manhattan Project, may be recalled as a witness later this week.

Pregel's statement, issued in New York tonight, follows:

"Several statements made by witnesses before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in the past few days relative to a shipment in May, 1943, of 1,000 pounds of uranium salts by a Canadian company for which my New York corporation was sales agent, are not accurate.

"I can and will, if given an opportunity, document the proof that many of these statements are inaccurate."

Pregel defended the shipment as "proper" and "legal in all respects," and his statement continued:

"I have voluntarily, without subpoena, placed myself at the disposal of this House committee and I respectfully request to be heard as soon as possible in view of what has transpired."

Shipments Called Routine

Rosenberg said the heavy water and uranium shipments his firm arranged for "were for us routine orders, calling for just other common chemicals among the approximately 150 different chemicals sold by us in small lots to the Russians."

"No pressure from any source was used, or indeed necessary," the statement said, "to induce my company to fill these routine orders from the Russian Government out of readily obtainable supplies, in strict compliance with all applicable regulations, at a time when we were rushing all available supplies to our then ally.

"On the basis of this record we strongly believe there should be no reflection upon the business conduct of our company or its individual officers and that our absolute loyalty and complete support of our Government both during peace and war should be recognized and acknowledged."

Sherman Gets Confirmation From Senate

Action Follows GOP Call For Impeachment Of Matthews.

Washington, Jan. 24—(AP)—The Senate confirmed Admiral Forrest F. Sherman as the Navy's top admiral today after hearing a Republican's demand for the impeachment of Navy Secretary Matthews as "completely incompetent."

Sherman, at 53, is the youngest chief of naval operations in American history.

Succeeds Denfeld

He succeeds Admiral Louis E. Denfeld who was fired by President Truman last Oct. 27 at Matthews' request. The ouster came 14 days after Denfeld had testified before the House Armed Services Committee that policies insisted upon by high officers of the Air Force and Army were weakening the Navy's striking power.

Matthews has denied that Denfeld was removed because of his congressional testimony.

Sherman was confirmed by a shouted chorus of "ayes." There was little opposition to him in the preceding debate, but Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) angrily told his colleagues that if the Senate had the right to impeach, then it should impeach Matthews.

Senator Holland (D-Fla), acting Democratic floor leader, promptly rebuked McCarthy.

The Florida senator said it was "highly improper" for a member of the Senate, who would sit as a judge in any impeachment action brought by the House, to suggest impeachment and say what the charges would be.

Under the U. S. Constitution, the House has the sole power to originate an impeachment. The Senate sits as the trial board.

Four Counts

McCarthy listed four counts in his impeachment demand against Matthews:

1. "Untruthfulness" before a Senate committee.

2. "Completely incompetent" to perform the duties of secretary of the Navy.

3. "Complete disloyalty" to the Navy.

4. Enforcing "a new and dangerous rule" which McCarthy said means that if a Navy officer testifies before a congressional committee and tells the truth he must take the consequences.

Senator Kem (R-Mo), attacking what he termed the "purge" of Admiral Denfeld, accused the Truman administration of seeking to "intimidate" military officers who speak out against its policies.

"His ouster was only a part of the calculated pattern of intimidation," Kem declared. "At any rate it emphasized the extent to which the administration may go to slap down those who dare oppose it."

Then Kem demanded:

"Do those who dare to entertain thoughts of their own, or to present their honest views when called on to do so by the Congress, face humiliation and degradation and the loss of their careers?"

The confirmation of Admiral Sherman ends another phase of the bitter inter-service feud which erupted into the open last Fall when a parade of admirals, generals and others gave their views on national defense policies on Capitol Hill.

Navy Doubts Strange Sub Seen In North

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—The Navy termed "improbable" today reports that an unidentified submarine had approached within half a mile of Kodiak, where the Navy has one of its Alaskan bases.

Navy haadquarters here made this evaluation after studying information from Rear Admiral F. D. Wagner, commander of the 17th Naval district.

Planes from the Kodiak baset searched the area without success after the sighting report had been made by five members of a Civil Aeronautics Administration crew.

There was a flurry of submarine sighting reports in American waters in 1948. None of them led to any positive identification.

Husband Benefits

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—Disabled WAC's, WAVES and armed service nurses would get dependency pensions for their husbands under a bill approved today by the House Veterans Committee.

The committee proposal would make the law uniform for both men and women veterans, and declare that a husband is a dependent as much as a wife.

Exporter Knew Of A-Project, Probe Is Told

Refugees report Russians find new uranium field in Soviet zone of Germany. [Page 4.]

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—House investigators heard testimony today that a private citizen knew about the atom-bomb project at the time a company the man headed sold 1,000 pounds of uranium compounds to Russia.

The man was Boris Pregel and the time was the Spring of 1943.

The testimony came from Dr. Philip L. Merritt, Atomic Energy Commission official who formerly made wartime uranium purchases for the atomic-bomb project. He appeared before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Dr. Merritt said Pregel was president of the Canadian Radium and Uranium Company, sole sales agent for a Canadian uranium-producing firm.

Described As N.Y. Firm

Pregel's company has been described as an American firm with headquarters in New York.

Dr. Merritt said the Canadian Radium and Uranium Company sold 1,000 pounds of uranium oxide and nitrate to the Soviets through what he regards as a violation of a contract giving the United States Government exclusive rights to its uranium supplies.

Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) asked Dr. Merritt whether there was "any question in your mind that Pregel knew why the Government was tying up this material."

"He was aware of that," Dr. Merritt answered. "He was aware of the Manhattan Project."

Fourth Shipment Hinted

Frank S. Tavenner, committee counsel, hinted to reporters that he was about ready to offer evidence on a fourth wartime shipment of atomic materials to Russia.

Tavenner mentioned a fourth shipment yesterday in questioning Lawrence E. Burman, director of the licensing division of the Atomic Energy Commission. Tavenner asked Burman whether he had any information about the shipment of 45 pounds of uranium nitrate to Russia in June, 1944, and Burman said he did not.

When newsmen asked Tavenner about this, he said:

"We will introduce evidence of another shipment."

BRITISH FORD LOAN APPROVED

ECA Sets $4,500,000 To Help Finance Retooling Plan

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—The Economic Co-operation Administration today approved the spending of $4,500,000 to help finance retooling of the Ford Motor Company, Ltd., of England.

This amount of Marshall-plan money, the agency reported, will supplement $9,830,000 which the British Ford Company will spend on the project.

ECA said the funds will be used to retool for mass production of two new types of passenger cars, a truck engine and a heavy tractor. No details of design or price ranges were announced.

See Increase In Output

"While the project is essentially one for replacement and modernization rather than increased production," ECA said, "it is expected that the retooling will make possible an increase in output of about ten per cent."

Officials said the project was in line with ECA policy to boost British dollar earnings through exports to the American market.

ECA's announcement said the British Ford Company earned $13,500,000 in 1948 from exports to North America and that the earning rate was more than doubled during the first five months of 1949.

Steel Strip Mill Planned

"Company officials say it appears unlikely that its favorable export record can be maintained unless new models are developed," ECA said.

The agency asserted that Ford is the only leading British automobile manufacturer which has not yet changed over from prewar to postwar models.

ECA said higher output levels will not be reached until sometime in 1951 when a new steel-strip mill is completed. The bulk of Ford's machine tools now in use are about fifteen years old and saw extensive wartime use.

Russ Trade Urged As Bar To U.S. Aid

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—Senator Malone (R., Nev.) today asked the Senate to deny aid to any nation which trades with Russia or the Communist-controlled countries.

Malone said the United States is helping rearm Russia through the Marshall plan recovery program.

"Aid which we are sending to ECA countries is finding its way in finished products to the Communist countries," Malone said. "How stupid can we be?"

Earlier Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) attacked the Administration's China policy as one of appeasement. He said the perjury conviction of Alger Hiss, one-time State Department official accused of aiding a Soviet spy ring, raises this question:

"Does the Communist conspiracy, headed in the Kremlin, still have its agents working in our State Department?"

Bridges told the Senate that the Administration's policies in Asia add up to "muddleheaded failure."

COLLINS URGES HOUSE TO BACK ALIEN RECRUITS

Committee Told Enlistment Of 10,000 Would Aid Army In War

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army Chief of Staff, appealed today for House approval of a bill that would let the Army recruit 10,000 young aliens.

There were hints that the Army, among other things, might want to use the men for intelligence work.

Collins and Senator Lodge (R., Mass.) author of the Senate-passed bill, appeared before the House Armed Services Committee to urge House approval.

Closed At Lodge's Request

Before the hearing was closed at Lodge's request, Lodge told the committee that carefully screened, young aliens would be 'of great value to the commander of a unit fighting in foreign lands. Lodge, a veteran, said he personally saw the need for them in the last war.

He emphasized that his bill does not propose the creation of a "foreign legion."

Lodge said the bill would permit recruiting of aliens with specialized training as scientists, such as radio technicians. They would have to be single and between the ages of 18 and 35.

Gives Resident Status

The bill would give the alien recruit the status of a resident of the United States during a five-year enlistment. At the end of that period, if he has served satisfactorily, he would be in a position to apply for citizenship.

Representative Elston (R., Ohio) wanted to know what would happen to an alien if the Army decided, after he was admitted to this country, that it didn't want him.

"The Army could throw him back from where they got him," replied Lodge.

USO Will Cease Operations Due To Lack Of Cash

New York, Jan. 24 (AP)—The USO announced tonight it will cease operations because it can't raise enough money—"perhaps due to changes in the national and international situations."

The decision of the United Service Organizations' executive committee, reached last week, was relayed to President Truman today.

"The executive committee takes this action with reluctance and regret," said a statement from the committee, headed by Harvey S. Firestone, Jr., rubber company president.

"The plain fact," added the statement, "seems to be that, due perhaps to changes in the national and international situations which have occurred since the President of the United States called USO back into service in 1948, USO as such is not regarded as sufficiently essential to be enabled to enlist the support it needs to go on."

JURY CHOSEN FOR SPY TRIAL

Coplon, Gubitchev Face Charge Of Seeking Data For Soviets

New York, Jan. 24 (AP)—A jury of six men and six women was chosen today to try Judith Coplon and Valentin A. Gubitchev on charges of conspiring to spy for the Russians.

Selection of the jury was completed at 4.30 P.M. on the opening day of the trial. It came after the defense failed in a series of eleventh-hour moves to delay the often-postponed trial.

Three alternate jurors will be picked tomorrow.

Juror No. 1, who automatically becomes foreman, is John Hopfer, a stock clerk.

Other Jurors Named

The other jurors are Mrs. Margaret Nyland, Mrs. Margaret Rawlings, Mrs. Evelyn Moore, Mrs. Anna Balsam, Mrs. Inez Danielson and Mrs. Ann Kalan, housewives; David Haynes, general director, Travelers Aid Society; Gerald Doblin, assistant manager of a realty company; Howard Reale, contractor; Michael J. Marcello, salesman, and Wilfred Lloyd, painting contractor.

A representative of the Soviet Embassy sat at the side of the Russian engineer Gubitchev as the long, involved process of choosing twelve jurors and three alternates got under way.

Gubitchev, 32, faces up to fifteen years in prison if convicted. The 28-year-old Miss Coplon, formerly a Justice Department analyst, could get up to 35 years.

Already Under Sentence

Brooklyn-born Miss Coplon already is under sentence of 40 months to ten years following her conviction in Washington on charges of stealing Government secrets for the Russians.

Her lawyer, Archibald Palmer, pleaded unsuccessfully today for an adjournment until her appeal from the Washington conviction is decided.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan, presiding at his first major case, turned down a number of other motions by Palmer and by Gubitchev's lawyer, Abraham Pomerantz, which likewise would have delayed the trial.

Miss Coplon did not look at Gubitchev—the stubby, balding man she once said she loved until she learned he was married.

117 Prospective Jurors

Both defendants calmly faced the panel of 117 prospective jurors. Gubitchev's left cheek was puffed. He received treatment during the luncheon recess for a toothache.

Ryan told the talesmen that Miss Coplon and Gubitchev "must be presumed innocent" until all the evidence is in.

"You are the sole and exclusive judges of the facts in this case," he said.

Then, in groups of twelve, he questioned those called for jury duty—had they formed an opinion? . . . Would they be prejudiced against Gubitchev because he is a Russian? . . Did they know anybody involved in the case?

Queried On Prejudices

He asked, among many questions, whether the talesmen would be prejudiced by the fact—as developed in seven weeks of pretrial hearings—that the Government made extensive use of illegal wiretapping in its investigation.

One prospective juror, Raymond A. Kelly, told the judge: "I feel, after serving in the Army two years in World War I, and a short time in World War II, that I might be prejudiced."

LONDON, JAN. 24-(AP)-RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS AGAIN ACCUSED EACH OTHER TODAY OF STALLING IN TALKS ON AN AUSTRIAN TREATY OF INDEPENDENCE.

THE FOUR-POWER CONFERENCE WAS SUSPENDED UNTIL FEB. 15.

RUSSIA INSISTS ON SETTLING MINOR FINANCIAL CLAIMS AGAINST AUSTRIA BEFORE CONCLUDING THE TREATY. RUSSIA IS WILLING, HOWEVER, TO TALK MEANWHILE ABOUT THREE REMAINING UNAGREED ARTICLES IN THE PACT.

THE WESTERN POWERS ARGUE THAT IT IS USELESS TO DISCUSS THE UNAGREED ARTICLES UNTIL THE RUSSO-AUSTRIAN NEGOTIATIONS ARE CONCLUDED.

THE RESPECTIVE POSITIONS WERE RESTATED TODAY AT THE 249TH SESSION OF THE DEPUTIES OF THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS.

CAPT.R.P.P. "TURK" WESTERLING'S GUERRILLAS AIMED AT OCCUPYING ALL WEST JAVA, INCLUDING THE INDONESIAN CAPITAL, JAKARTA.

A COMMUNIQUE OF THE UNIOM AFFAIRS MINISTRY DECLARED THE EVACUATION OF BANDOENG BY THE GUERRILLA FORCE WHICH ATTACKED THAT CITY YESTERDAY WAS DUE ENTIRELY TO THE INTERVENTION OF MAJ.GEN. E.ENGLES, DUTCH COMMANDER IN WEST JAVA.

"ON THE REQUEST OF THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT, THE DUTCH HAVE PROVIDED THE INDONESIAN ARMY COMMAND WITH TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATION FACILITIES," IT SAID.

ALMOST ALL THE DUTCH DESERTERS WHO JOINED WESTERLING'S BAND HAVE SURRENDERED, BEEN DISARMED AND MOVED TO CONFINEMENT IN JAKARTA, THE COMMUNIQUE ADDED.

THERE WAS A CONFLICT IN CASUALTY FIGURES. THE INDONESIANS REPORTED 60 INDONESIAN TROOPS WERE SLAIN AT BANDOENG AND A NEUTRAL MILITARY SOURCE ESTIMATED THE TOLL OF SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS THERE AND IN NEARBY TOWNS WAS 360. THE DUTCH COMMUNIQUE SAID 30 INDONESIAN ARMY TROOPS AND SEVERAL CIVILIANS WERE SLAIN.

"TROOPS OF THE NETHERLANDS COMMAND, WHO STOOD ASIDE IN CONFORMANCE WITH THE REGULATIONS OF THE (INDONESIAN-DUTCH) ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE, SUFFERED NO LOSSES," THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

BERLIN, JAN.24-(AP)-COLONEL WILLIAM T.BABCOCK, DEPUTY U.S. COMMISSIONER FOR BERLIN WHO PLAYED AN ACTIVE PART IN EAST-WEST DISPUTES OVER BERLIN, DIED TODAY OF A HEART ATTACK. HE WAS 52.

BABCOCK, A FORMER POLICE COMMISSIONER OF NEW LONDON, CONN, CAME TO HIS POST IN BERLIN IN 1945.

HE WAS STRICKEN WHILE ATTENDING A PREMIERE SHOWING OF A HOLLYWOOD FILM. HE DIED 13 MINUTES AFTER BEING TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL.

BABCOCK TOOK A PROMINENT PART IN FIGHTING THE 1948-49 BERLIN BLOCKADE. HIS LATEST CLASH WITH THE RUSSIANS CAME ONLY A FEW DAYS AGO WHEN HE AUTHORIZED WEST BERLIN POLICE TO TAKE OVER A VACANT PART OF BERLIN'S BIG RAILROAD HEADQUARTERS.

THE MOVE BROUGHT A PROTEST FROM MAJ.GEN. ALEXANDER KOTIKOV, SOVIET COMMANDER IN BERLIN, AND SET OFF A JUNIOR BLOCKADE BY WHICH THE RUSSIANS HAVE BEEN DELAYING ROAD, RAILWAY AND RIVER TRAFFIC IN AND OUT OF BERLIN. AFTER FOUR DAYS THE U.S. ORDERED WEST BERLIN POLICE TO RETURN THE BUILDING TO SOVIET CONTROL.

MAJ.GEN. MAXWELL D.TAYLOR, U.S. COMMANDER, SAID IT WAS BABCOCK'S "WILLINGNESS TO WORK TO THE BREAKING POINT AND BEYOND THAT COST HIM HIS LIFE."

BABCOCK WAS A NATIVE OF NEW HAVEN, CONN.

A VETERAN OF TWO WARS, BABCOCK WILL BE BURIED IN ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY AFTER FUNERAL SERVICES HERE.

HOWARD P. JONES, 51, FORMER CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONER AND DEPUTY CONTROLLER OF NEW YORK STATE, WAS NAMED DEPUTY U.S. COMMISSIONER FOR BERLIN TODAY TO SUCCEED BABCOCK TEMPORARILY.

JONES' REGULAR POST IS CHIEF OF THE ECONOMICS AFFAIRS DIVISION OF THE BERLIN COMMISSION.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN.24-(AP)-ONE OF PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S TOP-RANKING SPOKESMEN CHARGED TODAY THAT THE SPLIT BETWEEN THE MOSCOW-LED COMINFORM AND YUGOSLAVIA DEVELOPED FROM DIFFERENCES WHICH THE RUSSIANS "DID NOT DARE TO BRING IN THE OPEN."

MILOVAN DJILAS, MEMBER OF THE YUGOSLAV POLITBURO AND CABINET MINISTER WITHOUT PORTFOLIO, TOLD A CONFERENCE OF THE YUGOSLAV "PEOPLE'S FRONT" PARTIES' EXECUTIVE, DOMINATED BY THE COMMUNISTS, THAT IT WAS NOT ENOUGH TO "DENY LIES AND SLANDERS," BUT "IT IS NECESSARY TO EXPLAIN THE REASONS BEHIND THEM."

BUT AT THE SAME TIME HE CAUTIONED AGAINST "SLY" ATTEMPTS BY CAPITALISM ABROAD TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE DISPUTE.

"WE MUST ALWAYS WATCH WITH ONE EYE ON THAT DANGER AND MOBILIZE AND EDUCATE THE MASSES AGAINST IT," HE SAID.

DJILAS -- QUOTED BY THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER BORBA -- ATTRIBUTED THE MOSCOW-BELGRADE BREAK TO AN ATTEMPT TO "KILL THE INITIATIVE OF THE MASSES IN OUR COUNTRY, TO STOP FURTHER DEVELOPMENT OF SOCIALIST DEMOCRACY HERE, TO ESTABLISH INSTEAD THE REAL RULE OVER THE MASSES BY MONOPOLISTIC BUREAUCRACY."

THIS, ALONG WITH THE DEMANDS OF TITO AND HIS SYMPATHIZERS FOR EQUAL RIGHTS WITH RUSSIA AMONG THE COMMUNIST FAMILY, WAS PICTURED AS BEING AT THE ROOT OF THE DISPUTE BETWEEN TITO AND THE KREMLIN.

ALTHOUGH TITO HIMSELF HAS DISCOUNTED THE SPREAD OF HIS PERSONAL INFLUENCE IN COMMUNIST RANKS OUTSIDE THIS COUNTRY, IT HAS BEEN OBVIOUS THAT HIS PHILOSOPHY HAS ATTRACTED FOLLOWERS ABROAD, PARTICULARLY IN COUNTRIES WITH STRONG NATIONALISTIC STRAITS, SUCH AS GERMANY, ITALY, AND JAPAN.

TAIPEI, JAN 24 (AP)-MADAME CHIANG KAI-SHEK, AT HER ORATORICAL BEST, TODAY APPEALED FOR CONFIDENCE IN NATIONALIST CHINA.

THE ATTRACTIVE, AMERICAN EDUCATED WIFE OF CHINA'S GENERALISSIMO, STOOD BENEATH A FLAG AT CITY HALL AND TOLD FORMOSAN WOMEN:

"THE CHINESE PEOPLE WILL NEVER BE CONQUERED BY ALIENS. THE COMMUNISTS HAVE CAPTURED MUCH OF CHINA'S TERRITORY BUT NOTHING OF HER SOUL."

SHE BRANDED AS FALSE REPORTS OF DISUNITY BETWEEN THE FORMOSANS AND CHINESE.

"CHINA IS AN INDIVISIBLE ENTITY," SHE SAID. "WE ARE FIGHTING FOR FREEDOM OF A NATIONA. OUR REVOLUTIONARY TASK HAS NOT FAILED -- IT HAS NOT BEEN COMPLETED, BUT THIS DOES NOT MEAN FAILURE."

HONG KONG, JAN. 24-(AP)-GOVERNMENT MARINE DEPARTMENT RECORDS REVEAL MORE THAN $100,000,000 (M) IN HIGH PRIORITY CARGOES HAVE BEEN DELIVERED TO CHINESE COMMUNIST PORTS IN THE LAST SEVEN MONTHS BY BLOCKADE RUNNERS ROUTED THROUGH HONG KONG.

SOME 500,000 GROSS TONS OF SHIPPING LEFT HONG KONG FOR RED PORTS SINCE THE NATIONALIST CHINESE DECLARED THEIR BLOCKADE LAST JUNE, THE RECORDS REVEALED.

BETTER THAN 125,000 TONS OF RUSSIAN SHIPPING SLIPPED THROUGH THE LOOSE CHINESE BLOCKADE. THE RUSSIAN SHIPS CARRIED INDUSTRIAL GOODS, HIGH GRADE GASOLINE, MEDICAL SUPPLIES AND INDUSTRIAL RAW MATERIALS.

BRITISH SHIPS ACCOUNTED FOR ABOUT 240,000 TONS. ALONG WITH OTHER FOREIGN VESSELS, THEY TRANSPORTED INDUSTRIAL MICALS, PETRO FOREIGN VESSELS, THEY TRANSPORTED INDUSTRIAL CHEMICALS, PETROLEUM, COTTON STEEL BARS, COPPER WIRING AND NEWSPRINT.

FIVE AMERICAN SHIPS DELIVERED MORE THAN 40,000 TONS TO SHANGHAI.

THE $100,000,000 (M) FIGURE IS CONSERVATIVE. SOME SOURCES SAY AS MUCH AS $200,000,000 (M) WORTH OF CARGO HAS BEEN DELIVERED TO THE CHINESE REDS.

THE FAVORITE PORT OF THE BLOCKADE RUNNERS IS TIENTSIN WITH TSINGTAO SECOND. BOTH ARE IN NORTH CHINA. SHANGHAI AND CANTON ARE EFFECTIVELY BLOCKADED BY THE NATIONALISTS.

THE CHINA MAIL, HONG KONG ENGLISH LANGUAGE NEWSPAPER, SAID TODAY THE AMERICAN OWNED ISBRANDTSEN LINE SHIP, BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, WOULD TRY TO BREAK THE SHANGHAI BLOCKADE AFTER UNLOADING A PART OF HER CARGO AT TIENTSIN.

(A MESSAGE FROM ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT WAYNE RICHARDSON ABOARD THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW SAID THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS SAILED INTO TSINGTAO MONDAY AS THE FLYING ARROW DEPARTED FOR KOBE, JAPAN. A NATIONALIST GUNBOAT SHELLED THE FLYING ARROW JANUARY 9 WHEN SHE WAS HEADED FOR SHANGHAI.)

THE CHINA MAIL SAID A UNITED STATES DESTROYER HAS BEEN ASSIGNED TO ESCORT THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS OUTSIDE OF CHINESE TERRITORIAL WATERS. ONCE INSIDE TERRITORIAL WATERS, THE NEWSPAPER SAID, THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS WOULD PROCEED AT ITS OWN RISK.

HONG KONG AGENTS OF THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE AND AMERICAN NAVAL QUARTERS HERE DENIED KNOWLEDGE OF THE REPORT.

SEOUL,JAN.24-(AP)-PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE SAID TODAY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S STEPS TO REVIVE KOREAN AID IS "ENORMOUS HEARTENING TO ALL KOREAN PEOPLE" BECAUSE "WITHOUT IT WE MIGHT BECOME DEAD PATRIOTS."

THE U.S. HOUSE LAST WEEK VOTED TO SHUT OFF AID TO KOREA.

IN AN 800 WORD STATEMENT RHEE SAID:

"IT IS NOT FOR ME AS PRESIDENT OF KOREA TO SEEM TO TELL THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS WHAT IT MUST DO. BUT I THINK IT PROPER FOR ME TO LET EVERYONE KNOW WHAT AMERICAN AID HAS MEANT TO KOREA IN THE PAST AND WHAT MIGHT WELL BE THE EFFECTS OF TERMINATION OF THAT AID."

THE PRESIDENT SAID IT WOULD HAVE BEEN DIFFICULT TO ESTABLISH THE (SOUTH) KOREAN REPUBLIC "WITHOUT THE MORAL SUPPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE MORAL AND MATERIAL SUPPORT OF THE UNITED STATES."

HIS STATEMENT STRESSED THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE REPUBLIC'S SOLDIERS.

"WHERE ELSE HAS THE COLD WAR BECOME A HOT WAR IN WHICH THE SMALL DEFENDER OF HIS NATION HAS SUCCESSFULLY FOUGHT OFF EVERY ARMED ATTEMPT AND SUCCESSFULLY HAS SUPPRESSED EVERY SUBVERSIVE ATTEMPT PLANNED AND DIRECTED BY THE SOVIET UNION TO DESTROY HIS NATION," THE KOREAN LEADER DECLARED.

JAN 25 1950

HE SERVED AS PRESIDENT OF THE INDIAN NATIONAL CONGRESS PARTY FOR FOUR TERMS AND WON RECOGNITION AS AN ADMINISTRATOR.

FAOLLOWING PRASAD'S ELECTION THE CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY SIGNED THE NEW INDIAN REPUBLIC'S CONSTITUTION. THE CONSTITUTION TOOK NEARLY TWO YEARS TO WRITE AND CONTAINS IN PART MANY OF THE IDEALS EMBODIED IN THE CONSTITUTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, AUSTRALIA AND IRELAND. IT HAS BEEN DESCRIBED AS CONTAINING ONE OF THE MOST ELABORATE DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS YET FRAMED BY ANY STATE.

NEHRU WAS THE FIRST TO SIGN THE THREE COPIES OF THE CONSTITUTION. ONE OF THE COPIES WAS HAND-WRITTEN IN ENGLISH, ILLUSTRATED WITH PAINTINGS OF THE EVENTS IN INDIAN HISTORY. ANOTHER COPY WAS PRINTED IN ENGLISH AND THE THIRD IN HINDI (CQ), WHICH IS TO BECOME INDIA'S OFFICIAL LANGUAGE.

ALSO CONSIDERED FOR NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENT WAS 69-YEAR-OLD C. RAJAGOPALACHARI, WHO FOR 20 MONTHS HAS SERVED AS GOVERNOR-GENERAL. LEADERS OF THE CONGRESS PARTY, HOWEVER, AGREED ON PRASAD AS THE SOLE OFFICIAL CANDIDATE.

RAJAGOPALACHARI, THE ONLY INDIAN TO SERVE AS GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN THE 178-YEAR HISTORY OF BRITAIN'S RULE OVER INDIA, WILL RESIGN HIS POST THURSDAY AFTER HE PROCLAIMS INDIA AN INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC AND INSTALLS THE NEW PRESIDENT.

JAKARTA (BATAVIA), U.S.I., WEDNESDAY, JAN.25-(AP)-INDONESIAN MILITARY POLICE, ON A MANHUNT FOR A DUTCH GUERRILLA LEADER, RAIDED A SECRET ARSENAL IN CENTRAL JAKARTA EARLY TODAY AND CAPTURED A STORE OF ARMS AFTER A GUN BATTLE.

THE CLASH IN THE CAPITAL OCCURRED WHILE TROOPS AND POLICE OF THE NEW UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA JOINED IN A SEARCH FOR R.P.P. (TURK) WESTERLING, WHOSE GUERRILLA FORCE KILLED SCORES OF PERSONS IN A RAID ON BANDOENG MONDAY.

THE MILITARY GOVERNOR'S OFFICE SAID THE POLICE CLOSED IN ON A WAREHOUSE IN THE DOWNTOWN PORTION OF JAKARTA. WHEN RESISTANCE WAS OFFERED THE POLICE OPENED FIRE. DOZENS OF LIGHT AUTOMATIC WEAPONS AND RIFLES AND HUNDREDS OF ROUNDS OF AMMUNITION WERE SEIZED.

LT.COL. DAAN JAHJA, THE MILITARY GOVERNOR, SAID THE MILITARY POLICE KILLED TWO, WOUNDED ONE AND ARRESTED 14 IN THE RAID ON THE ARSENAL. OTHER ARRESTS WERE MADE IN A POLICE SWEEP THROUGH THE CAPITAL, HE SAID, BUT REPORTS WERE NOT YET IN ON HOW MANY HAD BEEN TAKEN. THE MEASURES WERE ADOPTED, JAHJA EXPLAINED, TO PREVENT AN OUTBREAK OF WESTERLING'S FORCE IN JAKARTA.

THERE WERE OTHER SIGNS THAT TROUBLE FOR THE U.S.I. GOVERNMENT APPARENTLY WAS SPREADING. THE INDONESIAN NEWS AGENCY ANTARA REPORTED THAT THE WEST JAVA TOWN OF TJIANDJOER WAS ATTACKED BY GUERRILLAS LAST NIGHT.

AFTER A GUN BATTLE THE ATTACKERS WITHDREW, ANTARA SAID. UNOFFICIAL SOURCES IN JAKARTA DECLARED THE FIGHTING WENT ON UNTIL MORNING.

IDENTITY OF THE ATTACKERS WAS NOT DISCLOSED ALTHOUGH ANTARA CLAIMED THEY WERE IN DUTCH UNIFORMS. OBSERVERS EXPRESSED BELIEF THE GUERRILLAS WERE MEMBERS OF WESTERLING'S FORCES, BUT THIS HAS NOT BEEN CONFIRMED.

WESTERLING, 30, IS A MILITANT EXPONENT OF A STRONG WEST JAVA STATE. HE FORMERLY WAS A CAPTAIN OF COMMANDOS IN THE DUTCH ARMY.

BORN IN ISTANBUL OF A DUTCH FATHER AND A TURKISH MOTHER, HE HOLDS A DUTCH PASSPORT.

HE REFUSED TO ESTIMATE THE SIZE OF HIS ARMY, BUT SAID HE HAD THE LOYALTY OF "24 FIGHTING ORGANIZATIONS" AND CONTACT WITH UNITS OF A REBEL MOSLEM MOVEMENT, DARUL ISLAM, WHICH HAS PROCLAIMED AN INDEPENDENT STATE IN THE MOUNTAINS OF WEST JAVA. INDONESIAN LEADERS USUALLY TREAD LIGHTLY WHEN THE QUESTION OF STRONG MEASURES AGAINST DARUL ISLAM COMES UP, BECAUSE 90 PER CENT OF THE INDONESIANS ARE MOSLEMS.

WESTERLING IS BELIEVED TO HAVE CONTROL OF SEVERAL THOUSAND AMBONESE AND EURASIANS FORMERLY IN THE DUTCH COLONIAL ARMY. MANY OF THOSE SOLDIERS EXPECTED TO BE CALLED INTO THE NEW FEDERAL ARMY AND WERE DISSATISFIED WHEN ALL TOP POSTS WENT TO FORMER OFFICERS OF THE REPUBLICAN ARMY.

THE COMMUNIQUE, PREPARED BY THE U.S.I. DEFENSE MINISTRY, SAID THE DUTCH WERE STILL RESPONSIBLE FOR DUTCHMEN, EVEN AFTER SOVEREIGNTY WAS TURNED OVER TO THE NEW REPUBLIC. IT DECLARED THAT LEADERS OF THE DUTCH FORCES STATIONED IN BANDOENG FIRST SAID THEY COULD TAKE NO ACTION AGAINST MUTINOUS DUTCH FORCES.

IT WAS KNOWN ON SUNDAY, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID, THAT ARMED BANDS CONSISTING MOSTLY OF DESERTERS FROM DUTCH COMMANDO AND DUTCH POLICE FORCES AND LED BY FORMER DUTCH POLICE INSPECTORS WERE OPERATING NEAR BANDOENG. WHEN THE FIGHTING STARTED YESTERDAY ON THE ROAD TO BANDOENG, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID 300 OF SOME 800 FULLY EQUIPPED IRREGULARS COULD BE CLEARLY IDENTIFIED AS MEMBERS OF THE DUTCH ARMY.

THE INDONESIAN POPULATION HAS BEEN TOLD, SAID THE COMMUNIQUE, THAT THE SITUATION IN WEST JAVA WAS STILL CONFUSING AND THAT IT WAS INHERITED BY THE U.S.I. FROM THE DUTCH COLONIAL GOVERNMENT.

IT CHARGED THAT ATTEMPTS TO BRING PEACE TO WEST JAVA WERE BEING MADE DIFFICULT BY SOME DUTCH.

"THIS WAS PROVED BY SEVERAL ACTIONS OF SEVERAL DUTCHMEN AND FORCES UNDER DUTCH COMMAND," THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

THUS FAR THERE HAS BEEN NO INDICATION THAT FANATICAL MOSLEMS OF THE DARUL ISLAM MOVEMENT--WHOSE AIM IS TO SET UP AN INDEPENDENT MOSLEM STATE IN WEST JAVA--HAVE TEAMED UP WITH WESTERLING'S FORCES IN ANY LARGE SCALE DISTURBANCES.

BUT INDONESIAN SOURCES SAY THERE IS DANGER OF FURTHER REVOLT SHOULD WESTERLING GAIN THEIR SUPPORT AND THE HELP OF OTHER ELEMENTS. WEST JAVA IS ONE OF THE DUTCH-SPONSORED STATES THAT JOINED THE OLD REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA IS FORMING THE NEW UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.

WASHINGTON, JAN 24-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON WAS REPORTED TO HAVE APPROVED TODAY A CONGRESSIONAL MOVE TO SEND ABOUT $28,000,000 IN ECONOMIC AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA.
ACHESON'S STAND WAS DISCLOSED BY CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AFTER THE SECRETARY HAD SPENT TWO HOURS WITH THE LAWMAKERS REVIEWING FAR EASTERN DEVELOPMENTS.
CONNALLY TOLD REPORTERS THAT ACHESON "IS AGREEABLE" TO THE PROPOSAL FOR LIMITED ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE BUT SAID THE SECRETARY DID NOT SUGGEST HOW THE MONEY SHOULD BE SPENT.
BUT A REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEMBER WHO ASKED THAT HIS NAME NOT BE USED SAID LATER THAT THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS HAVE ASKED $50,000,000 FOR GENERAL ECONOMIC PURPOSES AND FOR CURRENCY STABILIZATION.
HE SAID HE DOUBTS WHETHER THE COMMITTEE WOULD APPROVE ANY FUNDS FOR CURRENCY STABILIZATION BUT REPORTED THAT THE GROUP FIGURED THAT $28,000,000 TO $30,000,000 "WILL TAKE CARE" OF THE ISLAND'S ECONOMIC NEEDS.
THIS MONEY PRESUMABLY WOULD COME FROM A $106,000,000 CHINA AID FUND WHICH CONGRESS APPROVED IN 1948, BUT WHICH IS DUE TO BE TURNED BACK TO THE TREASURY FEBRUARY 15 IF IT IS NOT USED BEFORE THEN.
ON THAT POINT THIS COMMITTEE MEMBER REPORTED THAT ACHESON PROPOSED EXTENDING THE LIFE OF THIS FUND UNTIL JUNE 30, 1951 AND EARMARKING IT FOR USE IN THE "GENERAL AREA OF CHINA."

BRIDGES HAS BEEN A CONSISTENT CRITIC OF THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION POLICIES, AT HOME AND ABROAD.

ASSERTING THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT MADE AN ERROR AT YALTA BY AGREEING TO GIVE RUSSIA A TOEHOLD IN CHINA, BRIDGES SAID THE ADMINISTRATION OUGHT TO HAVE GUMPTION ENOUGH TO ADMIT THIS ERROR.

HE ALSO SAID THAT DURING THE NINE YEARS FROM JULY 1, 1940 TO JUNE 30, 1949, THE UNITED STATES PROVIDED $11,000,000,000 (B) IN AID TO RUSSIA WHILE IT WAS MAKING $3,100,000,000 (B) AVAILABLE TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS UNDER CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

HE SAID LESS THAN A BILLION OF THIS HAD BEEN GIVEN TO CHIANG IN THE LAST FOUR YEARS, WHEN HE WAS FIGHTING CHINESE COMMUNISTS WHO NOW HAVE OVERRUN THE COUNTRY.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN 24-(AP)-IN PROFANE LANGUAGE A WITNESS FOR HARRY BRIDGES DENIED LOUDLY TODAY THAT HE EVER RECRUITED BRIDGES INTO THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

HE WAS BRUCE B. JONES, A MILL VALLEY DOCKWORKER.

A GOVERNMENT WITNESS, JOHN SCHOMAKER, EX-COMMUNIST AND ONE-TIME ASSOCIATE OF BRIDGES IN THE CIO LONGSHORE UNION (WHICH BRIDGES HEADS), HAD TESTIFIED HE AND JONES RECRUITED BRIDGES INTO THE PARTY IN OCTOBER OF 1933.

"SCHOMAKER IS A G--D----LIAR WHEN HE SAID I DID," JONES SHOUTED.

BRIDGES WAS INDICTED FOR PERJURY ON THE ACCUSATION THAT AT HIS 1945 CITIZENSHIP HEARING HE SWORE FALSELY THAT HE WAS NOT A COMMUNIST AND NEVER HAD BEEN A COMMUNIST. TWO OTHER UNION OFFICIALS, HENRY SCHMIDT AND J.R.ROBERTSON, BRIDGES' WITNESSES AT THE NATURALIZATION HEARING, WERE INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY.

SCHOMAKER TESTIFIED HE WAS ACTIVE IN THE WATERFRONT UNION IN OCTOBER, 1933, THAT HE GOT BRIDGES TO BECOME A COMMUNIST, AND THAT HE COLLECTED COMMUNIST DUES FROM HIM.

ANOTHER DEFENSE WITNESS TODAY, JAMES J.RYAN, PERSONNEL OFFICER OF THE PALO ALTO VETERANS' HOSPITAL, TESTIFIED SCHOMAKER WAS ON THE STAFF THERE UNTIL OCT. 30, 1933.

JONES SAID HE JOINED THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN 1932, AND HE CLAIMED, CEASED TO BE ACTIVE IN 1939.

F.JOSEPH DONOHUE, HEADING THE PROSECUTION STAFF, SAID "YOU DIDN'T LEAVE BECAUSE OF ANY DIFFERENCE OF OPINION?" JONES SAID "NO."

"YOU HAVEN'T ANY DIFFERENCE OF OPINION WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY TODAY, HAVE YOU?" THE ATTORNEY PURSUED.

JONES FLARED AND SHOUTED "MY OPINION AS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN IS MY OWN DAMNED BUSINESS AND I DON'T KNOW WHETHER YOU HAVE ANY BUSINESS TO ASK ME!"

DONOHUE WITHDREW THE QUESTION.

FEDERAL JUDGE GEORGE B.HARRIS FROWNED WHEN JONES USED PROFANITY.

"THIS IS NO REFLECTION ON YOU, MR.WITNESS," THE JUDGE SAID, "BUT THERE IS NO OCCASION FOR YOU TO USE SWEAR WORDS HERE AT ALL. THIS IS A COURT OF LAW."

JONES THEN APOLOGIZED SAYING: "I'M A LONGSHOREMAN AND A SEAMAN AND I FEEL VERY STRONGLY ABOUT THIS."

JAMES MAC INNIS, ANOTHER DEFENSE ATTORNEY, TOLD THE JURY HE WOULD PRESENT A NUMBER OF CHARACTER WITNESSES FOR THE DEFENDANTS.

MAC INNIS SAID HE WOULD, "IF POSSIBLE," CALL U.S. SENATOR WAYNE MORSE OF OREGON, ONE-TIME MEDIATOR OF MARITIME LABOR DISPUTES ON THE WEST COAST.

IN EUGENE, ORE., MORSE SAID "I CAN NOT SEE WHY THE DEFENSE WOULD WANT TO SUBPENA ME."

"IF I WERE PERMITTED TO TESTIFY BEYOND APPEARANCE IN COURT IN REGARD TO HARRY BRIDGES, I WOULD SAY THIS: 'IF HE ISN'T A COMMUNIST HE CERTAINLY FOLLOWS THE COMMIE LINE STRAIGHT DOWN.' I AM COMPLETELY OUT OF SYMPATHY WITH BRIDGES AND CAN NOT SEE WHY THE DEFENSE WOULD WANT TO SUBPENA ME."

NEW YORK, JAN 23-(AP)-FROM A STUDY OF UNITED STATES METHODS OF DEALING WITH CONSERVATION OF NATURAL RESOURCES, SHUNICHI UCHIDA, VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE RESOURCES COUNCIL OF JAPAN, HOPES TO TAKE BACK VALUABLE DATA TO HIS COUNTRY.

UCHIDA, ONE OF THE MANY LEADING JAPANESE WHO HAVE BEEN INVITED TO THE UNITED STATES THIS YEAR TO STUDY INDUSTRIAL TECHNIQUES AND DEMOCRATIC PROCESSES GENERALLY, SAID HIS GROUP WAS MAKING AN INTENSIVE SURVEY OF JAPAN'S NATURAL RESOURCES.

THE COUNCIL MAKES ITS REPORTS TO THE ECONOMIC STABILIZATION BOARD OF JAPAN, HE SAID, AND EVENTUALLY, THEY WILL MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS WHICH WILL BE PUT BEFORE THE PRIME MINISTER.

UCHIDA SAID, IN AN INTERVIEW, THAT DEVELOPMENT OF THEIR HYDRO POWER RESOURCES AND AN INCREASE IN COAL PRODUCTION WERE TWO OF THE MOST NECESSARY FACTORS TO JAPANESE ECONOMIC RECOVERY. "HYDRO POWER IS OUR MAIN CONCERN," HE EXPLAINED, "AND I WANT TO MAKE A COMPREHENSIVE STUDY OF THE HYDRO DEVELOPMENTS HERE AND ITS MANY PURPOSES--SUCH AS IN THE PREVENTION OF SOIL EROSION AND FLOOD CONTROL."

THE JAPANESE OFFICIAL HAS A BUSY SCHEDULE FOR HIS THREE MONTH VISIT HERE. IT INCLUDES PLANS FOR SPENDING SEVERAL DAYS TO A WEEK AT THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY (TVA), AT VARIOUS GOVERNMENTAL BUREAUS IN WASHINGTON, THE MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY IN BOSTON AND FINALLY, WITH AN OLD FRIEND, DR. EDWARD ACKERMAN IN CHICAGO.

UCHIDA SAID DR. ACKERMAN WHILE IN JAPAN, MADE THE SUGGESTIONS THAT LED TO THE FORMATION OF THE RESOURCES COUNCIL.

THIS IS UCHIDA'S FIRST VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES IN 20 YEARS. IN 1929-30 HE STUDIED AT M.I.T. AND DID GRADUATE WORK THERE.

EXTERNALLY, HE COULD SEE FEW CHANGES HERE. "TO ME," HE SAID, "IT JUST SEEMS THAT THE PEOPLE ARE A LITTLE BETTER DRESSED, THE FOOD IS BETTER THAN EVER AND COMMODITIES OF ALL KINDS SEEM TO BE EVEN MORE PLENTIFUL THAN WHEN I FIRST CAME TO THIS COUNTRY."

UCHIDA, WHO IS ALSO A PROFESSOR AT THE TOKYO INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, ADMITTED THAT THE VICTORIES OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAD "STRENGTHENED THE REDS IN JAPAN." BUT HE SAID THE IMPROVED ECONOMIC POSITION OF HIS COUNTRY HAD OFFSET TO A GREAT EXTENT THE PERSISTENT COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA.

"SINCE WE HAVE SUPPRESSED INFLATION, THE PEOPLE ARE EATING MORE AND ARE BETTER SATISFIED," HE SAID. "IF THAT CONDITION CONTINUES THE REDS WON'T HAVE MUCH OF A CHANCE IN JAPAN."

UCHIDA SAID THE RESOURCES COUNCIL WAS ONE OF THE FIRST ATTEMPTS AT OVERALL PLANNING IN JAPAN. "WHAT JAPAN WILL DO AS A RESULT OF OUR REPORT WILL BE VERY IMPORTANT TO OUR FUTURE, IN MY OPINION," HE SAID.

"WE ARE NOW TRYING TO SUPPORT A POPULATION OF 82 MILLION," HE ADDED, "AND ON OUR SMALL ISLANDS THAT IS A PROBLEM OF SOME MAGNITUDE."

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.24-(AP)-A DIPLOMATIC SOURCE FAMILIAR WITH SOVIET AFFAIRS PREDICTED TONIGHT THE CRISIS OVER CHINA IN THE U.N. MIGHT END SOONER THAN MANY DELEGATES HAD EXPECTED.

HE SAID THE PEIPING REGIME'S NAMING OF WEN TIEN CHANG, 50-YEAR-OLD COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBER, AS THE RED CHINA DELEGATE TO THE U.N. SHOULD SPEED UP A DECISION.

THIS SOURCE ASKED THAT HIS NAME NOT BE USED.

HE SAID NO ONE HERE KNOWS WHEN JAKOB A.MALIK, SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER, WILL WALK BACK INTO THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND THE SOVIET BLOC DELEGATES WILL GO BACK TO WORK IN OTHER U.N. BODIES. THE SOVIET BLOC NOW IS BOYCOTTING 10 U.N. ORGANS.

GENERAL OPINION HERE HAS BEEN THAT THE SOVIET WALK-OUT WOULD LAST SEVERAL WEEKS, UNTIL A MAJORITY OF THE U.N. MEMBERS RECOGNIZE THE RED REGIME. NOW THE REDS HAVE COME UP WITH A DELEGATE AND THIS DIPLOMATIC SOURCE INDICATED EVENTS ARE MOVING MORE RAPIDLY TOWARD A SHOWDOWN. HE WOULD NOT COMMENT FURTHER ON WHAT IS TAKING PLACE.

THIS SOURCE SAID THE TEST MAY COME WHEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL VOTES ON WHETHER TO ACCEPT THE CREDENTIALS OF CHANG, WHOSE EXACT WHEREABOUTS ARE NOT KNOWN HERE NOW. HE ADDED THIS WOULD BE JUST AS EFFECTIVE AS VOTING TO OUST T.F.TSIANG, NATIONALIST CHINA DELEGATE.

NO ONE HAS ANNOUNCED A MOVE TO BRING CHANG TO THE U.N. YET BUT THIS IS EXPECTED IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF AFFAIRS HERE. IF THE U.N. OR SOME COUNTRY ACTING THROUGH THE U.N. ASKS THE UNITED STATES TO ADMIT CHANG TO PRESENT HIS CASE HERE, THE U.S. IS EXPECTED TO LET HIM IN.

JAN 25 1950

SKETCHY DETAILS ON THE CAREER OF CHANG WERE BECOMING AVAILABLE HERE. HE IS 50 YEARS OLD, HAS BEEN A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY SINCE 1925, AND STUDIED AT THE UNITERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

HE WAS AMONG THE LEADERS OF THE LONG MARCH AFTER CHIANG KAI-SHEK EXPELLED THE COMMUNISTS AND THEY FLED TO THE NORTH. HE SERVED AS 1937-41 SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN CHINA. NOW HE IS CHIEF OF THE BUREAU FOR ADMINISTRATION OF MANCHURIA, WORKING FROM PEIPING.

HE ALSO IS A MEMBER OF THE CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (POLITBURO) OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY. HE IS A MEMBER OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE NORTHEAST BUREAU OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY AND SECRETARY OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE PROVINCE OF LIAOTUNG, MANCHURIA.

CHANG WAS EDUCATED IN CHINA AND RUSSIA IN ADDITION TO THE UNITED STATES. HE IS A GRADUATE OF MOSCOW UNIVERSITY. HE SPEAKS FLUENT ENGLISH AND RUSSIAN AND HAS TRANSLATED NUMEROUS RUSSIAN BOOKS INTO CHINESE.

U.N.-ATOMIC
BY FRANCIS W. CARPENTER
LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.24-(AP)-THE ONCE-BUSTLING SECTION OF THE AMERICAN DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS WORKING ON WORLD ATOMIC CONTROL PROPOSALS IS GRADUALLY SLOWING DOWN AND MOST OF ITS ACTIVITY HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED TO WASHINGTON, INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY.

THE SHIFT IN THE AMERICAN BASE OF OPERATIONS ON ATOMIC CONTROL FROM THE U.N. TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT ITSELF WAS POINTED UP BY ANNOUNCEMENT YESTERDAY OF THE RESIGNATION OF FREDERICK H.OSBORN, U.S. DEPUTY ON THE U.N. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS.

PERSONS CLOSE TO OSBORN INSISTED THE NEW WORK PLAN OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH HIS DECISION TO STEP OUT JAN. 31. THEY SAID HE WANTS TO GET BACK TO HIS PRIVATE INTERESTS, STUDY WORLD POPULATIONS AND KEEP HIS HAND IN ON THE ATOMIC PROBLEM AS AN ADVISOR AND CONSULTANT TO THE DELEGATION.

WHEN BERNARD M.BARUCH WAS U.S. DELEGATE ON THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION IN 1946 THE OFFICE WAS A BEE-HIVE OF ACTIVITY. AS THE EAST-WEST DEADLOCK ON ATOMIC CONTROL GREW HARDER AND HARDER THE OFFICE WORK SLOWED DOWN SOMEWHAT. BARUCH LEFT AND OSBORN CAME IN. NOW THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS TURNED THE PROBLEM OVER TO THE DIRECTION OF ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE JOHN D.HICKERSON, WHO COMMUTES TO LAKE SUCCESS FROM WASHINGTON FOR SIX-POWER ATOMIC TALKS.

THESE HAVE BEEN SUSPENDED NOW BECAUSE THE RUSSIANS WALKED OUT LAST THURSDAY IN A TIFF OVER THE CHINA QUESTION. WHEN AND IF THEY ARE RESUMED HICKERSON WILL RESUME HIS COMMUTING.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN APPOINTED JOHN C.ROSS, OF THE U.S. MISSION TO THE U.N., AS ACTING DEPUTY ON THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION. THIS WILL BE THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE COMMISSION WAS FOUNDED THAT THE AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVE ON THE SCENE WILL NOT BE ASSIGNED TO FULL TIME WORK ON THAT PROBLEM ALONE. ROSS IS A DEPUTY FOR THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND IS A DEPUTY ON OTHER MATTERS FOR WARREN R.AUSTIN, CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE.

ONE SOURCE SAID HE KNEW OF NO PLAN TO PUT A FULL-TIME DEPUTY HERE AND POINTED OUT THAT FOR SOME TIME THE BURDEN OF THE WORK HAD BEEN CARRIED ON IN WASHINGTON.

HICKERSON CAME ON THE SCENE LAST SUMMER WHEN OSBORN SUGGESTED THE AMERICANS NEEDED A NEW VIEWPOINT TO START THE SECRET SIX-POWER TALKS AUTHORIZED AT THAT TIME. HE SAI HE ALSO NEED

AUTHORIZED AT THAT TIME. HE SAID HE ALSO NEEDED A VACATION BUT THAT HE BELIEVED A MAN COMING IN WITH A FRESH IDEA MIGHT FIND SOME WAY OUT OF THE EAST-WEST DEADLOCK.

NOW OSBORN AND HICKERSON BOTH CONFESS THEY SEE NO WAY OUT AT PRESENT. BUT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS STANDING FIRM ON THE MAJORITY PLAN FOR ATOMIC CONTROL APPROVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN 1948 AND ENDORSED AGAIN LAST YEAR.

OSBORN SAID IN A COMMENT SUMMING UP HIS THREE YEARS ON THE COMMISSION THAT HE DID NOT THINK THE SOVIET UNION "WILL COME TO AGREEMENT ON THE CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY UNTIL THEY REASSESS THEIR RELATIONS WITH THE WORLD AS A WHOLE AND DECIDE THAT THEY WANT TO LIVE IN A COOPERATIVE AND FRIENDLY WORLD."

CHINA REDS OPEN PROPAGANDA DRIVE ON TIBET FRONT

LONDON, Jan. 25 — (AP) The Chinese communists stepped up their propaganda drive today for what they referred to as the "liberation of Tibet."

Their statements were interpreted in London as a curtain raiser to a possible invasion of that sparsely settled mountain land.

The official communist new China news agency, in a broadcast monitored here, quoted Gen. Chu Teh, commander of the Chinese Communists army, as saying that units of the army "would do their utmost for the liberation of Tibet without delay."

Chen Je-Tien, a party leader, said: "Nothing can stand in the way of that determination and the complete victory of the Chinese people."

Asked Red Aid

The agency reported that a group of so-called Tibetan democrats, meeting in Chungking yesterday, had asked that the Chinese communist army move into Tibet. The Tibetans were quoted as saying:

"The Tibetan people sincerely want the troops of the people's liberation army to liberate them from slavery as soon as possible."

They were represented as unanimously opposing the present Tibetan government at Lhasa in its announced intention of sending good will missions to the United States Britain, India and Nepal.

This move, they said, was prompted by "imperialist attempts to disrupt the territorial integrity of the Chinese people's (communist) republic and to split the multinational family of the Chinese people in order to exploit Tibet and keep it in the status of a colony forever."

Action in Shanghai

The propaganda onslaught poured out from Shanghai as well. The newspaper Wen Hui Pao, which like all others in China is now under the thumb of the communists, expressed confidence Tibet "will achieve its liberation."

A few days ago the new China news agency reported units of the Chinese communist army had penetrated to a point in Sinkiang province close to the Tibetan border.

The Chinese have tried for centuries to convert Tibet into a chinese provience but their efforts have never had lasting success. The cloud-wrapped land in central Asia is ruled by the boy Dalai Lama. Its rugged mountains are its best defense.

EAST GERMANY SEEKS SCRAP

Metals Drive Linked To Border Delay Of Trucks

Berlin, Jan. 25 (AP)—The Russians and their East German satellite Government have launched a vigorous drive for metals and scrap in an effort to ease East Germany's metal shortage, it was learned today.

This partly explains the recent conduct of Soviet guards on the zonal frontier, where any truck carrying metals or scrap is the immediate subject of either a painstaking examination or outright confiscation.

The campaign is similar to that invoked by Hitler in 1936.

The drive has reached even into the shops of east Berlin. Some stores are selling ordinary iron scrubbing pails only if the customers can supply some metal in return. German women report they have been allowed to buy hosiery without ration coupons upon delivery of a pound of lead.

Agreement Ignored

Western Allied sources declare the Soviets are ignoring an agreement with the Allies, reached after the Berlin blockade was lifted last year, to further the campaign.

By this agreement, seventeen specific commodities were allowed to be shipped without question from Berlin to West Germany, and vice versa. Among these were basic metals, such as copper.

Since then, a number of West German trucks loaded with just this type of material have been seized, the metal confiscated and the trucks returned to the border. Protests were filed by the three Western commandants without much satisfaction.

Reliance On Ruhr

Eastern Germany always leaned on the Ruhr for its steel and tools. This source has been choked off largely because of the comparative weakness of the east mark and also because production always starts with steel.

American economists here reason that, unless East Germany can get steel, she cannot produce anything else. Therefore East Germany has little to offer West Germany and the East-West talks on trade have been largely abortive as a result.

The Russians determined several weeks ago to plug the leaks of scrap and metals to get ready for a new steel mill about to be built on the site of Friedrich Flick's old Mitteldeutsche Stahlwerke in Brandenburg. Flick is serving a prison term as a war criminal. He was convicted by an American tribunal at Nuernberg.

Metal Thieves Sentenced

The Soviet zone has only three steel mills in operation. One is the Maxhuette at Unterwellenborn in Thuringia, also a former Flick plant: a second is in Riesa in Saxony; and the third is at Hennigsdorf, north of Berlin.

A tipoff to the high priority given metals is the conduct of Communist courts in east Berlin. Almost daily, "metal thieves" are being sentenced. The terms are stiff. One man charged with stealing 100 pounds of scrap iron drew two years at hard labor.

The Communist Berliner Zeitung said today the traffic holdups by the Russian guards at Helmstedt for the past few days are traceable directly to the metal drive.

Protection From Plundering

The newspaper said the frontier guards were merely trapping "metal thieves" and protecting the East German republic "against plundering from the West."

The newspaper did not attempt to explain why the Russians were holding up trucks moving from west Germany to Berlin.

An American official said the Soviets probably ordered their border points to stamp out movement of all metals out of Berlin and the Russian zone without too much explanation to the underlings.

"Therefore," he commented, "the guards are just as meticulous on the incoming traffic as the outgoing, without knowing why."

Truck Delays Increased

Metals of the type the Russians seek are not usually shipped by rail except in large quantities that would require planning plus Soviet sanction. Western officials say this is the reason the Soviets have not bothered interzonal rail traffic.

The harassment of truck traffic at the Helmstedt checkpoint, separating the Soviet zone from the West, was increased tonight. Russians slowed their pace of clearing trucks across the border until they were passing only about four trucks an hour. Previously they had been passing about ten; the normal rate is about 30.

An already long line of trucks swelled and by midnight there were 170 trucks in line. The Russians applied the same slowdown to trucks coming from Berlin and about 70 trucks were stacked up in this line.

Court Moves GI's Case From Paris To U.S.

Wiesbaden, Germany, Jan. 25 (AP). A United States Air Force court-martial decided today to move to Washington, D.C., for hearings on the sanity of Pfc. Stanley F. Edelbaum, of Brooklyn, who is accused of strangling a girl in a Paris hotel room.

The victim was Elizabeth Borik, 22, known to her Montmarte friends as "Lily the Hungarian." She was killed last May 8 while Edelbaum, stocky, 20-year-old bandsman, was on leave in the French capital.

Edelbaum's attorney, Capt. Everett Smith, of Austin, Texas, opened his case before the ten-man court with the contention that Edelbaum is insane. Two Air Force medical officers testified Edelbaum was mentally unsound the night of the killing.

Col. Alexis Yelizarov, deputy Soviet commandant, and two other Russian officers were among 200 foreign and German mourners at aa funeral service in the McNair barracks chapel.

"I am sure his death was hastened by the heavy strains and the incessant labors he undertook in the service of his country from the earliest days in Berlin and during and after the blockade of that city."

Free Exchange Plan Offered

LONDON, Thursday, Jan. 26 (AP)—A group of European statesmen and economists came out today with a broad plan for free exchange of European currencies based on a monetary fund.

Free exchange of currencies is held mandatory for the integration of Western European economies, for which the Organization for European Economic Cooperation is aiming.

De Gasperi Hopes To Organize New 3-Party Coalition

Rome, Jan. 25 — (AP) — Premier Alcide de Gasperi hopes to form Italy's new three-party coalition government today.

After two weeks of political consultations, the 63-year-old Christian Democrat leader said he would choose his ministers today and announce their names sometime tonight.

De Gasperi, who resigned January 12 for a "long planned cabinet shake-up," will head a coalition similar to his previous government except for withdrawal of the small Liberal party, which really has a conservative policy.

Most of the posts probably will go to de Gasperi's Christian Democrat party which holds a majority parliament. Other ministries will to the anti-Communist Labor Socialists (PSLI) and the Republicans, whose leader is Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza.

Russians Continue Truck Slowdown

Helmstedt, Germany, Jan. 25 (AP). The Russian slow-down on West Berlin truck traffic entered its fourth day today with 80 cargoes awaiting clearance at the Autobahn frontier point here.

Allied and German trains to Berlin, however, were running on schedule.

Soviet guards allowed about ten trucks an hour to enter the Russian zone from western Germany. One or two an hour were turned back because of alleged irregularities in shipping documents.

Although its papers were in order, a truck carrying medical supplies for the West Berlin Welfare Department was refused clearance by the Russians without explanation.

The slow-down forced truckers to wait an average of fifteen hours at the frontier barrier. The queue of vehicles extended nearly two miles.

3,000 CHINESE FORCED TO WORK IN RED MINES

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 25—(AP) Diplomatic informants said tonight more than 3,000 Chinese laborers have been shipped through Russia to work in the Upper Silesian coal mines of Poland.

The sources, who declined to be quoted by name, gave this account:

Movement of the Chinese followed lengthy negotiations between the Soviet Union, the Chinese Communist government and the Polish government.

The Chinese laborers are expected to reduce the critical shortage of manpower in that part of Poland taken from Germany after the war. Other Chinese may be shipped to Poland to work on farms and reconstruction projects.

Romanian Red Party Leader Expelled

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 25 (AP). The Romanian Workers (Communist) party has expelled a member of its ruling Central Committee "because of his political past," the official party newspaper Scanteia announced today.

The newspaper also disclosed the party has established a seventeen-member organization bureau on the Russian style.

[A similar purge has been under way in the Communist party of satellite Bulgaria, weeding out all but the so-called "Muscovite" Communists, trained in Moscow and obedient to its will. The reference to an organiaztion bureau evidently refers to one similar to the Orgburo in Russia, which controls appointments of key officials throughout the party network.]

No Word On "Past"

The expelled member of the Central Committee is Nicolae Radovanovici, a comparative unknown. The newspaper did not say what it was in his political past which caused his dismissal.

In the new Organization Bureau are Mrs. Anna Pauker, Foreign Minister, and Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej, secretary general of the party.

Promoted to full membership on the Central Committee of the party were Dimitru Petrescu, former head of the army's political education, and Simon Dughici, Romanian Ambassador to Moscow.

Tito Note Rejected

The Romanian news agency announced at the same time that the Government has rejected a note of Premier Marshal Tito's Yugoslav Government last December 18. The Yugoslavs had suggested the establishment of a mixed Romanian-Yugoslav Commission on Frontier Incidents.

Romania, in a note handed Yugoslav representatives yesterday, said the Yugoslav Government was, in this, trying "to hide the responsibility which it bears for these frontier incidents."

The note said such incidents are part of official Yugoslav policy directed against Romania.

Czech Workers Being Moved To Prague's Villas

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 25—(AP)—Pampered Czechoslovak shock workers (above-quota producers) and their families are being moved out of the poorer sections of town into apartments in Prague's most luxurious villas.

Mlada Fronta, newspaper of the Communist-dominated youth organization, said that in many sections of Prague workers are being given free living space in the homes of the few remaining wealthy families where the number of rooms exceeds the number persons in the owner's family.

Shock workers already get special privileges from the Communist government in the form of higher pay more food and textile rations, and priority in the purchase of furniture and the like. Mlada Fronta said the purpose of the housing action "is to remove the class differences among individual sections of Prague."

Steps toward making Prague "a workers city" were taken during the widespread arrests and the purges of last October and November, when thousands of businessmen were arrested, their homes and property seized.

Many families were ordered to move out of their apartments on short notice and to leave their furniture and household belongings behind. Then workers' families were moved in.

The government is also making available for workers apartments of foreign nationals who are steadily being ousted from the country.

Greek Border Village Raided By Guerrillas

Athens, Jan. 25 (AP)—Greek Army officials said tonight a band of 40 to 50 guerrillas raided the village of Palouri inside Greece and 3 miles from the Bulgarian frontier Sunday.

Three houses were burned. There were no casualties among the 1,000 villagers. Army men said the radiers came from Bulgaria but that it was unknown whether they were Greeks or Bulgarians.

RUSSIA RECOGNIZES U. S. OF INDONESIA

MOSCOW, (Thursday), Jan. 26—(AP) The Soviet Union recognized the new United States of Indonesia today.

The Russians informed the Dutch ambassador in Moscow of their decision and sent a telegram to Indonesian Premier Mohamed Hatta.

According to diplomatic protocol, the Soviet Union and the U.S.I. now will submit the name of a suggested envoy to each other. If acceptable to both sides the two envoys will leave for their posts and present their credentials.

sail or (unless) given sufficient reasons for its detention. I will radio American destroyers outside to come in and get me—that I am being held unlawfully."

Escort Had Left

There were no American destroyers outside. The destroyer Baussel had escorted us to Tsingtao from the mouth of the Yangtze to within 8 miles of Tsingtao. Now it probably was far away.

Shortly after Jones stormed from the navigation office, his clearance was delivered to him aboard ship. We emerged from a bad situation by casting off immediately. That was Monday.

Jones had begun his battle to get his papers returned on Saturday. No reason was given for denying them.

Another Ship Outside

Another Isbrandtsen ship, the Brooklyn Heights, was sailing outside to berth. Jones said he did not want to hazard leaving without clearance papers because it would jeopardize the Brooklyn Heights.

afterdeck, waiting for a launch to take them ashore. Finally Jones ordered the ship's lifeboat to take them ashore.

Came Back Stronger

That was not the last of them. They returned in the afternoon with twice as many soldiers and guns.

They left finally when Jones told them it was not his practice to make a pigsty of his salon and ship's business was done in the ship's office.

It took us four days to get Red clearance to enter the harbor and dock.

Jones called at Communist headquarters each day. There he was asked about United States politics and United States help to Chiang Kai-chek.

Laughed At Him

The captain said they often were laughing at him as a "sucker" for having his ship fired upon by United States ammunition and guns aimed by a United States-trained Chinese crew. This referred to the Nationalist gunboat that blocked our entry into Shanghai.

The Communists also needled

TOKYO TO STRESS FORMOSA'S VALUE TO STAFF CHIEFS

Tokyo, Jan. 25—(AP)—American military sources here say they plan to stress the strategic importance of Formosa to the Joint Chiefs of Staff next week.

They plan to urge an American effort to save the Nationalist Chinese island from Chinese Communists.

The final decision on the question, these sources said, will be made by the joint chiefs on the basis of information gathered during their tour of American Western Pacific defenses.

The sources, which may not be named, said General MacArthur and some of his key staff officers will bring up the Formosa question in formal briefings and in private conversations.

A prevalent military view here is that President Truman's hands 'off announcement did not definitely close the door to some American gesture toward saving the island from the Reds.

MacArthur and his top planners are known to believe the loss of Formosa would seriously weaken the American defense arc in the Western Pacific. Okinawa and Clark Field in the Philippines, are within easy bombing range of Formosa's excellent airfields.

neighbors.

A letter which Dean Acheson Secretary of State, wrote to Representative Javits (R. Lib., N.Y.) on the subject, made public in Washington January 15, was declared "fraught with grave consequences."

Calls Move Desirable

Acheson confirmed in the letter that Britain had resumed shipments of arms under existing treaties to Iraq, Hashemite Jordan and Egypt major opponents of Israel in the Palestine war.

"It is desirable that the countries in this part of the world (the Middle East) obtain from reliable and friendly sources such arms as they may need for their legitimate security requirements," Acheson wrote.

Javits had expressed fear in a letter to Acheson that the arms might be used for a fresh attack on Israel.

The Isreali statement also said the arms "may clearly facilitate renewed aggression against Israel."

Points To Types Of Arms

The self-defense purpose the Secretary cited was declared "hardly borne out by the types of arms which recently have been supplied the Arab states."

The Acheson letter, referring specifically to the shipment of planes and light naval vessels to Egypt, said "it should be recalled that Egypt is an important and strategically located nation of 20,000,000 people."

Israel started tightening her machinery for military preparedness earlier this month. Under a law passed by Parliament last year, a "national service" registration is under way.

Combined With Farm Work

The service is a combination of military training and agricultural emergency work in newly established frontier settlements.

All men from 18 to 49 and childless women up to 34 are called to register.

The Israeli statement asked why, if the Egyptians needed arms only for internal security, they are assembling "destroyers, submarines, dozens of jet planes and large quantities of the heaviest type of tanks and artillery" in addition to "many tens of thousands of automatic rifles, much of this from American war surplus in Europe."

Flying Arrow Skipper Tells Of Bluff He Worked On Chinese Communists

By Wayne Richardson

Aboard the Flying Arrow at Kobe, Japan, Thursday, Jan. 26—(AP)—The skipper of this American freighter had to bluff the Chinese Communists by threatening to call in nonexistent destroyers in order to get his clearance papers to leave Tsingtao.

Capt. David Jones, of Chicago, told me of the tense, behind-the-scenes negotiations as we approached Kobe. The freighter had put in at Tsingtao, Red port of North China, to discharge cargo after a Nationalist gunboat shelled us off Shanghai January 9.

Jones declared his ship's departure from Tsingtao was delayed for six days by the Communists, who delayed the vessel in every manner."

Poker Technique

In the midst of a quarrel to get his clearance papers at the Communist Navigation Bureau, Jones remembered poker. He likes to play the game. He gambled on a bluff. Turning on the officials, he said:

"If my vessel is not allowed to

The atmosphere was tense from the time we dropped anchor in Tsingtao on Friday, January 13.

We had to wait for three hours of unnecessary questioning by flag signal before we were ordered to a closer anchorage for quarantine inspection.

Then it was twenty more hours before quarantine officials boarded. They swarmed aboard, accompanied by many soldiers armed with sub-machine guns and rifles.

Obstructed Routine

They flocked over the ship and into the dining salon, obstructing the ship's routine and meals.

When asked to come to the ship's office for business, they said they would not allow the ship to dock until they were ready. They demanded the ship's radio be sealed and the ship's guns turned over to them.

The quarantine officers declared they considered American ships unfriendly.

They made a mess of the salon. Then they left and gathered on the him by asking him what he thought of his Government for allowing such proceedings.

Jones saw United States army equipment in their office and in the yard—equipment that had been given to the Nationalists and lost.

Told Of "Friendliness"

During the first of these interviews, the headquarters Communists, unlike the quarantine group, told Jones how friendly the Reds were to all ships. Jones reminded them of the guns the quarantine detail carried when they boarded his ship, adding:

"That does not look friendly."

Jones suggested if they wanted to be friendly they would grant shore leave passes for the Flying Arrow crew.

"After much wrangling," he said, "these were granted, making us the first Americans accorded such privilege."

Tsingtao once was an anchorage for the United States fleet in the Western Pacific. Now the Navy's hugh installations have been taken over by the Communists.

ISRAEL PROPOSES TO INCREASE ARMS

Says Move Is Forced By British Shipments To Arabs

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 25 (AP)—The Israeli Government said tonight Arab rearmament with British supplies left this nation no choice "but to increase its own defensive capacity to the maximum of its ability."

A statement issued by an authoritative spokesman through the Foreign Ministry expressed concern over the resumption of British arms shipments to Israel's Arab

Jerusalem Communists Denounce Morgenthau

Jerusalem, Jan. 25 (AP)—Some 40 Communists demonstrated against Henry Morgenthau, Jr., tonight. They called Morgenthau, chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, a "warmonger, Fascist international spy and agent provocateur."

The demonstrators said they resented a recent interviey in which the former United States Secretary of the Treasury was quoted as proposing a Middle East defense alliance.

Morgenthau attended an official reception given for him by the Israeli Government tonight.

Jakarta Police Raid Guerrilla Arsenal, Kill 2

Net 14 in Hunt for Dutch Outlaw Leader; Rebels Attack Additional Cities

JAKARTA (Batavia), U. S. I., Jan. 25 (AP).—Indonesian military police killed two men, wounded a third and arrested fourteen in a raid today on a secret guerrilla arsenal here. The men were killed when they attempted to resist police entry to a downtown warehouse. The police seized dozens of weapons and hundreds of rounds of ammunition.

The raid was made during a city-wide hunt for followers of Dutch guerrilla leader R. P. P. Westerling, whose band of outlaws raided the west Java city of Bandoeng Monday, killing scores of persons.

Lieutenant Colonel Daan Jahja military governor of Jakarta, said other arrests of suspected followers of Westerling were made as police continued to search the city.

Another guerrilla attack occurred in the west Java town of Tjiandjoer last night, the Indonesian news agency Antara said. The attackers were said to be in Dutch uniforms but were not further identified. Antara said they withdrew after a gun battle but unofficial sources said fighting went on all night.

INDIA TO BECOME SOVEREIGN STATE IN RITES TODAY

Marc Gordon

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 25. — (AP) The dream of a whole generation of Indians comes true tomorrow when this 29-month-old British dominion formally transforms itself into a "sovereign democratic republic."

Simple ceremonies in magnificent Durbar hall, throne room of British viceroys, will mark the inauguration of the new republic constitution and the replacement of the governor general by newly elected President Rajendra Prasad as the chief of state.

The day is the anniversary of the passage by the all-India Congress party Jan. 26, 1927, of a resolution declaring its goal was to establish a sovereign independent republic.

Face Many Problems

Fulfillment of this pledge is on a day that astrologers have warned is unauspicious. But India's leaders have no need for prognosticators to tell them that.

The cold war over communism rages on all sides. The age-old dilemma of how to feed a population growing by the millions yearly is still here. Britain owes the country a large war debt and India's own capital is on virtual strike.

She has a feud over Kashmir and other issues with Pakistan, the Moslem nation which won dominion-hood at the same time as India, Aug. 15, 1947. Pakistan is continuing her dominion status as India steps out on the stage of independence.

Not only is there division between Moslem and Hindu, but animosity between geographical areas, provinces and many peoples of differing caste and language. Independence has encouraged movements from which might spring dictatorship.

The government is beset by a shortage of trained, capable and unselfish leaders and administrators.

Friends of Gandhi

Chief actors in the ceremonial drama tomorrow will be Governor General C. Rajagopalachari, last representative of the British sovereign and the first Indian to fill the post, and Prasad, who was elected first president by the Constituent Assembly yesterday.

Both are veterans of the revolutionary struggle, both close associates of Mohandas Gandhi, father of free India. Just off stage is Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, the dynamic idealist who wears the political leadership inherited from Gandhi.

Rajagopalachari will read the proclamation making the nation a republic and escort the 64-year-old Prasad to the presidential chair in the marble-columned hall before an audience of government officials, army, navy and air commanders, diplomats and members of the assembly who wrote the constitution.

Thus, in a few moments, India's 370,000,000 people will have broken their last ties with the British crown.

By a special decision of a commonwealth conference, India remains a voluntary economic and political member of the British commonwealth, even though she will be without the link to the crown binding all the other members.

Asia Asks Larger Part In Labor Group

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 25 (AP)—The Asian Regional Conference of the International Labor Organization sought ways today to insure a fair representation of eastern nations in ILO ranks.

The resolution, unanimously passed by the conference, pointed out that Asia, which recently has undergone many social and political changes, makes up a large percentage of the world's population.

The conference also called for an early parley of countries employing Asian seamen to consider measures to improve their lot.

SABOTAGE IN HANOI SHUTS OFF POWER

French Say That Nationalists Blasted 7 Transformers—City Transport Stalled

HANOI, Indo-China, Jan. 25 (AP)—The blasting of seven power transformers left Hanoi, the transportation hub of strife-torn northern Indo-China, without electricity today.

French officials said the sabotage had been carried out by Nationalist followers of the Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh. They have long been in revolt against French rule and the French-sponsored Government of ex-Emperor Bao Dai in Viet Nam, which embraces the most populous areas of Indo-China.

The French expressed the belief that the explosives had been placed with the knowledge of power station workers.

Street cars were stalled. This city of 140,000 persons, on the Red River, eighty miles from the Gulf of Tongking and ninety miles from the frontier of Communist China, was cut off from radio contact with the outside world for about two hours. Large numbers of troops patroled the streets.

This blow followed a Nationalist attack last week on the military airport in Hanoi's outskirts.

About 2,000 more Chinese Nationalist soldiers were reported to have retreated across the frontier to internment in Indo-China. About 32,000 Nationalist troops now have been interned by this country.

Dr. Philip C. Jessup, roving United States Ambassador studying Asian problems, is scheduled to visit Hanoi later this week. He is now meeting with French and Viet Nam officials in Saigon.

Sinkiang Purge Reported

SRINAGAR, Kashmir, Jan. 25 (AP)—A former Cabinet minister in the Sinkiang Government said here today the Communists in Sinkiang were already liquidating "influential non-Communist elements."

Mohammed Emin Bogra, who described himself as a former Development Minister, arrived here with several other refugees from the northwest Chinese province.

Stratemeyer Leaves Australia

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 25 (AP).—Lieutenant General George E. Stratemeyer, chief of the United States Far Eastern Air Force, today concluded talks with Australian Cabinet Ministers and defense chiefs. He left by air for Tokyo. Details of the talks were not disclosed, but it is understood they touched on Australia's air role in the event of war.

Hiss Sentenced; Protests His Innocence

New York, Jan. 25 (AP)—Alger Hiss was sentenced today to five years in a Federal penitentiary after his conviction on two perjury counts.

He will appeal his case.

Ashen-faced but composed in manner, the former State Department official denied to the end that he ever slipped secret state documents to Whittaker Chambers, self-styled courier for a prewar Soviet spy ring.

Before Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard sentenced him to five years on each of the two counts—the sentences to run concurrently—and declined to levy any fine against him, Hiss was granted permission to speak.

"Forgery By Typewriter"

Rising from his seat beside his gray-haired wife, Priscilla, the man who was an advisor to President Roosevelt at Yalta walked to the bar between two United States marshals and declared in a firm voice:

"I would like to thank your honor for your consideration and for this opportunity again to deny charges against me.

"I am confident that in the future all the facts will be brought out to show how Whittaker Chambers was able to carry out forgery by typewriter."

Shortly before noon, Hiss posted $10,000 bail and was freed pending action on his appeal. He had been free in $5,000 bail.

His lawyer, Claude B. Cross, filed a notice of appeal with the clerk of the court.

Cross Cites Hiss Record

Cross asked Judge Goddard not to imprison Hiss.

Cross said Hiss' "contributions to the interests of the United States and to our international relations are matters beyond dispute."

He added concerning Hiss' financial condition that "what little savings he had were gone long before the conclusion of the first trial."

The first Hiss trial ended last July in a jury disagreement.

Cross said Hiss had to borrow money and that his debts still were unpaid.

Financed By Friends

"The present trial," Cross said, "was financed by loyal friends and loyal Americans who have believed and still believe in his innocence. His financial ruin is an accomplished fact."

The defense attorney added that Hiss' "brilliant career has been ruined" and that further punishment "is unnecessary."

The next step for appeal beyond the circuit court would be to the United States Supreme Court. Should it go to the highest tribunal, at least three justices are expected to disqualify themselves.

They are Felix Frankfurter, Stanley Reed and Tom C. Clark. The first two testified as character witnesses for Hiss at the first trial last June. Justice Clark was United States Attorney General while the Government worked up its case against Hiss.

"Should Be A Warning"

A decision to disqualify himself is up to each justice. He is not compelled by law. However, a justice customarily steps down in a case when he feels that either side might be aggrieved by his considering it.

The jury held that Hiss lied when he denied passing documents to Whittaker Chambers, self-styled courier for a Communist spy ring, and lied again when he denied seeing Chambers after January 1, 1937.

Judge Goddard denied a defense request that the 45-year-old Hiss not be imprisoned, saying:

"This should be a warning that a crime of this character may not be committed with impunity."

10-Year Total Asked

The Government had recommended that Hiss be sentenced to five years on each count, to run concurrently. The Government prosecutor, Thomas F. Murphy, assistant United States attorney, did not recommend a fine.

Murphy had requested that $25,000 bail be set, but Judge Goddard said that was "too high."

Claude B. Cross, of Boston, defense counsel, told the court: "I think the defendant can raise $10,000."

The entire proceedings were completed within 20 minutes after court opened.

Spy Charge Outlawed

Hiss could not be charged at this late date with espionage, because the statute of limitations outlaws prosecution so long after the alleged offense.

It took two trials for the Government to win its case. The first ended in a jury deadlock, 8-4, for conviction last summer.

Chambers was the Government's main witness in both trials.

ACHESON PLEDGES LOYALTY TO HISS

Won't Turn His Back on Ex-State Dept. Aide Given 5-Year Term, He Says

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 — (AP) "I do not intend to turn my back on Alger Hiss," Secretary of State Acheson said today.

He delivered that dramatic pledge of continued loyalty to his former State department associate a few hours after Hiss was sentenced to five years in prison as a perjurer.

He advised people acquainted with Hiss to take counsel of the Sermon on the Mount in deciding their attitude toward the convicted man. He cited chapter and verse of the bible to show exactly what he meant.

Thus Acheson hammered home a somewhat similar statement he made a year ago, when Hiss was under indictment but had not been brought to trial. On Jan. 13, 1949, while up for Confirmation to his present high post, Acheson told a senate committee "Alger Hiss and I became friends and we remain friends. My friendship is not given easily and it is not easily withdrawn."

Repeated in Senate

Today's renewed commitment was given at a news conference. Acheson later gave permission to be quoted directly.

In a matter of minutes his words were relayed to the Senate floor by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis), who called the secretary's statement "fantastic."

McCarthy said he wondered whether Acheson was saying, in effect, that he also would not turn his back on others who—as McCarthy put it—had aided the communis movement.

Senator Capehart (R-Ind) jumped up to say he is "more proud than ever" that he voted against confirmation of Acheson as secretary of state last year.

The Senate happened to be discussing the Hiss case at the time that Acheson's new statement became public.

Senator Mundt (R-SD) had told his colleagues that the Hiss case should spur Congress into extending the statutory time limit for trying men and women for serious crimes which involve the nation's security.

"We must not blandly assume that by the arrest, conviction and punishment of Alger Hiss we have rid the State department of all its foreign-minded operatives or communist sympathizers," Mundt said.

"We must keep in mind that many employes in that department were brought into positions of responsibility and importance through their connection with Hiss and his misguided friends, mentors and associates."

Voice Is Tense

Acheson seemed fully prepared for the question propounded at his news conference by the New York Herald Tribune's Homer W. Bigart.

"Do you have any comment on the Hiss case?" Bigart asked.

Reporters thought Acheson's voice sounded more tense and emotional than usual as he replied.

He said the Hiss case is now before the courts and "I think it would be highly improper for me" to discuss any aspect of the evidence or any other matters pertaining to the conduct of the trial.

Acheson has stated previously that Hiss was and is his friend.

The secretary said he supposed the questioning reporter had in mind something more than what he had just said. Then he elaborated:

"Mr. Hiss's case is before the courts and I think it would be highly improper for me to discuss the legal aspects of the case or the evidence or anything to do with the case.

"I take it the purpose of your question was to bring something other than that out of me.

"I should like to make it clear to you that whatever the outcome of any appeal which Mr. Hiss or his lawyers may make in this case, I do not intend to turn my back on Alger Hiss.

"I think every person who has known Alger Hiss or has served with him at any time has upon his conscience the very serious task of deciding what his attitude is and what his conduct should be. That must be done by each person in the light of his own standards and his own principles.

Quotes Bible

"For me, there is very little doubt about those standards or those principles. I think they were stated for us a very long time ago. They were stated on the Mount of Olives and if you are interested in seeing them, you will find them in the 25th chapter of the gospel according to St. Matthew beginning at verse 34."

Later a State department spokesman said Acheson's citation ran from the 34th through the 40th verses of St. Matthew's account of the final judgment.

That section covers only the statement to the righteous in sending them to their reward, and disregards later verses on the sentence of the righteous.

The passage from the King James version:

"34 Then shall the king say unto them on his right hand, come ye blessed of my father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

"35 For I was ahungred, and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in;

"36 Naked, and ye clothed me; I was sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

"37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred and fed thee or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

"38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? Or naked, and clothed thee?

"39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

"40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

is also telling the world that he will not turn his back on any of the other Communists in the State Department."

Senator Mundt (R., S.D.), who had the floor when McCarthy broke in, said he preferred not to comment on that.

Mundt did tell the Senate, however, that:

"Of course, he (Acheson) speaks from the affinity of a close and long-established friendship, and a business relationship of his brother (Donald Hiss), with whom he (Acheson) was a partner in the law business."

Mundt said that in view of those things, he does not believe that Acheson "is exactly what we would call an objective witness as to the loyalty of Alger Hiss."

Described As Befuddled

At another point in his speech, Mundt referred to the Secretary of State as "poor, befuddled Dean Acheson." He said Hiss had the ability to work his way into the confidence of men in high position and get control of policy-making jobs.

Mundt said that President Roosevelt was too weary and ill at Yalta to cope with Stalin's demands and he had to depend on his advisers—among them Alger Hiss.

"A few still say he (Hiss) is just a nice young man with a Harvard accent and a neat crease in front of his trousers," Mundt said.

Pictures Hiss As Schemer

He pictured Hiss as a man who schemed to get himself into policy-making positions.

And at one point he said: "No wonder he could fool Dean Acheson. He was suave, able, ingenious. But he wasn't smart enough to cover up his tracks."

Senator Capehart (R., Ind.) jumped up to say he was "more proud than ever" that he voted against Acheson's confirmation as Secretary of State last year.

Probed Pumpkin Papers

Mundt, a former House member, was acting chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities when it investigated the famous "pumpkin papers" produced by Whittaker Chambers, later the Government's star witness in its prosecution of Hiss.

Those papers figured importantly in Hiss' trial. But, because the statute of limitations had run out, Hiss was tried not for actually passing secret documents to a Soviet spy ring, but for committing perjury.

The Government charged that he lied when he denied giving any secret papers to Chambers, and lied again when he denied having seen Chambers after January 1, 1937.

Urges Extending Limits

Mundt told the Senate that in view of the Hiss case, Congress should take swift steps to extend the time limits for bringing a person to trial for serious crimes which involved the nation's security.

"Three short years cannot again buy immunity from punishment for anybody guilty of a crime against the security of his Government," Mundt declared.

Mundt cautioned his colleagues against assuming that all of the associates who worked with Alger Hiss in the State Department were disloyal citizens. He added, however:

"Just as clearly, we must not blandly assume that by the arrest, conviction and punishment of Alger Hiss we have rid the State Department of all its foreign-minded operatives or Communist sympathizers.

Again Assails Truman

"We must keep in mind that many employés in that department were brought into positions of responsibility and importance through their connection with Hiss and his misguided friends, mentors, and associates."

Mundt renewed his criticism of President Truman for calling the House committee's investigation a red herring and for refusing to let the Justice Department turn over to the committee certain information it was seeking about Hiss.

He said the committee "suffered severely from obstructionist tactics" of the executive department of the Government in general and the White House in particular.

3 Join In Denunciation

Mundt was joined by Republican Senators Hickenlooper (Iowa), Ferguson (Mich.) and Knowland (Cal.) in a denunciation of what they termed the refusal of the President and other executive officials to supply information which Congress on several occasions has tried to obtain.

Hickenlooper indicated he was talking about his attempts to get information dealing with the Atomic Energy Commission's security program.

He accused the Administration of "aiding and abetting concealment of evidence" and of "intimidation of witnesses." He said that if the people generally were aware of what was going on, "there would be a mass revolt" against such a policy.

Mundt said he had been hoping that Congress would do something about it, and added:

"Sometime we are going to have to measure up to our dimension as men."

Four Strategic Positions

Mundt told the Senate that the "dangers to America provided by the activities of Alger Hiss are almost impossible to overemphasize or overestimate, due to the fact that in the long career which Hiss had with the Government he held four strategic positions."

The Senator listed these posts as: A "high functionary in the Far Eastern division of the State Department making recommendation on our policy toward China"; executive secretary for the Dumbarton Oaks international monetary conference; secretary general of the San Francisco conference on the United Nations; and "personal, confidential adviser to President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Stettinius both before and after the entire Yalta conference."

Mundt said it "may well be that in the retrospect of history, the Alger Hiss case will rank of greater importance than the Teapot Dome scandals of an earlier era."

GOP Senators Denounce Acheson Loyalty To Hiss

JAN 26 19

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—Several Republican senators criticized tonight Secretary of State Acheson's declaration that he does not intend to turn his back on Alger Hiss, former State Department official sentenced to five years in prison for perjury.

Acheson's statement, delivered at a news conference, sped swiftly to the Capitol, where the Senate still was in session.

"Fantastic," Says McCarthy

Calling Acheson's declaration "fantastic," Senator McCarthy (R. Wis.) asked if it could be an indication "that the Secretary of State

U.S. HITS RUSSIA FOR SECRET DEALS WITH CHINA REDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 — (AP) The State department, renewing its charges that Russia is absorbing important areas of China, said today the Chinese Reds are reported to have entered into secret deals with Moscow.

JAN 26 1950

These deals, known as the "Moscow and Harbin agreements," are reported to grant the USSR special rights in Manchuria, the department said in a statement.

The statement was issued in support of Secretary of State Acheson's recent charge that Russia is detaching Manchuria, outer Mongolia, inner Mongolia and Sinkiang from China. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky called the allegations "monstrous and awkward lies."

Today the State department said:

Take Over Manchuria

In Manchuria, "the Soviet Union has placed the richest industrial area of China firmly behind the far eastern segment of the Iron Curtain." The two secret agreements are reported to give Russia special rights which have strengthened the Soviet grip.

In outer Mongolia, Chinese authority has been "completely excluded." The "people's republic" has given Russia a complete monopoly of its trade and authorized the maintenance of Soviet troops there.

"In inner Mongolia and Sinkiang, the process of economic and political penetration is less advanced but scattered indications of today are strongly reminiscent of earlier steps in the other two of the four northern areas. As in Manchuria, permission is being sought and by now may have been granted to station Soviet troops in Sinkiang."

Have More Evidence

The process of detaching these areas from Chinese control "may be expected to proceed by carefully planned stages," as in eastern Europe. How long it takes will depend on "the Soviet timetable—and of course on any resistance which may arise in Chinese quarters."

The 1,000-word statement, which was a summary of State department reports of Soviet penetration, was put out in the unusual form of "background material" as an obvious retort to Vishinsky's denial of Acheson's charges. The secretary made then Jan. 12 in a national press club address. Vishinsky responded last Saturday with a sweeping denial that Russia is annexing the areas and a counter charge that Acheson was trying to use a "slanderous smoke screen" to hide the "failure" of American policies in China.

State department officials said they had more evidence than was contained in today's release but were not making it public at this time. (AP)

Wallace To Testify Today At Uranium Shipment Probe

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—A story of fourteen months of futile Soviet efforts to get sixteen tons of uranium, vital to the atom-bomb project, was unfolded today before House investigators.

The Un-American Activities Committee was told the campaign failed only after the Soviets carried it as high as Henry L. Stimson and drew a flat rejection from him. That was back in 1943 and 1944, when Stimson was Secretary of War.

The committee also heard that another wartime ally, Britain, got about fifteen tons of uranium oxide in the Spring of 1943. Nobody is doing much fussing about that, although Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) remarked:

"I think we'll explore that a little further."

Wallace To Appear Today

Former Vice President Henry A. Wallace will be heard tomorrow.

Fulton Lewis, radio commentator, charged in a broadcast weeks ago that Wallace applied pressure to get uranium for the Russians.

Wallace said that was sheerest nonsense. He asked for a chance to reply at a public hearing. The committee agreed.

For a time Wallace headed the Board of Economic Warfare—the agency which issued licenses under which some uranium shipments did reach Russia. Later on, President Truman dropped him as Secretary of Commerce, on grounds he was taking too much of a pro-Russian slant on foreign policy.

Uranium Sought By Ton

The story of persistent Russian attempts to get uranium compounds by the ton came from Courtney E. Owens, committee investigator.

Citing what he described as official Government letters and memos as his authority, Owens said the Russians asked in March, 1943, for eight tons of uranium nitrate and eight of uranium oxide.

For a year, he said, the Soviets kept on asking and kept getting turned down.

Finally, Owens said, Lieut. Gen. L. G. Rudenko, chairman of the Soviety Purchasing Commission, wrote Stimson that the uranium was urgently needed for the Russian war industry, along with 25 pounds of uranium metal. That was on March 31, 1944.

Stimson Rejected Request

After conferences in which Lieut. Gen. Leslie R. Groves took part as head of the atom-bomb project, Owens related, Stimson sent Rudenko a reply on April 17, 1944. It said "we find ourselves unable to comply" because "the supply is not sufficient."

Word that the British were allowed fifteen tons of oxide came from Thomas B. Crenshaw, Watertown (N.Y.) business man who was a wartime colonel in the atom-bomb project.

Both Owens and Crenshaw filled in a few more details in the old story of uranium shipments that did go to Russia. The biggest was 1,000 pounds of oxide and nitrate, obtained from a Canadian producer, and sent to Russia by way of Montana and Alaska in the middle of 1943.

The supplier was the Canadian Radium and Uranium Company of New York city; Boris Pregel, president.

Confusion Over Shipment

There still is considerable confusion about the shipment.

Dr. Philip Merritt, Atomic Energy Commission official who was with the atomic project during the war, testified yesterday that it apparently violated a contract the Government had with Pregel's firm for first chance to buy any uranium the company obtained.

Pregel said in New York that the testimony was inaccurate, and asked for a prompt hearing which may be "granted next week." He said the shipment was made "with the approval of the governments of the United States and the Dominion of Canada."

Then today, Frank Tavenner, committee counsel, said he had talked with AEC officials in New York and learned that the contract with Pregel's firm, dated March 27, 1943, "was probably not executed and delivered until a date subsequent to May 12." And the order for the 1,000 pounds, he said, was placed before that, on May 1, although shipment wasn't made until June.

Value To Russians Slight

Crenshaw said he recalls signing a memo saying General Groves decided the license should be issued because of "the pressure that was being brought to bear." But he said he can't remember who may have been putting on pressure or whether the word was his or Groves's.

But as to the value of the 1,000 pounds to the Russians, Crenshaw's appraisal was "very, very slight, if any" . . . "useful for experimental purposes, that's all."

He said the Russians could have gotten the materials elsewhere. And, he added, it might very well have been to the best interests of this country to ship the Russians some uranium that would "throw them off the track."

Text of U. S. 'Background' on China

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 (AP)—Following is the text of "background material" issued by the State Department today to support its charge that Russia is absorbing four areas of North China:

The following background material, based on the large accumulation of reports and data available to this Government, is illustrative of the development in the northern areas of China to which the Secretary referred in his address to the National Press Club on Jan. 12, 1950.

Chinese authority has been completely excluded from Outer Mongolia, and, despite the fiction of the Independent Mongolian People's Republic, Soviet penetration in Outer Mongolia is complete. Recognition of the Communist regime established there earlier by the Soviet military occupational authorities resulted from a so-called "plebiscite" held on Oct. 20, 1945. The plebiscite was provided for by the Sino-Soviet Treaty of 1945, and recognition was subsequently extended by the Chinese National Government on Jan. 6, 1946.

However, the Mongolian People's Republic exchanges diplomatic representatives only with the U.S.S.R., and in addition to China, even within the Soviet orbit, only North Korea and Albania have seen fit to recognize Mongolian "independence." The U.S.S.R. was quick to conclude a treaty with the new "independent republic." This treaty authorizes the maintenance of Soviet troops in the "independent republic." The trade of Outer Mongolia is oriented toward and completely monopolized by the U.S.S.R.

Sino-Soviet Partnership

Manchuria is currently ruled by a Sino-Soviet partnership, with the strongest partner in the dominant position. The U.S.S.R. is utilizing the 1945 Sino-Soviet treaty to penetrate and extend its economic and strategic domination. Soviet troops occupy Dairen and the Port Arthur naval base area. Soviet control of the railroads there has reportedly gone much further than was contemplated in the 1945 treaty, both as regards the railroads themselves and collateral interests.

Soviet influence in the native military forces in Manchuria is generally recognized; Chinese Communists have openly admitted this Soviet participation. Soviet participation in the Manchurian secret police has also been reported.

The U.S.S.R. has obtained special navigation and fishing rights in Manchuria, operates the only civil air service in Manchuria, controls and operates industrial facilities in Dairen, Harbin and Chia-Mussu, controls the power transmission from the Yalu hydroelectric plant, controls and operates several coal and gold mines.

The Sha Ho Kon Vehicle Manufacturing Works, the Dairen Shipbuilding Yard and the Dairen Sugar Works are all under Soviet military control. Munitions factories in the area are also reportedly being operated by the U.S.S.R. The Soviet Union has placed the richest industrial area of China firmly behind the Far Eastern segment of the Iron Curtain.

Pact With Local Officials

A special trade agreement was concluded in July, 1949, between Soviet and local authorities in Manchuria—not with the Chinese Communist authorities in Peiping. Under the terms of this pact agricultural products, reportedly 60 per cent of a farmer's produce, are being exported to the Soviet Union, quantities that are causing severe shortages, while other areas of China are experiencing famine conditions. In return, Manchuria is apparently receiving for the most part industrial equipment and machinery which the Russians had stripped from Manchuria after V-J Day.

In addition to this trade agreement there are reported to be two secret agreements signed by the Chinese Communists with the U.S.S.R., known as the Moscow Agreement and the Harbin Agreement. These purportedly grant further special rights to the U.S.S.R.

Even after the announced establishment of a central Chinese Communist regime at Peiping, various operations and activities in Manchuria have been continued on a separate basis. There is a separate currency, a separate system of economic controls, a separate railway administration only indirectly responsible to Peiping, and a separate trade agreement with the U.S.S.R.

Thus U.S.S.R. penetration in Manchuria is widespread and economic and strategic domination is well advanced.

Troop Stations Sought

In Inner Mongolia and in Sinkiang, the process of economic and political penetration is less advanced, but scattered indications of today are strongly reminiscent of earlier steps in the other two of the four northern areas. As in Manchuria, permission is being sought, and by now may have been granted to station Soviet troops in Sinkiang.

In June, 1949, the U.S.S.R. obtained from the National Government a five-year extension of the 1939 air agreement granting the Soviets exclusive rights to the Alma Ata-Hami air route. A simultaneous attempt was made to obtain new privileges of trade and investment in the area from the National Government when it was in full retreat and had already withdrawn to south of the Yangtze.

In Ili in northwestern Sinkiang there was until recently a Soviet-oriented autonomous government from which the Soviets obtained extensive operating rights to oil wells, gold mines, and tungsten mines. There is no indication that the discontinuance of the special regime with the creation of the Peiping Government has meant the discontinuance of these special Soviet rights.

Loose Ties to Manchuria

In the Mongol districts of northwest Manchuria, generally regarded as part of Inner Mongolia, a Soviet-oriented, semi-autonomous Mongol regime only loosely affiliated with the Chinese Communist authorities in Manchuria holds the reins of power.

How long this process of penetration and detachment will take will depend on the Soviet timetable—and of course on any resistance which may arise in Chinese quarters. The strategic points such as communications and industry appear already well under U.S.S.R. control.

Soviet strategic detachment from Chinese control is in progress in China's northern provinces as it is in certain European areas and, as in those areas, may be expected to proceed by carefully planned stages.

Czech Seeks Residence Permit

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 (AP).—Legislation to permit Dr. Alexander Fiala, thirty-six-year-old Czechoslovakian physician, to remain in the United States permanently has been introduced by Representative James C. Auchincloss, Republican, of New Jersey. Dr. Fiala, now working at Fitkin Hospital, Asbury Park, N. J., entered this country legally in November, 1947, as the husband of an American citizen. In 1948, however, his wife, Lillian, of Mishawaka, Ind., had their two-year-old marriage annulled by the Indiana courts on the ground she was an unkissed bride. If she had obtained a divorce, Dr. Fiala could stay in the country without complications.

Wiley Says MacArthur Should Be Asked Home

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—Senator Wiley (R., Wis.) asked the Senate today to insist that Gen. Douglas MacArthur be called home to tell the people the "true situation" in the "explosive Far East."

"There has been a shocking iron curtain set up between MacArthur and the American people through no fault of the General," Wiley said.

He suggested that the Senate and House could arrange to hear MacArthur in a joint session. Noting that the General will be 70 tomorrow, he said this would be the best way to send a birthday greeting to the Allied occupied commander in Japan.

"While no senator would ask that military security regulations be violated, it is quite clear that neither Congress nor the people have been given the necessary facts on the true situation, as reported by General MacArthur, in the explosive Far East," Wiley said.

First Sailing Under Israeli Flag

BALTIMORE, Jan. 25 (AP).—The first American ship to fly the Israeli flag will sail tomorrow from Baltimore. Ceremonies transferring the ship from the Isthmian Steamship Company to the M. Dizengoff Shipping Limited were held yesterday at the Maryland Drydock Company.

Mrs. William Greenfeld, acting vice-president of Hadassah of Baltimore, and Mrs. William Fury, wife of the executive director of the Baltimore Zionists, joined in running up the flag of Israel on the 424-foot ship. The vessel's name was changed from Atlantic City to Meir Dizengoff, the name of the first mayor of Tel Aviv.

Dutchman Tours United States On $25 In Cash And Rail Pass

Cumberland, Md.—(AP)—A big, bespectacled Dutchman with a boyish grin is back home now, telling all his friends about his month-long visit in the States—all for $25. That is, $25 and the gratitude of a couple of Yanks he helped escape from Nazi-held Holland during the war.

Harm Davidse, 36-year-old employe of the Netherlands Railway, was eligible for passes to travel by train all over Europe. Why, he asked himself this Summer, not get one to America? He took the matter up with the railroad. The railway management started negotiations.

The Holland-America line agreed to furnish him passage, including meals. And on this side, the Baltimore and Ohio honored his Dutch railroad pass.

But his country informed him he could bring only 25 of those dollars back to the country that made them famous. They were needed too badly at home.

At the dock at Hoboken, N. J., he learned how fast they could disappear. The customs inspectors took six as duty on souvenirs he had brought for his friends. Another six went for a taxi to the railroad station.

By the time he reached Cumberland, half of his $25 was gone. But there, he found he didn't need even that much.

Jack C. Murrell, 27, met him at the station and whisked him to the Murrell home just across the river at Ridgely, W. Va. The two hadn't seen each other since the dark days of 1944.

Murrell was a second lieutenant then in Uncle Sam's Army. He had parachuted from a crippled C-47 after dropping paratroopers in the vicinity of Arnheim. He broke his leg in the fall "right smack in the middle of two German Panzer divisions," as Jack put it. He was picked up by the Nazis and hospitalized at Utrecht. But he soon learned the Dutch underground was entrenched firmly within its guarded walls.

By the time Murrell was up and about, he had been furnished blueprints of the hospital by alert Dutch hospital attendants. Through their help he and another American, Sgt. Wiley Moore of Asheville, N. C., es-

World Bank Sells $100,000,000 Bonds

New York, Jan. 25 (AP)—The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development today awarded $100,000,000 of bonds to an investment banking group headed by Halsey, Stuart & Co., and First National Bank of Chicago.

The syndicate's winning bid named a price of 100.559 for a 2 per cent coupon.

The Halsey, Stuart group is reoffering the bonds scaled from a yield of 1.35 per cent for those due February 15, 1953, to a dollar price of 98½ for 1962 maturities.

Other bids for the bonds: Bankers Trust Company, Morgan, Stanley & Co. and Associates, 100.1045 for a 2 per cent coupon; National City Bank, J. P. Morgan & Co. and Associates, 100.5199 for a 2⅛ per cent coupon, and Chase National Bank, First Boston Corporation, C. J. Devine & Co. and Associates, 100.3854 for a 2⅛ per cent coupon.

DRAPER'S DANCING CENSORED BY CBS

Protests Bring Revision Of Film Version Of Broadcast

New York, Jan. 25 (AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting System said today a performance by Paul Draper, the dancer, will be removed from the film version of a recent CBS television broadcast.

The network said it acted after receiving a number of protests, on political grounds, against Draper's dancing on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town" program last Sunday night.

Denies Communist Affiliation

Draper himself could not be reached for comment. He has identified himself as a supporter of several organizations which have been called subversive by the United States Attorney General's office but has denied any Communist affiliation.

Sullivan, master of ceremonies on the program, said today in a letter to the advertising agency that handles the show:

"I am sorry if some people were offended by the appearance of a performer whose political beliefs are a matter of public controversy."

350 Protests Telephoned

A CBS spokesman said the network does not want to offend anybody, either. He added that about 350 protests came to CBS by telephone along with 60 or so telegrams objecting to Draper's appearance.

The film from which Draper's dancing is being removed will be sent to television stations in Los Angeles, Miami, Kansas City, St. Louis, Louisville, Atlanta and Schenectady for rebroadcasting next Sunday.

Coplon, Gubitchev Defense Quarrels

New York, Jan. 25 (AP)—The rift between Judith Coplon and Valentin A. Gubitchev, accused of being co-spies, spread today to their defense lawyers.

Abraham L. Pomerantz, counsel for the Russian Gubitchev, vigorously protested against the kind of address which Archibald Palmer, Miss Coplon's attorney, plans to make to the jury tomorrow.

"This is not the first instance of differences between Mr. Palmer and myself," Pomerantz told Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan. "The fact is, we don't see eye to eye on a number of questions."

Refers To "Strait-Jacketing"

Palmer had asked and got permisison to tell the jury about the Washington trial in which Miss Coplon was convicted of stealing secret Government papers for the Russians.

He said it would be "strait-jacketing" him if he couldn't refer to that trial and to the Government's admitted tapping of the defendants' telephone wires.

Pomerantz contended that Gubitchev's case would be "very seriously prejudiced" by any reference to the Washington trial.

May Ask For Mistrial

He said he would ask a mistrial if there were any such references. And he asked again that Gubitchef be tried separately. Government prosecutors agreed with him that references to the Washington trial would be improper.

Ryan withheld decision pending a lawyers' conference before the jury returns to the courtroom tomorrow.

He took occasion to caution Palmer to be careful of his behavior during the trial.

"Remember that you are an officer of the court," said the judge, who repeatedly scolded the short, talkative attorney for his behavior in pretrial hearings.

paris, jan. 25-(ap)_the french cabinet took steps today to prevent sabotage of war materials arriving here under the atlantic pact arms aid plan.

the communists have made repeated threats to sabotage arms aid deliveries at french ports.

premier georges bidault asked his cabinet for immediate measures to put an end to red activities which might hinder the manufacture and transport of war materials and threaten "the security of the nation."

bidault called particularly for "action against non-professional strikes designed to hinder the transport of equipment and troops to indochina."

several strikes recently have delayed the sailing of ships loaded with supplies and replacements for french troops fighting indochinese guerrillas.

bidault described "non-professional" strikes as work stoppages called to hamper shipments on "moral grounds" and having no professional aim, such as pay raises.

president vincent auriol supported bidault's demands and branded sabotage of arms shipments as "offenses against the sovereignty of the nation."

interior minister jules moch criticized the french press for "overplaying" stories of such strikes.

american officials in paris have expressed concern at the growing threats of communist sabotage of arms shipments.

PARIS, JAN.25-(AP)-UNITED STATES PRESSURE GOES ON FULL BLAST TOMORROW FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A MAN TO BRING WESTERN EUROPE'S CONFLICTING ECONOMIES CLOSER TOGETHER.

THE BRITISH CALL IT A "SUPERMAN" SCHEME. THEY'RE AGAINST IT. SO ARE THE PORTUGUESE AND THE SCANDINAVIANS.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON HAVE PUBLICLY URGED ACCEPTANCE OF SUCH A POST BY PAUL-HENRI SPAAK. HE IS THE FORMER BELGIAN PREMIER WHO ALREADY HEADS ONE IMPORTANT UNITY GROUP--THE CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE.

THE AMERICANS WANT SPAAK TO TAKE A TOP POST IN THE ORGANIZATION

FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC) AND HAVE MADE NO BONES ABOUT SAYING SO--EVEN BEFORE THE POST IS CREATED. THE OEEC HANDLES THE EUROPEAN DISTRIBUTION OF MARSHALL PLAN FUNDS.

AMERICAN INSISTENCE IS DUE TO BE VOICED TOMORROW BY MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN. HE WILL ATTEND A MEETING OF THE OEEC'S STEERING COMMITTEE, WITH BRITAIN'S CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER, SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS, AND SEVEN OTHER WESTERN EUROPEANS OF CABINET RANK.

HOFFMAN ARRIVED BY PLANE FROM WASHINGTON TODAY AND WENT INTO A SERIES OF CONFERENCES WITH W.AVERELL HARRIMAN, MARSHALL PLAN AMBASSADOR, AND HIS TOP ADVISERS.

IT IS BELIEVED THAT, ALTHOUGH HOFFMAN WILL URGE SPAAK'S APPOINTMENT WITH FULLEST POSSIBLE POWERS, HE DOES NOT WANT AN IMMEDIATE MERGER OF THE OEEC AND THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE. FOR ONE THING, THE MEMBERSHIPS OF THE TWO ORGANIZATIONS ARE NOT IDENTICAL. PORTUGAL AND SWITZERLAND FOR INSTANCE ARE IN THE OEEC, BUT NOT IN THE COUNCIL.

THE CHIEF OPPOSITION TO THE SCHEME COMES FROM THE BRITISH. THEY MAINTAIN NONE OF THE EUROPEANS ARE GENUINELY ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT THE IDEA, BUT THAT SOME ARE MORE READY THAN OTHERS TO GO ALONG WITH U.S. IDEAS.

THE BRITISH BASE THEIR OBJECTION LARGELY ON THE CONSTITUTIONAL SET-UP OF THE OEEC. THIS PROVIDES FOR A RULING BODY COMPOSED OF ONE CABINET MEMBER FROM EACH OF THE 18 EUROPEAN AREAS IN THE MARSHALL PLAN--WITH A VETO FOR EACH ONE. THIS GROUP, ACCORDING TO THE BRITISH, CANNOT SET UP SPAAK AS EQUAL OR SUPERIOR TO ITSELF WITHOUT EACH COUNTRY TAKING SPECIAL ACTION TO AMEND THE OEEC CONSTITUTION.

cerulli is attending the u.n. trusteeship council session here, at which an agreement for somaliland will be concluded. as soon as it is reached, italy will provisionally administer her former colony, until final approval is given by the u.n. general assembly.

cerulli outlined italy's task in somaliland after dr. mohamed fadhel hamali, iraqi delegate to the trusteeship council, declared that the somalis must be protected against the "exploitation of their national patrimony until they become sovereign and can dispose of their property as they see fit."

cerulli said the somalis were nomads who don't like farming, and added "the main hope for this territory is immigration of non-somalis who will do some farming."

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN 25-(AP)-THE CZECH GOVERNMENT TODAY ORDERED ALL PLAM READERS, FORTUNE TELLERS AND OTHER SPECIALISTS IN THE OCCULT TO HIT THE ROAD.

RUDE PRAVO, OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE CZECH COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT SAID: "THESE MEDIEVAL REMAINS OF THE CAPITALIST ERA" WERE TOLD TO CLOSE UP SHOP AFTER MANY CITIZENS HAD COMPLAINED OF THEIR ACTIVITIES."

THE GOVERNMENT ACTION CAME AT A TIME WHEN PRAGUE AND MANY OTHER PARTS OF THE COUNTRY WERE ENGULFED IN A NEW CRAZE OF FORTUNE TELLING.

CZECH OBSERVERS REPORTED THE HOMES OF FORTUNE TELLERS HAVE BEEN JAMMED FROM MORNING TILL NIGHT WITH HUNDREDS OF PRAGUE CITIZENS, ANXIOUS TO FIND OUT THEIR FUTURE UNDER THE RED REGIME.

RUDE PRAVO SAYS ALL THIS HAS GOT TO STOP.

"DURING THE CAPITALIST ERA," SAID THE PAPER, "WHEN MISERY FORCED PEOPLE TO OBTAIN THEIR LIVING BY ANY MEANS, A WHOLE ARMY OF PEOPLE AROSE WHO MADE THEIR MONEY BY THIS BUSINESS. WE INHERITED THESE PRACTICES IN OUR PEOPLE'S DEMOCRACY."

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN 25-(AP)-THE CONTROLLED CZECHOSLOVAK PRESS SAID TODAY MANY CATHOLIC PRIESTS ARE SIGNING OATHS OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT WITHOUT ANY RESERVATIONS.

PRIESTS HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED BY THE ROMAN CATHOLIC HIERARCHY TO SIGN OATHS OF ALLEGIANCE IF NECESSARY TO STAY OUT OF JAIL, BUT TO DO SO ONLY WITH THE RESERVATION THAT SUCH AN OATH "DOES NOT VIOLATE THE LAWS OF GOD AND THE CHURCH AND THE NATURAL RIGHTS OF MAN."

THE NEWSPAPER OF THE CZECH COMMUNIST PARTY, RUDE PRAVO, REASSERTED THAT MOST CATHOLIC PRIESTS WERE DEFYING THEIR BISHOPS AND SIGNING THE OATHS. CATHOLIC SOURCES SAID YESTERDAY MANY OF THE PRIESTS WHO SIGNED DID SO "WITH VERY GREAT UNWILLINGNESS" AND ONLY AFTER THEY HAD TRIED WITHOUT SUCCESS TO ADD THE RESERVATION. THE SOURCES PREDICTED THE MAJORITY OF "GOOD AND FAITHFUL" PRIESTS WOULD BE IN JAIL IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS.

THE OATH IS REQUIRED OF PRIESTS UNDER THE NEW CHURCH LAW UNDER WHICH THE GOVERNMENT TOOK OVER ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTIONS OF THE CHURCHES AND PLACED CLERGYMEN IN CIVIL SERVICE CATEGORIES.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN. 25-(AP)-GEORGE ALLEN, NEW AMERICAN AMBASSADOR TO BELGRADE, SAID TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES IS "FULLY SYMPATHETIC WITH YUGOSLAVIA'S EFFORTS TO PRESERVE ITS INDEPENDENCE AND TO PREVENT OUTSIDE INTERFERENCE IN ITS AFFAIRS."
HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT "WE TAKE IT FROM THE STATEMENTS OF SOVIET PROPAGANDA THAT ALL THE ENERGIES AND EFFORTS OF THE COMINFORM SEEM TO BE AIMED AT THE OVERTHROWING" OF MARSHAL TITO'S GOVERNMENT.
ALLEN, HERE ONLY FIVE DAYS, SAID THAT "BELGRADE SEEMS MUCH MORE CALM THAN REPORTED FROM OTHER CAPITALS--NOTABLY MOSCOW, BUT INCLUDING PARIS, LONDON AND WASHINGTON."
"THERE IS A SENSE OF SELF-CONFIDENCE WHICH IMPRESSES ONE RIGHT AWAY," HE ADDED.
A FEW HOURS EARLIER ALLEN PRESENTED HIS DIPLOMATIC CREDENTIALS TO IVAN RIBAR, PRESIDENT OF YUGOSLAVIA'S PRESIDIUM.
HE TOLD RIBAR THAT HE WOULD ENDEAVOR "TO PROMOTE COOPERATION BETWEEN OUR GOVERNMENTS TO DEVELOP FRIENDLY RELATIONS BASED UPON RESPECT FOR THE PRINCIPLE OF SOVEREIGN EQUALITY AND SELF-DETERMINATION OF PEOPLES WHICH IS A BASIC PRINCIPLE OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN.25-(AP)-CHINESE NATIONALIST HEAVY BOMBERS ATTACKED SHANGHAI AGAIN TODAY, REPORTING DIRECT HITS ON SEVEN SHIPS.
THE AIR FORCE SAID RETURNING PILOTS REPORTED THERE WERE NO PLANES ON SHANGHAI AIR FIELDS. THIS SUGGESTED THAT THE RECENT AERIAL POUNDING HAS MADE THE FIELDS TOO DANGEROUS FOR THE COMMUNISTS TO USE.
PILOTS SAID A NUMBER OF WAREHOUSES ON SHANGHAI'S RIVER FRONT WERE LEFT IN FLAMES. THEY SAID THE BOMBED SHIPS WERE FROM 1,000 TO 3,000 TONNERS. TWO WERE IN DRY DOCK.
FIGHTER PLANES ATTACKED SWATOW, MAINLAND PORT OPPOSITE FORMOSA. THEY CLAIMED MANY SMALL CRAFT IN THE HARBOR WERE SUNK OR DAMAGED. OTHER FIGHTERS SHOT UP TRAINS RUNNING NORTH OUT OF CANTON, IN SOUTH CHINA.
THREE NEW MINISTERS WERE APPOINTED IN THE FIRST MAJOR RESHUFFLE OF THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT SINCE GEN.YEN HSI-SHAN TOOK OVER THE PREMIERSHIP IN CANTON LAST MAY.
THE APPOINTMENTS, DECIDED UPON AT A MEETING OF CHAING KAI-SHEK'S EMERGENCY COUNCIL, HAVE TO BE APPROVED BY THE EXECUTIVE YUAN (CABINET) AND CONFIRMED BY ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN.
LI NOW IS IN NEW YORK RECOVERING FROM A RECENT OPERATION.
THE NEW CABINET MEMBERS ARE GEN.CHEN LIANG, LAST MAYOR OF SHANGHAI BEFORE THE COMMUNISTS SEIZED THE CITY, MINISTER OF COMMUNICATIONS; YEN CHIA-KENG, CONSIDERED A TOP-NOTCH ECONOMIST, MINISTER OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS; AND KUO CHUNG-KANG, MINISTER OF INTERIOR, A POST HE QUIT LAST YEAR IN PROTEST TO PEACE TALKS WITH THE REDS.
GEN.KU CHU-TUNG, CHIEF OF STAFF, WAS PUT IN TEMPORARY CHARGE OF THE MINISTRY OF NATIONAL DEFENSE. PREMIER YEN HAD BEEN HOLDING THE DEFENSE MINISTRY POST.

TAIPEI, JAN. 25-(AP)-NATIONALIST CHINESE TOOK HEART TODAY OVER U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S APPROVAL OF A CONGRESSIONAL MOVE TO SEND $23,000,000 (M) IN ECONOMIC AID TO FORMOSA.
THE NATIONALISTS HOPED THIS WOULD BE THE BEGINNING OF A LARGER AID PROGRAM.
THE NATIONALISTS KNOW THEY CANNOT HOLD FORMOSA AGAINST THE CHINESE REDS IF THE BIG ISLAND'S ECONOMY COLLAPSES. ALL QUARTERS EXPECT IT TO COLLAPSE UNLESS FURTHER AID IS GIVEN.
GOVERNOR K.C. WU SAID FORMOSA COULD BE PUT ON HER FEET ECONOMICALLY IF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION EXPANDS ITS COMMODITY SALE PROGRAM (THE PURPOSE OF WHICH IS TO KEEP PRICES DOWN) AND WENT AHEAD WITH ITS BLUEPRINTED INDUSTRIAL PROGRAM.
"IF THE UNITED STATES WANTS TO DENY FORMOSA TO THE REDS IT CAN DO SO BY THESE STEPS," SAID THE AMERICAN EDUCATED GOVERNOR. "WITHOUT THEM THE ECONOMIC SITUATION CANNOT BE STABILIZED."
WU SAID COMMODITY SALES ALONE WITHOUT AN INDUSTRIAL PROGRAM WOULD NOT BE ENOUGH TO COPE WITH THE SITUATION.
WU WAS FORMERLY MAYOR OF SHANGHAI. MILLIONS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF ECA GOODS REMAINED IN SHANGHAI WHEN COMMUNISTS TOOK OVER THAT CITY.
MEANWHILE THE FORMOSA PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT TOOK STEPS TO TRY TO RAISE THE LIVING STANDARD OF NATIVE BORN FORMOSANS CONSCRIPTED INTO THE CHINESE ARMY. THE FORMOSANS HAVE BEEN COMPLAINING ABOUT CONDITIONS IN ARMY TRAINING CAMPS.
THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT AUTHORIZED THE SPENDING OF MORE THAN $20,000 TO IMPROVE FACILITIES AT THEIR FENGSHAN TRAINING CENTER IN SOUTHWESTERN FORMOSA.

TOKYO, JAN. 25-(AP)-COMMUNIST LEADER SANZO NOZAKA, CHASTENED BY THE COMINFORM FOR A SOFT POLICY UNDER THE OCCUPATION, CHARGED IN THE DIET (PARLIAMENT) TODAY THAT JAPAN "IS BEING MADE INTO A MILITARY BASE."

APPARENTLY SPURRED BY THE CRITICISM OF THAT AGENCY OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM, NOZAKA ASSERTED THAT "ENSLAVEMENT OF THE JAPANESE PEOPLE IN ECONOMICAL, POLITICAL, CULTURAL AND OTHER PHASES OF DAILY LIFE IS IN PROGRESS."

NOZAKA THEN THREW THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES INTO AN UPROAR BY CALLING PRIME MINISTER SHIGERU YOSHIDA "A TRAITOR." AT THE REMARK ALL MEMBERS OF YOSHIDA'S DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL PARTY ROSE IN ANGER. SOME RUSHED TO THE ROSTRUM. QUIET FINALLY WAS RESTORED.

NOZAKA HAD SOUGHT ASSURANCE FROM YOSHIDA THAT JAPAN WOULD NOT OFFER MILITARY BASES TO ANY FOREIGN POWER. YOSHIDA REPLIED THAT JAPAN HAD NOT BEEN APPROACHED OFFICIALLY ON THE SUBJECT.

EARLIER YOSHIDA HAD TOLD THE HOUSE OF COUNCILLORS HE THOUGHT JAPAN'S PEACE TREATY WAS BEING SPEEDED BECAUSE OF THE INCREASED COMMUNIST MENACE IN THE ORIENT. HE SAID HE BELIEVES THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN WANTED TO HELP REHABILITATE JAPAN IN ORDER TO MAKE THE NATION "A STABILZING FACTOR IN THE FAR EAST."

NOZAKA RECENTLY WAS ATTACKED BY THE COMINFORM JOURNAL IN BUCHAREST AS "ANTI-SOCIALIST" BECAUSE HE MAINTAINED SOCIALISM WAS POSSIBLE UNDER THE OCCUPATION. THE JAPANESE COMMUNIST PARTY MADE A SHOW OF DEFIANCE TOWARD THE COMINFORM FOR A TIME, AND THEN NOZAKA SWITCHED BACK TO THE PARTY LINE.

THE INSTALLATIONS AND PROPERTIES, VALUED AT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, INCLUDE FIVE LARGE BUILDINGS PURCHASED FROM THE NATIONALIST CHINESE GOVERNMENT. THE COMMUNISTS DO NOT RECOGNIZE THE SALE.

THE PROPERTIES INCLUDE THE U.S. NAVY HEADQUARTERS AND PORT FACILITIES BUILDING, THE AMERICAN CONSULATE GENERAL'S HEADQUARTERS, THE DOWNTOWN NAVAL OFFICERS' CLUB, THE NAVY BARRACKS AND COMMISSARY, THE ADMIRAL'S RESIDENCE AND THE CONSUL GENERAL'S RESIDENCE.

ALSO TAKEN OVER BY THE REDS WERE THE INSTALLATIONS AT THE MARINE AIRBASE AND THE CHINESE NAVY TRAINING CENTER.

THERE WERE TENS OF THOUSANDS OF REFUGEES IN TSINGTAO FROM THE SURROUNDING SHANTUNG PROVINCE WHEN THE COMMUNISTS TOOK THE CITY. AMERICAN MARINE AND NAVAL FORCES HAD JUST EVACUATED THEIR ASIATIC BASE THERE.

ONE OF THE FIRST ACTS OF THE COMMUNISTS WAS TO SEND ALL REFUGEES HOME.

I WAS TOLD THAT EVEN WHITE COLLAR WORKERS WHO HAD BEEN IN THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT SERVICE WERE ORDERED BACK TO THE FARMS WHERE THEY ORIGINATED. A WAVE OF SUICIDES FOLLOWED THIS ORDER.

BUSINESS IN TSINGTAO HAS BEEN ON THE DOWNGRADE SINCE THE WAR. EVEN UNDER THE NATIONALISTS IT DID NOT REGAIN ANY OF ITS PRE-WAR SCALE.

MY BRIEF SURVEY REVEALED THAT TSINGTAO IS DOING ITS BIGGEST BUSINESS TODAY IN THE EXPORT OF HAIRNETS.

BEFORE THE WAR THE PORT EXPORTED LARGE QUANTITIES OF BEEF, COTTON GOODS, PEANUTS, SALT AND EGGS. LONDON GOT MUCH OF ITS FROZEN EGG SUPPLY FROM TSINGTAO. JAPAN RECEIVED MUCH OF ITS BEEF.

NOW THESE INDUSTRIES ARE AT A STANDSTILL.

TSINGTAO'S IMPORT TONNAGE AVERAGES ABOUT 30,000 TONS A MONTH. THAT IS NOT ENOUGH FOR A CITY OF THIS SIZE -- APPROXIMATELY 750,000 PERSONS.

I WAS TOLD THAT BUSINESS IN TSINAN, SHANTUNG PROVINCE CAPITAL, ALSO WAS BOGGED DOWN.

THE IMPORTANT POSHAN COAL MINES NEARBY ARE BEING OPERATED ONLY TO A LIMITED EXTENT BY THE COMMUNISTS, I LEARNED. THE FISHING INDUSTRY, WHICH THRIVED IN TSINGTAO WATERS, HAS NOT BEEN REVIVED SINCE THE WAR.

SOME OF THE PROVINCE'S ECONOMIC ILLS ARE ATTRIBUTED TO BAD CROPS BROUGHT ON BY DROUGHTS IN SOME PLACES AND FLOODS IN OTHERS AND TO A LESSER EXTENT BY CONSCRIPTION OF YOUNG MEN WHO NORMALLY TILL THE SOIL. THE CONSCRIPTION OF THE YOUNG MEN LEFT ONLY OLD MEN AND WOMEN TO WORK THE FARMLANDS.

AFTER TALKING TO MANY ASHORE, I REACHED THE CONCLUSION THE LIFE OF THE AVERAGE RESIDENT OF TSINGTAO WAS REGIMENTED EVEN DOWN TO RECREATION AND THOUGHTS.

THE CITY IS COMPOSED OF BEAUTIFUL EUROPEAN STYLE HOMES BUILT BY THE GERMANS BEFORE THE FIRST WORLD WAR. AT DIFFERENT TIMES IT HAS BEEN THE BASE OF THE GERMAN, BRITISH AND AMERICAN ASIATIC FLEETS.

NITE LEAD FLYING ARROW
(EDITORS: WAYNE RICHARDSON, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT EN ROUTE HOME FROM A HONG KONG ASSIGNMENT, WAS THE ONLY NEWSPAPERMAN ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW ON ITS ACTION-PACKED VOYAGE THROUGH CHINA WATERS. THIS DISPATCH WAS WRITTEN AS THE SHIP PREPARED TO DOCK AT KOBE.)

BY WAYNE RICHARDSON
ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW AT KOBE, JAPAN, THURSDAY, JAN. 26-(AP)-THE POKER-PLAYING SKIPPER OF THIS U.S. FREIGHTER PULLED THE BLUFF OF A LIFETIME AND SPRANG HIS SHIP OUT OF A HOSTILE TSINGTAO, COMMUNIST PORT OF NORTH CHINA.

IN THE MIDST OF A ROW OVER HIS CLEARANCE PAPERS AT THE NAVIGATION BUREAU MONDAY, CAPTAIN DAVID JONES OF CHICAGO CALLED ON HIS POKER TECHNIQUE, TURNED TO THE COMMUNIST OFFICIALS AND DECLARED:

"IF MY VESSEL IS NOT ALLOWED TO SAIL OR (UNLESS) GIVEN SUFFICIENT REASONS FOR ITS DETENTION, I WILL RADIO AMERICAN DESTROYERS OUTSIDE TO COME IN AND GET ME--THAT I AM BEING HELD UNLAWFULLY."

THERE WERE NO DESTROYERS OUTSIDE. THE LAST ONE WE HAD SEEN WAS THE DESTROYER BAUSSEL. IT HAD ESCORTED US TO WITHIN EIGHT MILES OF TSINGTAO 10 DAYS AGO. THAT WAS AFTER A CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT SHELLED US ON AN APPROACH TO SHANGHAI JAN. 9.

AFTER DELIVERING HIS ULTIMATUM JONES STALKED ANGRILY FROM THE TSINGTAO NAVIGATION OFFICE. SHORTLY THEREAFTER, THE CLEARANCE PAPERS WERE DELIVERED TO HIM ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW. WE CAST OFF IMMEDIATELY

THE COMMUNISTS HAD GIVEN US A MIXED RECEPTION. QUARANTINE OFFICERS WHO BOARDED US CAME WITH SOLDIERS ARMED WITH SUBMACHINE GUNS AND RIFLES. THEY DECLARED THEY CONSIDERED AMERICAN SHIPS UNFRIENDLY.

IT TOOK FOUR EXASPERATING DAYS TO GET DOCKED. THEREAFTER, THERE WERE COUNTLESS DELAYS IN GETTING OUR $10,000,000 CARGO, ORIGINALLY DESTINED FOR SHANGHAI, UNLOADED.

YET IN INTERVIEWS AT HEADQUARTERS, THE COMMUNISTS TOLD JONES THEY WERE FRIENDLY TO ALL SHIPS. JONES TOLD THEM HE DIDN'T THINK ALL THE GUNS OF THE BOARDING PARTY LOOKED FRIENDLY.

THEN THE SKIPPER OF THIS ISBRANDTSEN LINE SHIP SUGGESTED THAT AS A GESTURE OF FRIENDSHIP THE COMMUNISTS ALLOW HIS CREW TO GO ASHORE.

"AFTER MUCH WRANGLING," JONES TOLD ME, "THESE (SHORE PASSES) WERE GRANTED, MAKING US THE FIRST AMERICANS ACCORDED SUCH PRIVILEGE."

I SPENT FOUR DAYS ASHORE WHILE THE CARGO WAS BEING UNLOADED.

THE COMMUNISTS OCCUPY THE HUGE INSTALLATIONS WHICH THE U.S. NAVY BOUGHT FROM THE NATIONALISTS WHEN TSINGTAO WAS AN ANCHORAGE FOR THE AMERICAN FLEET IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC.

A6KX
THESE INCLUDE THE OLD MARINE AIR BASE, THE NAVY HEADQUARTERS AND PORT BUILDING, THE CONSULATE GENERAL'S BUILDING AND THE CONSUL GENERAL'S RESIDENCE, THE ADMIRAL'S RESIDENCE AND THE NAVY OFFICERS CLUB.

I FOUND BUSINESS ALMOST AT A STANDSTILL AT TSINGTAO, ONCE ONE OF THE BUSIEST PORTS IN NORTH CHINA. FEW SHIPS CALL. INDUSTRIES ARE SHUT DOWN. THE FISHING INDUSTRY NEVER HAS BEEN REVIVED.

THE QUARANTINE OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS GAVE US A BAD TIME WHEN THEY CAME ABOARD THE DAY AFTER WE ANCHORED JAN. 13.

THEY FLOCKED ALL OVER THE SHIP AND INTO THE DINING SALON. THEY WOULDN'T GO INTO THE SHIP'S OFFICE TO DISCUSS BUSINESS. THEY MADE A MESS OF THE SALON. JONES FINALLY GOT RID OF THEM BY ORDERING THE SKIP'S LIFEBOAT OUT TO TAKE THEM ASHORE.

THEY WERE BACK IN THE AFTERNOON. THIS TIME THERE WERE TWICE AS MANY SOLDIERS AND TWICE AS MANY GUNS. THEY FINALLY LEFT AFTER JONES TOLD THEM IT WAS NOT HIS PRACTICE TO MAKE A PIGSTY OF THE DINING SALON AND THE SHIP'S OFFICE WAS WHERE BUSINESS WAS TRANSACTED.

JONES SAID THERE WAS CONSTANT NEEDLING FROM COMMUNIST OFFICIALS ON HIS DAILY TRIPS TO COMMUNIST HEADQUARTERS.

(STATE DEPARTMENT SOURCES IN WASHINGTON REVEALED THAT ONE MISSION OF JONES ASHORE WAS TO ATTEMPT THE RELEASE OF TWO U.S. MARINE FLIERS, HELD BY THE COMMUNISTS SINCE OCTOBER OF 1948.

(THEY ARE MASTER SGT. CHARLES C.BENDER, CINCINNATI, AND CHIEF ELECTRICIAN WILLIAM C.SMITH, LONG BEACH, CALIF. CONSULAR INFORMATION IS THAT BOTH ARE WELL AND ARE LIVING IN THE EASTERN PART OF SHANTUNG PROVINCE. THIS COULD BE NEAR TSINGTAO, A SHANTUNG PORT.

(WASHINGTON OFFICIALS SAID IF CAPTAIN JONES HAD BELIEVED MONEY COULD FREE THE MARINES HE ALMOST CERTAINLY WOULD HAVE OFFERED A RANSOM. EVERY EFFORT WAS MADE THROUGH DIPLOMATIC AND BUSINESS CHANNELS TO GET THE TWO ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW. ALL EFFORTS WERE IN VAIN.)

THE SKIPPER SAID HE WOULD HAVE BEEN WILLING TO TAKE THE FLYING ARROW OUT OF TSINGTAO WITHOUT PAPERS EXCEPT THAT ANOTHER ISBRANDTSEN SHIP, THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, WAS OUTSIDE PREPARING TO BERTH. HE DID NOT WANT TO DO ANYTHING TO JEOPARDIZE IT.

KOBE, THURSDAY, JAN. 26-(AP)-AN AMERICAN CONSULATE GROUP FROM COMMUNIST TSINGTAO LET OUT ELATED WHOOPS ON THEIR ARRIVAL ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW. TODAY BEHIND THEM WERE RED GRILLING, RED SEIZURE OF BELONGINGS---AND RED TAPE.
ALL HAD TO LEAVE MANY VALUABLE POSSESSIONS, INCLUDING THEIR AUTOMOBILES IN TSINGTAO. THEY SAID THE COMMUNISTS TOOK THEM FOR PERSONAL USE.

CONSUL GENERAL CARL O. HAWTHORNE OF SAN FRANCISCO ADDED, HOWEVER:
"THEY WERE POLITE ENOUGH TO LET ME USE MY CAR UP UNTIL THE TIME I LEFT."
VICE CONSUL GEORGE M. HEIN OF HANCOCK, MINN., SAID HE HAD TO GO TO COMMUNIST HEADQUARTERS THE DAY BEFORE HE LEFT TSINGTAO AND SUBMIT TO THREE HOURS OF GRILLING BY RED AUTHORITIES. THEY FIRED QUESTIONS RANGING FROM POLITICS TO HIS CHINESE SERVANTS, HE SAID.
HEIN SAID THE CONSULATE GROUP OBTAINED EXIT VISAS ONLY THE NIGHT BEFORE THE FLYING ARROW SAILED.
THE COMMUNISTS REFUSED TO LET THE AMERICANS TURN THEIR POSSESSIONS OVER TO THE BRITISH CONSUL AT TSINGTAO. THE AMERICANS REPORTED THE REDS SAID THEY DID NOT RECOGNIZE THE BRITISH CONSUL AS CUSTODIAN OF AMERICAN PROPERTY.
AND THEY WOULD NOT ALLOW THE AMERICANS TO SELL ANY OF THEIR POSSESSIONS.
HEIN SHOUTED TO FRIENDS WAITING AT THE KOCK: "IT'S GREAT TO BE BQCK IN CIVILIZATION." HE ADDED AS HE LEFT THE SHIP'S RAIL:
"COMMUNIST TERRITORY IS REFERRED TO AS BEHIND A BAMBOO CURTAIN. A BETTER NAME WOULD BE THE BARBED WIRE CURTAIN."
OTHERS IN THE PARTY ARE MRS. HEIN, WILLIAM BLACKERBY OF IOWA PARK, TEX., AND LLOYD CLEMENS OF OAKLAND, CALIF.
HAWTHORNE'S BIGGEST CONCERN WAS FOR HIS HUNTING DOG "SPOTS" WHICH BECAME A GREAT FAVORITE OF PASSENGERS AND CREW.
ARMY OFFICERS ASSURED HIM THE DOG WOULD GET CLEARANCE ASHORE IN YOKOHAMA. HAWTHORNE HAS BEENREASSIGNED THERE AND PLANS TO HAVE HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTER JOIN HIM.
LESS THAN TWO HOURS AFTER THE SHIP'S ARRIVAL, OFFICIALS--IMMIGRATION CUSTOMS AND ARMY--HAD GONE. IT WAS THE QUICKEST CLEARANCE THE FLYING ARROW HAD BEEN THROUGH---IN SHARP CONTRAST WITH THE WORRIES WE HAD IN TSINGTAO.
TWELVE FRENCH, BRITISH, GERMAN AND AMERICAN PASSENGERS LEFT THE SHIP AT TSINGTAO. THEY HAD BOARDED AT HONG KONG WITH THE EXPETATION OF GOING THROUGH THE CHINESE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE TO SHANGHAI.
WHEN SHELLING BY A NATIONALIST GUNBOAT KEPT THE SHIP OUT OF THE YANGTZE RIVER, THEY HAD TO GO TO TSINGTAO.
THE DAY WE ARRIVED AT THE RED PORT THEY WERE ABLE TO GET TRAIN ACCOMMODATIONS FOR SHANGHAI. ALL ARE RETURNING FOR BUSINESS OPERATIONS THERE.

THE THREE JAPANESE WERE ESCORTED POLITELY TO THE CHARTROOM AND OFFERED CHAIRS. THEN THEY WERE LOCKED IN UNTIL THE SHIP DOCKED. AFTER THAT THEY WERE TURNED OVER TO AMERICAN AUTHORITIES FOR QUESTIONING---PROBABLY ON HOW THEY MANAGED TO GET ABOARD THE QUARANTINE BOAT.
W. BENDER, AGENT HERE FOR THE ISBRANDTSEN LINES, TOLD ASSOCIATED PRESS PHOTOGRAPHER CHARLES GORRY HE COULD NOT TAKE PICTURES OF THE SHIP OR PERSONNEL ABOARD.
"I HAVEN'T GOT TIME FOR ANY NEWSPAPERMEN," BENDER SAID BLUNTLY.
HE TOLD GORRY IF HE TOOK ANY PICTURES HIS FILMS WOULD BE CONFISCATED AND THE U. S. ARMY'S MILITARY POLICE CALLED IN.
THE ARMY HOWEVER, HAS BEEN COOPERATIVE IN HELPING NEWSMEN TRYING TO CONTACT THE FLYING ARROW.

PRECEDE WASHN DAY
BY WAYNE RICHARDSON
JAN 26 1950
KOBE, JAPAN, THURSDAY, JAN. 26-(AP)-A CHINESE COMMUNIST OFFICIAL IN TSINGTAO TOLD THE FLYING ARROW'S SKIPPER TWO CAPTURED MARINE FLIERS COULD BE RELEASED "VERY QUICKLY" IF THE UNITED STATES WOULD MAKE A "PROPER" DIPLOMATIC REQUEST.
(THIS APPARENTLY WOULD MEAN FORMAL RECOGNITION OF COMMUNIST CHINA BY THE U. S. HAS GIVEN NO INDICATION THAT IT INTENDS TO RECOGNIZE THE PEIPING REGIME SOON.)
CAPT. DAVID JONES OF THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE SHIP, WHICH ARRIVED TODAY FROM TSINGTAO, SAID THE STATEMENT WAS MADE BY A DIRECTOR WONG OF THE TSINGTAO BOARD FOR MILITARY CONTROL OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS FOR CIVILIANS.
JONES TOLD ME IN AN EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW HE MET WITH WONG AFTER THE U. S. STATE DEPARTMENT REQUESTED HIM TO TRY TO ARRANGE THE RELEASE OF THE FLIERS---MASTER SGT. CHARLES C. BENDER OF CINCINNATI AND CHIEF ELECTRICIAN WILLIAM C. SMITH OF LONG BEACH, CALIF. THEY HAVE BEEN HELD BY THE CHINESE REDS SINCE OCTOBER, 1948.
THE FLYING ARROW'S SKIPPER GAVE THIS ACCOUNT OF HIS TALK WITH WONG:
WONG SAID THE RELEASE OF THE TWO AMERICANS WOULD HAVE TO BE MADE THROUGH PEIPING AFTER A "PROPER" DIPLOMATIC REQUEST TO THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.
WONG CONTENDED THE UNITED STATES HAD NOT REQUESTED RELEASE

OFTHE TWO AIRMEN IN A MANNER CONSIDERED OKFICIAL BY THE COMMUNISTS.
WONG GAVE ASSURANCES THAT BOTH MEN ARE "WELL AND IN AS GOOD SPIRITS AS CONDITIONS WOULD ALLOW." HE SAID THEIR ONLY SHORTAGE WAS A LACK OF ENGLISH READING MATERIAL, BUT BOOKS HAD BEEN DELIVERED TO THEM RECENTLY BY MISSIONARIES.
WONG, IDENTIFIED AS THE TOP OFFICIAL OF THE PORT OF TSINGTAO DID NOT SAY WHERE BENDER AND SMITH ARE HELD. THE TWO WERE CAPTURED BY THE REDS AFTER TAKING OFF FROM TSINGTAO, THEN THE BASE FOR THE U. S. WESTERN PACIFIC FLEET.

WONG DICTATED A MESSAGE TO AN AIDE FOR DISPATCH TO PEIPING IN JONES' PRESENCE. THE MESSAGE SAID AN AMERICAN WAS IN PORT AND WOULD LIKE TO TAKE PERSONAL MESSAGES FROM THE TWO FLIERS TO THEIR FAMILIES.
WONG SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER PEIPING WOULD APPROVE BECAUSE SUCH A REQUEST NEVER HAD BEEN MADE BEFORE.
JONES TOLD WONG THAT IF THE FLYING ARROW DEPARTED TOO SOON THE REPLIES COULD BE HANDED TO THE MASTER OF THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS AND HE WOULD DELIVER THEM. THE BROOKLYN HEIGHTS, ANOTHER ISBRANDTSEN SHIP, WAS LYING OFF TSINGTAOO WHICH THE FLYING ARROW LEFT.
(IN WASHINGTOMN, STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID JONES ALMOST CERTAINLY WOULD HAVE OFFERED A RANSOM TO THE REDS IF THAT WOULD HAVE BROUGHT THE FLIERS' RELEASE. THEY ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT NO RANSOM OFFER WAS AUTHORIZED BY WASHINGTON. SMITH'S WIFE HAD REPORTED SHE HEARD THE FLIERS WERE BEING HELD FOR RANSOM.
(THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT HAD REQUESTED THAT EFFORTS TO OBTAIN THE RELEASE OF THE FLIERS BE MADE BY JONES AT TSINGTAO.
(THE DEPARTMENT ALSO SAID IT HAD ASKED THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO HAVE ITS CONSUL AT TSINGTAO ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN THE MEN'S RELEASE IN TIME FOR THEM TO LEAVE ON THE FLYING ARROW.
(THE UNITED STATES HAS MADE SEVERAL OTHER ATTEMPTS THROUGH VARIOUS CHANNELS TO GET THE REDS TO FREE SMITH AND BENDER.)

JONES SAID WONG TOLD HIM "RANSOM DOES NOT ENTER INTO THE PICTURE."
WONG EMPHASIZED HE WAS SPEAKING UNOFFICIALLY, JONES SAID, BUT REITERATED "UPON OFFICIAL REQUEST THAT THESE MEN BE RELEASED AND COMPLETION OF ARRANGEMENTS FOR THEIR RELEASE, HE BELIEVED IT COULD BE DONE VERY QUICKLY."
THE AMERICAN SKIPPER SAID HE LEFT THE MEETING WITH THE IMPRESSION THAT "FURTHER OFFICIAL NEGOTIATIONS WOULD END SUCCESSFULLY." HE PRESUMED "OFFICIAL NEGOTATIONS" INVOLVED U. S. RECOGNITION.
JONES SAID WONG TOLD HIM:
SMITH AND BENDER HAD FLOWN "OVER THE PEOPLES GOVERNMENT (COMMUNIST) TROOPS DURING THEIR FIGHTING WITH CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S (NATIONALIST) "BANDITS" TAKING PICTURES FOR THE "BANDITS." THEY APPARENTLY MISJUDGED THEIR WIND FORCE AND HAD INSUFFICIENT GASOLINE TO RETURN TO THEIR LINE AND SO WERE FORCED DOWN IN COMMUNIST TERRITORY."
THE ONLY REQUEST COMMUNIST OFFICIALS HAVE RECEIVED FOR THE FLIERS' RELEASE WAS "A HURRIEDLY WRITTEN LETTER PRIOR TO THE NAVY'S EVACUATION OF TSINGTAO" WHICH DID NOT INCLUDE ARRANGEMENTS FOR THEIR DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE.
JONES SAID HE DISCUSSED THIS POINT AT LENGTH BUT WONG INSISTED THE FLIERS' RELEASE HAD NOT BEEN ASKED OFFICIALLY BY THE U. S. NAVY WHICH, ""AS FAR AS HE WAS CONCERNED, HAD REFUSED TO RECOGNIZE SMITH AND BENDER AS THEIR MEN."
AT THIS POINT WONG SUGGESTED THAT JONES "TELL MRS. SMITH TO GET AFTER THE NAVY TO REQUEST RETURN OF THE MEN."
WONG ALSO MAINTAINED THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD NOT ACTED OFFICIALLY ON THE FLIERS' BEHALF, SINCE THERE ARE NO RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO GOVERNMENTS. WONG SUGGESTED THAT "IF THE BRITISH WERE RECOGNIZED," THE REQUEST COULD BE MADE THROUGH THEM.
BRITAIN HAS RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT BUT PEIPING HAS NOT RECOGNIED THE BRITISH.
JONES SAID HE HAD CONFERRED WITH THE BRITISH CONSUL IN TSINGTAO BEFORE CALLING ON WONG.
THE BRITISH CONSUL SAID THE COMMUNISTS HAD REFUSED TO NEGOTIATE WITH HIM ABOUT THE FLIERS' RELEASE BECAUSE "THEY DID NOT RECOGNIZE HIS CONSULATE'S POSITION," JONES CONTINUED.
JONES SAID THE BRITISH CONSUL REPORTED ALL HIS APPROACHES HAD BEEN REBUFFED WITH POLITE FIRMNESS AND HE GAINED THE IMPRESSION THE COMMUNISTS DID NOT WANT HIM TO HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE MATTER.

HANOI, INDOCHINA, JAN 25-(AP)-REBEL FORCES OF MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI-MINH TODAY BLEW UP THE MAIN POWER TRANSFORMERS IN THIS CITY, WHICH LIES ONLY 90 MILES FROM THE FRONTIER OF COMMUNIST CHINA.
THE NATIONALIST FORCES, FIGHTING FRENCH CONTROL, ARE STEPPING UP THEIR CAMPAIGN AMID REPORTS THAT HEAVY COMMUNIST CHINESE FORCES ARE MANNING THE FRONTIER.
ROVING U.S. AMBASSADOR PHILIP C.JESSUP IS SCHEDULED TO VISIT HERE LATER THIS WEEK. HE IS NOW IN SAIGON MEETING WITH FRENCH AND INDO-CHINESE OFFICIALS OF THE BAO DAI GOVERNMENT.
SEVEN TRANSFORMERS WERE DESTROYED IN TODAY'S EXPLOSION, AND THIS CITY OF 140,000 PERSONS IS WITHOUT ELECTRICITY. STREET CARS CANNOT OPERATE. FOR TWO HOURS AFTER THE EXPLOSION THE CITY WAS WITHOUT RADIO CONTACT WITH OTHER PARTS OF INDOCHINA.
SABOTAGE OF THE POWER PLANT FOLLOWED LAST WEEK'S BOLD ATTACK OF HO CHI-MINH'S FORCES ON THE MILITARY AIRPORT IN HANOI'S OUTSKIRTS. THE ATTACK DAMAGED A NUMBER OF PLANES, A HANGAR AND EQUIPMENT.
FRENCH OFFICIALS SAID EXPLOSIVES WERE PLACED AT THE POWER PLANT WITH THE COMPLICITY OF WORKERS.
MEANWHILE ANOTHER 2,000 CHINESE NATIONALISTS SOLDIERS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE CROSSED INTO INDOCHINA, INCLUDING AN UNNAMED GENERAL OF THE 26TH NATIONALIST ARMY.
THIS BROUGHT TO ABOUT 32,000 THE NUMBER OF NATIONALIST TROOPS INTERNED IN INDOCHINA.
REPRESENTATIVES AT THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS' CONFERENCE AT COLOMBO, CEYLON, THIS MONTH WARNED THAT INDOCHINA IS THE KEY TO STEMMING THE COMMUNIST TIDE THREATENING TO ENGULF SOUTHEAST ASIA.

JAKARTA (BATAVIA), U.S.I., THURSDAY, JAN.26-(AP)-THE NEWSPAPER INDONESIA RAYA TODAY PUBLISHED AN UNCONFIRMED REPORT THAT PREMIER ANWAR TOJOKROAMINOTO OF THE WEST JAVA STATE HAD BEEN ARRESTED BY FEDERAL MILITARY POLICE.

HE WAS ARRESTED, THE NEWSPAPER SAID, WHEN HE VISITED JAKARTA FROM BANDOENG TUESDAY.

OFFICIAL SOURCES REFUSED TO CONFIRM OR DENY THE REPORT. THE MILITARY GOVERNOR'S OFFICE HAS NOT MADE PUBLIC THE NAMES OF ANY OF THE PERSONS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY SINCE DUTCH GUERRILLA LEADER R.P.P. (TURK) WESTERLING'S FORCES RAIDED BANDOENG MONDAY.

THE CHINESE LANGUUAGE DAILY SIN PO SAID IT DID NOT KNOW WHETHER TOJOKROAMINOTO HAD BEEN ARRESTED BUT SAID HIS FAMILY HAD REPORTED HE WAS MISSING.

TOJOKROAMINOTO CONFERRED WITH WESTERLING IN BANDOENG LAST WEEK AFTER THE REBEL CHIEF HAD ISSUED AN ULTIMATUM TO THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA GOVERNMENT DEMANDING THAT HIS GUERRILLAS BE AUTHORIZED TO POLICE WEST JAVA. AT THAT TIME THE NATIONALIST PRESS IN JAKARTA CRITICIZED THE PREMIER FOR TRYING TO DEAL WITH WESTERLING. WEST JAVA IS ONE OF THE STATES OF THE U.S.I., A NEW SOVEREIGN NATION.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD HISS

NEW YORK, JAN.25-(AP)-ALGER HISS WAS SENTENCED TODAY TO FIVE YEARS IN A FEDERAL PRISON. A FEW HOURS LATER SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON MAKE IT KNOWN THAT HE STILL REGARDS HISS AS A FRIEND.

THE JAIL SENTENCE WAS FOR PERJURY. A JURY DECIDED LAST SATURDAY THAT HISS LIED WHEN HE DENIED PASSING OFFICIAL SECRETS TO RUSSIAN SPIES WHILE HE HELD HIGH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICE BEFORE THE WAR.

IN WASHINGTON, ACHESON TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE: "I DO NOT INTEND TO TURN MY BACK ON ALGER HISS."

THE SECRETARY HAD BEEN SHARPLY CRITICIZED BY SOME MEMBERS OF CONGRESS FOR TELLING THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE ON JAN.13, 1949: "MY FRIENDSHIP IS NOT GIVEN EASILY AND IT IS NOT EASILY WITHDRAWN. ALGER HISS AND I BECAME FRIENDS AND WE REMAIN FRIENDS."

HE ADDED TODAY THAT HIS STAND WILL NOT CHANGE REGARDLESS OF THE OUTCOME OF THE HISS CASE. AT THE SAME TIME HE SAID HE FELT IT WOULD BE "IMPROPER" FOR HIM TO DISCUSS LEGAL OR OTHER ASPECTS OF THE CASE.

HISS, PALE AND TIGHT-LIPPED, MAINTAINED HIS INNOCENCE WHEN HE WAS SENTENCED, AND PLEDGED THAT HE WOULD VINDICATE HIMSELF. HE FILED NOTICE OF APPEAL AND WAS FREED IN $10,000 BAIL.

IT WAS A STRANGE AND AGONIZING EXPERIENCE FOR THE BRILLIANT, HARVARD-EDUCATED LAWYER WHO HELPED FOUND THE UNITED NATIONS AND WENT TO THE YALTA CONFERENCE AS AN ADVISER TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

BROKEN FINANCIALLY, THE ASHEN-FACED HISS STOOD IN FRONT OF FEDERAL JUDGE HENRY W. GODDARD BEFORE HE WAS SENTENCED AND DECLARED IN A COMPOSED, RESONANT VOICE:

"I AM CONFIDENT THAT IN THE FUTURE ALL THE FACTS WILL BE BROUGHT OUT TO SHOW HOW WHITTAKER CHAMBERS WAS ABLE TO CARRY OUT FORGERY BY TYPEWRITER."

IN THE SAME COURTROOM LAST SATURDAY A JURY OF EIGHT WOMEN AND FOUR MEN FOUND HISS LIED WHEN HE DENIED PASSING STATE DEPARTMENT DOCUMENTS TO CHAMBERS, SELF-STYLED COURIER FOR A PRE-WAR SOVIET SPY RING, AND LIED AGAIN WHEN HE DENIED SEEING CHAMBERS AFTER JAN. 1, 1937.

JUDGE GODDARD SENTENCED HIM TO CONCURRENT TERMS OF FIVE YEARS EACH IN A FEDERAL PENITENTIARY ON THE TWO PERJURY COUNTS. THE WHITE-HAIRED JUDGE DECLINED TO LEVY A POSSIBLE $4,000 FINE AGAINST HIM.

BEFORE DEFENSE COUNSEL CLAUDE B. CROSS OF BOSTON FILED NOTICE OF APPEAL, HE ASKED THE JUDGE NOT TO IMPRISON THE SLENDER, 45-YEAR-OLD DEFENDANT, WHOSE FIRST PERJURY TRIAL ENDED LAST JULY IN A JURY DISAGREEMENT.

HISS' "CONTRIBUTION TO THE INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES AND TO OUR INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS ARE MATTERS BEYOND DISPUTE," CROSS DECLARED.

THE ATTORNEY MADE HIS REMARKS AFTER THE JUDGE HAD GIVEN HISS PERMISSION TO MAKE HIS STATEMENT.

CONCERNING HISS' FINANCIAL CONDITION, CROSS SAID, "WHAT LITTLE SAVINGS HE HAD WERE GONE LONG BEFORE THE CONCLUSION OF THE FIRST TRIAL." HE ADDED THAT HISS HAD TO BORROW MONEY AND HIS BILLS STILL WERE UNPAID.

"THE PRESENT TRIAL WAS FINANCED BY LOYAL FRIENDS AND LOYAL AMERICANS WHO HAVE BELIEVED AND STILL BELIEVE IN HIS INNOCENCE," CROSS SAID. HE ADDED THAT HIS "BRILLIANT CAREER HAS BEEN RUINED" AND THAT FURTHER PUNISHMENT "IS UNNECESSARY."

JAN 26 1950

A204

HISS RESIGNED A $20,000-A-YEAR POST AS PRESIDENT OF THE CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE LAST SPRING. HE WAS SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS PLANNING CONFERENCE AT SAN FRANCISCO.

PRIM, GRAY-HAIRED PRISCILLA HISS SAT BESIDE HER HUSBAND WITH A TENSE EXPRESSION THROUGHOUT TODAY'S 20-MINUTE COURT PROCEEDINGS -- AS SHE DID THROUGHOUT THE TRIAL THAT BEGAN NOV. 17.

THE GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR, ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY THOMAS F. MURPHY, HAD MAINTAINED THAT MRS. HISS TYPED THE DOCUMENTS WHICH CAME INTO CHAMBERS' POSSESSION. THERE WERE NO CHARGES AGAINST HER.

HISS' APPEAL WILL GO TO THE U.S. CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS. THE NEXT STEP BEYOND THAT WOULD BE APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

AT LEAST THREE JUDGES ARE EXPECTED TO DISQUALIFY THEMSELVES IF THE CASE SHOULD GO TO THE NATION'S HIGHEST TRIBUNAL. THEY ARE FELIX FRANKFURTER, STANLEY REED AND TOM C.CLARK. THE FIRST TWO TESTIFIED AS CHARACTER WITNESSES AT THE FIRST HISS TRIAL. CLARK WAS U.S. ATTORNEY GENERAL WHILE THE GOVERNMENT DEVELOPED ITS CASE AGAINST HISS.

A JUSTICE MAY DISQUALIFY HIMSELF BY CHOICE BUT IS NOT REQUIRED TO DO SO BY LAW. CUSTOMARILY A JUSTICE STEPS DOWN, HOWEVER, WHEN HE FEELS THAT EITHER SIDE IN A CASE MIGHT BE AGGRIEVED BY HIS CONSIDERING IT.

IN DENYING THE DEFENSE REQUEST THAT HISS NOT BE IMPRISONED, JUDGE GODDARD ASSERTED:

"THIS SHOULD BE A WARNING THAT A CRIME OF THIS CHARACTER MAY NOT BE COMMITTED WITH IMPUNITY."

MURPHY, THE TALL, BULKY PROSECUTOR, ASKED A $25,000 BAIL FOR HISS, BUT JUDGE GODDARD SAID THAT WAS "TOO HIGH." MURPHY DID NOT PROPOSE A FINE BUT RECOMMENDED THE JAIL SENTENCE WHICH THE COURT IMPOSED.

CHAMBERS, WHO FIRST NAMED HISS BEFORE THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE IN 1948, PRODUCED THE DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE IN THE CASE AFTER HISS SUED HIM FOR $75,000 DAMAGES IN BALTIMORE. THAT CASE HAS NOT COME TO TRIAL.

CHAMBERS RESIGNED A $30,000-A-YEAR POST AS A SENIOR EDITOR OF TIME MAGAZINE LAST SPRING AND WITHDREW TO THE SECLUSION OF HIS FARM NEAR WESTMINSTER, MD.

JAN 26 1950

SENATOR MUNDT (R-SD), IN COMMENTING ON ACHESON'S REMARKS CONCERNING HISS, TOLD THE SENATE:

"OF COURSE, HE (ACHESON) SPEAKS FROM THE AFFINITY OF A CLOSE AND LONG-ESTABLISHED FRIENDSHIP, AND A BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP OF HIS BROTHER (DONALD HISS), WITH WHOM HE (ACHESON) WAS A PARTNER IN THE LAW BUSINESS.

MUNDT SAID THAT IN VIEW OF THOSE THINGS, HE DOES NOT BELIEVE THAT ACHESON "IS EXACTLY WHAT WE WOULD CALL AN OBJECTIVE WITNESS AS TO THE LOYALTY OF ALGER HISS."

AT ANOTHER POINT IN HIS SPEECH, MUNDT REFERRED TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE AS "POOR, BEFUDDLED DEAN ACHESON." HE SAID HISS HAD THE ABILITY TO WORK HIS WAY INTO THE CONFIDENCE OF MEN IN HIGH POSITION AND GET CONTROL OF POLICY-MAKING JOBS.

MUNDT SAID THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WAS TOO WEARY AND ILL AT YALTA TO COPE WITH STALIN'S DEMANDS AND HE HAD TO DEPEND ON HIS ADVISERS--AMONG THEM ALGER HISS.

MUNDT PICTURED HISS AS A MAN WHO SCHEMED TO GET HIMSELF INTO POLICY-MAKING POSITIONS.

AND AT ONE POINT HE SAID: "NO WONDER HE COULD FOOL DEAN ACHESON. HE WAS SUAVE, ABLE, INGENIOUS. BUT HE WASN'T SMART ENOUGH TO COVER UP HIS TRACKS."

MUNDT, A FORMER HOUSE MEMBER, WAS ACTING CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES WHEN IT INVESTIGATED THE FAMOUS "PUMPKIN PAPERS" PRODUCED BY WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, LATER THE GOVERNMENT'S STAR WITNESS IN ITS PROSECUTION OF HISS.

MUNDT RENEWED HIS CRITICISM OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN FOR CALLING THE HOUSE COMMITTEE'S INVESTIGATION A RED HERRING AND FOR REFUSING TO LET THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT TURN OVER TO THE COMMITTEE CERTAIN INFORMATION IT WAS SEEKING ABOUT HISS.

HE SAID THE COMMITTEE "SUFFERED SEVERELY FROM OBSTRUCTIONIST TACTICS" OF THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF THE GOVERNMENT IN GENERAL AND THE WHITE HOUSE IN PARTICULAR.

MUNDT WAS JOINED BY REPUBLICAN SENATORS HICKENLOOPER (IOWA), FERGUSON (MICH.) AND KNOWLAND (CALIF.) IN A DENUNCIATION OF WHAT THEY TERMED THE REFUSAL OF THE PRESIDENT AND OTHER EXECUTIVE OFFICIALS TO SUPPLY INFORMATION WHICH CONGRESS ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS HAS TRIED TO OBTAIN.

HICKENLOOPER INDICATED HE WAS TALKING ABOUT HIS ATTEMPTS TO GET INFORMATION DEALING WITH THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S SECURITY PROGRAM.

MUNDT ALSO TURNED SOME OF HIS CRITICISM ON DR.PHILIP JESSUP, WHO HAS THE RANK OF SPECIAL AMBASSADOR AND NOW IS MAKING A STUDY OF THE FAR EAST SITUATION FOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

MUNDT SAID JESSUP "LONG HAS BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH ALGER HISS" AND HAD APPEARED TWICE AS A CHARACTER WITNESS FOR HIM.

JAN 26 1950

BY JOSEPH C.GOODWIN

WASHINGTON, JAN. 25-(AP)-THE HOPE OF ADDITIONAL THOUSANDS OF DISPLACED EUROPEANS FOR GETTING INTO AMERICA CAME ONE STEP NEARER TO REALIZATION TODAY.

A BILL TO PERMIT 320,000 DP'S--PLUS 5,000 ORPHANS AND 5,000 ADOPTED CHILDREN--TO ENTER THIS COUNTRY BY JUNE 30, 1951, WAS APPROVED LAST NIGHT BY THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE. IT IS EXPECTED TO BE INTRODUCED IN THE SENATE PROMPTLY.

THE TOTAL APPROVED BY THE COMMITTEE INCLUDES THE APPROXIMATELY 124,000 WHO ALREADY HAVE REACHED THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE 1948 DP LAW.

THAT LAW AUTHORIZES THE ENTRY OF 205,000 PERSONS IN THE TWO-YEAR PERIOD ENDING JUNE 30, 1950. A BILL APPROVED BY THE HOUSE WOULD INCREASE THE NUMBER TO 339,000 AND EXTEND THE DATE BY ONE YEAR.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE'S ACTION WAS ANNOUNCED BY CHAIRMAN MCCARRAN (D-NEV), WHO TERMED THE MEASURE "GENERALLY SATISFACTORY." THE CHAIRMAN PREVIOUSLY HAD BEEN THOROUGHLY DISSATISFIED WITH OTHER PROPOSED BILLS FOR ADMITTING ADDITIONAL DP'S.

THE AGREEMENT WAS REACHED ON THE EVE OF THE DATE THE SENATE HAD ORDERED THE COMMITTEE TO REPORT OUT A BILL. COMMITTEE APPROVAL WAS BY A VOTE OF 10 TO 3.

AMONG OTHER CHANGES IN THE PRESENT LAW, THE SENATE MEASURE ALSO WOULD ADVANCE THE DATE BY WHICH DISPLACED PERSONS MUST HAVE ENTERED DP CAMPS TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR ENTRY INTO THIS COUNTRY.

THE DATE IN THE PRESENT LAW IS DECEMBER, 1945. THE BILL WHICH THE COMMITTEE APPROVED WOULD CHANGE THAT TO JAN. 1, 1949, THUS OPENING THE WAY FOR ADMISSION TO MANY REFUGEES FROM SOVIET-HELD COUNTRIES. THE HOUSE BILL CONTAINS THE SAME CHANGE.

ON OTHER POINTS, HOWEVER, THE TWO MEASURES DIFFER. MCCARRAN SAID THE COMMITTEE SET UP ITS VERSION OF THE LEGISLATION BY AMENDING THE HOUSE-APPROVED BILL IN 10 OR 12 PLACES.

IN ADDITION TO THE ACCEPTED 320,000, THE SENATE COMMITTEE BILL WOULD PERMIT THE ENTRY OF 5,000 ORPHANS, AND 5,000 OTHER CHILDREN WHO HAVE BEEN ADOPTED BY U.S. OVERSEAS MILITARY AND GOVERNMENT PERSONNELL.

SPECIFIC PROVISIONS WOULD BE MADE WITHIN THE AUTHORIZED ENTRY FOR VISAS TO BE ISSUED TO: 10,000 GREEKS DISPLACED IN THE GREEK CIVIL WAR, 18,000 POLES WHO WERE MEMBERS OF THE POLISH ARMED FORCES ON THE SIDE OF THE ALLIES DURING WORLD WAR II, AND 4,000 EUROPEAN REFUGEES IN SHANGHAI.

A7WX

THE SENATE COMMITTEE'S BILL CONTINUED TWO PROVISIONS OF THE PRESENT LAW WHICH THE HOUSE BILL WOULD HAVE ENDED. THEY ARE THE REQUIREMENT THAT 30 PER CENT OF THE DP'S MUST BE AGRICULTURISTS, AND 40 PER CENT MUST BE FROM OCCUPIED TERRITORIES.

IN THE CASE OF THE AGRICULTURISTS, THE COMMITTEE BILL WOULD REQUIRE THAT VISAS BE LIMITED TO PEOPLE WHO HAVE HAD AT LEAST TWO YEARS OF FARM EXPERIENCE.

THE BILL SPECIFICALLY BARS COMMUNISTS, MARXISTS AND PERSONS WHO BORE ARMS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES IN THE LAST WAR.

IT ALSO GIVES THE U.S. CONSULAR SERVICE AND THE IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE VETO POWER OVER ELIGIBILITY OF DP'S. THEIR PRESENT ELIGIBILITY IS NOW DETERMINED BY THE DISPLACED PERSONS COMMISSION.

MCCARRAN SAID THIS VETO AUTHORITY "REFLECTS A STRONGER ATTITUDE TOWARD PROTECTING THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES."

PRESIDENT TRUMAN CALLED FOR THE "LIBERALIZATION" OF THE DP LAW LAST SUMMER TO ELIMINATE WHAT HE CALLED DISCRIMINATORY PROVISIONS AGAINST JEWS AND CATHOLICS.

MCCARRAN THEN MADE A TOUR OF THE DP CAMPS TO CHECK ON OPERATIONS. HE CONTENDED THAT THE 1948 ACT PERMITTED SUBVERSIVE AGENTS TO SLIP INTO THIS COUNTRY IN THE GUISE OF DPS. HE ALSO CHARGED THAT "CRIME, FRAUD AND PERJURY" FIGURED IN THE SELECTION OF PERSONS PERMITTED TO ENTER THE U.S. THE DP COMMISSION DENIED HIS CHARGES.

THE DECEMBER, 1945 CUTOFF DATE IN THE PRESENT LAW ALSO WAS BITTERLY CRITICIZED. OPPONENTS ARGUED THAT IT DISCRIMINATED AGAINST MANY JEWS FROM POLAND WHO DID NOT REACH DP CAMPS UNTIL 1946 OR 1947.

IT WAS LEARNED THAT MOST OF THE CONTROVERSY IN THE COMMITTEE'S CLOSED-DOOR DISCUSSION CENTERED AROUND THIS POINT. MCCARRAN SAID THAT THE BILL AGREED UPON IN THE END DOES NOT DISCRIMINATE AGAINST ANYONE.

IF THE NEW LEGISLATION IS APPROVED BY THE SENATE, DIFFERENCES IN THE HOUSE AND SENATE BILLS STILL WOULD HAVE TO BE IRONED OUT BEFORE THE FINAL VERSION COULD BE READY FOR THE PRESIDENT'S SIGNATURE.

MD 251 AFS

THE WIVES OF THE TWO MEN, OFFICIALS SAID, HAVE MAINTAINED A CONSTANT FLOW OF APPEALS ON WASHINGTON TO KEEP TRYING FOR THEIR RELEASE. ON JANUARY 13 MRS. SMITH, FOR EXAMPLE, SENT A TELEGRAM TO SENATOR KNOWLAND SAYING SHE HAD HEARD THE TWO WERE BEING HELD FOR RANSOM AND TO FIND OUT WHETHER THAT WAS A FACT.

OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THAT IF IT IS A FACT AND IF CAPTAIN JONES HAD BELIEVED THAT MONEY WOULD HAVE OBTAINED THE MEN'S RELEASE HE ALMOST CERTAINLY WOULD HAVE OFFERED A RANSOM. BUT THEY ADDED THAT NO RANSOM OFFER WAS AUTHORIZED BY WASHINGTON.

A150WX

THE IDEA OF BRINGING CAPTAIN JONES INTO THE CASE BECAUSE OF HIS COMMUNIST CONTACTS ORIGINATED HERE ABOUT TWO WEEKS AGO WHILE MRS. BENDER WAS CONFERRING WITH STATE AND NAVY DEPARTMENT AUTHORITIES. INFORMANTS SAID TODAY THE IDEA WAS THAT JONES WOULD NECESSARILY MAKE COMMUNIST CONTACTS WHEN HIS SHIP PUT INTO THE CHINESE PORT AND THESE MIGHT PROVE TO BE MORE EFFECTIVE THAN SOME OF THE OFFICIAL APPROACHES THAT HAVE BEEN TRIED.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THEREFORE, SENT MESSAGES TO ITS REPRESENTATIVES IN HONG KONG AND SHANGHAI ASKING THEM TO CONTACT AGENTS OF THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE, WHICH OPERATES THE FLYING ARROW. AT THE SAME TIME THE DEPARTMENT ASKED THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO INSTRUCT ITS CONSUL AT TSINGTAO TO DO ALL HE COULD TO GET SMITH AND BENDER RELEASED AND ABOARD THE AMERICAN SHIP.

ADMIRAL OSCAR C. BADGER, FORMER CHIEF OF U.S. NAVAL FORCES IN THE WEST PACIFIC REGARDED IT AS A VERY SERIOUS MATTER THAT THE TWO MEN WERE NOT PERMITTED TO GO ON THE FLYING ARROW. "I AM REALLY DEEPLY CONCERNED THAT THE SHIP LEFT WITHOUT THOSE MEN," BADGER SAID.

(500) FLYING ARROW
BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN. 25-(AP)-A NEW AND FUTILE EFFORT TO GET TWO AMERICAN SERVICEMEN OUT OF COMMUNIST CHINA WAS MADE BY THE SKIPPER OF THE FLYING ARROW, IT WAS LEARNED TODAY, WHEN THAT SHELL-BATTERED SHIP VISITED THE RED PORT OF TSINGTAO WITHIN THE LAST WEEK.

OFFICIALS HERE HOPED THE ATTEMPT WOULD PROVE SUCCESSFUL BECAUSE THE FLYING ARROW WAS CARRYING CARGO FOR DELIVERY TO THE COMMUNISTS. THE IDEA WAS THAT CAPTAIN DAVID JONES, IN ARRANGING DELIVERY OF THE CARGO, WOULD BE ABLE TO MAKE CONTACTS WHICH WOULD LEAD TO THE RELEASE OF THE TWO MEN.

THE SHIP, WHICH HAD PREVIOUSLY SOUGHT TO RUN THE CHINESE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE OF SHANGHAI BUT WAS DRIVEN BACK BY NATIONALIST NAVAL SHELLS, PUT INTO TSINGTAO JANUARY 13 AND SAILED LAST MONDAY. THE ATTEMPT TO RUN THE BLOCKADE WAS MADE DESPITE STATE DEPARTMENT WARNINGS.

THE TWO MEN WHOSE RELEASE THE STATE DEPARTMENT AUTHORIZED JONES TO SEEK ARE MASTER SGT. CHARLES G. BENDER OF CINCINNATI AND CHIEF ELECTRICIAN WILLIAM C. SMITH OF LONG BEACH, CALIF. THEY HAVE BEEN HELD BY CHINESE REDS SINCE OCTOBER, 1948.

THE LATEST REPORT ON THEM TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT COMES FROM CONSUL GENERAL CARL O. HAWTHORNE, WHO LEFT TSINGTAO ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW MONDAY AND HAS SINCE SENT DISPATCHES TO WASHINGTON. OFFICIALS SAID THESE CONTAIN THE SAME INFORMATION WHICH HAD PREVIOUSLY BEEN RECEIVED FROM BRITISH SOURCES--THAT THE TWO MEN ARE ALIVE AND WELL AND ARE LIVING IN THE EASTERN SECTION OF SHANTUNG PROVINCE.

B92WX (250)

WASHINGTON, JAN. 25-(AP)-THE FOREIGN POLICY ASSOCIATION SUGGESTED TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES INVITE SWITZERLAND TO BECOME ITS "JUNIOR PARTNER" IN FINANCING THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

THE ASSOCIATION IS A PRIVATE ORGANIZATION CONCERNED WITH THE STUDY OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS.

BLAIR BOLLES, DIRECTOR OF THE FPA'S WASHINGTON BUREAU, SAID IN A REPORT THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD TRY TO PERSUADE SWITZERLAND TO REVIVE THE CREDIT POLICY UNDER WHICH IT LOANED ABOUT $600,000,000 TO ITS NEIGHBORS BETWEEN 1945 AND 1948.

BOLLES SAID THIS COUNTRY NEEDS THE SUPPORT OF "ANOTHER CREDITOR NATION" TO HELP CARRY OUT THE MARSHALL PLAN PROGRAM FOR LIBERALIZATION OF TRADE AMONG THE NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE.

BOLLES NOTED THAT THE SWISS FRANC IS HARD CURRENCY, LIKE THE AMERICAN DOLLAR, AND SAID A REVIVAL OF SWITZERLAND'S CREDIT POLICY WOULD HELP SUPPORT THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

SWITZERLAND IS THE ONLY WESTERN EUROPEAN NATION THAT DOES NOT HAVE A BALANCE-OF-PAYMENTS PROBLEM AND THE ONLY COUNTRY IN THE 16-NATION MARSHALL PLAN WHICH HAS NOT RECEIVED ANY FINANCIAL HELP FROM THE UNITED STATES, BOLLES SAID.

HIS REPORT, BASED ON A VISIT TO SWITZERLAND, CONTINUED:

"ON A CONTINENT WHERE FOREIGN POLICIES OF MOST COUNTRIES ARE MARKED BY STATE REGULATION OF EXTERNAL COMMERCE AND WHERE GOVERNMENT PLANNING COMMONLY CHARACTERIZES DOMESTIC POLICY, SWITZERLAND IS AN OASIS OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE CHE D BY COMPARATIVELY MILD RESTRICTIONS.

"THE ADVOCATES OF PLANNED ECONOMY RECEIVE LITTLE ATTENTION THERE."

WASHINGTON, JAN. 25-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON URGED CONGRESS TODAY TO EXTEND THE DRAFT LAW TO SHOW THE WORLD THAT THE UNITED STATES INTENDS TO STAY STRONG.

"WEAKNESS INVITES AGRESSION--DIRECT OR INDIRECT--AND TO REMAIN FREE THE NATIONS OF THE FREE WORLD MUST BE STRONG, BOTH ECONOMICALLY AND IN TERMS OF THEIR DEFENSIVE CAPABILITIES," HE SAID.

ACHESON APPEARED BEFORE THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE TO SUPPORT THE ADMINISTRATION'S REQUEST FOR A THREE-YEAR EXTENSION OF THE DRAFT LAW, DUE TO EXPIRE IN JUNE.

THE COMMITTEE ALREADY HAS HEARD MILITARY LEADERS PLEAD FOR AN EXTENSION AS A FORM OF INSURANCE IN THE EVENT OF ANOTHER WARD AND AS A SPUR TO RECRUITING.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS HAVE SHOWN LITTLE ENTHUSIASM FOR THE PROPOSAL ALTHOUGH THERE HAS BEEN TALK OF KEEPING SELECTIVE SERVICE ON A "STANDBY" BASIS WITH A BAN ON DRAFTING MEN UNLESS CONGRESS APPROVES.

ACHESON SAID THE DRAFT LAW IS NEEDED TO SUPPORT THIS NATION'S FOREIGN POLICY. LETTING IT DIE, HE SAID, WOULD BE "WIDELY INTERPRETED ABROAD" AS A SLACKENING OF AMERICAN DETERMINATION TO STANDS AS THE PRINCIPAL DEFENDER AGAINST AGGRESSION.

HE REMINDED THE COMMITTEE THAT WORLD PEACE IS NOT YET SECURE. THE REASON, HE SAID, IS NOT FAILURE OF THE UNITED NATIONS BUT THE RUSSIAN TACTICS OF REFUSING TO COMPROMISE ON MAJOR ISSUES.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS, HE REMARKED, "ARE COMPLETELY FAMILIAR" WITH THE RUSSIAN RECORD.

NIGHT LEAD DRAFT

BY FRANCIS J.KELLY

WASHINGTON, JAN. 25-(AP)-THE ADMINISTRATION INSISTED TODAY THAT A STAND-BY DRAFT LAW IS ESSENTIAL IN THESE DAYS OF UNEASY PEACE AND THAT THE PRESIDENT AS WELL AS CONGRESS SHOULD HAVE AUTHORITY TO SET THE INDUCTION MACHINERY ROLLING.

THE LAWMAKERS IN GENERAL HAVE BEEN COOL TOWARD THE ADMINISTRATION'S REQUEST FOR A THREE-YEAR EXTENSION OF THE PRESENT PEACETIME DRAFT ACT WHICH IS DUE TO EXPIRE NEXT JUNE. IT HAS BEEN A FULL YEAR SINCE ANY MEN WERE INDUCTED.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON PRESENTED THE VIEWS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN--CONCURRED IN BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF--IN A LETTER TO THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE WHICH IS HOLDING HEARINGS ON THE PROPOSED EXTENSION.

REP.VINSON (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THAT COMMITTEE, HAS SUGGESTED THAT IF THE LAW IS EXTENDED IN ANY FORM, CONGRESS RESERVE THE RIGHT TO SAY WHEN ACTUAL INDUCTIONS SHALL BE RESUMED.

UNDER THE ADMINISTRATION'S COUNTER-PROPOSAL, SET FORTH BY JOHNSON, THE PRESIDENT ALSO WOULD HAVE THAT POWER IF, AFTER CONSULTING WITH THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL, HE FINDS THAT INTERNATIONAL CONDITIONS WARRANT BRINGING IN SELECTEES.

GEN.OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS, TOLD THE COMMITTEE IT IS DESIRABLE TO GIVE THE PRESIDENT CO-EQUAL POWER BECAUSE WHEN AN EMERGENCY AROSE CONGRESS MIGHT NOT BE IN SESSION AND ABLE TO ACT AT ONCE. HE ADDED THAT "UNDER SOME CIRCUMSTANCES" IT MIGHT BE DIFFICULT TO ASSEMBLE CONGRESS.

GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, WAS EVEN MORE EXPLICIT. HE SAID WASHINGTON,D.MC., PROBABLY WOULD HAVE A HIGH PRIORITY IN ANY AERIAL ATTACK ON THIS COUNTRY AND THAT SUCH A BLOW MIGHT DISRUPT GOVERNMENT PROCESSES.

ADDITIONAL BACKING FOR A CONTINUED PEACETIME DRAFT LAW CAME FROM SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, WHO TOLD THE COMMITTEE:

"WEAKNESS INVITES AGGRESSION--DIRECT OR INDIRECT--AND TO REMAIN FREE THE NATIONS OF THE FREE WORLD MUST BE STRONG, BOTH ECONOMICALLY AND IN TERMS OF THEIR DEFENSIVE CAPABILITIES."

GEN.BRADLEY SAID HE HAD BEEN INFORMED THAT THE PASSAGE OF THE DRAFT LAW IN 1948 "HAD A MORE SALUTARY EFFECT ON THE RUSSIANS THAN ALMOST ANYTHING ELSE WE DID." HE ADDED:

"THE FAILURE OF RENEWAL OF THIS ACT AT THIS TIME CAN BUT HAVE THE OPPOSITE EFFECT ON OUR OPPONENTS IN THE PRESENT COLD WAR."

WITH THE TIME OF DECISION NOT SIGHTED, THE COMMITTEE SCHEDULED ANOTHER HEARING TOMORROW.

MOST OF THE DEPARTMENT'S SUMMARY WAS DEVOTED TO MANCHURIA WHERE RUSSIA WAS GIVEN SPECIAL RIGHTS BY THE 1945 MOSCOW TREATY WITH THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT. RUSSIA IS USING THIS TREATY, THE DEPARTMENT CHARGED, TO "PENETRATE AND EXTEND ITS ECONOMIC AND STRATEGI DOMINATION."

SOVIET TROOPS OCCUPY THE PORT CITY OF DAIREN AND THE PORT ARTHUR NAVAL BASE, IT WAS NOTED. RUSSIA'S CONTROL OF THE RAILROADS, THE DEPARTMENT SAID, HAS "REPORTEDLY GONE MUCH FURTHER" THAN CONTEMPLATED IN THE 1945 TREATY. IT SAID SOVIET INFLUENCE IN THE LOCAL MILITARY FORCES IS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED AND THAT RUSSIA HAS OBTAINED SPECIAL NAVIGATION AND FISHING RIGHTS, OPERATES THE ONLY CIVIL AIR SERVICE, CONTROLS AND OPERATES MANY INDUSTRIAL FACILITIES, COAL AND GOLD MINES AND IS REPORTED ALSO TO BE RUNNING MUNITIONS FACTORIES.

"WHILE OTHER AREAS OF CHINA ARE EXPERIENCING FAMINE CONDITIONS," THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THAT UNDER A SPECIAL TRADE AGREEMENT OF LAST JULY MADE BY THE MANCHURIAN LOCAL AUTHORITIES, 60 PER CENT OF THE FARMERS' PRODUCE IS REPORTED TO BE CURRENTLY EXPORTED TO THE SOVIET UNION. "IN RETURN MANCHURIA IS APPARENTLY RECEIVING FOR THE MOST PART INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT AND MACHINERY WHICH THE RUSSIANS HAD STRIPPED FROM MANCHURIA AFTER V-J DAY," THE DEPARTMENT SAID.

FORMOSA (300)

WASHINGTON, JAN 25-(AP)-A CONGRESSIONAL MOVE TO SEND ABOUT $28,000,000 IN ECONOMIC AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA REPORTEDLY HAS THE APPROVAL OF SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE SAID ACHESON AGREED TO THE PROPOSAL DURING A MEETING WITH THE COMMITTEE YESTERDAY.

A REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEMBER WHO ASKED THAT HIS NAME NOT BE USED SAID LATER THAT THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS HAVE ASKED $50,000,000 FOR GENERAL ECONOMIC PURPOSES AND FOR CURRENCY STABILIZATION.

HE SAID HE DOUBTS WHETHER THE COMMITTEE WOULD APPROVE ANY FUNDS FOR CURRENCY STABILIZATION AND ADDED THAT THE GROUP FIGURED $28,000,000 TO $30,000,000 "WILL TAKE CARE" OF THE ISLAND'S ECONOMIC NEEDS.

CONNALLY SAID ACHESON IS AGREEABLE TO GIVING FORMOSA LIMITED ECONOMIC HELP BUT HE SAID THE SECRETARY DID NOT SUGGEST HOW THE MONEY BE SPENT.

THIS MONEY PRESUMABLY WOULD COME FROM A $106,000,000 CHINA AID FUND WHICH CONGRESS APPROVED IN 1948, BUT WHICH IS DUE TO BE TURNED BACK TO THE TREASURY FEB. 15 IF IT IS NOT USED BEFORE THEN.

ACHESON WAS REPORTED TO HAVE PROPOSED EXTENDING THE LIFE OF THIS FUND UNTIL JUNE 30, 1951, EARMARKING IT FOR USE IN THE "GENERAL AREA OF CHINA."

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF), A CRITIC OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S CHINA POLICY, ALREADY HAS INTRODUCED A BILL EXTENDING THE FUND UNTIL NEXT JUNE 30.

SOME REPUBLICANS HAVE BEEN URGING U.S. MILITARY INTERVENTION TO HELP HOLD THE CHINESE NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD AGAINST THREATENED COMMUNIST SEIZURE. PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS RULED AGAINST MILITARY AID.

THIS QUESTION ALSO IS DUE TO BE RAISED THURSDAY WHEN SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON AND GEN. OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, ARE SCHEDULED TO APPEAR BEFORE THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE. THEY WERE CALLED TO GIVE THEIR VIEWS ON FORMOSA'S STRATEGIC VALUE TO THIS COUNTRY'S DEFENSE.

ATOMIC-APPROPRIATIONS

WASHINGTON, JAN.25-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN ADVISED CONGRESS TODAY THAT EXPANSION OF ATOMIC ENERGY PLANTS IS RUNNING AHEAD OF SCHEDULE, AND ASKED FOR $87,650,000 (M) OF FINANCING.

THIS MONEY IS IN THE GOVERNMENT'S BUDGET FOR THE 12 MONTHS BEGINNING NEXT JUNE 30, BUT MR.TRUMAN SAID IT IS NEEDED NOW BECAUSE OF THE SPEED-UP IN THE PROGRAM.

THE PRESIDENT ALSO ASKED $7,000,000 FOR THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY TO USE IN BUILDING FACILITIES TO SUPPLY ADDITIONAL POWER TO THE OAK RIDGE, TENN., ATOMIC PROJECT.

THE SUMS WERE INCLUDED IN REQUEST FOR $900,815,000 OF SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS AND CONTRACT AUTHORITY. NEARLY ALL THIS MONEY HAD BEEN FIGURED INTO THE GOVERNMENT'S SPENDING PROGRAM PREVIOUSLY.

MR.TRUMAN ASKED:

$800,000,000(M) FOR THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION. THIS WAS AN $89,000,000(M) BOOST FROM A $711,000,000(M) FIGURE INCLUDED IN HIS BUDGET MESSAGE EARLIER THIS MONTH. THE WHITE HOUSE SAID IT WAS DUE TO THE "CONTINUED RISE IN THE NUMBER OF VETERANS RECEIVING EDUCATION AND TRAINING BENEFITS" UNDER THE GI BILL OF RIGHTS.

$87,650,000(M) IN CONTRACT AUTHORITY FOR THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION FOR CONSTRUCTION OF ADDITIONAL PLANT FACILITIES.

THE REQUEST SAID THIS IS $41,090,000 BELOW ORIGINAL ESTIMATES "BECAUSE RECENT TECHNOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS HAVE MAD

THE REQUEST SAID THIS IS $41,090,000 BELOW ORIGINAL ESTIMATES "BECAUSE RECENT TECHNOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS HAVE MADE IT UNNECESSARY TO PROCEED WITH A PREVIOUSLY SCHEDULED CONSTRUCTION PROJECT".

THE WHITE HOUSE SAID:

"THE ESTIMATE ALSO PROVIDES FOR THE ACCELERATION OF CERTAIN PROJECTS IN THE REACTOR DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM AND INITIATION OF SOME NEW PROJECTS."

"ACCELERATION OF THE REACTOR PROGRAM WILL NECESSITATE ADVANCING OF THE CONSTRUCTION SCHEDULE OF CERTAIN REACTOR PROJECTS FOR WHICH FUNDS ARE INCLUDED IN THE 1951 BUDGET. AN APPROPRIATE REDUCTION IN THE 1951 BUDGET WILL BE TRANSMITTED TO THE CONGRESS BY SEPARATE LETTER.

THE PRESIDENT ASKED ALSO:

$12,365,000(M) FOR THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY, INCLUDING THE $7,000,000(M) FOR POWER TO OAK RIDGE, AND $5,000,000(M) TO ENABLE TVA TO COMPLETE ON SCHEDULE THE 1950 CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM THAT CONGRESS APPROVED LAST SPRING.

$803,000 FOR THE BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS. MR.TRUMAN SAID GENERAL ASSISTANCE FUNDS FOR NEEDY INDIANS WILL BE "COMPLETELY EXHAUSTED" THIS MONTH.

WALTER W.MAHAFFEY, NOW OF LONG BEACH, TESTIFIED THAT HE, AS PRESIDENT THEN OF THE LONGSHORE UNION IN STOCKTON, ARRANGED FOR A UNION MEETING WHICH BRIDGES ATTENDED IN STOCKTON JUNE 27, 1936.

A GOVERNMENT WITNESS HAD PLACED BRIDGES IN NEW YORK ON THAT DATE, ATTENDING A COMMUNIST PARTY CONFERENCE.

BRIDGES, WHO HEADS THE CIO LONGSHORE UNION, WAS INDICTED FOR PERJURY, CHARGED WITH DENYING FALSELY AT HIS CITIZENSHIP HEARING IN 1945 THAT HE WAS A COMMUNIST. TWO OTHER UNION OFFICERS, HENRY SCHMIDT AND J.R.ROBERTSON, WERE INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY.

AS DEFENSE ATTORNEY VINCENT HALLINAN QUESTIONED HIM, BUCK TOLD THE JURY HE WAS THE "GO-BETWEEN" IN THE RECENT PROLONGED LONGSHORE STRIKE IN HAWAII; THE "CONTRACT MAN" BETWEEN EMPLOYER GROUPS IN THE ISLANDS, AND THE STRIKING DOCKMEN.

"WHEN IT FIRST BECAME KNOWN," BUCK RELATED, "THAT I WAS ENTERING INTO THE STRIKE DISCUSSION, SOME OF MY FRIENDS TOLD ME ABOUT BRIDGES. THEY ALL TOLD ME THAT IF HE PASSED HIS WORD, HE WOULD CARRY IT THROUGH; YOU COULD RELY ON THAT."

GOVERNMENT ATTORNEY F.JOSEPH DONOHUE WANTED TO KNOW IF BUCK EVER HEARD THAT BRIDGES WAS A COMMUNIST. THE REPLY: "I NEVER HEARD ANYONE SAY THEY KNEW HE WAS A COMMUNIST. NO, I DON'T THINK I EVER HEARD ANYONE SAY HE ACTUALLY WAS A COMMUNIST. X X X I DON'T KNOW THAT I EXACTLY KNOW WHAT A COMMUNIST IS."

MAHAFFEY TESTIFIED, WITH HIS UNION RECORDS AND CLIPPINGS TO REFRESH HIS RECOLLECTION, THAT HE ARRANGED THE JUNE 27, 1936, UNION MEETING IN STOCKTON, AT WHICH BRIDGES WAS TO GIVE A REPORT ON A LABOR SITUATION IN THE PORT OF SAN PEDRO.

HE SAID BRIDGES AND SCHMIDT, AMONG OTHERS WERE THERE THAT NIGHT; THAT LATER THEY WENT TO A NIGHT CLUB. HE SAID HIS UNION MINUTES, THE UNION LEDGER OF EXPENSES, AND OTHER PAPERS SHOWED THIS WAS TRUE.

BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER
LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 25-(AP)-NATIONALIST CHINA'S T.F.TSIANG SAID TODAY FORMOSA MUST BE HELD IN ORDER TO DISCOURAGE RED CHINA FROM EMBARKING ON "WILD ADVENTURES" IN SOUTHEAST ASIA.

THE CHIEF CHINESE DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS SAID THE MAIN WORRY OF THE NATIONALISTS IS THAT RUSSIA WILL SEND NAVAL UNITS TO HELP RED CHINA ATTACK THE ISLAND REFUGE OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

TSIANG TOLD A LUNCHEON MEETING OF THE U.N. CORRESPONDENTS ASSOCIATION THAT IF THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT RETAINS FORMOSA IT WOULD PUT A DETERRING FACTOR AGAINST CHINESE COMMUNIST DESIGNS TO MOVE ON NEIGHBOR COUNTRIES TO THE SOUTH--BURMA, THILAND AND INCOCHINA AND EVEN INDONESIA.

"IF FORMOSA IS LOST," HE SAID, "A COLD SHIVER WILL RUN THROUGH ALL ASIA."

TSIANG CONTENDED FORMOSA COULD BE HELD AGAINST RED AGGRESSION.

HE SAID THERE ARE 150,000 TO 200,000 NATIONALIST TROOPS ON FORMOSA, PLUS AIR AND NAVAL UNITS. THE DEFENSE FORCE, HE SAID, INCLUDES SIX DIVISIONS OF THE REGULAR NATIONALIST ARMY UNDER THE COMMAND OF GEN. SUN LI-JEN, A GRADUATE OF VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE AND ONE OF THE NATIONALIST'S BEST FIGHTING GENERALS.

TSIANG SAID THE REDS HAD NOT BEEN ABLE TO CAPTURE TWO SMALL ISLANDS NEAR THE MAINLAND THAT ARE USED BY THE NATIONALISTS AS AIR AND NAVAL BASES. HE NAMED THEM AS TINGHAI, OPPOXITE THE MAINLAND PORT OF NINGPO, AND KINMEN, OPPOSING AMOY.

"IF THEY CANNOT CAPTURE THOSE ISLANDS, TO SAY FORMOSA IS DOOMED IS SHEER FANTASY," TSIANG SAID.

TSIANG TOOK A CRACK AT AKOB A. MALIK, SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER WHO HAS MANEUVERED THE SOVIET BLOC BOYCOTT OF 10 U.N. ORGANS OVER THE CHINA QUESTION.

"IT WOULD BE IDIOTIC FOR THE WORLD TO ALLOW ONE DELEGATION TO PARALYZE THE UNITED NATIONS," TSIANG SAID.

"WHAT CONSTRUCTIVE CONTRIBUTION," HE ASKED, "HAS THE SOVIET DELEGATION MADE IN THE LAST FOUR YEARS? WE WANT EVERYONE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE U.N. BUT IF ONE OR TWO DO NOT, IT PUTS ON US THE RESPONSIBILITY TO DO OUR WORK BETTER. IF WE DO THAT THE ABSENT DELEGATES WILL SEE THEY NEED THE U.N. MORE THAN THE U.N. NEEDS THEM."

TSIANG IS THE JANUARY PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL. BEFORE WALKING OUT MALIK ATTACKED TSIANG'S RIGHT TO PRESIDE AND TO ATTEND AS A DELEGATE, SAYING TSIANG REPRESENTED NOBODY AND SHOULD BE UNSEATED. (earlier)

New York, Jan.24-(ap)-Moscow has just published for the first ti a 1930 letter of stalin which may indicate that the soviet leadership thinks the time is ripe for easing off its internal campaign of self-criticism.

The letter indicated stalin thought the self-criticism in the soviet union often went too far and did not present enough of a picture of soviet achievements. Although this was written 20 years ago, the fact that it is published now and has been re-stressed in the daily soviet press since publication, hints it has the force of a directive.

JAN 26 1950

In the past year there has been a wave of "self-criticism," the russians used the approach to spur better production, propaganda, organization and communist thinking. It hit all fields, and frequently required noted soviet figures publicly to recant their "errors."

all this presented to the outside world a picture of severe regimentation of artists, scientists, writers and ordinary workers and a production system riddled with inefficiency.

the 1930 letter was written to maxim gorky, hero of soviet letters.

apparently it replied to this question: does not the self criticism of the soviet organizations and the soviet press give rich propaganda material to the enemies of the soviet union?

to this stalin replied:

"we cannot get along without self-criticism. We can by no means get along without self-criticism, alexei maximovitch. without it, stagnation, the rotting of our apparatus, the growth of bureaucracy and the undermining of the creative energy of the working class is inevitable. Of course, self-criticism gives material to our enemies. in this you are completely right. But it also gives material (and impulse) for our advance, for the unleashing of constructive energy of the workers, for the development of competition, for shock brigades, etc. the negative side is covered and more than covered by the positive.

"it is possible that our press emphasizes our faults too much and even sometimes, unintentionally, advertises them. this is possible and even probable. and this, of course, is bad. You demand, therefore to equalize (i would say overbalance) our faults, with our attainments. And in this, of course, you are right. We shall, without fail and without delay, fill in this gap. you need not doubt this."

Gorky, [redacted] was not published with the stalin reply.

letter [redacted] also apparently asked stalin whether there should be a special magazine published in moscow, called "On war." Stalin said no.

The soviet leader said the journals already in existence provided sufficient coverage. Then he added comment, which, in view of its play at this la te date, indicates the intensity of soviet propaganda aga inst the west today, and possibly could be a warning that any war in which russia became involved would be a holy war.

Said s talin

JAN 26 1950

"in what concerns stories about war they must be printed with great selectivity. On the book market there figure a mass of artistic stories depicting the 'horrors' of war and a rousing repulsion to any war (not only to imperialist war but to any other.) These are bourgeois pacifist stories having no great value. We need such stories as lead the readers from the horrors of imperialist war to the necessity of overcoming imperialist governments which organize such war s.

"besides, we are not against every war. we are against imperialist war as a counter-revolutionary war. but we are for liberating, anti-imperialist revilutionary war, notwithstanding the fact that such a war, as is well known, not only is not free from 'horrors of bloodletting' but even abounds in them."

New Chambers Spy Papers Linked To Late Treasury Aide

NIXON DECLARES WHITE WROTE PUMPKIN NOTES; CHARGES LAXITY BY U.S.

Terms Hiss Case Part Of Plot Ignored By High Officials

JAN 27 1950

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—A new batch of "pumpkin papers" was produced today by Representative Nixon (R., Cal.), who quoted Whittaker Chambers, admitted wartime courier for a Soviet spy ring, as saying he got them from a high United States Treasury official.

The Californian named the late Harry Dexter White, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, as the author of the notes telling about such things as prewar operations of a United States Navy captain assigned as a "secret liaison man" in England, and United States Treasury plans to bolster China's currency.

Nixon made this disclosure in a House speech in which he charged that the Alger Hiss case was but part of a far-flung subversive conspiracy in Government circles which he said high officials knew about but took no action.

White Denied Charges

Hiss, former State Department official, has been sentenced to five years for perjury after swearing he never gave any Government secrets to Chambers.

Nixon is a member of the House Un-American Activities Committee, which conducted the original investigation of the alleged Communist spy ring working inside the Federal Government.

During that investigation in 1943 White was questioned by the committee and denied Chambers's charges of having passed on confidential information for relay to Soviet agents. White, who died a short time after appearing before the House group, also denied having been a member of the Communist party or ever doing any disloyal act.

Nixon, however, told the House he had in his possession photostatic copies of the notes in White's handwriting which Chambers produced from the famed pumpkin hiding place on his Maryland farm, with the Hiss documents.

Data Confidential

"A Government handwriting agent has established that the documents were in Mr. White's handwriting," Nixon said, adding that a substantial part of the information they contained was confidential.

Nixon released copies of the purported White notes, one of which was date "1/9/38" and said:

"U.S. Naval Captain Ingersoll will remain in London until English want to communicate anything to us with respect to Japan boycott or exchange controls. He is to act solely as an agent of communications and not discuss matters. . . .

"State Department believes British moves toward Italy and Germany will reduce substantially European fear of war in the near future. . . .

"If Japan repeats another incident like the 'Panay' incident (bombing of U.S.S. Panay), Treasury machinery is all ready to embargo Japanese imports into U.S. & freeze her dollar balance. This was done at the Pres. orders. It remains unknown outside of Treasury . . .

"I have heard nothing further as to Capt. Ingersoll's mission in England beyond my earlier explanation. So far as the Treasury is concerned he is supposed to be there in case of another incident with Japan. In that event he would serve as a secret liaison man between Eng. & U.S. unknown to anybody as to nature of his mission . . .

Bankers Cool To Loan

"Bachman of the Swiss Nat. Bank said (2:15/38) that the Japanese recently put out feeler to some of his banks for a loan for industrial development in Manchoukuo However, his bankers had not sufficient interest in such a proposition even to submit it to the National Bank for consideration and possible approval."

He charged the Administration with "inexcusable inaction" in not dealing with the so-called Communist spy ring.

Nixon claimed that President Truman had access to a secret memorandum dated November 25, 1945, saying the Soviets had an agent in this country "who was an assistant" to the late Edward R. Stettinius, who was than Assistant Secretary of State. Nixon declared that Alger Hiss was Stettinius's assistant at the Yalta conference in February, 1945.

Nixon said this memorandum was prepared by a United States intelligence agent and was based on information given by Igor Guzenko. Guzenko was the Soviet code clerk in Canada who supplied information to the Canadian Government which led to the famous espionage trials there.

Sought To Block Probe

Nixon contended that Administration officials disregarded such information and attempted instead to block further investigations of the Hiss case.

He told the House that as early as December 5, 1948, his committee had learned from "unimpeachable sources" that Justice Department officials were considering prosecuting Chambers to avoid bringing Hiss to trial.

Chambers, an admitted former Communist underground worker, was the principal Government witness against Hiss in two trials. The first resulted in a hung jury, the second in his conviction.

Nixon said that if the Government had decided to prosecute Chambers, it would have meant in effect "that Mr. Hiss and the others named by Mr. Chambers as being members of an espionage group could not possibly be proceeded against due to the fact that the principal witness against them would have been an indicted perjurer."

Acheson Criticized

Several lawmakers, Democrats as well as Republicans, spoke out in criticism of the statement yesterday by Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, that he did not intend to turn his back on Alger Hiss.

Representative Harrison (D., Va.) said Acheson's remarks gave evidence of "an appalling lack of discretion" and prompts "serious appraisal of his future usefulness in the position he holds."

Representative Cox (D., Ga.) said Acheson's comment came as no surprise but "may be terrifying to the American public."

Representative Judd (R., Minn.) said that if Acheson did not turn his back on Hiss, then President Truman should "turn his back" on Acheson.

Said Representative Rich (R., Pa.): "I don't know if we have anybody working for Joe Stalin more than the Secretary of State."

Inquiry Urged

Representative Macy (R., N.Y.), who referred to the Hiss case as "a sorry spectacle," said it was tragic that persons in high office "failed to protect us from Communist activity going along under their very noses."

By referring to the case as a red herring, Macy said, President Truman had "unwittingly used the prestige of his high office on behalf of one of his country's enemies." He urged Congress to investigate "the unconvicted Hisses."

Representative Davis (D., Ga.) asked how long the American public would retain respect for the State Department if the secretary "hugs to his bosom" men convicted of crimes.

Her Love Cooled

But he said the 28-year-old brunette was shocked and her love cooled when she learned that Gubi- cooled when she learned that Gubitchev was married.

"We'll show," Palmer went on, "That she was friendly with everybody. Five feet in height, always smiling, she is the little kitten type x x x

"She never took from the files of the FBI or any other government agency anything she had no right to take x x x

"This girl is as innocent of any intent to wrong the United States as anyone in this courtroom."

Whearty painstakingly reviewed the FBI's sometimes unsuccessful efforts to shadow Miss Coplon and the Russian on three occasions in New York.

He recalled that when she was arrested her handbag contained, among other things, portions of FBI reports relating to the Soviet embassy as well as a decoy memo given her earlier that day to see what she would do with it.

The decoy paper, said the prosecutor, gave false information to the effect that the FBI had informants in high position with Amtorg, the Soviet Trading Organization. He said it also gave true information about an explosion-measuring device called a geophone.

"The geophone information was selected so that, if it got into the hands of the Russians, it would not harm the United States," he said.

Cites Wire Tapping

One point of contention between the defense lawyers apparently was settled in a private conference before today's session opened.

Palmer did not, as he had announced he would, refer in his address to last summer's Washington trial, in which Miss Coplon was convicted of stealing government papers for the Russians and sentenced to 40 months to 10 years in prison.

Pomerantz objected yesterday to any mention of the Washington trial, saying it would be likely to prejudice the case against Gubitchev. Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan, presiding, arranged the conference between the lawyers.

Palmer did, however, renew his attack on the FBI's admitted use of wire-tapping in the case. He said it was just as illegal as the crime of which Gubitchev and Miss Coplon are accused.

Coplon-Gubitchev Romance Claims Hit by Prosecutor

NEW YORK, Jan. 26—(AP) The defense pictured Judith Coplon today as a kitten-like innocent and Valentin A. Gubitchev as a love-crazed straying husband.

But the government prosecutor said he would prove that they were plotting to spy, and not carrying on an illicit romance, when they dodged FBI pursuers and kept furtive trysts in the streets of New York.

Three lawyers made opening addresses to the jury — Raymond P. Whearty, special assistant to the U.S. Attorney General; Archibald Palmer for Miss Coplon, and Abraham L. Pomerantz for the Russian engineer Gubitchev.

Face Four Counts

The defendants are charged in a four-count indictment with conspiring to steal U.S. defense secrets for the Russians.

Their lawyers gave widely differing interpretations of what happened last March 4, when Gubitchev and the tiny ex-government girl were arrested by FBI agents who chased them — sometimes losing the trail — almost the length of Manhattan.

Gubitchev acted strangely, his lawyer said, because he was "a crazy, crazy man wanting desperately to be with a woman" — and afraid his wife would find out what he was up to.

Pomerantz also told the jury of six men and six women:

"You will not find Mr. Gubitchev ever received a single piece of paper from Miss Coplon that related to the U. S. A. or any department."

Palmer likewise contended it was love rather than espionage that brought Miss Coplon up from Washington to meet the Russian when she worked for the Justice department and he for the United Nations.

Acheson's Stand On Hiss Stirs GOP Wrath

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson's suddenly famous statement that "I do not intend to turn my back on Alger Hiss" stirred Republican wrath today.

A number of those who have been arguing that the Roosevelt-Truman administrations have been "soft" toward communism prepared to follow the lead of Senator Mundt (R., S.D.).

Mundt made a three-hour attack in the Senate on Hiss, Acheson and Administration foreign policies.

Raises "Influence" Question

Of Acheson's statement that he wouldn't turn his back on Hiss—an old friend and State Department associate who has been convicted of perjury in a trial that linked him with Communists—Mundt had this to say:

"The important thing is not the manner in which Dean Acheson permits Hiss to influence the position of his back—the thing that Americans would like to know is how far Dean Acheson has permitted Hiss to influence his mind."

Senator McCarthy (R., Wis.) wanted to know whether Acheson's statement "might be an indication that he will not turn his back on any of the other Communists in the State Department."

Acheson's remark, at a news conference, came within a few hours of the sentencing of Hiss to five years on conviction of lying in swearing that he never passed any secret State Department documents to an agent for the Communist underground.

The Secretary of State, with some emotion, told reporters:

"I should like to make it clear to you that whatever the outcome of any appeal which Mr. Hiss or his lawyers may take in this case, I do not intend to turn my back on Alger Hiss.

Mundt also criticized Justice Felix Frankfurter for testifying in behalf of Hiss at the first trial, which ended with a hung jury. He said Frankfurter had "dragged the hallowed robes of the Supreme Court into a criminal court as a character witness for a man now convicted of perjury."

Makes Recommendations

Mundt made these recommendations based on the Hiss case:

1. Quick congressional extension of the present three-year time limit for bringing criminal charges on serious crimes involving the nation's security. He said the present statute of limitations "gives base protection to men like Hiss."

2. Passage of the Mundt-Nixon bill to outlaw Communists so they could be denied Government jobs and unfaithful Government workers could be punished.

3. Continued support for activities of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Britain Keeps Arms Project Rigidly Secret

London, Jan. 26 (AP)—Britain's Defense Ministry is spending nearly £60,000,000 ($168,000,000) on a top-secret arms project which it won't talk about even to Parliament.

Testimony before the House of Commons All-Party Committee on Estimates (costs), made public today, disclosed that Ministry officials would not even say whether the Ministry of Supply—which handles Britain's atomic research—was involved.

There were indications that atomic research was not the top-secret project. For example, Ministry of Supply officials were not called to testify on the one day when the project was discussed.

The committee investigates Government spending. Its reports are published annually.

All it learned from the Defense Ministry was that the spending of the £60,000,000 "had been looked at from an all-service point of view."

Communist Propaganda Over BBC Is Charged

London, Jan. 26 (AP)—Lord Craigavon charged tonight that Communists on the British Broadcasting Corporation's staff were introducing programs "tending to foster discontent and class hatred and pave the way for communism."

Craigavon, president of the non-official BBC listeners association, said his group had written to the postmaster general suggesting that he investigate.

The association, holding its annual meeting, hit chiefly at BBC's decision to give Communists radio time for an election broadcast.

Diplomats Confer On Mutual Trade Pact

Paris, Jan. 26 (AP)—Cabinet Ministers of eight Western European countries met today to try to break down historic trade barriers hampering their economies.

United States pressure brought them together to discuss setting up a European financial clearing house which would integrate mutual trade under the Marshall plan.

Also high on the agenda is the proposed appointment of former Belgian Premier Paul-Henri Spaak to head the organization for European Economic Co-operation (OEEC). President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson have openly urged Spaak's appointment to such a post.

Hoffman Attends

Marshall Plan Administrator Paul G. Hoffman was at today's meeting of the OEEC consultative group, made up of British economic head, Sir Stafford Cripps, and ministers from France, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Portugal, Norway and Greece.

The European clearing-house system has been accepted in principle by all Marshall plan members.

The plan, suggested by the United States, aims at equalizing trade between creditor and debtor nations. It would work like a bank clearing house with nations making trade payments only through the bank instead of directly with each other.

Western Allies Bid Bonn Send Consuls

Ask Germans to Name Men to Washington, London, Paris

BONN, Germany, Jan. 26 (AP).—Western Germany was invited today by the Allied High Commission to send consuls general immediately to Washington, London and Paris.

The invitation was extended by Sir Brian H. Robertson of Great Britain, this month's High Commission chairman, to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. A communique said Dr. Adenauer had accepted the invitation with pleasure. Allied spokesmen were unable to define immediately the scope of the responsibility which these consular representatives will have.

Permission for West Germany to exchange commercial and consular representatives with other countries was granted in a tripower agreement published in Paris Nov. 24. This agreement said the trade ties could be made only with countries "where such relations appear advantageous." The date for establishment of the consulates was left open.

Bonn Ratifies E. C. A. Pact

BONN, Germany, Jan. 26 (AP).—The West German Parliament today adopted a law ratifying the Economic Co-operation Administration agreement between the United States and the federal republic. Only the small Communist delegation opposed the measure. The E. C. A. agreement provides for Marshall plan aid to West Germany until 1952.

ALLIES HIT REDS ON BERLIN TIEUP

Protest Demands Immediate End of Interference with Truck Traffic

BERLIN, Jan. 26—(AP) The western allies protested sharply to the Russians tonight over Soviet interference with truck traffic between Berlin and west Germany and demanded immediate removal "of these abnormal restrictions."

The United States, British and French commanders in Berlin declared in a note to the Soviet commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, that "it is no longer possible to avoid the conclusion that these incidents are a calculated attempt to restrict the normal movement of persons and goods between Berlin and the western zones."

Soviet hindrance of the truck traffic at the Helmstedt checkpoint, 100 miles west of Berlin, could not be interpreted in any other way, they said.

Guard Tighten Blockade

The protest came as the Russian guards at Helmstedt appeared to be tightening a "baby blockade" to the passage of only one truck every 15 minutes. The Russians have used all sorts of excuses in their inspection of the trucks to cut the flow of supplies to west Berlin.

John J. McCloy, U. S. high commissioner for Germany, is reported to regard the increasing Russian restrictions on Berlin traffic as the beginning of a creeping blockade. He is now in the United States for consultations.

(In Boston, McCloy told newsmen the new Soviet interference "looks more in the nature of harassment."

(He added that he believed it was "part of a general effort on the part of communists to twist your arm."

("They (the communists)," he said, "seem to think only of impeding the recovery of Germany."

(McCloy said that if the Russians imposed "a complete blockade" of Berlin a second time "we would start the airlift again and take any other measures desirable.")

The western note, drawn up in a three-hour meeting of the three commandants, was delivered tonight to the Karlshorst headquarters of Kotikov. It virtually charged blockade tactics.

A previous protest, lodged when the Russians started molesting traffic a week ago, has been ignored.

"Instances of Soviet interference with traffic between Berlin and the western zones have become more frequent," the new note said, "and it is no longer possible to avoid the conclusion that these incidents are a calculated attempt to restrict the normal movement of persons and goods between Berlin and the western zones."

The Russian conduct has violated "the spirit and the letter" of the big four foreign ministers' decisions at Paris to normalize Berlin after the Soviet blockade was lifted last year, the note said.

"As a result of new regulations and a continual change of interpretation of instructions by the Soviet authorities on the spot," the allied commanders wrote, "hitherto accepted methods of documentation and previously recognized signatures have been rejected as invalid and unspecified additional documentation demanded."

"We, therefore, protest against Soviet interference with traffic between Berlin and Western Germany. We request that you will give your urgent attention to the matter, and that you will issue immediate instructions for the removal of these abnormal restrictions so as to assure that traffic between the West sectors of Berlin and the Western zones is no longer subjected to unwarranted delay."

REDS BLAME U. S. FOR SABOTAGE IN EASTERN GERMANY

BERLIN, Jan. 26 — (AP) The East German communist government today declared war on "Anglo-American and German saboteurs and agents." It drafted a law to set up a special ministry for state security to fight them.

In a sharply worded anti-western statement issued after a cabinet meeting, the government blamed Anglo-American intelligence agents for "setting off a series of explosions in two powder factories (in eastern Germany), killing 17 people and causing a production stop of two months."

Political Unrest

The statement, as carried by the Soviet-licensed news agency ADN, said:

"Now, as the enemy has found he cannot hinder Democratic development in our republic by propaganda alone, he is concentrating on disturbing political and economic life by organized arson and sabotage on a large scale."

This is the first time east zone communists publicly have admitted the existence of political agitation in eastern Germany adverse to their cause.

To fight subversive activities the government made these decisions:

Counter Spy Network

1. The "people's" police will set up a network of countersabotage offices and draw up a minute operation plan to "uncover all enemy propaganda and all western spy rings in our republic."

2. Police and fire brigades must make joint efforts to uncover all cases of arson.

3. The minister of industry will insure necessary security measures in industry by reinforcing works protection brigades with police squads.

The statement said that in view of the "grave situation," a special ministry for state security will coordinate all counterintelligence work.

40 U.S. Trucks Pass Through 'Blockade'

Helmstedt, Germany, Jan. 26 (AP)—An American Army truck convoy crossed the Soviet zone frontier without difficulty early today, but almost 400 German trucks were caught in the five-day Russian "baby blockade" on the Berlin Autobahn traffic.

Soviet guards at Helmstedt quickly cleared some 40 American vehicles loaded with supplies for the Berlin military post. The United States Army instituted a once-a-week convoy to Berlin last summer to periodically test Russia's good faith in ending the Berlin blockade.

The Soviet slowdown was more vigorous against German traffic today than at any time since it began Sunday.

200 Trucks Halted

Two hundred German trucks from western Germany were backed up for three miles on one side of the Soviet checkpoint.

On the other side, almost 200 trucks from Berlin, cleared by the Russians on their eastward trip, were forced to wait for permission to leave the Soviet zone.

Russian guards passed only about three trucks an hour in each direction. All cargo papers were minutely inspected. Even the truck engine numbers were checked.

The Soviet restrictions as yet did not amount to a new blockade. Highway traffic was severely crippled, but passenger and freight trains were running on time.

Ice Blocks Canals

A cold wave has frozen the canals, which are also a major transport system between Berlin and the west.

The only Soviet interruptions of barge traffic before the freeze involved two cargoes of Berlin scrap metal for Belgium, which subsequently were released.

Allied officials in Berlin still minimized the possible future scope of the Russian blow to the city's communications with the west.

They suggested that these aims might be behind the newest harassment:

Force freight from trucks to the Soviet zone railway, thereby increasing westmark revenues for the Russian-controlled management.

Shake the confidence of West Berlin inhabitants in the Western powers.

Plug the leakage of dismantled industrial equipment and other forbidden items from Berlin to western Germany.

The Soviet-sponsored East German Government has launched a drive for metal and scrap to ease East Germany's metal shortage.

Some Metals Seized

Some Western officials said this partly explains the action of Soviet guards who carefully examine and sometimes confiscate truckloads of metals or scrap going through their zone frontiers.

The drive, similar to the one Hitler invoked in 1936, has hit even East Berlin shops, where housewives report they cannot buy an iron pail without turning in some scrap metal in return.

WEST 'SABOTAGE' CHARGED

East German Cabinet Sets Up a Special Security Ministry

BERLIN, Jan. 26 (AP)—The Communist-controlled East German Government declared war today on "Anglo-American and German saboteurs and agents." It drafted a law to set up a special Ministry for State Security to fight them.

In a sharply worded anti-Western statement issued after a Cabinet meeting the Government blamed Anglo - American intelligence agents for "setting off a series of explosions in two powder factories [in Eastern Germany], killing seventeen persons and causing a production stop of two months."

The statement, as carried by the Soviet-licensed news agency ADN, said:

"Now, as the enemy has found he cannot hinder democratic development in our republic by propaganda alone, he is concentrating on disturbing political and economic life by organized arson and sabotage on a large scale."

3-PARTY CABINET FORMED IN ITALY, REDS ARE SCORNED

G. PRIA

ROME, Jan. 26—(AP) Premier Alcide De Gasperi has formed his new Italian cabinet, a government spokesman announced tonight.

It is a three-party anti-communist coalition similar in political complexion to his previous cabinet which resigned Jan. 12. This is the sixth post-war government De Gasperi, leader of the Christian Democrats, has headed.

The new government is made up of 13 Christian Democrats, three Labor Socialists and two Republicans. The spokesman said it will be formally presented to President Luigi Einaudi tomorrow.

Sforza Retained

Carlo Sforza, 77, retains his post as foreign minister. Despite leftist pressure the communists' arch foe, Mario Scelba, remains as interior minister—the cabinet post which controls the police.

De Gasperi tried vainly to persuade Giuseppe Saragat, leader of the Labor Socialists, to take a government post. Saragat said he wants to give all his time to running the little anti-communist party.

Need for the government reorganization stemmed from the resignation of Saragat and two other Labor Socialist ministers from the previous cabinet last October because of a party crisis.

De Gasperi gave them three months to work out their troubles. During that period the wing of the Labor Socialist party opposed to the Atlantic pact broke away and formed a new Socialist party. Followers of Saragat met in Naples earlier this month and reaffirmed their support of De Gasperi's pro-American policies.

Dissension Flares

By the time DeGasperi had resigned and started the reorganization dissension mroke out in the ranks of the small Liberal (conservative) party which held two ministries in the previous cabinet.

The Liberals thought De Gasperi's projected electoral law favored large parties. They also did not like the land reform bill. Unable to compromise with the premier, they stayed out of the new government.

Just before the old cabinet resigned six workers died in police-striker clashes in the Po valley town of Modena. While the incident had no relation with the government crisis, the communists seized upon it to demand that Scelba be replaced as interior minister.

CZECH PRESS HITS ARCHBISHOP BERAN

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 26 — (AP) The controlled Czechoslovak press violently attacked Archbishop Joseph Beran tonight, accusing him of deliberately sabotaging all efforts at an agreement between the communist government and the Roman Catholic church.

The newspaper Lidove Noviny, organ of the Czechoslovak authors guild, said the archbishop fears that a church-state agreement would "mean the defeat of the anti-communist policy of the Vatican."

Archbishop Beran, primate of the Roman Catholic church of Czechoslovakia, says he has been interned in his palace since last June, when communist hecklers drove him from his pulpit.

Sign Loyalty Oaths

The newspaper said the signing of loyalty oaths to the government by Catholic priests "put an end to the last hopes of those who thought it still possible to overthrow the republic."

Church sources earlier this week said those priests who sign oaths to stay out of jail do so unwillingly. The government holds they are willingly signing without an accompanying reservation ordered by the church—that their action must not offend their priestly vows.

The clergy of all faiths, under the law by which Czechoslovakia took administrative control of churches, must sign the oaths in order to get their salaries.

Dictaphone Found

Talks between the Catholic hierarchy and the government ended last spring after the Council of Bishops had discovered a recording device in the room where they were discussing means of arriving at agreement with the government. They charged the government planted the device.

Lidove Noviny said today Archbishop Beran planted the device and had it discovered "by chance." The paper said he did this on orders from the Vatican, in an effort to discredit the government and forestall agreement.

U. N. TRUSTEE COUNCIL TO RUSH SOMALI PACT

GENEVA, Jan. 26 (AP) — The United Nations Trusteeship Council approved today the main body of the trusteeship agreement with Italy for the administration of Somaliland. It voted to hold night meetings if necessary to complete the document before the convening of the Italian Parliament Monday.

Sir Alan Burns, British delegate, said the agreement was going before the Italian Parliament as early as possible so that Italy would have the opportunity to move necessary troop contingents to her former North African colony to take over from the British forces now administering the territory.

The British delegate told the Council today that the United Kingdom would inform the Council by March 1 of the provisional boundary lines turned over to the Italians. The question of boundaries is the most difficult one facing the United Nations.

Italy will administer Somaliland for the next ten years under the United Nations mandate, following which the territory will become an independent state.

Tito, Ambassador Allen In Frank, Friendly Talk

BELGRADE, Jan. 26 (AP).—Premier Marshal Tito and American Ambassador George V. Allen talked over Yugoslav-American affairs today in an atmosphere—as Mr. Allen reported later—"marked by friendliness and frankness on both sides."

Marshal Tito received the new American Ambassador six days after his arrival here and less than twenty-four hours after he had formally presented his credentials.

In a statement issued later, Mr. Allen said he told Marshal Tito the United States has full sympathy with Yugoslavia's efforts to maintain its independence of and prevent domination by the Russian-led Cominform countries. Mr. Allen said he expressed hope for "increased personal and official contact between the American Embassy here and Yugoslav authorities, and closer relations between the American and Yugoslav peoples."

Mr. Allen noted in particular the recent conclusion of an air agreement between the United States and Yugoslavia, and termed it during his talk with Marshal Tito "a valuable step in the direction of increased contact and understanding between the two countries."

Greek Outlaw Surrenders

ATHENS, Jan. 26 (AP).—George Kamarineas, outlawed leader of Rightist bands, surrendered last night to police at Kalamata, the Ministry of Public Order announced today. A reward of 30,000,000 drachmai ($2,000) had been placed on his head only two days ago. The announcement said members of Kamarineas's family, who had been held on charges of hiding him, had been released.

Indians Rejoice as Nation Becomes Newest Republic

NEW DELHI, Jan. 26 — (AP) Indians rejoiced tonight in full independence. The dream of a sovereign democratic republic, nurtured by Mohandas K. Gandhi and his followers for 30 years, became a reality today.

The end of the long struggle for freedom from 178 years of allegiance to the British crown came with the inauguration of a new constitution and the installation of the India's first president, 64-year-old Rajendra Prasad.

India remains, however, a voluntary economic and political member of the British commonwealth.

The retiring governor general, Chakravarti Rajagopalachari, read the proclamation of the new republic which ended allegiance to Britain's king at solemn ceremonies in the former throne room of the viceroys at government house.

Federal Constitution

The constitution, which took two years to draft, combines features from those of Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia and Ireland.

Essentially federal in structure, the constitution establishes a system for union and state governments, each exercising full authority within its respective domain. It provides for a single judiciary and uniformity in civil and criminal laws. India had been a British dominion since she won freedom Aug. 15, 1947. Her sister state of Pakistan, which became sovereign along with India, remains a British dominion.

After the reading of the proclamation by the retiring governor general, Prasad was sworn in by Chief Justice Harilal J. Kania. Then the governor general's flag was lowered and the president's banner raised on the flagstaff of government house.

A military band played India's new national anthem, Jana Gana Mana. A 31-gun salute roared and India became in the Hindu language, "Sampoorna Prabhutva Sampana Lokatantratmaka Ganarajya" — a sovereign democratic republic.

Eulogizes Gandhi

In his inaugral address, Prasad eulogized Gandhi as the father of the now independent country and offered thanks to "the numberless men and women who, by their suffering and sacrifice, rendered the attainment of independence and the establishment of this sovereign democratic republic of India possible."

He said India's foreign policy is "to live in terms of friendship with all other countries."

The president declared that within India "our problem is to wipe out disease, poverty and ignorance."

"We are anxious to rehabilitate the displaced persons who have suffered and are still suffering great hardship and privation," he said.

Only one other chief of state was present — President Soekarno of the United States of Indonesia. The U. S. I. became independent of the Netherlands last Dec. 28.

President Prasad's speech was also heard by foreign diplomats, military commanders in full dress uniform, several Indian princes in high turbans, and members of the constituent assembly which now becomes India's first parliament.

The untouchables, numbering some 40,000,000 Indians, now may live and worship as they wish. The new republic's constitution guarantees them equality, permitting them to enter ordinary temples from which they had been barred in the belief they cause pollution to ordinary Hindus.

The day also marked the anniversary of the passage by the All-India Congress party, on Jan. 26, 1927, of a resolution pledging the establishment of a sovereign independent republic. Fulfillment of this pledge fell on a day astrologers had warned was inauspicious.

But Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's government rejected the idea as superfluous. President Truman sent a message to President Prasad that India's new sttus "constitutes an auspicious beginning for the second half of the twentieth century."

Prasad Installed As President Of India

New Delhi, India, Jan. 26 (AP)—India today inaugurated her first President and became a sovereign democratic republic.

The installation of 64-year-old Rajendra Prasad, veteran disciple of Mohandas Gandhi, ended the allegiance that for 178 years the vast Asian subcontinent has paid, willingly or otherwise, to Britain's King.

The new Republic of India remains, however, a voluntary economic and political member of the British Commonwealth. India joined the commonwealth August 15, 1947, when she and Pakistan became sovereign dominions.

Proclamation Read

Indians insisted on fulfilling their dream of setting up a sovereign republic. Pakistan has remained a British dominion.

The last chief of state supplied India by the British Crown, Gov. Gen. Chakravarti Rajagopalachari, read the proclamation establishing the "Sovereign Democratic Republic." He opened the simple, solemn ceremony in the magnificient Government House, Durbar Hall, that once was the throne room for Britain's Viceroys in India.

After the proclamation, Prasad, who had been unanimously elected by the Constituent Assembly on Tuesday, was sworn in as India's first President.

Atop the building the governor general's flag came down and the President's banner went up. A military band blared India's national anthem, "Jana Gana Mana." A 31-gun salute boomed in the courtyard.

Reds Dispersed

Gunfire of another sort was occasioned elsewhere in India by the inaugural. In Bombay today police fired nine shots to disperse an anti-republic demonstration organized by Communists.

The police said eight of their men and one girl were injured by the mob. A Bombay hospital said three persons had been admitted for treatment of bullet wounds and more were expected.

Prasad, in his inaugural address, offered thanks to Gandhi as the father of the nation and to "the numberless men and women who by their suffering and sacrifice rendered the attainment of independence and the establishment of this Sovereign Democratic Republic of India possible."

Friendship With All

India's foreign policy, he said, "is to live in terms of friendship with all other countries."

Within India, the President continued, "our program is to wipe out disease, poverty and ignorance. We are anxious to rehabilitate the displaced persons who have suffered and are still suffering great hardship and privation."

His speech was heard by diplomats, military commanders, several Indian princes and members of the Constituent Assembly—which now becomes India's first Parliament.

Soekarno Present

Because of the simplicity of the inaugural program, only one other head of state was present. He was President Soekarno of the United States of Indonesia, whose nation only last December 27 became independent of the Netherlands.

President Truman sent a message to Prasad that India's new status "constitutes an auspicious beginning for the second half of the Twentieth Century.

"May the future of the new republic functioning under a democratic constitution be characterized by peace, prosperity and good fortune," the United States President said.

Following Prasad's inaugural address, the oaths of office were given to Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, his Cabinet ministers, Chief Justice Harilal J. Kania and the speaker of Parliament.

Gwalior Lancers

Later the new President, in an open State carriage drawn by six horses, traveled a 5-mile route to Irwin Stadium to review a military parade. En route he passed under fifteen arches, depicting various phases of Indian history from the Indus Valley civilization to the era of Gandhi.

Great crowds, held back by ropes and closely spaced police, jammed both sides of the route as the State carriage passed. Accompanying it was an escort of colorfully uniformed lancers, the Gwalior Lancers' band on horseback and a single army tank.

Tonight a State banquet is planned at Government house.

Chinese Army Believed Held In Indo-China

Taipei, Jan. 26 (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry reported today that its 26th Army had fled across the border from Yunnan province into Indo-China and presumably had been interned.

The 26th was under the command of Gen. Yu Cheng-wan, who is on the island of Hainan, off the south coast of China.

[An official Central News Agency dispatch, picked up by the Associated Press in San Francisco, said Communist forces under Red General Lin Piao, had crossed into Indo-China and were supplying Viet-Nam forces under Red Leader Ho Chih-minh with arms and ammunition. The Central News Agency said its sources were frontier reports received by military sources in Taipei.

[The Central News Agency said among internees in Indo-China, might not be aware of the Red crossing because the border was in the hands of guerrillas.]

10 Generals Among Internees

The Defense Ministry said that ten Nationalist generals were among internees in Indochina. They included Gen. Huang Chien, governor of Hunan province.

A Cabinet spokesman disclosed that more than 400 officials of the Nationalist Government and their dependents were trapped in Kunming by a revolt in the Yunnan capital during December.

The Nationalist officials had been shuttled from West China. They were awaiting passage out of Kunming when the revolt broke. Among them were 280 officials and their families of the Defense Ministry.

Nationalists here were buoyed by continuing reports of aerial blows against the Communist mainland and the hope of more American economic aid.

Shanghai Harbor Hit

The Air Force announced that heavy bombers pounded Red Shanghai's water front yesterday and pilots claimed direct hits on seven ships from 1,000 to 3,000 tons and said several warehouses were left in flames.

Nationalist fighters struck at Foochow, staging point for any Communist invasion attempt against Formosa. Many small craft in the mainland harbor were declared sunk or damaged. Other fighters raked trains running north from Canton, South China metropolis.

Indonesia Fights Rebels In Capital

Jakarta, Java, Jan. 26 (AP)—Indonesian Federal troops, seeking to crush a West Java rebel movement, shot it out with an armed band of deserters from Dutch service in downtown Jakarta today and hauled off two truckloads as prisoners.

Seven persons were killed and a number wounded, it was announced. A witness said five of the dead were Federal soldiers; two were members of the rebel band.

Armored patrols rumbled through the main thoroughfares tonight. The curfew was advanced three hours, from 1 A.M. to 10 P.M. Dozens of sentries stood guard at the flood-lighted Federal Army headquarters behind newly erected sandbag fortifications and barbed wire.

The clash came as soldiers of this month-old nation combed the capital for Indonesian deserters from the immobilized Royal Netherlands Indies Army suspected of throwing in with the guerrilla force of a tough former Dutch captain, R.P.P. Westerling.

Mobile police officers reported the action was set off by an attack of the rebel band on a police post in the shopping district.

Deserters Battle U.S.I. Troops In Jakarta

Jakarta, U.S.I., Jan. 26 (AP)—Indonesian Government troops fought a sharp daylight gun battle today with a band of deserters in the heart of this capital during an intensive manhunt for supporters of a West Java rebel movement.

The acting chief of staff of the Indonesian armed forces, Colonel Simatupang, said seven persons were killed and a number of others were injured in the sudden flareup which occurred while the troops combed through a crowded downtown area.

As darkness fell on the capital of the new independent nation the population was tense. Armored patrols rattled through the main streets, deserted by civilians. At the office buildings of the Federal army headquarters dozens of sentries were on the alert. Troops threw up sandbag fortifications around the building, dug trenches and erected 10-foot-high barbed wire fencing.

Premier Arrested

Floodlights were placed around the headquarters building, and the Dutch placed armed guards before all the Netherlands army and navy establishments here.

Earlier the Government had announced the arrest of the Premier of the West Java state on suspicion of being involved in last Monday's guerrilla uprising at Bandoeng, regarded as a grave threat to this struggling month-old United States of Indonesia.

A spokesman for the U.S.I. Government said Premier Anwar Tojokroaminoto was taken into custody Tuesday after rebel Indonesians led by R. P. P. (Turk) Westerlin, a mysterious former Dutch army officer, raided Bandoeng, West Java is one of the sixteen states making up the United States of Indonesia.

U. S. Aide Says Reds Will Free Marine Fliers Held in China

KOBE, Japan, Jan. 26—(AP) A U. S. consular official just out of Red China expressed belief today that the Communists eventually would free two American servicemen they have held for 15 months.

"When Britain has set up effective relations with Red China, I think we will get Bender and Smith out," said Consul General Carl O. Hawthorne of San Francisco. He came here aboard the freighter Flying Arrow after closing the consulate at Tsingtao.

The prisoners are Marine M-Sgt. Charles C. Bender of Cincinnati and Navy Chief Electrician William C. Smith of Long Beach, Calif. They have been in Red hands since their plane was forced down Oct. 19, 1948. They were attachced to the Amreican naval base which operated at Tsingtao at that time.

Don't Want Money

Capt. David Jones of the Flying Arrow attempted to negotiate release of Smith and Bender when his ship put into Tsingtao after being blocked by Nationalist shellfire outside Shanghai.

Jones disclosed he had been authorized to spend up to $25,000 if the communists wanted ransom for the two fliers, but was told that money did not enter into it.

Jones said the communist official to whom he talked declared the men could be released "very quickly" if the United States would make a "proper" diplomatic request.

Hawthorne said United States recognition of the Chinese Communists did not enter into the release of the two Marines. He said when Britain established diplomatic relations that would set up the kind of official channel which the Communists consider "proper."

Lived Under Close Guard

Hawthorne and the four Americans in his consular party were reluctant to talk about their personal experiences, "because of the effect it might have on other American officials who are trying to leave Communist areas," he explained.

He disclosed, however, that for many months before their departure they had lived under close guard of armed Red soldiers. Hawthorne was threatened with arrest several times, but never actually detained.

The Americans had to surrender their automobiles and most other possessions when the Reds finally let them board the Flying Arrow.

Hawthorne reported 21 Americans remained in Tsingtao—all missionaires except two employes of a British tobacco company.

In addition to the now familiar story of stagnant business and unemployment in Red territory, he predicted, "millions are going to die of starvation before the next harvest in August."

He expressed doubt, however, that the people would protest in view of the tight Red military control.

U. S. and South Korea Sign Arms Aid Accord

SEOUL, Jan. 26 (AP).—The United States and the Republic of Korea today signed an agreement on the terms under which South Korea will receive military aid voted last year by Congress. Ambassador John Muccio signed for the United States and Defense Minister Sihn Sung Mo and Finance Minister Kim Do Yun for the republic.

The Korean Republic soon will receive more than $10,000,000 worth of American military equipment.

The National Assembly today voted to send three members to the United States to urge continued aid.

Inflation already has set in as a result of the recent Congressional action in halting economic aid. The won, the national currency, is selling on the black market at 4,000 to $1. A week ago it was 3,000 to $1.

Ends Nationalist China Ties

KARACHI, Pakistan, Jan. 26 (AP).—The government announced today it is withdrawing its diplomatic representation from the Nationalist Chinese government now based on the island of Formosa. Pakistan officially recognized the Communist Chinese government Jan. 4.

FORMOSA DEFENSE NOT WORTH COST, U. S. CHIEFS SAY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—The nation's defense chiefs were reported today to have taken the position that Formosa is of strategic significance but not vital enough for American troops to occupy it to keep it out of Chinese communist hands.

That word was relayed to reporters by Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee after the committee met in closed session with Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson and General Omar Bradley.

Another senator, who asked that his name not be used, employed different language in describing Gen. Bradley's testimony. He said that Gen. Bradley and Gen. Douglas MacArthur were agreed that Formosa in hostile hands "would be a menace to our lifeline" in the Pacific.

Johnson and Bradley were summoned in answer to Republican demands for a military appraisal of the island's part in this country's defense system.

GOP Hits Policy

GOP senators have seized on President Truman's decision not to send arms aid to the Formosa defenders as a springboard for a full-scale attack on the administration's Asia policies in general.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif), in particular, has been demanding to know whether Mr. Truman made his Formosa announcement with the approval of the joint chiefs of staff.

On that point Chairman Connally (D-Tex) said the decision was "approved and confirmed" in advance by the Defense department. He added, however, that due to "mechanical difficulties" Johnson and Bradley saw the text of the president's announcement only a short time before it was released at a White House news conference Jan. 5.

Connally and other committee members stressed that both Johnson and Bradley testified they did not take issue with the final decision to limit American help to Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist forces to economic assistance.

No Occupation Talk

Asked whether the question of sending a military mission to Formosa was taken up at today's session, Connally said "these matters were not discussed."

Another committee member said that up until the time of the President's announcement the joint chiefs of staff were considering a military mission to the island to study the situation.

"Up until that time," he said, "they assumed our policy was to give arms aid to the Chinese Nationalists."

This member reported that the joint chiefs had made five separate reports on Formosa to the National Security Council, the President's top-level defense advisory agency.

But Connally said that "Johnson and Bradley both said that at no time have the joint chiefs of staff or the department of defense recommended any occupation of Formosa by the United States."

"They also expressed the view," he said, "that while Formosa is of strategic significance to the United States in the hands of an enemy, in the view of the joint chiefs of staff its significance would not warrant the use of our armed forces to occupy it."

A reporter asked if either Johnson or Bradley said anything about the views of Gen. Douglas MacArthur who is reported to favor U. S. action to keep the island out of the hands of the Chinese Reds.

"Bradley discussed MacArthur's views," Connally said, but he refused to amplify this statement.

MACARTHUR MARKS 70TH BIRTHDAY

TOKYO, Jan. 26—(AP) With little ceremony, General Douglas MacArthur observed his 70th birthday today.

Brisk and in good health, the commander of the occupation of this nation he did much to defeat received congratulations from well-wishers who crowded his anteroom.

Sir Alvary Gascoigne, head of the British mission, extended the greetings of the diplomatic set. Birthday remembrances included flowers from the emperor and Premier Shigeru Yoshida. The Philippines awarded him its highest decoration, the Legion of Honor medal.

As the general left his office at lunchtime, several hundred Japanese urchins on the sidewalk sang "happy birthday" and waved homemade American flags.

MacArthur talked to some of his office callers about his job, though not for publication. It is known, however, that he does not think another war is imminent.

He regards modern war as so destructive that it might prostrate all participants, winner and loser alike.

Japan Will Build Tourist Centers

Americans to Finance Part of $100,000,000 Program

TOKYO, Jan. 26 (AP).—A $100,000,000 Japanese-American building program will get under way this spring, President Shinji Nakanishi of the Japan Development Corporation said today.

The program, sponsored by the corporation and several American investors, is designed to stimulate Japan's tourist trade. Mr. Nakanishi said it has been encouraged by Allied Headquarters officials who told him Japan is "woefully neglecting the opportunities in the tourist trade to earn dollars."

Mr. Nakanishi said six American architects and technicians will arrive here in March or April to launch and supervise the building project, which envisages supermodern hotels, theaters and a dining terrace on the ancient moat surrounding the Imperial Palace.

In Los Angeles, architect-engineer Welton Becket said plans call for immediate construction of a 1,000-room hotel in the outer grounds of the palace in Tokyo, two trade and cultural centers in Tokyo and Osaka, two trade centers in Yokohama and Kobe, and thirteen other hotels in Japanese resort centers.

Mr. Becket, in overall charge of the project, said American investors will finance 20 to 50 per cent of the program. He said hotel man Conrad Hilton is interested in operating one or more of the hotels on a lease. He said George Killion, president of American President Lines, is interested in the venture.

Among officials in the Japan Development Corporation are Kensuke Horinuchi, former Ambassador to the United States; Rense Sawada, former Ambassador to France, and former Finance Ministers Keizo Shibusawa and Jichi Tushima.

Japs Beginning to Wonder About U. S. Defense Pledge

TOKYO, Jan. 26—(AP) The Japanese are beginning to wonder out loud about the United States pledge to defend them.

In doing so, they may yet talk themselves out of their remaining chances for an early peace treaty.

A committee of 59 professors voiced a growing opinion here in this recent statement:

"We are definitely opposed to a military agreement with a specific country or the leasing of bases for military purposes to a specific country."

They contended a demilitarized Japan might escape any future war by remaining neutral, but argued it could not if military forces were stationed here.

Politicians and editorial writers have suggested that perhaps the United States could guarantee Japan's defense by "remote control."

This attitude seems to be gradually replacing the once-prevalent insistence that Japan was in mortal danger and its defense had to be assured.

The average Japanese probably would feel lost if American power were withdrawn too far away. An opportunist, he probably wants a chance to decide whether to yell for help or bargain with the enemy.

Need for Bases Stressed

U. S. military planners have emphasized the need for maintaining bases in Japan to protect both this country and the United States.

These islands have become America's principal position in the Orient as the big base of Okinawa to the south becomes more vulnerable through Chinese communist advances on the Asiatic mainland.

To carry out this double duty, U. S. military officials here probably will insist upon airtight guarantees for use of bases as a prerequisite for any peace treaty.

Japan won't have much of a voice in a treaty. Japanese opinion, however, might have a considerable effect upon the future degree of cooperation that could be expected from an autonomous Japan.

The idea that absolute neutrality could be enforced might spread among the nervous Japanese. The point has been raised so frequently that it suggests the Japanese government may be encouraging or prompting the idea.

The Japanese government, of course, wants complete autonomy after the peace. And you can't have that with foreign bases on your territory.

Reds Drop Japanese, He Quits Legislature

TOKYO, Jan. 26 (AP).—Ko Nakanishi, a member of the House of Councilors recently expelled from the Japanese Communist party for "anti-party, anti-leadership activities," resigned today from the upper house.

Nakanishi said he resigned because he had been elected as a Communist, and now that he was out of the party he felt he no longer could hold the legislative position.

Admiral Recounts Mistakes Of U. S., Japs in Pacific War

NEW YORK, Jan. 26—(AP) Second guessing the conduct of Pacific war, Adm. Frederick C. Sherman points in a new book to a whole series of lost chances and questionable decisions by American as well as Japanese high commanders.

Sherman, not to be confused with chief of naval operations Forrest P. Sherman, captained the old aircraft carrier Lexington before she sank and later led important carrier task forces. His theme is the supremacy of the carrier in the Pacific. His book, "Combat Command," will be published tomorrow by Dutton.

Here are some of his observations, somewhat condensed:

Hits Pearl Harbor Debacle

On Pearl Harbor: "The Navy was responsible for seeing that the Navy's guard was up at all times. These measures were not taken. x x x The complacency of the Navy hierarchy was shaken to its foundations."

On defective torpedoes: "The bureau of ordinance has a great deal to answer for."

On Wake Island: Had the Saratoga group not been so dilatory, it could have delivered reinforcements two days before the Japanese attacked. x x x The whole future course of the war might have been changed."

Attack Disorganized

On the Tulagi attack, before the battle of the Coral Sea: "Not well organized even by the standards of those early days."

On Midway: "Failure (to provide fighter protection) cost us practically all our gallant torpedo planes with nothing to show for their sacrifice."

Savo Island aftermath: "Admiral Fletcher's recommendation to withdraw the carrier task force, and its approval by Admiral Ghormley, was astounding."

On first battle of Philippine Sea: "This critical decision (by Admiral Spruance, to retire temporarily) resulted in the escape of the bulk of the Japanese fleet, when it might have been completely destroyed."

In the battle of Leyte Gulf: "There is little doubt that had Admiral Kinkaid carried out proper security measures, he had sufficient force to have prevented the arrival of Kurita's ships off Samar."

Didn't Need A-Bomb

On the A-bomb: "The status of the war did not justify the use of this missile. America's moral position today would be stronger if we had not."

Adm. Sherman criticizes the Japanese for failure to press home their attacks when they had overwhelming advantages at the battle of Komandorkis in Alaskan waters, after the battle of Savo Island, and at Leyte Gulf. Also he says, American retirement after the battle of the Coral Sea despite victory left the Japanese free to press on to Port Moresby, but they did not realize it.

U. S. Probes Illegal Shipments Of Plane Parts to Red Nations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—(AP) Government officials said today several "fly by night" American companies are under investigation for illegal shipments of U. S. aircraft engines and spare parts to Soviet Iron Curtain countries.

State and Justice department authorities are investigating the cases.

Officials said that at the request of the State department, the Swiss government recently stopped a shipment of 13 American DC-3 engines bound for communist Czechoslovakia.

Sources Closed Down

These officials also reported that Polish sources for American engines and parts had been closed down in France and Belgium with the help of the French and Belgian governments.

Despite rigid controls, however, the government-run airlines in Poland and Czechoslovakia are reported to have succeeded in getting several thousand dollars worth of aircraft parts."

The Czech airline is reported desperately in need of equipment to keep its American-made DC-3's flying. A number of these planes were bought from the United States government when relations were friendly. Now they are reported grounded for lack of spare parts.

Used Dummy Companies

Officials said the 13 DC-3 engines which were halted at the Swiss border were "diverted" through Belgium and Switzerland by "dummy companies." They were sold by American concerns who stated they would go strictly to western European users.

Government authorities said several American officials for aviation companies have been called into the State department to explain their part in the traffic. All aircraft material is banned to eastern Europe because of its "war potential."

Also under investigation are several companies who withdrew their applications for export licenses after government officials said they discovered that the aircraft they wanted to send overseas eventually would be trans-shipped to eastern European nations.

WALLACE DENIES A-BOMB CHARGES

Ex-Vice President Says He Never Approved Shipment of Uranium to Reds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 — (AP) Henry A. Wallace today denounced implications that "as a wartime vice president I could not be trusted with certain confidential information regarding the atom bomb."

Testifying at his own request before the House Un-American Activities committee, Wallace swore under oath that he was "neither responsible nor aware" of uranium shipments to Russia during World War II.

Uranium is a basic ingredient in A-bombs.

"In short, and in fact, I had absolutely nothing to do with any of these (uranium export) licenses," he said.

The former vice president testified that as a top policy maker he knew about the government's super-secret atomic research, and helped shape the decision in mid 1941 to intensify this country's efforts to beat the Germans in the race for atomic weapons.

Race With Germans

"Knowing as we did that the Kaiser Wilhelm institute had been working on an atomic project since 1939, we were determined that the Germans should not make the first bomb," he said.

But Wallace said he never violated the secrecy surrounding American A-bomb development, and he told the committee:

"I was never anything but faithful to the trust that had been placed with me."

Wallace held his poise unruffled under a barrage of questions by committee members. These brought out:

1. A denial of a New York Times story published in September, 1945 that Wallace proposed sharing the atom bomb with Russia at a cabinet meeting on Sept. 21, 1945. Wallace said he agreed with Secretary of War Stimson that there should be some scientific exchange, but argued against giving any nation any of the know-how or construction details of the atom bomb.

2. An acknowledgement that Wallace knows Boris Pregel, president of a New York firm which arranged for two shipments of Canadian uranium compounds to Russia in the spring of 1943. But Wallace said he never met Pregel until Dec. 27, 1943.

An interested spectator at the hearing was radio commentator Fulton Lewis, Jr., who charged in a broadcast last month that Wallace as vice president, "overruled" protests by Lt. Gen. Leslie R. Groves against the shipment of uranium to Russia in 1943.

At the time of Lewis' broadcast, Wallace had denounced the charges as "sheer fabrication" and demanded the right to meet his accuser "face to face."

Committee members said that at present it is not planned to have Lewis take the stand.

Gen. Groves, wartime head of the Army's "Manhattan project" for A-bomb development, has already testified that Wallace never attempted to put pressure on him for sending uranium supplies to Russia. Groves, now retired, is to be recalled later.

In his long prepared statement, Wallace said.

"I have asked this committee for an opportunity to testify because I want very much to clear up the doubts that have been cast on my conduct in connection with the licensing of uranium and heavy water shipments to Russia in 1943.

Two Basic Questions

"Testimony before this has raised two basic questions insofar as I am concerned: (1) It is strongly implied, if it is not actually said, that I was responsible for the licensing of uranium and heavy water for Russia; and (2) As a wartime vice president, I could not be trusted with certain confidential information regarding the atom bomb."

In connection with point No. 2, Wallace later alluded directly to Gen. Groves' previous testimony that Groves had decided not to give any more atomic data to Wallace in August, 1943.

"While it is not for me to pass judgment on my own conduct," Wallace continued, "I state unhesitatingly that I am proud of my participation as vice president of the United States during the time when the war situation was the most critical.

30.24- 8513

"And I am proud to have been associated with the administration whose policies were so effective in making available the essential materials when they were most needed."

Wallace declared that the "attack" against him—"not only before this committee, but with even more violence in certain newspapers and by certain radio commentators"—was less an attack on himself than on the Democratic party and the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Lend-Lease Unit Ruled Exports, Says Wallace

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—Henry A. Wallace said today he had "absolutely nothing to do with" wartime uranium shipments to Russia.

Wallace, wartime Vice President, testified before the House Un-American Activities Committee. He asked to be heard after a radio commentator, Fulton Lewis, Jr., said in a broadcast last month that Wallace helped the Russians get supplies of atomic materials. Uranium is used in making the A-bomb.

In a statement, Wallace told the committee he did not even know the Russians were asking licenses for the shipments. He added:

"I did know that lend-lease recommended, after consulting with the Manhattan District, that they be issued, and the agency which I headed, the Bureau of Economic Warfare, had no discretionary authority with respect to them."

BEW Controlled Exports

The Manhattan District was the Army's name for the wartime atomic-bomb project. The Board of Economic Warfare (BEW), which Wallace headed, had control over exports and imports of war-vital materials.

The House committee has received testimony that several shipment of uranium compounds were sent from the United States to Russia during the war.

Wallace said the testimony before the committee had raised two basic questions concerning him:

1. It is strongly implied, if it is not actually said, that I was responsible for the licensing of uranium and heavy water for Russia in 1943; and.

2. As a wartime Vice President, I could not be trusted with certain confidential information regarding the atom bomb."

"Proud" Of His Service

Wallace said it is "not for me to pass judgment upon my conduct," but added:

"I state unhesitatingly that I am proud of my participation as Vice President of the United States during the time when the war situation was most critical, and I am proud to have been associated with the Administration whose policies were so effective in making available the essential materials when they were most needed."

Wallace's Point No. 2 was a reference to testimony from Lieut. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, retired, that he did not show Wallace certain wartime reports on the A-bomb project.

Groves directed the Manhattan Project. He is to be recalled later on for further testimony.

Attacked, He Says

Wallace said he had been "attacked" before the committee and "with even more violence in certain newspapers and by certain radio commentators." He added that he felt it was "not so much an attack on me, as it is upon the Democratic party and upon President Roosevelt."

Wallace said the subject of uranium shipments to Russia was never discussed at any meeting of the Board of Economic Warfare which he attended.

"The most important point to remember, however, is that shipments to Russia were not the responsibility of BEW, but the responsibility of the Lend-Lease Administration, which in 1943 was under the direction of E. R. Stettinius, Jr."

Cites BEW's Responsibility

He told the committee BEW's responsibility was limited to approving or denying applications for materials "in accordance with the recommendation of the Lend-Lease Administration."

"Moreover," Wallace continued, "the licenses for uranium oxide and uranium nitrate are said to have been issued in March and April, 1943. I want to point out that I personally was in Latin America from March 16, 1943, until April 25 of that year. In any event, I knew nothing about the issuance of the licenses or the shipments until the matter was stirred up in the press in 1946."

Atomic Program Is Ahead Of Schedule

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—With the nation's atomic program going faster than expected, President Truman has asked Congress to let the Government sign $87,650,000 in contracts now, instead of next summer.

The White House submitted the request for additional contract authority yesterday, without waiting for adoption of the budget for the next fiscal year beginning July 1.

While the request came in the midst of widespread speculation about a program for making hydrogen bombs—a super explosive far mightier than atomic bombs—there seemed little reason to relate the two.

Cost Would Be Up To Billion

For one thing, the cost of an H-bomb project has been unofficially estimated at from $200,000,000 to more than a billion. The White House said the authority to let $87,650,000 worth of contracts now is needed for an atomic plant-expansion plan announced last October.

The estimate, said the White House, "provides for the acceleration of certain projects in the reactor development program and initiation of some new projects."

Reactor is the scientific name for a power-producing atomic engine. So far, work on such engines is still in the experimental and development phase. No atomic engines, fueled with uranium, are yet producing power commercially, nor are they expected to for some years.

Shipbuilders Interested

However, the reactor development program is of major interest to those who foresee atomic power as a means of propelling ships. The Navy, seeking submarines of unlimited range and capable of long voyages under the surface, is keenly interested in the reactor program.

In addition to requesting the added contract authority, Mr. Truman also asked for another $7,000,000 to begin construction of Tennessee Valley power facilities to provide "the large quantity of additional power needed for operation of a new atomic-energy facility" at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Vandenberg Quits Atomic Committee

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) resigned today as a member of the joint congressional Atomic Energy Committee. Senator Bricker (R., Ohio) is in line to succeed him.

Vandenberg said his recovery from a lung operation had not been as rapid or complete as he had hoped and so he felt he had to cut down on his activities.

Vandenberg is ranking member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He decided to retain that work in preference to the atomic activities.

Vandenberg gave out this statement:

"The work of the joint congressional Committee on Atomic Energy requires continuous attention which I cannot adequately give it, in connection with my other Senate work, in view of the fact that I am temporarily somewhat physically limited in my activities. But I shall continue to be available for any assistance I can give the committee in administering its grave responsibilities."

U. S. Allies Clear Decks For Rearmament Program

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 — (AP) The United States and nine of its cold war allies cleared the decks today for the start of an American rearmament program aimed at bolstering the defenses of the non-Communist world in both Europe and the Far East.

These were the developments:

1. At Seoul, Korea, the American ambassador, John Muccio, signed agreements with the Korean government under which the Koreans will get several million dollars worth of American arms and this country will maintain a military mission there.

2. The United States and Britain after many weeks of argument reached full agreement on the terms under which Britain will share in a billion dollar American arms aid project for cold war allies in western Europe.

3. The State department announced that all eight of the European arms agreements, including the British, will be signed here tomorrow in a ceremony in which Secretary Acheson will represent the American government.

Truman To Act

4. The department also announced that President Truman will formally approve tomorrow the plan for an integrated defense of the north Atlantic area and issue an executive order making it effective as a basis for carrying out the arms program.

The European nations which will sign agreements and receive assistance in addition to Britain are France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg, Italy, Norway and Denmark. According to the law which Congress passed last fall authorizing the rearmament project as a means of strengthening western Europe against possible Russian aggression, both the making of the agreement and the certification of the general defense plan are required in order to carry out the full program.

The British agreement will be signed by Ambassador Sir Oliver Frank at the British embassy tomorrow morning, shortly before he leaves for London. It will be signed by Acheson at 2:30 p.m. (EST) when he meets with representatives of the other seven countries in a State department conference room to sign their agreements also.

Two Korea Agreements

A State department press officer said the European and the Korean agreements are substantially similar in their major provisions although in the case of Korea the provisions were split into two documents instead of being wrapped up in one.

The first of the Korean agreements was officially described as providing for the maintenance of a military advisory group which has been in the Far Eastern country since last July 1. It states that the purpose of this group is to assist in training a Korean security force and in helping that force learn the use of U. S. armaments. On their part the Koreans obligate themselves to pay the operating expenses of the group, apart from salaries but including such items as housing, offices and transportation.

The second agreement provides that the United States will supply and the Koreans will receive quantities of American arms and that the Koreans will use them strictly for the purposes for which they are supplied—that is to strengthen the defenses of the country. Korean arms will be financed under congressional authorization out of a sum of $27,640,000 which is also to finance military aid to Iran and the Philippines.

U. S. Missions Planned

This fund is distinct from a program of economic aid to Formosa which the House turned down last week.

In the case of the agreements with the western European countries provision is made for the maintenance of American military advisory missions to help train the military forces of those countries in the use of the arms supply. Other sections of the agreements also commit the Europeans to use the arms for the strengthening of the total defenses of the Atlantic area and not to transfer them to any other country without the specific permission of the United States.

The Europeans also agree that they will engage in such "mutual aid" among themselves as they are capable of.

It was in connection with the retransfer provision and the mutual aid principle that the United States and Britian became involved in negotiations which delayed by at least two months the actual signing of all the European agreements.

The original American proposal on retransfer was interpreted by the British, as it had been earlier by the French, to mean that they could not even send military materials of their own to their forces in colonial areas without American permission. On their strong objection, the State department agreed to rewrite that provision to bar only the unauthorized transfer of American arms.

In connection with the mutual aid section of the agreement, the British obtained assurances from the American government that they were not undertaking any new commitments to help their western European allies. They feared that the United States might have used this provision to require them to supply arms to other countries to an extent which would strain their economy.

The United States told Britain it regarded the mutual aid section as merely a restatement of the mutual aid pledge which Britain had already taken in signing the Atlantic pact.

U. S. to Sign 8 Pacts For Arming Europe

Accord Sealed With Britain After Weeks of Debate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP).—The United States and eight of its cold-war allies cleared the decks today for the start of an American rearmament program aimed at bolstering the defenses of the non-Communist world in both Europe and the Far East.

The United States and Great Britain, after many weeks of argument, reached full agreement on the terms under which Britain will share in a billion-dollar American arms aid project in Western Europe.

The State Department announced that all eight of the European arms agreements, including the British, will be signed here tomorrow in a ceremony in which Secretary of State Dean Acheson will represent the United States.

The department also announced that President Truman will formally approve tomorrow the plan for an integrated defense of the North Atlantic area and issue an executive order making it effective as a basis for carrying out the arms program.

Plan Meeting on Atom

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (UP).—American, British and Canadian officials handling atomic matters will meet at Harwell, England, next month to discuss what effect Russia's atomic bomb explosion has had on secrecy policies. The three nations, which worked together in an atomic partnership during the war, have long followed uniform "declassification" procedures in deciding what atomic research information can safely be made public and what should be stamped secret.

JAVITS HITS 'ARMS RACE'

In Letter to Acheson, He Decries British Shipments to Arabs

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP)—Representative Jacob Javits, Republican, of New York, asked the State Department again today to halt what he called the "Near East arms race."

Mr. Javits, in a letter to Secretary of State Dean Acheson, said arms were being shipped by Britain to Iraq, Jordan and Egypt in greater quantities than needed for security.

"It is important to note," he wrote, "that the greatest opportunity for communism could arise if by renewed Arab assault the Arab-Israeli conflict was renewed."

Senators To Hear Matthews Again

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—Pressed by Republican members of the Senate Armed Services Committee, Senator Tydings (D., Md.), the chairman, agreed today to call Francis P. Matthews, Secretary of the Navy, for further questioning about the ouster of Admiral Louis Denfeld as Chief of Naval Operations.

He said he would do everything in his power to have Matthews present for a closed hearing next Monday or Tuesday. Tydings added that he had been in touch with the Secretary and that Matthews said he would be "delighted" to come up.

Tydings reversed his previous stand against recalling Matthews for more questioning just after Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) had lodged a formal demand for the Cabinet officer's appearance.

Tydings Gives Promise

"That won't be necessary," Tydings told the California Senator, who claimed enough support within the committee to force the session.

"The chairman will be very glad to invite Mr. Matthews to come up here at a very early date."

Knowland and several other Republicans have criticized Matthews sharply for his actions in the Denfeld ouster. Senator McCarthy (R., Wis.) said in a Senate speech Tuesday that Matthews ought to be impeached as "completely incompetent."

The row over Matthew's previous testimony on Denfeld's removal is a further eruption of last year's basic quarrel over the handling of unification of the armed services.

Removed After Testimony

Two weeks after Denfeld testified to a House committee that high Air Force and Army officers were whittling away at the Navy's striking power, he was removed from office by President Truman upon Matthews's recommendation.

Matthews said, however, that Denfeld wasn't fired because of his testimony. He also told the senators that Denfeld never was officially commissioned for a second term as Chief of Naval Operations.

McCarthy, however, displayed a photograph of a commission issued to Denfeld, good until 1951, and signed by both Matthews and President Truman.

Matthews's explanation of that was that the commission wasn't "officially" issued to Denfeld, but bypassed the usual official channels.

That's what the Republicans want to ask Matthews about.

Matthews Due Denfeld Quiz, Tydings Says

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—Chairman Tydings (D., Md.) today agreed to call Secretary of the Navy Matthews before the Senate Armed Services Committee next week for questioning about the ouster of Admiral Louis Denfeld as top Navy commander.

Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) was pressing a formal demand for Matthews's appearance when Tydings broke in:

"That won't be necessary."

Later the chairman promised to "do all in my power" to have the Navy Secretary appear "next Monday or Tuesday" at a closed session of the committee.

Prior to the committee meeting today, Knowland and other Republicans claimed enough Democratic support to force the session with Secretary Matthews. Tydings had opposed it.

Honored for Air-Lift Work

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP).—Major General Joseph Smith, Scranton, Pa., has received an oa leaf cluster to the Legion of Mer for his work in organizing th Berlin air lift. General Hoyt Vandenburg, Air Force Chief Staff, in presenting the decora tion, cited General Smith starting "the greatest achieveme in the history of military and ci aviation."

JAN 26 1950

LONDON, FRIDAY, JAN. 27-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER HAMSURUN OF THE MONGOLIAN PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC (OUTER MONGOLIA) HAS DENIED THAT THE SOVIET UNION HAS TAKEN OVER HIS COUNTRY, A TASS DISPATCH SAID EARLY TODAY.

THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY QUOTED HAMSURUN AS HAVING CALLED U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S RECENT STATEMENT ON ALLEGED ABSORPTION OF CERTAIN NORTHERN CHINESE AREAS BY THE U.S.S.R. "INSOLENT LIES FROM BEGINNING TO END."

TASS SAID HAMSURUN ISSUED HIS DENIAL OF ACHESON'S CHARGE "IN A STATEMENT TO PRESS REPRESENTATIVES" IN ULAN BATOR (URGA), THE MONGOLIAN CAPITAL. THE TASS DISPATCH, DATED ULAN BATOR, WAS DISTRIBUTED HERE.

ACHESON IN A SPEECH TWO WEEKS AGO CHARGED RUSSIA IS DETACHING MANCHURIA, OUTER MONGOLIA, SINKIANG AND INNER MONGOLIA AND TYING THEM TO THE SOVIET UNION. HE SAID THE PROCESS HAS ALREADY BEEN COMPLETED IN OUTER MONGOLIA.

(YESTERDAY THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT, RENEWING ACHESON'S CHARGES, ISSUED A DETAILED "BACKGROUND DOCUMENT" WHICH SAID RUSSIA'S DESIGNS WERE SUPPORTED IN PART BY "TWO SECRET AGREEMENTS SIGNED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WITH THE U.S.S.R." THE BACKGROUND PAPER SAID WITH REGARD TO OUTER MONGOLIA:

("SOVIET PENETRATION X X X IS COMPLETE." A SO-CALLED GOVERNMENT ESTABLISHED BY RUSSIAN MILITARY FORCES THERE HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED BY RUSSIA, NORTH KOREA AND ALBANIA. A TREATY AUTHORIZING THE PRESENCE OF SOVIET TROOPS HAS BEEN NEGOTIATED. "THE TRADE OF OUTER MONGOLIA IS ORIENTED TOWARD AND COMPLETELY MONOPOLIZED BY THE U.S.S.R.")

JAN. 20 IN MOSCOW SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY ISSUED A DENIAL OF ACHESON'S CHARGES.

TASS QUOTED HAMSURUN AS HAVING SAID THAT ACHESON'S SPEECH "CONTAINS FILTHY SLANDERS AGAINST OUR SINCERE AND DISINTERESTED FRIEND, THE SOVIET UNION; AGAINST THE MONGOLIAN PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC; AND AGAINST THE CHINESE PEOPLE'S (COMMUNIST) REPUBLIC, WHICH IS FRIENDLY TO US."

HE SAID ACHESON DISTORTED HISTORY "IN A FIT OF ANTI-SOVIET HYSTERIA."

HAMSURUN SAID THAT THE SOVIET UNION IN AUGUST, 1919, HAD RECOGNIZED MONGOLIA AS A FREE COUNTRY IN WHOSE AFFAIRS NO FOREIGNER HAD A RIGHT TO INTERVENE.

"THE SOVIET UNION," HE CONTINUED, "HAS ALWAYS ADHERED AND STILL ADHERES PRECISELY TO THESE PRINCIPLES IN ITS RELATIONS WITH THE MONGOLIAN PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC AS A SOVEREIGN STATE X X X."

LONDON JAN 26-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES IS EXPECTED TO SIGN PACTS TOMORROW FOR A BILLION-DOLLAR ARMS AID PROGRAM WITH EIGHT WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS.

NIGHT LEAD OEEC (420)

BY CARL HARTMAN

PARIS, JAN.26-(AP)-TOP LEVEL MINISTERS OF COUNTRIES GETTING MARSHALL PLAN DOLLARS TODAY HANDED OVER TO TECHNICAL EXPERTS THEIR IDEAS ON CUTTING DOWN TRADE BARRIERS IN WESTERN EUROPE THIS YEAR.

UNDER THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF BELGIAN FOREIGN MINISTER PAUL VAN ZEELAND, THEY MET FOR MORE THAN FIVE HOURS AT THE CHATEAU DE LA MUETTE, HEADQUARTERS OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC). THE PUBLIC AND PRESSARE BARRED FROM THESE SESSIONS.

IT WAS LEARNED, HOWEVER, THAT THE MINISTERS ORDERED THEIR SPECIALISTS TO MEET TONIGHT AND PUT INTO A SINGLE STATEMENT WHAT ONE ADVISER CALLED "A WHOLE SALAD" OF IDEAS. THIS IS TO BE READY TOMORROW.

FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN STARTED THE BALL ROLLING WITH A PLAN TO EXTEND TO THE WHOLE OF WESTERN EUROPE AN IDEA ALREADY ON ITS WAY TO ADOPTION BY "FINE-BEL"--FRANCE, ITALY, BELGIUM, LUXEMBOURG AND THE NETHERLANDS. THIS SEEKS TO PUT AN END TO 60 PER CENT, AND LATER TO 75 PER CENT, OF THE NATION'S IMPORT RESTRICTIONS SO FAR AS THEIR TRADE WITH ONE ANOTHER IS CONCERNED. SO FAR, THE EUROPEAN MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES HAVE ELIMINATED 50 PER CENT OF THESE QUOTAS.

SCHUMAN, TOLD REPORTERS AFTER TODAY'S SESSION THAT THE BELGIANS HAD ANOTHER IDEA: TO ELIMINATE ALL QUOTAS, WITH CERTAIN EXCEPTIONS TO BE WORKED OUT LATER.

"THIS IS NOT A CONTRADICTION OF OUR IDEA," HE EXPLAINED. "IT IS JUST ANOTHER METHOD OF APPROACH."

SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS, BRITISH CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER, SAID BRITAIN WANTS TO SEE THE EFFECT OF WHAT HAS BEEN DONE SO FAR BEFORE GOING ANY FURTHER.

THE UNITED STATES, REPRESENTED AT THE MEETING BY MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN, WOULD LIKE TO SEE ALL QUOTAS REMOVED THIS YEAR.

HOFFMAN ATTENDED THE SESSION OF THE CONSULTATIVE GROUP WITH THE ROVING MARSHALL PLAN AMBASSADOR, AVERELL HARRIMAN, AND A TEAM OF AMERICAN EXPERTS.

THE CONSULTATIVE GROUP IS AN EXECUTIVE BODY FOR THE COUNCIL OF THE 18 AREAS IN THE MARSHALL PLAN. THE GROUP'S MEMBERS ARE BRITAIN, FRANCE, NORWAY, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, ITALY, PORTUGAL AND GREECE.

REDUCTION OF TRADE BARRIERS BETWEEN EUROPEAN NATIONS IS ONE OF TWO PRIORITY DEMANDS BEING MADE ON MARSHALL RECIPIENTS BY THE UNITED STATES. THE OTHER IS THE APPOINTMENT OF A GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF THE OEEC, WHICH IS THE EUROPEAN MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY.

SF508PES

PARIS-XXX GREECE

BRITAIN, PORTUGAL AND THE SCANDANAVIAN COUNTRIES HAVE OPPOSED CREATION OF WHAT THEY CALL THE "SUPERMAN" POST PROPOSED FOR SPAAK. THE OEEC IS NOW RUN BY A RULING BODY COMPOSED OF ONE CABINET MINISTER FROM EACH OF THE 18 EUROPEAN AREAS IN THE MARSHALL PLAN, WITH A VETO FOR EACH ONE.

BUT THE EUROPEAN CLEARING HOUSE SYSTEM HAS BEEN ACCEPTED IN PRINCIPLE BY ALL MARSHALL PLAN MEMBERS.

THE PLAN, SUGGESTED BY THE U.S., AIMS AT EQUALIZING TRADE BETWEEN CREDITOR AND DEBTOR NATIONS. IT WOULD WORK LIKE A BANK CLEARING HOUSE WITH NATIONS MAKING TRADE PAYMENTS ONLY THROUGH THE BANK INSTEAD OF DIRECTLY WITH EACH OTHER.

THE MEN ALSO MET TO DISCUSS ELIMINATION OF RESTRICTIVE IMPORT QUOTAS WHICH IS HAMPERING FREE INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND ENDING DUAL PRICING--CHARGING ONE PRICE TO DOMESTIC CONSUMERS AND A HIGHER PRICE TO FOREIGN BUYERS.

THE MORNING SESSION LASTED TWO AND A HALF HOURS.

OEEC SECRETARY ROBERT MARJOLIN TOLD REPORTERS THERE HAD BEEN PRELIMINARY DISCUSSIONS OF FURTHER MEASURES TO BREAK DOWN TRADE BARRIERS, BUT THAT NO DECISIONS WERE REACHED.

AMBASSADOR AVERELL HARRIMAN ALSO SAT IN AT THE SESSION.

PARIS,JAN.26-(AP)-PRESIDENT VINCENT AURIOL, ADDRESSING A MEETING OF THREE SCORE EDITORS, PUBLISHERS AND REPORTERS TODAY, SAID:

"I WISH TO DENOUNCE TWO DANGERS WHICH APPEAR TO ME PARTICULARLY TO MENACE THE MODERN PRESS. ONE IS THE CULT OF THE SENSATIONAL, THE OTHE THE TASTE FOR NEWS WHICH IS DEPRESSING AND CATASTROPHIC."

HE REFERRED TO REPORTS THAT COMMUNIST CHINESE HAD INVADED INDOCHINA AND TILL EARLIER REPORTS THAT NATIONALIST CHINESE TROOPS HAD ENTERED INDOCHINA AND WERE BEING USED UNDER FRENCH COMMAND AGAINST CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS ON JAN.22 QUOTED THE CHINESE CENTRAL NEWS, NATIONALIST CHINESE AGENCY, AS SAYING COMMUNIST TROOPS HAD INVADED INDOCHINA. SUBSEQUENT INVESTIGATION RESULTED IN AP DISPATCHES FROM INDOCHINA AND PARIS THAT THE CHINESE REPORT WAS UNTRUE.

NUMEROUS COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS HAVE CARRIED THE REPORTS THAT NATIONALIST TROOPS HAVE ENTERED INDOCHINA AND ARE FIGHTING CHINESE COMMUNISTS. FRENCH AUTHORITIES PERSISTENTLY DENY THESE REPORTS.

FIRST LEAD BLOCKADE (110)

BY THOMAS A. REEDY

(ADVANCE)...BERLIN, JAN. 26-(AP)-THE THREE WESTERN POWERS ANGRILY CHARGED RUSSIA TONIGHT WITH A "CALCULATED ATTEMPT" TO CUT WEST BERLIN'S HIGHWAY SUPPLY LINE.

NO OTHER CONCLUSION COULD BE REACHED FROM THE EVIDENCE OF SOVIET CONDUCT AT THE HELMSTEDT FRONTIER CHECKPOINT, 100 MILES WEST OF THIS CITY, THE PROTEST SAID. BERLIN IS AN ISOLATED ISLAND DEEP IN THE SOVIET ZONE.

THE RUSSIANS AT HELMSTEDT HAVE USED ALL SORTS OF EXCUSES TO SLOW TRUCK TRAFFIC FROM THE WEST TO BERLIN, NOW CRAWLING IN AT THE RATE OF FOUR AN HOUR. JOHN J. MCCLOY, THE U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR GERMANY, IS SAID TO REGARD THIS AS A CREEPING BLOCKADE. MCCLOY IS IN THE UNITED STATES FOR CONSULTATIONS.

[illegible]

THE DECISION TO SEND A SHARP NOTE TO THE SOVIETS WAS REACHED AFTER A THREE-HOUR SPECIAL MEETING OF THE WESTERN KOMMANDATURA.

A PREVIOUS PROTEST HAS BEEN IGNORED UNTIL NOW.

THE ACTION CAME AS THE RUSSIAN GUARDS ON THE HELMSTEDT BORDER APPEARED TO BE TIGHTENING A "BABY BLOCKADE" TO THE POINT WHERE ONLY ONE TRUCK WAS BEING PASSED THROUGH EVERY FIFTEEN MINUTES.

AN AMERICAN ARMY TRUCK CONVOY CROSSED EARLY TODAY WITHOUT DIFFICULTY, BUT NEARLY 400 GERMAN TRUCKS WERE CAUGHT IN THE JAM WHICH BEGAN FIVE DAYS AGO.

WHEN THE RUSSIANS CLAMPED A "LITTLE BLOCKADE" ON WESTERN TRAFFIC LAST SUMMER DURING THE WEST BERLIN RAIL STRIKE, THE RATE WAS THE SAME AS IT IS TODAY -- ONE TRUCK EVERY 15 MINUTES.

THE ONLY BREAK IN THE RUSSIAN'S STUBBORN ROUTINE OF STOPPING AND SEARCHING TRUCKS AT HELMSTEDT, 100 MILES WEST OF BERLIN, CAME WHEN THE ARMY CONVOY SAILED THROUGH WITH SUPPLIES FOR U.S. TROOPS IN BERLIN.

BERLIN - XXX DELAY!

AN ALLIED OFFICIAL SAID THE COMMANDERS HAD SPECULATED ON THE IDEA THAT THE RUSSIANS WERE "THROWING THEIR WEIGHT AROUND" TO SEE HOW FAR THEY COULD GO. HE ADDED THAT THE COMMANDERS WOULD CONTINUE TO PROTEST UNTIL THEY GET SOME SATISFACTION FROM THE RUSSIANS.

THE SOVIET INTERFERENCE WITH TRAFFIC STARTED AFTER AMERICAN AUTHORITIES SEIZED A LARGELY VACANT BUILDING OF THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED RAILWAY SYSTEM IN THE U.S. SECTOR OF BERLIN LAST WEEK FOR OFFICE SPACE FOR THE WEST BERLIN GOVERNMENT. THE SEIZURE ORDER WAS ISSUED BY THE PROPERTY CONTROL SECTION THROUGH WHAT IS CALLED THE BLUNDER OF A SUBORDINATE EMPLOYE. THE BUILDING WAS RETURNED TO THE RUSSIANS FOUR DAYS LATER.

NEITHER MAJ.GEN.MAXWELL D.TAYLOR, U.S. COMMANDANT, NOR COMMISSIONER MCCLOY KNEW THE BUILDING HAD BEEN SEIZED UNTIL AFTER THE ACTION TOOK PLACE.

WHETHER THE RUSSIANS TOOK THE RETURN OF THE BUILDING AS A SIGN OF WEAKNESS IS A POSSIBILITY TO BE CONSIDERED, WESTERN OFFICIALS SURMISED.

THE PROTEST NOTE DISCLOSED FOR THE FIRST TIME RUSSIAN INTERFERENCE WITH RAILWAY TRAFFIC WHICH HAD BEEN REPORTED MOVING NORMALLY IN AND OUT OF BERLIN. THE COMMANDERS SAID SEVERAL RAILWAY CARLOADS OF SCRAP METAL HAD BEEN HELD UP, "ALLEGEDLY BECAUSE DOCUMENTATION WAS NOT IN ORDER."

THE RUSSIAN ACTIONS WERE DESCRIBED AS UNJUSTIFIED AND THE REASONS GIVEN FOR THEM AS TOO TRIVIAL TO BE ACCEPTED IN GOOD FAITH.

THE RATE OF PASSING ONE TRUCK EVERY 15 MINUTES, NOW IMPOSED BY THE RUSSIANS, IS THE SAME AS THAT IN THE "LITTLE BLOCKADE" CLAMPED ON BY THE SOVIETS LAST SUMMER AS A HARASSING MOVE TO HIT BACK AT THE ALLIES FOR THE WEST BERLIN RAIL STRIKE.

THE RUSSIAN TACTICS OF EXAMINING ALL TRUCKS, PAPERS AND PERSONNEL DELAYED TRAFFIC TODAY TO THE POINT WHERE 400 VEHICLES WERE BACKED UP AT THE HELMSTEDT BORDER. THE ONLY BREAK CAME EARLY THIS MORNING WHEN AN AMERICAN ARMY TRUCK CONVOY, WHICH SUPPLIES BERLIN TROOPS WEEKLY, WAS PERMITTED TO GO THROUGH WITH ONLY A PERFUNCTORY NOD FROM THE SOVIETS.

UNTIL NOW ONLY LOADED TRUCKS HAVE COME UNDER THE SCRUTINY OF THE RUSSIANS. PRIVATE AUTOMOBILES ARE UNMOLESTED. THE RAILWAY SYSTEM INTO BERLIN ALSO IS FUNCTIONING NORMALLY. THE CITY GETS NINE-TENTHS OF ITS SUPPLIES BY RAIL. TRAFFIC ON THE CANAL NETWORK IS AT A STANDSTILL BECAUSE OF WINTER ICE.

WHEN THE SUBJECT OF FREE ELECTIONS FOR ALL OF GERMANY WAS BROUGHT UP, THE COMMUNISTS SHOUTED BACK "AND WHAT ABOUT THE COLONIAL SLAVERY IN WESTERN GERMANY?"

THE SOCIALISTS, WHO ARE SUPPORTED BY 60 PER CENT OF WEST BERLIN'S ELECTORATE, STARTED THIS SERIES OF MEETINGS IN AN EFFORT TO SPEAK DIRECTLY TO THE PEOPLE OF THE RUSSIAN SECTOR. THOUGH THE PARTY IS OFFICIALLY LICENSED BY FOUR-POWER AGREEMENT, RALLIES ARE NEVER PERMITTED BY THE RUSSIANS IN EAST BERLIN.

athens, greece, jan. 26 -(ap)- u.s. ambassador henry f. grady today denounced russian policies as "the most brutal and aggressive imperialism the world has ever known".

He said the soviet union is "the world's greatest menace to peace, democracy and free enterprise."

JAN 27 1950

The ambassador made the remarks in a speech before the propeller club, an organization for the advancement of the u.s. mercantile marine.

Grady said: "The marvelous achievements of world production and of the creation of wealth which the united states has demonstrated, particularly since the beginning of world war II is evidence that capitalism, in the modified form I describe, is x x x the most effective economic system in the world today".

"The capitalism I would defend", he continued, "is that which actually exists in the united states although I do not contend it is a perfect form. I regard the american capitalism as somewhere between laissez faire (unrestricted) on the one hand, and socialism on the other."

Grady said it is possible to have controls on economic activity without destroying business initiative but, he added, there is always the danger government control could go so far as to paralyze private initiative and progress.

"I see some danger in my own country in this regard", he declared. "We must be alert lest we acquire those tendencies."

Economic controls in the united states, he said, have been developing for many years and have not lessened private enterprise.

"In fact, they have made it possible for private enterprise to be more effective than it otherwise would have been."

On the other hand, Grady continued, "the russian system, neither within its own borders nor in the satellites give evidence of conspicuous success and yet the russian revolution is 32 years old."

This would be sufficient time for a system to demonstrate its efficiency, grady asserted. "However, it has not worked well enough for the soviets to let the world see its achievements", he added.

If it had not been for $11,000,000,000 (B) worth of supplies from "capitalistic america", russia could not have resisted successfully the germans, th ambassador declared.

But instead of ~~yuuk~~ expressing gratitude for saving her "national existence", russia aims at destruction of her benefactor, Grady said.

THE STATEMENT CAME AS A RESULT OF THE LETTER U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON WROTE TO U.S. REP. JAVITS (R-NY) CONFIRMING THE BRITISH SHIPMENTS UNDER TREATIES WITH THE MIDDLE EAST STATES.

ACHEXNWTETAT "IT IS DESIRABLE THAT COUNTRIES IN THIS PART OF THE WORLD (THE MIDDLE EAST) OBTAIN FROM RELIABLE AND FRIENDLY SOURCES SUCH ARMS AS THEY NEED FOR THEIR LEGITIMATE SECURITY REQUIREMENTS."

THE ISRAELI STATEMENT SUPPORTED JAVITS' VIEW THAT THESE ARMS MIGHT BE USED TO ATTACK ISRAEL ONCE AGAIN.

THE STATEMENT SAID THE SELF-DEFENSE ANGLE WAS "HARDLY BORNE OUT BY THE TYPES OF ARMS WHICH RECENTLY MAVEEENKSUPPLIED THE ARAB STATES."

ISRAEL ASKED WHY EGYPT IS ASSEMBLING "DESTROYERS, SUBMARINES, DOZENS OF JET PLANES AND LARGE QUANTITIES OF THE HEAVIEST TYPE OF TANKS AND ARTILLERY" IF SHE NEEDS THE ARMS ONLY FOR INTERNAL SECURITY.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT ALREADY HAS PUT INTO OPERATION ITS "NATIONAL SERVICE" REGISTRATION OF MEN FROM 18 TO 49 AND CHILDLESS WOMEN UP TO 34 IN A MOVE TO TIGHTEN ITS MILITARY PREPAREDNESS. THOSE CALLED UP ARE PUT INTO MILITAARY TRAINING AND AGRICULTURAL EMERGENCY WORK ON NEWLY ESTABLISHED FRONTIER SETTLEMENTS.

UNDER THE NEW CONSTITUTION, INDIA'S 28 STATES AND THE TERRITORIES OF THE ANDAMAN AND NICOBAR ISLANDS ARE JOINED IN A UNION. THE GOVERNMENT SYSTEM IS A BLEND OF THOSE OF THE UNITED KINGDOM, THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, AUSTRALIA AND IRELAND.

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL INCLUDE A PRESIDENT, ELECTED FOR FIVE YEARS; A PRIME MINISTER AND COUNCIL OF MINISTERS, AND AN ELECTED PARLIAMENT. THE PRIME MINISTER AND CABINET WILL BE RESPONSIBLE TO THE LOWER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT.

THE FEDERAL ORGANIZATION WILL BE PARALLELED IN THE STATES. THERE WILL BE, HOWEVER, ONLY ONE JUDICIAL SYSTEM, FOR BOTH STATE AND FEDERAL GOVERNMENTS.

TODAY'S CEREMONY CAME 23 YEARS TO THE DAY AFTER THE ALL-INDIA CONGRESS PARTY, WHICH PRASAD HAS HEADED FOR FOUR TERMS, IN 1927 ADOPTED A RESOLUTION SETTING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A SOVEREIGN INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC AS ITS GOAL.

NEW DELHI,INDIA, JAN.26-(AP)-THE LOWLY UNTOUCHABLE -- AGE -OLD OUT-CAST OF HINDU INDIA -- CAME INTO HIS OWN AS A HUMAN BEING TODAY UNDER THE NEW REPUBLIC'S CONSTITUTION.

A CLAUSE GUARANTEEING THE EQUALITY OF MAN LEGALLY ABOLISHES THE TAINT OF UNTOUCHABILITY, AFFECTING SOME 40,000,000 INDIANS, PERMITTING THEM TO LIVE AND WORSHIP AS THEY WISH.

UNTOUCHABLES ARE BEST DEFINED AS HINDUS WHO ARE NOT ALLOWED TO ENTER ORDINARY TEMPLES AND WHO ARE BELIEVED TO CAUSE POLLUTION TO ORDINARY HINDUS.

HOW THEY CAME TO BE PUSHED BEYOND THE PALE IS OBSCURED IN THE MISTS OF TIME, BUT THEY ARE BELIEVED TO BE DESCENDENTS OF PERSONS RELEGATED TO MENIAL AND UNSAVORY OCCUPATIONS.

IN SOME PARTS OF INDIA, PARTICULARLY IN THE SOUTH, THE INDIGNITIES HEAPED ON UNTOUCHABLES HAVE EXTENDED SO FAR AS TO REQUIRE THESE PERSONS TO GIVE WARNING OF THEIR APPROACH. ONE CODE REGULATED EVEN THE DISTANCE AN UNTOUCHABLE HAD TO MAINTAIN FROM A HIGH-CASTE HINDU ON THE PUBLIC ROADS.

ALTHOUGH UNTOUCHABLES ARE RECKONED AS HINDUS, THEY WERE EXCLUDED FROM THE ORDINARY SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS PRIVILEGES OF HINDUISM AND WERE REQUIRED TO LIVE IN VILLAGES OF THEIR OWN OR IN SEPARATE QUARTERS.

IN RECENT YEARS, UNDER THE NAME OF "DEPRESSED CLASSES" AND "UN-SCHEDULED CASTES," THEY WON SOME POLITICAL REPRESENTATION. HINDU REFORMERS -- INCLUDING THE LATE MOHANDAS K.GANDHI -- FAVORED ABATEMENT OF THEIR DISABILITIES -- WHICH INCLUDED THE REFUSAL OF THE BRAHMAN PRIESTS TO OFFICIATE OVER RITES FOR THEM.

THE ORTHODOX HINDU HAS REGARDED THE DEGRADATION OF THE UNTOUCHABLES AS THE PENALTY FOR EVIL-DOING IN A FORMER EXISTENCE.

LARGE NUMBERS OF UNTOUCHABLES HAVE ADOPTED CHRISTIANITY OR THE MOS-LEM FAITH, UNDER WHICH UNTOUCHABILITY DOES NOT APPLY.

WASHINGTON, JAN.26-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY SENT TO THE REPUBLIC OF INDIA THIS NATION'S WISHES FOR "PEACE, PROSPERITY AND GOOD FORTUNE" IN ITS NEW ROLE AS A COMPLETELY INDEPENDENT NATION.

THE MESSAGE WAS SENT TO DR. RAJENDRA PRASAD, PRESIDENT OF THE INDIAN REPUBLIC.

POLICE SAID THE MEN WORE THE GREEN CAPS AND THE RED CAPS THAT DISTINGUISH INDONESIAN PARACHUTE TROOPS AND COMMANDOS IN THE SERVICE OF THE NETHERLANDS, WHICH GAVE INDONESIA INDEPENDENCE UNDER THE DUTCH CROWN DEC. 28. JAKARTA, JAVA XXX DISTRICT

FEDERAL TROOPS DREW FIRE AS THEY SPED TO THE SCENE, SOME IN ARMORED MACHINEGUN CARRIERS STILL PAINTED WITH DUTCH RED, WHITE AND BLUE FLAGS. THE BATTLE WAS JOINED BRISKLY.

MOTOR TRAFFIC CLEARED OUT, BUT POLICE HAD DIFFICULTY RESTRAINING CROWDS ATTRACTED BY THE SHOOTING FROM ENTERING THE DANGER AREA.

THE INDONESIANS JEERED AND SHOUTED "MERDEKA (FREEDOM)" AS THE PRISONERS WERE HAULED AWAY.

ONLY THREE BLOCKS FROM THE SCENE, PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA ADDRESSED A GATHERING OF INDIANS CELEBRATING THE INDEPENDENCE OF INDIA.

HIS GOVERNMENT IS DESCRIBED AS NOT FEARING WESTERLING WILL ACTUALLY MARCH ON JAKARTA AND TAKE OVER WEST JAVA AS HE HAS THREATENED, BUT THAT HE WILL LASH OUT IN FURTHER RAIDS SUCH AS HIS ATTACK MONDAY ON BANDOENG, WHERE 60 OR MORE PERSONS WERE REPORTED KILLED. AN ARMS CACHE AND TRUCKS WITH WESTERLING'S MARKINGS FOUND BY MILITARY POLICE IN A RAID ON A WAREHOUSE HERE YESTERDAY ARE CONSIDERED PROOF THAT HE PLANNED OPEN OPERATIONS INSIDE THE CAPITAL. THE RAIDERS KILLED TWO GUERRILLAS AND ARRESTED 14.

WESTERLING IS A 30-YEAR OLD COMMANDO VETERAN WHO OPPOSES REPUBLICAN PRESSURE FOR DISSOLVING THE WEST JAVA STATE, WHICH WAS CARVED BY THE DUTCH FROM THE OLD INDONESIAN REPUBLIC, NOW JUST A SISTER STATE IN THE U.S.I.

HE ALSO DEMANDS THAT HIS GUERRILLAS BE RECOGNIZED AS THE OFFICIAL FORCE FOR KEEPING ORDER IN WEST JAVA, CONTENDING THE REPUBLICAN-OFFICERED FEDERAL ARMY IS TOO GREEN FOR THE JOB.

THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED TODAY THE ARREST OF PREMIER ANWAR TOJOKROAMINOTO OF WEST JAVA AND TWO OTHER POLITICAL FIGURES SUSPECTED OF BEING INVOLVED IN THE SITUATION. A SPOKESMAN DECLINED TO SAY WHERE THE PREMIER IS HELD OR THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM.

THE OTHER TWO ARE ABIKUSNO TJOKROSUJOSO, WHO WAS REPUBLICAN DELEGATE TO THE HAGUE ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE THAT LED TO INDONESIAN INDEPENDENCE, AND ARUDJI KARTAWINATA, FORMER VICE MINISTER OF DEFENSE OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC. ALL THREE ARE MEMBERS OF A MOSLEM PARTY, PSI, RIVALING THE RIGHTIST MOSLEM PARTY MASJUMI, WHICH IS ONE OF THE CHIEF SUPPORTS OF HATTA'S GOVERNMENT.

FINANCING HIS GUERRILLAS IN PART FROM PROCEEDS OF A HOTEL AND TRANSPORT BUSINESS, WESTERLING HAS PLAYED UPON INTER-SERVICE JEAL-OUSIES IN HIS RECRUITING. HE CONTENDS, HOWEVER, HE IS ACTING NOT FOR HIMSELF OR FOR THE DUTCH, BUT FOR THE INDONESIANS.

DESERTS FROM DUTCH SERVICE FORMED THE CORE OF THE 600-MAN FORCE HE THREW AT BANDOENG. MEN IN SIMILAR GARB TOOK PART IN A LESSER ATTACK LATER ON TJIANDJUR. THE DEFENSE MINISTRY ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT "MOPPING UP OPERATIONS" WERE CARRIED OUT IN TJIANDJUR AND WESTERLING'S FORCES OFFERED ARMED RESISTANCE.

THE MINISTRY DENIED A PRESS REPORT PUBLISHED HERE YESTERDAY THAT NINE TRUCKLOADS OF GUERRILLAS HAD STORMED INTO PADALARANG, A RAIL JUNCTION ABOUT 120 MILES SOUTHEAST OF JAKARTA, AND SEIZED A POLICE POST.

THE ACTING CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE U.S.I. ARMED FORCES, COLONEL

SIMATUPANG, DECLARED JAKARTA'S TROUBLES WERE DUE TO THE FACT TOO MANY INDONESIANS IN TOWN ARE STILL IN THE KNIL.

"THERE IS A DANGEROUS TREND BECAUSE DUTCH ARMY AUTHORITIES WHO USED KNIL ALL THESE YEARS ARE NOW WASHING THEIR HANDS OF THEM," SIMATUPANG TOLD NEWSMEN. "THIS IS IMMORAL."

HE SAID EVERY MEMBER OF THE DUTCH FORCE HAD BEEN OFFERED AN OPPORTUNITY TO ENTER THE INDONESIAN ARMY, BUT THE DUTCH BLOCKED THIS INFORMATION FROM KNIL MEN IN JAVA.

THIS DUTCH ARMY HEADQUARTERS DENIED IN A COMMUNIQUE, SAYING "AT THE PRESENT MOMENT THERE CANNOT BE ANY INDONESIAN KNIL SOLDER WHO DOES NOT KNOW IN DETAIL AND ACTUAL FACTS ABOUT THE TRANSITION."

THE DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID A REORGANIZATION WHICH IS TO BE COMPLETED IN SIX MONTHS "WILL END THE PRESENT SITUATION IN WHICH INDONESIANS STILL BELONG TO AN ARMY UNDER DUTCH COMMAND."

JAKARTA--FIRST ADD SECOND LEAD INDONESIAN (A81) XXX THE U.S.I.

UNEASY JAKARTA HAD BEEN ALERTED FOR A RAID SIMILAR TO THAT AT BANDOENG.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE SHOOTING STARTED HERE, MILITARY POLICE AND INDONESIAN ARMY TROOPS BLOCKADED TWO BUSY STREETS IN THE MIDDLE OF THE RETAIL SHOPPING DISTRICT AND CLEARED THE AREA OF ALL MOTOR VEHICLE TRAFFIC. ARMY PATROLS IN JEEPS AND TRUCKS ROLLED INTO THE AREA.

OFFICERS IN HEADQUARTERS OF THE MOBILE POLICE SAID THE SHOOTING BEGAN WHEN A CIVILIAN POLICE POST WAS ATTACKED BY "RED CAPS" AND "GREEN CAPS," NAMES DISTINGUISHING PARATROOPS AND COMMANDOS, BOTH DUTCH AND INDONESIAN, WHO HAD SERVED UNDER THE DUTCH BEFORE THE EMERGENCE OF THE NEW STATE. DUTCH OFFICIALS DID NOT CONFIRM THIS. THE "CAPS" ARE REPORTED TO MAKE UP THE CORE OF WESTERLING'S PRIVATE ARMY.

ONLY THREE BLOCKS AWAY PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA OF THE U.S.I. WAS ADDRESSING A GATHERING OF INDIANS WHO WERE CELEBRATING THE BIRTH TODAY IN NEW DELHI OF THE INDIAN REPUBLIC.

INDONESIAN SOURCES BELIEVED THE ATTACK DEFINITELY WAS CONNECTED WITH WESTERLING'S THREATS AGAINST THE CAPITAL.

DESPITE POLICE EFFORTS, A LARGE CROWD GATHERED IN THE AREA OF THE BATTLE, ATTRACTED BY THE EXCITEMENT. POLICE HAD ROUNDED UP TWO TRUCKLOADS OF SUSPECTS, AND THE CROWDS JEERED THE CAPTIVES AS THE TRUCKS ROLLED BY.

THE GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID TWO OTHER MOSLEM LEADERS, BESIDES THE WEST JAVA PREMIER, HAD BEEN ARRESTED AS SUSPECTS IN THE BANDOENG INCIDENT OF MONDAY. THESE WERE ABIKUSNO TJOKROSUJOSO, A REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA DELEGATE WHO ATTENDED THE HAGUE ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE WHICH BROUGHT ABOUT INDONESIAN SOVEREIGNTY, AND ARUDJI KARTAWINATA, FORMER VICE MINISTER OF DEFENSE IN THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

ALL THREE ARE MEMBERS OF THE ISLAMIC PARTY PSI, WHICH IS A RIVAL OF THE LARGE RIGHTIST MOSLEM PARTY MASJUMI, ONE OF THE CHIEF SUPPORTS OF THE U.S.I. GOVERNMENT HEADED BY PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA.

THE ARRESTS INDICATED GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS FEARED THE RAID BY WESTERLING'S FORCES WAS LINKED WITH THE REBELLION OF FANATIC MOSLEMS WHO HAVE PROCLAIMED A SEPARATE STATE OF "DARUL ISLAM" IN WEST JAVA.

TOJOKROAMINOTO HAD CONFERRED WITH WESTERLING IN BANDOENG LAST WEEK AFTER THE GUERRILLA LEADER DEMANDED IN AN ULTIMATUM TO THE U.S.I. GOVERNMENT THAT HIS REBEL FORCE BE AUTHORIZED TO POLICE WEST JAVA.

UNEASY OFFICIALS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TOOK FURTHER PRECAUTIONS TODAY TO PREVENT WESTERLING'S FORCES FROM STRIKING AT THE HEART OF THE GOVERNMENT HERE IN JAKARTA.

THE USUAL NIGHTLY CURFEW IN THE CAPITAL WAS ADVANCED FROM 1 A.M. TO 10 P.M.

THE DUTCH ARMY HEADQUARTERS ANNOUNCED THAT ALL TROOPS--UNDER ITS COMMAND IN JAKARTA--DUTCH AND INDONESIAN--WOULD BE CONFINED TO THEIR BARRACKS AT 2 P.M. EACH DAY, THROUGH THE AFTERNOON AND NIGHT. DUTCH STAFF OFFICERS SAID THEY EXPECTED THE ORDER WOULD BE EXTENDED SOON TO ALL OF WEST JAVA.

WESTERLING'S GUERRILLA FORCE INCLUDES DESERTERS FROM THE INDONESIAN CORPS OF THE DUTCH ARMY.

THE DEFENSE MINISTRY REPORTED "MOPPING-UP OPERATIONS" WERE CARRIED OUT IN THE TOWN OF TJIANDJUR, NEAR BANDOENG, AFTER WESTERLING'S FORCES OFFERED SOME RESISTANCE TO THE INDONESIAN ARMY. THE OUTBREAK IN TJIANDJUR WAS REPORTED UNOFFICIALLY WEDNESDAY.

A MINISTRY COMMUNIQUE, HOWEVER, DECLARED THAT PRESS REPORTS OF AN ATTACK ON THE TOWN OF PADALARING, ALSO NEAR BANDOENG, WERE UNTRUE. THE PRESS REPORT HAD SAID WESTERLING TROOPS STORMED THE TOWN AND TOOK OVER A POLICE POST.

COL.SIMATUPANG SAID JAKARTA'S TROUBLES COULD BE BLAMED ON THE FACT THAT SO MANY INDOESNIANS IN THE CAPITAL ARE STILL PART OF THE DUTCH ARMY'S (KNIL) TROOPS.

"THIS IS A DANGEROUS TREND," HE TOLD NEWSMEN, "BECAUSE THE DUTCH ARMY AUTHORITIES WHO USED THESE TROOPS ALL THESE YEARS ARE NOW WASHINGTON THEIR HANDS OF THEM. THIS IS IMMORAL. THE DUTCH HAVE NOT YET TRANSFERRED THESE MEN TO OUR ARMY. THE KNIL TROOPS STILL OWE LOYALTY TO THE DUTCH."

SIMATUPANG SAID ALL INDONESIAN MEMBERS OF THE KNIL HAD BEEN OFFERED AN OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE IN THE INDONESIAN ARMY. "SEVERAL COMPANIES ARE ALREADY BEING TRANSFERRED AS UNITS IN BORNEO AND BALI," HE ADDED.

HE CHARGED THE DUTCH ARMY AUTHORITIES HAD NOT INFORMED THE INDONESIAN MEMBERS OF THEIR FORCES OF THE TRANSFER PLAN.

THIS WAS DENIED BY DUTCH ARMY HEADQUARTERS. A COMMUNIQUE SAID: "AT THIS MOMENT THERE CANNOT BE ANY INDONESIAN KNIL SOLDIERS WHO DO NOT KNOW IN DETAIL THE ACTUAL FACTS ABOUT THE TRANSITION" (TO THE NEW FEDERAL ARMY.)

THE DUTCH STATEMENT SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE PREPARATIONS FOR THE TRANSFER WERE TAKING TIME AND THE MEN STILL AWAIT DEFINITE ORDERS. "NATURALLY THIS STAGNATION DOES NOT PRODUCE A GOOD ATMOSPHERE," THE DUTCH COMMUNIQUE SAID.

THE U.S.I. DEFENSE MINISTRY ISSUED DETAILED CONDITIONS TODAY FOR THE ENTRY OF KNIL MEN INTO THE FEDERAL ARMY. THE MINISTRY STATEMENT SAID:

"THEY WILL BE RECEIVED WITH OPEN ARMS IF THEY ARE PREPARED TO LOYALLY CONTRIBUTE THEIR ENERGY AND ABILITY TO THE U.S.I. ARMED FORCES."

THE MINISTRY SAID THE REORGANIZATION, WHICH IS TO BE COMPLETED WITHIN SIX MONTHS "WILL END THE PRESENT SITUATION IN WHICH INDONESIANS STILL BELONG TO AN ARMY UNDER DUTCH COMMAND WHICH IS UNDER THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT."

JAKARTA, (BATAVIA), U.S.I., JAN.26-(AP)-A GUN BATTLE INVOLVING INDONESIAN TROOPS BROKE OUT TODAY IN THE CENTER OF JAKARTA.

THIS UNEASY CAPITAL OF THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA HAD BEEN ALERTED FOR A POSSIBLE GUERRILLA RAID SIMILAR TO THAT STAGED AT BANDOENG EARLIER THIS WEEK. BUT FIRST REPORTS DID NOT GIVE THE CAUSE OF THE SHOOTING.

MILITARY POLICE AND INDONESIAN ARMY TROOPS BLOCKADED TWO BUSY STREETS IN THE MIDDLE OF THE RETAIL SHOPPING DISTRICT AND CLEARED THE AREA OF ALL AUTOMOBILE TRAFFIC.

ARMY PATROLS IN JEEPS AND TRUCKS ROLLED INTO THE TROUBLE AREA WHERE THE SHOOTING STARTED.

INDONESIAN POLICE AND SOLDIERS WITH RIFLES BLOCKED NEWSMEN AND ALL OTHERS TRYING TO ENTER THE BLOCKADED AREA.

ONLY THREE BLOCKS FROM THE DENSELY-POPULATED CENTER OF TROUBLE, PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA WAS SCHEDULED TO SPEAK ABOUT THE SAME TIME THIS AFTERNOON TO A GATHERING OF INDIANS CELEBRATING THEIR NATION'S REPUBLICAN INAUGURATION.

THE CITY HAS BEEN TENSE SINCE DISCOVERY TUESDAY NIGHT OF A JAKARTA ARMS DEPOT OF REBEL FORCES LED BY A FORMER DUTCH CAPTAIN, R.P.P. (TURK) WESTERLING.

ACCORDING TO A REPORT THAT APPEARED IN CHINESE LANGUAGE NEWSPAPERS TODAY WESTERLING BRAGGED A FEW DAYS AGO THAT HE HAD 6,000 OF THE GUERRILLA FOLLOWERS INSIDE JAKARTA.

EARLIER TODAY THE U.S.I. GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED IT HAD ARRESTED PREMIER ANWAR TOJOKROAMINOTO OF THE WEST JAVA STATE ON SUSPICION HE WAS INVOLVED IN THE GUERRILLA UPRISING AT BANDOENG, HIS STATE'S CAPITAL.

(THE TURK) WESTERLING, WHO LED THE GUERRILLA ATTACK MONDAY ON THE WEST JAVA CITY OF BANDOENG, HAS BEEN A THORN IN THE SIDE OF BOTH THE INDONESIANS AND THE CIVIL DUTCH AUTHORITIES SINCE 1946. BY STAN SWINTON

PARIS, JAN 26-(AP)-TURK WESTERLING WAS THE DUTCH ARMY'S TOUGH GUY IN INDONESIA FROM 1946 UNTIL PROTESTS BY DUTCH CIVIL OFFICIALS FINALLY LED TO HIS DISCHARGE FROM THE ARMY.

HIS WEAPON WAS TERROR. HIS TROOPS WERE "THE SPECIAL COMPANY"--SELECTED FOR HATRED OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICANS.

IN THE LATE WINTER OF 1946, WHEN THERE WAS AN UNEASY ARMISTICE BETWEEN THE DUTCH AND THE INSURGENT REPUBLICANS, PRO-REPUBLICAN GUERRILLAS BECAME ACTIVE IN CELEBES, ONE OF THE FAMED SPICE ISLANDS OF EAST INDONESIA.

THE DUTCH ARMY SENT WESTERLING THERE. INDONESIANS CLAIMED WESTERLING AND HIS TROOPS HAD KILLED 9,000 INDONESIANS, INCLUDING WOMEN AND CHILDREN. PRO-DUTCH PUPPET PREMIER NADJUMIDDIN, LATER OUSTED, ADMITTED IN AN INTERVIEW WESTERLING'S MEN HAD KILLED "ABOUT 900, INCLUDING WOMEN AND CHILDREN."

AFTER VISITING THE AREA AND TALKING TO INDONESIANS, FOREIGN REPORTERS ESTIMATED ABOUT 3,600 PERSONS HAD BEEN KILLED. THERE WERE CONSISTENT AND APPARENTLY TRUE REPORTS SEVERAL VILLAGES WHICH HAD FED GUERRILLAS WERE SURROUNDED AND WIPED OUT.

A DUTCH OFFICIAL IN BATAVIA LATER SHOWED FOREIGN REPORTERS AN OFFICIAL REPORT FROM A DUTCH CIVIL OFFICIAL, ASKING WESTERLING BE REMOVED FROM THE AREA AND TESTIFYING THERE WAS EVIDENCE TO SHOW THAT AT LEAST ONCE HIS SPECIAL TROOPS HAD CAPTURED A GUERRILLA LEADER BY STRIPPING THE MAN'S WIFE NAKED, TYING HER TO A TREE AND PASSING WORD AMONG THE INDONESIANS SHE WOULD BE LEFT THERE UNTIL HER HUSBAND GAVE HIMSELF UP.

THE REPORT SAID THE GUERRILLA SURRENDERED AND WAS SHOT ON THE SPOT.

PRESSURE BY CIVIL OFFICIALS ON THE ARMY FINALLY LED TO WESTERLING'S RETURN TO JAVA. FOR A WHILE HE LED SECURITY OPERATIONS AGAINST INFILTRATING REPUBLICAN GUERRILLAS IN WEST JAVA. AGAIN THERE WERE REPORTS OF TERRORISM.

IT WAS WESTERLING AND A PICKED GROUP OF TROOPS WHO WERE GIVEN THE TASK OF CAPTURING THE INDONESIAN "WHITE HOUSE"--THE PLACE WHERE PRESIDENT SOEKARNO ORIGINALLY PROCLAIMED INDONESIAN INDEPENDENCE--WHEN THE FIRST DUTCH POLICE ACTION STARTED IN MAY, 1947.

I SAW HIM IN ACTION THAT NIGHT. WITH HIS RAIDERS, HE CAPTURED THE INDONESIAN GUARDS WITHOUT OPPOSITION. THEN, AUTOMATIC IN HAND, HE WALKED INTO THE HOUSE WHERE DEPUTY PREMIER A. K. GANI WAS LIVING. IT WAS GANI WHOSE SUCCESS IN SMUGGLING RUBBER OUT OF SUMATRA THROUGH THE DUTCH BLOCKADE HAD LARGELY FINANCED THE REPUBLIC.

WESTERLING WALKED UP TO THE UNARMED GANI AND SAID: "MY NAME IS WESTERLING." AND THEN, AFTER WHAT HE MEANT TO BE AN IMPRESSIVE PAUSE TO STRIKE TERROR, HE ADDED: "THEY CALL ME THE TURK."

GANI, UNABASHED, STUCK OUT HIS HAND.

"MY NAME IS A.K. GANI," HE SAID. "THEY CALL ME THE GREATEST SMUGGLER IN SOUTHEAST ASIA."

WESTERLING NEVER WOULD GIVE DETAILS OF HIS BACKGROUND TO NEWSMEN AT THAT TIME. OFFICER FRIENDS SAID HE WAS HALF DUTCH, HALF TURKISH, THAT HE WAS BORN IN TURKEY AND THAT HE WAS A MOSLEM.

HE NEVER WAS WITHOUT A GUN. HE SLEPT WITH A REVOLVER ON THE PILLOW BESIDE HIM.

PERSONAL FRIENDS SAID HE WAS GIVEN TO SAVAGE RAGES. ONE DUTCH OFFICER TOLD ME IN 1947 THAT WESTERLING FOR SEVERAL WEEKS KEPT A DRIED HUMAN HEAD IN HIS ROOM.

WESTERLING WAS PERSONA NON GRATA WITH THE CIVIL DUTCH AUTHORITIES - ALMOST FROM THE FIRST AND REPORTEDLY THERE WERE FREQUENT CONFLICTS WITH THE ARMY ABOUT HIS METHOD OF SUPPRESSING GUERRILLAS, SINCE SOME CIVIL OFFICIALS FELT HE MERELY ROUSED THOSE NATIVES WHO HAD NOT TAKEN SIDES TO OPEN OPPOSITION TO THE DUTCH.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.26-(AP)-RUSSIAN RECOGNITION OF THE NEWLY TROUBLED UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA UNEXPECTEDLY SMOOTHES THE WAY NOW FOR THE OLD DUTCH EAST INDIES TO BECOME THE 60TH MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE DECISION ANNOUNCED FROM MOSCOW EARLY TODAY SURPRISED MOST U.N. DELEGATIONS. THE INDONESIAN MISSION HERE ACKNOWLEDGED IT WAS PUZZLED BY THE TIMING OF THE SOVIET ACTION.

IT COINCIDED WITH THE NEW OUTBREAK OF GUERRILLA UPRISINGS LED BY A FORMER DUTCH OFFICER, THE ARREST OF THE WEST JAVA PREMIER, AND CONFUSED FIGHTING INVOLVING INDONESIAN SOLDIERS IN THE HEART OF JAKARTA, THE CAPITAL FORMERLY CALLED BATAVIA.

WESTERN POWERS CONTENDED IN RECENT U.N. DEBATES THAT RUSSIA OPPOSED THE NEW INDONESIAN-DUTCH SETUP BECAUSE SOVIET DIRECTED INFILTRATION AND AGGRESSION COVERED BY THE CLOAK OF DIPLOMACY FEEDS ON JUST SUCH TURMOIL THAT A MAJORITY HAD HOPED TO AVERT IN INDONESIA.

THE RUSSIANS HAD BEEN EXPECTED TO USE THE VETO WHEN A MEMBERSHIP BID FROM INDONESIA COMES UP FOR APPROVAL IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

L.N.PALAR, HEAD OF THE INDONESIAN MISSION HERE, SAID HE HAS NO INSTRUCTIONS YET FROM HIS GOVERNMENT TO APPLY FOR U.N. MEMBERSHIP.

SAIGON,INDOCHINA, JAN.26-(AP)-SOURCES CLOSE TO U.S. ROVING AMBASSADOR PHILIP JESSUP SAID TODAY HE FAVORS FRENCH ARGUMENTS FOR RECOGNITION OF FORMER EMPEROR BAO DAI AND HIS FRENCH-SPONSORED VIET-NAM REGIME.

JESSUP, HERE ON A MISSION TO HELP FORMULATE A NEW U.S. POLICY ON ASIA, HAS CONFERRED ON VIET-NAM WITH FRENCH HIGH COMMISSIONER LEON PIGNON.

INFORMANTS SAID PIGNON INSISTED ON THE NEED FOR U.S. RECOGNITION OF BAO DAI'S REGIME. THEY SAID PIGNON DECLARED THIS WOULD COUNTERBALANCE RED CHINA'S RECOGNITION OF MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI MINH'S ANTI-FRENCH "VIET-NAM REPUBLIC."

THE FRENCH HOPE JESSUP WILL PRESENT A FAVORABLE REPORT ON BAO DAI'S REGIME TO THE CONFERENCE OF U.S. DIPLOMATS TO MEET SOON IN BANGKOK, THAILAND.

IN PARIS, THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY IS SCHEDULED TO BEGIN DEBATE TODAY ON THE AGREEMENT SIGNED LAST MARCH BY PRESIDENT VINCENT AURIOL. IT WOULD GIVE VIET-NAM "INDEPENDENCE WITHIN THE FRENCH UNION."

FRANCE'S WESTERN ALLIES HAVE BEEN REPORTED AWAITING PARLIAMENTARY APPROVAL OF THE PACT BEFORE TAKING ANY OFFICIAL ACTION ON BAO DAI'S GOVERNMENT.

TAIPEI, FORMOSA, FRIDAY, JAN.27-(AP)-THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS TODAY REPORTED WIDESPREAD AIR AND NAVAL ACTION AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS ALONG THE COAST OF CHINA'S MAINLAND, INCLUDING THE BIG SOUTHERN CITY OF CANTON.
OFFICIAL DISPATCHES SAID:
HEAVY DAMAGE WAS INFLICTED ON RED MILITARY ESTABLISHMENTS IN AN AIR RAID ON CANTON. A 200-TON SHIP WAS SUNK THERE.
CHAPU, A STAGING BASE FOR A RED INVASION OF THE BLOCKADE ISLAND OF CHUSHAN, WAS STRUCK BY A COMBINED AIR AND NAVAL ASSAULT. CHAPU IS 45 MILES SOUTHWEST OF SHANGHAI. CHUSAN IS 100 MILES SOUTHEAST OF SHANGHAI.
NATIONALIST WARSHIPS IN EXTENSIVE OPERATIONS ALONG THE COAST OPPOSITE FORMOSA SANK SCORES OF RED JUNKS.
AND THE NATIONALISTS INSISTED THAT CHINESE COMMUNIST FORCES DESPITE FRENCH DENIALS, HAD ENTERED INDOCHINA AND WERE SUPPLYING ANTI-FRENCH FORCES THERE WITH ARMS.

A SIMILAR REPORT LAST SATURDAY WAS DENIED BY THE FRENCH. TODAY'S REPORT BY MILITARY SOURCES IN THIS NATIONALIST CAPITAL WAS MORE SPECIFICI.
IT SAID THE COMMUNISTS W

SPECIFIC.
IT SAID THE COMMUNISTS WERE UNDER GEN. LIN PIAO, BUT DID NOT GIVE THEIR LOCATION. IT ADDED THAT MUCH OF THE BORDER WAS IN GUERRILLA HANDS, SO THE FRENCH MIGHT NOT BE AWARE OF THE CROSSING.
THE COMMUNIST REGIME HAS RECOGNIZED THE VIET-NAM "REPUBLIC" OF MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI-MINH, WHICH CLAIMS TO CONTROL FOUR-FIFTHS OF INDOCHINA.
THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE MINISTRY REPORTED AT THE SAME TIME THAT THE BULK OF ITS 26TH ARMY HAD CROSSED INTO INDOCHINA AND RESUMABLY HAD BEEN DISARMED AND INTERNED BY THE FRENCH.
NO ESTIMATE OF THE SIZE OF THIS ARMY WAS AVAILABLE. ITS COMMANDER, GEN. YU CHENG-WAN, IS NOW ON HAINANSISLAND. MORE THAN TEN NATIONALIST GENERALS, HOWEVER, WERE SAID TO BE AMONG THOSE NOW INTERNED IN INDOCHINA. AMONG THEM IS HUANG CHIEH, FORMER GOVERNOR OF HUNAN PROVINCE.
(THE COMMUNISTS HAVE CHARGED, AND THE FRENCH HAVE DENIED, THAT MANY FLEEING NATIONALISTS HAVE BEEN ALLOWED TO ESCAPE FROM INDOCHINA TO HAINAN ISLAND.)

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 26-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TODAY ASKED FEDERAL COURT TO FORBID THE WELLS FARGO BANK TO PAY A $626,860 DEPOSIT OF THE BANK OF CHINA TO THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.
ATTORNEYS SAID THIS WAS THE FIRST SUCH ACTION BY THE COMMUNISTS' PEIPING REGIME IN A UNITED STATES COURT.
LAST MONTH, H. H. KUNG, FORMER HEAD OF THE BANK OF CHINA, FILED SUIT IN FEDERAL COURT HERE TO FORCE THE WELLS FARGO BANK TO SURRENDER THE DEPOSIT. KUNG, NOW IN NEW YORK, IS A BROTHER-IN-LAW OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK.
AFTER THE COMMUNISTS CAPTURED SHANGHAI EIGHT MONTHS AGO, THEY RADIOED WELLS FARGO THAT THEY CONTROLLED TWO-THIRDS OF THE BANK OF CHINA STOCK. THEY DEMANDED THAT THE FUNDS NOT BE GIVEN THE NATIONALISTS.
WELLS FARGO SAID IT WOULD KEEP THE DEPOSIT UNTIL A COURT DECIDED WHO SHOULD HAVE IT.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN 26-(AP)-CHINESE NATIONALIST DIPLOMATS HERE SAY THEY BELIEVE COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG IS ASKING RUSSIA FOR WARSHIPS TO MOVE A RED CHINA INVASION ARMY AGAINST FORMOSA.
THE NATIONALIST CHIEF DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS, T.F.TSIANG, DWELT ON SUCH TACTICS YESTERDAY IN AN UNUSUALLY OPEN DISCUSSION WITH NEWS CORRESPONDENTS.
HE SAID RUSSIA UNDOUBTEDLY WOULD HELP SOME ON ANY INVASION ATTEMPT AND THAT THE FORM OF AID NOW IS UNDER DISCUSSION IN MOSCOW.
MAO IS THERE ON AN EXTENDED VISIT AND PREMIER-FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI GOT TO MOSCOW LAST WEEKEND TO ENTER INTO THE DEALINGS WITH THE KREMLIN.
TSIANG CONTENDED THE CHINESE REDS COULD NOT SUCCESSFULLY INVADE THE NATIONALIST ISLAND STRONGHOLD WITHOUT RUSSIAN NAVAL UNITS.
TSIANG, LEADER OF THE NATIONALIST FIGHT ON THE DIPLOMATIC FRONT, INDICATED HE HAD BEEN WORKING FOR MONTHS TO HEAD OFF DIRECT RUSSIAN INTERVENTION. THIS WAS WHAT HE HAD IN MIND, HE SAID, WHEN HE ASKED THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST FALL TO BAN ALL OUTSIDE MILITARY AID TO THE CHINESE REDS.
TSIANG ADDED THAT HE NOW IS CONSIDERING WHETHER TO PROPOSE CREATION OF A U.N. WATCHDOG COMMISSION FOR FORMOSA AS A DETERRENT TO SOVIET INTERVENTION.
IN RESPONSE TO A REPORTER'S QUESTION, TSIANG SAID HE BELIEVED A UNITED STATES NAVAL PATROL IN THE STRAIT OF FORMOSA MIGHT DISCOURAGE ANY SOVIET PARTICIPATION IN A COMMUNIST INVASION ATTEMPT. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT CHINA HAD NOT ASKED FOR SUCH A U.S. PATROL.
TSIANG SAID FORMOSA IS DEFENDED BY ABOUT 200,000 TROOPS. SIX DIVISIONS, HE ADDED, ARE FIRST CLASS TROOPS, EQUIPPED WITH AMERICAN ARMS, AND ARE UNDER THE COMMAND OF GEN. SUN LI-JEN, WHO FOUGHT UNDER THE LATE GEN. JOSEPH W. STILWELL IN BURMA.

WASHINGTON, JAN.26-(AP)-SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) SAID TODAY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF BELIEVE FORMOSA WOULD BE STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT TO THE UNITED STATES IF IN ENEMY HANDS--BUT IS NOT WORTH OCCUPYING BY AMERICAN TROOPS.

CONNALLY GAVE OUT THIS REPORT AFTER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON AND GENERAL OMAR N.BRADLEY MET WITH THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE FOR MORE THAN TWO HOURS. CONNALLY HEADS THE COMMITTEE.

JOHNSON AND BRADLEY WERE CALLED BEFORE THE GROUP TO TESTIFY ON THE ISLAND'S MILITARY VALUE AFTER REPUBLICANS ASSAILED THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY TOWARD FORMOSA.

THE REPUBLICANS HAVE BEEN PROTESTING EVER SINCE PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED JAN.5 THAT THIS COUNTRY WILL GIVE NO MILITARY AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS DEFENDERS OF FORMOSA.

CONNALLY TOLD REPORTERS AT A NEWS CONFERENCE:

"JOHNSON AND BRADLEY BOTH SAID THAT AT NO TIME HAVE THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF OR THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE RECOMMENDED ANY OCCUPATION OF FORMOSA BY THE UNITED STATES.

"THEY ALSO EXPRESSED THE VIEW THAT WHILE FORMOSA IS OF STRATEGIC SIGNIFICANCE TO THE UNITED STATES IF IN THE HANDS OF AN ENEMY, IN THE VIEW OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ITS SIGNIFICANCE WOULD NOT WARRANT THE USE OF OUR ARMED FORCES TO OCCUPY IT."

REPUBLICAN SENATORS LED BY SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) HAVE BEEN DEMANDING TO KNOW IF MR.TRUMAN MADE HIS FORMOSA ANNOUNCEMENT WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

CONNALLY SAID THE FORMOSA DECISION WAS "APPROVED AND CONFIRMED" IN ADVANCE BY THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT. HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT JOHNSON AND BRADLEY SAW THE TEXT OF THE PRESIDENT'S FORMOSA DECISION ONLY A SHORT-TIME-BEFORE IT WAS RELEASED TO A NEWS CONFERENCE. BUT HE SAID THIS DELAY WAS DUE TO "MECHANICAL DIFFICULTIES" IN DELIVERY FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS OF A CONFLICT BETWEEN JOHNSON AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON OVER THE FORMOSA POLICY.

ON THIS POINT, CONNALLY SAID: "SECRETARY JOHNSON ALSO STRONGLY POINTED OUT THERE WAS NO CONFLICT BETWEEN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT WITH RESPECT TO OUR BASIC OBJECTIVES IN THAT AREA.

"THE SECRETARY POINTED OUT THAT RUMORS ABOUT A FIGHT BETWEEN HIMSELF AND SECRETARY ACHESON ARE UTTERLY UNFOUNDED."

A REPORTER ASKED WHETHER THE SENATORS DISCUSSED WITH JOHNSON AND BRADLEY THEIR VIEWS ON ARMS AID FOR THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS OR THE SENDING OF A MILITARY MISSION TO FORMOSA.

"THESE MATTERS WERE NOT DISCUSSED," CONNALLY SAID.

CONNALLY WENT ON TO SAY THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAVE NEVER TAKEN THE POSITION THEY HAD THE RIGHT TO MAKE A DECISION DETERMINING THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY TOWARD FORMOSA.

"THEY ARE NOT SAYING WHAT THE POLICIES SHOULD BE," CONNALLY ADDED. "THEY ARE ONLY GIVING THE MILITARY VIEW."

A REPORTER ASKED IF EITHER JOHNSON OR BRADLEY SAID ANYTHING ABOUT GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S VIEWS ON FORMOSA. MACARTHUR, SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER IN JAPAN, IS REPORTED TO FAVOR U.S. ACTION TO KEEP FORMOSA OUT OF COMMUNIST HANDS.

"BRADLEY DISCUSSED MACARTHUR'S VIEWS," CONNALLY SAID. BUT HE REFUSED TO EXPAND ON THIS STATEMENT.

WASHINGTON, JAN.26-(AP)-THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE CALLED IN SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON AND GENERAL OMAR N.BRADLEY TODAY TO TESTIFY ON THE STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE OF FORMOSA.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS HAVE BEEN PROTESTING EVER SINCE PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED THREE WEEKS AGO THAT THIS COUNTRY WILL GIVE NO MILITARY HELP TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS DEFENDING THE BIG ISLAND.

THEY WANT TO KNOW: DID MR.TRUMAN CONSULT WITH HIS MILITARY CHIEFS ON FORMOSA'S STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE BEFORE MAKING HIS DECISION?

THE COMMITTEE LOOKED TO JOHNSON AND BRADLEY TO SUPPLY THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION (10:30 A.M. E.S.T.), WHICH REPUBLICANS ARE WHIPPING INTO A MAJOR ISSUE IN FOREIGN POLICY.

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN, HAS TOLD REPORTERS HE EXPECTS JOHNSON AND BRADLEY TO STAND BEHIND THE PRESIDENT'S ANNOUNCED DECISION.

SENATOR BRIDGES OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, ONE OF THE REPUBLICAN CRITICS OF THE FORMOSA POLICY, SAID IN ADVANCE THAT THE JOHNSON-BRADLEY TESTIMONY WOULD BE LITTLE MORE THAN A "WHITEWASH" FOR THE PRESIDENT'S POSITION.

TOKYO, FRIDAY, JAN.27-(AP)-ATTORNEY GENERAL SHUNKICHI UEDA TODAY WAVED THE THREAT OF AN OUTLAW ORDER OVER JAPAN'S COMMUNISTS.

UEDA APPEARED YESTERDAY BEFORE A MEETING OF THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

A MEMBER ASKED HIM IF THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD ORDER DISSOLUTION OF THE COMMUNISTS. THE COMMUNISTS WERE ATTACKED BY THE COMINFORM JOURNAL OF BUCHAREST, ORGAN OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM; BY MOSCOW'S PRAVDA AND BY THE CHINESE RED RADIO IN PEIPING FOR STICKING TO PARLIAMENTARY ATTEMPTS TO WIN SOCIALISM UNDER THE OCCUPATION.

THE JAPANESE COMMUNISTS LATER ADMITTED "MISTAKES." SINCE THEN THEIR CRITICS HAVE ACCUSED THEM OF BEING UNDER MOSCOW'S DOMINATION. THE COMMUNIST CRITICISM OF THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT AND THE OCCUPATION HAS BECOME HOTTER.

UEDA SAID THERE WAS AS YET NO EVIDENCE PROVING JAPANESE COMMUNISTS WERE DEFYING THE ALLIED OCCUPATION OR TURNING TO VIOLENCE.

HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE PARTY MIGHT BE ORDERED DISSOLVED IF SUCH EVIDENCE CAME TO LIGHT.

TOKYO, JAN.26-(AP)-GENERAL MACARTHUR, THE MAN WHO HAS RULED JAPAN SINCE THE RISING SUN SET MORE THAN FOUR YEARS AGO, WAS 70 YEARS OLD TODAY.

PHYSICALLY WELL AND MENTALLY TOUGH, THE SUPREME ALLIED OCCUPATION COMMANDER TALKED A LITTLE ABOUT HIS INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT JOB--BUT NOT FOR PUBLICATION.

HIS VIEWS ARE PRETTY WELL KNOWN ON THE RISING RED TIDE IN ASIA, PEACE FOR JAPAN, THE IMPORTANCE OF FORMOSA IN THE U.S. PACIFIC DEFENSE LINE.

IT IS ALSO KNOWN HE DOES NOT THINK WAR IS IMMINENT. HE IS KNOWN TO REGARD MODERN WAR AS SO NEARLY ALL-DESTRUCTIVE THAT ANY FUTURE CONFLICT MIGHT PROSTRATE THE PARTICIPANTS.

BUT TODAY YOU WOULD HARDLY HAVE KNOWN HE HAD ANYTHING ON HIS MIND BUT A BIRTHDAY.

THERE WAS LITTLE CEREMONY OR FANFARE.
THERE WERE CONGRATULATIONS OF COURSE. FROM HIS SON AND WIFE, FROM OFFICERS WHO HAVE FOLLOWED HIM THROUGH HOT AND COLD WAR, FROM MANY FRIENDS IN MANY LANDS AND FROM SIR ALVARY GASCIOGNE OF THE BRITISH MISSION HERE WHO BROUGHT GREETINGS FROM TOKYO'S DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS.
THE GENERAL, TALL AND THIN AND WORKING AS EVERY OTHER DAY, BRISKLY STEPPED FROM BEHIND HIS HUGE UNCLUTTERED DESK TO GREET A LONG LINE OF WELLWISHERS.
AS THE ANTEROOM TO MACARTHUR'S OFFICE FILLED UP A YOUTHFUL SERGEANT REMARKED, "EVERYONE WANTS TO GET INTO THE ACT."
THE "EVERYONE" INCLUDED SEVERAL HUNDRED LITTLE JAPANESE URCHINS. THEY WAITED OUTSIDE HIS OFFICE AND AS HE LEFT FOR LUNCH THEY PIPED "HAPPY BIRTHDAY" AT HIM. THEY KEPT RAGGED TIME TO THE TUNE WITH LITTLE AMERICAN FLAGS THEY HAD MADE.
THERE WERE PRESENTS, TOO, AND THE GENERAL GRINNED LIKE ANY PROUD FATHER WHEN TOLD WHAT HE HAD RECEIVED FROM HIS 12-YEAR-OLD SON, ARTHUR A PASTEL PAINTING THE BOY HAD DONE AND AN ASHTRAY TO MATCH A PIPE SET HE HAD GIVEN HIS FATHER PREVIOUSLY.
IN MANILA, MAJ. GEN. MARIANO N.CASTANEDA, PHILIPPINE ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, ANNOUNCED THE AWARD OF THE PHILIPPINES LEGION OF HONOR MEDAL TO MACARTHUR.
IT WAS THE SECOND TIME THE DECORATION, HIGHEST MILITARY AWARD OF THE ISLAND REPUBLIC, HAS BEEN BESTOWED. THE FIRST, POSTHUMOUSLY, WAS TO THE LATE PRESIDENT FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.
MACARTHUR, ONCE FIELD MARSHALL OF THE PHILIPPINE ARMY, COMMANDED ALLIED FORCES IN THE LIBERATION CAMPAIGN THAT SWEPT THE JAPANESE FROM THE ISLANDS.

TSINGTAO (410)
BY WAYNE RICHARDSON
TOKYO,FRIDAY, JAN. 27-(AP)-THE CHINESE NATIONALIST NAVY WILL HAVE A HARD TIME EFFECTIVELY BLOCKADING COMMUNIST TSINGTAO. THAT NORTH CHINA PORT IS HEAVILY GUARDED BY LARGE GUNS.
THIS IS APPARENT FROM MY VISIT TO THE PORT WHICH ONCE SERVED AS A U. S. NAVAL BASE.
THE COMMUNISTS HAVE MANY GUN EMPLACEMENTS AROUND TSINGTAO. THEY STUD THE NUMEROUS ISLANDS FRONTING TSINGTAO'S EXTENSIVE HARBOR. THEY ARE PLANTED ON ISLANDS WHICH EXTEND WELL OUT TO SEA.
I REACHED TSINGTAO ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW AFTER NATIONALIST SHELLS DAMAGED IT AND FORCED IT TO ABANDON AN ATTEMPT TO RUN THE BLOCKADE INTO COMMUNIST SHANGHAI.
THE FLYING ARROW WAS ESCORTED FROM THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER TO WITHIN EIGHT MILES OF TSINGTAO BY A U. S. DESTROYER. NO NATIONALIST WARSHIP WAS ENCOUNTERED DURING THE 350-MILE TRIP.
(RICHARDSON WAS THE ONLY NEWSPAPERMAN ABOARD.)
TO BLOCKADE TSINGTAO, THE NATIONALISTS MUST INTERCEPT VESSELS AT A POINT BEYOND THE RANGE OF COMMUNIST SHORE BATTERIES. THAT WOULD REQUIRE QUITE A FEW WARSHIPS.
IT ALSO MIGHT INVOLVE INTERCEPTION ON THE HIGH SEAS, WHERE THE U. S. NAVY IS PLEDGED TO PROTECT AMERICAN SHIPS.
DURING THE FIRST FOUR DAYS WE WERE AT ANCHORAGES OFF TSINGTAO, I OBSERVED THE ARRIVAL OF FOUR SMALL SHIPS AND THE DEPARTURE OF A SIMILAR NUMBER.
ONE WATERFRONT OBSERVER SAID THE SHIPS COME AND GO IN ALL DIRECTIONS. HE ADDED THAT THIS WOULD CAUSE A WIDE DISPERSAL OF ANY NAVAL FORCE ATTEMPTING A BLOCKADE.
REPORTS FROM HONG KONG THAT THE BRITISH MERCHANT SHIP ELSIE MOLLER HAD RUN THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE INTO SHANGHAI CAN BE EXPLAINED THIS WAY:
THIS SMALL, 260-TON SHIP EVIDENTLY USED THE NORTHERN PASSAGE TO SHANGHAI. THE PASSAGE IS ONLY 18 TO 22 FEET DEEP AND IS WELL PROTECTED BY COMMUNIST GUNS EMPLACED ON NEARBY ISLANDS. THE FLYING ARROW COULD NOT USE THE NORTHERN CHANNEL. IT HAS A 28-FOOT DRAFT.
FROM ALL EVIDENCE, RAILROAD SERVICE IS GOOD BETWEEN TSINGTAO AND SHANGHAI. IT COULD BE USED FOR THE TRANSSHIPMENT OF GOODS INTENDED FOR SHANGHAI BUT BROUGHT TO THE SAFER ANCHORAGE AT TSINGTAO.
TRAINS SEEM TO RUN ON SCHEDULE TO SHANGHAI.
LACK OF EXPORTS SEEMS TO BE THE MAIN REASON WHY TRADE THROUGH TSINGTAO HAS FALLEN OFF BADLY UNDER THE COMMUNISTS.
U. S. CONSUL GENERAL CAROL O. HAWTORNE, WHO CAME OUT OF TSINGTAO ABOARD THE FLYING ARROW FOR REASSIGNMENT, SAID THE COMMUNISTS ARE EXPORTING ONLY ONE-THIRD AS MUCH AS THEY ARE IMPORTING.
THE CHIEF EXPORTS OF TSINGTAO NOW ARE PIG'S BRISTLES AND HAIR NETS MADE OF HUMAN HAIR. THE CITY'S INDUSTRIES, INCLUDING ONCE-FLOURISHING COTTON SPINNING MILLS, ARE BEING KILLED BY HEAVY TAXES, HAWTHORNE SAID.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT WAYNE RICHARDSON WAS ON THE FLYING ARROW WHEN SHE LEFT HONG KONG FOR COMMUNIST SHANGHAI, WHEN SHE WAS SHELLED TRYING TO ENTER THE YANGTZE RIVER AND WHEN SHE WENT ON TO RED TSINGTAO INSTEAD. HE WAS THE ONLY NEWSMAN WHO MADE THE VOYAGE.)

BY WAYNE RICHARDSON
KOBE, JAPAN, JAN. 26-(AP)-U.S. CONSUL GENERAL CARL O. HAWTHORNE TODAY VOICED HOPE FOR THE RELEASE OF TWO MARINE AIRMEN HELD BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND PREDICTED MILLIONS WILL STARVE IN RED NORTH CHINA.
THE VETERAN CHIEF OF THE NOW CLOSED AMERICAN CONSULATE AT TSINGTAO CAME IN FROM COMMUNIST CHINA THIS MORNING ABOARD THE SHELL-POCKED FREIGHTER FLYING ARROW. THE ISBRANDTSEN LINE SHIP WENT TO TSINGTAO AFTER BEING HIT 30 TO 40 TIMES BY A NATIONALIST GUNBOAT WHILE TRYING TO ENTER THE YANGTZE RIVER TO SHANGHAI.
HIS HOPEFUL COMMENT ON THE TWO FLIERS CAPTURED BY THE REDS IN OCTOBER, 1948, CAME AFTER CAPT. DAVID JONES OF THE FLYING ARROW DESCRIBED HIS NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE TSINGTAO REDS FOR THEIR RELEASE. THE IMPRISONED AIRMEN ARE MASTER SGT. CHARLES C. BENDER OF CINCINNATI AND CHIEF ELECTRICIAN WILLIAM C. SMITH OF LONG BEACH, CALIF.
"WHEN BRITAIN HAS SET UP EFFECTIVE RELATIONS" WITH RED CHINA, HAWTHORNE TOLD NEWSMEN, "I THINK WE WILL GET BENDER AND SMITH OUT."
EARLIER, THE FLYING ARROW'S SKIPPER TOLD ME IN AN EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW THAT A TOP TSINGTAO COMMUNIST NAMED WONG SAID THE FLIERS COULD BE RELEASED "VERY QUICKLY" IF THE UNITED STATES WOULD MAKE A "PROPER" DIPLOMATIC REQUEST.
(THIS COULD MEAN THE REDS ARE DEMANDING FORMAL U.S. RECOGNITION OF THEIR PEIPING REGIME IN RETURN FOR THE FLIERS' FREEDOM. THE U.S.

SO FAR HAS SHOWN NO INDICATION OF RECOGNIZING COMMUNIST CHINA. BRITAIN HAS, BUT PEIPING HAS NOT ACCEPTED THE BRITISH OFFER. HAWTHORNE'S HOPES APPARENTLY WERE BASED ON THE PREMISE THAT LONDON AND PEIPING WILL ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS AND THE U.S. CAN ACT THROUGH THE BRITISH.)

HAWTHORNE PAINTED A BLACK PICTURE OF TSINGTAO AND SHANTUNG PROVINCE UNDER COMMUNIST RULE. FOOD HAS BECOME A PRESSING PROBLEM FOR THE BIG CHINESE POPULATION, HE SAID, PREDICTING:

"MILLIONS ARE GOING TO DIE OF STARVATION BEFORE THE NEXT HARVEST IN AUGUST."

HE SAID HE BELIEVES THE PEOPLE ARE DISSATISFIED WITH RED RULE BUT CAN DO NOTHING ABOUT IT BECAUSE OF TIGHT CONTROLS.

THE ONCE TEEMING PORT OF TSINGTAO, FORMER BASE FOR THE U.S. WESTERN PACIFIC FLEET, IS DOWN TO ABOUT 1,000 TONS OF SHIPPING DAILY, HAWTHORNE SAID. THE REDS HAVE DONE NOTHING WITH THE FINE HARBOR.

HEAVY TAXATION, HE CONTINUED, "IS KILLING OFF PRIVATE INDUSTRY" AND OTHER RESTRICTIONS ARE MAKING BUSINESS IMPOSSIBLE. STRICT MARTIAL LAW STILL IS IN FORCE.

HAWTHORNE SAID THE TSINGTAO CONSULATE WAS GUARDED CONTINUOUSLY BY RED SOLDIERS ARMED WITH RIFLES, BAYONETS AND HAND GRENADES. HE WAS THREATENED WITH ARREST SEVERAL TIMES.

OF HIS CALL ON COMMUNIST OFFICIAL WONG, CAPTAIN JONES SAID:

WONG, DIRECTOR OF THE TSINGTAO BOARD FOR MILITARY CONTROL OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS FOR CIVILIANS, CONTENDED THE U.S. HAS NOT REQUESTED THE FLIERS' RELEASE IN A MANNER CONSIDERED OFFICIAL BY THE COMMUNISTS.

WONG MAINTAINED THE ONLY REQUEST RED OFFICIALS HAVE RECEIVED WAS "A HURRIEDLY WRITTEN LETTER PRIOR TO THE NAVY'S EVACUATION OF TSINGTAO." HE SAID THE LETTER DID NOT INCLUDE ARRANGEMENTS FOR DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE OF THE FLIERS.

JONES SAID HE SAW WONG IN RESPONSE TO A STATE DEPARTMENT CABLE FROM HAWTHORNE. HE SAID HE WAS AUTHORIZED TO SPEND UP TO $25,000 IF THE REDS WANTED RANSOM FOR THE TWO AIRMEN.

WONG INSISTED, JONES SAID, THAT "RANSOM DOES NOT ENTER INTO THE PICTURE."

IN WASHINGTON, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT HAD NOT AUTHORIZED ANY RANSOM OFFER.

(IN LONG BEACH, CALIF., MRS. SMITH THROUGH HER ATTORNEY QUICKLY URGED THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT MAKE THE "PROPER" REQUEST DEMANDED BY THE COMMUNISTS. SHE SAID SHE WOULD WIRE IT AND THE NAVY DEPARTMEN TO ATTEMPT NEGOTIATIONS THROUGH RUSSIA.)

VRICHARDSON

BY RUSSELL BRINES

KOBE, JAPAN, JAN. 26-(AP)-THE HUSKY, JOVIAL MAN LEANING DOWN FROM THE FLYING ARROW'S TOPDECK LOOKED LIKE A BANKER WHO HAD JUST SWUNG A BIG DEAL.

WAYNE RICHARDSON, VETERAN ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT, HAD COMPLETED A BIG DEAL ALL RIGHT -- BUT NOT THE KIND HIS GIRTH SEEMED TO IMPLY.

AT 51 -- AN AGE WHICH NORMALLY DOESN'T COURT TROUBLE -- HE VOLUNTARILY RODE INTO CHINESE NATIONALIST SHELLFIRE AT THE MOUTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER, THEN PENETRATED TIGHT CHINESE COMMUNIST SCRUTINY IN TSINGTAO.

HIS WAS THE STORY OF THE FLYING ARROW -- AN EXCLUSIVE HE HAD FOR TWO WEEKS AS THE ONLY NEWSMAN ABOARD.

SOME HIGHLIGHTS OF THE RICHARDSON STORY BEHIND THE (CAPS)

STORY:

A RUSSIAN TAXI DRIVER TAUGHT HIM HOW TO USE HIS GREY HAIR TO BEAT THE COMMUNIST CURFEW IN TSINGTAO. A DILIGENT CHINESE GIRL AGENT AND HER NEARSIGHTED BOY FRIEND DOGGED HIM DURING FOUR DAYS ASHORE IN NORTH CHINA. A COMMUNIST OFFICIAL GAVE HIM CHILLS BY REVEALING HE KNEW RICHARDSON WAS A NEWSMAN AND NOT THE SHIP'S PURSER AS ADVERTISED.

"HI!" SHOUTED RICHARDSON AS THE FLYING ARROW NUDGED INTO DOCK THIS MORNING. HIS GREETING SOUNDED LIKE HE'D BEEN AWAY FOR A WEEKEND IN THE COUNTRY.

"IT WAS A LUCKY ASSIGNMENT," HE ADDED.

RICHARDSON, DUE TO RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES ON HOME LEAVE AFTER FOUR YEARS AS AP CORRESPONDENT IN HONG KONG, DECIDED TO BOARD THE FLYING ARROW WHEN HE LEARNED SHE WAS GOING TO TRY TO RUN THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE OF SHANGHAI.

FIRST THING HE DID WAS TO BOOK THE ONLY AVAILABLE PASSENGER CABIN AHEAD OF RIVAL NEWSMEN WHO WERE HOT AFTER IT. HE SWITCHED TO THE CREW WHEN THE SHIP WAS AT SEA.

WHEN A NATIONALIST GUNBOAT BEGAN PUMPING SHELLS AT THE FLYING ARROW OFF THE YANGTZE MOUTH, RICHARDSON SAT DOWN IN THE EXPOSED RADIO SHACK AND BEGAN FILING HIS STORY.

A FEW MINUTES LATER, CAPT. DAVID JONES HEARD A VOICE AT HIS ELBOW:

"I GET 38 SHELLS," RICHARDSON WAS SAYING. "HOW MANY DID YOU GET?"

"NOW LOOK AT THE GUY!" THE SKIPPER EXPLODED. "HE'S COUNTING THE SHELLS."

RICHARDSON KEPT WRITING HIS STORY, ROLLING IT OUT AHEAD OF THE RADIOMAN WHO WAS TRANSMITTING IT.

IN TSINGTAO, RICHARDSON MANAGED TO GET ASHORE BY MAKING "CREDENTIALS" WITH A BORROWED RUBBER STAMP AND AN OLD PHOTOGRAPH. THE PICTURE WAS CLIPPED TO AN OLD AMATEUR RADIO OPERATOR'S PERMIT AND STAMPED WITH THE SEAL OF THE FLYING ARROW. IT SERVED TO IDENTIFY HIM AS A MEMBER OF THE CREW.

RICHARDSON THOUGHT HE WAS GETTING AWAY WITH ANONYMITY. BUT THE BRITISH CONSUL FORWARDED HIM A LETTER CONCERNING WILLIAM C. SMITH OF LONG BEACH, CALIF., ONE OF TWO AMERICAN FLIERS HELD BY THE REDS IN THE TSINGTAO AREA. THE LETTER WAS RELAYED IN RESPONSE TO A CABLED REQUEST FROM MRS. SMITH, WHO SUGGESTED THE AP MAN COULD GET NEWS OUT.

RICHARDSON LEARNED THE CABLE IDENTIFYING HIM HAD PASSED THROUGH COMMUNIST COMMUNICATION CHANNELS.

ONE OF THE ARROGANT RED OFFICIALS ASKED CAPTAIN JONES: "WHEN DID YOU MAKE AN ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT A MEMBER OF YOUR CREW?"

EVIDENTLY RED OFFICIALS HAD BEEN TAPPING RICHARDSON'S OUTGOING MESSAGES AND WERE PERFECTLY AWARE WHO HE WAS.

AS HE WENT AROUND TSINGTAO SEARCHING FOR THE FIRST DETAILED INFORMATION ON THAT CITY UNDER THE COMMUNISTS, THE PHOENIX, ARIZ., NEWSMAN WAS TRAILED CONSTANTLY.

A CHINESE GIRL WAS ON HIS HEELS ALWAYS. FOLLOWING HER WAS A BOY FRIEND WITH THICK EYEGLASSES. THEY DIDN'T EVEN BOTHER TO HIDE THE FACT THEY WERE TAKING NOTES ON HIS ACTIONS.

ONCE IN TSINGTAO'S LARGEST CAFE, RICHARDSON SPOTTED U.S. CONSUL GENERAL CARL O. HAWTHORNE OF SAN FRANCISCO WITH A PARTY.

QUICKLY SOMEONE CAME UP TO THE NEWSMAN AND WHISPERED:

"PRETEND YOU DON'T KNOW THEM (HAWTHORNE'S PARTY) OR EVERYONE WILL GET INTO TROUBLE."

THE COMMUNISTS CLAMPED ON NO RESTRICTIONS DURING DAYLIGHT VISITS ASHORE BUT ENFORCED A MIDNIGHT CURFEW. RICHARDSON WANTED MORE NIGHT AIR. A RUSSIAN TAXI DRIVER SOLVED EVERYTHING.

"YOU KNOW HOW THE CHINESE ADMIRE AGE," THE DRIVER TOLD RICHARDSON. "SHOW THEM YOUR GRAY HAIR AND TELL THEM YOU HAVE TROUBLE BECAUSE OF YOUR AGE AND THE SHORTAGE OF TAXIS IN GETTING BACK TO THE SHIP BEFORE THE CURFEW. THEN ASK FOR MORE TIME."

IT WORKED.

"YES, IT WAS A LUCKY ASSIGNMENT," RICHARDSON SAID. "BUT YOU KNOW I WASN'T TOO SURE UNTIL THE LAST MINUTE I WOULD GET OUT OF TSINGTAO WITHOUT HAVING SOMEONE DECIDE TO HOLD ME THERE. THAT'S A HELLUVA UNPLEASANT FEELING."

SEOUL, FRIDAY, JAN. 27-(AP)-PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE OF SOUTH KOREA TODAY RECEIVED A FRANTIC REPORT THREATENING U.S.-KOREAN HARMONY---AND QUICKLY SPIKED IT.

RHEE SAID KOREAN AMBASSADOR HUGH CYNN EXCITEDLY TELEPHONED HIM FROM TOKYO THIS REPORT:

AMERICAN AUTHORITIES THERE WERE THREATENING TO USE U.'. WARSHIPS TO FIRE ON KOREAN NAVY VESSELS PATROLING KOREA'S FISHING WATERS.

RHEE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE CYNN EVIDENTLY THOUGHT HIS SOURCE WAS A GOOD ONE. BUT RHEE EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR WOULD PERMIT NO SUCH ACTION.

OCCUPATION AUTHORITIES IN TOKYO HAVE PROTESTED THE RECENT SEIZURE OF FIVE JAPANESE FISHING VESSELS WHICH THE KOREAN NAVY CONTENDS WERE IN KOREAN WATERS.

RHEE SAID THROUGH ERROR THE PROTESTS HAD FAILED TO REACH HIM. HE INSTRUCTED CYNN TO MAKE AN OFFICIAL APOLOGY FOR FAILING TO TAKE IMMEDIATE STEPS TO PREVENT FURTHER MISUNDERSTANDINGS.

THE PRESIDENT DECLARED, HOWEVER, THAT THE KOREAN NAVY WILL CONTINUE TO DETAIN FISHING BOATS POACHING IN KOREAN WATERS. CREWS AND VESSELS SO FAR SEIZED HAVE BEEN RELEASED.

OTTAWA, JAN. 26-(AP)-THE SAULT STE.MARIE LOCKS, A VITAL GREAT LAKES TRANSPORTATION LINK ON THE CANADIAN-AMERICAN BORDER, HAVE BEEN SINGLED OUT BY ARMY FORCES OF BOTH COUNTRIES AS ONE OF THE BIG POTENTIAL TARGETS FOR ANY ATTACK ON THE CONTINENT.

THE U.S. ARMY SAID YESTERDAY IT IS GOING TO STATION SOME 900 TROOPS AT SAULT STE.MARIE, MICH., TO PROTECT THE LOCKS. THE U.S. HAD 12,000 TROOPS IN THAT AREA AT THE WARTIME PEAK, MANY OF THEM STATIONED ON THE CANADIAN SIDE, BUT THEY WERE WITHDRAWN SOME YEARS AGO.

CANADA'S ARMY HAS GIVEN NO INDICATION THAT IT WILL STATION ANY BODY OF REGULAR TROOPS AROUND SAULT STE.MARIE, ONT., SISTER COMMUNITY OF THE U.S. CITY. HOWEVER, THE ARMY CHOSE THE SAULT AS THE SITE OF THE FIRST NEW ARMORIES TO BE BUILT SINCE THE WAR.

WORK ALREADY HAS STARTED ON A $750,000 STRUCTURE THAT WILL COMBINE COMMUNITY RECREATIONAL FACILITIES WITH TRAINING EQUIPMENT FOR THE HEAVY ANTI-AIRCRAFT UNIT THAT IS STATIONED THERE.

A SUCCESSFUL ENEMY ATTACK ON THE LOCKS COULD TIE UP TRANSPORTATION OF VITAL SUPPLIES AT THE POINT WHERE LAKE SUPERIOR SENDS ITS WATERS THROUGH THE NARROWS TO THE OTHER GREAT LAKES.

SECOND LEAD COPLON-GUBITCHEV (360)

NEW YORK, JAN.26-(AP)-VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV'S LAWYER SAID TODAY THAT THE RUSSIAN'S BEHAVIOR ON THE DAY OF HIS ARREST WAS NOT THAT OF A SPY BUT OF A "CRAZY MAN WANTING DESPERATELY TO BE WITH A WOMAN."

THE WOMAN, SAID DEFENSE COUNSEL ABRAHAM L.POMERANTZ, WAS JUDITH COPLON--NOW ON TRIAL WITH GUBITCHEV ON CHARGES OF PLOTTING TO SPY FOR THE RUSSIANS.

POMERANTZ ADDRESSED THE JURY AFTER RAYMOND P.WHEARTY, SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE U.S. ATTORNEY GENERAL, DECLARED IN HIS OPENING REMARKS THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD PROVE ITS CHARGES AGAINST BOTH DEFENDANTS.

"I PROMISE TO PROVE TO YOU," POMERANTZ COUNTERED, "THAT GUBITCHEV NEVER ASKED MISS COPLON TO BRING UP (TO NEW YORK) A SOLITARY PIECE OF PAPER FROM HER WORK IN WASHINGTON."

THEN ARCHIBALD PALMER, MISS COPLON'S LAWYER, ADDRESSED THE JURY, ASSERTING THAT THE EX-GOVERNMENT GIRL "NEVER TOOK FROM THE FILES OF THE FBI OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY ANYTHING SHE HAD NO RIGHT TO TAKE."

"THIS GIRL," PALMER SAID, "IS AS INNOCENT OF ANY INTENT TO WRONG THE UNITED STATES AS ANYONE IN THIS COURTROOM, INCLUDING THIS JURY."

HE PICTURED HIS DIMINUTIVE CLIENT AS "THE LITTLE KITTEN TYPE"--ALWAYS SMILING AND "BASKING IN THE SUNLIGHT OF PEOPLE'S APPROVAL."

AND, AS HE DID IN SEVEN WEEKS OF PRE-TRIAL HEARINGS, PALMER BLASTED THE FBI FOR ITS ADMITTED USE OF WIRE-TAPPING IN THE CASE.

"SUCH INTERCEPTION IS A CRIME," PALMER DECLARED, "AS MUCH A CRIME AS CHARGED AGAINST THIS GIRL AND THIS MAN."

POMERANTZ CONFERRED EARLIER WITH MISS COPLON'S LAWYER IN AN EFFORT TO IRON OUT DIFFERENCES OVER HOW THE DEFENSE SHOULD BE CONDUCTED.

IN HIS HALF-HOUR ADDRESS, POMERANTZ POURED RIDICULE ON THE GOVERNMENT'S CHARGE THAT THE FURTIVE MEETINGS AND SUDDEN PARTINGS OF THE DEFENDANTS IN OUT-OF-THE-WAY PLACES SUGGESTED THAT THEY WERE PLOTTING TO SPY.

HE DECLARED THAT "NO SPY BUT A LUNATIC OR MACK SENNETT COMEDY SPY" WOULD ACT AS GUBITCHEV ACTED.

ON THE DAY OF THE RUSSIAN'S ARREST, THE LAWYER WENT ON, HE NOT ONLY WAS "CRAZY" IN HIS INFATUATION WITH THE EX-GOVERNMENT GIRL BUT ALSO AFRAID THAT HIS WIFE WOULD LEARN OF THEIR RELATIONS.

WHEARTY'S OPENING ADDRESS TOOK 40 MINUTES.

"IN THE LAST DAYS OF DECEMBER, 1948," THE PROSECUTOR SAID, "INFORMATION WAS RECEIVED BY THE FBI THAT JUDITH COPLON MIGHT BE ENGAGED IN ESPIONAGE ACTIVITY."

MISS COPLON, A BROOKLYN-BORN HONOR GRADUATE OF BARNARD COLLEGE, WAS A POLITICAL ANALYST IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT AT THAT TIME.

WHEARTY SAID AN INVESTIGATION BEGAN JAN. 3, 1949, AND THE FBI STARTED WATCHING THE YOUNG WOMAN'S MOVEMENTS THREE DAYS LATER.

THE PROSECUTOR TOLD HOW AGENTS SHADOWED MISS COPLON DURING NEW YORK MEETINGS WITH GUBITCHEV.

WHEN ARRESTED LAST MARCH 4, WHEARTY SAID, MISS COPLON HAD IN HER PURSE 34 "DATA SLIPS" THAT PROVED TO BE EXTRACTS OF FBI REPORTS ON SOVIET EMBASSY MATTERS.

ALSO IN THE HANDBAG, THE PROSECUTOR SAID, WERE A DECOY MESSAGE DELIBERATELY SENT TO MISS COPLON'S DESK EARLIER THAT DAY, AS WELL AS A DOCUMENT "WHICH TOLD OF MISS COPLON'S UNSUCCESSFUL EFFORT TO SECURE ACCESS TO A TOP SECRET FBI REPORT."

WHEARTY SAID THE DECOY MESSAGE WAS FICTITIOUS BUT CONTAINED CORRECT INFORMATION ABOUT AN EXPLOSION-MEASURING DEVICE CALLED A GEOPHONE.

"THE GEOPHONE INFORMATION WAS SELECTED SO THAT IF IT GOT INTO THE HANDS OF THE RUSSIANS IT WOULD NOT HARM THE UNIED STATES," HE SAID.

A COURTROOM ARGUMENT BROUGHT INTO THE OPEN YESTERDAY THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MISS COPLON'S COUNSEL, ARCHIBALD PALMER, AND GUBITCHEV'S COUNSEL, ABRAHAM L. POMERANTZ.

THE LAWYERS WERE ABOUT AS FAR APART AS THE TWO DEFENDANTS HAVE BEEN LATELY. MISS COPLON, A LITTLE BRUNETTE, SAYS SHE LOVED GUBITCHEV UNTIL SHE LEARNED HE WAS MARRIED. IN COURT, THEY HAVE AVOIDED EACH OTHER.

THE CHIEF BONE OF CONTENTION BETWEEN THE LAWYERS WAS PALMER'S ANNOUNCED INTENTION TO REFER IN HIS OPENING STATEMENT TO MISS COPLON'S TRIAL ALONE IN FEDERAL COURT IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

JUDGE SYLVESTER RYAN GAVE PALMER PERMISSION TO DO SO, BUT WARNED THE PROSECUTION AND DEFENSE NOT TO MENTION BEFORE THE JURY THAT SHE WAS CONVICTED JUNE 30 AND SENTENCED TO FROM 40 MONTHS TO TEN YEARS IN PRISON. SHE IS APPEALING.

POMERANTZ CONTENDED THAT MENTION OF THE WASHINGTON TRIAL--IN WHICH MISS COPLON WAS CONVICTED OF STEALING GOVERNMENT SECRETS FOR THE RUSSIANS--WOULD PREJUDICE GUBITCHEV'S CASE HERE.

POMERANTZ SAID HE WOULD ASK FOR A MISTRIAL IF THE WASHINGTON PROCEEDINGS WERE MENTIONED. THE JURY HAD BEEN DISMISSED FOR THE NIGHT BEFORE THE LAWYERS' DIFFERENCES WERE HEARD BY THE JUDGE.

PALMER SAID HE WANTS TO MENTION THE WASHINGTON TRIAL IN THE CASE HERE TO SUPPORT HIS CONTENTION THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE TRAPPED MISS COPLON FOR POLITICAL REASONS, AND SUPPRESSED EVIDENCE OF ILLEGAL FBI WIRETAPPING UNTIL AFTER THE TRIAL.

THE EMBEZZLEMENT INDICTMENT CHARGES JUDGE HARRIS LAST FEBRUARY TOOK $150 PAID TO THE COURT BY A HUSBAND FOR MAINTENANCE OF HIS DIVORCED WIFE.
THE CHECK FRAUD COUNT CHARGED HE TRIED TO PAY BACK MONEY WITH A CHECK ON A BANK IN WHICH HE HAD NO ACCOUNT.
THE FORGERY CHARGE ALLEGED HE SIGNED ANOTHER MAN'S NAME TO AN APPLICATION FOR A BIRTH CERTIFICATE. (JUDGE HARRIS IN 1931 SERVED A SEVEN-MONTH TERM IN FEDERAL PRISON ON A FORGERY CHARGE. HE PLEADED GUILTY TO CASHING VETERANS' BONUS CHECKS WHILE HE WAS SERVICE OFFICER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION. HE WAS PARDONED BY PRESIDENT F.D.ROOSEVELT). PROSECUTOR JOHN K.PARIELL SAID JUDGE HARRIS PROBABLY WOULD NOT BE ARRESTED UNTIL A SPECIAL JUDGE IS NAMED TO HEAR THE CASE.
JUDGE HARRIS SAID HE WOULD OPPOSE A CHANGE OF VENUE, ADDING, "I WANT TO BE TRIED RIGHT HERE WHERE THE PEOPLE KNOW ME."
HE EXPRESSED THE OPINION THAT THE INDICTMENTS WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN RETURNED IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR HIS ACTIVITY IN BEHALF OF COMMUNISTS.
HE SERVED AS CO-CHAIRMAN WITH SINGER PAUL ROBESON OF THE COMMITTEE TO DEFEND COMMUNIST LEADERS LAST YEAR. HE SAID EXCEPT FOR PERMITTING THE USE OF HIS NAME, HE TOOK NO ACTIVE PART IN THEIR DEFENSE.
JUDGE HARRIS HAS INSISTED HE IS NOT A COMMUNIST, BUT HAS BEEN A DEMOCRAT ALL HIS LIFE. HE HAS BEEN A BELLIGERENT DEFENDER OF CIVIL LIBERTIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 26-(AP)-THREE SHIPPING EXECUTIVES TESTIFIED IN HARRY BRIDGES PERJURY TRIAL TODAY THAT THE LONGSHORE LEADER'S REPUTATION IS GOOD.
THE WITNESSES WERE OSCAR W. PEARSON, PRESIDENT OF THE PACIFIC MARITIME ASSOCIATION AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF MARINE TERMINALS CORP., LOS ANGELES; HUBERT BROWN, ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT OF PACIFIC FAR EAST LINES, INC., AND KENNETH H. FINESSY, VICE PRESIDENT OF STATES STEAMSHIP CO. AND A DIRECTOR OF THE PACIFIC MARITIME ASSOCIATION.
ALL APPEARED FOR THE DEFENSE UNDER SUBPOENA.
THE GOVERNMENT IS TRYING TO PROVE THAT BRIDGES, PRESIDENT OF THE CIO LONGSHOREMEN'S AND WAREHOUSEMEN'S UNION, TOLD A LIE IN 1945 IN DENYING MEMBERSHIP IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY.
THE DEFENSE ALSO PUT ON FOUR MORE MEN WHO SAID THEY SAW BRIDGES IN STOCKTON, CALIF., ON THE NIGHT OF JUNE 27, 1936. TWO PROSECUTION WITNESSES HAD TESTIFIED BRIDGES ATTENDED A COMMUNIST MEETING IN NEW YORK THAT NIGHT. IN FACT, THEY SAID HE WAS ELECTED TO THE PARTY'S CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON,JAN.26-(AP)-REP.SMITH (R-WIS) TODAY PROPOSED LEGISLATION TO HAVE CONGRESS BACK EFFORTS TO OUTLAW ATOMIC AND OTHER WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION.
HIS RESOLUTION STATES IT WOULD BE THE "SENSE OF CONGRESS" THAT THE UNITED STATES MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS "MUST IMMEDIATELY TAKE AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO SECURE SUCH AN AGREEMENT AMONG ALL NATIONS OF THE WORLD."
HE TOLD A REPORTER THAT "AS FAR AS I KNOW" CONGRESS HAS NEVER OFFICIALLY BACKED THE MOVE TO OUTLAW THE ATOM BOMB.
HE SAID HIS RESOLUTION, IF APPROVED, WOULD "SPUR OUR DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS TO GREATER EFFORTS." AT THE SAME TIME, HE SAID IT WOULD HAVE LITTLE EFFECT IF RUSSIA INSISTED ON BLOCKING AN EFFECTIVE CONTROL PROGRAM.

WALLACE RECALLED THAT GROVES TESTIFIED HE SHOWED WALLACE AN ATOMIC REPORT IN AUGUST, 1943--BUT DID NOT SHOW HIM LATER REPORTS.

"THE IMPLICATION WAS CLEAR THAT, IN HIS OPINION, I WAS NOT TO BE TRUSTED WITH ATOMIC INFORMATION," WALLACE SAID.

WALLACE SAID IT WAS TRUE THAT GROVES BROUGHT HIM NO OTHER REPORTS. HE ADDED:

"THERE WAS NO REASON WHY HE SHOULD. AS A MATTER OF FACT, THERE WASN'T ANY REASON WHY GENERAL GROVES SHOULD HAVE COME TO ME WITH THIS FIRST REPORT OR, AS I REMEMBER IT, THERE WAS NO QUESTION OF TOP POLICY INVOLVED IN IT. THE TOP POLICY COMMITTEE HAD REALLY FINISHED ITS JOB ON SEPTEMBER 23,1942 WHEN THE MILITARY POLICY COMMITTEE WAS ORGANIZED WITH DR.(VANNEVAR) BUSH AS CHAIRMAN AND GENERAL GROVES AS EXECUTIVE OFFICER. THE ONLY MATTER OF TOP POLICY WHICH CAME TO MY ATTENTION, THEREAFTER, HAD TO DO WITH HOW FAR TO GO WITH THE BRITISH IN SHARING CONSTRUCTION DETAILS."

WALLACE, IN A BLUE SUIT AND WEARING A RED NECKTIE, SHOWED UP EARLY FOR THE HEARING. HE WAITED AMONG THE EARLY-ARRIVING SPECTATORS FOR SOME TIME BEFORE THE COMMITTEE MEMBERS TOOK THEIR PLACES.

ANSWERING QUESTIONS BY COMMITTEE COUNSEL FRANK TAVENNER, WALLACE SAID HIS SIGNIFICANCE IN THE ATOM BOMB PROJECT WAS ENTIRELY IN ITS EARLIEST STAGES, MEANING HE SAT IN ON COUNCILS THAT REACHED THE DECISIONS TO UNDERTAKE THE PROJECT.

"MY SIGNIFICANCE IN THIS AFTER 1942 WAS PRACTICALLY NIL," HE ADDED. BY THEN IT HAD MOVED FROM THE SCIENTIFIC STAGE INTO THE CONSTRUCTION STAGE.

TO THE BEST OF HIS KNOWLEDGE, WALLACE SAID, HE DIDN'T EVEN KNOW THAT MANHATTAN ENGINEERING DISTRICT WAS THE NAME OF THE PROJECT UNTIL BUDGET DIRECTOR HAROLD SMITH TOLD HIM IN 1945.

AND IN DISCUSSIONS HE HAD WITH BUSH LATE IN 1942 AND AFTERWARD, WALLACE SAID, THE SUBJECT OF FURNISHING ATOMIC MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT EITHER TO BRITAIN OR RUSSIA "NEVER CAME UP."

WHILE GENERAL GROVES TESTIFIED THAT HE GAVE WALLACE AN ATOMIC PROJECT REPORT IN AUGUST, 1943, WALLACE SAID HIS RECORDS SHOW IT WAS APRIL 14, 1944, THAT GROVES CAME IN WITH A REPORT WHICH WALLACE READ AND SIGNED. HE SAID HE GAVE IT BACK TO THE GENERAL.

WALLACE SAID TWO THINGS ABOUT THE REPORT SHOW UP IN HIS RECORDS:

1. IT "INDICATED THE WAR WOULD BE OVER IN 18 MONTHS."
2. "GENERAL GROVES SAID HE WAS GOING TO CHASE THE FOREIGNERS OUT OF THE URANIUM BUSINESS."

NEITHER POINT WAS DEVELOPED FURTHER.

WALLACE SAID HE CAN FIND NO RECORD OF ANY CONTACT WITH GROVES AFTER THAT DATE. HE SAID NEITHER GROVES NOR ANYBODY ELSE EVER SAID ANYTHING TO HIM ABOUT URANIUM ITSELF.

AS TO WHETHER HE EVER SAW ANY OTHER ATOMIC REPORTS, WALLACE SAID BUSH MIGHT HAVE BROUGHT SOME IN BUT HE DOESN'T RECALL ANY.

TAVENNER ASKED WHETHER HE EVER REGISTERED ANY DISAGREEMENT WITH THE ATOMIC PROJECT WHILE HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE TOP POLICY COMMITTEE.

"NO, NEVER," WALLACE ANSWERED.

WALLACE SAID HE TALKED YESTERDAY WITH DR. BUSH AND IT WAS "HIS RECOLLECTION AND MINE" THAT GROVES "HAD NO BUSINESS REPORTING TO THE TOP POLICY COMMITTEE UNLESS HE WAS SO DIRECTED BY THE MILITARY COMMITTEE."

THE TOP POLICY COMMITTEE REALLY CEASED TO EXIST AFTER ITS SECOND MEETING IN SEPTEMBER 1942, WALLACE SAID.

IT WAS REP.VELDE (R-ILL) WHO BROUGHT OUT THAT WALLACE KNOWS PREGEL.

WALLACE SAID PREGEL FIRST CAME TO SEE HIM ON DECEMBER 27, 1943--SOME SIX MONTHS AFTER PREGEL'S COMPANY SUPPLIED 1,000 POUNDS OF URANIUM COMPOUNDS THAT WERE SHIPPED TO RUSSIA.

WALLACE SAID THEY DIDN'T DISCUSS URANIUM OR THE ATOM BOMB THEN OR AT ANY TIME.

HE SAID PREGEL ASKED TO BE PUT IN TOUCH WITH SCIENTISTS IN THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT WHICH WALLACE USED TO HEAD. WALLACE SAID PREGEL WAS TURNING UP MATERIALS CONTAINING ALPHA RADIATION, USEFUL IN AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENTS, AS A BY-PRODUCT OF RADIUM PRODUCTION. HE SAID THAT IS WHAT THEY DISCUSSED IN THEIR FIRST MEETING.

WALLACE SAID HE PUT PREGEL IN TOUCH WITH THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT'S DIRECTOR OF SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH. HE SAID HE ALSO ARRANGED TO GET SOME OF THE ALPHA RADIATION MATERIAL AND EXPERIMENTED WITH IT IN HIS GARDEN HERE AND LATER ON HIS NEW YORK FARM.

THEN, WALLACE WENT ON, WHEN PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WANTED HIM TO GO ON A MISSION TO CHINA, BY WAY OF RUSSIA, IN 1944, HE BEGAN STUDYING RUSSIAN AND WANTED TO MAKE SOME SPEECHES IN RUSSIA.

SINCE PREGEL WAS BORN IN RUSSIA AND DRIVEN OUT BY THE BOLSHEVIKS, WALLACE SAID, HE ASKED PREGEL TO TRANSLATE THE SPEECHES INTO RUSSIAN.

"I SAW HIM RATHER FREQUENTLY IN THAT PERIOD," HE CONTINUED. "WE DID NOT DISCUSS THE (ATOM BOMB) PROGRAM AT ANY TIME. MR.PREGEL DID NOT BRING UP AT ANY TIME THE QUESTION OF URANIUM SHIPMENTS."

REP. NIXON (R-CALIF) WANTED TO KNOW WHEN WALLACE FIRST LEARNED OF SUCH SHIPMENTS.

WALLACE SAID IT WAS IN 1946, WHEN HE READ SOMETHING IN THE PRESS. HE SAID HE "WAS INFORMED OF A NEWSPAPER EFFORT IN THE SPRING OF 1946 IN NEW YORK, TO INVOLVE ME IN SOMETHING OF THIS SORT. IT ORIGINATED IN WASHINGTON. IT WAS IN THE NATURE OF A SINISTER PLOT."

HE SAID THIS "SINISTER PLOT DID DEVELOP" IN THE PRESS AND HE LEARNED ENOUGH ABOUT IT TO SPEAK TO SECRETARY OF WAR PATTERSON ABOUT IT.

WALLACE REPEATED TIME AND AGAIN THAT THE ISSUING OF LICENSES BY B.E.W. WAS A MECHANICAL, CLERICAL THING.

WALLACE SAID HE DIDN'T TALK TO PEOPLE IN B.E.W. ABOUT URANIUM BECAUSE HE AND BUSH HAD PLEDGED EACH OTHER TO SECRECY ON THE SUBJECT.

"YOU COULDN'T EXPECT ME," HE SAID, "TO GO AROUND AND SAY TO THE PEOPLE: 'LOOK OUT FOR URANIUM'. THAT WOULD HAVE BEEN TIPPING OUR AND. XXX YOU COULDN'T TRUST IT TO ANYBODY."

HE SAID HE NEVER EVEN LOOKED INTO THE QUESTION OF TAKING STEPS THROUGH B.E.W. TO SEE THAT NO URANIUM FELL INTO WRONG HANDS BECAUSE HE TOOK IT THAT WAS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE MILITARY.

REP. FRANCIS CASE (R-SD) REFERRED TO AN ARTICLE IN THE NEW YORK TIMES IN SEPTEMBER, 1945, THAT SAID WALLACE HAD PROPOSED AT A CABINET MEETING THAT THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND CANADA REVEAL THE SECRET OF THE ATOMIC BOMB TO RUSSIA.

(AT THAT TIME WALLACE WAS SECRETARY OF COMMERCE--A POST FROM WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN FIRED HIM A YEAR LATER.)

"DID YOU MAKE THAT PROPOSAL?" CASE ASKED.

"I DID NOT," WALLACE SAID, "AND I HAVE HERE A VERY COMPLETE RECORD IF YOU WANT TO GO INTO IT."

"I DON'T WANT TO GO INTO IT," CASE REMARKED.

"I AM SURE YOU DON'T WANT TO GO INTO IT," WALLACE SAID A BIT SARCASTICALLY.

AND HE KEPT RIGHT ON GOING INTO IT HIMSELF, REMARKING THAT:

"A LOT OF THIS STUFF THAT HAS BEEN FLOATING AROUND GOES RIGHT BACK TO THIS."

WALLACE SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN, WITHOUT PROMPTING FROM HIM, KNOCKED THE TIMES STORY DOWN IN A "MAGNIFICENT" WAY.

HE SAID HE TOLD MR.TRUMAN THERE HAD BEEN A "LYING LEAK" IN THE CABINET AND THE PRESIDENT AGREED. HE SAID MR.TRUMAN TOLD A LATER MEETING OF WHAT WALLACE CALLED THE TOP CABINET THAT "THE MAN HE THOUGHT HAD DONE THIS LEAKING WOULD NO LONGER SIT IN THE CABINET MEETINGS."

WALLACE SAID HE COULD ONLY GUESS WHO LEAKED AND THAT IT WOULD BE A MISTAKE TO MENTION A NAME. HE SAID DEAN ACHESON (THEN UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE) SPOKE TO HIM ABOUT THE MATTER IN A DEPLORING WAY AND HAD A GUESS THAT WAS DIFFERENT FROM THE PRESIDENT'S AS TO THE SOURCE OF THE "LEAK."

CASE WANTED TO KNOW WHETHER A PROPOSAL TO SHARE THE ATOM BOMB WITH RUSSIA WAS DISCUSSED AT A CABINET MEETING SEPTEMBER 21, 1945.

"IT WAS NOT," WALLACE ANSWERED. "IT DID NOT COME UP."

"YOU DID NOT APPROVE IT?"

"IT DID NOT COME UP."

"HOW DO YOU ACCOUNT FOR THE TIMES STORY?"

"KING SOLOMON SHOULD ADD TO HIS THINGS BEYOND THE WISDOM OF MEN WHY NEWSPAPERS PRINT WHAT THEY DO."

WALLACE HAD WITH HIM A MEMO ON THE CABINET MEETING. SOME COMMITTEE MEMBERS SAID IN FAIRNESS TO HIM IT SHOULD BE READ OR GO INTO THE RECORD. WALLACE SAID HE WOULD PREFER TO CHECK WITH THE WHITE HOUSE BEFORE DOING ANYTHING LIKE THAT.

BUT, REFERRING TO HIS MEMO, WALLACE SAID THAT MR. TRUMAN ASKED HENRY L.STIMSON, THEN SECRETARY OF WAR, TO OPEN THE CABINET MEETING.

STIMSON REPORTED, HE SAID, THAT SCIENTISTS WERE CONVINCED THERE WAS NO WAY TO HOLD THE SECRET OF THE ATOM BOMB, THAT IT WAS CONCEIVABLE SOME NATIONS COULD LEARN THE SECRET IN THREE YEARS AND "CERTAINLY IN FIVE YEARS."

HE SAID STIMSON REPORTED SOME SCIENTISTS WERE AFRAID FUTURE A BOMBS WOULD BE "SO POWERFUL THEY WOULD IGNITE THE ATMOSPHERE AND DESTROY THE WORLD."

WALLACE QUOTED STIMSON AS SAYING THAT RAISED A QUESTION AS TO RUSSIA, THAT STIMSON DEFENDED THE RUSSIANS AND PROPOSED A "SCIENTIFIC EXCHANGE" WITH UNITED NATIONS MEMBERS.

WALLACE SAID HE BACKED STIMSON ON THE EXCHANGE IDEA BUT CAME OUT AGAINST SHARING ACTUAL KNOW HOW AND CONSTRUCTIVE DETAILS OF THE ATOM BOMB.

IF THERE WERE A SCIENTIFIC EXCHANGE, WALLACE SAID, HE ARGUED THAT "OUR MEN SHOULD WORK IN THEIR LABORATORIES AND THEIR MEN IN OURS."

THEN HE WENT ON TO DELIVER A BIT OF A LECTURE:

"THERE AREN'T ANY SECRETS IN THE SCIENTIFIC WORLD. I SUSPECT THE BULK OF THE PEOPLE IN CONGRESS DON'T UNDERSTAND THE NATURE OF SCIENCE.

"BUT THERE ARE SECRETS OF CONSTRUCTION DETAILS.

"I TOLD THE CABINET THAT IF THEY WERE PLACING CONFIDENCE IN SCIENTIFIC SECRECY, THEY WERE PLACING CONFIDENCE IN A MAGINOT LINE, A SORT OF CHINESE WALL. I SAID ITS TIME WE ALL GOT TOGETHER."

"THEN THERE WAS SOME DISCUSSION OF SHARING THE ATOMIC BOMB," CASE BROKE IN.

"NO SIR," WALLACE ANSWERED. "THERE WAS NO DISCUSSION OF SHARING THE BOMB. I SAID THERE WAS NO DISCUSSION OF SHARING KNOWHOW. THAT THERE WERE CONSTRUCTION SECRETS, AND I ADVOCATED KEEPING THEM FROM ANY NATION."

YESTERDAY'S SESSION BROUGHT OUT TESTIMONY THAT BRITAIN, AS WELL AS RUSSIA, GOT SOME ATOMIC MATERIALS FROM THIS COUNTRY.

THIS WAS TESTIFIED TO BY THOMAS D.CRENSHAW OF WATERTOWN,N.Y., WHO WAS WITH THE MANHATTAN PROJECT.

AFTER DESCRIBING AT LENGTH RUSSIA'S EFFORTS, SUCCESSFUL AND UNSUCCESSFUL, TO GET URANIUM MATERIALS, CRENSHAW WAS ASKED BY REP. CASE (R-SD) WHETHER OTHER COUNTRIES ALSO TRIED TO GET THEM.

"THE BRITISH WERE INTERESTED," THE WITNESS REPLIED.

"SHIPMENTS OF URANIUM MATERIAL WERE MADE TO BRITAIN?" CASE ASKED.

"YES," CRENSHAW REPLIED. HE QUICKLY ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT HE ACTUALLY KNEW OF ONLY ONE SHIPMENT--APPROXIMATELY 15 TONS OF URANIUM OXIDE--IN THE SPRING OF 1943.

CRENSHAW AND PREVIOUS WITNESSES HAVE TOLD OF FOUR WARTIME SHIPMENTS OF URANIUM MATERIALS TO RUSSIA, AS WELL AS TWO SHIPMENTS OF HEAVY WATER, USEFUL IN ATOMIC EXPERIMENTATION. THE LARGEST SHIPMENT WAS 1,000 POUNDS OF URANIUM COMPOUNDS, THE SMALLEST 2.2 POUNDS OF URANIUM METAL.

A COMMITTEE INVESTIGATOR, CLARENCE E.OWENS, TOLD THE COMMITTEE ABOUT RUSSIA'S REPEATED ATTEMPTS TO GET EIGHT TONS OF URANIUM NITRATE AND EIGHT TONS OF URANIUM OXIDE. HE SAID THE RUSSIANS WENT ALL THE WAY TO HENRY L.STIMSON, THEN SECRETARY OF WAR, WHO GAVE THEM A FINAL TURN-DOWN.

THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION ANNOUNCED ON OCTOBER 25 THAT IT PLANNED A $300,000,000 EXPANSION OF ITS FACILITIES. A FEW DAYS EARLIER MR.TRUMAN HAD ANNOUNCED HE PLANNED TO ASK CONGRESS THIS YEAR FOR MONEY TO PUSH AN EXPANSION PROGRAM.

OF THE $300,000,000, THE COMMISSION SAID, ABOUT $250,000,000 WOULD BE NEEDED FOR EXPANSION OF ITS OWN FACILITIES AND $50,000,000 FOR PROVIDING ADDITIONAL TVA POWER. WIRE IN XXX PLEASE TWX.

IT ESTIMATED THE EVENTUAL COST AT $185,000,000 FOR THE OAK RIDGE EXPANSION PROGRAM, AND $25,000,000 FOR THE HANFORD,WASH., PLANT.

THE PRESIDENT SAID YESTERDAY HIS NEW REQUEST IS $41,090,000 BELOW ESTIMATES PREPARED FOR THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR'S BUDGET "BECAUSE RECENT TECHNOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS HAVE MADE IT UNNECESSARY TO PROCEED WITH A PREVIOUSLY SCHEDULED CONSTRUCTION PROJECT."

ALSO REQUESTED WAS $800,000,000 FOR THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION. THE PRESIDENT SAID THIS FIGURE IS $89,000,000 HIGHER THAN THE AMOUNT IN HIS BUDGET BECAUSE OF "THE CONTINUED RISE IN THE NUMBER OF VETERANS RECEIVING EDUCATION AND TRAINING BENEFITS" UNDER THE BI BILL.

(150) WASHINGTON,JAN 26-(AP)-THE JOINT CONGRESSIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE IS EXPECTED TO REVIEW THE NATION'S ATOMIC ACHIEVEMENTS IN A MEETING TOMORROW WITH THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION.

IT WILL BE THE FIRST TIME THE COMMISSION MEMBERS HAVE MET WITH THE SENATE-HOUSE COMMITTEE SINCE CONGRESS RECONVENED EARLY THIS MONTH.

THERE WERE NO PUBLIC INDICATIONS THAT THERE WAS ANYTHING URGENT IN THE MEETING.

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE MEETING WAS SENT TO THE PRESS GALLERIES LATE IN THE DAY BUT IT WAS REPORTED THAT THE MEETING HAD BEEN PLANNED FOR SOME TIME, SO THAT THE COMMITTEE COULD HOLD ANOTHER DISCUSSION WITH DAVID LILIENTHAL, AEC CHAIRMAN, BEFORE HE LEAVES OFFICE FEB. 15.

LILIENTHAL SUBMITTED HIS RESIGNATION SOME TIME AGO.

ALTHOUGH NO ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE AS TO THE TOPICS TO BE DISCUSSED IT WAS PROBABLE THAT THE QUESTION OF THE HYDROGEN BOMB--A POSSIBLE MORE DEADLY SUCCESSOR TO THE URANIUM ATOMIC BOMB--WOULD COME UP.

SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES-FBI

BY BARNEY LIVINGSTONE

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,JAN.26-(AP)-THE FBI SAYS THE JOB OF PROTECTING THE COUNTRY FROM SPIES IS GREATER NOW THAN AT THE PEAK OF WORLD WAR II.

ASKING FOR AN ENLARGEMENT OF HIS FORCE, FBI DIRECTOR J.EDGAR HOOVER SAID IN A CONGRESSIONAL HEARING THAT THE END OF THE WAR SERVED ONLY TO BALLOON THE WORK OF HIS AGENTS IN PROTECTING THE NATION'S INTERNAL SECURITY.

HOOVER'S REPORT WAS CONTAINED IN HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE HEARINGS MADE PUBLIC TODAY.

IN THE SAME HEARING, IMMIGRATION INSPECTOR WATSON B.MILLER SAID THERE ARE APPROXIMATELY 3,000,000 ALIENS IN THE UNITED STATES--SOME 3,500 OF THEM DEPORTABLE AND FREE UNDER COURT BOND, BUT WHOM NO OTHER NATION WILL ACCEPT.

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER W.F.KELLY SAID BORDER INSPECTORS FOUND IT ALMOST PHYSICALLY IMPOSSIBLE TO CARRY OUT REQUIRED EXAMINATIONS AT BORDER STATIONS.

AS ONE EXAMPLE OF THE PROBLEM, HE EXPLAINED THERE ARE BETWEEN 8,000 AND 11,000 PERSONS IN CANADA WHO ARE OFFICIALLY LISTED BY THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT AS SUBVERSIVE.

KELLY ESTIMATED THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF ALIENS NOW IN THE UNITED STATES UNLAWFULLY, AND OF WHOM THE IMMIGRATION SERVICE HAS NO KNOWLEDGE.

HOOVER SAID INTERNAL SECURITY PROBLEMS ARE GROWING STEADILY, WITH THE FBI'S WORK LOAD AT A RECORD HIGH, AND DECLARED:

"THE NEED, I THINK, IS PARAMOUNT TO CONTROL THE DANGERS THAT ARE INHERENT IN COMMUNISM AND THE SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES OF FOREIGN-INSPIRED ESPIONAGE GROUPS THAT ARE OPERATING IN THIS COUNTRY.

"THE COMMUNIST PARTY, AS YOU KNOW FROM THE RECENT TRIAL IN NEW YORK AND THE CONVICTION OF THE 11 COMMUNIST LEADERS, HAS AS ITS AIM AND PROGRAM AND OBJECTIVE TO BRING ABOUT THE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

"ALLIED WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY ARE A NUMBER OF INFILTRATED COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS. THERE ARE CERTAIN FOREIGN NATIONALITY GROUPS THAT PARTICIPATE IN THIS OPERATION AND, IN ADDITION, THE ACTIVITIES OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES THAT ARE DESIGNED TO INFILTRATE OUR COUNTRY AND OBTAIN CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION ABOUT SECRET OPERATIONS THAT THEY HAVE NO RIGHT TO HAVE."

JAN 27 1950

HOOVER SAID "ONE OF THE EFFECTIVE MEANS" OF MEETING THE SECURITY MENACE HAS BEEN LIMITED WIRE TAPPING.

ALTHOUGH IT HAS BEEN SUBJECTED TO STRONG CRITICISM, HE DEFENDED WIRE TAPPING AS A MODERN TECHNIQUE NECESSARY IN COMBATING SUBVERSION.

"THE FACTS," HOOVER ADDED, "CONTRADICT THE HYSTERICAL UTTERANCES OF THOSE WHO WOULD HAVE US BELIEVE THAT WIRE TAPPING BY THE FBI IS UNRESTRICTED AND IS UTILIZED ON A WHOLESALE SCALE."

THEN, REPEATING WHAT HE HAS PREVIOUSLY STATED, HOOVER SAID THE FBI HAS LESS THAN 170 TAPS IN EXISTENCE AND ALL OF THEM CONFINED TO INTERNAL SECURITY CASES.

MAJOR CRIME IS ALSO ON THE UPTREND, HOOVER REPORTED. HE SAID THAT IN THE FIRST NINE MONTHS OF 1949 THE NUMBER OF MAJOR CRIMES WAS NEARLY 12 PER CENT LARGER THAN IN THE LAST PREWAR YEAR.

HOOVER ASKED FOR $57,400,000 TO RUN THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION FOR THE FISCAL YEAR STARTING JULY 1. THIS IS AN INCREASE OF $594,859 OVER THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR.

PART OF THE ADDED FUNDS WOULD GO TOWARD ANOTHER 677 EMPLOYES, OF WHICH 324 WOULD BE SPECIAL INVESTIGATING AGENTS.

(240) WASHINGTON,JAN.26-(AP)-LT.GEN.LAURIS NORSTAD, YOUTHFUL CHIEF OF OPERATIONS FOR THE AIR FORCE, MAY BE ASSIGNED TO COMMAND THE STRATEGIC ALASKAN AREA.
AIR FORCE OFFICIAL SAID TODAY CONSIDERATION IS BEING GIVEN TO SENDING NORSTAD TO ALASKA TO SUCCEED LT.GEN.NATHAN TWINING, BUT THAT NO DECISION HAS BEEN MADE.
TWINING, THE SENIOR AIR COMMANDER IN ALASKA, ALSO IS CHIEF OF THE COMBINED ALASKAN COMMAND OF ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE. THE DESIGNATION OF AN OVERALL COMMANDER IS MADE BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, BUT THE CHOICE CUSTOMARILY IS BASED ON THE PRIMARY INTEREST OF A SERVICE IN AN AREA. IN ALASKA, THE MAJOR RESPONSIBILITY BELONGS TO THE AIR FORCE.
THERE ALSO HAVE BEEN RUMORS THAT MAJ.GEN.ROGER M.RAMEY, CHIEF OF THE 8TH AIR FORCE WITH HEADQUARTERS AT CARSWELL BASE, TEX., ALSO MIGHT GO TO ALASKA, POSSIBLY TO BECOME HEAD OF THE ALASKAN AIR COMMAND. THE POST IS NOW HELD BY BRIG.GEN.FRANK A.ARMSTRONG.
AIR FORCE OFFICIALS, HOWEVER, DECLINED TO DISCUSS THIS POSSIBILITY.
BOTH NORSTAD AND RAMEY ARE MEN OF LONG COMBAT AND OPERATIONS EXPERIENCE. IN WORLD WAR II NORSTAD WAS OPERATIONS DIRECTOR FOR THE MEDITERRANEAN ALLIED AIR FORCES, THEN WAS BROUGHT TO WASHINGTON TO BECOME OPERATIONS CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE 20TH AIR FORCE IT WAS SET UP TO BEGIN LONG-RANGE BOMBARDMENT OF JAPAN WITH B-29S. AT 42, HE IS ONE OF THE YOUNGEST THREE-STAR GENERALS IN ANY OF THE ARMED FORCES. HE IS A NATIVE OF MINNEAPOLIS.
RAMEY, LEAN AND LEATHERY NATIVE OF TEXAS, FOUGHT THE AIR WAR IN THE PACIFIC. HE WAS COMMANDER OF A BOMBER SQUADRON IN HAWAII WHEN THE JAPANESE STRUCK PEARL HARBOR, THEN MOVED TO THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC TO DIRECT BOMBING ATTACKS ON ENEMY SHIPPING AND STRAFING OPERATIONS AGAINST JAPANESE FOOTHOLDS IN THE ISLANDS.

NEW YORK, JAN. 26-(AP)-JOHN J.MC CLOY, AMERICAN HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR GERMANY, IS REPORTED TODAY TO BELIEVE THAT THE INCREASING RUSSIAN RESTRICTIONS ON BERLIN TRAFFIC MARK THE BEGINNING OF A CREEPING BLOCKADE.

A SOURCE FAMILIAR WITH MC CLOY'S VIEWS SAID THE HIGH COMMISSIONER BELIEVES THE NEW RESTRICTIONS ARE A FORM OF CONTINUOUS ARM-TWISTING DESIGNED TO TRY TO KEEP THE WESTERN SECTOR FROM BECOMING TOO PROSPEROUS.

IT WAS SAID THAT MC CLOY DID NOT BELIEVE THE RUSSIANS WOULD REIMPOSE THE BERLIN BLOCKADE IN THE SAME FORM AS LAST YEAR BUT THAT THEY WOULD TRY SOME NEW TACTICS ALONG THE SAME LINE.

MC CLOY HAS BEEN IN THE U.S. FOR CONSULTATION WITH THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT.

MC CLOY WAS UNDERSTOOD TO FEEL THAT THE CONCEPT OF A UNIFIED WESTERN EUROPE HAD THE FIRM SUPPORT OF CHANCELLOR ADENAUER AND MOST OF THE PEOPLE IN THE WESTERN ZONES.

HE WAS REPORTED ALSO TO FEEL THAT THE GREAT BODY OF GERMAN OPINION WOULD SUPPORT SOME TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY IN ORDER TO MAKE THE IDEA OF WESTERN EUROPE WORK. HE WAS REPORTED AS FEELING THAT WITHOUT THE STRENGTH OF A COMBINED WESTERN EUROPE IT WOULD BE HARD TO COMBAT THE THREAT FROM THE EAST.

SOVIET PROPAGANDA AIMED AT THE WESTERN ZONES IS REPORTED TO BE INCREASING IN QUALITY AND QUANTITY. THE COMMUNISTS ARE SAID TO BE PLAYING UP RED SUCCESSES IN CHINA AND MAKING A GREAT PLAY ON TRADE WITH THE FAR EAST.

Billion Dollar Delivery Of Weapons Will Start

President Names Acheson to Direct Arms Program With Johnson, Hoffman

JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—President Truman formally approved today the Grand Defense strategy of the Atlantic Allies and cleared the way for a billion dollar flow of American weapons to help rearm Western Europe.

At the same time Secretary of State Acheson and representatives of the eight European nations which will receive the arms signed agreements guaranteeing to use them in strengthening the defenses of the North Atlantic area.

In a third move, Mr. Truman issued an executive order placing Acheson in charge of the arms program with instructions to administer it in consultation with Secretary of Defesne Johnson and Paul C. Hoffman, European recovery chief.

"These developments," Mr. Truman said in a statement, "are the result of close cooperation among free nations which intend to remain free.

"They are, of course, first steps," he added. The successful implementation of the North Atlantic Treaty will require constant and continuing effort and cooperation by all its members. Planning for defense can not be static.

"It must be constantly reviewed and revised in the light of changing circumstances and it must be flexible to allow for maximum coordination of effort at all times."

to remain free," Acheson declared, "and the mutual defense assistance program will contribute to the growth of strength and security in all of these nations."

Ambassador Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne of Norway, dean of the diplomatic corps, spoke for the Europeans.

"Our deepest wish is to live in peace and brotherhood with all nations of this world," he said, "but we can not deviate from our solemn determination that it must be peace with freedom.

"The mutual defense assistance program represents what to us has seemed the surest way to uphold both. It represents our common inflexible will to assure the maximum collective strength of the North Atlantic Treaty countries to safeguard their own as well as international peace and security."

Four of the agreements became effective immediately, according to the State Department. They are those with France, Italy, Denmark and Britain. The Department said that those with the Netherlands, Norway, Belgium and Luxembourg require ratification steps to make them effective.

Neither the President nor any of the other major figures in this day's intense round of diplomatic activities aimed any direct verbal slaps at Russia. But the intent of the rearmanent of Wetern Europe with American aid is to make that area stong enough to discourage any Soviet attack or to resist it if it occurs.

How long this will require is a question which military experts decline to speculate on. The whole effort today, however, lacked that sense of urgency which enveloped the arms proposal when it was first presented to Congress early last year. The program, in fact, is now many months behind the schedule then in prospect.

The authorization for military aid to the Atlantic Allies was given by Congress, along with necessary funds, last fall. Since then there have been long weeks of negotiation over the terms of the aid agreements signed today. Parallel with those the Military and Defense Committees of the 12 Atlantic Treaty nations and finally the Atlantic Council worked out and approved the secret plans for integrated defense on which the President today placed his okay.

Officials said that arms will begin moving from arsenals and warehouses to ports within a week and that the first shiploads will leave for Europe in about a month.

Acheson represented the United States in the 13-minute signing ceremony in which the American Government concluded arms aid agreements with Belgium, Denmark, France, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Norway and the United Kingdom.

British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks, who left for London today, and Dutch Ambassador Eelco Van Kleffans, who had an official luncheon which prevented his being present, had signed for their Governments earlier in the day and were not at the ceremony.

Acheson and the other diplomats gathered around a horseshoe shaped mahogany table in a State Department conference room and quickly disposed of the final formalities.

Acheson told the group that the agreements "represent a major concrete step" in carrying out the principle of self-help and mutual aid subscribed to by members of the North Atlantic Treaty which was signed last year.

"Free nations must be strong fruits of their labor would not be immediately lost in the event of aggression.

It was realized that an adequate security arrangement could be organized only if the free nations of Western Europe joined together and strengthened their individual and collective defense through self-help and mutual aid and if the United States joined in the collective enterprise. In recognition of this fact, the North Atlantic Treaty was signed on April 4, 1949. Further, in recognition of the concept of self-help and mutual aid embodied in Article 3 of the Treaty, I asked the Congress to authorize the furnishing of military assistance to certain of its signatories. At the same time I requested authorization to furnish military assistance to certain other free nations.

In response to my request, the Congress passed the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949 on Oct. 6, 1949. Under its provisions I am authorized to furnish military assistance to certain foreign countries which meet the specific conditions prescribed in the law. In the case of parties to the North Atlantic Treaty, three such conditions are imposed. In the first place, to be eligible for assistance, the country must have requested such assistance prior to the effective date of the law. Secondly, $900,000,000 of the $1,000,000,000 in funds and contract authority made available for North Atlantic area, and the North Atlantic Council unanimously approved these recommendations on Jan. 6, 1950. Subsequently, the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense recommended that I approve them.

I have today approved these recommendations as satisfying the pertinent provisions of the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949.

I have approved them because I am satisfied that they provide for the accomplishment of an integrated defense of the North Atlantic area. They do this by providing for a common defense based on the cooperative use of national military resources and on individual national specialization. They contain agreement that these resources, including United States military assistance, will be used with maximum efficiency and will not be used to develop separate and unrelated defenses.

The North Atlantic Treaty is in itself a deterrent to aggression. I believe that these recommendations which have been agreed to by the governments of the North Atlantic Treaty nations constitute a major achievement under the Treaty. They provide further convincing evidence of the determination of these nations to resist aggression against any of These developments are the result of close cooperation among free nations which intend to remain free. They are, of course, first steps. The successful implementation of the North Atlantic Treaty will require constant and continuing effort and cooperation by all its members. Planning for defense cannot be static. It must be constantly reviewed and revised in the light of changing circumstances and it must be flexible to allow for maximum coordination of effort at all times.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

PROVIDING FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE MUTUAL DEFENSE ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1949

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Section 404 of the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949, approved Oct. 6, 1949 (Public Law 329, Eighty-first Congress), hereinafter referred to as the act, and as President of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

[1]

(a) The Secretary of State is authorized and directed to perform the functions and exercise the powers and authority vested in the President by the act, except by Section 303, Section 405, Subsection (e) of Section 406, Clause 2 of Subsection (b) of

Texts of Truman and Acheson Statements

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—Following are the texts of documents issued today in connection with the signing of arms-aid agreements under the North Atlantic Treaty. The documents are a statement and executive order by President Truman, a statement by Secretary of State Dean Acheson and the arms-aid agreement between the United States and Britain, which is similar in all major respects to the agreements with other Atlantic Treaty powers.

Truman's Statement and Order

During the past two years the free nations of Europe, with the help of the United States, have made great strides toward recovery. An essential element in this program has been the establishment of conditions in Western Europe adequate to give confidence to the people and insure a reasonable prospect that the assistance in the North Atlantic area can only be utilized after I approve recommendations for an integrated defense of the North Atlantic area made by the Council and the Defense Committee established under the North Atlantic Treaty. Finally, as a condition precedent to the furnishing of assistance to any country, the recipient must have entered into an agreement with the United States embodying certain commitments concerning its use.

Prior to the effective date of the law, the Department of State received requests for military assistance from the following North Atlantic Treaty countries: Belgium, Denmark, France, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway and the United Kingdom.

The North Atlantic Defense Committee, at its meeting in Paris on Dec. 1, 1949, agreed unanimously on recommendations made by the Military Committee for the integrated defense of the them and are a definite indication of the genuine spirit of cooperation among the treaty members.

The Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949 also provided that the United States should conclude agreements with the countries which request and are to receive military assistance. Such agreements are being signed today by the Secretary of State and representatives of Belgium, Denmark, France, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway and the United Kingdom. Their texts will be made public and they will be registered with the United Nations.

In view of these significant developments, I have today also made formal provision for the administration of the Mutual Defense Assistance Act by issuing an Executive Order authorizing the Secretary of State to proceed with the program in consultation with the Secretary of Defense and the Administrator for Economic Cooperation.

Section 407, and Subsection (b) of Section 411 thereof.

(b) Within the scope of the authority delegated to him by this order, the Secretary of State shall (1) have responsibility and authority for the direction of the programs authorized by the act, (2) make full and effective use of agencies, departments, establishments and wholly owned corporations of the Government, with the consent of the respective heads thereof, in the conduct of operations under such programs, and coordinate the operations of such programs among them, and (3) advise and consult with the Secretary of Defense and the Administrator for Economic Cooperation in order to assure the coordination of the mutual-defense-assistance activities with the national-defense and economic-recovery programs.

All assistance provided to recipient countries under the authority delegated by this order shall be in conformity with programs approved by the Secretary of State after consultation with the Secretary of Defense and the Administrator for Economic Cooperation. As provided in Section 401 of the act, no equipment or material may be transferred out of military stocks if the Secretary of Defense, after consultation with the Joint Chiefs of Staff, determines that such transfer would be detrimental to the national security of the United States or that such equipment or material is needed by the reserve components of the armed forces to meet their training requirements. The Administrator for Economic Cooperation shall advise the Secretary of State concerning the effect of programs approved by the Secretary of State under the authority delegated to him by this order upon the achievement of the purposes of the Economic Cooperation Act of 1948, as amended, and of the purposes of the United States program of economic assistance in Korea.

[3]

Funds appropriated or otherwise made available for the purposes of carrying out the portions of the act pertinent to the authority delegated by this order may be allocated by the Secretary of State to any agency, department, establishment, or wholly owned corporation of the Government for obligation and expenditure in accordance with programs approved by the Secretary of State under such authority.

Secretary Acheson's Statement

The peoples of the North Atlantic community value peace and freedom above all other things, and they are determined to take whatever measure may be required to preserve them. In the world today, this depends upon their being strong and joining their collective strength in support of the cause of peace and freedom.

The signing of the North Atlantic Treaty was a recognition of this need and a reflection of the will of the free nations of the North Atlantic community to achieve the primary purpose of the United Nations—the maintenance of international peace and security.

The North Atlantic Treaty is predicated upon the principle of self-help and mutual aid. If its purposes are to be attained, each member must do its utmost to strengthen itself and provide its fair share in helping to strengthen the others. The agreements which have been concluded today represent a major concrete step in furtherance of this principle. They are designed to build the collective strength of all the signatories and by doing so, to make certain that their democratic and free institutions may continue to thrive and prosper.

These agreements set into motion the Mutual Defense assistance program, a program jointly developed by the nations which have entered into these agreements. Under this program, military assistance provided by the United States will be utilized to further plans for the integrated defense of the North Atlantic area which have been and will continue to be developed by the North Atlantic Treaty organization.

Free nations must be strong to remain free, and the mutual defense assistance program will contribute to the growth of strength and security in all of these nations.

United States-British Accord

The Governments of the United States of America and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland,

Being parties to the North Atlantic Treaty signed at Washington on April 4, 1949;

Considering their reciprocal pledges under Article 3 of the North Atlantic Treaty separately and jointly with the other parties, by means of continuous and effective self-help and mutual aid, to maintain and develop their individual and collective capacity to resist armed attack;

Desiring to foster international peace and security, within the framework of the Charter of the United Nations through measures which will further the ability of nations dedicated to the purposes and principles of the Charter to participate effectively in arrangements for individual and collective self-defense in support of those purposes and principles;

Reaffirming their determination to give their full cooperation to the efforts to provide the United Nations with armed forces as contemplated by the Charter and to obtain agreement on universal regulation and reduction of armaments under adequate guarantee against violation;

Recognizing that the increased confidence of free peoples in their own ability to resist aggression will advance economic recovery;

Taking into consideration the support that has been brought to these principles by the Government of the United Kingdom in affording military assistance to other parties of the North Atlantic Treaty and by the Government of the United States of America in enacting the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949 which provides for the furnishing of military assistance to nations which have joined with it in collective security arrangements;

Desiring to set forth the conditions which will govern the furnishing of military assistance by one contracting government to the other under this agreement;

Have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1

1. Each contracting government, consistently with the principle that economic recovery is essential to international peace and security and must be given clear priority, and in accordance with its obligations under Article 3 of the North Atlantic Treaty, will make available to the other such equipment, materials, services, or other military assistance as the contracting government furnishing such assistance may authorize, in accordance with detailed arrangements from time to time to be made between them. The Government of the United Kingdom in fulfillment of its obligations under Article 3 of the North Atlantic Treaty will furnish or continue to furnish to other parties to the North Atlantic Treaty such equipment, materials, services or other military assistance as it may authorize. The furnishing of assistance by the Government of the United States of America under this agreement will be under the provisions, and subject to all the terms, conditions and termination provisions of the Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949, acts amendatory and supplementary thereto and appropriation acts thereunder.

2. Such assistance shall be so designed as to promote the integrated defense of the North Atlantic area and to facilitate the development of, or be in accordance with, defense plans under Article 9 of the North Atlantic Treaty approved by each contracting government.

ARTICLE 2

1. Each contracting government undertakes to make effective use of assistance received pursuant to Article 1 of this agreement;

(a) For the purpose of promoting an integrated defense of the North Atlantic area, and for facilitating the development of defense plans under Article 9 of the North Atlantic Treaty; and

(b) In accordance with defense plans formulated by the North Atlantic Treaty organization, recommended by the North Atlantic Treaty Council and Defense Committee, and agreed to by the two contracting governments.

2. Neither contracting government, without the prior consent of the other, will devote assistance furnished to it by the other contracting government to purposes other than those for which it was furnished.

ARTICLE 3

In the common security interest of both contracting governments, each contracting government undertakes not to transfer to any person not an officer or agent of such contracting government, or to any other nation, title to or possession of any equipment, materials, or services, furnished on a grant basis, without the prior consent of the contracting government furnishing such equipment, materials, or services.

ARTICLE 4

The provision of Article 5 of the Economic Cooperation Agreement signed at London on July 6, 1948, shall be regarded as an integral part of this agreement.

ARTICLE 5

1. Each contracting government will take such security measures as may be agreed in each case between the two contracting governments in order to prevent the disclosure or compromise of any classified military articles, services, or information furnished by the other contracting government pursuant to this agreement.

2. Each contracting government will take appropriate measures consistent with security to keep the public informed of activities under this agreement.

ARTICLE 6

1. The two contracting governments will negotiate appropriate arrangements between them respecting responsibility for claims for the use of infringement of inventions covered by patents or patent applications, trademarks, or copyrights, or other similar claims arising from the use of devices, processes, or technological information in connection with equipment, materials, or services furnished pursuant to this agreement, or furnished in the interests of production undertaken by agreement between the two contracting governments in implementation of the pledges of self-help and mutual aid contained in the North Atlantic Treaty.

ARTICLE 7

1. Subject to the provisions of the necessary appropriations, the Government of the United Kingdom will make available to the Government of the United States of America sterling for the use of the latter government for its administrative expenditures within the United Kingdom in connection with assistance furnished by the Government of the United States of America to the Government of the United Kingdom under this agreement.

2. The two contracting governments will initiate forthwith discussions with a view to determining the amount of such sterling and agreeing upon arrangements for the furnishing of such sterling.

ARTICLE 8

1. Except as otherwise agreed, the Government of the United Kingdom will grant exemption from customs duties and other taxes on importation and also from taxes on exportation, in respect of goods owned by the Government of the United States of America and imported by it into the United Kingdom as assistance under this agreement or as assistance under any similar agreement between the United States of America and any other party to the North Atlantic Treaty.

2. Goods imported under this exemption may not be disposed of by way either of sale or gift in the country into which they have been imported, except to a government party to the North Atlantic Treaty or under conditions agreed with the government of the country into which they have been imported.

ARTICLE 9

1. Each contracting government agrees to receive personnel of the other contracting government who will discharge in its territories the responsibilities of the latter government under this agreement and will be accorded facilities to observe the progress of assistance furnished in pursuance of this agreement.

2. Such personnel will in their relations to the government of the country to which they are assigned, operate as part of the embassy under the direction and control of the chief of the diplomatic mission of the government which they are serving.

3. The Government of the United Kingdom will, upon appropriate notification from the Ambassador of the United States of America in the United Kingdom, consider such personnel as part of the Embassy of the United States of America in the United Kingdom for the purpose of enjoying the privileges and immunities accorded to that embassy and its personnel of comparable rank.

ARTICLE 10

The furnishing of any assistance under this agreement shall be consistent with the obligations of the two contracting governments under the Charter of the United Nations and under Article 3 of the North Atlantic Treaty.

ARTICLE 11

1. The two contracting governments will, upon the request of either of them, consult regarding any matter relating to the application of this agreement or to operations or arrangements carried out pursuant to this agreement.

2. The terms of this agreement shall at any time be reviewed at the request of either contracting government. Such review shall take into account, where appropriate, agreements concluded by either contracting government in connection with the carrying out of Article 9 of the North Atlantic Treaty.

3. This agreement may be amended at any time by agreement between the two contracting governments.

ARTICLE 12

1. This agreement shall enter into force on notification to the Government of the United States of America by the Government of the United Kingdom of its acceptance thereof.

2. This agreement will terminate one year after the receipt of notification by either contracting government of the intention of the other to terminate it.

3. The annexes to this agreement form an integral part thereof.

In witness whereof the respective representatives, duly authorized for the purpose, have signed the present agreement.

Done at Washington, in duplicate, this 27th day of January, 1950.

ANNEX A

During the course of negotiations representatives of the two contracting governments have stated their understanding that either contracting government shall be free at any time to suspend or terminate the furnishing of assistance under Article 1 of the Mutual Defense Assistance agreement.

ANNEX B

In the course of discussions of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement under the United States Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949, the following understandings were reached by the representatives of the governments of the United States of America and the United Kingdom:

1. For the purposes of Article 2, fungible materials and minor items of equipment which are, for all practical purposes, fungible shall be treated as such. Accordingly, in the case of such fungible materials or equipment, the requirements of Article 2 will be satisfied if each contracting government devotes to the purposes of this article either the particular items furnished or an equivalent quantity of similar and substitutable items.

2. Similarly, in the case of finished products manufactured by either contracting government with assistance furnished under this agreement, the requirements of Article 2 will be satisfied if the recipient government devotes to the purposes of Article 2 either such finished products or an equivalent quantity of similar and substitutable finished products.

3. Further, in the light of Paragraphs 1 and 2 above, neither contracting government will refuse its consent under Article 3 to the transfer of a major item of indigenous equipment merely because there may have been incorporated into it as an identifiable component part a relatively small and unimportant item of assistance furnished under this agreement by the other contracting government. The two contracting governments will forthwith discuss detailed arrangements for a practical procedure for granting consent in respect of the types of transfer referred to in this paragraph.

4. Each contracting government will nevertheless make all practicable efforts to use items of assistance for the purposes for which they may have been furnished by the other.

ANNEX C

It is understood that for the purpose of furthering the mutual defense of the two countries the obligations undertaken by the Government of the United Kingdom by virtue of Article 4 of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement will continue to apply to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland after the termination of the Economic Cooperation Agreement. The Government of the United Kingdom intends to consult the governments of the territories to which the Economic Cooperation Agreement has been or may be extended under Article 12 of that agreement with a view to securing their consent to the continued extension to those territories of the provisions of Article 5 of the Economic Cooperation Agreement, so long as those provisions remain an integral part of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement.

ANNEX D

During the course of the negotiations of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement, the representatives of the two contracting governments have reached the understanding that the following points will be considered in the negotiations provided for in Article 6:

(a) The inclusion of an undertaking whereby each contracting government would assume the responsibility for all the patent or similar claims of its nationals referred to in Article 6 of the said agreement and for such claims arising in its jurisdiction of nationals of any country not a party to this agreement.

(b) The terms on which inventions would be communicated to contractors with a view to protecting the commercial rights of inventors.

(c) Rights in improvements or other modifications of patented inventions.

(d) Arrangements for the protection of secret processes and secret technological information, as distinct from patented and patentable inventions.

(e) The system for disclosing the users and the extent of the use of the patents, trade secrets and copyrights referred to in Article 6.

ANNEX E

Provision is made in Article 7, Paragraph 1, of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement as follows:

"Subject to the provision of the necessary appropriations, the Government of the United Kingdom will make available to the Government of the United States of America sterling for the use of the latter government for its administrative expenditures within the United Kingdom in connection with assistance furnished by the Government of the United States of America to the Government of the United Kingdom under this agreement."

In the course of discussions on the agreement, representatives of the Government of the United States of America stated that in the event that the Government of the United Kingdom shall in the future furnish grant assistance to the Government of the United States of America, involving the delivery of materials and equipment to the United States, the Government of the United States of America, if so requested by the Government of the United Kingdom, and subject to legislative authorization, shall provide dollars for the use of the Government of the United Kingdom for its administrative expenditures within the United States in connection with the furnishing of such assistance. The representatives of the Government of the United States of America advised the representatives of the Government of the United Kingdom that dollar expenditures in the United States which may be incurred as a result of the training of British personnel in the United States under this agreement can be met out of funds made available under the United States Mutual Defense Assistance Act of 1949.

ANNEX F

In implementation of Paragraph 1 of Article 7 of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement between the Governments of the United States of America and of the United Kingdom, the Government of the United Kingdom will deposit sterling at such times as requested in an account designated by the United States Embassy at London, not to exceed in total £53,500 for its use on behalf of the Government of the United States for administrative expenditures within the United Kingdom in connection with carrying out that agreement for the period ending June 30, 1950.

ANNEX G

Provision is made in Article 8, Paragraph 1, of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement, as follows:

"Except as otherwise agreed, the Government of the United Kingdom will grant exemption from customs duties and other taxes on importation and also from taxes on exportation, in respect of goods owned by the Government of the United States and imported by it into the United Kingdom as assistance under this agreement or as assistance under any similar agreement between the United States of America and any other party to the North Atlantic treaty."

In the course of discussions on the agreement, representatives of the Government of the United States of America stated that in the event that the Government of the United Kingdom shall in the future furnish grant assistance to the Government of the United States of America, involving the delivery of materials and equipment to the United States, the Government of the United States of America, if so requested by the Government of the United Kingdom, and subject to legislative authorization, will, except as otherwise agreed to, grant duty-free treatment and exemption from internal taxation upon importation or exportation to such materials and equipment imported into its territory in connection with this agreement.

ANNEX H

With respect to Article 8, Paragraph 1, of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement, the representatives of the United Kingdom stated that arrangements would be made wherever possible within the framework of existing United Kingdom legislation to exempt items of assistance, imported by the Government of the United Kingdom into the United Kingdom as assistance under the agreement, from customs, duties and other taxes on importation.

ANNEX I

Provision is made in Article 9, Paragraph 1, of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement, as follows:

"Each contracting government agrees to receive personnel of the other contracting government who will discharge in its territories responsibilities of the latter government under this agreement and who will be accorded facilities to observe the progress of the assistance furnished in pursuance of this agreement."

In the course of discussions on the agreement, representatives of the two governments have stated on behalf of their respective governments that the facilities to be so accorded shall be reasonable and not unduly burdensome upon the government according such facilities.

ANNEX J

It is understood that the Government of the United States of America in making the notifications referred to in Article 9, Paragraph E, of the Mutual Defense Assistance Agreement, would bear in mind the desirability of restrictions, so far as practicable, the number of officials for whom full diplomatic privileges would be requested. It is also understood that the detailed application of Article 9, Paragraph 3, would, when necessary, be the subject of intergovernmental discussion.

ANNEX K

Whereas this agreement, having been negotiated and concluded on the basis that the Government of the United States of America will extend to the other party thereto the benefits of any provision in a sumilar agreement concluded by the Government of the United States of America with any other country party to the North Atlantic Treaty, it is understood that the Government of the United States of America will interpose no objection to amending this agreement in order that it may conform, in whole or in part, to any other similar agreement, or agreements amendatory or supplementary thereto, concluded with a party to the North Atlantic Treaty.

British, Dutch Sign Ahead Of Formal Event

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Great Britain and the Netherlands were the first two nations to sign the $1,000,000,000 American arms-aid treaty today.

Several hours in advance of a formal State Department ceremony, British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks signed the historic documents in the embassy and then left for New York.

En route to London for consultations, he was unable to wait for the afternoon ceremony.

Soon afterward, the Netherlands Ambassador, Eelco van Kleffens, penned his name to the treaty in the Dutch chancery. He told a reporter he was signing in advance because "some urgent business has come up and it prevents me from attending the signing ceremony this afternoon."

£53,000 ($148,400) up until next June.

Bosco de Beaumont said France will furnish 185,000,000 francs (about $500,000) to help pay expenses of Americans assigned to run the program in France. These will be limited to about 100, including office workers. American officials said a General has been appointed to head the group, but his name could not yet be dis-

Western European Capitals Hail Arms Pact Agreements

Lion's Share of Billion Dollar American Arms Aid Will Go to France, Key Defense Ally

JAN 28 1950

London, Jan. 27 (AP)—The signing of Atlantic Pact arms agreements in Washington today was hailed in West European capitals as a long step forward toward cooperation under the pact.

The Lion's share of the billion dollar American arms aid will go to France, a key member of the Continental defense setup.

The British Foreign Office said the agreements will "give new impetus to the arrangements being made to increase the individual and collective capacity of member countries to resist any armed attack upon them."

Dr. Hans J. Boon, Secretary-General of the Dutch Foreign Ministry, said the action is "a new step on the road to security and safety in Western Europe."

A French Foreign Ministry spokesman, Querin Goscq de Beaumont announced France will be alloted $330,000,000 worth of equipment in the billion-dollar flow of weapons, but "of course the actual value will be far greater than that."

The figure was generally considered conservative, since well informed sources have estimated the French share at 50 to 60 per cent. Even allowing $100,000,000 for administrative costs, this would give France at least $400,000,000.

Britain's share is expected to be 70 B-20 bombers and about $20,000,000 worth of machine tools and raw materials. Delivery of the bombers, which are expected to be used for training purposes, is to start in about two months.

United States personnel will be attached to the U. S. Embassy in London to advise on technical uses of the material Britain gets.

Britain's only expenditure will be the payment of expenses of U. S. officials who administer the British share. This will total closed.

The agreement allows France to send any arms of her own making to Indochina, where French troops are fighting Communist-led rebels, even if similar arms are received from the United States.

Interior Minister Jules Moch promised that there will be no Communist interference with the unloading of U. S. military aid shipments in French ports. Moch controls French police. The Communists have threatened to block the unloading by strike action. Moch did not disclose his plans, but told the Foreign Press Association in Paris all the equipment will be unloaded on schedule.

Boon announced at a news conference in the Hague that Rear Adm. E. P. Forrestel will head an American military mission expected shortly in the Netherlands. Another Dutch spokesman said that, with the return of Dutch troops from Indonesia, the Netherlands can now devote herself more fully to participation in Western European defense.

In Rome, Joseph Jacobs took up his post as Special Arms Aid Assistant in the U. S. Embassy. A former U. S. Ambassador to Czechoslovakia, Jacobs will serve under Ambassador James C. Dunn.

JAN 28 1950

Paris Assures U.S. On Saar

Paris, Jan 27 (AP)—France reassured the United States today that any agreement made with the Saar will be subject to a final German peace treaty.

The Foreign Office made this assurance in response to reported United States fears that France's proposals for leasing the Saar's rich coal mines might cause a political crisis in Europe. The Germans oppose the move.

Communist Stirs Tumult

Paris, Jan. 27 (AP)—A speech by a Communist woman deputy stirred the French National Assembly to a fighting pitch tonight.

Deputies broke benches, crowding around the speaker's stand, two Cabinet ministers walked out and Edouard Herriott, Assembly president, sounded the siren used to restore order. Occupants of the public and press galleries were told to leave.

The wrangling lasted 15 minutes. No one was injured.

Mme. Jeanette Vermeersch, wife of Maurice Thorez, Communist party general secretary, set off the fireworks when she attacked French policy in Indo-China. She used phrases that made Herriot interrupt her to say:

"Madame, I would never have believed that a woman was capable of so much hate."

Before tumult broke out Madame Vermeersch's speech was frequently interrupted by applause from the Communist benches, cat-calls from the other deputies and pointed observation by President Herriot.

Israel Stand (N) On Mediation

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 27 (AP). Israel said today it will oppose any attempt by the United Nations Conciliation Commission to mediate a permanent peace settlement between Israel and her four Arab neighbors.

Gideon Raphael, head of the Israeli delegation, said any mediation attempts by the commission would be "very unfortunate."

"The commission is not in a position to deliver the goods," Raphael declared. "Any proposals made by a third party at this state would only increase the confusion and create even greater illusions, thus delaying the process of achieving peace."

"What we need now," Raphael added, "is a test of the Arabs' sincerity in their desire for peace."

Such a test, he said, would be direct negotiations with the Israeli delegation.

The Arab states involved are Egypt, Lebanon, Hashemite Jordan and Syria.

The commission has been trying to bring about direct contact between the Israelis and Arabs since the beginning of its peace efforts at Lausanne last April.

The Arab delegations have never agreed to direct negotiations, except for a small technical committee discussing the freeing of frozen Arab bank accounts in Israel.

Commission officials expressed surprise at Raphael's rejection of any possible mediation efforts by the commission during its current session, but they made no formal statement.

U.N. Agrees On Somaliland

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 27 (AP). The United Nations Trusteeship Council tonight approved an agreement handing back to Italy the former Italian colony of Somaliland for ten years of supervision. After that Somaliland will be independent.

The agreement is studded with provisions designed to safeguard and smooth the path of the African territory to statehood.

The vote on the agreement was unanimous, but the Soviet Union boycotted the meeting and took no part in the debate or voting. Russia gave no explanation for her action, but it is assumed the boycott is part of the campaign to oust the representatives of Nationalist China from the United Nations. Shih Shun-liu, Chinese Nationalist delegate, took a prominent part in the debate.

To Go To Rome Parliament

Italy lost Somaliland as a result of her defeat in World War II. She first occupied part of the Somali coast in 1891, although she had obtained commercial advantages there earlier in the Nineteenth Century.

Members of the Italian delegation here said the agreement with the United Nations will be placed before the Italian Parliament Monday.

Giuseppe Brusasca, head of the Italian delegation, told the council after it had approved the agreement that the "international comprehension and good will shown here are particularly satisfactory to Italy, which is undertaking a task of humanity and peace."

"Italy," he said, "intends to carry out her international duties scrupulously in order to bring into being a Somaliland which will work with her neighbors for good order and justice. We shall be the executors of the will of the United Nations."

GRIP OVER ALL BERLIN HELD RUSSIAN GOAL

Truck Delays Believed Intended To Soften West's Sectors

T.A. REEDY

Berlin, Jan. 27 (AP)—Western officials declared today the Russian squeeze on east-west truck traffic this week is part of a desperate move aimed to soften west Berlin for communism.

Americans in this divided city are talking about the possibility of economic reprisals if the tinkering with the traffic continues. East and west Germany have a trade agreement which could be suspended, it was pointed out.

JAN 28 1950

Railway Needs Business

Informed quarters in the American and British occupation forces said the Soviet restrictions are part of a manysided plan which has three objectives:

1. Shake the confidence of west German business in west Berlin.

2. Make it difficult for west Berlin to get the full benefit from European recovery funds now voted, so the man-on-the-street will be more susceptible to communism.

3. Divert truck cargoes to the Soviet-controlled railway system, which needs the business.

These views came out of a series of conferences being held by the Western authorities since the Russians cut the flow of trucking between Berlin and the west by more than three fourths.

Percentage Of Bankruptcy

Despite two protests from the West, the Russians continued today to stack up traffic at the Helmstedt frontier by fussing with every vehicle. From midnight until nightfall the Soviets permitted only 75 trucks to cross to the west. Of this number, 27 were loaded. Forty-eight were empty, and in normal circumstances, would have been passed in an hour.

The railway system has not been bothered.

C. A. Dix, United States transport chief, said the Soviets and their East German Government apparently are trying to encourage shippers to use the rails. In the last month, the rail system listed 1,000 loaded freight cars from Berlin to West Germany and 8,600 empty cars. Railroad men say this percentage is the percentage of bankruptcy.

Not Covered By Insurance

If the truck business is diverted to the rails, Dix said, almost half the empty cars would be utilized and return a revenue.

West German business already recognizes the truck trip through the Soviet zone as a risk and the Russians are trying to enhance that idea, other American authorities said. Loss of a truckload in the Russian zone is not covered in Western insurance policies. A special policy, costing one per cent of the value of the cargo, is required against confiscation by the Soviets.

The Allied officials expressed frank concern that continued Russian restrictions would jar the West's faith in doing business with western Berlin, already staggering under a load of 300,000 unemployed.

McCloy In U.S. For Talks

Some political quarters think the Soviets and the German Communists plan a drive for political control of west Berlin this year. They say the Russians are trying to undermine the city before European Recovery Program funds restore production.

Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, American commandant, said he is concerned that the "pecking at truck traffic will shake the confidence of buyers abroad in the desirability of doing business with west Berlin."

Any decisions on Western reprisals would have to be made by John J. McCloy, United States High Commissioner, and his British and French counterparts. McCloy is in the United States for consultations on general problems this week.

West Reprisals On 'Blockade' Predicted (N)

Berlin, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Western powers once again may slap on a counterblockade against eastern Germany if the Russian strangling of Berlin highway traffic continues, American officials said today. D. DE LUCE

Some sort of economic reprisal will be threatened, these officials predicted. Strong efforts to break the "creeping blockade" of this Soviet-encircled city are expected to be considered at the high commission level.

Initial moves would await the return of the United States High Commissioner, John J. McCloy, from a brief official visit to the United States. In Boston last night McCloy said if the Russians impose a complete blockade the Berlin airlift once again will roar into action.

Officials Gloomy

Officials were gloomy about the prospects of an early end to the Soviet hamstringing tactics against truck traffic. American sources said Western protests probably would be brushed off by the Soviet Berlin commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov.

"It looks as if the only way to tackle the issue effectively will be on the highest occupation level (the commissioners) in Germany," an informant said.

During the big Soviet blockade of Berlin, broken by the airlift last May, the Western powers had imposed an economic blockade on shipments to eastern Germany, now ruled by a Soviet-backed Communist Government.

Taylor Unworried

Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, American commandant of Berlin, said:

"I am not worried by an outright blockade which Soviet authorities might apply. We can cope with that. But I am concerned that this pecking at truck traffic will shake the confidence of buyers abroad in the desirability of doing business with West Berlin.

"This harassment could seriously harm the recovery of West Berlin trade unless promptly checked."

The United States Air Force repeatedly has asserted its readiness to create another airlift if a full-scale blockade is imposed again.

Two formal protests by the Allied commandants within a week have failed to protect the city's truck commerce from drastic restrictions by Russian frontier guards.

400-Truck Jam

A jam of 400 trucks at Helmstedt—main Soviet checkpoint on the East-West Autobahn—today was the worst since last Sunday.

Some cargoes were stalled as much as 40 hours by the Russian slowdown, enforced equally against trucks attempting to enter or to leave the East zone.

West Berlin's basic supplies—food and fuel—were reported ample despite strangulation of the city's road communications.

New Italian Cabinet Approved

JAN 28 1950

Rome, Jan. 27 (AP)—Italy's new Cabinet, an anti-Communist coalition formed by Premier Alcide de Gasperi, was approved today by President Luigi Einaudi.

After an hour-long talk with the President, de Gasperi said he had presented the list of new ministers—his sixth coalition since 1945—although there had been some difficulties which might call for minor changes later.

He told the President he will later submit the nominations of some ministers without portfolio.

The new Cabinet will be received at noon tomorrow to be sworn in by the President. The first meeting of the body is scheduled for tomorrow evening.

De Gasperi himself took the oath of Premier tonight before Einaudi at the Quirinal Palace. He said he will outline his new Government's program before the Chamber of Deputies Tuesday.

Sforza And Scelba Remain

The Cabinet includes thirteen members of de Gasperi's own Christian Democrat party, three members of the Labor Socialists and two Republicans.

Count Carlo Sforza, 77, retains his post as Foreign Minister, in spite of leftist opposition, and Mario Scelba, who is an arch enemy of the Communists, will remain as Minister of the Interior, in control of police.

De Gasperi failed to persuade Giuseppe Saragat, leader of the Labor Socialists, to accept a Government post. Saragat told the Premier he wanted to give his full time to the direction of his party.

Saragat Resignation

Reorganization of the Government became necessary when Saragat and two other Labor Socialist ministers resigned from the previous Cabinet last October because of a party rift.

De Gasperi allowed them three months to patch up their differences, but during this time a wing of the Labor Socialist party opposed to the Atlantic treaty broke away and formed a new Socialist party. Followers of Saragat earlier this month reaffirmed their support of de Gasperi's pro-American policies.

Rejected Land-Revision Bill

After de Gasperi and his former Cabinet resigned on January 12, dissension broke out in the small Liberal (conservative) party which held two posts in that Cabinet. Unable to compromise with the Premier on de Gasperi's projected electoral law and the land-revision bill, the two ministers stayed out of the new Government.

Communists demanded that Scelba be replaced as Interior Minister following a clash between police and strikers in which six of the workers were killed. The incident, which occurred in the Po Valley town of Modena just before the old Cabinet resigned, had no connection with the shift in the Government.

Gasperi Forms New Cabinet; Reds Ignored (D)

Rome, Jan. 27 (AP)—Italy today had her sixth coalition Government since 1945. The Cabinet, excluding the Communists and pro-Communists, was accepted by President Luigi Einaudi.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi, leader of the dominant Christian Democrat party, presented the Cabinet list to the President despite some last-minute difficulties which might call for minor revisions later. ALBERT D. WEST

The 68-year-old Premier, who also headed the last five governments, won the signature of the President on a Cabinet list in which the Christian Democrats hold thirteen portfolios; the anti-Communist Right-wing Socialists, three, and the Republicans, two.

Members Listed

The official list:

Premier and Interim Minister for Africa—De Gasperi.

Foreign Affairs—Count Carlo Sforza, Republican.

Interior—Mario Scelba, Christian Democrat.

Justice—Attilio Piccioni, Christian Democrat.

Finance—Ezio Vanoni, Christian Democrat.

Treasury and Interim for the Budget—Giuseppe Pella, Christian Democrat.

Defense—Randolfo Pacciardi, Republican.

Education — Guido Gonella, Christian Democrat.

Public Works—Salvatore Aldisio, Christian Democrat.

Agriculture and Forests—Antonio Segni, Christian Democrat.

Transports—Ludovico d'Aragona, Right-wing Socialist.

Posts and Telegraphs—Giuseppe Spataro, Christian Democrat.

Industry and Commerce—Giuseppe Togni, Christian Democrat.

Labor and Social Welfare—Achille Marazza, Christian Democrat.

Foreign Commerce—Ivan Matteo Lombardo, Right-wing Socialist.

Merchant Marine—Alberto Simonini, Right-wing Socialist.

Health—Mario Cotelesia, Christian Democrat.

Adenauer's Press Chief Resigns Over Denials (D)

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 27 (AP)—The West German press chief resigned today in disgust over a flood of official retractions by politicians of their own published statements.

Paul Bourdin, press chief for Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, a professional journalist, commented: "I am happy to be a free newspaper man again." He left a Berlin newspaper last fall to be Adenauer's aide. G. BOULTWOOD

The high point in what reporters were calling 'the daily denials" came this week when Adenauer apologized to the French for a nationalist-tinged speech of his Minister of Justice, Thomas Dehler. Adenauer had told the French that Dehler's words had been distorted by the press. The press retorted that this would not be taken seriously in the light of the many denials issued by the Bonn Government.

Gas-Ration Denial

Another embarrassing moment for Bourdin came with the Government withdrawal of its statement on the end of gasoline rationing—obviously prompted by Western Allied objections. The Government had announced derationing as of February 1. It was a press release. The official who ordered the release a few hours later flatly denied he had done so.

American correspondents have run into similar denials. A short time ago Adenauer himself said he was misunderstood when he talked about German rearmament to a correspondent of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. He also retracted some remarks attributed to him by the Baltimore Sun, concerning foreign investments in the Ruhr.

5 Albanians To Die For Fire In Sawmill

Belgrade, Jan. 27 (AP)—The newspaper Politika reported today that a special Albanian court had sentenced five persons to death and two others to long prison terms in connection with a fire that destroyed one of the country's biggest sawmills.

Politika said the real cause of the fire was old machinery, failure of officials to order repairs and demands that workers produce beyond the plant's capacity.

Cominform Plan To Oust Tito By 'Armored Fight' Reported

(N) A.H. SINGLETON

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 27 (AP). A defendant at Yugoslavia's latest spy trial told a court in Skoplje today he had seen a map outlining the Russian-led Cominform's plan for beginning an "armored fight" this spring to overthrow Premier Marshal Tito's Government.

The defendant is Blagoj Spasevski, former commander in the Yugoslav Army and one of eight persons on trial in the capital of Yugoslav Macedonia on charges of having engaged in espionage and sabotage work for neighboring Bulgaria. Spasevski and two others earlier today confessed their guilt.

The court pressed for more details in the prosecution's charges the eight were the core of a group who had left the country and were sent back to organize activities against Tito.

Three Mountains Named

Spasevski said he had been ordered to organize military units for action against Yugoslavia's Communist party. Earlier he had acknowledged that he had supplied the Bulgarian Intelligence Service with Yugoslav military information after he had deserted from the Yugoslav Army and fled to Sofia.

He testified that he was told the "armored fight" would begin in the spring and added:

"On a map they showed where the struggle was to take place."

In this connection he named three mountains in Macedonia, the most southern republic in Yugoslavia, where he said the Cominform had been attempting to create dissension ever since its break with Tito in June, 1948.

A False Security Card

If Spasevski's testimony is true, it would seem to indicate that the Cominform might be planning guerrilla-type warfare from the hills rather than any outright invasion in efforts to unseat Tito. These efforts have failed thus far, despite serious economic pressure.

Spasevski said he had been escorted back into Yugoslav territory by a member of Bulgaria's security police, handed a false identity card and civilian clothes.

While in Sofia, he said he had met Pasde Ljorovski, a former army lieutenant and also a deserter from the Yugoslav army. Ljorovski's story followed much the same pattern as Spasevski's.

Attempt On Life Of Nizam Fails

Bombay, India, Jan. 27 (AP)—A Hyderabad Government communiqué said today that an attempt was made upon the life of the Nizam yesterday, but that he was unhurt. It attached little political importance to the incident.

The communiqué said a hand grenade was thrown at the former ruler's car as it was on its way to Government palace for a ceremony marking India's independence. The grenade did not explode and the Nizam, one of the world's wealthiest men, was unaware of the attack until told of it by police.

The communiqué said the grenade was thrown by a man named B. G. Keskar, who was captured. The All-India Hindu Mahasabha party, an extreme Nationalist group, passed a resolution here today disowning any connection with the attempt. The Mahasabha, which had been involved in the investigation of Mohandas K. Gandhi's assassination, said the arrested man was not one of its members.

REDS BLAST AT THAILAND

STANLEY RICH

Propaganda Campaign Started By Chinese Communists

Hong Kong, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Chinese Communists have started a propaganda campaign against Thailand (Siam).

The latest attack heard in Hong Kong this week was a Peiping radio accusation that Premier Luang Pibul Songgram had conducted a "savage imposition" against Chinese residents of Thailand since before the Japanese war.

A few days earlier the Peiping radio carried a "news story" that Chinese in that country were being imprisoned and beaten to death on a wholesale scale.

Thailand previously had rated very low on the Reds' priority list of targets. Why this sudden blast?

Another Possibility

One answer is that the Thailand capital, Bangkok, is the chosen site of a conference of the top Far Eastern diplomats of the United States starting February 13.

The Americans are expected from that exchange of views to build a framework for a more positive policy in Asia. The Reds cannot prevent the meeting, but they evidently believe they can lessen its effects by painting Thailand as a hotbed of American "imperialism."

Another but less obvious possibility is that Thailand fits into a Red design for ultimate Communist control of all southeast Asia. They could be planning to copy the Japanese, who used Thailand as a junior partner in gaining control of all that part of the world eight years ago.

As Guests, Not Conquerors

When Japanese troops went into Thailand it was as guests, not conquerors. Pibul Songgram, who was Premier than as he is now, made overtures to the Japanese and obediently declared war on the United States.

The Thailand Government, however, would not move against American agents, and by the end of the Japanese war possibly 90 per cent of its army and the entire air force were in some measure connected with the United States underground.

After a brief period, Pibul Songgram re-emerged after the war in a coup that made him premier again.

A Big Stake For Reds

The Chinese Reds, noting Pibul Songgram's personal history of opportunism, may feel that this is a good time to start a war of nerves. The idea would be to try to persuade him hat they are the next winners in southeast Asia and he would be wise to play ball.

The stake is a big one for the Reds, as Thailand is now the biggest rice-producer in the Far East and is the only land link to Malaya.

At the same time, the Reds are not forgetting Indo-china, against which they have conducted a more virulent propaganda campaign.

Two More Vessels To Sail For Shanghai

Hong Kong, Jan. 27 (AP)—The local agent for the Isbrandtsen Line, of New York, said today two of the company's freighters, the Flying Independent and the Flying Clipper, would sail for Shanghai with cargo for the Communist-held port next month.

Chinese Nationalists blockading Shanghai recently riddled the company's freighter, Flying Arrow, with naval shells when it tried to break through the blockade.

Bag Of Rice Costs 302,000 Red Dollars

Hong Kong, Jan. 27 (AP)—Travelers reaching Hong Kong say the price of rice in Red Shanghai has almost doubled in the last week, soaring to 302,000 Communist dollars for a 165-pound bag.

At the same time, these travelers said, foreign-exchange quotations increased only about ten per cent with the United States dollar being quoted at about 25,000 to $1.

The travelers said they saw increasing signs of food shortages in various sections in traveling from Shanghai here. There have been numerous reports China faces one of the gravest famines in its history because of floods and drought which ruined last year's crops.

The attack was the first incident of its kind since Britain recognized the Communist Government of China.

A strong British protest is expected to be filed in Peiping.

Last year Communist shore batteries fired on several British warships on the Yangtze River, killing more than two score sailors.

Meanwhile, Chinese Nationalists here reported widespread air and naval blows at the Communists along the China coast.

The big southern city of Canton was one of the air targets. Heavy damage to Communist installations there were reported. One report said a 200-ton ship was sunk at Canton.

Invasion Base Hit

Scores of Red junks were sunk by naval units operating along the coast opposite Formosa. Combined air and sea forces struck Chapu, a staging base for a Red invasion of the blockade islands of Chusan. Chapu is 45 miles southwest of Shanghai and was an important invasion point for the Japanese in 1937. Chusan is 100 miles southeast of Shanghai.

Nationalist sources here insisted that Chinese Reds had crossed the border into French Indo-China. They said the Reds were supplying anti-French forces there with arms. They added guerrillas control the border and the French may not be aware of the Red invasion. The French denied previous reports to that effect.

would comment officially on Oya's reports of United States craft being used, but it was learned unofficially planes had been sent out to reconnoiter the area.

Earlier, in Seoul, President Syngman Rhee said his Ambassador to Tokyo had telephoned excitedly to say that American authorities were threatening to use warships against Korean navy vessels patrolling Korea's fishing waters, which border Japanese fishing waters near Cheju Island.

President Rhee expressed confidence that General MacArthur would not permit any such action.

State May Put Problems Up To Jakarta Regime

K. LIKES

Jakarta, Java, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Cabinet of West Java resigned today and a parliamentary move developed to place the state's problems in the hands of the Federal Government.

The Federal Government of the United States of Indonesia already has taken over supreme authority in East Java which, like West Java, was carved from Indonesian Republican territory by the Dutch before they granted the East Indies independence a month ago. Republicans seek the return of both states.

West Java's premier, Anwar Tojokroaminoto, was arrested Wednesday on suspicion of trying to overthrow the Federal Government. His Cabinet resigned with the statement that it no longer feels it represents the people.

Westerling Problem

The State Parliament accepted the resignation, 32 to 20, and decided to discuss tomorrow a motion to give up authority and hand over state affairs to Premier Mohamed Hatta's regime in Jakarta.

Guerrilla warfare directed by a former Dutch commando captain, R. P. P. Westerling, and the Darul Islam movement of Moslem extremists are ranking problems of the area. Barul Islam has proclaimed an independent state. Westerling seeks strengthening of the West Java Government and recognition of his own privately financed army as the official force for maintaining order in the state.

Many Still At Large

The military governor of Jakarta said today a band of Indonesian deserters from Dutch military service which engaged in a gun battle with Federal troops here yesterday was part of a group of 100 of Westerling's men, most of whom are still at large in the city. Two were killed and a handful captured. There were reports, lacking official confirmation, that Westerling himself slipped through a military dragnet and holed up Thursday in a secret hideout within Jakarta.

The Netherlands Indies military command again emphasized it was powerless to handle the case of Westerling, who left Dutch service in 1948. It said in a communiqué that, "because Westerling is a civilian, the Dutch Army command has nothing to do with him."

a neutral role between the American and Russian camps. But they privately believe the more the United States worries about Communist influence in the Indies, the more aid Indonesia will get from America.

Many Indonesians feel the American State Department is interested in their nation chiefly as a buffer against communism. Some officials were worried that the guerrilla outbreaks, led this week by a former Dutch army captain, R. P. P. (Turk) Westerling, might cause American officials to be wary of granting the financial aid which Minister of Economic Affairs Djuanda now is seeking in Washington.

These quarters frankly say the Russian recognition came at the right moment.

Gun Battle In Jakarta

U.S.I. officials, meanwhile, wrestled with the latest outbreak by Westerling's guerrillas—a gun battle between troops and rebels in downtown Jakarta yesterday. Seven persons were killed, a number wounded and eight guerrillas were captured.

The shooting stemmed from a raid on a rebel "nest" in the heart of the city, a Government communiqué said.

Jakarta's military governor said the guerrillas were the vanguard of a force of 2,000 en route to Jakarta to raid the Indonesian capital.

However, U.S.I. troops intercepted the larger force in the Bandoeng area, 100 miles southeast, and stalled the operation, he said.

The Governor said the rebels were part of a group of about 100 guerrillas, most of whom, he said, still were at large in the city.

The prisoners, the Governor added, all were deserters from the Indonesian Corps of the Dutch Army. They said they had been incited to action by the Dutch and gave the name of a "certain Dutch major who escaped yesterday from his hideout," the Governor said.

Political Upset

A political upset was under way in Bandoeng, the capital of the West Java state which the Westerling forces raided Monday.

The U.S.I. Government already has arrested State's Premier Anwar Tojokroaminoto, on suspicion of being involved in the attack on Bandoeng.

The West Java Cabinet resigned today, saying the West Java Parliament will debate tomorrow a proposal to ask the Federal Government to supplant the State's Parliament and head of state, as was done when a Dutch-sponsored Government collapsed in East Java.

All-Destroying Bomb Held Unlikely

JAN 28 1950

New York, Jan. 27 (AP)—The bomb that might destroy the world, about which Henry Wallace testified yesterday, was one of the earliest threats scientists considered. H. W. BLAKESLEE

They concluded that even though the makings are present, no such bomb is possible.

Wallace testified yesterday before the House Committee on Un-American Activities that former Secretary of War Stimson brought this bomb up in discussion at a Cabinet meeting.

He stated that the Secretary said some scientists had predicted future bombs would be much more destructive than those then being made. Also that some scientists feared one might ignite the atmosphere and destroy the world.

Chain Reaction

This world-wide explosion would come from a chain reaction in which one part of the air, heated to millions of degrees at the point of an A-bomb explosion, would spread its heat until all the air was white hot and flaming. On the sun the gases of the solar atmosphere are so hot that they shoot flames in explosions 50,000 miles high.

Scientists also considered whether an underwater bomb would separate the hydrogen and oxygen atoms forming water, into oxygen

China Reds Fire On British Vessel (D)

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 27 (AP)—Officers of the British freighter Wingsang reported today Communist shore batteries fired on the vessel from the mainland Wednesday afternoon.

The ship was attacked at a point about 60 miles northeast of Red-held Amoy as it was heading for Keelung, the port of Chinese Nationalist Taipei, from Hong Kong.

Ship's officers said about twelve big shells splashed close to the Wingsang but caused no damage or casualties.

The Wingsang plies regularly between Hong Kong and Formosa.

U.S. Guards Japan Boats Against Korea: Report

JAN 28 1950

Tokyo, Jan. 27 (AP)—Shinzo Oya, Japanese Transportation Minister, told the Cabinet today that American navy craft and aircraft were patrolling the waters near Cheju Island where a number of Japanese fishing craft have been seized recently by Koreans.

Oya reported that four more fishing boats had been captured during the past few days. Five were reported seized last week. The Japanese maritime safety board has reported 34 ships captured by the Koreans since February of 1946.

Russ[illegible] Approval Held Blow At Reds (D)

K. LIKES

Jakarta, U.S.I., Jan. 27 (AP)—Harassed by guerrilla rebellion, officials of the United States of Indonesia took heart and pleasure today from Russia's surprise recognition of their fledgling regime.

They viewed the Russian action as unexpected ammunition against Indonesian communism.

They also saw it as an unexpected, but welcome, lever to use in seeking maximum financial aid from the United States.

Russia's sudden acceptance of Premier Mohamed Hatta's Government cut the ground away from the propaganda of the Indonesian Communists. They had been echoing the earlier Moscow line that Hatta and his ministers were a puppet group, obligated to and dependent on the United States of America, because of the strong role the Americans played in independence negotiations.

Government leaders hope to follow India's lead and try to play and hydrogen. This explosive mixture might blow up the seas with a chain reaction.

For the air to explode it was calculated that the millions of degrees spark furnished by the A-bomb was not enough. Also needed would be long continued million-degree heat and long continued pressures of millions of pounds.

Fire Goes Out

The underwater bomb was frightening because it really turns the water near by into hydrogen and oxygen. To do that takes a temperature of only about 20,000 degrees Fahrenheit. The possibility of a chain reaction is completely wiped out by the fact that when this A-bomb-created hydrogen and oxygen explode, their burning temperature is nowhere near 20,000 degrees. The fire simply goes out.

Despite these calculations which preceded making of nuclear bombs, a few young scientists worried. In New Mexico, in the semi-darkness in which the first bomb was exploded, the flash was more brilliant than the noonday sun. It illuminated the morning haze and mist and surrounding mountain tops until they appeared to be on fire. One young scientist, whose back was to the explosion, saw this apparent firing of air and earth, and exclaimed:

"Oh. Oh. This is it."

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House Armed Services Committee told a reporter tonight that he is "in favor of building the H-bomb."

"If any other country can build it, then we ought to build it," Vinson said.

"If the Russians can do it, we should, too."

There were strong indications that the matter may have come up for discussion earlier today at a closely guarded meeting of atomic authorities on Capitol Hill.

The meeting was a joint one of the Atomic Energy Commission and the Senate-House Atomic Committee. At its conclusion, Senator McMahon (D-Conn), chairman of the Congressional unit, told reporters "we have examined current matters of interest."

He added, perhaps significantly: "We have been discussing plans for advances and the technological improvement of atomic weapons and I anticipate your questions by saying this includes all types of atomic weapons."

When a reporter asked McMahon whether it would be safe to say the committee was informed on the hydrogen bomb, the chairman replied that he could not go beyond that Lilienthal's successor has not been chosen.

Lilienthal declined to discuss whether the United States will try to make a hydrogen bomb, or whether there is any truth in a recent report that the Russians have put out feelers looking toward a new atomic discussion.

He likewise disowned all published or broadcast stories purporting to describe his attitude toward the proposed H-bomb. Some of those have pictured him as opposing any work on the H-bomb before an effort is made to agree with Russia on international atomic controls.

Lilienthal said he was sticking by the rules, which he said include "no discussion except with authorized individuals."

"This," he added, "does not include any newspaperman or any radio commentator. I would like to make it plain that the views ascribed from me were not obtained from me."

The Senate-House Atomic Committee met for the first time today without Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) as a member. Curtailing his work because of precarious health, Vandenberg resigned yesterday. Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) was named to the vacancy.

take the lead in calling an international conference "to work out an agreement for the control of atomic power."

Graham made several references to the much-discussed H-bomb. Human society today, he said, has "a uranium bomb in its bosom and a hydrogen bomb in its womb."

Alluding to the East-West Cold War, Graham declared:

"If the making of the hydrogen bomb should become the issue of the struggle without international agreement as to its control, then the society of free men might become part of the ruins of a civilization which wrought its own self-destruction.

Urey, now with the University of Chicago Institute for Nuclear Studies, coupled his H-bomb recommendation with a plea for an immediate federal union of democratic countries to give the West overwhelming strength in its relations with Russia.

The Waldorf-Astoria dinner at which he spoke was sponsored by Americans for Democratic Action. A number of prominent persons endanger ourselves and the people of Russia, but the explosion of a few of these bombs will win us the world.

"Therefore we will build these bombs and issue ultimata to the Western countries, and the millenium of Communism will be with us immediately. After this the Universal Government of the USSR will abolish all stocks of bombs and no more will ever be made in the world."

Urey said this "is a very good argument."

"In fact," he said, "I wonder if any bombs would need to be exploded. I wonder if the hydrogen bomb would not be decisive, so that ultimata would be accepted and it would be unnecessary to deliver the bombs.

"It has been reported," the physicist said, "that if such bombs were dropped off the Pacific Coast the prevailing winds would carry the radioactivity over this country and would result in the extinction of all forms of life.

"I cannot vouch for the accuracy of this statement, but the effects of the radioactivity would certainly be far greater than those so dramatically exhibited at Bikini."

Urey estimated that the H-bomb could be developed for about $100,000,000 in addition to the cost of materials. Previous estimates have ranged as high as $4,000,000,000.

is needed is something closely akin to the judicial process.

"Within those government establishments which must make these decisions and eventually translate them into taxpayers money, we need a series of reviewing boards or individuals who will hear the evidence presented by these (scientific and engineering) experts who are frankly opponents in their points of view."

Such agencies might hold hearings at which the experts would present their various solutions to the problem at hand, Dr. Conant said.

Then, he said, "good documentation will be at hand . . . to go to a higher level, be reviewed and finally brought together in one big policy decision that will get to the White House for the final answer."

Dr. Conant suggested that "laymen who understand science and scientists and are familiar with engineering and engineers might well prove the most suitable men for this task of engineering technical disputes."

Truman Alone To Say When Work May Start on H-Bomb

President Disclaims Any Knowledge as to Time He May Order Hydrogen Bomb to Be Made

By FRANCIS J. KELLY

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—President Truman said today that he alone will decide whether this country will try to produce a hydrogen bomb, and that he has no idea when the decision will be made.

Meanwhile, he said, he is striving constantly to bring about international control of atomic energy.

The President was asked at his news conference whether there is anything authoritative he could tell the people on the much discussed super-destructive weapon.

No, said Mr. Truman, and no else could either.

Nevertheless interest was mounting steadily in Washington, the nation and the world in the prospect that U. S. nuclear physicists would get a go-ahead to try for an explosive weapon hundreds or possibly a thousand times more violent in its action than the prototype atomic bomb.

Urey Urges U. S. To Beat Russia to Hydrogen Bomb

JAN 28 1950

Possession of Superbomb Would Enable Soviet To Conquer World, Atomic Scientist Warns

New York, Jan. 27 (AP)—Dr. Harold C. Urey, one of the nation's top atomic scientists, urged tonight that the United States develop the hydrogen superbomb before the Russians do it first.

"We may already have lost the armaments race," he said.

Urey, who played a leading role in developing the atomic bomb, told a Roosevelt Day dinner he was unhappy to advocate a weapon that might be 1,000 times as powerful.

The H-bomb, he said, may endanger those who explode it as well as those who are its targets.

But he said possession of the superbomb would make a nation so powerful that the bomb might never have to be used, and he added:

"I do not think we should intentionally lose the armaments race. To do this will be to lose our liberties. And, like Patrick Henry, I value my liberties more than I do my life. * * *

"It is more important that this spirit (of liberty) should continue to exist than that I or you or any group should continue this mortal existence for a few years more."

Senator Graham (D-NC) told the gathering in a prepared address that the United States should now attended.

The scientist said that "due to some curious prejudice," which he refused to discuss, the advisers to the U. S. Government "have not wished to follow certain lines of development" in atomic research.

"No such prejudice exists among the Canadians, British, French and presumably the USSR," he said, "and this has put the U. S. in a very unfavorable position relative to what might have been. The result of this is a situation highly dangerous to the U. S."

Urey said the Russians might well reason along this line:

"It is true that the bomb is exceedingly dangerous, and we would not wish to produce so much radioactivity in the world as to

Conant Asks Laymen to Referee Scientists' Rifts on U. S. Policies

ROCHESTER, Jan. 27 (AP).—Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard University, suggested today that reviewing boards of laymen be created to referee technical disputes in Washington over scientific developments. He said that "many important decisions are being made in Washington today without adequate evaluation."

Dr. Conant addressed a luncheon meeting of the Rochester Harvard Club and the Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

"We must experiment with various types of new social mechanisms, if we are to spend our money wisely in responding to the Soviet challenge," he said.

"How are politicians to resolve conflicts of opinions among scientists and engineers?" he asked.

"That fact that we are spending some $14,000,000,000 on national defense," he added, . . . "brings this question to the fore."

Dr. Conant said: "To my mind, we have not yet evolved a satisfactory procedure for evaluating differences of opinion among technical experts. I suggest that what

President Will Not Talk About Hiss or Herring

Reply to Reporters Who Ask for Comment Is in Accents of Indignation

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—President Truman sharply refused today to talk about his attitude toward Alger Hiss, one-time Government official convicted of falsely swearing that he gave no secrets to a Communist spy ring.

Replying sharply that he would not comment, Mr. Truman further told reporters at his news conference that some of their questions were not asked with good intent.

In the background was a Republican attack on the Truman Administration as being uncooperative in the Hiss case—and Republican demands that Secretary of State Acheson be fired for saying he would not turn his back on Hiss, a friend who had served in the State Department.

Nothing was said of these criticisms in the round of questioning. The opener was:

"Mr. President, regardless of the outcome in the higher courts, will you or will you not turn your back on Alger Hiss?"

The reply was no comment, with the sarcastic observation that that's a nice question.

Would there be any point in asking further Alger Hiss questions? Another reporter asked. Mr. Truman answered that they weren't asked with good intent and he didn't intend to reply to them.

"How about a Red Herring question?" he was asked. Again he declined to be drawn out.

This was reference to an expression used by Mr. Truman in 1948 when he accused the Republican Congress of dragging a "Red Herring" across the trail to keep people's minds off the cost of living. He was pressing then for anti-inflation controls.

His Red Herring remark alluded to Congressional investigations which produced testimony that Government officials were involved with a net-work of Communist spies during the war. Mr. Truman repeated his remark the same year when the House Un-American Activities Committee accused him of failing to help it out with information.

The committee developed the case in which Hiss was accused of passing government papers to a Communist courier in prewar days.

Mr. Truman replied no comment when asked:

What this country will do about the Soviets' new "creepin blockade" of Berlin truck routes.

Whether he is preparing to act to settle the strike of John L. Lewis's coal miners.

The President said he considers Senator Byrd's (D-Va) charge that the White House is leading the country into Socialism a funny one, sure enough.

Also, he hinted that he is of no mind to consider a compromise on his demand for Civil Rights legislation—a suggestion heard recently in some Southern circles.

The President emphatically denied any breach of relations with Governor Forrest Smith of Missouri growing out of the frenzied maneuvering for the Democratic nomination in the race for the United States Senate.

Perjury Charge For Chambers Held Possible

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Whittaker Chambers still faces the possibility of having to stand trial on the same charge that brought Alger Hiss a five-year prison sentence.

Chambers was the Government's key witness against Hiss, former high State Department official convicted last week of lying when he denied passing secret documents to a prewar Communist spy ring.

Chambers says he was a courier for that ring. He also admitted that he, too, had lied in some of his testimony which led to the indictment and trial of Hiss.

Justice Dept. Silent

The Justice Department has refused to discuss the Chambers case, but a spokesman said today that no immunity was ever promised Chambers. It is known that the question of whether to seek an indictment against him is still open.

Government attorneys say there is no law providing automatic immunity for Government witnesses.

The subject arose when Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt wrote in her column: "If you are a witness for the Government you are exempt, of course, from punishment."

Demands Probe Resume

Producing a new sheaf of documents from Chambers, Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) demanded a new House investigation into Communist spy activities.

Nixon quoted Chambers as saying he got the eight new documents from the late Harry Dexter White, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

White died in 1948, a short time after denying to the House Un-American Activities Committee that he had ever passed on confidential data to Chambers.

Shows House Copies

The photographic copies which Nixon showed the House yesterday dealt with such things as United States policy toward Japan and the assignment of an American navy captain to England in 1938 as a "secret liaison man."

Nixon said that, on the basis of these papers, he will insist that the House committee, of which he is a member, resume the spy inquiry it suspended during the two perjury trials of Alger Hiss, former State Department official.

Gavin Calls For Ouster Of Secretary Acheson

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Representative Gavin (R., Pa.) told the House today that Dean Acheson should quit as Secretary of State because of his friendship for Alger Hiss.

Gavin said Acheson made "a very grave and serious error" in saying he would not turn his back on Hiss, convicted in New York recently of perjury.

"Secretary Acheson has forfeited his right to hold high office," Gavin said. "His thinking is contrary to the wishes of the American people. His resignation is in order."

Representative Curtis (R., Neb.), in another speech on the floor also criticized Acheson for his attitude on the Hiss case.

"We need a Secretary of State whose first and only loyalty is to the United States," Curtis said.

Senate Probe Likely To Seal Fate Of 16 Doomed Germans

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Senate sources reported today that sixteen German war criminals, convicted at the "minor" Nuernberg trials, probably must pay the death penalty.

Execution of the Germans who had been delayed by Gordon Gray, army secretary, pending an inquiry by the Senate's special investigating committee.

A report, expected to be filed shortly by Senator Hoey (D., N.C.) for the investigating group, will end the delay, it was learned.

The Germans awaiting death sentences were convicted at trials conducted by United States Army forces under delegation of the International War Crimes Tribunal.

Two Decisions Reached

This tribunal, representing the United States, England, France and Russia, conducted trials of major Nazi war criminals before turning over the so-called "minor" cases for the United States Army to conduct.

Investigating Senators here said two decisions were reached:

1. The Senate has no jurisdiction to investigate or act because the Nuernberg trials were under four-power control.

2. A review of available trial records by attorneys for the investigating committee indicated no faults or miscarriage of justice.

One source said there was some question about one of the sixteen Germans facing death. He was a mason who built a gas chamber used for Nazi executions and some officials here questioned his responsibility for the Nazi crimes.

The Hoey subcommittee also looked into complaints resulting from death sentences imposed by United States Army courts on German war criminals at Dachau. It is awaiting a report from the army inspector general on these.

Joint Chiefs To Leave For Japan Tomorrow

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Joint Chiefs of Staff will leave Sunday night for a two-week visit to Japan where they will confer with Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

The itinerary, announced today by the Defense Department, calls for their return to Washington on February 11.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff, headed by Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman, is composed of Army General J. Lawton Collins, Admiral Forrest P. Sherman and Air General Hoyt Vandenberg. The group will fly by way of Adak, Alaska, stopping there to refuel and then proceed to Tokyo.

On the way back they will visit American bases in Okinawa and Guam, stopping at the island of Kwajalein, in the Marshalls, for fuel, and then visit Hawaii.

Ferguson Sees New D.P. Bill as Pro-German

Says Senate's Definition Would Allow 8,000,000 Foreign Born to Enter

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP).—The Senate's new bill to liberalize the present displaced persons act was viewed today by Senator Homer Ferguson, Republican, of Michigan, as opening the way for 8,000,000 foreign born, many of German ethnic origin, to seek entry into the United States.

Senator Ferguson said this would be possible under the new definition of a displaced person which the Senate Judiciary Committee wrote into the House-passed bill. The committee approved the bill by a 10-to-3 vote earlier in the week and sent it to the Senate.

Senator Ferguson, saying one of his objections to the bill is the new definition, told a reporter it would have the effect of greatly increasing the displaced persons problem, instead of trying to eliminate it.

He said he thinks "compromise" on the bill is possible if the Senate does not call it up for debate too soon. He suggested that it not come up before mid-February.

The committee, in a majority report, said the International Refugee Organization's definition of a displaced person, contained by reference in the present law, has resulted in confusion. The committee noted that the I. R. O. definition specifically excludes persons of German origin, and does not embrace a displaced person unless such person is out of his country.

"The committee is of the opinion that certain persons who are de facto displaced but who are not outside their country of origin (such as the Greek displaced persons) should be embraced as displaced persons," the majority report said.

The report added that the committee definition now includes: 1. Persons of German ethnic origin who are otherwise eligible as displaced persons; 2. Persons who were displaced as a direct result of military operations in Greece by the Nazi government or by the Communist guerrillas, and, 3 Persons who during World War II were members of the armed forces of the Republic of Poland and who on Jan. 1, 1950, were residing in the British Isles.

The bill would limit the number of Greeks who could enter to 10,000 and the number of Poles to 18,000.

The report noted "tremendous scope of the problems of those persons of German ethnic origin who were, pursuant to the Potsdam agreement of Aug. 1, 1945, forcibly expelled from the countries of Eastern Europe and driven into Germany and Austria." It recommended that the provisions of the present law which set aside 50 per cent of the German and Austrian quotas for such expellees, be extended until Jan. 1, 1952.

TWO BABCOCK 'WIDOWS' MEET

JAN 28 1950

One Brings Body From Berlin, Other At D.C. Airport

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP) — One Mrs. Babcock flew in from Germany today with the body of Col. William T. Babcock and another Mrs. Babcock met the plane at the Washington Airport.

Both claimed to be the widow of the deputy American commissioner for Berlin who died there Monday of a heart attack.

Accompanying the body was an attractive brunette, apparently in her early 30's, who said she is the widow. She said she left their

30.24- 8547

3-year-old son in Berlin.

"Not Divorced, Not Remarried"

The other Mrs. Babcock, from New London, Conn., showed a reporter a hand-written letter signed "Dad." She said it was written last month by Colonel Babcock to one of their two married daughters. The letter read, in part:

"It is true that I am not divorced and not remarried."

Both "nots" were underlined.

The letter said the writer might try for divorce when he returned to the United States, but was not sure.

"I am the real Mrs. Babcock," the New London resident said. "He has been married to me for nearly 34 years."

Denied Decree In 1946

The colonel in 1946 sued Mary Magdalene Babcock for divorce in New London, but the decree was denied. Mrs. Babcock's attorney said he never received notice of any divorce action anywhere else.

At the airport the women kept about 100 feet apart.

The Berlin Mrs. Babcock left the airport shortly after her arrival. The American Mrs. Babcock watched as the body was placed in a military hearse. Then she went to Arlington National Cemetery near by and talked to Col. R. J. Williamson, officer in charge there.

Other "Will Be Given Flag"

Emerging from that conference, the New London Mrs. Babcock said:

"An American wife will be at the funeral, but a British woman will be given the flag."

Her reference was to the flag to be draped over the casket. It customarily is delivered to the widow after the funeral.

Mrs. Florence M. Babcock, the Berlin Mrs. Babcock, said she is a British subject.

Colonel Williamson, who will be in charge of the funeral services at 10 A.M. tomorrow, said the Berlin Mrs. Babcock had army orders to accompany the body as the widow.

Berlin Mrs. Babcock Speaks

That Mrs. Babcock said she had a marriage license as well as "letters and the wedding ring which the ex-Mrs. Babcock returned to my husband." She added:

"My husband had an out-of-state divorce, but I cannot give any details on that because I don't know much about it myself."

She added that the difference of opinion over her marital status was not a surprise to her. She said State Department representatives in Germany had sent advance instructions to Washington that an incident might be expected.

Both On Eisenhower's Staff

"If I had not decided to bring my husband here for burial and had wanted the funeral held in Berlin," she said, "all of this could have been avoided."

She said the departure from Germany after her husband's death was so sudden that she had no time to get the documents proving her marriage.

She said she met Babcock in May, 1945, while both of them were serving on the staff of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme Allied commander. They were married, she said, on December 27, 1945, at Konigstein.

Sweeping Loyalty Program Changes Urged By Lehman

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Senator Lehman (D., N.Y.) tonight urged sweeping changes in the Government's loyalty program to safeguard American citizens against "police-state methods."

He also proposed broadening the grounds for dismissal to include Fascists and "believers in racial superiority and other equally un-American concepts."

"I think that anti-Negroism, anti-Semitism or anti-Catholicism should be as positive grounds for disqualifying individuals for sensitive Federal Government positions as membership in the Communist party," Lehman said.

Speaks At Roosevelt Dinner

He expressed those views in a speech prepared for the second annual Roosevelt Day dinner here. The meeting is one of a series being held this week throughout the country under the sponsorship of Americans For Democratic Action. Their general theme is "Freedom of Inquiry in a Democratic Society."

Lehman defined freedom of inquiry as "the promise to every man that he is at liberty to seek intellectual, religious and spiritual fulfillment."

But, he said, "that liberty is challenged not only by those who openly declare their allegiance to totalitarianism, but also by some who solemnly swear devotion to democracy. . . . They insist that we must suppress free inquiry in order to preserve our institutions and way of life."

Refers To Real Danger

Declaring this a "real and ominous danger," Lehman asked, "what will it profit us to fight the Communist conspiracy if, in order to do so we adopt police-state methods and abandon the principles we live by?"

While indorsing the "objectives" of the loyalty program Lehman went on to say that he hopes "some way can be found to bring the extreme and unfortunate aspects of this program to an end . . . and a better system, more consistent with the American tradition, be developed and established."

Asserting that the "integrity of the Government service must be protected," Lehman suggested that if a worker is found to be unfit he should be ousted on the basis of "disqualification rather than disloyalty."

"I do not believe that the brand of disloyalty should be placed on such individuals by any administrative body," he said. "Disloyalty stands hard by treason. No such finding should be made for any individual, except after a judicial proceeding, with all the safeguards for the accused which Anglo-Saxon and American law provides."

B-36's Flight Termed Reconnaissance Record

Fairfield, Cal., Jan. 27 (AP)—The Air Force today told of the longest time-and-distance flight believed ever to have been made by a reconnaissance unit—in this case a six-engine B-36.

The huge plane from the Fairfield-Suisun Air Force base, approximately 40 miles northeast of San Francisco, was in the air for nearly two nights and a day, and covered 7,000 airmiles from coast to coast.

Flown by members of the 1st Strategic Reconnaissance Squadron, it was the first of regularly scheduled missions of extreme range to be undertaken, the Air Force said.

The flight involved many new procedures for reconnaissance crews. Aboard the plane were 21 officers and enlisted men, including the regular crew and training personnel.

PRINCETON OPENS PROJECT 'SQUID'

Dedicates Research Facilities For U.S. Aircraft Engines

Princeton, N.J., Jan. 27 (AP)—Princeton University today dedicated research facilities for engines and aircraft aimed at giving the United States the most powerful and fastest fighting machines in the sky.

The event disclosed for the first time some of the basic studies of new types of power plants being carried on through project "Squid" an effort sponsored jointly by navy and air force research divisions.

The dedication took place during the first annual technical symposium sponsored by the university and the Aviation Writers Association. Dr. Harold Willis Dodds, president of the university, formally presented the wind tunnel, unique among supersonic test units for navy acceptance.

Admiral Operates It

Rear Admiral Thorvald A. Solberg, chief of naval research, shoved the levers which sent air roaring past a small test cone at five times the speed of sound—something around 3,500 miles an hour—while a few dozen guests watched.

The tunnel is unique in its range of test speeds, which can be as low as 1,000 miles an hour, and its economical use of power. With two 100-horsepower motors it is able to produce the effect of a 50,000-horsepower tunnel for one minute. This is done by storing the energy in tanks and using a combination of valves to regulate its flow into the little 4-by-8-inch test section.

The tunnel was made largely with surplus war materials at a cost of around $500,000—a small fraction of the cost of large supersonic tunnels having a much narrower range of speeds. Its air storage tanks and pumps were built to charge torpedoes.

Armor Plate Used

Its test section is armor plate intended for a battleship and its air setting chamber was the cylinder of a 16-inch gun. Annual operating cost is estimated at $95,000.

"Squid," a name selected from the fish that squirts for protection, has been a highly classified project for digging into basic information about new ideas in jet engines. Princeton is the co-ordinating unit for work being done at seven schools including Cornell, Purdue, Johns Hopkins, Delaware and New York universities and Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn.

Two of the new engine ideas were uncovered today.

One is a ram rocket, the other an intermittent ram jet. The goal of both—thus far untried in flight—is to increase the fuel efficiency of such types, particularly at lower speeds.

Urges Buying Red Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27 (AP)—An American Chinese tong leader was quoted by the Chinese Communist radio today as urging Chinese in America to buy Communist victory bonds.

The broadcast from Peking quoted a radio address which it said was made by Seto Meetong also known as Szeto Meitang, over the Peking station on Jan. 20 and repeated Jan. 21. He was identified as "director of the Chew Kung tong in the Americas and member of the Central People's Government (Communist) Council and Commission of Overseas Chinese Affairs."

San Francisco Chinese sources said Seto returned to China last year from New York, where he was one of the organizers of the On Leong tong. They said he is about eighty-three years old.

Seto was quoted by Peking as urging bond purchases by American Chinese to increase the dollars available to the Communist regime.

WHILE ALL THE AGREEMENTS DIFFERED IN SOME DETAILS THEIR MAJOR PROVISIONS ARE THE SAME. NONE OF THE COUNTRIES RECEIVING AMERICAN ARMS CAN USE THEM FOR PURPOSES OTHER THAN THE DEFENSE OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA UNLESS THE UNITED STATES AGREES. THIS PROHIBITS THE EMPLOYMENT OF THESE ARMS BY A EUROPEAN POWER IN ITS COLONIAL TERRITORIES.

WHILE THIS IS THE GENERAL RULE, THE BRITISH AGREEMENT SPECIFIES THAT IN CASE A PIECE OF AMERICAN EQUIPMENT WAS INCORPORATED IN A MAJOR ITEM OF BRITISH ARMAMENT, SUCH AS AN AMERICAN COMPASS IN A BRITISH BOMBER, THE BRITISH EQUIPMENT CONTAINING THE AMERICAN COMPONENT COULD BE TRANSFERRED OUTSIDE THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA. OFFICIALS SAID THAT THIS IS A PROVISION OF CONVENIENCE AND IS NOT INTENDED IN ANY WAY TO WEAKEN THE BAR AGAINST DIVERTING AMERICAN ARMS FROM THE MAIN PURPOSE OF NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE.

THE TREATIES ALSO PROVIDE, AS EUROPEAN RECOVERY AGREEMENTS HAVE PREVIOUSLY DONE, THAT BY WAY OF REVERSE AID THE EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS WILL ASSIST THE UNITED STATES IN OBTAINING STRATEGIC RAW MATERIALS WHICH IT REQUIRES.

THE PACTS ALSO PROVIDED FOR THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO PAY THE TRANSPORTATION, OFFICE COSTS AND OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES OF THE MILITARY ADVISORY MISSIONS WHICH THE UNITED STATES WILL SEND TO EACH OF THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO HELP THEM TRAIN THEIR ARMED FORCES IN THE USE OF AMERICAN WEAPONS.

THESE MISSIONS, OFFICIALS SAID, WILL AVERAGE 20 PERSONS IN EACH COUNTRY AND A POOL OF 40 TROUBLE SHOOTERS ATTACHED TO THE LONDON REGIONAL OFFICE OF THE MUTUAL DEFENSE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.

THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES MAY SEND SOME OF THEIR ARMED FORCES PERSONNEL TO THIS COUNTRY FOR TRAINING AND AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID THAT TRAINING FACILITIES IN OCCUPIED GERMANY MAY ALSO BE USED UNDER THE PROGRAM.

HELMSTEDT, GERMANY, JAN. 27-(AP)-SOVIET GUARDS TIGHTENED THEIR SQUEEZE ON TRUCK TRAFFIC BETWEEN BERLIN AND WEST GERMANY TODAY DESPITE WESTERN ALLIED PROTESTS OF THE NEW RUSSIAN RESTRICTIONS.

WESTERN GERMAN OFFICIALS SAID THE RUSSIANS WERE LETTING THROUGH ONLY TWO, OR AT THE MOST THREE, TRUCKS PER HOUR IN EACH DIRECTION--TO AND FROM BERLIN. THIS IS ABOUT ONE-TENTH THE NORMAL TRAFFIC.

AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH COMMANDERS IN BERLIN PROTESTED YESTERDAY IN A NOTE TO THE SOVIET COMMANDANT, MAJ.GEN.ALEXANDER KOTIKOV, AGAINST "THESE ABNORMAL RESTRICTIONS." THE FORMAL NOTE SAID THE SLOW-DOWN APPEARED TO BE A CALCULATED ATTEMPT TO RESTRICT NORMAL MOVEMENT BETWEEN BERLIN AND THE WESTERN ZONES.

A LINE OF BERLIN-BOUND TRUCKS MEASURING MORE THAN THREE AND A HALF MILES LONG WAS CURLED UP IN FRONT OF THE WESTERN CHECKPOINT EARLY THIS MORNING. ON THE SOVIET SIDE OF THE BORDER ANOTHER LINE OF TRUCKS NEARLY HALF AS LONG WAS REPORTED WAITING TO GET THROUGH TO THE WEST.

LATE LAST NIGHT THE RUSSIAN GUARDS WERE REPORTED LETTING THROUGH FOUR TRUCKS AN HOUR EACH WAY, AFTER EXAMINING MINUTELY CARGO AND PERMIT PAPERS OF EACH VEHICLE WHETHER IT WAS EMPTY OR FULL. CUSTOMS OFFICIALS SAID SOME TRUCKS STILL WERE BEING REFUSED PASSAGE ON MINOR TECHNICALITIES. THEY SAID ONE TRUCK OUT OF EVERY FOUR WAS BEING TURNED AWAY.

ONE TRUCK DRIVER, WHO SAID SOME TRUCKS HAD BEEN WAITING IN LINE MORE THAN 36 HOURS, SAID HE HEARD EAST GERMAN POLICEMEN BEING INSTRUCTED UNDER NO CONDITIONS TO EXCEED THE NEW QUOTA OF TWO TRUCKS PER HOUR.

SOME DRIVERS, SEEING THE HOPELESSNESS OF GETTING THROUGH THIS MAJOR CHECKPOINT, TRIED THEIR LUCK AT SMALLER POSTS AND GOT THROUGH EVEN THOUGH THEIR PAPERS SPECIFIED THEY WERE TO GO THROUGH HELMSTEDT.

BY GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BONN, GERMANY, JAN. 27 - (AP) - PAUL BOURDIN

resigned today as official spokesman 's West German

PRESS CHIEF FOR CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER, RESIGNED AS GOVERNMENT SPOKE-because of what he called political interference with his work

MAN TODAY AS A RESULT OF POLITICAL "INTERFERENCE FROM ALL SIDES" WITH HIS WORK.

BOURDIN SAID HE RESENTED THE INTERFERENCE BY

WEST GERMAN POLITICIANS WHO HAVE MADE ALMOST DAILY DENIALS OF THEIR OWN

PUBLISHED STATEMENTS, he complained.

THE LAST STRAW, BOURDIN INDICATED, WAS A NEWS

in which

CONFERENCE WHERE HE FOUND HIMSELF READING CONTRADICTORY STATEMENTS ISSUED

BY CHANCELLOR ADENAUER AND CABINET MINISTER JAKOB KAISER, minister for the reunification of Germany.

SOME MEMBERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL AND GERMAN

PRESS CORPS HAVE EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT GERMAN POLITICIANS ARE NOT ABOVE DROPPING DELIBERATE "INDISCRETIONS" TO THE PRESS TO TEST PUBLIC REACTION.

IF THE REACTION IS UNFAVORABLE, THE JOURNALISTS CLAIM, THE AUTOMATIC DENIAL IS USED AS A MEANS OF ESCAPE.

ADENAUER RECENTLY CLAIMED HE WAS "MISUNDERSTOOD" WHEN HE TALKED ABOUT GERMAN REARMAMENT TO A CORRESPONDENT OF THE CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER. HE ALSO RETRACTED REMARKS ATTRIBUTED TO HIM BY THE BALTIMORE SUN ABOUT FOREIGN INVESTMENTS IN THE RUHR.

~~DURING~~ ADENAUER HAD TO APOLOGIZE THE THE FRENCH FOR A NATIONALISTIC SPEECH MADE BY HIS MINISTER OF JUSTICE, DR. THOMAS DEHLER. ADENAUER WROTE TO THE FRENCH HIGH COMMISSION THAT DEHLER'S SPEECH HAD BEEN "DISTORTED" BY THE PRESS.

JAN 28 1950

OF THIS INCIDENT, THE INFLUENTIAL FRANKFURTER ALLGEMEINE ZEITUNG, COMMENTED:

"THE CLAIM THAT AGAIN THE PRESS WAS TO BLAME FOR THE UNFAVORABLE IMPRESSION CAUSED BY DEHLER'S SPEECH WILL NO LONGER BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY BY ANYONE. TOO MANY DENIALS HAVE BEEN ISSUED DURING THE PAST FEW MONTHS IN BONN FOR THAT. THIS WEAPON (DENIALS) HAS BEEN BLUNTED."

ANOTHER RECENT DENIAL WAS THAT OF A SENIOR OFFICIAL WHO ANNOUNCED THE END OF GERMAN FOOD RATIONING. A FEW HOURS LATER HE ISSUED A PRESS RELEASE DENYING FLATLY HIS OWN ANNOUNCEMENT. IT TURNED OUT SEVERAL DAYS LATER THAT HE EVIDENTLY SPOKE THE TRUTH IN THE FIRST PLACE. RATIONING WAS TO BE ENDED AS HE AT FIRST SAID.

JAN 28 1950

BOURDIN LEFT HIS POST AS LICENSEE OF A BERLIN NEWSPAPER LAST NOVEMBER TO BECOME ADENAUER'S OFFICIAL SPOKESMAN.

HE FOUND HIMSELF HARRASSED BETWEEN ANGRY NEWSMEN AND THE GERMAN POLITICIANS WHOSE EVASIONS, COMPLAINTS OF BEING MISQUOTED AND DENIALS OF THEIR OWN STATEMENTS WERE MAKING BONN A REPORTER'S NIGHTMARE.

NEWSMEN COMING ON DUTY WRYLY ASKED THEIR COLLEAGUES:

"HAS THE DAILY DENIAL BEEN ISSUED YET?"

BOURDIN SAID TODAY HE HAD ASKED ADENAUER FOR CLARIFICATION OF HIS RESPONSIBILITY FOR PRESS POLICY. WHEN HE RECEIVED NO ANSWER HE RESIGNED.

" I AM HAPPY TO BE A FREE NEWSPAPERMAN AGAIN," HE ADDED.

SOME OF THE PRESS CORPS HAVE EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT GERMAN POLITICIANS DELIBERATELY DROP THESE "INDISCRETIONS" TO TEST PUBLIC REACTION, AND THAT WHEN THE REACTION IS UNFAVORABLE, THE DENIAL IS ISSUED.

THE LAST STRAW, BOURDIN SAID, CAME TUESDAY AT A HEAVILY ATTENDED NEWS CONFERENCE. HE HREAD AN OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT STATEMENT FROM ADENAUER'S OFFICE. THEN HE READ A STATEMENT ON THE SAME SUBJECT FROM A CABINET MINISTER. TO HIS SURPRISE, THE SECOND STATEMENT FLATLY CONTRADICTED THE FIRST, SO THAT HE WAS IN THE POSITION OF DENYING THE STATEMENT HE HAD JUST PREPARED.

HE ASKED CLARIFICATION FROM ADENAUER, HE SAID, AND RECEIVED NONE, SO HE RESIGNED. add Bonn-(Press Chief) xxx Ruhr-

THE SOCIALISTS CHARGED THAT THE RIGHT WING GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN DILATORY IN PRODUCING SUCH A LAW. PROF. ERIK NOELTING, A SOCIAL DEMOCRAT, SAID HE HAD LEARNED FROM THE PRESS THAT THE ALLIES WERE PREPARING A DECARTELIZATION LAW, AND THAT IF THE GOVERNMENT HESITATED ANY MORE, THE ALLIES WOULD ISSUE THEIR LAW FIRST.

JAN 28 1950

HE PROPOSED A SYSTEM OF LICENSES WHICH WOULD ENABLE THE STATE TO PUT OUT OF BUSINESS ANY CARTELS HARMFUL TO ITS ECONOMY.

IN REPLY, ECONOMICS MINISTER LUDWIG ERHARD, SAID HE HAD RECEIVED A GUARANTEE THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT BE SURPRISED BY AN ALLIED LAW AND THAT THE GERMANS WOULD BE ALLOWED TO MAKE THEIR OWN DECARTELIZATION LAW.

THE GOVERNMENT, HE SAID, WANTED A LAW TO ELIMINATE UNFAIR TRADING AND GUARANTEE THAT COMPETITION EXISTED ON A BASIS OF EQUALITY ONLY. HE SAID HE WAS OPPOSED NOT ONLY TO PRIVATE BUSINESS CARTELS BUT ALSO TO STATE MONOPOLIES.

LABOR SOCIALIST LEADER GIUSEPPE SARAGAT, HOWEVER, REFUSED DE GASPERI'S INVITATION TO JOIN THE GOVERNMENT. HE SAID HE WANTS TO GIVE ALL HIS TIME TO RUNNING HIS SMALL ANTI-COMMUNIST PARTY.

Rome, Jan. 27--(AP)--Communists staged a one-hour streetcar strike in Naples tonight against Premier Alcide de Gasperi's brand new coalition government.

The strikers protested the continued presence of Mario Scelba as interior minister in charge of police in the cabinet just approved by President Luigi Einaudi.

JAN 28 1950

Reports said the strike affected busses and trolley cars and left thousands of Neopolitans afoot. There were no reports of any similar demonstrations elsewhere in Italy.

Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti made a demand on Einaudi two weeks ago that Scelba be kept out of the new government, accusing the interior minister of having created a regime of police brutality.

are said to have made the journey by sea from Albania in seven groups. Some 9,000 comba guerrillas were reported transported in Polish and Romanian ships, 5,000 of them going to Czechoslovakia. Others reportedly went to Bulgaria and Hungary for an expected attack on Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito.

The reports said political commissars had told both civilians and guerrilla fighters that Greece would be "taken care of" once Russia eliminates Tito. They said Tito's defection from the Cominform camp had caused the defeat of Greek Communist forces in the Vitsi and Grammos Mountains areas last fall.

Guerrillas said to have been left behind in Albania included 1,000 specialists in sabotage and raiding for small incursions into Greece.

THE POLISH PRESS AGENCY, GOVERNMENT-CONTROLLED, REPORTED THIS. IT SAID A NUN, A NURSE AND A TUTOR ALSO WERE ARRESTED. THEY ARE CONNECTED WITH AN EPILEPTIC CHILDREN'S HOME MAINTAINED BY THE BONNEFRATER MONKS.

THE GOVERNMENT ALREADY HAS SEIZED CONTROL OF THE CHIEF CATHOLIC CHARITABLE INSTITUTION IN POLAND -- CARITAS -- AND HAS SET UP BOARDS UNDER GOVERNMENT MINISTRIES TO CONTROL ITS ACTIVITIES. THE GOVERNMENT HAS CHARGED EMBEZZLEMENT AND FRAUD ON A NATIONWIDE SCALE IN CARITAS.

THE PRIOR OF THE BONNEFRATER MONKS, WINCENTY FLORACZAK, WAS BROUGHT BEFORE A WROCLAW (BRESLAU) COURT. THE GOVERNMENT SAID HE ADMITTED TO HOMOSEXUAL PRACTICES. HE ALSO WAS CHARGED WITH STEALING THE INSTITUTION'S FUNDS AND WITH CHRONIC DRUNKENNESS.

THE REV. MIECZYSLAW REDEL, THE INSTITUTION'S ACCOUNTANT, WAS CHARGED WITH FRAUD. A NUN, SZOFIA DORSZ, WAS SAID BY THE AGENCY TO HAVE ADMITTED TO "UNWITTINGLY MAKING FALSE ENTRIES IN ACCOUNT BOOKS."

A NURSE, JADWIGA SMIEJA, WAS SAID BY THE AGENCY TO HAVE ADMITTED BEATING CHILDREN AND "HOLDING THEM FOR DAYS IN SOLITARY CONFINEMENT IN DAMP, WINDOWLESS CELLARS." THE PROSECUTION CHARGED HER WITH SEXUAL OFFENSES AGAINST THE BOYS IN THE INSTITUTION.

A TUTOR, IGNACE MICHALOWSKI, THE AGENCY SAID, ADMITTED KNOWLEDGE OF HOMOSEXUALITY IN THE INSTITUTION AND ADMITTED CONFINING BOYS ON ORDERS FROM THE PRIOR. THE GOVERNMENT SAID IT HAD EVIDENCE FROM TWO BOYS THAT THEY WERE BEATEN WITH RUBBER TRUNCHEONS AND CONFINED IN THE CELLARS.

THE GOVERNMENT AND THE CATHOLIC CHURCH LONG HAVE BEEN IN A BATTLE OF WORDS. THE CHURCH HAS BEEN THE TARGET OF HEAVY ATTACK FROM THE CONTROLLED PRESS, WHICH ALSO HAS DIRECTED ITS EDITORIAL GUNS AT THE POPE AND THE VATICAN. POLAND IS ALMOST WHOLLY CATHOLIC.

CAIRO, EGYPT, JAN. 27-(AP)-COL. ABDULLAH TEL, TOP ARAB LEGION OFFICER DURING THE PALESTINE WAR, CHARGED TODAY THAT BRITISH CONTROL OF THE JORDANIAN LEGION WAS ONE OF THE CHIEF CAUSES OF THE FAILURE OF THE ARABS IN PALESTINE.

TEL IS LIVING IN CAIRO AS A POLITICAL REFUGEE. HE HAS SPLIT WITH KING ABDULLAH OF HASHEMITE JORDAN.

HIS PREPARED STATEMENT TO A NEWS CONFERENCE, HIS FIRST PUBLIC APPEARANCE SINCE HIS FLIGHT TO EGYPT, SAID BRIGADIER JOHN BAGGOT GLUBB PASHA FOLLOWED SECRET BRITISH ORDERS WHILE COMMANDING THE LEGIONN. GLUBB PASHA, A BRITON, HAS BEEN ABDULLAH'S MILITARY LEADER SINCE 1939.

BRITAIN CREATED THE NATION OF TRANS-JORDAN, NOW HASHEMITE JORDAN, OUT OF HER NEAR EAST LEAGUE OF NATIONS MANDATE. BRITISH OFFICERS HEADED ITS MILITARY AND BRITISH FUNDS SUPPORTED THE ARAB LEGION. TEL SAID THAT TODAY THE LEGION IS UNDER COMPLETE BRITISH CONTROL AND IS "A KNIFE STABBED IN THE BACK OF ALL ARAB STATES."

TEL URGED THE ARAB LEAGUE -- MADE UP OF SEVEN ARAB STATES -- TO DEMAND REMOVAL OF BRITISH CONTROL OF THE LEGION OR ELSE KICK ABDULLAH OUT OF THE LEAGUE AS A GAP IN ARAB UNITY.

THE ARAB LEGION IS COMPOSED OF SOME 15,000 MEN, CONSIDERED THE BEST DESERT FIGHTERS IN THE MIDDLE EAST. IT WAS THE MOST POTENT FORCE TO BE ARRAYED AGAINST ISRAEL IN THE PALESTINE WAR. THE LEGION IS RELIABLY REPORTED TO BE RECEIVING AN ANNUAL SUBSIDY OF £3,500,000 ($9,800,000) FROM THE BRITISH.

TEL WAS THE OFFICER WHOSE LEGION TROOPS SEIZED THE OLD WALLED CITY OF JERUSALEM IN 1948 AND HELD IT AGAINST THE ISRAELIS, WHO OCCUPY THE NEW CITY. HE SAID HE IS WILLING TO GO BACK TO JORDAN ONLY IF ABDULLAH RIDS HIS ARMY OF BRITISH CONTROL.

THEY WERE BANDITS FOR YEARS. THEY ROAMED THE RICH COUNTRYSIDE IN SHANTUNG PROVINCE, OF WHICH TSINGTAO IS A PART.

WHEN THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS FLED FROM THAT NORTH CHINA PORT TWO MONTHS BEFORE THEY WERE EXPECTED TO LEAVE THE FORMER BANDITS MOVED IN. THEY GRABBED POWER AND SO FAR HAVE HUNG ON TO IT.

I SAW THEM AT THE FORMER U.S. NAVAL BASE WHILE I WAS IN TSINGTAO WITH THE FLYING ARROW WHICH LEFT THERE THIS WEEK. I WAS THE ONLY CORRESPONDENT ABOARD THAT AMERICAN FREIGHTER, WHICH WAS SHELLED BY THE NATIONALISTS AND PUT IN TO TSINGTAO TO UNLOAD CARGO DESTINED FOR SHANGHAI.

THE FORMER BANDITS SAY THEY ARE COMMUNISTS AND FOLLOW THE PARTY LINE. BUT THEY ALSO LIKE THE FAT JOBS THEY INHERITED, AND PARTY REGULARS HAVE FOUND IT DIFFICULT TO REMOVE THEM.

CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADERS FROM OUTSIDE ARRIVED AFTER THE FORMER BANDITS TOOK OVER. THE OUTSIDERS HAVE RUN INTO TROUBLE GIVING ORDERS TO THESE PROVINCIAL RULERS.

THE FORMER BANDITS LEAVE NO DOUBT ABOUT WHAT THEY SAY IS THEIR COMMUNIST "MISSION." THEY REGARD THEMSELVES AS ALLIED WITH RUSSIA. THERE ARE PICTURES OF STALIN EVERYWHERE.

ONE SUCH OFFICIAL TOLD A EUROPEAN MISSIONARY: "WE INTEND TO LIBERATE THE WORLD. DON'T YOU WORRY. WE'LL LIBERATE YOUR COUNTRY TOO."

JAN 28 1950

THE MISSIONARY, WHO HAS LIVED MOST OF HIS LIFE IN CHINA, SAID HE REPLIED:

"IN MY COUNTRY, PRACTICALLY EVERY FAMILY HAS A SMALL AUTOMOBILE, A NICE HOME, REASONABLE WAGES AND OTHER COMFORTS. WHY CANNOT YOU FIRST RAISE THE STANDARD OF LIVING IN CHINA TO MATCH THAT?"

HE SAID THE OFFICIAL SHRUGGED AND REPLIED: "WE WILL LIBERATE YOUR COUNTRY ANYWAY."

THE COMMUNIST OFFICIALS IN TSINGTAO MAKE NO PRETENSE OF LIVING SIMPLY. THEY HAVE TAKEN OVER ALL THE BIG AUTOMOBILES, INCLUDING THOSE THE U.S. CONSULATE WAS FORCED TO LEAVE BEHIND. THEY OCCUPY ALL THE VILLAS.

THERE IS CONSIDERABLE NIGHT LIFE IF YOU CAN AFFORD TO PAY. AT THE CITY'S LARGEST HOTEL, THE HSIN, YOU CAN GET AN AMPLE DINNER AND DANCE TO A FIVE-PIECE ORCHESTRA. THE ORCHESTRA MEMBERS ARE MOSTLY OLD-TIME RUSSIAN RESIDENTS.

THE STREETS ARE SHABBY AND ILL KEPT. BUILDINGS ARE BEGINNING TO RUN DOWN. MOST OF THE CUSTOMERS IN THE SHOPS ARE CREWMEN OF ALL NATIONALITIES FROM VISITING SHIPS. AMERICAN GOODS IN THE SHOPS ARE POPULAR AMONG CHINESE WHO CAN PAY THE PRICE.

ONLY A FEW AUTOMOBILES ARE SEEN IN THE STREETS. THESE ARE A DOZEN OR MORE TAXICABS, AND A NUMBER OF JEEPS AND OFFICIAL CARS, ALL OF AMERICAN MAKE.

YET THE COMMUNISTS STILL KEEP ON DUTY A VAST HORDE OF TRAFFIC COPS, POSSIBLY TO DEMONSTRATE THAT THEY HAVE PLENTY OF POLICE POWER.

CHINESE IN THE STREETS APPEAR LISTLESS, BEATEN AND GLUM. DURING MY VISITS ASHORE NONE TRIED TO SHOVE ME OFF THE SIDEWALK, AS CHINESE DO FOREIGNERS IN SHANGHAI AND HONG KONG.

ONE THING IS QUITE PLAIN IN TSINGTAO. THE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES HAVE A TIGHT RULE OVER THE CITY--BACKED WITH GUNS.

SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO, JAN. 27-(AP)-REAR ADM.DANIEL E.BARBEY, COMMANDER OF U.S.NAVAL FORCES IN THE CARIBBEAN, SAID LAST NIGHT LATIN COUNTRIES IN THE CARIBBEAN AREA MUST DEVELOP A PLAN FOR CONCERTED NAVAL ACTION TO BE USED IN THE EVENT OF WAR.

ADM.BARBEY ADDRESSED THE PUERTO RICAN CHAPTER OF THE NAVAL RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION. HIS SPEECH WAS RELEASED TODAY BY THE 10TH NAVAL DISTRICT.

"AS YOU KNOW," BARBEY SAID, "THE NAVY IS WITHDRAWING ITS STRENGTH FROM THE CARIBBEAN FOR REASONS OF ECONOMY. AVAILABLE FORCES MUST BE KEPT IN FORWARD AREAS.IF WAR SHOULD COME IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE, OUR PROBABLE ENEMY MAY BE EXPECTED TO INSTITUTE A SUBMARINE CAMPAIGN TO DESTROY OIL REFINERIES AND INSTALLATIONS IN THE DUTCH WEST INDIES AND VENEZUELA AND TO INTERRUPT SHIPPING OF OIL, BAUXITE AND SUGAR THROUGH THE CARIBBEAN.

"IN THE LAST WAR SHIPPING IN THE CARIBBEAN WAS ALMOST PARALYZED WHILE WE WERE ORGANIZING TO STOP THE SUBMARINE THREAT. SINCE WE WON'.5 £-;3 ,-6 !94:

WON'T HAVE ANY FORCES AVAILABLE LOCALLY TO TAKE IMMEDIATE ANTI-SUBMARINE MEASURES, THE QUESTION IS: WHAT CAN WE DO ABOUT IT? THERE IS ONE ALTERNATIVE WHICH MAY BE HELPFUL AND SEEMS PRACTICAL. SINCE THE UNITED STATES CANNOT MAINTAIN IN PEACETIME ON-THE-SPOT FORCES FOR THE PROTECTION OF SHIPPING THROUGHOUT THE CARIBBEAN, CAN THE COUNTRIES BORDERING ON THE CARIBBEAN UNDERTAKE THE RESPONSIBILITY?

"I THINK THEY CAN IF THEY WILL. HOWEVER, SUCH A PLAN MUST BE DEVELOPED IN PEACETIME IF WE ARE TO GET CONCERTED ACTION IN WARTIME.

"WE MUST ASSUME IN CASE OF WAR WE CAN COUNT ON THE SIGNATORIES OF THE RIO DE JANEIRO (WESTERN HEMISPHERE DEFENSE) PACT TO BE OUR ALLIES.

"THE BOGOTA (COLOMBIA) PACT (ALSO) PROVIDES CONCERTED ACTION."

BARBEY SAID THAT PERHAPS, THROUGH STANDARDIZATION OF WEAPONS AND WAR TECHNIQUES, IT WOULD BE POSSIBLE TO GET A STANDBY PLAN STARTED AMONG THE CARIBBEAN REPUBLICS. THIS ALSO WOULD CALL FOR CONCERTED ACTION TO COUNTERACT THE SUBMARINE THREAT, HE SAID. HE PICTURED TTHIS AS AN EXTENSION OF THE REGIONAL MUTUAL DEFENSE PACT OF THE CARIBBEAN NATIONS RATHER THAN A REALLY NEW IDEA, AND HE URGED THAT SUCH A PLAN INCLUDE NOT ONLY THE REPUBLICS BUT THE DEPENDENCIES OF EUROPEAN NATIONS IN THE CARIBBEAN.

"THE CONVENIENT LOCATION OF PUERTO RICO, PLUS THE FACT ITS PEOPLE ARE SPANISH-SPEAKING, MAKES IT PARTICULARLY SUITABLE FOR TRAINING THE LATIN GROUPS," BARBEY ADDED. "BY SUPPLYING TO OUR CARIBBEAN NEIGHBORS OUR TECHNIQUES AND EQUIPMENT IN ANTI-SUBMARINE WARFARE, WE COULD MORE SATISFACTORILY JOIN THEM IN THE COMMON DEFENSE OF THE CARIBBEAN. ON THE OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR WE WOULD THEN BE IN A POSITION WHREBY EACH COUNTRY WOULD IMMEDIATELY TAKE OVER PROTECTION OF ITS ALLOTTED SECTOR OF THE CARIBBEAN. IF NECESSARY THEIR FORCES WOULD LATER BE AUGMENTED BY THE RESERVE STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES, WHICH WOULD BE GRADUALLY BROUGHT INTO BEING."

MONTREAL, JAN.27-(AP)-THE PROVINCIAL POLICE ANTI-SUBVERSIVE SQUAD TODAY PADLOCKED A JEWISH SCHOOL, A BUILDING HOUSING A "CULTURAL ORGANIZATION" AND A PRIVATE HOME.

POLICE SAID THE ACTION WAS TAKEN UNDER QUEBEC'S PADLOCK LAW WHICH PERMITS CLOSING FOR ONE YEAR OF PLACES SUSPECTED OF COMMUNISTIC ACTIVITIES.

PROVINCIAL OFFICERS WERE ASSISTED BY CITY POLICE IN RAIDS ON THE MAURICE HINDUSKEY SCHOOL ON VILLENEUVE STREET WEST; THE UNITED JEWISH PEOPLE'S ORDER (CAPS UJPO) BUILDING ON ESPLANADE AVENUE AND THE HOME OF BERIL SILVERBERG, SECRETARY OF THE ORDER, ALSO ON ESPLANADE AVENUE.

JAN 28 1950

THE DOORS WERE LOCKED, AND POLICE SAID A THOROUGH SEARCH OF THE THREE PREMISES WOULD BE MADE. THEY SAID "CONSIDERABLE LITERATURE" ALREADY HAD BEEN SEIZED.

POLICE SAID THE RAID ON THE UNITED JEWISH PEOPLE'S ORDER CULMINATED A MONTH'S INVESTIGATION INTO COMMUNISTIC ACTIVITIES IN MONTREAL.

MRS.SILVERBERG SAID THAT THE PADLOCK WAS ONLY AGAINST THE BUILDING AND NOT AGAINST THE UNITED JEWISH PEOPLES' ORDER.

SHE DENIED THAT THE ORDER WAS COMMUNISTIC BUT SAID THE BUILDING WAS FREQUENTLY USED IN MASS MEETINGS AT WHICH COMMUNIST SPEAKERS TOOK PART.

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, SATURDAY, JAN.28-(AP)-EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER PERCY C.SPENDER SAID TODAY AUSTRALIA DOES NOT PROPOSE FOR THE TIME BEING TO RECOGNIZE THE GOVERNMENT OF COMMUNIST CHINA.

SPENDER RETURNED TO SYDNEY FROM THE CONFERENCE OF BRITISH COMMONWEALTH FOREIGN MINISTERS AT COLOMBO, CEYLON.

HE SAID THAT "IT IS IRONICAL THAT SOME OF THE COUNTRIES QUICK TO RECOGNIZE COMMUNIST CHINA--AND READY TO SEND ACCREDITED REPRESENTATIVES THERE IN THE USUAL MANNER--WERE SOMEWHAT EMBARRASSED, TO SAY THE LEAST, TO BE TOLD BY CHINA THAT THE QUESTION OF DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATION MUST FIRST BE DISCUSSED AND THAT THEY WOULD BE PREPARED TO RECEIVE A MISSION TO THAT PURPOSE."

EVEN BETTER REASONS THAT THE EARLY CALCULATIONS ARE KNOWN WHY THE EARTH-DESTROYING NUCLEAR BOMB IS PROBABLY IMPOSSIBLE. IN THE AIR ALL THE TIME, COSMIC RAYS ARE SETTING OFF ATOMIC EXPLOSIONS MORE INTENSE THAN THE EXPLOSIONS OF SPLITTING ATOMS. IN THE UPPER AIR THESE EXPLOSIONS ARE CAUSED BY ATOMS RANGING FROM HYDROGEN TO IRON. IN EACH EXPLOSION ONE OF THESE ATOMS BREAKS, NOT MERELY IN TWO PARTS, BUT IN A FAR MORE POWERFUL SMASH INTO MANY FRAGMENTS.

THESE COSMIC RAY EXPLOSIONS ARE MORE POWERFUL TRIGGERS THAN THE ATOMS OF A-BOMBS. THE FACT THAT THEY OCCUR BY THE BILLIONS CONTINUOUSLY IN AIR AND THE SEAS IS A GOOD GUARANTEE AGAINST ANY EARTH-DESTROYING BOMB POSSIBILITY. EVEN THE GREAT HIGH-ENERGY MACHINES THAT THE US ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION IS NOW SPONSORING, ARE PUNY COMPARED WITH THE EXPLOSIONS OF COSMIC RAYS.

TROY, N.Y., JAN 27-(AP)-GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY ADVISED SCIENTISTS TODAY TO REPORT ALL DISCOVERIES, "NO MATTER HOW FEARSOME."

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ADDRESSED (2:30 P.M., EST) A GRADUATING CLASS OF 600 AT RENSSELAER POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE'S 142ND COMMENCEMENT. HE RECEIVED AN HONORARY DOCTOR OF ENGINEERING DEGREE.

BRADLEY SAID IN A PREPARED SPEECH THAT FREQUENTLY, AS WITH THE ATOMIC BOMB, A DISCOVERY "CAN BE UTILIZED FOR WAR, OFTEN MORE QUICKLY THAN IT CAN FOR PEACE."

BUT, HE SAID, "THE GENIE OF SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH MIGHT PROVE TO BE THE ULTIMATE MEANS TO BETTER LIVING AND PERMANENT PEACE. NO MAN SHOULD WITHHOLD HIS DISCOVERY BECAUSE HE FEARS THE USE TO WHICH IT WILL BE PUT."

BRADLEY DID NOT MENTION THE HYDROGEN BOMB. THERE HAS BEEN SPECULATION THAT SCIENTISTS WOULD GO "ON STRIKE" IF ASKED TO HELP DESIGN THE NEW BOMB.

THE GENERAL SAID THAT, "AS A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL CHARGED IN PART WITH THE SECURITY OF THIS NATION, I MUST ANSWER THE QUESTION: WHAT DO WE SAVE FOR OURSELVES OUT OF THE REALM OF SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY FOR NATIONAL SECURITY?"

"THERE IS NO SURE-FIRE CRITERION THAT CAN BE QUICKLY APPLIED," HE ADDED.

"EACH DISCOVERY THAT MIGHT BE USED FOR WAR, BY US OR AGAINST US, MUST BE CAREFULLY WEIGHED. X X X AND IN EACH INSTANCE, WE HOPE THAT AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE, THE POWER OF A DESTRUCTIVE WEAPON CAN BE TRANSFORMED TO AN ENERGY FOR THE COMMON PURPOSES OF BETTER LIVING."

HE SAID EDUCATION AND SCIENCE "CAN DO MORE TO PRESERVE OUR WAY OF LIFE, AND TO IMPROVE THE LOT OF EVERY MAN, AND ULTIMATELY TO SILENCE THE GUNS OF BATTLE, THAN ANY OTHER FORCES IN THE WORLD TODAY."

OTHERS WHO RECEIVED HONORARY DOCTOR OF ENGINEERING DEGREES WERE JAMES W. PARKER, PRESIDENT OF THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY, AND DON G. MITCHELL, PRESIDENT OF SYLVANIA PRODUCTS, INC.

THE GRADUATING CLASS WAS THE LARGEST IN THE HISTORY OF THE NATION'S OLDEST ENGINEERING SCHOOL.

WESTMINSTER,MD.,JAN 27-(AP)-"THERE ARE NO NEW PUMPKIN PAPERS," DECLARED WHITTAKER CHAMBERS TODAY.

THE FORMER COMMUNIST COURIER, COMMENTING ON NEW DOCUMENTS REP. NIXON (R-CAL) SAID HE GOT FROM HIM, STATED IN AN INTERVIEW:

"IT'S AN OLD STORY. I HAVE NO MORE PAPERS. THE GOVERNMENT HAS ALL I HAD AND KNOWS ALL THAT I KNOW."

CHAMBERS SAW "NOTHING NEW" IN NIXON'S SPEECH TO THE HOUSE YESTERDAY WHEN THE CONGRESSMAN PRODUCED DOCUMENTS CHAMBERS CLAIMS WERE GIVEN HIM BY THE LATE HARRY DEXTER WHITE. THE FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY DIED IN 1948 SHORTLY AFTER DENYING HE EVER GAVE ANY CONFIDENTIAL DATA TO CHAMBERS.

CHAMBERS CONFESSED SURPRISE THAT NIXON'S ANNOUNCEMENT CREATED A STIR.

"I THINK THE STORY SAYING THERE WERE NEW PUMPKIN PAPERS SET OFF THIS FLURRY," THE ROTOUND CHAMBERS SAID AT HIS FARM HERE. "I CAN'T SEE WHAT THE EXCITEMENT IS ABOUT. THERE IS NOTHING NEW NOW."

HE SAID THE PAPERS WERE PART OF THE TESTIMONY AT THE TRIAL OF ALGER HISS, CONVICTED LAST WEEK OF PERJURY.

OF HIS OWN PERSONAL FUTURE, CHAMBERS SAID HE PLANNED TO GO ON FARMING HIS 313 ACRES. HE HAS A DAIRY HERD OF 15 AND SHIPS 50 GALLONS OF MILK DAILY TO BALTIMORE.

"I CAN'T IMAGINE MYSELF ON A MAGAZINE AGAIN," THE FORMER EDITOR OF TIME SAID.

THE PRESIDENT IS SUPPORTING EMERY ALLISON, PRESIDENT OF THE MISSOURI STATE SENATE, IN THE CONTEST FOR THE SEAT NOW HELD BY SENATOR DONNELL (R-MO). THE GOVERNOR REPORTEDLY HAS THROWN HIS SUPPORT TO ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE, ALTHOUGH HE IS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE ORIGINALLY SUGGESTED ALLISON TO THE PRESIDENT.

WHEN REPORTERS ASKED WHETHER MR.TRUMAN WAS ANGRY WITH THE GOVERNOR, HE REPLIED THERE WAS NOT A WORD OF TRUTH IN THAT REPORT.

IN FACT, MR.TRUMAN ADDED, GOVERNOR SMITH AND HE TALKED BY TELEPHONE WITHIN THE LAST FEW DAYS AND THEY ARE ON VERY FRIENDLY TERMS.

THE PRESIDENT SAID HE WAS LOOKING INTO A PROPOSAL THAT LIMITS BE IMPOSED TO CURB THE IMPORT OF FOREIGN PETROLEUM INTO THIS COUNTRY.

HE DISCLOSED IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION THAT PAUL L.STYLES, REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD IN ATLANTA, IS BEING CONSIDERED ALONG WITH OTHERS FOR A VACANCY ON THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD.

JACKSON, MISS., JAN.27-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON DREW A SHARP REBUKE FROM THEMISSISSIPPI HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES TODAY FOR HIS COMMENT ON THE PERJURY CONVICTION OF ALGER HISS.

"I DO NOT INTEND TO TURN MY BACK ON ALGER HISS," THE SECRETARY SAID THIS WEEK AFTER THE HISS CONVICTION.

THE LEGISLATORS UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED A RESOLUTION BRANDING THE STATEMENT AS "SHOCKING AND UNPRECEDENTED".

"WE HAVE THE SPECTACLE IN OUR COUNTRY," SHOUTED GREY-HAIRED DELTA PLANTER WALTER SILLERS, "OF A MAN PROVED OF DISLOYALTY, CONVICTED AFTER TWO TRIALS, BEING DEFENDED BY A MAN IN THE POSITION OF HOLDING AND GUARDING THE SECRETS OF HIS COUNTRY, WHO STANDS BY HIM (HISS) INSTEAD OF STANDING BY THE PEOPLE OF HIS COUNTRY."

HISS' CONVICTION BRANDED HIM A TRAITOR TO HIS COUNTRY THROUGH USING HIS FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT POSITION TO PROVIDE INFORMATION TO THE COMMUNISTS. HE WAS SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS IMPRISONMENT.

SILLERS, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE, CAME DOWN FROM THE ROSTRUM TO SPEAK FOR THE RESOLUTION HE INTRODUCED.

SILLERS AND OTHER SUPPORTING SPEAKERS WERE INTERRUPTED REPEATEDLY BY CRIES OF "VOTE, VOTE" FROM THE FLOOR.

THE RESOLUTION ALSO SLAPPED AT THE APPEARANCE OF SUPREME COURT JUSTICES FELIX FRANKFURTER AND STANLEY REED AS DEFENSE CHARACTER WITNESSES IN THE FIRST HISS TRIAL. IT TERMED THEIR APPEARANCE AN "UNPRECEDENTED SPECTACLE."

THE RESOLUTION CALLED FOR A CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATION "OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND OTHER DEPARTMENTS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, INCLUDING THE JUDICIARY."

IT ASKED THAT SUMMARY ACTION BE TAKEN "TO RID THESE DEPARTMENTS OF ALL PERSONS, FROM THE HIGHEST TO THE LOWEST RANK, WHO DO NOT MEASURE UP TO THE STRICTEST TEST OF LOYALTY."

HISS WAS CONVICTED LAST SATURDAY AND WAS SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS IMPRISONMENT. HE HAD DENIED TO A GRAND JURY THAT HE GAVE SECRET GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS TO CHAMBERS.

NIXON TOLD NEWSMEN THERE MAY HAVE BEEN JUSTIFICATION FOR NOT PURSUING THE COMMITTEE INQUIRY WHILE THE HISS CASE WAS IN THE COURTS, BUT ADDED THAT THIS JUSTIFICATION NO LONGER EXISTS.

IN A ONE-HOUR SPEECH IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY, NIXON DENOUNCED THE ADMINISTRATION'S ATTITUDE IN THE CASE AND SAID THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ONCE HAD CONSIDERED PROSECUTING CHAMBERS INSTEAD OF HISS.

HAD THAT COURSE BEEN FOLLOWED, HE SAID, THE EFFECT WOULD HAVE BEEN TO RUIN ANY CASE AGAINST HISS AND OTHERS BECAUSE THEIR PRINCIPAL ACCUSER WOULD HAVE BEEN "AN INDICTED PERJURER."

NIXON ALSO CLAIMED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD ACCESS TO A SECRET MEMORANDUM DATED NOV. 25, 1945, SAYING THE SOVIETS HAD AN AGENT IN THIS COUNTRY "WHO WAS AN ASSISTANT" TO EDWARD R.STETTINIUS, THEN ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE.

THE LAWMAKER MADE CLEAR HE BELIEVED THE REFERENCE WAS TO HISS.FV RESI

TINIUS' ASSISTANT AT THE YALTA CONFERENCE.

THE 1945 MEMORANDUM, HE SAID, WAS PREPARED BY AN INTELLIGENCE AGENCY OF THIS COUNTRY AND WAS BASED ON INFORMATION GIVEN BY IGOR GUZENKO. GUZENKO WAS A SOVIET CODE CLERK IN CANADA WHO SUPPLIED INFORMATION THAT LED TO ESPIONAGE TRIALS AND CONVICTIONS IN CANADA.

THE CALIFORNIAN SAID HE HAS HAD THE CHAMBERS PAPERS SINCE DECEMBER, BUT HAD "INTENDED TO SAY NOTHING" ABOUT THEM. THEN, HE ADDED, HE DECIDED TO PRESENT THEM TO BACK UP CHAMBERS' TESTIMONY THAT HE RECEIVED SUCH PAPERS FROM WHITE.

THE DOCUMENTS, HE SAID, WERE TURNED OVER TO THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT BY CHAMBERS.

"A GOVERNMENT HANDWRITING AGENT HAS ESTABLISHED THAT THE DOCUMENTS WERE IN MR.WHITE'S HANDWRITING," NIXON SAID.

IN ANOTHER SPEECH YESTERDAY, REP. MACY (R-NY) URGED CONGRESS TO INVESTIGATE "THE UNCONVICTED 'HISSES'" AND CALLED THE HISS CASE "A SORRY SPECTACLE."

SENATOR WHERRY OF NEBRASKA, REPUBLICAN FLOOR LEADER, TOLD REPORTERS THAT MR.TRUMAN SHOULD REMOVE SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND BEGIN CORRECTING THE MISTAKES WHERRY SAID WERE MADE AT YALTA.

"ALL OUR FOREIGN POLICY TROUBLES GO BACK TO YALTA," WHERRY SAID. "THAT'S WHERE THE DECISIONS WERE MADE THAT ARE GIVING US TROUBLE TODAY. THOSE DECISIONS WERE SHAPED BY ACHESON'S FRIENDS--INCLUDING ALGER HISS."

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN.27-(AP)-HENRY SCHMIDT, [illegible]
IN THE HARRY BRIDGES PERJURY TRIAL, FLATLY DENIED TODAY HE WAS A COMMUNIST OR EVER ATTENDED COMMUNIST PARTY MEETINGS.

SCHMIDT, 51, IS INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE CIO LONGSHORE UNION OF WHICH BRIDGES IS PRESIDENT.

HE DENIED WITHOUT QUALIFICATION THE ASSERTIONS OF GOVERNMENT WITNESSES WHO HAD PLACED BOTH SCHMIDT AND BRIDGES AT NUMEROUS COMMUNIST PARTY GATHERINGS.

BRIDGES WAS INDICTED FOR PERJURY, CHARGED WITH LYING WHEN, IN HIS 1945 CITIZENSHIP HEARING, HE DENIED HE WAS A COMMUNIST. SCHMIDT AND J.R.ROBERTSON, ANOTHER UNION OFFICIAL, WERE INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY. THEY WERE BRIDGES' WITNESSES AT THE NATURALIZATION HEARING.

SCHMIDT, WHO CAME FROM GERMANY IN 1911 AND WAS NATURALIZED HERE ABOUT 23 YEARS AGO, WAS THE FIRST OF THE DEFENDANTS TO TAKE THE WITNESS STAND. ROBERTSON WILL BE NEXT, AND BRIDGES LAST.

THE COURT MOVED TO THE PERMANENTE HOSPITAL AT OAKLAND FOR THE AFTERNOON'S SESSION TO TAKE TESTIMONY FROM WILLIAM CHRISTENSEN, UNDER TREATMENT FOR A BACK INJURY.

DEFENSE ATRORNEYS SAID CHRISTENSEN DROVE BRIDGES, SCHMIDT AND OTHER UNION MEN TO STOCKTON FOR A JUNE 27, 1936, UNION MEETING. GOVERNMENT WITNESSES HAD LISTED THIS AS THE APPROXIMATE DATE WHEN THEY SAW BRIDGES AT A COMMUNIST MEETING IN NEW YORK.

CHRISTENSEN WITH FEDERAL JUDGE GEORGE B.HARRIS AND THE JURY GROUPED AROUND HIS BEDSIDE, TOLD OF THE TRIP TO STOCKTON WITH BRIDGES AND SAID HE SPOKE ON THE SAME PLATFORM WITH BRIDGES THAT NIGHT.

QUESTIONED BY THE PROSECUTION, CHRISTENSEN DENIED HE WAS EVER A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

THE TRIAL RECESSED UNTIL MONDAY.

NIGHT LEAD COPLON-GUBITCHEV

NEW YORK, JAN. 27-(AP)-VALENTIN A.GUBITCHEV'S LAWYER CONTENDED TODAY THAT THE RUSSIAN KNEW FROM THE FIRST THAT STRANGE MEN WERE TRAILING HIM IN HIS BACK STREET TRYSTS WITH JUDITH COPLON.

THAT'S WHY GUBITCHEV ACTED SCARED, SAID THE LAWYER, ABRAHAM L. POMERANTZ.

HE MADE THE STATEMENTS DURING TESTIMONY BY FBI AGENTS IN THE FOURTH DAY OF THE COPLON-GUBITCHEV SPY CONSPIRACY TRIAL.

AGENT RICHARD T.HRADSKY ADMITTED, ON CROSS-EXAMINATION, THAT GUBITCHEV APPEARED SUSPICIOUS THAT HE WAS BEING FOLLOWED ON JAN. 14, 1949, THE FIRST DAY ON WHICH G-MEN OBSERVED HIS NEW YORK MEETINGS WITH THE PETITE EX-GOVERNMENT GIRL.

THE GOVERNMENT SAYS GUBITCHEV WAS NERVOUS BECAUSE HE AND MISS COPLON WERE PLOTTING TO STEAL U.S. DEFENSE SECRETS FOR THE RUSSIANS. THE DEFENSE SAYS HE WAS SCARED BECAUSE HE WAS GOING OUT WITH A GIRL AND HIS WIFE MIGHT FIND OUT ABOUT IT.

ANOTHER FBI MAN, RICHARD E.BRENNAN, GAVE VIRTUALLY THE SAME ACCOUNT THAT HRADSKY GAVE OF THE JANUARY MEETING.

POMERANTZ AND MISS COPLON'S LAWYER, ARCHIBALD PALMER, HAD SEVERAL DISAGREEMENTS OVER THE TESTIMONY.

GUBITCHEV'S LAWYER SAID HE WOULD CONCEDE, TO SAVE TIME, THAT BRENNAN WOULD GIVE THE SAME ACCOUNT AS THE OTHER AGENT.

PALMER PROTESTED. "IT WOULD NOT SERVE OUR PURPOSE," HE SAID.

SO BRENNAN TOLD AGAIN OF MISS COPLON'S WALKING WITH GUBITCHEV ON AN UPPER MANHATTAN STREET AND GESTURING WITH A NEWSPAPER.

THE DEFENSE SAYS WHAT SHE ACTUALLY DID WAS STRIKE AT THE RUSSIAN WITH THE NEWSPAPER IN AN ARGUMENT THAT DEVELOPED FROM HER LEARNING HE WAS MARRIED.

THE GOVERNMENT INTRODUCED SEVERAL PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE UPPER MANHATTAN LOCALITY. PALMER ASKED PERMISSION TO INCLUDE A PICTURE OF THE SUBWAY STATION AT BROADWAY AND 116TH STREET, WITH HIMSELF IN THE PICTURE.

FEDERAL JUDGE SYLVESTER J.RYAN SAID PALMER'S ONLY PURPOSE APPEARED TO BE GETTING HIS OWN PICTURE INTO EVIDENCE. HE ALLOWED THE PHOTOGRAPH TO BE MARKED FOR IDENTIFICATION.

MISS COPLON WAS A JUSTICE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE AT THE TIME OF HER ARREST AND GUBITCHEV WAS A UNITED NATIONS AIDE.

BEFORE THE TRIAL RECESSED FOR THE WEEKEND, PALMER MADE HIS FIRST REFERENCE TO THE WASHINGTON TRIAL AT WHICH MISS COPLON WAS CONVICTED OF STEALING SECRET PAPERS FOR THE RUSSIANS.

HE READ FROM TESTIMONY HE SAID BRENNAN GAVE AT "ANOTHER TRIAL" BUT PROSECUTION OBJECTIONS PREVENTED BRENNAN'S ANSWERING QUESTIONS ABOUT IT.

RYAN ASKED THE WITNESS IF HE EVER TOOK PART IN INTERCEPTING TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS. BRENNAN SAID NO.

THE DEFENSE CONTENDS THAT ALL THE GOVERNMENT'S EVIDENCE STEMS FROM WIRETAPPING AND THUS SHOULD NOT BE ADMITTED IN A FEDERAL COURT

SAAR

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN.27-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES WAS REPORTED TODAY TO BE URGING FRANCE TO MODIFY ITS PROPOSAL FOR LEASING THE SAAR COAL MINES, IN ORDER TO HEAD OFF THE DANGER OF A POLITICAL CRISIS IN WESTERN EUROPE.

THE MAIN AMERICAN SUGGESTION IS SAID TO BE THAT IF THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT INSISTS ON GOING AHEAD, IT SHOULD MAKE THE CONTRACT SUBJECT TO FUTURE GERMAN PEACE TREATY PROVISIONS GOVERNING THE FINAL DISPOSITION OF THE SAAR LAND.

THE ISSUE HAS GROWN TO INCLUDE HOT FRENCH AND GERMAN POLITICAL QUESTIONS OVER THE EVENTUAL FATE OF THAT FRANCO-GERMAN BORDER AREA.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THAT UNLESS THE BONN AND PARIS GOVERNMENTS CAN RESOLVE THE PROBLEM IN FRIENDLY FASHION ALL THE PLANS FOR WESTERN EUROPEAN UNITY WILL BE GRAVELY ENDANGERED.

AMERICAN DIPLOMATS IN BOTH BONN AND PARIS HAVE BEEN WORKING TO EASE THE SITUATION. STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HAVE REVIEWED IT IN DETAIL WITH JOHN MCCLOY, U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR GERMANY.

THE SAAR HAS BEEN A SORE POINT IN FRENCH-GERMAN RELATIONS FOR MORE THAN A CENTURY. THE PRESENT ARGUMENT AROSE OVER A RECENT PROPOSAL OF THE FRENCH TO LEASE THE COAL MINES FOR 50 YEARS.

THE FRENCH OCCUPY THE SAAR AND BY AGREEMENT WITH THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE DETACHED IT FROM THEIR ZONE OF GERMANY. ITS ECONOMY IS JOINED TO THAT OF FRANCE AND IT HAS A GOVERNMENT INDEPENDENT OF THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

THE UNITED STATES APPARENTLY HAS NO PARTICULAR OBJECTION TO THE IDEA OF THE PROPOSED FRENCH LEASE. SOME OFFICIALS SAY PRIVATELY THAT THIS MIGHT NOT BE THE BEST TIME TO PRESS THE MATTER. BUT IF THE FRENCH INTEND TO GO THROUGH WITH THEIR NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE SAAR GOVERNMENT, THE UNITED STATES WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE LEASE MADE IN SUCH A WAY AS TO MINIMIZE RATHER THAN BUILD UP BASIC DIFFERENCES BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY.

JAN 28 1950

A11WX

THE THREE-POWER AGREEMENT UNDER WHICH FRANCE DETACHED THE SAAR FROM GERMANY PROVIDED THAT THE EVENTUAL STATUS OF THE AREA WOULD BE FIXED BY THE GERMAN PEACE TREATY--IF AND WHEN THERE IS ONE.

SEIZING ON THE LEASE CONTROVERSY, SOME GERMAN POLITICAL SPOKESMEN HAVE RECENTLY SOUGHT TO MAKE THE SAAR A RALLYING POINT FOR GERMAN NATIONALISM BY INSISTING THAT IT MUST BE RETURNED TO GERMANY.

AS LONG AS THE QUESTION OF ITS FINAL DISPOSITION IS OPEN THERE WILL OBVIOUSLY BE OPPORTUNITY FOR SUCH POLITICAL PRESSURES. IN THIS INSTANCE, HOWEVER, THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT ITSELF, POSSIBLY WITH THE URGING OF THE OCCUPATION POWERS, TOOK THE PUBLIC POSITION EARLY THIS WEEK THAT THE MAJOR CONCERN OF GERMANY MUST BE COOPERATION WITH THE WESTERN POWERS IN THE INTEREST OF WEST EUROPEAN UNITY.

MCCLOY (200)

BOSTON, JAN 27-(AP)-JOHN J.MCCLOY, U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR GERMANY, SAYS THAT IF THE RUSSIANS IMPOSE A COMPLETE BLOCKADE OF BERLIN THE AIRLIFT WILL BE STARTED AGAIN.

MCCLOY MADE THE STATEMENT TO NEWSMEN LAST NIGHT AFTER BEING INFORMED THAT SOVIET GUARDS WERE TIGHTENING THEIR SQUEEZE ON TRUCKS MOVING IN BOTH DIRECTIONS BETWEEN BERLIN AND WESTERN GERMANY.

HE SAID THE SOVIET'S ACTION APPEARED TO BE "MORE IN THE NATURE OF A HARRASSMENT" AS "PART OF A GENERAL EFFORT OF THE COMMUNISTS TO TWIST YOUR ARM."

"THEY SEEM TO THINK," HE SAID, "ONLY OF IMPEDING THE RECOVERY OF GERMANY."

MCCLOY CAME HERE TO ADDRESS THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WORLD AFFAIRS.

HE TOLD THE COUNCIL THAT ALTHOUGH THE DENAZIFICATION PROCESS MAY LEAVE "MUCH TO BE DESIRED," FORMER NAZI FOLLOWERS SHOULD NOT BE EXCLUDED FROM NORMAL GERMAN COMMUNITY LIFE.

HE SAID "THE TIME HAS COME TO PERMIT THESE SO-CALLED LITTLE NAZIS TO DEMONSTRATE THEIR LOYALTY TO THE NEW GERMANY."

THEY SHOULD BE JUDGED, HE ADDED, ON THAT BASIS AND NOT ON PAST WEAKNESS AND MISDEEDS.

"THEY CANNOT AND SHOULD NOT BE EXCLUDED FOREVER FROM THE NORMAL LIFE OF THE COMMUNITY," HE SAID.

MANY OF THEM, INCLUDING SCHOOL TEACHERS, MAIL CARRIERS, GOVERNMENT CLERKS AND OTHERS WERE FORCED, HE SAID, TO JOIN THE NAZI PARTY "TO HOLD THEIR JOBS."

HE SAID THAT GERMANY "CONSTITUTES A DANGER WITHIN ITSELF AND AN EVEN MORE FEARFUL DANGER IF ALLIED WITH, OR SUBORDINATED TO, THE INTERESTS OF THE SOVIET UNION."

(480) URANIUM-WALLACE

BY DOUGLAS B.CORNELL

WASHINGTON, JAN.27-(AP)-HOUSE INVESTIGATORS GAVE UP FOR THE TIME BEING TODAY TRYING TO FIND OUT JUST WHO WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR LICENSING A 1,000-POUND URANIUM SHIPMENT TO RUSSIA BACK IN 1943.

THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE MAY TRY AGAIN LATE NEXT WEEK. IT EXPECTS TO BRING BACK THEN THE WARTIME HEAD OF THE ATOM BOMB PROJECT, LT.GEN.LESLIE R.GROVES, RETIRED.

URANIUM IS A KEY MATERIAL IN THE ATOM BOMB. ALL WEEK LONG THE COMMITTEE HAS BEEN TRYING TO LEARN EXACTLY HOW AND WHY RUSSIA WAS ALLOWED TO TAKE 1,000 POUNDS OF ATOMIC MATERIALS OUT OF THE COUNTRY WHEN ATOMIC PROJECT OFFICIALS THOUGHT THEY HAD BOTTLED UP ALL SOURCES OF SUPPLY.

IT DIDN'T FIND OUT YESTERDAY FROM FORMER VICE PRESIDENT HENRY A. WALLACE. IT FAILED EARLIER WITH MEN WHO USED TO HANDLE URANIUM PURCHASES FOR THE ATOMIC PROJECT.

SOME COMMITTEE MEMBERS SUSPECT THAT AT LEAST THERE WAS SOME SLIPSHOD SECURITY INVOLVED, AND PERHAPS AT MOST THAT SOMEBODY IN THE GOVERNMENT WAS GIVING EXTRA HELP TO THE SOVIETS. THEY HAVEN'T PRODUCED ANY PROOF.

COMMITTEE INVESTIGATORS HAVE DUG UP RECORDS THAT SHOW THE 1,000-POUND-SHIPMENT LEFT THE COUNTRY IN JUNE, 1943, UNDER AN EXPORT LICENSE ISSUED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

THE RUSSIANS GOT THE URANIUM THROUGH CHEMATER, INC., NEW YORK CHEMICAL BROKERS, WHO IN TURN OBTAINED THE MATERIAL FROM CANADIAN RADIUM AND URANIUM CORPORATION OF NEW YORK, THE SALES AGENT FOR A CANADIAN PRODUCING FIRM.

WALLACE WAS HEAD OF THE BOARD OF ECONOMIC WARFARE (BEW) IN 1943, WHEN IT ISSUED THE EXPORT LICENSE.

BUT THE MAN PRESIDENT TRUMAN BOOTED OUT OF THE CABINET ON GROUNDS HE TOOK A TOO PRO-RUSSIAN FOREIGN POLICY ATTITUDE TESTIFIED UNDER OATH THAT NEVER AT ANY TIME, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, DID HE: (Q)

HAVE ANYTHING TO DOW WITH EXPEDITING ANY EXPORT LICENSE OF ANY KIND TO ANY NATION, OR (B) TRY TO INFLUENCE ANYBODY TO ISSUE A LICENSE FOR ANY URANIUM PRODUCT.

WALLACE SAID HE DOES KNOW BORIS PREGEL, PRESIDENT OF THE CANADIAN RADIUM AND URANIUM CORPORATION. BUT HE SAID HE FIRST MET PREGEL ON DEC. 27, 1943--SOME SIX MONTHS AFTER THE 1,000 POUNDS OF URANIUM LEFT THE COUNTRY.

A67WX

JAN 28 1950

RADIO COMMENTATOR FULTON LEWIS HAD ACCUSED WALLACE OF APPLYING PRESSURE TO GET URANIUM FOR RUSSIA. WALLACE ASKED THE COMMITTEE TO GIVE HIM THE HEARING.

IT WAS LEND-LEASE, NOT BEW, WALLACE SAID, WHICH CLEARED ALL SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA. HE SAID HE WAS "NEITHER RESPONSIBLE NOR AWARE OF ANY OF THEM AT THAT TIME."

SINCE HE DIDN'T KNOW THE RUSSIANS WERE TRYING TO GET ATOMIC MATERIALS, HE SAID, IT IS APPARENT THAT "I COULD NOT HAVE PRESSURED SOMEONE ELSE INTO ISSUING THE LICENSE" OR URGED THEM TO PRESSURE THE ATOM BOMB PROJECT TO CONSENT TO A LICENSE.

"IN SHORT, AND IN FACT," WALLACE SAID, "I HAD ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO DO WITH ANY OF THESE LICENSES."

BEW, HE SAID, HAD NO AUTHORITY TO APPROVE OR DENY A LICENSE. ALL IT DID, HE SAID, WAS TO GO THROUGH A MECHANICAL, ALMOST AUTOMATIC PROCESS OF ISSUING THOSE APPROVED BY LEND-LEASE.

UNDER QUESTIONING, WALLACE DENIED, AND SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN ALSO HAD DENIED, THAT HE PROPOSED AT A CABINET MEETING ON SEPT. 21, 1945, THAT THE ATOM BOMB SECRET BE SHARED WITH RUSSIA.

WALLACE SAID THAT "THERE AREN'T ANY SECRETS IN THE SCIENTIFIC WORLD" SO HE DID SUPPORT A PROPOSAL OF SECRETARY OF WAR STIMSON FOR A "SCIENTIFIC EXCHANGE" WITH OTHER UNITED NATIONS. HE SAID HE CAME OUT AGAINST SHARING ACTUAL KNOW-HOW AND CONSTRUCTION DETAILS OF THE BOMB WITH ANY NATION.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN.27-(AP)-A UNITED STATES-JAPANESE PEACE TREATY AND TREATY OF ALLIANCE -- WITH OR WITHOUT RUSSIA -- WAS URGED TODAY BY A FORMER JAPANESE PUBLIC OFFICIAL.

JIUJI G. KASAI, FORMER MEMBER OF THE JAPANESE DIET AND PRESENTLY PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN-JAP CULTURAL SOCIETY AND INTERNATIONAL PUBLISHING CO. OF TOKYO, TOLD THE COMMONWEALTH CLUB IN A PREPARED SPEECH:

"IF THE SOVIET UNION DOES NOT AGREE WITH THE U.S. ON A PEACE TREATY, JAPAN SHOULD SIGN A PACT WITH THE U.S. AND OTHER ALLIES EXCEPT SOVIET RUSSIA."

JAPAN NEEDS AMERICAN CAPITAL, HE SAID. IN AN EFFORT TO ATTRACT INVESTORS, HE ADDED, THE COUNTRY IS TRYING TO REMEDY HER LAWS TO MAKE IT EASY FOR AMERICAN CAPITALISTS TO INVEST IN JAPANESE INDUSTRIES.

BEFORE PEARL HARBOR HE WARNED JAPAN AGAINST SUCH AN ATTACK BUT WAS IMPRISONED FOR HIS ADVICE.

LOUISVILLE,KY.,JAN 27-(AP)-GEN. GEORGE MARSHALL DECLARED HERE TODAY THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM THUS FAR HAS EXCEEDED EXPECTATIONS.

THE FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE AND WARTIME CHIEF OF ARMY STAFF CAME HERE TO SPEAK AT AN AMERICAN RED CROSS DINNER TONIGHT.

MARSHALL, NOW NATIONAL CHAIRMAN OF THE RED CROSS, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM HAS BEEN MORE EFFECTIVE THAN MOST PEOPLE REALIZE.

THE STATESMAN-SOLDIER WHOSE NAME WAS GIVEN TO THE MARSHALL PLAN NEVER USED THAT PHRASE DURING THE INTERVIEW. HE REFERRED TO IT AS "E.R.P."

HE SAID AMERICANS WHO WANT TO SEE THE E.R.P. FAIL ARE CHIEFLY RESPONSIBLE FOR DOUBTS IN THE PUBLIC'S MIND ABOUT THE PROGRAM.

"UNDER THE PRESSURE OF NECESSITY," HE DECLARED, "WE WILL FIND THOSE (WESTERN EUROPEAN) NATIONS COMING TOGETHER IN THE NEXT TWO YEARS."

AMES, IA., JAN.27-(AP)-THE EVENTUAL SUCCESS OR FAILURE OF THE UNITED NATIONS, MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT SAID TONIGHT, WILL DEPEND ON "TWO GREAT NATIONS AND THEIR UNDERSTANDING."

SHE DID NOT NAME THE TWO NATIONS, BUT SHE OBVIOUSLY WAS REFERRING TO THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA. SHE ADDRESSED A SESSION OF THE IOWA STATE COLLEGE ANNUAL WOMEN'S RECOGNITION DAY.

THOUGH THE UNITED STATES IS THE STRONGEST MILITARY FORCE IN THE WORLD TODAY, "I AM NOT QUITE SURE WE ARE THE NATION THAT IS REGARDED AS THE WORLD'S SPIRITUAL AND MORAL LEADER," MRS. ROOSEVELT SAID.

SHE SAID THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES MUST BE GOOD CITIZENS BECAUSE GOOD CITIZENSHIP "MAKES THE REST OF THE WORLD REALIZE DEMOCRACY HAS THE MORAL AND SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP TO KEEP THE PEACE."

THE WIDOW OF THE LATE PRESIDENT FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT SAID THE UNITED NATIONS WAS SET UP "TO BE USED BY THE WORLD, AND THE RESPONSIBILITY SHOULD BE PUT ON THE PEOPLE TO SEE THAT IT IS USED."

SHE SAID SHE COULD NOT PREDICT THAT THE UNITED NATIONS WILL BRING PEACE, BUT ADDED:

"IT IS THE ONLY WAY WE CAN WORK FOR PEACE IN AN ORGANIZED FASHION."

IN A NEWS CONFERENCE EARLIER, MRS. ROOSEVELT SAID THAT "YOU JUST COULDN'T HOLD BACK SCIENTIFIC KNOWLEDGE," IN COMMENTING ON THE CONTROVERSY OVER CONSTRUCTION OF A HYDROGEN BOMB.

THE WIDOW OF THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE ON THE IOWA STATE COLLEGE CAMPUS THAT SHE THOUGHT IT WAS "VASTLY IMPORTANT NOW TO DEVOTE TIME AND ENERGY TO PEACETIME USE OF THIS GREAT FORCE."

COMMENTING ON THE RECENT CONVICTION OF ALGER HISS, MRS. ROOSEVELT OBSERVED:

"A MAN WHO HAS PROFESSED INNOCENCE IS INVOLVED BY A MAN WHO BY HIS OWN ADMISSION IS A PERJURER AND A FORMER COMMUNIST. IT SEEMS RATHER HORRIBLE TO CONDEMN SOMEONE ON THE WORD OF SOMEONE ELSE WHO ADMITS TO GUILT."

HISS, A FORMER HIGH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, WAS CONVICTED LAST WEEK, OF PERJURY, WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, THE GOVERNMENT'S KEY WITNESS HAS ADMITTED HE WAS A FORMER COMMUNIST AND THAT HE LIED IN SOME OF HIS TESTIMONY.

MRS. ROOSEVELT SAID SHE HADN'T KNOWN HISS WELL ENOUGH TO TESTIFY AS TO HIS CHARACTER. SHE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT SHE HAD HEARD HIM SPEAK OFTEN AND COULD NOT RECOLLECT EVER HEARING HIM SAY ANYTHING THAT WOULD CAST SUSPICION ON HIM.

"ONE THING TROUBLES ME," SHE SAID. "IF YOU HAD BEEN DISLOYAL AND YOUR CONSICENCE TROUBLED YOU, THE ONLY WAY YOU COULD GO SCOTT FREE WOULD BE TO ACCUSE SOMEONE ELSE OF THE THINGS YOU WERE ACCUSED OF."

SPEAKING OF LOYALTY OATHS, MRS. ROOSEVELT SAID SHE PERSONALLY DIDN'T FEEL THEY DID MUCH GOOD BECAUSE COMMUNISTS WERE TAUGHT TO LIE. SHE SAID SHE FELT SOMETIMES THAT SUCH OATHS BORDERED ON THE INVASION OF PRIVATE RIGHTS.

MRS. ROOSEVELT WAS TO ADDRESS THE STUDY BODY TONIGHT. EARLIER TODAY SHE SPOKE AT THE COLLEGE'S ANNUAL "WOMEN'S DAY" CONVOCATION.

WASHINGTON,JAN.27-(AP)-THE WORLD BANK ANNOUNCED TODAY THE WAY HAS BEEN CLEARED FOR YUGOSLAVIA AND FINLAND TO BEGIN DRAWING CASH UNDER LOANS OF $2,700,000 AND $2,300,000, RESPECTIVELY.

BOTH COUNTRIES, THE BANK SAID, HAVE MET CONDITIONS STIPULATED IN AGREEMENTS SIGNED LAST OCTOBER 17.

PURPOSE OF THE LOANS IS TO ENABLE THE TWO EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO SHIP MORE TIMBER TO BRITAIN, FRANCE, ITALY, HOLLAND, BELGIUM AND DENMARK.

THE BANK'S FUNDS ARE TO BE USED FOR BUYING EQUIPMENT.

THE STIPULATION IN THE ORIGINAL AGREEMENT WITH YUGOSLAVIA FORBADE USE OF THE FUNDS UNTIL MARSHAL TITO'S COUNTRY ARRANGED "TIMBER PAYMENTS AGREEMENTS" WITH BRITAIN, FRANCE, ITALY AND HOLLAND.

THESE AGREEMENTS REQUIRE THE FOUR COUNTRIES IMPORTING FROM YUGOSLAVIA TO PAY U.S.DOLLARS DIRECTLY TO THE BANK FOR A SUFFICIENT PART OF THEIR TIMBER RECEIPTS TO INSURE REPAYMENT OF THE $2,700,000 LOAN IN TWO YEARS.

JAN 28 1950

YUGOSLAVIA HAS MADE THE ARRANGEMENTS, THE BANK SAID, CALLING FOR BRITAIN TO PAY THE BANK $1,700,000, FRANCE $200,000, AND ITALY AND HOLLAND $400,000 EACH.

FINLAND WAS NOT ACTUALLY REQUIRED TO MAKE CORRESPONDING TIMBER PAYMENTS AGREEMENTS DUE TO CERTAIN CLAUSES IN OUTSTANDING FINNISH BONDS WHICH WOULD CONFLICT WITH SUCH A REQUIREMENT.

HOWEVER, FINLAND, BY UNDERSTANDING, VOLUNTARILY ENTERED INTO SIMILAR AGREEMENTS UNDER WHICH BRITAIN WILL PAY $1,400,000 TO THE BANK, AND BELGIUM AND DENMARK $450,000 EACH.

WASHINGTON,JAN.27-(AP)-SENATE CRITICS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S FORMOSA POLICY NOW HAVE A REPORT ON WHAT U.S. DEFENSE CHIEFS THINK ABOUT THE CHINESE NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD: STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT, BUT NOT WORTH OCCUPYING.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) REPORTED THAT YESTERDAY AS THE SUBSTANCE OF TESTIMONY OFFERED THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON AND GEN.OMAR BRADLEY.

CONNALLY SAID THE TWO OFFICIALS DESCRIBED THE ISLAND AS HAVING CONSIDERABLE MILITARY VALUE, BUT NOT ENOUGH TO JUSTIFY THE PRESENCE OF AMERICAN TROOPS TO KEEP IT FROM THE COMMUNISTS.

ANOTHER SENATOR, WHO ASKED TO REMAIN ANONYMOUS, SAID BRADLEY AGREED WITH GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR THAT FORMOSA WOULD BE A "MENACE TO OUR LIFELINE" IN THE PACIFIC IF IT FELL INTO HOSTILE HANDS.

BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, ATTENDED THE CLOSED-DOOR SESSION WITH JOHNSON IN ANSWER TO NUMEROUS GOP PROTESTS OVER MR.TRUMAN'S DECISION NOT TO SEND MILITARY AID TO FORMOSA. THE REPUBLICANS HAD SUGGESTED THE DECISION WAS MADE AGAINST THE WISHES OF THE MILITARY LEADERS.

BUT CONNALLY SAID THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT WAS "APPROVED AND CONFIRMED" BY DEFENSE CHIEFS--ALTHOUGH HE ADDED THAT "MECHANICAL DIFFICULTIES" PREVENTED THEM FROM SEEING IT UNTIL JUST A SHORT TIME BEFORE IT WAS RELEASED.

ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS HAD BEEN CONSIDERING SENDING A MILITARY MISSION TO THE ISLAND RIGHT UP TO THE TIME OF THE PRESIDENT'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 27-(AP)-ADMIRAL FORREST P.SHERMAN, AT 53 THE NATION'S YOUNGEST CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, WAS FORMALLY INDUCTED TODAY INTO THAT POST AFTER HIS APPROVAL BY THE SENATE.

SHERMAN SUCCEEDED ADMIRAL LOUIS E.DENFELD WHOSE OUSTER BY SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS LED TO A CONGRESSIONAL ROW AND DELAYED SHERMAN'S CONFIRMATION FOR SEVERAL DAYS. HOWEVER, HE HAS ACTUALLY SERVED IN THE NAVY'S HIGHEST UNIFORMED POST FOR THREE MONTHS.

HIGH OFFICIALS AT THE SWEARING-IN CEREMONY HELD IN MATTHEWS' OFFICE SEEMED TO GIVE MORE THAN A PASSING EXAMINATION TO SHERMAN'S WRITTEN COMMISSION AS OPERATIONS CHIEF.

SENATORIAL IRE WAS DIRECTED AT MATTHEWS IN THE DENFELD CASE AFTER HE TESTIFIED THAT DENFELD HAD BEEN FIRED BEFORE HE WAS COMMISSIONED FOR A SECOND TIME--ONLY TO BE CONFRONTED WITH THE FACT THAT DENFELD DID HAVE A COMMISSION. MATTHEWS, HOWEVER, CONTENDED THAT THIS DOCUMENT HAD NOT BEEN "OFFICIALLY" ISSUED. HE HAS BEEN ASKED TO APPEAR AGAIN BEFORE THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE TO DISCUSS IT.

THE FACT THAT DENFELD WAS OUSTED AFTER CRITICIZING PENTAGON HIGH POLICY IN CONGRESSIONAL TESTIMONY HAS BROUGHT CHARGES THAT HE WAS BEING PUNISHED. MATTHEWS SAID THE TESTIMONY HAD HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH HIS ACTION.

AT TODAY'S CEREMONY, DEFENSE SECRETARY JOHNSON SAID:

"I HAVE ALWAYS BEEN FOR THE NAVY. SOMETIMES WHEN YOU DIDN'T FIGHT YOURSELF, I FOUGHT FOR YOU. THERE COULDN'T BE A FINER DAY FOR THE NAVY."

SHERMAN SPOKE OF "CONFIDENCE IN THE SURVIVAL OF THE NAVY AS A VITAL UNIT IN DEFENSE OF OUR COUNTRY."

SHERMAN, A NATIVE OF MERRIMACK, N.H., WAS CHOSEN FOR THE JOB WHILE HE WAS COMMANDING THE U.S. TASK FLEET IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.

COURT-LOYALTY (220)

WASHINGTON, JAN 27-(AP)-THE SUPREME COURT WAS ASKED TODAY TO DECLARE THE GOVERNMENT'S LOYALTY PROGRAM UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

THE REQUEST WAS MADE IN AN APPEAL FILED BY THE JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE, A NEW YORK CITY ORGANIZATION WHICH HAS BEEN LABELED SUBVERSIVE BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

THE APPEAL SAID THAT DESIGNATION HAS HAD AN INJURIOUS EFFECT ON THE GROUP'S ACTIVITIES. IT SAID ITS WORK IS TO ASSIST ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEES WHO HAD FOUGHT AGAINST GENERAL FRANCO IN SPAIN.

THE COMMITTEE WAS AMONG 90 ORGANIZATIONS CALLED SUBVERSIVE IN 1947 BY THE THEN ATTORNEY GENERAL, TOM C.CLARK. CLARK NOW IS A MEMBER OF THE SUPREME COURT.

THE COMMITTEE FIRST CONTESTED VALIDITY OF THE LOYALTY PROGRAM IN A COMPLAINT FILED IN U.S. DISTRICT COURT HERE. THE COMPLAINT ASKED NOT ONLY THAT THE PROGRAM BE DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL BUT THAT THE ATTORNEY GENERAL BE ORDERED TO TAKE THE COMMITTEE'S NAME OFF THE SUBVERSIVE LIST.

THE DISTRICT COURT DISMISSED THE COMPLAINT. ITS ACTION WAS AFFIRMED LATER BY THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS HERE.

THE COURT OF APPEALS SAID THE COMPLAINT DID NOT PRESENT A "JUSTICIABLE CONTROVERSY" BECAUSE THE ATTORNEY GENERAL WAS ACTING FOR THE PRESIDENT IN A MATTER IN WHICH THE ACTION OF A PRESIDENT IS NOT SUBJECT TO COURT REVIEW.

THE COMMITTEE'S APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT ASKED THAT THIS DECISION BE OVERTURNED. THE APPEAL WAS FILED BY ATTORNEY O. JOHN ROGGE, A FORMER JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ATTORNEY.

(500) GI TRAINEES

WASHINGTON,JAN.27-(AP)-OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THE NEW 75-CENT MINIMUM WAGE LAW WILLL REQUIRE SOME EMPLOYERS TO PAY MORE WAGES TO GI ON-THE-JOB TRAINEES.

BUT THIS WON'T MEAN ANY MORE MONEY, ACTUALLY, FOR THE TRAINEES. THE ADDITIONAL AMOUNTS EMPLOYERS PAY THEM WILL REDUCE THE AMOUNT THE GOVERNMENT PAYS THE VETERANS IN SUBSISTENCE ALLOWANCES.

THE SUBSISTENCE ALLOWANCES ARE DESIGNED TO BRING A GI UP TO A FIXED INCOME, WHEN ADDED TO HIS PAY RATES WHILE LEARNING A JOB.

NONE OF THE TRAINEES NOR THEIR EMPLOYERS WILL BE AFFECTED IF THEY ARE EXEMPT FROM THE WAGE-HOUR LAW, AND ABOUT HALF OF ALL THE WORKERS IN THE COUNTRY ARE EXEMPT FROM THAT LAW.

THE WAGE-HOUR ADMINISTRATION CONSIDERS ONLY THE AMOUNT THE EMPLOYER PAYS A WORKER INCLUDED UNDER THE WAGE-HOUR LAW, IN DETERMINING IF THE EMPLOYER IS MEETING THE REQUIRED MINIMUM WAGE. THE WAGE-HOUR ADMINISTRATION DOES NOT CONSIDER GOVERNMENT SUBSISTENCE PAYMENTS AS WAGES FROM AN EMPLOYER.

THERE ARE THREE MAIN GROUPS OF VETERANS IN DIFFERENT FORMS OF JOB TRAINING:

1. THOSE INCLUDED IN THE APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAMS APPROVED AND REGISTERED WITH THE LABOR DEPARTMENT'S BUREAU OF APPRENTICESHIP. THESE PROGRAMS OFTEN RUN FOUR YEARS OR LONGER.

AGREEMENTS COVERING SUCH APPRENTICE PROGRAMS ARE REQUIRED TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE WAGE-HOUR ADMINISTRATION FOR CERTIFICATES PERMITTING WAGE RATES BELOW THE 75-CENT MINIMUM.

2. THESE INCLUDED IN GI ON-THE-JOB TRAINING COURSES RUNNING TWO YEARS OR MORE. THERE ARE ABOUT 125,000 SUCH VETERANS, BUT THEY ARE NOT ALL SUBJECT TO THE WAGE-HOUR LAW.

THE WAGE-HOUR ADMINISTRATION IS PERMITTING EMPLOYERS OF THESE TRAINEES TO CONTINUE PRESENT WAGE RATES, IF OVER 40 CENTS AN HOUR, UNTIL MAY 25 PROVIDED THE EMPLOYERS FILE COPIES OF THE TRAINING COURSE AGREEMENT APPROVED BY STATE AGENCIES UNDER THE GI LAW.

3. THESE INCLUDED IN THE GI ON-THE-JOB TRAINING WHICH RUNS FROM THREE MONTHS TO TWO YEARS. THERE ARE 150,000 VETERANS IN THIS CATEGORY, BUT NOT ALL ARE COVERED BY THE WAGE-HOUR LAW, DEPENDING ON WHAT THEY DO.

B5WX CSEG

THESE VETERANS CAN BE EMPLOYED AT LESS THAN THE 75-CENT HOURLY MINIMUM IF THEIR EMPLOYERS GET SPECIAL LEARNER CERTIFICATES FROM THE WAGE-HOUR ADMINISTRATION. HOWEVER, THE AGENCY IS FIXING LEARNER RATES AT BETWEEN 60 AND 70 CENTS AN HOUR AND THIS MAY BE HIGHER THAN SOME GI TRAINEE EMPLOYERS HAVE BEEN PAYING.

HERE'S AN EXAMPLE: AN EMPLOYER MAY HAVE BEEN PAYING A GI TRAINEE (ONE IN THE NO. 3 CATEGORY OF GI TRAINING, AS ABOVE) 50 CENTS AN HOUR. NOW HE EITHER HAS TO PAY THE FULL 75-CENT MINIMUM, OR GET A LEARNER'S CERTIFICATE PERMITTING HIM TO PAY SOMEWHERE BETWEEN 60 AND 70 CENTS. THIS, OF COURSE, APPLIES ONLY IF THE VETERAN IS COVERED BY THE WAGE-HOUR LAW. THE TRAINEE'S SUBSISTENCE PAYMENT FROM THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION PROBABLY WILL BE REDUCED TO THE EXTENT THE EMPLOYER RAISES THE VET'S PAY, SO THE VETERAN WILL GET THE SAME AMOUNT.

EMPLOYERS OF TRAINEES ON THE TYPE TRAINING PLAN RUNNING FROM THREE MONTHS TO TWO YEARS THUS SEEM TO HAVE THE BIGGEST PROBLEM O. CONFORMANCE WITH THE WAGE-HOUR LAW.

HOWEVER, OFFICIALS SAID EVEN THESE EMPLOYERS PROBABLY WOULDN'T HAVE TO PAY MUCH ADDITIONAL. THEY SAID THE TRAINEE--EVEN THE SHORT-TERM TYPE--MAY START AT A LOW RATE, BUT HIS WAGE IS PROGRESSIVELY INCREASED EVERY FEW MONTHS UNTIL HE REACHES THE LEVEL OF THE FULLY-TRAINED WORKER.

THUS THE EMPLOYER MAY HAVE A PROBLEM WITH THE WAGE-HOUR LAW FOR A COMPARATIVELY SHORT PERIOD.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.27-(AP)-WESTERN POWER DIPLOMATS WERE PRETTY WELL AGREED TODAY IN THE BELIEF THAT RUSSIAN INTENDS TO PUT A BIG AND ALERT SOVIET MISSION INTO THE NEW UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA UNDER THE CLOAK OF DIPLOMACY.

USING BASEBALL LANGUAGE, ONE SAID THE RUSSIANS ARE PITCHING A DIPLOMATIC CURVE CLEAR ACROSS SOUTHEAST ASIA WITH INTENTIONS OF EXPLOITING THE CURRENT UPHEAVALS IN THE MONTH-OLD ISLAND NATION TO SPREAD CHAOS AND COMMUNISM.

THAT WAS THE IMMEDIATE REACTION IN THIS DIPLOMATIC CAPITAL TO THE MOSCOW ANNOUNCEMENT THAT RUSSIA IS RECOGNIZING AND WANTS TO EXCHANGE DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS WITH THE U.S.I.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT CAME AS A SURPRISE IN MOST QUARTERS. LITTLE MORE THAN A MONTH AGO, RUSSIANS IN THE U.N. DENOUNCED THE HAGUE ROUNDTABLE AGREEMENT OF 1949 GIVING THE OLD DUTCH EAST INDIES SOVEREIGN INDEPENDENCE AS AN EQUAL PARTNER OF HOLLAND UNDER THE CROWN OF QUEEN JULIANA.

Reds Reviving Gestapo In East Germany for Their Own Protection

BERLIN, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Gestapo is returning to East Germany—this time to protect Communism.

Communists are demanding the establishment of a Ministry of State Security at the next meeting, Feb. 8, of the Volkskammer (people's chamber) of the Soviet-zone republic. Their control of the chamber assures passage.

The core of the new ministry will be a secret state police system rivaling the dreaded Geheime Staatspolizei—Gestapo for short—which Nazi Henrich Himmler created in the 1930s.

Erich Mielke, an old-time Communist who is now an inspector general in the Interior Ministry, already has been appointed to head the new force. He has been a key police official in East Germany since 1945. He returned that year to his homeland after 14 years in Russia as a fugitive in connection with a political slaying in Berlin.

Official East German sources indicated tonight the new force will coordinate all political and economic intelligence activities in the people's republic.

Its surveillance will include factories engaged in the two-year plan, political movements and education. It will engage in "defensive operations" against alleged sabotage by pro-Western workers, public officials and teachers.

The Soviet zone already has the death sentence as punishment for convicted economic saboteurs.

Attack On Independent Figures

The Communist move to make East Germany a police state in fact as well as in ideology is accompanied by a slashing attack on independent figures in the two non-Communist parties of the area, the Christian Democratic Union (CDU) and the Liberal Democratic party (LDP).

More than a dozen CDU leaders are being forced from public office in Saxony, Brandenburg, and Mecklenburg. Several LDP officials are likewise facing removal.

Communist newspapers frankly assert that the two "bourgeois" parties will be purged of "reactionary elements." These have resisted pressure for a Communist-named single list of candidates in the state's first election next October 15.

The Soviet slowdown on Berlin highway traffic with western Germany dragged through its sixth day. At times during the day the Russians permitted as many as twelve trucks an hour to pass the Helmstedt checkpoint 100 miles west of Berlin on the British-Soviet zonal border. But then they cut the passing rate to three trucks hourly.

Average Of Six Trucks Hourly

Helmsted officials said the average was still six trucks hourly. Before the Russian restrictions were imposed, the rate was about 30 trucks hourly.

Tonight about 140 trucks were lined up behind Helmstedt awaiting clearance by the Russians. At one time during the day the number had dwindled from 200 to some 60 vehicles held up.

In Berlin, the East republic's information chieftain, Gerhart Eisler, started a series of street rallies on the Soviet-French sector boundary this afternoon. He called for Americans, British and French to "go home." Two thousand Red sympathizers cheered. Across the street, 500 anti-Communists yelled, "Back to Moscow."

Russ Intensify Purge Moves In Germany

Berlin, Jan. 28 (AP)—Russia's agents in eastern Germany sharpened their terrorist weapons today against non-Communists in politics and industry.

The Communist press publicly acclaimed their campaign to destroy independent leadership in the big Christian Democratic party (CDU) and to fasten a secret police network on the Soviet zone.

Communist charges of criminal utterances by CDU officials and widespread sabotage by pro-Western workers in the Eastern two-year economic plan nearly distracted Berlin's attention from its other troubles.

Slowdown Continues

The city's Autobahn supply line to the west still was throttled by Russian guards at Helmstedt, 100 miles westward on the Soviet zone border, where the slowdown of truck traffic continued for the sixth straight day.

About 160 trucks were queued up. About seven an hour were allowed to pass the Soviet checkpoint. Previously this week the rate had been as low as two an hour.

Officials here of the three Western powers agreed that the Soviet squeeze probably could be broken only by direct intervention of the Allied high commissioners with Gen. Vassily Chuikov, chief of the Soviet forces in Germany.

Intervention Forecast

Intervention by the high commissioners, reinforced by a threat of economic reprisals against the East zone, was forecast for next week if the highway slowdown persists.

The Communists' verbal attacks already have unseated CDU leaders from party and governmental posts in the eastern states of Saxony, Mecklenburg and Brandenburg this week.

Demonstrations organized by Communist labor unions clamored for the punishment of all those with a "hostile attitude toward the (East German) republic, the Soviet Union and the two-year plan."

Council Meeting

Otto Nuschke, CDU chairman, deputy Prime Minister of eastern Germany, hurried back from Sofia, Bulgaria, to preside at a party council meeting today.

CDU sources claimed privately that the Communists intend to shatter their party machinery so that a Red victory in the East zone election next October will be assured.

Foreign observers compared the Communist onslaught to similar drives since the war by which non-Communist parties have been rendered powerless in Hungary, Czechoslovakia and other Russian satellites.

Coupled with the political offensive was the establishment of an East German secret police modeled on the Soviet MVD.

Inspector General Named

Erich Mielke, veteran Communist, was appointed two days ago as inspector general of this "chief administration for the protection of the people's economy."

Since then the Communist press has been crowded with stories of alleged murderous sabotage in Eastern factories by Allied agents.

Propaganda Free On East-Zone Trains

Berlin, Jan. 28 (AP)—If you ride East German trains nowadays you're liable to get a lecture on how good communism is for the people.

This is the latest form of Communist propaganda in the Soviet zone.

Communist party comrades start political discussions in trains, preferably on how living standards can be improved if the workers work harder.

Canterbury Dean Hails Victory Of Chinese Reds

London, Jan. 28 (AP)—The "Red Dean" of Canterbury, Dr. Hewlett Johnson, said tonight Communist Mao Tze-tung's victory in China "has struck a shattering blow to imperialism in America."

"The United States has spent $6,000,000,000 and lost in an effort to bolster up the corrupt Nationalist regime in China," Dr. Johnson said in his president's address at the annual meeting of the British Soviet Society.

"In China, a new mighty force has been enlisted in the cause of peace. Coupled with this is the determination among the colonial possessions of the imperial world in the East to cast off imperialistic bonds and be free men. In the new China we see a mighty force for peace."

He said Russia "is on the side of peace, standing at the head of the great masses in the Far East holding up the banner of peace. The possession of the atom bomb has not made Russia truculent, aggressive or boastful. Not one word of war has been uttered in Russia because she is too intent on using atomic energy for industrial purposes."

Officer Backs British Boy For U.S. Schooling

Southampton, England, Jan. 28 (AP)—Lieut. John L. Webster sailed for the United States today with a lively "souvenir" of his eighteen months' service at the United States airbase at Burtonwood.

Webster, 34, of Kalamazoo, Mich., is taking 14-year-old Louis Marsh, a British schoolboy, to live with his mother in Arlington, Va. They were aboard the Army transport Alexander M. Patch.

"Louis was one of the boys who used to hang about near the base," Webster said. "He taught me about English football. I am taking him back because he wants to be an engineer and I guess he will have a better chance for university training in the States.

"I am not legally adopting him—that is, not yet—but am acting as his sponsor," Webster said.

Troops Loading Ship For Indo-China Trip

La Rochelle, France, Jan. 28 (AP) French troops began loading the cargo ship Falaise with goods and munitions for Indo-China today after dockers, heeding orders from the Communist party, refused to load the ship.

The Communists are waging a campaign against loading of ships for Indo-China, where the French are fighting the Indo-Chinese Nationalist forces of Moscow-trained Ho Chi-minh.

Paris Assembly Approves Pact With Viet Nam

Vote Is 401 to 193; Troops Load Indo-China Arms as Red-Led Dockers Quit

PARIS, Jan. 28 (AP).—The National Assembly approved tonight a treaty giving a large measure of domestic sovereignty to the French-sponsored state of Viet Nam in Indo-China.

Assembly approval was the last formality needed to put into force a treaty signed last April by President Vincent Auriol and Bao Dai, head of the new state and former Emperor of Annam.

The vote was 401 to 193. The opposition came from Communists supporting Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh, who has been leading guerrilla warfare against French forces in Indo-China for two years.

The Assembly also approved of similar treaties with Laos and Cambodia, Indo-Chinese provinces ruled by kings.

[The Viet Nam state embraces the provin cesof Tonkin, Annam and Cochin China.]

World Tin Output Increases

The Hague, Jan. 28 (AP)—Latest available figures on world tin, published today by the international tin study group in The Hague, showed a mine production of 14,300 long tons in November, 1949, against 13,300 tons in October. The increase is due entirely to Bolivia, whose November export was 1,500 tons higher than for October.

Eat on Own Time, Dutch Tell Army

THE HAGUE, Jan. 28 (AP).—Coincident with the signing of a military aid pact with the United States, the Dutch Army today told its troops to eat and sleep on their own time as a contribution to Western European defense.

The first of a series of posters to go up in all Army installations told the story in this way:

"The average Netherlander divides his day into three equal parts—One: work, two: sleep, three: other things.

"In connection with the desirability of making Western Europe defensible against Powers with a less comfortable daily schedule, without allowing our country to be ruined by the costs of defense, it is necessary that everyone serving in the Royal Army limit his performance of number two and three to his free time and devote himself as intensively as possible during duty time to number one."

Sixth Cabinet Of De Gasperi Is Inducted

Rome, Jan. 28 (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi today submitted to President Luigi Einaudi the nomination of three ministers without portfolio to complete his sixth coalition Cabinet.

The eighteen new ministers and de Gasperi were sworn in later. Their oaths were taken by President Einaudi, during a ceremony at his residence.

The three newly appointed ministers were Pietro Campilli and Raffaele Pio Petrilli, both belonging to de Gasperi's majority Christian Democrat party, and Republican Ugo la Malfa.

Coalition Cabinet

De Gasperi's new Cabinet is a coalition of the Christian Democrats, with the independent anti-Communist Labor Socialists (PSLI), and the Republican party (PRI).

PSLI got the posts of transports, foreign trade, and merchant marine, while the Republicans supplied a minister without portfolio and the defense and foreign ministers. The thirteen other members of the Cabinet were Christian Democrats.

Later today the Cabinet will hold its first meeting for the appointment of under secretaries of state.

Confidence Vote Likely

The Senate and the Chamber of Deputies will meet Tuesday afternoon for the debate on a vote of confidence in the new Cabinet. With the present absolute Christian Democrat majority in the Chamber and with control of the Senate, Premier de Gasperi is likely to obtain his vote of confidence the same evening. The Parliament will discuss the Somaliland trusteeship in its next session, probably Wednesday.

There were Communist protests against the reappointment of Mario Scelba as Minister of Interior. To back up their protest the Communists staged a one-hour streetcar strike in Naples last night. There were no reports of similar demonstrations elsewhere.

Truman Urged For Nobel Award

Salonika, Greece, Jan. 28 (AP)—The University of Salonika announced today it has sent a communication to the Nobel Peace Prize Committee proposing President Truman for an award because of his "invaluable services towards maintaining world peace."

I. R. O. Refugee Roll Drops

Falls Below 600,000 First Time Since Operations Began

GENEVA, Switzerland, Jan. 28 (AP).—The roll of the International Refugee Organization has fallen below 600,000 refugees for the first time since it began operations in July, 1947, J. Donald Kingsley, director general, announced today.

After repatriating or resettling 24,973 persons in November and losing 5,000 more displaced persons through voluntary withdrawal, the I. R. O. had 598,119 persons under its care.

Belgian Calls Claims For H-Bomb Absurd

Brussels, Belgium, Jan. 28 (AP)—Prof. Max Cosyns, Belgian atom specialist, today described as "absolutely absurd" reports that 2,000 hydrogen bombs could destroy the earth.

The professor, known for his Communist sympathies, expressed this opinion in an interview with the Fleming Communist party newspaper De Rode Vaan (The Red Flag).

Cosyns, professor of energy research at Brussels University, said destruction of the earth would mean obliterating nine tenths of its people.

Area Estimated

To do this, he said, "it would be necessary to destroy 10,000,000 square kilometers (3,861,000 square miles) of populated territory.

"Even if the targets were hit accurately each bomb would have to destroy a radius of 125 kilometers (78 miles) to cover this area.

"In comparison, the present atomic bomb has an effective range of 600 meters (670 yards). At this range it is deadly for 90 per cent of the people in the area. Therefore to get the desired result it is necessary to have a bomb 10,000,000 times more powerful than the atomic bomb.

Billion Times Stronger

"Perhaps it would have to be 1,000,000,000 times more powerful, taking into account the limited height of the atmosphere, which reduces efficiency once a force a hundred times greater than the atomic bomb has been reached."

The professor estimated the manufacture of a hydrogen bomb is possible "just as the manufacture of an atomic bomb was possible in 1934, only we are not so far advanced."

By this Cosyns apparently meant that the hydrogen bomb is at least ten years away, as it took ten years of research after 1934 before the first atomic bomb was exploded.

SLAVS ACCUSE BULGARIANS

Claim Armed Bands Are Sent Into Country To Oust Tito

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 28 (AP). Yugoslavia today accused alleged Bulgarian spies of sending armed bands into this country as part of a Russian-led Communist plot to overthrow Premier Marshal Tito's Government.

Lazo Mojsov, chief prosecutor for the Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, made the charge at the trial of eight defendants in Skoplje, Macedonian capital.

Confess During Trial

Mojsov's accusations were filed after all eight defendants had pleaded guilty to charges of espionage, sabotage and terrorism in Yugoslavia during the last six months. Half of the accused confessed during the trial they had been sent across the border with propaganda material.

The other four acknowledged they had fled from Yugoslav military service into Bulgaria and then had been sent back here on orders from the Bulgarian security police to organize groups in an effort to overthrow Tito.

Verdict Expected Soon

Summing up the prosecution's case, Mojsov told the court that the trial had followed a similar one less than two months ago of ten Albanians who were accused of espionage and terroristic tactics in this country on orders from the Cominform. All ten were convicted and drew sentences ranging from three to twenty years.

The prosecutor said Bulgarian security police had sent into Yugoslavia "hostile and criminal elements" with illegal material "to lead the armed bands in an effort to start an armed fight" against this government.

Verdict and sentence in the case are expected tomorrow.

RUSS FILM HITS AT CHURCHILL

Depicts Him In Anti-Soviet Maneuvers During War

Moscow, Jan. 28 (AP)—Russia's newest film epic, "The Fall of Berlin," depicts Winston Churchill engaging in anti-Soviet maneuvers during the war.

The picture, in color, is being shown to record audiences. In Moscow alone it has been seen in a few days by more than a million persons.

The part of Commander in Chief Joseph Stalin is played by Mikhail Gelovani.

A Lavish Setting

Typical scenes include a lavish setting in Hermann Goering's palace at which a representative of British "ruling circles" sells the Germans 20,000 tons of chrome and tungsten necessary for the Germans to manufacture tanks to assault Stalingrad.

A scene at the Yalta Conference shows an American officer declaring the Soviet offensive on Berlin must be postponed because the Western Allies are not yet ready.

This is contrary to the account given by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in his book, "Crusade in Europe." Eisenhower wrote that he overruled Winston Churchill, who wished to make a dash to Berlin and beat the Russians there.

Hitler In His Last Days

(Eisenhower wrote that he was governed by military considerations in seeking instead the destruction of German military resources as his first objective, particularly in the Leipzig area, even though that area was mapped as part of the Soviet occupation zone from which American forces would have to be withdrawn.)

One scene shows Hitler in his last days in his Berlin air-raid shelter, trembling and half-demented, deserted by all except his sweetheart Eva Braun, Josef Goebbels and his dog. He is last shown marching off to marry Eva Braun while all Berlin burns and tens of thousands of Germans drown in subways which he had ordered flooded.

The film shows the ordinary German soldier as a brave and worthy foe, fighting to the last against superior spirit, strength and military skill.

Five Communists Hurt, Ten Seized By Tel Aviv Police

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 28 (AP)—Five Communists were injured and ten arrested tonight in a clash with Tel Aviv police. Two policemen were hurt.

The Communists, members of a group on a week-long "sit-down" strike at the Jewish Agency premises, reportedly staged a noisy demonstration. Police, armed with clubs, intervened and broke up the demonstration.

The demonstrators claimed that they had been discriminated against in distribution of seeds to their co-operative villages.

A co-operative settlement spokesman said that the Communist action was "a purely political demonstration."

Ex-Ally Of Thai Premier Held

Bangkok, Thailand, Jan. 28 (AP)—Premier Pibul Songgram today arrested the army leader who engineered the coup that brought the Premier back to power two years ago.

From outlying areas, meanwhile, came unconfirmed reports of fighting between police and navy forces.

Thailand has been under a state of alarm for months. Pibul has been arresting leaders in the Government who have shown opposition to him. Steadily he has been solidifying his position as ruler.

Bangkok itself was quiet. People of the capital were showing their usual lack of concern about inner palace politics. However, there was predawn maneuvering in the city that was mysterious even for Thailand.

Fate Not Clear

The arrested man was Laung Kach Songkram, deputy commander in chief of the Army. A longtime strongman, he has been at odds with the Government in recent months. He supposedly had aligned himself with navy forces which have been anti-army for some time.

What happened to Kach was not clear.

A member of his family said he was taken into custody last night by Police Major General Phao. The police officer was reported to have fired one shot into a table to impress Kach with the seriousness of the situation.

30.24- 8571

Meanwhile, clashes between police and navy forces were reported at Paknam and Cholburi.

Pibul was Premier at the time the Japanese went into Thailand as "guests" during the war. He survived a short period of disgrace after Japan's defeat and assumed power again two years ago.

Twice since then he has reported repressing coups against him. Fifty were killed in one incident. 80 army officers arrested in the other.

Thai Premier Ousts 'Friend'; Police, Navy Fight Reported

Bangkok, Thailand, Jan. 28 (AP)—The army leader who did most to bring Premier Luang Pibul Songgram to power two years ago was arrested and reported exiled today in mysterious pre-dawn maneuvering.

Simultaneously there were unconfirmed reports of fighting between police and navy forces at the naval bases of Paknam and Cholburi, on the coast 20 and 50 miles south and southeast of this capital.

Thailand, which has experienced numerous coups and attempted coups since the end of World War II, has been under a state of alert for many months.

Intense Propaganda

Pibul, five-foot-four-inch strong man, has been steadily eliminating opposition within his own ranks and solidifying his position as ruler. As usual, the population has remained largely unconcerned.

An intense propaganda campaign against Thailand and Pibul personally has been launched in the past week by the Chinese regime.

The latest Peiping radio blast said that Li Ke-nung, Red Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs, had protested "the maltreatment and killing of overseas Chinese by the Pibul Government."

The Red broadcast quoted Shanghai and Hankow newspapers as stating, "the Chinese people must settle all these bloody accounts . . . it is American imperialism which is the prop of Pibul . . . the Pibul regime must bear full responsibility for its series of criminal acts against overseas Chinese."

[Thailand has contented itself with denying the allegations.]

Questioned For Hours

[The forthcoming conference of United States-Far East diplomats in Bangkok February 13 has sharpened attention on the Communist propaganda attacks and on Thailand's uneasy domestic situation.]

The latest Bangkok development, mysterious even for Thailand, was the arrest of Lieut. Gen. Luang Kach Songgram (also transliterated Songkram and apparently no relation to the premier).

Deputy commander-in-chief of the army and leader of the military delegation which restored Pibul to the premiership in April, 1948, Kach had been reported recently aligning himself with the navy, which has been anti-army for some time.

Members of Kach's family said he was questioned for hours by Police Major General Phoao, who at one point fired a pistol bullet into the table to impress Kach with the seriousness of his predicament.

Finally, a member of the family said, Hach early today was hustled aboard an army plant and exiled to an unknown destination. His wife was permitted to give him 10,000 baht (about $500) before he left. Unconfirmed rumors from other quarters said Kach was still in Bangkok.

[Reason for the action against Kach was not clear, but it was recalled that in November, 1948, the Defense Minister and most of Pibul's Cabinet resigned after accusing Kach of misappropriating several million baht in defense funds.

[The following February a confused battle among the army, navy and marines took many lives and led to wholesale arrests of Pibul's opponents.

[One month ago artillerymen were stationed in Bangkok and police were strengthened in precautions against rumors of a new attempt to overthrow Pibul.]

JAN 29 19

Mao-Russ Pacts Invalidated By Chiang

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 28 (AP)—Nationalist China today proclaimed invalid any secret or open agreement which may be signed between the Soviet Union and Communist China.

The Nationalists also said the Russians would be held responsible for "any and all consequences" arising from violation of the Chinese-Soviet Treaty of 1945.

This stand by the Nationalists was announced in a formal statement issued by Foreign Minister George Yeh.

Mao Tze-tung, the Chinese Red leader, has been in Moscow for weeks working on Sino-Russian agreements. He was joined in Moscow recently by Premier and Foreign recently Chou En-lai.

There has been much speculation that an announcement of agreements between Moscow and Peiping would be made soon. There has also been much speculation that the length of Mao's stay has indicated he is finding the Russians hard to bargain with.

Went For Aid

Mao is reported to have gone to Moscow primarily for large-scale economic aid.

Yeh's statement said:

"Any wishful thinking that the Chinese Communists will turn 'Titoists' should now be banished by recent statements made by Mao Tze-tung and other Communist leaders that the Chinese Communist regime will lean only on the side of Soviet Russia and that Communist China will follow the lead of Soviet Russia in all international affairs.

"It should now be equally clear that it is impossible for genuine democratic elements to succeed in taking temporary shelter under the Peiping regime and in due course reassert themselves as such.

"Recent happenings only reaffirm the fact that the Chinese Communist regime is nothing more than a Soviet-sponsored puppet regime which lacks the essential attributes of a sovereign state.

Cites Treaty

"Whatever agreement, secret or published, as may be signed by the Chinese Communist leaders and the Kremlin cannot have any binding force on the Chinese (Nationalist) Government and people.

"Meanwhile, the Chinese Government will continue to hold the Soviet Government responsible for any and all consequences ensuing from the latter's violation of the Sino-Soviet treaty of 1945."

The statement probably is the first in a new series of Nationalist moves intended to convince the people of Red China that their rulers are under Moscow's thumb.

Would Stimulate Opposition

The Nationalists apparently feel if they can put this idea across it may stimulate opposition to the Reds among the intelligentsia and to some degree among the masses.

On the military side, the Nationalists reported good progress in a drive against long-established Communist guerrillas on Hainan Island. The island off the China coast is expected to be an objective of a Red invasion attempt.

The defense ministry said Red groups in Hainan's Five Finger Mountains had been attacked by air as well as ground forces and pushed back.

U.S. Recognition For Viet Nam Is Indicated

Saigon, Indo-China, Jan. 28 (AP)—Broad hints that the United States might soon recognize the French-sponsored Indo-Chinese state of Viet Nam have been made here by United States roving Ambassador Philip C. Jessup, French sources said today.

Jessup returned today from Hanoi, where he conferred for a second time with Bao Dai, chief of the Viet Nam state. Yesterday Jessup gave Bao Dai a message from Secretary of State Dean Acheson expressing the "satisfaction of the United States Government" at Bao Dai's taking the leadership of Viet Nam, and expressing Acheson's hopes for the future of the Viet Nam "with which he hopes the closest relations will be established."

Jessup refused any statements today, but French and Indo-Chinese sources said they has urged upon him the need for rapid recognition of the Bao Dai regime to counterbalance Communist expansion in Asia.

Confers With Governor

Jessup conferred yesterday with Nguyen Huu Tri, governor of the north Viet-Nam province. French sources said Jessup assured him "the United States government will not deceive the hopes of the Viet-Nam masses." The governor told him joint recognition of Bao Dai by the Western powers was advisable.

One of the main objects of Jessup's visit here, French sources said, was to see how much real independence the French have given Indo-China.

France recently gave partial self rule to the Viet-Nam state. The Parliament in Paris is debating whether to ratify this. The French, under this scheme keep control of the Viet-Nam's foreign relations, and maintain troops here.

Rival Government

Moscow-trained Ho Chi-minh is head of a rival Viet-Nam Government, which the Chinese Communist Government has recognized. Ho's group, which has been fighting French troops for three years, considers Bao Dai, "a puppet of the French."

Malcolm MacDonald, British commissioner general for Southeast Asia, made a trip similar to Jessup's here several weeks ago. He hinted broadly that the British were ready to recognize Bao Dai. Jessup leaves for Jakarta tomorrow.

U. S. Plans Seizure Of Chinese Ship

SEOUL, Korea, Jan. 28 (AP).—The United States Government told its embassy in South Korea today to foreclose on a freighter operated by a Chinese company whose spies recently went over to the Reds.

The ship, the Haiti, now is detained at the southern port of Pusan, where she docked with a cargo of coal from Formosa. The vessel is operated by the China Merchant Steam Navigation Co.

Washington announced plans to repossess 42 of the ships after they switched allegiance. They were sold to the Nationalist governments and Chinese shipping firms, but $19,000,000 still was due the American Maritime Commission and the Export Import Bank.

Jap Urges Trade Pact With Burma

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 28 (AP)—Japan's chief delegate to the International Rice Commission conference here February 6 today urged conclusion of a trade agreement between Burma and Japan.

Japan, he said, could send Burma textiles and machinery in exchange for Burmese agricultural products.

Seoul Mission to Leave Feb. 1

SEOUL, Jan. 28 (AP).—The five members of the South Korean National Assembly who will seek continued American economic aid at Washington will leave for the United States Feb. 1, their chairman, P. H. Shin Ik Hi, said today. They plan to remain at Washington three weeks.

NO LIMIT SEEN FOR H-BOMBS

Dr. Shapley Says Only Weight Can Restrict Missiles' Size

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—If the United States should undertake to develop super "hydrogen" bombs, we could theoretically write our own ticket on how devastating to make them, a Washington scientist said today.

Dr. Alan Shapley, member of the Federation of American Scientists, put it this way:

Theoretically, at least, the only limitation on the destructive fury of the weapons would be the weight of explosive material that could be effectively handled and delivered against an enemy target.

But Dr. Shapley said any hope of perfecting H-bombs would involve perhaps five years' work and possibly $2,000,000,000.

Would Delay Other Projects

It would also involve a slackening in other atomic development, including the eventual production of atomic energy for peacetime uses.

Dr. Shapley's estimate of a $2,000,000,000 cost for developing the H-bomb contrasted with another estimate this week by Dr. Harold C. Urey, atomic scientist.

Dr. Urey told a New York audience last night he thought the H-bomb could be developed for about $100,000,000. Other estimates have run as high as $4,000,000,000.

Dr. Urey also urged that the United States produce the H-bomb before the Russians do it first.

Saying he could not vouch for the accuracy of the statement, Dr. Urey declared:

"It has been reported that if such bombs were dropped off the Pacific Coast, the prevailing winds could carry the radioactivity over this country and would result in the extinction of all forms of life."

Did Not Work On Project

Dr. Shapley is a physicist and colleague of men who helped develop the A-bomb, but he emphasized that he did not work on the atomic project himself. He said he doesn't know anything about what the Government may be doing about a hydrogen "super bomb."

Dr. Shapley said he isn't sure this country ought to try to develop such a weapon because, he said, "I'm not sure it would be either to our moral or military advantage."

The scientist said the mathematics of physics, coupled with speculation based on published facts about atomic energy, indicate this:

1. Theoretically, for a hydrogen bomb involving the "fusion" of "heavy" hydrogen atoms there is no limitation on the amount of explosive material that could be packed into the bomb. There is such a limitation in the case of a uranium or plutonium bomb, he said.

2. With certain other factors being equal, a hydrogen "fusion" bomb theoretically would release eight times as much energy as a uranium or plutonium A-bomb.

Amount Never Disclosed

This 8-to-1 ratio would apply to hydrogen bombs containing the same amount of explosive material contained in the original A-bombs dropped on Japan. The exact amount is one of the secrets never disclosed.

The comparison would assume that the "efficiency" of both the H-bomb and the A-bomb was the same—that is, in each case the same weight of potentially explosive material takes part in the explosion. (Hydrogen is 235 times lighter than explosive uranium.)

3. Putting Points 1 and 2 together, the explosive power of the H-bomb could theoretically be increased indefinitely just by increasing the weight of explosive material.

Just A Starter

In other words, that eight times greater energy release would just be a starter.

How about the destruction caused by these more powerful bombs?

Shapley said the area of destruction would increase but not in direct proportion to the increase in power of the bomb.

He did not amplify on this, but it is generally estimated that if you double the explosive power of any bomb, the distance of destruction is not doubled.

Thus, if an A-bomb would destroy everything within a radius of 1 mile, a bomb 1,000 times more powerful would have a destructive radius of only 10 miles.

But that would mean 10 miles in all directions—with one bomb.

Other Bombs Limited

Shapley said that "theoretically, you could build hydrogen bombs as big as you'd want them—in contrast to uranium or plutonium bombs"—and here's his explanation:

In a uranium or plutonium bomb, there's the limiting factor of "critical mass." This means an amount of material sufficient to start the "chain reaction" which constitutes the explosion.

If the amount of material is less than the "critical mass" nothing happens.

And, so far as has been made known, once you exceed that "critical mass" your explosion takes place—assuming that you assemble the critical mass quickly enough.

Would Blow Material Away

It's Shapley's view that if you attempt to increase the power of the explosion simply by using a lot more material than constitutes the critical mass, you'd be out of luck.

Reason:

The explosion itself would spread the excess material to the four winds before it had a chance to add its potential force to the blast.

By contrast, he says, there is no critical mass involved in a hypothetical hydrogen bomb.

Whereas a uranium or plutonium bomb literally sets itself off when the critical mass is reached, a hydrogen bomb could only be exploded with the help of tremendous temperatures — perhaps 20,000,000 degrees, or the temperature in the interior of the sun.

Thus, you could make your hydrogen bomb as big as you wished.

Shapely is employed as a physicist with the National Bureau of Standards but emphasized that he was speaking as an individual scientist and not as an employé of the bureau.

Policy On H-Bomb Remains Unsettled

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—The dispute over whether this nation should produce a hydrogen bomb continued today following President Truman's statement that the decision, his to make, is still hanging fire.

Mr. Truman's comment yesterday was his first public acknowledgement that a new and terrible atomic weapon, perhaps ten to 1,000 times more potent than the present atomic bomb, is under consideration.

It came in the midst of a number of developments concerning the H-bomb—none of which threw much new light on the situation.

Discussion Admitted

A few hours before, Senator McMahon (D., Conn.) had acknowledged, without actually saying so, that the Senate-House Atomic Committee has been discussing the weapon.

Pointedly avoiding the term "hydrogen bomb," McMahon, chairman of the committee, said:

"We have been discussing plans for advances in the technological improvement of atomic weapons and I anticipate your questions by saying this includes all types of atomic weapons."

McMahon made the statement after a closed door meeting with the Atomic Energy Commission.

Comment By Lilienthal

AEC Chairman David E. Lilienthal, who left the meeting early to see Mr. Truman, also had something to say on the subject—but in a different vein.

Lilienthal, scheduled to leave the commission February 15, said after his White House visit that all of the published stories purporting to state his views toward the proposed hydrogen bomb were "inaccurate."

There have been reports that Lilienthal, with some top scientists, has been opposing development of the hydrogen weapon, at least until a new effort has been made to reach an agreement with Russia for outlawing all atomic armaments.

Denies Plan To Visit Russia

One such report had it that Lilienthal had volunteered to visit Moscow in search of agreement with the Russians on international atomic energy controls. That notion, he said, "I can freely describe as absurd."

Mr. Truman said the decision on whether to start developing one in this country rests with him alone, and that he has not yet made up his mind.

Pushed By Military

The President added that he is constantly striving for international control of atomic energy.

Military authorities have been reported anxious to develop an H-bomb on grounds that the hydrogen theory is as well known to Russia as to the United States.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.), a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, also touched on this note.

"The responsible military officers that I have talked with feel very definitely that for our own self-preservation the only thing we can do is make a decision to go ahead without too much delay," he said, adding: "With that I concur."

Urey Urges Haste

This position corresponded to that taken by Harold C. Urey, Pulitzer prize scientist.

Urey, a top chemist and atomic scientist, urged that the United States develop the H-bomb before the Russians do it.

GOP Demand For Ouster Of Secretary Continues After Hiss Remark

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Republican demands for the resignation or firing of Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, continued in Congress today.

Acheson's expressed attitude toward Alger Hiss, convicted of perjury when he said he had not given out Government secrets for a pre-war Communist spy ring, was called "an affront to the nation" by GOP lawmakers.

The Secretary of State said this week: "I do not intend to turn my back on Alger Hiss."

Acheson told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee a year ago that Hiss was his friend. The Secretary was up for Senate confirmation at the time, and Hiss was under indictment.

Got Five-Year Sentence

When the question came up, Acheson told the senators that his friendship was not given easily nor was it easily withdrawn.

Hiss, one-time State Department official, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment on two counts of perjury for denying that he ever gave confidential State Department papers to Whittaker Chambers, who asserted he used to be a member of a Communist underground.

Two more Republicans joined in the criticism of Acheson today. Representatives Arends (R., Ill.) and Woodruff (R., Mich.) insisted that Acheson should resign his Cabinet post at once as a result of his attitude.

If he doesn't, they said, President Truman should fire him.

Truman Declines Comment

Mr. Truman at his news conference yesterday declined to comment on the Hiss case.

Arends, assistant Republican floor leader, said in a statement that Acheson "is unfit for such a high position, and his statement on Alger Hiss proved it."

"Acheson's assertion . . . must be taken as an indication that the Secretary believes that Hiss' conduct, while in the State Department, was all right," Arends said.

In his defense of Hiss, Arends continued, Acheson must be regarded as the official State Department spokesman for the United States Government.

Woodruff, in a separate statement, said Acheson's attitude indicates a need for a shake-up in the State Department "from top to bottom."

Calls Upon Him To Resign

Woodruff declared:

"Mr. Acheson's thinking is not in line with the thinking of the people of the nation, as reflected by the jurors who heard the evidence at Hiss' trial. . . . He should resign as Secretary of State. I call upon him to do so. If he does not, it is the duty of the President to remove him from office."

Earlier, Representative Gavin (R., N.Y.) had told the house that Acheson has "forfeited his right to hold high office," while Representative Curtis (R., Neb.) said the country needs a Secretary of State "whose first and only loyalty is to the United States."

Asks Reopening Of Probe

Republicans also were calling for reopening of the Hiss investigation by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Representative Velde (R., Ill.), a member of the committee, said that on Wednesday he will ask the committee to obtain Government loyalty records on Hiss as a preliminary step, although there is an executive order denying Congress access to these records without presidential permission.

Representative Nixon (R., Cal.) also has said he will try to reopen the Hiss investigation.

Republicans Again Demand Probe Into Hiss Case

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—President Truman's refusal to comment on the perjury conviction of Alger Hiss brought fresh Republican demands today for a new congressional investigation into the case.

"If Mr. Truman won't make any answers," said Representative Velde (R., Ill.), "it's up to Congress to seek some of their own."

Velde, a former FBI agent, is a member of the House Un-American Activities Committee. It was that group's investigations into Communist espionage activities that turned up the evidence which resulted in the indictment of the former State Department official and his conviction last Saturday.

Wants To See Loyalty Record

Velde said he will ask the committee Wednesday to demand a look at the Government loyalty record on Hiss. In the past, Mr. Truman has denied such records to congressional committees.

Velde called Mr. Truman's attitude that of "a stubborn man who is still attempting to withhold information of an espionage plot in his own branch of the Government from the people and the courts of the land."

At his news conference yesterday the President was asked:

"Regardless of the outcome in 30.24- 8573

the higher courts, will you or will you not turn your back on Alger Hiss?"

No comment, Mr. Truman responded.

Doubts There's "Good Intent"

Another reporter asked whether there was any point in asking other questions about the Hiss case. There wasn't, the President replied. He said they weren't asked with good intent and he didn't intend to answer them.

Secretary of State Acheson has said he will not turn his back on Hiss, who was convicted by a Federal court jury in New York on charges of lying when he said he never slipped Government papers to a prewar Communist spy ring. He received a five-year prison sentence and the conviction is being appealed.

The Mississippi House of Representatives unanimously adopted a resolution yesterday branding Acheson's statement "shocking and unprecedented."

Whittaker Chambers Offers To Take Lie-Detector Test

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Whittaker Chambers tonight offered tonight to take a lie-detector test as a means of checking his charges that Alger Hiss slipped United States secrets to him for relay to Moscow.

"I particularly want to spike the rumor that Alger Hiss is shielding someone," Chambers said. "He is shielding nobody but himself."

Chambers made the offer in a radio review with Bert Andrews, of the New York Herald Tribune.

As To Questions, Questioners

He previously had offered to undergo a test when he testified in 1948 before the House Un-American Activities Committee, but none was made after Hiss declined to take one on the grounds the test was not reliable.

It was Chambers's disclosures of a prewar Communist spy ring which led to the perjury conviction this week of Hiss, former State Department official who now is under a five-year prison sentence.

Chambers told Andrews he is willing to be asked any questions with the stipulation that those who conduct the test "must be free of any suspicion of complicity with Communists or close ties with Alge Hiss and his sympathizers."

He said he also wanted to specify that this question be included:

"Was there ever anything peculiar in your relationship with Alger Hiss or any member of his family?"

Chambers did not explain his reason for this beyond saying that he wanted to disprove some "rumors" which he did not disclose.

Mrs. Roosevelt Quoted

He offered no comment on the court verdict which Hiss has appealed. But when Andrews quoted Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as saying she thinks it was "rather horrible" of the jury to condemn someone on the word of someone else who admits to guilt, Chambers said:

"I think that Mrs. Roosevelt, like some other people, is too inclined to consider this a contest between Alger Hiss and Whittaker Chambers. She overlooks the fact that the jury did not reach its verdict merely on the basis of the stories of the two men. There was corroboration from many witnesses and from other forms of evidence of the charges against Mr. Hiss."

"I believe the American people," Chambers added, "still accept the verdicts of their duly selected juries rather than the personal opinion of any well-known individual, no matter how highly placed that individual may be."

rests exclusively with the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, of which he is a member.

WILL ASK FOR RULING

He said he intends to ask Speaker Sam Rayburn (D., Tex.) and Vice President Alben W. Barkley, who is president of the Senate, for an interpretation of the act setting out the jurisdiction of the joint committee.

If his position is upheld, Van Zandt said, the Un-American Activities Committee would be stripped of authority to investigate anything even remotely connected with atomic energy.

Van Zandt made public a letter from William L. Borden, executive director of the joint committee, which sadi in part:

"The joint committee itself clearly possesses jurisdiction to look into such topics as illegal shipments of uranium and classified atomic energy documents. There also is an implication . . . that the joint committee's jurisdiction is exclusive."

Van Zandt first protested when the Un-American Activities Committee announced plans to reopen its inquiry into wartime shipments of atomic materials to Russia. At that time he suggested the two committees enter into an agreement under which atomic energy matters would be left solely in the hands of the joint committee.

Van Zandt said the joint committee investigated the story of former Maj. G. Racey Jordan of uranium shipments to Russia through the Great Falls, Mont., air base. He declined to say what the committee found.

Jordan's story has been the subject of long hearings by the Un-American Activities Committee. These have brought detailed testimony about four shipments of uranium materials and two shipments of heavy water. The largest shipment was 1000 puonds of uranium compounds.

The Un-American Activities Committee plans to resume hearings next week.

Van Zandt Challenges House Group Atom Quiz

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (AP).—Representatives James Van Zandt (R., Pa.) today challenged the legal right of the House Un-American Activities Committee to investigate anything relating to atomic energy.

The committee has been looking into wartime uranium shipments to Russia.

Van Zandt contended that authority to deal with atomic matters

Delegate Sees Easy Capture Of Alaska

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Delegate Bartlett, of Alaska, said today there is a possibility an enemy could easily capture Alaska and aim a "death blow at the United States" from the airfields there.

The delegate reviewed Alaskan development for the twenty-fourth Women's Patriotic Conference on National Defense.

The territory, he said, does not have ample military protection and were its big airfields captured by an enemy they could be used for raids against most large cities of the United States.

Development Needed

"It is commonly said—and I have never heard any contradiction," said Bartlett, "that Fairbanks and Anchorage would fall before one parachute division, or at the most two."

Alaska should be developed industrially to attract settlers and should be provided with ample defense, Bartlett said in his prepared address.

While Alaska's development has not been pushed, he continued, Russia has created cities and developed Siberia, just across the Bering Strait.

One reason why Alaska is not developed is that it is "locked up tight," Bartlett said.

The Federal Government, he continued, owns 95 per cent of the land in the Territory and makes it difficult for settlers to get land "because of a false interpretation of the principles of conservation."

He said Federal laws contain "outright discriminations against Alaska."

Statehood Held Vital

"It is to cure that situation so that population may be attracted," Bartlett said, "so there may be proper resource development, so that adequate representations may be made in respect to national defense needs, that Alaskans now seek statehood."

He said Alaskans feel that two United States senators and one representative could do more to get Congress to act to develop the territory than one voteless delegate.

"It is enough to make an American shiver," he said, "when he contemplates what is going on in Siberia, across the Bering Strait."

Chiefs To See East Bases

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—The United States' top military leaders leave tomorrow for a ten-day visit to American installations in the Far East.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff—Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman; Gen. Lawton J. Collins, Army; Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force, and Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, Navy—will confer with Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Japan, then stop at twelve United States Pacific bases, including Okinawa, Guam and Honolulu.

New Plane for U.S. Officials

Specially Fitted C-121 to Carry Them on Official Missions

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (AP).—The Air Force is getting another specially fitted, long-range plane to carry government officials, Congressmen and diplomats on official missions. It announced today that a Lockheed C-121 Constellation, converted into an "executive type" transport, will be delivered Wednesday.

A similar plane has flown more than 150,000 miles in its first year of service, including trips to Europe, Japan and Alaska, the Air Force said. Each plane has sleeping accommodations and desks.

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Millions of American toys are ready for shipment to youngsters in Europe, the American Legion said today.

National Commander George N. Craig said the first shipment in the Legion's "Tide of Toys" drive will leave Philadelphia February 7 for Rotterdam, Holland.

It will contain 900,000 toys to be distributed by representatives of CARE to children in the Netherlands, Austria and Western Germany.

Receive 90,000 Daily

Additional toys are flowing into Philadelphia at the rate of 90,000 a day, Craig said, for shipment to France, Italy, Britain, Greece, Norway, Poland and Yugoslavia.

Craig estimated that at least 3,000,000 toys will be sent overseas by the end of February. The Economic Co-operation Administration is paying the cost of ocean transportation. The railroads have been providing shipment to Philadelphia.

The Legion asked all United States children to contribute one new toy each to a nation-wide collection drive between December 26 and January 20. The children also were asked to attach notes to the toys.

Babcock Widows Attend Burial—Don't Speak

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Two women, each claiming to be the widow, sat in the mourners' row at Fort Myer army chapel today at funeral services for Col. William Babcock.

At the end next to the casket was Florence Maryjean Babcock, black clad and wearing a widow's veil. She flew in with the body yesterday from Berlin, where the colonel was deputy American commissioner. She says they were married in Germany in 1945.

At the opposite end of the row, hatless and wearing a brown coat, sat Mary Magdalene Babcock, of New London, Conn. She says she has been Babcock's wife for 34 years and there has been no divorce.

Berlin Woman Given Honors

The dispute came into the open when Colonel Babcock, 52, died of a heart attack in Berlin on Monday.

The Berlin Mrs. Babcock received at the services the honors prescribed for the widow. She came to the chapel in a State Department automobile and an army captain and a navy lieutenant were assigned as her escorts.

At the graveside ceremonies in Arlington National Cemetery, she stood under a canopy near the casket, while the New London Mrs. Babcock stood several paces away.

After the committal service the flag that had been draped over the casket was delivered to the army captain who accompanied the Berlin Mrs. Babcock.

The American woman made no effort to claim the flag, customarily delivered to the widow after an army funeral.

"Husband," "Dad" On Flowers

But the floral tributes arranged around the casket included a spray of red and white roses from her. It was marked simply:

"Husband."

Two other sprays bore the single word "Dad."

Two married daughters and a son sat with the Mrs. Babcock from Connecticut at the services.

British-born Mrs. Babcock, from Berlin, says she and the colonel have a 3-year-old son, left in Germany while she came here for the funeral.

John J. McCloy, American High Commissioner in Germany, was among the hundred or so who attended the services.

Do Not Speak

Also present was a delegation from the New London Police Department, with which Babcock had been connected before he entered military service.

The two Mrs. Babcocks did not speak to each other.

Last night the Berlin Mrs. Babcock told reporters that one of the colonel's daughters, Mrs. Ralph S. Stevens, of Newport, R.I., had become "one of my best friends."

Commander Stevens, husband of the Babcock daughter, told newsmen today, however, that they were merely "acquainted."

who said she and the colonel had been married 34 years and never divorced. Two married daughters and a son accompanied her to the services.

The two women did not speak to each other.

In Department Car

The woman from Berlin was driven to the chapel in a State Department car. An army captain and a navy lieutenant were assigned as her escorts. Wearing a widow's veil, she stood beneath a canopy at the graveside committal services.

Mrs. Babcock from Connecticut stood several yards away, and made no effort to claim the American flag when it was lifted from the coffin, folded and handed to the army captain who accompanied the Mrs. Babcock from Berlin.

The Connecticut woman had sent a spray of roses, marked "Husband." Two other sprays were inscribed "Dad."

The Mrs. Babcock from Berlin appeared to be in her early thirties. A native of England, she said she met the colonel when both were serving in the headquarters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, and that they were married December 27, 1945, at Konigstein, Germany.

"Out-Of-State Divorce"

She said she had a marriage license as well as "letters and the wedding ring which the ex-Mrs. Babcock returned to my husband."

"My husband had had an out-of-state divorce," she said, "but I cannot give any details on that because I don't know much about it myself."

Colonel Babcock sued Mary Magdalene Babcock for divorce in New London in 1946, but the decree was denied. Her attorney said she had never received any notice of any other divorce action filed elsewhere.

Col. J. R. Williamson, officer in charge at Arlington Cemetery, said the woman from Berlin had army orders to accompany the body as the widow.

Among the hundred or more persons attending the services was John J. McCloy, American high commissioner in Germany, who came to Washington Sunday on official business.

Two Attend Arlington Burial As Wives Of Colonel Babcock

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Col. William Babcock, whom two women claimed as husband, was buried today as they looked on at Arlington National Cemetery.

Babcock, deputy American commissioner for Berlin, died of a heart attack at the German city Monday. He was 52 years old.

At the funeral service at Fort Myer Army Chapel, the two women sat a few feet apart in the mourners' row.

One of them was Florence Maryjean Babcock, who accompanied the colonel's body on the flight from Germany. She said they were married in 1945 and have a 3-year-old son.

The other was Mary Magdalene Babcock, of New London, Conn.,

SHE CAN'T BELIEVE GUBITCHEV IS SPY

But Judith Coplon Says Her Love For Russian Is Dead

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—Judith Coplon, diminutive ex-Government girl, said today that even though she had lost her love for Valentin Gubitchev she could not believe he was a spy for Russia.

The 28-year-old Barnard College graduate, now on trial with Gubitchev on charges they plotted to give United States secrets to Russia, made her statement at a news conference in the office of her attorney.

Miss Coplon told newsmen that her feeling for the 33-year-old Russian engineer was "certainly not one of love," but she said "I don't believe he's a spy."

They're Ignoring Each Other

The two defendants have ignored each other since their trial began last Tuesday. The trial was recessed yesterday until Monday.

Miss Coplon said that during her association with Gubitchev—a man she declared she once loved and hoped to marry—he "never asked for a single document" even though he knew she worked for the Department of Justice.

"He neved asked me about my work, nor I about his."

The purpose of today's conference, Miss Coplon explained, was to introduce her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Coplon, to newsmen.

Grief Overcomes Her Mother

But the mother, a gentle 57-year-old woman, suffered visibly through the few minutes she answered questions about her daughter. On several occasions grief overcame her and she wept.

Miss Coplon said she told her mother of her love for the Russian, not knowing at the time he was married. The mother told newsmen she made no objections to the romance "if it meant her happiness."

After she learned that Gubitchev was married, Miss Coplon said she was "confused" about the status of her relationship. The Russian told her his wife was "a nag" and that he planned to get a divorce, she said.

Idea Of Russ Police Scared Her

On the night of March 4, when she and Gubitchev were arrested by FBI agents, Miss Coplon said Gubitchev "indicated" he feared that he was being followed by Russian secret police.

She became frightened at this point, she said, because "I didn't know what sort of intrigue I was becoming involved in."

Two FBI agents testified during the opening days of the trial that they trailed the Russian to a rendezvous with Miss Coplon. One agent said Gubitchev appeared jittery at the time and seemed to suspect he was being followed.

Yesterday, Gubitchev's attorney contended in court that it was fear that Gubitchev's wife would discover his romance with Miss Coplon that made the Russian uneasy during the meeting. (AP) it meant her happiness."

Yesterday, Gubitchev's attorney, Abraham L. Pomerantz, declared that it was romance and not espionage that made the Russian jittery during a rendezvous with Miss Coplon. The assertion came in court after two FBI agents testified Gubitchev appeared uneasy when they trailed him to a meeting with Miss Coplon on January 14, 1949.

Doesn't Believe Gubitchev Spied, Miss Coplon Says

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—Ex-Government girl Judith Coplon declared today that her present feeling for Valentin Gubitchev was "certainly" not one of love, but she said "I don't believe he's a spy."

The 28-year-old Miss Coplon, now on trial with Gubitchev on charges of plotting to feed United States secrets to Russia, made this statement in the office of her attorney. The news conference was called during the trial's week-end recess.

The Russian-born Gubitchev, Miss Coplon said, "never asked for a single document," even though he knew that she worked in the Department of Justice."

Denies She Asked Of His Work

"He never asked me about my work, nor I about his."

During her Washington trial, in which she was convicted of stealing Government documents, Miss Coplon testified she was in love with Gubitchev at the time of their association. But that, she said, was before she knew he was married.

Today's news conference was called, Miss Coplon, explained, to introduce her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Coplon, to newsmen. But the mother, a frail, 57-year-old woman with graying hair, wilted visibly while being questioned about her daughter.

Asked if she believed the Russian responsible for Miss Coplon's plight, Mrs. Coplon said she didn't know. Then she added: "I believe in my daughter—every mother believes in her child."

She said that when her daughter first told her of her love for Gubitchev, she entered no objections "if

Gubitchev Halted, But Not For Long

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—It's hard to get seats at the Gubitchev-Coplon spy trial and hundreds are turned away every day.

It was the defendant, Valentin A. Gubitchev.

They let him in.

7 Colleges Start Project Squid To Speed Up Aerial Weapons

Princeton, N.J., Jan. 28 (AP)—Princeton University officials disclosed some details today of a vast exploration of new ideas in power plants for ultra-high speed aerial weapons.

More than 50 separate investigations of proposals for new engines or improving present types are being made under a military-sponsored project known as "Squid." Princeton is the coordinating agency for a group of seven schools.

At the same time Princeton is conducting two-year courses in aeronautical engineering for army, air force and navy engineer-pilots to prepare them for highly specialized flight work in advanced types of aircraft.

Will Supply Trained Men

Out of it, Princeton scientists told a group of aviation writers, the universities and military services expect to bring not only radically improved machines for missiles and planes flying at supersonic speeds and better fuels to feed them, but men trained to carry on their development.

The meeting was built around dedication of a supersonic wind tunnel and the first public showing of research equipment for work with rocket and jet engines.

One of the studies being made at Cornell University aims at more than doubling the speed and perhaps tripling the range of the "buzz bomb," a pre-aimed missle used by the Germans to slug London from across the channel. The "buzz" used a jet engine that depended upon forward motion to push air into the combustion chamber.

Valves Increase Compression

It differs from the simple ram-jet in that it has flutter valves at the nose intake which open and close rapidly to increase compression in the firing chamber. The advantage of this is to make it operate at speeds far below the minimum for a simple ram-jet. That also is its disadvantage, since the "buzz bomb" had a top speed of around 400 miles an hour.

Cornell is studying a "ducted pluse jet" in which a "buzz" motor is encased in a jacket. This slows down the air at the motor intake and sends the excess air around the motor to be used at the exhaust end of further expansion of the propulsive gases.

As a result, it is estimated that this type missile motor will reach its peaff efficiency at 800 miles an hour or more and will continue to operate well beyond 1,000 miles an hour.

Such a missile is relatively economical to build and operate and might be found useful in tactical warfare where the enemy must be isolated from his source of supplies.

Cornell Has Project

Cornell also is working on another radical modification of the pulse or "buzz" jet motor, described only as a "valveless pulse jet." Presumably this would further simplify the design and improve performance but no details were given.

Princeton officials said about 160 persons divided into more than twenty groups are working "squid" projects at Princeton, Cornell, New York, Delaware, Johns Hopkins and Purdue universities and Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn.

New York University and Princeton also are working on pulse-jet ideas. Some of the schools are studying problems of burning fuels at high speeds and of carrying off the heat to prevent disintegration of rockets and jets.

Navy Plans Blasts in 'Mo' Rescue

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 28 (AP).—Small explosive charges will be set off near the grounded battleship Missouri tomorrow in an attempt to break the suction that imprisons her on a Chesapeake Bay shoal.

Atlantic Fleet Headquarters said today that the blasts, which will occur at mid-day at low tide, are not expected to free the 45,000-ton ship.

A fleet spokesman said charges equal to about 75 pounds of TNT would be placed about 50 feet from the ship on either beam. The explosives will be lowered into 10-foot-deep holes dug in the bay bottom.

Shock waves which would be set up in the water by the explosives, the spokesman said, were designed to do two things:

(1) To "squash" or flatten ridges in the sand on which the Missouri rests.

(2) To help the ship break contact with the sand.

To emphasize the "small potato" nature of the 150 pounds of explosives, the spokesman compared this charge with the 350-pound and 500-pound depth charges the United States Navy used in the Second World War.

The charges will be exploded separately, the charge on the starboard (or right) side of the ship first. Holes for the explosives were being dug today.

SEA IS MODERATE

Other salvage operations today included off-loading of ammunition and rigging of beach gear.

Winds in the salvage area this morning ranged between 15 and 20 miles an hour. Sea conditions were moderate. Divers descended again today and tunneled beneath the Missouri's stern to string pontoon wires. Two sets of wires for pontoons already have been laid. It is planned to secure six submarine salvage pontoons under the "Mighty Mo's" stern to add to her buoyancy for the Navy's fourth attempt to refloat her, scheduled for Feb. 2.

T.N.T. Charges May Break Mud's Grip On 'Mo'

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 28 (AP)—Small explosive charges will be set off near the grounded battleship Missouri tomorrow in an attempt to break the suction that imprisons her on a Chesapeake Bay shoal.

Atlantic Fleet headquarters reported today that the blasts would occur at midday at low tide and are not expected to free the 45,000-ton ship.

A fleet spokesman said charges equal to about 75 pounds of T.N.T. would be placed about 50 feet from the ship on either beam. The explosives will be lowered into 10-foot holes.

To Create Shock Waves

Shock waves which will be set up in the water by the explosives, the spokesman said, are designed to do two things:

1. To "squash" or flatten ridges in the sand on which the Missouri rests.

2. To help the ship break contact with the sand.

To emphasize the "small-potato" nature of the 150 pounds of explosives, the spokesman compared this charge with the 350-pound and 500-pound depth charges the United States Navy used in World War II.

The charges will be exploded separately, the charge on the starboard side of the ship first. Holes for the explosives were being dug today.

Removing Ammunition

Other salvage operations today included off-loading of ammunition and rigging of beach gear.

Winds this morning ranged between 15 and 20 miles per hour. Sea conditions were moderate.

Divers descended again today and tunneled beneath the Missouri's stern to string pontoon wires. Two sets of wires for pontoons have already been laid. It is planned to secure six submarine salvage pontoons under the stern to add to her buoyancy for the Navy's fourth attempt to refloat her, scheduled for February 2.

Delayed By Winds

Today's resumption of work came after a slight pause yesterday occasioned by winds and choppy seas.

Meanwhile, all hands hoped for a northeaster to blow up so that abnormally high tides would prevail for Thursday's activities.

During yesterday's blow from the north, the tide rose to nine inches above normal, then subsided to two inches in late afternoon.

Nine steel cables, each 1,500 feet long, will be strung from as many four-ton anchors to winches on the battleship before the deadline.

When the cables are pulled taut by the winches, a force of 800 tons will be exerted by the Missouri itself to help out about a dozen tugs.

Webb Reveals U.S. 'Concern' On Red China

Raleigh, N.C., Jan. 28 (AP)—Under Secretary of State James E. Webb said today that the question of what to do about recognition of the Chinese Communist Government is giving the State Department real concern.

Unless the Communist Government shows some "real desire" to have normal relations with the United States, he said, "there is not much we can do to insist upon it."

One Of Factors

That, he explained during questioning at the regional Democratic party conference today, is just one of the factors under study.

He said it would take a month or so to get about 2,000 Americans out of China.

"The principles on which we decide on sending representatives to a country will be brought into focus within the next year," he added.

And he pointed out that the United States has learned that the sending of a representative to a country "does not imply approval."

families.

Dr. Natherson rigged a system whereby a telephone line in the United States could be cnonected with his radio. A soldier at a radio on the island and a family on a long-distance phone line in the United States could talk to each other. He estimated that more than 100 persons in sixty cities throughout the nation used the hook-up.

Ohio Bell told the doctor it was sympathetic with his cause, but the Federal Communications Commission will not allow two-way phone conversations to be broadcast.

"I'll obey, of course," the doctor said. But he wasn't happy.

Bridges Perjury Trial Moves To Hospital

JAN 29 1950

San Francisco, Jan. 28 (AP)—The judge, the jury and all the principals in the Harry Bridges trial met in an Oakland hospital yesterday. There they heard a patient testify in defensive of the CIO longshore union (ILWU) president.

William Christensen, in Permanente Hospital with a back injury, testified he accompanied Bridges to Stockton, Cal., on June 27, 1936, and spoke with Bridges at a union meeting there.

He was another in a series of defense witnesses giving similar testimony. A number of ex-Communists have testified for the Government that Bridges was in New York on that date, accepting election to the central committee of the Communist party of the United States.

Charged With Perjury

The Australia-born Bridges is charged with perjury because he said at his 1945 naturalization hearing he never was a Communist.

One of Bridges's codefendants, J. R. Robertson, appeared at a longshore union meeting in Stockton last night and charged the Government was prosecuting them "to weaken ILWU leadership."

Robertson, vice president of the ILWU, and Henry Schmidt, an ILWU international representative, are accused of conspiring with Bridges to defraud the Government at Bridges's naturalization hearing.

Denies Application

Schmidt, the first of the defendants to take the stand, denied flatly that he was a Communist or ever attended Communist party meetings.

He denied testimony of Government witnesses which had placed both him and Bridges at numerous Communist party gatherings.

Schmidt, 51, German-born, came from Germany in 1911 and became a citizen here about 23 years ago. He said he remembered visiting Communist headquarters here twice. Once, he and other waterfront union men attended a basement mass meeting to hear a woman speaker.

The other time was on New Year's Eve. Somewhat embarrassed, he said he did not remember how he got there. "I was raising cain, I guess," he said.

FIRST LEAD GERMAN TRAFFIC

BERLIN, JAN 28-(AP)-HOPES THE RUSSIANS MIGHT BE ABOUT READY TO ABANDON COMPLETELY THEIR SLOWDOWN OF BERLIN-BOUND GERMAN TRUCK TRAFFIC FADED TONIGHT. THE END OF THE SIXTH DAY OF THE "CREEPING BLOCKADE" GAVE NO REAL SIGNS THE SOVIETS WERE GIVING UP THEIR OBSTRUCTIVE TACTICS.

A SLIGHT RELAXATION OF THE VEXING RUSSIAN RESTRICTIONS DURING CERTAIN HOURS OF THE DAY HAD PROMPTED WESTERN ALLIED AND WEST GERMAN OFFICIALS TO SPECULATE ON A POSSIBLE EARLY END OF THE PARTIAL BLOCKADE.

WEST BERLIN HOUSEWIVES NOTED THE FIRST AGGRAVATING EFFECTS OF THE WEEK-LONG SOVIET DELAYING ACTION. MEAT, EGGS, BUTTER AND OTHER FOOD ITEMS AGAIN WERE GETTING SCARCE. FOOD PRICES ROSE SLIGHTLY TODAY.

ABOUT 140 TRUCKS WERE LINED UP BEHIND HELMSTEDT, WESTERN HIGHWAY CHECKPOINT ON THE BRITISH-RUSSIAN ZONAL BORDER, AWAITING CLEARANCE BY THE RUSSIANS TO PROCEED TO BERLIN.

THE NUMBER OF TRUCKS HAD DWINDLED FROM 200 BY SOME 60 TRUCKS DURING THE DAY AS THE SOVIETS EASED SOMEWHAT THEIR RESTRICTIONS. AT TIMES THEY LET THROUGH UP TO 12 TRUCKS PER HOUR BUT FREQUENTLY INTERPOSED A TOUGHER SCHEDULE BY CUTTING THE PASSING RATE DOWN TO THREE TRUCKS HOURLY.

HELMSTEDT OFFICIALS SAID TONIGHT THERE IS NO BASIC CHANGE IN THE OVERALL SCHEDULE. THE AVERAGE, THEYSSAID, "HAS BEEN SIX TRUCKS." NORMAL TRUCK TRAFFIC BEFORE THE RUSSIAN RESTRICTIONS WERE IMPOSED WAS ABOUT 30 AN HOUR.

ALLIED AND GERMAN RAILWAY TRAFFIC TO AND FROM BERLIN CONTINUED NORMAL.

THE THREE WESTERN ALLIES-THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE--HAVE TWICE PROTESTED SHARPLY THE RESTRICTIONS ON TRUCK TRAFFIC.

WESTERN COMMANDANTS DEMANDED IN A NOTE THURSDAY TO THE SOVIET COMMANDANT, MAJ.GEN.ALEXANDER KOTIKOV, THE IMMEDIATE REMOVAL "OF THESE ABNORMAL RESTRICTIONS."

THE RESTRICTIONS, WHICH INCLUDED PROLONGED EXAMINATION OF PAPERS AND CARGOES AND REJECTION OF PERMITS FOR SUCH THINGS AS A TYPING ERROR, WERE DECLARED TO VIOLATE BOTH THE SPIRIT AND THE LETTER OF THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS' DECISION AT PARIS TO NORAMLIZE BERLIN LIFE AFTER THE SOVIET BLOCKADE OF THE WESTERN SECTORS WAS LIFTED LAST YEAR.

THE SLOWDOWN STARTED AFTER AMERICAN AUTHORITIES SEIZED A LARGELY UNTENANTED BUILDING OF THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED RAILWAY SYSTEM IN THE AMERICAN SECTOR LAST WEEK AND TURNED THE EMPTY OFFICES OVER TO THE WEST BERLIN CITY GOVERNMENT.

THIS ACTION, ASCRIBED TO THE BLUNDER OF A SUBORDINATE, DREW COMMUNIST THREATS OF A NEW BLOCKADE AND A STIFF RUSSIAN PROTEST. THE SEIZURE WAS CANCELLED AND THE BUILDING WAS RESTORED TO SOVIET CONTROL BY THE U.S. COMMANDANT, MAJ.GEN.MAXWELL D.TAYLOR, FOUR DAYS LATER.

SPECULATION AMONG WESTERN SOURCES ON RUSSIAN AIMS IN THE TRAFFIC SQUEEZE INCLUDED THE POSSIBILITY OF SOFTENING WEST BERLIN FOR COMMUNISM; CHECKING THE MOVEMENT OF VITAL SCRAP METAL FROM THE METAL-POOR SOVIET ZONE; DIVERSION OF TRUCK CARGOES TO THE RUSSIAN-RUN RAILWAYS, WHICH CAN USE THE EXTRA REVENUES; AND JUST A STUDIED EFFORT TO ANNOY THE WEST.

THE WAITING LINE AT HELMSTEDT TONIGHT HAD DWINDLED TO 128 BERLIN-BOUND TRUCKS, ONLY HALF THE NUMBER TIED UP THERE YESTERDAY. WEST GERMAN OFFICIALS SAID ALL THOSE MIGHT BE CLEARED DURING THE NIGHT.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS HAVE TALKED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF ECONOMIC REPRISALS, SUCH AS CANCELLING A TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN EAST AND

JAN 29 1950

WEST GERMANY IF THE SLOWDOWN PERSISTED.

THE U.S. HIGH COMMISSIONER, JOHN J.MCCLOY, DECLARED THE AIRLIFT WHICH SUPPLIED WEST BERLIN DURING THE BLOCKADE MIGHT BE RESTORED IF THE CITY SUPPLY LINES WERE CUT.

BY DELAYING THEIR RESTRICTIONS, THE RUSSIANS COULD NOW AVOID A DIRECT SHOWDOWN WITH THE WEST. WD513PES

RED EDITORS DEMANDED A RUTHLESS ECONOMIC CLEANUP BY THE NEW POLICE FORCE. THEY LEFT LITTLE DOUBT THAT MIELKE'S AGENTS WOULD STRIKE AT ALL GROUPS OPPOSED TO THE COMMUNIST PROGRAM. (Release) WD513PES

(AP)-THE RUSSIANS ALLOWED WESTBOUND MOTOR SLIGHTLY HERE THIS MORNING, THE SIXTH UCKS LINKING THE GERMAN METROPOLIS

AN SIDE OF THE SOVIET ZONE BORDER HERE RLIN ABOUT 200 BERLIN-BOUND TRUCKS UP BEHIND THE WESTERN CHECKPOINT. RUSSIANS WERE LETTING ABOUT FOUR HOUR. NUED NORMAL OPERATIONS TO AND FROM TED ALL TRAINS PASSED THROUGH HERE ON SCHEDULE. WD504AES

STUTTGART, GERMANY, JAN. 28-(AP)-ERNST HEINKEL, WHO BUILT THE AIR-PLANES OF YESTERDAY, WISHED "GREAT SUCCESS" TODAY TO THE MEN WHO MAY BUILD THE AIRCRAFT OF TOMORROW--AND FLY THEM TO THE MOON.

THE AGING GERMAN AIRCRAFT DESIGNER ADDRESSED THE LEADERS OF THE GERMAN "ASSOCIATION FOR INTERPLANETARY RESEARCH" AT THE CLOSE OF ITS FIRST ANNUAL CONGRESS. THE ASSOCIATION'S GOAL IS TO DEVELOP A "SPACE-SHIP" WHICH WILL REACH OTHER PLANETS.

HEINKEL, WHO BUILT SOME OF HITLER'S BEST WAR PLANES, TURNED HIS BRIEF TALK INTO A PLEA FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AND PEACE. HE LAMENTED THE "MISUSE" OF ROCKETS FOR WAR AND EXPRESSED HOPE THAT THE USE OF ROCKETS TO FLY THROUGH SPACE WILL LEAD TOWARD PEACE.

HEINKEL CALLED THE CONQUEST OF SPACE THE BIG REMAINING CHALLENGE FACING MANKIND.

"THE ENORMITY OF THE TASK DEMANDS INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION," HE SAID.

"IT REQUIRES A POINT OF VIEW WHICH REALIZES HOW SMALL OUR WORLD REALLY IS. IT MAKES THE POLITICAL DIFFERENCES OF OUR TIME SEEM SO UNIMPORTANT.

"SO, AFTER MANY YEARS OF MISUSE FOR WAR, THE ROCKET MAY YET LEAD MANKIND INTO THE WORLD OF THE STARS AND AN EPOCH OF PEACEFUL COOPERATION BETWEEN NATIONS."

OCCUPATION LAWS FORBID THE GERMAN SCIENTISTS TO BUILD OR DESIGN AN ACTUAL ROCKET. BUT THEIR WORK HAS BEEN GIVEN ALLIED APPROVAL SO LONG AS IT REMAINS THEORETICAL.

LONDON, JAN. 28-(AP)-MOSCOW RADIO TODAY GAVE EVIDENCE OF A SHAKEUP IN THE LOCAL COMMUNIST PARTY ORGANIZATION IN THE SOVIET CAPITAL.

A BROADCAST HEARD IN LONDON SAID FOUR SECRETARIES OF THE PARTY'S REGIONAL COMMITTEE COVERING MOSCOW AND ITS SURROUNDING AREA HAD BEEN "RELEASED FROM THEIR DUTIES."

THOSE RELEASED WERE THE COMMITTEE'S SECOND SECRETARY S.A.ZHOLNIN AND SUB-SECRETARIES KOZLOVA, TEKACHEV AND SOLOVYEV. NO SUCCESSORS WERE NAMED IN THE BROADCAST AND NO REASON WAS GIVEN FOR THE OUSTERS.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT FOLLOWED AN EARLIER REPORT THT A NEW FIRST SECRETARY, I.I.RUMYANTSEV, HAD BEEN ELECTED IN THE MOSCOW CITY PARTY ORGANIZATION. THE REPORT SAID FORMER SECOND SECRETARY I.A.PAPENOV HAD BEEN "RELEASED FROM HIS DUTIES" AND REPLACED BY E.A. FURTSEV, FORMERLY A DISTRICT PARTY LEADER. RUMYANTSEV'S PREDECESSOR WAS NOT NAMED, OR WAS THERE OTHER MENTION OF PAPENOV.

PARIS, JAN.28-(AP)-U.S. PRESSURE TO PUT BELGIUM'S FORMER PREMIER PAUL-HENRI SPAAK AT THE HEAD OF EUROPE'S ECONOMIC COOPERATION ORGANIZATION GOT A COLD RECEPTION HERE TODAY.

INSTEAD OF GIVING SPAAK A POSITION OF STRONG POLITICAL LEADERSHIP, AS PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON, PROPOSED 10 DAYS AGO, EUROPEAN MINISTERS HERE TO DISCUSS ECONOMIC "INTEGRATION" MADE A COUNTER PROPOSAL.

THE EIGHT-MEMBER "CONSULTATIVE GROUP" OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC) PROPOSED THAT TOP-LEVEL GUIDANCE BE GIVEN TWO DAYS A MONTH EACH BY THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THREE SMALL MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES. THOSE PROPOSED ARE BELGIUM'S PAUL VAN ZEELAND, PRESIDENT OF THE OEEC COUNCIL; AND SEAN MACBRIDE OF IRELAND AND KARL GRUBER OF AUSTRIA, BOTH VICE-PRESIDENTS.

AFTER TWO DAYS OF CONFERENCES, ATTENDED BY MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN, SEVERAL OFFICIALS AGREED THAT SPAAK'S CANDIDACY WAS A "DEAD DUCK."

HOFFMAN'S SPOKESMEN HAD SAID HE WOULD FIGHT HARD FOR SPAAK'S APPOINTMENT TO THE PROPOSED NEW POST OF OEEC GENERAL SECRETARY. BUT THEIR ENTHUSIASM HAD WANED AT THE END OF YESTERDAY'S MEETING.

THE QUESTION IS DUE TO COME UP FOR FURTHER DISCUSSION AT ANOTHER MEETING TUESDAY MORNING.

ALSO TO BE DISCUSSED AT THE TUESDAY MEETING ARE RECOMMENDATIONS ON:

A "CLEARING HOUSE" SCHEME TO EQUALIZE DEBTS AND CREDITS AND DO AWAY WITH DIRECT TRADING BETWEEN WESTERN EUROPE'S 18 MARSHALL PLAN AREAS.

A FRENCH PROPOSAL TO REDUCE GRADUALLY UP TO 75 PER CENT OF THE IMPORT-EXPORT QUOTAS WHICH HAVE FORMED TRADE BARRIERS BETWEEN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES. ABOUT 50 PERCENT OF THESE ALREADY HAVE BEEN ELIMINATED. THE FRENCH PROPOSAL CALLS FOR DOING AWAY WITH ANOTHER 25 PER CENT.

MEANS OF DOING AWAY WITH "DOUBLE PRICES" CURRENTLY PLACED ON CERTAIN BASIC PRODUCTS, INCLUDING COAL AND STEEL, BY SOME EUROPEAN COUNTRIES. AT PRESENT HIGHER PRICES ARE SOMETIMES CHARGED TO FOREIGNERS THAN TO DOMESTIC BUYERS.

PARIS, JAN. 28-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED WORLD FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS TODAY ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES OF REFUSING VISAS TO FOUR OF ITS DELEGATES TO A UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL MEETING.

THE FEDERATION'S PARIS OFFICE MADE PUBLIC A TELEGRAM IT SAID WAS SENT TO U.N. SECRETARY GENERAL TRYGVE LIE DENOUNCING "THIS SCANDALOUS ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATESN WHICH, IN THE CIRCUMSTANCES, INDICATES THAT AMERICA IS TRYING TO DICTATE ITS POLICIES TO THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE TELEGRAM ASKED LIE TO "DEMAND INSTANTLY THAT THE UNITED STATES RESPECT ITS ACCORD WITH THE UNITED NATIONS CONCERNING THE DELIVERY OF VISAS TO DELEGATES WHO WISH TO ATTEND MEETINGS AT LAKE SUCCESS."

THE U.S.EMBASSY IN PARIS EXPLAINED THAT VISA APPLICATIONS OF "KNOWN COMMUNIST, PARTICULARLY JOURNALISTS OR OTHERS WHO MOLD PUBLIC OPINION," ARE REFERRED TO THE SSTATE AND JUSTICE DEPARTMENTS IN WASHINGTON FOR APPROVAL, BY ORDER OF THE U.S.ATTORNEY GENERAL.

AN EMBASSY SPOKESMAN SAID, HOWEVER, THAT ANSWERS HAD NOT YET BEEN RECEIVED FROM WASHINGTON IN THE CASES MENTIONED BY THE WFTU.

THE WFTU SAID FLATLY THE APPLICATIONS WERE REJECTED. THEY WERE FOR DIALLO ABDOULAYE OF FRANCE AND LOMBARDO TOLEDANO OF MEXICO, WFTU VICE-PRESIDENTS; GEORGE FISCHER OF FRANCE, WHO HEADS THE FEDERATION'S ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL AFFAIRS BRANCH, AND DOLESLAV GEBERT OF POLAND, A SECRETARY.

THE FEDERATION SECRETARY SAID THE DELEGATES WISHED TO ATTEND THE U.N. SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC COUNCIL MEETING AT LAKE SUCCESS FEB. 7.

PARIS, JAN. 28-(AP)-A FIERY SPEECH BY A COMMUNIST WOMAN DEPUTY SET OTHER MEMBERS OF THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY TO BREAKING BENCHES AND SOUNDING CATCALLS LAST NIGHT.

THE SCENE BECAME SO VIOLENT THAT ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT EDUARD HERRIOT SOUNDED THE SIREN TO RESTORE ORDER AND CLEARED THE PUBLIC AND PRESS GALLERIES. TWO CABINET MINISTERS WALKED OUT.

THE BENCH-BREAKING AND WRANGLING AROUND THE SPEAKER'S STAND LASTED 15 MINUTES. NO ONE WAS INJURED. HERRIOT RECESSED THE SESSION FOR 45 MINUTES TO LET EVERYONE COOL OFF.

IT ALL STARTED WHEN MADAME JEANETTE VERMEERSCH, WIFE OF FRENCH COMMUNIST PARTY GENERAL SECRETARY MAURICE THOREZ, BEGAN TO ATTACK BITTERLY FRENCH POLICY IN INDO-CHINA.

INTERRUPTED BY APPLAUSE FROM COMMUNIST MEMBERS AND CAT-CALLS FROM THE OTHER DEPUTIES, MADAME VERMEERSCH'S HEATED SPEECH CAUSED HERRIOT TO REMARK:

"MADAME, I WOULD NEVER HAVE BELIEVED THAT A WOMAN WAS CAPABLE OF SO MUCH HATE."

VATICAN CITY, JAN. 28-(AP)-POPE PIUS XII CALLED TODAY UPON ITALIAN CATHOLIC ACTION--MILITANT ANTI-COMMUNIST GROUP OF 4,000,000--TO STRENGTHEN AND GIRD ITSELF ALONGSIDE THE CLERGY IN AN INTENSIFIED FIGHT TO LEAD "THE MODERN WORLD BACK AGAIN TO CHRIST."

THE POPE'S APPEAL WAS PUBLISHED TODAY BY L'OSSERVATORE ROMANO, THE VATICAN NEWSPAPER. IT WAS CONTAINED IN A LETTER TO THE ITALIAN CLERGY DATED JAN. 25--FEAST DAY OF THE CONVERSION OF ST.PAUL TO CHRISTIANITY.

THE POPE URGED THAT CATHOLIC ACTION BE EXTENDED TO EVERY MOUNTAIN AND COUNTRY HAMLET WHERE NO UNIT NOW EXISTS. THIS IS NECESSARY, SAID THE POPE, TO AID THE CLERGY "WHOSE NUMBERS AND STRENGTH, TODAY MORE THAN IN THE PAST, ARE NOT PROPORTIONATE TO THE NEEDS OF ITS MISSION."

HIS WORDS GAVE NEW SIGNIFICANCE TO THE RECENT ANNOUNCEMENT BY CATHOLIC ACTION THAT IT WOULD INTENSIFY ITS EFFORTS DURING THE HOLY YEAR TO CONVERT THOSE WHO HAD FALLEN AWAY FROM THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH--INCLUDING COMMUNISTS AND ATHEISTS.

THE POPE SAID THAT EXPERIENCE HAS TAUGHT THAT THE CLERGY SHOULD AVAIL ITSELF OF "ALL THE ENERGIES AND RESOURCES AVAILABLE."

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, JAN 28-(AP)-AN AGREEMENT GIVING ITALY CONTROL OF HER FORMER AFRICAN COLONY OF SOMALILAND FOR 10 YEARS WAS APPROVED LAST NIGHT BY THE UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL.

AT THE END OF ITALIAN TRUSTEESHIP, SOMALILAND IS TO BECOME INDEPENDENT.

THE AGREEMENT WAS PASSED BY ALL DELEGATES PRESENT IN THE COUNCIL. THE SOVIET DELEGATION, HOWEVER, TOOK NO PART IN THE DISCUSSIONS OR VOTING, PRESUMABLY HAVING BOYCOTTED THE SESSIONS AS PART OF ITS CAMPAIGN TO OUST NATIONALIST CHINA'S U.N. REPRESENTATIVE SHIH SHUN-LIU, WHO TOOK AN ACTIVE PART IN THE DEBATE.

ITALIAN DELEGATES SAID THE AGREEMENT WILL GO BEFORE THE ITALIAN PARLIAMENT MONDAY.

SOMALILAND HAS BEEN UNDER BRITISH MANDATE SINCE IT WAS WRESTED FROM THE ITALIANS IN WORLD WAR TWO. ITALY FIRST OCCUPIED PART OF THE TERRITORY'S RED SEA COAST IN 1891. HER HOLD WAS EXTENDED DURING MUSSOLINI'S IMPERIALIST PROGRAM.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, JAN 28-(AP)-ISRAEL HAS OPPOSED UNITED NATIONS MEDIATION FOR A PERMANENT PEACE WITH HER FOUR ARAB NEIGHBORS, DEMANDING INSTEAD DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE ARABS.

GIDEON RAPHAEL, HEAD OF THE ISRAELI DELEGATION FOR PEACE TALKS, SAID YESTERDAY ANY ATTEMPTS BY THE U.N. CONCILIATION COMMISSION TO MEDIATE WOULD BE "VERY UNFORTUNATE."

THE COMMISSION, NOW MEETING HERE, HAS BEEN TRYING SINCE LAST APRIL TO BRING ABOUT DIRECT CONTACT BETWEEN THE ISRAELIS AND ARABS.

"WHAT WE NEED NOW," RAPHAEL SAID, "IS A TEST OF THE ARABS' SINCERITY IN THEIR DESIRE FOR PEACE."

HE SAID SUCH A TEST WOULD BE IN DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS, WHICH THE ARAB DELEGATION THUS FAR HAS REFUSED TO DO EXCEPT IN MINOR DISCUSSIONS OF FROZEN ARAB BANK ACCOUNTS IN ISRAEL. THE ARAB STATES CONCERNED ARE EGYPT, LEBANON, HASHEMITE, JORDAN AND SYRIA.

BUT RAPHAEL SAID THE COMMISSION "IS NOT IN A POSITION TO DELIVER THE GOODS."

"ANY PROPOSALS MADE BY A THIRD PARTY AT THIS STATE," HE SAID, "WOULD ONLY INCREASE THE CONFUSION AND CREATE EVEN GREATER ILLUSIONS, THUS DELAYING THE PROCESS OF ACHIEVING PEACE."

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN 28-(AP)-THE OFFICIAL CZECH NEWS AGENCY CLAIMED TODAY THAT 97.2 PER CENT OF ALL ROMAN CATHOLIC CLERGY IN MORAVIA AND BOHEMIA HAVE SWORN OATHS OF LOYALTY TO THE COMMUNIST-LED "PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REGIME" HERE.

IT GAVE NO FIGURES FOR DEVOUTLY CATHOLIC SLOVAKIA, THE NATION'S BREAD BASKET.

THE OATHS ARE PRESCRIBED BY CHURCH CONTROL LAWS WHICH MADE ALL PRIESTS AND PASTORS CIVIL SERVANTS PAID BY THE STATE. THIS LAW GAVE THE GOVERNMENT FINAL APPROVAL OF ALL CHURCH ADMINISTRATIVE, FINANCIAL AND APPOINTIVE AFFAIRS.

HIGH CATHOLIC SOURCES PREVIOUSLY REPORTED THAT CATHOLIC CLERGYMEN WERE TAKING THE ALLEGIANCE VOWS "WITH A GREAT UNWILLINGNESS." MANY OF THEM, THESE SOURCES SAID, WERE SIGNING THE OATHS ONLY AFTER UNSUCCESSFULLY TRYING TO ADD CHURCH PRESCRIBED RESERVATIONS.

THEY ALSO SAID THE ARRESTS OF PRIESTS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA WERE CONTINUING ON A RATE OF ONE A DAY.

PRAGUE, JAN.28-(AP)-CZECHOSLOVAKIA CHARGED TODAY THAT SGT. REGINALD DANKO, A CANADIAN LEGATION EMPLOYE EXPELLED FROM THE COUNTRY LAST WEEK, HAD ENGAGED IN ESPIONAGE AGAINST THIS COUNTRY.

THE GOVERNMENT DECLARED ALSO THAT CPL.J.G.VANIER, ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE LEGATION STAFF OUSTED AT THE SAME TIME, HAD BEEN GUILTY OF ABUSING THE "HOSPITALITY" OF THE CZECH STATE.

THROUGH THE OFFICIAL CZECH NEWS AGENCY, THE GOVERNMENT ASSERTED THAT BOTH MEN HAD BEEN GUILTY OF "LOW AND INIMICAL PROVOCATIONS AGAINST OUR AUTHORITIES." IN RESPECT TO DANKO IT SAID THAT THE AUTHORITIES HAD LEARNED THAT HE HAD "ORGANIZED ESPIONAGE IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA AIMED AT THE CZECHOSLOVAK STATE AND PAID BIG AMOUNTS FOR THE INFORMATION."

THE TWO CANADIANS LEFT THE COUNTRY ON JAN. 29.

THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT SAID IN A STATEMENT THAT DANKO AND VANIER HAD BEEN OUSTED ON "BASELESS ACCUSATIONS" THAT FIT INTO A PATTERN OF IRON CURTAIN CONDUCT TOWARDS WESTERN REPRESENTATIVES.

DANKO WAS A CLERK TYPIST AND VANIER A DRIVER. BOTH WERE ENLISTED MEN OF THE ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE AND HAD WORKED IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA FOR ALMOST THREE YEARS.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN.28-(AP)-A NEW SOCIETY OF ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIESTS--IN EFFECT A CHURCH UNION--HAS BEEN FORMED IN THE YUGOSLAV REPUBLIC OF BOSNIA AND HERCEGOVINA.

THE NEWSPAPER REPUBLICA REPORTED TODAY 155 PRIESTS MET IN SARAJEVO, THE REPUBLIC'S CAPITAL, AND PASSED A RESOLUTION PLEDGING COOPERATION WITH THE COMMUNIST-LED PEOPLES FRONT "IN ALL ITS SOCIAL, EDUCATIONAL AND HUMANITARIAN ACTIONS."

IT CONDEMNED PRIESTS WHO ALLEGEDLY WORKED WITH GERMANS DURING THE OCCUPATION AND THOSE WHO HAVE MAINTAINED A "HOSTILE" ATTITUDE TOWARD PREMIER MARSHALL TITO'S GOVERNMENT SINCE THE COUNTRY'S LIBERATION.

THE RESOLUTION SAID THE ORGANIZATION WOULD WORK TO "BRING INTO HARMONY THE INTERESTS OF THE CHURCH, PEOPLE AND STATE."

THE ORGANIZATION IS THE SECOND SOCIETY OF CATHOLIC PRIESTS TO BE FORMED IN YUGOSLAVIA. THE OTHER WAS CREATED IN THE REPUBLIC OF SLOVENIA. SIMILAR GROUPS OF SERBIAN ORTHODOX PRIESTS HAVE BEEN FORMED IN OTHER YUGOSLAV REPUBLICS.

SERBIAN PRIESTS DRAW SOME SPECIAL FAVORS OF PARTICIPATING IN SUCH "COOPERATIVE" SOCIETIES. THEY ARE PERMITTED TO PURCHASE GOODS AT GOVERNMENT-CONTROLLED STORES AT REDUCED PRICES.

~~NIGHT LEAD CHINESE~~ (340)

~~BY SPENCER MOOSA~~

~~TAIPEI, FORMOSA, JAN 28 (AP)~~-THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT TODAY DENOUNCED IN ADVANCE AS INVALID ANY AGREEMENTS--SECRET OR OPEN--THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS MIGHT MAKE WITH RUSSIA.

COMMUNIST CHAIRMAN MAO TZE-TUNG, HAS BEEN IN MOSCOW SINCE DEC.16. IT HAS BEEN GENERALLY BELIEVED THAT HE IS NEGOTIATING A TREATY OF ALLIANCE BETWEEN HIS PEIPING REGIME AND THE KREMLIN.

THE NATIONALIST STATEMENT, ISSUED BY FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGE YEH, SAID ALSO THAT THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT "WILL CONTINUE TO HOLD THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY AND ALL CONSEQUENCES ENSUING FROM THE LATTER'S VIOLATION OF THE SINO-SOVIET TREATY OF 1945."

(THE 1945 TREATY WAS THE ONE WHICH GAVE RUSSIA SPECIAL RIGHTS IN MANCHURIA. THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS MANY TIMES SINCE HAVE ALLEGED THAT RUSSIA HAS VIOLATED IT BY EXTENDING HER CONTROL BEYOND THE TREATY'S LIMITATIONS. THE COMMUNIST ATTITUDE TOWARDS THAT TREATY HAS BEEN A SUBJECT OF INTENSE SPECULATION.)

FOREIGN MINISTER YEH'S STATEMENT SAID RECENT STATEMENTS BY MAO SHOULD DISPEL ANY WISHFUL THINKING THAT THE CHINESE REDS WOULD TURN "TITOIST."

"RECENT HAPPENINGS," HE DECLARED, "ONLY REAFFIRM THE FACT THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME IS NOTHING MORE THAN A SOVIET-SPONSORED PUPPET REGIME WHICH LACKS THE ESSENTIAL ATTRIBUTES OF A SOVEREIGN STATE."

THE STATEMENT APPEARED TO BE THE FIRST MOVE IN A NEW NATIONALIST CAMPAIGN TO CONVINCE THE CHINESE ON THE MAINLAND THAT THEY WERE UNDER MOSCOW'S THUMB. THE NATIONALISTS EVIDENTLY FEEL THAT THIS MAY STIMULATE POPULAR OPPOSITION TO THE REDS.

IN LINE WITH THIS DRIVE, THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE MINISTRY ALLEGED THAT THE REDS WERE CONSCRIPTING ALL SHANGHAI MEDICAL STUDENTS FOR SERVICE WITH THE COMMUNIST ARMY. IT SAID THIS MEANT THE REDS WERE EXPECTING HEAVY CASUALTIES IF THEY TRIED TO INVADE FORMOSA.

THE DEFENSE MINISTRY SAID THAT A GROUND DRIVE WAS IN SUCCESSFULL PROGRESS AGAINST PRO-RED GUERRILLAS ON HAINAN, THE NATIONALISTS' OTHER MAIN ISLAND.

SEEKING TO BOLSTER NATIONALIST FINANCES, THE CABINET MEANWHILE RULED THAT NO CHINESE COULD GET A PASSPORT TO GO ABROAD WITHOUT BUYING WAR BONDS. THE AMOUNTS RANGED FROM THE EQUIVALENT OF $5.50 FOR PRIMARY SCHOOLTEACHERS TO $3,300 FOR BUSINESS MEN.

HOIHOW, HAINAN ISLAND, JAN 28 (AP)-A BELGIAN BUSINESSMAN HAS REACHED THIS NATIONALIST ISLAND AFTER A NOVEL ESCAPE FROM COMMUNIST CHINA IN A BOATLOAD OF PIGS.

HERE IS THE ACCOUNT OF HIS ADVENTURE AS GIVEN TONIGHT BY C.A. BAETN, 38, OF BRUSSELS:

UNDERCOVER NATIONALIST AGENTS IN SHANGHAI WARNED BAETN THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAD LISTED HIM FOR ARREST BECAUSE HE HAD BEEN A CLOSE BUSINESS ASSOCIATE OF THE NATIONALISTS.

ON JAN. 2 BAETN BOARDED A FRAIL LITTLE SAMPAN ON THE SHANGHAI BUND AND WAS COVERED UP ON THE BOTTOM OF THE CRAFT. HE LAY THERE FOR 12 HOURS WHILE A BOATMAN POLED OUT OF THE CITY PAST RED FORTS TO A COASTAL FISHING VILLAGE.

BAETN HAD TO WAIT IN THE VILLAGE TWO DAYS FOR A JUNK TO TAKE HIM FARTHER. THE VILLAGE HEADMAN, OSTENSIBLY A COMMUNIST, ENTERTAINED HIM AND EXPRESSED SYMPATHY FOR THE NATIONALISTS.

THE STOCKY, JOVIAL BELGIAN SAID HE LEARNED THAT MANY CHINESE HAD TRIED HIS ESCAPE METHOD BUT HAD BEEN ROBBED BY BOATMEN, BUT EVERYONE HE MET "GAVE ME WONDERFUL ATTENTION AND SEEMED HAPPY THAT A FOREIGNER HAD OUTWITTED THE COMMUNISTS."

FINALLY BOARDING A SAILING JUNK AT A DESERTED BEACH, HE WAS CONCEALED AMONG A LOAD OF SQUEALING PIGS DURING A 12-HOUR RUN TO AN ISLAND IN THE CHUSAN GROUP, ABOUT 100 MILES SOUTH OF SHANGHAI.

NATIONALIST OFFICERS WHO MET THE UNK GAPED IN AMAZEMENT AS BAETN EMERGED FROM AMONG THE PIGS.

ESCORTED TO THE MAIN NATIONALIST CHUSAN BASE OF TINGHAI, HE WAS GREETED AS A HERO AND FETED AT BANQUETS FOR FOUR DAYS. THE NATIONALISTS SAID HE WAS THE FIRST WHITE MAN TO ESCAPE IN THIS FASHION FROM THE REDS.

EVENTUALLY HE WAS FLOWN TO FORMOSA, THEN TO HAINAN, AND NOW IS AWAITING A PLANE CONNECTION TO THE PORTUGUESE COLONY OF MACAO. HE PLANS TO REJOIN HIS WIFE IN REDWOOD CITY, CALIF., AND THEN RETURN TO BELGIUM FOR THE FIRST VISIT IN 13 YEARS.

BAETN WAS CHARY OF MORE SPECIFIC DETAILS OF HIS ESCAPE BECAUSE HE SAID MANY FOREIGNERS, STRANDED IN SHANGHAI AND UNABLE TO GET RED EXIT PERMITS, MIGHT WANT TO DO THE SAME THING.

HONG KONG, JAN. 28-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO HAS STEPPED UP ITS PROPAGANDA BARRAGE AGAINST THAILAND (SIAM). IT HAS LOOSED A PERSONAL ATTACK ON PREMIER PIBUL SONGGRAM.

THE LATEST WORD FROM THE PEIPING RADIO, HEARD IN HONG KONG, CALLED THE PREMIER A "FASCIST." IT ACCUSED HIM OF A "SAVAGE IMPOSITION" ON CHINESE RESIDENTS IN THAT SOUTHEAST ASIAN NATION.

THE RADIO PREVIOUSLY HAS ASSERTED THAT CHINESE IN THAILAND WERE BEING IMPRISONED AND BEATEN TO DEATH. THAILAND OFFICIALS DENIED THIS. THEY HAVE ANNOUNCED, HOWEVER, THEY WILL TOLERATE NO COMMUNIST TERRORISM.

THAILAND PREVIOUSLY HAS BEEN LEFT PRETTY MUCH ALONE WHILE PEIPING'S PROPAGANDA GUNS WERE TURNED ON NEIGHBORING FRENCH INDOCHINA AND BURMA. THAILAND, UNLIKE THESE TWO COUNTRIES, DOES NOT BORDER ON CHINA.

IT'S BELIEVED THIS NEW CAMPAIGN IS BEING BUILT UP BECAUSE OF THE MEETING NEXT MONTH IN BANGKOK, THAILAND'S CAPITAL, OF TOP U.S. DIPLOMATS STATIONED IN THE ORIENT.

FROM THIS MEETING MAY EMERGE A FIRMER AMERICAN ANTI-COMMUNIST POLICY IN ASIA. THE REDS CAN'T STOP THE MEETING, BUT THEY CAN TRY TO LESSEN ITS EFFECT BY PICTURING THAILAND AS A BASE FOR WHAT THEY CALL AMERICAN IMPERIALISM.

OBSERVERS BELIEVE THERE ALSO IS THE LONG-RANGE POSSIBILITY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS MAY FOLLOW THE PATH OF JAPAN IN THE LAST WAR. JAPAN MOVED IN ON THAILAND AND FROM THERE SEIZED CONTROL OF SOUTHEAST ASIA.

HONG KONG, JAN 28 (AP)-AN AIRPLANE CARRYING NINE CANADIAN OFFICIALS INCLUDING THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, BLEW TWO TIRES LANDING HERE LATE TODAY AND SLITHERED WITHIN 100 YARDS OF HONG KONG HARBOR. NO ONE WAS INJURED.

LESTER BOWLES PEARSON, THE EXTERNAL AFFAIRS CHIEF, FISHERIES MINISTER ROBERT WELLINGTON MAYHER, THEIR WIVES, AND SEVEN OTHER MEMBERS OF CANADA'S DELEGATION TO THE RECENT COLOMBO CONFERENCE WERE ABOARD THE PLANE.

THE FOUR ENGINED ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE NORTH STAR BLEW ITS TWO PORTSIDE TIRES AS IT LANDED ON A FLIGHT FROM SINGAPORE. CHIEF PILOT EDWARD W.SMITH OF METIS BEACH, QUEBEC, SAID THE BLOWOUTS WERE CAUSED BY BRAKES JAMMING. HE SAID THE ACCIDENT WAS NOT UNUSUAL AND THE PLANE NEVER WAS IN ANY DANGER.

PEARSON, WHO REALIZED WHAT HAD HAPPENED ONLY AFTER ALIGHTING FROM THE PLANE, SHRUGGED IT OFF WITH:

"OH WELL, WE HAD A GOOD 100 YARDS TO GO YET."

MRS.PEARSON SAID, "I DIDN'T THINK IT WAS A BIT BUMPY."

THE PARTY WAS MET AT THE ROYAL AIR FORCE AIRPORT BY AIR COMMODORE A.D.DAVIS AND CANADIAN TRADE COMMISSIONER KENNETH F.NOBLE. THE HOMEWARD FLIGHT--VIA TOKYO, HONOLULU AND SAN FRANCISCO--WILL BE RESUMED MONDAY MORNING.

HONG KONG, JAN. 28-(AP)-IT WAS A CHINESE NATIONALIST GUNBOAT, NOT COMMUNIST SHORE BATTERIES, THAT SHELLED THE LITTLE BRITISH COASTAL FREIGHTER CLOVERLOCK, HER MASTER SAID TODAY.

THE 300-TON VESSEL, OWNED BY WHEELOCK MARDEN COMPANY, LIMPED INTO HONG KONG BEARING SCARS OF 40-MILLIMETER SHELL HITS.

EARLIER THE COMPANY SAID THE VESSEL WAS FIRED ON YESTERDAY BY COMMUNIST SHORE BATTERIES 17 MILES OFF AMOY, RED PORT ON THE SOUTHEAST CHINA COAST.

HER SKIPPER SAID THE CLOVERLOCK WAS INTERCEPTED BY A NATIONALIST GUNBOAT WHICH ORDERED HIM TO ACCOMPANY IT TO FORMOSA, NATIONALIST BASTION ACROSS FORMOSA STRAIT FROM AMOY.

THE NATIONALISTS, WHO ARE ATTEMPTING TO BLOCKADE COMMUNIST MAINLAND PORTS, HAVE ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD ATTACK ANY FOREIGN SHIPPING GOING THROUGH FORMOSA STRAIT.

THE CLOVERLOCK'S MASTER SAID HE MADE A RUN FOR IT DURING THE NIGHT AND MANAGED TO ESCAPE IN A SHOWER OF FIRE FROM THE GUNBOAT.

HE SAID HE TRIED TO RAM THE GUNBOAT WHEN FIRST INTERCEPTED.

"I LACKED JUST ABOUT TWO KNOTS IN SPEED OR THE NATIONALISTS WOULD HAVE HAD ONE OF THEIR GUNBOATS MISSING," HE ADDED.

THE 3,560-TON BRITISH FREIGHTER WINGSANG REPORTED EARLIER SHE WAS FIRED ON WEDNESDAY BY COMMUNIST SHORE BATTERIES NEAR AMOY.

THE WINGSANG OPERATES BETWEEN HONG KONG AND NATIONALIST FORMOSA.

JAKARTA, JAVA, SUNDAY, JAN.29-(AP)-THE WEST JAVA PARLIAMENT LAST NIGHT POSTPONED UNTIL MONDAY DISCUSSION OF A PROPOSAL TO PLACE THE STATE UNDER THE INDONESIAN FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

SUCH A MOVE WOULD LINE UP WEST JAVA AS WELL AS EAST JAVA UNDER SUPREME AUTHORITY OF THE USI. BOTH AREAS WERE CARVED FROM INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN TERRITORY BY THE DUTCH BEFORE THEY GRANTED INDEPENDENCE FOR THE USI A MONTH AGO.

WEST JAVA IS IN THE MIDST OF A CABINET CRISIS AND IS THREATENED BY ATTACKS FROM FORMER DUTCH COMMANDO CAPTAIN R.P.P. "TURK" WESTERLING'S OUTLAWED BAND OF INDONESIAN DESERTERS.

LOCAL NEWSPAPERS QUOTED WIRANA TAKUSUMAH, HEAD OF THE WEST JAVA STATE, AS SAYING THAT HE COULD NOT ACCEPT THE RESIGNATION OF PREMIER ANWAR TJOKROAMINOTO'S GOVERNMENT, ANNOUNCED LAST FRIDAY. THE PREMIER WAS ARRESTED WEDNESDAY ON USI MINISTRY OF DEFENSE ORDERS ON SUSPICION OF TRYING TO OVERTHROW THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

TAKUSUMAH WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT HE COULD NOT ACCEPT THE RESIGNATION OF THE CABINET AS LONG AS THE PREMIER IS NOT PRESENT.

IT IS NOT KNOWN DEFINITELY WHAT EFFECT THIS MOVE WOULD HAVE ON THE POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS IN WEST JAVA AS PARLIAMENT HAS ALREADY VOTED NON-CONFIDENCE IN THE CABINET AND ALSO VOTED TO ACCEPT THE RESIGNATION.

MEANWHILE, THE CITY OF BANDOENG PREPARED FOR ANY NEW ATTACKS FROM CAPITAN WESTERLING'S GUERRILLA FORCES. THE OUTLAWS WERE REPORTED ON THE MOVE AGAIN.

CURFEW MEASURES IN BANDOENG WERE TIGHTENED AND THE INDONESIAN ARMY RINGED IMPORTANT BUILDING WITH BARBED WIRE DEFENSES. INDONESIAN SOLDIERS UNDER DUTCH COMMAND WERE ORDERED CONFINED TO THEIR BARRACKS AFTER 2 P.M.

JAKARTA, JAVA, U.S.I., JAN. 28-(AP)-THE CITY OF BANDOENG IN WEST JAVA PREPARED TODAY FOR AN EXPECTED SECOND ATTACK BY AN OUTLAWED FORCE WHICH RAIDED THE CITY LAST MONDAY.

THE OUTLAW BAND OF INDONESIAN DESERTERS FROM THE DUTCH ARMY LED BY R.P.M. "TURK" WESTERLING WAS REPORTED ON THE MOVE AGAIN.

THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT TIGHTENED ITS CURFEW LAWS MAKING IT ILLEGAL FOR ANYONE TO BE ON BANDOENG STREETS AFTER DARK. THE INDONESIAN ARMY RINGED IMPORTANT BUILDINGS WITH BARBED WIRE DEFENSES.

INDONESIAN SOLDIERS UNDER DUTCH COMMAND WERE ORDERED CONFINED TO BARRACKS AFTER 2 P.M.

AN INDONESIAN ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID 100 OF WESTERLING'S MEN ROUTED FROM THEIR HIDEOUT IN THURSDAY'S SHOOTING FRACAS IN JAKARTA HAD MANAGED THEIR ESCAPE.

THE ARMY REPORTED CAPTURING A TRUCK ON THE JAKARTA-BANDOENG HIGHWAY WHICH WAS LOADED WITH ILLEGAL WEAPONS. TWO OF THE OUTLAW BAND WERE KILLED IN CAPTURING THE TRUCK, THE ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID.

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT INFORMATION MINISTER MONOMUTU SAID 20 OF THE WESTERLING FORCES HAVE BEEN CAPTURED IN JAKARTA.

TOKYO, JAN. 28-(AP)-JAPAN'S COMMUNISTS, CHASTISED RECENTLY BY THE COMINFORM, SAID TODAY THEY WANT RUSSIA TO KEEP THE KURILE ISLANDS. MOST JAPANESE WOULD LIKE TO SEE THIS WAR-LOST CHAIN RETURNED TO JAPAN.

TAKING ANOTHER STEP ALONG AN APPARENT NEW POLICY LINE, THE PARTY OFFICIALLY APPROVED THE YALTA AGREEMENT WHICH GAVE THE KURILES TO RUSSIA. UNTIL NOW THE COMMUNISTS HAVE AVOIDED THE POLITICALLY HOT QUESTION.

IN THE KURILES THE RUSSIANS HAVE BUILT AIRFIELDS WITHIN 30 MILES OF HOKKAIDO, NORTHERNMOST OF JAPAN'S HOME ISLANDS.

THE PARTY ANNOUNCEMENT CAME DURING A DAY OF BITTER CLASHES BETWEEN COMMUNISTS AND CONSERVATIVES IN THE DIET (PARLIAMENT) OVER A PEACE TREATY FOR JAPAN. THE REDS ARE POLITICALLY IMPOTENT, HAVING ONLY 41 OF 716 MEMBERS IN THE TWO HOUSES.

COMMUNIST MEMBERS LASHED OUT AT PRIME MINISTER SHIGERU YOSHIDA FOR SAYING HE FAVORED AN OVERALL TREATY BUT IF THIS WERE IMPOSSIBLE HE WOULD RATHER HAVE SEPARATE TREATIES WITH VARIOUS ALLIED POWERS THAN NONE AT ALL.

ONE OF THE RED CRITICS WAS SANZO NOZAKA, WHO DREW THE RECENT BLAST FROM THE COMINFORM JOURNAL, ORGAN OF INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM. THE JAPAN PARTY FIRST DEFENDED HIM AGAINST THE ATTACK. THEN BOTH REPENTED THEIR DEVIATIONS FROM THE MOSCOW LINE.

DURING TODAY'S SHARP CLASH JIRO HOSHIJIMA, A LEADER OF THE DOMINANT, "DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL" (CONSERVATIVE) PARTY, SHOUTED AT NAZAKA:

"IF YOU DESIRE AN OVERALL PEACE, WHY DON'T YOU QUIT ASKING THE PRIME MINISTER FOR IT AND SPEAK TO THE SOVIET UNION?"

HOSHIJIMA ADDED:

"AS LONG AS THE SOVIET UNION ADHERES TO ITS CONTENTIONS ON THE FORMULA OF THE PEACE TREATY IN THE FOUR-POWER FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE, OVERALL PEACE NEVER WILL MATERIALIZE NO MATTER HOW LONG WE MAY WAIT."

AUTHORITIES ACCEPTED THE NAMES AS AUTHENTIC AND HAVE BEGUN NOTIFYING NEXT OF KIN, WHO HAD NO CLUE TO THE WAR PRISONERS' FATE.

THE JAPANESE OFFICER IS MINORU YAHATA, 29, A COMPANY COMMANDER. HE WAS HELD ALTERNATELY AT KHARAZA AND TABAHEIZA CAMPS IN SIBERIA AND AT A HOSPITAL IN IMAN.

YAHATA SAID HE JOTTED DOWN THE NAMES OF HIS COMRADES AS THEY DIED. HE WROTE ON SMALL BITS OF PAPER WHICH HE HID IN THE LINING OF HIS SHOULDER EPAULETS.

WHEN THEY COULD HOLD NO MORE, HE HID HIS ADDITIONAL LISTS IN THE 11 METAL BUTTONS OF HIS UNIFORM. ABOUT 50 OF THE NAMES WERE WEATHERED SO BADLY THEY COULD NOT BE READ.

YAHATA TOLD AUTHORITIES MOST OF THE 150 SUCCUMBED TO PNEUMONIA AND MALNUTRITION. SOME WERE SHOT, HE ASSERTED.

(500) H-BOMB (WITH BUDGET)

BY DON WHITEHEAD

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON, JAN 28-(AP)-THERE WAS MOUNTING EVIDENCE TODAY THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN MAY BE NEARING A FINAL AND GRAVE DECISION ON BUILDING THE SUPER-SMASHER HYDROGEN BOMB; POSSIBLY IN FAVOR OF IT.

A SERIES OF SEPARATE BUT RELATED EVENTS ADDED WEIGHT TO THIS SPECULATION WHICH WAS BASED PRIMARILY ON REPORTS THAT MR.TRUMAN'S CLOSE ADVISERS BELIEVE THE FEARS

SPECULATION WHICH WAS BASED PRIMARILY ON REPORTS THAT MR.TRUMAN'S CLOSE ADVISERS BELIEVE THE FEARSOME WEAPON, PERHAPS 1,000 TIMES MEANER THAN THE A-BOMB, SHOULD BE ADDED TO AMERICA'S ATOMIC ARSENAL.

HERE ARE SOME OF THE THINGS WHICH SEEM TO POINT TO A DECISION IN THE NEAR FUTURE:

(1) A MEMBER OF THE SENATE-HOUSE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE SAID A MAJORITY OF THE LAWMAKERS FAVOR BUILDING THE BOMB.

(2) ANOTHER COMMITTEE MEMBER SAID HE EXPECTS AN "AUTHORITATIVE STATEMENT" ON THE HYDROGEN BOMB TO BE MADE SOON. MR.TRUMAN APPARENTLY IS THE ONLY PERSON WHO CAN MAKE OR AUTHORIZE A STATEMENT OF THAT CALIBER. HE SAID YESTERDAY THAT THE DECISION ON DEVELOPING THE NEW BOMB IS HIS TO MAKE. BUT HE GAVE NO HINT WHEN IT MIGHT COME.

(3) A SENATOR TOLD A REPORTER THAT HE IS CERTAIN SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON FAVORS AN H-BOMB PROGRAM.

(4) CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE CAME OUT OPENLY IN FAVOR OF THE H-BOMB.

(5) DR.HAROLD UREY, ONE OF THE NATION'S TOP ATOMIC SCIENTISTS, SAID LAST NIGHT THE UNITED STATES HAS NO CHOICE BUT TO GO AHEAD WITH THE BOMB.

(6) MILITARY OPINION WAS REPORTED TO FAVOR STRONGLY MAKING THE BOMB IN VIEW OF THE BELIEF THAT RUSSIA HAS THE THEORY OF IT TOO.

GENERAL OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF APPEARED TO BE URGING A GO-AHEAD IN A SPEECH YESTERDAY, ALTHOUGH HE DID NOT MENTION THE H-BOMB.

A DEMOCRATIC SENATOR WHO ASKED HIS NAME NOT BE USED SAID HE BELIEVES CONGRESS WOULD APPROVE APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE H-BOMB PROGRAM. "FROM REPORTS, IT WOULDN'T COST AS MUCH AS WE HAD BELIEVED," HE SAID.

SENATOR CONNALLY SAID THE H-BOMB WOULD STRENGTHEN THE PEACE. HIS STATEMENT:

"THE UNITED STATES SHOULD ARM ITSELF WITH THE HYDROGEN BOMB.

"THE SECURITY OF THE NATION AND OUR PEOPLE REQUIRE THAT WE PROVIDE OUR ARMED SERVICES WITH THE BEST POSSIBLE WEAPONS.

"WE MUST REMAIN STRONG. WE WANT TO PRESERVE THE PEACE OF THE WORLD AND THE HYDROGEN BOMB WILL SERVE THAT CAUSE JUST AS THE ATOMIC BOMB HAS DONE SINCE IT ENDED THE WAR AND GAVE US PEACE."

CONNALLY'S STATEMENT WAS IN EFFECT A DIRECT APPEAL TO THE PRESIDENT SINCE THE FINAL DECISION RESTS WITH MR.TRUMAN.

JAN 29 1950

A23VM

IT HAS REPORTED THAT THE SENATE-HOUSE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE HAS NOT YET MADE A FORMAL RECOMMENDATION TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN ABOUT THE H-BOMB. BUT ONE MEMBER SAID THE COMMITTEE'S VIEWS MAY BE GIVEN TO THE PRESIDENT WITHIN THE NEXT WEEK.

"I'M CERTAIN," HE SAID, "THAT A GREAT MAJORITY OF THE COMMITTEE FAVORS BUILDING THE H-BOMB."

THE AMERICAN VETERANS OF WORLD WAR II (AMVETS) ALSO SPOKE OUT FOR IMMEDIATE CONSTRUCTION OF THE TERRIFYING WEAPON WHICH HAS LEAPED INTO DISCUSSION IN RECENT WEEKS.

NATIONAL COMMANDER HAROLD RUSSELL SAID IN A STATEMENT:

"ANY OTHER DECISION, HOWEVER MERCIFUL AND HUMANITARIAN, WOULD BE INCONSISTENT WITH THE BRUTAL FACTS OF INTERNATIONAL LIFE TODAY."

RUSSELL BRUSHED ASIDE ANY IDEA OF AN ATOMIC CONTROL AGREEMENT WITH RUSSIA.

"BACK DOOR HINTS FROM RUSSIA THAT IT WILL ENTERTAIN NEW ATOMIC NEGOTIATIONS CAN BE REGARDED ONLY AS A DESPERATE BID FOR MORE TIME IN WHICH TO GAIN ATOMIC EQUALITY," THE STATEMENT SAID.

ONE POINT IN DEBATE RAGING OVER WHETHER THE UNITED STATES SHOULD LAUNCH THE COSTLY NEW PROJECT HAS BEEN WHETHER AN ATTEMPT FIRST SHOULD BE MADE ONCE MORE TO GET RUSSIA TO ENTER INTO A WORKABLE PLAN FOR OUTLAWING ATOMIC WEAPONS.

ARMS

BY JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON, JAN.28-(AP)-SMALL AMERICAN ARMS SHIPMENTS ARE BEING HASTILY ASSEMBLED FOR DELIVERY TO ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS.

OFFICIALS SAID THESE INITIAL SUPPLIES ARE INTENDED AS "PSYCHOLOGICAL BOOSTERS" FOR THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES, WHICH HAVE BEEN CONCERNED OVER THE DELAY IN GETTING THE ARMS AID PROGRAM STARTED.

THE AID PROJECT WAS APPROVED BY CONGRESS LAST OCTOBER, BUT COULD NOT GET ROLLING FULLY UNTIL YESTERDAY, WHEN THE AMBASSADORS OF EIGHT WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS AGREED TO TERMS SET BY THIS COUNTRY.

AT THE SAME TIME, PRESIDENT TRUMAN FORMALLY PROCLAIMED HIS APPROVAL OF THE MASTER DEFENSE PLAN DRAWN UP BY THE 12 ATLANTIC PACT MILITARY CHIEFS.

THE PRESIDENT ACTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH A CONGRESSIONAL ORDER HOLDING UP $900,000,000(M) OF THE BILLION-DOLLAR EUROPEAN PROGRAM UNTIL MR. TRUMAN SAID WESTERN EUROPE'S DEFENSES WERE "INTEGRATED" TO HIS SATISFACTION.

MR.TRUMAN HAILED THE JOINT DEFENSE OUTLINE AS A "DETERRENT TO AGGRESSION," AND SAID ITS RECOMMENDATIONS "PROVIDE FURTHER CONVINCING EVIDENCE OF THE DETERMINATION OF THESE NATIONS TO RESIST AGGRESSION AGAINST ANY OF THEM."

HE NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT THE MILITARY AID DEFENSE PLAN IS BUT A "FIRST STEP" AND THAT A STRONG DEFENSE DEMANDS CONSTANT REVIEW "IN THE LIGHT OF CHANGING CIRCUMSTANCES."

THE EIGHT EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS SIGNED UP FOR THEIR SHARE OF THE U.S. ARMS IN A 13-MINUTE CEREMONY PRESIDED OVER BY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON.

SPEAKING FOR THE EIGHT NATIONS, AMBASSADOR WILHELM MUNTHE DE MORGENSTIERNE OF NORWAY SAID THE SIGNING OF THE AGREEMENTS PROVES THAT THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES ARE NOW PROFITING BY THE LESSONS OF HISTORY.

"WE HAVE REFUSED TO MAKE ALL OVER AGAIN THE FATAL MISTAKE OF LETTING AN AGGRESSOR PICK US OFF ONE BY ONE," HE SAID.

AND, APPARENTLY ANTICIPATING RUSSIAN DENUNCIATIONS, HE EMPHASIZED ANEW THE "UTTERLY DEFENSIVE CHARACTER" OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY.

"OUR DEEPEST WISH," HE SAID, "IS TO LIVE IN PEACE AND BROTHERHOOD WITH ALL NATIONS IN THIS WORLD, BUT WE CANNOT DEVIATE FROM OUR SOLEMN DETERMINATION THAT IT MUST BE PEACE WITH FREEDOM."

ACHESON TOLD THE AMBASSADORS THE AGREEMENTS REPRESENT A "MAJOR CONCRETE STEP" IN THE WESTERN PLAN TO STRENGTHEN ITSELF WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS SCHEDULED FOR ARMS AID UNDER THE PROGRAM ARE BRITAIN, FRANCE, ITALY, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG, DENMARK AND NORWAY.

JAN 29 1950

OFFICIALS ESTIMATED THAT THE BULK OF THE ARMS EQUIPMENT WILL NOT START OVERSEAS UNTIL AFTER MARCH 1.

THE LONG DELAY IN NEGOTIATING ARMS AGREEMENTS, THEY SAID, MEANS THE ADMINISTRATION WILL HAVE BUT FIVE MONTHS TO SPEND OR ALLOCATE THE FULL $1,000,000,000(B). LEGISLATION AUTHORIZING THE PROGRAM EXPIRES JUNE 30 AND ALL UNCOMMITED FUNDS MUST RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES TREASURY THEN.

THE AGREEMENTS EACH GOVERNMENT SIGNED VARIED IN SIZE FROM SIX TO 12 ARTICLES. GENERALLY, HOWEVER, EACH GOVERNMENT PROMISED:

1. NOT TO TRANSFER EQUIPMENT WITHOUT PRIOR AMERICAN APPROVAL.
2. TO USE THE EQUIPMENT ONLY TO SHORE UP WESTERN EUROPEAN DEFENSES.
3. TO PROVIDE WHATEVER HELP IS WANTED BY OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE ALLIANCE TO BOLSTER THEIR SECURITY.
4. TO PAY THE UPKEEP OF AMERICAN MILITARY AID MISSIONS WHICH WILL CHECK ON THE USE OF EQUIPMENT AND HELP TRAIN EUROPEAN ARMIES IN THE USE OF IT.
5. TO HELP THE UNITED STATES ACQUIRE AT REASONABLE TERMS THEIR STRATEGIC RAW MATERIALS.

COLD WAR (300)
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, JAN 28-(AP)-A NEW RUSSIAN-COMMUNIST SPRING OFFENSIVE IN THE COLD WAR IS NOW EXPECTED BY MANY INFORMED WASHINGTON OFFICIALS.

WHETHER THE MAIN MOVE WILL COME IN SOUTHEAST ASIA, THE MIDDLE EAST OR CENTRAL EUROPE IS NOT PREDICTED. BUT SOME AUTHORITIES BELIEVE THE PLANNING OF STRATEGY MAY BE AN IMPORTANT ITEM IN THE CURRENT PROLONGED MOSCOW MEETING OF THE LEADERS OF RED CHINA AND RUSSIA.

THIS VIEW IS REPORTEDLY HELD EVEN BY THOSE WHO CONTEND, ALONG WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, THAT RUSSIA IS ALIENATING THE CHINESE BY TAKING OVER HUGE AREAS OF NORTHERN CHINA. THE ASSUMPTION IS THAT THE CONFLICT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND CHINA WILL DEVELOP SLOWLY WHILE THEIR COMMON INTEREST IN SPREADING COMMUNIST POWER IS ALREADY FULL GROWN.

STATE DEPARTMENT EXPERTS APPEAR DIVIDED ON THE QUESTION OF WHAT FORCES ACTUALLY ARE MOST IMPORTANT IN RUSSIAN POLICY AT THE MOMENT. THEY SEEK A COMMON DENOMINATOR FOR A WIDE RANGE OF ACTIONS, INCLUDING THE SOVIET SQUEEZE ON WESTERN TRANSPORT IN GERMANY, BULGARIA'S RECENT DEMAND FOR WITHDRAWAL OF THE AMERICAN MINISTER AT SOFIA, THE PRESSURES ON AMERICANS IN CHINA, AND THE CASUAL WAY IN WHICH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE TURNED THEIR BACKS PRETTY GENERALLY ON THE WHOLE WEST.

SOME OF THESE EXAMPLES ARE NOT CLEAR CUT AS TO INTENT. THE BULGARIAN MOVE, FOR EXAMPLE, WAS INTERPRETED A WEEK AGO AS AN EFFORT TO FORCE ALL AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVES OUT OF THE COUNTRY. THEN THE UNITED STATES TOLD THE BULGARIANS IT WOULD WITHDRAW ALL ITS REPRESENTATIVES IF THEY FORCED THROUGH MINISTER DON HEATH'S REMOVAL. THE BULGARIANS HAVE BEEN THINKING THAT ONE OVER FOR A WEEK AND PERHAPS SEEKING MOSCOW'S ADVICE SO THE EVIDENCE IS THAT THEY MAY BE RELUCTANT TO FORCE A COMPLETE DIPLOMATIC BREAK.

BUT ON THE BROAD SCENE OF COMMUNIST-RUSSIAN PUSHING AND PROBING AT MANY POINTS AROUND THE COLD WAR FRONT, SOME OFFICIALS HERE BELIEVE THE INDICATION IS THIS:

58-5 -, 8.0945-,5 $4

JAN 29 1950

INDICATION IS THIS:

THAT AN IMPORTANT DRIVING FORCE IN PRESENT RUSSIAN POLICY IS A TREMENDOUS SENSE OF TRIUMPH BORN OUT OF THE VICTORY IN CHINA. BY THIS LINE OF REASONING RUSSIA IS NOW PRIMARILY INTERESTED IN KEEPING THE INFLUENCE OF WORLD COMMUNISM ROLLING FORWARD.

MOST OFFICIALS, HOWEVER, SEEM PURSUADED THAT IN SPITE OF THEIR COMMUNIST VICTORY IN CHINA THE RUSSIANS ARE MOTIVATED MAINLY BY FEAR OF TITOISM. IN THIS VIEW, THEIR GREATEST CONCERN NOW IS TO WIPE OUT TITO, TIGHTEN CONSTANTLY THEIR CONTROL OVER EASTERN EUROPEAN SATELLITES AND FASTEN THEIR AUTHORITY FIRMLY OVER THE COMMUNIST LEADERS OF CHINA.

EITHER OF THE THEORIES, OR A COMBINATION OF BOTH, LEADS TO A FORECAST OF AGGRESSIVE RUSSIAN ACTION IN THE MONTHS IMMEDIATELY AHEAD--RATHER THAN TO ANY NEW HOPES FOR EASING THE WORLD INTO A COLD WAR TRUCE.

THIS HAS AN IMPORTANT BEARING ON SUCH MATTERS AS THE MUCH DISCUSSED POSSIBILITY OF REACHING AN ATOMIC BOMB CONTROL AGREEMENT IN THE UNITED NATIONS, NOW THAT MANUFACTURE OF A HYDROGEN BOMB IS SPOKEN OF AS POSSIBLE.

WHILE THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS CONSIDERED PUTTING OUT DIPLOMATIC FEELERS TO THE RUSSIANS ON THIS ISSUE, THE DEPARTMENT'S EXPERTS FEEL THAT WITH THE SOVIETS THINKING DOMINATED EITHER BY FEARS OF TITOISM OR HOPES OF NEW CONQUESTS, THE KREMLIN IS NOT LIKELY TO BE IN THE MARKET FOR A TRUCE WITH THE WEST--ESPECIALLY ONE THAT WOULD REQUIRE RIPPING LARGE HOLES IN THE IRON CURTAIN.

OF THE THREE AREAS WHERE SOME KREMLIN-DIRECTED ACTION MAY BE EXPECTED, THE SITUATION WITH RESPECT TO AMERICAN AND ALLIED ANTI-COMMUNIST POLICY RUNS THIS WAY:

EUROPE--THE RUSSIAN STRANGLE-HOLD ON BERLIN TRANSPORT MAY BE TIGHTENED AND EXTENDED BUT THE WESTERN ALLIES WILL FIGHT BACK WITH THE AIRLIFT IF NECESSARY; THERE DOES NOT SEEM TO BE ANY REAL WORRY HERE AT PRESENT ABOUT BEING FORCED OUT OF BERLIN ALTHOUGH THAT WOULD REPRESENT A TREMENDOUS VICTORY FOR THE RUSSIANS IN EUROPE.

WITH RESPECT TO YUGOSLAVIA, THE WESTERN POWERS ARE GRADUALLY BROADENING THEIR HELP TO MARSHAL TITO. IT NOW SEEMS ALMOST CERTAIN THAT IF HE WERE ATTACKED BY THE MOSCOW COMMUNIST COMBINE THE WEST WOULD GIVE HIM MILITARY SUPPLIES. TO THE WESTERN GOVERNMENTS TITO--AND THE CHANCE OF TITOISM IN CHINA--REPRESENTS AN OFFENSIVE THREAT AGAINST RUSSIAN COMMUNISM.

MIDDLE EAST--THERE IS ALWAYS DANGER OF A RUSSIAN MOVE AGAINST TURKEY AND THE DARDANELLES, BUT THERE IS NO NEW EVIDENCE HERE THAT ANY SUCH STEP IS NOW PLANNED. RUSSIAN PROPAGANDA AGAINST IRAN, HOWEVER IS INCREASING. IRAN GETS AMERICAN MILITARY SUPPLIES. SOME AUTHORITIES BELIEVE AFGHANISTAN WILL ESTABLISH CLOSER DIPLOMATIC TIES WITH MOSCOW. INDIA, WHILE NON-COMMUNIST, STANDS STERNLY APART FROM THE WEST ON QUESTIONS THAT RAISE COLONIAL ISSUES AND THIS WEAKENS THE TOTAL NON-COMMUNIST POSITION IN SOUTHERN ASIA.

SOUTHEAST ASIA--FRENCH INDO-CHINA AND MALAYA, WHERE FRENCH AND BRITISH TROOPS STILL OPERATE, ARE THE AREAS MOST STRONGLY HELD AGAINST COMMUNISM. THE FRENCH HAVE ASKED AMERICAN AID FOR THEIR TROOPS IN INDO-CHINA BUT ARE NOT KNOWN TO HAVE RECEIVED ANY STATE DEPARTMENT ENCOURAGEMENT.

THE UNITED STATES MAY RECOGNIZE EVENTUALLY THE FRENCH-SUPPORTED BAODAI GOVERNMENT IN INDO-CHINA. SIAM IS REGARDED AS RELATIVELY WEAK, AND BURMA IS SEEN HERE AS A CENTER OF POLITICAL CHAOS, RIPE FOR COMMUNIST TROUBLE.

JAN 29 1950

A1SOWX

ACCORDING TO THIS LISTING, THE TWO PLACES WHERE TROUBLE SEEMS MOST LIKELY TO BREAK OUT ARE YUGOSLAVIA, BECAUSE OF KREMLIN FEAR OF TITO, AND THE BURMA AREA, BECAUSE OF INTERNAL WEAKNESS IN THE FACE OF THE COMMUNIST MARCH IN CHINA.

SO FAR IN HIS EFFORT TO PUT OVER THE IDEA THAT THERE ARE SHARP AND PERHAPS FATAL CLASHES OF INTEREST BETWEEN RUSSIA AND CHINA, ACHESON HAS SOFT PEDALED THE OPPOSITE SET OF FACTS WHICH THE COMMUNISTS CONSTANTLY TRUMPET--THAT THE REDS DID CHALK UP AN ENORMOUS VICTORY IN ASIA AND HAVE NO INTENTION OF STOPPING NOW.

IT THUS APPEARS THAT IF ALL IS NOT MILK AND HONEY AT THE MOSCOW TALKS, IT IS NOT VINEGAR EITHER. AND WHILE A FUTURE SINO-SOVIET BREAK MAY BE IN FACT DEVELOPING THERE, THE CHANCES ARE THAT PREMIERS STALIN AND MAO TSE-TUNG AND FOREIGN MINISTERS VISHINSKY AND CHOU EN-LAI WILL COME UP WITH SOME CONCRETE PLANS FOR INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM AND A CHINESE-RUSSIAN ALLIANCE THAT MAY SPELL NEW TROUBLES FOR THE WEST.

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,JAN 28-(AP)-ALASKA COULD BE CAPTURED TOMORROW BY ONE OR TWO RUSSIAN PARACHUTE DIVISIONS COMING ACROSS BERING STRAIT IN THE OPINION OF GOV.ERNEST GRUENING OF ALASKA.

FROM THOSE ALASKAN BASES, ONCE CAPTURED, ANY PART OF THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE VULNERABLE TO AIR ATTACK, GRUENING TOLD A HOUSE APPROPRIATION SUBCOMMITTEE HEARING.

THIS COMMITTEE'S REPORT, RELEASED TONIGHT, SHOWS HE TOLD THE MEMBERS THAT THE TOTAL U.S. MILITARY FORCE IN THAT STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT NORTHERN OUTPOST IS 7,500 MEN.

THIS, GRUENING DESCRIBED AS "NEXT TO NOTHING."

HE RECALLED THAT DURING THE LAST WAR THE JAPS GOT AND KEPT A TOE-HOLD FOR A YEAR IN THE ALEUTIAN ISLANDS. HE MAINTAINED THAT ONCE THE RUSSIANS OCCUPIED ALASKA, IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT TO GET THEM OUT.

HE SAID IT WAS HARD FOR PEOPLE IN ALASKA TO UNDERSTAND WHY CONGRESS WOULD APPROPRIATE A TOTAL OF $7,000,000,000 (B) IN ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID TO HALT COMMUNISM IN EUROPE YET GIVE BUT $96,000,000 FOR ALASKA.

HE SAID ALASKA HAS ASKED, AS AN "ABSOLUTE MINIMUM," $137,000,000 WHICH WOULD NOT MAKE THAT TERRITORY IMPREGNABLE, BUT MERELY WOULD START A CONSTRUCTION OF A RADAR SCREEN AND HOUSE A LIMITED NUMBER OF TROOPS.

GRUENING SAID HE HAD NO QUARREL WITH THE ECONOMIC AND MILITARY AID PROGRAMS TO EUROPE.

"WE MAY HEAD OFF A THIRD WORLD WAR THEREBY," HE SAID.

"WE APPEAR TO HAVE HELD THE RUSSIANS AT THE LINE WHICH THEY REACHED WHEN THEY TOOK OVER CZECHOSLOVAKIA, OR AT LEAST THUS FAR WE HAVE STOPPED THEM.

"BUT WHILE THAT HAS BEEN GOING ON THEY HAVE TAKEN ALL OF CHINA. THEY HAVE TAKEN AN AREA MANY, MANY TIMES AS VAST IN EXTENT AND A POPULATION MANY TIMES AS NUMEROUS, AS WHAT WE PREVENTED THEIR TAKING IN EUROPE," HE SAID.

"IT SEEMS UNTHINKABLE TO US THAT WE WOULD DOUBLE-BAR THE FRONT DOOR AND LEAVE THE BACK DOOR AJAR, AS ALMOST AN INVITATION TO COME IN," HE CONTINUED.

GRUENING SAID THE PICTURE WAS DRAMATIZED FOR ALASKANS WHEN IT WAS LEARNED IT WAS PROPOSED TO TRANSFER PRODUCTION FROM THE BOEING AIRCRAFT PLANT IN S

LEARNED IT WAS PROPOSED TO TRANSFER PRODUCTION FROM THE BOEING AIRCRAFT PLANT IN SEATTLE TO WICHITA,KANS.

HE SAID THE AIR FORCE, REPLYING TO QUESTIONS, SAID IT CONSIDERED THE NORTH WEST AREA VULNERABLE TO AIR ATTACK FROM SIBERIA.

GRUENING SAID FURTHER QUESTIONING DEVELOPED THAT THE AIR FORCE EXPECTED THESE RUSSIAN PLANES WOULD FLY OVER ALASKA ENROUTE TO PUGET SOUND.

"BUT THEY COULD NOT FLY OVER ALASKA IF THAT TERRITORY HAD A RADAR SCREEN TO WARN OF THE RUSSIANS' COMING AND INTERCEPTOR PLANES TO GO UP AND SHOOT THEM DOWN," THE GOVERNOR SAID.

"IF THERE IS GOING TO BE ANOTHER PEARL HARBOR, IT WILL BE IN ALASKA AND IT COULD COME ANY TIME NOW," HE SAID.

GRUENING ALSO URGED ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF ALASKA.

"THE 82 YEARS OF ALASKAN RULE UNDER THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT BEEN A SUCCESS SO FAR," HE SAID.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,JAN 28-(AP)-THE NAVY UNWRAPPED A WARTIME SECRET TODAY TO DISCLOSE THAT A SISTER SHIP OF THE 45,000-TON MISSOURI, NOW AGROUND IN [redacted], VA., SUFFERED AN UNDERWATER ACCIDENT IN 1943 OFF THE MAIN COAST. THAT HELD HER UP FOR REPAIRS.

AND IN ANSWER TO QUESTIONS THE DEPARTMENT CAME UP WITH SOME OTHER ENCOUNTERS BETWEEN ITS SHIPS AND TOO-SHALLOW WATER.

THE GIANT BATTLEWAGON, IOWA, COMMISSIONED A YEAR BEFORE HER SISTER THE MISSOURI, SIDESWIPED A LEDGE OF ROCKS IN THE SUMMER OF 1943 AS SHE WAS HEADING INTO CASCO BAY, ME., ON ONE OF HER FIRST TRIPS, EVEN BEFORE JOINING THE FLEET.

THE ROCKS MADE A LONG GROOVE IN THE HULL OF THE NEW BATTLEWAGON, ABOUT FIVE FEET ABOVE HER KEEL. THE IOWA KEPT ON INTO THE BAY, WHERE DIVERS MADE AN INSPECTION. THE IOWA THEN WAS SENT TO THE BOSTON NAVY YARD WHERE SHE REMAINED THREE WEEKS.

THE REPAIRS TO THE HULL PLATES TOOK ONLY A FEW DAYS. HOWEVER, THE NAVY SAID, INVESTIGATION SHOWED THAT A CONTRIBUTING CAUSE TO THE ACCIDENT APPARENTLY WAS THE FACT THAT THE CHART HOUSE WAS 45 FEET AWAY FROM THE BRIDGE AND THAT THE DELAY WHILE OFFICERS WENT FROM THE CHART HOUSE TO TAKE SIGHTINGS FROM THE BRIDGE CONTRIBUTED TO THE ACCIDENT. THEREFORE, MUCH OF THE IOWA'S STAY IN BOSTON NAVY YARD WAS FOR MOVING THE CHART HOUSE NEARER THE BRIDGE.

A NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY THAT HER SKIPPER, THE THEN CAPTAIN JOHN L.MCCREA, RECEIVED A LETTER OF REPRIMAND. MCCREA NOW IS A VICE ADMIRAL, DIRECTOR OF THE PERSONNEL BOARD OF THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT.

THE NAVY EXPECTS TO MAKE A SUPREME EFFORT ON FEBRUARY 2--WHEN HIGH TIDES SHOULD HELP--TO GET THE "MIGHTY MO" OFF THE MUD BANK OF THIMBLE SHOAL WHERE SHE RAMMED MUCH OF 880 FEET OF HULL ON JANUARY 12. THE EFFORT IS GIVEN AN AIR OF URGENCY BY SEVERAL FACTORS, INCLUDING:

(A) SHE IS THE ONLY BATTLESHIP IN COMMISSION.

(B) SHE IS THE FAVORITE OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN, A NATIVE OF MISSOURI.

BUT THERE WAS NO CERTAINTY THAT SHE WOULD BE FREED BY THE NEW EFFORTS NEXT THURSDAY. THE BUREAU OF SHIPS AT WASHINGTON HAS SENT TO THE SCENE CAPT.JOHN ZABILSKY, HEAD OF THE SALVAGE SECTION, AND A NUMBER OF EXPERTS.

A114WX

THE FIRST AND, AS IT TURNED OUT, PUNY EFFORTS TO HAUL THE MISSOURI OUT OF THE MUD WAS MADE WITH A FLEET OF MORE THAN A SCORE OF TUGS. SINCE THEN SALVAGE MEN HAVE WORKED TO LIGHTEN THE HUGE WEIGHT OF THE SHIP, ACTUALLY MORE THAN 50,000 TONS WHEN FULLY FUELED AND EQUIPPED WITH SUPPLIES AND AMMUNITION.

MEANWHILE, THE NAVY HAS BEEN RECEIVING A LOT OF UNSOLICITED ADVICE FROM FOLKS ALL OVER THE COUNTRY. HUNDREDS OF TELEGRAMS AND LETTERS HAVE COME INTO HEADQUARTERS HERE, SOME OF THEM ACCOMPANIED BY DETAILED DRAWINGS OF HOW THE SHIP MIGHT BE FREED.

AMONG THE SUGGESTIONS ARE THESE:

1. DUMP "TONS OF SALT AROUND THE SHIP JUST BEFORE AN ATTEMPT TO TOW" HER OFF. THE WRITER DIDN'T EXPLAIN HOW THIS MIGHT WORK, BUT APPARENTLY HAD IN MIND INCREASING THE SALINITY OF THE WATER IN WHICH SHE RESTS. THE GREATER SALT CONTENT OF WATER, THE HIGHER AN OBJECT FLOATS.

2. USE A SERIES OF DEPTH CHARGES, EXPLODED IN CAREFULLY TIMED SEQUENCE, TO CREATE AN ARTIFICIAL TIDAL WAVE TO LIFT THE SHIP OFF THE MUD BANK.

3. ASSEMBLE A FLEET OF BARGES, EACH EQUIPPED WITH AIRPLANE

30.24- 8587

ENGINES AND PROPELLERS, THE WIND FROM THE PROPELLERS BLOWING UP A TIDAL WAVE.

ONLY LAST WEDNESDAY, THE NAVY HAD CAUSE TO BLUSH A DEEPER SHADE. THE EDISTO HIT AN UNCHARTED ROCK, BUT WAS ONLY SLIGHTLY DAMAGED AND PUT INTO BOSTON HARBOR. THE UNHAPPY THING ABOUT THAT IS THE EDISTO IS HYDROGRAPHIC SURVEY SHIP, A TYPE WHICH MAKES SOUNDINGS, LOCATES REEFS AND OTHERWISE SUPPLIES MATERIAL FOR THE NAVIGATORS' CHARTS.

ONE OF THE MOST SERIOUS OF NAVY GROUNDING ACCIDENTS OCCURRED ON SEPTEMBER 3, 1923, WHEN SEVEN DESTROYERS, EACH FOLLOWING THE OTHER, PILED UP ON THE ROCKS OF HONDA POINT, ON THE CALIFORNIA COAST. THE ACCIDENT CAUSED THE LOSS OF 22 LIVES. ELEVEN OFFICERS WERE COURT-MARTIALED, WITH NINE CONVICTED OF NEGLIGENCE OR INCOMPETENCE OR BOTH.

IN WORLD WAR II, WHEN AMERICAN NAVAL VESSELS STEAMED IN LITTLE KNOWN WATERS, OFTEN UNDER COMBAT CONDITIONS, THERE WERE GROUNDINGS.

ONE OF THEM WAS THE 35,000-TON BATTLESHIP SOUTH DAKOTA, THEN KNOWN ONLY AS THE MYSTERIOUS "BATTLESHIP X," WHICH HIT AN UNCHARTED REEF IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, BUT GOT FREE. THIS WAS IN 1942, WHEN THE UNITED STATES NAVY WAS CRITICALLY SHORT OF EVERY TYPE OF WARSHIP AND ESPECIALLY CAPITAL SHIPS.

A115WX

THEN THERE WAS THE SUBMARINE DARTER. HER RUSTING HULL STILL SHOWS ON A CORAL REEF IN PALAWAN PASSAGE IN THE PHILIPPINES. THE DARTER, IN THE PITCH BLACKNESS OF THE NIGHT OF OCTOBER 24, 1944, IN COMPANY WITH ANOTHER SUBMARINE, WENT IN AFTER TWO JAPANESE CRUISERS. THE TORPEDOES HAD BEEN FIRED, ONE CRUISER WAS SINKING AND ANOTHER DAMAGED. THE SUBMARINES WERE GETTING OUT OF THERE.

SUDDENLY THE DARTER STRUCK, RODE HIGH UP IN THE WATER AND CAME TO A DEAD STOP. THE CREW SET DEMOLITION CHARGES, THEN HUSTLED ABOARD THE SECOND SUBMARINE. THE CHARGES DIDN'T WORK TOO WELL, BUT THE CREW HAD TAKEN PRECAUTION OF DESTROYING ALL SECRET EQUIPMENT.

THE CRUISER LITTLE ROCK WENT AGROUND NEAR GRAVESEND BAY, IN THE LONG ISLAND AREA, ON FEBRUARY 25, 1947, BUT WAS REFLOATED IN LESS THAN TWO HOURS.

THE DESTROYER ERNEST G.SMALL GROUNDED OFF BLOCK ISLAND, RHODE ISLAND, ON APRIL 3, 1947, BUT WAS REFLOATED IN 13 HOURS.

THE BATTLESHIP COLORADO STUCK IN THE EAST RIVER ON APRIL 30, 1927, BUT WAS FREE OF THE MUD THE FOLLOWING DAY.

THE OLD BATTLESHIP TEXAS GROUNDED OFF BLOCK ISLAND SOON AFTER HER COMMISSIONING PRIOR TO WORLD WAR I, BUT WAS FREED TO FIGHT IN TWO WORLD WARS.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.28-(AP)-REP.COLMER (D-MISS) CALLED TODAY FOR ABROGATION OF THE CHINESE TRADE TREATY IN VIEW OF THE COMMUNIST DOMINATION OF THAT COUNTRY.

HE MADE HIS SUGGESTION TO SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON.

COLMER MADE PUBLIC A LETTER TO ACHESON SAYING THAT HE IS PARTICULARLY CONCERNED ABOUT TUNG OIL, WHICH THIS COUNTRY NOW IMPORTS DUTY FREE FROM CHINA. COLMER URGED THAT A TARIFF BE IMPOSED ON SUCH IMPORTS.

VARIOUS SOUTHERN STATES, INCLUDING MISSISSIPPI, LOUISIANA, ALABAMA, AND FLORIDA, NOW PRODUCE LARGE QUANTITIES OF TUNG OIL, AN IMPORTANT INGREDIENT IN PAINTS.

"EXPORTS OF TUNG OIL HAVE HERETOFORE BEEN A PRIMARY SOURCE OF AMERICAN CREDIT TO THE CHINESE," COLMER WROTE, "BUT IT SEEMS INCONCEIVABLE TO ME THAT CHINA, NOW OVERRUN BY THE COMMUNIST, SHOULD CONTINUE TO ENJOY THE BENEFITS GRANTED TO HER UNDER THE GENEVA TREATY.

"TO DO SO PLACES THE UNITED STATES, AS CHINA'S PRINCIPAL CUSTOMER FOR TUNG OIL, IN THE POSITION OF SUPPORTING THE ECONOMY OF THE COMMUNISTS. THIS WILL BE TRUE WHETHER CONTINUED EXPORTS ARE MADE DIRECT OR THROUGH BRITISH SOURCES IN HONG KONG."

COLMER RECALLED THAT HE INTRODUCED A BILL TWO YEARS AGO PROVIDING FOR A DUTY ON TUNG OIL.

THIS BILL, HE SAID, WAS OPPOSED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

REASONS FOR THIS OPPOSITION, HE SAID, INCLUDED ASSERTIONS THAT SUCH ACTION WOULD CONFLICT WITH A BINDING INTERNATIONAL COMMITMENT AND THAT THERE WAS NO NEED FOR SUCH A TARIFF.

"IN THE LIGHT OF WHAT HAS TRANSPIRED IN CHINA X X X I SUBMIT THAT THE COMMITMENT IS NO LONGER BINDING, BEING COMPLETELY ONE-SIDED AT PRESENT DUE TO THE INABILITY OF THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT, SIGNER OF THE COMMITMENT, TO FULFILL ITS PART OF THE AGREEMENT," COLMER WROTE.

HE ALSO SAID THAT THE TUNG OIL INDUSTRY IN THIS COUNTRY IS A "NEW STRUGGLING INDUSTRY UPON WHICH THE GOVERNMENT IS COMPLETELY DEPENDENT FOR VITAL WAR MATERIALS WHEN FOR ANY REASON THE CHINESE SUPPLY IS CUT OFF" AND IS BEING HARMED BY PERIODIC DUMPING ON THIS COUNTRY OF CHINESE OIL.

MISSILES

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.28-(AP)-THE NAVY'S RESEARCH SHIP FOR GUIDED MISSILES DOCKS IN CALIFORNIA TODAY AFTER FIRING TWO HIGH-ALTITUDE ROCKETS DURING AN 18-DAY CRUISE OFF THE NORTHWEST COAST.

THE USS NORTON SOUND RETURNS TO PORT HUENEME WITH EIGHT SCIENTISTS AND A MASS OF YET-TO-BE-DIGESTED INFORMATION ON THE TIE-UP BETWEEN THE EARTH'S MAGNETIC FIELD AND COSMIC RAY ACTIVITY 50 MILES IN THE SKY, THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED.

PRELIMINARY APPRAISALS OF THE TWO FIRINGS--ONE ON JAN.15 IN THE GULF OF ALASKA, THE OTHER JAN.18, 700 MILES OFF THE WASHINGTON COAST--INDICATE THEY WERE "ENTIRELY SUCCESSFUL," THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

AEROBEE ROCKETS, A TYPE SPECIALLY DEVELOPED FOR UPPER ATMOSPHERE RESEARCH, WERE USED IN THE EXPERIMENTS. THE NAVY, ALONG WITH THE ARMY AND AIR FORCE, HOPES THROUGH SUCH RESEARCH TO BE ABLE TO GUIDE MISSILES TO TARGETS ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD.

RADIOACTIVITY

K(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.28-(AP)-EFFECTS OF RADIOACTIVITY ON STREAMS, SOIL AND AIR ARE CAUSING "CONCERN" IN SOME STATES.

AN OFFICIAL OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE SO TOLD A HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE.

MARK D. HOLLIS, ASSOCIATE CHIEF OF THE BUREAU OF STATE SERVICES, SAID IT IS TOO EARLY TO TELL "JUST WHAT THE FULL IMPACT OF THE SO-CALLED ATOMIC AGE WILL BE ON HEALTH."

BUT, HE TOLD THE LAWMAKERS, PROBLEMS RELATING TO HEALTH ALREADY ARE BEING CREATED IN SEVERAL STATES.

"FOR EXAMPLE, AT THE PRODUCTION CENTERS OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION, BECAUSE OF SECURITY REASONS, THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION ITSELF HAS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF HANDLING THE WHOLE PROBLEM ASSOCIATED WITH ITS PLANTS," HOLLIS EXPLAINED.

"BUT BEYOND ITS LIMITS THERE ARE OBVIOUSLY BYPRODUCT WASTES FROM SUCH AN INDUSTRY, AND RADIOACTIVE WASTES GETTING INTO STREAMS.

"I WOULD HASTEN TO ADD, HOWEVER, THAT IT IS OUR UNDERSTANDING IT IS NOT AT A DANGEROUS LEVEL AS YET."

HOLLIS TOLD THE COMMITTEE THAT THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S SHIPMENTS OF RADIOISOTOPES HAS INCREASED MORE THAN 600 PER CENT IN THE LAST 36 MONTHS. IN THE SIX-MONTH PERIOD ENDED IN JUNE 1949 THERE WERE MORE THAN 1,800 SUCH SHIPMENTS INTO VARIOUS PARTS OF THE COUNTRY, HE SAID.

"AND THE USE OF THESE ISOTOPES AND THE BYPRODUCT WASTE FROM THEM ARE CAUSING THE STATES TO BE SOMEWHAT CONCERNED ABOUT THE EFFECTS OF THIS RADIOACTIVITY IN WATER, SOIL, AIR, AND SO FORTH."

HOLLIS'S TESTIMONY, GIVEN EARLIER THIS MONTH, WAS RELEASED FOR PUBLICATION TODAY.

"I AM THE REAL MRS.BABCOCK," SHE SAID. "HE HAS BEEN MARRIED TO ME FOR NEARLY 34 YEARS."

THE BRITISH MRS.BABCOCK, AN ATTRACTIVE BRUNETTE, APPARENTLY IN HER EARLY 30S, SAID SHE AND THE COLONEL WERE MARRIED DEC. 27, 1945 AT KONIGSTEIN, GERMANY. THEY MET WHILE BOTH WERE SERVING ON THE STAFF OF GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER, SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER.

THEY HAVE A 3-YEAR-OLD SON, SHE SAID.

THE AMERICAN MRS.BABCOCK HAS TWO MARRIED DAUGHTERS. SHE SHOWED A REPORTER A HAND-WRITTEN LETTER WHICH SHE SAID THE COLONEL WROTE LAST MONTH TO ONE DAUGHTER. IT SAID IN PART:

"IT IS TRUE THAT I AM NOT DIVORCED AND NOT REMARRIED." BOTH "NOTS" WERE UNDERLINED.

IN 1946 THE COLONEL SUED MARY MAGDALENE BABCOCK FOR DIVORCE IN NEW LONDON, BUT THE DECREE WAS DENIED. MRS.BABCOCK'S ATTORNEY SAID HE HAD NEVER RECEIVED NOTICE OF ANY DIVORCE ACTION ANYWHERE ELSE.

MRS.FLORENCE M.BABCOCK, THE BERLIN MRS.BABCOCK, SAID SHE HAS A MARRIAGE LICENSE AS WELL AS "LETTERS AND THE WEDDING RING WHICH THE EX-MRS.BABCOCK RETURNED TO MY HUSBAND." SHE SAID BABCOCK HAD "AN OUT-OF-STATE DIVORCE" BUT SHE ADDED SHE DIDN'T KNOW MUCH ABOUT IT.

THE DIFFERENCE IN OPINION OVER HER MARITAL STATUS, SHE SAID, WAS NO SURPRISE TO HER. STATE DEPARTMENT REPRESENTATIVES IN GERMANY HAD SENT AN ADVANCE NOTICE TO WASHINGTON THAT AN INCIDENT MIGHT BE EXPECTED, SHE ADDED.

AT THE AIRPORT THE TWO WOMEN KEPT ABOUT 100 FEET APART.

LATER THE AMERICAN MRS.BABCOCK WENT TO NEARBY ARLINGTON CEMETERY AND TALKED TO COL R.J.WILLIAMSON, OFFICER IN CHARGE THERE.

EMERGING FROM THE CONFERENCE, SHE SAID:

"AN AMERICAN WIFE WILL BE AT THE FUNERAL, BUT A BRITISH WOMAN WILL BE GIVEN THE FLAG."

HER REFERENCE WAS TO THE FLAG TO BE DRAPED OVER THE CASKET. IT CUSTOMARILY IS DELIVERED TO THE WIDOW AFTER THE FUNERAL.

COL.WILLIAMSON, WHO WILL BE IN CHARGE OF THE SERVICES, SAID THE BERLIN MRS.BABCOCK HAD ARMY ORDERS TO ACCOMPANY THE BODY AS THE WIDOW.

CHINESE

BY CHARLES A.GRUMICH

(ADVANCE) LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 28-(AP)-NATIONALIST CHINA STEPS DOWN NEXT WEDNESDAY FROM THE HOT SEAT IN THE RUSSIAN-BOYCOTTED SECURITY COUNCIL OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THAT ROUTINE MOVE, HOWEVER, WILL ONLY PARTLY DISPEL THE EMBARRASSMENT OVER THE CHINA QUESTION THAT HAS SLOWED THE COUNCIL ALMOST TO THE POINT OF INACTION.

CUBA'S CHIEF DELEGATE ALBERTO J.ALVAREZ TAKES OVER THE PRESIDENCY FOR FEBRUARY UNDER THE MONTHLY ROTATION SYSTEM, REPLCING CHINA'S T.F.TSIANG, WHO HELD THE CHAIR UNDER ATTACK THROUGH AN UNSEASONABLY WARM AND DIPLOMATICALLY UNCOMFORTABLE JANUARY.

SINCE TSIANG REMAINS AS A BIG POWER MEMBER UNTIL THE COUNCIL DECIDES OTHERWISE, THE RUSSIANS ARE NOT EXPECTED TO BACKTRACK YET FROM THEIR GENERAL WALKOUT ON THE COUNCIL AND THE OTHER NINE U.N. ORGANS THEY ARE BOYCOTTING.

THE RUSSIANS HAVE FIRMLY COMMITTED THEMSELVES NOT TO RETURN UNTIL THE U.N. KICKS OUT THE NATIONALIST CHINESE AND REPLACES THEM WITH THE NEWLY NOMINATED RED DELEGATION OF PEIPING.

--0--

IN THE PAST WEEK, HOWEVER, THE RUSSIAN DELEGATION BROKE TWO EMISSARIES OUT OF SOVIET HIBERNATION ON NEW YORK'S PARK AVENUE AND PUT THEM ON A PROPAGANDA MISSION TO LAKE SUCCESS. THEY BROUGHT OUT 100 REPRINTS OF A PRAVDA ARTICLE ATTACKING THE AMERICAN FBI FOR THE TACTICS USED IN TRAPPING VALENTIN GUBITCHEV, A SOVIET EMPLOYE OF THE U.N. NOW UNDER SUSPENSION AND ON TRIAL WITH EX-GOVERNMENT GIRL JUDITH COPLON IN NEW YORK ON SPY CHARGES.

THE LARGE CORPS OF INDEPENDENT CORRESPONDENTS AT THE U.N. GENERALLY REPORTED THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF PROPAGANDA DELIVERY RATHER THAN THE FAMILIAR CONTEXT OF THE ATTACK.

OPERATING WITH 10 OF ITS 11 NATIONAL DELEGATIONS ON HAND, THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS EXPECTED IN FEBRUARY TO GET AHEAD, PERHAPS ON A LIMITED SCALE, UNDER CUBAN CHAIRMANSHIP, WITH MATTERS OF SOME URGENCY.

THE FOREMOST MATTER BEFORE THE COUNCIL IS THE KASHMIR QUESTION, INVOLVING INDIA AND PAKISTAN TO THE VERGE OF A NEW OUTBREAK OF FIGHTING. EACH WANTS TO ANNEX THAT PRINCELY STATE UP NEAR THE FRONTIER OF SOVIET ASIA AND THE FAR WEST OF CHINA (TURKESTAN); THE U.N. HOPES EVENTUALLY TO HAVE THE KASHMIRI PEOPLE VOTE IN A PLEBISCITE ON WHETHER THEY WANT TO JOIN INDIA OR PAKISTAN.

A128

THE CHINA QUESTION IN THE COUNCIL INTRUDES ON THE KASHMIR CASE.

THE DISPUTANTS, INDIA AND PAKISTAN, BOTH HAVE GIVEN UPON NATIONALIST CHINA AND RECOGNIZE MAO TZE-TUNG'S REDS. THE TWO-YEAR-OLD KASHMIR CASE WAS CALLED UP ONCE FOR DEBATE IN JANUARY UNDER TSIANG'S EMBARRASSED PRESIDENCY, BUT THE MEETING WAS CANCELLED WITHOUT EXPLANATION. THE JANUARY SLOWDOWN OBVIOUSLY WAS WORKING.

--0--

THE COUNCIL MET FOUR AFTERNOONS IN JANUARY. AT THE FIRST SESSION OF 1950 RUSSIA WALKED OUT WHEN THE MAJORITY REFUSED TO ACT AT ONCE ON A SOVIET MOVE TO EXPEL THE NATIONALISTS RIGHT AWAY.

SOVIET DELEGATE JAKOB MALIK CAME BACK FOR THE SECOND AND THIRD MEETINGS--ON HIS DEMAND-- AND THEN WALKED OUT AGAIN WHEN HE FAILED TO UNSEAT TSIANG. HE HASN'T BEEN BACK HERE SINCE THAT DAY--FRIDAY, JAN. 13-- BUT WAS SEEN ONCE SINCE IN A DIPLOMATICALLY CORRECT MOOD AT AN AMERICAN DELEGATION RECEPTION.

AT THE FOURTH MEETING, WITH RUSSIA ABSENT, THE COUNCIL CARRIED OUT A GENERAL ASSEMBLY ORDER TO PASS ALONG TO THE CONVENTIONAL ARMS COMMISSION A PROPOSAL FOR A WORLD-WIDE CENSUS OF NON-ATOMIC WEAPONS, A MEASURE RUSSIA HAS VETOED IN THE PAST. YUGOSLAVIA ALONE WAS AGAINST IT THIS TIME.

YUGOSLAVIA'S ALES BEBLER, BEGINNING A 2-YEAR TERM IN THE EASTERN EUROPEAN NON-PERMANENT SEAT ON THE COUNCIL, TOOK THE EQUIVOCAL ROLE EXPECTED OF THE TITO-COMMUNIST ENEMY OF THE MOSCOW-DIRECTED COMINFORM. HE VOTED WITH RUSSIA FOR EXPULSION OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS, BUT DID NOT WALK OUT; INSTEAD, HE STAYED ON TO MAKE A VAIN ARGUMENT THAT TSIANG MUST VACATE THE CHAIRMANSHIP, CMT

DID NOT WALK OUT; INSTEAD, HE STAYED ON TO MAKE A VAIN ARGUMENT THAT TSIANG MUST VACATE THE CHAIRMANSHIP, AT LEAST, IN FAVOR OF CUBA FOR THE REMAINDER OF JANUARY. THIS CAME AFTER THE SOVIET EFFORTS TO KICK OUT TSIANG COMPLETELY HAD FAILED.

--0--

IN THE TO-DO OVER CHINA, THE EXPECTED BATTLES IN THE COUNCIL

BETWEEN RUSSIA AND YUGOSLAVIA HAVE NOT YET COME OFF. THE SOVIET DELEGATION SIMPLY IGNORED BEBLER WHILE THE RUSSIANS WERE STILL AROUND AND WHILE BEBLER WAS SIDING WITH THEM.

RED CHINA HAS GIVEN YUGOSLAVIA THE SAME TREATMENT ELSEWHERE ON THE DIPLOMATIC FRONT, REFUSING THUS FAR TO RECOGNIZE TITO'S RECOGNITION OF THE PEIPING REGIME. THIS IS LOOKED ON HERE AS A DISCOURAGEMENT TO WESTERN WISHING THAT MAO MIGHT TURN OUT TO BE A CHINESE NATIONALIST-COMMUNIST TITO ARRAIGNED AGAINST KREMLIN COMMUNISM.

DIPLOMATS HERE ARE INTRIGUED OVER THE MANCHURIAN BACKGROUND OF THE CHIEF DELEGATE RED CHINA HOPES TO SEND TO THE U.N. HE IS WEN TIEN CHANG, A 50-YEAR-OLD POKER-PLAYING RED WHO WAS EDUCATED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA AND MOSCOW UNIVERSITY AND IS A LINGUIST AND WRITER GOING UNDER THE PEN AND PARTY NAME OF LO FU.

THEY FIGURE A SOVIET-INDOCTRINATED MANCHURIA MAN WITH A COMMAND OF ENGLISH MIGHT BE USED HERE IN REBUTTAL TO SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S RECENT CHARGES OF SOVIET GRABS OF WESTERN AND NORTHERN CHINESE TERRITORY, INCLUDING INDUSTRIALLY POWERFUL MANCHURIA.

LCI (L)--LANDING CRAFT INFANTRY, LARGE--NO.1,065 WAS COMPLETED BY THE DEFOE SHIPBUILDING COMPANY, BAY CITY, MICH., IN AUG. 1944. SINCE THEN SHE HAS TRAVELLED OVER HALF THE WORLD. A NAVY CREW TOOK THE 275-TON CRAFT THROUGH THE CHICAGO RIVER, DOWN THE MISSISSIPPI, ACROSS THE GULF OF MEXICO AND THROUGH THE PANAMA CANAL TO HAWAII.

AFTER FUELING SHE WENT TO ULITHI, THE MARIANAS, AND FROM THERE TO THE INVASION OF LEYTE, THE PHILIPPINES. THEN CAME V-J DAY, AND SHE WAS SENT TO WORK IN THE BRITISH WEST INDIES. LATER, SHE JOINED OTHER FIGHTING SHIPS IN THE MOTHBALL FLEET AT NEWARK, N.J.

THE LAKE GEORGE STEAMBOAT COMPANY BOUGHT THE 158-FOOT CRAFT LAST NOVEMBER FOR CONVERSION INTO AN EXCURSION BOAT. A STRANGE VOYAGE THEN BEGAN.

THE NEW YORK FIRM OF CHARLES PETZOLD & COMPANY, NAVAL ARCHITECTS AND MARINE ENGINEERS, GOT THE JOB OF GETTING HER TO LANDLOCKED LAKE GEORGE. HER GUNS WERE STRIPPED OFF AND HER WON SUPERSTRUCTURE SHORN TO MAIN DECK LEVEL.

JAN 29 1950

LAST NOV.24 SHE STEAMED INTO LAKE CHAMPLAIN THE DAY BEFORE THE CANAL CLOSED AND TIED UP NEAR FERGUSON'S FARM, TICONDEROGA, N.Y.

HER TRIP UP THE HUDSON WAS A BIZARRE ONE FOR RIVER CAPT. FRANCIS TYLER OF BROOKLYN. LOW BRIDGES AND A RIGGED UP STEERING DEVICE NECESSITATED REMOVAL OF HER WHEELHOUSE.

AT WHITEHALL, N.Y., CAPT.TYLER HAD TO LIE ON HIS STOMACH TO GET HER UNDER THE BRIDGE BECAUSE SHE HAD ONLY NINE INCHES CLEARANCE.

THE HARDEST PART OF HER JOURNEY LIES AHEAD. WORKMEN ARE CUTTING HER INTO THREE SECTIONS. THESE WILL BE PLACED ABOARD HUGE STEEL SLEDS WITH REINFORCED RUNNERS. IN ABOUT TWO WEEKS SHE WILL BE DRAWN THROUGH THE HEART OF TICONDEROGA TO LAKE GEORGE. THE FIVE AND A HALF-MILE TRIP WILL BE ALONG A ROUTE USED BY THE INDIANS AS A PORTAGE TRAIL DECADES AGO.

JAN 29 1950

S96

ONE OF THE VILLAGE'S MAIN TRAFFIC LIGHTS WILL COME DOWN TO LET HER THROUGH. OVERHEAD WIRING AND TREE BRANCHES MUST BE REMOVED.

NEXT JUNE, NO.1065 WILL BE LAUNCHED AS THE MOTOR VESSEL "TICONDEROGA." SHE WILL HAVE THREE-DECKS, A 66-FOOT BAR IN A COCKTAIL LOUNGE, A SUN DECK, A DANCE FLOOR AND A SHIP-TO-SHORE RADIO

TELEPHONE.

WITH LAKE GEORGE VILLAGE AS HER HOME PORT, SHE WILL MAKE TWO DAILY VOYAGES TO BOLTON LANDING, HAGUE AND OTHER MOUNTAIN RESORTS.

HER CAPACITY IS 750 PASSENGERS AND A CREW OF 15. HER 30,000-GALLON FUEL TANKS WILL PERMIT HER TO OPERATE THE ENTIRE SUMMER WITHOUT REFUELING. HER DIESEL ENGINES WILL PUSH HER ALONG AT 18 KNOTS.

BY ADRIENNE WEIL

NEW YORK, JAN.28-(AP)-IT WAS ROMANCE AND NOT ESPIONAGE THAT MADE VALENTINE A.GUBITCHEV JITTERY DURING A RENDEZVOUS WITH JUDITH COPLON, SAYS HIS ATTORNEY.

THE ATTORNEY, ABRAHAM L.POMERANTZ, MADE THE ASSERTION YESTERDAY AFTER TWO FBI AGENTS TESTIFIED THAT GUBITCHEV APPEARED UNEASY WHEN THEY TRAILED HIM TO A MEETING WITH MISS COPLON ON JAN.14,1949.

GUBITCHEV, 33, RUSSIAN ENGINEER SUSPENDED FROM HIS UNITED NATIONS POST, AND MISS COPLON, 28, FORMER JUSTICE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE, ARE ON TRIAL ON CHARGES OF PLOTTING TO CHANNEL U.S. SECRETS TO RUSSIA.

THE MARRIED RUSSIAN KNEW HE WAS BEING TRAILED BY STRANGE MEN ON JAN.14,1949, WHEN HE MET MISS COPLON IN UPPER MANHATTAN, POMERANTZ SAID DURING CROSS-EXAMINATION OF FBI AGENT RICHARD T.HRADSKY.

HRADSKY CONCEDED THAT GUBITCHEV'S "BEHAVIOR WAS THAT OF A MAN WHO SUSPECTED SOMEBODY WAS FOLLOWING HIM" AND THAT HE APPEARED SCARED.

THE DEFENSE CLAIMS GUBITCHEV FEARED DISCOVERY BY HIS WIFE OF HIS ROMANCE WITH MISS COPLON. BUT THE GOVERNMENT CONTENDS HIS FURTIVE ACTIONS WERE A RESULT OF A SPY CONSPIRACY.

THE TRIAL IS IN ADJOURNMENT FOR THE WEEKEND.

HRADSKY SAID THAT GUBITCHEV HAD TAKEN A "CIRCUITOUS ROUTE" WHEN HE WENT BY TAXICAB TO AN UPPER MANHATTAN SUBWAY ENTRANCE AFTER HE LEFT MISS COPLON. THE FBI MAN DESCRIBED THE ROUTE.

FEDERAL JUDGE SYLVESTER RYAN EXAMINED A MAP PLACED ON DISPLAY BY THE GOVERNMENT, AND ASKED IF "THERE IS ANY SHORTER WAY THAN THE ROUTE TAKEN BY THE CAB?"

THE FBI MAN CONCEDED THERE WAS NOT.

ANOTHER FBI AGENT, RICHARD E.BRENNAN, RELATED THAT MISS COPLON HAD "GESTICULATED" AT GUBITCHEV WITH A FOLDED NEWSPAPER AS THE PAIR WALKED ALONG A STREET.

BRENNAN ADMITTED HE HAD SIGNED A SURVEILLANCE LOG SAYING THE YOUNG WOMAN WAS SEEN "STRIKING AT HIM (GUBITCHEV) WITH HER HAND OR FOLDED NEWSPAPER," BUT HE ADDED:

"MY SIGNATURE DOES NOT MEAN THAT I OBSERVED EVERYTHING."

THE LOG WAS WRITTEN BY DANIEL GARDE, ANOTHER FBI AGENT, WHO HAS NOT YET TESTIFIED.

THE DEFENSE CLAIMS MISS COPLON BECAME ANGRY, AND STRUCK AT GUBITCHEV WITH THE NEWSPAPER WHEN SHE LEARNED HE WAS MARRIED.

NEW YORK, JAN.28-(AP)-AMERICA MUST EITHER RUN THE RACE FOR THE HYDROGEN SUPER-BOMB OR RISK LETTING RUSSIA WIN THE WORLD BY DEFAULT, ONE OF THE COUNTRY'S A-BOMB PIONEERS SAID LAST NIGHT.

DR.HAROLD C.UREY, NOBEL PRIZE WINNER IN PHYSICS AND A TOP ATOMIC SCIENTIST, SAID: "IN FACT, WE MAY HAVE ALREADY LOST THE ARMAMENTS RACE."

THE H-BOMB--REFERRED TO BY SOME AS THE "HELL-BOMB"--WILL BE NEARLY 1,000 TIMES MORE POWERFUL THAN THE ATOM-BOMB IF IT CAN BE DEVELOPED, SCIENTISTS SAY.

"I AM VERY UNHAPPY TO CONCLUDE THAT THE HYDROGEN BOMB SHOULD BE DEVELOPED AND BUILT," DR.UREY SAID. "I DO NOT THINK WE SHOULD INTENTIONALLY LOSE THE ARMAMENTS RACE. TO DO THIS WOULD BE TO LOSE OUR LIBERTIES AND, WITH PATRICK HENRY, I VALUE MY LIBERTIES MORE THAN MY LIFE."

DR.UREY REFERRED TO THE FACT THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS WEIGHING WHETHER THE U.S. WILL LAUNCH AN H-BOMB PROJECT OR NOT--AND ALSO TO A REPORT THAT THIS WAS POSTPONED AS FAR BACK AS 1945.

"THESE DECISIONS IN REGARD TO THE HYDROGEN BOMB HAVE BEEN MADE IN AN ALMOST UNBELIEVABLE ATMOSPHERE," HE SAID.

"THOSE PEOPLE WHO DECIDED WE SHOULD NOT DEVELOP IT BELIEVED THAT THE USSR COULD NOT GET THE ORDINARY ATOMIC BOMB IN LESS THAN 10 OR 15 YEARS. TIME HAS PROVED THEM INCORRECT ON THIS POINT."

DR.UREY SAID HE HOPED "VERY MUCH" THAT RESEARCH ON THE H-BOMB WILL FAIL, BUT HE DOES NOT COUNT ON IT.

"I THINK WE SHOULD ASSUME THAT THE H-BOMB CAN BE BUILT," HE SAID. HE ESTIMATED THE COST AS LOW AS $100,000,000(M). OTHER ESTIMATES HAVE RUN FROM TWO TO FOUR BILLIONS.

DR.UREY WON HIS NOBEL PRIZE FOR DISCOVERING HEAVY HYDROGEN--THE ISOTOPE THAT WOULD MAKE ANY H-BOMB POSSIBLE--AND DID SOME OF THE MOST CRITICAL WORK IN ISOLATING URANIUM 235, THE STUFF THAT A-BOMBS ARE MADE OF. AT PRESENT HE IS PROFESSOR OF PHYSICS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO.

DR.UREY SPOKE AT THE ANNUAL ROOSEVELT DAY DINNER OF AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION (CAPS).

HE MENTIONED REPORTS THAT H-BOMBS DROPPED OFF THE PACIFIC COAST WOULD POISON THE PREVAILING WEST WINDS WITH RADIOACTIVITY AND WIPE OUT LIFE IN THE UNITED STATES.

"I CANNOT VOUCH FOR THE ACCURACY OF THIS STATEMENT," HE SAID, BUT ADDED THAT THE RADIO ACTIVITY WOULD BE "FAR GREATER" THAN IN THE POISONOUS UNDERWATER ATOM EXPLOSIONS AT BIKINI.

HE SPECULATED ABOUT WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN IF RUSSIA WON THE HELL-BOMB RACE, AND SAID THE SOVIET LEADERS MIGHT REASON THIS WAY:

"'IT IS TRUE THAT THE BOMB IS EXCEEDINGLY DANGEROUS, AND WE WOULD NOT WISH TO PRODUCE SO MUCH RADIOACTIVITY IN THE WORLD TO ENDANGER OURSELVES AND THE PEOPLE OF RUSSIA.

"'BUT THE EXPLOSION OF A FEW OF THESE BOMBS WILL WIN US THE WORLD...

"'THEREFORE WE WILL BUILD THESE BOMBS AND ISSUE ULTIMATA TO THE WESTERN COUNTRIES AND THE MILLENIUM OF COMMUNISM WILL BE WITH US IMMEDIATELY. AFTER THIS THE UNIVERSAL GOVERNMENT OF THE USSR WILL ABOLISH ALL STOCKS OF BOMBS AND NO MORE WILL EVER BE MADE IN THE WORLD."

DR.UREY CALLED THIS A "GOOD ARGUMENT" AND SAID THAT EVEN IF THE U.S. GOT THE H-BOMB FIRST IT MIGHT NOT BE EASY TO OBTAIN A BALANCE OF POWER.

HE SAW ONLY A POLITICAL SOLUTION TO THE PRESENT PROBLEM--A FEDERAL UNION OF ALL THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES THAT WOULD DISCOURAGE ANY IDEA OF AN AGRESSIVE SOVIET WAR.

JAN 29 1950

NEW YORK, JAN.28-(AP)-THE NEW YORK TIMES, IN A SPECIAL DISPATCH FROM PARIS, SAID TONIGHT THE SOVIET UNION HAS DEMANDED FROM THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT FULL CONTROL OF SEVEN KEY PORTS IN NORTH CHINA.

THE DISPATCH, WRITTEN BY C.L. SULZBERGER, SAID THE STRATEGIC PORTS OVER WHICH THE U.S.S.R. WANTS COMPLETE AUTHORITY ARE CHINWANGTAO, HAICHOW, CHEFOO, WEIHAIWEI, AND TSINGTAO, IN ADDITION TO DAIREN AND PORT ARTHUR (RYOJUN) IN MANCHURIA, WHICH ALREADY ARE SUPERVISED BY THE SOVIETS.

SULZBERGER SAID THE RUSSIANS ARE SEEKING THESE CONCESSIONS AT RUSSO-CHINESE NEGOTIATIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN UNDER WAY FOR MORE THAN A MONTH IN MOSCOW. PRIME MINISTER STALIN HEADS THE RUSSIAN NEGOTIATORS AND COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG THE CHINESE DELEGATION.

THE DISPATCH SAID THREE OTHER DEMANDS BY THE RUSSIANS CALL FOR A LABOR FORCE OF 500,000 CHINESE CITIZENS AVAILABLE TO THE U.S.S.R.; INCREASED FOOD SHIPMENTS TO RUSSIA FROM RICH MANCHURIA, ALTHOUGH CHINA HERSELF IS THREATENED BY A DISASTROUS FAMINE; AND BROAD CONCESSIONS BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TO "MINORITY" GROUPS IN SINKIANG, INNER MONGOLIA, MANCHURIA AND TIBET.

LATEST ADVICES, ACCORDING TO SULZBERGER'S INFORMANTS, INDICATE THAT THE CHINESE NEGOTIATORS HAVE NOT YET ACCEDED TO THE RUSSIAN TERMS BUT HAVE BEEN COUNTERING WITH EQUALLY AMBITIOUS DEMANDS OF THEIR OWN.

THE CHINESE REDS REPORTEDLY HAVE ASKED MOSCOW FOR A FLAT GUARANTEE OF £1,000,000,000 ($2,800,000,000) IN FINANCIAL AID.

THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ALSO REPORTEDLY HAVE ASKED FOR BIG SHIPMENTS OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT. THESE PRESUMABLY WOULD BE USED TO INVADE FORMOSA AND DESTROY THE LAST FOOTHOLD OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT, SULZBERGER SAID.

"IF THE PEIPING ENVOYS ARE FORCED TO KNUCKLE UNDER AND GRANT MOSCOW THE CONCESSIONS DEMANDED, THE U.S.S.R. WOULD HAVE COMPLETE CONTROL OF THE YELLOW SEA," THE DISPATCH SAID. "THE SOUTHERN KOREAN GOVERNMENT, SUPPORTED BY THE UNITED STATES, WOULD BE COMPLETELY OUTFLANKED ON THE WEST.

"FURTHERMORE, THE CONCESSIONS WOULD STRATEGICALLY SEAL OFF FROM THE SOUTH AND THE OUTSIDE WORLD THE NORTHERN CHINESE PROVINCES OF MANCHURIA (INCLUDING JEHOL) AND INNER MONGOLIA." X X X

"ALL INDICATIONS ARE THAT THE U.S.S.R.--IF IT IS WILLING TO CONCEDE IN PRINCIPLE--WOULD HAVE A DIFFICULT TIME IN MEETING PEIPING'S REQUESTS FOR CAPITAL EQUIPMENT AND FINANCIAL AID ON THE SCALE DESIRED."

THE DISPATCH ADDED THAT DESPITE A DIPLOMATIC IMPASSE IN THE MOSCOW NEGOTIATIONS AS A RESULT OF THE DEMANDS AND COUNTER-DEMANDS, THE END OF THE RUSSO-CHINESE TALKS WILL BE ANNOUNCED "IN A CAREFULLY FRAMED COMMUNIQUE HERALDING THEIR 'COMPLETE SUCCESS.'"

POINTING OUT THAT A NEW GROUP OF RED CHINESE NEGOTIATORS, HEADED BY FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI, RECENTLY ARRIVED IN MOSCOW AND THAT CHOU HAD CONFERRED WITH STALIN WITHOUT MAO, THE DISPATCH SAID:

"THIS CIRCUMSTANCE HAS LED TO INCREASING SPECULATION AMONG OBSERVERS IN THE COMMUNIST WORLD. SOME SATELLITE DIPLOMATS HAVE CONCLUDED THAT MR. MAO HAS PROVEN TOO STUBBORN FOR PREMIER STALIN'S TASTES AND WAS THEREFORE DELIBERATELY EXCLUDED FROM THIS SECOND PHASE OF THE TALKS BY THE KREMLIN."

NIGHT LEAD LEGION

NEW YORK, JAN.28-(AP)- CIO LEADER JAMES B.CAREY, BATTLING TO TAKE OVER SOME HALF MILLION ELECTRICAL WORKERS FROM A LEFT-WING UNION, SAID TODAY "WE ARE GIVING NO QUARTER AND TAKING NO QUARTER" IN HIS UNION'S FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNISTS.

IN DESCRIBING WHAT HE TERMED THE CIO'S "VIGOROUS FIGHT" AGAINST COMMUNISM, CAREY SAID:

"WE WOULD EVEN JOIN FASCISTS IN A WAR TO DEFEAT THE COMMUNISTS."

CAREY, A NATIONAL VICE-PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE CIO, IS THE HEAD OF THE NEW CIO INTERNATIONAL ELECTRICAL WORKERS UNION

HE NOW IS ENGAGED IN TRYING TO WIN REPRESENTATION OF THE ELECTRICAL WORKERS AWAY FROM THE UNITED ELECTRICAL WORKERS, RECENTLY KICKED OUT OF THE CIO ON CHARGES OF BEING COMMUNIST-DOMINATED.

SPEAKING AT AN AMERICAN LEGION ANTI-COMMUNIST CONFERENCE, CAREY SAID:

"THERE IS LESS DANGER OF THE CIO BEING CAPTURED BY THE COMMUNISTS THAN THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS BEING CAPTURED BY THE COMMUNISTS."

HE SAID ONE OF THE CHIEF PROBLEMS IN THE FIGHT BY HIS UNION AGAINST COMMUNISM WAS "THE DESIRE OF THE EMPLOYER TO EXPLOIT THE DIFFERENCES" WITHIN LABOR GROUPS.

EMPLOYERS, HE SAID, "WOULD LIKE TO SEE THEM TEAR EACH OTHER APART."

HE CALLED ATTENTION TO THE RECENT CONSPIRACY TRIAL OF 11 TOP COMMUNIST LEADERS, DESCRIBED THEM AS "11 PIP-SQUEAK COMMIES" AND SAID THEY WERE "INSIGNIFICANT IN COMPARISON WITH THE COMMUNISTS AT LARGE IN CERTAIN AMERICAN TRADE UNIONS."

WITHOUT IDENTIFYING THEM BY NAME, CAREY SAID SOME COMPANIES HAD INSTALLED "ROAD BLOCKS" TO OBSTRUCT CIO EFFORTS TO RID THE UNION OF COMMUNISTS AND ASKED:

"SHOULD AMERICAN WORKERS BE PENALIZED FOR THEIR EFFORTS IN TRYING TO GET RID OF COMMUNISTS?"

EARLIER LIEUT.GEN.WALTER BEDELL SMITH, FORMER AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA, SAID THERE WAS A "CONSTANT AND DIRECT CHAIN OF COMMAND" BETWEEN THE KREMLIN AND COMMUNIST PARTIES IN OTHER COUNTRIES.

HE SAID IT WAS "INESCAPABLE IN FACE OF THE EVIDENCE THAT THE U.S.S.R. IS WORKING HERE THROUGH ITS AGENTS."

SMITH SAID THAT BEFORE HE LEFT MOSCOW HE HAD NOTICIED A "DEFINITE RESURGENCE" OF ANTI-SEMITISM.

HE GAVE AS AN EXAMPLE THE CASE OF TWO JEWISH GIRLS EMPLOYED BY THE U.S. EMBASSY IN MOSCOW.

HE SAID THEY WERE SET UPON "AND STRIPPED" OR NEARLY STRIPPED" BY RUSSIAN ARMY GIRLS, "NOT BECAUSE THEY WORKED FOR THE EMBASSY, BUT BECAUSE THEY WERE JEWISH."

THE CONFERENCE, CALLED BY THE LEGION, DREW REPRESENTATIVES OF 53 NATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS OF VARIOUS TYPES. IT WAS CALLED "THE ALL-AMERICAN CONFERENCE OF NATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS UNITED AGAINST COMMUNISM."

PS847PES

NEW YORK, JAN 28-(AP)-THE PRESENT RUSSIAN "REGIME IS CEMENTED BY SECRET POLICE AND NAILED IN PLACE WITH BAYONETS," LIEUT.GENERAL WALTER BEDELL SMITH, FORMER AMERICAN AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW, DECLARED TODAY.

ADDRESSING THE ALL-AMERICAN CONFERENCE OF NATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS UNITED AGAINST COMMUNISM, GENERAL SMITH SAID THAT 200,000,000 (M) RUSSIAN CITIZENS ARE BEING RULED BY A POLITICAL PARTY NUMBERING LESS THAN 6,000,000 (M).

"THE POLICE ORGANIZATION HAS CONTINUED TO GROW MORE ROBUST," HE SAID, EVEN THOUGH THE COMMUNISTS PROMISED TO ABOLISH IT.

THE GENERAL NOW COMMANDS THE U.S. FIRST ARMY.

GEORGE N.CRAIG, OF BRAZIL, IND., COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION, SPONSOR OF THE CONFERENCE, SAID ITS PURPOSE WAS TO "COORDINATE THE ACTVITIES OF THOSE CITIZENS' BODIES, NATIONAL IN CHARACTER, WHICH HAVE AMONG THEIR DECLARED PURPOSES THE MAINTENANCE OF THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL SYSTEM."

NEW YORK, JAN.28-(AP)-ASSISTANT U.S. ATTORNEY THOMAS F. MURPHY, SUCCESSFUL PROSECUTOR OF ALGER HISS, TODAY PRAISED THE "COMPLETE COOPERATION" OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE IN THE PROSECUTION OF THE PERJURY CASE.

DESCRIBING HIMSELF AT A NEWS CONFERENCE AS "RATHER PLEASED BY THE FLATTERING REMARKS MADE BY A GREAT MANY CONGRESSMEN CONCERNING MY CONDUCT OF THE TRIAL," MURPHY SAID:

"BUT I WOULD LIKE TO DISPEL ANY SUSPICIONS OR RUMORS THAT I DID NOT HAVE THE COMPLETE COOPERATION AND ASSISTANCE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, INCLUDING FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK, THE PRESENT ATTORNEY GENERAL J. HOWARD MCGRATH AND THE ENTIRE F.B.I."

THE PROSECUTOR SAID THERE WERE NO "MYSTERIOUS ASPECTS" TO THE TRIAL.

REFERRING TO A REPORT THAT A CONGRESSMAN POSSESSED PHOTOSTATIC COPIES OF EIGHT PAGES OF NOTES IN THE HANDWRITING OF THE LATE HARRY DEXTER WHITE, FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE TREASURER, MURPHY SAID THE PAPERS WERE FOUND ALONG WITH MICRO-FILMS IN A PUMPKIN ON THE MARYLAND FARM OF WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, HISS' ACCUSER.

MURPHY SAID HE POSSESSED THE ORIGINAL COPIES OF THE "FOUR PICES OF YELLOW FOOLSCAP WRITTEN ON BOTH SIDES IN PENCIL."

HE RECALLED THAT AT THE START OF THE TRIAL CHAMBERS TOLD IN DIRECT TESTIMONY THAT HE HAD RECEIVED THE PAPERS FROM WHITE AND THAT THE PAPERS WERE WRITTEN BY WHITE.

MURPHY SAID THE PAPERS WERE OFFERED IN EVIDENCE BUT BECAUSE OF A DEFENSE OBJECTION THEY WERE MARKED ONLY FOR IDENTIFICATION AND NOT SHOWN TO THE JURY.

HISS WAS SENTENCED LAST WEDNESDAY TO FIVE YEARS IN PRISON FOR SWEARING FALSELY THAT HE EVER PASSED ON SECRET PAPERS TO CHAMBERS, A SELF CONFESSED COMMUNIST SPY RING COURIER, WHILE HISS SERVED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT. HISS NOW IS FREE ON BAIL PENDING APPEAL OF HIS CONVICTION.

WESTMINSTER, MD., JAN 28-(AP)-THERE'S "NOTHING NEW" IN THE DOCUMENTS REP.NIXON (R-CAL) PRODUCED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES THIS PAST WEEK, WHITTAKER CHAMBERS SAID YESTERDAY.

THE FORMER COMMUNIST COURIER DECLARED IN AN INTERVIEW:

"THERE ARE NO NEW PUMPKIN PAPERS."

HE ADDED, "IT'S AN OLD STORY. I HAVE NO MORE PAPERS. THE GOVERNMENT HAS ALL I HAD AND KNOWS ALL THAT I KNOW."

NIXON SAID HE GOT THE PAPERS FROM CHAMBERS AND THE CALIFORNIA CONGRESSMAN TOLD THE HOUSE THAT CHAMBERS HAD RECEIVED THEM FROM THE LATE HARRY DEXTER WHITE, FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY. WHITE DIED IN 1948 SHORTLY AFTER DENYING HE EVER GAVE ANY CONFIDENTIAL DATA TO CHAMBERS.

CHAMBERS SAID YESTERDAY THE PAPERS WERE PART OF THE TESTIMONY AT THE TRIAL OF ALGER HISS, CONVICTED LAST WEEK OF PERJURY.

"I CAN'T SEE WHAT THE EXCITEMENT IS ABOUT," SAID THE ONE-TIME senior EDITOR OF TIME MAGAZINE WHO NOW FARMS 313 ACRES NEAR HERE. "THERE IS NOTHING NEW NOW."

(NY) PRINCETON, N.J., JAN.28-(AP)-A TOP SCIENTIST SAYS THIS COUNTRY CAN BUILD A ROCKET TO THE MOON, BUT UNTIL WE FEEL SAFE FROM RUSSIAN ATTACK WE SHOULD CONCENTRATE ON SHORTER RANGE PROJECTS.

THE VIEW IS THAT OF DOCTOR RALPH E.GIBSON, DIRECTOR OF JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY AT SILVER SPRINGS, MD., WHO HAD MUCH TO DO WITH DEVELOPMENT OF THE PROXIMITY FUSE. HE EMPHASIZED THESE POINTS LAST NIGHT IN A TALK TO AVIATION WRITERS:

1. THIS COUNTRY HAS FIRED ROCKETS WITH DRY POWDER PROPELLANTS LARGER THAN ANY AMERICAN ROCKETS OF THE LIQUID PROPELLANT TYPE, BUT SMALLER THAN THE GERMAN V-2.

2. ATOMIC POWER ALONE WILL NOT PRODUCE AN INTERPLANETERY ROCKET BECAUSE ANOTHER MATERIAL MUST BE USED TO CONVERT THE HEAT OF NUCLEAR FISSION INTO THRUST.

3. THE UNITED STATES HAS THE KNOW-HOW FOR 5,000-MILE INTER-CONTINENTAL ROCKETS. HE WOULD NOT COMMENT ON OUR ABILITY TO GUIDE THEM ACCURATELY TO A TARGET.

GIBSON SAID IT MUST BE ASSUMED THAT IF WE CAN BUILD A HYDROGEN BOMB, WHICH REPORTEDLY WOULD BE MANY TIMES AS POWERFUL AS ATOM BOMBS NOW AVAILABLE, THE RUSSIANS CAN PRODUCE THEM TOO.

"THEY GOT THE ATOM BOMB A DAMN SIGHT SOONER THAN WE EXPECTED," HE SAID.

GIBSON SAID LONG RANGE ROCKETS WILL BE BUILT IN SECTIONS--A LARGE ROCKET PUSHING A SMALLER ONE TO A VERY HIGH SPEED BEFORE THE SMALLER ONE BEGINS USING ITS OWN POWER TO CRUISE. HE ESTIMATED THAT WITH ROCKET FUELS NOW IN USE A ROCKET ABLE TO CARRY 1,000 POUNDS OF PAY-LOAD TO THE MOON WOULD HAVE A TOTAL WEIGHT OF 9,000,000 POUNDS.

THE JOHNS HOPKINS SCIENTIST CAME HERE FOR DEDICATION OF PRINCETON UNIVERSITY'S NEW SUPERSONIC WIND TUNNEL. RATED AT 3,500 MILES AN HOUR TOP SPEED.

DURING A TOUR FOR MILITARY AND CIVILIAN GUESTS THE UNIVERSITY UNCOVERED A LONG SECRET PROJECT FOR BASIC RESEARCH IN NEW TYPES OF JET-PROPULSION ENGINES. THE PROJECT KNOWN AS "SQUID" IS JOINTLY SPONSORED BY THE NAVY AND AIR FORCE AND INVOLVES RESEARCH AT SEVEN UNIVERSITIES.

BOSTON, JAN.28-(AP)-"WE FEEL WE CAN LICK THE COMMUNISTS," 13 MEMBERS OF THE JAPANESE DIET SAID TODAY AS THEY ARRIVED TO WATCH MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATORS IN ACTION.

THEY ALSO PREDICTED THAT THE "COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT WILL HAVE A VERY BAD TIME IN CHINA."

SPEAKING THROUGH HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL GRADUATE TAKIZO MATSUMOTO, 48-YEAR OLD FORMER OLYMPIC ATHLETE AND ONLY ENGLISH-SPEAKING MEMBER OF THE TOURING GROUP, THE JAPANESE LAWMAKERS SAID:

"FUNDAMENTALLY, WE FEEL WE CAN LICK THE COMMUNISTS. RECOVERY OF ECONOMIC STABILITY WILL BE A BIG FACTOR IN COMBATTING THE COMMUNIST TREND.

""THE COMMUNISTS HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO SPREAD THEIR MOVEMENT IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE WAR WHEN THERE WAS A LOT OF TEMPORARY CONFUSION. BUT WITH ECONOMIC STABILIZATION THE GENERAL PUBLIC--WHICH AT ONE TIME SEEMED TO HAVE LOST HOPE--IS BEING REDIRECTED."

ANOTHER REASON FOR THIS REDIRECTION, THEY SAID, IS THAT JAPANESE COMMUNISTS HAVE RECENTLY RESORTED TO VIOLENCE TO ACHIEVE THEIR AIMS. "OUR PEOPLE DON'T LIKE VIOLENCE. THE COMMUNIST TREND TOWARD VIOLENCE DOES NOT GO WITH THE JAPANESE PEOPLE."

THE GROUP, TO BE JOINED BY ITS 14TH MEMBER IN A FEW DAYS, LANDED AT LOGAN INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT AFTER A STAY IN COLUMBIA, S.C. AN EXTENSIVE PROGRAM OF ACTIVITIES IS SET FOR THEIR EIGHT-DAY VISIT.

THEY'LL SIT IN WITH MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES, ATTEND MORNING SERVICES TOMORROW IN HISTORIC KING'S CHAPEL, VISIT HARVARD'S WIDENER LIBRARY AND LITTAUER SCHOOL OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, MEET MAYOR JOHN B.HYNES AND WATCH THE CITY COUNCIL IN SESSION.

THEY ARE ACCOMPANIED BY COL.G.P.LYNCH, CHIEF OF THE REORIENTATION BRANCH, OFFICE OF THE UNDERSECRETARY OF THE ARMY, SPONSOR OF THE AMERICAN TOUR.

THE OFFICIAL WELCOMING PARTY WAS HEADED BY MAJ.GEN.FRANK A.KEATING, COMMANDER OF THE ARMY'S NEW ENGLAND SUB-AREA. HE ASSURED THEM THEIR PRESENCE HERE "WILL CONTRIBUTE TO A BETTER UNDERSTANDING AMONG THOSE WHO DWELL IN THE EAST AND WE OF THE WEST."

TAKESHI YAMAZAKI, 53-YEAR-OLD LEADER OF THE DELEGATION, SAID IN REPLY THAT "SINCE THE FORMATION IN 1946 OF A NEW CONSTITUTION WE HAVE WANTED TO SEE WITH OUR OWN EYES AND STUDY YOUR DEMOCRACY IN ACTION. WE ARE GRATEFUL TO GENERAL MAC ARTHUR AND YOUR GOVERNMENT FOR ENABLING US TO FULFILL OUR DESIRE."

THE SERIOUS MINDED LEGISLATORS TOLD NEWSMEN THE JAPANESE PEOPLE REGARD GENERAL MAC ARTHUR AS "A MAN OF NOBLE CHARACTER" AND "LOOK UP TO HIM AS THE GREAT SAVIOUR, LIBERATOR AND LEADER OF OUR COUNTRY."

(ADVANCE) (WX) RALEIGH, N.C., JAN.28-(AP)-UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE JAMES E.WEBB SAID TODAY THE FUTURE PROGRESS OF THE WESTERN WORLD DEPENDS IN LARGE PART ON INCREASING THE PRODUCTIVITY AND BUYING POWER OF UNDERDEVELOPED REGIONS.

IN A PLEA FOR APPROVAL OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S POINT FOUR PROGRAM, WEBB SAID THAT BUILDING UP SUCH AREAS "IS ONE OF THE MOST URGENT TASKS WE FACE."

"IT IS NECESSARY TO THE ECONOMIC PROGRESS OF THE WORLD; IT IS ESSENTIAL TO THE PRESERVATION AND EXPANSION OF THE DEMOCRATIC WAY OF LIFE," HE DECLARED.

IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCE HERE, WEBB SAID THAT VITAL RAW MATERIALS COME FROM MANY COUNTRIES WHERE MILLIONS LIVE UNDER CONDITIONS OF POVERTY, DISEASE AND IGNORANCE.

SUCH PEOPLE, HE ADDED, COULD BE AMONG THE BEST CUSTOMERS OF THE WESTERN POWERS.

"WE AMERICANS HAVE ALWAYS BEEN A PEACE-LOVING PEOPLE," WEBB DECLARED. "WE HAVE TRIED TO MIND OUR OWN BUSINESS, AND WE HAVE DONE OUR BEST TO KEEP OUT OF WARS.

"BUT WE HAVE LEARNED THE HARD WAY THAT YOU DON'T REMAIN AT PEACE JUST BY MINDING YOUR BUSINESS, BY MAKING TREATIES OF FRIENDSHIP AND NON-AGGRESSION WITH OTHER COUNTRIES, OR JUST BY HAVING AN ARMY, A NAVY AND AN AIR FORCE TO GUARD YOUR BORDERS FROM INVASION."

JACKSON,MISS., JAN.28-(AP)-THE MISSISSIPPI HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES SHARPLY REBUKED SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON YESTERDAY FOR HIS COMMEN ON THE PERJURY CONVICTION OF ALGER HISS.

ACHESON HAD SAID: "I DO NOT INTEND TO TURN MY BACK ON ALGER HISS."

HISS, FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE, WAS CONVICTED AND SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS FOR DENYING PASSING CONFIDENTIAL STATE PAPERS TO A PRE-WAR RUSSIAN SPY RING.

THE MISSISSIPPI HOUSE'S RESOLUTION DECLARED ACHESON'S STAND IS "SHOCKING AND UNPRECEDENTED."

IT SAID THE UNITED STATES IS BEING THREATENED BY "THE GRADUAL BUT STEADY MARCH OF COMMUNISM DIRECTED FROM MOSCOW" AND THAT COMMUNISM ALREADY HAS INVADED "X X X THE HIGH AND IMPORTANT DEPARTMENT OF STATE AS EVIDENCED BY THE DISCLOSURES AND CONVICTION IN THE TRIAL OF ALGER HISS."

IT URGED A CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THE JUDICIARY AND THE REST OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

IN DISCUSSING THE RESOLUTION, HOUSE SPEAKER WALTER SILLERS SAID "WE HAVE THE SPECTACLE IN OUR COUNTRY OF A MAN PROVED OF DISLOYALTY, CONVICTED AFTER TWO TRIALS, BEING DEFENDED BY A MAN IN THE POSITION OF HOLDING AND GUARANTEEING THE SECRETS OF HIS COUNTRY, WHO STANDS BY HIM (HISS) INSTEAD OF STANDING BY THE PEOPLE OF HIS COUNTRY."

SILLERS ADDED "THIS RESOLUTION CONDEMNS THAT ACT AND DEMANDS THAT THE COUNTRY RID ITSELF OF TRAITORS, HIGH OR LOW."

THE RESOLUTION ALSO CRITICIZED THE APPEARANCE OF SUPREME COURT JUSTICES FELIX FRANKFURTER AND STANLEY REED AS DEFENSE CHRACTER WITNESSES FOR HISS AS AN "UNPRECEDENTED SPECTACLE."

TWO DOOMED IN SLAV TRIAL

Deserters Sentenced To Die; Six Others Get Jail Terms

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 29 (AP). A Macedonian spy trial ended today in the sentencing of two Yugoslav army deserters to death before a firing squad.

Six other defendants were sentenced to hard labor for terms of five to thirteen years.

The trial produced clues that a Soviet-Cominform guerrilla war may be launched against Marshal Tito in the spring.

Admit Guerrilla Plans

All eight defendants had admitted that they sought to organize guerrilla bands, spy outfits and propaganda agencies on behalf of Bulgaria.

The trial—as well as a similar one a month ago at which ten Albanians were sentenced—was held in Skoplje, capital of Macedonia. Macedonia, a crossroads of East and West, has long been regarded as the spot where the Soviet Union would be most likely to apply pressure if it decides to use force to unseat Tito.

The chief defendant and the giver of the most sensational testimony, Blagoj Spasevski, was sentenced to death. He is a former commander of a Yugoslav army battalion who deserted, fled to Bulgaria and became an agent of that country.

Said He Saw Maps

Spaskevski testified that he had seen maps and plans for a Soviet-Cominform "armored fight" against Yugoslavia this coming spring. He said he had been sent back to Yugoslavia to organize opposition cells which would be supplied with arms from Bulgaria. He told the court he has supplied Bulgaria with Yugoslav troop dispositions and fortifications.

Also sentenced to death was Pande Ljorovski, another Yugoslav army deserter, who joined the Bulgarian army as a lieutenant and testified he returned to this country to organize spy rings.

The trial was the fourth for the purpose of uncloaking Cominform methods in a year and a half of effort to regain dominance over this country.

The others emphasized chiefly the propaganda maneuvers of Moscow to undermine confidence of the people in Tito.

Emphasizes Drastic Steps

The prosecution emphasized at this trial that Kremlin leaders are proceeding to more drastic steps—the building of a fifth column in preparation for guerrilla warfare.

Prosecutor Lazo Mojsov, in summing up, said the trial demonstrated the "hostile and aggressive plan aimed at this country." He told the court to note the similarity in direction—an obvious reference to Russia—between this trial and the trial last month of the ten Albanians.

The other six defendants and their sentences:

Nikola Jovanov, a Bulgarian, said by the prosecution to have been an old Balkan terrorist, who was accused of spreading "war propaganda" in Yugoslavia, thirteen years.

Simeon Manov, A Bulgarian, who testified he was offered a big bonus and a job as branch manager of the Bulgarian tobacco monopoly if he organized terror bands here and collected military information, twelve years.

Smuggled Propaganda

Arso Pankovski, a Bulgarian who owned property on both sides of the border and confessed to smuggling propaganda packages into Yugoslavia, ten years.

Dino Palamutov, a Bulgarian and confessed professional terrorist who worked as a spy between the two world wars and admitted attempting to organize spy and terrorist cells here, eight years.

Atanas Mamut Chivski, a Greek, accused of bringing in illegal propaganda material, eight years.

Ilija Reskovski, a Yugoslav agent of Bulgarian Secret Police, accused of printing anti-Tito propaganda and furnishing intelligence information to Bulgaria, five years.

Bidault had demanded three confidence votes in rapid fashion earlier in the day. In the session that continued tonight, he demanded two more votes. One was on the budget as a whole. The other was against a proposal to economize and save $20,000,000 on the expenses of civilian ministries and on railroad reconstruction.

Due To Council Action

Bidault won approval of his precariously balanced $6,300,000,000 budget from the National Assembly on January 2 after a gruelling series of debates, compromises and six votes of confidence in which he had majorities ranging from 4 to 21.

But the measure went to the upper house, the Council of the Republic, which made changes, including a rejection of the increase in the production tax. This tax, raised from 12.5 per cent to 13.5 per cent, was designed to balance the budget by yielding $130,000,000 in additional revenue.

As a result the budget has to go back to the Assembly for a new vote. The point is one on which Bidault previously demanded and received a vote of confidence.

Today Pierre Gabelle, a dissident member of Bidault's own Popular Republican (Catholic) party, proposed that the Assembly reverse itself and agree with the Council. In quick succession the same thing happened on two other controversial points, a new tax on undistributed corporation profits, and an increase in the tax on trucking companies.

It was then that Bidault asked for votes of confidence on all three questions, one after the other in machine-gun style.

In general he is supported in the Assembly by his own party, the Socialists and a group of moderates including about half of the Radical Socialists. Communists, deGaullists and the rest of the radicals opposed him in the earlier budget battle.

French Regime Staked On Vote

Paris, Jan. 29 (AP)—Premier Georges Bidault risked the life of his three-months-old cabinet today by demanding that Parliament give him five new votes of confidence.

If he loses his renewed battle for his 1950 budget in voting Tuesday, his coalition government will be out. If a second government should fall, France will have to have a general election.

To Ask Strike Restriction

Bidault said tonight he will introduce legislation regulating the right to strike.

The measure will go before Parliament in about two months, he told the national committee of the Popular Republican Movement (MRP). The MRP is Bidault's own left-of-center Catholic party.

The bill, the Premier said, will not be directed against unions but against those who exploit them for political purposes. The French Constitution guarantees the right to strike but provides the right may be regulated by law.

At the same time, Christian Pineau, Transport Minister, said in Parliament that beginning tomorrow employés of state-owned railroads who refuse to move national defense goods may be discharged.

Communists recently have urged railroad and dock workers not to handle munitions for Indo-China or arms sent to France from the United States under the military aid program.

ITALIAN REDS STAGE PROTEST AGAINST U.S.

GENOA, Italy, Jan. 29. — (AP) Communist workers paraded today in front of the United States Consulate here in protest against the arrival in Italy of Joseph Jacobs, special arms aid advisor to the U. S. Embassy. There was no disorder.

Shortly before the parade a communist workers' delegation handed to the district governor's office a written protest calling Jacobs "a messenger of war". Meetings also were held in several factories.

About 100 miles father down the coast at Leghorn, port and railway workers voted to refuse to unload U. S. ships bringing American arms aid to Italy.

The action was taken at a mass meeting of the federations of port workers and railroad men. An "order of the day" said approval was voted by 630,000 workers.

BERLIN ROAD TRUCK CURB FLUCTUATES

Russians First Ease Restrictions, Then Reimpose Slowdown

Berlin, Jan. 29 (AP)—The Russians got generous then tough with Berlin-bound truck traffic at Helmstedt on the autobahn today.

For nearly twenty hours they let trucks through the British border point at a rate of about ten an hour—a 100 per cent speedup compared with some periods of the eight-day slowdown, but still only about a third of normal.

Then tonight, when the waiting line of trucks had been reduced from about 225 to 35, they suddenly reimposed the old five-an-hour schedule. Guards resumed their meticulous checking of cargoes and shipping papers.

Predicts Normal Traffic

The British zone newspaper, Die Welt, reported from Luebeck that the Russians intended to restore traffic to normal this week, but gave no source for its information.

If this turns out to be true, an American official in Berlin said, it may be because the Russians wish to avoid reprisals from the Western powers in the form of economic sanctions against the Eastern zone.

It could be that the Russians feel they have sufficiently impressed the West Berliners anew with the fact that he is living 100 miles behind the iron curtain, the official added.

East German Communists started a series of Soviet sector border rallies in an effort to steam up support for their regime.

Eisler Speaks At Rally

Gerhart Eisler, East German Government information chief, addressed the first rally on the French sector border yesterday and told a crowd of several thousand "You must pound into the ears of the occupation powers: 'Go home.'"

East German newspapers were crammed with declarations against "Anglo-American saboteurs." The Soviet army's Taegliche Rundschau said 127 of these agents, all Germans, had been arrested in the Russian zone on spy charges. The newspaper gave no details.

Der Tagesspiegel in the American sector said the Russians were making preparations for a minor naval expansion on the German Baltic coast. It said Russian and East German workers were digging a canal from the Baltic to Greifswald, 3 miles inland in Pomerania where a secret harbor is to be built. The harbor would be used, the newspaper said, to conceal submarines and small warships.

FORMOSA REPORTS REDS MASS FLEET

Says Invasion Craft Prepare To Invade Hainan

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 29 (AP)—An official Nationalist source reported today that the Chinese Communists had massed more than 5,000 motor-powered junks and other small craft for an invasion of Hainan Island.

The vessels are intended to transport 100,000 to 200,000 Red regulars to the big Nationalist island 10 miles off China's south coast, said Gen. Hsia Yu-tsai, director of the Taipei office of the Hainan Defense Command. Nevertheless, he asserted that the Communists never would be able to conquer Hainan unless they got active Russian help.

[Hsia's report of the Red concentration was somewhat at variance with a January 18 report by the Hainan commander, Gen. Hsueh Yueh. Hsueh at that time said Nationalist air and naval forces had destroyed more than 2,000 Red invasion craft and that as a result an invasion was "impossible."]

Surround Red Guerrillas

To meet the Communist onslaught, the Nationalists have on Hainan 100,000 regulars plus 90,000 militiamen, said Hsia.

He reported the Hainan command had surrounded about 15,000 pro-Red guerrillas in the five-finger mountain area of northwestern Hainan.

The Air Force, meanwhile, reported continuing raids along the South China coast, sinking an unspecified number of Red junks.

The official optimism over holding Hainan was even stronger regarding Formosa.

Among the leaders on this Nationalist fortress island 100 miles off the East coast there is evident a new spirit of hope.

Foreigners who visited Formosa six months ago say they are astonished at the disappearance of defeatism.

Behind this optimism, however, there is a seemingly genuine fear that Russia may blast the Nationalist defense plans by giving active aid to the Reds.

Fear Economic Collapse

One expressed fear is that Soviet-supplied planes might cover an invasion; another is that Soviet submarines might strike at the Nationalist navy.

Another contingency the Nationalists fear is economic collapse. Everyone agrees that if the Formosan economic machine breaks down, the war machine will go with it.

One high official, speaking privately, estimated it would take 100,000,000 American dollars to stabilize the economy.

In this connection, the American policy of no fresh aid was assailed in a formal statement today by the Democratic Socialist party, largest minority political group in the Nationalist camp.

The party expressed hope that high American officials would make no more statements tending "to demoralize our fighting spirit."

It urged American congressmen to act not on party lines "but represent the general interests of mankind."

PORTUGUESE SHIP SEIZED BY CHINESE

HOIHOW, Hainan Island, Jan. 29 —(AP) Capt. C. X. Miguel said today his 696-ton Portuguese freighter San Manuel was being held hostage in Hoihow Harbor by the Chinese Nationalist navy.

He charged the Nationalists seized his vessel while she was anchored eight miles off the Liuchow Peninsula outside Chinese territorial waters.

He asserted the action was taken in reprisal for the seizure of a Nationalist gunboat last month by authorities of the Portuguese colony of Macao. Macao is on the South China coast 40 miles southwest of the British colony of Hong Kong.

Soviet Press Is Critical Of Writers for Children

MOSCOW, Jan. 29 (AP).—Writers of Soviet children's literature got a rap on the knuckles today from Konstantine Simonov, Soviet author.

Simonov admonished them to instill in Soviet children a desire to become workers in factories and mills and enter the ranks of the "glorious Soviet working class and collective-farm peasantry."

The Communist party newspaper "Pravda," which published Simonov's long report on the status of children's literature in Russia, agreed. "Pravda" criticized the Union of Soviet Writers for not preparing sufficiently for a discussion of children's literature.

U.N. Action On Somaliland Stirs Ethiopian War Scare

Cairo, Jan. 29 (AP)—Reliable sources here said today the imminent return of Italian trusteeship over Somaliland has created a war scare in neighboring Ethiopia, bending that country's first efforts toward military preparedness.

An agreement giving Italy control of her former African colony of Somaliland for ten years was approved Friday by the United Nations Trusteeship Council in Geneva.

An informant thoroughly acquainted with the situation in Addis Ababa, capital of Ethiopia's Emperor Haile Selassie, said ordinary Government expenditures are being cut back sharply and funds are being diverted to the purchase of armaments.

Anti-Italian Feeling Still High

The Ethiopian Air Force is being enlarged, this informant said, and the military training program speeded up. New planes are on order in Sweden.

Internal Ethiopian unrest of long standing is said to have added to the current feeling of tension.

Anti-Italian feeling is still strong in Ethiopia as a result of Mussolini's invasion and occupation in 1934—an episode that resulted in the Emperor's exile in England and brought appeals for help at that time to the League of Nations.

The Emperor returned to his throne after British forces occupied Ethiopia in 1941.

Somaliland, on the east coast bordering the Indian Ocean, was part of Mussolini's prewar African empire. It, too, fell to British troops.

British forces are expected to move out when the Italians officially take over, possibly in the next two weeks. The British forces, including light armored detachments, have been deployed in recent weeks along the Somaliland Ethiopian border to control tribal raiding.

Demarcation of the vague border line will be one of the immediate problems facing the new Italian administration in Somaliland. The frontier never has been clearly defined, a fact that led to the Walwal incident of December 5, 1934, which exploded in the Italian-Ethiopian War.

Tribesmen Ignore Borders

Wandering Somali tribesmen who roved the vast thorn-scrub wastes of the frontier with their camels and goats never paid any attention to border claims.

But both Italy and Ethiopia claimed the Walwal area, and troops stationed there got into a fight that set off the Mussolini campaign.

The Geneva agreement, giving Italy a ten-year trusteeship, is designed to assure the African territory a path to statehood. At the end of the decade Somaliland is to become independent.

But Ethiopia has protested the return of Italian administration. Ethiopia argues that the unmarked Somaliland - Ethiopian boundary may again lead to a dangerous situation.

In Other Words, Iran Is Just Out Of Luck

Teheran, Iran, Jan. 29 (AP)—The Iranian Chamber of Commerce came up today with a list of reasons for economic troubles plaguing the country. They include:

Devaluation of the pound sterling, an excess of imports, the weak purchasing power of most of the people, limiting of bank credit to merchants, lack of commercial organizations, foreign exchange regulations, absence of communications, poor condtions of the highways, and lack of co-operation between the government and the merchants.

Besides, said the Chamber of Commerce, there are too many merchants.

Soedirman Dies Of Tuberculosis

Jakarta, Java, Jan. 29 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. R. Soedirman, commander of the republican army which spearheaded the fight for Indonesian independence, died tonight in a hospital at Magelang. He had been suffering from tuberculosis.

A mystery man who was trained by the Japanese during the wartime occupation, the slender, youthful Soedirman was appointed chief of staff of the United States of Indonesia forces on January 3 after the country became independent of the Dutch.

Sultan Hamengku Buwono, Defense Minister, and Premier Mohamed Hatta tonight paid tributes to him in radio broadcasts and announced he had been promoted posthumously to full general.

In his late 30's, Soedirman was a vehement anti-Western ex-schoolteacher whose military abilities were a question mark, but whose ability to inspire the men in his undisciplined irregular fighting bands was undoubted.

U. S. CARRIER IN JAPAN

Boxer Reaches Yokosuka Naval Base to Begin Orient Tour

YOKOSUKA, Japan, Sunday, Jan. 29 (AP)—The United States aircraft carrier Boxer arrived at this naval base near Tokyo today to begin a tour that may take her to every major non-Communist port in the Orient.

Rear Admiral W. F. Boone, commander of the Pacific Fleet's air task unit, said the Boxer would reinforce the United States Far Eastern Fleet. "We'll be on the go all the time," he said.

Admiral Boone said the Boxer's assignment had no connection with Formosa, where the Chinese Nationalists now await a Communist attack.

The big carrier and two escort destroyers, the Buck and the John W. Thomason, slipped into Yokosuka this morning. They will remain here until Feb. 6, when they will leave for an unannounced destination.

Indonesia's Head at Karachi

KARACHI, Pakistan, Jan. 29 (AP).—Indonesian President Soekarno and his wife arrived at Karachi today by plane. He is the first head of a state to visit Pakistan. He came here from New Delhi, where he attended last week the ceremonies that proclaimed India a sovereign republic.

FAR EAST AID UP THIS WEEK

Congress Awaits Two Bills To Help Formosa, South Korea

Washington, Jan. 29 (AP)—Economic aid for Formosa, where China's Nationalists stand with backs to the wall, and for South Korea, where the infant republic is under pressure from the Soviet-dominated north, comes up in Congress tomorrow and Tuesday.

Administration leaders expressed confidence tonight that both programs would go through. Unless they do, aid ends February 15. The proposal is to extend it through June.

Heavy pressure is on the Korean proposal. That $60,000,000 plan has been turned down once by the House in a vote widely interpreted as a slap at the handling of Far Eastern policy by Dean Acheson, Secretary of State.

Acheson is due before the House Foreign Affairs Committee tomorrow with a plea for a second look at it backed up by President Truman.

Fireworks Expected

The Formosa situation comes before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Tuesday with indications that fireworks may blaze up anew over demands by a number of senators that military as well as economic aid go to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. The Administration has turned thumbs down on military measures.

Chairman Connally (D., Texas) predicted tonight that a $28,000,000 nonmilitary program for Formosa would get quick approval in the Senate committee. Several other senators renewed arguments that it should be stiffened with military help to hold the island as a strong point in the United States defense line against Soviet aggression.

The $60,000,000 for Korea was asked to round out a $120,000,000 program there for the fiscal year ending June 30. It lost by the margin of a single House vote in the first round when some Democrats teamed with Republicans. There were protests against Far Eastern policy and fears that Korea is too vulnerable to a Communist sweep.

Sees Chance For Survival

Acheson contends, however, that South Korea has a good chance to survive, but it may be lost if further aid is denied.

Acheson was reported to have proposed to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee last week that a part of unused China-aid funds be used to supply the economic aid in Korea.

This money, earmarked for Nationalist China, now amounts to $106,000,000. The Secretary was reported to have suggested that up to $30,000,000 be used for Formosa, and the rest be made available to the Economic Co-Operation Administration for use throughout the Orient.

Senator Knowland (R., Cal.), a sponsor of a proposal to push the spending deadline on the China money back to June 30, said Acheson should take a firm stand against the spread of communism beyond mainland China or into South Korea.

Charges "Grave Mistake"

He said Acheson had announced the United States Pacific defense line runs from Japan through Okinawa and the Philippines—and the United States will defend this line.

"It was a grave mistake to leave South Korea out of this defense line," Knowland said.

Senator Tydings (D., Md.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said in a radio broadcast today that Gen. Omar N. Bradley "is not opposed" to sending a military mission to Formosa for a survey of the situation.

Bradley gave the Senate Foreign Relations Committee his views last Thursday in a closed meeting.

"But Bradley did not favor and the Joint Chiefs of Staff did not favor the sending of American troops to Formosa—either the Army, the Navy or the Air Force," Tydings said.

U.S. Experts Winnow Rumors Of Soviet Demands On China

Washington, Jan. 29 (AP)—Diplomatic authorities here reported today that they are receiving a steady stream of rumors and reports about exorbitant demands by Russia on Chinese Communist rulers now in Moscow.

State Department officials said their reports were "interesting" and appeared to be generally in line with the charge by Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, that the Russians are detaching important areas of northern China and adding them to the Soviet Union.

Rumor and fact are so intertwined, however, and whatever is happening in the secrecy of Kremlin walls is so remote from Washington that authorities here hesitate to say what is correct and what misleading.

Some Demands Reported

Some American experts, in fact say the Chinese Communists themselves appear to have been feeding out reports of extreme Russian demands in the hope it will work to soften the impact of the concessions they will have to make in return for what they want out of the Soviet Union.

Shanghai and Hong Kong are proving productive rumor centers.

JAN 30 1950 30.24- 8599

information is also relayed here through London, Paris and other European capitals.

Here are some of the demands which Premier Stalin or his subordinates are reported to have made on Mao Tze-tung, Chinese Communist leader, and Chou Enlei, Foreign Minister:

1. The Russians should be given control of several key port cities in North China, including Chinwangtao. (The New York Times said in a Paris dispatch that the Russians had demanded full control of seven ports—Chingangtao, Haichow, Chefoo, Weihaiwei and Tsingtao in addition to Dairen and Port Arthur, which the Russians already hold).

2. That Chinese labor forces should be made available to Russia. Reports on the size of this force vary from 500,000 to 1,000,000.

3. That more grain should be sent to Russia from Manchuria. Under a special trade agreement with Manchurian Communists many months ago, the Russians already enjoy special trade rights there.

4. That the Russians be given the right to place their own people in leading Chinese industrial concerns following the pattern they have worked out with the satellite countries of eastern Europe where they share the ownership.

Chinese Seek Industrial Aid

As for the Chinese Communist demands on the Russians, it is reported that they want substantial help in military and industrial equipment plus financial support.

Reports have been reaching here also that the Russians are moving large missions into the Chinese Communist capital of Peiping.

Most top American officials feel one of the real conflicts between the Chinese and Russian leaders in Moscow is over control of the machinery of government in China and the people who run it.

One point on which American officials do seem certain is that the Chinese and Russian leaders will suppress whatever agreements they make on special concessions for the Soviet Union in China. Their announcement of new Sino-Soviet pacts, which is expected soon, is expected to deal primarily with expressions of friendship and agreement between the two greatest Communist nations.

Senators Checking On Philippine Loss

No Decision Yet Reached on Formal Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP).—A spokesman said tonight the Senate Investigations Committee is making a "preliminary check" [illegible] to determine whether it should look into the reported disappearance of war materials in the Philippines several years ago.

An official of the Senate group, which is headed by Senator Clyde R. Hoey, Democrat, of North Carolina, said no determination has been made whether the committee will go ahead with an inquiry, which the Army has dropped.

The Army said two days ago that it had no knowledge that the Senate group, an expenditures subcommittee, was looking into the reported loss of war goods in the Philippines.

The New York Herald Tribune reported that $2.000.000.000 worth of American war equipment had been "lost, strayed or stolen" in the Philippines since the war.

Under Secretary of the Army Tracy Voorhees tonight asserted that the Army had conducted an investigation in 1947 and that it uncovered some pilfering by American personnel and widespread thefts by civilians in the Philippines.

He said ten United States officers had been convicted of pilfering supplies. He said some loss was inevitable because "we were forced with the choice between bringing our soldiers home or leaving them overseas to guard property. Thank God, we brought them home."

VETS BILL FACES OPPOSITION BY HOUSE LEADERS

JAN 30 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29. — (AP) House leaders put a go slow sign today in the path of the first big veterans' benefit bill of the 1950 session of Congress.

The bill, estimated to cost an eventual $454,175,000 and to benefit 188,000 World War II veterans, has been given clearance by the House Rules Committee. It previously was approved by the House Postoffice and Civil Service Committee over opposition of the Budget Bureau, the president's financial spokesman.

But House leaders so far have declined to let it come to a test in the House because of the money involved.

Affects Postal Employes

The bill affects employes of the postal service who served in the last war and started handling the mail after their military service. By crediting their war service toward their postal service, it would give them automatic promotions and pay raises. Their war service must have occurred between Sept. 16, 1940, and June 30, 1946, and they must have entered the postal service prior to July of this year.

The estimated cost of this provision for the first year is $27,500,000 and the Postoffice committee believes it will apply to 120,000 veterans. The committee estimated the overall cost at $193,375,000 during the next eight years, after which most of the men involved will have reached the top grades of service.

Another provision would give eligible employes who were in the military service prior to July 1, 1945, four additional grades dating from the time they received their regular appointment in the postal service. Military service of any length of time before that date is the only measure of eligibility.

Opposed by P. O. Department

The Postoffice Department figures the cost of this provision, which would affect 68,000 men, at $26,400,000 this year and $260,800,000 in the aggregate.

The House committee said in a report that the legislation is designed to give to World War II veterans affected the same benefits Congress already has given to other employes.

The Postoffice Department has opposed the bill as discriminatory and complained that no provision is made to increase postal revenues to offset the extra cost.

The Civil Service Commission voiced similar objections, while the president's Budget Bureau said it was "not in accord with the program of the president" and would "confer unwarranted and discriminating advantages to the special and limited class of employes embraced by the bill."

ACHESON DENIES OFFERING TO QUIT

Says He Has Not Discussed Hiss Case With Truman

Washington, Jan. 29 (AP)—Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, said tonight he has not discussed with President Truman whether he should resign because of his continued friendship with Alger Hiss.

JAN 30 1950

Acheson's statement that "I do not intend to turn my back on Alger Hiss" touched off demands from a number of congressmen that Mr. Truman ask him to step out of the Cabinet.

Hiss was convicted of perjury by a New York Federal Court jury, and faces a prison sentence of five years.

Denies Offering To Resign

In reply to questions about reports that he had offered to resign, Acheson tonight issued a terse denial through Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer. It said:

"Neither the Secretary nor the President has ever raised the question of the Secretary submitting his resignation."

There was no comment from the White House. At his news conference on Friday, Mr. Truman declined to reply when asked whether he would turn his back on Hiss.

The President then said there was no point in asking other questioned about the Hiss case because they weren't asked with good intent and he didn't intend to answer them.

Two Congressmen Attack Him

Two more members of Congress, a Republican and a Democrat, today joined in the criticism of Acheson because of his stand. They spoke at a broadcast forum in Columbus, Ohio.

Representative Vorys (R., Ohio) said Acheson is an old friend of his, but "I intend to turn a cold shoulder on him until he explains where he stands on disloyalty in his department and on perjury and treason."

Representative Richards (D., S.C.) agreed that Acheson should clarify his position, and he added: "The least Acheson could have said was 'no comment.'"

Acheson And Hiss Old Friends

Acheson and Hiss are old friends. The Secretary told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee a year ago, when Hiss was under indictment, that his friendship was not lightly given nor lightly withdrawn.

Hiss was sentenced to five years in prison on two counts of perjury for denying that he ever gave confidential State Department papers to Whittaker Chambers, who testified he was a former courier for a Communist spy ring.

RUSSIANS MAY HAVE H-BOMB

Expert Says Probably They Are Ahead Of U.S.

Chicago, Jan. 29 (AP)—An atomic scientist suggested today that Russia may be ahead of the United States in building a hydrogen bomb.

Discussing the H-bomb, estimated to be 1,000 times more powerful than the conventional atomic bomb, Prof Harrison C. Brown, of the University of Chicago, said:

"In the presence of the cold war, in the absence of anything approaching a stable peace, there is little reason to believe that the Russians will not build such a bomb.

Own Progress Slow

"Indeed, if the Russians have already made the decision to proceed with this development, then they are probably ahead of us, for our own progress in new developments has certainly been much slower than it was during the war."

Professor Brown spoke on the University of Chicago round-table broadcast.

"One need only point to the fact that a very large percentage of the most famous physical scientists in America were employed on the bomb project during the war. Almost none of these men are now in full time employment with the atomic energy commission," he said.

Professor Brown said "there is absolutely no reason to believe that the Russians cannot build such a bomb. . . .

Possess Basic Knowledge

"Clearly the scientists of the Soviet Union possess basic knowledge that is necessary; and the directions that must be taken to produce such a bomb are so obvious that it is inconceivable that the Soviet scientists cannot see clearly the steps to be taken."

He declared that "even while we worry about whether we should make such a bomb, we must face the question whether a military defense is meaningful any more.

"What happens to armaments superiority if even the weaker nations can completely destroy the stronger?

"It seems clear to many of us that the decision whether or not to make such a bomb is primarily a decision that should be made by the American public, in full knowledge and understanding of the facts and terrible potentialities."

Professor Brown said that "limitations of secrecy have prevented full discussion of this bomb by those scientists who know most about it."

YALE EXPERT ASKS CHINA RECOGNITION

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 29—A Yale university faculty member tonight called for recognition of Communist China as part of a "realistic" U. S. policy for Asia.

Failure to acknowledge China's new government, John F. Embree asserted, has left the U. S. in "the awkward position of being left behind by India and England to become a focus for Russian and Chinese attacks on us as a country allied with a discredited reactionary government."

Mr. Embree outlined a four-point policy to "implement a positive and dynamic program" for Asia. He proposed recognition of China's new government "as soon as we can decently do so and preserve our dignity."

The other points in Mr. Embree's program are:

2—Lending U. S. support to basic social and economic reforms in Southeast Asia as has been done in Japan; 3—broadening the base of the U. S. Point IV economic aid proposals to include attention to special social problems of each area; and 4—cooperating in building up the strength of the UN in the solution of international problems.

Mr. Embree, who is the director of Southeast Asia Graduate Studies at Yale, discussed the problem of Asia in a radio program, "Yale Interprets the News."

"The basic issue in Asia countries is not communism," Mr. Embree declared. "It is a complex of a recation against western influences, political and economic, and a dire need for internal economic reforms.

"A realistic policy must be positive and give a creative ideology which helps solve internal problems by giving peoples in Asiatic countries more of a share in the results of their labors. They want security of income and a home with some security of occupancy."

Mr. Embree said that in general the U. S. State department has been following a realistic policy in Asia. He added that the "only legitimate criticism" that can be levelled against the State department is the "slowness" with which it keeps the U. S. public informed on its knowledge of affairs in the different parts of Asia."

The White Paper on China, he said, is an example of the State department's slowness. It would not have been such a shock to the public and to Congress had important parts of it been made known soon after the events occurred. Congress might have given more support to our recent policy in China and "we would probably have recognized the new government in China by now."

CHINESE REDS RAP U.S. AIDE AS SPY

Say Hard-Riding Vice Consul Sought Bandits' Support

San Francisco, Jan. 29 (AP)—The American vice consul in China's Wild West was accused by the Communists today of being a hard riding "spy" who sought to organize the bandits of the Sinkiang wilderness.

This latest Communist propaganda attack on United States diplomats charged that Douglas S. Mackiernan "has been exposed as an espionage agent" by three White Russian confederates who surrendered to the Reds.

The broadcast from Peiping by the official New China News Agency was heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press.

It alleged that Mackiernan had disappeared into India after a month-long series of horseback travels over hundreds of miles to assorted "bandit" lairs in the wild back country. Mackiernan is from Stoughton, Mass.

The Communist story was without confirmation.

Trying To Leave China

[In Washington, State Department officials called the report the "usual fantastic yarn." These officials said Mackiernan left his post at Tihwa, under Washington orders to get out, barely ahead of the Communist forces.

[The department said that was some weeks after he had been left in charge of the consulate last September. The exact date was not at hand today.

[The last report the department had was that Mackiernan was trying to get out of China by the hazardous route over the Himalayas toward India. There was no report in Washington to indicate that he had gotten across the border.]

When Consul J. Hall Paxton, of Danville, Va., was ordered to leave his post at Tihwa, Sinkiang, last August, he left Mackiernan in charge. Since then, all American officials have been ordered by the State Department to quit Communist China.

Visited "Bandit" Lair

Paxton, Mrs. Paxton and Vice Consul Robert Dreessen, of St. Louis, reached India last October after an arduous trip afoot and horseback over the Himalayas.

The Communist broadcast asserted that Paxton himself had visited one "bandit" lair last March and July, "giving instructions to the bandits" on both occasions.

Last September 28, the broadcast continued, Mackiernan, with Frank B. Besson, an American student; Vasilii Zvantsoff, a White Russian; and two other White Russians, left Tihwa in a jeep with two radio sets.

The broadcast noted that this was the day the Sinkiang Nationlist forces switched to the Communist side.

"Zvantsoff," it said, "was the right-hand man of the bandit chief Wusman and had been learning secret radio communications from Mackiernan since February, 1949."

Recruited White Russians

The account said the men abandoned their jeep in the mountains near Fuyan, 100 miles east of Tihwa, recruited some local White Russian "bandits," and on horseback rode north to Sarkamushi, near the Outer Mongolian border.

There, it said, they met Wusman, then rode more than 200 miles east to Barkol (Chesi), joining the "bandit chiefs" Janimkhan and Sultan.

"Mackiernan spoke emphatically to the bandits on how to undermine the democratic work of the Chinese peaple," said the Peiping story. "He instructed Wusman, Janimkhan and other bandits to continue opposing the People's Government of Sinkiang and guaranteed that the United States would render them assistance.

"Mackiernan told them they should accumulate their forces for the present to wait for the outbreak of the third world war."

Arranged For "Students"

The account said Mackiernan gave the bandits 25 taels of gold (a variable weight that would roughly approximate $1,000), arranged for three young men to follow him to America "to study" and to return to Sinkiang to fight "when the third world war breaks out."

Mackiernan then was said to have been presented fourteen horses and escorted more than 300 miles south to the Lop Nor region to spy out a possible retreat route on his way to India.

MARSHALL PLAN

BY CARL HARTMAN

PARIS, JAN. 29-(AP)-EUROPEAN LEADERS HAVE TURNED DOWN PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PLAN TO PUT PAUL-HENRI SPAAK, FORMER BELGIAN PREMIER IN CHARGE OF UNIFYING WESTERN EUROPEAN ECONOMY, IT WAS LEARNED AUTHORITATIVELY TONIGHT.

DESPITE BRITISH DENIALS, IT IS BELIEVED HERE THAT BRITISH OPPOSITION PARTICULARLY KILLED SPAAK'S CHANCES TO BE CHAIRMAN OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC), THE EUROPEAN GROUP WHICH ADMINISTERS MARSHALL AID UNDER THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PLAN.

SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS, BRITISH CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER, WAS REPORTED TO HAVE OPPOSED CREATING SUCH A CHAIRMANSHIP OR NAMING SPAAK TO IT. MR. TRUMAN'S ENDORSEMENT APPEARED TO STIFFEN THE OPPOSITION.

JAN 30 1950

30.24- 8601

JAN 30 1950

CREATION OF THE POST HAD BEEN SUGGESTED AT A MEETING OF THE OEEC "CONSULTATIVE GROUP" OF CABINET MINISTERS FROM EIGHT COUNTRIES IN THE ORGANIZATION. SPAAK SAID IN WASHINGTON JAN.18, AFTER A CONFERENCE WITH PRES.TRUMAN, THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD URGED HIM TO TAKE THE POST. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON REPEATED THE URGING A DAY LATER.

MOST EUROPEAN LEADERS WERE ASTONISHED AND MANY WERE RESENTFUL, INFORMANTS SAID. THE OEEC GROUPS THE 18 AREAS RECEIVING AMERICAN AID BUT THE UNITED STATES IS NOT A MEMBER.

BASIS OF OPPOSITION TO SPAAK IS SAID TO BE BASED ON HIS BUSINESS PRACTICES IN BELGIUM AND IS NOT PERSONAL.

UNDER HIS LEADERSHIP, BELGIUM BECAME EUROPE'S CLASSIC EXAMPLE OF POSTWAR RECOVERY BY DROPPING CONTROLS AND GIVING BUSINESS A VIRTUALLY FREE HAND. THE BRITISH, AND THE SCANDINAVIANS, BELIEVE IN CONTROLS. THEY FEAR HIS PRACTICES WOULD INFLUENCE THEIR COUNTRIES.

THEY POINT OUT THAT LAST SPRING, AT THE END OF SPAAK'S TERM AS PREMIER, BELGIAN UNEMPLOYMENT WAS WELL OVER 200,000 IN A POPULATION OF 8,500,000.

AIDES OF MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN SAID HE STILL WANTED AN OEEC CHAIRMAN TO STRENGTHEN THE ORGANIZATION SO IT CAN ABOLISH EUROPEAN TRADE BARRIERS AND UNIFY ECONOMY IN A DRIVE TOWARD FINANCIAL STABILITY BY JUNE, 1952 WHEN AMERICAN AID IS SCHEDULED TO END.

HOFFMAN CAME HERE LAST WEEK FOR ANOTHER MEETING OF THE CONSULTATIVE GROUP. INFORMANTS SAID HE WAS QUICKLY TOLD OF THE ATTITUDE OF EUROPEAN LEADERS TOWARD THE CHAIRMANSHIP PROPOSAL. THE MATTER WAS DISCUSSED AT NUMEROUS PRIVATE CONFERENCES. BUT AT FORMAL MEETINGS OF THE GROUP THURSDAY AND FRIDAY IT WAS NOT MENTIONED OFFICIALLY.

IF IT HAD BEEN, THE SOURCES POINTED OUT, HOFFMAN MIGHT HAVE SUFFERED THE EMBARRASSMENT OF HEARING MR.TRUMAN'S IDEA TURNED DOWN FLATLY.

SPAAK HAS ALWAYS STATED THAT HE COULD NOT SAY YES OR NO TO THE JOB UNTIL IT WAS CREATED AND OFFERED HIM.

Paris, Jan. 29--(ap)--Premier Georges Bidault said tonight he will introduce legislation regulating the right to strike.

The measure will go before the French parliament in about two months, he told the national committee of the Popular Republican Movement (MRP). The MRP is [redacted] Bidault's own left-of-center Catholic party.

The bill, the premier said, will not be directed against unions but against those who exploit them for political purposes. The French constitution guarantees the right to strike but provides the right may be regulated by law.

Transport Minister Christian Pineau announced in Parliament today that beginning tomorrow employes of state-owned railroads who refuse to [redacted] move national defense goods may be discharged.

Communists recently have urged railroad and dock workers not to handle munitions for Indochina or arms sent to France from the United States under the military aid program.

Pineau charged that the Soviet-led cominform at Bucharest recently planned the disorganization of the French transport system.

ROME, JAN. 29-(AP)-ITALY'S COMMUNIST LEADER PALMIRO TOGLIATTI SAID TODAY THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH WAS "INCREASING THE SUFFERINGS OF HUMANITY" BY SUPPORTING CAPITALISTIC REGIMES.

IN A FRONT-PAGE SIGNED EDITORIAL IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY DAILY, L'UNITA, TOGLIATTI SAID:

"THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT THE POSITION OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH LEADERS IN THE PRESENT SOCIAL STRUGGLE MAKES THE FIGHT MORE PAINFUL AND THE ROAD LONGER. IT PROLONGS THE LIFE OF A REGIME BOUND TO DISAPPEAR. IT INCREASES THE SUFFERINGS OF HUMANITY."

TOGLIATTI MAINTAINED THAT THE COMMUNISTS "DO NOT FIGHT RELIGION" BUT "WANT A PERMANENT COLLABORATION WITH ALL MEN OF GOOD WILL TO SUPPRESS SOCIAL INJUSTICES AND AVOID WAR."

BERLIN, JAN 29-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS SHOWED SOME SIGNS OF RELAXING THEIR RESTRICTIONS ON HIGHWAY TRUCK TRAFFIC AT THE HELMSTEDT BORDER TODAY.

THE FLOW OF TRUCKS WAS PERMITTED TO INCREASE FROM SNAIL TO TURTLE PACE.

ALLIED SOLDIERS ON THE WESTERN SIDE SAID THE SOVIET GUARDS APPARENTLY HAD ORDERS TO STEP UP TRAFFIC TO PERMIT ABOUT TEN TRUCKS AN HOUR TO GO THROUGH. THIS IS ONE-THIRD OF NORMAL BUT 100 PERCENT BETTER THAN THE RATE THAT HAD BEEN ESTABLISHED BY SLOW-DOWN TACTICS LAST WEEK.

THE "SPEED-UP" STARTED LAST NIGHT WITH NO MORE EXPLANATION OR PATTERN THAN THE ORIGINAL SLOW-DOWN. IT SERVED TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF WAITING TRUCKS ON THE WESTERN SIDE FROM 225 TO ABOUT 100.

THE BRITISH ZONE NEWSPAPER DIE WELT REPORTED FROM LUEBECK THAT THE SOVIETS INTEND TO RESTORE TRAFFIC TO NORMAL THIS WEEK.

BERLIN, MONDAY, JAN. 30-(AP)-THE RUSSIANS ALTERNATELY PLAYED A TOUGH AND LENIENT GAME DURING THE NIGHT IN THEIR JUNIOR BLOCKADE OF BERLIN-BOUND TRUCK TRAFFIC FROM THE WEST.

EARLY TODAY THEY BOOSTED THEIR TRUCK CLEARANCES TO EIGHT AN HOUR AT THE HELMSTEDT CHECKPOINT ON THE BRITISH-RUSSIAN ZONAL BORDER, WESTERN OFFICIALS SAID. BEFORE MIDNIGHT THE FLOW WAS CUT SUDDENLY TUDDENLY TO FIVE AN HOUR, AFTER THE RUSSIANS HAD LET THROUGH 10 AN HOUR FOR THE PREVIOUS 20 HOURS./

BERLIN, JAN. 29-(AP)-PROF. HUGO HICKMAN, CHAIRMAN OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT PARTY (CDU) IN THE RUSSIAN ZONE STATE OF SAXONY, HAS "VOLUNTARILY" RESIGNED ALL PARTY FUNCTIONS, HIS PARTY ANNOUNCED TODAY.

HICKMAN'S RESIGNATION CAME APPARENTLY AS A RESULT OF STRONG COMMUNIST PRESSURE. HE HAD BEEN A PROMINENT TARGET DURING THE LAST WEEK IN AN EAST ZONE COMMUNIST CAMPAIGN TO DESTROY INDEPENDENT LEADERSHIP OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS.

COMMUNISTS HAVE STAGED WORKER DEMONSTRATIONS IN SEVERAL EAST GERMAN STATES RECENTLY AND UNSEATED CDU LEADERS FROM GOVERNMENT AND PARTY POSTS AFTER CHARGING THEM WITH HOSTILITY TO RUSSIA AND WITH "REACTIONARY TENDENCIES."

NIGHT LEAD GERMAN

BY DANIEL DE LUCE

BERLIN, JAN. 28-(AP)-THE GESTAPO IS RETURNING TO EAST GERMANY--THIS TIME TO PROTECT COMMUNISM.

COMMUNISTS ARE DEMANDING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A MINISTRY OF STATE SECURITY AT THE NEXT MEETING, FEB. 8, OF THE VOLKSKAMMER (PEOPLE'S CHAMBER) OF THE SOVIET ZONE REPUBLIC. THEIR CONTROL OF THE CHAMBER ASSURES PASSAGE.

THE CORE OF THE NEW MINISTRY WILL BE A SECRET STATE POLICE SYSTEM RIVALLING THE DREADED GEHEIME STAATSPOLIZEI--GESTAPO FOR SHORT--WHICH NAZI HEINRICH HIMMLER CREATED IN THE 1930S.

ERICH MIELKE, AN OLD-TIME COMMUNIST WHO IS NOW AN INSPECTOR GENERAL IN THE INTERIOR MINISTRY, ALREADY HAS BEEN APPOINTED TO HEAD THE NEW FORCE. HE HAS BEEN A KEY POLICE OFFICIAL IN EAST GERMANY SINCE 1945. HE RETURNED THAT YEAR TO HIS HOMELAND AFTER 14 YEARS IN RUSSIA AS A FUGITIVE IN CONNECTION WITH A POLITICAL SLAYING IN BERLIN.

OFFICIAL EAST GERMAN SOURCES INDICATED TONIGHT THE NEW FORCE WILL COORDINATE ALL POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES IN THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC.

ITS SURVEILLANCE WILL INCLUDE FACTORIES ENGAGED IN THE TWO-YEAR PLAN, POLITICAL MOVEMENTS AND EDUCATION. IT WILL ENGAGE IN "DEFENSIVE OPERATIONS" AGAINST ALLEGED SABOTAGE BY PRO-WESTERN WORKERS, PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND TEACHERS.

7 THE SOVIET ZONE ALREADY HAS THE DEATH SENTENCE AS PUNISHMENT FOR CONVICTED ECONOMIC SABOTEURS.

THE COMMUNIST MOVE TO MAKE EAST GERMANY A POLICE STATE IN FACT AS WELL AS IN IDEOLOGY IS ACCOMPANIED BY A SLASHING ATTACK ON INDEPENDENT FIGURES IN THE TWO NON-COMMUNIST PARTIES OF THE AREA, THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC UNION (CDU) AND THE LIBERAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY (LDP).

JAN 30 1950

MORE THAN A DOZEN CDU LEADERS ARE BEING FORCED FROM PUBLIC OFFICE IN SAXONY, BRANDENBURG, AND MECKLENBURG. SEVERAL LDP OFFICIALS ARE LIKEWISE FACING REMOVAL.

COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS FRANKLY ASSERT THAT THE TWO "BOURGEOIS" PARTIES WILL BE PURGED OF "REACTIONARY ELEMENTS." THESE HAVE RESISTED PRESSURE FOR A COMMUNIST-NAMED SINGLE LIST OF CANDIDATES IN THE STATE'S FIRST ELECTION NEXT OCT.15.

THE SOVIET SLOW-DOWN ON BERLIN HIGHWAY TRAFFIC WITH WESTERN GERMANY DRAGGED THROUGH ITS SIXTH DAY TODAY. RUSSIAN GUARDS ALLOWED AS MANY AS 10 TRUCKS AN HOUR TO PASS THEIR CHECKPOINT AT HELMSTEDT, ON THE AUTOBAHN 100 MILES WEST OF BERLIN, COMPARED TO A RATE OF TWO AN HOUR EARLIER THIS WEEK. RUMORS CIRCULATED THAT THE SLOW-DOWN MIGHT BE ABANDONED DURING THE WEEKEND.

BY NIGHTFALL, THE WAITING LINE AT HELMSTEDT HAD DWINDLED TO 128 BERLIN-BOUND TRUCKS, ONLY HALF THE NUMBER TIED UP YESTERDAY. WEST GERMAN OFFICIALS SAID THE BACKLOG MIGHT BE CLEARED DURING THE NIGHT.

JAN 30 1950

ALLIED OBSERVERS GUESSED THAT SOVIET AUTHORITIES WERE JUST ABOUT CONTENT WITH THE IRRITATION, EXPENSE AND CHAGRIN WHICH THE SIX-DAY SLOW-DOWN HAD CAUSED THE WESTERN POWERS AND WEST BERLIN.

BY RELAXING THEIR RESTRICTIONS, THE RUSSIANS COULD NOW AVOID A HEAD-ON CLASH WITH THE WEST IN WHICH THE LATTER MIGHT INVOKE ECONOMIC REPRISALS AGAINST THE EAST ZONE.

IN BERLIN, THE EAST REPUBLIC'S INFORMATION CHIEFTAIN, GERHART EISLER, STARTED A SERIES OF STREET RALLIES ON THE SOVIET-FRENCH SECTOR BOUNDARY THIS AFTERNOON. HE CALLED FOR AMERICANS, BRITISH AND FRENCH TO "GO HOME." TWO THOUSAND RED SYMPATHIZERS CHEERED. ACROSS THE STREET, 500 ANTI-COMMUNISTS YELLED, "BACK TO MOSCOW."

WEST AND EAST BERLIN POLICE COOPERATED TO PREVENT RIOTING.

EISLER'S MEETINGS ARE IN RETALIATION FOR THOSE BEGUN THIS WEEK BY ANTI-COMMUNIST SOCIALISTS OF WEST BERLIN ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF THE SOVIET SECTOR.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN.29-(AP)-A RIGHTWING WEST GERMAN PARTY WON A LOCAL ELECTION TODAY IN THE AMERICAN ZONE. ONE OF ITS LEADERS INVITED OTHER CONSERVATIVES TO JOIN WHAT HE DESCRIBED AS "OUR OPPOSITION TO THE SELLOUT" GOVERNMENT OF CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER.

THE RIGHTWING VICTORY OCCURRED IN THE RURAL COUNTY OF ZIEGENHAIN. THIS IS NEAR KASSEL, WHERE NEO-NATIONALISTS SINGING "DEUTSCHLAND UEBER ALLES," THE OLD IMPERIAL GERMAN NATIONAL ANTHEM, HAD GATHERED A WEEK AGO. THE ELECTION WAS WON BY THE FREE DEMOCRATIC PARTY (FDP), WHOSE NATIONAL BODY NOW FORMS PART OF ADENAUER'S COALITION GOVERNMENT.

PARTIES OF BOTH THE RIGHT AND LEFT HAVE CRITICIZED ADENAUER ON THE GROUND HE HAS BEEN OVERZEALOUS IN COOPERATING WITH THE WESTERN ALLIED OCCUPATION POWERS. OBSERVERS INTERPRETED THE FDP VICTORY AS REVEALING A GROWING CONSERVATISM AMONG WEST GERMANY'S RURAL POPULATION. HOWEVER, THE FDP IS NOT CONSIDERED AN EXTREME ANTI-ALLIED RIGHTWING GROUP LIKE ABOUT A DOZEN SMALL PARTIES IN WESTERN GERMANY.

LEONHARD SCHLUETER, AN FDP LEADER WHO PREDICTED OTHER CONSERVATIVES WOULD JOIN IN OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT, SAID HIS PARTY "REJECTS EVERY FORM OF PARLIAMENTARY PARTY DEMOCRACY."

WILLI SCHLUETER WAS MAKING STATEMENTS TERMED "NEO-NATIONALIST" BY ALLIED OBSERVERS, OTHER SMALL RIGHTWING GROUPS WERE SHOPPING AROUND FOR SUPPORT. AT WIESBADEN, IN THE AMERICAN ZONE STATE OF HESSE, A STATE FACTION OF THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO FORM A COMMON FRONT WITH THREE OTHER EXTREMIST PARTIES.

ALLIED OBSERVERS, WATCHING THE MANEUVERS OF THE EXTREME RIGHTISTS, SAID TONIGHT:

"THEY ARE ALL GOING AROUND, TESTING THEIR STRENGTH, LOOKING FOR ONE PARTY TO LEAD ALL BUT ALL WANTING TO BE THE LEADER."

HE DECLARED IN AN INTERVIEW AT HIS HEADQUARTERS THAT NATIONALIST AGENTS ON THE MAINLAND REPORTED THE SHIPMENTS TO THE FORCES OF HO CHI-MINH'S SELF-STYLED "VIET-NAM REPUBLIC". HSUEH STATED EMPATICALLY THAT HE REGARDED THESE REPORTS AS ACCURATE.

"THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS PREFER TO INVADE INDOCHINA, BURMA AND SIAM BEFORE THEY INVADE THIS ISLAND," HE ASSERTED.

(THE HAINAN DEFENSE OFFICE ON FORMOSA, HOWEVER, SAID AT THE SAME TIME THAT THE REDS HAD MASSED 5,000 JUNKS AND 100,000 TO 200,000 MEN FOR AN INVASION OF HAINAN. ON JAN.18 HSUEH HIMSELF SAID AN INVASION OF HAINAN HAD BEEN RENDERED "IMPOSSIBLE" BY DESTRUCTION OF RED JUNKS.)

HSUEH DECLARED THE REDS "ARE IN CRITICAL NEED OF THE ABUNDANT FOOD OF INDOCHINA." HE DID NOT, HOWEVER, SAY THAT THE CHINESE REDS HAD CROSSED THE BORDER, AS THE OFFICIAL NATIONAL NEWS AGENCY HAS TWICE REPORTED AND THE FRENCH HAVE TWICE DENIED IN THE PAST WEEK.

HSUEH SAID RED TROOPS WERE MOVING TROOPS TO THE BORDER. THIS WAS BASED ON REPORTS OF BOATMEN WHO CAME TO HAINAN AFTER THE COMMUNISTS CONFISCATED THEIR JUNKS.

THE BEST-INFORMED NEUTRAL OBSERVERS AMONG THE HANDFUL OF FOREIGNERS LIVING ON HAINAN SAID THERE WAS LITTLE ACCURATE INFORMATION ON INDOCHINA BORDER CONDITIONS. THEY SPECULATED THAT WHATEVER AID THE CHINESE REDS MAY BE GIVING HO CHI-MINH MAY BE OF A TOKEN NATURE FOR LOCAL PROPAGANDA EFFECT.

SUCH A MOVE WOULD LINE UP WEST JAVA AS WELL AS EAST JAVA UNDER SUPREME AUTHORITY OF THE USI. BOTH AREAS WERE CARVED FROM INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN TERRITORY BY THE DUTCH BEFORE THEY GRANTED INDEPENDENCE FOR THE USI A MONTH AGO.

WEST JAVA IS IN THE MIDST OF A CABINET CRISIS AND IS THREATENED BY ATTACKS FROM FORMER DUTCH COMMANDO CAPTAIN R.P.P. "TURK" WESTERLING'S OUTLAWED BAND OF INDONESIAN DESERTERS.

LOCAL NEWSPAPERS QUOTED WIRANA TAKUSUMAH, HEAD OF THE WEST JAVA STATE, AS SAYING THAT HE COULD NOT ACCEPT THE RESIGNATION OF PREMIER ANWAR TJOKROAMINOTO'S GOVERNMENT, ANNOUNCED LAST FRIDAY. BANGKOK, THAILAND, JAN. 29-(AP)-AN OUTBREAK OF "COUP FEVER" KEPT MANY THAI POLITICIANS UNDER COVER TODAY. THEY DIDN'T WANT TO GET MIXED UP IN A REVOLT PLOT THAT WAS CRUSHED YESTERDAY.

PREMIER PIBUL SONGGRAM CRACKED DOWN ON AN INNER PALACE PLOT TO SEIZE POWER BY EXILING LT. GEN. LUANG KACH SONGGRAM, DEPUTY COMMANDER OF THE THAI ARMY. SEVEN OTHER HIGH RANKING OFFICERS WERE ARRESTED.

THE QUICK ARREST AND EXPULSION OF KACH TIGHTENED THE PREMIER'S GRIP ON THE MILITARY. PIBUL "PEITED" LT. GEN. PHIN CHUN-HAVAN, ARMY COMMANDER N CHIEF, JAN. 3 ALONG WITH A HIGH RANKING AIR FORCE OFFICER AND AN ADMIRAL.

IT MUST BE EMPHASIZED THAT THE JOCKEYING FOR POWER THAT HAS BEEN GOING ON HERE FOR A LONG TIME IS STRICTLY INNER PALACE MANEUVERING. IT IS NO WAY INVOLVES ANY COMMUNIST THREAT TO THE COUNTRY'S STABILITY.

THAILAND HAS RECENTLY BECOME A KEY PROPAGANDA TARGET FOR THE CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO. PIBUL'S GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN CHARGED WITH JAILING AND KILLING CHINESE NATIONALS LIVING IN THIS COUNTRY. HIGH THAI OFFICIALS DENIED THE PEIPING RADIO CHARGES.

PIBUL HAS BEEN REMOVING OPPOSITION LEADERS FROM GOVERNMENT RANKS FOR MONTHS. HE HAS SUPPRESSED SEVERAL REVOLT ATTEMPTS, MOST OF THEM AS THIS ONE--BEFORE THEY GOT STARTED.

DEFENSE

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON, JAN. 30-(AP)-SECRETARY OF DEFENSE JOHNSON SOBERLY CAUTIONED TONIGHT THAT AN ATTACK ON THIS COUNTRY "COULD COME FROM THE OPPOSITE HEMISPHERE WITHOUT WARNING AND WITH UNPREDICTABLE FURY."

HE PUT THIS WARNING INTO HIS FIRST ANNUAL REPORT, IN WHICH HE NOTED PARENTHETICALLY THAT RUSSIA NOW HAS THE SECRET OF ATOMIC EXPLOSIVES.

BUT AT ANOTHER POINT JOHNSON EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT THE PROSPECT OF WAR IS DIMINISHING, DESPITE THE RUSSIAN ATTITUDE. HE WROTE:

"WHILE WE MUST RECOGNIZE THE BITTER TRUTH THAT THERE CAN BE NO REAL PEACE AND SECURITY SO LONG AS OUR FREE WORLD IS BLIGHTED BY THE SINISTER SHADOW OF AN AGGRESSIVE TOTALITARIAN POWER WHICH HAS PERSISTENTLY REFUSED TO COOPERATE WITH ITS DEMOCRATIC NEIGHBORS AND WHICH HAS REPEATEDLY DEMONSTRATED HOSTILITY TO OUR FORM OF GOVERNMENT X X X WE HAVE GOOD REASON TO BELIEVE THAT THE PROSPECTS OF AVERTING ANOTHER WORLD CONFLICT ARE STEADILY IMPROVING."

THE MILITARY STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES, HE DECLARED, HAS MUCH TO DO WITH DISCOURAGING A VENTURE INTO A SHOOTING WAR BY AN AGGRESSOR NATION.

JAN 30 1950

JOHNSON, WHO ON OCCASIONS HAS BEEN REPORTED AT ODDS WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT OVER DIPLOMATIC-MILITARY POLICY, SAID THERE HAS BEEN AN "INTIMATE UNIFICATION OF SEPARATE LINES OF GOVERNMENTAL ACTIVITY IN THE FORMULATION AND CONDUCT OF FOREIGN POLICY."

THIS, HE SAID, HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED THROUGH THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL "WHICH BRINGS TO BEAR ON FUNDAMENTAL PROBLEMS THE CONSIDERED JUDGMENT OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT" AND OTHER AGENCIES.

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE FOOTNOTE REFERENCE TO THE RUSSIAN A-BOMB ANNOUNCEMENT BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN LAST SEPTEMBER, JOHNSON'S REPORT COVERS THE FISCAL YEAR WHICH ENDED LAST JUNE 30. THUS REPORTS ON EXPENDITURES, MILITARY STRENGTH AND OTHER FACTORS ARE OUTDATED BY SUBSEQUENTLY PUBLISHED INFORMATION.

THE REPORT ALSO CONTAINED THE REPORTS OF THE THREE ARMED FORCES MADE BY SECRETARY OF THE ARMY GRAY, SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS AND SECRETARY OF THE AIR FORCE SYMINGTON. THIS IN ITSELF, JOHNSON CLAIMED, WAS AN "EXAMPLE OF UNIFICATION."

WITHOUT DISCUSSING DETAILS OF THE BITTER QUARREL WHICH BROKE OUT LAST SPRING AND STILL GOES ON BETWEEN SOME NAVY ADMIRALS AND THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT AND AIR FORCE, JOHNSON ASSERTED:

"I DO NOT DISCOUNT THE DAMAGE DONE TO UNIFICATION OF THE ARMED FORCES BY INTERSERVICE CONTROVERSIES. AT THE SAME TIME, I BELIEVE THAT THE EXTENT OF THESE CONFLICTS HAS BEEN EXAGGERATED. I FURTHER BELIEVE THAT PREPONDERANT NUMBERS IN ALL THE SERVICES APPRECIATE THE NEED FOR UNIFICATION, AND, IN ACTUALITY, UNIFICATION OF THE ARMED FORCES IS AN ACCOMPLISHED FACT TODAY IN MANY AREAS OF ACTIVITY."

A139(CQ)WX

THEN, IN OBVIOUS REFERENCE TO SUCH INCIDENTS AS THE WRANGLE OVER THE AIR FORCE'S B-36 BOMBER AND THE NAVY'S ROLE IN THE NATIONAL DEFENSE PICTURE WHICH RESULTED IN THE OUSTER OF ADMIRAL LOUIS DENFELD AS CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, JOHNSON WROTE:

30.24- 8609

"HONEST DIFFERENCES OF VIEWPOINT EXIST AMONG COMPETENT OFFICERS AS TO THE PART EACH SERVICE SHOULD HAVE IN THE DEFENSE OF THE NATION. THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO BE HEARD AND TO HAVE THEIR VIEWS CAREFULLY WEIGHED. BUT ONCE THE DECISION IS MADE WE HAVE A RIGHT TO EXPECT THAT IT WILL BE CARRIED OUT UNGRUDGINGLY."

THESE DECISIONS ARE BASED ON THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WHICH INCLUDES COMMANDERS OF THE THREE ARMED FORCES, UNDER THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF GEN. OMAR BRADLEY.

WHEN JOHNSON MADE IT EVIDENT HE BELIEVES THE TRADITIONAL UNANIMOUS AGREEMENT BY THE JOINT CHIEFS NO LONGER IS NECESSARY, SPEAKING OF HIS DECISION TO CANCEL CONSTRUCTION OF THE SUPERCARRIER UNITED STATES, A $188,000,000, 65,200-TON FLATTOP, JOHNSON SAID:

"THE JOINT CHIEFS DID NOT REACH UNANIMOUS AGREEMENT BUT THE MAJORITY FAVORED ABANDONMENT OF THE PROJECT." (DENFELD THEN WAS A MEMBER OF THE JOINT CHIEFS. JOHN L. SULLIVAN, FORMER NAVY SECRETARY, RESIGNED IN PROTEST AGAINST THE DECISION.)

ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC MILITARY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM AND BROAD STRATEGY TO IMPLEMENT IT, HERE ARE SOME OF THE THINGS JOHNSON HAD TO SAY:

1. HE DOES "NOT FORESEE IMMEDIATE AND SPECTACULAR RESULTS UPON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE (ATLANTIC) PACT ORGANIZATION OR UPON IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS YEAR'S AID PROGRAMS. WE ARE A MEMBER OF AN ORGANIZATION WHICH CAN ONLY PRODUCE RESULTS AS IT GAINS EXPERIENCE AND FOSTERS MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING AMONG ITS MEMBERS."

2. "SHOULD WESTERN EUROPE BE OVERRUN BY A HOSTILE POWER AND SHOULD ITS VAST INDUSTRIAL AND MANPOWER POTENTIALS BE ADDED TO THOSE OF SUCH AN AGGRESSOR, THE UNITED STATES WOULD STAND ISOLATED IN A DANGEROUSLY INSECURE POSITION. X X X IN THE EVENT THAT THE UNITED STATES IS INVOLVED IN HOSTILITIES, THE ARMED FORCES OF WESTERN EUROPE, OPERATING UNDER INTEGRATED PLANS FOR ITS DEFENSE, MUST BE ABLE TO HOLD THE LINES OF COLLECTIVE DEFENSE OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA DURING THE TIME THAT WOULD BE REQUIRED FOR THE UNITED STATES TO MOBILIZE, EQUIP, TRAIN, AND TRANSPORT OUR OWN TROOPS ACROSS THE ATLANTIC OCEAN."

THE REPORTS

WX JM1141PCS

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON--FIRST ADD DEFENSE X X X ATLANTIC OCEAN."

THE REPORTS GAVE SOME HINTS OF HOW MATTERS ARE GOING IN THE NORTHERN BASTION, ALASKA, AND THE WHOLE ARCTIC DEFENSE PERIMETER.

ARMY SECRETARY GRAY REPORTED TROOP STRENGTH IN ALASKA LAST JUNE 30 WAS 6,300. (IT HAS SINCE GROWN TO ABOUT 8,000.) THE COMBAT FORCE WAS MADE UP OF A SINGLE BATTALION OF AN INFANTRY REGIMENT AND ONE ANTIAIRCRAFT BATTALION. HE DISCLOSED THREE MORE ANTIAIRCRAFT BATTALIONS AND ANOTHER INCREMENT OF INFANTRY WERE EARMARKED FOR PERMANENT STATION IN ALASKA, BUT STILL ARE IN THE STATES BECAUSE NO HOUSING IS AVAILABLE.

NAVY SECRETARY MATTHEWS GAVE BRIEF GLIMPSES OF SOME NEW PLANS FOR THE SEA SERVICE IN THE ARCTIC ZONE, BEYOND WHICH LIES RUSSIA. HE SPOKE OF AN LSD (LANDING SHIP, DOCK) BEING EQUIPPED FOR POLAR WORK, AND SAID IT IS CAPABLE OF LAUNCHING "SUBSTANTIAL NUMBERS OF AMPHIBIOUS CRAFT IN SUBFREEZING AREAS." LANDING CRAFT AND AMPHIBIOUS TANKS HAVE BEEN EQUIPPED FOR SUCH ARCTIC OPERATIONS, MATTHEWS SAID. (SOME STRATEGISTS HAVE CONTENDED THAT THE SHORT ROUTE TO RUSSIA, FOR SURFACE ATTACK AS WELL AS BOMBING PLANES, IS THROUGH THE ARCTIC TO THE SIBERIAN COAST.)

ON THE DEFENSIVE SIDE OF THE ARCTIC PICTURE, THE NAVY REPORT SHOWED ATTENTION BEING GIVEN TO A MATTER LONG DISTURBING STRATEGISTS--TRANSPORTATION TO THE REMOTE BUT HIGHLY VALUABLE OIL FIELDS NEAR POINT BARROW, ON THE NORTH COAST OF ALASKA. THE NAVY REPORT SAID AN ICEBREAKER AND SEVERAL CARGO SHIPS HAVE BEEN OPERATING IN THE AREA, STUDYING "VARIOUS ASPECTS OF THE LOGISTIC SUPPORT" OF THE NAVY'S PETROLEUM RESERVE NEAR POINT BARROW.

IN HIS REPORT, AIR SECRETARY SYMINGTON REAFFIRMED THE BELIEF OF THE USAF THAT "FROM A PURELY MILITARY STANDPOINT, 70 GROUPS OR ITS EQUIVALENT (NOW 67 GROUPS) IS NECESSARY FOR THE MINIMUM PEACETIME SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES."

BUT SYMINGTON SAID "IT IS OUR EARNEST DESIRE TO SUPPORT THE ADMINISTRATION'S BUDGET BECAUSE WE REALIZE THAT ECONOMIC DISASTER COULD BE EQUIVALENT TO MILITARY DISASTER." (PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS ORDERED A 43-GROUP AIR FORCE, TO WHICH THE USAF HAS NOW REDUCED ITS STRENGTH. HOWEVER, THE SIZE OF SOME GROUPS HAS BEEN INCREASED.)

SYMINGTON'S REPORT, AND AN ACCOMPANYING ONE BY GEN. HOYT VANDENBERG, CHIEF OF STAFF, SET FORTH ARGUMENTS FOR LONG RANGE STRATEGIC BOMBING BY THE B-36S AND BY MEDIUM BOMBERS REFUELED WHILE IN FLIGHT--STRATEGY WHICH HAS BEEN HOTLY CHALLENGED FROM NAVY QUARTERS.

JAN 30 1950

A195WX

THEIR REPORT SAID THE YEAR'S ACTIVITY WAS HIGHLIGHTED "BY FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS OF THE CAPACITY TO CONDUCT VERY-LONG-RANGE BOMBING OPERATIONS--THEREBY PROVIDING AGAINST THE CONTINGENCY THAT SUITABLE OVERSEAS BASES MIGHT NOT BE AVAILABLE AT THE OUTSET OF ANY POSSIBLE FUTURE HOSTILITIES."

THE REPORT DISCLOSED THE AIR FORCE IS EXPERIMENTING WITH AERIAL REFUELING OF THREE FIGHTER PLANES AT ONE TIME FROM A SINGLE TANKER PLANE. IT DID NOT SAY WHETHER THE FIGHTERS ARE JETS OR CONVENTIONAL-ENGINED PLANES. A MAJOR TACTICAL PROBLEM, STILL UNSOLVED, IS PROVIDING JJET FIGHTERS WITH ENOUGH RANGE TO ESCORT THE LONG-DISTANCE BOMBERS.

B9WX (220) QUIRINO

WASHINGTON, JAN. 29-(AP)-PHILIPPINE SOURCES SAID TODAY THAT PRESIDENT ELPIDIO QUIRINO OF THE ISLAND REPUBLIC IS EXPECTED HERE THIS WEEK, PERHAPS AS EARLY AS TOMORROW IF HIS PHYSICAL CONDITION PERMITS.

THE PHILIPPINE PRESIDENT HAS BEEN IN BALTIMORE FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT.

TENTATIVE ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR HIM TO VISIT PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN THE WHITE HOUSE BUT OFFICIALS SAID NO DATE HAS BEEN SET. IT ALL DEPENDS ON HIS PHYSICAL PROGRESS.

REPORTS CIRCULATED IN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES THAT THE PHILIPPINES WOULD LIKE TO ARRANGE FOR ABOUT $100,000,000(M) IN AMERICAN CREDIT, LARGELY AS A STABILIZATION MEASURE.

OFFICIALS SPECULATED, HOWEVER, THAT THE TOP SUBJECT OF QUIRINO'S TALKS WITH MR. TRUMAN AND OTHERS IN THE ADMINISTRATION IS LIKELY TO BE A "POINT FOUR" PROGRAM IN THE ISLANDS.

PHILIP C.JESSUP, U.S. SPECIAL ROVING AMBASSADOR, MADE INQUIRIES IN MANILA RECENTLY ABOUT HOW MUCH COOPERATION THE FILIPINOS WOULD GIVE IF THIS COUNTRY DECIDED TO MAKE THE ISLANDS AN ORIENTAL SHOWPIECE FOR "POINT FOUR." JESSUP GOT ASSURANCES OF FULL BACKING.

"POINT FOUR" IS MR.TRUMAN'S PLAN FOR HELPING UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS ABROAD, LARGELY WITH AMERICAN TECHNICAL AID. IT DRAWS ITS NAME FROM ITS POSITION IN HIS TABULATION OF FOREIGN AIMS LAST YEAR.

IN CONNECTION WITH THE REPORT OF PHILIPPINE DESIRE FOR A STABILIZATION CREDIT, PHILIPPINE FINANCE MINISTER PIO PEDROSA HAS BEEN MEETING WITH OFFICIALS HERE FOR SOME TIME. HE TOLD NEWSMEN LAST WEEK OF PLANS FOR HIGHER TAXES AND FOR DOLLAR-SAVING IMPORT REGULATIONS IN HIS COUNTRY. THAT WOULD FIT IN WITH A STABILIZATION PROGRAM.

COLUMBUS,O.,JAN.29-(AP)-TWO MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE TODAY AGREED THAT SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON "FACES NOTHING BUT TROUBLE" UNTIL HE CLEARS UP HIS STAND IN THE ALGER HISS CASE.

THEY WERE JOHN M.VORYS (R-OHIO) AND JAMES P.RICHARDS (D-SOUTH CAROLINA). THEY APPEARED ON THE COLUMBUS TOWN MEETING RADIO FORUM.

AFTER THE CONVICTION OF HISS FOR PERJURY, ACHESON SAID THAT "I DON'T INTEND TO TURN MY BACK ON ALGER HISS."

DESCRIBING ACHESON AS "AN OLD FRIEND OF MINE," VORYS SAID:

"I INTEND TO TURN A COLD SHOULDER ON HIM UNTIL HE EXPLAINS WHERE HE STANDS ON DISLOYALTY IN HIS DEPARTMENT AND ON PERJURY AND TREASON."

AGREEING CLARIFICATION SHOULD BE FORTHCOMING, RICHARDS SAID:

"THE LEAST ACHESON COULD HAVE SAID WAS 'NO COMMENT'."

THEY ALSO TALKED ON THE HYDROGEN BOMB. RICHARDS SAID HE THOUGHT THE BOMB SHOULD BE BUILT AND THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN, AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE ARMED FORCES, SHOULD MAKE THE DECISION.

VORYS SAID ANY DECISION TO BUILD THE BOMB SHOULD BE MADE IN CONGRESS. HE TOOK NO STAND ON WHETHER IT SHOULD BE BUILT.

Red A-Bombs Could Knock Out U.S. in 90 Seconds, Mundt Warns

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 — (AP) Sen. Karl Mundt (R.-S. D.) said today that Russia has a stockpile of atom bombs which could "knock out the United States in 90 seconds" in the event of war.

"We are living in a world where Russia is stockpiling atom bombs which, in effect, could be labelled 'made for the U.S.A.'" he said, adding:

"If dropped on 25 or 30 major cities, they could knock out the United States in 90 seconds. This is no longer a fantastic proposition."

Mundt, a member of the Senate investigations committee, addressed the American Legion's "All-American Conference of National Organizations United Against Communism." Today's session was the last of a two-day meeting.

While the Soviets go ahead building up their supply of A-bombs, the United States is "doing nothing more than mildly deploring it," he said.

"Through Communists from within," Mundt said, the Red atom bombs could be strategically placed in check-rooms, factories and other places throughout the country.

The conference was attended by more than 100 delegates representing 57 national organizations. ADD

THEY ENDED THE MEETING BY APPROVING A RESOLUTION DIRECTING GEORGE N.CRAIG, NATIONAL COMMANDER OF THE LEGION TO SET UP A COMMITTEE "TO ACT AS A CLEARING HOUSE AND INFORMATION CENTER" ON FIGHTING COMMUNISM.

THE COMMITTEE ALSO WAS INSTRUCTED TO COORDINATE THE WORK OF THE VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS AND ENLIST PUBLIC INTEREST, BUT WITHOUT TRYING TO "CONTROL OR SUPERVISE" THE VARIOUS GROUPS.

CRAIG THEN APPOINTED MUNDT AND THESE OTHERS TO THE COMMITTEE:

Russia Recognizes Rebel Regime In Indo-China, Spurned by U. S.

Ho Chi Minh's 'Republic' Accepted; Western States to Deal With Bao Dai, Backed by France

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Tuesday, Jan. 31.—The Soviet Union has recognized the rebel Viet Nam regime in French Indo-China, the Moscow radio announced today. Ho Chi Minh, leader of the rebels, is a Moscow-trained Communist. The French have opposed his regime with another Viet Nam government headed by Bao Dai, former Emperor of Annam.

The Moscow broadcast, recorded here by the Soviet monitor, said: "The U. S. S. R. has recognized the Republic of Viet Nam."

This statement came a few hours after a Washington announcement that Secretary of State Dean Acheson had sent greetings to Bao Dai.

The French Parliament Sunday ratified an agreement reached last March between French President Vincent Auriol and Bao Dai.

Diplomatic officials in London said yesterday that Britain will announce recognition of Bao Dai's government next week.

The United States probably will follow suit, since Mr. Acheson said in his greetings to the former Emperor that the United States "looks forward to establishing closer relationship" with his state. ADD

Recognition Due Bao Dai Regime

London, Jan. 30 (AP)—Britain will announce recognition of Bao Dai's regime in Indo-China in the next week or so, diplomatic officials said today.

Parallel action probably will be taken by the United States soon afterward, these sources said.

British recognition of Bao Dai will be de facto—an acceptance of the fact that his regime exists.

Full — or de jure — recognition will be given only when the British are satisfied that the newly formed regime can cope with the national revolutionary movement which has torn Indo-China ever since the Japanese occupation. ADD

PARIS, BONN SIGN A NEW TRADE PACT

$300,000,000 Goods Exchange Is Provided Within the Next Six Months

Courtney Sanderson

PARIS, Jan. 30 (AP)—France and Western Germany signed a pact today for the exchange of $300,000,000 worth of goods in the next six months.

A French Foreign Office statement said the real extent of trade that would result was not known, however, because the agreement provided that about 60 per cent of the ty. s of goods to be exchanged would be free of all government controls.

Baron Vollrath von Maltzan, the economist who signed for Western Germany, described the agreement as "decisive progress toward the Marshall Plan goal for trade liberalization in Europe" and an "implementation of the Bonn Government's decision to create good relations" with France. He said that the Bonn Government hoped to sign trade agreements with Britain and Italy soon.

Western Germany and France negotiated on the pact for two months. Just when it was ready to be signed about two weeks ago, it became involved with the Saar question, and the signing was delayed.

German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer explained that nationalistic sentiments, inflamed over the status of the German valley, made agreements more difficult. West German farm leaders objected to a provision for the import of about $5,000,000 worth of fruits, olive oil, and timber from France and French colonies.

Last week, however, Dr. Adenauer declared the unity of Europe was more important to Germany than the Saar. The agreement today retained the provision for French farm products.

The agreement, which replaces an earlier pact for the exchange of about $220,000,000 of goods, provides for Germany's purchase of machine tools, light trucks, tires, phosphates, fabricated iron and steel and industrial oils.

France will get German jewelry, musical instruments and mill machinery in addition to the German chemicals, farm machinery and fabrics she imports under the Marhall Plan. She also will buy $35,000,000 worth of German coal and nearly $6,000,000 worth of electric power.

The French Foreign Office said the increase in trade provided under the pact resulted in large measure from a drastic simplification of customs barriers between the two countries.

Von Maltzahn said the signing today was only preliminary, and that a formal ceremony would take place after the Allied High Commission for Germany approves the agreement.

FINANCIAL UNION FORMED IN PARIS

Paul Hartman

Britain, Sweden, Norway And Denmark Reach Accord

Paris, Jan. 30 (AP)—Uniscan, a limited financial union of Britain, Sweden, Norway and Denmark, was born in Paris today.

The agreement was signed for Britain by Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Foreign Ministers Osten Unden, of Sweden; Halvard Lange, of Norway and Gustav Rasmussen, of Denmark.

Lange said Uniscan may evolve into the kind of regional integration urged by Paul Hoffman, Marshall-plan administrator, for encouraging trade and mass markets in Europe.

The most important provision of the accord—a provision which all but Norway put into effect immediately—was to take off the limits on tourist spending among the four counrties.

Up to now, British tourists could spend only $140 a year outside the sterling area.

Norway Stays Increase

Asked if British tourists could now take 500 pounds to Sweden, Sir Herbert Brittain of the British Treasury replied: "Well, we would want to know why he needed 500 pounds, but if he could justify it, it would be all right."

Norway said she was unable to grant increased allowances of foreign exchange for tourists at present.

The accord includes ten other "proposals for immediate action" beginning March 1, when the new organization becomes effective. Lange said the arrangement "may help the dollar shortage."

It provides that "all four governments will allow current payments to be made without restrictions between their four countries."

Current payments include payments for goods for which export licenses have been granted or are not needed, for freight services and royalties, interest on loans and net income from investments, repayment of loans, and depreciation of investments.

Blocked Balances Freed

Other important proposals include relaxation of controls on movement of capital, freeing of blocked balances except in the case of Norway, a more liberal attitude toward credit, and increased opportunities for the Scandinavians to use their sterling credits outside the sterling area.

A permanent Anglo-Scandinavian economic committee with a schedule of regular meetings was recommended.

Though Hoffman thus won an advance in his battle for European economic unity, he had lost in his campaign to have the Council of the Organization for European Economic Co-Operation (OEEC) name Paul Henri Spaak, former Belgian premier, as its political leader to consolidate gains in the economic cold war.

Opposed By British

President Truman himself had described Spaak as "ideally qualified" for the job. But the British were generally credited with torpedoing the Spaak candidacy. They feared his ideas on giving business a free hand, as demonstrated by Belgian recovery when he was premier, would conflict with their own ideas of a controlled economy.

Hoffman's aides said, however, he still was pressing for the OEEC to name a full-time general secretary with strong political influence and prestige to bring European integration closer. ADD

Communists, Workers Fight In French Plant

Marseille, France, Jan. 30 (AP)—Fist fights broke out today between Communists and non-Communist workmen in the near-by village of Marignane.

The clash resulted from a disagreement on whether to work overtime in the construction of 200 aircraft for the French Air Force in a state-owned plane factory. The Communists opposed any overtime work on the project.

Approximately 400 police were called to restore order. One officer was injured by a flying stone. Police said an effort to sabotage a polishing machine in the plant was discovered during the day.

U.N. Unit Gets Plan To Split Jerusalem

Herzberg

Geneva, Jan. 30 (AP)—The French President of the United Nations Trusteeship Council today proposed that the United Nations seek internationalization only of those sections of Jerusalem containing the holy places.

Roger Garreau, Council president, put forward a plan leaving control of the rest of the divided city to the Israeli and Hashemite Jordan forces which presently occupy it.

He made his proposal to the Trusteeship Council, meeting here to draft a statute carrying out the United Nations Assembly's resolution calling for internationalization of the Holy City. Both Israel and Jordan have rejected the United Nations proposal for international rule.

Railway Control

Under Garreau's proposal Israel would retain control of almost all of new Jerusalem, along with the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv Railway and its station.

Jordan would continue to control the Arab quarter of the Old Walled City and territory which it now holds to the north, east and south of the quarter.

The proposal would take almost equal portions of territory from the zones presently occupied by Israel and Jordan to form the United Nations-administered "International City," made up of all holy places listed in previous controlling international agreements. ADD

French Would Internationalize Only Jerusalem Holy Places

Lynn Herzberg

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 30 (AP). Roger Garreau, French president of the United Nations Trusteeship Council, proposed today the creation of an international city of holy places within Jerusalem.

Delegates of Iraq and the Philippines immediately attacked the plan, declaring it a repudiation of the United Nations Assembly's resolution of last December 9 to internationalize the whole city. The council's task is to carry out that resolution.

Garreau countered that the Assembly resolution was open to various interpretations and that his plan was "a liberal and reasonable interpretation."

Annexed By Abdullah

"We must draw up a statute likely to be accepted by all parties concerned," he said. "If the two governments which have the power in Jerusalem did not accept the statute for the international city we could do nothing, we would be completely impotent."

King Abdullah's Jordan and Israel now occupy the city. Both have gone on record against internationalization. King Abdullah has gone so far as to declare the city would be internationalized "over my dead body." He has carried out administrative measures which in effect annex his part of the city, along with Jordan-occupied Palestine.

Excludes Most Of New City

Israel's Parliament last week adopted a compromise resolution declaring the "historic fact" that Jerusalem automatically became the Israeli capital on the day of Israel's independence but not going so far as to claim all of Jerusalem.

Under Garreau's proposal the international city would be a very small area, with small and scattered areas outside. It would include all holy places covered by the "status quo of 1757." This was an agreement reached among religious leaders of the city defining the holy places.

Almost all the New City, with the station and railway from Tel Aviv, would remain under the sovereignty of Israel.

Would Have U.N. Governor

The Arab quarter of the old city, together with the Haram-el-Sherif, Wadi-el-Joz and Bam-el Zahira sections, all of Jericho road, the Nablus road to north of Sheik Jarrah, and the Hebron road to south of Bethlehem would remain under the sovereignty of Jordan.

The international city would be taken in almost equal parts from the Israel and Jordan occupation zones.

It would have a United Nations "governor of the holy places," an international police force and its own court with the Trusteeship Council appointing the chief justice. It would fly the United Nations flag, and its people could keep their present nationality or choose citizenship of the international city.

The governor's job would be to assure demilitarization and neutralization of the Jerusalem area, guarantee free access to holy places and guarantee their protection anywhere in Palestine, install a free economic regime in Jerusalem and intervene in any disputes in the Jerusalem area between Israel and Jordan.

The statute creating the international city would have force for ten years after which it would be reviewed by the Trusteeship Council in the light of experience and a possible referendum among the population.

Berlin Traffic Again Moves Normally

Berlin, Jan. 30 (AP)—The Russians dropped their "little blockade" tactics early today and allowed road traffic to flow normally from the West to Berlin for the first time in ten days.

Soviet guards, obviously acting on higher orders, passed all trucks through the frontier posts at Berlin and Helmstedt, 100 miles to the west, with only perfunctory checks.

The Soviets did not give any reason for the armistice, just as they never gave any official reason for starting their highway heckling. It was assumed, however, the slow down began in retaliation for the seizure of the Berlin railway headquarters building by West Berlin police acting on orders from the United States commandant in Berlin.

Cost Estimated

The railways and the building are administered by the Soviet-backed East Zone Government. United States officials later ordered the West Berliners to evacuate the building, which is in the American zone of the city.

The slowdown, which reached recognizable proportions eight days ago, cut highway traffic almost to a standstill and cost West Berlin about 10,000 tons of supplies, American officials estimated.

This was a drop in the bucket, however, since the railroad system was undisturbed and poured more than that into the city in one day.

"Made Their Point"

Allied officials concluded that the Soviet objective, therefore, was more psychological than anything else. One Allied spokesman commented:

"The Russians made their point. They showed the Germans it's still their zone and Berlin is in the middle of it. Whenever they think the West Berliner is getting too cocky, they turn these things on and off like a spigot."

Meanwhile two protests filed with the Soviet authorities by the American, British and French commandants went unanswered.

BERLIN REDS LIFT 'LITTLE BLOCKADE' OF TRUCK TRAFFIC

Daniel de Luce

BERLIN, Jan. 30—(AP) Russia's little blockade of western truck traffic to Berlin was lifted today, at least temporarily. Trucks moved normally for the first time since Jan. 22.

But shippers waited until tomorrow to see whether the unpredictable Russians would again impose their bottleneck examinations of cargo at Helmstedt, 100 miles from Berlin, as mysteriously as they dropped them today.

Traffic reaching the barriers tonight averaged only five or six trucks and hour. All the vehicles were cleared by the Russian guards. Tomorrow, however, a normal volume of 20 to 30 trucks is expected to reach the barried and it then will be seen whether the Soviet go-slow tactics have definitely ended.

No Explanation Given

The Russians, checking the trucks through with only perfunctory nods, gave no explanation for the new leniency. Yesterday and last night they planed an erratic game of delay and indulgence.

Early today they increased truck clearances to eight and hour. They had been cut to five an hour before last midnight, after holding to 10 an hour for the previous 20 hours.

During the eight-day slow-down, American transport officials estimated, about 10,000 tons of truck-borne supplies were unable to reach West Berlin. West Berlin factories were unable to keep delivery schedules to Western Germany because of the Helmstedt bottleneck and some contracts were reported cancelled as a result.

Protests Ignored

Two protests by the western allies against harassment and delays in the truck traffic have still gone unanswered by Soviet authorities in the past week.

While the Russians remained silent, it was assumed the slow-down was imposed in retaliation for the seizure of the Soviet-administered railway headquarters building by West Berlin police, acting on authority from American officials in Berlin. U. S. officials later ordered the building returned to the Russians.

The highway traffic holdup was infinitesimal compared to the flow of supplies over the railroad system which hauls about nine-tenths of West Berlin's supplies. The railroads were undisturbed by the Russians. Allied officials believe the Soviet tactics, therefore, had a psychological purpose.

"The Russians made their point," one spokesman said. "They showed the Germans Berlin is still in the middle of the Russian zone. Whenever they think the West Berliner is getting too cocky, they turn these things off and on like a spigot."

The West Berlin press called the Russian actions "chicanery." Soviet-licensed newspapers said the guards were merely "protecting" the interests of the East German communist German.

Sales in West Germany Bring Rush of Customers

By The Associated Press.

FRANKFORT, Germany, Jan. 30—West German stores today began their first winter bargain sale since 1939—and some suffered broken windows from the crush of customers. Stores slashed prices by one-third to one-half what they were last week. The sale will last two weeks.

The German industrial worker gets a weekly wage of from 50 to 70 Deutsche marks ($12.50 to $17.50). His wife, for 63.35 Deutsche marks (about $15.84), could buy this outfit today: a heavy coat, dress, hat, gloves, underwear, artificial silk stockings and leather shoes.

The husband, for 64.43 Deutsche marks (about $16.10), could buy: a heavy coat, suit, hat, underwear, a pair of leather shoes, socks, shirt, tie, sweater and gloves. These were the lowest prices for qualities far from the best.

Autos Scatter Nazi Swastikas

Hamburg, Germany, Jan. 30 (AP). Metal Nazi swastikas about the size of a nickel were scattered from a speeding automobile through the Hamburg business district today—the anniversary of Adolf Hitler's proclamation as Reichschancellor in 1933.

A similar occurrence took place in Dortmund and Hagen. Police speculated that it was the work of a neo-Nazi underground movement.

Romani Expels French Priest

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 30 (AP). The Communist-led Government has ordered the expulsion of the Rev. Jean Louis Barral, one of the two remaining French Catholic priests in Romania. It was announced tonight. He already has left the country. No reason for the ouster was given.

SINKIANG MISSION IN MOSCOW TO JOIN SINO-SOVIET TALKS

Announcement Says 4 Arrived 'to Participate in Work of' Peiping Representatives

Eddy Gilmore

SPECULATION IS STIRRED

Credence Is Given in State Department to Reports of Russian Demands on Mao

JAN 31 1950

By The Associated Press.

MOSCOW, Jan. 30—A delegation from Sinkiang, China's westernmost province, arrive today to take part in the Soviet-Chinese Communist negotiations, an official announcement said. The group joined immediately in the talks.

Sinkiang has a long frontier bordering on the Soviet Union. It is one of the four areas of northern China that Dean Acheson, United States Secretary of State, charged on Jan. 12 that the Soviet Government was attaching to its territory. This charge subsequently was called false by Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister, and Chinese Communist leaders.

[Later the United States State Department reiterated Mr. Acheson's charge, releasing at the same time documents in support of the accusations. A dispatch to THE NEW YORK TIMES, published Sunday, said that in the Soviet-Chinese negotiations Russia was demanding, among other things, far-reaching concessions by Peiping to "minority" groups in Sinkiang, Inner Mongolia, Manchuria and Tibet. Sinkiang, the dispatch pointed out, is inhabited largely by Moslems closely akin to the Turkmenian peoples of Soviet Central Asia.

[An Associated Press dispatch from Moscow said the Soviet Union had announced recognition of Ho Chi Minh's rebel Viet Nam regime in Indo-China.]

Moscow's Explanation

The Soviet announcement said the delegation was headed by Seisutdin Ayzizov, deputy chairman of the "Sinkiang People's Government," and included three others. It added the group had come to "participate in the work of the delegation of the Chinese People's [Communist] Government."

Other Chinese now in the Soviet capital include Chinese Communist leader Mao Tze-tung and his Foreign Minister, Chou En-lai. Mr. Mao arrived forty-five days ago and Mr. Chou Jan. 20.

Mr. Ayzizov's arrival led to speculation that the talks had progressed. It was recalled that several northern Chinese provincial officials had come with Mr. Chou.

There had been no previous official announcement on how the talks were progressing or what was being discussed, beyond Mr. Mao's statement that the existing Chinese-Soviet Friendship Alliance is one of the principal topics.

This is the first time in many years that representatives from Sinkiang have come to Moscow to negotiate with the Russians. It is what one Western diplomat called a "very interesting development."

CHINA PLANES BOMB FOOCHOW

Extensive Damages To Shipyards There Reported

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 30 (AP)—Chinese Nationalist B-25 bombers today raided shipyards at Foochow, Communist port 100 miles west of this Nationalist island.

The Air Force announced extensive damage was done. It said air attacks also were continued on the Luichow peninsula, where the Communists are massing small ships and boats for a possible assault on Hainan Island, ten miles off the south coast.

30.24- 8613

Results of the latest Luichow raid were not disclosed, but 50 Red junks were reported destroyed and many gun emplacements demolished in a similar attack Sunday. A Nationalist spokesman said Sunday that the Communist had massed 5,000 junks and other craft in the Luichow area for an invasion on Hainan.

Could Hold After April

Interviewed today on Hianan, Gen. Hsueh Yueh declared he could hold Hainan if the Communist invasion could be stalled off until after April.

Nationalist press dispatches twelve days ago had quoted Hsueh, the Hainan commander, as declaring air and naval raids already had rendered a Communist invasion "impossible."

Hsueh discounted as propaganda reports that the Reds were massing 250,000 men on the Luichow Peninsula to attack Hainan. He and his staff, racing to reorganize the 140,000 Nationalist troops who fled to Hainan from the mainland in December, reiterated belief that Formosa and Indo-China were higher on the Communist priority list than Hainan.

Hsueh is using some of his forces against an estimated 12,000 active pro-Red guerrillas in the interior of Hainan. The air force reported it had bombed the guerrilla headquarters and destroyed a training center and radio station. ADD

JOINT CHIEFS DUE IN JAPAN

Russell Brines

Will Land At One Of U.S. Newest Airfields On Honsha

Tokyo, Jan. 30 (AP)—America's four top military commanders—the Joint Chiefs of Staff—will land at one of America's newest airfields tomorrow night to begin their personal survey of Far Eastern defenses.

They are due about 6 A.M. tomorrow (E.S.T.) at Misawa in northern Japan, flying from Shemya in the Aleutians. Misawa field is at the extreme northern tip of Honshu Island, about 450 airmiles from Tokyo. Base of one of the crack jet fighter squadrons in the western Pacific, it reported 4 feet of snow two days ago.

Intensive Briefings Planned

The visitors, Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman; Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army; Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, air, and Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, Navy, are due to inspect units of the near-by 7th Division before flying to Tokyo Wednesday.

Intensive briefings on the Far Eastern situation are scheduled with General MacArthur and the principal army, air and naval officers in Japan. The general recommendations of these officers are expected to include:

1. Some gesture to prevent Formosa's capture by the Chinese Communists—but short of sending troops or becoming involved in war. ADD

2. Making Yokosuka (near Tokyo) America's main Far-Eastern naval base, securing it and key airbases through a formal agreement to parallel any Japan peace treaty.

Plea To Enlarge U.S. Far East Forces Due

Russell Brines

Tokyo, Jan. 30 (AP)—The American Joint Chiefs of Staff are due in Tokyo Wednesday for their first personal conferences with field commanders who long have been concerned by the spreading Red flood in Asia.

The joint chiefs will be told that the American military position in the Far East should be strengthened.

General MacArthur and his aides and top naval officers are expected to stress these points before the Chiefs of Staff leave Japan Saturday:

1. Formosa is of such strategic importance that some American gesture—short of sending troops or becoming involved in war—should be made to prevent its capture by Chinese Communists.

Air And Naval Bases

2. The old Japanese naval base of Yokosuka near Tokyo should be built into America's leading Far Eastern naval installation. This would involve guarantees that it could be used indefinitely. Officers say the present installations would cost $600,000,000 to duplicate.

3. Key American air bases in Japan also should be secured by a formal agreement paralleling any Japanese peace treaty.

4. Naval forces in the Far East should be increased by additional aircraft carriers and support ships. Army and air power should be expanded beyond their present minimum strength.

Field officers are expected to emphasize that air power is the key to America's defensive position. This may involve a strong naval contention that aircraft carriers are of extreme importance in covering the vast distances of the Orient.

"Team Operation"

Air and army officers here support the value of the carrier in any Pacific conflict. This, they say, should be "a team operation of all services as was World War II."

Officers also are expected to tell the visiting chiefs that the Communists intend to strike for southeast Asia, that conquest of this rich region would be extremely serious for American interests.

The chiefs are to inspect units of MacArthur's command, which includes the largest organized United States ground force. They also are to see army, navy and Marine units in the biggest review of the occupation, scheduled for Thursday.

On Saturday the chiefs are to take off for Okinawa.

Japanese Communists have begun a new propaganda campaign against "transforming Japan into a foreign military base."

West Java Asks U.S.I. To Take Over State

Kenneth Lebes

Jakarta, Indonesia, Jan. 30 (AP)—West Java, shaken by the threat of guerrilla revolt, asked the Federal Government of the United States of Indonesia today to take over administration of the state.

The action was taken by the West Java Parliament, meeting at Bandoeng. It followed the arrest of the West Java Premier and the resignation of his Cabinet, both consequences of the guerrilla attack on Bandoeng by forces under the Dutch renegade soldier, Capt. R. P. P. Westerling.

The dissolution of the State of West Java, one of the sixteen states making up the U.S.I., was not expected to result in drastic or immediate changes.

Long-Range Results

The authority in West Java already is in the hands of a military governor with sweeping power in civil affairs. He acts, with the power of martial law, directly under the U.S.I. Ministry of Defense.

However, as a long-range development, the move is significant. It indicates that political elements here who favor joining West Java to the Indonesian Republic, biggest state in the union, have won the first round. The way now is open for the U.S.I. Parliament to make all of Java part of the old revolutionary republic.

The Jakarta Government recently took over authority in East Java.

The Republican territory on Java was sliced into three parts by the Dutch after the Japanese were driven out. In the provisional constitution for the U.S.I., the way had been left open for reorganization of the country if the states themselves should request it.

Full Domination Sought

The Republicans have been driving for dominion of their state over all Java. The Republicans believe that the U.S.I. should be a nation of three or four large states rather than sixteen smaller ones.

Philip C. Jessup, United States roving ambassador, and Ambassador Merle Cochran conferred in Jakarta today with Premier Mohamed Hatta.

The United States Embassy announced, meanwhile, that a five-man mission to investigate Marshall-plan spending here will arrive in Indonesia this week.

REVOLT WIPES OUT WEST JAVA REGIME

Uprising Headed by Westerling Prompts Appeal to Central Government to Take Reins

JAKARTA (Batavia), Indonesia, Jan. 30 (AP)—The state government of West Java was wiped out today as a result of the revolt of the outlaw Dutch guerrilla leader, Capt. R. P. P. Westerling.

The legislature of troubled West Java voted unanimously to ask the central United States of Indonesia Government at Jakarta to take over the state administration.

In rapid succession, since Captain Westerling's forces invaded the West Java capital of Bandung last Monday, state Premier Anwar Tjokroaminoto was arrested on orders of the federal minister of defense, his cabinet resigned and Wirana Takusumah, head of the state, turned in his mandate.

Federal administration of the state clears the way for Indonesia's Republicans to realize their objective—merger of all Java into one state government.

East Java's state government already has been liquidated. East Java and West Java were Dutch-sponsored states sliced off the Indonesian Republic after the first Dutch military offensive in 1947.

Republicans have been agitating for the two states to rejoin the republic, one of the sixteen states making up the United States of Indonesia, which became an independent nation six weeks ago. They want the sixteen states to be reduced to three or four large states. Former leaders of the republic, which spearheaded the fight for independence, now hold the top positions in the United States of Indonesia.

Captain Westerling was suspected by the Republicans of having political support in influential circles in West Java. Premier Tjokroaminoto was arrested on suspicion that he played a part in the assault of Bandung.

ACHESON URGES AID FOR KOREA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30—(AP) Secretary of State Acheson told Congress today it would be "most unfortunate" if the United States halted economic aid to the American-sponsored republic of Korea.

The effect, he said, would be felt throughout southeast Asia.

Testifying before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Acheson appealed for a reversal of the House's action in defeating a $60,000,000 Korean aid bill. The measure was rebuffed in the house by a one-vote margin, 192 to 191, on Jan. 19.

Acheson Approves Proposal

Committee Chairman Kee (D-W. Va) said today that to expedite matters, Acheson approved a proposal to wrap up in one bill the $60,000,000 Korean aid program and extension of the 1948 China Aid Act through fiscal 1950. Both programs expire Feb. 15.

Approximately $103,000,000 remains in unexpended funds from China aid grants.

Of that sum, Acheson said only a relatively small amount could be spent by June 30—presumably for economic aid to Formosa, last-ditch island stronghold of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese nationalist government.

Acheson testified only briefly in open session. Then Chairman Kee excluded press and public to question the cabinet member on controversial aspects of the administration's Far East policy.

Republican critics have hotly attacked President Truman's refusal to grant military aid to the Chinese nationalists on Formosa.

In his public testimony, Acheson told the committee it is "a safe bet" that the young post-war republic of Korea could hold out against anything except a "major attack" from the Russian-dominated northern half of the Korean peninsula.

2-Year Aid Needed

He said Korea will need U. S. help for the next two years, but declared:

"After 1952, we hope Korea will be a self-supporting nation."

Chairman Kee said the closed-door discussion with Acheson was liimted to "the present situation in China." He did not elaborate.

Kee said nobody mentioned the Alger Hiss Case. Acheson's firm friendship for Hiss, after Hiss was convicted of lying about slipping State Department secrets to ex-communist Whittaker Chambers, has prompted Republican demands for Acheson's resignation or ouster.

Kee said the committee will meet again tomorrow in the hope of completing a combined Korea-China aid bill soon.

Asked about the bomb at a news conference last Friday, Mr. Truman said the decision as to whether to try to develop the weapon is his alone to make, and he has not yet made it.

One member of the Senate-House Committee already has come out publicly for an attempt to make the bomb. He is Senator Connally (D., Texas), who is also chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Congress 'H-Bomb' Report Due Soon

JAN 31

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—The Senate-House Atomic Committee said today that it may make a recommendation to President Truman shortly on whether the United States should try to make a super-power hydrogen bomb.

Chairman McMahon (D., Conn.) said the committee has had the issue under "continuous investigation and consideration."

His announcement was made after a closed meeting of the committee with Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission's general advisory committee.

No Vote Taken

McMahon said the congressional committee has taken no vote or action on the issue, but will meet again tomorrow for "further deliberations."

McMahon's announcement indicated that the matter, debated secretly in the Government for many months, has about reached the state where a decision will be made.

It is known that a special committee has considered the factors involved—including the possibility of success—in attempting to make a bomb that some scientists figure might be 1,000 times more powerful than the A-bombs dropped on Japan.

Before Truman

This group presumably has—or will soon—report to Mr. Truman. He also will get the views of the men in Congress who have given most study to atomic matters.

Then the whole question will be in the President's hands.

First Use Of Term

In a week-end statement, Connally said "we want to preserve the peace of the world and the hydrogen bomb will serve that cause just as the atom bomb has done since it ended the war and gave us peace."

McMahon's statement used the term "hydrogen bomb" for the first time in any announcements from his committee.

He stated:

"The committee met and discussed the matter of atomic weapons, including the subject of the so-called hydrogen bomb. The committee took no votes or action but will meet tomorrow afternoon for further deliberations.

"I have transmitted to the President certain of my personal views on the bearing that these questions have not only on the national security but also on world peace which all our efforts are designed to promote.

"Will Not Hesitate"

"When I feel that the best interests of security and peace will be served, I will not hesitate to make my views known.

"The Joint Committee on Atomic Energy has had the matter of the hydrogen bomb under continuous investigation and consideration. It has explored and studied this matter from every aspect, informing itself of the views of the Atomic Energy Commission, the Department of Defense, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the General Advisory Committee to the Commission and top-rank scientists.

"Members of the joint committee, including myself, have visited and inspected various atomic-energy installations, including Los Alamos, for the express purpose of inquiring into the details of the hydrogen-bomb problem."

H-Bomb Choice Like Car Issue, Says Lilienthal

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—David E. Lilienthal suggested today that the Government, debating whether to make a hydrogen bomb, is in about the position of the average man debating whether to buy a new automobile.

There are lots of things to consider, such as whether the money and effort could be used better in other ways.

Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, did not say directly at a news conference that the Government is considering an attempt to make a hydrogen bomb many times more powerful than the original A-bomb.

But he used the illustration of the automobile in speaking of weapons development and it was clear he had reference to the much talked of H-bomb project.

He said, too, that he did not know whether the issues and considerations could ever be brought out before the public for discussion and decision.

SENATE GROUP ENDS PROBE OF DENFELD OUSTER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30—(AP) The Senate Armed Services Committee today wound up its investigation into the firing of Admiral Louis Denfeld as chief of naval operations at the height of last year's row among the armed services.

After hearing Navy Secretary Matthews testify behind closed doors, Chairman Tydings (D-Md) said the committee was "satisfied" that no gag rule would be clamped down on navy witnesses before Congress.

Denfeld was ousted by President Truman at Matthews's request last Oct. 27, two weeks after he testified before the House Armed Services Committee that top army and air force leaders in the Pentagon were weakening the navy.

"Honest Difference of Opinion"

Tydings issued a statement saying Matthews' split with Denfeld resulted from "an honest difference of opinion upon naval department policy."

The chairman's statement, couched in mild terms, failed to reflect any of the criticism heaped on Matthews by Republicans, some of whom have demanded that Matthews himself be fired or even impeached.

Tydings described the statement as representing the whole committee. He said no vote was taken on it, but declared:

"It was passed around and I saw no dissent."

Newsmen questioned Tydings at length about a section of the statement which read as follows:

"The committee was satisfied that no rule of the navy, nor the attitude of the secretary of the navy, would prevent any officer from giving his views openly and freely to a congressional committee without fear of reprisal or punishment.

"Furthermore, an officer can within the rules and regulations of the navy write or speak in public. What he writes or says is naturally his own responsibility."

Gives "Free Speech" Views

Reporters asked Tydings just how much freedom the officers would have to speak out in criticism, either before Congress or in public forums.

The senator said they are free to speak, but he felt officers holding positions that require them to follow naval policies with which they basically disagree should ask to be transferred to other duties.

He said this would not interfere with their right to make their views public or to testify before congressional committees.

Committee members agreed, he said, that no general rule can be made for dealing with "incompatibility of views." Each case should be judged separately, he said.

None Can Match U.S. A-Bombs, Elston Says

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—Representative Elston (R., Ohio), a member of the congressional Atomic Energy Committee, says no nation has atomic weapons to match those of the United States, and that no nation could have as big a stock of them.

"If war came now, he told a reporter, "we would be far ahead, both in the number of atomic bombs and the development of them."

JAN 31 1950

He said America's ability to deliver the bombs to targets, and her defense against possible enemy A-bombing, are matters he cannot discuss for security reasons. He advocates a strong air force.

Progress, or lack of it, in experiments with atomic energy as a driving force for airplanes and submarines also are taboo subjects, he declared.

No One Ahead, He Says

"No nation on earth," he said, "has made much headway at developing a peacetime use for atomic energy, except for isotopes used for medical purposes."

Elston said he is not much impressed by reports that the Russians may have found a way to use atomic energy for such purposes as blasting for a water-supply dam. He said the implication of that story is that the Russians know how to decontaminate an A-blasted area.

He suggested that if the Russians did use atomic power for such a purpose, they probably were depending on time to dissipate radioactivity at the scene, just as radioactivity was dissipated at atom-bombed Hiroshima. A made-in-America A-bomb could as well be used on a similar job, he added.

Convinced Of Superiority

He said Russia probably has learned more about what we are doing with the atom than we know about Russian progress, but that information available to him as a member of the committee is conclusive that the United States still leads by a wide margin.

"The Russians are farther ahead in the atomic-energy field than they normally would have been — because of leaks in our security system," he asserted, but after inspecting seven atomic plants in this country, he is satisfied that "the leaks are pretty well plugged up," he added.

Elston was a severe critic of the administration of David E. Lilienthal, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, whom he accused repeatedly of failure to guard atomic secrets.

The Ohioan declined to discuss any aspect of hydrogen-bomb experiments.

TYDINGS URGES U.S. START WORK ON SUPER BOMB

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30—(AP) Senator Tydings (D-Md), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, urged tonight that the United States go ahead with the development of the hydrogen bomb, saying our failure to have it could invite attack.

JAN 31 1950

Tydings was the second major senate committee head to come out flatly for development of the H-bomb, which reportedly would be eight to 1,000 times more powerful than the present atomic weapons.

Over the weekend, Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said the United States should arm itself with the bomb.

Board's Decisi . Seen Near

The words of both men take on added significance in that they are members of the joint Senate-House Committee. The committee today disclosed that it has had the matter of the H-bomb under continuous and comprehensive study for several months and may be nearing the point of making a recommendation to the president.

Tydings told reporters that the Senate Armed Services Committee "will undoubtedly look into the matter and will want to be briefed about the consequences of this bomb in our own and enemy hands if it were to be used."

Senator Bridges (R-NH), a member of the armed services group, also has said that the committee should look into the matter.

Tydings said it was only with "great reluctance" that he reached the conclusion the United States should forge ahead with the new destructive weapon.

"In the interests of our own national security and for the peoples of those nations that are generally associated with us in world affairs do not believe we have any option in the matter except to build the hydrogen bomb," Tydings said.

Truman OK Held Likely

Most speculation in government circles is that Mr. Truman will approve the project, aimed at production of a super atomic weapon which scientists say might be from eight to 1,000 times as powerful as the A-bombs which were dropped on Japan.

The probable cost has been estimated at from $100,000,000 to $4,000,000,000.

For the first time, Senator McMahon (D-Conn) acknowledged that the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee which he heads "has had the matt r of the hydrogen bomb under continuous investigation and consideration."

But he said the group, which handles legislation affecting the nation's atomic program, has taken no action.

The committee held a closed-door session today with Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, one of the pioneer atomic scientists who heads the Atomic Energy Commission's general advisory committee. Afterwards McMahon said in a statement:

30.24- 8615

"The committee met and discussed the matter of atomic weapons, including the subject of the so-called hydrogen bomb. The committee took no votes or action but will meet tomorrow afternoon for further deliberations.

"I have transmitted to the president certain of my personal views on the bearing that these questions have not only on the national security but also on world peace which all our efforts are designed to promote.

"When I feel that the best interests of security and peace will be served, I will not hesitate to make my views known."

McMahon said he and other members have visited Los Alamos, N. M., and other commission installations "for the express purpose of inquiring into the details of the hydrogen bomb problem."

BOMB-TRAINING BASE PLACED

Atomic Missiles Assembled At Sandia (N.M.) Center

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—The military disclosed tonight that the mysterious Sandia base in New Mexico is a place where atomic bombs are assembled and where airmen and others are taught their use.

This was revealed in a section of the Defense Department's annual report, discussing in more detail than any previous official statement the "Armed Forces Special Weapons Project." The project is a joint Army-Navy-Air Force organization, giving technical advice and assistance "for the preparation of plans for atomic warfare."

The chief installation is Sandia base, near the city of Albuquerque.

Co-operates With AEC

This is what the report says of the project:

"The project maintains active military participation in new weapon designs, development and production in co-operation with the Atomic Energy Commission. This latter work is carried out largely at Sandia base where the commission maintains a branch of the Los Alamos laboratory. . . .

"The project is responsible for supporting the military establishment in atomic weapons operations. This includes the training of selected members of the armed services in the technical aspects of the military application of atomic energy and the solving of many of the logistical problems incident to the use of atomic weapons."

Air Force Bases Near By

[While the report made no mention of it, the Air Force has several bases within short flying distance of Sandia which are capable of handling atomic bombs. Among them is Carswell base, at Fort Worth, Texas, where two groups of huge B-36's are based.]

The report also threw light on some other hitherto secret work of the military with new and potentially deadly weapons.

Louis A. Johnson, Defense Secretary, discussed briefly what he called "unconventional warfare," saying that:

"Biological and radiological agents as weapons are as yet unproven in warfare, and the evidence indicates that other nations have experimented with new and untried forms of toxic chemical warfare. It is not possible, therefore, to disregard the potentialities in these fields, and the United States must be adequately equipped for this type of warfare."

Then, in the Army's report (a part of the combined reports of the Defense Secretary and the three armed forces) there were further hints of the trend in biological warfare. A chapter on the Army Chemical Corps' activity commented tersely that the corps has "carried out an intensive program of investigation of toxicological agents and means for defense against such agents." It also said that "in this program emphasis was placed on development of munitions suitable for disemmination of many agents rather than one specific agent."

These were cryptic and obscure references, but when taken in light of previous information had importance. To the military, a "toxicological agent" can be poison gas, radioactive material or the elements of bacteriological warfare—germs, spores, fungi, all of the value in attack against man, animals or crops.

The reference to development of munitions useful for dissemination of toxic agents recalled that last spring an appropriation request to Congress contained an item for a "munitions loading building" at Camp Detrick, Md. That camp is the chief bacterial warfare center of the military. The Camp Detrick program also included plans for a building to test "aerosol clouds," presumably a cloud of bacteria that would be reasonably cohesive and not easily dispelled by wind or its potency killed by the purifying action of sunlight and air.

A portion of a chapter on research and development devoted to electronics mentioned that "new techniques are being developed in such fields as countermeasures . . . against guided missiles."

3-Nation Talks On A-Energy Beginning

JAN 31 1950

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—Behind a secrecy curtain drawn by the State Department, representatives of the United States, Belgium and Britain meet here today to talk about atomic energy.

Apparently authoritative information is that they want to discuss:

1. A possible increase in the $200 to $300 per-ton price which the United States pays Belgium for the bulk of uranium produced in the Belgian Congo.

2. Detailed arrangements for division of the Congo's uranium output between the United States and Britain, with virtually all of it coming to this country.

No Link To H-Bomb Seen

Since the talks deal with uranium—used in making present-day A-bombs—there is no apparent connection with a possible superbomb powered with hydrogen.

Various developments over the week end indicated that President Truman may be near a decision on whether to build the H-bomb, and that he may rule in favor of it.

The current Washington talks on uranium are evidently related to discussions among the United States, Britain and Canada which began last fall to work out the terms of a new partnership in the production of atomic weapons. The American-British-Canadian talks are stalled now until after the British elections, diplomats here say.

Congo's Ore All-Important

Access to Belgium's Congo ore is one of the fundamental requirements for maintaining the present rate of atomic-bomb production in the United States—whatever that may be.

Wartime agreements involving the three countries provided that Belgium would sell its uranium to the United States and Britain and that practically all of it except a relatively few tons used by the British in experiments would come to this country.

In additon, the United States obtains uranium from Canada and possibly other important sources, but the greatest known supply in the non-Communist world is in the Belgian Congo.

Inquiries among responsible officials here for further information disclosed that most if not all of them consider themselves bound by secrecy restrictions not to talk. That goes far beyond the restrictions which normally have covered international negotiations, including the British-American atomic-energy talks with Canada.

Pacific Fleet May Get 7 More Ships

JAN 31 1950

Chief of Staff to hear plea for expanded United States armed forces in Far East. [Page 4.]

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—The Navy is considering adding half a dozen destroyers and an aircraft carrier to its Pacific Fleet.

The trend toward rebuilding naval power in the Pacific, which started with the arrival of the new chief of naval operations, Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, has shown signs of being accelerated by Communist successes in China.

Presumably the carrier would be transferred from the Atlantic. It is not clear whether all or part of the six-ship destroyer division would be transfers or some of them net additions to the Navy's overall destroyer force.

Only 6 First-Line Carriers

Naval strength planned under the new budget provides for operating only six first-line carriers. Eight have been in operation recently, of which two are in the Pacific.

The Navy may keep its three 45,000-ton Midway class carriers in operation and lay up some of the 27,000-ton Essex class flattops to bring the total down to budgetary limits.

Destroyer strength in the Pacific totals 46, as against 97 in the Atlantic.

The escorting force that accompanies a carrier varies from one to two cruisers and from four to six destroyers.

Shifting Two Cruisers

As part of its program to rebuild some of the Pacific strength, the Navy announced last month its intention to shift two cruisers from the Atlantic—the heavy cruiser Rochester and the anti-aircraft cruiser Juneau.

There have been reports that more submarines might be sent to the Pacific. At present, there are 44 subs in the active Atlantic fleet and 31 in the Pacific.

E. C. A. FUNDS TO BUY WHEAT AND TOBACCO

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—Heavy purchases of American wheat and tobacco and Canadian lumber were approved today in new Marshall Plan spending totaling $21,896,000 authorized by the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Eight European countries shared in the new recovery grants which brought total E. C. A. aid commitments to $8,198,059,000.

Italy received the largest allotment. It was given $6,719,000 to finance the purchase of equipment for two steel plants at Bagnoli and Piombino. The funds will be used to buy American equipment and pay technical service costs.

Great Britain was given $5,540,000 to buy $5,000,000 worth of Canadian lumber products and pay $540,000 worth of ocean transportation costs.

France was allotted $3,979,000, largely for construction and mining equipment and other industrial machinery. The biggest allocation for a specific purpose, however, was $699,000 for American tobacco.

The Netherlands received $2,387,000 to buy United States wheat flour. The other allotments included:

Austria, $2,940,000 for $2,880,000 worth of United States wheat and $60,000 for casein from Latin America; Ireland, $167,000 worth of United States wheat flour; Norway, $160,000 for lumber and agricultural seeds from the United States and Canada, and Trieste, $4,000 worth of United States vegtable tallow.

U. S. WORKERS BARRED ON CHRISTOFFEL JURY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—An unusual decision to bar as jurors all persons who work for the Government snarled selection of a jury today in the Harold Christoffel perjury trial.

Mr. Christoffel is charged with lying in telling a Congressional committee he had never been a Communist or ever had Communist connections.

Federal District Judge F. Dickinson Letts agreed to a motion by O. John Rogge of defense counsel to exclude all persons who worked for the Government or who had close relatives who did.

As a result, at the end of the first day the jury had been only partially selected after seventy prospective jurors had been called. Judge Letts asked that additional jurors be in the panel box tomorrow morning.

Mr. Rogge later told reporters he knew of no other case where Government employes were so excluded.

Eisenhower Eyes Unification Woes

Writes 'Something Haywire' Keeps Services Apart

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP).—General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower says in a copyright interview in "U. S. News and World Report," released today, that there is "something a little bit haywire" which makes it difficult for the nation's armed services to work together.

In broad terms, General Eisenhower attributed the outcropping of feuds and controversies among the three services to the high confidence of each in his own force.

"Take a paratrooper with his very, very high morale," General Eisenhower said. "A paratrooper really thinks that if you give him two bazookas and a jeep, he'll go anywhere and whip the world. Of course, it's a fine spirit. But the fact is that each service gets this almost cocky confidence in its own forces and then the heat of argument starts as all come to realize that there is not enough money for everything."

General Eisenhower, now president of Columbia University, disclosed that he "did not want" to testify before the House Armed Services Committee last fall at the height of the uproar over Navy charges that the Navy's attack power was being "nibbled to death" by those administering armed forces unification in the Pentagon. But he said, "The authorities insisted, so I came down."

General Eisenhower agreed that the services seem to get along better outside of Washington than they do here. "Several times I have observed that efficiency in unification grows in proportion to the distance you get away from Washington," he said. "Of course, there is a reason—because, here in the national capital is that one great basic problem, the division of the dollar. Once you get away from that problem, there is less friction.

"We ought to be turning our eyes to the future with an approach that will help our service staffs to get together," he said, "because, like the rest of us, they are all human. They have their little prejudices, their stumbling blocks. But I have tremendous confidence in their capacity to do work together."

LEGION URGES UMT INSTEAD OF THE DRAFT

Universal Training, Official Says, Could Replace Conscription

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—The American Legion urged Congress today to enact universal military training instead of continuing the peace-time draft law.

Miles D. Kennedy, director of the Legion's national legislative commission, said the big veterans' organization has supported the draft "as a temporary expedient" in the past but that it feels its value as a deterrent to aggressors has passed.

"The potential strength of the American nation can best be organized through national security training, and now is the time for enactment of this program," Kennedy said.

U.M.T. would be a permanent system for training young people to prepare them for defending the country in case of war. The setup would be separate from the armed services and all young men would be subject to the training. Under the draft law, as it has operated in the past, a portion of the nation's youth is selected for service with the armed forces.

Dropped From Budget

In the past Congress has turned a deaf ear to President Truman's requests for U.M.T. Apparently reasoning it would do so again, Mr. Truman did not ask funds to run such a program in the budget he submitted to Congress early this month.

The Legion spokesman was one of a number of draft opponents who testified before the House Armed Services Committee. It is considering the Administration's request for a three-year extension of the selective service law, due to expire in June.

Support for such an extension came from Maj. Gen. Ellard A. Walsh, president of the National Guard Association of the United States. He said the act should be continued because it would save valuable time in the event it becomes necessary to mobilize in the future.

None Inducted Now

No men have been inducted under the present law for some months. Walsh said his group would not object to a ban against future inductions unless Congress grants specific permission.

Miss Elizabeth Smart, of Evanston, Ill., speaking for the Women's Christian Temperance Union, said the draft law is an unnecessary reflection on the nation's youth.

"Since American youth has responded by voluntary enlistment even beyond the Army's capacity to receive them, why should they longer be stigmatized with the draft, implying that only by compulsion can they be brought to volunteer for the defense of their country?" she said.

Other major organizations which opposed an extension included the American Federation of Labor and the National Grange. Support for an extension came from the Jewish War Veterans.

Truman Asks Congress To Assist Refugees

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to appropriate $27,450,000 to help Palestine refugees in the Near East through the United Nations. That would be half the expenses for an eighteen-months' program. Other countries would put up the balance.

Mr. Truman made his bid for congressional action in letters to Vice President Barkley and Speaker Rayburn.

The relief job would be handled by the United Nations relief and works agency, created by the United Nations General Assembly to deal with the problem raised by the displacement of hundreds of thousands of people by war in Palestine.

Sudden Attack on U.S. Possible, Johnson Warns

JAN 31 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Johnson soberly cautioned tonight that an attack on this country "could come from the opposite hemisphere without warning and with unpredictable fury."

He put this warning into his first annual report, in which he noted parenthetically that Russia now has the secret of atomic explosives.

But at another point Johnson expressed belief that the prospect of war is diminishing, despite the Russian attitude. He wrote:

"While we must recognize the bitter truth that there can be no real peace and security so long as our free world is blighted by the sinister shadow of an aggressive totalitarian power which has persistently refused to cooperate with its democratic neighbors and which has repeatedly demonstrated hostility to our form of government x x x we have good reason to believe that the prospects of averting another world conflict are steadily improving."

The military strength of the United States, he declared, has much to do with discouraging a venture into a shooting war by an aggressor nation.

Johnson, who on occasions has been reported at odds with the State Department over diplomatic-military policy, said there has been an "intimate unification of separate lines of governmental activity in the formulation and conduct of foreign policy."

This, he said, has been accomplished through the National Security Council "which brings to bear on fundamental problems the considered judgment of the State Department, the national military establishment" and other agencies.

With the exception of the footnote reference to the Russian A-bomb announcement by President Truman last September, Johnson's report covers the fiscal year which ended last June 30. Thus reports on expenditures, military strength and other factors are outdated by subsequently published information.

Cites Unification Progress

The report also contained the reports of the three armed forces made by Secretary of the Army Gray, Secretary of the Navy Matthews and Secretary of the Air Force Symington. This in itself, Johnson claimed, was an "example of unification."

Without discussing details of the bitter quarrel which broke out last spring and still goes on between some navy admirals and the Defense Department and Air Force, Johnson asserted:

"I do not discount the damage done to unification of the armed forces by interservice controversies. At the same time, I believe that the extent of these conflicts has been exaggerated. I further believe that preponderant numbers in all the services appreciate the need for unification, and, in actuality, unification of the armed forces is an accomplished fact today in many areas of activity."

Then, in obvious reference to such incidents as the wrangle over the Air Force's B-36 bomber and the Navy's role in the national defense picture which resulted in the ouster of Admiral Louis Denfeld as chief of naval operations, Johnson wrote:

"Honest differences of viewpoint exist among competent officers as to the part each service should have in the defense of the nation. They have a right to be heard and to have their views carefully weighed. But when the decision is made we have a right to expect that it will be carried out ungrudgingly."

These decisions are based on the recommendations of the joint chiefs of staff, which includes commanders of the armed forces, under the chairmanship of Gen. Omar Bradley.

Refers to Flattop Case

Here Johnson made it evident he believes the traditional unanimous agreement by the joint chiefs no longer is necessary. Speaking of his decisions to cancel construction of the supercarrier United States, a $188,000,000, 65,000-ton flattop, Johnson said:

"The joint chiefs did not reach unanimous agreement but the majority favored abandonment of the project." (Denfeld then was a member of the joint chiefs. John L. Sullivan, former navy secretary, resigned in protest against the decision.)

On the North Atlantic military assistance program and broad strategy to implement it, here are some of the things Johnson had to say:

1. He does "not foresee immediate and spectacular results upon the establishment of the (Atlantic) pact organization or upon implementation of this year's aid programs. We are a member of an organization which can only produce results as it gains experience and fosters mutual understanding among its members."

2. "Should Western Europe be overrun by a hostile power and should its vast industrial and manpower potentials be added to those of such an aggressor, the United States would stand isolated in a dangerously insecure position. x x x In the event that the United States is involved in hostilities, the armed forces of Western Europe, operating under integrated plans for its defense, must be able to hold the lines of collective defense of the North Atlantic area during the time that would be required for the United States to mobilize, equip, train, and transport our own troops across the Atlantic Ocean."

Hints Given on Alaskan Setup

The reports gave some hints on how matters are going in the northern bastion, Alaska, and the whole Arctic defense perimeter.

Army Secretary Gray reported troop strength in Alaska last June was 6,500. (It has grown since to about 8,000.) The combat force was made up of a single battalion of an infantry regiment and one anti-aircraft battalion. He disclosed three more antiaircraft battalions and another increment of infantry were earmarked for permanent station in Alaska, but still are in the states because no housing is available.

Navy Secretary Matthews gave brief glimpses of some new plans for the sea service in the Arctic zone, beyond which lies Russia. He spoke of an LSD (landing ship, dock) being equipped for polar work, and said it is capable of launching "substantial numbers of amphibious craft in subfreezing areas". Landing craft and amphibious tanks have been equipped for such Arctic operations, Matthews said. (Some strategists have contended that the short route to Russia, for surface attack as well as bombing planes, is through the Arctic to the Siberian coast.)

On the defensive side of the arctic picture, the Navy report showed attention being given to a matter long disturbing strategists—transportation to the remote but highly valuable oil fields near Point Barrow, on the north coast of Alaska. The Navy report said an icebreaker and several cargo ships have been operating in the area, studying "various aspects of the logistic support" of the Navy's petroleum reserve near Point Barrow.

70-Group Air Force Favored

In his report, Air Secretary Symington reaffirmed the belief of the USAF that "from a purely military standpoint, 70 groups or its equivalent (now 67 groups) is necessary for the minimum peacetime security of the United States."

But Symington said "it is our earnest desire to support the administration's budget because we realize that economic disaster could be equivalent to military disaster." (President Truman has ordered a 48-group Air Force, to which the USAF has now reduced its strength. However, the size of some groups has been increased.)

Symington's report, and an accompanying one by Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, chief of staff, set forth arguments for long range strategic bombing by the B-36s and by medium bombers refueled while in flight—strategy which has been hotly challenged from Navy quarters.

Their report said the year's activity was highlighted "by further developments of the capacity to conduct very-long-range bombing operations — thereby providing against the contingency that suitable overseas bases might not be available at the outset of any possible future hostilities."

The report disclosed the Air Force is experimenting with aerial refueling of three fighter planes at one time from a single tanker plane. It did not say whether the fighters are jets or conventional engined planes. A major tactical problem, still unsolved, is providing jet fighters with enough range to escort the long-distance bombers.

BOSTON COUNCIL BARS DELEGATES FROM JAP DIET

Chief Objector Intimates Group Probably Acting as Spies

ACT AROUSES PROTESTS

Legislature Bids Delegation Visit State House Today

BOSTON, Jan. 30—(AP) Members of the Japanese Diet (parliament), here to see democracy at work, were barred today from a meeting of the Boston City Council after one councillor intimated they were acting as spies.

Councillor James S. Coffey, who introduced the order to bar the 14 Japanese visitors from the council chambers, cried:

"They are probably here taking pictures of fortresses and trying to learn all they can about the A-bomb.

"We are feeding them and clothing them. But don't educate them so that they can start another war in a few years."

The vote was 11-8 to bar the Japanese visitors.

Coffey described himself as a disabled World War I veteran and said his son served in Germany and caught malaria in World War II.

Japs Refuse to Comment

The Japanese refused to comment on the council's action but Army Lt. Col. Robert V. Shainn, travelling with the group, issued the following statement:

"The Department of the Army wishes to reemphasize that the present mission of the Japanese Diet representatives in the United States is based on General Douglas MacArthur's desire that these legislators of the rebuilding Japan should have a chance to see at first hand the inside workings of the democratic process.

"The establishment of the new Japan with a government modeled to a large extent on our own is in a sense an insurance for a lasting peace in that part of the world which was so closely integrated with and important to our own country."

The City Council's action came but a few minutes before the Japanese—including 10 Diet members and four of the Diet's secretariat—were welcomed to City hall by Mayor John B. Hynes.

A short time later, the Massachusetts Legislature invited the Diet representatives to spend the day at the State House tomorrow to watch the state's law-making body at work.

Lt. Col. Shainn said that "nothing like this has happened before on the tour."

"As a matter of fact," he added, "The Japanese were received most cordially by city and state officials in both California and South Carolina."

Tour Not Affected

An Army spokesman in Washington said the scheduled tour of a number of other cities by the Japanese would not be affected by the incident here. He added that if the Boston Council wanted to ban them from its meeting "that is their prerogative."

Col. George P. Lynch of the office af the Undersecretary of the Army and in charge of the Japanese delegation said:

"We never asked that this group be invited to call on the City Council. The suggestion was made in the office of the mayor. We are sorry the delegation caused any misunderstanding."

A motion for reconsideration of the order that barred the Japanese was made by Councillor Milton Cook, a former Army officer who did combat duty in the Pacific.

He was supported by Councillor Perlie Dyar Chase who renounced the council's refusal as "a sorry spectacle."

All the arguments were made behind closed doors and out of earshot of the Diet representatives.

The Japanese did not wait the outcome of the unsuccessful vote for reconsideration. They filed out of City hall for their hotel quarters while the argument was in process.

The Massachusetts House of Representatives suspended its rules to adopt without delay a resolve inviting the Diet representatives to visit its deliberations.

House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill said the House felt honored that General MacArthur had designated the Massachusetts General Court as one of the bodies they should visit in their study of democracy in action.

The House also extended the Japanese special permission to take pictures, usually forbidden in the House chambers.

State department officials termed the action of the Boston Council regrettable.

The visit of the Japanese was authorized by the Congress. It authorized the Army, with State department cooperation, to bring the Japanese over and provided funds for visits by 250 national leaders, students and others.

MacArthur's Office Astonished By Ban

Tokyo, Tuesday, Jan. 31 (AP)—The Boston City Council's ban on visiting members of the Japanese Diet today evoked "surprise and astonishment" in Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters.

Brig. Gen. Courtney Whitney said, "You may say the news was received with surprise and astonishment." He is the chief of the Allied commander's government section.

The United States tour was arranged by Whitney to enable the legislators to see the processes of democracy so that democratic education in Japan could be accelerated.

"I am sure the answer will come from the people of Boston and the great Commonwealth of Massachusetts," Whitney said.

MacArthur Cable

MacArthur had cabled Boston's Mayor John B. Hynes January 20:

"I know there will come from this visit to your great city, so long identified in the forefront of leadership in the evolution of American democracy, much wise counsel and inspiration."

Other—and unofficial—reaction in Tokyo was that Boston had laid itself open to international criticism.

There was no official comment from the Japanese Government. Some Japanese officials indicated unofficially, however, they regarded the snub as reflecting more on the Boston council than on the Japanese visitors.

"After all," one said, "we have General MacArthur behind us, don't we?"

The 14 Diet members were carefully chosen by allied headquarters as among the most conscientious and deserving.

One Japanese, told of the ban, replied:

"Boston? Isn't that where they ban book and plays that win literary awards?"

China Reds Hint Russ Will Keep Rights

San Francisco, Jan. 30 (AP)—The Chinese Communists strongly indicated today their intentions to abide by the Chinese Nationalist treaty of 1945, which gave Russia special rights in Manchuria.

The Red attitude was contained in a new attack on the United States Department of State because of Secretary Acheson's assertion that Russia was in the process of detaching Manchuria and other Chinese areas from China.

Bitterly denouncing the Acheson statement of January 12 and background material which the State Department made public January 25, the Peiping Radio heard here said:

"The Soviet Union enjoys treaty rights regarding the Chinese Changchun railway in northeast China. Moreover, the Soviet Union and China are jointly defending Dairen and Port Arthur against the new aggressive threat of Japan and her collaborators. It is therefore natural that a deep friendship exists between the people of northeast China and the Soviet people."

French Official Urges U.S. Perfect H-Bomb

New York, Jan. 30 (AP) — A French official to the United Nations said today that the United States should perfect the hydrogen bomb in order to assure "better co-operation" in the United Nations.

The official, Gen. Pierre Billotte, said he agreed "perfectly" with Prof. Harold Urey and Bernard Baruch, both of whom publicly favor production of the bomb.

Urey is an atomic physicist and Baruch is author of the Baruch report for atomic-energy control submitted to the United Nations.

"When the United States was the only one to have the atomic bomb and Russia did not, the co-operation in the United Nations was much better," Billotte said. "If you have the hydrogen bomb we will have much better co-operation in the United Nations."

Anti-Communist Drive Started

New York, Jan. 30 (AP)—Representatives of 60 national organizations, claiming a combined membership of 50,000,000, have laid the groundwork for a permanent organization to combat communism in the United States.

The action was taken on the closing session yesterday of a two-day "All-American Conference" sponsored by the American Legion.

The 150 delegates voted at the Hotel Astor to form "a united front against a common enemy—world communism."

The American Legion's commander, George N. Craig, stressed the role of religion in the battle against communism, and invited all loyal Americans to join the fight. He named a seventeen-member national steering committee to direct the anti-Communist drive.

Resolution Adopted

The delegates voted to hold a second conference within 90 days to establish a "permanent pro-American, anti-Communist, unified and cohesive organization."

A resolution adopted unanimously declared: "World communism is the greatest present threat to domestic security and peace on earth, and its No. 1 targets are God and our American way of life in the United States. . . ."

The delegates included representatives of patriotic, religious, labor, business, civic, service, professional, educational, fraternal, veterans and social organizations.

Public Support Sought

The committee appointed by Craig was instructed to "act as a clearing house and information center" on fighting communism. It also was instructed to co-ordinate the work of the various organizations in the campaign and to enlist public support, without attempting to "control or supervise" the co-operating groups.

"Real" Government

The Indians, who recognize the Chinese Reds, originally proposed that the United States should admit a "recognized" government. India changed the wording then from "recognized" to "real," and said United Nations membership should be vested only in a regime able to carry out the United Nations charter obligations.

Sir Benegal Rau, Indian chief delegate, implied that the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa are unable to carry out those obligations. The Chinese Nationalist chairman for January delayed the session more than ten minutes waiting for the Soviet delegation but it did not appear. Action was deferred until after Cuba takes over the main chairmanships for February.

Another group in closed meeting is shaping a work program for the Little Assembly, the body that keeps the work of the United Nations going between General Assembly sessions. The work group has to decide how big a role the Chinese issue will have in the Little Assembly.

Private Consultations

Secretary-General Trygve Lie has been having private consultations with United Nations delegation leaders, trying to find some method to solve the problem of getting Russia and satellite representatives back into United Nations committee sessions.

India Offers U.N. Plan To Accept China Reds

Lake Success, Jan. 30 (AP)—India moved today for a means that would admit Mao Tze-tung's Peiping Reds to the United Nations as the "real" rulers of China.

The new Indian proposal was made in a subsidiary organ of the Security Council, where an effort is being made to break the Russian boycott on the United Nations imposed in protest against the continued presence of Nationalist Chinese diplomats here.

Without mentioning the Chinese question specifically, India proposed in effect that the United Nations should take in a regime that actually controls a country in preference over a government that has been driven out.

"Real" Government

The Russians and their satellites have boycotted or walked out of every United Nations session since the beginning of the year and have said they will remain away until the Nationalist Chinese are expelled from the United Nations.

AGENT ALTERS COPLON STORY

FBI Man Says She Hit At, Did Not Strike Gubitchev

New York, Jan. 30 (AP)—An FBI man who once reported seeing Judith Coplon "strike" Valentin Gubitchev with a folded newspaper said today it was a bad choice of words.

The agent, Daniel F. Garde, was one of a group of FBI men who testified in the Coplon-Gubitchev espionage conspiracy trial on their shadowing of the pair at several New York meetings.

Learns He's Married

Garde was questioned by Miss Coplon's attorney, Archibald Palmer, about a report in which Garde said he saw her "striking at him (Gubitchev) with her hand or folded newspaper."

Palmer contends Miss Coplon was in love with Gubitchev and was angered at the time by the Soviet engineer's disclosure that he was married.

The Government claims she met Gubitchev as part of a conspiracy to pass along secret papers she obtained while working in the Justice Department.

Garde re-enacted the scene at the January 14, 1949, street corner meeting.

Rolling up a wad of paper he advanced on a deputy marshal. He waved air away from the marshal several times.

Only Made Passes

Then Garde said his report meant she had made "forward motions toward Gubitchev" with the newspapers.

But, said the FBI man, he now understood the word "striking" to mean action of "a forcible nature" and for that reason would not use it.

"I cannot testify that I saw Miss Coplon strike Gubitchev," he said.

Miss Coplon has been convicted in Washington of stealing secret documents with intent to aid Russia. The conviction is under appeal.

NIGHT LEAD INDOCHINA (300)

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, JAN. 30-(AP)-BRITISH DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SAID TODAY BRITAIN WILL RECOGNIZE FORMER EMPEROR BAO DAI AND HIS FRENCH-SPONSORED VIETNAM REGIME IN INDOCHINA WITHIN THE NEXT WEEK OR SO.

EARLY AMERICAN RECOGNITION OF THE NEW STATE WAS INDICATED LAST FRIDAY BY DR.PHILIP C.JESSUP, U.S. ROVING AMBASSADOR, WHEN HE PAID A GOOD WILL VISIT TO INDOCHINA. BRITISH DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID U.S.RECOGNITION PROBABLY WILL BE TAKEN SOON AFTER THE BRITISH ACTION.

JAN 31 1950

THE BRITISH RECOGNITION WILL BE DE FACTO -- AN ACCEPTANCE OF THE FACT BAO DAI'S REGIME EXISTS. FULL -- OR DE JURE -- RECOGNITION WILL BE GIVEN ONLY WHEN THE BRITISH ARE SATISFIED THAT BAO DAI CAN COPE WITH MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI MINK'S REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT WHICH HAS TORN THE COUNTRY EVER SINCE THE JAPANESE OCCUPATION.

BRITAIN PROMISED FRANCE LAST YEAR IT WOULD RECOGNIZE BAO DAI'S GOVERNMENT AFTER THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT FORMALLY RATIFIED THE MARCH, 1949, ACCORD BETWEEN BAO DAI AND PRESIDENT VINCENT AURIOL.

THAT ACCORD WAS RATIFIED YESTERDAY AFTER A BITTER DEBATE IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

IT GIVES ASSAM, LAOS AND CAMBODIA -- THE THREE STATES WHICH MAKE UP VIETNAM -- FULL INTERNAL AUTONOMY BUT RESERVES DEFENSE AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS IN THE HANDS OF A JOINT INDOCHINESE-FRENCH HIGH COUNCIL IN PARIS.

INFORMANTS CLOSE TO AMBASSADOR JESSUP SAID IN SAIGON LAST WEEK, AFTER JESSUP HAD MET WITH FRENCH HIGH COMMISSIONER LEON PIGNON, THAT THE FRENCH COMMISSIONER HAD INSISTED ON THE NEED FOR U.S. RECOGNITION TO COUNTER-BALANCEE RED CHINA'S RECOGNITION OF HO CHI MINH'S ANTI-FRENCH "VIETNAM REPUBLIC."

THE COUNTRY, NOW BORDERING COMMUNIST CHINA, IS REGARDED BY MANY AS THE MOST VULNERABLE AT PRESENT TO COMMUNIST EXPANSION IN SOUTHEAST ASIA.

JESSUP IS EXPECTED TO REPORT ON BAO DAI'S REGIME TO THE CONFERENCE OF U.S.DIPLOMATS MEETING SOON IN BANGKOK, THAILAND. JESSUP IS ON A MISSION TO FORMULATE A NEW U.S. POLICY IN ASIA.

BAO DAI TOLD THE NEW VIETNAM CABINET A WEEK AGO HE WOULD FOLLOW A POLICY OF "COOPERATION WITH FRANCE AND OTHER DEMOCRATIC NATIONS ON A BASIS OF EQUALITY."

BY CARTER DAVIDSON

PARIS, JAN. 30-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES CONTINUED TO INSIST TODAY THAT THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES QUICKLY ARRIVE AT A STRONG EUROPEAN POLITICAL LEADER TO CONSOLIDATE THE WEST'S GAINS IN THE COLD WAR.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE ORIGINAL U.S. CANDIDATE FOR SUCH A POST -- BELGIUM'S FORMER PREMIER PAUL-HENRI SPAAK -- IS NO LONGER BEING FORMALLY PROPOSED.

ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN MET STRONG OPPOSITION LAST WEEK WHEN HE TOLD DELEGATES OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC) THAT THE U.S. WANTED THEM TO ELECT A GENERAL CHAIRMAN TO DIRECT THE WORK OF UNITYING WESTERN EUROPE ECONOMICIES.

SPAAK, WHO HAD PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S BLESSING FOR THE JOB, WAS DESCRIBED BY HOFFMAN AS "IDEALLY QUALIFIED" FOR THE JOB.

OPPOSITION, NOTABLY FROM BRITAIN AND THE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES, WAS SO STRONG THAT HOFFMAN WAS REPORTED READY TO DROP THE SPAAK PROPOSAL.

HOFFMAN, HOWEVER, WAS REPORTED PLANNING TO INSIST THAT THE OEEC COUNCIL, WHICH MEETS TOMORROW, CREATE THE POST OF A FULL-TIME GENERAL SECRETARY AND THAT IT CHOOSE FOR THAT JOB A STRONG PERSONALITY WITH POLITICAL PRESTIGE ENOUGH TO DEAL DIRECTLY WITH CABINET MINISTERS.

HOFFMAN IS HERE FOR A SERIES OF MEETINGS WITH LEADERS OF THE 18 MARSHALL PLANS AREAS. HE PLANS TO RETURN TO WASHINGTON IN FEBRUARY TO ASK CONGRESS FOR NEW MARSHALL PLAN MONEY.

BRITISH AND SCANDINAVIAN OPPOSITION TO SPAAK WAS UNDERSTOOD TO STEM FROM DISTRUST OF THE ECONOMIC PHILOSOPHY ADOPTED BY THE POSTWAR BELGIAN GOVERNMENT WHICH HE HEADED.

WHILE THAT GOVERNMENT SECURED RECOVERY FOR BELGIUM BY ABANDONING CONTROLS AND GIVING BUSINESS VIRTUALLY FREE REIN, BRITAIN AND SCANDINAVIA INSTITUTED, AND HAVE CONTINUED, EVER-MORE DRASTIC ECONOMIC CONTROLS AND GOVERNMENT ECONOMIC PLANNING. THEY FEAR THAT SPAAK, IN THE KEY OEEC POST, WOULD INFLUENCE THEIR GOVERNMENTS AWAY FROM THE PLANNED ECONOMY WHICH THEY BELIEVE ESSENTIAL TO RECOVERY.

FIRST LEAD PACT (120)

PARIS, JAN.30-(AP)-FRANCE AND GERMANY SIGNED TODAY A TRADE PACT CALLING FOR EXCHANGE OF ABOUT $300,000,000 WORTH OF GOODS IN THE NEXT SIX MONTHS. TODAY'S SIGNING ENDED TWO MONTHS OF NEGOTIATIONS.

EARLIER ANNOUNCEMENTS BY BOTH THE FRENCH AND GERMANS HAD SAID THE PACT WOULD COVER MORE THAN $500,000,000 WORTH OF BUSINESS ANNUALLY, BUT THE FINAL AGREEMENT COVERED ONLY A SIX MONTHS PERIOD.

THE AGREEMENT WILL GO INTO EFFECT IMMEDIATELY AND SUPERSEDES A PREVIOUS TREATY, WHICH STILL HAD ABOUT SIX MONTHS TO RUN, PROVIDING FOR AN EXCHANGE OF ABOUT $220,000,000 WORTH OF GOODS.

OF THE $300,000,000 TOTAL GERMANY WILL SUPPLY HALF AND FRANCE HALF. PAYMENTS WILL BE MADE IN FRANCS AND MARKS. AMERICAN DOLLARS WILL NOT BE INVOLVED.

JAN 31 1950

NEGOTIATIONS ON THE TREATY BEGAN TWO MONTHS AGO BUT WERE DELAYED REPEATEDLY BY DISAGREEMENT ON THE TECHNICAL LISTS OF GOODS TO BE EXCHANGED.

ANOTHER DELAY AROSE WHEN THE WEST GERMANY GOVERNMENT FOR NEARLY TWO WEEKS DECLINED TO SIGN THE PACT "IN THE ATMOSPHERE OF DISAGREEMENT" OVER THE FUTURE OF THE SAAR COAL-MINING VALLEY.

THE GERMANS HAD SOUGHT A CHANGE IN THE PRESENT STATUS OF THE SAAR, FORMERLY A PART OF GERMANY, WHICH NOW HAS AN AUTONOMOUS INTERNAL ADMINISTRATION UNDER FRENCH CONTROL.

FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN, DURING AN OFFICIAL VISIT TO BONN EARLY THIS MONTH, INFORMED WEST GERMAN CHANCELLOR KONRAD ADENAUER THAT ANY FINAL DECISION ON THE SAAR'S FUTURE WOULD HAVE TO AWAIT THE NEGOTIATION OF A GERMAN PEACE TREATY.

FRANCE'S POLICY MEANWHILE TOWARD THE SAAR WOULD REMAIN UNCHANGED DESPITE GERMAN OBJECTIONS, SCHUMAN FLATLY TOLD ADENAUER.

THE GERMAN CHANCELLOR LATER MADE A CONCILIATORY STATEMENT ON THE SAAR QUESTION, SMOOTHING THE BITTER FEELING BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.

PARIS, JAN. 30-(AP)-PREMIER GEORGES BIDAULT'S THREE-MONTH-OLD CABINET FACES TOMORROW ~~ITS~~ SECOND ROUND OF NATIONAL ~~ASSEM~~BLY VOTES OF CONFIDENCE ON NEW TAXES TO BALANCE THE 1950 BUDGET.

BIDAULT STAKED THE LIFE OF HIS GOVERNMENT ON THE BUDGET ISSUE FOR THE SECOND TIME WITHIN A MONTH AFTER THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT'S UPPER HOUSE, THE COUNCIL OF THE REPUBLIC, AMENDED VARIOUS TAX MEASURES APPROVED BY THE ASSEMBLY IN VOTES OF CONFIDENCE JAN. 2.

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED BY THE COUNCIL MUST BE REJECTED BY THE ASSEMBLY BEFORE THE ORIGINAL TAX MEASURES CAN BECOME LAW.

WITH THESE VOTES IN THE "CONFIDENCE" CATEGORY, BIDAULT MUST RESIGN IF VOTED DOWN. HE THUS PROMISED OPPONENTS ANOTHER FRENCH CABINET CRISIS IF HIS ORIGINAL 2,257 BILLION FRANC ($6,300,000,000) BUDGET IS NOT RESTORED.

BIDAULT ASKED FOR FIVE VOTES OF CONFIDENCE. THREE WILL COME OVER THE UPPER CHAMBER'S REJECTIONS OF A PRODUCTION TAX INCREASE, AN INCREASE IN THE TAX ON TRUCKING COMPANIES AND A NEW TAX ON UNDISTRIBUTED CORPORATION PROFITS.

ON THE FOURTH VOTE, BIDAULT WILL ASK THE ASSEMBLY TO REJECT A PROPOSAL TO SAVE 7,000,000,000 (B) FRANCS ($20,000,000) ON EXPENSES OF CIVILIAN MINISTRIES AND RAILROAD RECONSTRUCTION. THE LAST VOTE WILL BE ON A DEMAND TO REAPPROVE THE ORIGINAL BUDGET AS A WHOLE.

BY HARVEY HUDSON

PARIS, JAN.30-(AP)-PREMIER GEORGES BIDAULT DRAWS HIS MOST SUCCESSFUL POLITICAL SWORD--THE VOTE OF CONFIDENCE--AGAIN TOMORROW IN AN EFFORT TO SAVE AND SEAL HIS RECORD 1950 BUDGET.

BIDAULT ALREADY HAS WON SIX VOTES OF CONFIDENCE IN GETTING PASSAGE BY THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY ON JAN. 2. OF HIS 2,257 BILLION FRANC ($6,300,000,000) BUDGET. THEN THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT UPPER HOUSE, THE COUNCIL OF THE REPUBLIC, BALKED AT VARIOUS INCREASED TAXES NECESSARY TO MAKE THE BUDGET BALANCE.

TOMORROW BIDAULT FACES THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY AGAIN IN A FIVE-PRONGED VOTE OF CONFIDENCE. THE COUNCIL'S AMENDMENTS MUST BE REJECTED BY THE ASSEMBLY BEFORE THE BUDGET CAN BECOME LAW.

THE CONFIDENCE QUESTION IS POSED ON THREE QUESTIONS OF TAX INCREASES, ONE ON PROPOSED REDUCTIONS IN CIVIL EXPENSES AND THE FIFTH ON THE BUDGET AS A WHOLE.

THE FIRST THREE VOTES WILL COME OVER THE COUNCIL'S REJECTION OF A PRODUCTION TAX INCREASE FROM 12.5 TO 13.5 PER CENT, AN INCREASE IN THE TAX ON TRUCKING COMPANIES AND A NEW 10 PER CENT TAX ON UNDISTRIBUTED CORPORATION PROFITS.

ON THE FOURTH VOTE BIDAULT WILL ASK THE ASSEMBLY TO REJECT A PROPOSAL TO SAVE 7,000,000,000(B) FRANCS ($20,000,000) ON EXPENSES OF CIVIL MINISTRIES AND RAILROAD RECONSTRUCTION. THE LAST VOTE WILL BE ON A DEMAND FOR REAPPROVAL OF THE ORIGINAL BUDGET AS A WHOLE.

UNDER FRENCH PROCEDURE, THE ASSEMBLY CAN OVERRIDE THE COUNCIL AND PUT LAWS INTO EFFECT BY RE-PASSING THEM.

THE ASSEMBLY SEEMS TO HAVE HAD A CHANGE OF HEART, HOWEVER, AND IS NOT TOO EAGER TO PASS THE SAME BUDGET BILL IT APPROVED JAN. 2. THAT IS WHY BIDAULT AND HIS CABINET PULLED OUT THE CONFIDENCE QUESTION TO FORCE THE ISSUE.

PARIS, JAN.30-(AP)-POLAND DISCLOSED TODAY SHE HAS STOPPED BUYING AUTOMOBILES AND MINE EQUIPMENT FROM FRANCE UNDER THEIR CURRENT AGREEMENT. THE MOVE APPARENTLY IS IN RETALIATION AGAINST FRANCE'S FAILURE TO SEND A DELEGATION TO WARSAW TO NEGOTIATE A NEW TRADE PACT.

A POLISH EMBASSY SPOKESMAN HERE SAID FRANCE'S DECISION NOT TO NEGOTIATE A RENEWAL OF THE PACT "HAD NO ECONOMIC BASIS AND WAS THEREFORE INSPIRED BY POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS."

IN LIGHT OF THAT, HE SAID, POLAND WILL NO LONGER PLACE ORDERS IN FRANCE, OR SEND SHIPMENTS OF COAL TO THE FRENCH UNDER THE EXISTING AGREEMENT. THE SPOKESMAN MADE PUBLIC A NOTE FROM THE POLISH GOVERNMENT TO THAT EFFECT.

A FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN TOLD REPORTERS THAT FRANCE HAD NOT BROKEN OFF TRADE NEGOTIATIONS WITH POLAND.

"THE ONLY STATEMENT WE MADE," HE SAID, "WAS IN EFFECT TO REFUSE TO SEND A MISSION TO POLAND UNTIL WE CAN BE REASONABLY SURE IT WILL NOT BE ARRESTED."

FRENCH-POLISH RELATIONS HAVE WORSENED IN RECENT MONTHS WITH ARRESTS OF FRENCH REPRESENTATIVES IN POLAND FOR ALLEGED SPY ACTIVITIES. FRANCE, IN TURN, HAS EXPELLED POLISH TEACHERS FROM ITS TERRITORY AND DISSOLVED POLISH ORGANIZATIONS.

ROME, JAN 30-(AP)-A MILD-MANNERED UNITED STATES CAREER DIPLOMAT, JOSEPH JACOBS, BEGAN HIS WORK HERE TODAY AS SPECIAL ARMS AID ADVISOR TO THE U.S. EMBASSY. HIS ARRIVAL HAD BEEN HERALDED BY COMMUNIST PLACARDS DECLARING "J-IS COMING. WAR," AND "DEATH TO JACOBS."

JACOBS, FORMER U.S. AMBASSADOR TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA, SAID HE HAD NOT SEEN ANY OF THE COMMUNISTS SIGNS, BUT THAT HE HAD READ "INTERESTING" ARTICLES IN THE COMMUNIST PRESS ABOUT HIS ARRIVAL LAST WEEK.

"I DIDN'T COME IN A BRITISH DESTROYER AS THEY SAID," HE COMMENTED. "I SIMPLY DROVE DOWN QUIETLY IN MY CAR FROM NICE, FRANCE, AND STOPPED OVER NIGHT AT PISA."

HE EMPHASIZED THAT THE ARMS AID PROGRAM HERE -- ITALY'S SHARE IN THE $1,000,000,000 PROGRAM FOR MUTUAL DEFENSE AGAINST COMMUNIST AGGRESSION-- WAS UNDER DIRECT CHARGE OF U.S. AMBASSADOR JAMES C. DUNN.

HIS OWN JOB, JACOBS SAID, WAS THAT OF SPECIAL ADVISOR.

HE SAID HE HAD NO EXACT INFORMATION WHEN THE FIRST ARMS AID SHIPMENTS WOULD BEGIN TO ARRIVE AT ITALIAN PORTS. IT HAD BEEN ESTIMATED UNOFFICIALLY THE FIRST SHIPS MIGHT ARRIVE BETWEEN FEB. 15 AND MARCH 1. COMMUNIST WORKERS AT SOME NORTH ITALIAN PORTS HAVE SAID THEY WILL REFUSE TO UNLOAD ARMS SHIPMENTS.

A GROUP OF 10 TO 20 AMERICAN MILITARY TECHNICIANS TO EXPLAIN THE USE AND OPERATION OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT WILL BE ATTACHED TO JACOBS' OFFICE. SOME ARE NOW ON THEIR WAY TO ITALY.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, JAN 30-(AP)-THE ETHIOPIAN GOVERNMENT ADVISED THE UNITED NATIONS TRUSTESHIP COUNCIL TODAY IT DOES NOT REGARD VALID THE TRUSTESHIP AGREEMENT PROVIDING FOR A TEN YEAR ADMINISTRATION OF SOMALILAND BY ITALY.

ATO ABEBE ARETTA, ETHIOPIAN OBSERVER TO THE COUNCIL, CITED ARTICLE 79 OF THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS WHICH PROVIDES THAT THE TERMS OF TRUSTESHIP "SHALL BE AGREED UPON BY THE STATES DIRECTLY CONCERNED." GARREAU SAID HE HOPED THE PLAN WOULD WIN "THE WILLING COOPERATION" OF ISRAEL AND JORDAN. REFERRING TO STATEMENTS IN ISRAEL THAT THE PEOPLE OF JERUSALEM WOULD CONDUCT PASSIVE RESISTANCE AGAINST INTERNATIONALIZATION, HE SAID THE MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE "ARDENTLY DESIRE" A REGIME UNDER WHICH "THEY COULD ONCE AGAINS SETTLE DOWN TO LIVE IN PEACE, INTERMINGLING WITH ONE ANOTHER AS THEY HAVE DONE FOR [illegible]."

HE SAID HE HAD RECEIVED "AMPLE AND FERVENT TESTIMONY OF THIS ATTITUDE" IN COMMUNICATIONS FROM "ALL RACES AND RELIGIONS." HE PROPOSED THAT THE COUNCIL INVITE REPRESENTATIVES OF ISRAEL AND JORDAN AS WELL AS REPRESENTATIVES OF RELIGIOUS GROUPS TO DISCUSS THE PLAN.

JOSE INGLES OF THE PHILIPPINES IMMEDIATELY DECLARED GARREAU'S PLAN CALLED FOR A "MUCH MORE LIMITED AREA" THAN THAT CONTEMPLATED IN U.N. ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION AND "DEFEATS THE VERY ENDS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY."

"THAT RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED AND IS ENTITLED TO RESPECT," HE SAID.

FADHIL JAMALI OF IRAQ ASKED "IS IT FOR US TO GO BACK ON A RESOLUTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY?"

A REPRESENTATIVE OF ISRAEL SAID HE WOULD NOT COMMENT UNTIL HIS GOVERNMENT HAS STUDIED THE PLAN.

ANOTHER BODY, THE U.N. PALESTINE CONCILIATION COMMISSION, SAT IN TWO SEPARATE SESSIONS WITH JEWS AND ARABS HERE TODAY.

ELY E.PALMER, U.S. CHAIRMAN OF THE CONCILIATION COMMISSION, STRONGLY URGED ARABS AND JEWS TO OPEN DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS FOR A SEPARATE PALESTINE PEACE TO REPLACE THE PRESENT CHAIN OF ARMISTICE AGREEMENTS.

GENEVA, FIRST ADD JERUSALEM (A74) XXX AGREEMENTS.

GARREAU, WHO HAS CONFERRED WITH MANY INTERESTED PARTIES, INCLUDING CHURCH GROUPS, PROPOSED A STATUTE WHICH WOULD SET UP A SEPARATE INTERNATIONALIZED TERRITORY INSIDE JERUSALEM WHICH WOULD BE NEUTRALIZED AND DEMILITARIZED UNDER AN INTERNATIONAL REGIME. THE STATUTE WOULD PROVIDE FREE ACCESS TO HOLY PLACES AND FULL RESPECT FOR THE SHRINES.

WHERE ISRAEL AND JORDAN WERE NOT SEPARATED BY THE BOUNDARIES OF THIS NEW ZONE, A PROVISIONAL LINE WOULD BE DRAWN BETWEEN THEIR AREAS OF THE CITY.

GARREAU EXPRESSED HOPE THE ISRAELI AND JORDANIAN GOVERNMENTS WOULD COOPERATE TO PUT THE PLAN INTO EFFECT.

"THERE IS AS YET NO MEASURE OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL AND THE ARAB GOVERNMENTS ON THE QUESTION OF HOW THE HOLY CITY COULD BE PROTECTED IN THE FUTURE AGAINST ANY DANGER OF AN OUTBREAK BETWEEN HOSTILE NEIGHBORS," GARREAU SAID.

GARREAU'S PROPOSAL APPARENTLY AIMS AT SETTING UP A RELATIVELY SMALL AREA AS AN INTERNATIONAL ZONE, WITH SMALL ENCLAVES OUTSIDE OF IT.

REFERRING TO OBJECTIONS RAISED BY ISRAEL AND JORDAN THAT THE POPULATION OF JERUSALEM OPPOSED AN INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY, GARREAU SAID:

"THE MAJORITY OF THE POPULATION OF PALESTINE DESCENT, WHATEVER THEIR RACE OR RELIGION, WOULD WELCOME WITH RELIEF A REGIME UNDER WHICH THEY COULD ONCE AGAIN SETTLE DOWN TO LIVE IN PEACE, INTERMINGLNG WITH ONE ANOTHER AS THEY HAVE DONE FOR CENTURIES."

GARREAU'S PLAN WOULD SET UP A "GOVERNOR OF THE HOLY PLACES" AS ADMINISTRATOR OF THE INTERNATIONAL ZONE, WITH THE DUTY OF PROTECTING HOLY PLACES IN ANY PART OF PALESTINE. THE GOVERNOR WOULD DIRECT THE EXTERNAL AFFAIRS OF THE INTERNATIONAL ZONE AND HAVE INTERNATIONAL POLICE FORCES AT HIS DISPOSAL. THE FLAG OF THE U.N. WOULD FLY OVER THE INTERNATIONAL AREA.

THE INTERNATIONAL ZONE WOULD HAVE ITS OWN COURTS, WITH THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF ITS SUPREME COURT APPOINTED BY THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL.

THE STATUTE PROPOSED BY GARREAU WOULD REMAIN IN FORCE FOR 10 YEARS, AND THEREAFTER "BE REVIEWED BY THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL IN THE LIGHT OF THE EXPERIENCE ACQUIRED DURING THE APPLICATION OF ITS PROVISIONS." THE POPULATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL AREA THEN WOULD BE ALLOWED TO EXPRESS VIEWS ON PROPOSED CHANGES.

GARREAU SUGGESTED THAT REPRESENTATIVES OF ISRAEL AND JORDAN BE PERMITTED TO TAKE PART, WITHOUT VOTE, IN DEBATE ON THE INTERNATIONALIZATION PROPOSAL, AND THAT RELIGIOUS GROUPS BE INVITED TO EXPRESS VIEWS.

IRAQI AND PHILIPPINES DELEGATES OBJECTED TO GARREAU'S PROPOSALS. THESE, THEY SAID, CONTRADICTED THE DECISIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, WHICH SOUGHT INTERNATIONALIZATION OF ALL JERUSALEM. JOSE INGLES OF THE PHILIPPINES SAID THAT "WHATEVER OUR DOUBTS MIGHT HAVE BEEN IN REGARD TO THE ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION, THAT RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED AND IS ENTITLED TO RESPECT.".

INGLES SAID GARREAU'S PLAN INCLUDED IN THE U.N. TERRITORY LAND NOT IN THE AREA ENVISIONED IN THE ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION, ALTHOUGH THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF LAND INVOLVED WAS MORE LIMITED.

"WE CANNOT UNDER THE GUISE OF DEMOCRATIZATION DEFEAT THE VERY ENDS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY," INGLES SAID.

GARREAU REPLIED HIS PLAN SIMPLY IS ONE INTERPRETATION OF THE ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION.

A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT SAID HE COULD MAKE NO COMMENT ON THE GARREAU PLAN UNTIL IT HAD BEEN EXAMINED BY HIS GOVERNMENT.

ISRAEL OCCUPIES THE NEW CITY OF JERUSALEM AND JORDAN, THE OLD WALLED CITY. THE ISRAELIS HAVE MADE IT CLEAR THEY CONSIDER JERUSALEM THEIR TRADITIONAL CAPITAL, AND THE KNESSET (PARLIAMENT) A WEEK AGO DECLARED THAT THE HOLY CITY AUTOMATICALLY BECAME ISRAEL'S CAPITAL WHEN THE JEWISH STATE WAS FORMED IN MAY, 1948.

THERE HAS BEEN NO OUTRIGHT PROCLAMATION OF JERUSALEM AS THE CAPITAL OF ISRAEL,BUT TH ISRAELIS

CAPITAL OF ISRAEL,BUT THE ISRAELIS HAVE BITTERLY OPPOSED INTERNATIONALIZATION. THE JORDANIANS LIKEWISE OPPOSE THE ASSEMBLY PROPOSAL.

Bonn, Germany, Jan. 30--(AP)--Dr. Kurt Schumacher, [redacted] leader of the Social Democrat (Socialist) Party in West Germany, objected today to a proposal for including the Saar in the Council of Europe.

Schumacher voiced his objection after a conference here with Andre Philip, secretary general of the European federalist movement and former French cabinet minister.

JAN 31 1950

After the conference, Schumacher said that fundamental democratic freedoms are a pre-condition to membership in the Council of Europe, adding:

"But these freedoms are being violated daily in the Saar."

The Socialist chief is leader of the opposition in the West German [redacted] Parliament.

The council has been considering inviting both the Saar and West Germany to become members. The council, ~~now composed of about a dozen countries~~, now has advisory powers. Many of its proponents hope it will eventually become a West European federal union.

PRECEDE LONDON INDOCHINA

BY THOMAS P. WHITNEY

MOSCOW, TUESDAY, JAN 31-(AP)-THE SOVIET UNION ANNOUNCED TODAY IT HAS RECOGNIZED THE INDOCHINA REPUBLIC OF VIET-NAM HEADED BY MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI MINH AND HAS AGREED TO EXCHANGE ENVOYS.

RECOGNITION OF THE HO CHI MINH REGIME BY RUSSIA FOLLOWS ITS RECOGNITION BY THE CHINESE PEOPLES (COMMUNIST) REPUBLIC.

RUSSIA'S ACTION OBVIOUSLY IS OF MAJOR INTEREST TO FRANCE, WHICH IN ADDITION TO ITS SUPPORT OF THE RIVAL VIET-NAM GOVERNMENT OF BAO DAI HAS DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION.

(HO CHI MINH'S REBEL GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN WAGING GUERRILLA WARFARE AGAINST FRENCH TROOPS SINCE DEC. 19,1946.

(RUSSIA'S RECOGNITION OF THIS INSURGENT REGIME PRECEDES EXPECTED BRITISH AND AMERICAN RECOGNITION OF THE INDOCHINESE STATE HEADED BY BAO DAI, FORMER EMPEROR OF ANNAM. THAT STATE, ALSO REFERRED TO AS VIET NAM, INCLUDES 40 PER CENT OF THE AREA AND MOST OF THE POPULATION OF INDOCHINA.

(THE BRITISH HAVE ANNOUNCED THEY WILL RECOGNIZE BAO DIA'S GOVERNMENT NEXT WEEK. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON SENT GREETINGS TO THE FORMER EMPEROR AND SAID THE UNITED STATES "LOOKS FORWARD TO ESTABLISHING CLOSER RELATIONSHIP WITH HIS STATE."

(THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT HAS RATIFIED AN AGREEMENT REACHED LAST MARCH WITH BAO DAI.)

SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH THE RUSSIAN ANNOUNCEMENT, THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS DISTRIBUTED A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF INDOCHINA WHICH CONCLUDED:

"ACCORDING TO RELIABLE SOURCES THE PUPPET 'GOVERNMENT' OF BAO DAI IS AN EMPTY CREATION FOR IT REPRESENTS NOTHING BESIDES A SMALL GROUP OF REACTIONARIES."

THE TASS DESCRIPTION SAID HO CHI MINH'S REPUBLIC CONTROLS 90 PER CENT OF THE POPULATION OF INDOCHINA AND THAT ONLY 2,000,000 OF THE 20,000,000 POPULATION ARE IN AREAS OCCUPIED BY THE FRENCH.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF THE STATEMENT OF PRESIDENT HO CHI MINH OF JAN. 14,1950, WITH THE PROPOSAL MADE TO ALL GOVERNMENTS TO ESTABLISH DIPLOM. RELATIONS.

HAVING CONSIDERED THE PROPOSAL OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF VIET-NAM AND TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE FACT THAT THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF VIET-NAM REPRESENTS THE OVERWHELMING MAJORITY OF THE POPULATION OF THE COUNTRY, THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS DECIDED TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE SOVIET UNION AND THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF VIET-NAM AND TO EXCHANGE MINISTERS. ON INSTRUCTION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE USSR. VISHINSKY. (END TEXT)

THE ACCOMPANYING TASS ACCOUNT SAID THE FRENCH HAD GIVEN THEIR "PUPPET GOVERNMENT OF BAO DAI" CERTAIN POSSIBILITIES TO ESTABLISH

RELATIONS WITH THE OUTER WORLD AND THAT THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAD ANNOUNCED THEIR INTENTION OF RECOGNIZING THE BAO DAI GOVERNMENT.

WHEN THE SOVIET ANNOUNCEMENT CAME, MEMBERS OF THE FRENCH AND AMERICAN EMBASSIES WERE ASLEEP AND WERE NOT AVAILABLE FOR COMMENT.

THE SOVIET PRESS HAS CARRIED FREQUENT ARTICLES MAKING CLEAR THE SOVIET ATTITUDE TOWARD INDOCHINA. THESE ARTICLES HAVE PREDICTED UNANIMOUSLY THAT HO CHI MINH'S FORCES WOULD FREE THE COUNTRY OF FRENCH TROOPS.

OTHER ARTICLES HERE HAVE DEPICTED THE CLOSEST COOPERATION BETWEEN FRENCH FORCES IN VIET-NAM AND THE KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST) ARMIES FLEEING CHINA.

FIRST NEWS OF THE RUSSIAN MOVE WAS FLASHED BY MOSCOW RADIO AND HEARD BY THE SOVIET MONITOR IN LONDON.

IT ASKED "ALL THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE WORLD" TO GRANT HO CHI MINH RECOGNITION RESPECTING HIS EQUALITY AND SOVEREIGNTY.

REDS REPORTS SAID SEVERAL MORE HEAVY BOMBERS HAD BEEN TRANSFERRED TO HAINAN FROM FORMOSA.

OFFICIAL SOURCES HERE SAID THE REDS HAD 5,000 MOTOR POWERED JUNKS AND OTHER SMALL CRAFT READY FOR THE HAINAN INVASION.

GEN. HSIA YU-TSAI, DIRECTOR OF THE TAIPEI OFFICE OF THE HAINAN DEFENSE COMMAND, SAID THE VESSELS WOULD TRY TO MOVE BETWEEN 100,000 AND 200,000 COMMUNIST TROOPS ACROSS THE NARROW HAINAN STRAIT FOR THE ASSAULT ON THE BIG ISLAND.

HSIA SAID THE REDS WOULD NEVER BE ABLE TO CONQUER HAINAN WITHOUT RUSSIAN HELP, PRESUMABLY IN THE FORM OF TECHNICAL ADVISORS, PLANES AND SUBMARINES.

HSIA REPORTED THE HAINAN COMMAND HAD 100,000 REGULARS AND 90,000 MILITIAMEN ON HAND TO MEET THE REDS. SOME 15,000 RED GUERRILLAS HAVE BEEN SURROUNDED IN THE MOUNTAINS OF NORTHERN HAINAN, HE SAID.

(REPORTS OF THE MOUNTING RED INVASION WERE AT VARIANCE WITH THE JAN. 18 STATEMENT OF HAINAN COMMANDER, GEN. HSUEH YUEH. HE SAID THEN NATIONALIST PLANE AND NAVAL RAIDS HAD DESTROYED MORE THAN 2,000 COMMUNIST INVASION CRAFT AND MADE AN INVASION IMPOSSIBLE.)

ELSEWHERE NATIONALIST PLANES ROAMED CHINESE COMMUNIST SKIES BLASTING AT RED CONCENTRATIONS ON THE MAINLAND.

A DISPATCH FROM THE CHUSAN ISLANDS SAID ALL NATIONALIST DEFENDERS OF THOSE BLOCKADE ISLANDS 100 MILES SOUTH OF SHANGHAI ARE PREPARED TO COMMIT SUICIDE RATHER THAN SURRENDER TO THE COMMUNISTS. THE COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN MOUNTING AN INVASION ATTEMPT AGAINST THE CHUSANS FROM HANGCHOW BAY.

CY226APS

TOPPING OBSERVED THAT, ALTHOUGH THE NATIONALIST COMMAND WAS ANXIOUS TO GIVE THE IMPRESSION IT WAS FAIRLY SECURE, THE REDS SHOULD BE ABLE TO INFILTRATE HAINAN ALMOST AT WILL.

HE NOTED THAT THE NATIONALISTS HAD ONLY ABOUT 40 BOMBERS AND FIGHTER PLANES AND A DOZEN SMALL GUNBOATS, WHICH COULD NOT MAKE AN INVASION-PROOF SCREEN.

HAINAN ISLAND, JAN. 30-(AP)-GEN. HSUEH YUEH, NATIONALIST MILITARY COMMANDER OF HAINAN ISLAND, SAID TODAY HIS FORCES WILL HOLD THIS BIG SOUTH CHINA ISLAND IF THE IMPENDING RED INVASION IS HELD OFF UNTIL AFTER APRIL 1.

THE GENERAL SAID NATIONALIST GUNBOATS AND PLANES ARE DEPENDED UPON TO HOLD OFF THE REDS ON NEARBY LIUCHOW PENINSULA UNTIL DEFENSES HERE CAN BE ERECTED AND HIS 140,000 (CQ) TROOPS TRAINED INTO FIRST CLASS FIGHTING UNITS.

NATIONALIST AUTHORITIES HERE ARE ANXIOUS TO GIVE THE IMPRESSION HAINAN ISLAND IS FAIRLY SECURE. THEY HOPE THEREBY TO ENCOURAGE AMERICAN AID AND INCREASE MEAGER ASSISTANCE BEING GIVEN THEM BY GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S REGIME IN FORMOSA.

THE CHANCES OF A SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE OF HAINAN ISLAND IN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS DO NOT APPEAR AS GOOD AS THE MILITARY MEN SAY. THE ISLAND WILL REMAIN FOR A LONG TIME IN A PRECARIOUS POSITION SUBJECT TO INVASION ANY DAY, NEUTRAL OBSERVERS THINK.

WASHINGTON, JAN.30-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN RECEIVED TODAY AN OLD GREEK VASE DATING TO THE FIFTH CENTURY B.C. ALONG WITH A REPORT THAT CONDITIONS IN GREECE NOW ARE "PROMISING."

BOTH WERE PRESENTED BY JOHN BLANDFORD, WHO IS QUITTING AS DEPUTY ECA CHIEF FOR GREECE.

BLANDFORD DESCRIBED CONDITIONS IN GREECE AS "PROMISING AT THE TIME I LEFT." HE SAID THERE WAS "A PICTURE OF GREAT STABILITY," WITH THE GUERRILLAS BEATEN, INFLATION STOPPED, ROADS RECONSTRUCTED AND THE COUNTRY READY FOR AN ELECTION AND FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.

THE ANCIENT BIT OF POTTERY, BLANDFORD SAID, IS A FOOT-HIGH VASE WHICH MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR ZAIMIS OF GREECE ASKED HIM TO BRING TO MR.TRUMAN. BLANDFORD SAID THE GIFT WAS A "GENEROUS, IMPULSIVE GESTURE" FROM A MAN WHO COMES FROM A VERY OLD FAMILY. THE VASE, HE SAID, IS FROM THE FAMILY COLLECTION.

AS TO HIS OWN FUTURE, BLANDFORD SAID HE HOPES TO REMAIN IN GOVERNMENT SERVICE, WHERE HE HAS SEVERAL OFFERS, AND HE IS PARTICULARLY INTERESTED IN "GOVERNMENT-BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS." IN THE PAST, HE HAS SERVED WITH TVA, THE BUDGET BUREAU, AND THE NATIONAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION.

WASHINGTON, JAN.30-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID LAST NIGHT THAT, DESPITE MOUNTING CONGRESSIONAL DEMANDS, HE HAS NEITHER OFFERED TO QUIT BECAUSE OF THE ALGER HISS CASE NOR HAS HE BEEN ASKED TO DO SO BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

ACHESON SAID LAST WEEK THAT "I DO NOT INTEND TO TURN MY BACK ON ALGER HISS," A STATEMENT WHICH PROMPTED NUMEROUS LAWMAKERS TO DEMAND HIS RESIGNATION.

HISS, A FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, HAS BEEN CONVICTED OF PERJURY IN A TRIAL THAT LINKED HIM WITH COMMUNISTS AND SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS IMPRISONMENT.

STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J.MCDERMOTT ISSUED THIS STATEMENT LAST NIGHT WITH ACHESON'S APPROVAL, FOLLOWING REPORTS ACHESON HAD OFFERED TO QUIT TO SAVE MR.TRUMAN EMBARASSMENT:

"NEITHER THE SECRETARY NOR THE PRESIDENT HAS EVER RAISED THE QUESTION OF THE SECRETARY SUBMITTING HIS RESIGNATION."

MR.TRUMAN, ASKED AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE FRIDAY WHETHER HE WOULD TURN HIS BACK ON ALGER HISS, SHOT BACK THAT HE WOULDN'T ANSWER QUESTIONS ABOUT THE HISS CASE BECAUSE THEY WEREN'T ASKED WITH GOOD INTENT.

TIBETAN (300)

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 30-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO SAID TODAY TIBETAN "DEMOCRATIC PERSONAGES" IN PEIPING HAVE "ADVISED" TIBET'S GOVERNMENT TO GIVE UP ANY IDEAS OF INDEPENDENCE AND JOIN UP WITH RED CHINA.

THE PEIPING BROADCAST, HEARD IN SAN FRANCISCO BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, DID NOT IDENTIFY THE "DEMOCRATIC PERSONAGES."

ACCORDING TO THE BROADCAST, HOWEVER, THEY SENT A JOINT MESSAGE "TO THE PEOPLE OF TIBET THROUGH THE PEKING (PEIPING) BROADCASTING STATION YESTERDAY EVENING URGING LHASA AUTHORITIES TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO PEKING TO NEGOTIATE THE PEACEFUL LIBERATION OF TIBET."

THE MESSAGE ATTRIBUTED TO THE "DEMOCRATIC PERSONAGES" WAS A FOLLOWUP TO AN OFFICIAL CHINESE COMMUNIST WARNING OF JAN. 21 THAT ANY COUNTRY ENGAGING IN DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH TIBET WOULD BE CONSIDERED HOSTILE.

THE OFFICIAL RED SPOKESMAN IN PEIPING WAS COMMENTING THEN ON REPORTS THAT THE LHASA GOVERNMENT INTENDED TO SEND GOODWILL MISSIONS TO THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, INDIA AND NEPAL.

THE "DEMOCRATIC PERSONAGES" SUPPORTED THE OFFICIAL PEIPING STAND, TODAY'S BROADCAST SAID. IT ADDED, QUOTING THEIR MESSAGE:

"THAT TIBET IS A PART OF CHINA IS A FACT KNOWN TO ALL AND DENIED BY NO ONE. HENCE, THE LHASA AUTHORITIES CERTAINLY HAVE NEITHER THE RIGHT TO SEND ARBITRARILY ANY SO-CALLED 'MISSION' NOR THE RIGHT TO SHOW THE SO-CALLED 'INDEPENDENCE' OF TIBET X X X

"THEREFORE, FOR THE SAKE OF THE INTEREST OF THE TIBETAN PEOPLE, WE TIBETAN DEMOCRATIC PERSONAGES IN PEKING SINCERELY ADVISE THE LHASA AUTHORITIES TO CANCEL IMMEDIATELY THE PLAN OF SENDING UNLAWFUL 'GOODWILL MISSIONS' TO THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, INDIA AND NEPAL. SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 30-(AP)-COMMUNIST CHINA'S RADIO TODAY CHARGED DOUGLAS S. MACKIERNAN OF STOUGHTON, MASS., AMERICAN VICE CONSUL IN SINKIANG PROVINCE, "HAS BEEN EXPOSED AS AN ESPIONAGE AGENT."

THE RED RADIO SAID THREE WHITE RUSSIAN CONFEDERATES SURRENDERED. IT SAID THEY NAMED MACKIERNAN AS A HARD RIDING SPY WHO SOUGHT TO ORGANIZE THE BANDITS OF THE FAR WESTERN CHINESE PROVINCE WHERE RUSSIA HAS SPECIAL PRIVILEGES.

IT SAID MACKIERNAN FLED TO INDIA AFTER RIDING HORSEBACK OVER HUNDREDS OF MILES TO BANDIT LAIRS IN THE WILD BACK COUNTRY.

THE BROADCAST WAS NOT CONFIRMED BY ANY OTHER SOURCE. IT WAS HEARD BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS HERE.

MACKIERNAN WAS SAID TO HAVE LEFT TIHWA, SINKIANG CAPITAL, LAST SEPT. 23. WITH HIM, THE RADIO REPORTED, WERE FRANK B. BESSON, AN AMERICAN STUDENT, VASILI ZVANTSOFF, AND TWO OTHER WHITE RUSSIANS. THE PARTY STARTED OUT IN A JEEP WITH TWO RADIO SETS.

"ZVANTSOFF," THE COMMUNISTS BROADCAST, WAS THE RIGHT-HAND MAN OF THE BANDIT CHIEF WUSMAN AND HAD BEEN LEAKING SECRET RADIO COMMUNICATIONS FROM MACKIERNAN SINCE FEBRUARY OF 1949."

NEAR FUYUAN, 100 MILES EAST OF TIHWA, THE PARTY ABANDONED THE JEEP THE RED RADIO SAID, AND JOINED WHITE RUSSIAN BANDITS. ON HORSEBACK THEY RODE TO SARKAMUHT, NEAR THE OUTER MONGOLIAN BORDER. THERE THEY REPORTEDLY MET THE BANDIT WUSMAN.

THE ENTIRE PARTY RODE MORE THAN 200 MILES EAST ON HORSEBACK TO BARKOL (CHEUSI). THERE THEY WERE SAID TO HAVE JOINED THE BANDIT CHIEFS JANIMKHAN AND SULTAN.

THE RADIO CHARGED MACKIERNAN INSTRUCTED THE BANDITS ON MEANS OF UNDERMINING THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT OF CHINA AND ADVISED THEM TO CONTINUE OPPOSING THE REDS.

"MACKIERNAN TOLD THEM THEY SHOULD ACCUMULATE THEIR FORCES FOR THE PRESENT TO WAIT FOR THE OUTBREAK OF THE THIRD WORLD WAR," THE RADIO SAID.

THE COMMUNISTS SAID THE AMERICAN WAS PRESENTED WITH 14 HORSES AND ESCORTED 300 MILES SOUTHWARD TO LOP NOR TO TRACE A POSSIBLE RETREAT ROUTE ON HIS WAY TO INDIA.

MACKIERNAN (260)

FAIRFAX, CALIF., JAN.30-(AP)-THE WIFE OF THE AMERICAN VICE CONSUL ACCUSED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS OF "SPYING" SAID TODAY "I'M BEGINNING TO FEEL SOMETHING HAS HAPPENED TO HIM."

MRS. PEGGY MACKIERNAN DESCRIBED HERSELF AS "NOT AN HYSTERICAL HOUSEWIFE WRINGING MY HANDS IN DESPAIR." SHE SAID, HOWEVER, HER HUSBAND, DOUGLAS, 35, WAS TWO MONTHS OVERDUE IN REACHING INDIA.

IN WASHINGTON TODAY, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J. MCDERMOTT SAID THE RED CHARGES WERE "THE USUAL TRIPE." WHILE DENYING THERE IS ANY SERIOUS CONCERN SO FAR OVER MACKIERNAN'S SAFETY, MCDERMOTT LEFT THE INFERENCE OPEN THAT SOME FEARS ARE FELT.

THE 29 YEAR OLD MRS. MACKIERNAN MET HER HUSBAND IN TIHWA, IN CHINA'S REMOTE SINKIANG PROVINCE, IN 1947 WHILE ON A NEWSPAPER ASSIGNMENT. HE WAS VICE CONSUL THERE WHEN THE CONSULATE WAS ORDERED OUT LAST AUGUST.

MRS. MACKIERNAN SAID SHE WAS BECOMING CONCERNED OVER THE ABSENCE OF ANY WORD AT ALL FROM OR ABOUT HER HUSBAND. THE LAST MESSAGE, SEPT. 27, RELAYED THROUGH THE STATE DEPARTMENT, REPORTED HE WAS LEAVING TIHWA ON A FORMIDABLE TRIP OUT OF CHINA OVER THE HIMALAYA MOUNTAINS.

SHE WAS EVACUATED FROM TIHWA WITH OTHER DEPENDENTS IN DECEMBER, 1948. SHE HAS BEEN LIVING IN FAIRFAX, 18 MILES NORTH OF SAN FRANCISCO, WITH HER YEAR OLD TWIN CHILDREN--A BOY AND GIRL--WHILE AWAITING HER HUSBAND'S RETURN. SHE IS FROM STOUGHTON, MASS.

PRECEDE SAN FRANCISCO MACKIERNAN (280)

WASHINGTON, JAN. 30-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY AN AMERICAN VICE CONSUL ACCUSED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS OF "SPYING" HAS BEEN UNHEARD FROM SINCE SEPT. 27. THAT WAS THE DAY HE STARTED A HAZARDOUS JOURNEY OUT OF CHINA, UNDER ORDERS.

PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J. MCDERMOTT CALLED THE RED CHARGES "THE USUAL TRIPE." HE IMPLIED, IN TALKING WITH NEWSMEN, THAT THE VICE CONSUL, DOUGLAS MACKIERNAN OF STOUGHTON, MASS., WOULD HAVE HIS HANDS FULL JUST GETTING OUT.

MACKIERNAN WAS LEFT BEHIND TO CLOSE UP THE CONSULATE IN TIHWA, CAPITAL OF CHINA'S VAST NORTHWEST BORDER PROVINCE OF SINKIANG, WHEN CONSUL J. HALL PAYTON AND OTHER AMERICANS WERE ORDERED OUT LAST AUGUST. THE PAYTON GROUP FINALLY REACHED INDIA IN OCTOBER AFTER AN ARDUOUS TRIP ON FOOT AND HORSEBACK ACROSS THE HIMALAYA MOUNTAINS.

MACKIERNAN RADIOED ON SEPT. 27 THAT HE WAS LEAVING, OVER THE SAME GENERAL ROUTE TAKEN BY THE PAYTON PARTY.

THE ONLY AMERICAN LEFT IN TIHWA, HE WAS JUST AHEAD OF COMMUNIST FORCES.

THE CHINESE RED RADIO, HEARD BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS IN SAN FRANCISCO, PICTURED MACKIERNAN AS A HARD-RIDING "SPY" WHO SOUGHT TO ORGANIZE THE BANDITS OF THE SINKIANG WILDERNESS AGAINST THE COMMUNIST ADVANCE.

IT SAID HE HAD BEEN "EXPOSED AS AN ESPIONAGE AGENT" BY THREE WHITE RUSSIAN CONFEDERATES WHO CONFESSED.

MCDERMOTT, DENYING THERE IS ANY SERIOUS CONCERN SO FAR OVER THE VICE CONSUL'S SAFETY, LEFT THE INFERENCE OPEN THAT SOME FEARS ARE FELT.

HE SAID THE JOURNEY BY PRIMITIVE CARAVAN NORMALLY TAKES FROM 60 TO 85 DAYS IN SUMMER, BUT LONGER IN WINTER WHEN PASSES ARE BLOCKED BY SNOW.

MCDERMOTT SAID THE DEPARTMENT DOES NOT EXPECT TO HEAR FROM MACKIERNAN UNTIL HE REACHES KASHMIR IN INDIA.

THE COMMUNIST RADIO SAID MACKIERNAN HAD FLED TO INDIA AFTER RIDING HORSEBACK OVER HUNDREDS OF MILES TO ORGANIZE BANDITS IN THE WILD BACK COUNTRY.

NEW YORK, JAN.30-(AP)-RALPH J.BUNCHE, FORMER U.N. MEDIATOR FOR PALESTINE, SAYS IN AN ARTICLE IN THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE THAT RACIAL DISCRIMINATION IN WASHINGTON D.C., IS SCANDALOUS. BUNCHE IS AN AMERICAN NEGRO.

"IF I VISIT WASHINGTON TODAY I CAN'T BUY A MEAL, ORDER A DRINK, SEE A MOVIE, OR, WITH VERY FEW EXCEPTIONS, RENT A HOTEL ROOM, EXCEPT IN THE NEGRO SECTION OF TOWN," BUNCHE WROTE IN THE ARTICLE MADE PUBLIC TONIGHT.

AFTER WINDING UP HIS JOB IN PALESTINE, BUNCHE LAST YEAR TURNED DOWN AN OFFER TO BECOME AN ASSISTANT U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE IN FAVOR OF REMAINING IN HIS U.N. POST AS TOP-RANKING DIRECTOR OF THE U.N. TRUSTEESHIP DEPARTMENT.

ONE REPORT WAS THAT HE DID NOT WANT TO RETURN TO WASHINGTON BECAUSE OF RACIAL CONDITIONS THERE.

BUNCHE SAID THE AMERICAN NEGRO HAS MADE GAINS BUT STILL IS AT A HEAVY ECONOMIC DISADVANTAGE AS REGARDS JOB OPPORTUNITIES AND STANDARD OF LIVING.

"I LIKE THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE," HE SAID, "BECAUSE I LIKE THE CONCEPTIONS OF EQUALITY AND OF THE RIGHTS AND DIGNITY OF THE INDIVIDUAL ON WHICH IT IS BASED. AS EVERY GOOD AMERICAN, I WISH TO SEE THE COUNTRY FULFILL ITS PROMISE TO ALL ITS PEOPLE. I DISLIKE VOCOROUSLY THOSE PRACTICES WHICH PREVENT THIS. AMERICAN ANTI-RACIAL AND ANTI-RELIGIOUS PRACTICES MAKE A MOCKERY OF BOTH THE CONSTITUTION AND THE CHARGER OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

BUNCHE IS THE FIRST NEGRO EVER TO HOLD A DESK JOB IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT. HE WORKED THERE THREE YEARS BEFORE GOING TO THE U.N., DEALING MOSTLY WITH COLONIAL QUESTIONS. HE SAID TWO OR THREE HIGH-RANKING OFFICIALS IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT TRIED TO BLOCK HIS APPOINTMENT BECAUSE OF HIS RACE.

"MY SPONSORS FINALLY BROUGHT THE MATTER TO CORDELL HULL (THEN SECRETARY OF STATE)," BUNCHE WROTE. "HE LISTENED TO THE OBJECTIONS, RECEIVED AN ACCOUNT OF MY QUALIFICATIONS, AND THEN HIS FAMED TENNESSEE TEMPER FLAMED INTO INVECTIVE. A MAN'S COLOR, HE INSISTED, MADE NO DIFFERENCE TO HIM. HE WANTED QUALIFIED MEN IN THE DEPARTMENT. THAT WAS THE SOLE CONSIDERATION THAT INTERESTED HIM. AND SO I WAS APPOINTED X X X ."

THE AGENT, DANIEL F.GARDE, WAS ONE OF A GROUP OF FBI MEN WHO TESTIFIED IN THE COPLON-GUBITCHEV ESPIONAGE CONSPIRACY TRIAL ON THEIR SHADOWING OF THE PAIR AT SEVERAL NEW YORK MEETINGS.

GARDE WAS QUESTIONED BY MISS COPLON'S ATTORNEY, ARCHIBALD PALMER, ABOUT A REPORT IN WHICH GARDE SAID HE SAW HER "STRIKING AT HIM (GUBITCHEV) WITH HER HAND OR FOLDED NEWSPAPER."

PALMER CONTENDS MISS COPLON WAS IN LOVE WITH GUBITCHEV AND WAS ANSWERED AT THE TIME BY THE SOVIET ENGINEER'S DISCLOSURE THAT HE WAS MARRIED.

THE GOVERNMENT CLAIMS SHE MET GUBITCHEV AS PART OF A CONSPIRACY TO PASS ALONG SECRET PAPERS SHE OBTAINED WHILE WORKING IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT.

GARDE RE-ENACTED THE SCENE AT THE JAN. 14, 1949, STREET CORNER MEETING.

ROLLING UP A WAD OF PAPER HE ADVANCED ON A DEPUTY MARSHAL. HE WAVED AIR AWAY FROM THE MARSHAL SEVERAL TIMES.

THEN GARDE SAID HIS REPORT MEANT SHE HAD MADE "FORWARD MOTIONS TOWARD GUBITCHEV" WITH THE NEWSPAPER.

NEW YORK, JAN. 30-(AP)-JAPAN IS PREPARED TO ADJUST HER TAXES AND TAKE OTHER MEASURES TO BENEFIT FOREIGN INVESTORS, A JAPANESE GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID IN A STATEMENT ISSUED TODAY.

THESE ASSURANCES WERE GIVEN A GROUP OF NEW YORK BUSINESS MEN BY TAKESHI WATANABE, FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER OF JAPAN'S MINISTRY OF FINANCE. HE MET PRIVATELY LAST FRIDAY WITH THE JAPAN COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL FOREIGN TRADE COUNCIL.

WATANABE, THE COUNCIL REPORTED IN A SPECIAL BULLETIN TO ITS MEMBERS TODAY, SAID JAPAN WANTS AMERICA TO INVEST IN HER; NOT SUBSIDIZE HER.

THE JAPANESE, SAID THE COMMISSIONER, "DO NOT BELIEVE THAT AMERICAN AID CAN BE CONTINUED FOR ANY PROLONGED PERIOD. IT IS NOT ONLY IMPOSSIBLE TO EXPECT YOU TO DO SO, WE ALSO WOULD LIKE TO HELP OURSELVES AS FAR AS WE CAN. WE HOPE THE DAY WILL COME SOON WHEN WE CAN STAND ON OUR OWN FEET.

"IF AND WHEN WE HAVE A STABILIZED ECONOMY AND SOUND FINANCE," HE CONTINUED, "WE BELIEVE THERE IS A GOOD CHANCE FOR YOU TO INVEST IN JAPAN INSTEAD OF SUBSIDIZING JAPAN. WE ARE PREPARED TO ADJUST OUR TAXES FOR THE BENEFIT OF FOREIGN INVESTORS WHO WILL CONTRIBUTE TO THE ECONOMY OF JAPAN.

"WE ARE ALSO CONTEMPLATING SOME MEASURES TO SECURE THE REMITTANCE OF FAIR PROFITS ACCRUED TO FOREIGN INVESTMENT."

WATANABE, NOW EVEN DID NOT SPECIFY WHAT MEASURES WERE BEING CONSIDERED.

JAN 31 1950

THE JAPANESE FINANCIAL OFFICIAL REMINDED THE NEW YORK GROUP THAT IN PRE-WAR DAYS "JAPAN NEVER FAILED TO PAY OUR FOREIGN LIABILITIES."

HE ADDED THAT WHEN HE TALKED WITH PRIME MINISTER YOSHIDA JUST BEFORE HE LEFT JAPAN RECENTLY, "I FOUND THAT HE HAS A VERY EARNEST DESIRE TO RESUME PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON JAPANESE FOREIGN BONDS. AS SOON AS THE WAY WILL BE CLEARED, WE ARE READY TO FULFIL OUR OBLIGATIONS. WE WOULD LIKE TO RE-ESTABLISH OUR CREDIT ABROAD."

REVIEWING JAPAN'S ECONOMIC CONDITION SINCE THE END OF THE WAR, WATANABE DECLARED HIS COUNTRY NOW HAS POSTWAR INFLATION "UNDER CONTROL." HE ADDED:

"WE HOPE IN THE NEAR FUTURE WE CAN JOIN WITH OTHER DEMOCRATIC NATIONS OF THE WORLD IN CONTRIBUTING TO THE PEACE AND WELFARE OF MANKIND."

HE SAID JAPAN HAD BALANCED ITS NATIONAL BUDGET AND CHECKED WAGE-PRICE SPIRALS.

IN JAPAN, HE SAID, BLACKMARKET PROFITEERS "CAN NO LONGER MAKE EASY MONEY. HONEST PEOPLE WHO WORK HARD CAN NOW HAVE THEIR CHANCE."

PRODUCTION IN JAPAN, HE SAID, INCREASED AS MUCH AS 70 TO 80 PER CENT LAST YEAR. "IF YOU EXCLUDE THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY," HE EXPLAINED, "THE INDEX WILL SHOW MORE THAN 100 PER CENT INCREASE, WHICH MEANS MORE THAN EQUAL THE PREWAR LEVEL. THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY, HOWEVER, IS SUFFERING FROM A SHORT SUPPLY OF COTTON AND WOOL."

THOSE HE HAS TALKED WITH ALSO REMAIN SILENT, UNWILLING TO DISTURB WHATEVER DELICATE BALANCE LIE MAY ACHIEVE.

THE RUSSIANS AND THEIR SATELLITES BOYCOTTED OR WALKED OUT OF EVERY U.N. SESSION SINCE THE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR AND SAID THEY WILL REMAIN AWAY UNTIL THE NATIONALIST CHINESE ARE KICKED OUT OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE RULES CHANGE PROPOSAL CAME FROM SIR BENEGAL RAU, INDIA DELEGATION LEADER. HE PROPOSED THAT THE U.N. POLL MEMBERS, BY CABLE IF NECESSARY, TO DETERMINE RECOGNITION OF CONTENDING FACTIONS, AS IN THE CHINESE CASE. A MAJORITY RECOGNITION WOULD DECIDE WHO IS ENTITLED TO BE SEATED.

INDIA AND FOUR OTHER SECURITY COUNCIL MEMBERS--BRITAIN, RUSSIA, YUGOSLAVIA AND NORWAY--ALREADY RECOGNIZE RED CHINA.

THERE WAS SOME PUBLISHED SPECULATION THAT ECUADOR, EGYPT AND CUBA MIGHT SWITCH TO THE MAO REGIME, GIVING THE COMMUNISTS A CLEAR MAJORITY OF SUPPORT IN THE 11-MEMBER SECURITY COUNCIL.

BUT IN CAIRO AND IN HAVANA, THE REPORTS WERE DISCOUNTED. NOBODY COULD BE FOUND IN QUITO WHO WOULD SAY THAT ECUADOR WILL RECOGNIZE MAO.

BOTH INFORMED AND NEUTRAL SOURCES IN CAIRO SAID THERE WAS NO INDICATION EGYPT PLANS TO SWITCH, AND GENERAL OFFICIAL SENTIMENT IS SAID TO BE AGAINST SUCH ACTION.

THE NEW INDIAN PROPOSAL WAS MADE IN A SUBSIDIARY ORGAN OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, WHERE AN EFFORT IS BEING MADE TO BREAK THE BOYCOTT RUSSIA HAS CLAMPED ON THE U.N. IN PROTEST AGAINST THE CONTINUED PRESENCE OF NATIONALIST CHINESE DIPLOMATS HERE.
WITHOUT MENTIONING THE CHINA QUESTION SPECIFICALLY, INDIA PROPOSED IN EFFECT THAT THE U.N. SHOULD TAKE IN A REGIME THAT ACTUALLY CONTROLS A COUNTRY IN PREFERENCE OVER A GOVERNMENT THAT HAS BEEN DRIVEN OUT.
THE INDIANS, WHO RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE REDS, ORIGINALLY PROPOSED THAT THE U.N. SHOULD ADMIT A "RECOGNIZED" GOVERNMENT. INDIA CHANGED THE WORDING THEN FROM "RECOGNIZED" TO "REAL," AND SAID U.N. MEMBERSHIP SHOULD BE VESTED ONLY IN A REGIME ABLE TO CARRY OUT THE U.N. CHARTER OBLIGATIONS.
INDIAN CHIEF DELEGATE SIR BENEGAL RAU IMPLIED THAT THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA ARE UNABLE TO CARRY OUT THOSE OBLIGATIONS.
THE CHINESE NATIONALIST CHAIRMAN FOR JANUARY DELAYED THE SESSION MORE THAN TEN MINUTES WAITING FOR THE SOVIET DELEGATION BUT IT DID NOT APPEAR. ACTION WAS DEFERRED UNTIL AFTER CUBA TAKES OVER THE MAIN CHAIRMANSHIPS FOR FEBRUARY.

ANOTHER UNITED NATIONS BODY TODAY.
THIS MAKES 11 U.N. ORGANS THE RUSSIANS HAVE WALKED OUT OF OR REFUSED TO TAKE PART IN BECAUSE OF THE CONTINUED PRESENCE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST DIPLOMATS. THE RUSSIANS SAY THEY WILL STAY OUT UNTIL THE NATIONALISTS ARE KICKED OUT TO MAKE WAY FOR THE CHINESE REDS.
THE LATEST BODY HIT BY THE BOYCOTT IS THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S 11-NATION COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE OTHER 10 COUNTRIES WENT AHEAD WITH THEIR CLOSED-DOOR SESSION WHEN THE RUSSIANS FAILED TO SHOW UP.
THE MEETING WAS CALLED TO CONSIDER AN INDIAN PROPOSAL TO CLARIFY COUNCIL PROCEDURE IN SETTLING CREDENTIALS DISPUTES SUCH AS THE CURRENT ONE OVER THE RIVAL CHINESE GOVERNMENTS. INDIA WAS SUGGESTED A POLL OF THE 59 U.N. MEMBERS AS A PRELIMINARY TO ANY COUNCIL DECISION ON THIS SORT OF CONTEST.

U.N.-EMPLOYMENT (240)
LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.30-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC AND EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION DECIDED TODAY IT WAS UNABLE TO TAKE A DEFINITE STAND ON A CONTROVERSIAL FULL EMPLOYMENT PLAN DRAFTED BY FIVE INTERNATIONAL ECONOMISTS.
AT THE END OF TWO WEEKS DEBATE THE 15-MEMBER COMMISSION ADOPTED A REPORT SAYING THE PLAN WAS SO IMPORTANT AND FAR REACHING IT MUST BE STUDIED BY ALL THE 59 UNITED NATIONS BEFORE ANY ACTION CAN BE TAKEN.
THE PLAN GREW OUT OF A RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL LAST AUGUST. THIS DIRECTED U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE TO APPOINT EXPERTS TO DRAFT A PLAN, WHICH WOULD BE SENT TO THE ECONOMIC AND EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION FOR ITS RECOMMENDATIONS.

JAN 31 1950

THE ECONOMIC AND EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION, WHILE DECLINING TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS, OBJECTED TO SEVERAL KEY PROVISIONS.
ONE OF THESE CALLED FOR SO-CALLED "BUILT-IN STABILIZERS"--MEASURES WHICH WOULD BECOME EFFECTIVE AUTOMATICALLY WHEN UNEMPLOYMENT REACHED SPECIFIED LEVELS. THE COMMISSION SAID "IT DOUBTS THE PRACTICABILITY" OF SUCH A SCHEME.
"APPROPRIATE REGARD MUST BE PAID TO UNDERLYING CAUSES AND CIRCUMSTANCES," THE REPORT SAID.
ANOTHER POINT CRITICIZED BY SOME MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION WAS A PROVISION FOR CONTINUOUS AND AUTOMATIC FLOW OF INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENTS TO COUNTRIES FACED BY RISING UNEMPLOYMENT. THEY SAID SUCH A PROVISION MIGHT REDUCE THE INCENTIVE TO BORROWING GOVERNMENTS TO CREATE SUITABLE CONDITIONS FOR ATTRACTING PRIVATE CAPITAL.
OTHER MAJOR PROVISIONS OF THE PLAN INCLUDED DOMESTIC MEASURES IN EACH COUNTRY TO STABILIZE PRICES AND PREVENT INFLATIONARY TENDENCIES, AND ACTION IN EACH COUNTRY FIXING DEFINITE EMPLOYMENT TARGETS.

Capitol Hill Leaders Back President's Order to Speed Development of the H-Bomb

PROJECT IS NEEDED FOR U. S. DEFENSE, TRUMAN ASSERTS

To Push Atomic Plans Until Control Is Achieved, He Says

SOME CRITICISM HEARD

Usurpation of Congressional Authority Charged by Rep. Cole

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31—(AP) Congressional leaders tonight swung quickly behind President Truman's fateful decision to speed development of the hydrogen "super bomb."

But there were rumbles of protest, and Rep. Cole (R-NY), a member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, angrily denounced Mr. Truman's go-ahead order as usurping the powers of Congress.

In general, the reaction on Capitol Hill was favorable. Members of both Senate and House said they felt the president had no other choice in the cold war with Russia, but they said fervently they hoped it would never be necessary to use such a fearsome weapon.

Needed for Defense

In announcing his decision, Mr. Truman said he acted to bolster this country's defenses "against any possible aggressor."

He said the United States will drive ahead in the production of atomic weapons until international control is tightly safeguarded.

A few hours after Mr. Truman's announcement, the air force moved to set up a strict aerial guard line around all the nation's major atomic plants.

Aimed at guarding against surprise air attacks, the new defense setup will also take in a long stretch of the Atlantic coast, including major ports.

Chairman McMahon (D-Conn) of the Congressional Atomic Committee immediately called for "the utmost speed" in developing H-bombs, and other Congress members joined in applauding the president's order.

Says Authority Usurped

But Rep. Cole challenged Mr. Truman's action on two grounds:

1. As a "usurpation of congressional authority."

2. As being "contrary to the recommendations of the country's most competent authorities."

Cole did not name these "authorities," but said the time had come to halt "the mad race of modern science x x x which may result in human extermination."

"Under our constitution," Cole said, "a decision of this nature can not be made by the commander-in-chief but only by the people through Congress which is charged with the maintenance of the military establishment."

Cole's statement indicated a split in the ranks of the Congressional Atomic Committee on the H-bomb issue. Chairman McMahon had previously said the president's decision met the "unanimous approval" of the committee.

Mr. Truman indicated that the nation's atomic scientists may already have started tackling the problem of creating a weapon far surpassing the destructive fury of the A-bomb.

The president said:

Gives Go-Ahead Order

"I have directed the Atomic Energy Commission to continue its work on all forms of atomic weapons, including the so-called hydrogen or super-bomb.

"Like all other work in the field of atomic weapons, it is being and will be carried forward on a basis consistent with the over-all objectives of our program for peace and security."

Reputedly eight to 1,000 times more devastating than the atomic bombs dropped on Japan during World War II, the H-bomb has been the subject of behind-the-scenes debat for at least four months.

The cost of producing the new super-weapon has been variously estimated at $100,000,000 to $4,000,000,000.

Mr. Truman said he gave the historic order because "it is part of my responsibility as commander-in-chief of our armed forces to see that our country is able to defend itself" against any attack.

He said he has directed the AEC to press forward with the development of atomic weapons, including the H-bomb, "until a satisfactory plan for international control of atomic energy is achieved."

Within two hours after Mr. Truman's announcement, the Senate-House Atomic Committee set to work with the Federal Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) to chart "ways and means and plans" for building the H-bomb.

McMahon Cites Need of Speed

Chairman McMahon (D-Conn) told newsmen "the utmost speed is necessary," but he did not explain why.

Mr. Truman's announcement clearly took committee members by surprise. The president had said last week that he alone had the power of decision—a statement which ruffled some lawmakers—and there were indications today that the committee had not expected a presidential announcement before next week.

Urges Arms Race Discussion

McMahon declared there should be "a nation-wide discussion"—not on the merits of building the H-bomb itself but on armament races "and how they can be halted in the interests of the peace of the world."

Asked if he favored a new approach to Russia, McMahon replied:

"Wait and see."

He said he would have more to say along that line in the senate later this week.

For Mr. Truman, it was the second time he has made a decision of unparalleled gravity that could affect the whole course of world history. Less than five years ago, he made the decision to drop A-bombs on Japan and ushered in the atomic era.

Hopes for air-tight international control of atomic weapons—as sponsored by this country in the United Nations—have been repeatedly blocked by Russia's refusal to accept the American plan for international inspection.

Mr. Truman's statement, handed to White House newsmen, gave no hint of a possible attempt to renew negotiations with Russia for international atomic control. But he said:

"We shall also continue to examine all those factors that affect our program for peace and this country's security."

Little has leaked out during all the months of rumor and speculation about building H-bombs in this country. However, so far as is known, the super-bomb presumably would be constructed to "fuze" hydrogen atoms in contrast to the "fission" or splitting of uranium or plutonium atoms in the A-bomb.

Unofficial conjecture has suggested that an A-bomb, built inside the H-bomb, would be used to "trigger" the new weapon, setting off explosive forces like those on the sun.

Sober Comment

On Capitol Hill, senators and representatives generally applauded Mr. Truman's decision to go ahead with the dread weapon.

Senator Lucas (D.-Ill.), Senate majority leader, commented:

"I pray God we may never have to use it."

But Lucas said the free peoples of the world know the United States would not use the bomb "unless we are attacked by an aggressor."

Senator Tydings (D.-Md.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services committee, said he felt Mr. Truman had taken "the only course possible under the existing circumstances."

AEC Files Report

In advance of Mr. Truman's announcement, the AEC avoided any reference to a hydrogen bomb in its new semi-annual report to Congress, but declared that U. S. stockpiles of atomic weapons are being established "at a growing pace."

The report said production has now been put on an "industrial type" basis and disclosed that the "design" of atomic weapons has also been advanced.

"The nation's atomic energy enterprise is on a sound footing," the report said.

Some leaders have suggested recently that the United States undertake a "new approach" to Russia toward reaching an agreement on international control of atomic weapons. Others have argued that since Russia has balked at the American plan for control of the A-bomb, there is not much hope that she will go along on H-bomb control.

H-Bomb Decision Climaxes Grim Capital Discussion

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31—(AP)—President Truman's decision to develop a hydrogen super-bomb climaxes one of the greatest and most shadowy arguments in the peacetime history of this quarrelsome capital.

It also indicates Mr. Truman's own answers to some of the questions thrown up for public debate: Is it actually possible to make such a weapon? Is this weapon necessary to maintain America's supposed lead over Russia in the arms race? Is it morally right to develop a bomb that may be up to 1,000 times more destructive than bombs made from uranium?

The chief executive's answers to these questions appear, on the basis of his statement, to be:

1. The bomb is at least theoretically possible and probably scientists are now convinced that it will work, with a terrible devastating force. This is shown by Mr. Truman's order to the Atomic Energy Commission "to continue its work on all forms of atomic weapons, including the so-called hydrogen or super bomb."

Unless his experts had advised him that the work would probably pay off, there would have been little if any basis for such a directive.

2. Since the bomb is possible, its manufacture is necessary in the defense of the country. The president emphasized he was issuing the order as commander in chief of the armed forces with responsibility of seeing that "our country is able to defend itself against any possible aggressor."

In terms of today's world, his comment on this point has a wider meaning. The only possible aggressor foreseen by Washington officials at this time is Russia. Also, through the Atlantic Treaty the United States is committed to defense actions far beyond its own shores so that this nation's lead in the arms race may be regarded as a protection for Western Europe as well as North America.

The Moral Question

3. As to the issue of morality, whether it is right to make the super bomb, Mr. Truman declared that the work "will be carried forward on a basis consistent with the overall objectives of our program for peace and security." And he reaffirmed his desire for a "satisfactory plan for international control of atomic energy."

Judged in the light of information available from some top advisors, the president's statement suggests he may hold to the view that the morality of a weapon lies in questions of its use rather than its manufacture; and that in war the basically immoral act is the act of aggression which touches off the conflict.

In the atomic arms race, the United States takes the position that responsibility rests on Russia's unwillingness to agree with proposals for the control system already accepted by a majority of nations on the United Nations Atomic Energy committee.

Both Secretary of State Acheson and Defense Secretary Johnson are reported to have advised the chief executive that in the absence of world controls for atomic weapons, the United States has no choice but to develop the most effective weapons it can.

Protection

Washington, Jan. 31 (AP)—Coincidental with President Truman's "go" signal for the production of hydrogen bombs, the Air Force moved today to set up an aerial guardline around all the nation's major atomic plants.

Similar protections were announced for a long stretch of the Atlantic coast taking in major ports.

The obvious aim is to guard against surprise one-way air attack.

All planes coming within 100 miles of the atomic installations in Tennessee, New Mexico and Washington State must file flight plans with defense authorities. The same rules apply to inbound flights within 200 miles of the coast from Norfolk to Maine.

Planes violating the rules will be intercepted and action against the pilots will be taken under civil aeronautics regulations, the Air Force said.

A spokesman added that interception and identification will be carried out by fighter planes.

At Albuquerque, N.M., a Kirtland Air Force base spokesman said three squadrons of armed F-86 jet fighters of the 81st Fighter Wing are on a constant 24-hour alert.

They are responsible for New Mexico atomic installations at Los Alamos, Sandia base where atomic weapons are assembled, and Kirtland base, home of the Air Force's special weapons command.

The 700-mile-and-hour jets are flying with full service loads of ammunition, he said.

Anti-Aircraft Defense

The official said the pilots on duty stand by at squadron operations fully equipped for immediate takeoff.

At the same time he revealed anti-aircraft defenses are being set up. In assigning the Civil Aeronautics Authority the task of keeping flight schedules over restricted areas, the air force officer declared:

"All planes must be identified. There is fighter and anti-aircraft protection available in these areas."

He did not elaborate.

Will Be Permanent

The orders will go out soon, the Defense Department said, for the filing of flight plans and position reports by the affected planes. These are in addition to flight reports required by civil authorities.

"This is the beginning of a real air defense scheme," a defense spokesman said. "It will be permanent and will be extended to the whole country as soon as our capabilities make it possible."

The atomic plant defense rings center at Oak Ridge, Tenn., Los Alamos, N.M., and Hanford, Wash.

Johnson Warning

The announcement emphasized that the broader defense perimeters there are in addition to the prohibited areas immediately over the atomic plants, already "out of bounds."

Both the announcement and an Air Force spokesman emphasized that the launching of the plan "is not related to any specific international development."

That seemed to rule it out as a direct response to information that Russia has learned how to produce an atomic explosion, or to any report of specific aggressive plans by any nation.

Not Due to Emergency

Both the announcement and an Air Force spokesman emphasized that the launching of the plan "is not related to any specific international development."

That seemed to rule it out as a direct response to information that Russia has learned how to produce an atomic explosion, or to any report of specific aggressive plans by any nation.

But the announcement came within 24 hours after Defense Secretary Johnson warned in his first annual report that "an attack could come from the opposite hemisphere without warning and with unpredictable fury."

A defense official explained that the scheme logically follows the authorization of a radar screen last year, and the recent organization of civil air defense programs in the states.

The Defense department announcement itself described the project as "an additional step leading to the positive identification of all aircraft operating in the air space over the United States under conditions which might constitute a potential threat to security."

The Air Force said fighters already are stationed at a number of points covered by the new regulations and eventually they will be on duty 24 hours a day.

RABBI TABAK SCORES H-BOMB

Baltimorean, As Head Of Council, Voices Horror At Plans

Boston, Jan. 31 (AP)—The president of the Rabbinical Council of America today expressed horror over plans for a hydrogen superbomb and appealed to "religious leaders of al faiths" to work for a spiritual union of the souls of the world.

Dr. Israel Tabak, of Baltimore, told the closing session of the annual midwinter conference:

"We are profoundly distressed over the debate in the nation's Capital concerning the creation of the hydrogen superbomb which is described as being 1,000 times as destructive as the atomic bomb.

Could Mean Annihilation

"One shudders at the thought of men building an implement of destruction which can lead but to the total annihilation of the human race in a very short span of time.

"But one is even more saddened by the fact that the man is being engulfed by the portents of the greatest menace since the days of the deluge with no rainbow of divine assurance visible anywhere on the horizon.

"From the platform we must appeal to the religious leaders of all faiths to unite into one mighty world-wide effort in order to stem this tide.

"We must set in motion those spiritual forces that will bring about the fusion of souls into one powerful 'superbomb' with the same scientific acumen with which men of genius are attempting to bring about the fusion of the atom for the creation of the superbomb.

"Perhaps, if we shall make this endeavor with a sense of deep humility and approach, the problem through an organization like the United Nations, who knows whether we shall not be able to fashion a spiritual weapon that will be able to penetrate even beyond the iron curtain.

"Surely the men and women beyond the iron curtain are human beings who are also made in the image of God."

Baruch Calls Truman Order A Wise Decision

New York, Jan. 31 (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch said today President Truman's go-ahead order on the hydrogen bomb was "a wise decision, necessary for the peace of the world."

"It emphasizes anew the need for a truly effective international control of every form of atomic energy and mass destruction," he said.

Baruch drafted the American plan for controlling atomic energy. Most United Nations members outside the Soviet bloc have accepted the United States plan in principle but Russia and her satellite nations have rejected it.

The United States plan calls for, among other things, international inspection of atomic projects in all countries.

Baruch has said repeatedly that no plan should be accepted which does not offer this kind of safeguard.

UN DIPLOMATS SEE CHANCE TO SPEED TALKS ON CONTROL

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 31—(AP) Some United Nations diplomats speculated tonight that President Truman's decision to go ahead with the hydrogen superbomb might cause the Russians to rejoin talks on international control of the atom and weapons of mass destruction.

The President's announcement was no surprise here.

UN people were interested especially in Mr. Truman's statement that the United States would continue work in the atomic field until a satisfactory plan for international control of atomic energy is achieved.

Baruch Praises Decision

In New York, Bernard M. Baruch, who introduced the American plan on which the UN majority control scheme is based, said the President's order was "a wise decision, necessary for the peace of the world."

"It emphasizes anew the need for a truly effective international control of every form of atomic energy and mass destruction," Baruch said.

The plan calls for strict controls over uranium from mine to ultimate use.

Delegates of the United States, France, Britain, China and Canada, meanwhile, blamed the current break-down in atomic talks on the Soviet Union. This was done in a letter to Trygve Lie, UN secretary-general, to be sent to all UN members.

The summary record of the last meeting of the six atomic powers on Jan. 19 also will be sent to UN members so, as western delegates put it, they can see who is to blame for stopping atomic talks.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik walked out of the secret six-power conversations Jan. 19 because the western delegates would not toss out H. R. Wei, Nanking scientist and nationalist China delegate.

There is no sign when the Russians will change signals and come back. Some high UN sources said, however, the President's decision will give them more to think about.

LONDON PRESS PLAYS STORY OF H-BOMBS

6 Of 9 Papers Give Top Position To Discussion Of Truman Order

London, Wednesday, Feb. 1 (AP)—European newspapers gave big headlines to President Truman's order to United States scientists to try to make the hydrogen superbomb.

In London, six out of nine morning papers gave it top play and began to debate how to stop a superbomb war.

The Liberal News Chronicle and the Conservative Yorkshire Post demanded new efforts toward world atomic control. The Conservative Daily Mail took a similar position even before Mr. Truman's announcement.

The News Chronicle said, "New and unremitting efforts must be made at once to forge effective international control over the atomic energy which makes this horror possible."

The Yorkshire Post proposed the same thing but did not seem hopeful. "If control is to be of any use," it said, "there must first be understanding among the powers."

New Attempt Urged

The Daily Mail said yesterday there should be one more attempt to get Russia to "see reason" on the control issue before any attempt to make the H-bomb. It called for a radio appeal to the Russian people by Western scientists.

Britain's Communists were quick to assail the announcement. They said the news was just another sign that the United States wanted war. Harry Pollitt, secretary of the British Communist party, said in a statement: "The British people must be roused to demand abolition of the atom bomb and prohibition of manufacture of the hydrogen bomb."

L'Humanite, official organ of the Communist party in France, said: "The American Government takes one more step in preparation of a new, monstrous and bloody war. The Soviet Union and all the peoples of the world will reply to this new provocation by fighting stubbornly for peace."

Stand Unprepared

The London Daily Express, imperialist in politics, complained that Britain has made no atom bomb of any kind.

"Now she stands unprepared against the menace of the atom bomb and the hydrogen bomb alike," the Express said.

July 11, 1946—U. S. test "Able," Bikini atoll, explosion in air of atomic bomb against target ships, similar to Hiroshima and Nagasaki blasts.

July 25, 1946—Test "Baker," shallow underwater explosion against target ships.

Dec. 30, 1946—U.N. Atomic Commission adopted report, 10 to 0 with Russia and Poland abstaining, embodying Baruch plan for controls.

June 11, 1947—Russian plan set forth to U.N. commission, calling for destruction and outlawing of bombs before control convention, demanding retention of veto in case of enforcement action.

Nov. 6, 1947—Vyacheslav Molotov, then Soviet foreign minister, says the secret of the atom bomb has "ceased to exist."

May 17, 1948—President Truman announces three new atom bombs developed at Los Alamos, N. M., were tested at Eniwetok atoll in the Pacific.

July 29, 1949—UN Atomic Commission gives up attempt to reach agreement, says it is up to the Big Five and Canada.

Sept. 23, 1949—President Truman announces there is evidence of an atomic explosion in Russia.

Nov. 5, 1949—Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) says American scientists have been devoting their time to trying to make a superbomb.

Jan. 31, 1950—President Truman orders Atomic Energy Commission "to continue its work on all forms of atomic weapons, including the so-called hydrogen or super-bomb."

INDO-CHINA RED REBELS RECOGNIZED BY MOSCOW

PARIS OFFICIAL CALLS DECISION A HOSTILE ACT

French-Supported Regime of Bao Dai Denounced as 'Puppet' by Tass

Paris, Jan. 31 — (AP) — A French official spokesman said today that Russia's recognition of the anti-French Ho Chi-minh regime in Indo-China was "an act of very great gravity."

The Soviet Union announced earlier today it had agreed to exchange diplomatic representatives with the Moscow-trained Indo-Chinese guerrilla leader. Tass, the Soviet News agency, denounced the French-supported Bao Dai regime in Indo-China as a "puppet government" of the French.

A Foreign Office source said the Russian move was "unnecessary." He added: "It complicates matters considerably. France extends diplomatic recognition to Russia. Now Russia recognizes the enemies of France."

Calls Soviet Envoy

The French news agency said Russian Ambassador Alexander E. Bogomolov will be summoned to the French Foreign Ministry to discuss the issue with Alexandre Parodi, secretary general of the Foreign Office.

Premier Georges Bidault, speaking in Parliament in defense of his budget, referred only fleetingly to the Indo-Chinese development, but indicated the grave view the French take of it.

"We have serious political problems facing us," the premier said in referring to the situation there in general.

Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, who ordinarily would take up discussion of so weighty a matter with the Soviet ambassador, is bedridden with grippe.

other guerrilla conflict like that in Greece seemed to be shaping up in the rich tropical country where the French are backing a rival regime headed by ex-Emperor Bao Dai.

See Threat to Peace

A foreign office spokesman summed up the significance of Moscow's action this way:

"When the Chinese Communists under Mao Tze-tung swarm southward to join Ho Chi-minh against the French they will have Moscow back of them. Thus the battlelines will be drawn between the east and west for another war."

The spokesman predicted Britain and the United States now will were interested, however, in the comment in Washington of State Department Press Officer Lincoln White that Russia's action unmasked Ho as "an agent of world communism."

The French note of protest to Moscow was delivered simultaneously to the Soviet Embassy and British and United States Embassy officials.

The note said Moscow's offer to exchange diplomatic representatives with Ho "violates the principles of international rights because the only qualified government of Vietnam is the government which has been constituted by his majesty, Bao Dai, to whom the French government has transferred the rights of sovereignty which it held previously."

Backing "Rebel Movement"

The note said Russia was encouraging a "rebel movement" against France and that the character and consequences of the Russian initiative could not be underestimated.

"The French government solemnly protests against a decision which is of a nature to gravely impair Franco-Soviet relations," the note concluded.

Soon after the note was published, French President Vincent Auriol summoned a full cabinet meeting.

Paul Coste-Floret, a former colonial minister, told reporters Moscow's action was "but one aspect of a vast plan of the Communists to make all of southeast Asia the platform for the next world conflict."

A French spokesman said the western powers "were caught flatfooted" by the Tass announcement of recognition and "the concern must be almost as great today in London and Washington as in Paris."

Russia's Indochina Move Stirs Anxiety in France

C. L. DAVIDSON

PARIS, Jan. 31 — (AP) France sharply warned Russia tonight that Moscow's recognition of the "rebel" Ho Chi-minh in Indochina gravely impaired Soviet-French relations.

French officials expressed fear the stage is being set rapidly for an east-west war for southeast Asia in the jungles of Indochina. French troops have fought for four years in this area to stamp out the nationalist-Communist movement led by the Moscow-trained Ho.

At least the potentialities for an-speed official recognition of the Vietnam state headed by Bao Dai.

Thus the lines would be drawn in the diplomatic field as they never were in Greece. Though supporting Greek Communist guerrillas, Moscow never gave them diplomatic recognition.

Chinese Communists already are drawn up on the northern Indochina border in position to give either secret or open military aid to Ho.

What remained to be seen was the military support that might be given to the French. The French

Stage Set For Guerrilla Warfare

Paris, Jan. 31—(AP)—Russia's recognition of Ho Chi-minh's rebel government in Indo-China may eventually turn that stormy land of jungle and rice paddies into another East-West hot spot like Greece.

But it is Moscow and Washington that will make the final decision: Whether to pour arms directly into Indo-China in support of rival governments there.

At stake is the rich rubber, rice and minerals producing area of Southeast Asia. Indo-China, under French colonial influence since 1787, is the gateway through which communism could spread from China to Thailand (Siam), Malaya, Burma, Indonesia and even India.

Moscow, by formally backing the Ho Chi-minh regime that has waged effective guerrilla warfare for three years, has taken the diplomatic initiative and certainly has caught the French flatfooted. It remains to be seen how the U. S. Government and Britain will react.

The issues in Indo-China are not as clear-cut as they were in Greece, whose non-Communist government finally seems to have subdued the Red-led rebellion there. The fighting that has been raging in Indo-China is not properly called a civil war in the sense that brother is pitted against brother. The situation is more akin to that existing in Indonesia before the Dutch agreed to an independent republic.

(Please Turn to Page Three)

France is a foreign power, an occupying power, to most of the Indo-Chinese. The fighting is largely Indo-Chinese against French, whereas in the Mediterranean it was mostly Greek against Greek.

If world communism chooses to try to make Indo-China the break-through point into Southeast Asia, the situation is much like the attempt to extend communism into the strategic Mediterranean.

If Russian-backed Communists try to extend diplomacy into armed intervention. Indo-China may become a powderkeg whose explosion would shake the entire Orient.

French Fumbling

The political background in Indo-China has shown much French fumbling. Three years ago France recognized the Nationalist regime of the same Moscow-trained Ho Chi-Minh who has just received Moscow's blessing. Ho apparently demanded too much for the French to grant and fighting resulted.

Three years ago France encouraged Bao Dai to abdicate as emperor of Annam, one of the Indo-Chinese States, because he held that post under the Japanese occupation. France today has put him back as head of the French-supported Viet-Nam state.

Prior to Moscow's sudden recognition of Ho Chi-minh, both the United States and Britain indicated plainly they were ready to accede to French urging to recognize Bao Dai's regime, which was granted a decree of autonomy within the French union. Warm greetings from U. S. Secretary of State Acheson were given Bao last week by roving Ambassador Philip C. Jessup.

Military Situation

The military background also has been less than satisfactory for the French.

A secret military report by Gen. Georges Revers, recently ousted as chief of the French army general staff because the report strayed into Communist hands, said that after three years of fighting Ho's forces the French "hold only part of the territory and less than half of the population."

The French have about 120,000 soldiers, including—some reports say—at least 15,000 Germans in the Foreign Legion, pitted against an estimated 100,000 guerrilla troops led by Ho.

America has not been giving France arms directly for use in Indo-China but France bought up a lot of surplus U. S. Army equipment in Europe after the war and much of it is now being used in Indo-China.

Divert Arms Aid

In certain American quarters, it is indicated that part of the $75,000,000 already allocated for the China area defense might be used in Indo-China.

Frankly unable to cope adequately with Ho's forces, France lately has been trying political tactics to woo away his followers. The French admit that great numbers of Ho's followers are sincere nationalists and not necessarily Communists.

Strong independence movements grew up after the Japanese occupation, when French administrators lost face with defeat.

Ho Chin-minh, a small, frail man with a wispy beard reportedly suffering from tuberculosis, took the leadership of the main independence movement. Although his past is mysterious it is generally agreed he spent five years in a Moscow revolutionary training center before the war.

However, Ho after proclaiming his Viet-Nam republic in 1945 announced he had dissolved the Communist party in Indo-China and claimed he was no longer a Communist. In 1946 the French decided to play ball with him.

They recognized his government and brought him to Paris to negotiate an agreement. But the deal broke down, presumably because he asked for too much independence.

Fighting has continued since 1946, with the French often holding secure control only of the major cities in Indo-China. France is worried about the situation also because of effects it might have in Morrocco, Tunisia and other territories where there are independence movements but no fighting.

To cope with this France has been trying to create a sort of commonwealth of her territories known as the "French union" in wnich her colonies would gain limited independence and a dominion-like status.

In Indo-China an area larger than Texas and with 25,000,000 people, France has set up a state of Viet-Nam comprised of the states of Annam, Cochin-China and Tonkon, which have a total population of 21,000,000.

Italians Protest U. S. Arms Aid

FLORENCE, Italy, Jan. 31 (AP)—Italian police arrested ten persons and dispersed a Communist-led crowd today that demonstrated against the arrival in Italy of Joseph E. Jacobs, a liaison director who will handle the United States arms aid program.

BIDAULT IS GIVEN CONFIDENCE VOTE ON BUDGET ISSUE

PARIS, Jan. 31 — (AP) The National Assembly approved a record French budget for 1950 and simultaneously gave Premier Georges Bidault's coalition cabinet a new vote of confidence tonight, 301 to 284.

Thus ended three months of budgetary huffing and puffing.

Expenditures are listed in the budget at 2,238,000,000,000 francs (about $6,300,000,000) against receipts of 2,118,000,000 francs, but the government has promised to make up the deficit by economics.

Backers Given Scare

In the final process, the assembly gave four outright votes of confidence to Bidault's government, but threw a scare into government supporters with a 293-293 tie vote on the issue of cutting certain civil expenditures.

Had the vote swayed against the government, Bidault might have felt morally obliged to resign. The opposition, including both Communists and De Gaullists, needed 311 vots to put him out of office.

The government's largest margin—17 votes—came on the final approval of the budget as a whole.

The budget was first passed by the National Assembly Jan. 2, but then had to go to the Council of the Republic, France's advisory upper house. Bidault posed the question of confidence three times to whip the bill through the assembly originally. He won by somewhat greater margins than he received today.

In a brief speech before the final vote, Bidault said:

"This country has the right to be spared political and financial crises which leave it demoralized and impoverished. The government, to work properly, needs an unequivocal vote of confidence. I ask you to recall as you vote that you are speaking for the nation."

Three Jesuit Priests Reported Held By Poles

Vatican City, Jan. 31—(AP)—Three Jesuit priests have been arrested in Warsaw, the Rome Agency of Information (ARI) which specializes in Catholic news, reported today.

The three arrested were identified as Father Bulanda, Jesuit provincial head of Warsaw; his secretary, Father Ziobkowski, and the national director of the Polish Marian Congregation, Father Nawroski.

The agency said that the priests were arrested for not adhering to the Government decree dissolving religious congregations.

REDS RESUME BLOCKADE OF BERLIN ZONE

Trucks Pile Up Again at Helmstedt Checkpoint— Protests Ignored

Berlin, Jan. 31—(AP)—The Russians resumed their "little blockade" on truck traffic across their zone frontiers today after a one-day truce.

Starting early this morning Soviet guards at the Helmstedt border checkpoint — which controls road traffic both ways between Berlin and West Germany — took so much time checking each truck bound for Berlin that a long waiting line formed.

The "little blockade" had been lifted yesterday to allow passage of all trucks except a few with improper papers.

Through the night only five or six trucks an hour arrived at Helmstedt, but each was waved through without an inspection.

Start Haggling

Without explanation the guards changed their attitude in the early hours of the morning and began haggling over cargo papers and driver's documents.

More traffic arrived at the check point as daylight approached, but the guards held the flow to about five trucks an hour. The normal rate is about 30.

By dawn there were 50 Berlin-bound trucks laden with goods and supplies stacked up on the western side of the frontier and about as man en route to the West stalled on the east side.

Later the Soviet guards let about 11 trucks an hour slip through to the West; but most of them were empties returning from Berlin to the western supply fronts.

Although rail traffic generally has been allowed to run normally, British authorities reported the Russians had tightened restrictions on household and personal goods shipped by rail. A spokesman said Soviet guards were prohibiting such shipments from East to West unless they were accompanied by the owner.

It was speculated that this is a move to prevent persons from fleeing the Soviet Zone with their belongings. The same regulations had been applied to German highway travel some weeks ago.

Western Allied authorities in Berlin still had no reply today to two notes sent to the Soviet authorities protesting the trucking delays.

A high American official said: "We are in effect sitting tight in Berlin on this question. Any further action will come from higher levels."

Berlin Rail Restrictions Are Hinted

Berlin, Jan. 31 (AP)—With truck traffic still under Russian pressure, the Soviet-controlled German railways management hinted tonight that rail freight service between West Germany and Berlin may be reduced.

A charge that organized gangs began sabotaging railway installations in the western sectors of Berlin last night was made by Max Kellner, railway vice president.

"These actions affect interzonal traffic," he said. "A repetition of them could make the supply of Berlin's population a difficult problem."

The management's attitude stirred more worry among United States, British and French circles here than anything that has happened to trucking this year.

Elevated Service Cut

West Berlin lives from the 9,000 to 12,000 tons of supplies received daily by rail. As long as the trains run unmolested a blockade does not exist. The railways carry the loads that the airlift handled during the Russian squeeze on the western sectors in 1948-49. The truck service is supplemental.

The railway management temporarily curtailed passenger service on two elevated lines in the United States and French sectors, but did not interfere with the schedules of inter-zonal trains, which use the elevated tracks here.

Kellner asserted the curtailment was necessary because West Berlin saboteurs carried off some heavy cables, slashed telephone lines and even cut away a track in the night.

Outside Jurisdiction

"It now seems that West Berlin police are not interested in preventing sabotage," he commented angrily.

West Berlin police described the railway yards as outside their jurisdiction. British officials said they had no confirmation of extensive damage to railway equipment, but small-scale thefts were commonplace.

Soviet guards at the Helmstedt border checkpoint, which controls traffic both ways on the main highway between Berlin and West Germany, tightened the screws on truck traffic again after relaxing controls yesterday.

Below Normal Since Jan. 22

Since January 22 the volume of truck cargoes on the highway has been kept below normal. Clearances varied from four to eight trucks an hour today, against a normal rate of 40. Guards again checked trucks minutely and haggled over cargo papers and the drivers' documents. The new slowdown developed this morning without explanation.

Western Allied authorities still had no reply to two protests sent Soviet authorities last week.

"We are, in effect, sitting tight in Berlin on this question," a high American official said. "Any further action will come from higher levels."

Allied intelligence forecasts a troubled year for Berlin. It says the Russians possibly believe the Western powers will find this city untenable in the next few months.

300,000 Are Jobless

The Soviet Union has the political initiative here. Economically, it wields the biggest stick.

Isolated 100 miles within the Soviet zone, West Berlin is trying to survive almost solely by commerce with western Germany. It has 300,000 jobless—every fourth person of working age.

Gerhart Eisler, Soviet zone information chief, cheerily disclosed today plans for a huge propaganda spectacle; a rally of 500,000 Communist European youths in Berlin May 27. The youngsters, mostly East Germans, will parade under slogans demanding that the Western powers "go home."

West Berlin officials have not yet decided whether to order police riot squads against the Communists if they march into western sectors. They are also undecided about a Communist request to rent the Olympic Stadium for a day.

German Bribe Probe May Hit Parliament

Stuttgart, Germany, Jan. 31 (AP). An investigation into alleged bribery of de-Nazification courts threatened tonight to reach into the state Parliament.

Heinrich Hoffmeister, chief of the Wuerttemberg-Baden state police, said he will decide tomorrow after studying new evidence whether he will ask Parliament to lift immunity and allow him to arrest three of its members.

Four men already are under arrest on charges they were involved in bribery to get acquittals or light sentences for Nazis on trial in the de-Nazification courts.

Cardinal Mindszenty Returned From Hospital

Vienna, Austria, Jan. 31 (AP)—Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Catholic Primate of Hungary, has been returned to Budapest after spending several weeks in a hospital in the Tatra Mountains of Slovakia, church sources here said tonight.

The informants reported the Cardinal was suffering from a serious hyperthyroid condition late last year. The Vienna press had reported that Cardinal Mindszenty had been transferred to Moscow.

Cardinal Mindszenty now is serving a life prison sentence imposed on him by a five-man people's court in Communist-governed Hungary. He was convicted last February on a charge of treason.

Czechs Say Albania Repulses 40 Titoists

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 31 (AP) — More than "40 Titoist provocateurs" tried to cross into Albania January 8, but were driven back into Yugoslavia after a gun fight with Albanian sentries, the controlled Czech press said tonight.

Czech newspapers quoted the Albanian news agency as saying:

"A group of Titoist provocateurs of over 40 men tried to cross the Albanian border on January 8 and to enter Albanian territory. Two hours before this provocative act the Albanian border sentries heard the noises of automobile motors on Yugoslav territory.

"At about 8 P.M. the Albanian sentries saw armed men infiltrate in several groups onto Albanian territory. Later they opened fire on the Albanian border guards from five sides. The Albanian sentries replied to the fire and forced the provocateurs to return to Yugoslav territory."

FINNS SEEK SOVIET AMITY

President Makes Special Plea in Closing Parliament

HELSINKI, Finland, Jan. 31 (AP) —President Juho Paasikivi, target of Moscow ire, closed Parliament's current session today with a plea for friendly relations with Finland's critical big neighbor—Russia.

The 78-year-old President, who recently won re-electioon despite strong Communist opposition, declared:

"The object of Finland's foreign policy has been to maintain and further develop good and confidential relations with all countries, but in particular with our eastern neighbor, the Soviet Union."

Russia has charged that Finland had broken a friendship and mutual assistance pact by harboring Russian war criminals. The Finnish Government rejected the accusation.

Chiefs of Staff Met in Tokyo By MacArthur

Group Flies Directly From Aleutians for Discussions of Whole Asian Problem

TOKYO, Jan. 31 (AP).—The United States Joint Chiefs of Staff arrived at Tokyo tonight. They landed at Haneda airport after a direct flight from Shemya, in the Aleutians. General Douglas MacArthur greeted the four ranking American military leaders as they left their special plane.

General Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs, said they would discuss the whole Asian problem with General MacArthur and his staff.

General Bradley indicated that China and Formosa would be two of the major topics to be discussed between the joint chiefs—General J. Lawton Collins, Army Chief of Staff; General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force Chief of Staff, and Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, Chief of Naval Operations—and General MacArthur's staff.

The Joint Chiefs were forced to cancel a planned stop at Misawa airport, in Northern Japan, because of snow and high winds.

A host of high Army, Navy and Air Force leaders were on hand at Haneda Airport for the near-midnight arrival. General MacArthur remained in his black sedan until the plane stopped in front of the air terminal.

Then, his right hand bare, General MacArthur stood at the foot of the landing platform and greeted each of the chiefs as they left the plane. He patted General Bradley on the shoulder, grinned and said he was glad to see him.

General Bradley said the joint chiefs had an uneventful trip from Washington. They plan to visit the Panama command later.

The four military leaders will stay at the American Embassy in Tokyo.

CHIEFS OF STAFF ARRIVE IN TOKYO

TOKYO, Jan. 31. — (AP) The United States joint chiefs of staff flew in tonight for conferences with General MacArthur on high American strategy in the communist imperiled Orient.

MacArthur, who favors a strong stand, greeted the four-top-ranking military men at Haneda airport. He patted Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs, on the shoulder and said he was glad to see him.

Bradley told assembled correspondents the joint chiefs want "to talk over the situation generally with General MacArthur."

He indicated that China and Formosa would be two of the major points of the discussions.

MacArthur in turn shook hands with the remainder of the party, Army Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Air Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg and Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations.

Bradley said the joint chiefs would visit the Pacific command on their current tour and plan to visit Panama later.

A snow storm forced the visitors to cancel plans to visit Misawa air base in northern Honshu before coming to Tokyo. The big field, the nearest good base to Russian Siberia, was completed in 1948.

RUSSIA BOYCOTTS SESSION IN TOKYO

TOKYO, (Wednesday), Feb. 1—(AP) Russia today boycotted the allied Four-Power Council for Japan. The issue was a U. S. charge that Russia failed to complete repatriation of Japanese war prisoners.

Lt. Gen. Kuzma Derevyanko, the Soviet delegate, refused to attend.

The only matter on the agenda was a discussion of the fate of 376,000 Japanese whom General MacArthur says still are unaccounted for since their capture by the Russians during World War II.

The boycott followed three Russian walkouts from the last four council meetings. Each time they walked out rather than discuss repatriation—one of the major conflicts of the allied occupation.

AGA KHAN URGES 'PEACE LEAGUE'

NEW DELHI, India, (Wednesday), Feb. 1 — (AP) The Aga Khan called today on all peace loving nations in the world to form a "peace league" under United States leadership to resist aggression in any form, shape or place.

In a post-midnight interview in a hotel here, the leader of the Ismaili Moslems suggested that such a league include South American nations, the North Atlantic Pact powers, members of the British Commonwealth, Afghanistan, Burma, Siam, Indonesia, Iran, the Arab states of the Middle East, Turkey and Portugal.

He said United Nations machinery is much too elaborate and intricate to be effective. The "peace league," he maintained, should be modeled on the lines of the North Atlantic Pact.

The Aga, father-in-law of movie star Rita Hayworth, was president of the old League of Nations Assembly in 1937.

He said the organization he proposed would be more effective than one or more regional pacts. It also must have armed power to enforce its will immediately and successfully before aggression gets out of control, he added.

Mme. Pandit Asserts U.S. Accepts India's Neutrality

NEW DELHI, Jan. 31 (AP).—India's Ambassador to the United States told Parliament today the United States now understands and accepts India's policy of avoiding alignments in the East-West cold war.

Mme. Vijayalakshmi Pandit said India's neutral policy had been little understood in the United States before the recent visit of her brother, Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru. Since his visit, she said, Americans have accepted this policy "as the only possible course for India at the present time."

Following his sister, Prime Minister Nehru heatedly denied before Parliament that he is pro-Communist.

"I am not prepared to be anti-this or anti-that," he said angrily. "I may be soft to some, hard to others at times, but I dislike being pushed about or bullied," he added.

"I represent Asia when I say we are not going to be pushed this way or that. We try our best not to be swept away by panic or fear. Some one the Anglo-American side call me a Communist, while some on the other side call me an imperialist. This is a result of sheer fear complex.

"People ask me: 'Are you this or are you that?'

"But I say: This is where I intend to be. Nowhere else."

JERUSALEM PLAN OPPOSED

New Internationalization Project Held Disliked by Israel

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 31 (AP)—Informed sources said today the new plan for internationalizing Jerusalem by splitting the city into three sectors was still "unacceptable" to Israel but it might have opened a way for solving the problem.

Chairman Roger Garreau proposed to the Trusteeship Council at Geneva yesterday that the United Nations set up an internationalized city of holy places within Jerusalem, with enclaves outside for other holy places.

This would internationalize only a small area of Jerusalem instead of the entire city, and would provide for a line to be drawn between the areas occupied by Israel and Jordan.

Israeli sources said that should the Trusteeship Council create a subcommittee to try to solve the Jerusalem issue, then Israel would cooperate as long as there was reasonable hope of settling the problem in a form acceptable to all sides.

26,000 Filipino Deaths Laid to Faulty Rice Diet

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 31 (AP).—Dr. Juan Salcedo, director of the Philippines Nutrition Institute, told rice conference delegates today that 26,000 of his countrymen die each year because of a vitamin deficiency in their rice diet.

Dr. Salcedo, chairman of the conference—first of three to be held here—said the death toll is traceable directly to wastage of essential elements by antiquated methods of milling and cooking rice. He said experiments being conducted in the Philippines have cut beriberi and other such diseases by 70 per cent. The main stumblingblock, he said, is the lack of vitamins, which have to be imported at considerable cost.

Representatives of ten nations are attending the parley which will run through Saturday. A meeting of rice breeders will be held here tomorrow through Friday. Both meetings will lay the groundwork for an international conference of rice experts which will open here Monday. One hundred delegates from nineteen countries, including the States, will take part.

Burmese Parliament Ousts 44

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 31 (AP)—The Burmese Parliament today voted unanimously to expel forty-four rebel members who have been absent without leave. Those expelled are mostly leaders of forces fighting in Burma's drawn out civil war. They are from the ranks of Karens, the People's Volunteer Organization of renegade whites, and Communists. At today's session of Parliament—the first in 1950—140 members attended out of a total membership of 255.

6 DESTROYERS TO BE SENT TO PACIFIC FLEET

New Program Will Give Navy Total of 50 at Work in Area

Washington, Jan. 31—(AP)—The United States Pacific Fleet will have six more destroyers by September, the Navy announced today.

The Navy did not mention the dispatch to the Pacific of another aircraft carrier, which has also been under consideration.

The destroyers going to the Pacific will be organized as Escort Division One, operating from Pearl Harbor.

One of the six, the "killer" destroyer Carpenter, is the latest ship of its kind. It is now undergoing shakedown trials out of the Norfolk, Va., Naval Base. The Carpenter will be ready for Pacific duty in June.

One Quits Atlantic

The announced reinforcement of the Pacific Fleet will reduce active strength in the Atlantic by one destroyer. The U. S. S. Epperson, already converted for anti-submarine escort duty, will transfer from the Atlantic in September.

The four remaining Pacific-bound ships now are being converted as escorts. The Fletcher and Radford are due in Pearl Harbor about March 1, after completing their modification trials at San Diego, Calif.

The destroyers Philip and Renshaw are being converted at Portsmouth, Va. They will be ready for service in the Pacific about mid-August.

The reinforcement program, when completed, will give the Navy 50 active destroyers in the Pacific.

Two of the Navy's eight active carriers and six cruisers are currently operating in the Pacific. The 27,000-ton aircraft carrier Boxer and two destroyers reached Japan yesterday to join the Seventh Task Fleet based on the Philippines. The naval force based in Japan includes one heavy cruiser and four destroyers.

The active U. S. submarine force in all parts of the Pacific totals 31.

Boston Legislator Remembers; Silent As Others Greet 14 Japs

Boston, Jan. 31 (AP)—His face stern and his hands still, a young Massachusetts representative kept his seat today as all around him fellow House members stood up in applauding welcome to fourteen visiting Japanese.

Snubbed yesterday by the Boston City Council, the Japanese lawmakers today received a warm welcome that seemed to be joined in by everyone in Massachusetts gold-domed statehouse.

But, then they were ushered into the House and as the applause of the standing members grew, observers noticed the young legislator who did not stand up.

He was Daniel Rudsten, 30, a Boston Democrat and former Marine who knew Jap warfare in the Pacific himself and who lost a brother in it.

Tactful, Not Friendly

Rudsten said afterward he did not mind being tactful with the visiting Japanese but he did not feel that he could be openly friendly.

"I lost a brother in the Pacific due to aggression by the Japanese," Rudsten said.

He said he himself was a former Marine captain who saw his company "practically annihilated" in the Pacific.

"I feel the visiting delegates deserve our protection and tactful treatment. I do not feel that I must applaud or show overt signs of friendliness which I do not possess."

Nobody seemed to know whether the Japanese were aware of Rudsten's action any more than anyone knew their feelings about a spy suggestion in yesterday's city council meeting.

At that time the council voted to bar the visitors sent here by Gen. Douglas MacArthur for a first-hand study of American democracy in action.

No Comment

The council's move came after a shouting charge by Councilor James S. Coffey who yelled: "They are probaby here taking pictures of fortresses and trying to learn all about the A-bomb." Coffey said he was a World War I veteran and his son served in Germany in World War II.

The visitors did not comment on that.

Today, however, the early part of their statehouse tour was a complete turnabout with personal handshakes from Gov. Paul A. Dever and an overall welcome that kept the visitors beaming in return.

Governor Dever even made a point of laughing off the snub of yesterday. He referred to it as a good example for the Japanese of "an exercise of that great civil liberty"—the privilege of Americans to "express themselves on various and divers subjects in ways which do not meet with the approval of the overwhelming mass of citizens."

Called Regrettable

The council snub was termed a "sorry spectacle" by some council members and "regrettable" by State Department officials in Washington.

In the House welcome, applauding with the other members was Representative Sherman L. Miles, a former major general who headed army intelligence in Washington at the time of Pearl Harbor.

The Rudsten incident did not interrupt the House greetings to the Japanese in any way.

The smiling visitors, in business suits and accompanied by interpreters and military staff, took seats in the House speaker's gallery.

Two of their leaders sat with the Speaker on the old Massachusetts rostrum.

The few among the visitors who understand English heard the House adopt a resolution which also used the word "regrettable" to describe the City Council action of yesterday.

Governor's Greeting

In his greeting Governor Dever told the Japanese:

"Each of you . . . I am informed, has been a devotee of the ideals of democracy even though those times of recent and unpleasant memory when in your native land you were unable to practice your principles."

The answer to the statehouse welcome came from the visitors' spokesman, Takeshi Yamazaki, 52, one of two visitors on the speaker's platform.

He spoke in Japanese and when the translation was read loud applause swept the House at this statement:

"We are going through a revolution and learning democracy under the great leadership of that great soldier and statesman and great humanitarian, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who sympathizes with the problems of Japan."

Earlier, Yamazaki had said: "We came here to see everything, good or bad."

Korean And Formosan Funds Linked By House Committee

Washington, Jan. 31 (AP)—Economic aid for Korea was wrapped up in the same bundle with similar assistance for the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa today. That gives the Korea project a new chance in the House which turned it down two weeks ago.

The new package looked much better to some of the lawmakers who took a slap at Administration policy in the Orient by rejecting the Korea plan when it was offered alone.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee put together $60,000,000 for Korea, which is the same amount originally refused, and $28,000,000 for Formosa.

Backed By Senate Group

At the same time the Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved the $28,000,000 for Formosa. The Senate already has passed the Korea proposal.

Representative Kee (D., W.Va.), chairman of the House committee, said the Korea-Formosa combine will be sent to the Rules Committee tomorrow with a request for [illegible] spot on the House program.

[illegible]e said the Foreign Affairs group voted 17 for the aid measure with Representative Jackson (R., Cal.) recorded only as "present."

But even Jackson, who was one

30.24- 8639

of the opponents of the original Korean measure, said the new combine is "far different" and presents a new question. He called it much more acceptable.

Piecemeal Plan Assailed

A considerable part of the Republican criticism of the defeated measure was based on complaints about a "piecemeal" approach in Far Eastern policy.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman, Senator Connally (D., Texas), reported the vote for the Formosa measure as unanimous.

Technically the Formosa measure only extends to next June 30 the expiration date of an aid program now set to end February 15. There is now $103,000,000 in unexpended funds for China available to the Economic Co-operation Administration.

Assurance By Acheson

But Connally told a news conference that Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, gave the committee assurances that the Formosa outlays will not go past $28,000,000.

Without congressional action Korean aid also will end February 15. The $60,000,000 is planned to round out a $120,000,000 nonmilitary aid plan for the infant South Korean Republic in this fiscal year ending June 30.

addressed a Roosevelt Day dinner of the Baltimore chapter of Americans for Democratic Action.

Scores House Action

The New York congressman scored recent House action downing an administration measure to provide $60,000,000 for South Korea—"The sole democratic republic remaining in all of northeast Asia."

The same lawmakers who turned thumbs down on Korean aid, Roosevelt said, had "screamed about sending our Navy to Formosa" to aid the Nationalist Chinese Government there.

And he described the Nationalist leader, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, as "the greatest single Fascist in Asia today."

Some 400 persons attended the banquet in honor of the late President. Ranking Maryland Democratic leaders, though invited, were conspicuous by their absence.

Period of Hysteria

Roosevelt predicted that the nation is entering a "period of hysteria," and observed: "If I had applied for a Federal job and were subjected to loyalty boards and FBI Chief Hoover's torchbearers instead of the people of New York City I would not be able to get on the Federal payroll."

"Why?" he went on. "Because I once contributed to an organization that later was infiltrated by Communists.

"Because, having been a director of an organization where there were some Communists I would be guilty by association."

He said there were "some Communists" in the American Veterans Committee, but:

"We did our job—I am not sure it's all completed—but it was the first group in America who took on the Communists, refused to back down on its ideals, and beat them hands down."

Mass., was last heard from September 27, the day he started a hazardous journey, by primitive caravan, out of China. He had been left behind at Tihwa, Sinkiang Province, to close the consulate. Consul J. Hall Paxton and his party reached India in October after the arduous trip across the Himalayas by foot and horseback.

Mrs. MacKiernan, a former newspaper woman who met her husband in Sinkiang, is living with her year-old twins in nearby Fairfax. She was evacuated from Tihwa with other dependents in December, 1948.

She said the Chinese Red accusation, heard by the Associated Press in San Francisco, may have been inspired by a Communist cook the couple had employed at Tihwa.

Fears For Him

"I'm beginning to feel something has happened to Douglas," she added.

She said he had expected to reach India December 27.

McDermott said no serious concern was felt for MacKiernan's safety, but he would have his hands full just getting out. The journey from Tihwa to India normally takes 60 to 85 days in Summer, but longer in Winter when passes are blocked by snow.

Consul Succeeds In Fleeing China

Fairfax, Cal., Jan. 31 (AP)—Douglas Mackiernan, American vice consul in China, is safe on his hazardous journey out of China. The United States State Department today so informed his wife, Mrs. Pegge Mackiernan.

The Chinese Communists accused Mackiernan of "spying."

He had been unheard from since September 27 when he left, under State Department orders on an arduous trip across the Himalaya mountains.

In a telephone call to Mrs. Mackiernan, a State Department spokesman said a "very feeble" radio message was received from the diplomat.

It said: "I am safe and well. Expect to return in the spring."

The message apparently was sent on a very small portable transmitter.

The State Department said the message was dated "between January 10 and 15." It was addressed to Mrs. Mackiernan.

Says Ohioan Seeks Failure of Aid So G. O. P. Can Win Election

Baltimore, Jan. 31—(AP)—Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. (D-Lib-N. Y.) said last night Senator Taft (R-Ohio) "wants the administration foreign policy to fail so his party could point to that failure—and maybe win an election once that way."

The son of the late President asserted that "groups led by Mr. Taft" would seek to cripple effectiveness of the Marshall Plan, partly because making such aid to Europe "ineffective is important to Mr. Taft."

NIGHT LEAD OEEC (220)

BY CARL HARTMAN

PARIS, JAN.31-(AP)-DIRK U.STIKKER, NETHERLANDS FOREIGN MINISTER, WAS ELECTED HEAD OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC) TODAY IN A STEP URGED BY THE UNITED STATES TO UNIFY WESTERN EUROPEAN ECONOMY.

THE 18-MEMBER OEEC COUNCIL MET IN CLOSED SESSION TO ELECT STIKKER TO THE POST, WHICH COUNCIL CHAIRMAN PAUL VAN ZEELAND, BELGIAN FOREIGN MINISTER, REFERRED TO AS "POLITICAL CONCILIATOR." STIKKER WILL KEEP HIS JOB AS HOLLAND'S FOREIGN MINISTER, DIVIDING HIS TIME BETWEEN THE TWO.

THE UNITED STATES FOUGHT HARD TO GET A GENERAL CHAIRMAN TO COORDINATE OEEC WORK, TO CUT DOWN EUROPEAN TRADE BARRIERS, AND TO REPRESENT OEEC IN DEALS ON CABINET LEVEL.

BRITAIN VETOED PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CANDIDATE FOR THE JOB--BELGIUM'S FORMER PREMIER PAUL-HENRI SPAAK--BECAUSE SPAAK OPPOSED GOVERNMENT CONTROLS ON BUSINESS WHEN HE WAS BELGIUM'S PREMIER.

THE OEEC DECIDES DISTRIBUTION OF EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM (ERP) AID IN EUROPE. THE UNITED STATES IS NOT A MEMBER. IT WANTS THE GROUP TO BECOME A GREATER POLITICAL INFLUENCE IN EUROPE.

MARSHALL PLAN ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN TOLD THE COUNCIL "YOU HAVE ALREADY MADE IMPORTANT PROGRESS IN FREEING EUROPEAN TRADE FROM ARTIFICIAL BARRIERS AND THIS PROGRESS IS KNOWN IN THE U.S." HE URGED FURTHER MEASURES TO CREATE A SINGLE, FREE MARKET FOR PRIVATE TRADE IN EUROPE.

HOFFMAN TALKED ABOUT EUROPEAN TRADE FOR TWO HOURS TODAY WITH THE 18 MINISTERS OF MEMBER-NATIONS IN THE COUNCIL.

THEY CONSIDERED A FRENCH PROPOSAL THAT 75 PER CENT OF ALL IMPORT QUOTAS BE ELIMINATED THIS YEAR.

MARSHALL PLAN AREAS HAVE ALREADY TAKEN OFF A LITTLE MORE THAN 50 PER CENT OF QUOTA RESTRICTIONS ON IMPORTS.

STIKKER, 52, HAS BEEN HOLLAND'S FOREIGN MINISTER SINCE JULY 1948. HE HAS BEEN ACTIVE IN POLITICS ONLY SINCE THE WAR'S END.

FEB 1 - 1950

by harvey hudson

paris, jan. 30 - (ap) - premier georges bidault draws his most successful political sword -- the vote of confidence -- again tomorrow in an effort to save and seal his record 1950 budget.

bidault already has won six votes of confidence by the national assembly in getting passage/on jan. 2 of his 2,257 billion franc ($6,300,000,000 budget. then the french parliament upper house, the council of the republic, amended various tax measures approved by the assembly.

now he will face the national assembly again in a five-pronged vote of confidence if the budget is to be finally approved. the council's amendments must be rejected by the assembly before the original tax measures can become law.

the confidence question is posed on three ~~quantions~~ questions of tax increases, one on proposed reductions in civil expenses and the fifth on the budget as a whole.

FEB 1 - 1950

the first three votes will come over the council's rejection of a production tax increase, from 12.5 to 13.5 percent, an increase in the tax on trucking companies and a new 10 percent tax on undistributed corporation profits.

on the fourth vote, bidault will ask the assembly to reject a proposal to save 7,000,000,000 (b) francs ($20,000,000) on expenses of civil ministries and railroad reconstruction. the last vote will be on a demand for reapproval of the original budget as a whole.

there is no certainty that bidault will be upheld on all these questions.

this would pose a delicate point on parliamentary procedure, for bidault and his cabinet. under the constitution, he would not be obliged to resign unless opposed by an absolute majority of 311 votes.

it is believed, however, he would quit if defeated on any one ofthe issues, even if the vote against him did not reach 311. vote abstentions would make this possible.

under french procedure, the assembly can override the council and put laws into effect by re-passing them.

the assembly seems to have a change ofheart, however, and is not too mmmhmmm eager to pass the same budget bill it approved on jan. 2.

FEB 1 - 1950

and that is why bidault and his cabinet pulled out the confidence question to force the issue.

remembering the month of crisis that elapsed between the time the last cabinet resigned and a new government could be formed, the assembly also is not too eager to force the downfall of the cabinet. the assembly, moreover, realizes that it might be shortening its own life, by creating a demand for new elections, which are not now scheduled until the end of1951.

bidault has insisted that the budget must be balanced at all costs and that the council's action in eliminating or reducing certain taxes would cause a deficit.

OF CONFIDENCE.

THE FINAL VOTE WAS REPORTED UNOFFICIALLY AS 300 TO 284, THE WIDEST MARGIN FOR BIDAULT IN A SERIES OF FIVE CONFIDENCE VOTES ON HIS BUDGET POLICIES UPON WHICH HE STAKED HIS THREE MONTHS OLD GOVERNMENT.

THE BUDGET, AS FINALLY APPROVED, CALLS FOR EXPENDITURES OF 2,238,000,000,000 (T) FRANCS (ABOUT $6,300,000,000 (B)) AND RECEIPTS O 2,118,000,000,000 (T) FRANCS, LEAVING A DEFICIT OF 20 BILLION FRANCS WHICH THE GOVERNMENT PROMISED TO MAKE UP BY ECONOMIES.

IT WAS BIDAULT'S FOURTH CLEAR-CUT VOTE OF CONFIDENCE OF THE DAY.

ON ANOTHER ISSUE THE ASSEMBLY VOTE HAD BEEN A TIE, BUT PARLIAMENTARIANS RULES THE GOVERNMENT HAD NOT LOST ON THE CONFIDENCE ISSUE.

THE OFFICIAL TALLY WAS 293 TO 293. BY THIS THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY REFUSED TO ADOPT THE CABINET'S FIGURE OF 1,095,000,000,000 (T) FRANCS (ABOUT $3,120,000,000) FOR NON-MILITARY EXPENSES OF THE GOVERNMENT.

BIDAULT WAS NOT OBLIGED TO RESIGN BECAUSE OF THE TIE. TO FORCE HIM TO RESIGN THE COMBINED OPPOSITION -- COMMUNISTS, DEGAULLISTS AND RIGHT WINGERS -- WOULD HAVE NEEDED AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY, OR 311 VOTES.

THE TIE VOTE, ON THE HEELS OF THREE CONFIDENCE VOTES HE WON IN QUICK SUCCESSION ON OTHER BUDGET ISSUES, WAS NOT CONSIDERED BY PARLIAMENTARY OBSERVERS AS PARTICULARLY DANGEROUS TO BIDAULT. THEY SAID SOME FORMULA TO SOLVE THE ISSUE WOULD BE FOUND.

A FIFTH VOTE OF CONFIDENCE DEMANDED BY BIDAULT, ON HIS BUDGET AS A WHOLE, WAS SCHEDULED AT 4 P.M. (10 A.M., EST).

BIDAULT WON THE FIRST VOTE OF THE DAY 299 TO 292.

IT CAME ON THE FIRST OF FIVE CONFIDENCE VOTES HE HAD DEMANDED TO OVERRIDE ACTION BY THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT'S UPPER HOUSE, THE COUNCIL OF THE REPUBLIC, WHICH HAD REJECTED SEVERAL GOVERNMENT-PROPOSED TAX BOOSTS.

BIDAULT HAD THREATENED TO RESIGN AND PRECIPITATE A GOVERNMENT CRISIS UNLESS HIS 2,257 BILLION FRANC ($6,300,000,000) BALANCED BUDGET FOR 1950 WAS APPROVED.

THE FIRST VOTE UPHELD BIDAULT'S PROPOSAL FOR AN INCREASE IN THE PRODUCTION TAX--FROM 12.5 TO 13.5 PER CENT--DESIGNED TO BRING IN ABOUT 45 BILLION FRANCS (ABOUT $130,000,000) IN REVENUE.

AN ADVERSE VOTE ON ANY OF THE CONFIDENCE BALLOTS THREATENED TO BRING THE RESIGNATION WITH THE POSSIBILITY OF AN ENSUING NATIONAL ELECTION AT WHICH MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY WOULD RISK THEIR SEATS.

BIDAULT WON A SECOND VOTE OF CONFIDENCE BY A WIDER MARGIN OF 301 TO 293 ON HIS PROPOSAL TO RESTORE A TAX OF 10 PER CENT ON UNDISTRIBUTED CORPORATION PROFITS. THIS IS ESTIMATED BY THE GOVERNMENT TO BRING IN 17 BILLION FRANCS (OVER $40,000,000).

THE MARGIN WIDENED TO THREE VOTES ON THE THIRD BALLOT. BIDAULT WON IT, 294 TO 291.

THIS VICTORY BROUGHT BACK A TAX INCREASE ON TRUCKING COMPANIES, WHO HAVE A POWERFUL LOBBY IN THE ASSEMBLY, AND ON PURCHASES OF PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS. THESE SHOULD BRING IN 15,000,000,000 FRANCS REVENUE (ABOUT $40,000,000), THE GOVERNMENT SAID.

SJ846AES

FEB 1 - 1950

THE COUNCIL OF THE REPUBLIC CLIPPED OFF SOME OF THE NEW TAXES DEMANDED BY THE GOVERNMENT AND SLAPPED ON SOME NEW ECONOMIES WHICH THE CABINET SAID IT COULD NOT ACCEPT, IN VIEW OF PREVIOUS RETRENCHMENTS. THE BILL THEN WENT BACK TO THE ASSEMBLY, WHICH OVERRIDES THE COUNCIL MERELY BY REPASSING BY A SIMPLE MAJORITY.

TO PUSH THROUGH THE CABINET-BACKED MEASURES, BIDAULT USED THE QUESTION OF CONFIDENCE ON THE FIVE KEY ISSUES.

ON THE VOTE WHERE HE GOT ONLY A TIE, HE HAD TO ACCEPT A COMPROMISE LOPPING 5,000,000,000 (B) FRANCS (ABOUT $14,300,000) OFF INVESTMENT PROJECTS COVERED IN CIVIL EXPENSES. BIDAULT HAD INSISTED ALSO ON A BALANCED BUDGET, BUT WAS WILLING TO ACCEPT THE RELATIVELY SMALL DEFICIT. HE APPARENTLY BELIEVES HE CAN LIQUIDATE IT WITHOUT TOO MUCH TROUBLE.

PARIS, JAN.31-(AP)-PAUL LOUIS BRET HAS RESIGNED AS DIRECTOR GENERAL OF THE FRENCH PRESS AGENCY, IT WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY.

BRET, WHO BEFORE THE WAR WAS LONDON CORRESPONDENT FOR THE NEWS AGENCY, THEN KNOWN AS HAVAS, WILL BECOME PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR FOR UNESCO, THE UNITED NATIONS EDUCATIONAL, SCIENTIFIC, AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATION.

HE WILL BE REPLACED AS OF TOMORROW BY MAURICE NEGRE, A PREWAR BALKANS CORRESPONDENT FOR HAVAS, NOW KNOWN AS THE AGENCE FRANCE PRESSE NEGRE HEADED THE AGENCY FROM JANUARY 1946, TO JUNE 1947.

THE AGENCY IS PARTIALLY SUBSIDIZED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

WW1123AES

"WHAT IS SO GRAVE FOR FRANCE IS THE FACT THAT WE HAVE AN ARMY OF 150,000 MEN THERE," HE ADDED.

RELIABLE SOURCES ESTIMATE FRANCE HAS SENT ABOUT A THIRD OF HER TOTAL GROUND ARMIES TO FIGHT HO'S COMMUNIST AND NATIONALIST REBELS. AMONG THE FRENCH FORCES ARE ABOUT 15,000 GERMANS IN THE FOREIGN LEGION.

AT LEAST A QUARTER OF THE TOTAL 1950 MILITARY BUDGET OF $1,200,000,000 (B) HAS BEEN EARMARKED FOR INDOCHINA.

INDOCHINA, A COUNTRY THE SIZE OF TEXAS, WAS USED BY THE JAPANESE AS A DOORMAT TO SOUTHEAST ASIA. BY USING A DIPLOMATIC CLUB ON VICHY ADMINISTRATORS WHILE THEY WERE AT THE MERCY OF THE GERMANS, THE JAPANESE ACQUIRED INDOCHINESE BASES FROM WHICH THEY LAUNCHED THEIR CONQUESTS OF MALAYA, SINGAPORE, BURMA AND INDONESIA.

THE FRENCH HAD EXERCISED RULE AND THE DOMINANT INFLUENCE IN INDOCHINA SINCE 1887.

BUT TODAY THERE ARE TWO VIETNAMS--THE VIETNAM REPUBLICA HEADED BY THE WISPY BEARDED, SNAGGLE TOOTHED HO, AND THE VIETNAM STATE HEADED BY BAO DAI, KNOWN AS THE "NIGHT CLUB EMPEROR" WHEN HE WAS AN EXILE ON THE FRENCH RIVIERA.

BOTH CLAIM JURISDICTION OVER THE THREE STATES OF COCHIN CHINA, ANNAM AND TONKIN, FORMER FRENCH PROTECTORATES. ABOUT 21,000,000 OF INDOCHINA'S 25,000,000 PEOPLE LIVE IN THE THREE STATES. THE REST LIVE IN CAMBODIA AND LAOS, TWO LESS TROUBLESOME KINGDOMS WHICH HAVE ACCEPTED FRENCH PROTECTION.

HO --THE NAME IS AN ALIAS-- PROCLAIMED A REPUBLIC WHEN CHINESE TROOPS OCCUPIED NORTHERN INDOCHINA IN 1945 FOR THE ALLIES. ENCOURAGED BY THE FRENCH, BAO DAI ABDICATED BECAUSE HE HAD HELD HIS THRONE UNDER THE JAPANESE.

HO, WHO NEVER HAS OWNED TO BEING A COMMUNIST, ATTRACTED THE SUPPORT OF NATIONALISTS AS WELL AS COMMUNISTS. THE FRENCH DECIDED TO RECOGNIZE HIS VIETNAM REPUBLIC IN MARCH, 1946 AFTER HE HAD DISSOLVED THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

BUT HO DEMANDED FULL INDEPENDENCE AND THE INCLUSION OF COCHIN CHINA IN HIS REPUBLIC. THE FRENCH WOULD NOT AGREE AND IN DECEMBER, 1946, REAL FIGHTING --THERE HAD BEEN SPORADIC CLASHES AS EARLY AS SEPTEMBER, 1945-- BROKE OUT AT HANOI. TODAY, AFTER THREE YEARS OF FRENCH EFFORT AND MUCH EXPENDITURE, HE STILL HOLDS ABOUT 40 PER CENT OF THE THREE STATES.

LAST YEAR THE FRENCH SUMMONED PUDGY 36-YEAR-OLD BAO DAI FROM THE RIVIERA AND AGREED TO GIVE HIM LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT AS HEAD OF A VIETNAM STATE. THE FRENCH KEPT CONTROL OF FOREIGN RELATIONS AND DEFENSE, BUT HOPED SURRENDER OF POWER OVER POLICE, EDUCATION AND CIVIL SERVICE TO TH FORMER EMPEROR WOULD HELP HIM WEAN AWAY HO'S NATIONALIST SUPPORT.

HO CHI-MINH SEPARATE (330)
BY CARL HARTMAN

PARIS, JAN.31-(AP)-HO CHI-MINH, MEANING THE "MAN WHO SEES CLEARLY", IS ONLY ONE OF THE PICTURESQUE NAMES ASSUMED BY THE LEADER OF THE VIETNAM REPUBLIC RECOGNIZED BY RUSSIA.

THE NAME IS PRONOUNCED HO TYEE MEENUM.

DETAILS OF HIS LIFE ARE OBSCURE, BUT FRENCH OFFICIALS SAY HIS REAL NAME IS NGUYEN TAT THANH AND THAT HE HAS BEEN A LEADER OF ASIATIC COMMUNISM SINCE THE EARLIEST DAYS OF THE PARTY.

HE WAS BORN JAN. 15, 1894 OR 1892.

HIS FATHER WAS A MANDARIN OF THE OLD ANNAMITE EMPIRE, WITH A POSITION ROUGHLY CORRESPONDING TO LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF A SMALL PROVINCE. HOWEVER, IN 1910 HIS FATHER LOST HIS POSITION. FRENCH OFFICIALS SAY IT WAS BECAUSE OF "DRUNKENNESS AND BRUTALITY." BUT HO'S FRIENDS SAY IT WAS BECAUSE OF HIS ADVANCED POLITICAL VIEWS.

THE NEXT YEAR NGUYEN TAT THANH, THE YOUNGEST OF THREE CHILDREN, TOOK A JOB AS STEWARD ABOARD A FRENCH LINER AND VISITED FRANCE, BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES.

HE SETTLED IN PARIS AFTER THE WAR AND TOOK A JOB AS RETOUCHER IN A PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIO. HERE HE GOT TO KNOW SOME OF THE MEN WHO NOW LEAD THE FRENCH COMMUNIST PARTY.

THE YOUNG ANNAMITE COMMUNIST WENT TO RUSSIA IN 1923 FOR TRAINING AS A COMMUNIST AGENT. HE BECAME AN OFFICIAL OF AN INTERNATIONAL PEASANTS' ORGANIZATION SPONSORED BY THE COMMUNISTS, AND TWO YEARS LATER SHOWED UP IN SOUTH CHINA AS PART OF A MOSCOW-TRAINED GROUP WORKING WITH CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALIST PARTY, THE KUOMINTANG.

IN THE LATE 1920S AND EARLY 1930S HE LIVED THE PRECARIOUS LIFE OF A COMMUNIST ORGANIZER IN SIAM, INDOCHINA AND HONG KONG, WHERE THE BRITISH JAILED HIM FOR 18 MONTHS. HE WAS SENTENCED TO DEATH IN ABSENTIA IN INDOCHINA.

IN 1940 HE APPEARED AT YENAN, THE CAPITAL OF CHINESE COMMUNISTS. THERE HIS INDOCHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY BECAME THE "LEAGUE FOR INDEPENDENCE OF VIETNAM" AND HE BECAME HO CHI-MINH.

CHINESE NATIONALISTS, HOWEVER, GOT HOLD OF HIM AND PUT HIM IN PRISON FOR A YEAR AND A HALF.

SOON AFTER THEY LET HIM OUT, HE SLIPPED OVER THE BORDER INTO INDOCHINA WITH 700 FOLLOWERS AND IN 1944 ESTABLISHED HIMSELF IN AN AREA NOMINALLY HELD BY THE JAPANESE. SHORTLY AFTER THE JAPANESE SURRENDER IN 1945, HE PROCLAIMED HIS VIETNAM REPUBLIC. SINCE THEN HE NEVER HAS ADMITTED BEING A COMMUNIST.

FEB 1 - 1950

FRANCE HAS MADE SEPARATE ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE LESS TROUBLESOME INDOCHINESE KINGDOMS OF CAMBODIA WITH 3,000,000 PEOPLE AND LAOS WITH 1,000,000 PEOPLE.

FRANCE RECOGNIZED HO CHI-MINH MARCH 7, 1946. THE DEAL FELL THROUGH IN PARIS THAT SAME SUMMER. IN DECEMBER WAR BROKE OUT IN HANOI. AFTER TWO YEARS OF FIGHTING WITHOUT RESULT FRANCE SET UP THE PRO-FRENCH GOVERNMENT IN MAY, 1948, UNDER BRIG.GEN.NGUYEN VAN XUAN AND GAVE IT OFFICIAL FRENCH RECOGNITION.

WHEN THIS GOVERNMENT PROVED IT HAD NO PRESTIGE IN THE AREA, FRANCE SUMMONED BAO DAI TO PARIS FROM HIS EXILE ON THE RIVIERA.

THE PUDGY 36-YEAR-OLD ANNAMITE WAS THEN BEING CALLED BY THE FRENCH THE "NIGHT CLUB EMPEROR."

BAO DAI WAS PERSUADED TO GO BACK LAST YEAR AS CHIEF OF THE VIET-NAM GOVERNMENT WITH VAGUELY DEFINED POWERS.

THE FRENCH FRANKLY HOPED THAT BAO DAI WOULD WEAN AWAY LARGE NUMBERS OF HO CHI-MINH'S FOLLOWERS.

BAO DAI REFUSED TO GO BACK EMPTY HANDED AND THE FRENCH RECENTLY AWARDED VIET-NAM PARTIAL SELF-RULE, GIVING THE INDOCHINESE CONTROL OF EDUCATION, POLICE, CIVIL SERVICE AND PROMISING THEM LOW-LEVEL DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH NEIGHBORING STATES.

HO CHI-MINH ONCE HAD THE FIRM BACKING OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY IN FRANCE AND OF A SIZEABLE PORTION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC OPINION. HOWEVER, THE COMMUNISTS IN FRANCE HAVE IN A SENSE "KILLED HIM WITH KINDNESS."

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE GIVEN HO CHI-MINH THEIR FULL BACKING AND AT PRESENT HAVE BEEN WAGING A BITTER CAMPAIGN AMONG FRENCH LABOR TO BLOCK ARMS SHIPMENTS TO INDOCHINA. A LARGE SEGMENT OF NON-COMMUNIST FRENCH OPINION HAS BRANDED THIS MOVE AS "TREASON".

BECAUSE OF THIS THE NON-COMMUNISTS CAN SCARCELY COME OUT OPENLY FOR HO CHI-MINH, WHICH WOULD ALIGN THEM WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

PARIS, JAN.31-(AP)-FRENCH SOURCES SAID TODAY COUNCIL OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC) HAS AGREED TO RECOMMEND DUTCH FOREIGN MINISTER DIRK U. STIKKER AS OEEC GENERAL CHAIRMAN.

ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL HOFFMAN HAS BEEN URGING THE OEEC TO NAME A FULL TIME GENERAL CHAIRMAN. HE LOST HIS CAMPAIGN, HOWEVER, TO HAVE THE COUNCIL NAME PAUL-HENRI SPAAK, FORMER BELGIAN PREMIER TO THE POST. SPAAK NOW IS CHAIRMAN OF THE EUROPEAN ASSEMBLY.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HIMSELF HAD DESCRIBED SPAAK AS "IDEALLY QUALIFIED" FOR THE OEEC POST. BUT THE BRITISH WERE GENERALLY CREDITED WITH TORPEDOING THE SPAAK CANDIDACY. THEY WERE REPORTED TO HAVE FEARED HIS IDEAS ON GIVING BUSINESS A FREE HAND, AS DEMONSTRATED BY BELGIAN RECOVERY WHEN HE WAS PREMIER, WOULD CONFLICT WITH THEIR OWN IDEAS OF A CONTROLLED ECONOMY.

AMERICAN SOURCES WERE BELIEVED READY TO HAVE OTHER NOMINEES CONSIDERED SO LONG AS STEPS WERE TAKEN TO MAKE THE OEEC A POLITICAL FORCE IN EUROPE.

THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN WOULD SERVE AS A "LIAISON COORDINATION AND REPRESENTATION OFFICER" AND WOULD BE QUALIFIED TO DEAL ON CABINET LEVELS, IT WAS REPORTED.

DISPATCHES FROM THE HAGUE REPORTED YESTERDAY THAT STIKKER HAD OBTAINED CABINET APPROVAL FOR HIS POSSIBLE APPOINTMENT TO THE POST. HE INTERRUPTED HIS PARIS DISCUSSIONS TO FLY HOME SUNDAY AND RETURNED TO PARIS YESTERDAY.

THE OEEC COUNCIL SPLIT ON THE ISSUE OF ABOLISHING DUAL PRICING AS A PART OF THE U.S. DEMAND FOR LIBERALIZATION OF ALL TRADE.

THE COUNCIL (OEEC) DISCUSSED WESTERN EUROPEAN TRADE FOR TWO HOURS WITH HOFFMAN. THEY CONSIDERED A PROPOSAL BY FRANCE THAT 75 PER CENT OF ALL IMPORT QUOTAS BE ELIMINATED THIS YEAR. IRISH FOREIGN MINISTER SEAN MACBRIDE INSISTED, HOWEVER, THAT THE TRADE LIBERALIZATION SHOULD BE MADE DEPENDENT ON THE ABOLITION OF DUAL PRICING AND BULK BUYING BY GOVERNMENTS. IT WAS REPORTED THAT MCBRIDE'S SUGGESTION MET CONSIDERABLE OPPOSITION.

HOFFMAN TOLD THE 18 MINISTERS "YOU ALREADY HAVE MADE IMPORTANT PROGRESS IN THE FREEING OF EUROPEAN TRADE FROM ARTIFICIAL BARRIERS, AND THIS PROGRESS IS KNOWN IN THE UNITED STATES."

A1 29 (CORRECT)
HE URGED THE MINISTERS, HOWEVER, TO PUT INTO EFFECT ADDITIONAL MEASURES TO CREATE A SINGLE, FRE MARKET FOR PRIVATE TRADE IN EUROPE.
THE MARSHALL PLAN AREAS ALREADY HAVE TAKEN OFF SLIGHTLY MORE THAN 50 PER CENT OF THE QUOTA RESTRICTIONS ON IMPORTS. THE NEW PROPOSAL WOULD ELIMINATE ANOTHER 25 PER CENT OF THE RESTRICTIONS.
MACBRIDE'S STATEMENT ASKED THAT THE PROPOSAL BE MADE TO READ "PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT ADEQUATE MEASURES HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO ABOLISH THE PRACTICE OF DUAL PRICING AND THAT THE SYSTEM OF IMPORT TRADE HANDLED BY MONOPOLIES UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROLS IS MODIFIED IN SUCH A WAY AS NOT TO FRUSTRATE THE LIBERALIZATION ENVISAGED."
GREAT BRITAIN WAS REPORTED TO BE WRITING A FORMAL RULE AGAINST DUAL PRICING, BY WHICH DOMESTIC CONSUMERS PAY LESS FOR GOODS THAN CUSTOMERS ABROAD.

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, JAN.31-(AP)-THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT'S EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM MINISTRY TODAY ISSUED A CAUTIOUSLY OPTIMISTIC MEMORANDUM FORECASTING A GRADUAL DECREASE IN UNEMPLOYMENT AND A RISE IN PRODUCTION.

THE MINISTRY SURVEYED THE PROBABLE ECONOMIC FUTURE OF WEST GERMANY BETWEEN 1950 AND 1952 UNDER THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

ITS 96-PAGE MEMORANDUM OFFERED SUGGESTIONS TO IMPROVE WEST GERMANY'S ECONOMY UNDER ERP AND TOOK INTO ACCOUNT ITS PROGRESS THUS FAR.

THE MINISTRY NOTED THAT WEST GERMANY'S PROGRESS UNDER ERP HAD NOT BEEN SO GREAT AS IN OTHER COUNTRIES, BUT SAID THIS WAS DUE TO THE INCREASE IN WEST GERMANY'S POPULATION AND ECONOMIC CHANGES RESULTING FROM THE WAR.

THE MINISTRY CONCEDED THAT THE UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM THREATENED TO BECOME CRITICAL BUT LOOKED TOWARD LONG-RANGE BETTERING OF CONDITIONS THROUGH A SLOW RISE IN ECONOMY.

FEB 1 - 1950

LOSS OF EAST GERMAN AGRICULTURAL LANDS AND THE EMIGRATION TO THE WEST OF MANY OF ITS INHABITANTS WORSENED THE UNEMPLOYMENT SITUATION, THE MINISTRY SAID.

SINCE 1948, THE REPORT SAID, WEST GERMANY'S ECONOMY HAS TAKEN A "REMARKABLE UPWARD TREND. IT SAID THIS WAS DUE TO:

1. CURRENCY REFORM.
2. ERP IMPORTS.
3. RETURN TO OPEN MARKET ECONOMY.
4. GOOD 1948-49 HARVESTS.

IT BLAMED PART OF THE UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM ON INADEQUATE CAPITAL INVESTMENTS.

THE MINISTRY MADE THESE PROPOSALS TO CONSERVE FOREIGN CURRENCY:

1. RESUMPTION OF THE BIG PREWAR GERMAN WHALING INDUSTRY.
2. EXPANSION OF GERMAN SHIP BUILDING.
3. INCREASING AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION THROOUGH EXTENDED USE OF MODERN MACHINERY AND IMPROVED FERTILIZATION METHODS.

THE ERP MINISTRY SAID IT HOPED TO EXPAND WEST GERMANY'S QUARTERLY EXPORTS SHARPLY IN THE NEXT BIENNIUM, SETTING A GOAL OF $395,000,000 WORTH OF EXPORTS PER QUARTER THROUGH 1950 AND 1951, BOOSTING THIS TO $453,000,000 BY 1952.

THE JULY-SEPTEMBER EXPORT TOTAL LAST YEAR WAS $296,000,000.

AT THE SAME TIME THE MINISTRY SAID IT HOPED TO CONTROL TOTAL IMPORTS, EXPRESSING THE BELIEF THAT MUCH OF GERMANY'S IMPORTS DURING THE NEXT TWO YEARS WILL BE FINISHED GOODS.

THEY EXPECT IMPORTS OF BASIC FOODSTUFFS AND RAW MATERIALS TO DECREASE IN THE COMING BIENNIUM.

FEB 1 - 1950

THE MINISTRY FORECAST AN INCREASE IN INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION TO 99 PER CENT OF THE 1936 LEVEL IN 1950, AND IN 1952 TO 16 PER CENT.

THE REPORT SAID ITS EXPORT HOPES ARE PREDICATED ON INCREASED PRODUCTION OF THE CHEMICAL INDUSTRY AND OF CONSUMER GOODS.

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 31—(AP)—The west German government expressed doubt today that West Germany will be able to reach the Marshal plan goal of self support by 1952.

The doubt was voiced in a memorandum by the government's European recovery program ministry surveying the economic prospects for the next three years.

"Despite all the progress which has been made," the memorandum concluded, "there are still heavy burdens on the German economy which make it difficult to reach the aims of the program to make west Germany self supporting by 1952."

The ministry forecast a gradual decrease in unemployment and a rise in production. It blamed part of the unemployment problem on inadequate capital investments.

West Germany's economy was reported to have taken a "remarkable upward trend" in 1948, due to currency revision, erp imports, return to open marketing and good 1948-49 harvests.

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 31-(ap)- Karel Folauf, a former police clerk, was sentenced to life in jail by the prague state court on charge he was a spy "for western imperialists" and for Czechoslovaks who have managed to flee abroad.

Four other men were sent to jail for five and a half to eight years on charges of supplying Folauf with official documents and for "failing to report his anti-state activities".

Folauf was discharged from his police job at Zatec, northwestern bohemia, after the 1948 communist coup.

The newspaper lidove noviny said he fled to paris and joined the spy staff of a fugitive anticommunist czech leader who sent him to austria for further training in a spy school.

The newspaper account of his trial said folauf's job was to get "important details about czechoslovakia for the war preparations of the western imperialists."

HONG KONG, JAN. 31-(AP)-IF MAO TZE-TUNG, CHINA'S RED LEADER, COMES HOME FROM MOSCOW EMPTY HANDED IT MAY BE THE END OF HIM.
THERE HAVE BEEN HINTS THAT MAO HAS LOST GROUND AT HOME ALREADY.
THE CHINESE RED LEADER, HAVING THROWN CHINA'S LOT IN WITH THE COMMUNIST WORLD FRONT, MUST PROVE TO HIS PEOPLE THAT HE CAN GET FROM THE SOVIET UNION AT LEAST AS MUCH AS HE LOST BY TURNING HIS BACK ON THE WEST.
A LONGTIME CHINA OBSERVER RECENTLY NOTED THE RUMORED RUSSIAN DEMANDS ON CHINA AND PREDICTED: "IF THESE ARE ANYWHERE NEAR RIGHT THERE ARE GOING TO BE SOME UPHEAVALS IN PEIPING AND MAO WILL BE THE FIRST TO GO."
THIS MAY BE WRITING THE CHUBBY REVOLUTIONARY OFF TOO QUICKLY. BUT MAO HAS NEVER CAPTURED THE IMAGINATION OR BACKING OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE. THE PARTY WORSHIPS HIM BLINDLY--OR AT LEAST PARTS OF IT DO--BUT NOT THE AVERAGE CHINESE.
WHEN MAO REACHED SUPREME POWER DURING THE RED SWEEP LAST YEAR THE CHINESE PEOPLE HAD NOTHING AGAINST HIM OR FOR HIM. TRUE THEY HAD LITTLE TO SAY ABOUT HIS LEADERSHIP BUT HE NEEDED THEIR CONFIDENCE AND THEY GENERALLY WERE WILLING TO GIVE IT TO HIM IF HE BROUGHT ABOUT ANY BETTERMENT OF THEIR LOT.
SO FAR THE RECORD OF RED CHINA HAS BEEN PRETTY POOR AND MAO WILL GET SHORT SHRIFT FROM HIS PEOPLE IF HE TAKES A TRIMMING IN MOSCOW.
IT LOOKS AS THOUGH MAO IN DEFEAT IN MOSCOW WOULD LEAVE MAO ALONE AS CHINA'S WHIPPING BOY.

BY THOMAS P. WHITNEY
MOSCOW, JAN.31-(AP)-RUSSIA HAS RECOGNIZED HO CHI-MINH'S ANTI-FRENCH VIET-NAM REPUBLIC IN INDOCHINA AND HAS AGREED TO EXCHANGE DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES WITH THE ASIATIC COMMUNIST CHIEFTAIN.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY BY THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS AT THE SAME TIME DESCRIBED THE FRENCH-SUPPORTED RIVAL VIET-NAM REGIME OF FORMER EMPEROR BAO DAI AS A "PUPPET GOVERNMENT" REPRESENTING ONLY A "SMALL GROUP OF REACTIONARIES."
THE SOVIET STATEMENT CALLED ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT BRITAIN AND AMERICA HAVE ANNOUNCED THEY PROBABLY WILL RECOGNIZE THE BAO DAI REGIME.
FORMAL SOVIET RECOGNITION OF MOSCOW-TRAINED HO CHI-MINH WILL BE OF MAJOR INTEREST TO THE FRENCH, WHOSE TROOPS HAVE BEEN FIGHTING HO'S TROOPS SINCE 1946.
(THE SOVIET ANNOUNCEMENT CAME ONLY A FEW HOURS AFTER A REPORT FROM WASHINGTON SAID SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON HAD SENT GREETINGS TO BAO DAI, EXPRESSING THE HOPE OF ESTABLISHING CLOSER RELATIONS. DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS IN LONDON SAID YESTERDAY BRITAIN WILL RECOGNIZE THE BAO DAI GOVERNMENT NEXT WEEK AND THE UNITED STATES PROBABLY WOULD FOLLOW SUIT.)
(HO CHI-MINH'S GUERRILLA FORCES HAVE BEEN FIGHTING THE FRENCH IN INDOCHINA SINCE DEC. 19, 1946, AND CONTROL MOST OF THE SEACOAST. THE FRENCH CREATED THE RIVAL VIET-NAM GOVERNMENT, COVERING 40 PER CENT OF INDOCHINA AND MOST OF THE AREA'S 20,000,000 POPULATION. THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT LAST SUNDAY RATIFIED AN AGREEMENT MADE LAST SPRING WITH BAO DAI, FORMER EMPEROR OF ANNAM, PLACING HIM AT THE HEAD OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT WITH CONSIDERABLE AUTONOMY. BUT CONTROL OF FOREIGN RELATIONS AND MILITARY FORCES REMAINED WITH THE FRENCH WHO HAVE RULED INDOCHINA WITH VARYING DEGREES OF AUTHORITY SINCE 1787.)
THE TASS DESCRIPTION OF HO CHI-MINH'S VIET-NAM REPUBLIC SAID IT CONTROLS 90 PER CENT OF THE INDOCHINESE POPULATION AND THAT THE AREAS OCCUPIED BY THE FRENCH CONTAIN ONLY 2,000,000 OF THE COUNTRY'S

THE SOVIET ATTITUDE TOWARD HO CHI-MINH HAS BEEN MADE CLEAR IN FREQUENT ARTICLES IN THE SOVIET PRESS, WHICH HAS PREDICTED UNANIMOUSLY THAT HIS FORCES WILL FREE THE COUNTRY OF FRENCH TROOPS.

OTHER REPORTS HAVE DESCRIBED THE FRENCH FORCES AS HAVING THE CLOSEST COOPERATION WITH THE KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST) ARMIES OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK AS THEY FLED TO VIET-NAM FROM NEIGHBORING CHINA.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RECOGNITION CAME JUST AFTER A DELEGATION FROM SINKIANG, CHINA'S WESTERNMOST PROVINCE BORDERING ON THE SOVIET UNION, ARRIVED IN MOSCOW TO TAKE PART IN SOVIET-CHINESE NEGOTIATIONS FOR AN ALLIANCE.

THE SINKIANG DELEGATION, HEADED BY SEISUTDIN AYZIZOV, DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE "SINKIANG PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT", IS THE FIRST IN MANY YEARS TO COME TO MOSCOW TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE RUSSIANS AND WAS DESCRIBED BY ONE WESTERN DIPLOMAT AS A "VERY INTERESTING DEVELOPMENT".

SINKIANG IS ONE OF THE FOUR NORTH CHINA AREAS WHICH U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON HAS CHARGED RUSSIA WITH SEEKING TO ANNEX. SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y. VISHINSKI AND CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADERS -- INCLUDING MAO TZE-TUNG AND FOREIGN MINISTER CHOU EN-LAI, WHO ARE BOTH IN MOSCOW FOR THE SOVIET-CHINESE NEGOTIATIONS -- HAVE RIDICULED THIS CHARGE AS ENTIRELY FALSE.

FORMAL NOTICE OF RUSSIA'S RECOGNITION OF THE VIET-NAM REPUBLIC WAS HANDED TO THAT GOVERNMENT'S FOREIGN MINISTER HUANG MINH GIAM YESTERDAY BY VISHINSKY. IT FOLLOWED SIMILAR RECOGNITION BY THE CHINESE PEOPLES (COMMUNIST) REPUBLIC.

THE TASS REPORT OF THE ACTION SAID IT WAS RUSSIA'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF HO CHI-MINH'S APPEAL TO ALL GOVERNMENTS OF THE WORLD TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS.

THIS APPEAL WAS MADE JAN. 14, TASS SAID. IT WAS HANDED TO SERGEI NEMCHINA, SOVIET MINISTER IN BANGKOK, BY HO CHI-MINH'S BANGKOK REPRESENTATIVE, DUK KUI, ON JAN. 19.

THE STATEMENT SIGNED BY VISHINSKY SAID THAT "TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE FACT THAT THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF VIET-NAM REPRESENTS THE OVERWHELMING MAJORITY OF THE POPULATION OF THE COUNTRY, THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS DECIDED TO ESTABLISH DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE SOVIET UNION AND THE DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF VIET-NAM AND TO EXCHANGE MINISTERS."

SINGAPORE, FEB.1-(AP)-DIPLOMATIC OBSERVERS HERE SAID TODAY MOSCOW'S RECOGNITION OF COMMUNIST HO CHI-MINH'S REGIME IN INDOCHINA MAY SWING MANY FENCE-STRADDLING VIETNAMESE OVER TO THE RED LEADER.
THEY EXPRESSED FEAR THE SWING MAY ENDANGER THE FRENCH-SPONSORED VIETNAM GOVERNMENT OF FORMER EMPEROR BAO DAI.
"THE FALL OF BAO DAI'S GOVERNMENT WOULD BE A SEVERE SETBACK FOR DEMOCRACY IN SOUTHEAST ASIA," SAID ONE TOP BRITISH OFFICIAL.
"BAO DAI IS OUR FRIEND AND WE MUST SUPPORT HIM," HE SAID. "HO CHI-MINH IS NOT. HE IS COMMUNIST AND IF HE WINS INDOCHINA WILL BECOME ANOTHER SOVIET SATELLITE.
"THIS WILL HAVE A BAD EFFECT ON OTHER SOUTHEAST ASIA COUNTRIES LOOKING TOWARD THE WEST TO HELP THEM FIGHT COMMUNISM."
QUICK RECOGNITION OF BAO DAI'S GOVERNMENT BY THE WESTERN POWERS IS NEEDED TO SAVE HIM, OBSERVERS SAID. THEY ADDED THAT OTHER ASIAN COUNTRIES WOULD FOLLOW THE WEST'S LEAD IN SUCH A MOVE.
THE YOUNG RULER HAS BROKEN DOWN MUCH OF THE ANIMOSITY AGAINST HIM IN HIS OWN COUNTRY.
DURING THE PAST FEW MONTHS HE HAS REGAINED MUCH OF HIS FORMER POPULARITY. HE HAS MOVED FREELY AMONGST HIS PEOPLE DESPITE THE CONSTANT THREAT OF BEING SHOT BY RED ASSASSINS. HE ALSO HAS SUCCEEDED FINALLY IN NEGOTIATING AN AGREEMENT WITH FRANCE WHICH GIVES HIS GOVERNMENT CONSIDERABLE DOMESTIC POWERS.
DESPITE BAO DAI'S GROWING STATURE THE SKEPTICAL VIETNAMESE ARE MAINTAINING A "WAIT-AND-SEE" ATTITUDE. MANY DISTRUST THE FRENCH WHO WERE SLOW IN GIVING VIETNAM DOMESTIC POWERS AND WERE EVEN SLOWER IN RATIFYING THE AGREEMENT WHICH GAVE BAO DAI THESE POWERS.
MORE IMPORTANT, THEY FEAR THE THREAT OF CHINESE COMMUNIST HORDES ON THEIR NORTHERN BORDER AND ARE UNWILLING TO TAKE SIDES.
SOME DIPLOMATS BLAME FRANCE'S DELAY IN REACHING AND RATIFYING THE AGREEMENT WITH BAO DAI FOR THE FAILURE OF MANY COUNTRIES TO RECOGNIZE BAO DAI'S GOVERNMENT.
THIS, THEY SAY, HAS GIVEN HO CHI-MINH'S REGIME THE ADVANTAGE, ESPECIALLY WITH THE SUPPORT OF RED CHINA AND THE SOVIET UNION.

MANILA,JAN.31-(AP)-THE PHILIPPINE CABINET, PLAINLY IRKED BY AMERICAN REPORTS THAT SURPLUS PROPERTY HAS BEEN MISHANDLED, SCHEDULED A SPECIAL MEETING TODAY.
IT WILL PREPARE A REPORT ON SURPLUS PROPERTY DISPOSITION AND RUSH IT TO PRESIDENT QUIRINO, NOW IN THE UNITED STATES. HE WILL VISIT WASHINGTON LATER THIS WEEK.
RELIABLE SOURCES SAID THE CABINET TAKES THIS VIEW:
THE U.S. SHOULD INVESTIGATE ITS OWN OFFICIALS AND ARMY PERSONNEL CONNECTED WITH THE POSTWAR HANDLING OF SURPLUS IN THE ISLANDS. THE PHILIPPINES HAS JAILED SOME FILIPINOS FOR IRREGULARITIES BUT U.S. AUTHORITIES HAVE FAILED TO TAKE ACTION ON REPORTS THAT AMERICANS ALSO WERE INVOLVED.
U.S. ARMY UNDERSECRETARY VOORHEES SAID IN WASHINGTON SUNDAY HE REGARDS RECENTLY PUBLISHED STORIES AS OLD STUFF. HE SAID THEY WERE SUBSTANTIALLY THE SAME AS ASSOCIATED PRESS STORIES FROM MANILA IN 1947.
VOORHEES SAID THE ARMY CONDUCTED AN INVESTIGATION AFTER THESE 1947

THE PHILIPPINES HAD REALIZED $42,000,000 (M) AS THE "FAIR VALUE" OF SURPLUS PROPERTY WHICH HAD A PROCUREMENT VALUE OF SLIGHTLY MORE THAN $1,000,000,000 (B).

THIS REPORT ALSO SUGGESTED THAT THE U.S., BY REASON OF CONTRACTURAL OBLIGATIONS, STILL OWED THE PHILIPPINES ABOUT $77,000,000.

IN THE AGREEMENT TO TRANSFER THE PROPERTY, THE U.S. ADMITTED OBLIGATIONS OF $120,000,000 (M) DUE THE PHILIPPINES FOR WAR DAMAGES AND LOANS AND CURRENCY ISSUED TO THE U.S. ARMY AND GUERRILLAS DURING THE WAR AGAINST THE JAPANESE.

BEARING FURTHER FRUIT.

THE OLD INDONESIAN REPUBLIC, WHICH LED THE FIGHT AGAINST THE DUTCH FOR FOUR YEARS, BECAME THE DOMINANT STATE IN THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA WHEN THE NETHERLANDS GRANTED THE EAST INDIES INDEPENDENCE SIX WEEKS AGO. PREMIER MOHAMMED HATTA AND THE MAJORITY OF HIS FEDERAL MINISTERS ARE REPUBLICANS.

MADOERA IS AN ISLAND OF 1,700 SQUARE MILES OFF JAVA'S NORTHEAST COAST. IT WAS CUT OFF FROM REPUBLICAN RULE AND PLACED UNDER A DUTCH SPONSORED STATE GOVERNMENT AFTER THE FIRST DUTCH MILITARY OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE REPUBLIC IN 1947.

THE STATES OF EAST JAVA AND WEST JAVA WERE SIMILARLY CARVED FROM TERRITORY OF THE REPUBLIC, SEATED AT THE CENTRAL JAVANESE CITY OF JOGJAKARTA.

THE MADOERA PARLIAMENT RECENTLY ASKED HATTA'S GOVERNMENT TO STEP IN. THE STATE ADMINISTRATOR, NAMED TJAKRANINGRAT, TURNED BACK HIS MANDATE OF POWER TO THE CENTRAL REGIME.

EAST JAVA, SPLIT BETWEEN MEN WHO WISHED TO RETAIN STATEHOOD AND THOSE WHO FAVORED REJOINING THE REPUBLICAN STATE, WAS THE FIRST TO BE PLACED UNDER FEDERAL CONTROL. THAT WAS TWO WEEKS AGO.

THE MANDATE FOR WEST JAVA, TORN BY GUERRILLA WARFARE AND AUTONOMY DEMANDS OF A MOSLEM GROUP CALLED DARUL ISLAM, WAS YIELDED BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT YESTERDAY.

FROM THE ISLAND OF AMBON, IN EAST INDONESIA, CAME A DELAYED REPORT THAT A FIRE SATURDAY NIGHT BURNED 100 HOMES AND A NUMBER OF WAREHOUSES. THE DAMAGE WAS ESTIMATED AT 10,000,000 GUILDERS ($250,000)

BY R. SATAKOPAN

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN. 31-(AP)-PRESIDENT RAJENDRA PRASAD OPENED THE INDIAN REPUBLIC'S FIRST SESSION OF PARLIAMENT TODAY WITH A REITERATION OF THE NATION'S NEUTRALITY IN THE EAST-WEST COLD WAR.

THE GOVERNMENT'S POLICY, HE TOLD THE LEGISLATORS, IS "DIRECTED TOWARD SECURING PEACE IN THE WORLD AND AVOIDING ANY ALIGNMENT WHICH LEADS TO HOSTILITIES WITH ANY NATION."

THOUGH INDIA INTENDS TO REDUCE HER EXPENDITURES FOR DEFENSE AS AN ECONOMY MEASURE AND A PEACEFUL FESTURE, SECURITY MUST REMAIN THE PARAMOUNT CONSIDERATION, HE SAID, "IN A TROUBLED WORLD SCARCELY RECOVERED FROM THE CONSEQUENCES OF THE LAST WAR, FACING CRISIS AFTER CRISIS AND ENVELOPED BY SUSPICION, BITTERNESS AND FEAR."

IT HAD BEEN A PAINFUL DILEMMA, HE ADDED, THAT INDIA HAS HAD TO MAINTAIN A LARGE ARMY THE PAST 30 MONTHS BECAUSE OF "EVIL FORCES ENDANGERING ITS SECURITY BOTH WITHIN AND FROM OUTSIDE."

HIS GOVERNMENT, HE CONTINUED, IS WEDDED TO THE GANDHIAN PRINCIPLES OF PEACE AND NON-VIOLENCE, BOTH INTERNA AND EXTERNAL.

THE FRAIL 64-YEAR-OLD DISCIPLE OF MOHANDAS K. GANDHI WAS ELECTED FIRST PRESIDENT BY THE CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY A WEEK AGO.

HIS POLICY OF NEUTRALITY WAS REINFORCED BY PREMIER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, WHO ANGRILY TOLD PARLIAMENT THAT HE WAS NOT PRO-COMMUNIST OR "ANTI-THIS OR ANTI-THAT."

"I MAY BE SOFT TO SOME, HARD TO OTHERS AT TIMES, BUT I DISLIKE BEING PUSHED ABOUT OR BULLIED," HE DECLARED. "I REPRESENT ASIA WHEN I SAY WE ARE NOT GOING TO BE PUSHED THIS WAY OR THAT.

"SOME ON THE ANGLO-AMERICAN SIDE CALL ME COMMUNIST, WHILE SOME ON THE OTHER SIDE CALL ME IMPERIALIST. THIS IS THE RESULT OF A SHEER FEAR COMPLEX."

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN 31-(AP)-PRESIDENT RAJENDRA PRASAD MADE A STRONG APPEAL FOR WORLD PEACE TODAY AS HE FORMALLY OPENED THE FIRST PARLIAMENT OF THE NEW INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC OF INDIA.

PRASAD, ENTERING THE PARLIAMENT AMIDST PATRIOTIC CHEERS BY ITS MEMBERS, SAID INDIA WOULD FOLLOW A POLICY "DIRECTED TOWARD SECURING PEACE IN THE WORLD AND AVOIDING ANY ALIGNMENT WHICH LEADS TO HOSTILITIES WITH ANY NATION."

THE PRESIDENT SAID HE APPROACHED HIS NEW JOB "WITH HUMILITY AND PRAYER" AND URGED THE PEOPLE OF INDIA TO REMEMBER THE TEACHINGS OF THE LATE MOHANDAS K. GANDHI, WHOSE DISCIPLE HE WAS UNTIL THAT LEADER'S ASSASSINATION TWO YEARS AGO.

PRASAD SAID INDIA'S FOREIGN POLICY WAS TO "MAINTAIN PEACE AND FRIENDSHIP WITH ALL NATIONS OF THE WORLD AND HELP IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE TO MAINTAIN WORLD PEACE."

PRASAD SAID HE HOPED INDIA'S 2,000-YEAR-OLD FRIENDLY AND CULTURAL CONTACTS WITH CHINA WOULD CONTINUE AS AN AID TO PRESERVING PEACE IN ASIA AND THE WORLD. INDIA HAS RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME.

PRASAD SAID INDIA'S MAIN INTEREST LIES IN THE FREEDOM OF SUBJECT PEOPLES "AND IN THE REMOVAL OF ALL BARRIERS THAT COME IN THE WAY OF FULL DEVELOPMENT OF NATIONS AND PEOPLES."

THE PRESIDENT SAID INDIA OPPOSES CONTINUATION OF ANY SORT OF COLONIAL RULE AND IS AGAINST ANY KIND OF RACIAL DISCRIMINATION.

HE EXPRESSED HOPE THAT OUT OF THE PRESENT TURMOIL IN ASIA WOULD EMERGE PEACE, FREEDOM AND COOPERATION AMONG ASIAN COUNTRIES.

PRASAD HAILED THE RECENT ESTABLISHMENT OF A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA AND PAID TRIBUTE TO ITS CHIEF, PRESIDENT SOEKARNO.

REFERRING TO INDIA'S DIFFICULTIES WITH ITS NEIGHBOR, PAKISTAN, PRASAD SAID:

"THE GRIEVOUS WOUND CAUSED BY RECENT EVENTS WILL TAKE SOME TIME TO HEAL. IT IS MY GOVERNMENT'S POLICY TO HELP IN EVERY WAY THIS PROCESS OF HEALING."

HE SAID HE HOPED PAKISTAN WOULD ACCEPT INDIA'S PROPOSAL FOR A DECLARATION BANNING WAR AS A MEANS OF SETTLING DISPUTES.

REFERRING TO THE STATE OF KASHMIR OVER WHICH INDIA AND PAKISTAN HAVE BEEN AT ODDS FOR SOME TIME, PRASAD SAID INDIA WOULD PROTECT THE SMALL STATE AGAINST AGGRESSION UNTIL CONDITIONS ARE RIGHT FOR A PLEBISCITE.

ON THE SUBJECT OF INDIA'S ECONOMY, PRASAD SAID THE GOVERNMENT'S IMMEDIATE AIM IS TO RAISE THE PEOPLE'S STANDARD OF LIVING.

REFERRING TO THE LARGE DEFENSE EXPENDITURES, HE SAID HIS GOVERNMENT IS ALLIED TO GANDHI'S PRINCIPLE OF NON-VIOLENCE, BUT HAD BEEN FACED WITH THE "PAINFUL DILEMMA" IN THE PAST 30 MONTHS OF HAVING TO MAINTAIN A LARGE ARMY.

THE GOVERNMENT, HE SAID, COULD NOT RISK THE COUNTRY'S SECURITY AT A TIME WHEN "EVIL FORCES WERE ENDANGERING ITS SECURITY, BOTH WITHIN AND FROM THE OUTSIDE."

HOWEVER, HE SAID, HIS GOVERNMENT NOW PROPOSES TO REDUCE DEFENSE EXPENDITURES, BOTH IN THE INTERESTS OF ECONOMY AND OF PEACE.

PRASAD WOUND UP HIS ADDRESS WITH AN APPEAL TO HIS COUNTRYMEN TO LOOK TO THE FUTURE WITH "INTEGRITY OF MIND AND PURPOSE."

(380) NIGHT LEAD BRITISH OIL

WASHINGTON,JAN.31-(AP)-A REPORTED PLAN BY THE BRITISH TO BROADEN THEIR EMBARGO AGAINST IMPORTS OF AMERICAN OIL STIRRED A HEATED PROTEST TODAY FROM SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX). HE BRANDED IT "AN ACT OF HOSTILITY."

"OUR GOVERNMENT WILL NO DOUBT TAKE APPROPRIATE ACTION," HE SAID.

CONNALLY, CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, DID NOT FORECAST WHAT STEPS THIS COUNTRY MIGHT TAKE.

BUT HE POINTEDLY REMARKED THAT THE PROPOSED BRITISH MOVE COMES AT A TIME "WHEN THE UNITED STATES HAS MADE AND IS MAKING STUPENDOUS GIFTS TO BRITAIN TO REBUILD HER ECONOMY."

THIS APPEARED AS A STRONG HINT THAT BRITAIN MIGHT NOT FARE SO WELL UNDER THE NEXT INSTALLMENT OF THE MARSHALL PLAN PROGRAM WHICH MANY LEADING CONGRESS MEMBERS SAY SHOULD BE CUT SHARPLY.

CONNALLY'S STATEMENT WAS PROMPTED BY THE DISCLOSURE OF A LETTER FROM THE BRITISH COLONIAL SECRETARY TELLING OF THE PLANS TO EXTEND THE CURBS ON U.S. OIL TO THE COMMONWEALTH NATIONS.

THESE CURBS WHICH WENT INTO EFFECT JANUARY 1, BANNED ALL DOLLAR PURCHASES OF AMERICAN FUEL OIL FOR IMPORT INTO THE UNITED KINGDOM FOR THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1950, AND MADE A 30 PER CENT SLASH IN ALL OTHER PETROLEUM IMPORTS. THE BRITISH SAID THE MOVE WAS AIMED AT SAVING ABOUT $370,000,000 OF THEIR SCARCE DOLLAR SUPPLY.

AMERICAN PRODUCERS ASSAILED THE EMBARGO AS SHOWING A LONG RANGE PLAN TO SQUEEZE U.S. PETROLEUM FIRMS OUT OF WORLD MARKETS. THEIR PROTESTS WERE CHANNELED TO THE GOVERNMENT THROUGH THE NATIONAL PETROLEUM COUNCIL WHICH SERVES AS AN ADVISORY GROUP ON OIL MATTERS TO THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

IT WAS THE PETROLEUM COUNCIL WHICH MADE PUBLIC THE BRITISH SECRETARY'S LETTER WRITTEN TO THE EAST AFRICAN GOVERNMENT AT NAIROBI.

"THE AMERICANS HAVE, AS EXPECTED, NOT GONE BEYOND EXPRESSING REGRET AT PROPOSALS, AND STEPS NOW HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO PUT SCHEME INTO EFFECT IN UNITED KINGDOM AND TO OBTAIN COOPERATION OF DOMINION

A STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL TOLD A REPORTER "THIS IS NOT A CORRECT INTERPRETATION." HE SAID THE DEPARTMENT HAD "EXPRESSED CONCERN" OVER THE ORIGINAL CURB ORDER AND SINCE THEN THE MATTER HAS BEEN THE SUBJECT OF DIPLOMATIC TALKS.

A BRITISH EMBASSY SPOKESMAN LATER SAID THAT THIS SECTION OF THE LETTER WAS AN "EXAMPLE OF BRITISH UNDERSTATEMENT." HE REPORTED THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD BEEN "EMPHATIC" IN ITS PROTESTS.

BUT HE SAID "THIS DOLLAR SAVINGS AND ECONOMIZING ON OIL IS A MUST ON OUR PART." HE ADDED THAT "WE ARE ALWAYS READY TO DISCUSS ALTERNATIVE SCHEMES, AND ARE DOING SO."

WASHINGTON,JAN 31-(AP)-DELEGATE FARRINGTON (R-HAWAII) TODAY URGED CONGRESSIONAL ACTION TO PERMIT THE MARRIAGE OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS IN JAPAN TO JAPANESE GIRLS.

SUCH MARRIAGES ARE NOW PROHIBITED BECAUSE WOMEN OF JAPANESE, KOREAN AND CERTAIN POLYNESIAN AND MICRONESIAN RACES ARE INELIGIBLE FOR UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP.

FARRINGTON INTRODUCED 16 BILLS COVERING INDIVIDUAL CASES. TWELVE WOULD PROVIDE FOR APPROVAL OF MARRIAGES OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS NOW IN JAPAN TO JAPANESE NATIONALS; TWO WOULD PERMIT SUCH MARRIAGE; AND TWO WOULD ADMIT JAPANESE FINANCEES TO THE UNITED STATES TO MARRY AMERICAN VETERANS.

CONGRESS DID FOR A TIME AUTHORIZE THE ADMISSION OF FOREIGN BRIDES OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS, INCLUDING POLYNESIANS, KOREANS AND JAPANESE, BUT THE DEADLINE EXPIRED DEC. 31, 1948.

FARRINGTON ALSO INTRODUCED EIGHT BILLS THAT WOULD PERMIT THE RETURN TO HAWAII OF ALIEN PARENTS OF AMERICAN CITIZENS.

WASHINGTON, JAN.31-(AP)-UNITED STATES OFFICIALS CHARGED TODAY THAT A BRITISH PLAN TO EXTEND AN EMBARGO ON DOLLAR OIL IMPORTS TO THE ENTIRE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH IS AIMED AT OBTAINING LONG-TERM COMMERCIAL ADVANTAGES AT THE EXPENSE OF THEAMERICAN OIL INDUSTRY.

THE NATIONAL PETROLEUM COUNCIL MADE PUBLIC A LETTER FROM THE BRITISH COLONIAL SECRETARY TO THE EAST AFRICAN GOVERNMENT AT NAIROBI DISCLOSING THE BRITISH PLANS.

THE COUNCIL, WHICH HAS BEEN OBJECTING HEATEDLY TO THE BRITISH OIL RESTRICTIONS, DID NOT EXPLAIN HOW IT OBTAINED A COPY OF THE LETTER.

A COUNCIL REPORT CONTENDED THAT THE BRITISH POLICIES, IF CONTINUED, COULD COMPEL THE AMERICAN OIL INDUSTRY TO SURRENDER THE INTERNATIONAL OIL TRADE TO THE BRITISH.

ONE SECTION OF THE BRITISH LETTER, SAYING THE EMBARGO WAS BEING EXTENDED BECAUSE THE U.S. HAD NOT PROTESTED VIGOROUSLY AGAINST THE PROPOSALS, AROUSED RESENTMENT AMONG STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS.

A STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL TOLD A REPORTER "THIS IS A BAD BLUNDER WHICH MISREPRESENTS OUR POSITION ON THE OIL QUESTION AND IT IS BOUND TO STIR UP TROUBLE." HE ADDED THAT THIS IS "NOT A CORRECT INTERPRETATION OF THE AMERICAN VIEW."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THAT WHEN THE BRITISH OIL RESTRICTIONS FIRST WERE MENTIONED IN DECEMBER THE DEPARTMENT HAD "EXPRESSED CONCERN" AT THE BRITISH ACTION. IT SAID TALKS WERE BEGUN TO SEE IF SOME CHANGES COULD BE MADE TO PREVENT HURTING AMERICAN COMPANIES.

COPIES OF THE BRITISH LETTER WERE IN THE HANDS OF CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND OTHER CONGRESS MEMBERS.

THE AMERICAN PETROLEUM COUNCIL SAID THE BRITISH PLANNED TO EXTEND THE EMBARGO ALSO TO THE SO-CALLED STERLING AREA--THE AREA IN WHICH THE BRITISH POUND STERLING IS THE DOMINANT MEDIUM OF EXCHANGE.

A COMMITTEE REPORT ADOPTED BY THE PETROLEUM COUNCIL CHARGED THAT THE BRITISH POLICIES WERE "ACTUALLY DESIGNED TO OBTAIN LONG-TERM COMMERCIAL ADVANTAGES FOR THE BRITISH AND BRITISH-DUTCH OIL COMPANIES AT THE EXPENSE OF THE AMERICAN INDUSTRY."

THE COUNCIL SAID IT WAS ASKING THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT TO "TAKE STEPS" TO ALLOW AMERICAN OIL COMPANIES TO COMPETE WITHOUT THE OBSTACLES OF BRITISH CONTROLS.

THE RECENTLY-IMPOSED BRITISH EMBARGO HERETOFORE HAS APPLIED ONLY ON DOLLAR OIL IMPORTS INTO ENGLAND AND HER COLONIES.

JAMES V.BROWN, SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE COUNCIL, WHICH ADVISES THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT ON OIL AND GAS PROBLEMS, SAID THE BRITISH LETTER WAS READ AND DISCUSSED AT A CLOSED MEETING LAST WEEK.

A KEY SECTION OF THE BRITISH LETTER SAID:

"UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAVE NOW BEEN INFORMED OF SUBSTANCE OF PROPOSALS FOR SUBSTITUTING SURPLUS PRODUCTION BY BRITISH COMPANIES FOR DOLLAR OIL IMPORTED INTO THE STERLING AREA BY UNITED KINGDOM COMPANIES.

"THE AMERICANS HAVE, AS EXPECTED, NOT GONE BEYOND EXPRESSING REGRET AT PROPOSALS, AND STEPS HAVE NOW BEEN TAKEN TO PUT SCHEME INTO EFFECT IN UNITED KINGDOM AND TO OBTAIN COOPERATION OF DOMINION GOVERNMENTS."

A164WX

FEB 1

IT WAS THIS SECTION WHICH STIRRED RESENTMENT AMONG STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS. THEY SAID THE BRITISH HAD INDICATED IN DISCUSSIONS THAT THEY MIGHT SAVE AS MUCH AS $370,000,000 BY PUTTING THE NEW OIL CONTROLS INTO EFFECT.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID THE AMERICAN OIL COMPANY THAT WOULD BE HARDEST HIT WOULD BE THE STANDARD OIL OF NEW JERSEY.

IN AN ANALYSIS OF THE SITUATION PROVIDED CONNALLY AND OTHER TEXAS CONGRESS MEMBERS, THIS COMPANY SAID THAT UNDER THE BRITISH ACTION "THE FOREIGN BUSINESS OF AMERICAN OIL COMPANIES MIGHT BE LIQUIDATED IN A RELATIVELY SHORT PERIOD OF TIME."

(280) GERMANY

WASHINGTON,JAN.31-(AP)-A SCHEDULED THREE-POWER MEETING TO DISCUSS ENDING THE STATE OF WAR WITH WEST GERMANY MAY BE POSTPONED.

A UNITED STATES OFFICIAL SAID YESTERDAY THAT PROBLEMS NOT FORESEEN EARLIER MIGHT CAUSE A DELAY IN THE DATE, TENTATIVELY SET FOR SOME TIME IN FEBRUARY. THIS IS NOT YET DEFINITE, HOWEVER, HE ADDED.

THE OFFICIAL, WHO DECLINED TO BE IDENTIFIED BY NAME, SAID THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE ARE MAKING SLOW PROGRESS IN TRYING TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE STATE OF WAR SHOULD BE LIFTED.

SEPARATE DETAILED STUDIES MADE BY LEGAL EXPERTS OF THE THREE GOVERNMENTS HAVE POSED A NUMBER OF COMPLEX ISSUES WHICH MAY HAVE TO BE STRAIGHTENED OUT BEFORE A MEETING OF TOP LEGAL OFFICERS IS HELD, THE OFFICIAL SAID.

HIGH ON THE LIST OF PROBLEMS HOLDING UP PROGRESS, HE SAID, IS AN EXACT DETERMINATION OF HOW THE END OF THE STATE OF WAR WOULD AFFECT THE RIGHT OF THE THREE OCCUPYING POWERS TO MAINTAIN TROOPS IN WESTERN GERMANY.

A SECOND BIG PROBLEM SLOWING NEGOTIATIONS, THIS OFFICIAL SAID, IS TRYING TO DETERMINE WHAT HAPPENS TO GERMANY'S HUGE DEBTS, BOTH PUBLIC AND PRIVATE.
OTHER ISSUES, IT WAS REPORTED, ARE:
1. GERMANY'S PREWAR TREATIES AND AGREEMENTS--WHETHER THEY WILL ALL BE CANCELLED AUTOMATICALLY.
2. WHAT ARRANGEMENT SHOULD BE MADE TO ENFORCE PROVISIONS CALLING FOR RESTITUTION OF LOOTED PROPERTY AND WHETHER THE QUESTION OF REPARATIONS SHOULD BE LEFT PENDING WITHOUT FURTHER CONSIDERATION.
3. WHAT CONSIDERATION IF ANY, SHOULD BE GIVEN THE QUESTION OF GERMANY'S BOUNDARIES. THIS WOULD BRING UP THE WESTERN VIEW THAT THE TRANSFER OF SOME EASTERN GERMANY AREAS TO POLAND IS NOT LEGAL SINCE IT HAS NOT BEEN FORMALLY APPROVED IN A PEACE TREATY.

WASHINGTON,JAN.31-(AP)-FORMER REP.FRED A.HARTLEY (R-NJ) TESTIFIED TODAY IN THE SECOND HAROLD CHRISTOFFEL PERJURY TRIAL THAT A QUORUM OF THE HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE WAS PRESENT WHEN THE DEFENDANT DENIED HE HAD EVER BEEN A COMMUNIST.
THE QUESTION OF WHETHER A QUORUM--OR MAJORITY--OF THE 25-MAN LABOR COMMITTEE ACTUALLY HEARD THE MILWAUKEE DEFENDANT IS A KEY POINT IN THE CASE.
THE SUPREME COURT LAST YEAR TOSSED OUT CHRISTOFFEL'S CONVICTION IN 1948 ON THE SPECIFIC GROUNDS THAT IT HAD NOT BEEN PROVEN THE QUORUM WAS PRESENT.
X CHRISTOFFEL, ONE-TIME LABOR LEADER, IS CHARGED WITH NOT TELLING THE TRUTH WHEN HE TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE NOT ONLY HAD NEVER BEEN A COMMUNIST, BUT HAD NEVER HAD COMMUNIST CONNECTIONS.
HARTLEY, CO-SPONSOR OF THE TAFT-HARTLEY LABOR ACT, WAS CHAIRMAN OF THE LABOR COMMITTEE ON MARCH 1, 1947, WHEN CHRISTOFFEL WAS CALLED BEFORE IT TO TESTIFY ON LABOR MATTERS.
CHRISTOFFEL IS A FORMER PRESIDENT OF LOCAL 248 UAW-CIO AT THE ALLIS-CHALMERS COMPANY PLANT AT MILWAUKEE.
HARTLEY SAID HE ADMINISTERED THE OATH TO CHRISTOFFEL AT THE COMMITTEE SESSION, BUT THAT REP.CLARE HOFFMAN (R-MICH) DID MOST OF THE QUESTIONING.

HARTLEY SAID HE ADMINISTERED THE OATH TO CHRISTOFFEL AT THE COMMITTEE SESSION, BUT THAT REP.CLARE HOFFMAN (R-MICH) DID MOST OF THE QUESTIONING.
"WERE YOU PRESENT WHEN CONGRESSMAN HOFFMAN ASKED CHRISTOFFEL IF HE WAS THEN OR HAD EVER BEEN A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY?" ASKED JOHN S.PRATT, CHIEF GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR.
"I WAS PRESENT," HARTLEY REPLIED.

B42WX.
"DO YOU KNOW HOW MANY MEMBERS WERE PRESENT?" PRATT ASKED.
"TO THE BEST OF MY RECOLLECTION," HARTLEY ANSWERED, "THERE WERE 13 OR 14 MEMBERS PRESENT.
"I KNOW A QUORUM WAS PRESENT BECAUSE I MADE IT A RULE TO SEE THAT A QUORUM ALWAYS WAS PRESENT AT COMMITTEE SESSIONS."
HARTLEY WAS THE FIRST OF 13 MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE WHOM THE GOVERNMENT INTENDS TO CALL TO THE STAND TO TESTIFY AS TO WHETHER THEY HEARD CHRISTOFFEL.
HE WAS SUBJECTED TO A LONG GRILLING UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION BY O. JOHN ROGGE, CHIEF OF DEFENSE COUNSEL.
FEDERAL DISTRICT JUDGE F.DICKINSON LETTS SUSTAINED REPEATED OBJECTIONS BY THE GOVERNMENT TO THE LINE OF QUESTIONING TAKEN BY ROGGE.
ROGGE SAID HE WAS TRYING TO PROVE HIS CONTENTION THAT ONLY 11 MEMBERS WERE PRESENT WHEN A PRIOR WITNESS, R.J.THOMAS, FORMER VICE PRESIDENT OF UNITED AUTO WORKERS, WAS BEING QUESTIONED BY THE COMMITTEE.
HARTLEY INSISTED THAT A QUORUM WAS ALSO PRESENT WHEN THOMAS TESTIFIED.
THE COMMITTEE AT THE TIME WAS CHECKING INTO LABOR TROUBLES AND WHAT IT CLAIMED WERE SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES ON THE PART OF SOME LABOR LEADERS
EARLIER IN THE DAY, A JURY OF EIGHT WOMEN AND FOUR MEN WAS FINALLY SELECTED. IT REQUIRED NEARLY A DAY AND A HALF TO SELECT THE PANEL FROM TALESMEN. THERE WAS ONLY ONE PROSPECTIVE JUROR LEFT IN THE PANEL BOX WHEN THE TWO ALTERNATES HAD BEEN SELECTED.
THE LARGE NUMBER OF JURORS CALLED WAS THE RESULT OF A RARELY USED RULING BY LETTS THAT NO PERSON EMPLOYED BY THE GOVERNMENT OR WHO HAD NEAR RELATIVES SO EMPLOYED COULD SERVE.
IN HIS OPENING STATEMENT TO THE JURY, ROGGE SAID EVIDENCE WOULD SHOW THAT A QUORUM OF THE COMMITTEE WAS NOT PRESENT AT THE TIME CHRISTOFFEL APPEARED AND ALSO THAT CHRISTOFFEL HAD TOLD THE TRUTH.
PRATT, ON THE OTHER HAND, SAID THE GOVERNMENT WOULD PROVE THE QUORUM WAS PRESENT AND THAT CHRISTOFFEL LIED ABOUT HIS CONNECTIONS WITH COMMUNISM.

ATOMIC REPORT
BY FRANK CAREY
ASSOCIATED PRESS SCIENCE WRITER
(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN.31-(AP)-THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID TODAY ATOMIC WEAPONS ARE BEING PRODUCED, IMPROVED AND STOCKPILED AT AN EVER-GROWING PACE.

THE AEC ALSO DECLARED THAT "NEW BENCH-MARKS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT" HAVE BEEN SET IN THE LONG-RANGE PROGRAM FOR PEACETIME DEVELOPMENT OF THE ATOM'S POWER.

IN A SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS, THE COMMISSION MADE NO REFERENCE TO ANY PLANS TO DEVELOP A SUPER-BOMB EMPLOYING HYDROGEN. IT DID DISCLOSE THAT IT WAS DOING A LOT OF WORK ON STUDYING HOW THREE DIFFERENT FORMS OF HYDROGEN CAN BE USED TO PRODUCE ATOMIC ENERGY ON A LABORATORY SCALE.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SAID THAT IT'S UP TO HIM TO DECIDE WHETHER THIS NATION SHOULD TRY TO DEVELOP A HYDROGEN BOMB--UNOFFICIALLY ESTIMATED TO HAVE DESTRUCTIVE POTENTIALITIES FAR BEYOND THOSE OF URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM BOMBS.

THE AEC'S REFERENCES TO EXPERIMENTS WITH HYDROGEN WOULD SEEM TO IMPLY THAT IF PRESIDENT TRUMAN GIVES THE GO-AHEAD SIGNAL TO HIS ATOMIC TEAM, THE SCIENTISTS HAVE SOME OF THE PLANS WORKED OUT ON THE BLACK-BOARD AND ARE READY TO APPLY THEM TOWARDS SEEING IF THEY CAN DEVELOP A PRACTICAL WEAPON.

REPORTED PROGRESS ON IMPROVING AND INCREASING THE SUPPLY OF ORTHODOX WEAPONS WOULD NOT HAVE TO GO AS LOST LABOR. THE UNOFFICIAL VIEW IS THAT THE ONLY CONCEIVABLE WAY OF TOUCHING OFF A HYDROGEN BOMB WOULD ENTAIL USE OF THE EXPLOSION OF A URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM BOMB AS A "BOOSTER" OR "PRIMER" FOR THE H-BOMB.

THUS, WHATEVER IMPROVEMENTS MAY HAVE BEEN MADE IN THE BOMBS DROPPED ON JAPAN, THEY WOULD JUST INCREASE THE WALLOP OF A PERFECTED H-BOMB, WITH AN ORTHODOX BOMB "BUILT IN."

THE AEC, IN ITS SEVENTH SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS DECLARED THAT:

1. WEAPONS DEVELOPMENT AND STOCKPILING "MOVED ON AT A GROWING PACE "DURING THE PAST YEAR.

2. PRODUCTION OF WEAPONS WAS CHANGED TO AN "INDUSTRIAL TYPE OF OPERATION"--WITH A VIEW TO SWITCHING FROM A "CUSTOM BUILT" TYPE OF OPERATION TO ONE DESIGNED "WITH A VIEW TO FASTER AND MORE EFFICIENT PRODUCTION."

3. "DESIGN" OF WEAPONS WAS ADVANCED--PRESUMABLY MEANING THAT MEANS WERE ACHIEVED FOR GETTING MORE WALLOP OUT OF THE SAME AMOUNT OF EXPLOSIVE MATERIAL UTILIZED IN THE ORIGINALLY-EXPLODED A-BOMBS.

THE REPORT DECLARED THAT THE REVELATION OF RUSSIAN ACHIEVEMENT IN THE ATOMIC FIELD--AS EVIDENCED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF AN ATOMIC EXPLOSION IN THE USSR--"EMPHASIZES THE IMPORTANCE OF THE MOST EFFICIENT POSSIBLE UTILIZATION OF THE RESOURCES AVAILABLE FOR THE NATION'S ATOMIC ENERGY PROGRAM."

"MAINTENANCE OF THE AMERICAN POSITION," THE REPORT SAID, "REQUIRES A VIGOROUS, GROWING PROGRAM OF BASIC AND APPLIED RESEARCH IN NUCLEAR SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING."

"WITH FULL AWARENESS OF THE DEFICIENCIES THAT CONTINUE TO EXIST IN SCOPE AND SPEED OF OPERATIONS AND DEVELOPMENT OF SMOOTH-WORKING RELATIONSHIPS THROUGHOUT THE PROGRAM," IT CONTINUED, "THE COMMISSION NEVERTHELESS FEELS THAT AT THE END OF THREE YEARS OF ITS STEWARDSHIP, THE NATION'S ATOMIC ENTERPRISES IS ON A SOUND FOOTING."

THE AEC SAID THAT SCIENTISTS AT ITS LOS ALAMOS, NEW MEXICO, BOMB ASSEMBLY LABORATORIES WERE STUDYING REACTIONS AT DISTANCES OF ONE-FIFTH OF A MILE, WITH THE AID OF TELEVISION PROJECTORS AND RECEIVERS, AND REMOTE-CONTROL INSTRUMENTS.

THE COMMISSION ALSO SAID IT HAD JOINED WITH THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE SOUTH AFRICAN GOVERNMENT "IN CERTAIN RESEARCH PROBLEMS RELATING TO THE EXTRACTION OF URANIUM FROM SOUTH AFRICAN GOLD ORES."

"THERE ARE UNDERWAY," THE REPORT SAID, "TECHNICAL DISCUSSIONS ON THIS PROBLEM WHICH MAY LEAD TO SUBSTANTIAL URANIUM PRODUCTION FROM GOLD ORES."

THE REPORT ALSO SAID AEC HAD DISPERSED PRODUCTION FACILITIES OF ITS LOS ALAMOS LABORATORY--BRINGING A BRANCH LABORATORY AT SANDIA, N.M. INTO THE PICTURE.

THE AEC SAID THIS DISPERSAL WOULD REDUCE "THE VULNERABILITY OF THE WEAPONS PRODUCTION CHAIN IN THE EVENT OF A WAR" AND ADDED:

"IN ADDITION, IT PERMITS NEW DEVELOPMENTS TO BE INCORPORATED MORE RAPIDLY IN THE FINISHED WEAPONS."

BY FRANK CAREY
ASSOCIATED PRESS SCIENCE REPORTER

WASHINGTON, JAN.31-(AP)-PRODUCTION OF ATOMIC WEAPONS IS GOING FORWARD APACE, THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID TODAY.

THE AEC'S REPORT TO CONGRESS HINTED AT NEW AND MORE POWERFUL A-BOMBS, BUT MADE NO DIRECT REFERENCE TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE HYDROGEN "SUPER BOMB" WHICH PRESIDENT TRUMAN APPROVED TODAY.

IN ITS SEVENTH SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT, THE AEC DECLARED:

"WEAPONS DEVELOPMENT AND STOCK PILING MOVED ON AT A GROWING PACE DURING THE (PAST) YEAR.

"PRODUCTION OF WEAPONS WAS CHANGED TO AN INDUSTRIAL TYPE OF OPERATION X X X WITH A VIEW TO FASTER AND MORE EFFICIENT PRODUCTION."

THE AEC ALSO RELATED THAT "DESIGN" OF WEAPONS WAS ADVANCED--

PRESUMABLY MEANING THAT AT LEAST THEORETIC MEANS WERE ACHIEVED FOR GETTING MORE WALLOP OUT OF THE SAME AMOUNT OF EXPLOSIVE MATERIAL.

"PREPARATION BEGAN FOR FUTURE PROOF-TESTING AT THE ENIWETOK PROVING GROUND," THE REPORT SAID, ADDING:

"AEC ACTIVITIES WERE COORDINATED MORE CLOSELY WITH MILITARY ACTIVITIES AND MILITARY TRAINING."

CONGRESS WAS ALSO TOLD THAT THE OUTPUT OF FISSIONABLE MATERIALS--THE FUEL OF ATOMIC ENERGY FOR EITHER PEACE OR WAR--"SET NEW RECORDS" IN 1949 AND THAT THE NATION'S LONG-RANGE PROGRAM FOR PEACETIME DEVELOPMENT OF THE ATOM'S POWER "SET NEW BENCH MARKS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT."

WHILE IT DECLARED IT WAS FULLY AWARE THAT "DEFICIENCIES X X X CONTINUE TO EXIST" IN THE PROGRAM, THE AEC'S OVERALL SUMMATION OF ITS THREE YEARS OF STEWARDSHIP OF THE COUNTRY'S ATOMIC WORK WAS THIS: -- "THE NATION'S ATOMIC ENERGY ENTERPRISE IS ON A SOUND FOOTING."

ALLUDING TO "NEW BENCH MARKS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT", THE AEC REFERRED TO ITS PROGRAM TO "BREED" OR CREATE FISSIONABLE MATERIALS.

"WITH THE START OF CONSTRUCTION OF THIS (EXPERIMENTAL BREEDER) UNIT," THE AEC SAID, "THE PROGRAM FOR PRODUCING MORE FISSIONABLE MATERIAL AND FOR GENERATING POWER FOR FACTORIES AND HOMES AND SHIPS FROM THE ENERGY OF NUCLEAR FISSION MOVED FROM PENCIL AND PAPER PLANNING OVER TO THE BUILDING OF FULL SCALE TEST MACHINES."

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS OF THE REPORT:

1 NEGOTIATIONS ABROAD AND MINING AND PROCESSING PLANT DEVELOPMENTS AT HOME DURING THE PAST YEAR PLACED THE PROSPECTS FOR CONTINUING SUPPLIES OF PRECIOUS URANIUM ORES "ON A FIRMER BASIS."

2. CONSTRUCTION WILL START DURING THE FIRST HALF OF THIS YEAR ON THE FIRST OF NEW FACILITIES "FOR AN IMPROVED PROCESS" OF PRODUCING PLUTONIUM, A KEY ATOMIC MATERIAL.

3. THROUGH A MOVE INVOLVING THE LOS ALAMOS WEAPONS LABORATORY AND THE ARMED FORCES' SANDIA, N.M. INSTALLATION, "A STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT DISPERSAL OF THE PRODUCTION FACILITIES HAS BEEN EFFECTED, THUS REDUCING THE VULNERABILITY OF THE WEAPONS PRODUCTION CHAIN IN EVENT OF WAR."

FEB 1 - 1950

BY FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON, JA[illegible]ESIDENT TRUMAN HAS DIRECTED HIS ATOMIC TEAM TO TRY TO [illegible]GEN BOMB, THE ATTEMPTS MAY FOLLOW ONE OR BOTH OF THESE LINES

1. AN EFFORT TO SHORT-CUT THE PROCESS BY WHICH THE SUN AND OTHER STARS GET THEIR TITANIC ENERGY--THROUGH THE "FUSION" OR COMBINING OF HYDROGEN ATOMS TO FORM A NEW SUBSTANCE.

2. "BOMBARDMENT" OF THE ELEMENT LITHIUM WITH HYDROGEN ATOM NUCLEI. THIS REACTION CONCEIVABLY WOULD TAKE PLACE IN A COMPOUND CONTAINING THE TWO.

IN EITHER CASE, IT MAY BE PRESUMED THAT AN ORTHODOX ATOMIC BOMB OF URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM WOULD BE NECESSARY AS A "BOOSTER" OR "PRIMER" TO GENERATE TEMPERATURES SUFFICIENTLY HIGH TO TOUCH OFF THE SUPER-EXPLOSIVE.

VARIOUS ESTIMATES OF THE POTENTIAL POWER OF SUCH A BOMB RANGE UP TO 1,000 TIMES THE POWER OF A URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM BOMB. ONE SCIENTIST HAS SPECULATED UNOFFICIALLY ALONG THESE LINES:

THAT BARRING THE "IGNITION" OF THE HYDROGEN IN THE RIVERS AND OCEANS, THE ONLY LIMITATION ON THE DESTRUCTIVE CAPABILITIES OF A "FUSION" BOMB WOULD BE THE WEIGHT OF EXPLOSIVE MATERIAL THAT COULD BE HANDLED PRACTICALLY AND DELIVERED ON A TARGET.

THE ENERGY THAT WE LIVE BY--RADIATING ACROSS 93,000,000 MILES OF SPACE--IS GENERATED IN THE SUN BY THE FUSION OF ORDINARY HYDROGEN, WITH THE AID OF OTHER CHEMICALS, SUCH AS CARBON AND NITROGEN.

THE END RESULT IS TO CONVERT THE HYDROGEN INTO ANOTHER ELEMENT--HELIUM--WHILE AT THE SAME TIME TREMENDOUS ATOMIC ENERGY IS RELEASED. BUT THIS PROCESS ON THE SUN TAKES 5,000,000 YEARS. FOR A BOMB IT MUST BE SHORT-CUT TO A FRACTION OF A SECOND.

THE TEMPERATURE REQUIREMENT--APPROXIMATELY 20,000,000 DEGREES--WOULD CONCEIVABLY BE MET BY THE TEMPERATURES WHICH CAN BE GENERATED BY THE EXPLOSION OF A URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM BOMB.

AND IT IS CONCEIVABLE, ACCORDING TO AN UNOFFICIAL VIEW, THAT USE OF ANOTHER FORM OF HYDROGEN--CALLED "HEAVY HYDROGEN," OR DEUTERIUM--MIGHT AID IN THE SPEEDING-UP PROCESS.

THE UNOFFICIAL VIEW IS THAT A BOMB EMPLOYING THE FUSION OF DEUTERIUM WOULD RELEASE EIGHT TIMES AS MUCH ENERGY AS A URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM BOMB CONTAINING AN EQUIVALENT WEIGHT OF POTENTIALLY EXPLOSIVE MATERIAL--AND HAVING THE SAME EFFICIENCY OF EXPLOSION.

A24WX

BUT A HYDROGEN BOMB OF THE FUSION TYPE WOULD NOT HAVE THE "CRITICAL MASS" LIMITATIONS OF URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM BOMBS, AND HENCE COULD CONCEIVABLY BE BUILT AS LARGE AS WE COULD HANDLE. ONE OF THE CLOSEST-GUARDED ATOMIC SECRETS IS HOW MUCH URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM GOES INTO A BOMB. THE THEORY IS THAT WITH LESS NOTHING WOULD HAPPEN--NO EXPLOSION--AND WITH MORE THE EXCESS, AT BEST WOULD BE WASTE.

A BOMB INVOLVING THE REACTION OF LITHIUM AND HYDROGEN--IF DEVELOPED --WOULD DATE ITS ORIGIN FROM EXPERIMENTS MADE LONG BEFORE AN ATOMIC BOMB WAS DEVELOPED.

RESEARCHERS FOUND THAT WHEN THE NUCLEUS OF A HYDROGEN ATOM BOMBARDED THE NUCLEUS OF A LITHIUM ATOM, THE LITHIUM SPLIT UP INTO HELIUM, SOMEWHAT IN THE FASHION OF THE A-BOMB. GREAT ENERGY WAS RELEASED. IT HAS BEEN DESCRIBED AS THE FIRST ACTUAL EXAMPLE OF THE "SPLITTING" OF AN ATOM.

BUT WHEN THIS RESEARCH WAS DONE, IT WAS NOT CONSIDERED A PRACTICAL METHOD FOR RELEASING ATOMIC ENERGY, BECAUSE MORE ENERGY HAD TO BE EMPLOYED TO BRING THE REACTION ABOUT THAN WAS ACHIEVED FROM IT.

ONE VIEW IS THAT THE EXPLOSION OF A URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM BOMB--BUILT INTO A LITHIUM-HYDROGEN DEVICE--MIGHT CAUSE THE REACTION TO TAKE PLACE ON A LARGE SCALE, AS WOULD BE NEEDED IN A BOMB.

THE MATHEMATICS OF SCIENCE INDICATES THAT UNDER COMPARABLE CONDITIONS OF EXPLOSIVE-MATERIAL WEIGHT AND EFFICIENCY OF EXPLOSION, A LITHIUM-HYDROGEN BOMB WOULD RELEASE TWICE AS MUCH ENERGY AS A URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM BOMB.

WHETHER A LITHIUM-HYDROGEN BOMB WOULD HAVE THE "CRITICAL MASS" LIMITATIONS OF THE URANIUM OR PLUTONIUM TYPES IS NOT CLEAR.

ONE SCIENTIST HAS SPECULATED THAT A LITHIUM-HYDROGEN BOMB MIGHT INVOLVE PRINCIPLES OF "FISSION" AND CHAIN-REACTION OF THE TYPE THAT ARE INVOLVED IN THE PRESENT TYPES OF ATOMIC BOMBS.

IF THAT IS SO, THE LITHIUM-HYDROGEN TYPE MIGHT BE SUBJECT TO SIZE LIMITATIONS.

IF ATOMIC SCIENTISTS UNDERTAKE TO BUILD A BOMB EMPLOYING THE "FUSION" OF "HEAVY HYDROGEN" NUCLEI, A GUESS IS THAT THEY WOULD TURN TO "HEAVY WATER" AS THEIR SOURCE OF MATERIAL.

FEB 1 - 1950

A25WX

"HEAVY WATER" IS WATER THAT CONTAINS A HIGH PERCENTAGE OF "HEAVY HYDROGEN," OR DEUTERIUM ATOMS, PLUS OXYGEN. ORDINARY WATER CONTAINS A HIGH PERCENTAGE OF REGULAR, OR LIGHT-WEIGHT HYDROGEN.

AS HYDROGEN OCCURS IN NATURE, IT CONSISTS OF 5,000 PARTS REGULAR HYDROGEN TO EVERY PART OF THE "HEAVY" ISOTOPE, DEUTERIUM.

HYDROGEN GAS CAN BE LIQUEFIED AT EXTREMELY LOW TEMPERATURES AND PRESUMABLY THE DEUTERIUM TYPE CAN ALSO BE LIQUEFIED. THIS CONCEIVABLY MIGHT PERMIT CONCENTRATING A LOT OF EXPLOSIVE MATERIAL INTO A SMALL PACKAGE.

THERE IS A THIRD TYPE OF HYDROGEN CALLED "TRITIUM." IT IS STILL HEAVIER THAN DEUTERIUM BUT DOES NOT EXIST IN NATURE. IT IS A RADIOACTIVE MATERIAL DISCOVERED DURING ATOMIC ENERGY RESEARCH.

WASHINGTON,JAN.31-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S HYDROGEN BOMB ANNOUNCEMENT WAS BROADCAST IN A SCORE OF LANGUAGES TO FOREIGN LISTENERS TODAY BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S "VOICE OF AMERICA" RADIO.
OFFICIALS SAID THE DEVELOPMENT WAS REPORTED ON A STRAIGHT NEWS BASIS MUCH AS IT WAS HANDLED BY THE AMERICAN PRESS AND RADIO.
V641PES

URGENCY IS ADDED TO THIS ARGUMENT BY THE FACT THAT RUSSIA HAS SOLVED THE RIDDLE OF MAKING ATOMIC EXPLOSIVES. SCIENTIFIC EXPERTS GENERALLY AGREE THAT WITH THIS START THE SOVIETS ALSO CAN MAKE SUPER BOMBS.
THE CURIOUS ASPECT OF THE GRIM ARGUMENT WHICH HAS GONE ON HERE FOR WEEKS, WITH JUST ENOUGH ANGLES LEAKING OUT TO STIR FEARFUL PUBLIC INTEREST, IS THAT IT WAS CARRIED ON ALMOST ENTIRELY WITHOUT ON-THE-RECORD OFFICIAL INFORMATION.
EVEN FOR OFF-THE-RECORD INFORMATION, MOST OFFICIALS FEEL THEMSELVES BOUND BY THE TIGHT SECRECY RULES WHICH PREVAILS THROUGHOUT THE FIELD OF ATOMIC ENERGY.
NEVERTHELESS, IT WAS REPORTED AUTHORITATIVELY SEVERAL WEEKS AGO THAT A GROUP OF SCIENTISTS ON THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S STAFF HAD THREATENED REVOLT AGAINST DEVELOPMENT OF THE NEW SUPER BOMB ON MORAL GROUNDS. THIS REPORT WAS SUPPORTED PRIVATELY BY SOME MEMBERS OF THE CONGRESSIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION.
IN THE STATE AND DEFENSE DEPARTMENTS TOP OFFICIALS TOOK A POSITION SHARPLY OPPOSED TO THAT OF THE SCIENTISTS. THEY ARGUED THE QUESTION OF MORALITY DID NOT ARISE AS A SUBSTANTIAL ISSUE INSOFAR AS DEVELOPMENT OF THE SUPER BOMB WAS CONCERNED. THEY CONTENDED THAT IN THE INTERESTS OF ITS OWN DEFENSE THIS COUNTRY HAD TO GO AHEAD.

BOSTON, JAN. 31-(AP)-U.S. AMBASSADOR TO GREECE HENRY F.GRADY SAID TODAY THE WAR IN GREECE APPEARS OVER AND THAT MANY GUERILLA TROOPS APPARENTLY HAVE BEEN "REMOVED BY THEIR 'ALLIES' TO OTHER SATELLITE COUNTRIES."
GRADY'S PLANE FROM ATHENS WAS FORCED DOWN HERE BY A SNOWSTORM AND HE WENT ON BY TRAIN TO WASHINGTON WHERE HE SAID HE WOULD TALK TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON.
THE AMBASSADOR SAID IN AN INTERVIEW:
"THE GUERILLA WAR IS, FOR THE TIME BEING AT LEAST, IN EFFECT OVER. THERE ARE ONLY ABOUT 700 BANDITS LEFT IN THE COUNTRY. I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT THE GUERILLAS THAT FLED INTO ALBANIA WHEN THEY WERE SO DECISIVELY DEFEATED BY THE GREEK ARMY CAN REFORM AND ATTACK GREECE.
"IN ANY CASE," HE CONTINUED, "MANY HAVE APPARENTLY BEEN REMOVED BY THEIR 'ALLIES' TO OTHER SATELLITE COUNTRIES.
"THERE IS DANGER OF OCCASIONAL RAIDS FROM BULGARIA, LIKE THE ONE MADE RECENTLY, BUT I AM CONFIDENT THAT THE GREEK ARMY CAN MEET THIS SITUATION. WHAT I SAY ABOUT THE MILITARY SITUATION IS BASED ON THE ASSUMPTION OF NO IMPORTANT CHANGES IN THE OVER-ALL WORLD PICTURE."

KENNY WAS ONE OF THE LAST DEFENSE WITNESSES SUMMONED IN THE PERJURY TRIAL OF THE CIO LONGSHORE LABOR LEADER. BRIDGES IS ACCUSED OF LYING AT A NATURALIZATION HEARING WHEN HE SAID HE NEVER HAD BEEN A COMMUNIST.
AFTER KENNY HAD TESTIFIED HE HAD KNOWN BRIDGES FOR 13 OR 14 YEARS AS A MAN WITH A GOOD REPUTATION FOR TRUTH, HONESTY AND INTEGRITY, CHIEF PROSECUTOR F. JOSEPH DONOHUE CROSS EXAMINED THE LAWYER EXTENSIVELY AS TO HIS LEFT WING ACTIVITIES. AT ONE POINT, KENNY DENIED BEING A COMMUNIST.
HE CONCEDED AFFILIATION WITH THE AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR SPANISH FREEDOM, THE AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR PEACE AND DEMOCRACY, AND THE HOLLYWOOD ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE. HE SAID HE WASN'T AWARE WHETHER THEY WERE ON THE LIST.

A BROADCAST FROM THE CAPITAL OF RED CHINA, HEARD BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS HERE, LIMITED ITSELF TO SINKIANG. IT QUOTED A STATEMENT FROM PAO ER-HAN, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMUNIST REGIME IN THAT PROVINCE.

PAO LED OFF BY CALLING ACHESON "A NOTORIOUS LIAR OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM." HE SAID ACHESON HAD INVENTED "PREPOSTERIOUS LIES" THAT THE SOVIET UNION WAS "INVADING" SINKIANG.

"THE SOVIET UNION," THE STATEMENT WENT ON, "HAS NEVER COMMITTED AN ACT WHICH DID NOT RESPECT CHINA'S SOVEREIGN RIGHTS OR WHICH WAS DETRIMENTAL TO THE INTERESTS OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE."

"TODAY ON BEHALF OF THE 5,300,000 PEOPLE OF 14 NATIONALITIES IN SINKIANG," PAO'S STATEMENT CONCLUDED, "I DECLARE THAT SINKIANG IS AN INSEPARABLE PART OF THE TERRITORY OF THE PEOPLES (COMMUNIST) REPUBLIC OF CHINA."

NEW YORK, JAN 31-(AP)-DR.ALI SASTROAMIDJOJO, FIRST INDONESIAN AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, ARRIVED TODAY ON HIS WAY TO WASHINGTON WHERE HE WILL PRESENT HIS CREDENTIALS TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

THE AMBASSADOR, WHO CAME IN ON A KLM PLANE FROM AMSTERDAM SAID AT IDLEWILD AIRPORT, "MY PRINCIPAL JOB IS TO REPRESENT MY COUNTRY AS WELL AS POSSIBLE CULTURALLY, POLITICALLY AND ECONOMICALLY."

HE SAID HE WILL WORK IN COOPERATION WITH THE INDONESIAN MINISTER OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS, DR.RADEN DJUANDA, WHO ARRIVED LAST WEEK.

DJUANDA HAD SAID HE WOULD SEEK A $100,000,000 LOAN FROM THE UNITED STATES AND THE AMBASSADOR, REFERRING TO THIS, SAID:

"INDONESIA NEEDS SOME ASSISTANCE IN ITS RECOVERY PROGRAM AND I AM OPTIMISTIC THAT OUR RECOVERY WILL BE COMPLETE IN FOUR OR FIVE YEARS, MAYBE LESS."

DR.SASTROAMIDJOJO WOULD NOT COMMENT ON THE RECENT DISTURBANCES IN JAVA SAID TO HAVE BEEN LED BY A RENEGADE DUTCH CAPTAIN, R.P.P.WESTERLING, WHOM HE DESCRIBED AS "AN OBSCURE ADVENTURER." HE ADDED THAT THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT HAD CONDEMNED WESTERLING.

THE 46 YEAR-OLD AMBASSADOR WAS ACCOMPANIED BY HIS WIFE, HIS 21 YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER, SAWITRI, A SON, KARNA, 18 AND ANOTHER DAUGHTER, GAJATRI, ELEVEN.

HIS SECRETARY, R.N.DARMANTO AND HIS FAMILY WERE ALSO IN THE PARTY.

THEY LEFT THE AIRPORT FOR THE HOME OF LAMBERTUS N.PALAR, HEAD OF THE INDONESIAN UNITED NATIONS DELEGATION, WHERE A RECEPTION WAS PLANNED.

THE AMBASSADOR EXPECTS TO GO TO WASHINGTON NEXT WEEK.

DR.DJUANDA, MR. PALAR, DR.D.SOEMITRO, CHARGE D'AFFAIRES, AND THE DUTCH CONSUL-GENERAL, WILLEM KNOOP KOOPMANS, MET THE PARTY AT THE AIRPORT.

NEW YORK, JAN. 31-(AP)-ALLEN W. DULLES SAYS RUSSIA STARTED THE "COLD WAR" LATE IN APRIL OF 1945 WHEN PREMIER STALIN SENT TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN "THE MOST BRUTAL, DIRECT TELEGRAM WE HAD EVER RECEIVED FROM MOSCOW."

DULLES, WAR-TIME CHIEF OF THE OFFICES OF STRATEGIC SERVICES IN SWITZERLAND, TOLD THE RESERVE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION LAST NIGHT THAT THE TELEGRAM WAS A VEHEMENT PROTEST AGAINST NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE SURRENDER OF GERMAN FORCES IN ITALY.

"I HOPE SOME DAY," HE SAID, "TO SEE THE ORIGINALS OF THOSE TELEGRAMS BETWEEN THE WHITE HOUSE AND MOSCOW.

"I KNOW WHAT THEY MEAN. WHEN STALIN HEARD WHAT WE WERE DOING HE SENT THE MOST BRUTAL, DIRECT TELEGRAM WE HAD EVER RECEIVED FROM MOSCOW UP TO THAT TIME. I HAVE ALWAYS CONSIDERED THIS THE BEGINNING OF THE COLD WAR."

DULLES SAID THE SOVIET UNION WANTED NO PEACE UNTIL SHE HAD COMPLETED OCCUPATION OF AREAS SOUGHT BY THE KREMLIN. HE SAID IN GERMANY IT WAS THE EASTERN ZONE, AND ON THE ADRIATIC THE GOAL WAS TRIESTE.

HE SAID THAT IF THE NEGOTIATIONS CONDUCTED BY BRITISH AND AMERICAN COMMANDERS THROUGH THE INTERMEDIARY OF DULLES IN SWITZERLAND SUCCEEDED, THE KEY ADRIATIC PORT OF TRIESTE WOULD BE OCCUPIED BY THEM. IF THEY FAILED, IT WOULD HAVE MEANT RUSSIAN OCCUPATION.

DULLES SAID THE PLAN TO FRUSTRATE THE PEACE TALKS NEARLY SUCCEEDED. HE RECALLED THAT HE HAD THE ENEMY PLENIPOTENTIARIES IN HIDING AT LUCERNE WHEN A MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEFS OF STAFF IN WASHINGTON ORDERED HIM TO HALT.

HE SAID A FRANTIC APPEAL TO FIELD MARSHAL VICOUNT ALEXANDER, ALLIED COMMANDER IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, BROUGHT A RESUMPTION OF TALKS AND THE UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER.

DULLES SAID THAT IT HAS BEEN BUT LATELY THAT THE PART PLAYED BY THE SOVIET UNION IN 1945 HAD ASSUMED FULL SIGNIFICANCE.

THE AGENT, T.SCOTT MILLER, JR., TESTIFIED FOR THE GOVERNMENT THAT THE BRIEF ENCOUNTER TOOK PLACE IN UPPER MANHATTAN FEB. 18, 1949.

MISS COPLON'S LAWYER, ARCHIBALD PALMER, ASKED IF MILLER SAW ANYTHING PASS BETWEEN THE DEFENDANTS OR ANY ATTEMPT TO PASS ANYTHING.

MISS COPLON, 28, FORMER JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ANALYST, AND THE 32-YEAR-OLD GUBITCHEV, A RUSSIAN ENGINEER, ARE BEING TRIED ON CHARGES OF CONSPIRING TO STEAL GOVERNMENT SECRETS FOR THE REDS.

MILLER SAID HE WAS WATCHING NEAR BROADWAY AND 192ND STREET WHEN "GUBITCHEV PULLED ALONGSIDE OF MISS COPLON AND THEY TOOK THREE OR FOUR STEPS TOGETHER."

GUBITCHEV, THE AGENT SAID, "LEANED OVER AND EXTENDED HIS RIGHT ARM ACROSS HIS BODY TOWARD MISS COPLON'S BODY," THEN THE RUSSIAN STOPPED AND THE GOVERNMENT GIRL CONTINUED TO WALK NORTH.

EARLIER, MILLER TOLD OF SHADOWING MISS COPLON SO CLOSELY THAT HE WAS PRESSED AGAINST HER IN A SUBWAY CRUSH AND WAS ABLE TO PEER INTO HER HANDBAG WHEN SHE OPENED IT.

HE TESTIFIED THAT HE SAW IN THE PURSE A PIECE OF ONIONSKIN PAPER WITH TYPING ON IT, BUT COULDN'T SEE WHAT THE TYPING WAS.

NEW YORK, JAN 31-(AP)-THE NEW YORK TIMES SAID TODAY THAT A DISPUTE OVER THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S EMBARGO ON DOLLAR OIL IMPORTS--TO EXCLUDE THE PRODUCTION OF U.S. COMPANIES--HAS BEEN BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

THE TIMES REPORTED IN A WASHINGTON DISPATCH THE DISCLOSURE OF HOW THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT PROPOSED TO EXTEND ITS OWN EMBARGO ON THE DOLLAR OIL IMPORTS TO THE ENTIRE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH AFTER THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT HAD CONFINED ITSELF TO A MERE EXPRESSION OF "REGRET" AT THE NEW ORDER.

THE STORY, BY FELIX BELAIR, JR., SAID THE DISCLOSURE WAS MADE IN A LETTER FROM THE BRITISH COLONIAL SECRETARY NOW IN THE FILES OF THE NATIONAL PETROLEUM COUNCIL IN WASHINGTON.

THE LETTER, ADDRESSED TO THE AST AFRICAN GOVERNMENT

THE LETTER, ADDRESSED TO THE EAST AFRICAN GOVERNMENT AT NAIROBI, CAUSED SUCH A STORM OF PROTEST WHEN READ AT A RECENT MEETING OF THE COUNCIL THAT IT HAS BEEN BROUGHT TO THE ATTENTION OF MR. TRUMAN, THE TIMES SAID.

CHAIRMAN TOM CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE IS EXPECTED TO BRING THE DOCUMENT TO THE ATTENTION OF THE COMMITTEE THIS WEEK, ACCORDING TO THE STORY.

THE TIMES SAID THERE HAS BEEN NO DISCLOSURE OF HOW THE LETTER WAS OBTAINED BY THE NATIONAL PETROLEUM COUNSEL, OFFICIAL ADVISORY BODY TO THE U.S. INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

COUNCIL MEMBERS CONTEND, THE TIMES STORY SAID, THAT THE LETTER "PROVES THE BRITISH INTENTION TO EXCLUDE OIL PRODUCED BY UNITED STATES COMPANIES, NOT ONLY FROM ENGLAND AND THE COLONIES, BUT FROM THE ENTIRE COMMONWEALTH AND THE STERLING AREA."

(ADVANCE) (WX) NEW YORK, JAN 31-(AP)-ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C. MCGHEE SAID TODAY THAT INDIA AND PAKISTAN CAN SPEED THEIR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BY GIVING GREATER ENCOURAGEMENT TO THE INVESTMENT OF AMERICAN CAPITAL.

"THE DESIRES OF SOUTH ASIA FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND THE DESIRES OF AMERICAN CAPITAL FOR PRODUCTION RUN PARALLEL," MCGHEE SAID IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR THE FAR EAST-AMERICA COUNCIL OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY.

"AMERICAN CAPITAL HAS NO DESIRE TO DOMINATE ANY FOREIGN COUNTRY," MCGHEE SAID. "TO THE CONTRARY, OUR INVESTORS OPERATE WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE SOCIAL OBJECTIVES AND LAWS OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES. IF THAT FRAMEWORK IS TOO INHOSPITABLE OR RESTRICTIVE, THEY CONCLUDE THAT THEY ARE NOT WANTED AND STAY AWAY.

"I SHOULD ALSO MAKE IT CLEAR," HE ADDED "THAT OUR INVESTORS CAN NOT AND DO NOT WISH TO COMPETE WITH GOVERNMENT OWNED ENTERPRISES IN THE SAME FIELD."

MCGHEE SAID IT IS NOT NECESSARY FOR AMERICANS TO INVEST ABROAD BECAUSE "INVESTMENT POSSIBILITIES IN THIS COUNTRY ARE STILL GREAT, AND RATES OF RETURN ARE ATTRACTIVE. X X X

"NEVERTHELESS," HE CONTINUED, "FOREIGN INVESTMENT THAT WOULD STIMULATE EXPANDING PRODUCTION ABROAD WOULD HELP US OBTAIN GOODS OUR CONSUMERS WANT, AS WELL AS INCREASE THE POSSIBILITIES FOR HIGHER LIVING STANDARDS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES."

MCGHEE QUESTIONED WHETHER INDIA AND PAKISTAN CAN ACHIEVE THROUGH NATIONAL OWNERSHIP AND CONTROL THE DEVELOPMENT THEY DESIRE BECAUSE OF EXISTING SHORTAGES OF ADMINISTRATIVE AND TECHNICAL SKILL AND USABLE CAPITAL.
